The Black Rose Rud Elle, 9:30 pm, $5, 21+.
Blackman Theatre Bill Pierce Quartet, Mulgrew Miller, 8 pm, $10-$25.
Bob's Southern Bistro Elan Trotman, 7:30 pm, $5.
Boston Harbor Hotel Jeff Hicks Trio, 7:30 pm, no cover.
Bravo at the MFA Ron Poster, 5:30 pm, no cover.
Bristol Lounge Joe Morocco, 6 pm; Joe Barbato, 9:30 pm, no cover, 21+.
Bull Run Restaurant Hary Hoey, 8 pm.
Cantab Lounge The Cello Chix, Temper, Chaz & the Legendary Motorbikes, the Jumpoff, 9 pm, $7, 21+.
Club Passim Owen Plant, Ryanhood, 7 pm, 11 pm, $11-$13.
Copperfield's The High Rise, 8 pm, 21+.
Dante's of Quincy Lois Greco Band, 9 pm, $6, 21+.
Dick's Last Resort Spogga, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.
Felt Emergency Broadcast System, 9 pm, 21+.

BLACKJACK℠
PASTA BAR

Try the best Lobster Ravioli in Boston for the best price!
$12.95

Have one of our 21 sauces over any one of our 17 freshly made pastas and raviolis.

We cater to vegetarians.

First time callers get 20% off, just mention this ad!

52 Queensberry Street, Boston
617-266-1313

Order online at Blackjackpasta.com | Ask for our Catering Menu
Free Delivery to Boston and Cambridge

Grand Canal Magnus, 9:30 pm, $5, 21+.
The Green Dragon Tavern Scooby Snax, 10 pm, $5, 21+.
The Harp Stuck in a Decade, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.
Hennessy's Downstairs: Incadence, 9 pm, $5, 21+. Upstairs: Last Laugh, 9 pm, $5, 21+.
Jacob Wirth Mel Stiller, 8 pm, no cover, 21+.
Johnny D's Beatle Juice, 9:30 pm, $10, 21+.
Kinsale Groovestone, 9 pm, no cover 21+.
Lily Pad Colin Stack, Novelty Act, 7:30 pm, $10 suggested donation, all ages; Va Va China, 10 pm, $10 suggested donation, all ages.
Lizard Lounge Damian Israel Shinter, Kaiser Cartel, Sand Machine, 9 pm, $10, 21+.
Matt Murphy's Ten Tumbao, 11 pm, no cover, 21+.
Middle East Upstairs: Wheat, Neil Clearly, $10 in advance, $12 at the door. Downstairs: Black Lips, the Selmanaires, $12, 18+.
Mohegan Sun ZZ Top, 8 pm, $30-$50.
Mr. Dooley's Eamonn Sheehan, 5 pm; Sunday's Well, 9 pm, $5, 21+.
Oak Bar Bill Laughlin Jazz Quartet, 8:15 pm, no cover, 21+.
O'Brien's 18 Wheels of Justice, Hostle Takeover, Inner Self Lost, 9 pm, $7, 21+.
Paddy O's Vivid, 10 pm, $5, 21+.
Paradise Lounge Reilly James, 9 pm, $12, 18+.
Paradise Rock Club Alternate Routes, 8 pm, $12, 18+.
Parris Joe Bachman & the Crew, 10 pm, $10, 21+.
PA's Drug Rug, Viva Viva, the Dead Trees, Wonderful Spells, 9 pm, $6-$8, 21+.
Regattabar Michel Camilo Trio, 7:30 and 10 pm, $30, 21+.
Revolution Rock Bar Downstairs: Frank White, 9 pm, $5-$10, 21+.
Scullers Jazz Club Maysa, 8 pm, $26-$66.
Somerville Theatre Nick Lowe, 7:30 pm, $25.
Taj Boston Street Bar Eugene Maslov, 6 pm, no cover, 21+.
Terrace Lounge Downtown Fever, 9:30 pm, no cover, 21+.
Toad Organ-ism, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.
Tommy Doyles Bad News, Michelle Lewis, 9:30 pm, $2, 21+.
Top of the Hub Tony Carelli Group, 9 pm, no cover.
ZuZu Joseph Colbourne, 11 pm, no cover, 21+.
Les Zygomates Ronnie Ron Trio, 8 pm, no cover.

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 22

Abbey Lounge Main stage: Mr. Airplane Ma ger and the Pussycats, the Almighty Terribles tal Rats, 9 pm, $8, 21+. Pub stage: Jenny M 21+.
Asgard Chillset, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.
Bank of America Pavilion Michael McDona pm, $23.50-$60.
Berklee Performance Center Global Mala Krishna Das, Jon Kabat-Zinn, 7 pm, $18-$55.
Bill's Bar Tides, Violet Nine, My So Called 8:30 pm, $10, 18+.
Black Horse Tavern Jes Perry, 9 pm, no cover.
The Black Rose Rud Elle, 9:30 pm, $5, 21+.
Blackman Theatre John Coltrane Memorial ble, Ravi Coltrane Quartet, Amiri Baraka, 7 $10-$25.
Bob's Southern Bistro Herman Johnson, 7:30
Bristol Lounge Joe Morocco, 6 pm; Alexei T 9:30 pm, no cover, 21+.
The Burren Red Square, 10 pm, $5, 21+.
Cantab Lounge Lost & Found, 9 pm; Adan 10 pm; the Road, 11 pm; Refunct, 12 am, $7, Club Passim Jake Armerding, Neil Cleary, 8 $15.
Dante's of Quincy Jump City Band, $6, 9 pm
DCR Memorial Hatch Shell The Boston Blu val, 12 pm, no cover.
Dick's Last Resort Soul City, 10 pm, no cove
Grand Canal Fast Times, 9:30 pm, $5, 21+.
Great Scott The Information, 9 pm, $9, 21+.
The Green Dragon Tavern Four Inch Stud $5, 21+.
The Harp Stuck in a Decade, 10 pm, $10, 21
Hennessy's Downstairs: Sweep the Leg, 9 21+. Upstairs: Vivid, 9 pm, $5, 21+.
Johnny D's Tim Blane, 9:45 pm, $10, 21+.
Matt Murphy's A Balaczs, 11 pm, no cover, 2
Mohegan Sun Paul Anka, 8 pm, $45.
Mr. Dooley's Sunday's Well, 9:30 pm, $5, 21-
Oak Bar Bill Laughlin Jazz Quartet, 8:15 cover, 21+.
O'Brien's PanzerBastard, Psycho, Revocati Junky Alex Onslaught, Heavy Metal Breakdc 9 pm, $7, 21+.
Paradise Rock Club Eclectic Collective, Thomas, 8 pm, $12, 18+.
Parris Joe Bachman & the Crew, 10 pm, $10

York band Interpol keeps Agganis Arena safe for international rocking Sept. 12.

Choo Choo La Rouge, Swimmers, Albumen, 9 5-$8, 21+.
e Shamrock Syndicate, 10 pm, $5, 21+.
tabar Michel Camilo, Charles Flores, Dafnis
, 7:30 pm, $30.
Sam Black Church 20 yr Reunion Show, 5:30 20, 18+.
rs Jazz Club Maysa: dinner and show, $66;
nly, $26.
water Cafe Rich Schroder, 8 pm, no cover, 21+.
ston Street Bar Ron Zack, 6 pm, no cover 21+.
e Lounge Downtown Fever, 9:30 pm, no cover,

Girls Guns and Glory, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.
y Doyles Rane, David Cain and the Neighbor-Band, The Migration, 9:30 pm, $2, 21+.
the Hub Tony Carelli Group, 9 pm, no cover.
e Bear's Place HeavyTrash, Jon Spencer & erta Ray, Powersolo, The Konks, 9 pm, $10-8+.
er Center Toby Keith, Miranda Lambert, 7:30 6-$72.
irs at Union Street Backstage Pass, 10 pm, $5-1+.
Soul-le-lu-jah, John Funke, 11 pm, no cover, gomates Al Vega Quartet, 8 pm, no cover.

IDAY, SEPTEMBER 23

Lounge Main stage: Dis-n-Dat Band, Pick Up
Maya, Art Don't Play, 9 pm, $7, 21+.
od's Tavern Dennis Brennan & the Iodine
rs, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.
e Performance Center David Gilmore Group,
n.
Southern Bistro Henri Smith & Nat Simpkins
10 am.
at the MFA Ron Poster, 11:30 am, no cover.
Lounge Dan Greenspan, 11 am; Joe Morocco,
no cover, 21+.
urren Singer Songwriter Series with Danielle
m, $5, 21+.
assim Woodwork, 7:30 pm, $10-$12.
Memorial Hatch Shell The Boston Blues Festi-
pm, no cover.
Last Resort Jonno, 7 pm, no cover, 21+ after 9

Scott The Handsome Family, Frank Smith, ny the Bookie Orchestra, 9 pm, $10, 18+.
reen Dragon Tavern The Swinging Johnsons,
no cover, 21+.
rs Ferry Grand Buffet, 7 pm, $10, 18+.
ssy's Downstairs: Sweep the Leg, 9 pm, no 21+. te of Contemporary Art Mission of Burma, 4
pm, $20-$25.
d David Maxwell, 7 pm, $10 suggested dona-ll ages; Gill Aharon Trio, 10 pm, $10 suggested on, all ages.
Lounge The Jeff Robinson Trio, 9:30 pm, $5,

Murphy's Void Union, 11 pm, no cover, 21+.
East Downstairs: Aesop Rock, $20, 18+.
oley's Mike Barrett, 8 pm, no cover, 21+.
n's Collin of Arabia, Hirudinea, New Lows, al Mob, 9 pm, $7, 21+.
um Ben Harper & the Innocent Criminals,
accini, 7:30 pm, $35-$50, all ages.
O's The Gobshites, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

Paradise Lounge Battle of the Bands, 5 pm, $8 in advance, $10 at the door, 18+.
Paradise Rock Club Klaxons, Mystery Jets, 7 pm, $15, 18+.
PA's Carol Bui, Pash, Anthems for Odyssey, 9 pm, $6-$8, 21+.
Terrace Lounge Ray Santisi Trio, 5:30 pm, no cover, 21+.
Toad Chritie Leigh, 8 pm, no cover, 21+; Miss Tees and the Bon Ton Parade, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.
Top of the Hub Lee Childs Group, 12 pm, no cover; Marty Ballou Trio, 8 pm, no cover.
T.T. the Bear's Place Trucker, Guyz Nite, 9:15 pm, $7, 18+.
ZuZu Professor Z, Kavalier, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 24

Abbey Lounge Zip Tie Handcuffs, Siddhartha, Viper Rash, 9 pm, $7, 21+.
Atwood's Tavern The Tim Gearan Band, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.
Bristol Lounge Alexei Tsiganov, 6 pm, no cover, 21+.
Club Passim Matt the Electrician, Melvern Taylor & His Fabulous Meltones, 8 pm, $5-$10.
Dick's Last Resort Keith Lewis, 7 pm, no cover, 21+ after 9 pm.
Great Scott Bat for Lashes, 9 pm, $10, 18+.
Hennessy's Downstairs: Joe Carson, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.
Lily Pad The Fringe, 10 pm, $10 suggested donation, all ages.
Matt Murphy's Last Monday, 11 pm, no cover, 21+.
Middle East Upstairs: Trampled by Turtles, $9; Downstairs: Drowningpool: This Is for the Soldiers Tour, the Exies, $16 in advance, $18 at the door, 18+.
Paddy O's Mike Dunlea, 8 pm, no cover, 21+.
Paradise Lounge The Soul Power Tour, 7 pm, $8 in advance, $10 at the door, 18+.
Paradise Rock Club Turbonegro, Mondo Generator, 7 pm, $18 in advance, $20 at the door, 18+.
Toad The Tim Gearan Band, 10:46 am, no cover, 21+; Shwang, Anita Suhanin, 8 pm, no cover, 21+.
Top of the Hub Marty Ballou Trio, 8 pm, no cover.
T.T. the Bear's Place Scott Janovitz of the Great Bandini, Brian Sullivan of Dylan in the Movies, Patrick Emswiler of the Spaceshots, 8:30 pm, $3, 18+.
Les Zygomates Jam Session, 8 pm, no cover.

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 25

Abbey Lounge Main stage: Faulty Conscience, Bad Ash, The Have-Nots, Left On Base, 9 pm, $7, 21+. Pub stage: Dave Mirabella, Eric Hellway, Dan Cray, 21+.
Atwood's Tavern Miller and Brewer, 6 pm, no cover, 21+; Hokums Heros, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.
Axis The Subhumans, 7 pm, $12, all ages.
Bristol Lounge Joe Barbato, 6 pm, no cover, 21+.
Dick's Last Resort Keith Lewis, 7 pm, no cover, 21+.
The Foundation Lounge Torch Tuesdays with Jeanie Flynn and the Strays, 8 pm, no cover, 21+.
Great Scott The Campaign for Real Time, Mad Man Films, Mistaker, Maceo Gillece, Mike Fournier, 9 pm, $7, 18+.
The Green Dragon Tavern Dave Leib, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.
Hennessy's Downstairs: Scott Damgaard, 9 pm, no cover, 21+ .
Johnny D's Ukulele Noir, 8:30 pm, $10, 21+.
Kinsale Tom Courtney, 7 pm, no cover, 21+.

Lily Pad Peter Cassino, 10 pm, $10 suggested donation, all ages.
Lizard Lounge David Johnston, 9 pm, $5, 21+.
Matt Murphy's Public House, 11 pm, no cover, 21+.
Middle East Upstairs: Tulsa, Hats and Glasses, $8. Downstairs: Okkervil River, Damien Jurado, $10 in advance, $12 at the door, 18+.
Oak Bar Rebecca Cline, 8 pm, no cover, 21+.
Paddy O's Mike Dunlea, 8 pm, no cover, 21+.
Paradise Lounge Fire in the Youth Tour: the B-Side Players, Salvador Santana Band, Cipes and the People, 8 pm, $10 in advance, $12 at the door 18+.
Paradise Rock Club Cinematic Orchestra, 7 pm, $16 in advance, $18 at the door 18+.
PA's Siushou no Fume, 9 pm, $6-$8, 21+.
Roxy Devendra Banhart, 8 pm, $18, all ages.
Taj Boston Street Bar Bill Duffy, 6 pm, no cover 21+.
Toad Joey John, 8 pm, no cover, 21+; the Andrea Gillis Band, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.
Tommy Doyles Tuesday Acoustic Showcase, 9:30 pm, no cover, 21+.
Top of the Hub Bob Nieske Trio, 8:30 pm, no cover.
T.T. the Bear's Place Swillmerchants, Karwreck, the Psychosocials, 9 pm, $7, 18+.
Les Zygomates Harry Fix Solo Piano, 8 pm, no cover.

Music Venues

Abbey Lounge 3 Beacon St., Somerville (617-441-9631). MBTA: Red Line to Central.
Agganis Arena 925 Comm Ave., Boston (617-353-4628). MBTA: B Green Line to Pleasant.
All Asia Café 334 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-497-1544). MBTA: Red Line to Central.
Asgard 350 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-577-9100). MBTA: Red Line to Kendall/MIT.
Atrium The Regal Bostonian Hotel , 20 North St., Boston (617-523-3600). MBTA: Blue or Green Line to Gov. Center.
The Attic 107 Union St., Newton (617-964-6684). MBTA: D Green Line to Newton Centre.
Atwood's Tavern 877 Cambridge St., Cambridge (617-864-2792). MBTA: Red Line to Kendall/MIT.
Avalon 15 Lansdowne St., Boston (617-262-2424). MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore.
Axis 13 Lansdowne St., Boston (617-262-2437). MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore.
Berklee Performance Center 136 Mass Ave., Boston (617-747-2261). MBTA: Green Line to Hynes.
Bill's Bar 5½ Lansdowne St., Boston (617-421-9678). MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore.
The Black Horse Tavern Faneuil Hall Marketplace, Boston (617-227-2038). MBTA: Blue or Green Line to Gov. Center.
The Black Rose 160 State St., Boston (617-742-2286). MBTA: Blue or Green Line to Gov. Center.
Blackman Theatre 360 Huntington Ave., Boston (617-373-2000). MBTA: E Green Line to Northeastern.
Bob's Southern Bistro 604 Columbus Ave., Boston (617-536-6204). MBTA: Orange Line to Mass. Ave.
Boston Harbor Hotel 70 Rowes Wharf, Boston (617-439-7000). MBTA: Red Line to South Station.
Bravo @ the MFA 465 Huntington Ave., Boston (617-369-3474). MBTA: E Green Line to Museum.
Breezeway 153 Blue Hill Ave., Roxbury (617-541-5400). MBTA: Orange Line to Jackson.
Bristol Lounge 200 Boylston St., Boston (617-351-2052). MBTA: Green Line to Arlington.
The Burren 247 Elm St., Somerville (617-776-6896). MBTA: Red Line to Davis.
Cantab Lounge 738 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-354-2685). MBTA: Red Line to Central.
Cask 'n Flagon 62 Brookline Ave., Boston (617-536-4840). MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore.
Club Café 209 Columbus Ave., Boston (617-536-0966). MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay.
Club Passim 47 Palmer St., Cambridge (617-492-7679). MBTA: Red Line to Harvard.
Common Ground 85 Harvard Ave., Allston (617-783-2071). MBTA: B Green Line to Harvard.
Copperfield's 98 Brookline Ave., Boston (617-247-8605). MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore.
Dick's Last Resort Faneuil Hall Marketplace, Boston (617-267-8080). MBTA: Blue or Green Line to Gov. Center.
The Draft 34 Harvard Ave., Allston (617-783-9400). MBTA: B Green Line to Harvard.
The Enormous Room 567 Mass. Ave., Camridge (617-491-5599). MBTA: Red Line to Central.
Felt 533 Washington St., Boston (617-350-5555). MBTA: Red or Orange Line to Downtown Crossing.
Fireplace 1634 Beacon St., Brookline (617-975-1900). MBTA: C Green Line to Washington.
First Act Guitar Studio 745 Boylston St., Boston (617-226-7899). MBTA: Green Line to Copley.
The Foundation Lounge Hotel Commonwealth, Kenmore Square, 500 Comm. Ave., Boston (617-859-9900). MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore.
The Good Life Downtown 28 Kingston St., (617-451-2622). MBTA: Red or Green Line to
Grand Canal 57 Canal St., Boston (617-523. MBTA: Green or Orange Line to North Station.
Great Scott 1222 Comm. Ave., Allston (6 9014). MBTA: D Green Line to Longwood.
The Green Briar 304 Washington St., Brighto 789-4100).
The Green Dragon Tavern 11 Marshall St., (617-367-0055). MBTA: Green or Orange Haymarket.
Green Street 280 Green St., Cambridge (6 1655). MBTA: Red Line to Central.
The Harp 85 Causeway St., Boston (617-742 MBTA: Green or Orange Line to North Station.
Harpers Ferry 158 Brighton Ave., Allston (6 9743). MBTA: B Green Line to Harvard.
Hennessy's 25 Union St., Boston (617-742 MBTA: Blue or Green Line to Gov. Center.
High Street Grill 200 High St., Boston (6 4000). MBTA: Red or Orange Line to Do Crossing.
Johnny D's 17 Holland St., Somerville (6 2004). MBTA: Red Line to Davis.
Joshua Tree 256 Elm St., Somerville (617-623 MBTA: Red Line to Davis.
Kendall Café 233 Cardinal Medeiros Ave., Ca (617-547-3802). MBTA: Red Line to Kendall/
Kennedy's Midtown 42 Province St., Bosto 426-3333). MBTA: Green or Red Line to Park
Kings 10 Scotia St., Boston (617-266-2695). Green Line to Hynes.
Kinsale 2 Center Plaza, Boston (617-742 MBTA: Blue or Green Line to Gov. Center.
Lily Pad 1353 Cambridge St., Cambridge (6 1393). MBTA: Red Line to Central.
Lizard Lounge 1667 Mass. Ave., Cambrid 547-0759). MBTA: Red Line to Harvard.
Lucky's Lounge 355 Congress St., Boston (6 5825). MBTA: Red Line to South Station.
Matt Murphy's 14 Harvard St., Brookline (6 0188). MBTA: D Green Line to Brookline Villa
Middle East 472 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (6 9181). MBTA: Red Line to Central.
Midway Café 3496 Washington St., Jamai (617-524-9038). MBTA: Orange Line to Gree
Milky Way 403 Centre St., Jamaica Plain (6 3740). MBTA: Orange Line to Jackson.
Millennium Bostonian Hotel 26 North St. (617-523-3600). MBTA: Blue or Green Line Center.
Mohegan Sun 1 Mohegan Sun Blvd., Ur Conn. (888-226-7711).
Mr. Dooley's 77 Broad St., Boston (617-33 MBTA: Blue or Green Line to Gov. Center.
Oak Bar Fairmont Copley Plaza Hotel, 138 Ave., Boston (617-267-5300). MBTA: Gree Copley.
O'Brien's 3 Harvard Ave., Allston (617-78 MBTA: B Green Line to Harvard.
John D. O'Bryant African American Institut 360 Huntington Ave., Boston (617-37 MBTA: E Green Line to Northeastern.
Opera House 539 Washington St., Boston (2442). MBTA: Green Line to Boylston.
Orpheum Theatre 31 Hamilton Place, Bost 679-0810). MBTA: Green Line to Boylston.
Paddy O's 33 Union St., Boston (617-742-21. MBTA: Green or Orange Line to Haymarket.
Paradise Lounge 969 Comm. Ave., Boston (8800). MBTA: B Green Line to Pleasant.
Paradise Rock Club 969 Comm. Ave., Bost 562-8800). MBTA: B Green Line to Pleasant.
Parris Faneuil Hall Marketplace, Boston (9900). MBTA: Blue or Green Line to Gov. Ce
PA's 345 Somerville Ave., Somerville (617-77 MBTA: Green or Blue Line to Gov. Center.
Plough & Stars 912 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (0032). MBTA: Red Line to Central.
Purple Shamrock 1 Union St., Boston (2060). MBTA: Blue or Orange Line to State.
Regattabar Charles Hotel, Cambridge (7757). MBTA: Red Line to Harvard.
Revolution Rock Bar 200 High St., Boston (4200). MBTA: Blue Line to Aquarium.
Roggies 356 Chestnut Hill Ave., Brighton (1880). MBTA: Green Line to Cleveland Circl
Roxy 279 Tremont St., Boston (617-33 MBTA: Green Line to Boylston.
Ryles Jazz Club 212 Hampshire St., Cambri 876-9330). MBTA: Red Line to Central.
Sanders Theatre 45 Quincy St., Cambridge (2222). MBTA: Red Line to Harvard.
Scullers Jazz Club 400 Soldiers Field Road, C (617-562-4111). MBTA: Red Line to Central water Café 3 Boylston St., Boston (617-351- MBTA: Green Line to Boylston.
75 Chestnut 75 Chestnut St., Boston (617-22 MBTA: Red Line to Charles/MGH.
Somerville Theatre 55 Davis Square, Somer 625-5700). MBTA: Red Line to Davis.

ony Hall 301 Massachusetts Ave., Boston (617 92). MBTA: Green Line to Symphony. knorth Garden 100 Legends Way, '617-624-1000). MBTA: Green or Orange Line n Station. ton Street Bar 15 Arlington St., Boston (617- 00) MBTA: Green Line to Arlington.
e Lounge 110 Huntington Ave., Boston (617- 00). MBTA: E Green Line to Prudential.
912 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-497- MBTA: Red Line to Porter.
Doyles 96 Winthrop St., Cambridge (617-225- MBTA: Red Line to Harvard.
the Hub Prudential Tower, Boston (617-536- MBTA: E Green Line to Prudential.
s Arena 300 Martin Luther King Jr. Way, Lowell 78-6900). MBTA: Commuter Rail to Lowell.
e Bear's Place 10 Brookline St., Cambridge 02-2327). MBTA: Red Line to Central.
's at Union Street 107 Union St., Newton 04-6684). MBTA: Green Line to Newton Centre.
a 20 Ericsson St., Dorchester (617-436-3120). Red Line to Ashmont.
estern Front 343 Western Ave., Cambridge 02-7772). MBTA: Red Line to Central.
r Bar 186 Harvard Ave., Boston (617-351- MBTA: B Green Line to Harvard Ave.
772 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-864-3278). Red Line to Central. gomates 129 South St., Boston (617-542- MBTA: Red Line to South Station.

assical usic

RSDAY, SEPTEMBER 13

estra of Tangier
n Franklin Institute of Technology, 41 Berkeley ston (866-636-2295). www.menamusic.org. Orange Line to Back Bay. 8 pm. $25-$35; $20 if tickets ordered using code: Improper. Ahmed Zaitouni leads the Orchestra of Tangier in classical Moroccan and Andalusian works, featuring vocalist Abderrahim Souiri.

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 14

Boston Guitar Project
Third Life Studio, 33 Union Square, Somerville (203-228-2751). www.linguitar.com/bostonguitarproject. MBTA: Red Line to Porter. 8 pm. $15. French guitar virtuoso Thibault Cauvin performs Baroque, jazz and original compositions.

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 15

Andover Chamber Music Series
Rogers Center for the Arts, 315 Turnpike St., North Andover (978-474-6222). www.andoverchambermusic series.org. 7:30 pm. $25-$35. In the chamber's opening concert, artistic director and flutist Julie Scolnik performs works by George Gershwin, John Harbison and John Musto.

Calliope
Marsh Chapel, Boston University, 735 Comm. Ave., Boston (617-759-2057). www.calliopemusic.org. MBTA: B Green Line to BU Central. 7:30 pm. $25. The music ensemble Calliope performs Gabriel Fauré's Requiem, Maurice Duruflé's Motets sur des Thèmes Grégoriens, Boshuslav Martinu's Nonet and Samuel Barber's Easter Chorale and Sure on the Shining Night.

Dünya, the Turkish/World Music Organization
First Church Cambridge, 11 Garden St., Cambridge (617-661-18734). www.firstchurchcambridge.org. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 8:30 pm. $15-$20. This concert features Turkish sufi and secular music as well as Greek-Orthodox music.

Longy School of Music
Edward Pickman Concert Hall, Boston (617-876-0956). www.longy.edu. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 8 pm. Free. Soprano Karyl Ryczek, pianist Wayman Chin and violinist Roger Tapping perform a program of contemporary American music, along with Rebecca Clarke's viola sonata.

SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 16

The Boston Conservatory
Seully Hall, 8 The Fenway, Boston (617-912-9222). www.bostonconservatory.edu. MBTA: Green Line to

SEPTEMBER 12TH THROUGH SEPTEMBER 30TH

HUDSON

PURVEYOR OF FINE HOME FURNISHINGS AND ACCESSORIES

SEMI ANNUAL SALE

Save up to 40% off selected items

&

Take 15% off any new custom orders

312 Shawmut Avenue
Boston, MA 02118
phone: 617 292 0900

info@hudsonboston.com
www.hudsonboston.com

Open 7 days a week.

BOSTON'S BEST 2007 WINNER IMPROPER BOSTONIAN

arned Our Reputation for Wings - Tender Fall-off-the-Bone BBQ Ribs - Meltdown Mudslide Pie - All-U-Can Eat Midnight Madness Buffet

"BEST BEER BAR"

SUNSET GRILL & TAP
BEST OF BOSTON HALL OF FAME
112 TAPS
HOME OF THE YARD & TABLE TAP!

SUNSET GRILL & TAP
130 Brighton Ave
617.254.1331
Good Eats til 1am

SUNSET CANTINA
BEST OF BOSTON 2003
MARGARITA
112 TEQUILAS
916 Comm. Ave
617.731.8646
www.allstonsfinest.com
outdoor seating!

Juicy BBQ Steak Tips - Legendary Brewers Sunday Brunch - Sour Cream-n-Chive Fries

Best Fries" "Best Beer Selection" "Best Beer Selection" "Best Cheap Eats" "Best Beer Selection" "Best Beer Bar" "Best Margarita"

ome Beer-Steamed Burgers - All-U-Can Eat Lunch Taco Bar - Giant Fiesta South-of-the-Border Nachos - Sizzlin' Smokin' Fajitas

Hynes. 5 pm. Free. The New England Bassoon Quartet, featuring Suzanne Nelsen, Ardith Keef, Margaret Phillips and Janet Polk, performs works by Mozart, Brahms, Schumann and others.

Boston Guitar Project
Brookline United Parish, 210 Harvard St., Brookline (203-228-2751). www.linguitar.com/bostonguitar project. MBTA: C Green Line to Coolidge Corner. 3 pm. $15. See Sept. 14 listing.

Isabella Stewart Gardner Museum
280 The Fenway, Boston (617-566-1401). www.gardnermuseum.org. 1:30 pm. $10-$23. Award-winning pianist Chu-Fang performs Haydn's Sonata in E , Hob. XVI: 31 and Sonata in B minor, Hob XVI: 32; Schumann's Fantasia in C , Op. 17; sonatas by Domenico Scarlatti; and Maurice Ravel's La Valse.

Longy School of Music
Edward Pickman Concert Hall, Boston (617-876-0956). www.longy.edu. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 7 pm. Free. Cellists Michael Bonner and Junko Fujiwara-Simons, pianists Lyubov Shlain, Robert Merfeld and Sandra Hebert, violinist Kirsi Perttuli, baritone Anton Belov and soprano Jayne West perform works by Edward Elgar, Maurice Ravel and Joaquín Turina.

Museum of Fine Arts
465 Huntington Ave., Boston (617-267-9300). www.mfa.org. MBTA: E Green Line to Museum. 3:30 pm. $20-$25. The Boston Museum Trio, with Gonzalo Ruiz on baroque oboe, perform works by Bach, Georg Philipp Telemann and Dieterich Buxtehude.

New England Conservatory
Jordan Hall, 30 Gainsborough St., Boston (617-585-1260). www.newenglandconservatory.edu. MBTA: E Green Line to Symphony. Free. •2 pm. Flutist Fenwick Smith, harpsichordists John Gibbons and John Heiss, cellists Laura Blustein and Rhonda Ryder and pianist Sally Pinkas perform works by CPE Bach, Jean-Marie Leclair, Karl Marx and others. •7 pm. Free. Pianist Anne Tyson and violinist Dianne Pettipaw perform works by JS Bach, Beethoven and Ellen Taaffe.

Newton Free Library Concert Program
330 Homer St., Newton (617-796-1360). www.ci.newton.ma.us/library. 2 pm. Free. Violinist Unky-oung Kim performs works by Bach, Mozart, Handel and others, featuring Jhughun Song on viola.

Weekly Bach Cantata
Emmanuel Church, 15 Newbury St., Boston (617-536-3356). www.emmanuelmusic.org. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. 10 am. Free. Craig Smith conducts the Orchestra and Chorus of Emmanuel Music in JS Bach's cantata BWV 163, Nur Jedem das Seine.

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 18

King's Chapel
58 Tremont St., Boston (617-227-2155). www.kings-chapel.org. MBTA: Blue or Green Line to Gov. Center. 12:15 pm. $3 suggested donation. Cellist Audrey Cienniwa and harpsichordist Paul Cienniwa perform works by JS Bach.

New England Conservatory
Williams Hall, 30 Gainsborough St., Boston (617-585-1260). www.newenglandconservatory.edu. MBTA: E Green Line to Symphony. 8 pm. Free. Violinists Gershon Gerchikov, Shaw Pong Liu, Tessa Frederick, Molly Baer, Sara Kim and Yung Jung Yang and pianists Eliko Akahori, Agnes Huang, Yelena Beriyeva, and Yue Chu perform sonatas by Mozart.

WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 19

Carthage Consort
Tishman Common, 106 Central St., Wellesley (781-283-2028). www.wellesley.edu/music/home.html. MBTA: Commuter Rail to Wellesley. 12:30 pm. Free. Violists Emily Walhout, Jane Hershey and Laura Jeppesen and harpsichordist and organist Suzanne Cleverdon perform works by William Byrd, William Lawes, Christopher Simpson and others.

Longy School of Music
Edward Pickman Concert Hall, Boston (617-876-0956). www.longy.edu. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 8 pm. Free. Saxophonist Stan Strickland and Peter Cassino's Quartet perform works by Jacquet de la Guerre, as well as improvisations. The lineup includes soprano Cristi Catt, mezzo-soprano Laurie Monahan, flutists Carol Epple and Na'ama Lion and others.

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 20

New England Conservatory
Jordan Hall, 30 Gainsborough St., Boston (617-585-1260). www.newenglandconservatory.edu. MBTA: E Green Line to Symphony. 8 pm. Free. Com Frith and the Callithumpian Consort structured improvisation and chamber pie

New England Conservatory
Williams Hall, 290 Huntington Ave., Bos 585-1260). www.newenglandconservatory.ed E Green Line to Symphony. 8 pm. Free. Jehye Lee, Emily Westell, Laura Kelle Scott, Hye Jin Kim and Annie Rabbat Mozart sonatas with pianists Yoko Kida, E hori, Agnes Huang and Hanah Shields.

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 21

The Boston Conservatory
8 The Fenway, Boston (617-912-9222). w conservatory.edu. MBTA: Green Line to pm. Free. The Xanthos Ensemble plays Jo Amazon, Paul Lansky's Hop and other music pieces.

Boston University College of Fine Arts
CFA Concert Hall, 855 Comm. Ave., Bo 353-3350). www.bu.edu/cfa. MBTA: B to Boston University. 12 pm. Free. The M Quartet performs Fritz Kreisler's Quartet Tower's String Quartet No. 3.

New England Conservatory
Williams Hall, 290 Huntington Ave., Bo 585-1260). www.newenglandconservatory.ed E Green Line to Symphony. 10 am. Fre Veronica Jochum performs chamber piec

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 2

Longy School of Music
Edward Pickman Concert Hall, Boston 0956). www.longy.edu. MBTA: Red Line t 8 pm. Free. Mezzo-soprano D'Anna pianist Sally Pinkas, flutist Julia Scolnik Laura Bossert and others perform works Elgar, Béla Bartók, Arthur Foote, Mau and Gabriel Fauré.

SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 23

The Boston Conservatory
Sanders Theatre, 45 Quincy St., Cambr 912-9222). www.bostonconservatory.edu Red Line to Harvard. 2 pm. $5-$12. Bru conducts the Boston Conservatory Or Charles Ives' Symphony No. 3, Debuss and Tchaikovsky's Symphony No. 4 in F

Isabella Stewart Gardner Mus
280 The Fenway, Boston (617-566-14 gardnermuseum.org. 1:30 pm. $5-$23. Miriam Fried and pianist Jonathan Bi Brahms' Sonata No. 1 in G, Op. 78, and B Sonata No. 1 in C-sharp minor, Op. 21.

Newton Free Library Concert Program
330 Homer St., Newton (617-796-1360 newton.ma.us/library. 2 pm. Free. Contr beth Anker, violist Scott Woolweaver a John McDonald perform works by Franc Elinor Armer, Howard Frazin and others.

Weekly Bach Cantata
Emmanuel Church, 15 Newbury St., Bo 536-3356). www.emmanuelmusic.org. Green Line to Arlington. 10 am. Free. C conducts the Orchestra and Chorus of Music in JS Bach's cantata BWV 185, B Herze der Ewigen Liebe.

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 25

The Boston Conservatory
Seully Hall, 8 The Fenway, Boston (617-9 www.bostonconservatory.edu. MBTA: Gr Hynes. 8 pm. $10. Pianist Jorge Federico forms works by Beethoven, Chopin and

Boston University College of Fine Arts
CFA Concert Hall, 855 Comm. Ave., Bo 353-3350). www.bu.edu/cfa. MBTA: Gr Boston University. 8 pm. Free. Pianist Da per and violinist Wolfgang David perf Chaccone, Schoenberg's Fantasy, Op. 47 rngold's Much Ado About Nothing and w Zahler and Gompper.

King's Chapel
58 Tremont St., Boston (617-227-2155). chapel.org. MBTA: Blue or Green Line to ter. 12:15 pm. $3 suggested donation. Org Lamlein plays works by Bach, Buxt Sweelinck.

Longy School of Music
Edward Pickman Concert Hall, Boston 0956). www.longy.edu. MBTA: Red Line 8 pm. Free. Flutist Julia Scolnik, vi Majerfeld, harpist Franzisk Huhn a perform works by Brahms, Debussy Dvorák and Maurice Ravel.

ance lubs

ce to Contributors
t club listings by fax (617-859-1446), by mail to dar/Clubs, or by email to clubs@improper.com. le day of the week, times, prices, phone numbers arest T stop. Deadline is four weeks prior to publi- date. Listings not accepted over the phone.

ghts

NDAYS

ua Nua
mony A night of goth and industrial music, , $5-$6.

: Gay night with DJ Susan Esthera and a d drag show, 10 pm, $7, free on guest list, 21+.

rice
a Lounge Resident DJs Tamer and Gregory hill beats, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

na Mondays Free pool, salsa lessons at 7 pm and music from DJs Hernan and Martinez, 2 am, no cover, 21+.

den Temple
Room DJ Robert Weintraub spins R&B, hip- Motown, pop and acid jazz, 9 pm, no cover,

en Briar
eissun, 8 pm, no cover, 21+.

s
ry Night 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

y Way
d live music, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

enix Landing
a Mondays DJ Uppercut spins hip-hop and reg- 0 pm, $3, 21+.

Place
e Karaoke Belt out your favorite rock 'n' roll s, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

r Gods
y Wax Two local DJs go head-to-head in a mu- ce-off, 8 pm, no cover, 21+.

t
ervice Industry Night DJ Chris Roxx spins hip-hop and more, 10 pm-2 am, 21+.

y K's
ke for a $50 cash prize, then dance upstairs Littles spins Top 40, 8 pm-2 am, no cover,

er Works
Up Mondays DJs spin Top 40 dance mixes, 10 m, $5 before 10 pm, $10 after, 21+.

der Bar
eastern Mondays include DJ 7L spinning hip- &B and classics, no cover, 21+.

SDAYS

á Tuesday Mingle with young professionals DJs spin club mixes, women free, $5 off at the ith your business card, 10 pm, 21+.

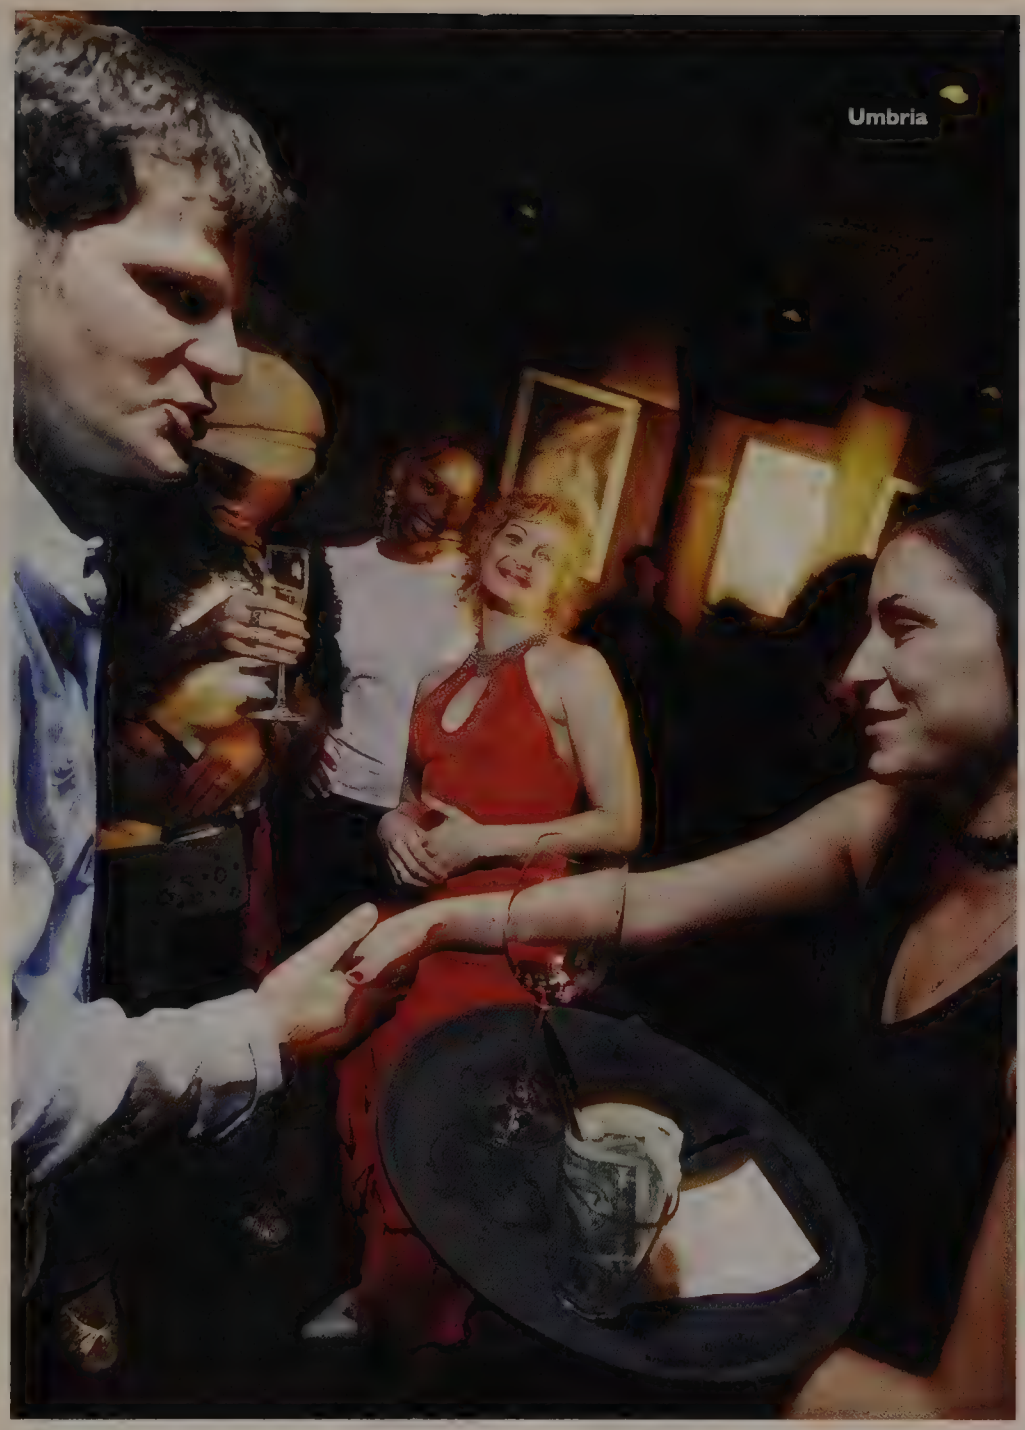
n Hand
e night, acoustic music, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

ice
ry Tuesdays DJ Chris Roxx spins Top 40, hip- &B and dance, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

evin and Ryan play showtunes, 9 pm, no cover,

Foundation Lounge
Tuesdays Live '30s, '40s and '50s music, no 21+.

en Temple
Room DJ Robert Weintraub spins R&B, Mo- pop and acid jazz, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.



Kells
esdays DJ Grasshopper spins Top 40 music, 10 cover, 21+.

s e night, 9 pm, no cover.

y Way
r Karaoke Regular karaoke first and third Tues- f each month, live-band karaoke second and Tuesdays, 10 pm, up to $3, 21+.

dise Lounge
p Tuesdays DJ G-Squared spins hip-hop, rock, d more, 10 pm, $7, 21+.

nix Landing
DJ Scott Bliff spins funk, soul and electro '80s, no cover, 21+.

The Place
College Party Top 40, hip-hop and dance, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

The Purple Shamrock
Terry Brennan sing-along, 9:30 pm, no cover, 21+.

Redline
Ipodapalooza Show off your DJ skills and your best 30-minute playlist, 9 pm-1 am, no cover, 21+.

River Gods
An eclectic mix of DJs and music, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

Rumor
DJ Sender and DJ Roger M spin a mix of hip-hop and house, 11 pm, $20, $15 on guest list, 21+.

Ryles Dance Hall
Noche Latina DJ Ali and special guest DJs keep you dancing with salsa lessons beginning at 7 pm, $13; 9:30 pm, $10.

Saint
Flaunt Tuesday Gay Mafia hosts while DJ Ranny spins Top 40, 10 pm-2 am, 21+.

Sissy K's
Karaoke with a $50 cash prize, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

Tabú
Stupid Keith's Karaoke Participate to win $250, 8 pm, 21+.
MYNT International Tuesdays DJ Eddy Lee spins hip-hop and house, 11 pm-2 am, $15, 21+.

WEDNESDAYS

An Tua Nua
Salsa Night DJs spin salsa music. Includes beginner lessons, 8 pm, $10, 21+.

Common Ground
Guitar Hero Battle Duke it out on the big screen, 10:30 pm, no cover, 21+.

Dockside
Karaoke, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

Flat Top Johnny's
DJs spin rock, 10 pm, no cover, 21+. Ladies' Night: 6 pm-1 am, half-priced pool for women every week.

The Foundation Lounge
"Famous" Wednesdays DJs G-Squared and Dirty Dek spin mashups, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

Golden Temple
The E Room DJ Robert Weintraub spins R&B, Motown, pop and acid jazz, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

Kings
Take the stage at open-mike night, 9 pm, no cover.

Milky Way
Assorted live entertainment including DJs, spoken word and dance, 9 pm-1 am, no cover, 21+.

Phoenix Landing
Return of Techno DJs spin underground dance music, 10 pm-1 am, $5.

The Place
Beach Party DJs spin Top 40, hip-hop and dance, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

The Purple Shamrock
Karaoke, 9:30 pm, no cover, 21+.

Rain
Oldies but Goodies DJ Russ McQueen spins hits from the '50s, '60s and '70s, 8 pm, no cover, 21+.

Redline
Mood Mosaic DJ Deano Sounds spins boogaloo, basilica, funk and soul, 8:30 pm-12 am, no cover, 21+.

River Gods
Dance to rock, gospel and blues, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

Sissy K's
DJ Littles spins Top 40 and dance, 8 pm, no cover.

Tabú
Under 21 Party Themes vary each week at this party for the younger crowd, 8 pm, $15, 18+.

Underbar
DJ Ricky Fatts and DJ Bruno spin hip-hop, R&B and reggae, 11 pm, 21+.

Venu
DJ Adilson, 11 pm, $20, $15 on guest list, 21+.
Chaps Latino Night Gay night with DJs Adilson and Dina spinning Latin, house, hip-hop and Top 40 in two rooms, 10 pm-2 am, $8, 21+.

Vertigo
Analogue DJs Pete Yagmin, Special Pete, Peter Ellis and Greg Blake spin dance and house, 10 pm, 21+.

Wonder Bar
Wonder Bar Wednesdays DJ Tommy C spins hip-hop, R&B and classics, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

THURSDAYS

An Tua Nua
'80s, one-hit wonders, Top 40 and hip-hop, 10 pm, $5, 21+.

Aria
Sutra Thursdays Various DJs spin Top 40, mashups, international house and Latin, 10 pm-2 am, $20, $10 on guestlist, women free before 12 am, 21+.

Axis
DJ Tim Ryan spins house and alternative, 10 pm, $5, 21+.

Bell in Hand
Party Music Master spins everything, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

Boston Rocks
DJs spin Top 40 and hip-hop, no cover, 21+.

Caprice
After Dark Boston DJs Pup Dawg and Bruno spin hip-hop and Hindi music, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

Clerys
DJ Rhythm Nights, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

Common Ground
Love Night DJ Brian Love plays tunes from the '80s, 10:30 pm, $3, 21+.

Felt
True Music Thursdays Live rock, funk and alternative performances by local and national bands, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

The Foundation Lounge
Soulicious Thursdays Evan Goodrow and the Foundation Lounge band "Soulicious" play music by Ray Charles, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

Golden Temple
The E Room DJ Robert Weintraub spins R&B, Motown, pop and acid jazz, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

Green Briar
DJs spin dance music, 9:30 pm, no cover, 21+.

Jake Ivory's
'80s Night '80s-themed dress, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

Jose McIntyre's
Karyn & Caitlyn Promo Night No cover, 21+.

The Kells
Fun House DJ Grasshopper spins dance tunes and hip-hop, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

Kings
Let It Out Karaoke night featuring prizes and giveaways, 10 pm, no cover.

Milky Way
Aquanet Dance Party Old-school hip-hop, '80s, funk and soul, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

Om
DJ Mario spins international beats.

Phoenix Landing
Elements DJs Crook, Lenore and Mad Dog present drum 'n' bass with special guests, 10 pm, $5.

The Place
DJ Chris Roxx spins Top 40 and dance, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

The Point
Ladies Night DJs spin dance and hip-hop, 9 pm-2 am.

The Purple Shamrock
Musician Jim Plunkett and DJ Mike Flanagin, 9:30 pm, $5, 21+.

The Quarter
The Glamorous Life DJ Susan Esthera spins hip-hop and Top 40 party music at this gay night.

Redline
All Star Roulette Six Boston's DJs provide the music, 10 pm-2 am, $5, 21+.

Revolution Rock Bar
Ditch Thursdays DJ Rick Rude, TBA.

River Gods
A mix of DJs and music, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

Roggies
Karaoke night, 8 pm, no cover, 21+.

Rumor
DJs Roger M and JC spin house and Latin, 11 pm-2 am, $20, $15 on guest list, 21+.

Ryles Dance Hall
Temporada Latina A night of salsa lessons and dancing, 8:30 pm-1 am, $8-$12, 21+.

Saint
Mashup Thursdays Guest DJs spin hip-hop, house and Top 40, 10 pm, 21+.

Sissy K's
Karaoke downstairs, while DJ Littles spins Top 40 and dance music upstairs, 8 pm-2 am, no cover, 21+.

Tabú
Nightclub: DJ Gee-Spin from JAM'N 94.5 drops hip-hop, reggae and R&B beats, 10 pm, no cover, 18+. Ultralounge: DJ Guillian spins salsa, merengue and bachata, 10 pm, $10; women free before 11 pm, 18+.

DEREK KOUYOUMJIAN

ANNa's TAQUERIA

Burritos & Tacos To Go!

BOSTON'S BEST 2007 WINNER IMPROPER BOSTONIAN

Burrito

Open Everyday 10 a.m. to 11 p.m.

1412 Beacon Street • Coolidge Corner • 739-7300
446 Harvard Street • Brookline • 277-7111
822 Somerville Avenue • Porter Square • Cambridge • 661-8500
236A Elm Street • Davis Square • Somerville • 666-3900
84 Mass Avenue • MIT Stratton Center • Cambridge • 324-2662

Toast
International Brazilian Night 10 pm-1 am, cover varies.

Underbar
Moda Thursdays DJ Franklin spins Latin and international house, 11 pm, $20 at the door; $15 on guest list, 21+.

Vertigo
Analog Thursdays Electronic music, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

Wonder Bar
Thirsty Thursdays with DJs Heven and Turbz, along with DJs K-Rich and Kreation, 10 pm, 21+.

FRIDAYS

An Tua Nua
'80s, one-hit wonders, Top 40 and hip-hop, 10 pm, $5, 21+.

Aria
DJs Big and Uptown spin hip-hop, salsa, house and international, 10 pm, $15, $10 on guest list, 21+.

Asgard
DJ Dave M spins dance and Top 40, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

Avalon
Avaland Guest DJs spin house and techno, 10 pm, $10.

The Avenue
DJ Murray spins Top 40, 9 pm, $5, 21+.

Axis
Axis Fridays Top 40 upstairs, trance and house downstairs, 10 pm, $10, 21+.

Bell in Hand
Party Music Master spins everything, 10 pm, $5, 21+.

Boston Rocks
Party Like a Rockstar Fridays DJ SugaShane spins hip-hop, dancehall, reggaeton, party breaks 10 pm-2 am, free on guest list until 12 am, 21+.

Caprice
Downstairs: Greek Night DJ Paul Yotis spins international and ethnic house, 10 pm, no cover, 19+. Upstairs: Casablanca@Caprice DJs Tom Bartlett, Matt Dimond and Sergio Santos spin house, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

Clerys
DJ Rhythm Nights, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

Common Ground
Guest DJs spin, 10 pm, 21+.

Coogan's
DJ C-Nice spins dance favorites, 10 pm, cover varies, 21+.

Dbar
DJ Mike Giller spins Top 40 and house beats, 10 pm-2 am, no cover, 21+.

Devlin's
DJs spin dance and hip-hop, 9 pm-1 am, no cover, 21+.

The Estate
Resurrection Fridays International DJs spin the latest in house, trance and break-beat music, 10 pm-2 am, no cover, 21+.

Felt
Heated Fridays DJs spin Top 40, house, rock and hip-hop, 10 pm, no cover, 21+. Fourth Floor: DJ Vinnie of Mashup Mafia spins mashups, '80s, dance and rock, 10 pm, 21+.

The Foundation Lounge
Various DJs mix everything from jazz and lounge to disco, funk, dance and R&B, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

Golden Temple
The E Room DJ Robert Weintraub spins '70s, '80s, '90s and vocal house, 9:30 pm, 21+.

Great Scott
DJs Ken and Michael V spin , 9 pm, $5, 21+.

Green Briar
DJs and live music, 9:30 pm, $5, 21+.

Gypsy Bar
DJ Niso spins Top 40, hip-hop and house, 10 pm-2 am, $10, 21+.

The Harp
DJs spin hottest dance mixes upstairs and downstairs, live bands upstairs, 9 pm, $5 before 10 pm, $10 after, 21+.

Hurricane O'Reilly's
DJ Dennis spins Top 40 and dance, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

ID
Doubleplus Fridays DJs spin trance, breaks and house, 10 pm, $10, 21+.

Jake Ivory's
Dueling Rock and Roll Piano Show 8:30 pm, $8, 21+.

Jose McIntyre's
DJ Massi spins Top 40 and hip-hop, 10 pm, $5, 21+.

The Kells
Ladies' Night DJ Sender spins Top 40 and hip-hop in the main room, and DJ Doc spins '80s, '90s and new jams, 10 pm, $6, ladies free before 12 am, 21+.

Liquor Store
DJ Mario spins Top 40, hip-hop and rock am, $5, 21+.

Mantra
Flow Fridays DJ K Rich spins hip-hop, '8 and house, 10 pm, women free until 12 $15, 21+.

Middlesex Lounge
Various DJs spin soul, funk, down-tempo hop, no cover, 21+.

Milky Way
Live music and performance, 10 pm, $7-$

Om
DJ Mike Swells spins house beats.

Parris
DJ Scortch spins Top 40 and hip-hop at 8 bands at 10 pm, $5 before 9 pm, 21+.

Phoenix Landing
Pretty Young Thing Top 40 with DJ Vinn no cover, 21+.

The Place
VJ Dweb spins a mix of Top 40 and hip-h screens show Boston sports highlights, 10 21+.

The Point
Rock Reggae Friday takes place downstairs, Obsession oversees the music upstairs, 10 21+.

Pure
Pure Fridays Lesbian Night Rotating DJs hop and Top 40, 9 pm, $5 before 11 pm, 21+

The Purple Shamrock
Top 40 with DJ Thom, 10 pm, $5, 21+.

The Quarter
DJs spin rock, hip-hop, mashups, Top 40 a beats, 21+.

Rain
Corona Beach Party DJ Jim from KISS 1 Top 40, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

Redline
Friday Alternative DJ KC Hallett spins, 8 $5 after 10 pm, 21+.

Revolution Rock Bar
Lettin' Loose Fridays Enjoy afterwork spe classic rock favorites, 5-8 pm, followed by D 10 pm-2 am, no cover, 21+.

River Gods
An eclectic mix of DJs and music, 9 pm, 21+.

Roxy
DJ Adilson spins high-energy dance music, am, $15 before 12 am, $20 after 12 am, $1 list, 21+.

Rumor
DJ Profenna and weekly guest DJs, 11 pm-2 $15 on guest list, 21+.

Ryles Dance Hall
Latin Dance Party Rotating DJs provide merengue, reggaeton and salsa music, fr 10 pm, $5 before 11 pm, $10 after, taste required.

Saint
Heaven Fridays DJs G-Squared and Tanno mix of everything, 10 pm, 21+.

Sissy K's
DJ Johnny C spins Top 40 and dance musi am, no cover, 21+.

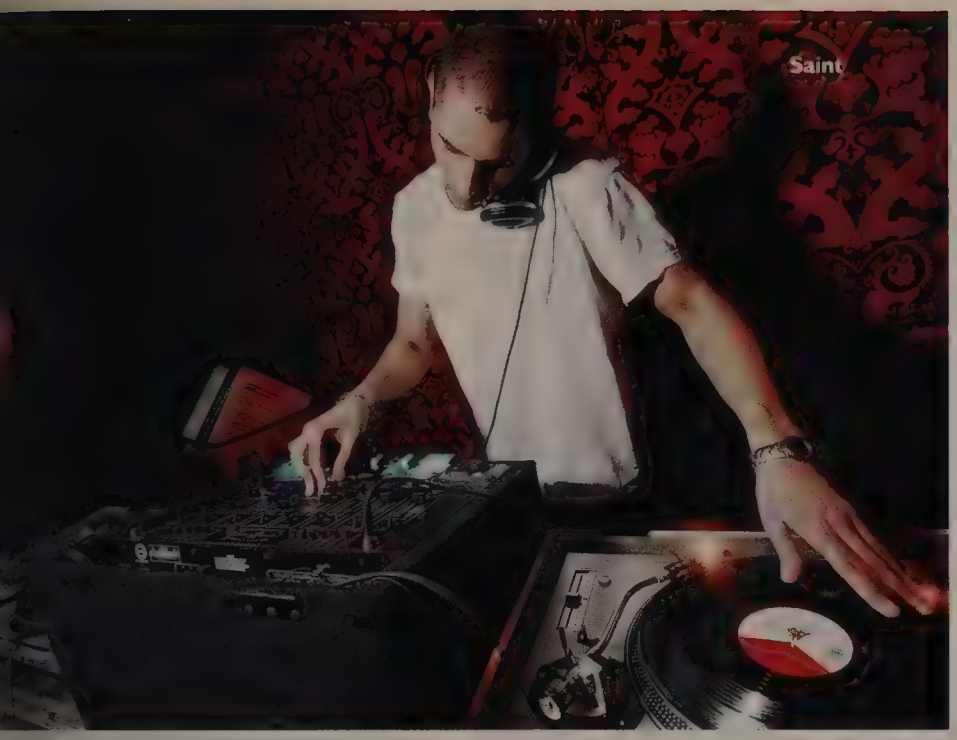
Suite
DJ Santi and guest DJs spin Eurohouse, roc remixes, 11 pm, $20, 21+.

Tabú
Flirt Fridays DJ Spitaleri spins hip-hop, r reggaeton, ladies free before 11 pm, $10 aft guys 21+, $15 for guys 18+.

Tequila Rain
DJ Mike spins Top 40, hip-hop and rock, 9 $5, 21+.

33 Restaurant
Studio 33 Fridays DJs spin retro dance m hop, house and Latin, 10 pm-2 am, no co

360 Ultralounge
Get Fresh DJ Babyface spins Top 40, R&E hop, 10:30 pm, $15, 21+.



Toast
Dyke Night 9 pm-2 am, $5, 21+.

Underbar
House Music Fridays DJ Franklin spins house and Latin, 11 pm, $20, 21+.

Venu
DJ Roger M spins hip-hop, Latin and inte proper dress required, 11 pm, $20, $15 on 21+.

Vertigo
Sexy Fridays DJs spin a mix of Latin, regga and international, 10 pm, $15, 21+.

Water Works
Ladies Night Out Fridays DJs spin Top mixes, 10 pm-2 am, ladies free before 11 pm, 21+.

der Bar
on and Lazee Boy spin hip-hop, R&B and old-l classics, 10 pm, $5, 21+.

URDAYS
ua Nua
owie spins Top 40 and hip-hop, 10 pm, $5, is DJs spin house, 10:30 pm-2 am, 21+.

on
n Collins spins mashups, rock and Top 40, 10 10, free on guest list, 21+.

s Night Various DJs spin '80s and retro, 10 pm,

in Hand
Music Master spins everything, 10 pm, $10,

on Rocks
odoo spins Top 40 and hip-hop, 5 pm-2 am, $5 1 pm, 21+.

ay crowd gets busy to DJ Mary Alice's popular and DJ Michael Sheehan's deep house and , 10 pm, $10, 21+.

ice
loor: DJ Franklin spins international music, , no cover, 21+. Second floor: Privé Satur- DJ Paul Yioti spins ethnic house, 10 pm, no 21+.

ys
ythm Nights, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

mon Ground
nnon and DJs Deano and Jay, 10 pm, 21+.

gan's
Nice spins a mix of dance favorites, 10 pm, $5, y Ine and Ted Ellison spin house beats, 10 pm-2 p cover, 21+.

in's
ther Cleve spins a mix of '80s, '90s and current tes, 9 pm-1 am, no cover, 21+.

Club Saturdays DJ Mike Bose spins Top assic rock, house and hip-hop, 11 pm, $10,

Foundation Lounge
nno spins Top 40, reggae, house and disco, , no cover, 21+.

len Temple
Room DJ John Reed spins music from the 80s and '90s, as well as Top 40, 9:30 pm, no 21+.

en Briar
d live music, 9:30 pm, $5, 21+.

y Bar
so spins in the dance room, and DJ Mario at the front bar, 10 pm-2 am, $10, 21+.

Harp
in hottest dance mixes upstairs and down- live bands upstairs, 9 pm, $5 before 10 pm, ter, 21+.

icane O'Reilly's
ussi, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

es DJ Chris Ewen spins retro, punk and new 10 pm, $6, 21+.

Jake Ivory's
Dueling Rock and Roll Piano Show 8:30 pm, $8, 21+.

Jose McIntyre's
DJ Dennis spins Top 40, hip-hop and dance, 9 pm, $5, 21+.

The Kells
DJ Darren spins Top 40, dance and house in the main room, and DJ Grasshopper mixes '80s, '90s and new jams downstairs, 10 pm, $6, 21+.

Liquor Store
DJ Mario spins Top 40 and rock, 9 pm-2 am, $5, 21+.

Mantra
Night Life DJ Liam spins a mix of house, hip-hop, and rock, 11 pm, $20, 21+.

Middlesex Lounge
DJ Kon spins dance and Top 40 hits, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

Milky Way
Mango's Latin Dance Night DJ Antonio Ortíz spins merengue, salsa and bachata beats, 9 pm, $5-$10, free for ladies before 10:30 pm, 21+.

Om
DJs spin house music with a global edge.

Parris
DJ Scortch spins Top 40 and hip-hop beats at 8 pm, live bands at 10 pm, $5 before 9 pm, 21+.

Phoenix Landing
Boom Boom Room DJ Vinny spins one-hit wonders, New Wave and disco, 10 pm, $4, 21+.

The Place
VJ Dweb entertains, 10 pm, $5, 21+.

The Point
DJ Obsession provides music upstairs, 9 pm-2 am, 21+.

Pure
Sensual Saturdays DJ NRG spins hip-hop, old-school classics, R&B and dancehall, 10:30 pm, $20, 21+.

The Purple Shamrock
Cover bands perform and DJ Thom spins Top 40 beats, 10 pm, $5, 21+.

The Quarter
DJs spin rock, hip-hop and mashups, 10 pm, 21+.

Rain
KISS 108's Billy Costa hosts as DJ Randy spins Top 40, house, dance and rock music, 10 pm, $10, 21+.

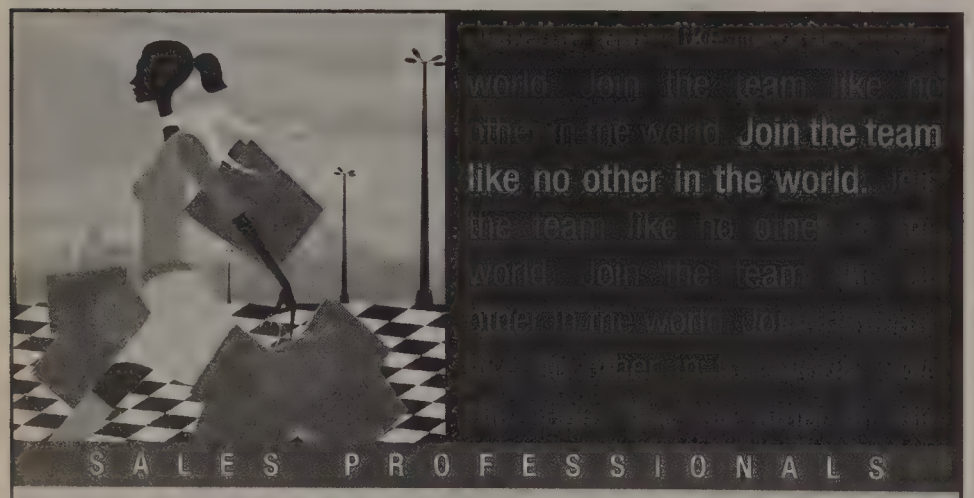
Redline
Soul Shack DJ Inkognito spins disco, soul, funk and old-school favorites, and DJ Paul Foley spins on the last Saturday of the month, 10 pm-2 am, $5, 21+.

Revolution Rock Bar
DJ Rick Rude, TBA.

River Gods
A variety of DJs and music, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

Roxy
Latin Saturdays DJs spin Latin beats, 10 pm, $10 before 11 pm, $15 after 11 pm, 21+.

Rumor
DJs Thamer and JC spin a mix of hip-hop, house and Latin music, 11pm-2 am, $20, $15 on guest list, 21+.



Ryles Dance Hall
Four on the Floor Supershag Productions supplies Latin, tango and salsa dancing, 9:15 pm-2 am.

Saint
Guest DJs from Boston and abroad spin, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

Sissy K's
Dance Party Saturdays DJ Tiz spins Top 40 and dance beats, 8 pm-2 am, no cover, 21+.

6B Lounge
'80s Night DJ Azure spins retro rock tunes while decked out in his most stylish '80s gear, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

Suite
DJs Jamie, Juan de la Luna and Santi spin house and international, 11 pm, $10, 21+.

Tabú
Nightclub: DJ Leandro spins hip-hop, reggae, reggaeton and house beats, 11 pm, $15, 18+. Ultralounge: DJ Steve Anderson spins '80s, '90s and Top 40, 7 pm, no cover, 21+.

Tequila Rain
DJ Mike spins Top 40, hip-hop and rock, 9 pm-2 am, $5, 21+.

33 Restaurant
Filter Saturdays DJs Tasso and Niko G spin Latin, Top 40, dance, hip-hop and international house beats, 10 pm-2 am, 21+.

360 Ultralounge
Sapphire Saturdays DJs spin hip-hop, Latin, house and R&B, 10 pm, $15, 21+.

Underbar
DJ Angel Moraes alternates with international house DJs, 11 pm, $20, 21+.

Venu
DJs Sender and JC spin the newest R&B, hip-hop and Latin, 10 pm, $15, 21+.

Vertigo
DJs Hectik and Hevan, 11 pm, $10, 21+.

Water Works
Buckwild Saturdays DJs spin Top 40 dance mixes, 10 pm-2 am, $5 before 10 pm, $10 after, 21+.

West Street Grille
Late Night Lounge DJs play funk and Top 40 all night, 10:30 pm, $5, 21+.

Whiskey Bar
Wicked Saturdays DJs spin hip-hop, R&B, pop and Top 40, 10:30 pm, $10, 21+.

Wonder Bar
DJs 7L and Braun Johnson spin hip-hop, R&B and old-school beats, 10 pm, $5, 21+.

SUNDAYS

Avalon
Gay Night DJ Rich Ladue spins progressive house, trance and techno at Boston's longest-running gay night, 10 pm, $10, 21+.

Bill's Bar
Reggae Sundays Dub Station features a variety of live reggae acts, 10 pm $7-$10, 21+.

Devlin's
Service Industry Night, 9 pm-1 am, no cover, 21+.

Golden Temple
The E Room DJ John Reed spins music from the '70s, '80s and '90s, as well as Top 40, 9:30 pm, no cover.

Green Briar
DJ Doc spins, no cover, 21+.

Milky Way
Live music, 9 pm, cost varies, 21+.

Phoenix Landing
Bump An underground house-music night featuring a rotating roster of resident DJs, 10 pm, $5.

The Place
Chad LaMarsh appears with VJ Leathers, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

Pure
Caribbean night, 9 pm, $10, 21+.

Rain
DJ Danny Sharp and/or the World Premier Band supply old-school funk, Top 40 and dance tunes, $5 on band nights, 8 pm, 21+.

River Gods
Action Sunday DJs play punk, garage and rock, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

Roggies
Caribbean night, 8 pm, no cover, 21+.

Ryles Dance Hall
Salsa Sundays An evening of salsa music, dance and food, 7-11 pm, $10.

Saint
Style Sundays Two guest DJs spin a variety of music at this Industry Night, 10 pm-2 am, 21+.

Sissy K's
Karaoke, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

Tabú
Under 21 Party 8 pm, $15, 18+.

360 Ultralounge
Miami Heat DJ Dru Nyce spins R&B, hip-hop, reggae and salsa beats, 10:30 pm, $10, 21+.

Vertigo
Jump Off DJs spin hip-hop, reggae and reggaeton, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

Water Works
We Love Sundays DJs spin Top 40 dance mixes, 10 pm-2 am, $5 before 10 pm, $10 after, 21+.

Wonder Bar
DJs Chu and Krucial spin a mix of soul, funk, hip-hop and reggae, 10 pm, 21+.

Club Venues

An Tua Nua 835 Beacon St., Boston (617-262-2
Aria 246 Tremont St., Boston (617-338-7080).
Avalon 15 Lansdowne St., Boston (617-262-242
Axis 13 Lansdowne St., Boston (617-262-2437).
Bell in Hand 45-55 Union St., Boston (617-227-2098).
Bill's Bar 5½ Lansdowne St., Boston (617-421-9
Boston Rocks 245 Quincy St., Boston (617-726-1110).
Buzz 51 Stuart St., Boston (617-482-3939).
Caprice 275 Tremont St., Boston (617-292-008
Clerys 331 Columbus Ave., Boston (617-262-98
Common Ground 85 Harvard Ave., Allston (61 2071).
Coogan's 173 Milk St., Boston (617-451-7415).
Dbar 1236 Dorchester Ave., Dorchester (617-26 4490).
Devlin's 332 Washington St., Brighton (617-779-8822).
Dockside 183 State St., Boston (617-723-7050)
The Estate 1 Boylston Place, Boston (617-351-
Excelsior 272 Boylston St., Boston (617-426-78
Felt 533 Washington St., Boston (617-350-5555
Flat Top Johnny's 1 Kendall Square, Cambridge (494-9565).
The Foundation Lounge 500 Comm. Ave., Bos (617-859-9900).
Golden Temple 1651 Beacon St., Brookline (617 9722).
Great Scott 1222 Comm. Ave., Boston (617-5 9014).
Green Briar 304 Washington St., Brighton (617-4100).
Gypsy Bar 116 Boylston St., Boston (617-482-7
The Harp 85 Causeway St., Boston (617-742-1
Hurricane O'Reilly's 150 Canal St., Boston (61 0161).
ID 13 Lansdowne St., Boston (617-262-2437).
Jake Ivory's 9 Lansdowne St., Boston (617-247-
Jose McIntyre's 160 Milk St., Boston (617-451-
The Kells 161 Brighton Ave., Allston (617-782-
Kings 10 Dalton St., Boston (617-266-2695).
Liquor Store The Alley, Boston (617-357-680
Mantra 52 Temple Place, Boston (617-542-811
McGann's 197 Portland St., Boston (617-227- Middlesex Lounge 315 Mass. Ave., Cambridg 868-6739).
Milky Way 403-405 Centre St., Jamaica Plain (524-3740).
The Office 5 Broad St., Boston (617-474-7866
Om 92 Winthrop St., Cambridge (617-576-280
Parris Quincy Market Building, Boston (617-24 9900).
Phoenix Landing 512 Mass. Ave., Cambridge 576-6260).
The Place 2 Broad St., Boston (617-523-2081
The Point 147 Hanover St., Boston (617-523-7
Pure 275 Tremont St., Boston (617-542-4077).
The Purple Shamrock 1 Union St., Boston (61 2060).
The Quarter 36 Lansdowne St., Boston (617-5. 2100).
Rain 665 Broadway, Malden (781-322-2101).
Redline 59 JFK St., Cambridge (617-491-9851)
Revolution Rock Bar 200 High St., Boston (617 4200).
River Gods 125 River St., Cambridge (617-576-
Rocket Bar 30 Lansdowne St., Boston (617-53 2100).
Roggies 56 Chestnut Hill Ave., Brighton (617-5 1880).
Roxy 279 Tremont St., Boston (617-338-7699).
Rumor 100 Warrenton St., Boston (617-482-69 Ryles Dance Hall 212 Hampshire St., Cambridg 876-9300).
Saint 90 Exeter St., Boston (617-236-1134).
Sissy K's 6 Commercial St., Boston (617-248-6
6B 6 Beacon St., Boston (617-742-8565).
Suite 1 Boylston Place, Boston (617-512-5311)
Tabú 168 Broadway, Saugus (781-231-5111).
Tequila Rain 3 Lansdowne St., Boston (617-437 0300).
33 Restaurant 33 Stanhope St., Boston (617-57 3311).
360 Lounge 33 Batterymarch St., Boston (617-9333).
Toast 70 Union Square, Somerville (617-623-92
Umbria 295 Franklin St., Boston (617-338-100
Underbar 275 Tremont St., Boston (617-292-7
Venu 100 Warrenton St., Boston (617-338-806
Vertigo 126 State St., Boston (617-723-7277).
Water Works 333 Victory Road, Quincy (617-0600)
West Street Grille 15 West St., Boston (617-4. 0300).
Wonder Bar 186 Harvard Ave., Allston (617-2665).

nuseums & galleries

ice to Contributors

it gallery and museum listings by fax (617-859-) or mail to Calendar: Museums/Galleries, or il arts@improper.com. Include dates, nearest p and phone number. Deadline is four weeks prior iblication. Listings cannot be accepted over the ?.

useums

nenian Library & seum of America

lain St., Watertown (617-926-2562). www. inc.org. MBTA: 71 Bus to Watertown Square. s., 6-9 pm; Fri. and Sun., 1-5 pm; Sat., 10 am- .• Norik Y. Astvatsaturov Metal Art features l works by the Azerbaijanian artist. Through mber. •The Word of God: Armenian Illumina- commemorates the 1,600th anniversary of Armenian alphabet with a collection of mental letters from the ninth to late 15th ries. Through January. •The Armenian cide: In Memoriam documents the first cide of the 20th century, a massacre by the during World War I that nearly eliminated a n. Ongoing.

ur M. Sackler Museum

Broadway, Cambridge (617-495-9400). www. seums.harvard.edu. MBTA: Red Line to Har- Mon.-Sat., 10 am-5 pm; Sun., 1-5 pm. $9; $7, s; $6, students; free, under 18; free, Sat. until 12 d everyday after 4:30 pm. •Downtime features contemporary Chinese paintings, displayed he ceramics in the Asian gallery. Through Jan. 008. •Pavilions of Love: A Ritual Space in Indian ng displays the pavilion as a background for n 17th and 18th century paintings. Through 23. •Gods in Color: Painted Sculpture of Classi- tiquity features full-size replicas of Greek and n sculptures. Sept. 22-Jan. 20. •Overlapping s: Arts of the Islamic World and India, 900-1900 res themes of commonality, continuity and di- y, featuring ceramics and metalwork by south- uropean and South Asian artists. Through 2008. •Alexander's Image and the Beginning of Portraiture showcases ancient coins depicting nder the Great and his successors. Ongoing. Art of Ancient Rome features funerary art and masterpieces depicting daily life, public enter- ent and leaders of Ancient Rome. Ongoing.

onian Society Old e House Museum

Washington St., Boston (617-720-1713). www. history.org. MBTA: Blue or Orange Line to Daily, 9 am-6 pm. $5; $4, students and seniors; es 6-18. •The Boston Massacre: A Sound and Show explains how a snowball fight escalated deadly riot prior to the American Revolution. ng. •The Old State House: A Hands-On y features multimedia interpretations of the lassachusetts capitol. Ongoing. •Every Picture Story is a collection of historic photographs of n-area places, events and people. Ongoing. A Colony to Commonwealth presents 150 ts and images documenting Boston's fight for ndence from England and Massachusetts' ishment as a state. Ongoing. •Our Favorite features historical artifacts from the museum's tion. Ongoing. •Preservation of the Old State displays architectural plans of the building tails the preservation and restoration process 881 to 1991. Ongoing. •Treasures From the ian Society's Collections features marine gs and harbor views from Boston's maritime y. Ongoing.

s Museum and Cultural Center

ley College, 106 Central St., Wellesley (781- 51). www.davismuseum.wellesley.edu. MBTA: uter Rail to Wellesley. Tue., Thu., Fri. and Sat., -5 pm; Wed., 11 am-8 pm; Sun., 12-4 pm. Global Feminisms features mixed-media works female artists that explore feminist thought. 9-Dec. 9. •Don't Look features drawings from llection of Martina Yamin. Sept. 19-Dec. 9.

ordova Museum sculpture Park

ndy Pond Road, Lincoln (781-259-8355). lecordova.org. MBTA: Commuter Rail to Lin- ue.-Sun., 11 am-5 pm. $9; $6, students and seniors; free, ages 5 and under. •New Arrivals: Gifts to the Permanent Collection features mixed-media works recently donated to the museum. Sept. 1-Jan.13. •Ricardo Barros: Facing Sculpture features black-and-white photographs of contemporary sculptors by Barros. Sept. 1-Jan. 13. •Trainscape: Installation Art for Model Railroads features an operational model railway that traverses miniature landscapes created by 12 local artists. Sept. 1-Jan. 13. •Approaches to Narrative highlights work from the DeCordova's permanent collection. Through October. •Beauty and Decay: Photographs of Flowers features photographs from the museum's permanent collection. Through March 2008. •Nina Levy's outdoor sculptures "Headlong" and "Big Baby" greet visitors as they enter the museum's roof-top terrace. Ongoing.

The exhibition This Is Soo Gay runs at Out of the Blue Gallery through September.

Fogg Art Museum/ Busch-Reisinger Museum

32 Quincy St., Cambridge (617-495-9400). www. artmuseums.harvard.edu. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. Mon.-Sat., 10 am-5 pm; Sun., 1-5 pm. $9; $7, seniors; $6, students; free, under 18; free, Sat. until 12 pm and every day after 4:30 pm. •Light Display Machines: Two Works by László Moholy-Nagy features a light-space modulator using metal, plastics, glass, paint, wood and a short film. Through Nov. 4. •Making Myth Modern: Primordial Themes in German 20th-Century Sculpture features sculptures by Franz von Stuck, Renée Sintenis, Max Beckmann, Gerhard Marcks and others. Through Dec. 30. •Gian Lorenzo Bernini: Sketches in Clay displays 15 of Bernini's terracotta sculptures. Ongoing. •Modern Art, 1865-1965 presents sculptures and paintings by Matisse, Miró and Rodin, among others. Ongoing. •Paintings by Max Beckmann from the Pinakothek der Moderne, Munich features three major paintings by Beckmann over three decades. Through Jan. 6, 2008. • Contemporary Art from the Harvard University Art Museums Collections features mixed-media works by Ellen Gallagher, Edward Ruscha, Rudolf Stingel and others. Through February 10. •17th-Century French Painting and Sculpture features works of portraiture by Nicolas Régnier and Pierre Mignard. Ongoing.

French Library and Cultural Center

53 Marlborough St., Boston (617-912-0400). www. frenchlib.org. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Mon.,Tue. and Thu., 10 am-6 pm; Wed., 10 am-8 pm; Fri. and Sat., 10 am-5pm. Free. A Devotion to Sculptural Construction, a Passion for Paints features abstract paintings by Yanick Lapuh. Through Oct. 1.

Harvard Museum of Natural History

26 Oxford St., Cambridge (617-495-3045). www. hmnh.harvard.edu. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. Daily, 9 am-5 pm. $9; $7, students and seniors; $6, ages 3-18; free, children under 3; free to Mass. residents, Sun. until 12 pm. •Nests & Eggs features mixed-media displays of eggs. Through March 2008. •Arthropods: Creatures That Rule features fossils, preserved specimens, video presentations and color photographs of hundreds of arthropods. Ongoing. •Climate Change: Our Global Experiment uses computer simulations to explore scientific studies of climate change. Ongoing. •Dodos, Trilobites and Meteorites: Treasures of Nature and Science at Harvard documents more than 200 years of scientific exploration. Ongoing. •Meteorites includes meteorites from around the world as well as a video about how they come into contact with Earth. Ongoing. •The Ware Collection of Glass Flowers by Leopold and Rudolph Blaschka features glass models of more than 830 plant species. Ongoing.

Institute of Contemporary Art

100 Northern Ave., Boston (617-478-3169). www. icaboston.org. MBTA: Red Line to South Station. Tue., Wed., Sat. and Sun., 10 am-5 pm; Thu. and Fri., 10 am-9 pm. $12; $10, students and seniors; free, children under 17 and ICA members; free, Thu. after 5 pm. •Art on the Harbor Islands explores the Boston Harbor Island's natural resources through mixed-media works, including interactive exhibits by Ernesto Pujol, Teri Rueb and Anna Schuleit. Visitors must arrange travel to the islands. Visit Web site for performance schedule. Through Oct. 8. •Chiho Aoshima presents "The Divine Gas," a mural depicting a giant girl. Through Oct. 28. •Momentum 8: Dave McKenzie features a new video by the New York based artist. Through Oct. 28. •Bourgeois in Boston displays the stages of Louise Bourgeois' career through her sculptures, prints and drawings. Through March 2, 2008. •Accumulations:More Than the Sum of Their Parts features mixed-media works that assemble multiple parts by artists Ambreen Butt, Paul Chan, Tara Donovan, and more. Through July 13, 2008. •The permanent collection features 21st-century works by Kai Althoff, Paul Chan, Taylor Davis, Marlene Dumas, Nan Goldin and others.

Isabella Stewart Gardner Museum

280 The Fenway, Boston (617-566-1401). www. gardnermuseum.org. MBTA: E Green Line to Museum. Tue.-Sun., 11 am-5 pm. $12; $10, seniors; $5, students; free for children under 18 and all visitors named Isabella; $2 off with same-day Museum of Fine Arts admission. •Stefano Arienti: The Asian Shore features 17th-century Japanese sliding doors, drawings, photocopies and rugs by Arienti. Through Oct. 14. •The permanent collection features more than 2,500 paintings, sculptures, tapestries, manuscripts, rare books and decorative pieces by artists including Rembrandt, Michelangelo, Botticelli and Degas.

Mary Baker Eddy Library

200 Mass. Ave., Boston (617-450-7000). www. marybakereddylibrary.org. MBTA: Green Line to Hynes. Tue.-Sun., 10 am-4 pm. $6; $4, seniors, students and children ages 6-17; free, ages 5 and under. •The Historic Bible Collection showcases rare Bibles in the reference room. Ongoing. •The Mapparium: An Inside View features public documents, artifacts and letters created during the exhibition's construction. Ongoing. •Sensational Press: Radical Response examines the influence of the Christian Science Monitor over the past century. Ongoing. •Verse-Maker: Poetry and Mary Baker Eddy displays the influence of poetry on Mary Baker Eddy's writings. Ongoing. • Hall of Ideas celebrates the ideas that have inspired human beings throughout history with glass and bronze sculptures and digital media. The exhibition features works by Ben Tré and David Small. Ongoing. •Quest Gallery features mixed-media works examining life's age-old questions and includes writings by Mary Baker Eddy. Ongoing.

McMullen Museum of Art

Boston College, Devlin Hall, 140 Comm. Ave., Chestnut Hill (617-552-8100). www.bc.edu/art museum. MBTA: B Green Line to Boston College. Mon-Fri., 11 am-4 pm; Sat. and Sun., 12-5 pm. Pollack Matters features mixed-media works by Pollack and photographer Herbert Matter. Sept. 1-Dec. 9.

MIT List Visual Arts Center

20 Ames St., Cambridge (617-253-4680). http://web. mit.edu/lvac. MBTA: Red Line to Kendall/MIT. Tue.-Thu., Sat. and Sun., 12-6 pm. Fri., 12-8 pm. Free. •Student Loan Art Program Exhibiton and Lottery features 400 framed prints and works on paper by Berenice Abbott, Nancy Spero, Roy Lichtenstein and others. Through Sept. 16.•The Dean's Gallery includes selections from national and international artists encompassing a broad range of techniques. Through Oct. 19.

MIT Museum

265 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-253-4444). http:// web.mit.edu/museum. MBTA: Red Line to Kendall/ MIT. Tue.-Fri., 10 am-5 pm; Sat. and Sun., 12-5 pm. $5; $2, students and seniors; free, children under 5. •The Beijing Urban Design Studio: 20 Years of International Collaboration features mixed-media works that aim to foster international understanding of urban issues. Through Sept. 14. •Singular Beauty: Simple Microscopes From the Giordano Collection explores the history of the microscope, with 127 depictions of the instrument. Through Sept. 20. •MIT Professor Jerry Milgrim: An Exceptional Ocean Engineer celebrates the career of the longest-serving professor of ocean engineering at MIT with artifacts from his accomplishments. Through Feb. , 2008. •The Heart of MIT: Twenty Years of Photography by Donna Coveney features black-and-white and color photographs by Coveney. Through Sept. 21. •Deep Frontiers: Ocean Engineering at MIT displays technology developed for the preservation of our oceans. Ongoing. •Flashes of Inspiration: The Work of Doc Edgerton features multimedia work commemorating the life of Harold Edgerton. Ongoing. •Gestural Engineering: The Sculpture of Arthur Ganson displays kinetic sculptures by Ganson. Ongoing. •Holography: The Light Fantastic exhibits 23 holograms from the museum's extensive collection by artists including Margaret Benyon and Setsuko Ishii. Ongoing. •Mind and Hand: The Making of MIT Scientists and Engineers portrays the life of an MIT student through mixed media. Ongoing. •Robots and Beyond: Exploring Artificial Intelligence at MIT features multimedia work focusing on studies into artificial intelligence. Ongoing. •Ship Models: The Evolution of Ship Design features 40 full-hull ship models representing 1,000 years of ship building. Ongoing.

Museum of African-American History

46 Joy St., Boston (617-725-0022). www.afroam museum.org. MBTA: Green or Red Line to Park. Mon.-Sat., 10 am-4 pm. Free. •A Gathering Place for Freedom features more than 100 books, drawings and other documents from African-American history. Through December.

Museum of Fine Arts

465 Huntington Ave., Boston (617-267-9300). www. mfa.org. MBTA: E Green Line to Museum. Wed.-Fri., 10 am-9:45 pm; Sat.-Tue., 10 am-4:45 pm; Thu. and Fri. after 5 pm, only the west wing is open. $15; $13, students and seniors; $6.50, children ages 6-17 on school days until 3 pm; free, children 17 and under all other times; admission reduced by $2, Thu. and Fri. after 5 pm; admission by voluntary contribution, Wed., 4-9:45 pm. •Women of Renown:Female Heroes and Villains in the Prints of Utagawa Kuniyoshi (1797-1861) features Kuniyoshi's warrior prints displaying empowered women. Through Oct. 8. •Drama and Desire: Japanese Paintings From the Floating World 1690-1850 depicts the daily activities of Tokyo's inhabitants at the time through woodblock prints and paintings by Harunobu, Utamaro and Hokusai. Through Dec. 16. •Shy Boy, She Devil, and Isis: The Art of Conceptual Craft, Selections from the Wornick Collection features a variety of mixed-media works by 107 artists from 20 countries. Through Jan. 6, 2008 •Arts of Japan: The John C. Weber Collection features mixed-media Japanese works from the 12th century to the mid-20th. Sept. 22-Jan. 13, 2008.•Glittering Gold: Illumination in Islamic Art features illuminated Koran passages by Gilhas Diptas and other artists. Through Jan. 27, 2008. •Contemporary Outlook: German Photography features works by Bernd and Hilla Becher, Andreas Gursky and Thomas Ruff. Through Feb. 2008. •Contemporary Outlook: Japan features mixed-media works between World War II and present day. Through Feb. 10. •Jewelry by Artists: The Daphne Farago Collection features contemporary craft jewelry by Sam Kramer, Man Ray, Pablo Picasso and others. Through March 5, 2008. •Ed Rossbach Fiber Art From the Daphne Farago Collection features more than 40 textile works by Rossbach. Through March 5, 2008.

Museum of Science

Science Park, Boston (617-723-2500). www.mos. org. MBTA: D Green Line to Science Park. Sun.-

, 9 am-7 pm; Fri. and Sat., 9 am-9 pm. $16; $14, ...niors; $13, children ages 3-11. •Weems Animal Sculptures features bronze animal sculptures donated by Katharine Lane Weems. Ongoing. •Earth: Inside Out features displays portraying the Earth's interior. Ongoing. •Welcome to the Universe educates visitors about the universe and displays a scaled model of the solar system. Ongoing. •WeatherWise, a new permanent exhibition, shows visitors the techniques of short-term forecasting.

National Heritage Museum

33 Marrett Road, Lexington (781-861-6559). www.monh.org. Mon.-Sat., 10 am-5 pm; Sun., 12-5 pm. Free. •Pets in America: The Story of Our Lives with Animals at Home features objects and photographs of pets. Through Oct. 14. •Unlocking the Code: Masonic and Fraternal Aprons features a selection of aprons from the collection of the Grand Lodge of Masons in Massachusetts, including pieces from around the world over the past two centuries. Through Dec. 9. •Fins, Wings and Other Such Things features photos from the polaroid collectionwith works by international and local photographers including Ansel Adams. Through Feb. 10. •Sowing the Seeds of Liberty: Lexington and the American Revolution uses mixed media to discuss the battle at Lexington. Ongoing. •American Family Treasures: Decorative Arts from the D.J. and Alice Shumway Nadeau Collection features crafted furniture, metal work, glass and other objects. Ongoing.

Peabody Essex Museum

East India Square, Salem (978-745-9500). www.pem.org. Daily, 10 am-5 pm. $9, $11, seniors; $9, students; free to children under 16 and residents of Salem. •Sketched at Sea features sketchbooks used by mariners to document their experiences at sea. Through Jan. 6, 2008. •Accidental Mysteries features vintage snapshots with double exposure or other darkroom mistakes from the John and Teenuh Foster collection. Through Jan. 27, 2008. •Origami Now! features origami works by artists from around the world.Through June 8, 2008. •Gateway Bombay features paintings, works on paper, photographs and a mixed-media installation by Chriodeep Chaudhuri, Bal Chhabda, Atul Dodiya and others. Through Dec. 7, 2008. •Perfect Imbalance: Exploring Chinese Aesthetics features 30 Chinese artifacts, including paintings, jade and porcelain, which demonstrate the distinctive culture of China. Through May 17, 2009. •All of My Life features works exploring nine contemporary Native American artists' world views. Featured artists include David Bradley, Truman Lowe and Mateo Romero. Ongoing. •Intersections, Native American Art in a New Light examines Native American artwork from the 17th century to the present in ceramics, textiles, drawings and more. Ongoing. •Of Gods and Mortals: Traditional Art From India showcases works from the 1800s to the present. Ongoing.

Peabody Museum of Archaeology and Ethnology

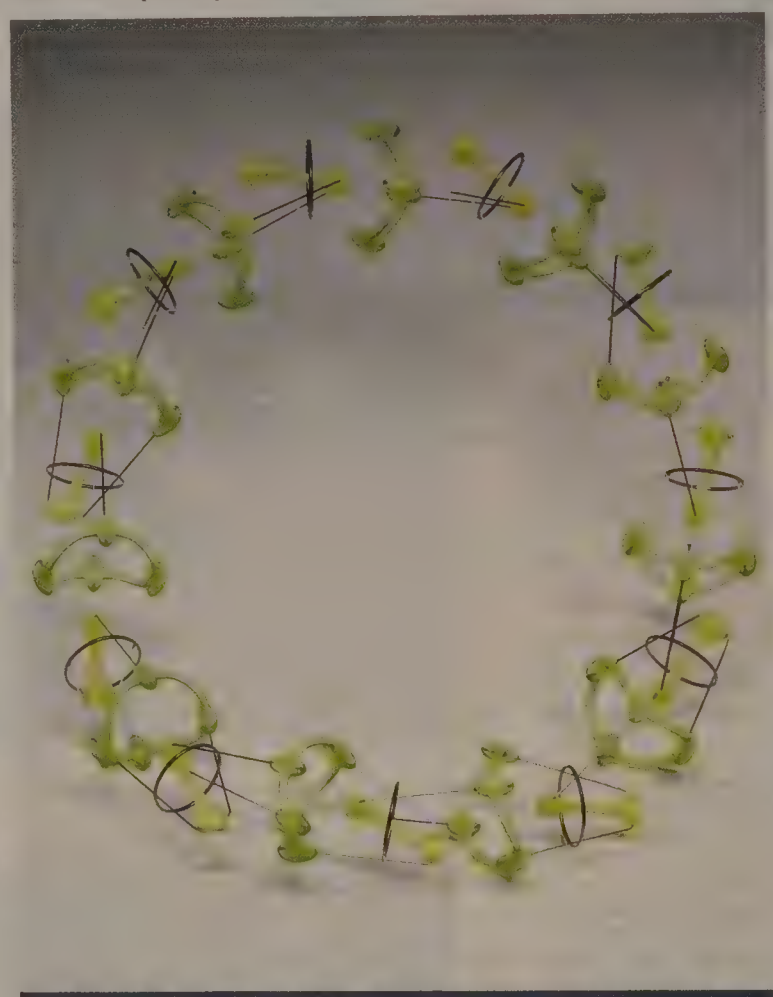
11 Divinity Ave., Cambridge (617-496-1027). www.peabody.harvard.edu. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. Daily, 9 am-5 pm. $9; $7, seniors and students; $6, ages 3-18; free, children under 3. •Imazighen! Beauty and Artisanship in Berber Life features 20th-century artifacts made by the North African Berbers. Through November. •Distinguished Casts: Curating Lost Monuments at the Peabody Museum features casts from Mesoamerica. Through Oct. 30. •The Moche of Ancient Peru: Media and Messages features over 100 pieces including ceramics, textiles and photographs. Through Nov. 30. •From Nation to Nation: Examining Lewis and Clark's Indian Collection features 38 Native American artifacts from the early 18th century. Through June 2008. •The exhibition Feeding the Ancestors: Tlingit Carved Horn Spoons displays spoons made by the Tlingit people of North America during the 1800s. Through March 2008. •Encounters With the Americas examines Native American culture before and after the arrival of Christopher Columbus in 1492. Ongoing. •Change and Continuity portrays Native American culture through objects from the 19th century. Ongoing.

Rose Art Museum

Brandeis University, Kniznick Gallery, 415 South St., Waltham (781-736-3434). www.brandeis.edu/rose. MBTA: Commuter Rail to Brandeis/Roberts. Tue.-Sun. 12-5 pm. Tiger by the Tail! Women Artists of India Transforming Culture features mixed-media installations by 17 Indian women artists. Through Dec. 14.

Special Events

Artist Reception and Talk



New England Institute of Art, 10 Brookline Place West, Brookline (617-582-4617). www.artinstitutes.edu/boston. MBTA: E Green Line to Riverway. Sept. 20, 4-6:30 pm. Free. Artist and former New Orleans public school teacher Jeffrey Marshall discusses his documentation of the devastation wrought by Hurricane Katrina.

Captivity Concealed

Isabella Stewart Gardner Museum, 280 The Fenway, Boston (617-566-1401). www.gardnermuseum.org. MBTA: E Green Line to Museum. Sept. 20, 7 pm. $20. Resident artist Ledoh performs contemporary Japanese dance with violinist Reverend Markus Hawkins.

Conversations Between Two Artists

Isabella Stewart Gardner Museum, 280 The Fenway, Boston (617-566-1401). www.gardnermuseum.org. MBTA: E Green Line to Museum. Sept.13, 6:30 pm. $5-$7. Resident artists Mingwei Lee and Su-Mei Tse discuss their upcoming exhibition in Taipei.

Joe Wood's "Stem Hoop" is on display in the jewelry exhibition Joe Wood: New York, running through Sept. 29 at Mobilia Gallery.

Davis Museum and Cultural Center Reopening

Wellesley College, 106 Central St., Wellesley (781-283-2051). www.davismuseum.wellesley.edu. MBTA: Commuter Rail to Wellesley. Sept. 19, 6-8 pm. Free. Celebrate the reopening of the museum with gallery talks, refreshments and music.

Gallery Talks: Meet the Artists

DeCordova Museum and Sculpture Park, 51 Sandy Pond Road, Lincoln (781-259-8355). www.decordova.org. MBTA: Commuter Rail to Lincoln. 3 pm. Free. •Sept. 15, 3 pm: Sandor Bodo discusses his work. •Sept. 22, 3 pm: Edythe F. Wright talks about her work.

Photographer's Printing Day in the Camera Obscura

Brookline Arts Center, 86 Monmouth St., Brookline (617-566-5715). www.brooklineartscenter.com. MBTA: C Green Line to St. Mary's. Sept. 13, 9:30-11:30 am. Free. Expose black-and-white images in the exhibition Walk Inside the Camera.

Soundscape 2007

368 Congress St., Boston (617-669-5690). www.soundscape2007.com. MBTA: Red Line to South Station. Sept. 14 and 15, 7-11 pm. Free. This event features 16 musicians performing simultaneously in a 8,000-square-foot labyrinth, with artists creating works in response to the music and space.

Unveiling Celtic Treasures of Eire

Museum of Fine Arts, 465 Huntington Ave., Boston (617-267-9300). www.eiresociety.org. MBTA: E Green Line to Museum. Sept. 13, 6:30 pm. $15. This event features ancient golden Celtic treasures, a lecture by Boston Irish historian Michael Neagle and a reception at the MFA's Bravo restaurant.

Uplifted! Art Perpetuating Hope

The Boston Conservatory, 8 The Fenway, Boston (617-912-9153). www.uplifted-aph.org. MBTA: Green Line to Fenway. Sept. 15, 2-9:30 pm. Free. This consortium presents the works of young local artists.

Galleries

FINE ART

Acme Fine Art

38 Newbury St., Boston (617-585-9551). www.acmefineart.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Tue.-Sat., 11 am-5:30 pm. •Lester Johnson: Oil Paintings from the 1960s features oil-on-canvas works by Johnson completed early in his career. Through Oct. 6. • Provincetown Watercolors 1934-1964 features works by Kenneth Stubbs. Through Oct. 6.

Adams Gallery

Suffolk University Law School 120 Tremont St., Boston (617-305-1782). www.suffolk.edu/adams_gallery. MBTA: Red or Green Line to Park St. Daily 9 am-7 pm. Faces and Places of Suffolk University features photographs of the campus itself and those who inhabit it. Through September.

Allston Skirt Gallery

65 Thayer Ave., Boston (617-482-3652). www.allstonskirt.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. Wed.-Sat., 11 am-5 pm, or by appointment. •Robin Dash: Don't Climb the Pyramids features Dash's mixed-media works. Through Sept. 29. •Rachel Sumpter: New Work features Sumpter's works in gouache and pastel on paper. Through Sept. 29.

Alpha Gallery

38 Newbury St., Boston (617-536-4465). www.alphagallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Tue.-Fri., 10 am-5:30 pm; Sat., 11 am-5:30 pm. Paul Sattler features oil-on-canvas paintings by the namesake artist. Sept. 15-Oct. 10.

Arden Gallery

129 Newbury St., Boston (617-247-0610). www.ardengallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Mon.-Sat., 11 am-5:30 pm. Les Humanites features acrylic-on-canvas works by Paul Béliveau inspired by various book bindings. Through Sept. 29.

Ars Libri

500 Harrison Ave., Boston (617-357-5212). www.arslibri.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. Mon.-Fri., 9 am-6 pm; Sat., 11 am-5 pm. An untitled exhibit features new paintings by Kelley Walker. Through Oct. 3.

Art Institute of Boston

700 Beacon St., Boston. (617-585-6600). http://web.lesley.edu/aib. MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore. Mon.-Sat., 9 am-6 pm, Sun., 12-5 pm. Anita Kunz Illustrations Published and Unpublished features mixed-media works by Kunz. Through Oct. 21.

Artana

1378 Beacon St., Suite B, Brookline (617-879-3111). www.artanagallery.com. MBTA: C Green Line to Coolidge Corner. Wed.-Fri. 11 am-6 pm, Sat., 10 am - 5 pm or by appointment. An untitled exhibit features new works of impressionistic landscapes and seascapes by Jacques Gatti. Through Sept. 25.

Atlantic Works Gallery

80 Border St., Boston (781-872-2432). www.atlanticworks.org. MBTA: Blue Line to Maverick. Thu., 6-9 pm; Fri.-Sat., 12-6 pm. Jaye Woodstock and Laura Baltzell: Make Lemonade features mixed-media works by the exhibit's namesake artists. Through Sept. 29.

L'Attitude Gallery

218 Newbury St., Boston (617-927-4400). www.lattitudegallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Mon.-Sat., 10 am-6 pm; Sun., 12-5 pm. •The Many Facets of Sheryl Ellinwood features the artist's variety of styles including glass panels and sculpture. Through Oct. 31. •The Natural Elements of Paula DeSimone features paintings of nature by the namesake artist. Through October.

Axelle Fine Arts

91 Newbury St., Boston (617-450-0700). ... axelle.com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Dail... am-6 pm. •Installation of New Works featur... and gouache impressionistic creations by Ja... Gatti. Through Sept. 25. •The permanent c... tion features works by French contemporary ... Elizabeth Estivalet, Michel Delacroix and A... Bourrie, among others.

Baak Gallery

35 Brattle St., Cambridge (617-354-0407). ... baakgallery.com. MBTA: Red Line to Har... Mon.-Sat., 10:30 am-7 pm. Summer Group ... features the abstract paintings, charcoal ... traits, and poetic works of Pauline Lim, ... cisco De La Barra, and Elizabeth She... Through Sept. 19.

Barbara Krakow Gallery

10 Newbury St., 5th floor, Boston (617 ... 4490). www.barbarakrakowgallery.com. M... Green Line to Arlington. Tue.-Sat., 10 am ... pm. Four Forms features yarn, wood, drawing ... print works by Fred Sandback. Through Oc...

Berenberg Gallery

4 Clarendon St., Boston (617-536-0800). ... berenberggallery.com. MBTA: Orange Line t... Bay. Tue.-Sat., 11 am-6 pm. Animal Returns S... ber features mixed-media works by Gabrielle S... Sept. 15-Nov. 3.

Bernard Toale Gallery

450 Harrison Ave., Boston (617-482-2477). ... bernardtoalegallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to ... Tue.-Sat., 10:30 am-5:30 and by appointment ... biguous Ambassador. features a selection of 1 ... portrait, gelatin silver prints by the artist ... Kwong Chi; Provisional: features drawing and ... work by Nancy Murphy Spicer. Through Sept. ...

Beth Urdang Gallery

129 Newbury St., Boston (617-424-5550). ... bethurdanggallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to ... Mon.-Sat., 10:30 am-5:30 pm. •Joe Brubak ... tures Brubaker's sculpture. Through Oc... •Margo Margolis features recent paintings by ... lis. Through Oct. 13.

Boston Center for the Arts

Mills Gallery, 539 Tremont St., Boston (61... 8835). www.bcaonline.org. MBTA: Orange ... Back Bay. Wed.-Thu. 12-5 pm; Fri.-Sat. 12-... Sun. 12-5 pm. The Lights Going On and Off f... an installation using electric light by Martin ... Sept. 14-Oct. 28.

Boston Public Library

700 Boylston St., Boston (617-536-5400). ... bpl.org. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Mon.-... am-9 pm; Fri. & Sat., 9 am-5 pm. •The Extr... Ambassador: Alexandre Vattemare, The Fren... triloquist Who Changed the World explores the ... of one of the BPL's founders. Through Se... •United We Will Win features a collection of ... US World War II posters from 1939-1945. T... Sept. 15.

Boston Sculptors Gallery

486 Harrison Ave., Boston (617-482-7781) ... bostonsculptors.com. MBTA: Orange Line ... Bay. Wed.-Sun., 12 pm-6 pm. •Fluid States ... multi-media works incorporating light and ... by Julia Shepley. Through Oct. 7. •Out ... Gourds features dried, cut and polished go... sembled into abstract sculpture by Terry A... Through Oct. 7.

Brickbottom Gallery

1 Fitchburg St., Somerville (617-776-3410) ... brickbottomartists.com. MBTA: Green Line ... mere. Thu.-Sat., 12-5pm. Fabrications: F... Medium features works by Kate James, John ... Clara Wainwright and others. Sept. 14-Oct. ...

Bromfield Gallery

450 Harrison Ave., Boston (617-451-3605, ... bromfieldgallery.com. MBTA: Orange Line ... Bay. Tue.-Sat., 12-6 pm. Plus One feature ... making, sculpture and paintings by gallery ... Through Sept. 29.

Brookline Arts Center

86 Monmouth St., Brookline (617-566-5715 ... brooklineartscenter.com. MBTA: C Green Li... Mary's. Mon.-Fri., 9 am-4:30 pm. •Con... Pieces features mixed-media and outdoor sc... by James Burnes, Mark Favermann, Madele... and others. Through Sept. 2008. •Walk I... Camera offers a full size replica of a camera ... The BAC gallery space will be transforme... camera where visitors can learn about th... photography. Through Sept. 14. •BCC at ... features photography by 17 members of th... Camera Club. Through Oct. 5.

Cambridge Arts Association

University Place Gallery, 124 Mount Aub... Cambridge (617-876-0246). www.cambrid... Mon.-Fri., 9 am-6 pm; Sat. 9 am-1 pm. Si...

/ual Fall Salon features mixed-media works by g ery artists. Through Oct. 4.

Cmbridge Arts Council
3 Broadway, Cambridge (617-349-4380). www. bridgeartscouncil.org. MBTA: Red Line to Central. M., Wed. and Thu., 8:30 am-8 pm; Tue., 8:30 am-5 n; Fri., 8:30 am-12 pm. •What Is Public ART To features multi-media works by the Public Arts Y th Council. Through Sept. 14. •Brain Terrain: A Exhibition of Painting and Drawings by Heidi Whitm features mixed-media works exploring states of rd. Sept. 24-Nov. 9.

Cmbridge Multicultural Arts Center
4 Second St., Cambridge (617-577-1400). www. rcusa.org. MBTA: Red Line to Kendall/MIT. M.-Fri., 10 am-6 pm. Legacies features mixed-m a works by various artists that examine the b bings of Laos during the Vietnam War. Sept. 1 Oct. 30.

Case Gallery
1 Newbury St., Boston (617-859-7222). www. ckegallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. M.-Fri., 11 am-5:30 pm; Sat., 10 am-5 pm. Interi Toroids features paintings on canvas exploring hysical and artistic language of mathematics by Mael Schultheis. Through Sept. 29.

C lds Gallery
1 Newbury St., Boston (617-266-1108). www. chsgallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Mon. n Sat., 10 am-5 pm; Tue.-Fri., 9 am-6 pm. •The Bonians: Painters, Sculptors and Draftsmen, 1840- features works by Boston artists over a 100 year pe d. Sept. 17-Nov. 10. •Monhegan Watercolors of Te Davis features works by the artist. Sept. 17-Nov. 1 •The Place Where Maine Vacations: Grisaille Wa er lors of Bernard Brussel-Smith features landscapes by the titular artist.

C ley Society of Art
15 Newbury St., Boston (617-536-5049). www. cofysociety.org. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Tue.-Sa 11 am-6 pm; Sun., 12-5 pm. •On a Wire fea tur paintings of birds by Ellen Granter. Through Oc 13. •Painted Turtles features oil-on-canvas pa ings of turtles. Through Oct. 13.

Ci mp McCole Gallery
70 Seaport Blvd., Boston (617-330-1133). MBTA: Re Line to South Station. Mon.-Wed. and Fri., 10 n-6 pm; Thu., 10 am-8 pm; Sat. and Sun., 12-5 •Artists' Gallery Exhibit features oil paintings of Bo on by Norman Crump, watercolors by Dan Mc- and marine art by Jeff Eldredge. Ongoing.

D R Modern Galleries
16 Newbury St., Boston (617-424-9700). www.dtr n.com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Mon.-Th 11 am-7 pm; Fri. and Sat., 11 am-8 pm; Sun., 11 n-6 pm. 50 Years of American Art: 1957-2007 e res prints, lithographs and works on paper by Andy Warhol, Jean-Michel Basquiat, Robert Indi- na and others. Through Oct. 30.

Ecpse Gallery
6 Newbury St., Boston (617-247-6730). MBTA: ir h Line to Copley. Tue.-Sat., 9 am-6 pm.

Fo: Point Arts Community Gallery
0 Summer St., Boston (617-423-4299). www.fort orarts.org. MBTA: Red Line to South Station. Mo -Fri., 9 am-3:30 pm; Thurs. 9 am-6 pm. Time na pace features mixed-media works from seven rt s celebrating the MacDowell Colony's centen- ia Through Sept. 28.

Gerie d'Orsay
3 Newbury St., Boston (617-266-8001). www. ale-dorsay.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Mo -Sat., 10 am-6 pm; Sun., 12-6 pm. •Allegories nd andscapes features mixed-media works by Luc eemaker. Through Sept. 16. •Royo features oil- n nvas works by the namesake artist. Sept. 21- Oct3.

Gery Kayafas
5 Harrison Ave., Boston (617-482-0411). www. ellykayafas.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. ue Sat., 10 am-5:30 pm. Heat/Light features pho- gr phy by Jo Sandman. Through Sept. 29.

Gery Naga
7 Newbury St., Boston (617-267-9060). www. allynaga.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. ue Sat., 10 am-5:30 pm. New Paintings features ou he-on-panel works by Masako Kamiya. Th ugh Oct. 6. •Mistakes, I've Made a Few features al -panel works by Stuart Ober. Through Oct. 6.

Gaway Gallery
2 Harvard St., Brookline (617-734-1577). www. ateayarts.org. MBTA: D Green Line to Brookline Vill e. Mon.-Fri., 9 am-4:30 pm; Sat., 12-5 pm. re You Are In My Eyes exhibits works inspired by er n people or situations by artists with disabili- ies through Nov. 10.

Gud of Boston Artists
62 Newbury St., Boston (617-536-7660). www. uildbostonartists.org. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Tue.-Sat., 10:30 am-5:30 pm; Sun. and Mon., by appointment only. Historic Boston features oil and acrylic paintings by member artists. Through Sept. 29.

Howard Yezerski Gallery
14 Newbury St., Boston (617-262-0550). www. howardyezerskigallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Tue.-Sat., 10 am-5:30 pm. •Nocturnes features photographic collages dealing with death, aging and war. Through Oct. 2. •When My Neighbor Told Me I Would Die features Russian folkloric acrylic and gouache-on-canvas paintings by Yana Payusova. Through Oct. 2.

Judi Rotenberg Gallery
130 Newbury St., Boston (617-437-1518). www. judirotenberg.com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Tue.-Sat., 10 am-6 pm. At Work looks at the construction of professional environments through mixed-media works by Mary Ellen Strom, Anne Carlson, Rebecca Chamberlain and Shellburne Thurber. Through Oct. 6.

Kidder Smith Gallery
131 Newbury St., Boston (617-424-6900). www. kiddersmithgallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Tue.-Sat., 11 am-5:30 pm. Stratagem features paint-on-metal works by Tom Liddy that represent vintage board game boxes. Through Sept. 29.

Kingston Gallery
37 Thayer St., Boston (617-423-4113). www. kingstongallery.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. Tue.-Sat., 12-5 pm and by appointment. High Ho Silver! features a group show celebrating 25 years at the gallery with mixed-media works by gallery artists. Through Sept. 29.

Laconia Gallery
433 Harrison Ave., Boston (617-670-1568). www. laconiagallery.org. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. Sat., 12-4 pm. Live:Work features mixed-media works by Laconia Loft residents. Through Sept. 29.

Lanoue Fine Art
160 Newbury St., Boston (617-262-4400). www. lanouefineart.com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Mon.-Sat., 10 am-6 pm; Sun., 12-5 pm. The gallery's collection features works in various media by international artists, including John Folsom, Ruth Bloch, Marc Civitarese, Carrie McGee, Laura Schiff Bean and Elwood Howell. Ongoing.

Martha Richardson Fine Art
38 Newbury St., Boston (617-266-3321). www. martharichardsonfineart.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Tue.-Fri., 10 am-5 pm; Sat., 11 am-5 pm. The ongoing exhibition 19th- and 20th-Century American and European Paintings features works from the gallery's collection.

Massachusetts College of Art
621 Huntington Ave., Boston (617-879-7333). www. massart.edu. MBTA: E Green Line to Longwood. Mon.-Fri., 10 am-6 pm; Sat., 11 am-5 pm. Selections From the Master Print Series features prints by MassArt faculty and students. Through September.

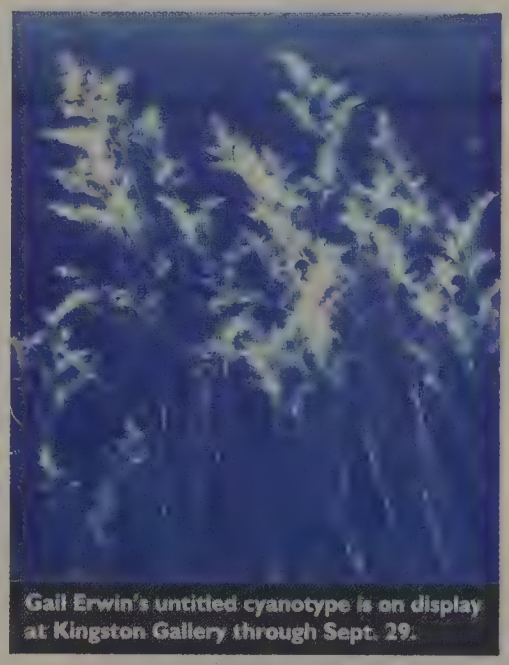
Mercury Gallery
8 Newbury St., 2nd Floor, Boston (617-859-0054). www.mercurygallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Mon.-Sat., 10 am-5:30 pm and by appointment. Paintings From the WPA features works by Herman Rose, Louis Schanker and Joseph Solman, Depression-era artists employed by the Works Progress Administration. Sept. 15-Oct. 9.

Mobilia Gallery
358 Huron Ave., Cambridge (617-876-2109). www. mobilia-gallery.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. Tue.-Fri., 11 am-6 pm; Sat., 10 am-5 pm and by appointment. •See to It is a gallery installation featuring works on aging by John McQueen and Margo Mensing. Through Sept. 22. •Joe Wood: New York is an exhibition of jewelery work showing connecting systems. Through Sept. 29. •The gallery collection features studio jewelry, sculpture, baskets and vessels by various artists.

Montserrat College of Art Gallery
23 Essex St., Beverly (978-921-4242). www. montserrat.edu/galleries. MBTA: Commuter Rail to Beverly. Mon.-Thu., 10 am-5 pm; Fri. 10 am-1 pm. Merging Influence: Eastern Elements in New American Art features mixed-media works linking visual art with cultural history by Ahmed Abdalla, Eung Ho Park, Shiva Ahmadi and others. Through Oct. 27.

MPG Contemporary
450 Harrison Ave., Boston (617-357-8881). www. mpgallery.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. Tue.-Sat., 11 am-5 pm. Moving Shadows features acrylic-on-canvas paintings by Eva Navarro. Through Sept. 29.

New Art Center
61 Washington Park, Newtonville (617-964-3424). www.newartcenter.org. MBTA: Commuter Rail to Newtonville. Mon.-Fri., 9 am-5 pm. Sun., 1-5 pm. Belief in Paint r features large paint works by Thorpe Feidt, John Grillo and Richard B. Lethem. Through Oct. 28.



New England Institute of Art
10 Brookline Place West, Brookline (617-582-4617). www.artinstitutes.edu/boston. MBTA: E Green Line to Riverway. Mon.-Thu., 8:30 am-8 pm; Fri., 8:30 am-5 pm; Sat., 9 am-3 pm. Recovering New Orleans features large-scale drawings of post-Katrina New Orleans by Jeffrey Marshall. Through Oct. 10.

New England School of Art and Design
75 Arlington St., Boston (617-573-8785). www. suffolk.edu/nesad/gallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Mon.-Fri., 9 am-9 pm. New Works features pieces using light by John Powell. Through Oct. 6.

Newbury Fine Arts
29 Newbury St., Boston (617-536-0210). www. newburyfinearts.com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Mon-Sat., 10 am-6 pm; Sun., 12-5 pm. Interpretations of Landscape features oil and acrylic paintings by Jim Buckels and Steven Strout. Through Sept. 18.

OHT Gallery
450 Harrison Ave., Boston (617-357-8881). www. ohtgallery.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. Tue.-Sat., 11 am-5 pm. New Paintings features oil-on-canvas works by Jennifer Riley. Through Sept. 29.

OSP Gallery
450 Harrison Ave., Boston (617-778-5265). www. ospgallery.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. Tue.-Sat., 11 am-5 pm.

Gail Erwin's untitled cyanotype is on display at Kingston Gallery through Sept. 29.

Out of the Blue Gallery
106 Prospect St., Cambridge (617-354-5287). www. outoftheblueartgallery.com. MBTA: Red Line to Central. Mon-Sun., 12-6 pm. •This Is Soo Gay features gay-themed paintings, sculptures and poetry by Deborah M. Priestly, DL Polonsky, Devon Prevost and others. Through September. •Landscape and Brush features ink and brush works by Julien Wong. Sept. 14-Oct. 10.

Pepper Gallery
38 Newbury St., Boston (617-236-4497). www. peppergalleryboston.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Tue.-Fri., 10 am-5:30 pm; Sat., 11 am-5 pm. Katy Schneider Oil Illustrations features the namesake artist's pieces from the children's book Once I Ate a Pie. Through Oct. 6.

Pierre Menard Gallery
10 Arrow St., Cambridge (617-868-2033). www. pierremenardgallery.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. Wed.-Sun., 11 am-7 pm. Nicholas Kilmer Reflections in Oil features oil paintings by the namesake artist. Through Oct. 2.

Proof Gallery
516 East 2nd St., 2nd Floor, Unit 20, South Boston. www.proof-gallery.com. MBTA: Red Line to Broadway. Thu.-Sat., 12-6 pm, and by appointment. Fringe Benefits features sculptures and mixed-media works by Jeff DeGolier. Sept. 22-Nov. 3.

Pucker Gallery
171 Newbury St., Boston (617-267-9473). www. puckergallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Mon.-Sat., 10 am-5:30 pm; Sun., 1-5 pm. •Language of Landscape features oil-on-canvas and oil-on-wooden board works by Marguerite Robichaux. Through Oct. 8. •Simple Beauty features ceramic Japanese art by Noriyasu Tsuchiya. Through Oct. 8. •The permanent collection includes mixed-media works by artists from diverse cultures, including Inuit, South and West African, Israeli, Japanese, Welsh and American.

Rhys Gallery
401 Harrison Ave., Boston (617-357-7497). www. rhysgallery.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Mass. Ave., Wed.-Sun., 11 am-6 pm. Amir H. Fallah and Evelyn Rydz features mixed-media works by the artists. Through Oct. 5.

Robert Klein Gallery
38 Newbury St., Boston (617-267-7997). www. robertkleingallery.com MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Tue.-Fri., 10 am-5:30 pm, Sat., 11 am-5 pm. Didier Massard features Massard's landscape and nature paintings. Through Nov. 23.

School of the MFA
Grossman Gallery, 230 The Fenway, Boston (617-369-3718). www.smfa.edu. MBTA: E Green Line to Museum. Mon.-Fri., 10 am-5 pm. •Self-Preservation features multimedia work by nine current students and recent graduates. Through Sept. 30. •America's Paradise and Isla Del Encanto: Contemporary Art From the American Caribbean features paintings and works on paper by Monica Marin, Elsa María Meléndez, Shansi Miller and others. Sept. 18-Oct. 13.

Simmons College Trustman Gallery
300 The Fenway, 4th floor, Boston (617-521-2268). www.simmons.edu/trustman. MBTA: E Green Line to Museum. Mon.-Fri., 10 am-4:30 pm. Transgress features a solo show of photographic works by Chantal Zakari. Through Oct. 5.

Society of Arts and Crafts
175 Newbury St., Boston (617-266-1810). www. societyofcrafts.org. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Mon.-Sat., 10 am-6 pm; Sun., 12-5 pm. Architecture/Structure in Contemporary Craft features multimedia works by various artists including Boris Bally and Ruth McDowell. Through Oct. 28.

Soprafina Gallery
73 Thayer St., Boston (617-728-0770). www. soprafina.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. by appointment. Donald Kelley Hot features paintings by Donald Kelley. Through September.

St. George Gallery
245 Newbury St., Boston (617-450-0321). www. stgeorgegallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Tue.-Sat., 10 am-5:30 pm; Sun., 12-5 pm. Autumn Painters features landscapes and cityscapes by William St. George, watercolors by Sandra Mueller-Dick and acrylic paintings of Greece, Provence and Santa Fe by Yvette Stenzel. Through September.

13Forest Gallery
13 Forest St., Medford (781-396-0092). www.13forest.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Oak Grove. Mon.-Wed., Fri., 1 pm-7 pm; Thu., 1 pm-8 pm; Sat., 12 pm-5 pm. •Icons features photographs, photo transfers and etchings of iconic images by Will Tenney, Lisa Tang Liu, David Colombo and Nancy Hopper. Through Sept. 27. •Adele Travisano: Summer Garden Series features oil-on-canvas works by the exhibition's namesake artist. Through Sept. 27.

Tufts University Art Gallery
40R Talbot Ave., Medford (617-627-3518). www. ase.tufts.edu/gallery. MBTA: Red Line to Davis. Tue.-Sun., 11 am-5 pm.; Thursdays until 8 pm. •The Center of Cosmic Energy features a specially designed amphitheater with an audio narrative. Through Nov. 11. •Global Village Shelters features full-size, biodegradable houses by Daniel Ferrara and Mia Ferrari-Pelosi. Through Dec. 23.

Vose Galleries
238 Newbury St., Boston (617-536-6176). www. vosegalleries.com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Mon.-Fri., 9:30 am-5:30 pm. Sat., 10 am-5:30 pm. Spotlight on Vose Contemporary features contemporary works by gallery artists. Through Sept. 29.

Washington Street Art
321 Washington St., Somerville (617-623-5315). www. washingtonst.org. MBTA: Orange Line to Sullivan. Sat., 12-4 pm. Landscapes: Real and Imagined features mixed-media works by Meredith Fitzgerald and sound provided by Steven K. Smith. Through Sept. 29.

Photography

Griffin Museum of Photography
67 Shore Road, Winchester (781-729-1158). www. griffinmuseum.org. MBTA: Commuter Rail to Winchester Center. Tue.-Thu., 11 am-5 pm; Fri., 11 am-4 pm; Sat. and Sun., 12-4 pm. $5. 13th Griffin Museum Juried Exhibition features selected winning photographs by artists from across the country. Through Oct. 28.

Panopticon Gallery Boston
502 Comm. Ave., Boston (617-267-8929). www. panopt.com. MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore. Tue.-Sat. 11 am-6 pm and by appointment. •Eyes on the Past features images from the Collection of Historic New England. Through Nov. 5. •Panoramic Photographs features images of Boston and New York City by John Woolf. Through Nov. 5.

gay & lesbian

Advice to Contributors
Submit information, including telephone numbers and nearest MBTA stop, by fax (617-859-1446) or mail, or e-mail gaylesbian@improper.com.

Clubs, Bars & Hangouts

The Alley (Daily)
14 Pi Alley, 275 Washington St., Boston (617-263-1449). www.thealleybar.com. MBTA: Blue or Green Line to Gov. Center. Mon.-Fri., 2 pm-2 am; Sat. and Sun., 12 pm-2 am. No cover. 21+. Boston's leather-and-Levis neighborhood bar offers pool, pinball, a jukebox and video games.

Avalon (Sundays)
15 Lansdowne St., Boston (617-262-2424). MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore. 10 pm. $10. 21+. Sunday-night parties include drag acts and house music from resident DJ Rich Ladue.

Axis (Mondays)
13 Lansdowne St., Boston (617-262-2424). MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore. 10 pm. $7. 21+. Static Mondays features a drag show hosted by Ms. Kris Knievil on the last Monday of each month, and DJ Susan Esthera spins vocal house weekly. .

Breezeway Bar & Grill (Fridays)
153 Blue Hill Ave., Roxbury (617-541-5400). www.breezewayboston.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Ruggles. 10 pm. $10. This night features Urban Lesbian Night, with DJs spinning hip-hop, reggae and Top 40 hits.

Buzz @ Aria (Saturdays)
246 Tremont St., Boston (617-267-8969). www.buzzboston.com. MBTA: Green Line to Boylston or Orange Line to NE Medical Center. 10 pm. $10. 21+. At this weekly party, DJ Michael Sheehan spins trance and house music in the front room, while DJ Mary Alice spins hip-hop in the back of the house.

Eagle (Daily)
520 Tremont St., Boston (617-542-4494). MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. No cover. 21+. This neighborhood cruise bar is open nightly.

Fran's Place (Tuesdays)
776 Washington St., Lynn (781-598-5618). www.gofrans.com. MBTA: Commuter Rail to Lynn. 9 pm. No cover. Each Tuesday, Fran's hosts live music from local bands followed by karaoke 10 pm-1:30 am.

Fritz (Daily)
26 Chandler St., Boston (617-482-4428). www.fritzboston.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. Mon.-Sat., 12 pm-2 am; Sun., 11 am-2 am. This gay sports bar, with six large-screen plasma TVs, serves brunch Saturday, Sunday and on Monday holidays.

Jacques Cabaret (Daily)
79 Broadway, Boston (617-426-8902). MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Mon.-Sat., 11 am-12 am; Sun., 12 pm-12 am. $6, weekdays; $10, weekends. 21+. Patrons mingle with dancing drag queens. •Mon.: First Monday of each month is TraniWreck; second Monday is Eleganza, a rock ensemble; third Monday is Wreckage, TraniWreck's Contest Show; fourth Monday is Fire and Ice Revue. •Tue.: Karaoke. •Wed.: Delightful Divas with Melinda Wilson. •Thu.: Jacques Angels with Ms. Kris Knievil. •Fri. and Sat.: Miss Norelle's Leading Ladies and live music. •Sun.: An Evening of Mizery: Amateur Talent Night.

Machine (Sundays, Tuesdays, Fridays, Saturdays)
1254 Boylston St., Boston (617-536-1950). www.ramrodmachine.com. MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore. •Sun., 10 pm-2 am, 21+: Service Industry Night. •Tue., 10 pm-2 am, $10, 21+: Indigo Tuesdays featuring hip-hop and dance with DJ Sun One, as well as go-go boys and a drag show. •Fri., 10 pm-2 am, $8, 21+: Best Night Out, featuring deep house music. •Sat., 10 pm-2 am, $8, 21+: Anthem with diva house music.

Midway Café (Thursdays)
3496 Washington St., Jamaica Plain (617-524-9038). www.midwaycafe.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Green. 9 pm-2 am. $2. 21+. Ladies Night with DJ Summer's Eve features occasional Queer-a-Oke performances.

Paradise (Daily)
180 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-868-3000). www.paradisecambridge.com. MBTA: Red Line to Central. Sun.-Wed., 7 pm-1 am; Thu.-Sat., 7 pm-2 am. No cover. 21+. Male strippers perform every night, and DJs spin Top 40 beats every Thursday through Saturday.

Ramrod (Daily)
1254 Boylston St., Boston (617-266-2986). MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore. 12 pm-2 am. Billed as the largest leather bar on the East Coast, Ramrod enforces a strict dress code (leather is mandatory for the back room on weekends). •Mon.: Pool, dart tournaments and pizza. •Wed.: Twitch 4.0 with DJ Mac. •Thu.: Mandance with DJ Jason Taylor. •Fri.: Bound to Please with DJ Danae Jacovidis. •Sat.: Leather Cruise with DJ Freespace. •Sun.: Service Industry Night.

Rise (Saturdays)
306 Stuart St., Boston (617-423-7473). www.riseclub.us. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. 1:30-6:30 am. $10, members; $20, guests. This members-only club is predominantly gay on Saturdays. Storm Saturdays feature resident DJs Billy Carroll, Chad Jack, Gilles Massicotte, Joe Gauthreaux and Mark Anthony upstairs, with David McNeary spinning downstairs.

Rumor (Sundays)
100 Warrenton St., Boston (617-338-8061). www.rumorboston.com. MBTA: Green Line to Boylston. Sun., 7-11 pm. $8. Sunday Power T-Dance, sponsored by Gay Mafia Boston, features local DJs spinning house and Top 40.

Saint (Tuesdays)
90 Exeter St., Boston (617-236-1134). www.saintnitery.com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Tue., 10 pm-2 am. Gay Mafia hosts Flaunt Tuesdays at Saint, where DJ Ranny spins house and Top 40 remixes. Bacardi drink samples are free to the first 100 guests.

Shine (Fridays)
1 Kendall Square, Building 300, Cambridge (617-621-9500). www.shinecambridge.com. MBTA: Red Line to Kendall/MIT. 10 pm. DJ Dena spins a blend of Top 40, hip-hop and house.

Toast (Fridays, Saturdays)
70 Union Square, Somerville (617-623-9211). www.toastlounge.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Oak Grove. 21+. •Fri: Dyke Night Productions hosts a lesbian dance party with DJ Susan Esthera. 6:30 pm-2 am. $5. •Sat: DJ Ranny spins Top 40 energy house at the Acucar dance party for Brazilian gay men. 9:30 pm-2 am. $3; $6 after 10:30.

Tribe at Felt (Thursdays)
Felt, 533 Washington St., 4th floor, Boston (617-350-5555). www.tribenightclub.com. MBTA: Red or Orange Line to Downtown Crossing. 9:30 pm-2 am. $5. 21+. DJ Jim from KISS 108 spins hip-hop and Top 40 on Felt's fourth floor at this weekly lesbian night.

209 at Club Café (Daily)
209 Columbus Ave., Boston (617-536-0966). www.clubcafe.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington or Orange Line to Back Bay. Wed.-Sat., 11:30 pm-2 am; Sat.,12 pm-2 am; Sun., 10:30 pm-2 am. No cover. 21+. This South End spot offers dining and unobtrusive music in the front room at Restaurant 209 and video entertainment in the back room at Club Café. •Wed., 9 pm: Karaoke Idol. •Thu.: DJ Aga. •Fri.: Edge Fridays with Edgeboston.com. •Sat.: Music videos.

Venu (Wednesdays)
100 Warrenton St., Boston (617-695-9500). www.chapsboston.com. MBTA: Green Line to Boylston. 10 pm. $8. 21+. Wednesday is Latino night with DJ Adilson, complete with go-go boys and drag shows.

Shows and Events

CineMental: Back to School
Brattle Theatre, 40 Brattle St., Cambridge (617-876-6837). www.brattlefilm.org. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. Sept. 19, 7:30 pm. $10. All ages. Truth Serum continues its series exploring groundbreaking work in queer video, film, performance and music.

Melissa Etheridge Listening Party
Hard Rock Cafe, 22-24 Clinton St., Boston (617-424-7625). www.melissaetheridge.com. MBTA: Blue or Green Line to Gov. Center. Sept. 24, 8 pm. Free. The Melissa Etheridge Fan Club hosts a listening party for her new CD and a free raffle, with prizes including an autographed guitar.

Mr. Boston Leather Contest
Ramrod, 1254 Boylston St., Boston (617-266-2986). www.ramrodboston.com. MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore. Sept. 21-22; judging occurs Sept. 22, 10 pm. 21+. A two-day celebration of Boston's leather community, including a parade of colors, a meet-and-greet session and the selection of the new Mr. Boston Leather. Applications are available online and at the bar.

Salsa Lesson
Toast Lounge, 70 Union Square, Somerville (617-623-9211). www.dykenight.com. Sept. 14, 9 pm. $10, instruction; $5 without lesson. 21+. Join Dyke Night for a same-sex salsa lesson, followed by dance music from the Dyke Night DJ.

Same Sex America
The Art Institute of Boston at Lesley University, 1815 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-585-6656). http://web.lesley.edu/aib. MBTA: Red Line to Porter. Through Oct. 6. Tue.-Fri., 12-8; Sat. and Sun., 12-5 pm. Free. The Art Institute at Lesley University showcases a film by Henry Corra and Charlene Rule, and a photo exhibition by Amber Davis Tourlentes documenting the road to marriage for same-sex couples.

Ongoing

Bagly
St. John the Evangelist Church, 35 Bowdoin St., Boston (617-227-4313). www.bagly.org. MBTA: Red or Green Line to Park. Wed., 5-9 pm. The Boston Alliance of Gay, Lesbian, Bisexual and Transgender Youth hosts weekly meetings and social events for young people seeking community, support and a place to discuss relevant issues.

The Melissa Etheridge Fan Club hosts a listening party for her new album Sept. 24 at the Hard Rock Cafe.

Beantown North G/L Bowling League
Lanes & Games, 195 Concord Turnpike, Cambridge (617-876-5533). www.beantownbowling.com. MBTA: Red Line to Alewife. Tue., 8:30 pm. This bowling league for gays and lesbians meets weekly.

Beantown Soft-Tip Dart League
The Alley, 14 Pi Alley, 275 Washington St., Boston (617-263-1449). MBTA: Blue or Green Line to Gov. Center. Fritz, 26 Chandler St., Boston (617-482-4428). MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. www.bsdl.org. Mon., 8:30 pm. $12 for the season. This dart league hosts weekly 301, 601 and cricket matches at the Alley and Fritz.

Beantown South G/L Bowling League
Boston Bowl, 820 Morrissey Blvd., Dorchester (617-889-1552). www.beantownbowling.com. MBTA: Red Line to Shawmut. Wed., 7 pm. This weekly bowling league for gays and lesbians meets on Wednesdays.

Bi Focus
(617-697-9244). MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Wed., 7 pm. Bisexual men and women discuss books, videos and other topics of interest.

Bi Rap
Cambridge Women's Center, 46 Pleasant St., Cambridge (617-354-8807). MBTA: Red Line to Central. First Tue. of each month, 7:30 pm. This discussion group provides support and information for women who are bisexual or are questioning their sexuality.

Boston Bears Barnight
The Alley, 275 Washington St., Boston (617-263-1449). http://bostonbears.us. MBTA: Blue or Green Line to Gov. Center. 9:30 pm-2 am. Free. This club meets the first and third Saturdays of each month and holds a happy hour every Friday from 5:30 to 7:30 pm.

Boston Boasts Squash
Central YMCA, 316 Huntington Ave., Boston (617-536-0316). www.bostonboasts.com. Tue., 7-9 pm; Sat., 10 am-12 pm. This squash league is comprised of gay and lesbian players and their friends.

Boston Gay Basketball League
(617-937-5858). www.bgbl.com. This basketl league offers a full regular season and playoff sch ule each year. E-mail info@bgbl.com for details.

Boston Lesbian Avengers
Despina's Place, 47 Mass. Ave., Boston. www.lesl avengers.org. Mon., 7-8 pm. This bisexual-transsexual-friendly direct-action political group cuses on issues affecting lesbians.

Boston Prime Timers
United South End Settlements, 566 Columbus A Boston (617-447-2344). www.primetimersww. boston. Third Sat. of each month, 3:30-5:30 pm. This network of more than 300 gay and bise men, and their friends, meets once a month.

Boston Uncommons
Central Congregational Church, 85 Seaverns A Jamaica Plain (617-926-9267). www.lcfd.org MBTA: Orange Line to Green. Wed., 7 pm. A and lesbian square-dancing group.

Boston's Gay and Bisexual Married Men's Support Group
Boston Living Center, 29 Stanhope St., Boston (316-1985). http://world.std.com/~ewk. First and Mon., second and fourth Tue. of each month, 7-9 This group meets to discuss marriage and divorc

BRC Board Meeting
Bisexual Resource Center, 29 S hope St., Boston (617-424-95 MBTA: Orange Line to Back Second Wed. of each month, 7 This monthly gathering of BRC board in the Back Bay is to the public.

COLAGE
Third Sat. of each month, 10:3 12 pm. Children of Lesbians Gays Everywhere meets in ford for support and activities holds a concurrent meeting f terested parents and their par E-mail medfordcolage@hot com for details.

Coming Out as Bisexu
Boston's Bisexual Resource Cer the Boston Living Center, 29 hope St., Boston (617-424-9 www.biresource.org. MBTA ange Line to Back Bay. First and third Thu. of each month, Free. An informal group for p who think they may be bisex are attracted to members of sexes.

Coming Out Support Group for Adults
Meetings are in Coolidge C Brookline (617-482-2166). Thu., 7-8:15 pm. group offers a confidential place for men and w who are looking for a safe space to discuss iss sexual identity.

Compass
(781-899-2212). Compass is a New England support and social group for people assigned f at birth, but who feel the designation isn't an rate or a complete description of their gender group meets monthly at locations around New land. E-mail compassftm@usa.com for details.

Downtown Auxiliary League
http://groups.yahoo.com/group/downtownauxiliary/ The DAL is group of gay Downtown Boston/ cial District professionals who get together m for casual afterwork happy hours.

Fenway Community Health
7 Haviland St., Boston (617-267-0900). www.f health.org. MBTA: Green Line to Hynes. F Community Health offers an array of services LGBT community, from discussions about par and safe-sex practices to programs addressing tic violence and substance abuse.

GayLab
www.gaylab.org. This experiment in deve healthy gay relationships features alternati meeting and dating, communication gam mixers for area singles. E-mail info@gaylab. details.

Gays for Patsy
(617-412-5751). www.gaysforpatsy.org. This try-western dancing club, featuring two-step and line dancing, holds events twice a month. ners welcome; no partner needed. Call for det

GBBC North Shore Group
Bugaboo Creek Steak House, Route 114, P (781-593-0386). www.gbbc.org. Third Wed. month. MBTA: Commuter Rail to Lynn. Free to lunch cost varies. The Greater Boston B Council invites GLBT professionals to conne the GLBT business community over lunch.

GBBC 128 Group
Red Fish, 455 Totten Pond Road, Waltham (978-487-6500, ext. 112). www.gbbc.org. Fourth Tue. of each month. Free to attend, lunch cost varies. GLBT professionals connect with the GLBT business community over lunch.

Gender Crash
Spontaneous Celebrations, 45 Danforth St., Jamaica Plain (617-524-6373). www.gendercrash.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Stony Brook. Second Thu. of each month, 7:30 pm. $5-$10. Members of the LGBT community are invited to share poetry, prose and performance pieces at this open-mike event.

LEFFAN
Lesbians Available for Fun and Networking is a social and networking group that connects local women and sponsors dances and benefits. E-mail laffaboston2004@yahoo.com for details.

Monday Night Bowling League
Bolton Bowl, 820 Morrissey Blvd., Dorchester (617-825-1552). www.mnbl.net. 7:30 pm. The MNBL's bowling season runs Monday nights.

The Neighborhood
The Midway Café, 3496 Washington St., Jamaica Plain (617-524-9038). www.midwaycafe.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Green. Second Sat. of each month, 9 pm. $5/21+. A welcoming space for the homosexual and transgender community featuring live DJs and bands.

Newly Diagnosed Group
JRI Health Peer Support Services, 25 West St., Boston (617-457-8142, ext. 329). MBTA: Red or Orange Line to Downtown Crossing. First and third Mon. of each month, 7:30-9 pm. Free. This group supports gay and bisexual men who've been diagnosed with HIV during the last two years.

Out to Dance
The Roxbury School of Dance, 29 Corey St. West Roxbury (617-363-0029). www.outtodance.com. Out to Dance offers a variety of swing, Latin and ballroom dance classes in a gay-friendly environment.

OT: TwentySomethings Boston
twentysomethingsboston-subscribe@yahoogroups.com. This social and peer support group is for lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender and questioning members of the community, as well as their straight allies in their 20s and early 30s.

POZ Social
Sunshine Room at Club Café, 209 Columbus Ave., Boston (617-457-8142, ext. 326). MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. Second Mon. of each month, 6-11 pm. Free. This monthly evening of raffles, food, music and drink benefits those affected by HIV/AIDS.

POZ 30s Plus
JRI Health Peer Support Services, 132 Boylston St., Boston (617-457-8142, ext. 314). MBTA: Red or Green Line to Park. Wed., 7-9 pm. This social group supports HIV-positive gay and bisexual men ages 30 and over. E-mail hyee@jri.org for details.

POZ 20s
JRI Health, 25 West St., Boston (617-457-8142, ext. 329). MBTA: Red or Orange Line to Downtown Crossing. Thu., 7:30-9 pm. This social group offers support for HIV-positive gay and bisexual men in their 20s.

The Rainbow Café
rainbowboston-subscribe@yahoogroups.com. This social lesbian group meets biweekly in gay-owned or gay-friendly establishments around the Boston area.

Slice of Rice
Boston Glass, 93 Mass. Ave., Boston (617-266-3349). MBTA: Green Line to Hynes. Wed., 6-7 pm. This peer-run queer Asian youth group for those under 25 meets for mutual support. E-mail sungyun@chickmail.com for details.

Somos Latin@s LGBT Coalition
www.somoslatinoslgbt.org. A social and networking group for LGBT Latinos and Latinas around Boston, Somos Latin@s hosts Viernes Sociales (Social Fridays) every month. E-mail somoslatinoslgbt@hotmail.com for details.

Stonewall Communities Lifelong Learning Institute
Wheelock College, 43 Hawes St., Brookline (617-369-9090). MBTA: C Green Line to Cleveland Circle. Stonewall Communities teams up with Wheelock College for eight-week courses that feature events, workshops and lunch speakers for older GLBT people and their friends.

Under the Radar
(617-851-7911). www.radarboston.com. Under the Radar, Boston's gay, all-male contemporary a cappella group, is always auditioning prospective members. E-mail info@radarboston.com for details.

Wonder Women Boston
http://groups.yahoo.com/wonder_women_boston. Second Fri. of each month. This local social group includes lesbian and bisexual women in their 20s and 30s.

THE RAY TYE MEDICAL AID FOUNDATION
WE WILL NEVER STOP CARING

Don't miss The 5th and Final Michael A. Tye Golf Tournament!

at Pinehills Golf Club
Plymouth, MA

Wednesday, September 19th 2007

For more information
Call or Email Judy Dennis at 781-356-4300 or rtmaf@unitedliquors.com

www.raytyemedicalaidfoundation.org

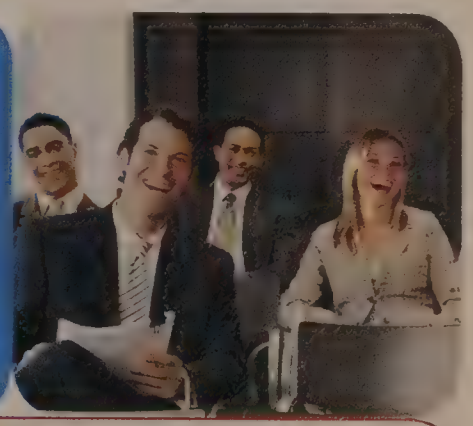
THE RAY TYE MEDICAL AID FOUNDATION P.O. Box 850376, Braintree, MA 02185

"When you save a life
You save a future"
-Ray Tye

big wheels keep on turning

Powerful pedal support for thousands of deliveries each day.

CITY EXPRESS



Increasing the Speed and Efficiency of Business for More Than 15 Years.

BEST OF BOSTON 2003 · Boston's Best 2004 Winner · Boston's Best 2005 Winner · Boston's Best 2007 Winner

617.350.4000
212.406.0330
www.cityexp.com

"Boston's Best Courier" "Best Courier Service"

PROBLEM.
Your presentation got big laughs.
It wasn't supposed to be funny.

We'll help you get the right kind of attention.

alphagraphics®
DESIGN ■ COPY ■ PRINT ▶ COMMUNICATE

74 Canal Street
Boston, MA 02114
617.742.9587 • 617.742.9584
Order online at:
▶ www.us541.alphagraphics.com

Boston Marathon® Jimmy Fund Walk

ONE DAY. ONE MISSION. ONE WALK.

HYUNDAI

SEPTEMBER 16, 2007

REGISTER TODAY

Change the odds for patients facing all forms of cancer by walking.

www.JimmyFundWalk.org

HYUNDAI DANA-FARBER CANCER INSTITUTE The Jimmy Fund® IMPROPER BOSTONIAN

WALK WITH US!!

JOIN TEAM IMPROPER

on Sunday, September 16, 2007

for the Boston Marathon® Jimmy Fund Walk

as we raise money for

LESLIE'S LINKS EWINGS SARCOMA FUND

AT DANA FARBER CANCER INSTITUTE

Experience the famous Boston Marathon® course and choose the route option that works for you 3, 5, 13.1 or 26.2 miles

Register at www.jimmyfundwalk.org/teamimproper

education

Advice to Contributors
Submit updated information by mail or fax (617-859-1446) to Calendar: Education, or e-mail information to education@improper.com. Include a brief but thorough description of the event, including time, date, location, directions, cost and contact information. Deadline is four weeks prior to publication. Listings cannot be accepted by phone.

WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 12

Book Club
Center for New Words, 7 Temple St., Cambridge (617-876-5310). www.centerfornewwords.org. MBTA: Red Line to Central. 6 pm. Free. Continues Wednesdays through Sept. 26. Join Reading Race, an eight-week book group exploring problems of race and identity in literature.

Getting to Know the European Union: Polish Perspective
Photonics Center, 8 Saint Mary's St., Boston (617-358-2778). www.bu.edu. MBTA: B Green Line to BU Central. 6 pm. Free. Janusz Reiter, Polish ambassador to the United States, and New York University's Lawrence Weschler discuss Poland's view of the European Union.

Nation of Immigrants or Deportation Nation?
Boston College Law School, Room 115A, 885 Centre St., Newton (617-552-8550). www.bc.edu. MBTA: #59 Bus to Walnut and Prospect. 4 pm. Free. Daniel Kanstroom, author of Deportation Nation: Outsiders in American History, discusses immigration policy in the United States.

Observatory Public Open Night
Coit Observatory, 725 Comm. Ave., 5th floor (617-353-2000). www.bu.edu/phpbin/calendar. MBTA: B Green Line to BU Central. 8:30 pm. Come observe the night sky through telescopes and binoculars.

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 13

Broken Government: How Republican Rule Destroyed the Legislative, Executive and Judicial Branches
Old South Meeting House, 310 Washington St., Boston (617-482-6439). www.fordhallforum.org. MBTA: Blue or Green Line to Gov. Center. 6:30 pm. Free. John W. Dean, White House counsel to Richard Nixon, argues against the ascendancy of the Republican party.

Home Design Seminar Series
Van Milwork Design Center, 65 Crawford St., Needham (781-444-8744). 11 am-1 pm. Free. Registration required. Experts discuss how to choose the correct architect, builder and interior designer for your home. Complimentary lunch is served.

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 14

Wine and Craft Night
Spark Craft Studios, 50 Grove St., Somerville (617-718-9132). www.sparkcrafts.com. MBTA: Red Line to Porter. 6 pm. $40. Registration required. Learn how to make your own cocktail ring while enjoying wine.

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 15

Beacon Hill Walking Tour
Harrison Gray Otis House, 141 Cambridge St., Boston (617-227-3956). www.historicnewengland.org. MBTA: Red Line to Charles/MGH. 11 am. $12, nonmembers; $6, members. Registration recommended. Visit the Otis House and take a guided tour of Beacon Hill mansions.

Boston Founders Trail Walking Tour
Boston National Historical Park Visitors Center, 15 State St., Boston (617-373-3853). www.historicbostons.com. MBTA: Blue or Green Line to Gov. Center. 10 am and 2 pm. $15. Professor Will Holton of Northeastern University guides this tour of various historical sites.

Eastern Point Walking Tour
Beauport, 75 Eastern Point Blvd., Gloucester (978-283-0800). www.historicnewengland.org. MBTA: Commuter Rail to Gloucester. 10 am. $25, nonmembers; $15, members. Enjoy a guided tour around Eastern Point and learn the area's history.

Meet Dr. Joseph Warren
Paul Revere House, 19 North Square, Boston (617-523-2338). www.paulreverehouse.org. MBTA: Blue or Green Line to Gov. Center. 1, 1:45 and 2:30 pm. Free with admission. Michael Lepage takes on the role of Joseph Warren, a member of the Sons of Liberty and founder of a Revolutionary-era intelligence network.

SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 16

All Around the Common
Winslow Crocker House, Yarmouth Port (617-227-3957). www.historicnewengland.org. 1 pm. Free. Tour four museums surrounding the common in Yarmo Port, including the Winslow Crocker House.

Gallery Talk
National Heritage Museum, 33 Marrett Road, Lexin (781-861-6559). www.nationalheritagemuseum. MBTA: #76 Bus to Mass. Ave. and Marrett. 2 Free. Join a guided tour of Pets of America and le how pet-keeping has changed over the years.

Stories Behind the Stones: The Great Women of Boston
Forest Hills Educational Trust, 95 Forest Hills A Jamaica Plain (617-524-0128). www.foresthillstrust MBTA: Orange Line to Green St. 2 pm. $9. walking tour visits the graves of famous fen Bostonians in Jamaica Plain.

MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 17

Exploring the Space Frontier
JFK Presidential Library and Museum, Columbia P Boston (617-514-1600). www.jfklibrary.org. MB Red Line to JFK/UMass. 5:30 pm. Free. Needh born astronaut Sunita Williams discusses her aboard the International Space Station.

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 18

Swimming With Dolphins
Harborside Learning Lab, New England Aquar Central Wharf, Boston (617-973-5200). www.r org. MBTA: Blue Line to Aquarium. 7 pm. Award-winning underwater filmmaker Jonathan discusses his career studying dolphins.

WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 19

Book Club
Center for New Words, 7 Temple St., Cambridge (876-5310). www.centerfornewwords.org. ME Red Line to Central. 6 pm. Free. Continues We days through Sept. 26. Join Reading Race, an e week book group exploring problems of race identity in literature.

Observatory Public Open Night
Coit Observatory, 725 Comm. Ave., 5th floor (617 260). www.bu.edu/phpbin/calendar. MBTA: B Line to BU Central. 8:30 pm. Come observe the sky through telescopes and binoculars.

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 20

John Quincy Adams in Russia
Old South Meeting House, 310 Washington St., E (617-482-6439). www.oldsouthmeetinghouse MBTA: Blue or Green Line to Gov. Center. 6:3 Free. Historian Lynn Parsons and Adams port John Cook discuss Adams' term as minister to R

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 21

Wine and Craft Night
Spark Craft Studios, 50 Grove St., Somerville (617 9132). www.sparkcrafts.com. MBTA: Red L Porter. 6 pm. $40. Registration required. Learn h make your own necklace while enjoying wine.

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 22

Beacon Hill Walking Tour
Harrison Gray Otis House, 141 Cambridge St., I (617-227-3956). www.historicnewengland.org. M Red Line to Charles/MGH. 11 am. $12, nonme $6, members. Registration recommended. Visit th House and take a guided tour of Beacor mansions.

Boston Founders Trail Walking Tour
Boston National Historical Park Visitors Cent State St., Boston (617-373-3853). www.h bostons.com. MBTA: Green Line to Gover Center. 10 am and 2 pm. $15. Professor Will H of Northeastern University guides this t various historical sites.

Rachel Revere: A Revolutionary Wo
Paul Revere House, 19 North Square, Boston 523-2338). www.paulreverehouse.org. MBTA or Green Line to Gov. Center. 1, 1:45 and 2:3 Free with admission. Storyteller Joan Gatturna Rachel Revere and shares stories from the Paul Revere.

SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 23

The Estates of Centre Street
Carroll School for the Blind, 770 Centre St., N (617-796-1450). www.museumsofboston.org. M #59 Bus to Walnut and Prospect. 2 pm. Fre Newton History Museum presents this walking the campuses that line Centre Street in Newto

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 25

Introductory Ballet Course
Jose Mateo Ballet Theatre & Studios, 400 Harv Cambridge (617-354-7467). www.ballettheat MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 6 pm. $125. Th month course teaches the fundamentals of including barre work and basic positions.

ooks & oetry

vice to Contributors
nit listings by fax (617-859-1446); mail to Cal-r: Books and Poetry; or e-mail information to s@improper.com. Deadline is four weeks prior to cation.

eadings & Signings

EDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 12

rnes & Noble Boston University
Beacon St., Boston (617-267-8484). www.bu. re.com. MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore. 7 pm. vard psychology professor Steven Pinker dis-s his new book, The Stuff of Thought, which ex-s the connections between language and human re. A signing will follow.

rvard Bookstore Event
le Theatre, 40 Brattle St., Cambridge (617-661-5). www.harvard.com/events. MBTA: Red Line arvard. 6 pm. $5. Author and MIT writing pro-r Junot Diaz reads from his new novel, The Brief drous Life of Oscar Wao, about an overweight, lly stunted Dominican man trying to find love e haunted by a family curse.

ter Square Books
White St., Cambridge (617-491-2220). www. rsquarebooks.com. MBTA: Red Line to Porter. 7 Free. A dark sense of humor pervades Sue n's latest collection of poetry, The Devil's Cook- Pulitzer Prize nominee Kathleen Spivak will her to read from her latest work, ents of Past Happiness.

URSDAY, PTEMBER 13

nes & Noble ton University
Beacon St., Boston (617-267-8484). .bu.bkstore.com. MBTA: Green Line nmore. 7 pm. Writer and actor Eric effer reads from and signs copies of ew memoir about his quest for love, n't Believe I'm Still Single.

ton Public Library
Boylston St., Boston (617-536-5400). www. rg. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. 6 pm. Free. hen Fox speaks about his new book, Wolf of the, a biography of Confederate naval captain aael Semmes. Books are available for sale and ng.

okline Booksmith
Harvard St., Brookline (617-566-6660). www. linebooksmith.com. MBTA: C Green Line to dge Corner. 7 pm. Free. Steve Almond, author ndyfreak, discusses his new collection of hu-us essays, (Not That You Asked): Rants, Ex- and Obsessions.

ter Square Books
White St., Cambridge (617-491-2220). www. squarebooks.com. MBTA: Red Line to Porter. 7 ree. Nalini Jones reads from What You Call Win-tories, which focuses on the interconnected of the residents of a Catholic town in India. or Karen Russell also reads from her collection imsical stories, St. Lucy's Home for Girls Raised olves.

DAY, SEPTEMBER 14

ders Back Bay
Boylston St., Boston (617-236-1444). www. rsstores.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. 6 5. Milton Academy alums Marissa Miley and ail Jones outline the school's sex scandal of in their new book, Restless Virgins. The au-will discuss their book and sign copies.

vard Bookstore Event
ard Book Store, 1256 Mass. Ave., Cambridge 661-1515). www.harvard.com/events. MBTA: ine to Harvard. 3 pm. Free. Former Harvard cal School professor Martha Stout is on hand cuss her book The Paranoia Switch, on how ter-d fear can alter brain biology.

URDAY, SEPTEMBER 15

rnational Community Church
Cambridge St., Allston (617-782-8120). www. n/venue/8786344. MBTA: B Green Line to All-5 pm. Free. Poet Jack Powers, founder of the Stone Soup Poets, celebrates his 70th birthday with a potluck dinner and reading.

MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 17

Barnes & Noble Boston University
660 Beacon St., Boston (617-267-8484). www.bu. bkstore.com. MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore. 7 pm. Aaron Schatz discusses Pro Football Prospectus 2007 and offers his predictions for the upcoming NFL season.

Harvard Bookstore Event
Brattle Theatre, 40 Brattle St., Cambridge (617-661-1515). www.harvard.com/events. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 6 pm. $5. Edmund White reads from his new novel, Hotel de Dream, which imagines the last days of the novelist and poet Stephen Crane.

Harvard Coop
1400 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-499-2000). www. harvard.bkstore.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 7 pm. Free. Tufts professor Maryanne Wolf discusses the complexities of the brain and signs copies of her new book, You Are What You Read.

Wellesley Booksmith
82 Central St., Wellesley (781-431-1160). www. wellesleybooksmith.com. MBTA: Commuter Rail to Wellesley Square. 7 pm. Free. Edwidge Danticat presents her new work of nonfiction, a memoir about her father and uncle, Brother, I'm Dying.

Eric Schaeffer reads Sept. 13 at Barnes & Noble Boston University.

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 18

Barnes & Noble Boston University
660 Beacon St., Boston (617-267-8484). www.bu. bkstore.com. MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore. 7 pm. Jane Velez-Mitchell, author of Secrets Can Be Murder: What America's Most Sensational Crimes Tell Us About Ourselves, discusses her book and recent intriguing cases. A signing will follow.

Brookline Booksmith
279 Harvard St., Brookline (617-566-6660). www. brooklinebooksmith.com. MBTA: C Green Line to Coolidge Corner. 7 pm. $5. Rebecca Brown commemorates the re-release of her novel The Haunted House with a discussion and signing. Ed Schawarzchild reads from his novel, The Family Diamond, nine stories about family and the ties that bind.

Harvard Bookstore Event
Harvard Book Store, 1256 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-661-1515). www.harvard.com/events. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 7 pm. Free. Amy Bloom reads from her new novel Away, about a young Russian woman who comes to America alone and then discovers that her daughter may be alive back in Russia.

Porter Square Books
25 White St., Cambridge (617-491-2220). www. portersquarebooks.com. MBTA: Red Line to Porter. 7 pm. Free. Sophie Freud, granddaughter of Sigmund Freud, discusses her book Living in the Shadow of the Freud Family, which chronicles her early years and interweaves family letters and her own diary entries.

Wellesley Booksmith
82 Central St., Wellesley (781-431-1160). www. wellesleybooksmith.com. MBTA: Commuter Rail to Wellesley Square. 3:30 pm. Free. One of the creators of Stinky Cheese Man, John Scieszka, reads from his new collection of mini-stories, Cowboy and Octopus.

WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 19

Barnes & Noble Boston University
660 Beacon St., Boston (617-267-8484). www.bu. bkstore.com. MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore. 7 pm. Christopher Golden reads from and signs Baltimore or the Steadfast Tin Soldier and the Vampire, in which he combines the horror of Dracula with a Hans Christian Andersen story.

Brookline Booksmith
279 Harvard St., Brookline (617-566-6660). www. brooklinebooksmith.com. MBTA: C Green Line to Coolidge Corner. 7 pm. $5. Authors published by Akashic Books stop by to discuss and sign their various works. Featured authors include Chris Abani, Felicia Luna Lemus and Joe Meno.

Harvard Bookstore
1256 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-661-1515). www. harvard.com/events. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 7 pm. Free. Diane Ackerman discusses her new nonfiction book, The Zookeeper's Wife: A War Story, about zookeepers who sheltered refugees during World War II.

Wellesley Booksmith
82 Central St., Wellesley (781-431-1160). www. wellesleybooksmith.com. MBTA: Commuter Rail to Wellesley Square. 7 pm. Free. Ready and willing to give advice on business matters, Elaine Eisenmann, coauthor of I Didn't See It Coming: The Only Book You'll Ever Need to Avoid Being Blindsided in Business, discusses her book.

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 20

Borders Downtown Crossing
10-24 School St., Boston (617-557-7188). www. bordersstores.com. MBTA: Green or Red Line to Park. 1 pm. Free. John U. Bacon discusses and signs Bo's Lasting Lessons, his biography of Bo Schembechler, former University of Michigan football coach and winner of 13 Big Ten titles.

Brookline Booksmith
279 Harvard St., Brookline (617-566-6660). www. brooklinebooksmith.com. MBTA: C Green Line to Coolidge Corner. 7 pm. $5. A family falls apart in the face of war in Valerie Martin's Trespass. Privileged New Yorkers go about their day-to-day lives in Claire Messud's The Emperor's Children. Both authors will read from and discuss their novels.

Harvard Bookstore Event
Brattle Theatre, 40 Brattle St., Cambridge (617-661-1515). www.harvard.com/events. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 6 pm. $5. Best-selling author Naomi Klein discusses her book The Shock Doctrine: The Rise of Disaster Capitalism, about capitalism and its effect on nations around the world.

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 21

Borders Downtown Crossing
10-24 School St., Boston (617-557-7188). www. bordersstores.com. MBTA: Green or Red Line to Park. 12:30 pm. Free. Essayist Robert Fulghum discusses and signs his new book, What on Earth Have I Done?, about the joy and mystery in life's everyday moments.

Harvard Bookstore
1256 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-661-1515). www. harvard.com/events. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 3 pm. Free. The lives of fourth-century Roman Christian women are examined in Nicola Denzey's book The Bone Gatherers: The Lost World of Early Christian Women, from which the author will read.

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 22

Right Turn
299 Broadway, Arlington (781-646-3800). www. right-turn.org. MBTA: Commuter Rail to West Medford. 7:30 pm. Free. Padraig O'Malley reads from Shades of Difference, an inside account of South Africa's anti-apartheid movement featuring a 10,000-word forward by Nelson Mandela. A Q&A and signing follow the reading.

MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 24

Harvard Coop
1400 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-499-2000). www. harvard.bkstore.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 7 pm. Free. Former editor-in-chief of the New England Journal of Medicine Dr. Arnold Relham discusses his new book, A Second Opinion: How to Prevent the Collapse of America's Healthcare.

Wellesley Booksmith
82 Central St., Wellesley (781-431-1160). www. wellesleybooksmith.com. MBTA: Commuter Rail to Wellesley Square. 7 pm. Free. Wellesley resident Clare Dunsford discusses her memoir, Spelling Love With an X, about her son who has fragile X syndrome, a leading cause of mental retardation.

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 25

Brookline Booksmith
279 Harvard St., Brookline (617-566-6660). www. brooklinebooksmith.com. MBTA: C Green Line to Coolidge Corner. 7 pm. $5. Author Jennifer Gilmore discusses and signs copies of her book Golden Country, about the lives of three Jewish immigrant families.

body & mind

Advice to Contributors
Submit updated information by mail or fax (617-859-1446) to Calendar: Body/Mind, or e-mail information to bodymind@improper.com. Provide a brief but thorough description of the event, including time, date, location, directions, cost and contact information. Listings cannot be accepted by phone and must be received at least four weeks in advance.

Events

Aveda Makeup Tutorial
Pyara Spa & Salon, 104 Mount Auburn St., Cambridge (617-497-9300). www.pyaraaveda.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. Sept. 16, 6-8 pm. $35, registration fee. Pyara professionals instruct participants on how to apply makeup and choose the right products for their skin tone using Aveda's new fall makeup line. Registration fee can be applied to product purchases.

Philosophy Presentation
New Acropolis, 2000 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-864-5720). www.acropolisboston.org. MBTA: Red Line to Porter. Sept. 18, 7:30 pm. Free. As an introduction to their 10-week course, the New Acropolis discusses philosophies from the East and West.

Lectures

National Institute of Whole Health
Newton-Wellesley Hospital, 2014 Washington St., Shipley Auditorium, 2nd floor, Newton (888-354-4325). www.niwh.org. MBTA: D Green Line to Woodland. $25.
•Sept. 15, 2-5 pm. Spiritual medium and healer Rosemary Altea discusses her books The Eagle and the Rose and A Matter of Life & Death.
•Sept. 24, 7-9 pm. Rabbi Harold S. Kushner, author of When Bad Things Happen to Good People and Overcoming Life's Disappointments, lectures on his works.

Theosophical Society in Boston
21 Maple St., Arlington (617-548-9971; kirsten.ward@hotmail.com). www.tsboston.org. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard, then #77 Bus to Arlington. Sept. 14, 7:30-9:30 pm. $10, nonmembers; $5, members. Certified master hypnotist Suzanne Kellner-Zinck discusses the art of hypnosis, its benefits and associated myths, while offering demonstrations and answering questions.

Workshops

The Arlington Center Workshops
The Arlington Center, 369 Mass. Ave., Arlington (781-316-0282). www.arlingtoncenter.com. Sept. 14, 8-10 pm. $15. Ricardo Frota holds a drumming session where participants connect rhythmic drumming to their well-being.

Tias Little Teacher Training
Back Bay Yoga Studio, 1112 Boylston St., Bo (617-375-0785). www.backbayyoga.com. MB Green Line to Arlington. Sept. 17-21, 9:30 am-12 and 2-5 pm. $750. This course explores the im tance and inner workings of the feet and legs, how they connect to other areas of the body, suc the spine and pelvis.

Tias Little Workshops
Back Bay Yoga Studio, 1112 Boylston St., Boston (375-0785) www.backbayyoga.com. MBTA: Green to Arlington. Sept. 22. $100, both workshops; $55, workshop.
•9 am-12 pm. In "The Heart of Legs," particip practice standing poses and learn the importanc decreasing tension in their lower limbs.
•2-5 pm. In "Kidney Chi," participants stretch bend in order to release lower-back tension, wh can negatively affect the kidneys.

Retreats

Cambridge Insight Meditation Center
Cambridge Insight Meditation Center, 331 Broad Cambridge (617-441-9038). www.cimc.info. MB Red Line to Central. Sept. 22-23. $100, nonmem $50, members. Preregistration required. This two retreat focuses on achieving confidence an increased sense of awareness by combining medit with discussions and interviews.

Tias Little hosts classes and workshops Sept. 17-22 at Back Bay Yoga Studio

Ongoing

Beantown Bootcamp
90 Canal St., Boston (617-878-6499). www.bea bootcamp.com. MBTA: Orange or Green Line to Station. See Web site for schedule details. $20. Th orous program for intermediate fitness leve above involves jogging, stair climbing, hill re sprints, cardio drills and more.

Forrest Yoga
Mindful Dog Yoga, 69 Robeson St., Jamaica Plain 524-0627). www.mindfuldogyoga.com. MBTA: Line to Green. Mon., Wed. and Fri., 8 am and $15. This outdoor course focuses on deep brea slow movements and connecting with the body

North End Yoga Beginner Classes
North End Yoga, 256 Hanover St., 3rd floor, (617-227-9642). www.northendyoga.com. M Green or Orange Line to Haymarket. Sun., 10:15 am; Wed., 12:15-1:15 pm; Fri., 5:45-6:45 pm This class teaches the basics of Hatha yoga geared toward beginners.

Shambhala Meditation
Shambala Meditation Center of Boston, 646 Br Ave., Boston (617-734-1498). MBTA: D Gre to Brookline Village. www.shambhalaboston.org. 7-9 pm. Free, donations welcome. Meditatio comers and experienced practitioners gathe group sitting, followed by a talk given by Shambhala Center's resident instructors.

Yoga for Deep Relaxation
Cambridge Family YMCA Yoga and Wellness stu Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-661-9622). R to Central. www.cambymca.org. Mon., 7:4 pm. $15. This class teaches a practice fe gentle poses and breathing that can be int into daily life.

ports

ice to Contributors

it listings by fax (617-859-1446), by mail to Calen-ports, or by e-mail to sports@improper. com. Include :s, phone number, nearest T stop, along with a brief ɔtion. Listings can't be accepted over the phone and ɔe received at least four weeks in advance.

ɔme Games

ton Red Sox
way Park, Boston
:ts: 617-482-4769
12, 7:05 pm vs. Tampa Bay Devil Rays
14, 7:05 pm vs. New York Yankees
15, 3:55 pm vs. New York Yankees
16, 8:05 pm vs. New York Yankees
25, 7:05 pm vs. Oakland A's

r England Patriots
ette Stadium, Foxborough
:ts: 617-931-2222
16, 8:15 pm vs. San Diego Chargers
23, 1 pm vs. Buffalo Bills

ents

on Wheels
egins at City Hall Plaza, Boston (617-918-4343). inubonwheels.org. MBTA: Blue or Green Line to Center. Sept. 23, 8 am. $40. Cyclists must be at 2 years old. This bike ride around the city raises for the Boston Digital Bridge Foundation, an zation that provides computers and technol- ining to underfunded schools. A festival fea- food and entertainment follows the ride.

d Championship Fighting
Shriners Auditorium, 99 Fordham Road, ington (800-595-4849). www.wcfighting.com. 21, 8 pm. $35-$250. World Championship ng presents a program of mixed martial arts g, with 15 bouts on the night's card.

d Championship Fighting comes to Wilmington 24, with a night of 15 bouts.

Play

EBALL

ry's Baseball
191-0621). Seeking players ages 17-40.

KETBALL

son Ski & Sports Club 789-4070). www.bssc.com. BSSC offers men's, n's and co-ed leagues for players of all levels in lton and Watertown.

bridge Racquet
itness Club 791-8989). www.crfcbasketball.com. CRFC ear-round leagues for individuals and teams. els welcome.

orate Basketball League
148-7811). This league seeks teams for the sum- ames are held in Newton and Waltham.

r Too Late Basketball 388-3333). www.nevertoolate.com. Adults shoot n locations around Boston.

KING

son Sport Boxing Club
Church St., Newton (617-595-8141). www. boxing.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard, 71 Bus to Walnut. Mon.-Sat., 2-10 pm. This boxing club offers lessons for all skill levels at its Watertown gym.

The Ring Boxing Club
971 Comm. Ave., Boston (617-782-6946). www. ringboxingclub.com. MBTA: B Green Line to Pleasant. Mon.-Fri., 12-10 pm; Sat., 12-6 pm. Certified professional coaches teach boxers of all levels.

DODGEBALL

Boston Ski & Sports Club
(617-789-4070). www.bssc.com. The BSSC offers co-ed dodgeball leagues in Belmont and Watertown. Leagues play for eight to 10 weeks.

FLAG AND TOUCH FOOTBALL

Boston Ski & Sports Club
Games are held in Brighton (617-789-4070). www. bssc.com. Six-on-six and four-on-four men's teams compete each weekend.

HOCKEY

Boston Ski & Sports Club
(617-789-4070). www.bssc.com. The BSSC offers various co-ed floor hockey leagues at its Brighton and Newton locations.

ICE SKATING

Bay State Skating School
13 rinks in towns including Cambridge, Brookline and Somerville (781-890-8480). www.baystateskatingschool. org. The BSSS offers beginner, intermediate and advanced classes.

KICKBALL

Boston Ski & Sports Club
(617-789-4070). www.bssc.com. The BSSC offers outdoor co-ed kickball leagues in Charlestown and Newton. Each season includes eight games, plus playoffs.

RUGBY

Beantown Women's Rugby Club
www.beantownrugby.com. Training Tue. and Thu. in Allston; games Sat. Beantown has won the national women's championship six times.

Boston Rugby Club
(617-566-2732). www.brfc.org. This club is looking for players to join its national-level team for the upcoming season.

Boston Women's Rugby Football Club
(781-340-2192). www.bwrfc.org. This club seeks new players for rugby games in Brookline and Cambridge.

Mystic River Rugby Club
(617-267-5221). www.mysticrugby.com. Mystic River is a Division 1 rugby club which competes in the New England Rugby Union.

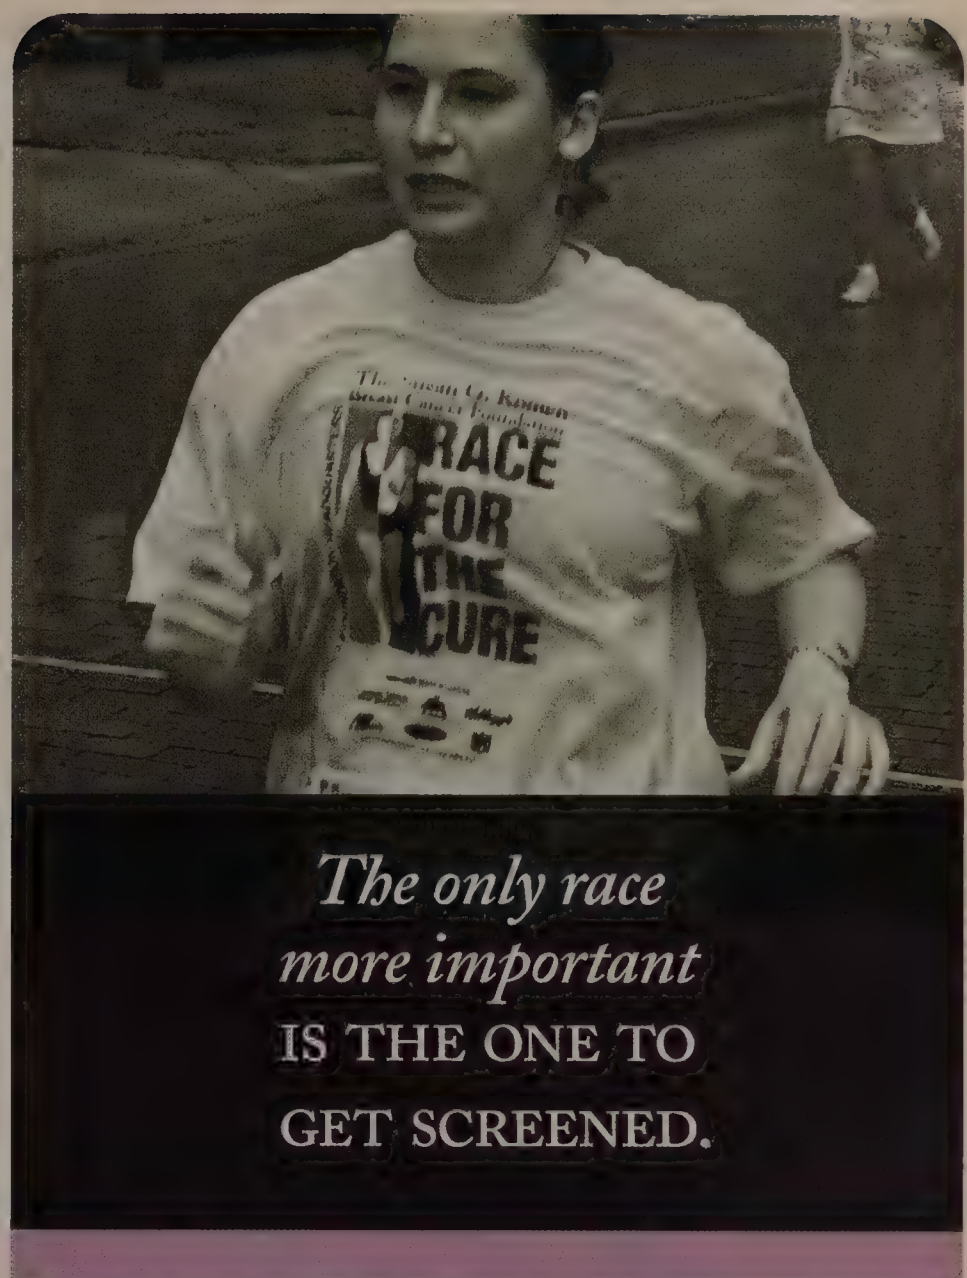
RUNNING

Boston Hash House Harriers
Various location in and around Boston (617-499-4835). www.bostonhash.com. This social club hosts weekly runs on either Wednesdays or Sundays.

Cambridge Friday Night Fun Run
Cambridge Racquet and Fitness Club, 215 First St., Cambridge (781-275-1584). www. srr.org. MBTA: Red Line to Kendall/ MIT. Fri., 6 pm. The Somerville Road Runners host this weekly run in the Cambridge area.

Team LunaChix Boston
BostonRun@teamlunachix.com. www.bostonlunachix. com. Wed., 6:30 pm. Women only. This women's running group gathers weekly to promote healthy living and breast cancer awareness. The four-mile jogs start on the MIT side of the Mass. Ave. bridge.

SOCCER



Boston Ski & Sports Club
(617-789-4070). www.bssc.com. The BSSC offers a series of outdoor co-ed soccer leagues in Canton, Lexington, Newton and Waltham. Each season lasts for eight weeks.

SOFTBALL

Boston Ski & Sports Club
(617-789-4070). www.bssc.com. The BSSC offers a series of outdoor co-ed softball leagues in the Greater Boston area.

WHITE-WATER RAFTING

Boston Ski & Sports Club
(617-789-4070). www.bssc.com. This summer, the BSSC offers weekend white-water rafting trips to Maine, Canada and western Massachusetts.

The only race more important
IS THE ONE TO GET SCREENED.

As worthwhile as our Race may be, it's not as important as each woman's individual race to detect breast cancer early, when it can be most successfully treated. Learn more at komen.org or 1.800 I'M AWARE®.

The Susan G. Komen Breast Cancer Foundation

This space provided as a public service.
©2006, The Susan G. Komen Breast Cancer Foundation

13 CONVENIENT LOCATIONS, ONE NEAR YOU.

The Children's Hospital Network, in conjunction with leading community hospitals, provides convenient access to great pediatric care and the expertise of Children's specialists. With 13 locations in and around Boston, your children can see the same doctors and get the same excellent care they get at our main location, without the Boston traffic and hassles. For information on all of our Children's Hospital Network sites, including our specialty care centers in Waltham, Peabody and Lexington, visit www.childrenshospital.org/locations. Chances are you'll find one that's just a stone's throw away.

Children's Hospital Boston
www.childrenshospital.org/locations

Children's Hospital Physicians at Beverly Hospital • Children's Hospital Physicians at Caritas St. Elizabeth's Hospital (Boston)
Children's Hospital Physicians at Caritas Good Samaritan Medical Center (Brockton)
Children's Hospital Physicians at Metro West Medical Center (Framingham) • Martha Eliot Health Center (Jamaica Plain)
Children's Hospital Boston at Lexington • Children's Hospital Physicians at Caritas Holy Family Hospital (Methuen)
Children's Hospital Physicians at Caritas Norwood Hospital • Children's Hospital Boston at Peabody
Children's Hospital Boston at Waltham • Children's Hospital Physicians at South Shore Hospital (Weymouth)
Children's Hospital Physicians at Winchester Hospital

children

Advice to Contributors
Submit updated listings by mail or fax (617-859-1446) to Calendar: Children, or e-mail information to children@improper.com. Include address, phone number, subway stop, ticket price, dates, times and a brief description of the event. Deadline is four weeks prior to publication. Listings cannot be accepted over the phone.

Things to See

Far, Far Away: The Worlds of Star Wars
Museum of Science, Science Park, Boston (617-723-2500). www.mos.org. MBTA: Green Line to Science Park. Through Oct. 31. $9, adults; $7, children. Are the worlds of Star Wars mere fantasy? Find out during this lively show, which compares the fictional planets of the movies with the planets and moons in our own solar system.

Puppet Showplace Theater
32 Station St., Brookline (617-731-6400). www.puppetshowplace.org. MBTA: D Green Line to Brookline Village. $9.50, nonmembers; $7.50, members. •Sept. 19 and 20, 10:30 am. After Bingo, the star of the circus, is dognapped by a jealous magician, his owner goes on a quest to rescue him in Paul Vincent Davis' Bingo, the Circus Dog. This performance will also include two shorter pieces, JoJo and the Orange Ball and A Fantastic Fandango. Ages 3-8. •Sept. 22 and 23, 1 and 3 pm. Scientist O.C. Marsh searches for dinosaurs in the Poobley Greegy Puppet Theatre performance of The Dinosaur Show. Ages 4-8.

Things to Do

Arlington Center for the Arts
41 Foster St., Arlington (781-648-6220). www.acarts.org. $140-$200. Sept. 17. See Web site for times. Register for a variety of fall classes including pottery, poetry, painting, animation, cartooning, jewelry and more.

Artbeat
212-A Mass. Ave., Arlington (781-646-2200). www.artbeatonline.com. •Sept. 15, 3-6 pm. $12. Bring a photo of your pet and make your own unique pet portrait. •Sept. 22, 3-6 pm. $15. To celebrate the arrival of fall, paint an autumn tree on silk, which can also serve as a great window decoration. Ages 4 and up.

Boston Children's Museum
300 Congress St., Boston (617-426-8855). www.bostonkids.org. MBTA: Red Line to South Station. Sat.-Thu., 10 am-5 pm; Fri., 10 am-9 pm. $10, adults; $8, seniors and children; $2, 1-year-olds; free, children under 1 and members; $1, 5-9 pm on Fri. •Sept. 15, 11 am-3 pm. Come to Ferret Wise Shelter to learn about these often misunderstood creatures. •Daily, 11 am. Kids dance and make tasty treats during Playspace. •Daily, 10 am-4 pm. Join in Art Studio this month and learn how to make a variety of collages. •Wed., 10:30-11:30 am. Children are introduced to the basics of scientific exploration at Pint Sized Science. •Fri., 5-6 pm. Fresh Fridays allow kids to sample the ingredient of the month, learn fun food facts and take home recipes. •Sat.-Thu., 10 am-3:30 pm; Fri., 10 am-7:30 pm. During PlaySpace Messy Activity, children participate in a variety of activities from making sticky collages to painting and playing with shaving cream or water.

Boston Globe Children's Book Festival
Copley Square, Boston (781-662-7476). www.bostonglobe.com/targetbookfest. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Sept. 15, 11 am-5 pm. Free. This full day of fun features readings by children's authors and illustrators, book signings, music, character appearances and more.

Boston Public Library
Central Library, 700 Boylston St., Boston (617-536-5400). www.bpl.org. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Sept. 17, 1-3 pm. The BPL and Houghton Mifflin present Curious George Day, which celebrates that rambunctious little monkey with crafts, a birthday cake and readings by a mystery guest.

Brookline Arts Center
86 Monmouth St., Brookline (617-566-5715). www.brooklineartscenter.com. MBTA: C Green Line to St. Mary's. •Sat., 10 am. Through Nov. 3. $125, nonmembers; $112, members; $30, materials fee. Children create art using a variety of materials, including pastels, charcoal and w color. Ages 9-13. •Mon., 4:30 pm. Through 5. $160, nonmembers; $144, members; materials fee. Children learn the basics of dra in this intensive course. Ages 8 and up. • and Tue., 3:30 pm. Through Nov. 6. $160, members; $130, members; $30, materials fee. learn the basics of metalworking using coppe brass. Ages 12 and up. Adults welcome. • 3:30 pm. Through Nov. 6. $185, nonmem $168, members; $30, materials fee. Kids lea draw Japanese- and American-style comics. 10 and up. •Tue., 3:30 pm. Through Nov. 6. nonmembers; $168, members; $40, material Kids learn the basics of pottery and w throwing.

Franklin Park Zoo
1 Franklin Park Road, Dorchester (617-541-5 Sept. 15, 11 am-3 pm. The zoo hosts A Family Day, which features train rides, a se toy area, animal encounters, crafts, face pai informational tables and musical entertain for all ages.

Mind Lab Open House
180 Wells Ave., Newton (617-527-1507). Sep 5-8 pm. Free. Ages 4-14. This hands-on cente interactive play with carefully selected national board games to teach children th damentals of planning, problem solving, de making, teamwork and communication.

National Heritage Museum
33 Marrett Road, Lexington (781-861-6559). monh.org. Sept. 22, 11 am-3 pm. $5, nonme $3, members. Thinking about getting a p already have one? Learn about pet adoptio ownership, view demonstrations and play when the MSPCA visits the museum dur Day for Animals.

New England Aquarium
Central Wharf, Boston (617-973-5200). neaq.org. MBTA: Blue Line to Aquarium. 15. 10-11:30 am, ages 4-6; 2-3:30 pm, age $18, nonmembers; $15, members; $2, servi per ticket. Ocean Detectives lets childre parents work together to discover the sec the deep while developing math, scienc literacy skills. •Sept. 14, 18, 21, 25 and 28; and 5. See Web site for time and age detail nonmembers; $45, members. In this Ex Series program, adults and children learn contrasts within the ocean, from the big an to the warm and cold. •Sept. 13, 20, and 2 4, 11, and 18. 9:30-10:30 am. $95, nonme $70, members. In this six-week series for olds and their parents, the Little Fishes Fa Group introduces children to the wonders aquatic world.

New England Wild Flower Socie
180 Hemenway Road, Framingham (50 7630). www.newfs.org. Sept. 15, 10 am-2 nonmembers; free, members. Just in time the Gardener's Festival invites families to fall plants for the garden, view nursery learn about plant conservation, care and tenance, and go on a scavenger hunt.

Peabody Essex Museum
137 Essex St., Salem (978-745-9500). ww org. MBTA: Commuter Rail to Salem. Sept. pm. Free with admission. Come for Story where Feathers for Lunch and What is a Bird read aloud. Ages 3-6.

Peanut Butter and Jelly Dance Company
Church of Our Savior, 25 Monmouth St., B (617-738-7688). www.pbjdanceco.org. MI Green Line to Kent or D Green Line to Lor Classes begin Sept. 17; call for time and age Registration required. $175-$200. In the co classes this fall, aspiring young dancers ca creative movement, technique and perfor Some students will prepare short pieces company's end-of-term recital.

PMC Kids-Newton Ride
60 Wells Avenue Office Park, Newton (6 5450). http://kids.pmc.org/newton.htm. Sept 11 am. Registration begins at 8:30 am. $10, re fee; $25, fundraising minimum. Ages 3-1 three-quarter-mile bike ride raises money fo research and treatment. The ride is imm followed by a party featuring refreshment and games.

13th Annual EMARC Benefit Road Race
Melrose YMCA, 497 Main St., Melrose (7 4888). MBTA: Commuter Rail to Melrose Ce www.firstgiving.com/emarc. Sept. 16, 8:30 registration fee. Children can help raise mone Arc of East Middlesex's recreation prog competing in this half-mile kids' run.

round
own

ghts to See

on Public Library Art Architecture Tour
oylston St., Boston (617-536-5400). www.bpl.
MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Mon., 2:30 pm;
nd Thu., 6 pm; Fri. and Sat., 11 am. Free.

on University Observatory
Observatory, 725 Comm. Ave., Boston (617-
630). www.bu.edu/astronomy/opennight.html.
A: B Green Line to BU East. Clear Wed. nights:
d winter, 7:30 pm; spring and summer, 8:30 pm.

euil Hall Marketplace
th Market Building, Boston (617-523-1300).
faneuilhallmarketplace.com. MBTA: Green or Or-ine to Haymarket. Mon.-Sat., 10 am-9 pm; Sun.,
m.

vard Museum of Natural History
xford St., Cambridge (617-495-3045). www.
harvard.edu. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. Daily,
5 pm. $9; $7, students and seniors; $6, ages 3-18.
3-5 pm (Sept. through May), and Sun., 9 am-12
ee to all Massachusetts residents.

F. Kennedy Library & Museum
bia Point, Dorchester (617-514-1600). www.jfk
.org. MBTA: Red Line to JFK/UMass. Daily,
5 pm. $10; $8, seniors and students; $7, ages 13-
e, ages 12 and under.

Anderson Antique
o Museum
wton St., Brookline (617-522-6547). www.mot.
MBTA: C Green Line to Cleveland Circle. Tue.-
10 am-5 pm. $5; $3, ages 6-17, students and se-
ree, ages 6 and under.

y Baker Eddy Library Mapparium
Mass. Ave., Boston (888-222-3711). www.
akereddylibrary.org. MBTA: Green Line to
. Tue.-Sun., 10 am-4 pm. $6; $4, seniors, stu-
nd ages 6-17; free, children under 6.

nt Auburn Cemetery
lount Auburn St., Cambridge (617-547-7105).
mountauburn.org. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard.
May, 8 am-5 pm; May-Sept., 8 am-7 pm. Free.

eum of Afro-American History
St., Boston (617-725-0022). www.afroam
m.org. MBTA: Red or Green Line to Park.
Sat., 10 am-4 pm. Guided walking tours avail-special request. $5, suggested donation.

eum of Science
e Park, Boston (617-723-2500). www.mos.
BTA: Green Line to Science Park. Sat.-Thu., 9
m, adults, $17; seniors, $15; children, $14.

England Aquarium
l Wharf, Boston (617-973-5200). www.neaq.
BTA: Blue Line to Aquarium. Mon.-Fri., 9 am-
Sat. and Sun., 9 am-7 pm. $18.95; $10.95,
11.

North Church
alem St., Boston (617-523-6676). www.old
om. MBTA: Green or Orange Line to Haymaren daily, 9 am-6 pm. Free.

South Meeting House
ashington St., Boston (617-482-6439). www.
hmeetinghouse.org. MBTA: Blue or Orange Line
. Daily, 9:30 am-5 pm. $5; $4, seniors and stu-
1, ages 6-18; free, children under 6.

State House Museum
ashington St., Boston (617-720-1713). www.
istory.org. MBTA: Blue or Orange Line to State.
9 am-5 pm. $5; $4, seniors and students; $1, ages
ree, children under 6.

ential Center Skywalk
oylston St., Boston (617-859-0648). www.
tialcenter.com. MBTA: E Green Line to Prudenily, 10 am-9:30 pm. $11, adults, $11; $9, se-7.50, children under 12.

y Church
larendon St., Boston (617-536-0944). www.
oston.org. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Tue.-
am-6 pm; Sun., 7 am-7 pm. Tours: adults, $5;
and students, $4; free, children under 16 with
t.

unteer

Mentoring Program
24-1300, ext. 3). www.afcmentoring.org. Menster-care or adopted child.

AIDS Action Committee
(617-437-6200). www.aac.org. Help patients with HIV/AIDS.

American Cancer Society
(617-556-7400). www.cancer.org. Drive cancer patients to their local treatment appointments or get involved with upcoming events.

Big Brothers of Massachusetts Bay
(617-542-9090). www.bbmb.org. BBMB seeks volunteers to provide friendship to boys in need.

Big Sister Association
(617-236-8060). www.bigsister.org. Volunteers act as friends and mentors to young girls.

BNA Care Network
(617-547-2620, ext. 4271). www.bostoncarenetwork.org. Volunteers support terminally ill patients.

Boston Cares
(617-422-0910). www.bostoncares.org. More than 100 opportunities to volunteer are available.

Boston Jaycees
(888-274-8682). www.bostonjaycees.org. Volunteer at area nonprofits with other young professionals.

Boston Living Center
(617-236-1012, ext. 227). www.bostonlivingcenter.org. This HIV/AIDS organization needs volunteers for kitchen tasks, office work and special events.

Charles River Arc
(781-444-4347). www.crarc.org. Provide support for children and adults with developmental disabilities.

Dana-Farber Cancer Institute
(617-632-3307). www.dana-farber.org. Volunteers help adults living with cancer.

Extra Hands for ALS
(617-331-3014). www.extrahands.org. Help ALS patients and their families with housework.

HealthCare Dimensions Hospice
(781-894-1100). www.hcdhospice.org. Support terminally ill patients and their families.

Home for Little Wanderers
(617-585-7521). www.thehome.org. Mentor and support a child at risk.

Horizons for Homeless Children
(617-445-1480, ext. 345). www.horizonsforhomelesschildren.org. Provide support for homeless children.

Jewish Volunteer Program
(617-558-6585). www.cjp.org. Spend time with a senior citizen, mentor a child or teach an adult to read.

Literacy Volunteers of Massachusetts
(617-367-1313). www.lvm.org. Literacy volunteers help teach adults to read.

MAB Community Services
(617-972-9119). www.mabcommunity.org. Read to or shop with a blind person.

Match-Up Interfaith Volunteers
(617-482-1510). www.matchelder.org. Help with a variety of needs for disabled adults and seniors.

Neighborhood Action
(617-723-5800). http://nai.stjohnsbowdoinst.org. Serve meals to the homeless.

New England Aquarium
(617-973-5235). www.neaq.org. Support the aquarium as a guide or marine mammal volunteer.

Newton Free Library ESL Program
(617-796-1364). www.newtonfreelibrary.net. Tutor adults in English as a second language.

Parental Stress Line
(800-882-1250). Counsel parents and caregivers, and facilitate support groups.

Pedipathways
(617-633-1659). Volunteer to do administrative work or to visit patients for this children's hospice.

Pine Street Inn
(617-892-9187). www.pinestreetinn.org. Volunteer for food preparation and meal service.

Planned Parenthood
(617-616-1600, ext. 1645). www.pplm.org. Volunteer to raise awareness about women's health issues.

Project Place
(617-262-3740, ext. 14). www.projectplace.org. Help homeless men and women in the computer lab.

Recording for the Blind and Dyslexic
(617-577-1111, ext. 17). www.rfbd.org. Volunteers read textbooks for recording.

Red Cross
(617-375-0700, ext. 438). www.bostonredcross.org. Volunteer in the food pantry and public relations department.

Respond
(617-625-5996). www.respondinc.org. Volunteers are needed at this agency for battered women.

Rosie's Place
(617-442-9322). www.rosies.org. Volunteers are needed at this homeless women's shelter.

Samaritans
(617-536-2460). www.samaritanshope.org. Provide support over the phone to people in crisis.

Single Volunteers Boston
www.svboston.org. Volunteer with young, single professionals.

I'm a SUBSCRIBER

Don't get stranded.

Subscribe to THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN, Boston's guide to entertainment and culture— it's worth more than a million dollars.

Only $14.95 for 25 issues!

617-859-1400 or subscribe online @
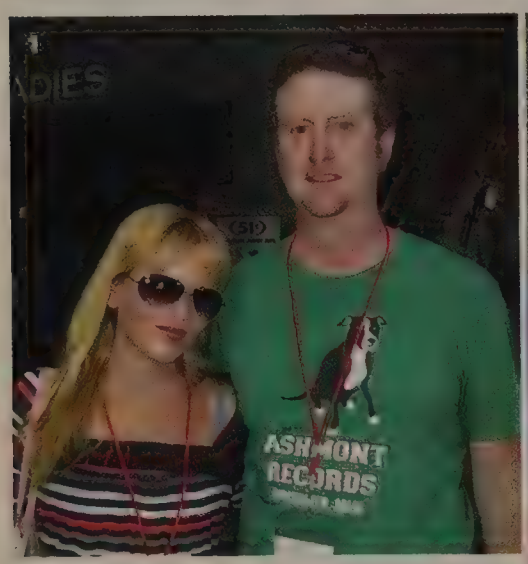
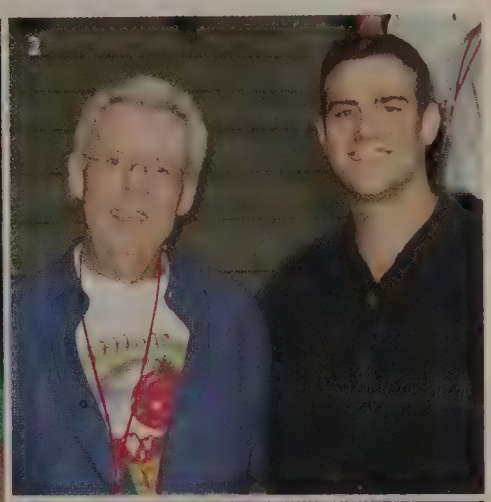
www.improper.com.



THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN MAGAZINE



You can't read just one.

IMPROPERAZZI

The Improper Bostonian's client-related promotions and events

On Friday, August 24, the Improper Bostonian was proud to be a sponsor of third annual Hot Stove, Cool Music: The Fenway Park Sessions. Grammy Award winner John Legend headlined the event, which took place at Fenway Park. In addition to Legend, this special benefit concert featured performances by a host of all-star Boston musicians, athletes and celebrities. The event was emceed by comedian and television star Mike O'Malley. Proceeds from Hot Stove, Cool Music: The Fenway Park Sessions benefited the Foundation to Be Named Later, and Boston-area nonprofit agencies.

1. Musician Kay Hanley, with manager Michael Creamer.
2. Peter Gammons, commentator for ESPN, and Theo Epstein, general manager of the Boston Red Sox.
3. Musician John Legend.

On Tuesday, August 28, a special four-course pairing of cocktails and cuisine launched Sapphire Month at Excelsior. The evening included Bombay Sapphi Gin and cuisine by chef Eric Brennan of Excelsior, coupled with a dazzling disp of sapphire jewels from Alpha Omega Jewelers.

1. Brandy Toth, division marketi manager, and Tara Williams, event marketing manager, bot for Bacardi USA.
2. Lisa Zwirn and Rachel Travers, both freelance writer of Boston.
3. Nicole Barrick, director of PR and marketing for Grill 23, Excelsior and Harvest, and Ni Handa, VP of communication for Alpha Omega.

On Saturday, August 25, the 88th Annual Saint Anthony's Feast was celebrated in the North End, sponsored in part by Pizzeria Regina. There was also a special Sponsor Reception at Filippo's, where guests enjoyed dinner and beer by Peroni.

1. Sal DeRosa, treasurer; Jason Aluia, trustee; Anthony DiStefano, member; Mike Bosco president; David Capodilupo, member; Joe DiGirolamo, trustee and feast chairman; and Christian Petruzzi, member, all of St. Anthony's Society.
2. Carmine Guarino, senior vice president at Citizens Bank, and Tonia Guarino, attorney and president of St. Lucia Society.
3. The staff at Pizzeria Regina in the North End.

On Tuesday, August 21, the Colonnade Hotel Roof Deck played host to The 1 Cane Redemption Party. The night included 20 of Boston's finest bartenders competing for the Best 10 Cane Cocktail crown.

1. Tom Keefe, GM of domani, and Theresa Morris, portfc manager for Moët Hennessy.
2. Kyla Moore, special events coordinator at Saint and don and Casey Riddles, barten at Lucca Ristorante.
3. Robert King, bar manager Tavern in the Square; Steve McGarry, on-premise sales manager for United Liquors, and Ted Kennedy, managir partner of Lucca & Sasso.

PHOTOS: HOT STOVE, COOL MUSIC, STACEY SHANE; ST. ANTHONY'S FEAST, JESSICA FEDERICO; THE COLONNADE HOTEL, EXCELSIOR, CARRIE W

improperimpersonals

everyone kept their feelings bottled up like warm beer, we'd soon have antisocial behavior exploding all over ne place and ruining the upholstery. So send us your letters of love and spleen, and we'll print them for the orld to see. (Impersonals may be edited for taste, space and clarity.) Heck, it's better than making a fool of ourself in person. And IT'S FREE! Pick up a pen or keyboard (hint: we like the fact that we don't have to type p e-mailed messages) and write to:

IMPROPER IMPERSONALS
THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN MAGAZINE
142 Berkeley St., 3rd Floor
Boston, MA 02116
FAX: 617-859-1446 E-MAIL: impersonals@improper.com
RECENT CORRESPONDENCE FOLLOWS.

We've Got Shroom to Grow

It was a Thursday night at Hi-Fi Pizza on Mass. Ave. in Cambridge. You were hand-feeding mushroom slices to your roommate Kelly. You and I were discussing your favorite diminutive portrait subjects. Before we could exchange information, your entourage felt it necessary to head home for some sorely needed beauty sleep. If you'd like to meet up again for coffee, drinks or mushroom slices, e-mail me at realistic001@yahoo.com.
—John

'ishin' DOA on the MTA

the Mass Pike Authority:
parently it's not obscene enough still have an agency that was ant to be dismantled after the id that paid for the highway struction was paid off (over 10 rs ago), or the fact that it's versally known as a hotbed of ruption that uses the toll booths nepotistic sinecure for the half- ed relatives of state officials oviding an obscenely large annual me for troglodytes who do ing more than make change). you have the unmitigated gall to e exits at night and then charge ple for the inconvenience of ing 10 to 20 miles out of their to get where they're going. So, get this straight: I want to go n Wellesley to Newton at night. If onto your highway, I have to go he way into town—and pay an a $4 for the privilege. And if I se? There's a $500 fine. Why t all of you come over to my e, and I'll charge you to use the room? Then I'll tell you toilet r costs extra, and that the lle is out of commission. Oh, y, but you'll need to pay me more ey to wipe your ass and even to flush. Your entire organization ld have been tossed in the per years ago.
n Outraged, Disgusted Driver n Newton

ke Me Wanna moop

oop: We're getting married! would have thought that a iorating, rat-infested building in lorth End would be where I'd meet irl of my dreams? I always knew were out there; it was just a matter of the timing to find you. The past few years have already felt like a lifetime together. From leaving late-night notes at 452, to our first place together at 47, to growing our "family" with the addition of The Snuggler, to now in 35, I could not have found a better match for me in all ways—and you know from my family what a mess I was before meeting you. Thank you for being the beautiful person that you are both inside and out. I can't wait to see you walking down that aisle as we begin a lifetime of adventures together. First stop: Greece!
—Me

You're an MBTA-Hole

I was on my way home during the usual overpacked, oft-delayed rush on the Orange Line to Malden. I was fortunate to snag an open seat, but the lady behind—not so much. Lucky for her, a true gentleman in his oxford shirt and khaki pants stood and offered her his seat. She acknowledged his kindness by offering up a disgusted "I DON'T NEED TO SIT." Fortunately he was spared the vile tone of her voice by whatever he was listening to on his brightly colored iPod, but I couldn't escape the awkwardness that ensued. Two stops later she sat down, but not at the seat offered her as he remained standing. I seldom look at my fellow commuters for longer than a passing glance but I couldn't help giving this woman the dirty glances she well deserved. I hope the bitter, cynical, disgruntled hag-look on your face isn't a true expression of who you are. To the young blond man who exited at Sullivan Station: Your chivalry did not go unnoticed.
—Anonymous

Do I Sound Brita?

Roomie: We both do our part to help out the environment by having a Brita in the fridge (instead of just buying a non-stop supply of water in plastic bottles that never end up getting recycled). Anyway, I like that we do this. But what I don't like is that everytime I go to get a drink, the fricking Brita is empty! Seriously, it's not that hard. You get a drink, you fill it up on your way back to the fridge; your annoying girlfriend gets a drink, she fills it up on the way back to the fridge (or more likely, you do, since you are so damn whipped). This may sound a little petty, and honestly, if it had happened only once or twice I wouldn't care. But enough is enough. Fill it up.
—Rick

Booty Call

To the man selling Spare Change newspapers in front of the Cactus Club: I would like a few words. Thank you for alighting a verbal explosion upon my general sense of self the other evening. I mean, I've heard "I love your hair," or "What a pretty lady!" when walking past your colleagues selling Spare Change in other locations. However, I in all my life have never been met with "Daaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaayum, that woman right there, She's a black man's dream!" You brought endless tears of hilarity to me and my friend for our entire walk home to Cambridge. To date, it's talked about in mythical proportions, and if nobody else had been there to witness this, I don't think I'd believe it. For as flattering it is to be "a dream," it's a whole other thing to get a swift slap on the ass with a paper while you're being told. Keep up the fine work.
—Your Dream Girl

If everyone kept their feelings bottled up like warm beer, we'd soon have antisocial behavior exploding all over the place and ruining the upholstery.

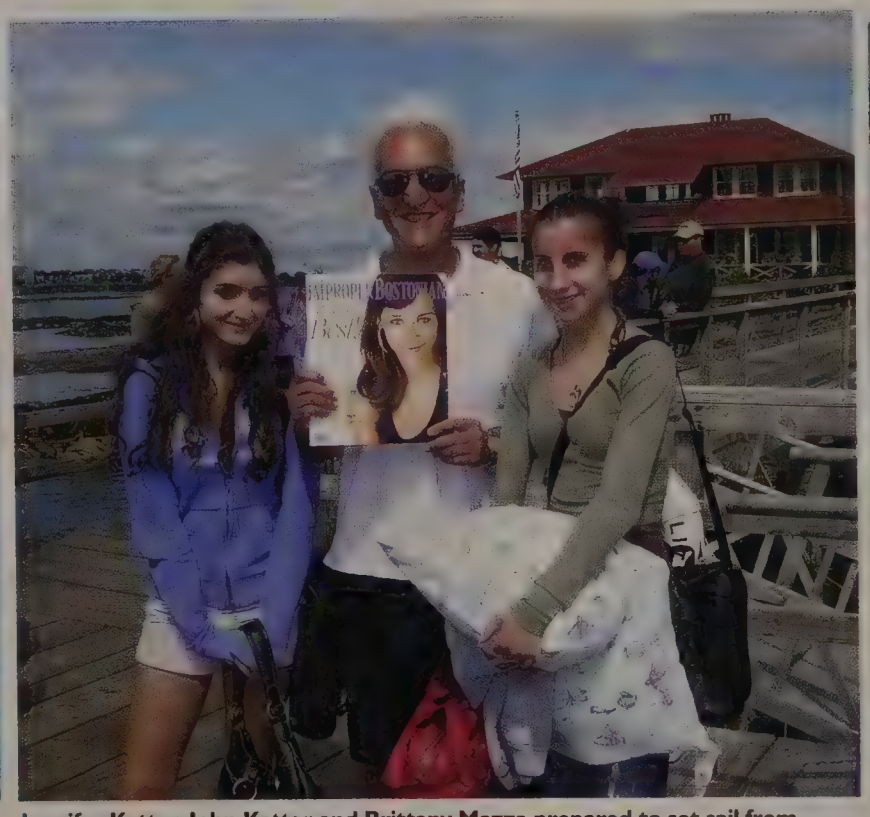
So send us your letters of love and spleen, and we'll print them for the world to see!

e-mail:
impersonals@improper.com

fax: 617-859-1446

or write to:
Improper Impersonals
The Improper Bostonian Magazine
142 Berkeley St., 3rd Floor
Boston, MA 02116

THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN



IMPROPER sightings

UNLIKE THE REST OF YOUR FRIENDS, WE WANT TO SEE THE PHOTOS FROM YOUR NEXT TR

Where do you take us? Send us a picture of you or a friend, or better yet, someone famous reading THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN and tell us where you we The wilder your destination and the more creative your photo, the better your chances of making the cut in the esteemed Improper Sightings.

Denise England traveled to Bermuda, which was originally settled by England—the country, not the Denise.

Jennifer Kattar, John Kattar and Brittany Mazza prepared to set sail from Little Diamond Island off Portland, Maine. It's less impressive than Big Diamond Island, but clearly not as tacky as neighboring Cubic Zirconia Island.

On a visit to Scranton, Pa., Alexandria and Isabella Mignor visited Steamtown National Historic Site—hands down th most badass name ever given to a National Historic Site.

While up in Custer, S.D., for the annual Sturgis Motorcycle Rally, Pete Christensen (second from right) hung out with some townspeople, who celebrate the bike rally by dressing up like extras from Back to the Future Part III.

And Minnesota congressman Keith Ellison would love to go back to the future… if it brings Kevin Garnett back to Minny.

Alexandra Allukian tries to get her uninter horse's attention on Armenia's Mt. Aragat screaming, "Allukian at me, horse!"

IMPROPER BOUNTY

BONUS POINTS TO ANYONE WHO CAN CAPTURE AN IMPROPER READER:
Under-tipping at the annual Waiter Race held Sept. 22–23 at the Esplanade du Cinquantenaire in Brussels, Belgium.

Send high-resolution digital photos (at least 500K file size) to sightings@improper.com, or mail professionally printed color photos (min. 3x5) to: Improper Sightings, The Improper Bostonian Magazine, 142 Berkeley St., 3rd floor, Boston, MA 02116. Please include the exact photo location, full names of all people in the photo, your phone number and e-mail address. All photos become the property of THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN MAGAZINE and will not be returned. Ink-jet or laser-printed photos cannot be accepted.

rockie horoscope

SEPTEMBER 12 – 25, 2007 BY ROCKIE GARDINER

VIRGO

AUGUST 23–SEPTEMBER 22

The breakthrough you've been anticipating is scheduled to arrive around the time the Virgo sun confronts innovative Uranus in Pisces. Or perhaps it'll happen when the sun challenges risk-taking Mars in your career midheaven Sept. 17. Maybe you'll stew in your own juices until the sun tests Pluto's power to renovate a tired room in the house or to rescue a wretched soul in your extended family. The clarion call to action is louder than it's been in a long time. Nevertheless, caution is still required.

LIBRA

SEPTEMBER 23–OCTOBER 22

There's an appreciable amount of drama surrounding the people that you're currently around. However, none of their problems need to involve you if you'd rather they didn't. It's possible to maintain your cool, to stay detached while the Virgo sun is in your 12th house, the area of your solar chart that deals with cosmic consciousness and karmic payback—matters that are basically out of your hands. Better for everyone concerned if you focus on the good times coming up now that your sociable Venus ruler is moving forward.

SCORPIO

OCTOBER 23–NOVEMBER 21

After five months retrograde, your Pluto coruler just turned direct in your Sagittarius house of money earned. If your income stream has been relatively stagnant since April, the change of direction could introduce a fresh source. And because the Virgo sun provokes Pluto mid-month, this can happen sooner rather than later. The same holds true for a financial matter involving other people, e.g., an insurance policy or inheritance. That's because the sun tests impulsive Mars, your other ruling planet, at the same time. Cha-ching.

SAGITTARIUS

NOVEMBER 22–DECEMBER 21

Grab a Gemini and a Pisces and hide out from a hypercritical employer. The Virgo sun is on the warpath, preparing to challenge you and your allies when you least expect it. Even a laid-back family member can't avoid the scrutiny of the Virgin's microscope. Centaurs have lived through the annual September offensive before, but this year, while energetic Mars is in your partnership house and your enthusiastic Jupiter ruler is at home in yours, is different. Too much optimism to let go unchecked? Taking good luck for granted?

CAPRICORN

DECEMBER 22–JANUARY 20

Despite it being a partial solar eclipse, the Virgo new moon Sept. 11 marked the start of a long cycle of "smarts." You might even see evidence of your intelligence at work before summer officially ends. The Virgo sun is about to challenge your relationship with a headstrong coworker at the same time that it intensifies a neighbor's odd behavior. Anger and pettiness are in the air, and while you know you don't have to fix either problem by yourself, more likely than not, it'll be you who thinks up the solutions that work.

AQUARIUS

JANUARY 21–FEBRUARY 18

No matter how you were affected by Venus' being retrograde in your Leo marriage house, be grateful that it's over. The goddess' slow, steady slog through the history of your partnership should have shown you some of the more subtle ways you interact as well as recalling the memorable pleasures you share. Venus facing forward again implies that "hope springs eternal." But first you might have to re-examine a joint money matter that the picky Virgo sun is insisting you and an amenable partner not slough off.

PISCES

FEBRUARY 19–MARCH 19

Pisces is in a similar risky position as Sagittarius and Gemini, your mutable brethren. While the "know it all" Virgo sun picks at the quirkiness of the Fish, Sol is simultaneously aggravating a domestic or real estate matter as well as drawing attention to your place in the community. Scandal? Slander? No place to run to, no place to hide? The classic Pisces response would be to escape through drink, drugs and denial. But that's old school, and you've graduated. Not much to do but ride this storm out.

ARIES

MARCH 20–APRIL 19

After you get a clearer picture of what you hope to achieve, look for an opportunity to use the intelligence the discerning Virgo sun directs your way for whatever purposes you choose. Move quickly; this infusion of concentrated mental acuity won't last long. Come the equinox, you're likely to be more interested in a charismatic personality you've aligned with, not in the task at hand. If that ball is dropped, who'll chase after it? Another distraction: After a slow summer, romantic Venus schedules pleasurable times with a loved one.

TAURUS

APRIL 20–MAY 20

Back to square one? The odyssey you've been on since your Venus ruler started its six-week retrogression is over. Now that you're a little older, yet so much wiser about a long-standing relationship, decide whether you can, in good conscience, move forward or if there's still more history to rehash. Take the Virgo new moon Sept. 11 as your target date; it marked the beginning of a month-long involvement in the things that you most enjoy: romance, recreation and other risky ventures that make your heart beat faster.

GEMINI

MAY 21–JUNE 20

You can practically feel the tension building as the perfectionist Virgo sun illuminates assorted branches of your family tree. Even though this seems to occur every September because irritable and irritating Mars is currently in Gemini, you're more likely to take offense at any "suggestion" that's made. Knowing up front how volatile an "honest discussion" may become should serve as a safety valve. But chances are that by the time the sun moves into Libra Sept. 23, you'll have blown your top more than once.

CANCER

JUNE 21–JULY 22

Don't bother starting anything new until the Sept. 11 Virgo new moon has delivered its entire message. Although this lunation is a partial eclipse, i.e., things may remain hidden, the Moon Child will soon figure out what you need to discover and, more importantly, what you need to share, with whom you should share it and with whom you shouldn't. No matter how adept you think you are, treat this September as a course in honing your communication skills. Isn't it time to trade in your ride? Update electronic equipment? Touch base with a sibling?

LEO

JULY 23–AUGUST 22

It can go either way. While the sun, your ruling orb, opposes erratic Uranus, there's no telling what the cosmos has in store. A shock to your system, an unexpected windfall or a sudden spending spree? Since the sun is in your Virgo house of values and assets, a considerable amount of money could be involved. Now that style-conscious Venus is facing forward after six sleepy, probably sloppy weeks retrograde in Leo, the goddess makes it easy to pay attention once more to your appearance, popularity and self-esteem.

Get a personalized Transit Forecast (30 to 40+ pages) detailing the major themes and issues that will arise over the next 12 months, send name, date, time and place of birth, plus a check or money order for $42.50 per report to ROCKIE GARDINER, 6701 Colbath Ave., Van Nuys Glen, CA 91405; more details at www.rockiehoroscope.com. Rockie's daily forecast appears online at www.laweekly.com.

THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN
MAGAZINE

will publish its annual

Bachelors & Bachelorettes

issue in early 2008

Please nominate your favorite local single guy or gal to be featured in this issue.

Please Include:

Your name: _____

Your phone number and e-mail address:

_____

Your nominee's name, phone number, e-mail address and the local city where he/she lives:

_____

_____

Tell us why he/she is a catch. Be specific.

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

His/her occupation and age:

_____

Please include a recent color photo, or high-res digital image, of your friend.

Mail nominations to:

The Improper Bostonian | Attn: Bachelor/Bachelorette Nomination
142 Berkeley St., 3rd Floor, Boston, MA 02116

or e-mail to:

BostonBach@improper.com

Please note that you can't nominate yourself and you must provide all of the above information in order to qualify.

Entries must be received no later than October 24, 2007.

RESTAURANTS

BROWNSTONE 111 Dartmouth Street, Boston, MA, 617-867-4142 www.irishconnection.com. Situated on the border of Back Bay and the South End, Brownstone is named for the style and the elegance reflective of the architecture of Boston's two neighborhoods. From the hardwood flooring to the Venetian plaster ceiling, the interior exudes classic warmth with a sleek and intimate bar made of mahogany and granite. Brownstone's menu features creative, comfort cuisine. On weekends, Chef Michael McEwen turns out "late-night" cuisine until 1:30 a.m., featuring midnight snacks of fritto misto, baked fondue and pancakes and eggs from the brunch menu. Brownstone is open seven days a week from 11 a.m. – 2 a.m., serving brunch on Saturday and Sunday from 10 a.m. – 3 p.m.

CACTUS CLUB 939 Boylston St., 617-236-0200. Have the notorious Cactus margarita, voted Boston's Best 6 years in a row! Our southwestern specialties include Sizlin' Fajitas, Chimichangas, or Quesadillas and the daring wash it all down with a Cactus Bowl. Open daily for lunch and dinner. Visit our suburban Iguana Cantina restaurant in Waltham. Amex, Visa and Diners Club. www.bestmargaritas.com.

COOGAN'S 171 Milk Street, Boston, 617-451-7415. www.irishconnection.com. Established in 1996, Coogan's is a cozy pub located in the heart of Boston's financial district. It's the perfect place to enjoy hearty pasta dishes, fresh seafood or the aged Black Angus cuts of beef. Wash it down with your pick of one of our 20 draught beers. Enjoy the view of the street side from the bay windows, the warmth of the fireplace or cozy up in a booth with friends. After dark, Coogan's heats up, with DJ's playing top 40.

FUGAKYU 1280 Beacon Street (Coolidge Corner), Brookline, MA 02446, 617-734-1268. www.fugakyu.net. Authentic Japanese cuisine in an elegant and serene setting. Open Daily for lunch and dinner, Fugakyu's menu consists of traditional and nouveau Japanese cuisine including sushi, sashimi, tempura and an extensive sake list. Fugakyu is the largest Japanese restaurant in New England. It's two floors include a sushi bar, cocktail bar, common dining areas, bamboo-enclosed booths, screened Tatami rooms and several private function rooms. Reservations for parties of all sizes are accepted. Takeout and delivery available.

IGUANA CANTINA 313 Moody St., Waltham, 781-891-3039; The Iguana Cantina serves a variety of Caribbean, Tex-Mex and Southwestern fare. The atmosphere is fun and the food is tasty. Visit our website at www.theiguanacantina.com.

MATCH 94 Massachusetts Ave., at Newbury Street, Boston, 617-247-9922. This modern restaurant/ lounge maintains an unpretentious yet hip vibe. A sleek fire display and glass wine room are just two of its many features. Match's signature mini burgers and martinis are guaranteed to please the most discriminating palate. Match music has a distinct early evening lounge feel with the beat and volume picking up as the night progresses. Open daily 5pm-1am. AE, DC, MC,V.

M.J. O'CONNOR'S 27 Columbus Ave., at Park Plaza, Boston 617-482-2255 www.mjocconors.com. Eclectic Irish Food and spirits, a warm friendly staff and beautifully handcrafted woodwork and murals make this authentic upscale Irish pub one of Boston's best. Starting with only the finest ingredients, each dish is slow cooked according to recipes that have been used for generations. If you're looking for a respite from the hustle and bustle of the city, M.J. O'Connor's is a comfortable and welcoming environment to enjoy a delicious meal, have a pint and some great conversation. Open 11am - 2am 7 days a week.

NED DEVINE'S Faneuil Hall Marketplace, Quincy Market Building, Boston 617-248-8800 www.neddevineboston.com. Located in historic Faneuil Hall Marketplace's Quincy Market Building, Ned Devine's is an upscale Irish Pub concept which features hearty Irish specialties and contemporary American cuisine. Whether it's an afternoon business meeting, dinner with family or after work social gathering, Ned's is a warm meeting spot to enjoy conversation and a wonderful meal. Hand painted murals, imported Irish woodwork, original brickwork and ambient lighting create a comfortable atmosphere in the heart of downtown Boston. Open 11am - 2am, 7 days a week.

ROGGIE'S NEW AGE BREW & GRILLE 356 Chestnut Hill Avenue, Cleveland Circle, Brighton, 617-566-1880. www.roggies.com. This all time favorite restaurant and bar has over 52 beers on tap. Come enjoy breakfast all day, lunch, and dinner. Extensive menu ranging from sandwiches, ribs, pizza, to pasta. Catering also available as well as party platters, call 617-713-0555.

SIDNEY'S GRILLE 20 Sidney St., Cambridge, 617-494-0011 Enjoy fresh flavors, good friends, and a great bar at Sidney's Grille in Central Square. Discover why Bon Appetit magazine says "It's almost shocking to pay this little for food this good, in surroundings this gorgeous." Memorable cuisine combines international flair with regional accents. Serving breakfast, lunch, dinner and weekend brunch. Private dining available. For menus www.sidneysgrille.com.

SUNSET GRILL & TAP: 130 Brighton Ave., Allston, 617-254-1331; SUNSET CANTINA: 916 Commonwealth Ave., Boston 617-731-8646. Don't just come for Boston's Best Beer Selection featuring 112 taps and 300 microbrews. Come also to enjoy Boston's award winning steam beer burgers and famous curly fries, original buffalo wings and giant nachos. Still hungry? Try our juicy BBQ steak tips, grilled fish, homemade pastas, tender Yankee ribs or our sizzling fajitas. Full menu until 1 am.

THE BLACK ROSE 160 State Street, Boston, 617-742-2286. www.irishconnection.com. Voted one of America's top ten Irish establishments, The Black Rose is Boston's premier Irish pub and restaurant. Established in 1976, the pub is located in the historic Faneuil Hall-Quincy market area of Boston and is known far and wide for its convivial atmosphere, good food and live Irish entertainment. The menu features honest, made-from-scratch food including traditional Irish fare, award winning clam chowder, fish and chips, native lobster, aged Black Angus cuts of beef and of course, Mother Sweeney's corned beef, a recipe from Mother Sweeney herself. For thirty years, The Black Rose has offered live Irish music seven nights a week. Memorable guests on stage have included members of the Chieftains, flutist James Galway, Tommy Makim, Liam Clancy, John Denver and a once relatively unknown member of an Irish rock group called U2.

THE PURPLE SHAMROCK 1 Union Street, Boston, 617-227-2060. www.irishconnection.com. Located on the freedom trail across from Boston City Hall on Union Street. The Purple Shamrock is the perfect place to stop by and have a bite to eat. The fare is composed of New England specialties with burgers, sandwiches, hearty pastas, fresh seafood, tender steaks and other great favorites. After dark, The Purple Shamrock has nightly entertainment with a mix of live music, karaoke and DJ's. At The Purple Shamrock there is something for everyone.

BARS & CLUBS

Beer Specialty

SUNSET GRILL & TAP: 130 Brighton Ave., Allston, 617-254-1331; SUNSET CANTINA: 916 Commonwealth Ave., Boston 617-731-8646. Something's always brewing at Best of Boston's award winning beer bar. Here you'll find the largest selection on the East Coast-112 taps and 300+ microbrews and exotic imports. Join our beer club and enjoy every style of beer under the sun. Take advantage of the yards, cask conditioned beer, flight samples, vintage and new beers, seasonals, meads, ciders, etc. Full menu until 1am. Experience our beer festival 365 days a year.

Billiards

BIG CITY - POOL HALL, Pizza Kitchen, Beer Bar 138 Brighton Ave., Allston, 617-782-2020 www.allstonsfinest.com. BIG TIME FUN: 21 Championship pool tables, 80 big beers on tap, outrageous signature pizzas and BIG MENU Sat/Sun Brunch in our BIG BANK BUILDING with our one of a kind "metro retro decor". THE BIG DEAL is free rooms and pool for your next party or function of any kind. Call the "Party Specialists". Sun - Weds 3P's (pool, pitcher, pizza) $19.99. Life is good in the Big City! Come experience it in a big way!

Clubs

FELT 533 Washington St., Boston, 617-350-5555. www.FeltBoston.com. A four level venue offering a New York style Lounge, a hip bar scene, with sophisticated pool tables and a dance club in the 4th level. Enjoy a gourmet dinner while lounging in a plush, red-velvet booth. The perfect setting for a pre or post-theater dinner or a big birthday bash. The hip atmosphere of DJ's and dancing, sophisticated pool tables & bars...and FELT's posh fourth level club are the perfect blend to satisfy all your senses.

General

CACTUS CLUB 939 Boylston St., 617- 236-0200. Have the notorious Cactus margarita, voted Boston's Best 6 years running! Our southwestern specialties include Sizzlin' Fa tas, Chimichangas, or Quesadillas and t daring wash it all down with a Cactus Bov Open daily for lunch and dinner. Visit our su urban Iguana Cantina restaurants Waltham. Amex, Visa and Diners Clu www.bestmargaritas. com.

HURRICANE O'REILLY'S 150 Canal Stre Boston, 617-722-0161. www.irish connecti com. It's Hurricane season on Canal Stre Just yards across from the Garden, Hurrican is the perfect place to gather pre- and po game. Serving lunch and dinner seven days week, this sports bar is a great escape for yo lunch break with our express menu, special ing, in great food in about ten minutes. Hu cane's serves Creole, Irish and American pu style fare. After the sun sets on Canal Stre Hurricane's lights up into one of Bosto hottest nightclubs with Boston's best DJ's, il minating disco lights and 6,800 square feet Madri Gras spirit.

JILLIAN'S BOSTON / LUCKY STRI LANES 145 Ipswich St., Boston, 617-437-03 www.jilliansboston.com. Jillian's is a 70,0 square foot entertainment megaplex featur 16 bowling lanes, 50 pool tables, high-te games, high definition video walls, multi lounges and private rooms. Located on the f floor is Tequila Rain, which offers an amaz Tex-Mex menu and dancing to the hottest Friday and Saturday nights.

JOSÉ MCINTYRE'S 160 Milk Street, Bost 617-451-9460. ww.irishconnection.com. J McIntyre's is located across from the Aquari on Milk Street. This is Boston's only Mexic Irish pub, specializing in Margaritas and co tails. Come in the afternoon to watch the ga after work to unwind, or at night when Jos transforms into a lively and exciting dance/p This pub has a total of 5 rooms, 3.5 bar floors, 5 big screen TV's and a pool table. newest room is the ideal place to relax a work with co-workers on big comfy couc and a soothing atmosphere. The fare is a var of Mexican, classic New England seafood American favorites. Whoever you are, whate you do, José's has something for everyone.

PARRIS Faneuil Hall Marketplace, Qui Market Building, Boston 617-248-88 www.parrisboston. com. Lounge. Cockta Dancing. Nightlife. Come see the light Parris. Sample the eclectic lounge menu turing grilled pizza, oyster shooters steak tartar. Sip a Classic, Apple or Frenc martini, and then motion onto the h dance floor featuring live music with the bands and DJs Thursday through Satur Named for the original architect of Greek-revival-style building, Alexander ris, you're nightlife experience at Parris be Boston and beyond. Open 5pm - Wedneday - Saturday. Cover charge on Fr and Saturday.

SAINT 90 Exeter Street, Boston, 617-2 1134. www.saintnitery.com. Boston's pre ultra lounge featuring SIN Mon 10pm–2am, Sutra Thursdays 10pm–2 Heaven Fridays 7pm–2am, Spin Satur 7pm–2am, Style Sundays 10pm–2am. Lou dining available Thursday–Saturday. Cal table reservations.

THE AVENUE SPORTS BAR & GRILL Commonwealth Avenue, Allston, 617- 9508. www.avenuebar.com. Located righ Allston, food and sports are the heart of Avenue. With over 30 beers on tap and a menu this is the ideal bar to lounge, watch game, and relax. Come take advantage o DirectTV, Plasmas, 25 cent wings 4-7 daily, $1.00 drafts. This favorite sports bar can t form into a party hangout as the week have a resident DJ.

THE HARP 85 Causeway St., Boston 617- 1010. www.harpboston.com. Voted Bo Magazine's "Best After The Game", the Ha

a favorite downtown hotspot any day of the week, located directly across from the TD Banknorth Garden. Featuring live bands upstairs from Boston, Philadelphia and New York plus DJs spinning tunes downstairs, on Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights set the pace for the great high-energy environment. The Harp provides a crowd-pleasing menu with tastes from around the globe. Located in the heart of downtown Boston, the Harp also serves as an excellent meeting place for business luncheons, social gatherings and events.

BRUNCH

LERY'S 113 Dartmouth Street, Boston, 617-62-9874. www.irishconnection. com. Located block from Copley Plaza at the corner of artmouth and Columbus, this bistro and bar arned the title of the 2002-2006 Best of oston's Best Neighborhood bar, serving more an 400 regulars. Enjoy one of the 16 draught eers either at one of the three bars, by the stro windows or by the fireplace in a cozy ooth when the fickle weather of New England rns cold. It's the perfect place to meet iends and enjoy a comfortable atmosphere ith fast & friendly bartenders. On select ghts partake in team trivia or dance the night vay with DJ Rhythm Nights. Downstairs is a ivate and roomy space featuring a full bar d dance floor, and is the perfect nook for mpany functions and holiday parties.

ILLON'S 955 Boylston Street, Boston, 617-1-1818. www.irishconnection. com. Dillon's ends after-work chill with cocktail chic. Acnted by dark bamboo woodwork and large nana fans, it's the ideal spot to bring a date, osen your tie after work or watch the game th friends. Relax with a Blueberry Pie Martini in the warmly lit lounge or an ice cold beer on the patio. Then retire to the dining room where you can browse the eclectic Continental menu featuring a variety of items, including pan seared tuna salad, steak sirloin, shrimp tempura, Gourmet prosciutto pizza and more. Also featuring a tapas bar, perfect for sharing, w-ith tasty bites such as Fried Aubergine, Chicken & Chorizo, and Saigon Scallops. Dillon's is open seven days a week from 10:00 a.m. – 2 a.m., serving brunch on Saturday and Sunday beginning at 10:00 a.m.

KENNEDY'S MIDTOWN 42 Province Street, Boston, 617-426-3333 www. kennedysmidtown.com. Ideally situated in Boston's Midtown, Kennedy's is located between Downtown Crossing and the Boston Common; Just steps from Beacon Hill and The Freedom Trail. One of Boston's best kept secrets, Kennedy's menu boast prime aged steaks, seafood,assorted pub fare, and daily creations. Open 7 days a week, brunch served Saturdays and Sundays, and lively piano bar. Call us for that special function or event.

ROGGIE'S 356 Chestnut Hill Avenue, Cleveland Circle, Brighton, 617-566-1880, www.roggies. com. Shake off the morning blues with Brunch at Roggie's! Brunch is served Saturday and Sunday. Live bands, open mic on Tuesdays, karaoke on Wednesday, and DJ on weekends. Breakfast is also served all day, lunch, and dinner served seven days a week.

SUNSET GRILL & TAP 130 Brighton Ave., Allston, 617-254-1331; SUNSET CANTINA, 916 Commonwealth Ave., Boston 617-731-8646. "Beer's not just for breakfast anymore." At the Sunset Super Sunday Brewers Brunch, try our thick-cut French toast, potato skins and eggs, eggs benny, crispy quesadillas or our All You Can Eat Brunch Taco Bar, including a free Sunday paper and your first beery mary or mimosa. Full menu also available. 112 taps, 300+microbrews.

upcoming issues

September 26, 2007 Fall Dining

October 10, 2007 Style

October 24, 2007 Music

November 7, 2007 Worst of Boston

THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN MAGAZINE

Call 617-859-1400 ext. 238 to advertise

Account Executive

OUR IDEAL CANDIDATE IS:

• HUNGRY • DRIVEN • TEAM PLAYER

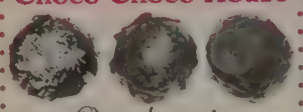
THIS IS AN OPPORTUNITY for an accomplished business-to-business sales rep to break into a career in media and magazine sales. Strong organizational, planning, written and verbal skills are a must. Minimum 2 years of sales experience necessary. Join a great team!

Send Resumes to:

THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN MAGAZINE

Attn: Robyn Sarkisian-Miller
142 Berkeley St., 3rd Floor, Boston, MA 02116
or email: Robyn@improper.com
No phone calls please.

IMPROPER SHOPPER

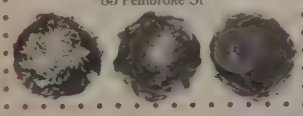


Classifieds for Bostonians

BUSINESS OPPORTUNITY

REAL ESTATE INVESTOR WANTED
No cash required, just good credit (700 fico) to make 1million in 90 days! Call Mark, 407-416-6007

CHOCOLATES



Choco Choco House

Oprah say's:
"The most ladylike chocolates I've ever seen"

- Fresh chocolate favors -
- Favor chocolate handbags -

Visit us online at chocochocohouse.com
Or come by our Boston store on
85 Pembroke St

DESIGNER HANDBAGS

Selling authentic
Hermès
Birken and Kelly bags

Anna (401) 816-0885

DON'T PAY FOR FRIENDS

The Newest Community for Young Professionals Who Live, Work, and Play in Boston.

social boston sports.com

Visit us at
SOCIALBOSTONSPORTS.COM
to learn about the wide variety of social events and athletic activities you can get involved in.

HELP WANTED

REAL ESTATE SALES PERSON
Aggressive Back Bay, Newbury Street office specializing in high-end suites and rental. Must have license and car. Will train if necessary. Contact Mark: (617) 291-6319, or email resume: bulfinch.re@verizon.net

VALET PARKING restaurants & hotels ■ $6 per hour
PLUS CASH TIPS!
Shifts are mainly from 5 - 11pm - flexible.
PART TIME & FULL TIME positions available.

TO APPLY: Please visit:
WWW.EXCLUSIVEVALET.COM
Click on Employment & fill out the online application
617•421•9565 x 0
for Nicole Olenio, HR Manager

Exclusive Valet

HOUSE CLEANING

HOUSECLEANING IN BOSTON

Your house cleaned the green way Get your house sparkling today!

WWW.HOMECLEANBOSTON.COM
Masters Home Services
1-800-HOUSECLEAN

INTERIORS

Introducing
HunterDouglas
HERITANCE HARDWOOD SHUTTERS

Now!
With New Features,
Specialty Shapes,
& 100 Standard
Colors

This Exclusive Debut is Offered by only a few Authorized Dealers Nationally

the reflective designer
interiors for your style and budget.

www.reflectivedesigner.com
1-800-FABRIC-8
Showroom 978-750-0005

INTERNATIONAL HOSTING

HOST A STUDENT! BRING THE WORLD INTO YOUR HOME!

EF International Language Schools in Brighton invites you to host our international students. Stipend provided for short or long term hosting.

Contact Megan Whitley at 617-746-1721 or megan.whitley@ef.com

LAW

Bad Day at Work?

Business Law, P.C.
617-422-0505

For help with sexual harassment, unpaid wages, and other workplace violations.

Free Confidential Consultation

Employment, Real Estate, and Corporate Law Focus

NEAR DOWNTOWN CROSSING
www.BusinessLawPC.com

PSYCHIC

READINGS BY MICHAEL LAFFERTY
Private and personal phone readings. Credit Cards accepted 215-482-6517. Call today!!

A SPIRITUAL COUNSELOR AND MEDIUM-SHIP
Past life reading available for private and telephone readings by Linda Stanton, of Newburyport (978) 255-2536

VOLUNTEERS

HOSPICE VOLUNTEERS
needed in S. Boston & Beyond. Free training to provide friendly visits & support for patients & families facing end of life transition. Call Marjie @ Evercare Hospice for info: 800-956-1276

ultimate bootcamp
New England's Hottest Outdoor Fitness Program

www.ultimatebootcamp.com

SalsaBoston HARBOR CRUISES!
7TH ANNUAL BOSTON HARBOR

SALSA & LATIN DANCE CRUISES

LONG WHARF EVERY SUNDAY 8:00-10:15PM
JUNE 17 - SEPT 16
PLUS JULY 4

"...a true seasonal gem!" –Boston Globe

- Dockside Preparty at 6:30 at "The Landing"
- Salsa Lessons on the Dock with Johnny & Kelly
- Two Dance Decks
  Salsa with DJ D. Martinez
  Latin with DJ Mike Mercado
- Latin Buffet / Cash Bar
- Admission to Post-cruise Party at "Mojitos"

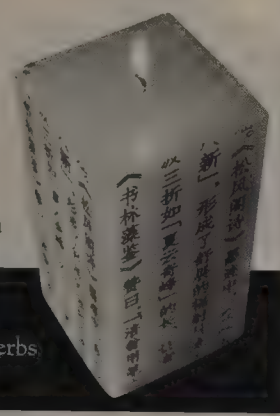
(617) 513-9841 (617) 834-0552
www.salsaboston.com/cruise
All Ages • Tickets $19-$26 • Group Discounts Available

Boston Harbor Cruises · Mohegan Sun · JetSet · Avivé

Who's your best repeat customer?

IMPROPER SHOPPER
Classifieds for Bostonians

Call Carly at 617.859.1400 x272



IMPROPER SHOPPER

Classifieds for Bostonians

Oriental Medicine

ACUPUNCTURE AND HERBS

Chinese ◆ Japanese ◆ Korean

NARA MARGOLIN

M.S., M.Ac., Lic.Ac., Dipl.Chin.Herbs

(617)308-3617

Beautiful sunsets and dining experiences just steps away!

NANTASKET BEACH INN

WWW.NANTASKETBEACHINN.COM

115 NANTASKET AVE., HULL, MA 02045 ◆ MICHAEL & PATRICIA ASHE, PROPRIETORS

SpringRain face & body spa

Journey back in time for optimum skincare and body wellness

AT TWO CONVENIENT LOCATIONS!

Copley Square, Boston
617 247 0400

Route 128, Exit 27 B
(Reservoir plaza)
781 895 0010

Luxury Spa Packages for Couples
10% off for Improper readers

www.SpringRainSpa.com

The Goosefish Press

A letterpress printer dedicated to the custom design and printing of creative and unique wedding invitations.

WWW.GOOSEFISHPRESS.COM

rob@goosefishpress.com ❀ (617) 451-1203

PUPPIES

starting at $299

Cute and healthy
1 year health warranty
Microchipped
Vet checked/shots
Mixed breeds available
Much, much, more

PET EXPRESS

www.petexpressboston.com

781.592.2003

Amazing transformations aren't just for makeover shows anymore!

With Stilista Style Consultants, you can easily:

20% off for 1st time clients

- Upgrade your look
- Rebuild your wardrobe
- Find great style on any budget

Check out all our service options today!

NEED A MAKEOVER?

New Vintage and Eco-friendly personal shopping now available!

617.78.STYLE

www.stilistaboston.com

your guide to style smart shopping! stilista

Fantasy Photography by Daphne

www.FantasyPhotography.com (781) 641-2100

Q: Why think about NYE now?

A: Even at current prices, the tickets are selling well below cost. This event WILL sell out, and you'll be sorry you missed this price if you wait!

More details coming soon

Black tie, gourmet menu, magnificent location, incredible entertainment and special NYE surprises!

$50 party only option

includes dessert buffet and champagne toast

VIP $150 option

includes 8 drinks of your choice from Premium Bar and Full 4 Course Dinner including Sirloin Carving Station and Prepared-While-You-Wait Sushi

BYPA BOSTON YOUNG PROFESSIONALS ASSOCIATION

WWW.BOSTONYPA.COM

TICKETS AT THESE PRICES WILL NOT LAST!

Improper Readers save $10 by using Promo code 122!

Monday, December 31, 2007 8pm-2am
Sheraton Boston Hotel at the Prudential
39 Dalton Street, Boston

Authentic Sea Glass Jewelry

www.jewelrybydaniellerenee.com

DR

JOSEPH SULLIVAN CARPET CLEANING

The Best Way to Clean Carpets

Est. 1973. Specializing in hand washing and deep cleaning of all carpets, including delicates (Oriental, Hand-woven, Special dye, etc.) Eliminate dirt/deep stains and odors. Drop-off/pick-up service available. Call now for competitive pricing.

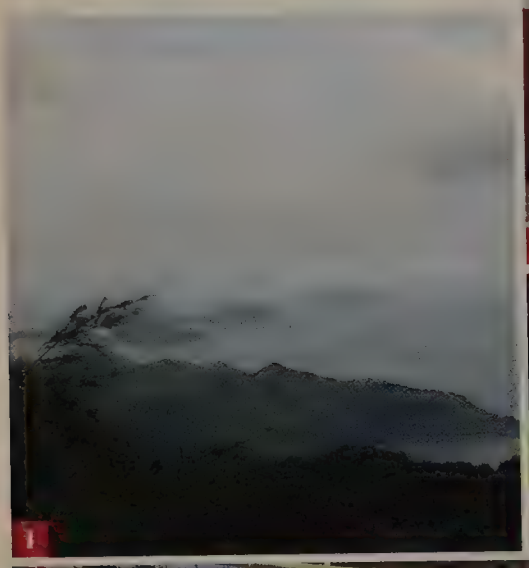
VISA

617-445-1693

www.josephsullivan.biz

WE PACK, WE MOVE, WE STORE, WE DO IT ALL

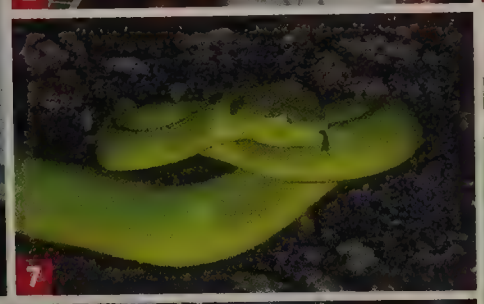
TOPHILL INC



FIVE STARS MOVERS

877-738-2800

WWW.FIVESTARSMOVERS.COM



LAST SCENE HERE

BY JONATHAN SOROFF

A view of the South China Sea; 2. signing the wall at Hong Kong's best Thai restaurant; 3. the world's largest seated Buddha; 4. durian, the smelliest fruit in the world; 5. a picturesque ruin in the New Territories; 6. fish in Tai O; 7. the bamboo pit viper

WHAT I DID ON MY SUMMER VACATION...

The only way in which I'm an observant Jew is that I religiously eat Chinese food on Sunday nights, so when the Langham Hotel chain asked if I wanted to check out two of their five-star properties in Hong Kong, my answer was, "Hell, yes."

I arrived after an 18-hour flight that I survived with the help of vodka and Xanax. After checking into my ultra-swanky room, I sat down to an eight-course feast that was light-years tastier than anything I've ever eaten in Chinatown—and what's more, it was Sunday night. So things were off to an auspicious start.

The next day, I took the subway (a sign warned, "Prevent Avian flu! Cook chicken and eggs!") to Lantau Island. I visited the world's largest seated Buddha, perched majestically on a mountaintop with breathtaking views of the South China Sea. At the Po Lin monastery I lit incense to honor my ancestors, and then made my way to an ancient fishing village, Tai O, for a taste of Hong Kong before the advent of skyscrapers, cell phones or sanitation. Walking through the market was an abject lesson in the many ways that fish can be rendered unappetizing, and it amazed me that less than two hours from one of the world's most cosmopolitan cities, there were people living in such Stone Age conditions. Their houses, built on stilts in the water, are the size of your average SUV and constructed out of tin, which, given the heat, must be like living in a toaster oven.

I ate dinner at one of Hong Kong's hottest restaurants, which is owned and operated by (surprise, surprise) a nice Jewish boy from Brooklyn named Harlan Goldstein. I went for a booze cruise on Victoria Harbour on a junk named Cheung Po Tsai, after the pirate who plied those waters in the 19th century.

One morning, after a Tai Chi class on the waterfront and the best dim sum I've ever tasted, I donned my elastic-waistband pants for a foodie tour of Kowloon Peninsula. Among the highlights of an afternoon spent sampling delights like Iced Logan Soda with Job's tears were seeing the "wet market" (where the fish guts fly, and where there should be a sign that says, "Toads. They're what's for dinner."), tasting (on a dare) a durian—a fruit so foul-smelling that many buildings in Asia post signs forbidding it on the premises—and convincing the owner of Hong Kong's finest Thai restaurant that I was famous enough to sign my name on the wall, alongside all the Hong Kong action film stars and other (legitimate) celebrities.

Of course, Hong Kong is all about shopping, and I hit the ladies' market, the jade market, and the electronics market in Mongkok, the retail shops in Tsim Sha Tsui, and several antiques galleries on the Hollywood Road (where I splurged on a Tang Dynasty Buddha head that's probably a fake). In fact, I bought so much stuff I had to go back to the ladies' market to haggle over an extra suitcase (25 bucks American, and it's as tough as Samsonite!) to lug it all home.

To recoup from such aggressive retail therapy, I enjoyed several treatments at the heavenly Chuan Spa, which I was sorely tempted to move into. I visited the New Territories, on the border with mainland China, where we saw a walled village from the 15th century, a beautiful Taoist temple and one of the few remaining 19th-century mansions, not to mention the cinder-block clubhouse of the Hong Kong Senior Professional Golfers Association. Overall, what I loved most about Hong Kong were the odd and exotic juxtapositions: a burnt offering of grilled pig next door to a 7-11, streets with names like Waterloo and Prince Edward intersecting with something utterly unpronounceable, and inexplicable signs saying things like "Mr. Beef Seafood Restaurant."

On my last night, I was having cocktails in Lan Kwai Fong, the nightlife district, when I mentioned that—because of the typhoon that had been blowing through all week—I'd been unable to go up to Victoria Peak for its unparalleled views.

"Well, let's go now," one of my hosts said. So we took a cab up a narrow, twisting road and around hairpin turns in the densest imaginable to a lookout point. Trying to ge better view, I started off down the not-ve well-lit street but stopped when I hea screaming. Looking down, I was excited see a gorgeous acid-green snake. I beg taking photos, until two men ran up, yell in Cantonese, "Get away! Very deadly! V poisonous!" Turns out that in one of most densely populated cities in Asia, I'd most tripped over a bamboo pit viper which case, I apparently would've had minutes to live). Odds-wise, it's like h pening upon a grizzly bear in Central Par

The next day, my hosts at the Langh gathered to see me off and one of them s "You're getting out just in time. They upgraded the typhoon to a level eight, the whole city is shutting down."

When I expressed trepidation about ing, she said, "Planes take off in this k of weather all the time."

Category-eight typhoons and de snakes aside, Hong Kong is as interesti city as I've ever been in, and it certa provided some good anecdotes to tell Sunday-night Chinese food. IB

Avez-vous dish?

Dirt? A spectacular social occasion? Call JS at 617-859-1400, ext. 303, or send an e-mail to jonathan@improper.com.

KELLY
AUTOMOTIVE GROUP

The Kelly Automotive Group Offers Answers to the Frequently Pondered Questions of Car Buyers.

In a world when the internet offers an array of endless automotive data, there are still fundamental questions consumers struggle with every day. So, Brian Kelly, President of the Kelly Automotive Group has produced a series of videos that answer some of these questions, in a detailed, yet easy to understand manner, without a business agenda.

There are four such videos...

- Lease Or Buy
- Best Way To Finance
- How To Read A Car Ad
- How To Choose A Dealer

"I am asked these questions everywhere I go," Brian Kelly explains. "It's time the public has a professional and inside explanation. At first glance, it would be logical to assume these videos are elongated Kelly commercials, but refreshingly they are not."

All four videos are there for your viewing pleasure, right now, at kellyauto.com

"It's All About Saving You Time, And Saving You Money"

Brian Kelly

We make it Easy!

2007 Infiniti M45 | 2007 Harley-Davidson Softail Deluxe | 2007 Chrysler 300

kellyauto.com

NISSAN | JEEP | CHRYSLER | INFINITI | HONDA | MITSUBISHI | SUZUKI | HARLEY DAVIDSON

Introducing 360 Vodka

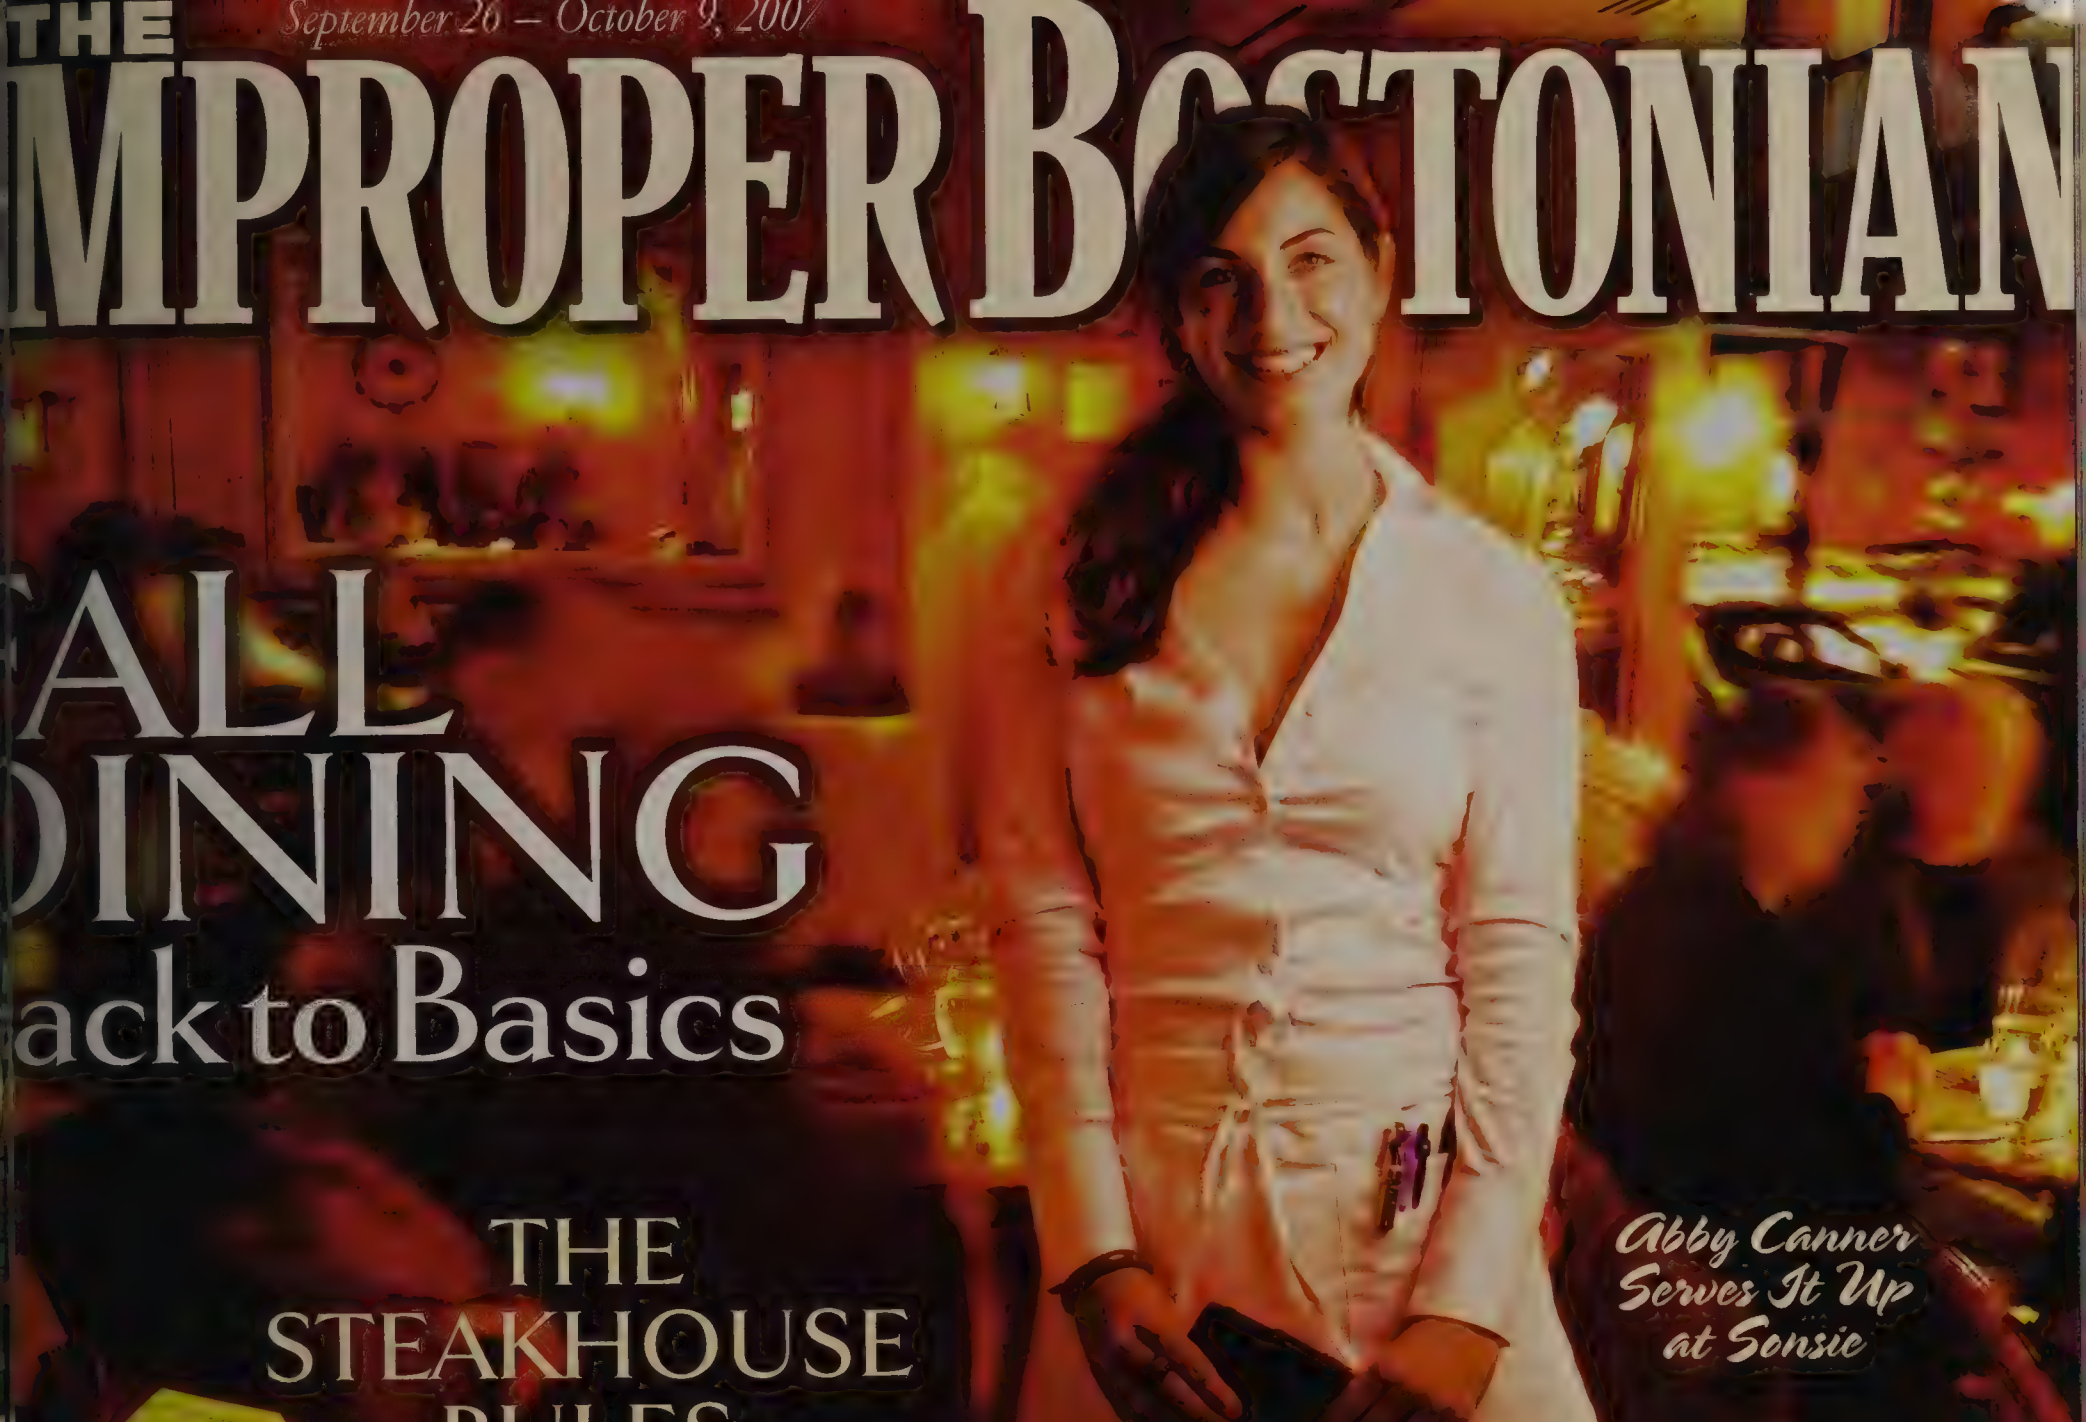
Vodka with a "Green" State of Mind

360 Vodka is crafted from a philosophy of eco-awareness. Quadruple Distilled and Five Times Filtered, it's vodka with an enlightened spirit, it's "The Evolution of Vodka."

The Evolution of Vodka

© 2007 Earth Friendly Distilling Co., Weston, MO

40% alc./vol. (80 Proof)



Distilled From American Grain

Vodka360.com

Drink Responsibly. Drive Responsibly. Exist

September 26 – October 9, 2007

THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN

FALL DINING
Back to Basics

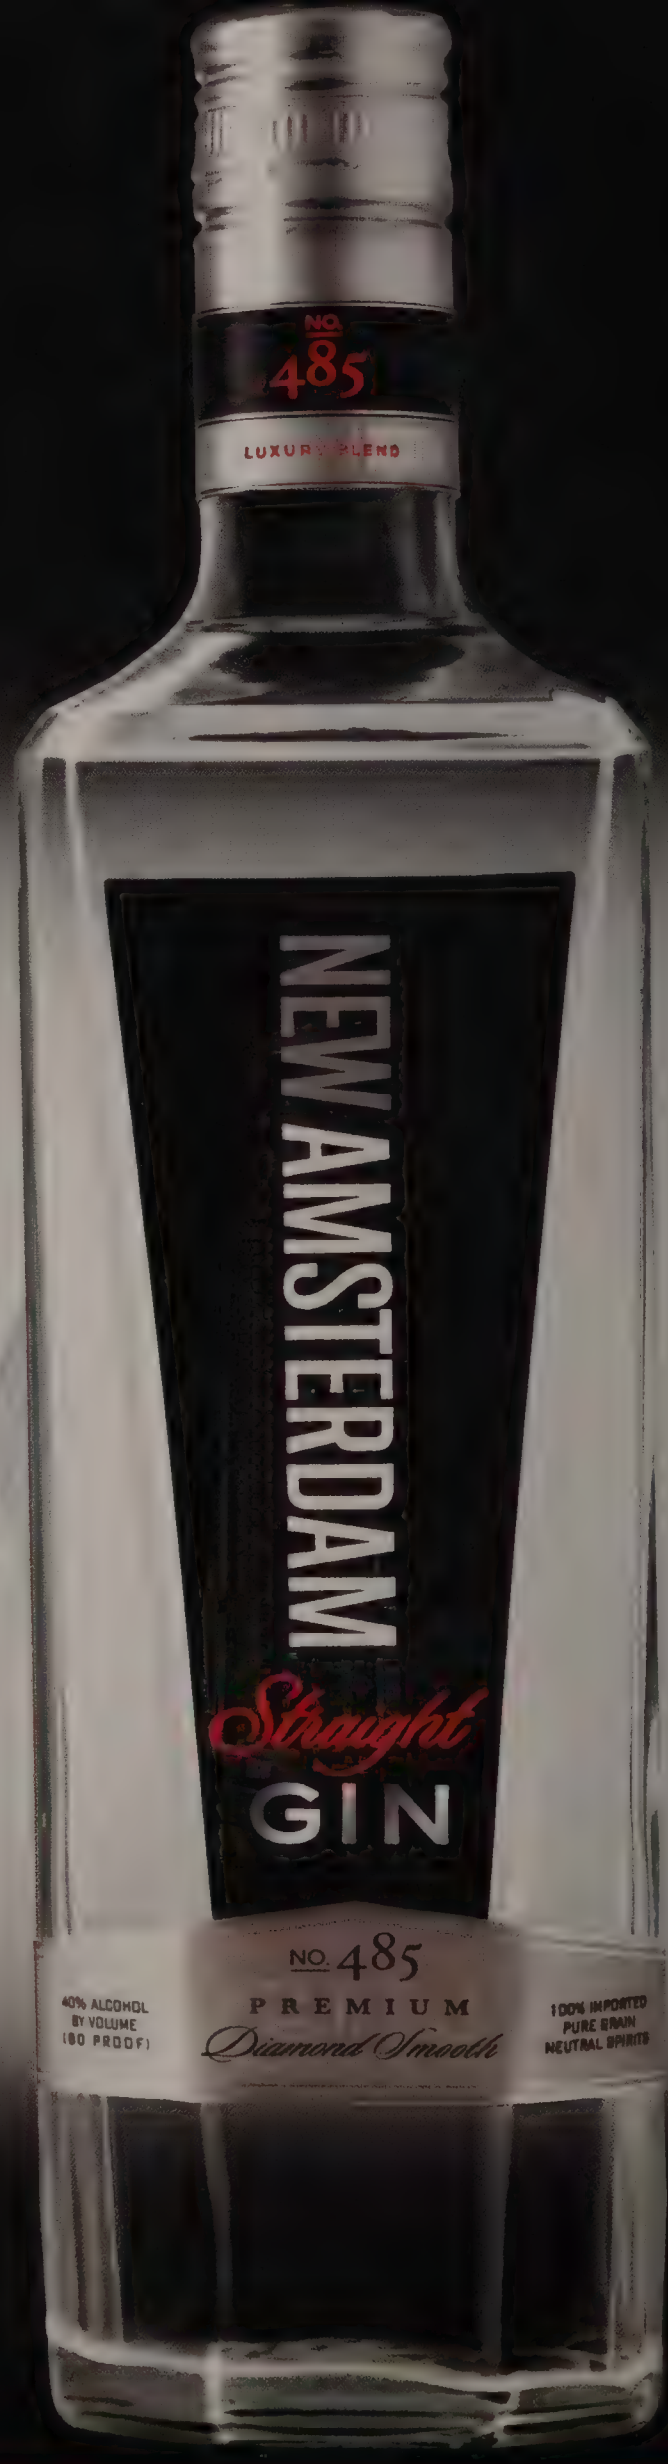
THE STEAKHOUSE RULES
Beef Conquers Boston

THE TASTIEST PIES
Sink Your Teeth Into These

Abby Canner Serves It Up at Sonsie

BREW SCHOOL
Ezra Gets Smart About Beer

ROAD FOOD, GOOD FOOD
Hit the Trail for Hearty Eat



...Boston's rib-stacking guide
...ertainment, culture
...ping helpings.

...SIDE OF METRO BOSTON

20
470 79832 3

Diamond

SMOOTH

NEW AMSTERDAM

KEEP IT STRAIGHT

RUBY

JUDITH RIPKA®

Arlene AND Roberta
Fine Jewelry

233 NEEDHAM STREET · NEWTON, MASSACHUSETTS · 617.527.3344

the Upper Crust
NEWBURY ST.
617 262 0090
BOSTON
617 723 9600
HINGHAM
781 740 2775
LEXINGTON
781 274 0089
BROOKLINE
617 734 4900
www.theuppercrustpizzeria.com

20 Charles Street
Beacon Hill
617.723.9600

286 Harvard Street
Coolidge Corner
617.734.4900

222 Newbury Street
Back Bay
617.262.0090

611 Duval Street
Key West, Fl
305.293.8890

41 Waltham Street
Lexington
781.274.0089

73 South Street
Hingham
781.740.2775

435 Moody Street
Waltham
781.736.0044

The Upper Crust

Opening Soon:

Harvard Square
Brattle Street

Salem
Washington Street

South End
Tremont Street

Watertown Square
Main Street

Catering menu available online:
www.theuppercrust
pizzeria.com

Pizza, Nouveau

Pizza

Pizza

Pizza

www.harvestcambridge.com

HARVEST

CONTEMPORARY CUISINE
INSPIRED BY AMERICAN CLASSICS

Lunch, Dinner • Sunday Brunch RESERVATIONS 617.868.2255

44 Brattle Street, Harvard Square

EXCELSIO

Cuisine & Cocktail

Dinner

Cafe Menu

Award Winning Wine List

Outdoor Seating

272 Boylston Street, Boston

617.426.7878

www.excelsiorrestaurant.com

BEST OF BOSTON 2007

MH

SALON MARC HARRIS

www.salonmarcharris.com

BEST OF BOSTON 2006

ANDOVER
978·749·9888

Rhode Island Monthly's best OF RHODE ISLAND

PROVIDENCE
401·521·2777

BOSTON'S BEST 2007 WINNER

NEWBURY ST
617·262·2222

contents

SEPTEMBER 26–OCTOBER 9, 2007

30
Buy the Cow

ANTHONY TIEULI

FEATURES

28 SOROFF/ON SAMANTHA HARRIS
The Dancing With the Stars host talks about growing up at King Richard's Faire, performing with Cirque du Soleil and her love for ligers.
BY JONATHAN SOROFF

30 BUY THE COW
Our look at Boston's thriving steakhouse scene leaves no filet, rib eye or porterhouse unturned—and we've got the expanding waistline to prove it.
BY JOLYON HELTERMAN

35 BREWED AWAKENING
Quality beer drinking for dummies… or at least one dummy.
BY EZRA DYER

38 REAL SIMPLE
One delicious drive down Route 2 shows there's more to roadside dining than hot dog stands.
BY MEGAN LISAGOR

40 EASY AS PIE
Because it's not just for your grandma's window sill anymore.
BY ELIZABETH BOMZE

42 ATTENTION TO DETAIL
Stay hip this fall with killer accessories.
PHOTOGRAPHS BY TONY SCARPETTA

Photographed for THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN by
Laura Barisonzi

Waitress: Abby Canner from Sonsie; stylist: Lauren Franz/Team the Agency; hair styling: Salvatore Malafronte @ Salon Mario Russo @ Louis Boston; makeup: Gary Croteau @ Salon Mario Russo @ Louis Boston; shot on location at Sonsie, 327 Newbury St., Boston

COLUMNS

12 THE WORD
Clink; Tir na nÓg; Steve-O.

18 PROPER BOSTONIANS
Proper partygoers pictured.
BY KERRY BRETT

20 EZRA
One man takes a stand… kind of.
BY EZRA DYER

22 THE COLLINS CARD
The Pats earned their punishment.
BY CHRIS COLLINS

24 THE DANCE
The rise and fall of a restaurateur.
BY JOHN D. SPOONER

26 TAKE FIVE
CameraGate; JD Drew; the C's head to Italy.
BY RICH LEVINE

46 MOPSY
Afternoons With Emily; Pandemonium; ProFit.
BY MOPSY STRANGE KENNEDY

64 MOVIES
Sean Penn steps behind the camera for Into the Wild
BY SEAN BURNS

71 MUSIC
The National prepares to rock the Roxy.
BY PAUL ROBICHEAU

112 LAST SCENE HERE
Our Man in Black Tie hits the high seas.
BY JONATHAN SOROFF

EAT. DRINK.

48 DINING
Good things cooking in the Rustic Kitchen.
BY J. CHARLES MOKRISKI

50 DISH
Take off with Chez Henri.
BY CAROLYN FAYE FOX

51 TASTINGS
A Taste of Roslindale and other morsels.
BY RICH LEVINE

52 WINE
Sharing Chinon's secrets.
BY SANDY BLOCK, M.W.

AGENDA

The two-week forecast from Amanda and Nick. Complete listings follow page 55.

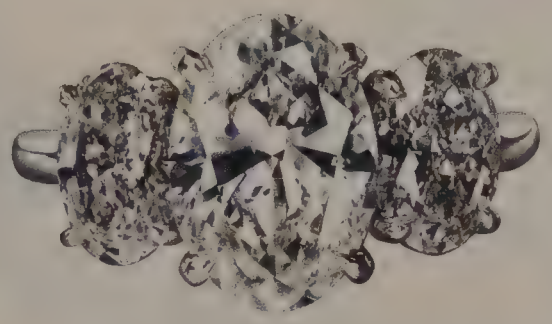
Eugene Mirman • Psychic Fair and Witchcraft Expo • Beantown Jazz Festival • Paul Green's School of Rock Music • Taste Amer

ET CETERA

Letters
Rockie Horoscope
Improper Impersonals
Improper Sightings

Guaranteed Rate Base 85,000 biweekly;
ABC audited
We are an Equal Opportunity Employer

VOLUME XVI, ISSUE 19



THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN MAGAZINE is published biweekly.
Subscriptions available for $14.95 per year, by Improper Publications Inc.

POSTMASTER:
Send address changes to:
THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN MAGAZINE
142 Berkeley St., Third Floor, Boston, MA 02116

THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN MAGAZINE

Dear Ketel One Drinker
Hello again.

Good things come in threes.

Joseph Gann Jewelers LLC
SINCE 1933

387 Washington Street
4th floor, Boston
617.426.4932
www.josephgann.com

THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN MAGAZINE

PUBLISHER Wendy Semonian Eppich

EDITOR Veronica Chao

MANAGING EDITOR Megan Lisagor

FEATURE WRITER/SOCIAL COLUMNIST Jonathan Soroff

FEATURE WRITER/COLUMNIST Ezra Dyer

ASSISTANT EDITORS Nick Altschuller, Rich Levine

EDITORIAL ASSISTANT Amanda Knorr

COPYEDITORS Nathaniel Adams, Linh Tran Brincat

FASHION EDITOR Victor Vargas

CONTRIBUTING EDITORS Sandy Block, M.W., Sean Burns, Chris Collins, Carolyn Faye Fox, Marni Elyse Katz, Mopsy Strange Kennedy, J. Charles Mokriski, Paul Robicheau, John D. Spooner

EDITORIAL INTERNS Liz Fiandaca, Chaseedaw Giles, Christopher Griffin, Amy Gromek, Amy Laskowski, Molly McCormick, Michael Miccoli, Joseph Scapicchio, Courtney White, Kate Wen

DESIGN CONSULTANT Heroun + Co.

PHOTO EDITOR Katie Noble

STAFF PHOTOGRAPHER Kerry Brett

PHOTO INTERNS Jocelyn Gabriel, Alan Gwizdowski, Samantha A. Tyler

ADVERTISING DIRECTOR Julie Kane

DIRECTOR OF BUSINESS DEVELOPMENT Alison Morant

SENIOR NATIONAL ACCOUNT MANAGER Carrie Wallace

ACCOUNT EXECUTIVES Bill Eppich, Jessica Federico

CLASSIFIED ACCOUNT EXECUTIVES Meghan Brady, Carly Rubin

GRAPHIC ARTIST Nicole Begin

DIRECTOR OF MARKETING AND PUBLIC RELATIONS Stacey Shane

ADVERTISING AND MARKETING INTERNS Sarah Bernstein, Dihan Fields-Coard, Victor John, James Phillips, Meghan Rourke, Bryan Russo, Tonya Smith, Allison Zarick

PRODUCTION DIRECTOR Merinda Pattullo

V.P. OF FINANCE & ADMINISTRATION Arthur Souza

LEGAL COUNSEL John S. Day, Esq.

GENERAL MANAGER Robyn Sarkisian Miller

OFFICE MANAGER Gretchen Bostrom

SALES ASSISTANT/RECEPTIONIST Nicole Zoto

FOUNDER Mark Semonian

THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN MAGAZINE
142 Berkeley St., 3rd Floor
Boston, MA 02116
Phone: 617-859-1400; Fax: 617-859-1446

E-mail: info@improper.com
www.improper.com

Published by Improper Publications Inc. Copyright©2007 by Improper Publications Inc. All rights reserved. Reproduction in part or in whole without permission is strictly prohibited.

All correspondence to THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN MAGAZINE is read, considered, filed and/or forwarded to the appropriate parties. Due to the volume of correspondence, editors cannot respond individually to solicitations, queries or press releases.

Member
Audit Bureau of Circulations

Furnished Model Now Open

Enjoy Life... Downtown Style Without the Downtown Price!

REPTON
place

NEW CONSTRUCTION CONDOMINIUM HOMES IN WATERTOWN

Interior Finishes by Renowned Boston Designer, Dennis Duffy

Hardwood Floors, Stainless Steel Appliances & Granite Countertops

Ceiling Heights up to 9'8" • Windows over 8' High • Parking & Storage Included

IMMEDIATE OCCUPANCY

PRE-CONSTRUCTION PRICING:

Studios + 1 Bedrooms from low $300's

Two Bedrooms from $399k

Three Bedrooms from the low $500's

SALES OFFICE HOURS: Monday - Friday 10 - 5:30 and by Appointment. OPEN HOUSE, SUNDAY 12-4

"ONE OF BOSTON'S HOT FIVE COMMUNITIES TO LIVE!"

– Boston Globe Magazine, March 26, 2007

Call today to set up an appointment 888-842-9497 • 555 Pleasant Street • Watertown, MA • www.reptonplace.com

Exclusive Sales and Marketing Agents OTIS & AHEARN • Developed by Beacon Communities Development LLC

LETTERS

FROM THE EDITOR

FOOD AND FAREWELL

Steak, beer, pies, road food. We're taking it back to the simple stuff in this year's fall dining issue, the 137th issue I've edited for the IMPROPER. Not a notable number to anyone else but significant to me, in that it marks the last time I'll write this editor's note. Midway through our next issue, I'm moving on to a new job in Boston.

Though suffering some separation anxiety, I'm gratified to be leaving with the magazine on an upswing, and readership at a high. It's been a thrill, over the past five years, to see the leaps the IMPROPER's talented staff has made, improving everything from the stories and photography to the design and production. And plans are already well underway to step up to the next level: It's only going to get better from here.

Smart, delightful managing editor Megan Lisagor takes over the editorial department as I head out. You're going to love what's to come.

Veronica Chao

VERONICA CHAO, Editor
veronica@improper.com

DEFENDING OUR HONOR

Hey Tolhurst,
You say you hate the IMPROPER so much, but took the time to pull up their Web site and wrote in to say how much you hate the magazine. You complain about the articles, yet seem to read them. The only thing you do seem to like is the pictures of "unhappy people." So here's a thought for you: Why don't you quit complaining, stop reading the IMPROPER, and the next time you want to feel better about yourself by looking at "pseudo-important Bostonians," just look in the mirror? Oh, and one more thing—don't dis Ezra.

—ALISA CABRAL
Everett

SOROFF IS SOOOO ON

I've greatly enjoyed and appreciated Jonathan Soroff's interviews in the past two issues with Sidewalk Sam (Aug. 29) and Amiri Baraka (Sept. 12). In a climate where the arts are often overshadowed by commercial and political objectives, it's refreshing and completely inspiring to read these artists' philosophies, approaches and commitment to their arts despite what adversities and challenges they face. The insightful but playful interview style is a wonderful catalyst for presenting these perspectives. And there's an appreciative reader out here to whom your words have made a difference.

—JEN SCHOONOVER
Cambridge

CONTRIBUTORS

ELIZABETH BOMZE

Liz Bomze's tendency to read her mother's food magazines as a youngster eventually morphed into a journalism career. She's written for the Boston Globe and the Boston Phoenix as well as for the IMPROPER, and she has a permanent gig with Brookline-based Cook's Illustrated magazine. Her latest article for the IMPROPER, "Easy As Pie," starts on page 40.

LAURA BARISONZI

Laura Barisonzi lives in Boston and shoots portraits, fashion, lifestyle and music. Her work has appeared in Forbes, GQ, Photo District News and Sierra. Barisonzi also works for such commercial clients as Heineken and Nordstrom. She shot this issue's cover.

CORRECTION

The photo on page 30 of the Sept. 12 issue was taken at Jordan Hall, the New England Conservatory, Boston.

Tell Us What You Think

SEND LETTERS TO THE EDITOR TO: The Improper Bostonian, 142 Berkeley St., Third Floor, Boston, MA 02116. E-mail: letters@improper.com. Fax: 617-859-1446. Letters must be signed; please include your town and phone number. Letters may be edited for space and clarity.

HEALTHWORKS
FITNESS CENTERS FOR WOMEN
visit
Do you want to see what Healthworks is all about? Join us October 8th – 14th for the annual Healthworks Open House. For more information, visit us at www.healthworksfitness.com/openhouse07
Part mind, part body, all gym – entirely for women.
Back Bay Brookline Cambridge Chestnut Hill Salem
www.healthworksfitness.com
www.healthworksfoundation.org
Students:
Only a few days left to receive your $0 initiation fee *
BELLY DANCE
years of age. Offer valid until 9/30/07. Offer valid for AB memberships only.

THE WORD

NEW IN TOWN

Lock It Up

From the city that brought you a steakhouse named Mooo comes a restaurant in a former jail called Clink. But thankfully, like its peers up the hill, Clink puts the kitsch on lockdown, where it can't harm the more discerning public.

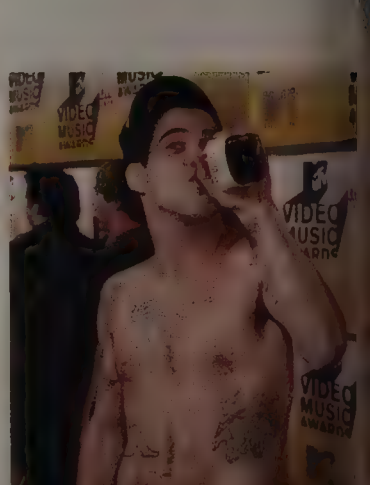
There aren't any steel trays or tin cups to rattle against the bars at this newcomer in the Liberty Hotel. Despite the limitations imposed by the building's historical-landmark status, the architects and designers have created a space that's a bit raucous—the voices of diners ricochet off the old brick walls—but still warm and inviting. What was once a decrepit cellblock is now an open kitchen. An expansive entryway and floor-to-ceiling windows emphasize freedom over confinement. And then there's the creative food from executive chef Michael Goodman, who wouldn't do well with constraints.

Goodman, 35, is a cook and a traveler—like Anthony Bourdain if he studied Buddhism, tai chi and ego management. If Under Siege 3 were set in a prison, Goodman would be Steven Seagal. Over the past five or so years, Goodman has traveled around Asia filling three passports and working along the way. Clink's fare is a collection of those experiences, influences and adopted philosophies. "Every part of the [global] menu affects something else," he says. "I don't think any part of me would have existed without my travels. My whole thought process is different now."

The menu's designed to be communal and approached at a leisurely pace. Not tied down to a specific region or style, it's also fluid. A meal for two could begin with a snack, three or four small plates, then a larger course for the table. Selections from the wine list come in beakers as 100 ml tastes or bigger sizes. "We wanted food that was social, food that would share well, food that would go well with cocktails—food that was fun," Goodman says.

A night out could begin in the pseudo-South, with fried "mac 'n' cheese" with mortadella and vine-ripened tomato ketchup ($6), and crispy fried pork cracklin' with pink sea salt, lime and Thai basil ($6). Cultural mashups continue in the small plates, with an octopus cassoulet featuring parma ham, fennel-cranberry-bean ragout and orange sangria redux ($12), and the smoked lobster bisque with truffled croutons and cognac crème.

The main courses become more regionally authentic, like the Thai crispy side of pork with mint and scallion salad and sweet Vidalia onion puree ($24). "We have items on this menu where you might as well be getting it from the street vendor who taught me how to make it," Goodman says. Then there's the ishiyaki, or Japanese hot stone cooking, which lets diners play chef at the table heating entrees over, yep, a hot stone. Offering Maine diver scallop ($18), dry-aged skirt steak ($20) or Wagyu beef, Goodman says, "The ishiyaki is my favorite thing on the menu, which is weird, because we don't even cook it."



Feasting away in a former jail also seems weird. But Clink may provide just the reason to be locked away, if only for a few hours. Clink, 215 Charles St., Boston (617-224-4004).
—Nick Altschuller

Lobster bisque

Artichoke salad

INNER VIEW

Jack-O

A true renaissance man, Steve-O rose to fame as one of the stars of MTV's Jackass, hurting himself in the name of entertainment. He continues to solidify his place among the craziest guys on television; his new show, Dr. Steve-O, premieres on USA Oct. 1. Appropriately enough, he'll be in town Sept. 28 hosting a night of Bikini Bull Riding at the Liquor Store (1 Boylston Place, 617-357-6800).

IMPROPER BOSTONIAN: So tell us about Dr. Steve-O.
Steve-O: It's completely awesome. I play a traveling psychotherapist, who goes around grabbing wussies and making them do crazy shit. Basically, guys approach me with their problems, and I try to help them out. It doesn't always work though.
IB: What's the most pain you ever felt?
SO: It's all just apples and oranges. That's my answer for that question. At this point it's just about how long the pain lasts, not how badly it hurts.
IB: How do you remove a staple from your scrotum? A staple remover just doesn't seem like it would work.
SO: Nope, it doesn't work like that. You just gotta rip it out yourself. But every once in a while you feel the staple turn that corner, and then you got some trouble on your hands.
IB: In light of the recent Tommy Lee/Kid Rock fight, who's one celebrity you'd like to meet in the boxing ring?
SO: Man, I'm not sure, but did you hear they're talking about having an official fight between those two? I'm down for that, but I'm friends with both guys, so I guess I got to stay neutral on who I think's gonna win.
IB: We heard you're getting into the music biz yourself.
SO: Yeah, man. I have an official recording contract with Universal. It's absolutely ridiculous. And I'm definitely going to be rapping my butt off in Boston. I'll be performing the title track of my debut album, Hard as a Rock.
IB: Last question, Steve-O: Do you believe in life after death?
SO: I like to think that every time someone giggles at one of my videos, I'm alive. You could shoot me in the head right now, and because of those videos, I'll live forever.
—Rich Levine

THE OFFICIAL JEWELER OF THE BOSTON SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA
Wendy Putnam, violinist, wearing a round brilliant cut diamond ring set in platinum

A PERFECT GIFT IS THE RESULT OF A CAREFUL BALANCE BETWEEN EXQUISITE TASTE AND IMPECCABLE TIMING.

WE PROMISE
EXCEPTIONAL QUALITY & EXTRAORDINARY SERVICE
AT COMPETITIVE PRICES.

SHREVE, CRUMP & LOW
THE GEM OF BOSTON SINCE 1796™

BOSTON FLAGSHIP STORE
CORNER OF BERKELEY & BOYLSTON
(800) 225-7088
• VALIDATED PARKING IN BACK BAY GARAGE •

WWW.SHREVECRUMPANDLOW.COM

CHESTNUT HILL STORE
THE MALL AT CHESTNUT HILL
(866) 965-2700

TASTY TIDBITS

Serious Cupcakes and Celtics Land

Ass-Kickin' Cakes… Cupcakes don't necessarily rank high on our list of intimidating foods, but a new shop in Davis Square is trying to give the formerly dainty dessert a new rep. Kick Ass Cupcakes, which opened on Highland Ave. last month, offers a selection of signature cupcakes, including the Mojito—rum-soaked with sugarcane lime frosting and mint—and the Strawberry Shortcake—strawberry jam topped with a strawberry and whipped cream—as well as other specialties like Cupcake Shooters, specially crafted beverages that pair well with the sweets. All the ingredients are fresh, but you best not be. 378 Highland Ave., Somerville (617-628-2877). www.kickasscupcakes.com.

Kick Ass Cupcakes' Strawberry Shortcake

Here's Johnnie… With the Celtics back on the map this season, we expect the area surrounding TD Banknorth Garden to undergo its own resurgence. One boon should be Johnnie's on the Side, a new sports bar and bistro slated to open this fall in the Portland Street space that formerly housed Anthem. The menu will focus on traditional New England cuisine (as well as a few select Italian dishes), but fans will come for the extensive array of sports and entertainment memorabilia—amassed by owner and former Red Sox employee John Caron. The collection features, among other things, two original seats from the Boston Garden, which gets us all the more psyched for the impending return of Celtic glory. 138 Portland St., Boston. www.johnniesontheside.com.

More Morton's… Fans of Morton's, the Steakhouse will soon have another reason to eat meat, as the national chain opens its second Boston location Nov. 2. The new digs are located on the bottom floor of the World Trade Center East building on Seaport Lane, with seating for 130 in the dining room, 50 at the bar and 30 on an outdoor patio next spring. It'll be open for lunch and dinner. Loosen your Cole Haan belts. 2 Seaport Lane, Boston (617-526-0410).

Morton's crab cakes

Shiki's Kaiseki lunch

Turning Japanese… Coolidge Corner keeps the co with the Sept. 1 arrival of Shiki. The eatery—owned l Misako Uda, who previously headed Roka in Can bridge—features a traditional menu of Japanese cuisi (prepared by chefs trained in the homeland), and an e tensive sake selection that dwarfs the "one hot/one col options of some other local spots. Shiki—Japane for "four seasons"—seats 30 diners and is op six days a week (no Tuesdays). 9 Babcock St., Broo line (617-738-0200).

Breakfast Bonanza… Somerville's Broadway quickly becoming Breakfast Blvd. Earlier th summer, Soundbites moved from 708 Broadw to the space next door at 704. And what to over at 708? More pancakes, baby. The B Square Café, which opened Sept. 17, serv breakfast (and lunch) to a Ball Square crov that's now drowning in a delicious pool of syru Along with Soundbites, Highland already has lo breakfast faves True Grounds and Kelly's. 17 Broadway, Somerville (617-623-2233). www.b squarecafe.com. —RL

BEAUTY BUZZ

Practice Makes Perfect

Some women pine for peep-toe pumps; others covet python clutches. You lust after gloss, but glamour girl you're not. Vials and pots sit on your shelves, taunting you to them, just one more time. But really, how do the models get those magazine-wort looks? If you're a frustrated beauty maven, or simply giddy for more goodies, stop Beauty & Main on Friday, Oct. 5, for a lesson with celebrity makeup artist Paula D and her well-trained team. Dorf believes you can become your own makeup artist, pecially with her eponymous collection, which features products that are easy to and colors that make sense. She begins with the eyes, to get a sense of your style smoky and dramatic, retro gamine, no-nonsense minimal—then works downwar But here's the rub: She only does half your face; you're expected to do the other h (with any personal modifications), ensuring you leave well-schooled. The consultati are complimentary with the purchase of three products. Call ahead, as appointme are limited. Beauty and Main, 30 Brattle St., Cambridge (617-868-7171). www.bea andmain.com; www.pauladorf.com. Oct. 5, 11 am–6 pm.

—Marni Elyse Katz

COINTREAU®
COSMOPOLITAN

Cointreau®
vodka
berry and lime juice
e with ice and strain
martini glass

Make the ordinary extraordinary

BE COINTREAUVERSIAL®
for more recipes, visit becointreauversial.com

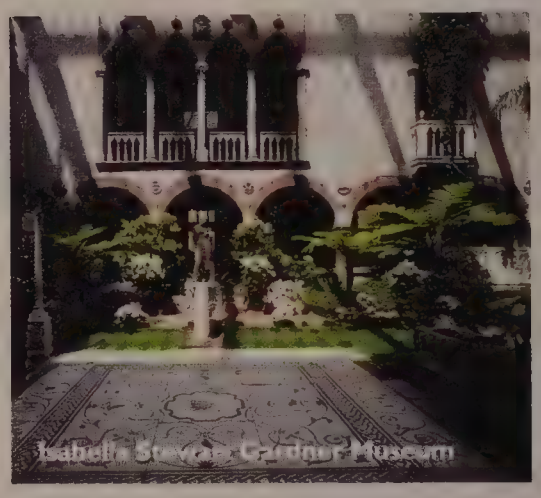
IMPROPER REPORTS

In Vino Veritas

Celebrate harvest at the following vineyards, where you can enjoy local winemakers' handiwork. Who says California has cornered the market? Well, it's not like Napa is within driving distance. We're talking proximity, people!

Cape Cod Winery
681 Sandwich Road, East Falmouth (508-457-5592).
www.capecodwinery.com.
Boasting conditions that rival those of northern Italy and the south of France, this Falmouth vineyard has produced cabernet franc, sauvignon and pinot grigio enriched by the Cape's sun and soil since 1994. Tours and tastings, Sat. and Sun., 11 am–4 pm. Free.

Chester Hill Winery Inc.
47 Lyon Hill Road, Chester (413-354-2340). www.blueberrywine.com.
Nestled in the foothills of the Berkshires, Chester Hill's signature blend is marked by a variety of antioxidant-rich blueberry wines enhanced by peach, apricot and apple flavors. Tours and tastings, Sat. and Sun., 1–5 pm. Free.



Chicama Vineyards
Stoney Hill Road, Box 430, West Tisbury (508-693-0309). www.chicamavineyards.com.
Head out to Martha's Vineyard for a taste at the original Bay State winery. Family-owned and operated for three generations, Chicama Vineyards makes it own vino, mustard and specialty food. Tours and tastings, Mon.–Fri. through Columbus Day, 2 and 4 pm. Free.

Nashoba Valley Winery
100 Wattaquadoc Road, Bolton (978-779-5521). www.nashobawinery.com.
Nashoba's extensive wine and brew selection includes pear whites and blueberry reds. With both early birds and happy hour–goers in mind, tours run every 45 minutes from 11 am to 4 pm Saturdays and Sundays. Perfect your pairing skills at their on-site restaurant. Tour, tasting and a commemorative wine glass, $3.

Plymouth Bay Winery
Water St., Plymouth (508-746-2100).
At one of its daily harvest-time tastings, you'll experience the flavors of 100 percent and 75 percent cranberry wines, as Plymouth Bay's resident oenophile recounts the life of the berry, from Ocean Spray orchard to your Thanksgiving table. So much better than that stuff from the can. Tastings, Mon.–Sat., 10:30 am–5 pm; Sun., 12–5 pm. Free. —Joe Scapicchio and Courtney A. White

IMPROPER SPEAKING

SEEN, OVERHEARD OR OTHERWISE BROUGHT TO OUR ATTENTIO

Day of the Nerd... On Sept. 29, Smithsonian magazine and Hyundai Motor America present the third annual Museum Day. From Mass. MoCA to the Gardner, museums across the state (and the nation) will open their doors free of charge. Grab an admission card at www.smithsonian.com and prepare to get cultured. What? You were going to drink and watch college football? That's... actually pretty awesome, but BC is playing UMass. Doesn't take a genius to predict the outcome of that one. Still, should you fail to get off the couch, make it up to your mind by visiting the MIT Museum's new $3 million expansion. Focused on the future, the Innovation Gallery will exhibit current MIT projects, including stackable electric cars and ocean floor–exploring robots. Starting Sept. 29, they're open daily, lazybones. MIT Museum, 265 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-253-4444).

It Bags... The usual routine goes something like this: Store opens; store gains loyal fan base; store creates Web site to make shopping easier. But the online retailer www.luxcouture.com is reversing the order by opening its first showroom in Wellesley this month. Sari Brown, founder of LuxCouture, searches purses worldwide to find the latest must-haves, including picks from hot designers like Lai, Jennifer Alfano, Jane August, Nuti and Sang A River (whose python tote recently graced the pages of Vogue). Brown prides herself on unearthing the newest "it" brands before they're well-known, which we appreciate, because there's nothing worse th walking into a room full of women clutch the same clutch. LuxCouture, 14 Mica La Suite 9, Wellesley (781-431-7777). www. couture.com.

Bar Hop... CBGB's closing was to New York what Tír na nÓg's closing was to Bostonia Okay, maybe not exactly the same thing, we were still pissed when nÓg shuttered a 11 years. So we couldn't be happier to le that Toast in Somerville has helped resurr the live music spot by sharing its grounds S day through Thursday evenings. The r space is nearly double the old one and draws great acts with no cover charge. We a funny feeling they'd be back. How cou place named after the "Land of Eternal You be gone for good? 366A Union Square, Som ville. www.thenog.com.

Where Were You Last Night... Your latest cuse for a grey-faced weekday mornir Alibi, the city's newest cocktail lounge in Liberty Hotel. Another venture from Lyons Group, Alibi shares the subtle jailh motif of its upstairs neighbor, Clink, with bars and mug shots adorning the walls. your Big House martinis or margaritas or signer tree-trunk tables, or lie back leather couch and sip on specialty libations the Doing Thyme, with Hendricks gin, a cider, thyme (duh) and blueberry marmal Quickly becoming a hot spot, the for prison has already seen Mick Jagger, Anr Bening and Eva Mendes mingling among hoi polloi. Alibi, 215 Charles St., Boston (224-4000). www.alibiboston.com. —NA an

GOT SCOOP?
Got an inside tip? Overheard some juicy news? Let us know what it is. Send an e- to theword@improper.com.

FROM OLÉ TO AU LAIT

ae InterContinental Boston blends cultures and cuisines to create unique and stimulating experiences. Start by savoring culent sushi creations with vintage tequilas. Then slide across the dance floor and succumb to the smooth salsa music. Thirsty?
p into the hidden room for a crisp, cool glass of bubbly. Steal away to the promenade to absorb the city's lights reflecting the water as you welcome the cool night air. Jump into RumBa's revelry with bracing rum potions. And, before the sun es, whisk into Miel, Brasserie Provençal, for café au lait as your spoons break the surface of a honey-chestnut crème brulee.
t your senses travel.

Do you live an InterContinental life?

SUSHI TEQ

RumBa
RUM & CHAMPAGNE BAR

MIEL
Brasserie Provençale

INTERCONTINENTAL
BOSTON

510 Atlantic Avenue • 617.747.1000
intercontinentalboston.com

ROPER BOSTONIANS

BY KERRY BRETT, PHOTOGRAPHS BY BILL BRETT

The sixth annual Samuel Adams Celebrity Draw Party and Auction to benefit the Sean McDonough Charitable Foundation took place Sept. 16 at the Boston Harbor Hotel. Some 400 guests attended the event, which raised $350,000.

1. Jeff McCormick, managing director of Saturn Partners, and his wife, Christine
2. Francesca Sibble and her husband, Mat, senior partner at Goodwin Procter
3. Jim Lippie, CEO of Thrive Networks in Concord, and Erin McDonough, vice president of public affairs at New England Baptist Hospital
4. Rushmie Kalke, senior writer at Soloman McCown, and Jennifer Manley, senior account executive at Soloman McCown
5. Jim Koch, CEO of Samuel Adams, Donnie Wahlberg, actor, and Sean McDonough, executive director of the Sean McDonough Foundation and sports announcer for ESPN
6. Dick MacPherson, former coach of the New England Patriots, Mike Millbury, former coach of the Boston Bruins, and Joe Morgan, former manager of the Boston Red Sox
7. Lauren Cullen, research assistant for CRA Inc., and Lauren Chauncy, software analyst for GE Healthcare

Dress for a Cause, an Evening with Sara Campbell was held Sept. 10 at the Boston Harbor Hotel. Some 300 partygoers attended the fashion show, which raised money for the Br Cancer Research Foundation.

8. Kelly Tuthill, news reporter for Channel 5, Dr. Carolyn Kaelin, breast cancer surgeon at Brigham and Women' breast cancer survivor, Sara Campbell, fashion designer, and Dr. Julie Silver, physician and breast cancer survivo
9. Johanna Varlin, intern at Sara Campbell, and Cecilia Herman, store manager for Sara Campbell
10. Karen Kaplan, president of Hill Holliday, Marion Heard, former CEO of the United Way, and Lisa Badeau, executive vice president of Hill Holliday
11. Stephanie Millon, marketing manager for Sara Campbell, and Kelly Doyle Belsher, public relations director for Boston Harbor Hotel

$0 TO JOIN TODAY*

ate-of-the-art equipment credible Personal Trainers and classes convenient locations

00.301.1231 • BostonSportsClubs.com

Official Health Club of the Boston Red Sox

*$0 applies to joining fee only. Monthly dues and $59 processing fee apply. Requires a one-year membership. No cash value. Some restrictions may apply. Offer expires on 9.30.07

BSC

boston sports clubs

Where you live. Where you

TAKE NO PRISONERS

It's time to stop being polite and start getting real

My friend Ned recently sent an e-mail that began, "So, my newest thing in New York is not taking crap from crazy people." He described jumping out of his car to confront a bike messenger, and dropping the great conversation-ending rhetorical question—Why don't you go f--- yourself?—on a stranger who was giving him grief at a bar. Ned concluded, "Clearly I'm in some sort of alpha male, 'I'm not taking s--- from anyone' phase. Is it just me? Do you guys find these sorts of things happening to you, too?"

Good question, and one that struck a chord with me, because I've also been taking a hard-line stance on crap tolerance lately. This is unusual, because normally I'm the guy who still tips the cabbie even when he takes a route to Fenway that somehow includes a border crossing. See, I give people the benefit of the doubt. I'm a sucker.

Somewhere along the way, though, I stopped caring about people's feelings and started looking out for No. 1. I made a cabbie turn off his meter when I noted that normally Chinatown is not on the way from Southie to City Bar. Last month, I got a $50 gift certificate and a refund after raining bile on a company for its loathsome customer service. And, in so many words, I posed Ned's nuclear rhetorical question to one of the trustees in my condo association.

Here's the situation: By dint of being the only owner who actually lives in the building, I'm the de facto building manager. For instance, when our fire escape nearly fell off the building while the other two owners were on vacation abroad, I scheduled a contractor, got it fixed and floated the payment out of my own pocket. In short, I think I pull my weight around the ol' condo association. So this fall, the first floor owner gets a new tenant, thus she makes a rare visit to the building to get her place cleaned up. Shortly thereafter, she sends me her condo payment with a note saying, "I saw that you keep your trash in the basement, and there's supposed to be NO TRASH in the basement. It attracts rats. That was a rule that seems to have been lost somewhere." I immediately wrote her an e-mail saying that I've been keeping my trash in the basement for three years without a problem, and until I see rats partying in the garbage cans I'm gonna keep putting my trash there, and by the way, thanks for stopping by once every three years to tell me what the rules are. I was so riled up, I even began the e-mail with "FYI". You don't begin e-mails with "FYI" unless you're about to seriously tell it like is. It felt good. Things are now awkwa between me and this woman, but y know what? I don't give a crap.

My challenge going forward is to ta my newfound approach to the street, b cause while I'm an e-mail Clint Eastwo in person I'm still a wuss. For example was recently at a bar that has a popu outdoor area. In my experience, bounc at places that only have lines under spec circumstances—like a sunny Friday af work—are some of the most obnoxio human beings on the planet. They do normally get to play gatekeeper, so wh they do, they milk it for all it's wor When my female friend, who was alrea inside, approached the bouncer at t place to see if he'd let us in, he disdainfu replied, "Maybe if you flash me." I wan to flash him a fist in his ferret-looking fa but instead I decided to go subtle. I asl him if he worked there year-round, and replied, "Yeah, I'm 'The Boss'!" My i was to get him thinking of the bleak win ahead, when he'd still be here but crowd wouldn't, when he'd be the bos nothing but his toilet.

NORMALLY, I'M TH GUY WHO STILL TIP THE CABBIE EVE WHEN HIS ROUTE T FENWAY INCLUDES BORDER CROSSIN

Unfortunately, it's hard to wage psyc logical warfare on anyone who refers themselves unironically as "The Bo when their primary job responsibility is stand in front of a doorway and count. my florid imagery of a bar barren of c tomers and a long winter spent in depr ing linelessness went right over his hea think he was preoccupied doing math two people had left and he had to fig out how many that meant he could let i guess in some cases, you're better off wit straightforward "Kiss my ass."

For instance, maybe you just read t anecdote and you think I'm a major pa Maybe you hated this whole column. W you know what? You have a right to y opinion and I respect that. That said, v don't you go… IB

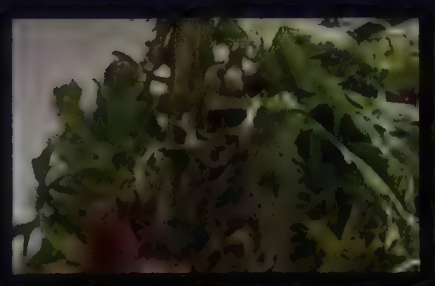
YOU THINK THAT'S FUNNY?

Send unbiased e-mails to ezra@improper.com.

do your fantasies involve football?

US TOO. WE'RE ALL FANTASY FOOTBALL, ALL SEASON LONG.

SO, HAVE YOUR STATS LOADED AND YOUR PLAYERS READY FOR THE BIG ONE.



WE'RE THE HEADQUARTRS FOR ALL YOUR FANTASY FOOTBALL NEEDS.

CALL TODAY TO MAKE YOUR RESERVATIONS.

HURRICANE O'Reilly's

150 CANAL STREET, BOSTON • 617.722.0161

Pregame • Postgame • Brunch • Lunch • Dinner

DILLON'S

New fall menu.

Brunch served Saturday and Sunday beginning at 10am. 955 Boylston Street • 617 421-1818

"It's almost shocking to pay this little for food this good, in surroundings this gorgeous."
—Bon Appétit

Prepare to be amazed. The food really is this good—Innovative American Grill with honest flavors and refreshing combinations. The surroundings really are this gorgeous—copper lanterns, amber glass and whimsical murals. And the reasonable prices? Shocking!
We amazed Bon Appétit...and now we want to amaze you.
Join us for lunch, dinner, weekend dining and Sunday brunch.

Sidney's Grille

fresh flavors • good friends • great bar innovative american grill / 20 sidney street, cambridge central square / (617) 494-0011 / sidneysgrille.com

THE COLLINS CARD

BY CHRIS COLLIN

SIGNAL SWIPERS

Belichick and the Pats deserve their punishment

The New England Patriots are at the top, and they're making a run to rival the best football dynasties of the Super Bowl era.

So guess what's happening: hate. People hate the Patriots. When the Patriots are down, even for a moment, the masses will pounce on them. But the Pats know this. They understand. So how could they be so blatant in their transgressions? It makes no sense.

A day after the Patriots put the wood to former defensive coordinator Eric Mangini's Jets, the boys from New York cried foul. The result was a shot heard around the football world. The great Patriots were being investigated for cheating—videotaping the Jets' defensive signals. A day later it became official. They were busted.

Now, the line between gamesmanship and breaking the rules can be hard to find sometimes, but regardless, winning creates billions of dollars. So if you think that the win-at-all-costs mantra isn't alive and well in Foxborough, you're kidding yourself.

Bill Belichick's approach to his job is all about gamesmanship, or cheating, whatever you want to call it. I don't know the difference anymore, but this I do know: Nobody gives out less information than Belichick on Wednesdays, the day of the NFL's mandated injury reports. It's all lies. He knows it. We in the media know it. You fans at home know it, too. It's utter confusion about who's actually injured and who's going to play in upcoming games. Week one, Randy Moss could've run to California and back on that "injured" hamstring. But the Patriots won big, looked like a Super Bowl champion and none of us complained.

Does this method of manipulation help the Pats win games? If it gives them a little edge and delivers an extra first down or 30-yard pass, well then it does. That's the cloud that now hovers over America's best football franchise. Will league commissioner Roger Goodell's ruling tarnish all those victories? I say no, but it does make you think.

I've been around Belichick enough to know where there's smoke, there's a raging fire burning somewhere. If there's an edge to be had, Belichick will be chasing it.

Did the Patriots really need this kind of controversy, especially at the beginning of what could be their greatest season ever? Probably not.

There have been warnings. The Patriots were warned about an "illegal" videotape a year ago in Green Bay. The Pat ots' video guy had to be whisked off field by security.

When the allegations went down ab the latest taping, some of the bigg names in the game were anything but s prised.

"I think that the Patriots live by saying 'If you're not cheating, you're trying,'" said San Diego Chargers runn back LaDanian Tomlinson.

"No, it's not totally shocking, no," s Pittsburgh Steelers coach Mike Tomlin

The problem for the Pats comes fro hard-nosed new commissioner who's c in swinging a big stick and is focused cleaning up all the NFL's wrongs. Fr Michael Vick to steroids to Pacman Jo commissioner Goodell isn't playing— should he play with this matter.

The league deals with players swi and sternly. Rodney Harrison has b suspended four games for using hur growth hormone (HGH). I enjoy winn as much as the next guy, but to me it s mixed messages to the hundreds of pla in the league when certain people, coaches, can work outside of the r while others must work within them.

THIS SITUATION I NO DIFFERENT THAN INSIDER TRADING OR A STAR SAFETY CAUGHT USING HGH

It's a dilemma. I'd be lying if I said ering a losing team is as interesting as ering a winner. Three Super Bowls in blink of an eye, and because of Belich He knows football like no other.

But this situation is no different th stockbroker gaining inside informatio a star safety caught using HGH to hel himself back on the field.

These aren't easy issues. Judgment has come, and the commissioner did right thing by taking draft picks away the Patriots. But I think he could h gone even further—if players get pended, so too should coaches who b the rules. Here's hoping this doesn't nish one of the greatest runs in Bo sports. iB

Chris Collins is a sportscaster for New Eng Cable News. Address sporting opinions an feedback to sportsdesk@improper.com.

BROWNSTONE

New fall menu.

Lunch, Dinner, Late Night Menu and Breakfast Saturday & Sunday 9:00 am to Noon.

Creative cuisine and original cocktails. 111 Dartmouth Street • 617 867-4142 (next door to Clery's) www.Irishconnection.com

THE FOUNDATION
LOUNGE

Featuring ZENSAI: Japanese appetizers until 12:30 a.m. nightly

Entertainment Nightly
No cover charge

Torch Tuesdays with Jeanie Flynn
8:00 p.m.

DJs
Wed., Thurs., Fri., Sat.
10:00 p.m.

Best of Boston 2007
Boston magazine

Boston's Best 2007
Improper Bostonian magazine

5:00 p.m. – 2:00 a.m. Tuesday–Saturday
Private Events and Functions | Valet Parking

PATIO ALWAYS OPEN

THE FOUNDATION LOUNGE
Hotel Commonwealth | Kenmore Square
500 Commonwealth Avenue | Boston, MA
617.859.9900 | www.thefoundationlounge.com

THE DANCE

BY JOHN D. SPOONER

Use Your Noodle

Owning a restaurant is more trouble than it's worth

Everyone I've ever known would like to own a piece of a restaurant. Why? In my experience at least, when people start to make money they also get interested in food and drink. Particularly wine. A certain percentage believe they really know about food and wine, and know more about these things than you do. These people would love to have a piece of a restaurant. They can get the best tables anytime. They can show off to their friends. And it's all a lot cheaper than owning a piece of a sports team, even a minor one, like box lacrosse or arena football. The phrase "I own a piece of Nobu or Radius" somehow gives status. But we're always being judged. Even in our choices of hobby. "What did I know?" my friend Michael said to me recently. "My lawyer asked me to come in with him for a piece of a horse. How the hell did I know that it was to be a piece of a trotter? I'm thinkin' an owner's box at Saratoga, and suddenly it's Rockingham Park."

BELIEVE IT OR NOT, IN THE LATE 1970S, OURS WAS THE FIRST ITALIAN RESTAURANT IN BOSTON TO SERVE FRESH PASTA

Raising money for a speculative venture is tricky. You can be tough and businesslike about it ("You're betting with winners. Put up the dough or someone else will; you're lucky we're letting you in on the deal"). Or you can be gentle, thoughtful and considerate ("We're taking small amounts of money from interesting people who will like each other.... If you lose money, at least it will be minor, and you'll have had great food and wine"). I took the latter course. Partly out of cowardice, partly out of a sense that the restaurant game was probably a horrible business and that all the legends and clichés about it were true.

I had three partners in this venture (before we brought in the investors). And we had the creative side, the chefs. They were an imaginative couple—funny, smart, inventive, the originators of our concept: pasta bar, pasta boutique. Believe it or not, in the late 1970s, ours was the first Italian restaurant in Boston to serve fresh pasta, carpaccio, "seppie ripiene" (stuffed calamari) and Bomba Moka.

I raised the money in small units, five to 10 thousand, an amount that would bring a diverse group into the fold—people who liked to dine out, drink vin People who made it on their own and a horred "entitlement." And who wished they were Italian. Our last gene partner was Italian, and we called hi "the Stallion" for lots of good reasons. H was the negotiator, the hard busine man, handling our lease, dealing with t lawyers and accountants, and teachi me one of the great lessons of my life: bill from a lawyer or an a countant isn't a bill. I just the beginning of neg tiations. This was a revol tionary concept to me. T Stallion said, "The accou tants sent us an invoice f 12 grand. This was outr geous. I told 'em I'd pay 'e four thousand."

"How could you do tha I asked.

He looked at me with pi "You have obviously," said, "not been out real life."

Nevertheless, the restaurant open and thrived. And many of the investo strangers before it opened, became li long friends. But all the old clich proved true. Like: "It's not the creativi it's who's watching the cash registe And: "You better be willing to give your entire life." And: "If everything e doesn't kill you, your employees will."

We closed the place after eight yea mainly because of burnout, exhaustion a the demographic changes around our lo tion. The site went from suburban food looking for adventure to busloads tourists eager for red sauce and meatball

"Philistines," one of my partners said.

"The decline of taste and Western ci lization," said another.

I've never had better pasta in my li Or better sauce noci or l'amatriciar But if anyone asks me to invest in restaurant, I tell them I'm much more tracted to buying a million shares o three-cent stock in a company that mig produce an energy drink. If I make score, I can brag about it. If I lose it a I'll never tell anyone. Wouldn't the St lion be proud? IB

John D. Spooner, an investment advisor, author and novelist. Contact him at thedance@improper.com.

INTRODUCING LUXURY CONDOMINIUMS AT NATICK COLLECTION.
NEW ENGLAND'S NEWEST LIVING, DINING AND SHOPPING DESTINATION.

WHERE LIFE AND STYLE COME TOGETHER.

Nouvelle at Natick combines the best of urban conveniences with the comforts of suburban living. Mixed-use. Maintenance-free. Full-service. Park views. Private entrance. Secured parking. Reminiscent of The Belvedere at Boston's Prudential Center, Nouvelle is an oasis of calm on one hand; instant access to upscale shopping, dining and a multitude of services on the other. Nouvelle at Natick truly is a whole new way to live.

NATICK COLLECTION
Neiman Marcus, Nordstrom and many other shops, restaurants, and other conveniences all just an elevator ride away

EXCITING AMENITIES
- Bosse Sports fitness center
- Piano lounge
- Screening room
- Expansive roof garden

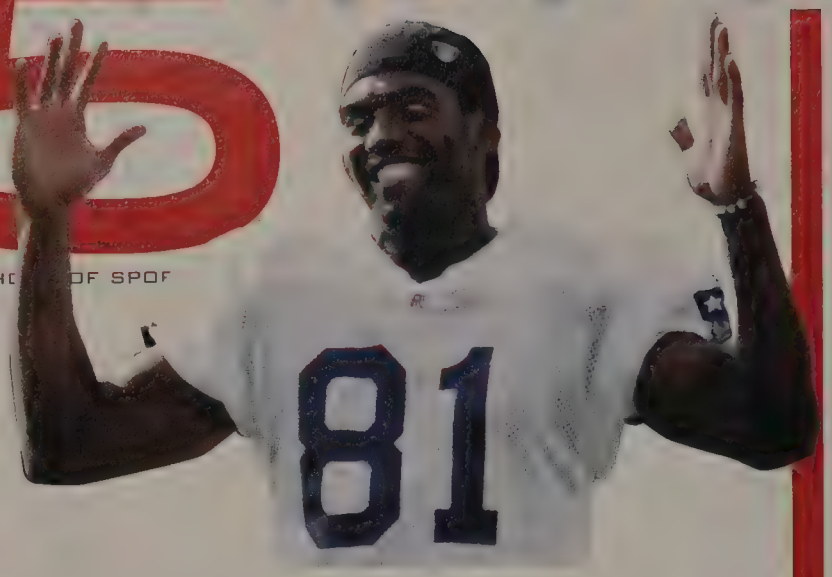
LUXE FINISHES
- Granite countertops
- Marble tile
- Stainless steel appliances
- Hardwood flooring

FULL SERVICES
- 24-hour doorman
- Managed by Barkan Management
- On-site storage
- Private, secured parking
- Valet dry cleaning

NOUVELLE℠ at NATICK

A WHOLE NEW WAY TO LIVE℠

ONE, TWO AND THREE BEDROOMS FROM THE $400s TO OVER $1 MILLION



VISIT OUR SALES GALLERY ON THE SECOND LEVEL OF THE NEW NATICK COLLECTION, ADJACENT TO NEIMAN MARCUS
Sales Gallery open Monday - Saturday, 10am - 10pm, Sunday, 11am - 6pm, appt. recommended

877.723.0283 NOUVELLEATNATICK.COM EXCLUSIVE SALES AND MARKETING / OTIS & AHEARN

TAKE 5

BY RICH LEVINE

WELCOME TO THE IMPROPER SCHO[OL] OF SPOR[TS]

5 HOT STORYLINES

1 DON'T DO THE DREW
If the Sox still make the playoffs—which they will, as long as Eric Gagne doesn't escape from the lead pipe he's handcuffed to in our attic—and assuming Manny returns, the question turns to right field: Will it be JD Drew or Jacoby Ellsbury? Let's put it this way: We want to see Drew in there like we want a blood transfusion from Courtney Love.

2 WHO'S THE MOSS?
Randy Moss is currently on pace to catch 136 balls for 2,300 yards and 24 TDs in 2007. It's ridiculous to think he can keep this up, but after watching him so far, could you really put it past him?

3 POINT OF CONCERN
While it's possible to thrive in the NBA without a star point guard (see: the recent Lakers and Bulls dynasties), we're still slightly unnerved that the only true PG on the Celtics roster is Rajon Rondo, a young, untested (although wildly talented) second-year guy. Just a little.

4 CAPTAIN CRUNCH
Criticizing Jason Varitek makes us feel dirty; he's one of the most likable athletes to ever play in Boston. But here's the thing: At press time, no AL catcher (with at least 400 at-bats) is hitting for a lower average, and no catcher in the majors has struck out more than Tek. His defense is great and his leadership unmatched, but at what point do his struggles at the plate start to outweigh the positives?

5 WHEN FIVE BECOMES ONE
Now that everyone hates Red Sox Nation, and Bill Belichick and the Pats have surpassed Bin Laden on the country's most-hated list, it's starting to feel a little lonely being a Boston fan. But who would have thought the Celtics would be our saving grace? Kevin Garnett's No. 5 jersey has been the top seller nationwide since the July 31 trade. They like us! They really like us!!

ADAM HUNGER

4 DATES TO WATCH

1 SEPT. 30: The Sox host the Twins in the last game of the regular season. In a perfect world, the AL East is clinched by now and this game means squat. But then again, in a perfect world, Britney Spears hasn't turned into this.

2 OCT. 1: The Pats are on the road for Monday Night Football against the Bengals. Cincinnati gave up 51 points to the Browns in Week 2, which translates into nothing less—and we have scientific data to prove this—than a 117-point night for New England.

3 OCT. 5: That insane buzz you're feeling around town? It's all about the Bruins, baby! They kick off the season tonight in Dallas! What's that? You don't feel the buzz? OK, OK. Our bad.

4 OCT. 6: The Celtics open the preseason tonight against Toronto in Rome, where we predict the Raptors will be force-fed a hearty helping of veal Scalabrine.

3 CAMERAGATE THEORIES

1 Cameraman Matt Estrella is actually an NBC employee who was hiding on the sidelines to film Mangini's walk to the locker room at halftime, where the Jets' coach was slated to have a surprise meeting with Chris Hanson about the contents of his hard drive.

2 Estrella was secretly shooting Mangini's scene for the upcoming Sopranos movie. Fearing the wrath of David Chase if word got out, Mangini created the scandal as a cover-up and paid Belichick $500K to take the heat.

3 OJ did it.

HEAD 2 HEAD

JD DREW VS. WILY MO PEÑA

Since his Aug. 17 trade to the Nationals, Peña's hitting .287 with eight home runs and two stolen bases. Drew is hitting .260 with nine home runs and three stolen bases... for the entire season. This isn't to say Peña shouldn't have been traded, but more to show how absolutely awful Drew's been. Has anyone in baseball performed consistently worse this season? And how much better off would the Sox be if they'd traded for Jermaine Dye instead of Gagne? At least six or seven games.

1 COOL BUT MEANINGLESS COINCIDENCE...

Did you know David Ortiz, JD Drew, Julio Lugo and Curt Schilling all have birthdays between Nov. 14 and 20? In fact, Papi, Drew and Lugo were all born over a five-day stretch back in 1975—the same week Queen released Bohemian Rhapsody. On the other hand, Schilling was born the same week Beethoven released his second symphony. Ohh, snap.

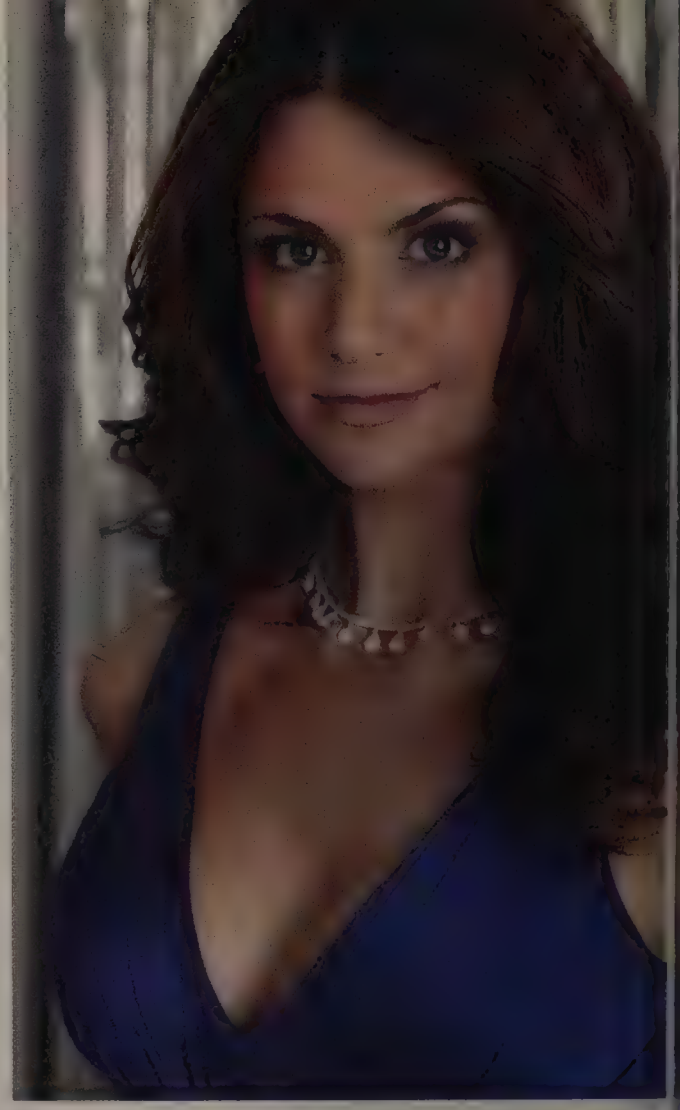
SEND SPORTING QUESTIONS, COMMENTS, CRITICISMS AND—IF YOU WANT—A NEW PAIR OF BLACK ISOTONERS TO RICH@IMPROPER.COM

Come On Down

"A vehicle for every road you travel."

BOCH AUTOMOTIVE

TOYOTA SCION HONDA NEW TO YOU KIA



"On the Automile" Route 1, Norwood, MA Boch.com

Vote For Your Favorite Ad At Boch.com/Improper

Soroff ON

SAMANTHA HARRIS

BY JONATHAN SOROFF

Entertainment news journalist and Emmy-nominated TV personality Samantha Harris is cohost of the ABC reality show Dancing With the Stars and a prominent presence on E! Entertainment Television, in addition to being the daughter of the founders of King Richard's Faire, which runs through Oct. 21 on Route 58 in Carver. Born in Hopkins, Minn., Harris was raised there by her rock concert–promoter father and her dancer mother, who together launched one of the first Renaissance festivals in the country. Samantha graduated with honors from Northwestern's prestigious Medill School of Journalism. As a correspondent for Extra, she found inventive ways to interview celebrities, including performing with Wayne Newton, Patrick Swayze and Cirque du Soleil. On E!, she cohosts the live coverage of the Oscars, Golden Globes and Emmys, and she's appeared on Good Morning America and The View. A sometime fitness model, she's an active participant in various charity events, including the Revlon Run Walk, What a Pair, P.S. Arts and Harmony With No Limits. She and her husband, Michael, live in Los Angeles and are expecting their first child.

Jonathan Soroff: OK, biggest red-carpet secret?
Samantha Harris: Double-stick tape.
JS: What's your best feature?
SH: People tell me my arms.
JS: Who do you get mistaken for?
SH: I hate to even say it. Only because we have the same color hair and we do the same thing, Maria Menounos.
JS: One celebrity who intimidated you?
SH: Robert De Niro.
JS: Most embarrassing on-camera moment?
SH: Giving out the score before it was ready to be released on Dancing last season, but I have to add that it was pregnancy brain, which really messes you up royally.
JS: Ever get an elbow in the side from Joan or Melissa Rivers?
SH: [Laughs.] No, but the odd thing is that Melissa was part-owner of the house where I had my baby shower this summer.
JS: So whose team is Ryan Seacrest playing on?
SH: It's a question that goes back and forth in my mind all the time. I truly think he's straight, though.
JS: One thing on your résumé that you'd most like to erase?
SH: Hmm. A pilot that never aired. It was so bad. It was a dating show called Test Drive. The worst-named show I ever did, though, which also never made it to air, was a movie review show called Conflama, like conflict and drama put together. Absolutely awful.
JS: Don't you just want to slap Giuliana DePandi from E!?
SH: No! I adore her.
JS: So how much good did your degree from Medill do you?
SH: Incredibly beneficial. I could walk into a newsroom and know exactly what to do. At E!, I was writing from day one, so it was extremely useful.

"Y'KNOW, ANYTHING CAN HAPPEN WHEN YOU'RE STRANDED ON AN ISLAND FOR ALL THAT TIME."

JS: Star you'd most like to do the Lambada, "the forbidden dance," with?
SH: Brad Pitt.
JS: Least?
SH: Ron Jeremy. [Laughs.]
JS: Do you think the Macarena's due for a comeback?
SH: Definitely not.
JS: How about the Achy Breaky Heart?
SH: Only because I love Billy Ray Cyrus as a person.
JS: Your best dance step?
SH: My swing moves. If I've got a good partner, I can do a shoulder stand on their shoulders. A lift.
JS: You once appeared in Cirque du Soleil as part of an assignment. Please tell me that you tag-teamed one of those hot Eastern European pairs of brothers.
SH: [Laughs.] Sadly, I only got to work with one at a time, and I was happily in a relationship.
JS: OK, here's my big bomb: I got fleas at King Richard's Faire.
SH: I call B.S. on that.
JS: I swear to God!
SH: Then I guess my question is, why were you rolling around with the jousters?
JS: I might have gotten it from the liger [the half-tiger, half-lion].
SH: So you were doing something naughty. No wonder!
JS: What's up with the liger, anyway?
SH: My favorite thing in the world.
JS: Ever get to pet it?
SH: No. They don't want you going near them. They're such massive, powerful animals that a liger being playful could do a headbutt that would send you to the emergency room, so they operate under extreme caution. However, I have played with many tiger babies in my time and it's been one of my favorite parts of coming to the fair.
JS: Do you consider yourself sort of a carny?
SH: No, I consider myself very much part of a theatrical family, and that's the difference between King Richard's Faire and all the other Renaissance fairs. It's much more about fantasy and theatrics than carnival games and rides.
JS: Strangest part of your upbringing?
SH: Spending my spare time during the school year backstage at rock concerts, because my Dad was a promoter, and my summertime playground was King Richard's Faire, this fantastical world where I got to play dress-up—but instead of having to imagine the surroundings, I got to be physically in this Renaissance setting, with real live players surrounding me as playmates. It was a dream childhood, and I wouldn't have traded it for anything in the world.
JS: Which do you prefer: the Hustle or the Electric Slide?
SH: Y'know, I'm better at the Electric Slide. With the Hustle I keep thinking I know what I'm doing, but I'm probably wrong. With the Electric Slide, I can funkify it a little bit, too.
JS: Dream contestant on Dancing With tl Stars?
SH: Well, when he first moved here, the hype was around David Beckham think he's pretty hot, and hopefully he'll in the audience at least.
JS: Spin-off you'd most like to host—Wa ing Dishes With the Stars, Doing Je Shots With the Stars—what?
SH: [Laughs.] Hmm, let's see. Danc With the Stars really is quite the dre job, but I guess maybe Working Out W the Stars.
JS: Were you a little insulted that on Survi ing Gilligan's Island, you played Mary A and not Ginger?
SH: No. Mary Ann got more fan letters
JS: Well, what's the likelihood that after all that time stranded on a deserted island, the turned to lesbianism?
SH: Y'know, anything can happen wl you're stranded on an island for all t time.
JS: You were in the musical version of Ree Madness. So you like to smoke weed?
SH: Never in my life. I don't want to criminate anyone else, but I think I mi have been the only person in the cast crew who never had and still never smoked a joint.
JS: So don't you think your parents should imburse me for the flea bomb?
SH: [Laughs.] I'm still wondering what did to get them. I honestly don't think could have gotten them there, because animals are so wonderfully looked aft love the fair more than anything. It's the best time you can have. So it's my g you were rolling around with someo dog, but in any case, I hope you go b and enjoy it. Huzzah! IB

SOME PERFECTION IS DEBATABLE.

SOME IS NOT.

Made by hand from 100% blue agave.
The world's #1 ultra-premium tequila.

SIMPLY PERFECT.

simplyperfect.com

way to enjoy Patrón is responsibly.

IT'S NOT AWFUL, IT'S OFFAL: BONE MARROW AT KO PRIME

BUYING THE COW

FOR A TRULY COMPREHENSIVE GUIDE TO BOSTON'S SURFEIT OF STEAK JOINTS, YOU'D HAVE TO WOLF DOWN SOME 60 POUNDS OF BEEF, BUCKETFULS OF CREAMED SPINACH AND PINTS OF BUTTERY BÉARNAISE. LEAVE IT TO US. BY JOLYON HELTERMAN
PHOTOGRAPHS BY ANTHONY TIEULI

If you'd asked Boston foodies, circa 2004, to name the top dining spots in town, chances are the Federalist, Spire and Restaurant L would've made the list. The food was modern but approachable. Inventive yet classically anchored. Way, way posh. The critics fawned, and the city's well-fed and deep-pocketed could scarcely get enough. ¶ Or so it seemed. Just a few years later, the coveted tables have turned. In April, Spire said goodbye to its contemporary-French roots to reopen as KO Prime, a high-end steakhouse. A few days later, Restaurant L, too, headed for greener pastures, rebranding itself as a high-end steakhouse with the unpretentious (if mildly icky) name Boston Public Meat. (It has since shed its fleshy surname in favor of the leaner, cleaner Boston Public.) In July, following the herd, the Federalist morphed into—yup—a high-end steakhouse, sporting the whimsical (if mildly creepy) moniker Mooo.

FROM LEFT: CAPITAL GRILLE AU GRATIN POTATOES GO OH-SO-WELL WITH THE KONA-CRUSTED SIRLOIN. THE RESTAURANT SAYS I JUST CAME IN FROM A HUNT....OR THE NEAREST GOLF COURSE; CHEF DAVID HUTTON AT MOOO WORKS IN MORE MODERN SURROUNDINGS. JUST CHECK OUT THE APPROPRIATELY TRENDY FLIGHT OF SIDES.

For a town that prides itself on pristine seafood, there's a curiously carnivorous vibe afoot. Old-school meateries like Abe & Louie's and Capital Grille have been around for, like, forever, but in the past few years, other steakhouse chains—Ruth's Chris, Smith & Wollensky—have infiltrated Boston to help serve up iceberg salads, Flintstones-sized porterhouses and troughs of creamed spinach to the city's peckish citizens. What gives? Are Boston's gourmands finally fatigued from too many years of fussy haute cuisine?

"There's definitely been a trend toward familiar comfort food," says Matthew King, executive chef at Boston's Smith & Wollensky. But it may simply be trendy—and not just from the customer's perspective. "Used to be, every chef had to have his 'bistro' in addition to his main restaurant," King says. "These days, every chef wants his name on a steakhouse."

Economically speaking, of course, the steakhouse model makes sense. No matter how fond foodies are of restaurants that serve kumquat-crusted squash blossoms with lavender-sea-urchin foam, not everyone shares such rarefied tastes. Expense-account business is a restaurant's bread-and-butter. With a steakhouse, there aren't many surprises; no one gets outed as a finicky eater.

The question is, have we reached critical mass? Can Boston really sustain upward of 10 high-end steak joints? "There's plenty of room for everybody," says Ken Oringer, chef of the eponymous KO Prime. But not necessarily forever: "When the dust settles, it's whoever can produce the best overall steakhouse experience."

With that in mind, we braved the dust to put Boston's steakhouses to the test. Along the way, we separated the tastiest steaks and sides from the duds you're better off skipping. Behold—our highly opinionated user's guide.

Historic Interiors! Rhode Island Charm! Imaginary Scheming Butlers!

Capital Grille

And you thought nothing classy ever came from Rhode Island. Although the Providence-based chain has more than 30 locations nationwide, Boston's beats them all, décor-wise. The interior at 359 Newbury is an aristocrat's dream of deep cherry-wood paneling, rich tapestries and ominous, old-looking oil paintings—you could film an English-country-house murder mystery here. ("It was the butler, in the wine room, with an oyster fork....")

Ever gracious, the servers are also programmed to recommend only the Chef's Suggestions. Problem is, these fancified treatments are invariably overdressed. Take the porcini-rubbed Delmonico steak with eight-year-aged balsamic vinegar ($41): With the exterior slathering of mushroom powder and the port-sweet pool of vinegar, the premium dry-aged steak gasps for air underneath. A better choice is the Kona-crusted dry-aged sirloin with caramelized shallot butter ($39), thick enough to provide an adequate foil to the buttery coffee crust. Your best bet, though, is the dry-aged porterhouse steak ($41), served plain—24 ounces of beefy, crusty, juicy gluttony. Order a side of au gratin potatoes ($10)—thinly sliced spuds baked with cream, butter and three kinds of cheese, and topped with crispy fried onions—and you've got a truly capital meal.

HAPPIEST MARRIAGE OF AN OXIDANT TO AN ANTIOXIDANT: The Stoli Doli ($12), house-made pineapple-infused vodka served straight up, chilled. Tastes like juice; works like vodka.

MEAL BREAKER: The lobster mac 'n' cheese ($12) is runny and light on shellfish.

Capital Grille, 359 Newbury St. (617-262-8900). www.thecapitalgrille.com.

Old-School Hospitality! Culinary Nuance! Insanely Buttery Sides!

Abe & Louie's

As I stroll into this Boylston Street landmark, the manager musters such a show of exuberance that I'm certain I've been recognized. Once seated, however, I overhear a just-as-hearty echo of that sentiment as a few random tourists amble in: Everyone's a VIP, it seems, if only through dessert.

The food is great here, which may surprise those for whom the restaurant's old-school name conjures those

Route 1 bastions of beef where meat and machismo trump service and culinary finesse. Appetizers are solid if generic. Spend the calories instead on extra side orders, including the ultra-crispy hashed browned potatoes ($6)—an insanely buttery take on potato rösti. The bone-in aged prime rib-eye steak ($38) is rich and flavorful. The surprise favorite, though, is the bone-in filet mignon ($41): all the tenderloin tenderness, with the bone and extra fat bolstering the cut's usual insipid flavor.

BEST EXCUSE TO CHANNEL YOUR INNER POPEYE: The tastiest creamed spinach ($7) of the tour—fresh spinach leaves, barely cooked, with sweet cream.

MEAL BREAKER: The key difference between the portobello demi-glace (which accompanies several steaks) and the gravy component of Dinty Moore Beef Stew? The latter actually comes in a can. Ask for it on the side... or on another table.

Abe & Louie's, 793 Boylston St. (617-536-6300). www.abeandlouies.com.

Creepy Cattle Calls! Wall-Mounted Bristles! A Perfect Sirloin Steak!

Mooo

If you can get past the offputting onomatopeia, Mooo may be the most dazzling steakhouse game in town. The former Federalist space has been pared down—and farmified up—with a grey-and-hay color scheme, dramatically extended chair backs and faux-leather-lined walls in a variety of patterns.

Décor, shmécor. You're here for the cow. At Mooo, I eat the best steak of the entire meat-athon. Take the expertise of a small artisanal beef farm and a kitchen that knows what it's doing, and the result is the Four Story Hill 21-day-dry-aged sirloin: Densely textured, with a deep, slightly gamey flavor from the grass feeding and dry aging, it's the perfect steak. (It's also, at $65 for 12 ounces, a fair amount of mooo-lah.) All the sides are great, though consistently undersalted. The best deal is the Side Flight ($18), a tasting of mashed Yukon gold potatoes, creamed spinach, truffled Parmesan fries and corn succotash.

BEST NON-MOOING ENTRÉE: The grilled corvina ($39) is a gorgeous piece of mild white fish, charred till crispy, then drizzled with lemon and olive oil.

MEAL BREAKER: The pepper-crusted rib eye ($44) has great peppery flavor but a weirdly tender texture, as though braised instead of seared.

Mooo, XV Beacon Hotel, 15 Beacon St. (617-670-2515). www.mooorestaurant.com.

'80s Revivals! Delirious Riches! Force-Fed Spuds!

Grill 23 & Bar

The newbies tell anyone who'll listen about how they're "modernizing" the steakhouse concept. But to the folks at Grill 23, it all looks suspiciously retro. Opened in 1983, this elegant steakhouse was serving up refined versions of classic steaks and sides before guys like Ken Oringer had finished high school.

The dark-wood-paneled main dining room, with its soaring atrium, is packed with well-heeled execs pitching clients over scotch-and-sodas and mammoth shrimp cocktails ($16 for 4), and there's more than one birthday fête in progress. I opt for the more subdued upstairs—the province of canoodling couples, not conspiring businessmen—and tuck into a parade of protein. The skirt steak ($34), sourced from Brandt Farms and served with grilled asparagus flatbread and truffled hollandaise, reads like gilding the lily, but it's a well-conceived, if deliriously rich, delight. It's impossible, however, to beat "The Berkeley" ($56): a melt-in-your-mouth 16-ounce dry-aged rib eye that comes with a decidedly retro-loaded baked potato.

BEST ARGUMENT FOR RE-EMBRACING CARBS: Truffled "tater tots" ($8), made by force-feeding sticks of butter into hot potato puree, dredging them in panko and subjecting them to two types of oil—frying, then truffle.

MEAL BREAKER: Every rib eye has a small, ultra-fatty section called a deckle that's so rich it makes you blush. Imagine a 10-ounce steak made of just that. Now imagine it's called the Kobe cap steak ($56) and you have zero chance of actually finishing it.

Grill 23 & Bar, 161 Berkeley St., (617-542-2255). www.grill23.com.

Intimate Nooks! Fiery Sauces! Edible Finger-Bowl Flora!

Boston Public

Unless you grew up on a ranch and your date's last name is Atkins, steakhouses, with their no-nonsense décor and seal-the-business-deal ambience, aren't especially conducive to sealing deals of the, uh, more passionate kind. But move that dinner to the intimate digs of Boston Public and you might just find yourself buying a change of clothes next door at Louis Boston.

Not because you got grease everywhere, however. To wit: Just before delivering the terrific, fall-off-the-bone-tender Laotian pork ribs ($15)—and their bracing, fiery dipping sauce made from Thai chilis—our server presents a thin, rectangular platter bearing two finger bowls strewn with edible flowers and thin slices of citrus. (Tip: If you're planning to eat the blossoms, try them before washing.) Overly precious? Just the teensiest smidge. Yet touches like this set the classy tone for the meal. For best steak, it's a close race between the 24-ounce Brandt Farms T-bone ($39) and the 23-ounce grass-fed rib eye ($39). The T-bone wins for slightly better flavor—and, of course, that extra ounce.

BEST LAOTIAN APPETIZER IN THE BACK BAY: Get the Laotian pork ribs. Even if you forgo the steaks. Seriously. They're that good.

MEAL BREAKER: You could build a potato log cabin with the oversized, block-shaped colossal french fries ($7.95). Save them for that.
Boston Public, 234 Berkeley St. (617-266-4680). www.louisboston.com.

Random Cow Parts! Groovy Lounge Vibe! Ken Oringer!

KO Prime
Nothing goes to waste at Ken Oringer's latest (as of press time) venture into the world of swanky grub. For this his steakhouse foray, Oringer has retained the chef services of Jamie Bissonnette (previously of Eastern Standard), who's long specialized in feeding those who dare to suck the marrow out of life. And of cow: The glorious bone marrow starter ($11) comes as three marrowbones, set vertically atop a mound of oxtail "marmalade." As I scrape each bone, the warm marrow falls onto the braised oxtail meat, the whole mess of which gets piled onto accompanying toast points. This is cow-gut heaven.

Not everyone grooving to the persistent lounge beats is sucking down offal like there's no to-marrow (sorry). The straight-ahead steaks are great, too. I especially like the 10-ounce Kobe Flatiron ($38), slightly chewy but gorgeously beefy, and the 30-ounce rib-eye chop ($42), the bone of which is so unwieldy it knocks over my glass of jammy 2003 Edna Valley Pinot Noir ($13). A zealous health nut, I order a side of Eva's pea greens ($6), wispy tendrils gently cooked with ginger and scallions to retain the faintest hint of crispness.

BEST DISH TO ENJOY WITH FAVA BEANS AND A NICE CHIANTI: The epitome of duck-liver craftsmanship, Bissonnette's foie gras terrine ($20) is the tastiest I've had in Boston.

MEAL BREAKER: The salmon belly sashimi ($14) is hyperfresh, but the accompanying black-bean sauce is so intense it overwhelms the, uh, belly.
KO Prime, Nine Zero Hotel, 90 Tremont St. (617-772-0202). www.koprimeboston.com.

Local Celebrities! Chicken-Fried Chicken! Sides as Big as Your Head!

Morton's, the Steakhouse
Although Morton's is a national chain, the Boston outpost somehow retains a local vibe. By day, the cleanly decorated dining room is filled with City Hall bigwigs and corporate power brokers lunching clients; come nighttime, the subterranean den provides a low-key hideaway for minor local celebrities—we spotted Bruins ex-coach Mike Milbury (wearing what appeared to be soft-soled shoes)—and couples keeping it on the down-low.

Morton's doesn't serve food so much as big food. Jumbo food. Colossal food. Huger-than-your-head food, even. Happily, plenty of it is delicious as well. One of the best starters is the "colossal" shrimp Alexander ($18), three gigantic prawns, lightly breaded and baked, then finished with a white-wine-and-butter sauce. The Chicago-style bone-in rib eye ($49) is wet-aged and it's not even prime, but the meat is tremendously flavorful and cooked perfectly. It's a terrific steak. For an extra $56, you can add a jumbo lobster tail—14 ounces of succulent meat broiled with butter until golden-brown—to any entree.

BEST MENU ITEM YOU'D NEVER THINK OF ORDERING: Here's what the Morton's staff eats off-hours: the chicken Christopher ($26), a thick-crusted boneless breast of chicken, panfried, then smothered with garlic-butter sauce.

MEAL BREAKER: On a menu that trades on minimalist descriptions ("lobster tail"; "porterhouse steak"), the florid language of "tuna tartare with diced tomato, avocado, Thai cream and balsamic glaze" ($16) should be a glaring, huckleberry-hued flag.
Morton's, the Steakhouse, I Exeter Plaza 699 Boylston St. at Exeter (617-266-5858). www.mortons.com.

Buttery Steak! Buttery Shrimp! Buttery Butter!

Ruth's Chris
In a town full of high-end steak joints, how does a Louisiana carpetbagger take on the locals? In a word: butter. Moving into the breathtaking Old City Hall space (more recently, Maison Robert) was a nice touch, but it's the hot, sizzling butter dripping down virtually every edible surface that makes this erstwhile chain a serious contender.

The best starter, hands down, is the New Orleans–style barbecue shrimp ($13.50), which takes the "butter = better" philosophy to its limits. The pool of cayenne-spiked garlic butter the grilled prawns are swimming in is so addictive that, after running out of bread, we take to dipping the neglected lumps of crabmeat from our Crabtini ($14.95) into it. Then the fried calamari ($13.95). (Our waiter politely snatches away the ramekin once it's clear we're moments from resorting to fingers.) At many restaurants, servers mumble "hot-plate-be-careful" before setting down a lukewarm dish. Here, they mean it. Steaks arrive on sizzling, butter-laden platters heated to 500 degrees. While I'm the last person to recommend a filet mignon ($38.50) over fattier cuts, it's a good choice in Butter Central, where leaner steaks get all the flavor help they need.

MOST ALLURING CONDUIT FOR POTASSIUM: The caramelized banana cream pie ($10.70) marries warm, caramelized banana slices with banana-cream custard and a flaky crust.

MEAL BREAKER: The sweet potato casserole ($8.75) has a cloyingly sweet topping that fails to cut through the cloyingly sweet filling.
Ruth's Chris, Old City Hall, 45 School St. (617-742-8401). www.ruthschris.com.

Lunching Ladies! Tangy Wedges! $300-a-Pound Designer Steaks!

The Metropolitan Club
Everything about this Chestnut Hill meat mecca says "generic steakhouse experience," from the grey-hairs lunching on the Ladies Tenderloin ($15) to the hotel-lobby décor to, well, the fact that it's in Chestnut Hill. Nothing doing. This spot serves up some of the best-executed steakhouse fare in Boston. The Met's version of the "wedge" salad ($9) beats the rest: crunchy iceberg hearts topped with bacon lardons, tomato, fried onion strings and a blue cheese dressing laced with green-pepper puree and heat of spicy heat. Next comes the crispy crab cake ($14), all but devoid of cake, served with a bright tomato-corn salsa and smoky chipotle remoulade.

The prime, aged skirt steak ($24) arrives with a sweet, mildly vegetal pepper jam, a nice foil to the salty, charred exterior and deep, beefy taste. Armed with a generous expense account, I order five ounces of true Japanese 100 percent Wagyu beef ($100; price varies). It's almost deceptive to call something this rich and creamy "beef." Lustrously marbled with fat, it's closer to seared foie gras, or toro sashimi, than beef. So rich, in fact, you'd be better off ordering a few ounces as a starter—for two—before moving on to a normal steak.

BEST TV DINNER NOSTALGIA MOMENT: The "modern Birdseye" ($7) is a fresh spin on the '70s-era veggie medley, using baby corn, carrots, edamame and pearl onions.

MEAL BREAKER: The servers swear by the "crispy steak bomb snacks" ($9), wonton wrappers filled with steak, cheese and potato. Insert bomb joke here.
The Metropolitan Club, 1210 Boylston St., Chestnut Hill (617-731-0600). www.metclubandbar.com.

Gothic Turrets! Towering Shellfish Platters! A Seafood Lover's Delight!

Smith & Wollensky
Housed in a genuine gothic-looking castle (as imagined by late-19th-century architects), the Boston location of Smith & Wollensky has a macho look that screams "medieval fortress of meat." Perusing the concise menu—a single, smallish page—I skim past deluxe-sounding treats like lobster bisque ($9), tuna tataki ($15), baby lobster cocktail ($19), Dover sole ($39), jumbo New Bedford sea scallops ($30), wild salmon ($30)... hey, wait a second: Isn't a steakhouse supposed to, you know, house steak?

Of the 46 menu items, only 10 are steaks, and that's counting the au poivre, Cajun, gorgonzola-crusted and Oscar-style filet mignon versions separately. Seafood? A whopping 21 options—and that's not counting the Oscar-style (crabmeat-topped) filet mignon (10 ounces, $43; 14 ounces, $46). At the top of the menu are two shellfish "bouquets," the Charlie Smith ($54) and the Ralph Wollensky ($99). Living large, I go with the Wollensky, a multitiered buffet of chilled lobster, oysters, mussels, clams and humongous lumps of crabmeat. Given the pristine, glistening freshness, it's no wonder seafood gets a spotlight. The steaks they do, they do very well, however. Three hunks of beef later, I settle on a favorite: the bone-in New York–cut sirloin ($44), a huge, hulking portion that showcases vividly the careful dry aging and beautiful prime marbling.

MOST DECADENT HOMAGE TO DIVERSITY: Compare and contrast broiled, grilled or stuffed lobster tails from South Africa ($42), Tristan Island ($45), Australia ($45) and New Zealand ($40).

MEAL BREAKER: Anyone beckoned by the words "thin crust pizza" ($9) at a steakhouse deserves what they get.
Smith & Wollensky, 101 Arlington St. (617-423-1112). www.smithandwollensky.com.

KO PRIME'S 30-OUNCE RIB-EYE CHOP WOULD BE AT HOME ON FRED FLINTSTONE'S DINING TABLE

BREWED AWAKENING

A NATTY LIGHT–DRINKING CRETIN ATTEMPTS TO GAIN AN APPRECIATION FOR GOOD BEER

BY EZRA DYER

PHOTOS BY ANTHONY TIEULI

I'll be the first to admit that I'm not what you'd call an educated beer drinker. I don't know how beer is made any more than I know how my computer sends e-mail, or how my coffee at Dunkin' Donuts ends up sweeter than chocolate ganache even though I specifically said no sugar. When I go to my local package store, I agonize over whether to buy Bud Light, Coors Light or Miller Lite, usually defaulting toward whichever has the best recent TV commercial (Man Law!). Sometimes, if I'm getting really buck-wild, I'll buy Michelob.

Beer aficionados view these brews the way movie critics view the Rush Hour franchise — vapid, uncreative commodities that nonetheless enjoy mass appeal. Well, I'll be honest. Taste isn't my first priority when I'm drinking a beer. If it's wet, cold, and doesn't smell like a Kenyans toes on Heartbreak Hill, it's good enough for me. Lack of taste is a safe bet. Once you venture into the realm of beers that endeavor to provide some sort of stimulation to the palate, you're risking that they'll deliver a taste you don't enjoy. Many a casual beer drinker, seduced by a novel tap at a bar or a colorful label on a bottle, has ordered a beer and then spent the next 15 minutes choking it down sip by sip because it turns out that Mr. Microbrew's Cask-Aged Extra-Hoppy Autumn Bitter Stout Supreme doesn't remotely taste like Miller Lite.

I've long suspected that I'm missing out, that there are lesser-known beers that I might enjoy. Beers that come in bottles instead of cans. Beers that are—craziness of crazinesses!—not available by the 30-pack. But with so many brewers, figuring out where to start is a daunting task. And even if I found something I enjoyed, I probably wouldn't know why, like when you crush a drive off the tee and then wonder what the hell you did to make it happen. I need a guide, someone steeped in beer knowledge yet without allegiance to any particular brand. So I call Marc Kadish, owner of the Sunset Grill & Tap in Allston.

The Sunset is to beer what Beijing is to knockoff designer apparel. It's an embarrassment of riches, with such variety that the beer menu runs to 15 densely packed pages, and the selection changes so frequently that a new menu is printed every week. There are 112 beers on tap—give or take a few—at any one time. Kadish's mission statement for the place, as printed on the menu itself, is to offer a "beer Mecca," a place where even the most jaded expert could find something new to try. We pull up seats at a corner table and Kadish begins his sermon on how to take one's initial, furtive steps into the world of quality beer.

Kadish's first major advice comes before a drop of beer flows from a tap. Before us on the table are 12 different glasses ranging from your typical pint glass to bizarre, test-tube-looking things to the new Sam Adams glass, with its compound-curve sides. "Before you even drink a beer," Kadish says, "this is the most important part—what you drink it out of."

As with wine, certain types of beer are intended for certain containers. For instance, Dogfish Head 90 Minute IPA is served in a bulbous glass that looks like a cognac snifter, which Dogfish furnishes to a bar along with the beer. "Companies want their beer to taste the best it can, so if there's a particular glass that shows it off, they'll provide that," says Kadish. "I could give you the same beer in two different glasses, and it might taste completely different because the glass controls where the beer hits your tongue."

The so-called "lame glass," your usual cylindrical pint, is fine for casual swilling, but as you move up the ladder of price and complexity, the stemware becomes increasingly specialized. "If you went to Abe & Louie's and ordered a $40 steak and they served it on a paper plate, with a plastic knife and fork, that's what it would be like if you ordered a world-class beer and got it in the wrong glass. It'd be embarrassing," Kadish says.

However, from my point of view, the most important message is simply to use a glass, period. "The most common mistake people make is drinking a beer right out of the bottle. You have to decant the beer. If you drink it out of the bottle, you're taking in all of the gas in the beer unnecessarily. You're not meant to do that." This might explain the odd, heartburn-like sensation I get when I try to drink Sierra Nevada out of the bottle. It's the CO^2, stupid.

We could spend all day just talking about glassware, but it's time to drink some beer. Kadish's first selection is something like training wheels for a guy dipping a toe in the world of good beer. He hands me a glass of Czechvar, which, with its pale color and minimal froth, looks reassuringly like Budweiser. That's because it is, sort of—Czechvar was the precursor of Bud, and these days Budweiser actually handles its U.S. distribution. I take a sip, and there's only one way I can describe it: like Bud with more flavor. "This is a beer you could swap into the Bud Light or Coors Light role," Kadish says. "This is what a beer geek might drink while mowing the lawn."

Next up, Kadish passes me a Paulaner Hefe-Weizen. "'Hefeweizen' means 'with yeast,'" says Kadish, "so the key thing you're looking for is that it's really yeasty. You can see the wheat in it." Low-carb Michelob Ultra it's not, but the Paulaner, again, is delicious. Somehow it manages to taste light and refreshing while having this hearty, murky body to it. My prior hefeweizen experience runs only to Harpoon UFO, and I ask Kadish how he feels about the fact that bars usually serve that beer with a slice of lemon. "It's like ketchup on a hamburger," he replies. "It's OK, it's a common thing to do, but a good hamburger might not need it."

I've enjoyed my first two beers, but they haven't pushed the frontier of my beer-acceptance limits. Kadish explains that the flavor that most newbies find daunting is the beer's bitterness, which is quantified in IBUs—International Bittering Units, a measure of the amount of hops in a beer. The Czechvar and the Paulaner are on the low end, with maybe 13 or 15 IBUs. Meanwhile, one popular bitter beer, Stone Ruination Double IPA from California, is up over 100 IBUs.

"It's like people who drink Scotch. You know if they had a sip when they were eight years old, they weren't immediately like, 'This tastes great!' It's the same thing with bitter beer," says Kadish. "You reach a point in your life when your taste buds are ready and you can appreciate it, but it's an acquired taste." I take a sip of Stone Ruination, get the expected bitter aftertaste, and confirm that the acquired taste hasn't yet been acquired by this guy (ditto with Scotch, for that matter).

However, my next beer, Boulder Beer's Hazed and Infused, is so good that when I'm done at Sunset I'll walk across the street to Blanchard's and buy a six-pack to take home. Classified as a "dry-hopped ale," there's almost a sweetness to it, a seductive flavor that gets better, not worse, with the aftertaste. I find myself stretching the boundaries of my limited gastronomic vocabulary in trying to describe why

AT SUNSET GRILL & TAP IN ALLSTON (LEFT AND ABOVE), BARTENDERS PULL FROM 112 TAPS AND PRESIDE OVER 380 MICROBREWS AND IMPORTS. FEELING FLUSH? TRY A $30 BOTTLE OF LEIPZIGER GOSE (RIGHT) BREWED WITH SALT AND CORIANDER.

I like this beer so much. It's hard for a non-foodie; I can't really articulate why I find this appealing any more than I could fluently describe why I might like a nice steak. Um, because it's steaky?

Kadish isn't surprised to see me grasping for culinary adjectives. "Beer is food," he says. "With so many different styles out there, when you've got a solid background on beer you can really pinpoint what you're craving, the same way you would with food. Sometimes you want ice cream, sometimes you want beef stew, and two given beers can be as different as that. But when you know how to satisfy that urge, it's awesome."

I finish my Hazed and Infused and Kadish passes me a sample of Milk Stout from Colorado's Left Hand Brewing Company. It's dark and creamy, yet it doesn't taste heavy. I guess I just expected that a dark beer would be strong, somehow, loaded with alcohol and as filling as a plate of pasta. But color, it turns out, doesn't really tell you much about a beer. "Color is dependent on how much the malt is roasted. That's where you get your color and sugar content, but I could make you a dark beer that doesn't have much alcohol and tastes very light, and I could make you a light-colored beer with everything else jacked up. Look at Guinness—it's only 4.2 percent alcohol, the same as Miller Lite. Color's not a good indicator of anything."

As I sip on a Gulden Draak from Belgium, with its wine-like 10.5 percent alcohol content, I come to terms with the fact that I'm not going to become a beer expert in this one sitting. But that's OK—already, I feel like I've absorbed enough knowledge to apply a little bit of educated guesswork the next time I decide to branch out. If nothing else, ordering a Czechvar will make it seem like I know what I'm doing, and drinking out of glasses instead of bottles will drastically improve the experience, no matter what I'm drinking. I've found a go-to microbrew, the Hazed and Infused, and confirmed that I'm a low-IBU sort of guy. Also, as epic as the Sunset menu seems, there's a sense of underlying joviality to remind you that no matter how seriously you take your beer, at heart it's supposed to be fun. For instance, Sunset carries beer-snob exotica like a $30 bottle of Leipziger Gose, but they also offer a 40-ounce of Schlitz that's served with a "complimentary paper bag." That's the kind of humor that's decidedly absent from the usual leather-bound wine list.

As for delving deeper into the mysteries of the brew, Kadish assures me that I shouldn't be daunted, because when it comes to beer there's no such thing as the last word. "Even when you've been into it your whole life, you never know everything. It's always evolving. My favorite beer is the one I haven't tried yet, and there are always new ones coming out. Right now is the best time to be a beer drinker in the history of the world."

BEERS FOR CASTAWAYS

If he were stranded on a desert island, Sunset Grill & Tap's Marc Kadish says he'd want these bottles in his ideal six-pack.

I'd have some sort of nice amber—a Sierra Nevada or an Anchor Steam, Sam Adams. One of those. You'd also want something light and refreshing, so I'd pick a German Kolsch, too.

Then something heavier, a porter or stout. Guinness? That's so typical, but something like that. I'd want a strong ale, too. A Chimay Grand Reserve. A Belgian triple. A Duvel. A beer with over 8 percent alcohol.

Then I'd have something fruity and fun. A lambic. But not the usual raspberry. Maybe one made from some other kind of fruit.

Last one? A sour beer. A Flemish red. Americans don't like sours, but think about how you might've liked sour candy as a kid. If you're also eating something sweet, it can really go with that.

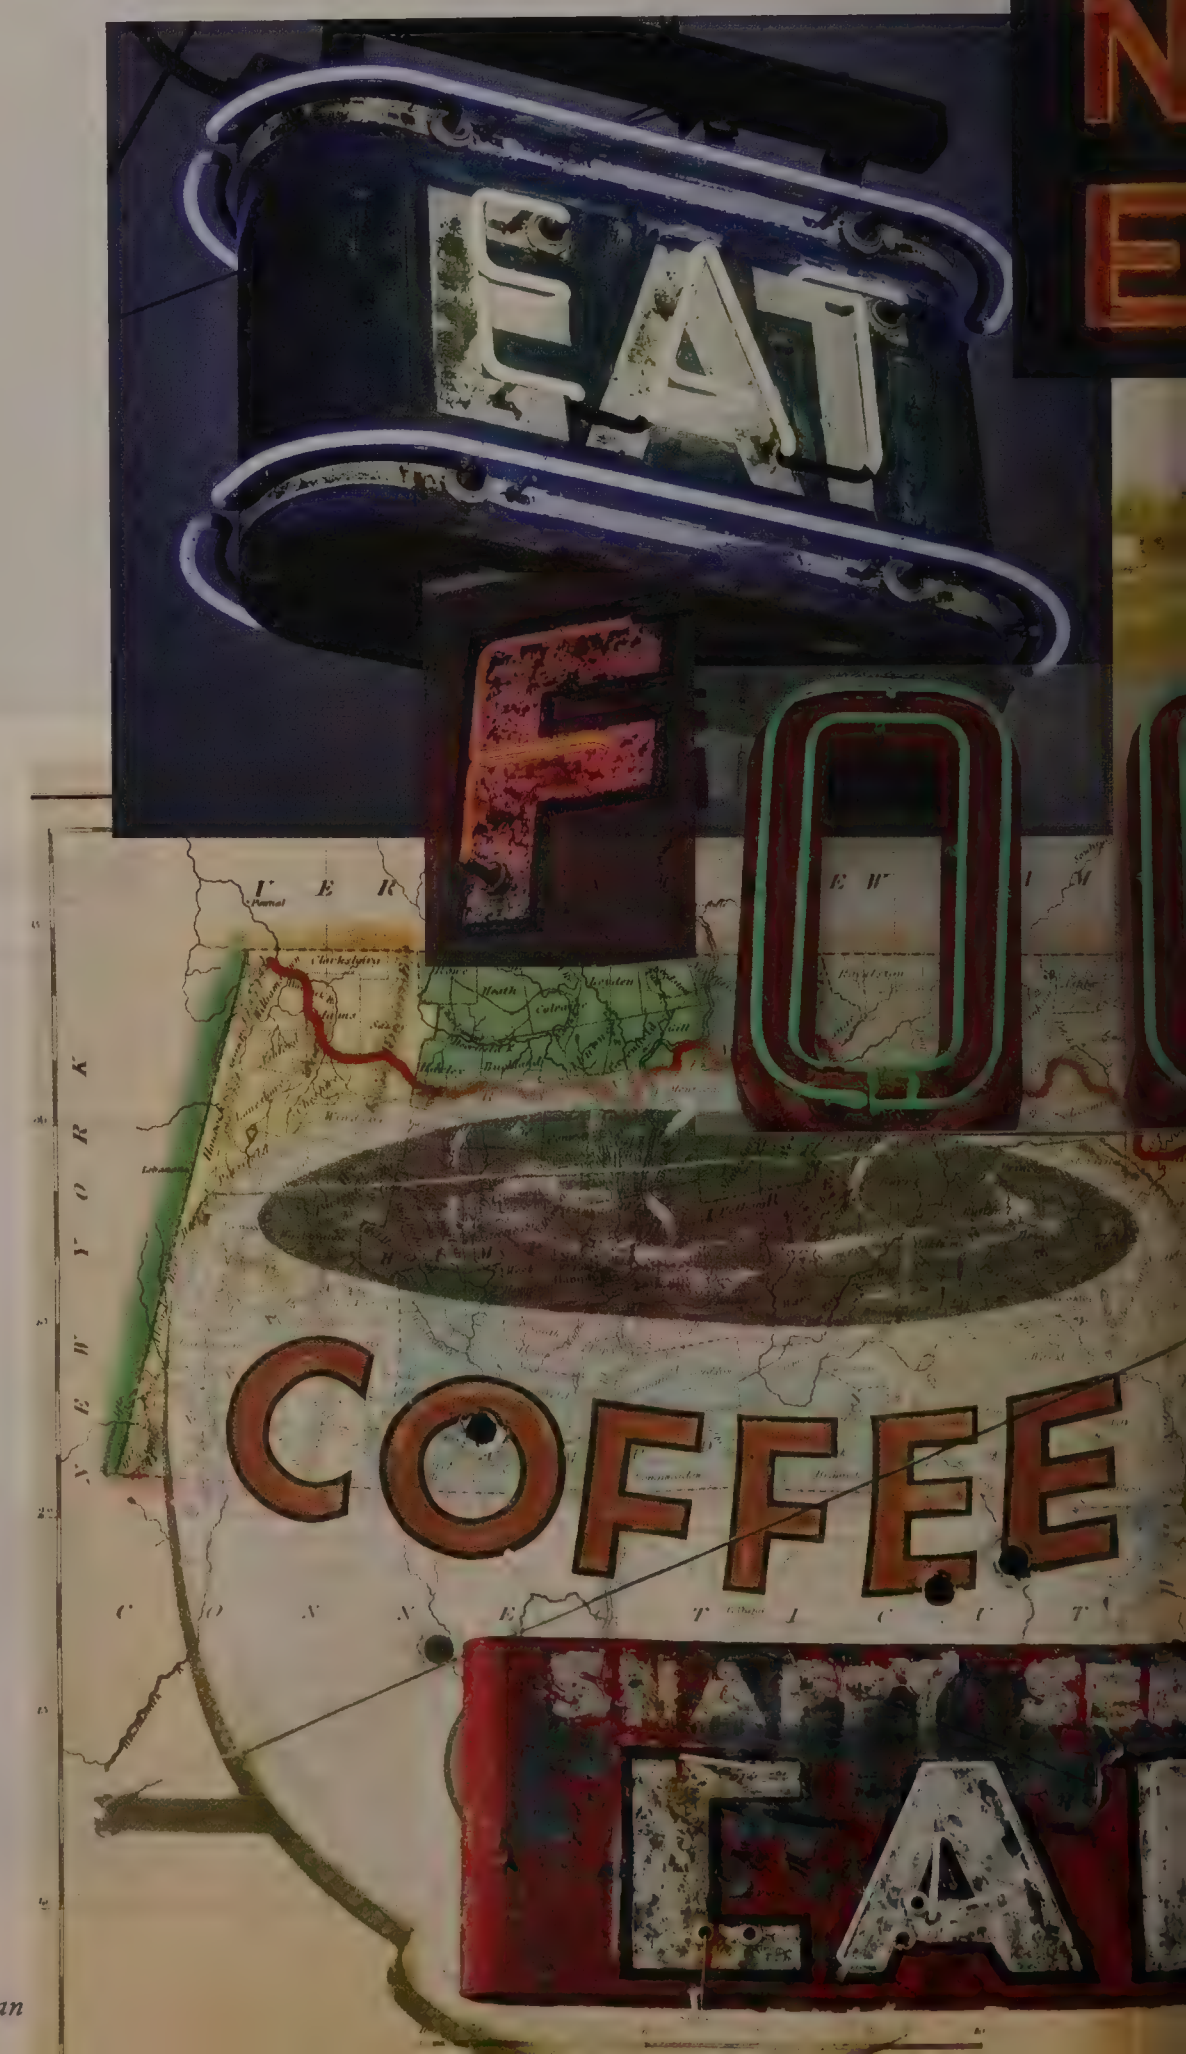
REAL SIMPLE

FALL COLOR AND HEARTY FOOD ALONG ROUTE 2 MAKE FOR A PERFECT ROAD TRIP

STORY AND PHOTOGRAPHS BY MEGAN LISAGOR ILLUSTRATION BY MATTIAS PALUDI

As my small sedan snakes through the Berkshires, I experience two competing sensations: wonderment and carsickness. Like the region's mountains and valleys, I've got a case of the highs and lows. Admittedly, the nausea has more to do with my driving than with winding Route 2. Living and working in the Back Bay, I generally walk places. ¶ But when autumn arrives, I have to get out of the city. I long for the leaves, their color and smell, that slow dance they do through the crisp air. It's the Virginian in me, I guess. In my home state, we head to the Blue Ridge come September. Here in the Northeast, we have the Berkshires, and I'm not going to draw comparisons. New England has long been ground zero for leaf peepers.

That's what locals call the millions of visitors who descend on these parts like foliage-feasting bugs each year. It's an unfortunate name, but that doesn't stop me from playing peeper for a day. A Boston transplant, I don't have a destination in mind but want to stay within the state. Massachusetts isn't lacking in the tree department, after all.



A friend with more outdoorsy cred than a Cub Scout leader suggests I cruise west on Route 2. I decide to begin in Concord and end in Williamstown, which lets me cover the Mohawk Trail, a leafy Shangri-la stretching 60-plus miles from Orange to North Adams. I pick my starting point based on the criterion that guides all my road-trip routes: food. Seriously, what's a road trip without great eats along the way? The leaves are a given—by the time you read this, they'll be starting to shimmer in splendid shades of red and gold and green. But the restaurants? That's another story.

When I ask a colleague what she remembers along Route 2, she responds: "Hot dog stands. I remember driving east of Route 2 several years ago and thinking, 'Where can I get something to eat besides hot dogs?' That's when I started to keep a stash of Larabars in the glovebox." As far as I'm concerned, Larabars do not a happy road tripper make. Luckily, the dining scene has improved since then. By the end of my whirlwind tour, I'll happen upon tasty bakeries, diners and delis.

Right now I feel carsick, however, and pull off the road into a tourist trap's parking lot. The detour proves a blessing because this particular trap overlooks a pretty valley. Getting here, I've passed equally picturesque towns of the blink-and-you'll-miss-it variety, complete with white-steepled churches and VFW posts. I've also seen signs for bear crossings and falling rocks. I pause to take it all in. Eventually, I'll re-enter the peeper parade and reach Williamstown. A vanilla Coke awaits me.

On the Road

If you want to mix fall foliage and food in Massachusetts, check out Route 2 and these pit stops. Most sell stuff that can be eaten with two hands (sandwiches, muffins, malts), although I threw in one fancier option that has buzz. Other upscale places worth exploring a little farther afield include Ristorante DiPaolo (www.ristorantedipaolo.com) in Turners Falls and Blue Heron Restaurant (www.blueherondining.com) in Sunderland. Call or check Web sites for hours.

Concord Teacakes
59 Commonwealth Ave., Concord
978-369-7644
www.concordteacakes.com

Start your road trip with a scone at Concord Teacakes. Unlike the cardboard versions hawked at the ubiquitous chains, the rich pastry tastes like it just came from the oven. And it did. Judy Fersch—best known for her riff on Emily Dickinson's fruitcake—is the culinary brains behind the business, which operates a wholesale bakery across the street. "It's home-cooking," says Marilyn Hughes, the retail store's manager. "Even her croissants, she makes the jam." Fersch's scone, meanwhile, comes in sweet and savory flavors like cinnamon and cheese-and-chive.

Shelburne Falls Coffee Roasters
1335 Mohawk Trail, Shelburne Falls 413-625-2123
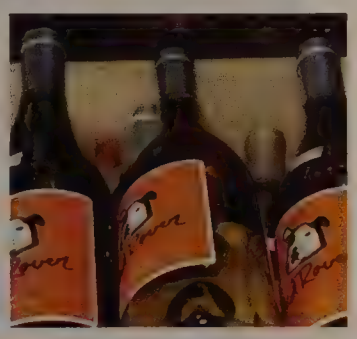
www.ibuycoffee.com

When I call to confirm the prices at Shelburne Falls Coffee Roasters, I have trouble hearing the answers—what with the rooster crowing in the background. This is God's java country. Husband-and-wife team Curtis Rich and Kathleen Lytle do things from scratch, including brewing their own coffee. "This business is born out of the area," Curtis says. Take milk in your coffee or honey in your tea? It's all local. Stop by the Mohawk Trail location for an inexpensive pick-me-up—a small cup o' joe (8 oz.) will only set you back a buck. Popular blends include hazelnut and toasted-coconut cream. And for you tea-drinkers, they also offer chai ($1.93, 8 oz.). "No mix," he stresses. "We really make it here."



Mohawk Diner
1105 Mohawk Trail, Shelburne
413-625-6643

"People love the leaves. They love the leaves," Michael Ryan says smiling and shaking his head. Ryan should know, as he counts on the peepers to crowd his two-year-old diner. When I pop in, he's presiding over containers of chili and broccoli-cheese soup. Butternut squash, he tells me, is another fall fave (and affordable at $1.95 a cup). Or for the same price, try a small omelet, with fresh fillings that include shiitake, portabella and white mushrooms. It's "typical diner fare with a little kick, but nothing outrageous," Ryan says. And typical diner decor with a counter and stools, wood booths, paper placemats and a whole lotta white mugs.

The Shelburne Falls Wine Merchant
1 State St., Shelburne Falls
413-625-6506
www.hilltownwinemerchant.com

McCusker's Market & Deli
3 State St., Shelburne Falls
413-625-9411
www.mccuskersmarket.com

It's towns like Shelburne Falls that give New England a good name. In the foothills of the Berkshires, most of the riverside village's Victorian buildings date to the 19th century.

The 400-foot Bridge of Flowers—an abandoned trolley bridge blanketed in blooms—is a main attraction, and October's chrysanthemums should be peeking through. With so much lovely scenery, you may prefer to eat outside. Find everything you need for a picnic at neighboring Shelburne Falls Wine Merchant and McCusker's Market. Former sommelier Paul-Thierry de la Blotier (could he sound more French?) is your guy for vino and spirits. He can steer you toward Massachusetts wineries (Westport Rivers, West County Cider, Chester Hill) just as easily as Gallic ones. Next door, McCusker's Market & Deli carries bread, cheese and other perfect pairings. The shop recently changed hands from Michael McCusker to a local cooperative and underwent renovations, which means expanded options.

Gypsy Apple
65 Bridge St., Shelburne Falls
413-625-6345

The Wine Merchant's de la Blotier clues me into Gypsy Apple. Unfortunately, the restaurant's closed the Monday I pass through town. A little research proves it merits a return trip, however. If you want to treat yourself (foodies, I'm talking to you), this is the spot (entrees run $19 to $24). Its French-inspired menu, which includes mussels with saffron, tomato and white wine ($8), and scallops with house-smoked salmon, lemon and dill risotto ($23), has been drawing a crowd. (The Chowhounders are all over this place.) Opened in April, the small bistro has only 20 seats, plus about 12 on the patio, so call ahead.

Curtis Country Store
159 Main St., Charlemont
413-339-4900
www.curtiscountrystore.com

Curtis Country Store is a true country store, with old-fashioned candy, colonial candles and homemade preserves. But what the sign and simple blue façade don't tell you is that it has gourmet grub, too. The store stocks award-winning cheeses from Goat Rising & Jersey Maid, produced a mile away at its sibling the Farmstead at Mine Brook. As you might expect, fromage gets taken seriously here. Labels in the refrigerated cases read like wine descriptions. Take the Mountain Jersey Brie, with its lingering notes of roasted grain and buttery finish. The cheeses come whole and in sandwiches, like the Mohawk

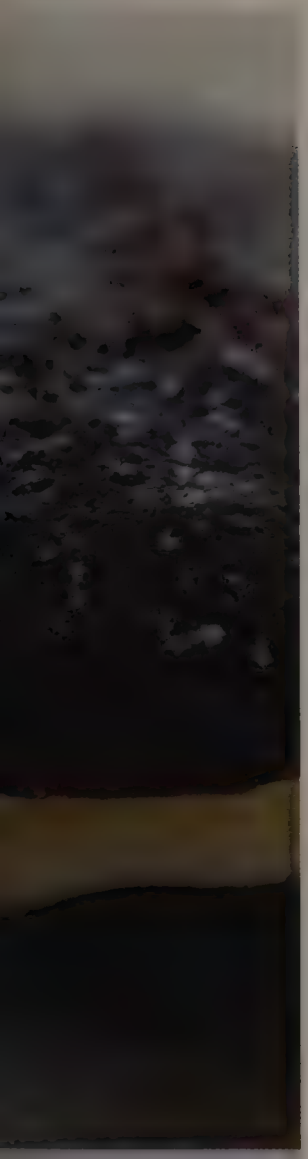
($6.25, $7.50 on baguette)—roast beef, lettuce, tomato, onion, and horseradish and chive chèvre. The local milk also turns up in bottles (good for washing down the sweets) and in ice cream.

Moonlight Diner & Grille
408 Main St., Williamstown
413-458-3305
www.moonlightdiner.com

Black-and-white floors. Check. Jukebox. Check. Neon signs. Check. Moonlight is a set designer's dream. Filled with locals and students from nearby Williams College, the waitresses anticipate your every need ("Coffee? I heard someone needed it") and ooze small-town charm ("Where's your wife today?"). The diner even has a customer of the month. "It's the culture that's hard," I overhear one recent transplant telling her visiting parents about living in neighboring North Adams. Luckily, I'm not here for the culture. I'm here for the vanilla Coke ($2.50), served in a tall soda fountain glass, and it doesn't disappoint. Digging into a waffle ($3.75), road tripper Mia Dady offers her own reason for pulling into Moonlight: "It's the only place with a sign that says, 'Breakfast served all day.'" Make an unhealthy meal of it with a milkshake or a malt ($3.75), plus a side of fries ($1.50). As Dady's companion David Wollenweber explains, "Greasy food is pretty much good anywhere."

Pappa Charlie's Deli
28 Spring St., Williamstown
413-458-5969

Where there are co-eds, there's finger-food. The adage holds true in lovely Williamstown at Pappa Charlie's Deli, although here it might be called fist-food. Open since 1976, Pappa Charlie's packs 'em in, with its substantial and substantive sandwiches named for their famous creators. This is a cerebral college crowd. Carnivorous Gilmore Girls fans might try the Lauren Graham ($5.48)—hot turkey, mushrooms, sautéed peppers and onions—while vegetarians with a thing for Old Hollywood order the Joanne Woodward ($4.52)—peanut butter, jam, raisins and bananas. Future senators can play Independent with the Politician, listed this way: "Ingredients change with your whim.... Be advised that your whim is prepared on a cost-plus basis." All jokes aside, the small deli has limited seating; get your sandwich to go.



EASY AS PIE

FROM THE MIGHTY APPLE TO THE ULTRA SUGARY WHOOPIE, AMERICA'S ANSWER TO DESSERT IS BACK IN VOGUE BY ELIZABETH BOMZE PHOTOGRAPHS BY CLARE AMARAKOON AND KATIE NOBLE

Pie: It's no dacquoise. Its three-letter, one-syllable name hardly suggests something so elegant as crème brûlée, so stately as soufflé or even so dignified as profiteroles. This is diner fare—a low-key, unglamorous, hearty slice of comfort on a plate—no more complicated (in concept) than two slices of bread sandwiching a filling. ¶ But that's just it. After a good long stint in the shadow of European confections, pie has finally regained its status as a stylish (albeit retro) emblem of American dessert. Any edible vessel that can accommodate coconut custard, ginger-scented pumpkin and tree-ripe apples has our vote. And what with the culinary world dialing back to simpler temptations, we figured this was the perfect opportunity to salute Boston's ever-so-humble take on a sweet finish, as one company aptly dubs their treats. Grab a fork and enjoy these seasonal flavors with us.

CLOCKWISE FROM TOP LEFT: EVER SO HUMBLE'S MINCE PIE; SUGAR BAKERY'S WHOOPIE PIE; PETSI PIES' RENEE MCCLEOD; CANTO 6'S PECAN PIE; GUY ARIA FROM MIKE'S PASTRY; BREAD AND CHOCOLATE'S BANANA CREAM PIE; PETSI PIES' MISSISSIPPI MUD PIE; MIKE'S RICOTTA PIE

The Pie Lady

Petsi Pies
To Renee McLeod, going through the pie-making motions is as comforting as the moment she sits down to a bite of her gooey Mississippi Mud—chocolate cookie crumb crust, eggs, chocolate and rice syrup, all topped off with brownie chunks and a thick drizzle of chocolate ganache. Just like those career books advise, McLeod is following her passion. "If I had a stressful week," she explains, "I would come home and roll out pie dough. That's when I realized this is what I'm supposed to be doing." Deciding to make a job of her pie skills and dough recipe, which she learned from her grandmother, McLeod used her childhood nickname to open up her pie shop. And fortunately for us novice bakers who need a little TLC, McLeod set up this whimsically carrot-orange- and-cobalt-spackled "House of Butter" at the corner of Beacon and Sac, where she and her small staff churn out roughly 100 pies per day—most of which have left the building well before the ovens shut off at night. And for those into immediate gratification, the cozy, mustard-and-persimmon-painted nook to the right of the pastry case houses three little tables—just enough space for you, the slice you're eating now and the box you're taking home.

Notable Fall Flavors: Mississippi Mud, Sour Cream Apple, Cranberry Walnut, Apple Pear Cranberry Walnut Streusel, Sweet Potato (all $3.50 per slice; $20 per pie)
285 Beacon St., Somerville (617-661-7437); 31 Putnam Ave., Cambridge (617-499-0801). www.petsipies.com.

Cream of the Crop

Bread and Chocolate Bakery Café
There's the kind of banana cream pie you get from the Jell-O pudding box and the prefab Keebler Graham Cracker Crust. And then there's the real deal—you know, the one fashioned from just-crushed graham cracker crumbs glued back together with melted butter, a coating of bittersweet chocolate, banana slices nestled in gobs of fresh pastry cream, mousseline peaks and a crowning stratum of chocolate curls. At least that's the standard Eunice Feller sets at her charming Newtonville cafe, which is gearing up for Thanksgiving. "Most people have a holiday routine," she acknowledges, "and it's hard to break that and go to a new bakery." It won't be once you sample sweets from this case—which may show a few smudges here and there. "Kids come in and point to what they want in the case," Eunice explains, "so I judge a good day by how many fingerprints are on the glass."

Notable Fall Flavors: Coconut Cream, Banana Cream, Apple Spiced Brown Butter, Chocolate Pecan ($4.50, mini pies; $25–$45 per pie) 108 Madison Ave., Newtonville (617-243-0500). www.breadnchocolate.com.

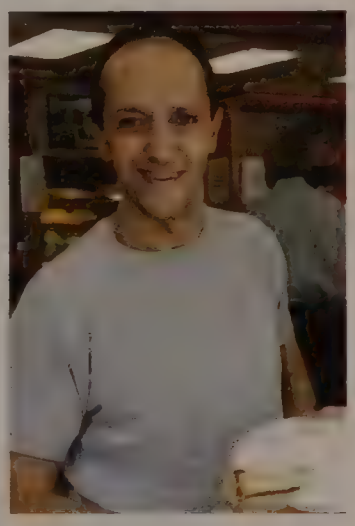
Divine Intervention



Canto 6 Bakery Café
Evangeline McKilligan isn't trying to rewrite the book of pie. With all due respect to ingenuity, the Culinary Institute of America grad and her partner, Alex Emmott, have decided to "keep it traditional" this season at their JP cafe. Well, almost traditional. "This will still be grandma's kitchen," McKilligan assures, laughing. "But just a little more interesting." Next to the bostoks and canelles in this French-inspired patisserie's case sits good ol' American apple, pumpkin and pecan. Except the apple is a sweet-tart merger of Granny Smiths and Goldens, all warmed up with cinnamon and allspice; the slow-cooked, praline-like pecan mixture tops a varnish of dark Valrhona chocolate; and the pumpkin—so light and creamy you'd swear it was whipped—kicks it up a notch with a hint of fresh ginger. And if those flavors don't make you cave, the mini turkey dough cutouts abutting the steam-holes will get the better of you. So much for resisting temptation.

Notable Fall Flavors: Apple ($15.50 per pie), Pumpkin Ginger ($14.50 per pie), Chocolate Pecan ($17.50 per pie)
3346 Washington St., Jamaica Plain (617-983-8688).
www.canto6bakery.com.

Curd Your Enthusiasm

Mike's Pastry
Those crunchy little ricotta tunnels eat up most of the fame at Hanover Street's beloved sweet shop. (Admit it; you've double-parked and run in for a chip-dipped treat.) But in this part of town, where the fresh, billowy curds flow as freely as the marinara sauce, there's room enough for two ricotta-centered desserts. Look behind you when you're standing at the front case, at a shelf filled with baked cheese pies, dappled caramel-colored on top from the oven. Unlike what you find in the cannoli's brittle shells, this by-the-slice ricotta custard, made from an old Italian recipe, comes with an egg-enriched crust that further sweetens the typically neutral curd. Tip: This pie is especially delicious alongside a fruit-filled sibling.

Notable Fall Flavors: Ricotta ($2.50, per slice; $8-$10, per pie)
300 Hanover St., Boston (617-742-3050). www.mikespastry.com.

Bake-at-Home Bliss

Ever So Humble Pie Company Inc.
The Squmpkin craze is catching on quickly, but unlike plumcots and broccoflower, you won't find this hybrid just anywhere. The tongue-twisting term—in fact, the patented name of a pie, not a gourd—sprouted from Andrea Taber's East Walpole commercial kitchen only in the past few years, when this RN-turned-pie maven morphed a scrumptious blend of locally harvested blue hubbards, butternuts, sugar pumpkins, milk and spices into a creamy custard. Best of all, this holiday hallmark (plus more than a dozen other flavors—try the mince, whose apple-raisin-citrus-spice brew is a dead ringer for warm, mulled cider) comes frozen, so you can enjoy it not only on Thanksgiving but also on Christmas, Tu B'Shvat, May Day and the Fourth of July.

Notable Fall Flavors: Mince, Squmpkin, Vegan Squmpkin, Butter Pecan, Sweet Potato, Jumble Berry, Cherry ($4, mini pies; $13–$17 per pie)
153 Washington St., East Walpole (also available at Allandale Farm, Valenti Farms, Milton and Natick Farmers' Markets, and many Whole Foods Markets; 508-660-9731). www.eversohumble.com.

Makin' Whoopie

Sugar Bakery
Here's where the sandwich analogy really comes into play. A hallmark of Amish country cooking and area code 207 (aka Maine), whoopie pies—overgrown, cake-like Oreo cookies—are house specialties at this spiffy addition to West Roxbury's main drag, though the Italian bakeshop strays a bit from the original "pie." No shortening or marshmallow fluff filling here; these high-octane confections do it up with buttercream. Classic chocolate—two discs of bun-soft devil's food cake sandwiching a thick piping of vanilla buttercream—takes a front spot in the case year-round, while a more tender (and seasonal) pumpkin version hugs a tangy cream cheese filling. And just like the beloved sandwich cookie, both are best enjoyed with a tall glass of cold milk.

Notable Fall Flavors: Pumpkin Cream Cheese, Chocolate (both $1.84 per pie)
1884 Centre St., West Roxbury (617-327-8427).

ATTENTION to DETAIL

Grey patent-leather uptown bag by Yves Saint Laurent, $1,895 at Barneys New York. Metallic grey studded bootie by Christian Louboutin, $1,135 at Neiman Marcus. Pewter dragon cuff by Antonio Palladino, $1,435 at Barneys New York. Lissoni lounge collection coffee table by Fritz Hansen, $2,788; light bulb lampadina by Flos, $116. Both at Montage.

WHEN IT COMES TO ACCESSORIES, THIS FALL'S MUST HAVES ARE SEXY AND DARING—FROM 1940s LOOK-ALIKES TO SULTRY '80s LEATHER

FASHION EDITOR Victor Vargas

PHOTOGRAPHS Tony Scarpetta

Black wool parisienne cap, $380 at Hermès. Patent-leather studded sandal by Burberry Prorsum, $940 at Burberry. Infusion d'iris eau de parfum by Prada, $67–$90 exclusively at Neiman Marcus. Mink tote with alligator straps by Nancy Gonzales, $4,300 at Neiman Marcus. "Little Heads" sculpture by Emmanuelle Piquart, $1,080; SMTM2 table from the simplice collection by B&B Italia, $1,118; grey-shearling area rug by Grand Splendid, $4,600. All at Montage.

Fuchsia samourai 1947 intrecciato bag, $3,900; chartreuse leather and python platform bootie, $1,260. Both Dior by John Galliano at Christian Dior. Tod table by Zanotta, $893 at Montage.

Black patent-leather boot by Bottega Veneta, $990 at Serenella. Embellished gold collar by Yves Saint Laurent, by special order from select Yves Saint Laurent boutiques. Yellow-gold and diamond te quiero new vintage bracelet by Carrera y Carrera, $8,225 at Alpha Omega. Toki table by Fiam, $2,031, and San Lorenzo striped cowhide rug by Grand Splendid, $2,928. Both at Montage.

MOPSY

SERENDIPITOUS SHOPPING: OUR UNFETTERED CORRESPONDENT SEEKS OUT THE SALUBRIOUS AND THE CEREBRAL.

BY MOPSY STRANGE KENNEDY

THE ECCENTRIC POET AND HER FRIEND

Adelaide MacMurray Aitken of Cambridge and her brother Frank posthumously published their mother Rose Chatfield-Taylor MacMurray's novel, Afternoons With Emily.

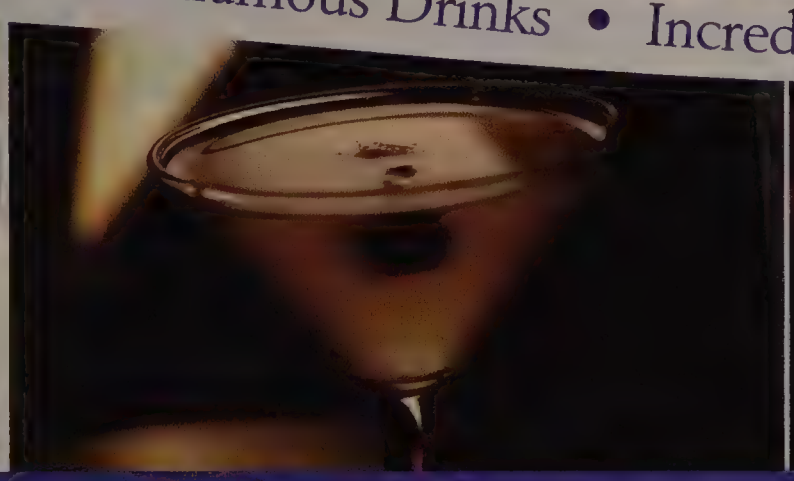
With a silky dip into the literary ethos of the 19th century, the late Rose MacMurray details the friendship between the fictional Miranda Chase and that maddening, brilliant recluse Emily Dickinson. Having moved to Amherst with her professor-father, the young, precocious and rather straight-arrow Miranda begins to climb the stairs to the lair of Emily, whose conversation, like her poems, is filled with a gunshot of words delivered in urgent capital letters. Miranda studies, falls in love with a man who is killed in the Civil War, and opens a school for young children imbued with a progressive spirit. Then she falls in love again. Meanwhile Emily, from the eccentric sidelines, supports Miranda's independence, in emphatic feminist terms, while jealously, treacherously undermining her romantic forays. Miranda's trajectory is outward; Emily's is inward. The narrative takes us through Miranda's friendships, mentorships, intellectual development and her very proper, yet very romantic relationships rendered in the style of the time. Meanwhile, Emily, always ferociously exhorting Miranda, is alternately a thorn and a blossom in her friend's life, ignoring world events and dismissing Miranda's stories and concerns in favor of her own weirdly austere vision. The story of these opposite women rolls along entrancingly.

NECROMANCING THE FANTASY WORLD

Pandemonium (4 Pleasant St., Cambridge; 617-547-3721; www.pandemoniumbooks.com) sells sci-fi stuff and runs game-playing events.

Pandemonium owner Tyler Stewart, a kind of chara himself, rules zestily over his realm of science fiction fantasy books. His slant on the genre encompasses awe irony, and he sees both what's fun and what's funny in it Because many sci-fi books come in series, his stret shelves often offer the whole long line. Find HP Lovec (whom he compares to Hemingway,) Tolkien, Mme. H Potter. (Women are increasingly both writers and fan the genre.) Stewart would argue that many literary wri of an alternate-reality bent are really in the sci-fi though they deny it. "I nod and smile when Vonnegut Margaret Atwood say they aren't in this genre. Come now." Pandemonium sells fantastical toys—a big hydra, a plaid-clad lumberjack who flips over to becon werewolf, an Egyptian god/lizard—comically suitable fo ages. Eschewing the virtual in favor of reality (well, this otic variety) on earth, fans come to the spacious area do stairs to play games like Dungeons and Dragons and t role plays with castles and other props. It's a happen community of the like-minded.

HEALYING THE ACHING, AGING-DAILY BODY



Gerry Healy of ProFit (617-241-0864) does strength and fitness training out of the Charlestown Navy Yard.

As you move, dance and enjoy easy flow in your body, remember time's arthritic scythe is coming you. Gerry Healy—tall, fit and acquainted with injuries from football—does strength and conditio training, as well as rehabilitative work to "help people get their bodies working properly" in the sedentary or even injured life. As a personal coach, Healy observes, then corrects and makes suggestions about a person's movements, balance and posture. Without machines, he helps a client attend to ligaments, tendons and muscles, "making sure they use their own body weight through space correctly." As people squat, lunge and do pushups, Healy refines the efficiency of each action. Training exercises include a giant and a smaller ball. That midsection hub mediates many muscles and gets his aligning attention. Satisfied post-surgery client Keith McCown dubs Healy a "philosopher nag." Gerry's suggestions fit perfectly with the physical therapist's requirements. Now, his once-painful leg has become both pain-free and stronger. Incidentally, he lost weight. Also a Cambridge College student of counseling psychology, Gerry lets the therapeutic breezes of listening and inquiring blow through his work.

Exceptional Cuisine • Infamous Drinks • Incredible Ambiance

33 Restaurant & Lounge

Conveniently Located in the Back Bay and adjacent to the South End

33 Stanhope Street • Boston • Reservations: 617.572.3311 • www.33restaurant.com

Brought to you by 33 MANAGEMENT GROUP

INFUSION+FLAVOR=

STIX

RESTAURANT & LOUNGE

BOSTON'S NEWEST DESTINATION

OPENING FALL 2007

35 STANHOPE STREET | BOSTON, MA 02116

WWW.STIXBOSTON.COM | TEL. 617.456.STIX (7849)

Brought to you by 33 MANAGEMENT GROUP

REVIEW

BRAVISSIMO!

Rustic Kitchen's Theater District outpost deserves an encore

BY J. CHARLES MOKRISKI • PHOTOGRAPHS BY DARREN STAHLMAN

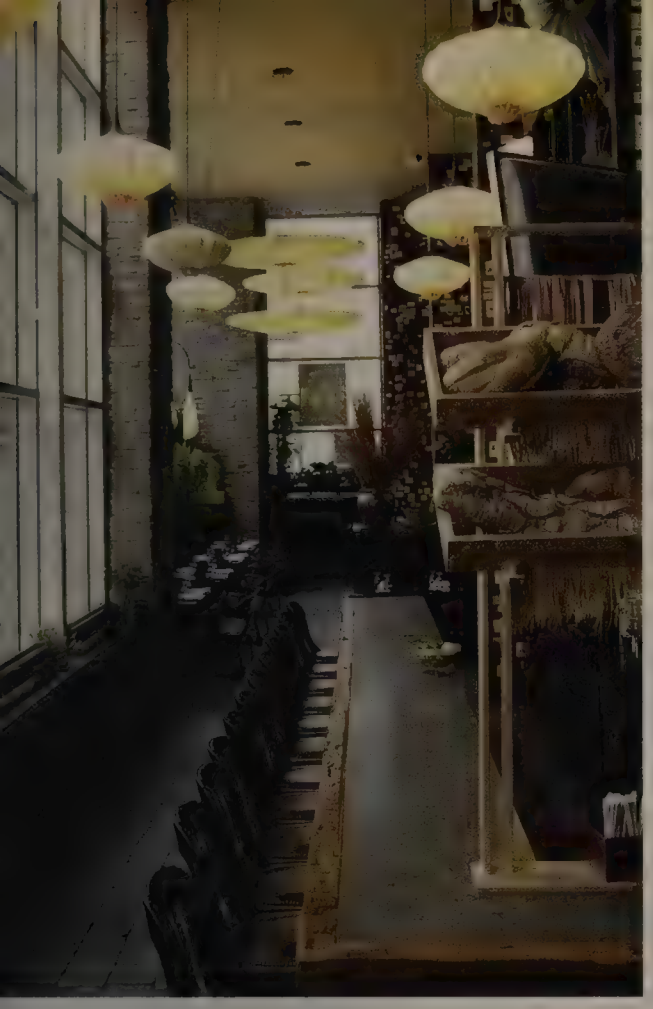
Eight years ago, Bill Bradley quietly entered the restaurant scene in Boston. As Bricco's first chef, Bradley brought his cooking talents, honed at the Culinary Institute of America, to a North End recently liberated from its red sauce roots. Instead, the likes of Charles Draghi, from the now departed Marcuccio, unveiled the gastronomic riches of the entire Italian peninsula, from Piemonte and Tuscany to Sicily and Sardinia. Despite his Irish name and heritage, Bradley followed the trail blazed by Draghi, and soon Bricco was packing in discriminating diners.

Bradley became a force in Italian cuisine in Boston by helping Jeff and Carmen Malloy to open a Venetian wine bar, Carmen, in 2002, and the following year joining with restaurant impresario Jim Cafarelli to bring serious Italian food to Quincy Market with Rustic Kitchen. With the help of Bradley's culinary talents and food wisdom, Cafarelli developed and extended his Rustic Kitchen concept to Hingham (and briefly to Porter Square). Most recently, he teamed with Tom Holloway to install a superb Rustic Kitchen in the Radisson Hotel in the Theater District.

On our visits we lathered decent housemade bread with garlicky bean dip, soupy with extra-virgin olive oil, and partook of succulent black, green and brown olives while perusing the restaurant's expansive but not unwieldy menu. While the food falls under the generic heading of "Italian," Holloway has attempted to inject authentic regional notes into several of the dishes. The Sicilian classic arancini, or risotto balls ($12), surprised me with their light, delicate texture and delectable flavor of fresh basil, black olives and light tomato sauce, assertively spiced with red pepper and finished with a balsamic reduction. Apulian-style veal meatballs ($10), from the heel of the Italian boot, replicated the superb feathery texture of the arancini while delivering robust, meaty flavor combined with the creamy-salty kick of parmesan cheese. Sausage and pepper pizza ($12.50), large enough to serve as a small supper for two, boasted tasty fennel-spiked sausage, sweet peppers, spinach and a rich, sweet tomato sauce. A special one evening, smoked salmon pizza ($12) married fragments of velvety smoked salmon with a drizzle of crème fraiche and a generous sprinkling of arugula and salty, fishy salmon roe.

Linguini with Maine crab and spicy tomato sauce

Given Bradley's legacy, one could expect Rustic Kitchen to excel in the pasta department, and it did. Tagliatelle bolognese ($18) and tortelli ($20) showcased specialties of Emilia-Romagna, perhaps Italy's most highly regarded center of gastronomy. The pale pink color of the meat-rich sauce, which coated the long, flat house-made noodle, evidenced a balance between cream and tomatoes that marks an authentic bolognese. In the crab linguini ($21), the interplay of the subtle flavor of crab meat, fried breadcrumbs and refined tomato sauce enlivened with fresh mint made up for the less than firm texture of the linguini. The long pastas were served in distinctive bowls designed by owner/manager Cafarelli, with a spoon-shaped indentation toward the bottom for twirling the noodles and a cradle built into the rim for resting the fork when not in use. The tortelli, an overs version of tortellini—which, tradition it, were pastas shaped to resemble Ve navel—came stuffed with mascarpone paragus and Parmesan blended with cr fraiche. Shavings of aromatic black tru and a garnish of shredded frisee and ra chio gave the dish added verve. Fir among pasta offerings, macaroni and ch ($16) proved delightful. Brought to table in a superhot casserole with a bubb sauce of fontina cheese, porcini mushro and peas, it was a far cry from the maca and cheese suppers I endured many a Fr night as a child.



Main courses, all served in port large enough for sharing, included ten roast chicken ($19). Boned, carved rolled into three hefty cylinders, moist, succulent flesh was enhanced garnish of sliced potatoes, pepp tomato sauce and nuggets of prosciu A pork ribeye ($26) arrived medium as ordered, with tender, juicy flesh a garnish of pickled peaches moiste with balsamic vinegar. Veal saltimb ($24) brought a large cutlet topped prosciutto, sage and gorgonzola and companied by roasted red potatoes asparagus. The veal juice reduction, soned with sage, produced a marve gravy. The rack of Zealand lamb ($32) cons of eight small ribs roasted perfect, medium-rare, se with delicious cumin-sp eggplant puree and a sprig late-summer mixture of sq and fresh mint. Finally, perhaps most exquisite o main courses, were giant scallops ($26), perfectly se with their silky texture sweet, nut-like flavor in Roasted tomatoes, artich hearts, black olives, capers fingerling potatoes, like mo the garnishes served at Rustic Kitc showed the kind of respect for veget that made them a significant enha ment and not just a perfunctory acco niment to the main courses.

Rustic Kitchen's wine list was als from perfunctory. With bottle p ranging from the low $20s on up, it

RUSTIC KITCHEN

210 Stuart St., Boston
617-432-5700
www.rustickitchen.biz

HOURS lunch: Mon.-Sun., 12-4 pm; dinner: Mon.-Thu., 4-10 pm; Fri. and Sat., 4-11 pm; Sun., 4-9 pm
RESERVATIONS recommended
CREDIT CARDS Visa, MasterCard, AmEx
HANDICAPPED ACCESSIBLE yes
PARKING garage
LIQUOR LICENSE full

among the best I've tasted. At once light and creamy and profoundly rich, it struck me as chocolate married to butter. The counterpoint of unsweetened whipped cream, a huge fresh strawberry and a crunchy biscotti enhanced its enjoyment. Tiramisu filled a large goblet with a well-balanced chocolate-coffee-mascarpone melange with just the right amount of liqueur to give it an edge. And the crème brulee surprised with a thin layer of chocolate on the bottom supporting the creamy, mellow pudding and caramelized sugar top.

Rustic Kitchen's setting was as tasteful as the food. The principal dining spaces consist of two large rooms: the first with a bar, flat screen, tables and booths, and a main dining room dominated by a large wood stone oven at one end and eight capacious semicircular booths with leatherette upholstery around the periphery. Fieldstone walls are adorned with farmhouse implements like kerosene lamps, cast-iron cooking vessels and large urns. Eclectic light fixtures, more atmospheric than illuminating, include starburst chandeliers, art deco sconces and fixtures in the shape of seashells and cornucopias. Beamed ceilings complete the Italian farmhouse picture. The restaurant also boasts a number of smaller, well-appointed rooms suitable for private parties, but its most unique space is a small television studio where every Friday evening diners assemble to watch Alissa Bigelow, a bubbly and talented chef, produce entertaining cooking demonstrations that combine the showmanship of Rachel Ray with the craftsmanship of Bradley and Holloway.

With such craftsmanship, Rustic Kitchen in the Radisson could hold its own anywhere, but the Stuart Street location and proximity to theaters make it an especially welcome resource. iB d selections for every taste and pock-ok. Marea Nero d'Avola ($23) from ly, an enjoyable house wine at a bar-price, had enough

ity to make a servicecompanion to the
. A substantial notch n quality, the 2004
ellino di Scansano pomacchione Rocca
e Macie ($32), a Tusred that was closed harsh when first uned, opened after thing into a big and natic wine.
ustic Kitchen's desserts
uded three standard,
st banal choices: flour-
chocolate cake ($9), ne brulee ($8) and nisu ($8). That said, each of these popu-confections deserved its spot on the u. The flourless chocolate cake rated

Executive chef and director Tom Holloway

Christiania Vodka presents
FOOD PAIRING OF THE MONTH

Christiania Vodka and Oysters are perfect together. This sophisticated apertivo is elegant and not too sweet. The clean flavor of the vodka pairs nicely with the crisp oysters.
—Kevin Long

'ISLAND CREEK' OYSTER CRUDO with WILD ELDERBERRY

CHEF: Kevin Long
MIXOLOGIST: Kelly Ford
RESTAURANT: Tosca Restaurant
14 North Street, Hingham MA

Oyster Crudo: Mignonette: 2T diced cucumber, 1T picked thyme leaves, 15 cracked peppercorns, 3T natural sugar, 2 dash Tabasco sauce, 3T light vinegar. Shuck oysters and set on ice. Dress with mignonette and serve.
For the drink: Shake over ice 2.5 oz. of Christiania Vodka with ½ oz. of elderberry syrup, ½ oz. of St. Germain Liquor, 1 grind of pepper, and the juice of ½ a lemon. Serve straight up.

We believe very deeply that chefs should have the power to impact the complete dining experience. And that a perfectly crafted cocktail is the ultimate compliment to the best culinary dishes in Boston.

To this end, we propose Christiania Vodka as the perfect platform for these pairings. Christiania is six times distilled from organic Norwegian potatoes and pure Norwegian spring water. It's then charcoal filtered and aerated to eliminate all impurities. The result is The World's Smoothest Vodka™.

Every month, we choose a winning food pairing to be featured in this ad. The deadline is the 15th of each month. The winner will be given a prize and have his/her pairing featured in this ad.
Send your submission to BostonPairings@christianiavodka.com.

Announcing Team Christiania, a very special community dedicated to creating a worldwide community of the best in food and spirits. Be a charter member. To register, go to www.teamChristiania.com

www.christianiaVodka.com

christiania
THE WORLD'S SMOOTHEST VODKA™

DISH

Come Fry With Me

Logan's a Trip for Chez Henri's Paul O'Connell

BY CAROLYN FAYE FOX

Chez Henri chef Paul O'Connell

There's destination dining—when your dining preference determines your choice of venue—and then there's default dining, when circumstances beyond your control leave you in need of a meal at a location not known for its fine food. Case in point: Logan Airport.

Thinking MacDunkin StarBurger? Well, you can do better at Terminal E, where the Visiting Chef program at the Dine Boston Bar and Grill means that through December you can enjoy several special menu items created by chef Paul O'Connell of Chez Henri.

Don't look for his famous Cuban sandwich, however. "People come here and eat a full meal," says O'Connell. That's because Terminal E is the international terminal, and passengers anticipating a seven- or eight-hour flight don't want to fly hungry. What they do want, says O'Connell, might include potato leek soup with crabmeat and white truffle essence, followed by Cuban-spiced grilled swordfish with crawfish and chorizo potato salad or steak frites with chimichurri sauce and spicy fries, topped off with a dessert of boca negra—chocolate chipotle torta, banana caramel ice cream and peanut brittle—straight off the Chez Henri menu.

What's the difference for diners? "It's a lot cheaper" than eating at the restaurant, says O'Connell. Then again, given the food court–like setting, the paper napkins and the waitresses who call you "hun" and "sweetie," it's certainly not a fine-dining experience. When training the airport staff to prepare his recipes, O'Connell had to contend with a less-than-fully-equipped kitchen—borrowing a blender from the bar to puree his soup—and keeping the focus on getting the food out "hot and fresh."

Bottom line: If you want to go to Chez Henri, go to Cambridge. If you find yourself stuck at the airport for several hours around mealtime, Dine Boston may be just the ticket.

In the Soup

Yes, it's soup season again in New England. That means it's also time to start early holiday shopping, and (what a coincidence!) the New England Soup Factory Cookbook has just been published. Over 100 recipes, many vegetarian-friendly—spicy chickpea and butternut squash soup, eggplant parmesan soup—are presented in a clearly written and easy-to-follow f mat, accompanied by photos full of che props like vintage lunch boxes and fu tureens. Striking a balance betw straightforward preparation and unus combinations—potato, crab and g gonzola soup, and honey apricot sou this is a cookbook that fits the cliche "something for everybody."

Buck a Bite at the Bar

Spicy fish taco with tropical fruit, avoc and cilantro; lobster and shrimp dump with ginger, scallion and garlic; chi Duxbury oyster with chive mignonette lemon—they're all on the list of week evening nibbles at Great Bay in the H Commonwealth, priced at just $1 e The aptly named Sand Dollar Men available at the Island Bar for one happy hour, from 5 to 6 pm (except days the Red Sox play at home).

Nibbles

Now that she's spent a few weeks in kitchen at Harvest, executive chef M Dumont will present her first all- menu any day now.... The openin Chris Douglass' Tavolo in Dorchester been pushed back to next spring.... If simply must have one of the T-shirts w by Petit Robert's softball team ("Hon the Burger Dog—9" of Happine they're available at both of chef Ja Robert's locations. IB

Serving Dish
Seen a food fight? Got a restaurant rant? Send dish@improper.com.

TASTINGS

BY RICH LEVINE

dvice to Contributors

mit listings by mail or e-mail (tastings@roper.com). Include address, phone number, et price, dates and times, the nearest T stop d a brief description of the event. Deadline is r weeks prior to publication. Listings cannot be epted over the phone.

vents

ston Men Cook For Women's Health

e Gala Tent, 637 Washington St., Dorchester 7-474-1457). www.menofboston.com. Sept. 27, pm. $150. Local male celebrities including vernor Deval Patrick, Mayor Thomas enino, Dennis Lehane and Michael Holley as waiters at this event, which features fare n the Fireplace, La Morra and Pho Republique d other restaurants. Proceeds benefit the Cod- n Square Health Center and Dorchester House lti-Service Center.

lifornia Zinfandel Wine Dinner

e Wine Cellar at Legal Seafoods, 26 Park Plaza, ston (617-530-9397). MBTA: Green Line to Arton. Sept. 26, 6:30 pm. $125. Master of wine ndy Block hosts this five-course dinner, featur- dishes like seared rare tuna, bacon-wrapped d and scallops with braised short-rib pavé—red with California zinfandels.

icurean Evenings

jourd'hui at the Four Seasons, 200 Boylston . Boston (617-351-2037). www.fourseasons.n/boston/dining.html. MBTA: Green Line to lington. Tue., 6 pm. $45. Sommelier Brick omis and chef William Kovel host this ekly wine event offering three light courses lt around a theme, region or grape variety.)ct. 2: Browne Trading Company. •Oct. 9: rgundy 2005.

ırpoon Octoberfest

rpoon Brewery, 306 Northern Ave. Boston 38-427-7666, ext. 3). www.harpoonbrewery.n. MBTA: Silver Line to Brewery. Sept. 28, 0-11 pm; Sept. 29, 2-9 pm. $15. The Har- n Brewery's annual Octoberfest celebration tures traditional German music and food, s locally-brewed Harpoon beers, including rpoon IPA and Harpoon Octoberfest.

ɔt Off the Vine

Restaurant, 33 Stanhope St., Boston (617-572-1). www.33restaurant.com. MBTA: Green e to Arlington or Orange Line to Back Bay. Wed., pm. $20-$40. Join chef Anthony Dawodu wine director Paul Westerkamp for a sam- ng of four wines paired with food tastings. ept. 26: 33's Monthly Grand Wine Tasting.

bster Night at Lineage

eage, 242 Harvard St., Brookline (617-232-55). www.lineagerestaurant.com. MBTA: C en Line to Coolidge Corner. Sun., 5-9 pm. $45. ery Sunday, Lineage chef Jeremy Sewall sents a three-course, prix-fixe lobster dinner red with wines, including Olivier Leflaive urgogne Blanc from Burgundy and Molnar nily Chardonnay from Napa Valley.

onday Flight Night

vatore's, 225 Northern Ave., South Boston 7-737-5454). MBTA: Red Line to Broadway. Mon., 6-8 pm. $15. Every Monday, Salvatore's offers four cocktail infusions, including the Cherry Bomb, Starfruit and Coconut awberry.

onday Night Wine Club

hmont Grill, 555 Talbot St., Dorchester (617-5-4300). www.ashmontgrill.com. MBTA: #22 s to Talbot Ave. Mon., 6-8 pm. $25. Four to e wine selections are served on the patio, ac- mpanied by small plates of seasonal food.

Prostate Cancer Benefit

The Palm, Westin Copley Place, 200 Dartmouth St., Boston (617-867-9292). www.thepalm.com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Oct. 9, 5:30 pm. $500. This event features an open bar, hors d'oeuvres, a steak and lobster dinner, and door prizes—including airline tickets and golf outings—and benefits prostate cancer research at the Lahey Clinic.

Steak Frites Fridays at Pigalle

Pigalle, 75 Charles St. South, Boston (617-423-4944). www.pigalleboston.com. MBTA: Green Line to Boylston. Fri. $35. Sundays this fall, Pigalle offers a prix-fixe, steak-frites–themed dinner that also features live music.

Steak, Potatoes and Scotch Dinner

UpStairs on the Square, 92 Winthrop St., Cambridge (617-864-1933). www.upstairsonthesquare.com. MBTA: Red Line Harvard. Oct. 3, 6:30 pm. $75. UpStairs on the Square wine guru Shane Lessard and bar manager Augusto Lino lead a sampling of four single malt scotches, paired with a dinner of grilled steak, baked potatoes and Caesar salad.

A Taste of Roslindale

Annunciation Church, 7 V.F.W Parkway, Roslindale (617-327-4065). www.roslindale.net. Sept. 28, 6:30-9:30 pm. $35-$40. This first annual event features live jazz and a sampling of fare from Roslindale restaurants, including Bangkok Café, Boston Brickhouse Restaurant and Sophia's Grotto. Proceeds benefit the Jason Roberts Challenger Little League Baseball Field.

TasteAmerica

Veronique, the Ballroom, 20 Chapel St., Brookline (617-375-9700). www.jbftasteamerica.com. MBTA: D Green Line to Longwood. Sept. 28, 6:15 pm. $125-$175. Veronique hosts the James Beard Foundation's local Taste of America event, which features a sampling of dishes prepared by local chefs including L'Espalier's Frank McClelland, Boston Public's Pino Maffeo, Oleana's Ana Sortun and Pigalle's Marc Orfaly.

Tuesday Night Wine Tasting

Les Zygomates, 129 South St., Boston (617-542-5108). www.winebar.com. MBTA: Red Line to South Station. Tue., 7 pm. $30. Sommelier Geoffrey Fallon leads a tasting of a themed wine paired with hors d'oeuvres made by chef Ian Just, who also offers cooking demonstrations. •Oct. 2: Left Bank Bordeaux. •Oct. 9: Que Syrah, Shiraz.

Wine and Dine Mondays

Beacon Hill Bistro, 25 Charles St., Boston (617-723-7575). www.beaconhillhotel.com. MBTA: Red Line to Charles/MGH. First and third Mon. of each month. 7 pm, $55. Chef Jason Bond prepares a four-course meal paired with various wines from around the world. A brief discussion of each wine follows the meal, led by BHB owner Cecilia Rait and MS Walker's Tracy Burgis. •Oct. 1: Burgundy.

Wine Mondays at L'Espalier

L'Espalier, 30 Gloucester St., Boston (617-262-3023). www.lespalier.com. MBTA: Green Line to Hynes. Mon., 7 pm. $55. Chef Frank McClelland prepares a four-course French meal paired with wines chosen by sommelier Erik Johnson. •Oct. 1: South Africa. •Oct. 8: Bubbles, Bubbles Everywhere.

Wine Wednesdays

Sel de la Terre, 255 State St., Boston (617-720-1300). www.seldelaterre.com. MBTA: Blue Line to Aquarium. Wed., 7 pm. $45. Chef Geoff Gardner pairs rustic French cuisine with wines selected by sommeliers Erik Johnson and Michael Meagher at this weekly event. •Sept. 26: Bordeaux. •Oct. 3: Australia and New Zealand.

Christiania Vodka presents
CHRISTINI OF THE MONTH

{ SHELL SHOTS }

Christiania Vodka
oyster brine
chilled aloe vera cubes

shake Christiania Vodka and brine over ice, serve with cubes as chasers

MIXOLOGIST: Alexei Beratis
RESTAURANT: Boston Public
234 Berkeley Street, Boston MA

THE WORLD'S SMOOTHEST VODKA™
Christiania is six times distilled from organic Norwegian potatoes and pure Norwegian spring water. It's then charcoal filtered and aerated to eliminate all impurities. The result is The World's Smoothest Vodka™.

Each month we choose a winning Christiania cocktail to be featured in this ad. Deadline is the 15th of each month. The winner will be given a prize and have his/her cocktail featured in this ad.
Enter your drink at: BostonChristinis@christianiavodka.com.

Announcing Team Christiania, a very special community dedicated to creating a worldwide community of the best in food and spirits. Be a charter member. To register, go to www.teamChristiania.com

www.christianiaVodka.com

christiania
THE WORLD'S SMOOTHEST VODKA™

WINE

America, Meet Chinon

BY SANDY BLOCK, M.W.

Wines from France's Loire Valley show an exceptionally diverse range of flavors. The Loire's cool climate limits which red grape varieties ripen successfully, but in Touraine, the region's geographic center, cabernet franc flourishes. This wasn't always true prior to our current spate of mild vintages; recently, however, wines from the commune of Chinon have been reliable performers. The village is the best-known growing zone in the heart of Touraine's cabernet franc vineyard area. Typically it perfects a style that deserves better recognition in the United States, but remains obscure because it's difficult to replicate elsewhere. Although some of Chinon's star winemakers craft reds that are massively structured, meaty and full of tannic intensity, more prevalent are those driven by perfume, red fruit flavors and refreshing herbal undertones.

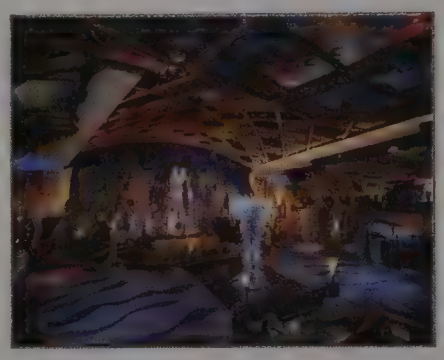
As our palate evolves and we appreciate more fully the charm of reds that are more about fruit and subtlety than power (witness the ascent of pinot noir), wines like Chinon should definitely begin to play a wider role. Given their versatility with food (many are quintessential "red wines with fish"), broader acceptance can't be far off. Not that there's an ocean of wine produced (about 1.2 million cases on a total of 4,500 acres), but outside of specialty venues Chinon remains virtually invisible in the United States.

Our recent blind tastings showed a solid spectrum of quality across the board. The best part is that aside from the acknowledged star producers of the region (Joguet, Olek-Mery, Raffault), most of the wines are value-priced at under $20. Many are under $15. The following stood out and will serve as a great introduction to the region for those of you who'd like to experiment. Remember, there's more to cabernet than sauvignon.

Jean Dumont, Chinon "Les Mureaux," 2005 ($10). Among the lightest and most fragrant of the cabernet francs I've tasted from the Loire (or anywhere) recently, this wine is an absolute steal—if you like the style. It's got a strawberry-like, herby aroma, understated and delicate. This is somewhat deceptive because the wine tastes deeper, with raspberry and spice flavors. It's a négociant blend that has a smooth but persistently acidic feel and virtually nonexistent tannins. I would enjoy this with mildly salty fish or vegetarian dishes that feature Mediterranean flavors. Anything with fresh tomatoes, olives or capers is a plus. A medium-bodied fish, like snapper or mahi, accompanie by a tapenade would work beautifully. And yo can cool this a bit without masking much of its personality.

Marc Brédif Chinon, 2004 ($18). This is generally reliable négociant who makes a rang of Loire wines mostly from the white wine appellations. The flavors here (perhaps reflecti the cooler, more difficult 2004 vintage) ar more dramatically vegetal and a bit more tart. This is a good thing if you're looking soften tart, perhaps citrus-accented fish c chicken dishes. In fact, this is a wine that probably requires food to fill out its contours. Fuller on the palate, with bing cherry fruit and a dry edginess that evolves into tobacco and other leafy herbal essences, this is a nicely balan wine whose assertiveness is under control. I would enjoy this with charcuterie, tangy cheeses and me pâtés. It would also work with sala that feature anchovies or capers in their flavor profile.

Domaine de La Noblaie, Chinon "Les Chiens-Chiens," 2004 ($15). An estate-bottled wi of darker colors and a heavier, mor concentrated flavor intensity than some Chinons, this is produced fr old vines. It has a deep red berry purity of flavor, with smoky, earth- aromas, and is correspondingly fuller riper on the palate, but with a somewhat dramatic savory tartness. On the palate there successive layers of thyme, oregano and pepp spice that evolve, complementing the richer mo feel and strong, sharp-tasting fruit. Holding ma contradictory elements in tension, this comple wine's natural partner to me would be grilled chicken rubbed in dried green herbs.

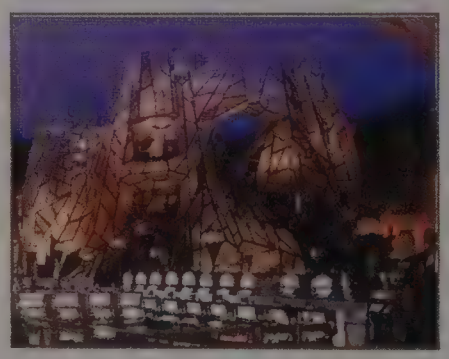


Domaine Frédéric Hardouin, Chinon "Les Quarts Selection," 2005 ($18). This estate wine selection was the consensus favor probably on the basis of its stand-alone sensuality. It doesn't need food. Ripe, mouth-watering scents of cherry mingle with gamey, meat-like aromas. The texture is soft and velv and the flavors much more brightly fruity than the others, but also with a full complement of gritty tannins. It's popular because of the dark red succulent fruit flavors that echo on into th finish. To me it's a meat-only wine, and I wouldn't hesitate to serve it with rosemary-accented lamb, but you might also find it interesting with grilled salmon. On the other hand, it's so delicious that if you opened it ear it might not even make it through dinner. IB

Master of Wine Sandy Block is vice president of beverage operations for Legal Sea Foods.

THE STYLE ISSUE
LOOKING FOR WAYS TO ADD STYLE TO YOUR LIFE? THIS IS THE ISSUE TO PICK UP. FOR WOMEN, IT'S ALL ABOUT THE BAG, A STATEMENT HAT AND A GREAT COAT. FOR MEN, A GOOD PAIR OF SHOES, A DRESS UP SUIT AND A FASHIONABLE SWEATER. GET ALL THIS AND MORE IN THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN'S STYLE ISSUE.
THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN REACHES MORE THAN 420,500 READERS EVERY TWO WEEKS!
CALL 617-859-1400, EXT. 238, TO BOOK ADVERTISING SPACE NOW.
ISSUE DATE: OCTOBER 10 ||| ADVERTISING DEADLINE: SEPTEMBER 26

Finally, a to-do list you'll really want to do.



SHOPPING

Citizen Watch
OdySea
Brookstone
Caché
Cascade Electronics
Chico's
Autumn Essentials
Clay Pipe
Coach
Lalo Treasures
The Golf Shop
Scentsations
Lux Bond & Green
Boccelli
Turtlebacks
Sky Essentials
Summer Essentials
Sunglasses USA
Trading Cove
Yankee Candle
Winter Essentials
Sunrise Square Essentials
Everything Under The Sun
Galina's European Boutique
Godiva Chocolatier
Landau
America's Memories
Riverview Essentials
Oriental Fine Arts & Crafts
Spin Street
Sun Shoes
Swarovski
Trailblazer
The Old Farmer's Almanac General Store
Brewster's Trading Post

DINING

Krispy Kreme Doughnuts
Todd English's Tuscany
Jasper White's Summer Shack
Michael Jordan's 23.sportcafe
Michael Jordan's Steak House
Imus Ranch Coffee
Sunrise Square Food Court
Bamboo Forest
Casino of the Earth Food Court
SolToro Tequila Grill
Uncas American Indian Grill
Geno Auriemma's Fast Break
Starbucks Coffee
Johnny Rockets
Ben & Jerry's
Big Bubba's BBQ
Fidelia's
Pompeii & Caesar
Sunburst Buffet
The Dubliner
The Longhouse
The Cove
Lucky's Lounge
Seasons Buffet

GAMING

World-class, spectacularly themed casinos with nearly 300 table games, over 6,200 slot machines and so much more

HOTEL & SPA

34-story glass hotel tower with 1,200 rooms and 175 suites

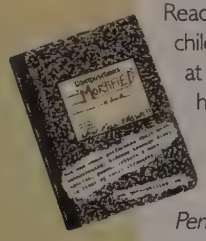
27,500 square-foot sun terrace and indoor swimming pool

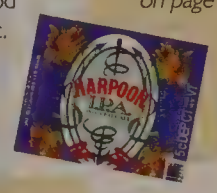
22,000 square-foot Elemis Spa and fitness center

ENTERTAINMENT & NIGHTLIFE

Mohegan Sun Arena
The Cabaret Theatre
Wolf Den

Ultra 88 Night Club
Leffingwells Martini Bar
Bow and Arrow
Taughannick Falls Bar
Lucky's Lounge
Sunset Bar
Star Bar
The Cove
The Dubliner
The Lodge
The Brew Pub
Harvest Moon Bar



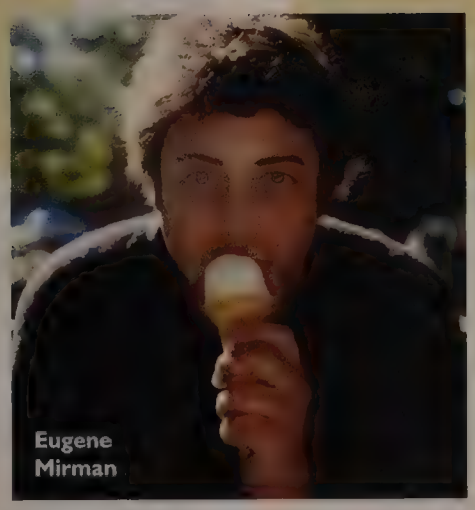


Mohegan Sun a world at play

mohegansun.com
1.888.226.7711

agenda

IMPROPER PICKS



september 26 - october 9

SUNDAY	MONDAY	TUESDAY	WEDNESDAY	THURSDAY	FRIDAY	SATURDAY
23	24	25	26	27	28	29
			Read from your childhood diaries at "Mortified," hosted by the Paradise Lounge. See Performing Arts on page 60.	Governor Patrick and Mayor Menino are part of the waitstaff at the Boston Men Cook for Women's Health event. See Tastings on page 51.	Head to the 18th annual Harpoon Octoberfest for drinks, food and music. See CityScope on page 58. 	Get to Agganis Arena for Mix 98.5's Mixfest 2007. See Music on page 72.
30	1	2	3	4	5	6
		Attend the second annual Bowl-a-thon for some pin knocking, food and prizes. See CityScope on page 58.			The Brattle Theatre screens The Wizard of Oz as part of its "Comedy on the Road" series. See Movies on page 68.	The Art Institute at Lesley University presents the film Same Sex America with a photo exhibition. See Gay on page 94.
7	8	9	10
The Donnas perform at the Paradise Rock Club. See Music on page 77. 		NPR's Bill Littlefield reads from his book Only a Game. See Books on page 97.

WED./SEPT. 26

CityScope: High-Fiber Diet

Who knows how they were wronged. Did someone steal their luscious Ulysses? Burn their Brontës? Laminate their Longfellows? No matter the transgression, 826, a national nonprofit dedicated to helping students with their writing, has just opened a Roxbury location and celebrates with a bash they're calling Revenge of the Book Eaters. Performing will be writers, actors and comedians including 826 cofounder and Pulitzer Prize nominee Dave Eggers, Found magazine's Davy Rothbart and Flight of the Conchords comedian Eugene Mirman. Via Audio, Mates of State and members from Of Montreal provide the soundtrack for the reprisal, and proceeds benefit 826's new center, which provides writing tutoring, after-school workshops and in-school programs. Long live the written word. Berklee Performance Center, 1140 Boylston St., Boston. www.826boston.org. 6:30 pm. $25, general admission; $150; VIP. —NA

Eugene Mirman

EUGENEMIRMAN.COM

CITYSCOPE 58
PERFORMING ARTS 60
MOVIES 64
MUSIC 71
CLASSICAL MUSIC 78
DANCE CLUBS 80
MUSEUMS & GALLERIES . . 86
GAY & LESBIAN 94
EDUCATION 96
BOOKS & POETRY 97
BODY & MIND 98
SPORTS 99
CHILDREN 100
AROUND TOWN 101

CALENDAR EDITED BY
Nick Altschuller Books & Poetry, CityScope, Movies, Museums & Galleries, Music, Performing Arts
Amanda Knorr Around Town, Body & Mind, Children, Dance Clubs, Education, Movies
Rich Levine Gay & Lesbian, Sports
ADDITIONAL LISTINGS BY
Sean Burns Movie Capsules
Linh Tran Body & Mind

FRI./SEPT. 28

CityScope: Top Chefs

Truth be told, this town's calendar is bursting with tasting events. But, borrowing from film critic parlance, if you go to only one big-ticket foodie fest this season, you'd be pretty safe making it the James Beard Foundation's Taste America. Manning the serving stations will be three James Beard award winners, including locals Frank McClelland of L'Espalier and Ana Sortun of Oleana. The 10 other chefs on hand include Temple Bar's Tom Berry and Vela's Frank Santonastaso—as well as up-and-comers. Meanwhile, bar managers show off their creative gin cocktails, and Al Vega croons Sinatra tunes. Veronique, 20 Chapel St., Brookline (617-375-9700). www.jbftasteamerica.com. 7-9:30 pm. $125-$175. —NA

Practicing Tarot

MON./OCT. 1

CityScope: Witch Crafts

You can text your life, relationship and career inquiries to *555 now! Or, you can go to the Annual Psychic Fair and Witchcraft Expo and speak with a real-life psychic, who'll answer all your burning questions. The event takes place in downtown Salem (naturally) and features tarot card, palm and crystal ball readings, past life readings, aura photography and more. Attendees can also peruse magic-inspired products, including jewelry, candles, art, pendulums and cards. And for those of you who don't believe in such "hocus pocus" oh please, we know you've consulted your Magic 8 Ball and Ouija Board in a pinch. 176 Essex St., Salem. www.festivalofthedead.com. 10 am. Free. —AK

SAT. AND SUN./SEPT. 29 AND 30

Music: Kid Rock

For the parents of a budding musician, Paul Green is a godsend. His eponymous School of Rock Music provides a venue for the future Hendrixes of the world to jam without getting death-glares from the neighbors. Of course, mom and dad still like to show off a little. Luckily, the national chain wraps up each session with a big concert highlighting everything the seven- to 17-year-olds have to offer—it's like the musical MCAS. At Boston's end-of-summer performance, the students present songs from Pink Floyd's 1979 album The Wall, which is sure to bring the old folks back to their glory days. Jack Black would be so proud. Great Scott, 1222 Comm. Ave., Allston (617-923-3434). www.schoolofrock.com. Sept. 29, 5 pm; Sept. 30, 4 pm. $10 in advance; $12 at the door. All ages. —AK

Herbie Hancock

THU.–SAT./SEPT. 27–29

CityScope: Blow Out

Love songs aren't normally handed to the brass section, but Newport Jazz Festival founder George Wein a his late-wife/business partner, Joyce, probably had a musical language all their own. On Sept. 28, as the ce piece of this year's Beantown Jazz Festival, Wein presents "A Celebration of Jazz and Joyce—A Concert t Establish the Joyce Alexander Wein Scholarship Fund." Performing will be jazz luminaries like Branford Marsalis, Roy Haynes and Herbie Hancock. Proceeds will help establish the scholarship fund to benefit fut students at the Berklee College of Music. (617-747-2658). www.beantownjazz.org. See Web site for details. —

SOUTH END BUTTERY

Bakery & Café

Two of Boston's hottest chefs under one roof!

Let Pastry Chef Lee Napoli & Executive Chef Marisa Iocco customize all of your office and home catering needs

FOOD PHOTOS: PETER URBAN

BOSTON'S BEST 2007 WINNER IMPROPER BOSTONIAN

314 SHAWMUT AVENUE • SOUTH END • 617.482.1015 • WWW.SOUTHENDBUTTERY.COM

THE BUTTERY DONATES A PORTION OF CUPCAKE SALE PROCEEDS TO ANIMAL RESCUE CAUSES

Fabulous fall dining

Enjoy a casual, elegant setting, while taking in the Boston skyline

Live bands every Friday & Saturday night

Venezia

20 Ericsson St., Boston
www.venezia-OnTheWater.com
617.436.3120

Images courtesy of The Restaurant Review

cityscope

Advice to Contributors
Submit updated listings for benefits, festivals, activities and events by mail or fax (617-859-1446) to Calendar: CityScope. Or e-mail information to cityscope@improper.com. Include address, phone number, ticket price, dates and times, and a brief description of the event. Deadline is four weeks prior to publication. Listings cannot be accepted over the phone.

Benefits

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 27

Children's Tumor Foundation Benefit Gala Dinner
Seaport Hotel, One Seaport Lane, Boston (617-563-5711). www.ctf.org. MBTA: Red Line to South Station. 6:30 pm. $175-$200. This gala features an auction, dinner and cocktails. Proceeds benefit the Children's Tumor Foundation.

11th Annual Men of Boston Cook for Women's Health
637 Washington St., Dorchester (617-474-1457). www.menofboston.com. MBTA: Red Line to Shawmut. 6 pm. $150. Celebrity male chefs including Governor Deval Patrick and Mayor Thomas Menino, serve guests at this gala fundraiser. Proceeds benefit Codman Square Health Center and Dorchester House Multi-Service Center.

Taste America
The Ballroom Veronique, 20 Chapel St., Brookline (617-375-9700). www.jbftasteamerica.com. MBTA: E Green Line to Longwood. 7 pm. $125; $175, VIP. Enjoy foods from up-and-coming Boston chefs as well as some of the signature dishes the city has to offer. Proceeds benefit the James Beard Foundation.

Vespa Scooter Raffle Event
Big City, 138 Brighton Ave., Allston (617-254-7564). www.allstonvillage.com. MBTA: B Green Line to Packard's Corner. 6:30 pm. $10 per ticket. Enjoy free pool, snacks and a cash bar, and enter to win prizes including cruiser bikes and a 2007 Vespa. Proceeds benefit the Allston Village Main Streets.

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 28

Boston Lyric Opera's Annual Gala
Fairmont Copley Plaza, 138 St. James Ave., Boston (617-267-5300). www.blo.org. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. 6 pm. $500. Boston Lyric Opera hosts this La Bohème–themed gala featuring French cuisine and a live auction. Proceeds benefit BLO's Calderwood Audience Development Fund.

Dancing and Dessert Benefit
Crowne Plaza Hotel, 1360 Worcester St., Natick (508-652-4211). www.kids-connect.org. 8 pm. $50. Learn to dance with the pros from the Arthur Murray Studio to the music of the Beantown Swing Orchestra. Proceeds benefit Kids Connect Inc.

Ninth Annual Benefit Concert
Sanders Theatre, 45 Quincy St., Cambridge (617-496-2222). http://chafund.org. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 8 pm, $10-$23. Enjoy this jazz concert featuring renowned blues vocalist Kevin Mahogany. Proceeds benefit the Cambridge Housing Assistance Fund.

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 29

Boston Walk to Cure Juvenile Diabetes
DCR Hatch Shell, Charles River Esplanade, Boston (781-431-0700). www.jdrf.org. MBTA: Red Line to Charles/MGH. 10 am. Help those with juvenile diabetes by participating in this 5K walk with proceeds benefitting the Juvenile Diabetes Research Foundation International.

Lee Kimball Home Tour
South End, Boston (781-838-6131). www.leekimball.com. 10 am. $20. Use provided maps to take an independent walking tour of area houses designed by Lee Kimball. Proceeds benefit the Pine Street Inn.

SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 30

Carving for a Cure
Square One Mall, 152 Main St., Saugus (800-52-jimmy). www.jimmyfund.org. 7 pm. $10. Come marvel at sculptor Sean Fitzpatrick as he creates a life-size Big Papi out of sand. The event includes music, food and beverages. Proceeds benefit the Jimmy Fund.

Harpoon Octoberfest celebrates its 18th year Sept. 28.

Catholic Charities Labouré Center's Fall Fashion Show
UMass Boston, Campus Center Ballroom, 100 Morrissey Blvd., Boston (617-464-8503). www.ccab.org. 1 pm. $40. This fashion show celebrates the center's 100th year of service. Proceeds benefit the Catholic Charities Labouré Center.

Equinox Fitness' Launching Your Life Soiree
28 Degrees, 1 Appleton St., Boston (617-728-7028). www.equinoxfitness.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. 4 pm. $25 per person; $40 per couple. Come dressed in your workout attire and enjoy cocktails and hors d'oeuvres to benefit the Esplanade Association.

50th Annual Ebony Fashion Fair
Boston Park Plaza Hotel, 64 Arlington St., Boston (617 504-3764). www.bostonfashionshow.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. 5 pm. $50-$125. This show highlights top designers such as Givenchy, Valentino, Carolina Herrera and Yves Saint Laurent. Proceeds benefit the Millat Educational Consortium.

Sixth Annual Boston Marine Corps Honor Run
Houghton's Pond, 695 Hillside St., Milton (888-767-RACE). www.mchonorrun.com. 10 am. Choose from a 5K or 10K race. Proceeds benefit the Marine Corps Law Enforcement Foundation.

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 2

Hospitality Homes Benefit
Tasca Restaurant, 1612 Commonwealth Ave., Brighton (617-730-8002). www.tascarestaurant.com. MBTA: B Green Line to Washington. 5 pm. All money spent on food from 5 to 11 pm will be donated to Hospitality Homes.

Second Annual Bowl-a-thon
Sacco's Bowl Haven, 45 Day St., Somerville (781-648-0312). www.centerforcancer.org. MBTA: Red Line to Davis. 7 pm. $200 suggested donation. Fifteen bowling teams, with five players each, enjoy bowling, prizes and free food from JP Licks and Redbones. Proceeds benefit the Center for Cancer Support and Education.

Festivals & Parties

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 27

College Night at the MFA
Museum of Fine Arts, 465 Huntington Ave., Boston (617-267-9300). www.mfa.org. MBTA: E Green Line to Museum. 7 pm. Free. The MFA offers entertainment, prizes and art for local college students who want to meet other students while exploring the museum.

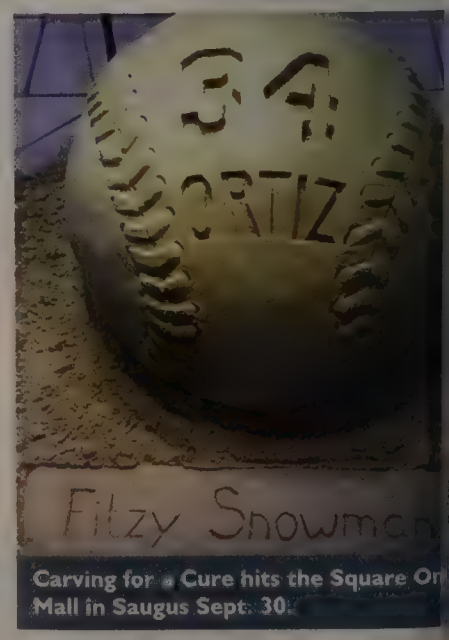
FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 28

Apollinaire Theatre Company Launch Party
Chelsea Theatre Works, 189 Winnisimmet St., Chelsea (617-887-2336). www.theatrezone.org. 7 pm. $50. Watch a surrealist operetta made in 24 hours and enjoy a preshow cocktail party at the reopening of the previously named TheatreZone.

18th Annual Harpoon Octoberfest
Harpoon Brewery, 306 Northern Ave., Boston (888-HARPOON). www.harpoonbrewery.com. Through Sept. 29. Fri., 5:30-11 pm; Sat. 2-9 pm. $15. 21+. Enjoy the Boston tradition of beer, bratwurst bands at this fall festival. Also on Sept. 29 at 2

Margarita's Murder Mystery Crui
Long Wharf, Boston (781-784-7469). h mysterycafe.com/shows_mysterycruise.php. MB Blue Line to Aquarium. 7 pm. $59.95. Take pa a murder mystery and help solve the crime ab the ship while enjoying cocktails and a buffet

Topsfield Fair
207 Boston St., Topsfield (978-887-5000). topsfieldfair.org. MBTA: Commuter Rail to Han Wenham. 10 am. $10 weekday; $12 weekend. oldest agricultural fair in America returns w variety of activities, including animal exh rides and food. Through Oct. 8.



SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 29

Autumn Wine Festival
Wannalancit Mills Complex, 600 Suffolk St., L (978-771-8636). www.autumnwinefest.org. M Commuter Rail to Lowell. 6 pm. $50. 21+. Com Boston sommelier Eric Buxton for a tasting fro New England wine importers and 12 local re rants at this second annual event. Proceeds be Dracut Rotary Charities.

James W. Flett Vintage Truck and Tractor Show
Larz Anderson Auto Museum, 15 Newtor Brookline (617-522-6547). www.larzanderso 10 am. Free. Take a look at old-time truck automobiles.

2007 Beantown Jazz Festival
Columbus Ave., Boston (617-747-2658). beantownjazz.org. MBTA: Orange Line to Ru 12 pm. Free. Berkelee College of Music hos seventh Annual Beantown Jazz Festival Grammy-winning artists, food, arts and and more.

Won Buddhist Fair
7 Hill St., Somerville, (617-666-1121). ww buddhismofboston.org. MBTA: Red Line to 11:30 am. Learn about Won Buddhism an rean culture while enjoying a day of yoga, m tion, tea and other activites.

Carving for a Cure hits the Square On Mall in Saugus Sept. 30.

NDAY, SEPTEMBER 30

age and Chowda' Cruise

n Willows Park Pier, Salem (800-992-6244). .mahicruises.com. MBTA: Commuter Rail to n. 11 am. $25, adults; $12, children. Enjoy the England foliage and a complimentary bowl of chowder on this North Shore cruise.

ron Village Street Fair

n Ave., Cambridge (617-547-9604). MBTA: Line to Porter. 11 am. Free. Festivities include rides, an obstacle course, farmers' market and on show.

stering Cruise

n Willows Park Pier, Salem (800-992-6244). .mahicruises.com. MBTA: Commuter Rail to n. 2 pm. $20, adults; $12, children. Learn the of lobstering by setting and retrieving traps his interactive North Shore cruise. Also ct. 6.

kswagen Van Day

Anderson Auto Museum, 15 Newton St., kline (617-522-6547). www.larzanderson.org. n. Free. Guests of all ages will have the oppor- y to see old and new Volkswagens.

NDAY, OCTOBER 1

e Annual Psychic Fair

Witchcraft Expo

n Museum Place Mall, 176 Essex St., Salem (800-4849). www.festivalofthedead.com. MBTA: muter Rail to Salem. 10 am. Free. Join in the t this annual fair featuring tarot card readings, readings, crystal ball scrying and past-life ngs.

IDAY, OCTOBER 5

urn of Honk

s Square, Somerville (781-922-1238). www. fest.org. MBTA: Red Line to Davis. Free. Street s from around the world perform and provide oor entertainment. Through Oct. 7.

gling Bros. and Barnum ailey Circus of Dreams

Banknorth Garden, Boston (617-624-1805). .ringling.com. MBTA: Green or Orange Line to h Station. Thu. and Fri., 7 pm; Sat., 11 am, 3 7 pm; Sun., 1 and 5 pm. $15-$25; $45, VIP; front row; $100, Circus Celebrity. Enjoy the 136th edition of The Greatest Show on Earth. Through Oct. 14.

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 6

Great Glass Pumpkin Patch

Kresge Oval, 48 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-253-5309). MBTA: Red Line to Kendall/MIT. 10 am. Free. Over 1,000 hand-blown glass pumpkins are on display and on sale.

Ipswich Ale Harvest Fest

Mercury Brewing Company, 23 Hayward St., Ipswich (978-356-3329). www.mercurybrewing.com. MBTA: Commuter Rail to Ipswich. 1 pm. Free. Come and taste Ipswich Ale at the brewery and enjoy food provided by Ipswich Clambake, blues by the Orville Giddings Band and various children's activities.

SUNDAY, OCTOBER 7

Foliage and Chowda' Cruise

Salem Willows Park Pier, Salem (800-992-6244). www.mahicruises.com. MBTA: Commuter Rail to Salem. 11 am. $25, adults; $12, children. See Sept. 30 listing.

Lobstering Cruise

Salem Willows Park Pier, Salem (800-992-6244). www.mahicruises.com. MBTA: Commuter Rail to Salem. 2 pm. $20, adults; $12, children. See Sept. 30 listing.

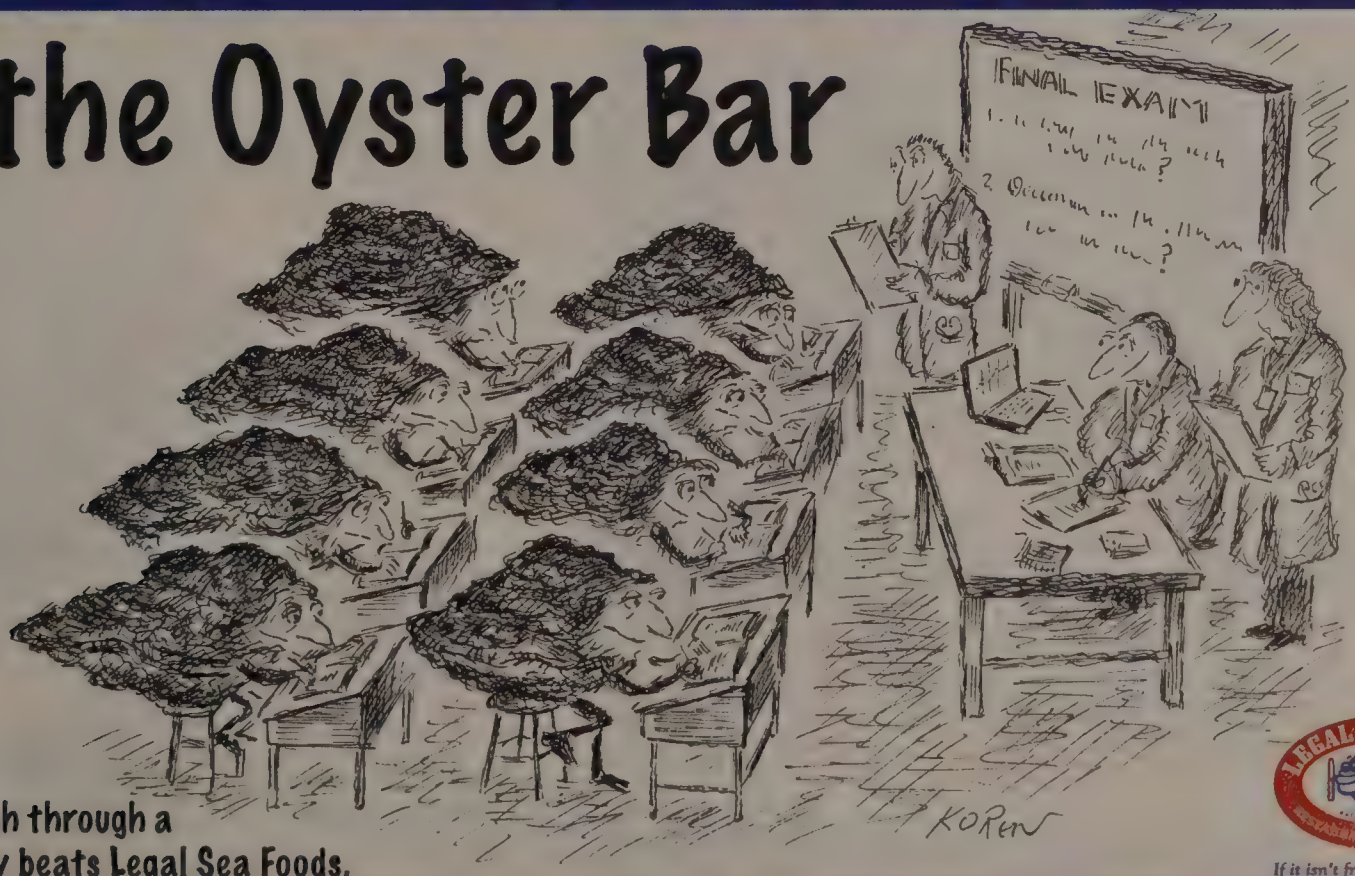
MONDAY, OCTOBER 8

Opening Our Doors

Evans Way Park, 280 The Fenway, Boston (617-437-7544). www.fenwayculture.org. MBTA: D Green Line to Fenway. 10 am. Free. Enjoy performances, restaurant samplings and other festivites in Boston's Fenway Cultural District.

Singles

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 3

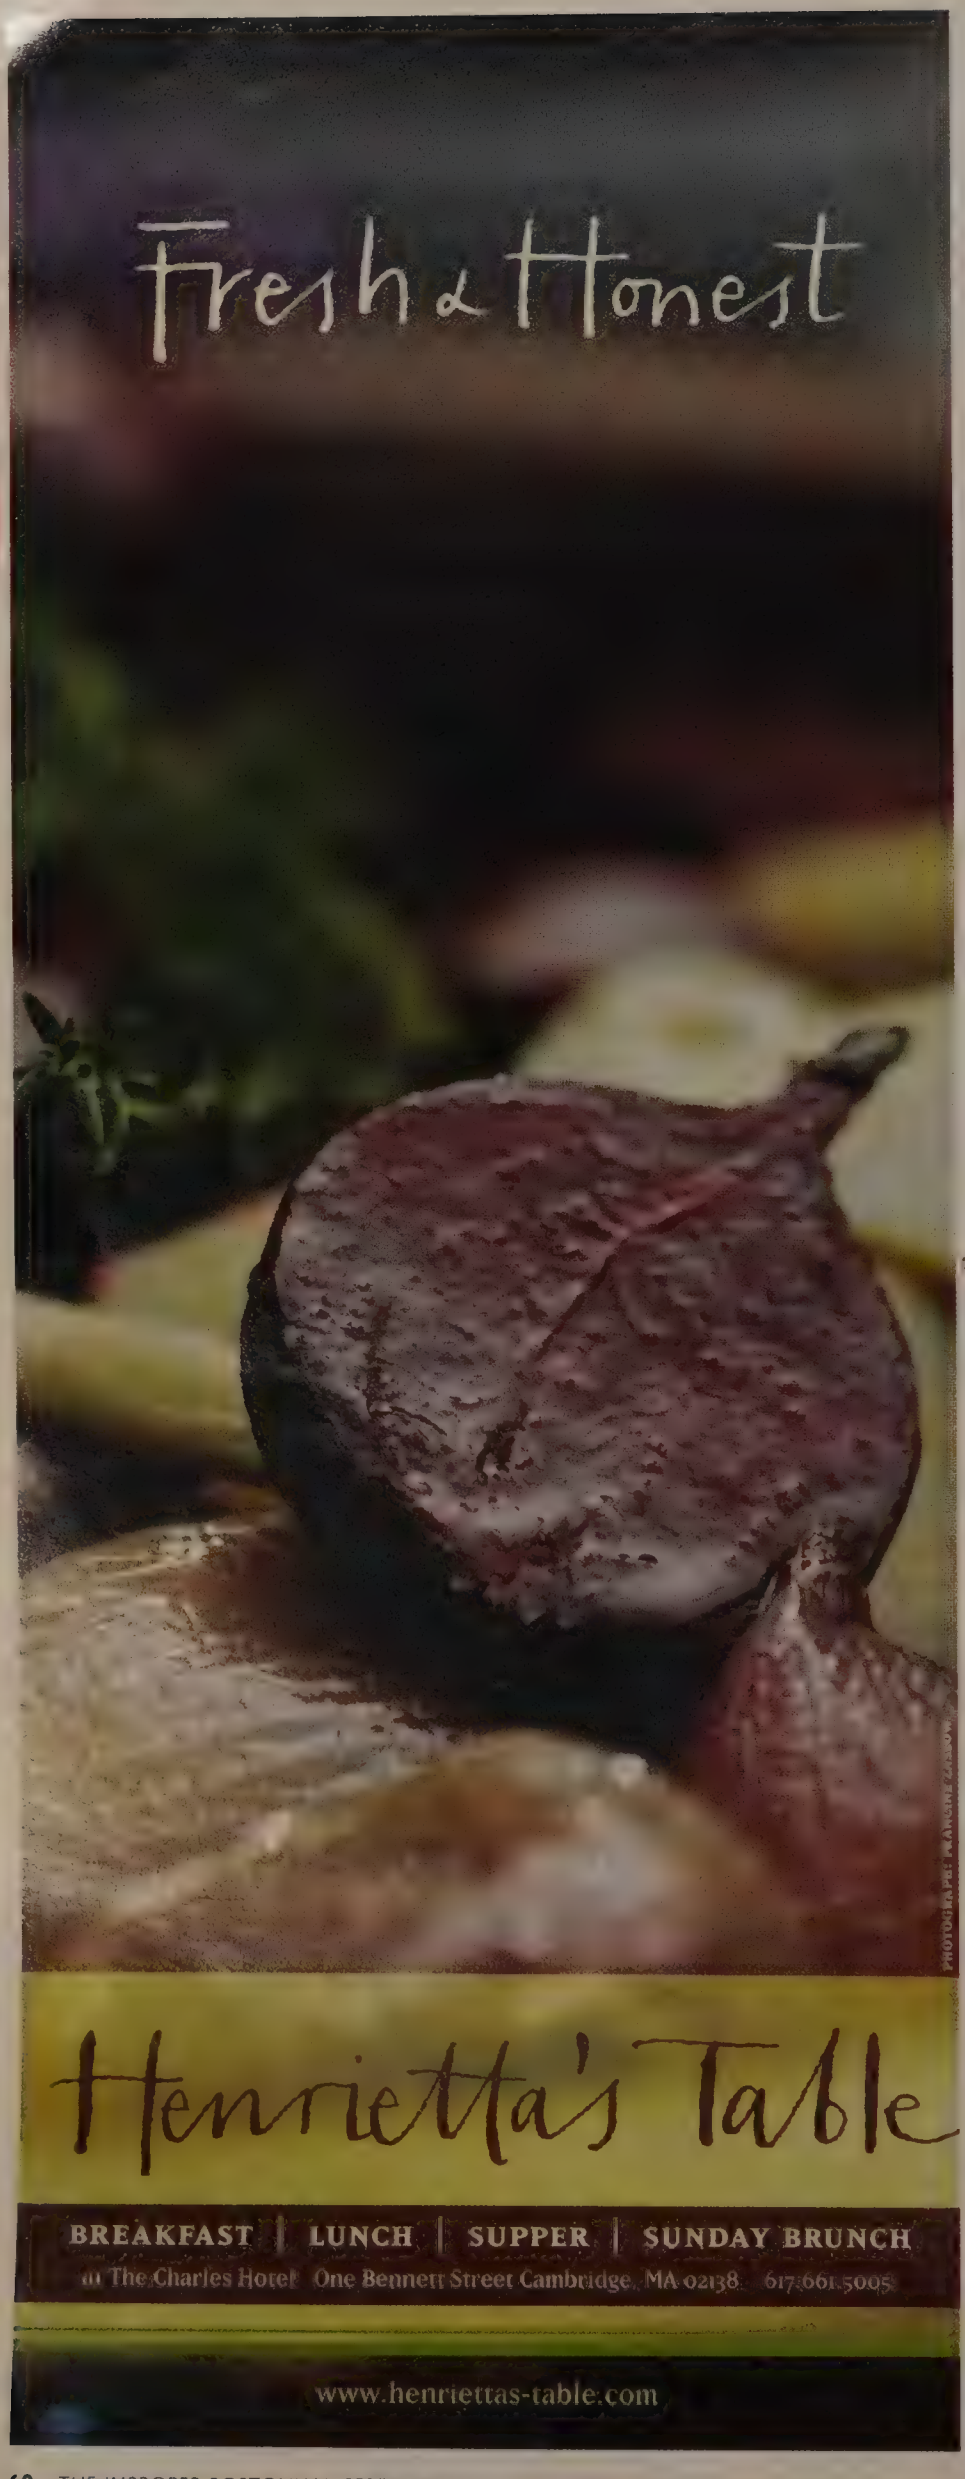


HurryDate

Charley's, 284 Newbury St., Boston (617-266-3000). MBTA: Blue or Green Line to Copley. 7 pm. $35. In this speed-dating event, women ages 30-40 and men ages 35-45 go on 10-15 five-minute dates.

LEGAL SEA FOODS

Passing the Oyster Bar



When it comes to putting shellfish through a gorous testing program, nobody beats Legal Sea Foods.

If it isn't fresh, it isn't Legal!™

Park Square • Copley Place • Prudential Center • Long Wharf • Kendall & Charles Square, Cambridge

www.LEGALSEAFOODS.com

Zanna, Don't! plays the Calderwood Pavilion at the Boston Center for the Arts through Oct

performing arts

Advice to Contributors
Submit listings by fax (617-859-1446) or mail to Calendar: Performing Arts, or e-mail performing@improper.com. Include venue address, phone number, subway stop, ticket price, dates and times, and a brief description of the event. Deadline is four weeks prior to publication. Listings cannot be accepted over the telephone.

Tickets

Ace Tickets
(800-MY-SEATS or 617-734-6666). www.acetickets.com. Tickets to sold-out shows.

Bostix
(617-723-5181). www.artsboston.org. Same-day tickets at half price.

Next Ticketing
(617-423-NEXT). www.nextticketing.com.

Out of Town Tickets
(617-247-1300 or 800-442-1854). Tickets to sold-out shows.

StubHub
www.stubhub.com. Buy and sell tickets online.

Ticket City of Boston
(617-787-2370). www.tixboston.com.

Ticketmaster
(617-931-2000). www.ticketmaster.com.

Theater and Opera

JUST OPENED

Bunraku
Cutler Majestic Theatre, 219 Tremont St., Boston (617-824-8000). www.maj.org. MBTA: Green Line to Boylston. Oct. 2 and 3. 7:30 pm. $35-$65; $20, students. Thirty-two artists from the National Puppet Theater of Japan present a multidimensional performance including puppetry, narration and music.

Mearu Caidreamh
The Boston Conservatory Mainstage Theater, 31 Hemenway St., Boston (617-536-6340). www.conservatory.edu. MBTA: Green Line to Hynes 29. 8 pm. Free. Writer and saxaphonist O'Doherty tells his semi-autobiographical through music, theater and dance.

Mortified
The Paradise Lounge, 967-969 Common Ave., Boston (617-562-8800). www.getmor com. MBTA: B Green Line to Pleasant. Sept pm. $10 in advance; $12 at the door. Listen as Bostonians dig through their diaries and sha humiliating and hilarious words of their past.

Sorry, Wrong Number!
Boston Center for the Arts, Roberts Studio Theat Tremont St., Boston (617-482-3279). www.spe stage.com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Oct. 1 7:30 pm. $60. This SpeakEasy comedic conce many of Boston's well-known theater performe their most unlikely stage roles.

Untitled Mars
MIT Museum, 265 Mass. Ave., Boston (61 2877). http://web.mit.edu/arts MBTA: Red Central. Oct. 5. 7:30 pm. This all-freshman p tion illustrates scientific predictions of wh could be like living on the Red Planet.

Waiting...
Roxbury Center for the Arts, 182-186 Dudl Roxbury (978-667-0550). www.nefringefestiva MBTA: Orange Line to Roxbury Crossing. Se 30. Sat., 4 pm; Sun., 6 pm. $10. Writer/Di John J. King unveils his collection of short p 13 mini-installments, each under 40 minutes

NOW RUNNING

The Athiest
Boston Center for the Arts, 539 Tremont St., (617-728-4321). www.bcaonline.org. MBT ange line to Back Bay. Through September. Che site for complete listings. $50. In this new com the Huntington Theatre Company, an im journalist gets wind of a sleazy political scand risks everything to get the juiciest front-page

Blue Man Group
Charles Playhouse, 74 Warrenton St., Boston 931-2787). www.blueman.com. MBTA: Gre to Boylston. Wed. and Thu., 8 pm; Fri., 7 pm; 7 and 10 pm; Sun., 2 and 5 pm. $46-$56. The lar blue trio performs an ongoing show that art, music, comedy and a lot of toilet paper.

Diptych
Elizabeth Peabody House, 277 Broadway, Som (617-297-2638). www.myspace.com/plant

27-Oct. 13. Check Web site for complete listings. $15. The Plant presents a two-person show that twines the tales of distantly connected story-s.

n Juan Giovanni
rican Repertory Theatre, 64 Brattle St., Cam-e (617-547-8300). www.amrep.org. MBTA: Line to Harvard. Through Sept. 29. Check site for complete listings. $39-$79. Dominique and's play combines Molière's masterpiece Juan with Mozart's opera Don Giovanni.

unny Thing Happened the Way to the Forum on Center for the Arts, 539 Tremont St., Boston -728-4321). www.bostontheatreworks.com. ugh Oct. 20. Check Web site for complete listings. $42. The Boston Theatre Works performs en Sondheim's musical romp through ancient e. Directed by Erick Devine.

aro
rican Repertory Theatre, 64 Brattle St., Cam-e (617-547-8300). www.amrep.org. MBTA: Red to Harvard. Through Oct. 6. Check Web site for lete listings. $39-$79. Another mix of music and ter by Dominique Serrand, this play brings to-er Beaumarchais' The Guilty Mother and art's The Marriage of Figaro with the cast from Juan Giovanni performing.

ever Plaid
h Shore Music Theatre, 62 Dunham Road, Beverly -232-7200). www.nsmt.org. Through Oct. 7. -Thu., 7:30 pm; Fri. and Sat., 8 pm. Matinees: , 1:30 pm; Sat. and Sun., 2 pm. $35-$70. This cal comedy focuses on a fictional 1950s boy l. Directed by Guy Stroman.

Girl's Guide to Chaos
t Memorial Theater, 9 Spring St., Waltham (781-9171).www.hoveyplayers.com. Through Sept. 29. . $15. Kristin Hughes directs the Hovey Players his series of vignettes about maintaining rela-ships in today's society.

osy
eham Theatre, 395 Main St., Stoneham (781-2200). www.stonehamtheatre.org. Through Sep-er. Thu., 7:30 pm; Fri., 8 pm; Sat., 4 and 8 pm; , 2 pm. $20-$40. Based on the memoirs of rease artist Gypsy Rose Lee, this musical tells tory of an overbearing stage mother determined to make her daughters into stars. Directed by Caitlin Lowans.

I Love a Piano
The Cutler Majestic Theatre, 219 Tremont St., Boston (1-800-233-3123). www.maj.org. MBTA: Green Line to Boylston. Through September. Check Web site for complete listings. $25-$65. This piano musical, choreographed and directed by Ray Roderick, honors the classic hits from Irving Berlin's 70-year career.

Man of La Mancha
Lyric Stage Company of Boston, 140 Clarendon St., Boston (617-585-5678). www.lyricstage.com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley or Orange Line to Back Bay. Through Oct. 13. Check Web site for complete listings. $15-$30. In this musical by Dale Wasserman, Miguel Cervantes and his servant Sancho perform Don Quixote in an effort to defend themselves while on trial. Directed by Spiro Veloudos.

The New England Fringe Festival
Roxbury Center for the Arts, 182-186 Dudley St., Roxbury (978-667-0550). www.nefringefestival.com. MBTA: Orange line to Roxbury Crossing. Through September. Check Web site for complete listings. $10. Actors, musicians, comics and dancers compete to be named "Fringe Favorite," with a different show every hour.

The Secret Love Life of Ophelia
Boston Playwrights' Theatre, 949 Commonwealth Ave., Boston (617-353-5443). www.bu.edu/bpt. MBTA: B Green Line to Pleasant. Sept. 30. $22-$32. Ophelia's love for Hamlet is uncovered through passionate letters in this play by Steven Berkoff.

Shear Madness
Charles Playhouse, 74 Warrenton St., Boston (617-426-5225). www.shearmadness.com. MBTA: Green Line to Boylston. Tue.-Fri., 8 pm; Sat., 6 and 9 pm; Sun., 3 and 7 pm. $38. This comedic whodunit by Paul Portner, set in a unisex hair salon, holds the record as Boston's longest-running play, with more than 10,000 local performances dating back to 1980.

Simon Says
Boston Center for the Arts, 539 Tremont St., Boston (617-728-4321). www.bcaonline.org. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. Through Sept. 29. Wed. and Thu., 7:30 pm; Fri. and Sat., 8 pm. Matinees: Sat. and Sun., 3 pm. $25; $20, seniors; $15, students. Three people at a séance find their fates are entwined in this play by Mat Schaffer. Myriam Cyr directs.

Sheraton Boston Hotel | 39 Dalton Street | Boston | 617 375 6288
Treat Yourself.
Unique. Classic.
Back Bay Restaurant and Lounge.
11am to 2am Daily

A Streetcar Named Desire

Arsenal Center for the Arts, 321 Arsenal St., Watertown (617-923-8487). www.newrep.org. Through Oct. 7. Check Web site for a complete listings. $35-$55; $7, seniors; $10, students. The New Repertory Theatre presents Tennessee Williams' Pulitzer Prize–winning play about repression and desire. Directed by artistic director Rick Lombardo.

Sxip's Hour of Charm

The Club at Zero Arrow Theatre, 2 Arrow St., Cambridge (617-547-8300). www.amrep.org. MBTA: Red line to Harvard. Through September. Fri. and Sun., 8 pm; Sat., 7 and 10 pm. $25. The Dresden Dolls' Amanda Palmer presents an eclectic mix of songwriters, circus artists, storytellers, aerialists and more.

The 39 Steps

The Huntington Theatre, 264 Huntington Ave., Boston (617-266-0800). www.huntingtontheatre.org. MBTA: E Green Line to Symphony. Through Oct.14. Check Web site for complete listings. $15-$75. This slapstick spoof of Alfred Hitchcock's classic movie hits Boston before its Broadway run. Directed by Maria Aitken.

Tick, Tick... Boom!

Arsenal Center for the Arts, 321 Arsenal St., Watertown (617-923-8487). www.newrep.org. Through Oct. 21. Check Web site for complete listings. $10-$30. The New Repertory Theatre presents Jonathan Larson's autobiographical musical about a young waiter struggling to make it as a composer in New York City.

Zanna, Don't!

Boston Center for the Arts, 539 Tremont St., Boston (617-482-3279). www.speakeasystage.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. Through Oct. 13. Wed. and Thu., 7:30 pm; Fri., 8 pm; Sat., 4 and 8 pm; Sun., 3 pm. $47 weeknights; $50 weekends. In this musical fairy tale, a teen matchmaker causes relationship chaos. Written and directed by Tim Acito.

Dance

Green Street Studios Season Fundraiser

Green Street Studios, 185 Green St., Cambridge (617-864-3191). www.greenstreetstudios.org. MBTA line to Central. Oct. 5 and 6. 8 pm. $35, Fri.; Sat. This event celebrates the studio's 16th ye alums and new talent perform two nights of d and song. Also featured are pianist Igor Tkach and soprano Michelle Trainor.

Comedy

Advice to Contributors

Submit listings by fax (617-859-1446) or mail to Calendar: Comedy, or e-mail info to com improper.com. Deadline for listings is four weeks pr publication.

SHOWS

Jim Morris and the Presidential Follies of 2008

Jimmy Tingle's Off Broadway Theater, 255 Elm Somerville (617-591-1616). www.jtoffbroadway MBTA: Red Line to Davis. Through September and Sat. 9:30 pm. $20-$25. Political impressi Jim Morris impersonates presidential candida his one-man show.

STAND-UP CLUBS

Beantown Comedy Vault

Remington's, 124 Boylston St., Boston (781 2565). www.dickdoherty.com/remsched.htm. M Green Line to Boylston. Thu.-Sun., 9 pm. $12 The Beantown Comedy Vault features local pr amateur stand-up comedians. •Sept. 27: Greg ell and Friends. •Sept. 28: Flaming Awesom prov Comedy and Stand Up. •Sept. 29: Ori Baxter and Boston Comics Standup.

Comedy Connection

Faneuil Hall Marketplace, 245 Quincy Market ing, Boston (617-248-9700). www.comedyconn boston.com. MBTA: Green or Orange Line to market. The oldest comedy club in Boston nationally known comedians on weekends showcases up-and-coming local talent durin week. •Sept. 26, 8 pm, $15: Comedy Showcase Mike McDonald. •Sept. 27, 8:30 pm, $15: Santos, "The R-Rated Hypnotist." •Sept. 28, 10:15 pm, $30: Charlie Murphy. •Sept. 29,

:15 pm, $20: Comedy Showcase with Frank ntorelli. •Sept. 30, 7 and 9:15 pm, $27: Charlie rphy. •Oct. 2, 8 pm, $15: Comedy Showcase with il Nardizzi. •Oct. 3, 8 pm, $15: Comedy Show-e with Harrison Stebbins. •Oct. 4, 8:30 pm, $15: nk Santos, "The R-Rated Hypnotist." •Oct. 5, 8 l 10:15 pm, $25: Bob Marley. •Oct. 6, 6 pm, 2.50; 8:15 and 10:30 pm, $27: Bob Marley. •Oct. 7 pm, $15: Comedy Showcase with Mike McDon-. •Oct. 9, 8 pm, $15: Showcase with Paul rdizzi.

ne Comedy Studio

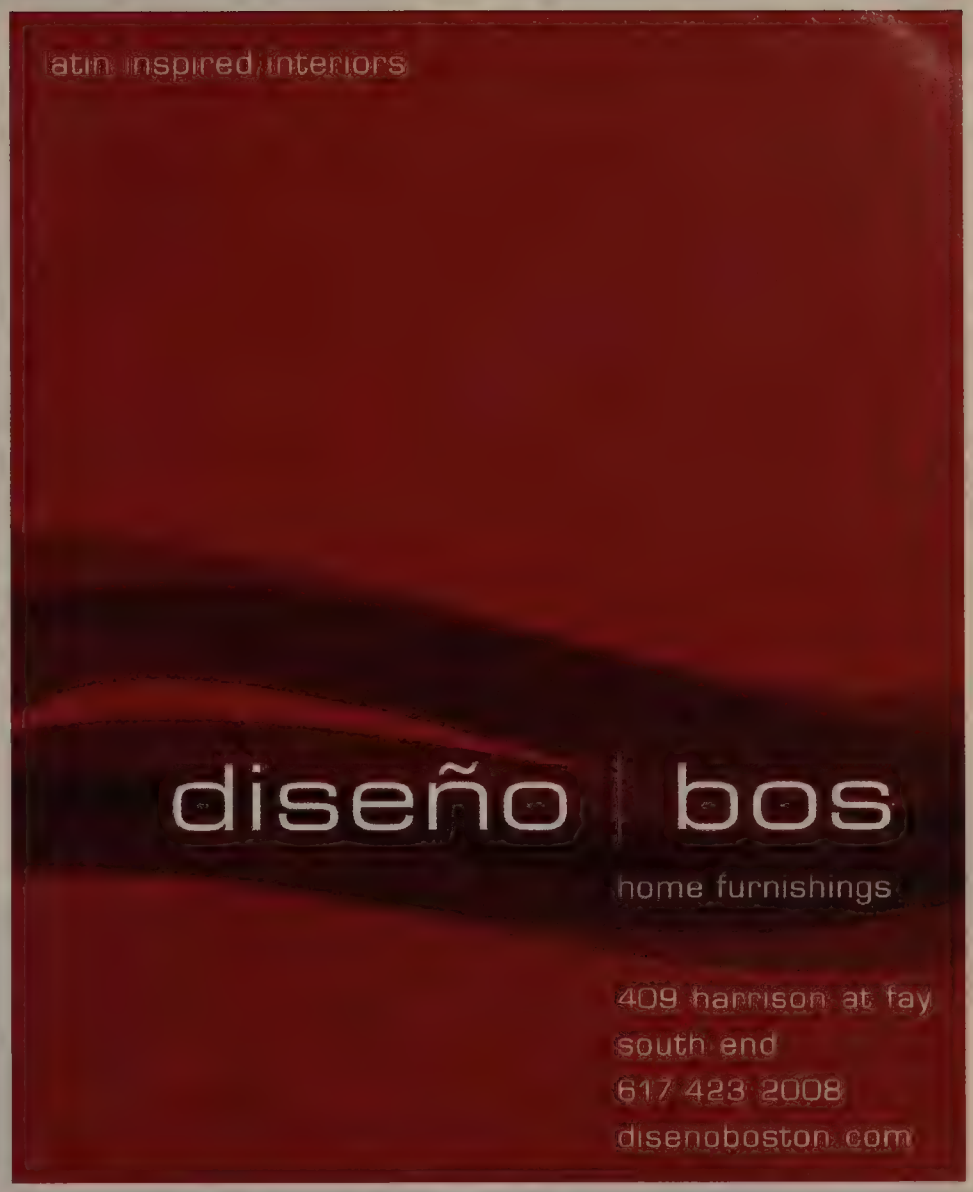
38 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-661-6507). w.thecomedystudio.com. MBTA: Red Line to Har-d. Wed.-Sun., 8 pm. $8-$10. Sketch comedy upes and local comedians perform. •Sept. 26: illia Rozzi, Ken Reid, Rick Caravan, Sarah Blod-t, Mike Bleicher, Eskunder Boyd, Kris Earle, ris Coxen, Shaun Bedgood. •Sept. 27: cah/Myq Club with Drew Spangler, Tony schetto, Giulia Rozzi, Chibuzo, Jono Zalay, ug Chagnon, Shaun Bedgood, Gerroll Bennett. ept. 28: Mike D, Mike McArthur, Shaun Bed-d. •Sept. 29: Erin Judge, Chris Oake, Mike Del no, Matt McArthur, Maggie MacDonald, Shaun dgood. •Sept. 30: A Tribe Called Sketch and ndup from Dot Dwyer, Peter Bowers and Shaun dgood.

ick's Comedy Stop

0 Warrenton St., Boston (617-423-2900). www.kscomedystop.com. MBTA: Green Line to Boylston Orange Line to New England Medical Center. Fri. d Sat., 8:30 pm. $20-$22. Now in its 24th year, e longest-running comedy club in Boston features ne-up of local and visiting comics. •Sept. 28 and Jim McCue •Oct. 5 and 6: Steve Tobin, Pete stello, Danny Kelly.

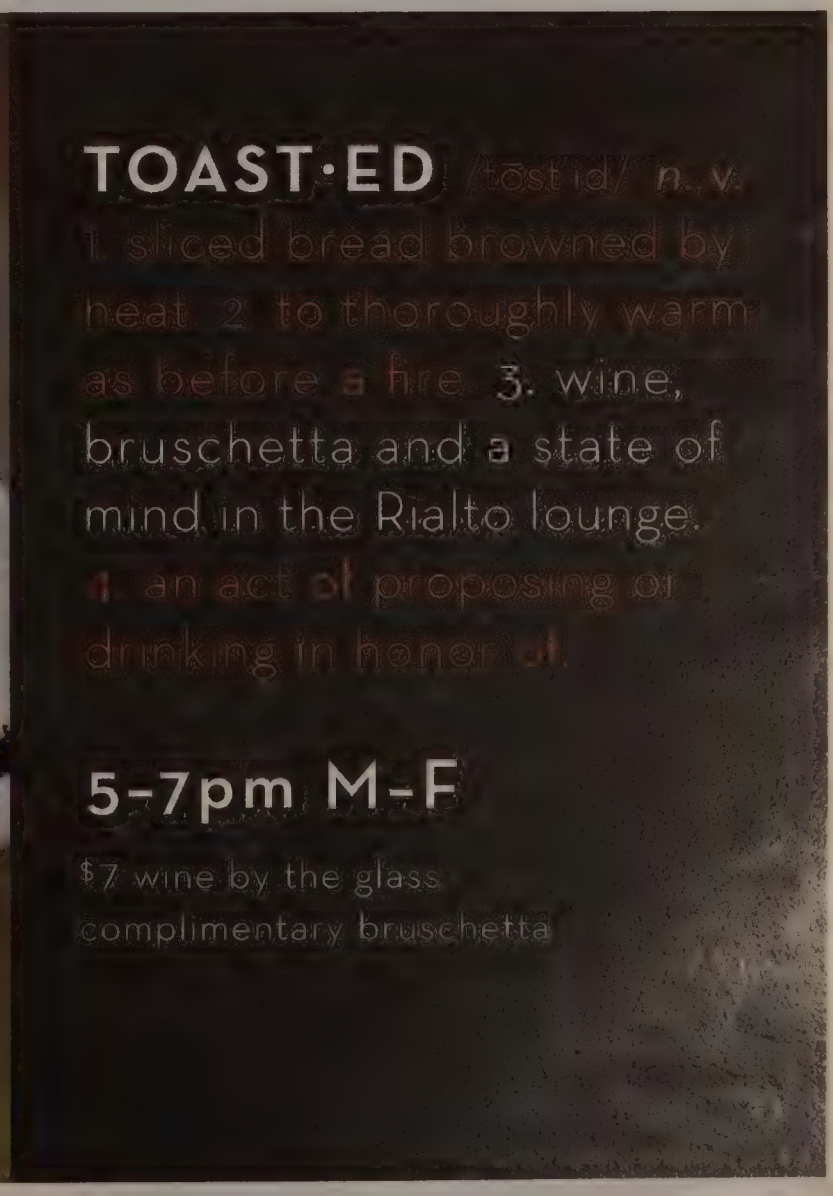
MPROV COMEDY

mprov Asylum



6 Hanover St., Boston (617-263-6887). www.provasylum.com. MBTA: Green or Orange Line to ymarket. Dinner packages available. •Wed., 8 pm, 5: Lost in Boston, or How I Learned to Love that ty Water is a comedy revue that offers both songs d scenes based on audience suggestions. •Thu., 8 ; Fri. and Sat., 8 and 10 pm, $20: It's the North End of the World as We Know It (And I Feel Fine) runs as the main stage show.

Improv Jones Boston



Arsenal Center for the Arts, 321 Arsenal St., Watertown (617-923-0100). www.improvjonesboston.com. MBTA: Red Line to Central, then #70 Bus to Western Ave. Fri., 8 pm. $10. Improv Jones Boston features improv appropriate for all ages every Friday night.

ImprovBoston

1253 Cambridge St., Cambridge (617-576-1253). www.improvboston.com. MBTA: Red Line to Central, then #83 or #91 Bus to Inman. $7-$12. Boston's longest-running improvisational comedy troupe creates everything on the spot: characters, stories, settings, songs and dances. •Wed., Oct. 3, 10 pm, $10; $5 for attendees of first two Hump shows: The Naked Comedy Showcase. Boston area comics perform standup in the nude. •Wed., 8 pm, $10; $7, students and seniors: The Hump Fringe Show. Local troupes perform a variety of improvisational shows featuring "The Dugout" and "Rush!" •Thu., 8 pm, $12; $10, students and seniors: Zebro Presents the Original Zings of Comedy. Nat Towsen and Pat Boccuzzi host this weekly variety show mixing sketch, improv and stand-up comedy with music. •Thu., 10 pm, $10; $7, students and seniors: The Great and Secret Comedy Show. Renata Tutko hosts a sketch show that incorporates video and a variety of characters. •Fri., 8 pm, $15, $10, seniors and students: Neutrino. Improv teams film scenes outside the theater and then showcase them to the audience. •Fri., 10 pm, $12; $10, seniors and students: Theatre Sports. Two teams face off in a battle for comedy supremacy. •Fri. and Sat., 11:30 pm, $5: Night Cap. A 30-minute show packed with adult-oriented stand-up, improv and sketch comedy. •Sat., 6 pm, $12; $10, seniors; $7, students and children: ImprovBoston Family Show. This short-form improvisational show is appropriate for all ages. •Sat., 8 and 10 pm, $15; $10, seniors and students: ImprovBoston Mainstage. Blending storytelling, music and audience participation, a cast of improvisers creates a show that changes with every performance. •Sun., 7 pm, $7; $5, seniors and students: The Culpepper Comedy Jam. This show features performances by local and visiting improv troupes.

Call of the Wild

Sardonic Sean Penn paints an optimistic portrait of America

BY SEAN BURNS

Upon graduating from Emory University, Christopher McCandless donated his life savings to Oxfam, burned his Social Security card, gave away all his possessions and disappeared down the highway into self-imposed obscurity. Rechristening himself Alexander Supertramp, McCandless longed to break the empty materialist shackles of modern life and to live the kind of pure existence he'd only read about in books by Tolstoy, Thoreau and Jack London. Two years later, he starved to death inside an abandoned bus, barely 20 miles from the Parks Highway in Alaska.

McCandless became the subject of Jon Krakauer's bestselling 1996 book, Into the Wild, and remains a wildly divisive figure to this day. Countless folk songs have been written hailing his journey, but just as many Alaskans will tell you he was an idiot. (I explained the story to a friend of mine, who replied simply: "Wow, white people are stupid.") Does the life and death of Christopher McCandless stand for some sort of grand, larger-than-life idealism, or just unchecked adolescent foolishness?

Emile Hirsch plays Christopher McCandless, one of literary journalism's most divisive figures

The brilliance of Sean Penn's complex, deeply felt adaptation of Into the Wild is that he allows McCandless to stand for a little bit of both. The film is a dizzying rush of excitement and yearning, but it also remains stubbornly clear-eyed. He's a hero and a chump, his folly transcendent.

This is Penn's fourth stint behind the camera, and the man's previous efforts have, shall we say, a certain gloomy disposition. Penn's 1991 directorial debut, The Indian Runner, was based on Bruce Springsteen's "Highway Patrolman," one of the most despairing tracks on Nebraska, maybe the most depressing record ever made. And 1995's The Crossing Guard found Jack Nicholson attempting to avenge the death of his daughter by killing the drunk driver (David Morse) who ran her down, but this seemingly simple revenge tale unfurled in an alcoholic haze of guilt, strippers, cigarettes and confusion. Ditto for 2001's The Pledge, in which Nicholson again sought vengeance for a murdered child, only to destroy everything he loved along the way. These are fine, largely underrated films, but the words "relentless" and "oppressive" spring to mind.

Which is why it's such a shock that Penn's adaptation of Into the Wild turns out to be such a warm, funny and life-affirming movie experience. Perhaps only a die-hard contrarian like Penn could go and make an uplifting flick about a guy starving to death, but then I guess he's never been predictable. The mood of the film is airy and dreamy, with Eric Gautier's vivid, gorgeous wide-screen photography drinking in the astounding vistas as Eddie Vedder provides a sweet, soulful soundtrack.

Emile Hirsch's McCandless is arrogant but strangely vulnerable. He might not have his head screwed on, but people can't help liking him. Neither can we. McCandless' endearingly naïve journal entries, dense with quotes from his literary heroes, serve as the narration. (This might be the first movie since Pier Paolo Pasolini's Salo: The 120 Days of Sodom to provide a bibliography in the credits.)

There's a fair amount of screen time devoted to McCandless seeking transcendence in solitude, but the soul of the movie is Penn's loving depictions of the fascinating, friendly folks our hero encounters along the way. Vince Vaughn has a wonderful, too-brief role as a grain farmer who also dabbles in a little satellite cable theft. Like just about everybody in the film, Vaughn takes a paternal interest in this wandering spirit and offers friendship and camaraderie. For a time, McCandless takes up with a pair of hippie drifters, expertly played by Catherine Keener and first-time actor Brian Dierker, who delivers a turn so genuine and note-perfect, you'll swear Penn just plucked him off the highway and dropped him in front of the camera.

But best of all is Hal Holbrook, an actor we don't see nearly enough of these days, playing a sad-eyed career military man who never seemed to realize how lonely he's been all these years until this crazy kid comes wandering into his life.

More problematic is Penn's depiction of McCandless' parents, played by William Hurt and Marcia Gay Harden. The cinematography demonizes them from the outset, as they're viewed in shallow, telephoto closeups and muddy shades of brown, which contrast with the rest of the picture's vast and colorful expanses. An alternate narration track from McCandless' sister (Jena Malone) is awkwardly scattered throughout the film and hints at a sinister family mystery that underwhelms when revealed.

But what you come away marveling at is Penn's incredibly warm and inclusive vision of America. It's a place where every stranger has a story to tell, and folks tend to look out for one another because all we've really got is eaczh other. This is a lesson McCandless sadly learns too late, but the belated epiphany is revealed in startling, daringly cinematic terms. You know, for a guy who's always accused of hating this country, Sean Penn seems awfully fond of it here. IB

Into the Wild ★★★½

Starring Emile Hirsch, Catherine Keener, Brian Dierker, Vince Vaughn, William Hurt, Marcia Gay Harden, Jena Malone, Kristen Stewart and Hal Holbrook. Based on the book by Jon Krakauer. Written and directed by Sean Penn. At Boston Common and Waltham Embassy.

New Releases

BY SEAN BURNS

Across the Universe ★
Destined to become a camp classic, the latest
dious, hagiographic salute to the 1960s by a na
gazing baby boomer is far weirder than your typ
stroll down memory lane. Newton native Julie mor has fashioned a visually berserk, deathly ear musical entirely consisting of Beatles songs sung cast of attractive moppets muttering hippy-di
chestnuts, eventually realizing that, yes, all you n
is love. There's little in the way of story or chara
just a lot of Forrest Gump–ish historical signp
and laughable interpretations of Lennon and Cartney lyrics. All these kids have names like J
Lucy, Prudence and Sadie, and the only suspe
comes from trying to guess when Taymor will sl
horn in the next awkward sing-along. It's a c pletely humorless, self-important affair that fir hits rock bottom once Bono turns up as a Ken K
wannabe to preach the wonders of LSD and wa something about being the walrus. The U2 fr man looks so uncomfortable onscreen, I spent
the number thinking he was Robin Williams.
Boston Common, Fenway and in the suburbs.)

The Assassination of Jesse James b
the Coward Robert Ford ★★★★
By turns mesmerizing, maddening and maste
writer-director Andrew Dominik's bleak, hypn
triumph is unlike anything you'll see this year
owes more to druggy, fatalistic '70s anti-West
like Robert Altman's McCabe and Mrs. Miller
Sam Peckinpah's Pat Garrett and Billy the Kid
any traditional horse opera. Brad Pitt deliver scariest, saddest performance yet as the notor railroad bandit slowly rotting away thanks to p noia and the heavy psychic toll of his outsized r tation. There's also a revelatory turn from Casey fleck as the title's scaredy-cat who's dangerc obsessed with dime novels and James Gang fant
and sorely unequipped to handle anything re bling reality. Sumptuously photographed by great Roger Deakins as a painterly procession o gering, forbidding landscapes that often threate swallow our characters whole, The Assassinati Jesse James blossoms into a moving, often si comic meditation on the power of myth, with t small men standing helpless before a giant i orable tide of American legend. Long, but purp fully so, the movie haunts your dreams. (Opens 5 at Boston Common.)

The Bourne Ultimatum ★★★★
As propulsive, brilliantly assembled and bre
lessly paced as any action picture I've seen, third and finest chapter in this superior spy finds Matt Damon's amnesiac assassin hea home to New York City to put together the f harrowing puzzle pieces of his lost identity. U 93 director Paul Greengrass shoots exclusi with handheld cameras, supercharging the in cably choreographed cat-and-mouse seque with a jittery, you-are-there immediacy. As alv Damon deftly underplays, communicating character's inner torment strictly through his s physicality and haunted stare. Joan Allen ret as a jaded CIA operative who becomes Bou
most unlikely ally, this time butting heads
David Strathairn's oily armchair warrior. T
Bourne pictures have shrewdly updated Ro
Ludlum's Cold War novels for our more distru troubled times and seethe with a profound lo faith in our leaders. There's also a harsh n severity at work—the killings hurt and carry them a tremendous psychological price. Th classy, sophisticated entertainment for adults an outstanding example of sheer, brute-f craftsmanship. (At Boston Common, Fen Harvard Square and in the suburbs.)

Feast of Love ★★
Someday I hope Morgan Freeman will be allow just act in a movie without also having to narra
But I guess it's tough for any filmmaker to ladling that gravelly voice of wisdom over soundtrack, particularly when the material is as and meandering as director Robert Benton's l weight adaptation of Charles Baxter's book.
man stars as a friendly professor in a college who watches from his favorite local coffee shop variety of less interesting characters fall in an of love. Some get married, some get divorced everybody has a lot of sex as soft adult contemp music plays in the background. Greg Kinnea likeable dim bulb who falls for a lesbian (S Blair) and a harlot (Radha Mitchell) as Free laughs and shakes his head sagely. The flat dire and uninspired visuals feel more like a cable

Of course it tastes better than other beers. We've had over 600 years to get the recipe right. Our esteemed brewery has been producing beer in Leuven since 1366. Which means we've been around a bit longer than most. Mind you, over the years our beer has witnessed the odd change or two. For instance, our customers no longer drink it to ward off the Plague, as they used to in medieval times. However, one thing has stayed the same after all these years. Stella Artois is still painstakingly brewed in a time-honored tradition with the choicest ingredients. Which is why our customers have kept coming back for more, even after 600 years.

ANNO 1366
STELLA ARTOIS

fection has its price.

Always Enjoy Responsibly. www.stellaartois.com

© 2006 Imported by InBev USA, Norwalk, CT.

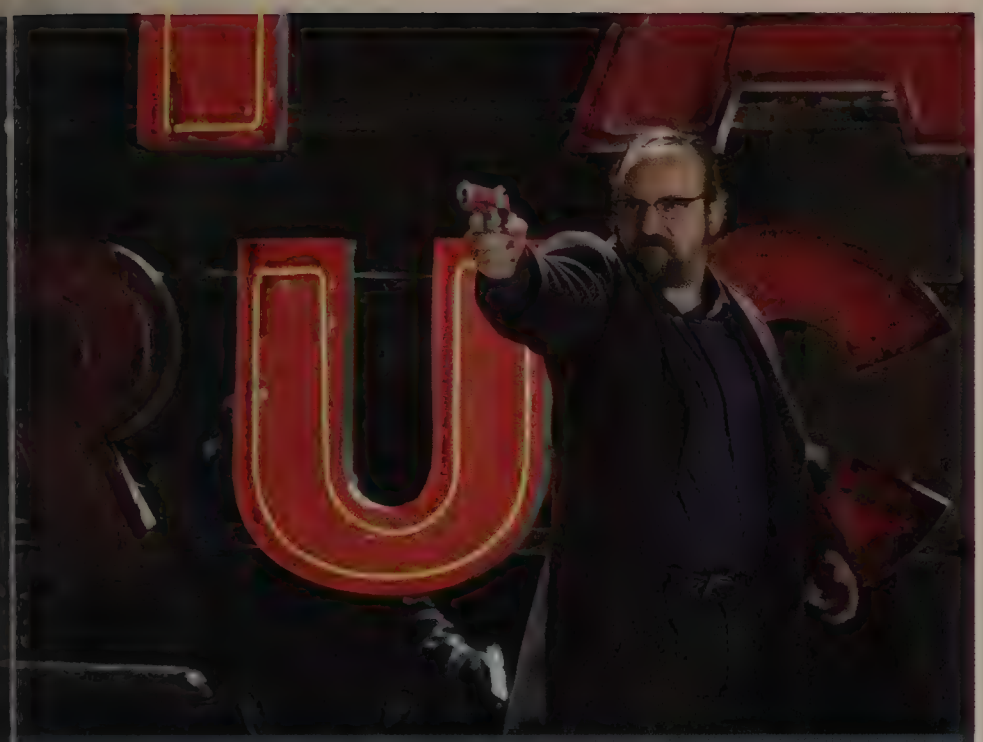
than a theatrical feature. Sure, these seem like swell people, but that doesn't explain why anybody would make a movie about them. (At Boston Common, Fenway and in the suburbs.)

Hairspray ★★★

A bouncy, unexpected delight, this vibrant adaptation of the hit Broadway musical—itself a reworking of John Waters' subversive 1992 dance-a-thon—might be the summer's sweetest surprise. Newcomer Nikki Blonsky stars as Tracy Turnblad, a hefty hoofer dedicated to breaking the color barrier on Baltimore's hottest local dance show. Facing off against Michelle Pfeiffer's slatternly racist station manager, Tracy enlists a marvelous supporting cast of progressively minded misfits and outcasts to take a stand for inclusiveness during an exclusionary era. The improbably touching John Travolta dons drag as Tracy's morbidly obese mother, Edna. Though the gigantic fat suit and outlandish accent take some getting used to, Travolta's daring, committed performance grows on you, culminating in a lovely duet with his hubby, Christopher Walken. Ditching the recent trend in movie musicals of overediting every number into incoherence, director/choreographer Adam Shankman favors wide angles and long shots, allowing us to actually see and appreciate the sheer infectiousness of these bopping bodies in motion. (In the suburbs.)

Halloween ★★½

Though an unnecessary project from the get-go, director Rob Zombie's remake of John Carpenter's 1978 slasher standard-bearer boasts sequences of genuine inspiration and several serious chills. The fine first hour fills in the stark childhood of Michael Myers as the Haverhill-born filmmaker revels in his own peculiar rotgut sensibility and exudes a strange empathy for the wonder years of his young serial killer. As in his astonishing 2005 opus, The Devil's Rejects, Zombie skillfully manipulates questions of audience identification and muddies the waters between good and evil to a fairly disturbing degree. Miles away from the panty-sniffing torture-porn that's currently all the rage, the killings in Zombie's films have hideous moral weight and consequence, which is why the second half of Halloween is such a disappointment. Dropping all the personal flourishes to become an almost shot-for-shot clone of the Carpenter flick, the movie trashes all our hard-e sympathies for this particular devil. It ends up another pile of dead teenagers, when it was so much more. (At Boston Common, Fenway the suburbs.)



Harry Potter and the Order of the Phoenix ★★★½

The Harry Potter films thus far have felt like a tion of tie-in products dutifully recreating body's favorite scenes as if genuflecting befo Stations of the Cross. But now, four sequels in saga, it finally feels like we're watching an hon god movie. Forced to slash JK Rowling's un 870-page novel to a trim two hours and chan rector David Yates and screenwriter Michael enberg have at last reconceived the Potter-v purely cinematic terms. They scrapped all that ditch nonsense and zero in on Harry's adol struggle to wrap his still-forming mind arou fallibility of authority figures, the finality of and the stinking unfairness of how the world works. It's a surprisingly dark and violent com age tale, and Yates finds some nifty visual paral the character's inner journey. Young Daniel R is growing into the role quite nicely, and th overqualified supporting cast in history again with extra kudos going to Gary Oldman, Alar man and Imelda Staunton's fascist schoolma the suburbs.)

The King of Kong: A Fistful of Quarters ★★★½

Seth Gordon's weirdly thrilling documentary audience favorite at this year's Independer Festival of Boston. It's easy to see why. After on-his-luck Steve Wiebe got laid off from hi Boeing, he bought a retro Donkey Kong m and started playing every day. A lot. It was long before Steve had topped the game's a high score, a record set in 1982 by gaming superstar and hot sauce tycoon Billy Mitch the story unspools, it's fascinating, and more little sad, to see how this deeply cloistered ture rallies to keep Wiebe out of the record The pompous, arrogant Mitchell dodges eve of a head-to-head competition and uses his j hero status and some underhanded tactics ginalize his good-natured challenger. It's t imagine getting worked up by a movie

Paul Giamatti lets fly in the over-the-top action flick Shoot 'Em Up petitive Donkey Kong, but the film becomes a usly affecting, Rocky-ish salute to the underdog. on the edge of my seat. (At Kendall Square.)

Nanny Diaries ★★

sio coincidence that one of the characters is ced reading The Devil Wears Prada in Shari ger Berman and Robert Pulcini's club-footed ration of this other chick-lit staple. Flirting savage satire only to consistently retreat to tereotyping, the movie stars Scarlett Johans- s a confused college grad who accidentally be- s nanny to a cloying little sprite of Upper East royalty and is forced to endure the abuse of the entitled harridan mother (Laura Linney) and t, horndog dad (Paul Giamatti). Linney is too ul an actress to go for easy caricature, and be- a scary, lacquered-on smile she gives her ered Manhattan mom an undertone of gen- suffering that the movie doesn't quite know o handle. A dark passage in Nantucket hints e picture this might have been, but Berman ulcini cop out with a lot of broad, fourth-wall ing devices and a frustrating anti-climax. her smoky voice and lazy mannerisms, Jo- on has all the wrong energy for bumbling slap- which deflates the comic set-pieces around At Boston Common, Fenway, Harvard Square n the suburbs.)

h Hour 3 ★½

e sorry tradition of Beverly Hills Cop III, here's er of those years-late, breathakingly lazy three- in which everybody involved carries on as if ve already earned their massive paychecks sim- y showing up. Jackie Chan and Chris Tucker again play mismatched cop buddies, and once both men seem to be competing in some pri- wager to see who can do more damage to the sh language. Jeff Nathanson's screenplay, which lly more a collection of arbitrary twists and un- ated set pieces, sends the bickering duo to Paris rch of a mythical Triad boss. I guess a $150 mil- udget doesn't buy what it used to. Thanks to Ratner's limp, functional direction, the City of s looks more like a Hollywood backlot. Chan eems tired, and his acrobatic hijinks are more l than inspiring. Tucker does what he always squeal, yap and ad-lib with no regard for char- his co-stars, or what's happening around him. oston Common, Fenway and in the suburbs.)

ot 'Em Up ★★★

exuberant, trashy, low-rent romp sends up action movie cliché and then some. Clive stars as a glowering, homeless Man With No who rescues an infant from the clutches of iamatti's miserable, henpecked hitman. For ents and purposes, this is just the lead-heavy, endangered last half-hour of John Woo's Boiled stretched out to feature length, but di- Michael Davis has no shortage of absurd eces and stages the nonstop shoot-outs where from midair to midcoitus. You'll be re- d of Looney Tunes even before Owen ps a carrot and asks, "What's up, Doc?" This f slap-happy nonsense obviously isn't for all nces, and it's probably not much fun if you're or an adult. Still, the overqualified cast ap- proaches the material with straight-faced conviction, and as the film is breathlessly paced at a short and sweet 80 minutes, the joke doesn't have time to grow stale. How can one dislike a movie in which international superstar Monica Bellucci plays a lactating prostitute nicknamed "the Dairy Queen"? (At Boston Common, Fenway and in the suburbs.)

The Simpsons Movie ★★½

A television institution, which even the most devoted fan must admit is now well past its prime, Matt Groening's dysfunctional cartoon clan makes their big-screen debut in a feature that feels at least nine years late and a few jokes short. I don't suppose there's anything particularly wrong with The Simpsons Movie, save maybe the nagging sensation of familiarity, if not contempt, and a little bit of boredom. The trademark gags arrive densely packed during the film's first 20 minutes or so, but then thin considerably after an unwieldy plot turn sends the family scattering off to Alaska. Probably a matter of logistics, the sprawling supporting cast gets precious little screen-time, but the renewed focus on our main characters earns a couple of unexpected emotional dividends. Still, when all is said and done, The Simpsons Movie feels like watching two or three episodes back-to-back—hardly an unpleasant experience, but maybe not worth a trip to the theater. (In the suburbs.)

Stardust ★★★

In his Sandman comics, as well as the terrific novel Good Omens, writer Neil Gaiman is at his best when he's grounding supernatural concepts in banal workaday realities. There's a droll, understated comedy to Gaiman's enchanted realms, and director Matthew Vaughn's adaptation of his Stardust nails this tricky tone better than one probably had any right to expect. This fractured fairy tale stars Claire Danes as a star who has plummeted to Earth and possesses certain celestial properties sought by a rogue's gallery of villains and tricksters—most notably Michelle Pfeiffer's vamping wicked witch. Charlie Cox is the bumbling swashbuckler who comes to our damsel's rescue, and these two bicker their way, screwball-style, through an episodic collection of inventive set-pieces and throwaway gags. Danes is a bit awkward for her role, but the supporting cast runs away with the film, particularly a revitalized Robert De Niro as a fearsome pirate with a secret. Sometimes Stardust gets sloppy, but there's plenty of life and imagination in the margins. (At Boston Common and in the suburbs.)

Sunshine ★★½

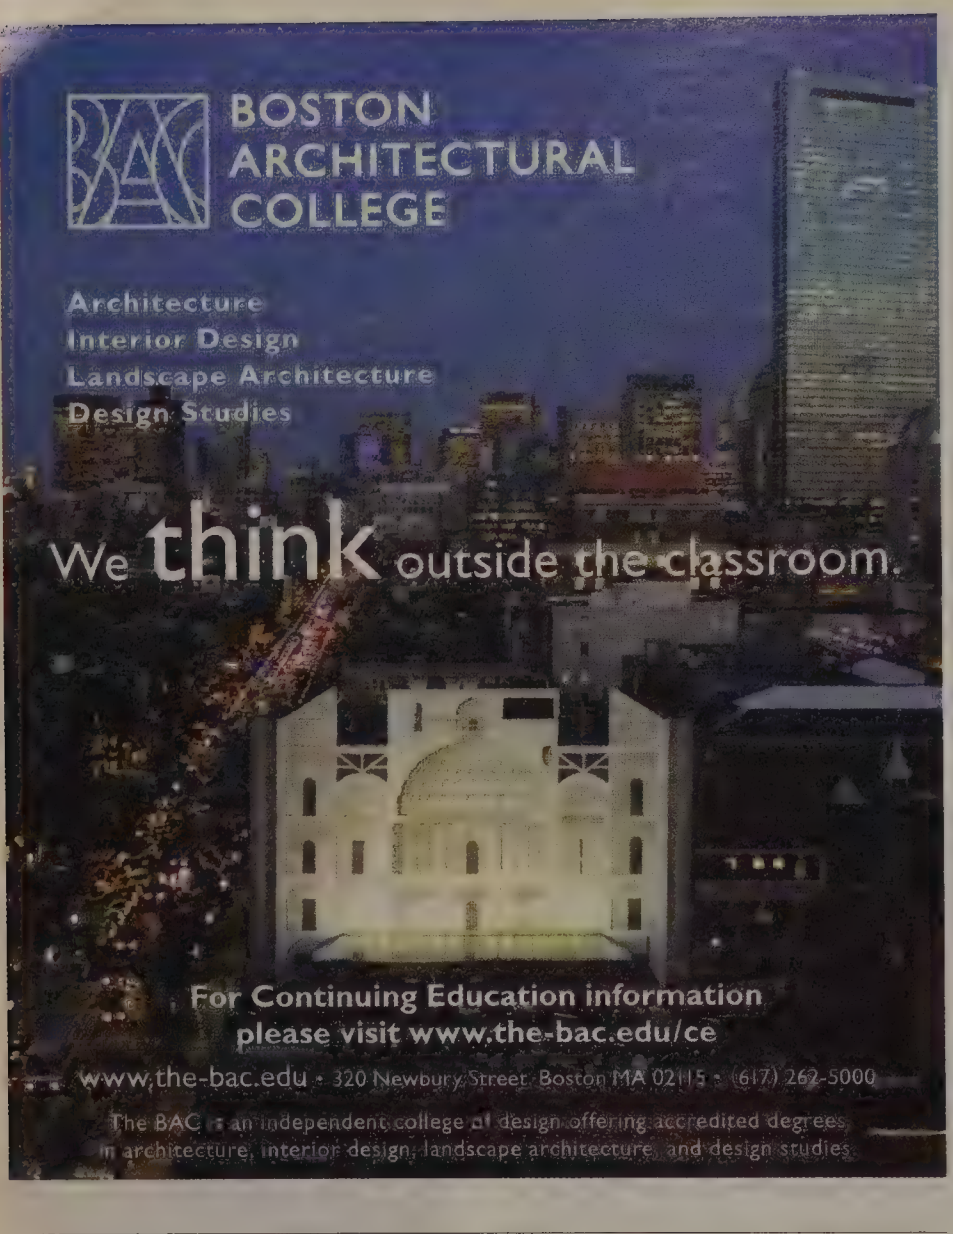
There's maybe half a great movie to be found in director Danny Boyle's somber, initially enthralling sci-fi head-trip. Set 50 years in the future, the movie follows a bickering band of astronauts during a treacherous attempt to jumpstart our faltering sun. Just as Boyle and screenwriter Alex Garland synthesized half a century's worth of cinematic zombie lore in their terrific 28 Days Later, Sunshine shoplifts hefty chunks from 2001, Solaris, Alien and even Mission to Mars. Meditative and methodical, the film's first hour is distinguished by its chilly, adult tone and the controlled, striking compositions of cinematographer Alwin H. Kuchler. But there's a daring conceptual gambit by Boyle that doesn't quite come off: As the mission begins to fall apart, so goes the picture's visual fabric. Thus, as the plausible malfunctions are replaced by an outlandish killer-in-the-house twist, Kuchler's sumptuously slow dolly shots go all herky-jerky handheld, the last reel spazzing completely out of control alongside the spaceship itself, until Sunshine finally collapses into a deliberately disorienting light-show. (In the suburbs.)

Superbad ★★★½

2007 is going to go down in history as the summer that Judd Apatow and Seth Rogen saved American comedy. On the heels of their triumphant Knocked Up comes the funniest and most down-to-Earth high school movie since Fast Times at Ridgemont High. Superbad stars the blisteringly profane Jonah Hill as a kid whose entire sexual education has come from dubious sources on the Internet, while Arrested Development's Michael Cera tags along as his sidekick—a gentle young man who doesn't seem to have figured out how to work his body just yet. It's a long, wild night of misadventures as this less-than-dynamic duo and their brilliantly squirmy friend Fogell (Christopher Mintz-Plasse) attempt to score some liquor and seduce their dreamgirls. The intricate gag constructions devised by Rogen and his writing partner, Evan Goldberg, spin from disasters to delights and then back again. These characters keep finding ways to surprise us with improbable, but quite genuine, pangs of pathos, even as you can't believe what you're hearing. (At Boston Common, Fenway and in the suburbs.)

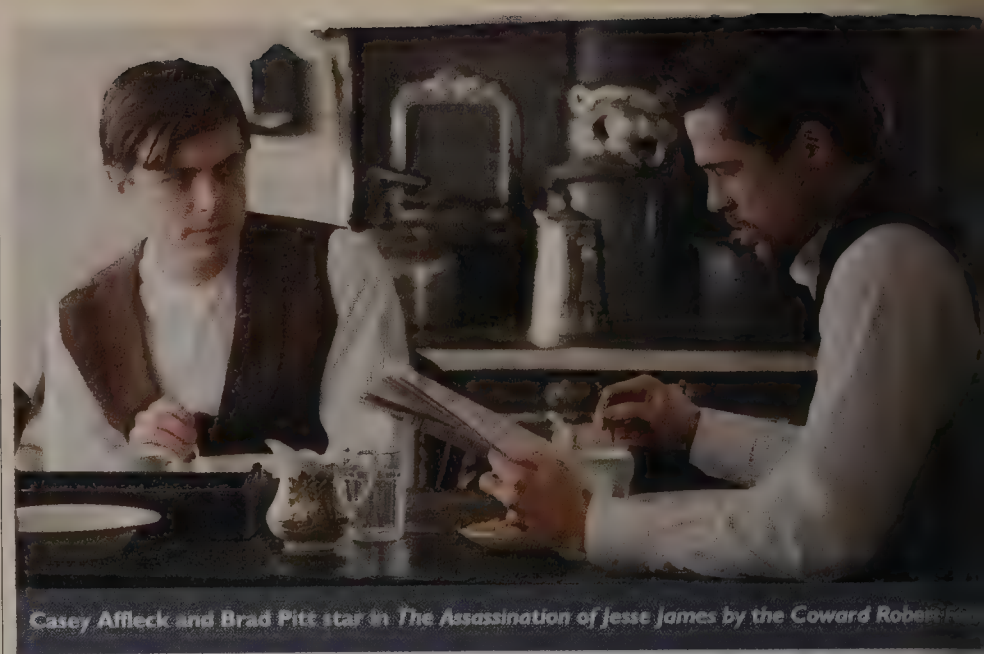
3:10 to Yuma ★★★

Christian Bale gives yet another ferociously committed performance as a down-on-his luck rancher who finds himself guarding Russell Crowe's silver-tongued stage coach robber. In the time-honored tradition of every man's-gotta-do-what-a-man's-gotta-do horse opera (yep, another one), local lawmen and crooked railroad types turn tail and scatter. But our hero doesn't shake so easy. Crowe's sly, playful performance bounces beautifully off Bale's intensity, poking and prodding, trying to find a crack in the armor. Doesn't every man have a price? Running a half-hour longer than the 1957 original, Walk the Line director James Mangold's remake pads a terse, dialogue-driven narrative with poorly staged chase scenes and shootouts that the film's meager budget can't quite handle. But even all the obvious flaws can't detract from the pure pleasure of watching these two actors have a blast circling and sniffing each other out, each trying to figure out what makes the other guy tick. (At Boston Common, Fenway and in the suburbs.)



2 Days in Paris ★★★

The enchanting Julie Delpy makes her directorial debut and stars in this very funny, if slightly uneven, culture-clash farce that follows a bickering young couple's strained 48 hours in the city of light. Just don't expect the dreamy romanticism of the similarly structured Delpy vehicle Before Sunset, as here she and real-life ex Adam Goldberg mine all sorts of awkward and uncomfortable comedic scenarios that present Paris as swarming with psycho cabdrivers, elderly nymphomaniacs and sleazy former lovers lurking around every corner. A muscled, tattooed Goldberg borrows Woody Allen's timing and delivery as he plays a jittery hypochondriac aghast at the parade of exes Delpy's loopy photographer keeps bumping into. Surprisingly enough, 2 Days in Paris sports almost as many penis jokes as Superbad, as well as the inspired use of an arsonist, vegan guardian angel. Delpy's use of handheld cameras and jump cuts pay cheeky homage to the French New Wave, but occasionally the filmmaking becomes so frazzled you wish she'd back off just a bit. (At Kendall Square and Waltham Embassy.)



War ★

As a centuries-old feud between Chinese Triads and the Japanese Yakuza spills over onto the streets of San Francisco, Jet Li's mysterious assassin plays both sides against the middle, much to the consternation of Jason Statham's grizzled FBI agent. It sounds like the perfect recipe for a trashy pulp delight, but director Philip G. Atwell botches the opening moments and then never recovers as he drowns the material in overwrought posturing and incompetently staged fight sequences. The shoddy camerawork keeps denying us a clear view of Jet Li's physical grace, which leaves the poor guy stranded with only his dubious acting and pip-squeaky voice. Statham's one of the more amusing hard-asses in movies right now, but you'd never guess as much from his character's anguished overemoting and tiresome histrionics. Not even a few gonzo plot developments can make much of an impression, as Atwell spends all his energy lingering on expensive cars and fancy fashions. It's one of

Casey Affleck and Brad Pitt star in The Assassination of Jesse James by the Coward Robert

those movies that feels like a trailer for itself. (In the suburbs.)

Special Events

Boston Palestine Film Festival

Various theaters throughout Boston. www.bostonpalestinefilmfest.org. Sept. 29-Oct. 7. Tawassul, the organization dedicated to Palestinian arts and culture, presents a series of Palestinian films. The festival also features opening and closing parties, director and cast appearances, and film-related discussions with international guests. See Web site for event schedule and details.

Coolidge Corner Feast of Flesh

Coolidge CornerTheatre, 290 Harvard St., Brookline (617-734-2500). www.coolidge.org. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. Sept. 29, 12 am. $10. Real-life undertaker J. Cannibal hosts an evening of zombie-themed music from Bad Ash, prizes and a performance by Black Hat Burlesque. Immediately following, Sam Raimi directs The Evil Dead 1981, about a group of teenagers trying to survive a terrifying night in the woods.

An Evening With Jana Sevcíková

Harvard Film Archive, 24 Quincy St., Cambridge (617-495-4700). http://hcl.harvard.edu/hfa. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. Oct. 1, 7 pm. $8, general admission; $6, seniors, students and Harvard faculty members. The Harvard Film Archive presents two films by Jana Sevcíková, who'll be present for questions and a discussion. Sevcíková directs Jakub 1992, about one man's life in a marginalized Romanian community. In Czech with English subtitles. Immediately following, Sevcíková directs Staroverci (Old Believers) 2001, about a small town whose religious residents have preserved the language and tradition of their immigrant ancestors.

Global Voices Film Festival

Brattle Theatre, 40 Brattle St., Cambridge (617-876-6837). www.bostonfilms.org. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. Sept. 28-30. $9.50, single screening; $75, festival pass. The Brattle opens its doors for a weekend-long festival of films from around the world. Many screenings feature filmmaker appearances and discussions. See Web site for event schedule and details.

Manhattan Short Film Festival

Museum of Fine Arts, 465 Huntington Ave., Boston (617-267-9300). www.mfa.org. MBTA: E Green Line to Museum. Sept. 29, 5 pm. $9, general admission; $8, members, seniors and students. The festival receives 700 short film entries from 45 countries, and only 12 will be screened at cinemas around the globe. Audience members get to vote on the winner. See Web site for event schedule and details.

Repertories and Revivals

Advice to Contributors

Submit film listings by fax (617-859-1446), mail to Calendar: Film or e-mail to film@improper.com. Deadline is four weeks prior to publication.

BOSTON PUBLIC LIBRARY

Westerns of the 1950s

•Oct. 1, 6 pm. Winchester '73 1950. After winning a shooting contest, a man chases the outlaw who steals his prized rifle. Anthony Mann directs.

BRATTLE THEATRE

•Oct. 1, 5:15 and 10 pm. Edgar Wright dire Shaun of the Dead 2004, about one man's attem to survive in zombie-infested England.

•Oct. 2, 2:45 and 7:30 pm. Nochnoy Dozor (N Watch) 2004. Forces of night and day maintain a b ance of power, until a leader on each side tries to ta over. Timur Bekmambetov directs. In Russian wi English subtitles.

•Oct. 2, 5 and 9:45 pm. Dnevnoy Dozor (D Watch) 2006. A man seeks to restore life to po apocalyptic Moscow. Timur Bekmambetov direc In Russian with English subtitles.

•Oct. 3, 3 and 7:30 pm. Danny Boyle directs Days Later 2002, about a virus that transfo people into violent monsters.

Comedy on The Road

•Oct. 5, 5:15, 7:30 and 9:45 pm; Oct. 6, 12 p Victor Flemming directs The Wizard of Oz 19 about a Kansas girl's attempts to return home fr a world of flying monkeys and wicked creatures.

•Oct. 7, 2, 5 and 8 pm. It's a Mad Mad Mad M World 1963. Unwitting contestants race each oth to find a hidden treasure. Stanley Kramer directs •Oct. 8, 3:15 and 7:15 pm. Frank Capra direct Happened One Night 1934, about a spoiled upp class woman who falls in love with a journalist.

•Oct. 8, 5:30 and 9:30 pm. Love on the Run 19 A reporter helps a beautiful heiress escape fr her wedding, only to be pursued by spies. WS Dyke directs.

•Oct. 9, 7:15 pm. Preston Sturges directs P Beach Story 1942, about a woman who tries to le her husband by running away to Florida.

•Oct. 9, 5:30 and 9:15 pm. Clyde Bruckman dire The General 1927, about a love-struck conduct forced into action when his train is hijacked, alo with the object of his affection.

HARVARD FILM ARCHIVE

Colossal Works: The Films of Pedro Costa

•Sept. 28, 7 pm. Casa de Lava (House of Lava) 19 A nurse races against a soon-to-erupt volcano to h sickly island residents. Pedro Costa directs. In P tuguese with English subtitles.

•Sept. 28, 9:30 pm. Pedro Costa directs Ne Cha Rien (Change Nothing) 2005, about an actress' je ney from her dressing room to center stage. French with English subtitles. Immediately follo ing, Costa directs O Sangue (The Blood) 19 about a teacher trying to protect two young boys Portuguese with English subtitles.

•Sept. 29, 5 pm. Ossos (Bones) 1997. This film i first in a series exploring the impoverished t tuguese town of Las Fontainhas, focusing teenage couple and their newborn child. Costa rects. In Portuguese with English subtitles.

•Sept. 29, 8 pm. Costa directs In Vanda's Ro 2000, the second film about Las Fontainhas, fea ing two drug addicts and their daily lives.

•Sept. 30, 3 pm. Jean-Marie Straub and Dan Huillet direct Sicilia! 1999, about a man who ret to Sicily after many years and the conversation has with former friends and family. In Italian w English subtitles. Immediately following, Costa rects 6 Bagatellas 2001, a collection of six un scenes from his film Where Does Your Hidden S Lie?. In Portuguese with English subtitles. Imm ately following, Costa directs Where Does Your H den Smile Lie? 2001, which follows Jean-M Straub and Danièle Huillet as they edit and fin their film Sicilia! In French with English subtitles

•Sept. 30, 7:30 pm. Costa directs Colossal Youth 2006, the final film focusing on Las Fontainhas, which follows a young man moving from his rundown home to a new housing complex in Lisbon.

New Romanian Cinema

•Oct. 5, 7 pm. The Paper Will Be Blue 2006. A renegade Romanian soldier is tracked down by his former unit. Radu Muntean directs. In Romanian with English subtitles.

•Oct. 5, 9 pm. Maria Dinulescu directs Traffic 2004, a short film about an urban businessman. In Romanian with English subtitles. Immediately following, Catalin Mitulsecu directs The Way I Spent the End of the World 2006, about a young woman's experiences during the fall of Romania's communist regime. In Romanian with English subtitles.

•Oct. 6, 7 pm. Poveste la Scara C (C Block Story) 2003. This film chronicles the lives of several people living in a Romanian housing project. Cristian Nemescu directs. In Romanian with English subtitles. Immediately following, Marinela de la P7 (Marinela From P7) 2006. A love-struck teenager attempts to win the love of a prostitute by any means. Cristian Nemescu directs. In Romanian with English subtitles.

•Oct. 7, 3 pm. Moartea Domnului Lazarescu (The Death of Mr. Lazarescu) 2005, about a man who's transported from one hospital to the next as his health continues to decline. Cristi Puiu directs. In Romanian with English subtitles.

•Oct. 7, 7 pm. Puiu directs Un Cartus de Kent si un Pachet de Cafea (Cigarettes and Coffee) 2004, a short film that documents the shortcomings of Romania's corrupt government. Immediately following, Puiu directs Marfa si Banii (Stuff and Dough) 2001, about two slackers' adventurous attempt to deliver a package. In Romanian with English subtitles.

•Oct. 7, 9 pm. Corneliu Porumboiu directs Visul Lui Liviu (Liviu's Dream) 2004, about a boy's search for inner peace. In Romanian with English subtitles. Immediately following, Calatorie la Oras (A Trip to the City) 2004. A schoolteacher and city official travel together to pick up the first computer in their village. Porumboiu directs. In Romanian with English subtitles. Immediately following, Lampa cu Caciula (The Tube With a Hat) 2006. A boy and his father go to great lengths to fix their obsolete TV. Radu Jude directs. In Romanian with English subtitles.

INSTITUTE OF CONTEMPORARY ART

•Oct. 5, 7 pm; Oct. 6 and 7, 3pm. Riichiro Mashima directs Ski Jumping Pairs: Road to Torino 2006, a mockumentary about the process of Olympic approval for pairs ski jumping.

•Oct. 6 and 7, 1 pm. The ICA showcases a series of independent animated shorts from Japan.

MUSEUM OF FINE ARTS

Finnish Cinema

•Sept. 29, 12:15 pm; Oct. 3, 8:45 pm. Laitakaupungin Valot (Lights in the Dusk) 2006. A meek night watchman falls for a beautiful woman who ultimately uses him in a robbery scheme. Aki Kaurismäki directs. In Finnish with English subtitles.

French Cinema

•Sept. 26, 8:30 pm; Sept. 29, 3:15 pm; Oct. 4, 8:45 pm; Oct. 5, 3:45 pm; Oct. 7, 12 pm. Christophe Honoré directs Dans Paris 2006, about a man who secludes himself in his brother's home after his girlfriend leaves him. In French with English subtitles.

MUSEUM OF SCIENCE

Charles Hayden Planetarium

•Far, Far Away: The Worlds of Star Wars. From the Death Star to Tatooine, explore the terrestrial backgrounds of the Star Wars movies and compare them to real planets in our solar system.Through Oct. 29.

•Into the Unknown. This planetarium show examines the current science concerning the universe, extraterrestrial life and mysterious phenomena such as black holes. Through October.

•The Sky Tonight. Learn how to point out stars, planets and constellations visible at night. Ongoing.

3-D Digital Cinema

•3D Sun. Join NASA's Stereo satellites on a mission to document and study Earth's closest star.

•Bugs! A live-action nature film starring a praying mantis and butterfly.

•The World of Sharks. Come face-to-face with the ocean's greatest and often most misunderstood predator, as filmed by Jean-Michel Cousteau.

NEW ENGLAND AQUARIUM

•Deep Sea 3D. An underwater crew spends more than 300 hours studying squid in the Sea of Cortez, jellyfish off Monterey and coral reefs in the Bahamas.

- Dinosaurs 3D: Giants of Patagonia. Follow Argentinian paleontologists in their quest to explore recent discoveries of early dinosaurs.
- Sharks. Come face-to-face with the ocean's greatest and often most misunderstood predator, as filmed by Jean-Michel Cousteau.
- Whales. Follow different whales during their migration journey and learn how they interact through a system of calls.

Cinema Venues

ARLINGTON

Capitol Theater
204 Mass. Ave. (781-648-4340). MBTA: Red Line to Porter, then #77 Bus to Arlington Center.

Regent Theatre
7 Medford St. (781-646-4849). MBTA: Red Line to Alewife, then #79 Bus to Arlington Heights.

BELMONT

Studio Cinema
376 Trapelo Road (617-484-1706) MBTA: Red Line to Harvard, then #73 Bus to Beech St.

BOSTON

Boston Public Library
700 Boylston St. (617-536-5400). MBTA: Green Line to Copley or Orange Line to Back Bay.

Fenway 13 Theatre
201 Brookline Ave. (617-424-6266). MBTA: D Green Line to Fenway.

Goethe-Institut Boston
170 Beacon St. (617-262-6050). MBTA: Green Line to Arlington.

Institute of Contemporary Art
100 Northern Ave. (617-266-5152). MBTA: Red Line to South Station, then Silver Line to Courthouse.

Loews Boston Common
175 Tremont St. (617-423-3499). MBTA: Green Line to Boylston.

Museum of Fine Arts
465 Huntington Ave. (617-267-9300). MBTA: E Green Line to Museum.

Museum of Science
1 Science Park (617-723-2500). MBTA: C Line to Science Park.

New England Aquarium
1 Central Wharf (866-815-4629). MBTA: Blue L Aquarium.

BROOKLINE

Coolidge Corner Theatre
290 Harvard St. (617-734-2500). MBTA: C C Line to Coolidge Corner.

CAMBRIDGE

Brattle Theatre
40 Brattle St. (617-876-6837). MBTA: Red L Harvard.

Harvard Film Archive
24 Quincy St. (617-495-4700). MBTA: Red L Harvard.

Harvard Natural History Museum
26 Oxford St. (617-495-3045). MBTA: Red L Harvard.

Kendall Square Cinema
1 Kendall Square (617-499-1996). MBTA: Red L Kendall/MIT.

Loews/Sony
10 Church St. (617-864-4580). MBTA: Red L Harvard.

NEWTON

Chestnut Hill Cinema
27 Boylston St. (617-277-2500). MBTA: D Green to Chestnut Hill.

West Newton Cinema
1296 Washington St. (617-964-6060). MBTA: muter Rail to West Newton.

SOMERVILLE

Loews/Sony
35 Middlesex Ave. (617-628-7000). MBTA: O Line to Sullivan.

Somerville Theatre
55 Davis Square (617-625-5700). MBTA: Red to Davis.

WALTHAM

Brandeis University
415 South St. (781-736-8600). MBTA: Commut to Brandeis/Roberts.

vice to Contributors
nit information labeled "Rock," "Blues," etc. by fax 7-859-1446), by mail to Calendar/Music, or by il to music@improper.com. Include dates, times, es, phone numbers and nearest T stop. Deadline is weeks prior to publication date. Listings not ac-ed over the phone.

vice to Readers
rmation for the Music section is compiled from dif-nt sources. Although we make every effort to provide rate dates and times, changes do occur. Call ahead ouble-check dates and times (see complete list of es at the end of the section).

op Billings

pkick Murphys Sept. 30, Avalon (617-262-).
Dylan with Elvis Costello Oct. 2, DCU Center -755-6800).
á Oct. 6, Mohegan Sun (888-226-7711).
Fest 2007: Daughtry, Matchbox 20, Colbie Cail-ept. 29, Agganis Arena (617-358-7000).
National Oct. 6, Roxy (617-338-7699).
Top Sept. 29, Bank of America Pavilion (617-1600).

ock, Jazz and Blues

EDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 26

ey Lounge A-11 and guests, no cover, 21+.
ood's Tavern Teresa Storch, 10 pm, no cover,
Bar Grow, Fungus Amungus, the Adrian Kelley -, 8:30 pm, $7 in advance, $10 at the door, 18+.
ezeway The Frank Wilkins Vocal Showcase, pm, no cover.
ol Lounge Bill Duffy, 6 pm, no cover, 21+.
Bulfinch Yacht Club Chainsaw Disaster, Thrill-a Dreamscape Chaotic, the Dirty Gospel, 8 pm, 1+.
Passim Jesse Harris, Swati, 8 pm, $18, $16 for bers.
i's Last Resort Jonno, 7 pm, no cover, 21+. place Restaurtant Rusty Scott, 9:30 pm, no r.
rit Scott Tash, Problematics, GTD, M. Dot, 9 $7 in advance, $10 at the door, 21+.
ers Ferry Marc Ford of the Black Crowes, nship and Band of Thieves, 8 pm, $10 in ad-e, $12 at the door, 18+.
hy D's Garaj Mahal, 9 pm, $15, 21+.
edy's Midtown Christie Leigh, Stina Sim-no, 8:30 pm, no cover, 21+.
rd Lounge Opera Boston Underground, 6:30 21+; the Dennis Brennan Band, 9:30 pm, 21+.
ille East Upstairs: Yo Majesty, DJ E-Marce, 9 pm, advance, $10 at the door, 18+. Downstairs: y Votolato, the Great Depression, 8 pm, $12, Milky Way Gross Anatomy with DJs Dafna, k and Stella, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.
dise Rock Club Jacob Fred Jazz Odyssey with and Andrew Barr of the Slip, Reed Mathis of 8 pm, $13 in advance, $15 at the door, 18+.
Whoarfrost, Maria Sweeney & the State Troop-he Sistine Criminals, 8:30 pm, $7-$10, 18+.
ttabar Grace Kelly, $7:30 pm, $18, 21+.
lution Rock Bar Lee Wilson and Guests, 8 pm, advance, $8 at the door, 21+.
Blonde Redhead with School of Seven Bells, 7 20, all ages.
Jazz Club ZilZALA Middle Eastern Ensemble, , $10.
ers Jazz Club E.S.T., 8 and 10 pm, $20-$60.
oston Street Bar Alexei Tsiganov, 6 pm, no , 21+.
ce Lounge Al Vega Trio, 7 pm, no cover, 21+.
f the Hub Bob Nieske Trio, 8:30 pm, no cover.
he Bear's Place The Self-Proclaimed Rock This Blue Heaven, Vanessa Hayes, 9:15 pm, $7.
Roots and Razors, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.
Zygomates Marcello Jazz Quartet, 8 pm, no , 21+.

URSDAY, SEPTEMBER 27

y Lounge Main Stage: Tomorrow the Gallows, ond Minds, Sixer, 9 pm, no cover, 21+. Pub : Sally Morgan, no cover, 21+.
Alchemist Blue Ribbon, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.
sia Cafe Valerie Orth, Zach Hillyard Band, 6:30 o cover, 18+.
rd Brian Burrill Duo, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.
od's Tavern The Resophonics, 10 pm, no , 21+.
n STS9 (Sound Tribe Sector 9), 8 pm, $21, all

Into the Ring

Even the Boss succumbs to the National's melancholy charms

BY PAUL ROBICHEAU

Matt Berninger (far right) leads the charge when the National comes to town.

Growing up in Ohio as a self-described "art nerd," Matt Berninger never expected to join a rock band. Then friends during college reached out with an invitation.

"They didn't want to leave me out, and I couldn't play anything, so they asked me to sing," says Berninger, 36, now the frontman for the National, a surging Brooklyn quintet that includes one of those old University of Cincinnati pals, bassist Scott Devendorf. "I was very lucky to be asked to do this, and now it's changed my entire life."

Berninger's sober baritone has become a hypnotic signature for the National, which packed the Middle East Downstairs for two nights in June and returns to play the Roxy Oct. 6.

Yet the group didn't have great expectations when it formed in 1999. "There were times when we questioned what we were doing, when we'd drive for eight hours and play for a handful of people," says Berninger, a graphic designer by vocation. Everyone in the band is a Cincinnati transplant, with Scott's sibling Bryan on drums and another pair of brothers, Aaron and Bryce Dessner, on guitars.

"We always had some kind of delusional, optimistic vision to keep plugging away," he says from a club in Philadelphia. "We'd make fun of it when it got really depressing. It just thickened our skins. And now that everything has changed over the past year, we just pinch ourselves every day to come to a venue knowing that it's going to be sold out."

The tide slowly turned in the wake of rave reviews for the group's third album, 2005's Alligator. The National played a Bruce Springsteen tribute in New York and realized even the Boss is a fervent fan. "I immediately took off after the show and didn't expect [my bandmates] would end up drinking whiskey with him for a few hours," Berninger says. "The fact that Bruce Springsteen is listening to our songs on headphones, like I listened to his, is mind-boggling."

Now the National is poised to draw more fans with the lushly textured melancholy of Boxer, produced with Peter Katis of Interpol. "This is the first time we actually put out a record that people were waiting for," the singer says. "This is a weird and exciting position to be in.

"When we set out to make Boxer, we didn't know exactly what we were going to make," says Berninger, adding there was no conscious move to either duplicate or depart from Alligator, which included punk-edged rockers "Abel" and "Mr. November." "The obvious thing that's different is the lack of me screaming my head off, and there was a moment in the recording where we said, 'We don't have any of those songs yet,' and we knew people did like that." But rather than force that style, they let new songs find their place.

The resulting album offers a more consistent tone yet is often bold and propulsive, particularly Bryan Devendorf's circular drum patterns. Australian composer-violinist Padma Newsome, who often joins the National onstage, neatly blends strings, piano and horns into the fabric of Boxer. "Not just with the orchestration, but even with the drumming," Berninger says, "we wanted everything to have a purpose and a significant voice that isn't just icing or a layer to make it sound more epic or sadder."

Rising above it all are Berninger's vocals, which are reminiscent of Nick Cave and Leonard Cohen but eschew overt narrative for more impressionistic threads. "I'm usually trying to get a little snapshot, whether it's a scene or an emotional state," says Berninger. "Without connecting all the dots or filling in anything, there are those little anchors, and the rest is kinda floating around and a little more blurry. And I don't know which parts are the anchors and which aren't. I never try to paint a perfect picture.

"When I'm writing lyrics, most of the time it's at home, at night, drinking wine and having the headphones on," says Berninger. "People often think of us as such a dark, moody band, and I understand that when you compare us to other bands. But I think we have as much humor and optimism as anything."

Indeed, his snapshots include such great lines as, "We're half-awake in a fake empire," and, "You get mistaken for strangers by your own friends." "You have to put a little bit of the absurd, those ugly little moments, to balance out the sentimental things," he says. "I still don't find it easy to write lyrics, but I get so excited when I get a couple of words that just sound awesome." iB

The National
plays Oct. 6 at the Roxy.

RABIA'S
RESTAURANT

PRELUDE™
TO LOVE

At Rabia's, we know that food is indeed the Prelude to Love - whether it's the excitement of young passions, the celebration of love renewed, or simply the love of life. So for that special night, let romance seek its own time.

"Diner's are transported to a faraway world" Boston.com

"One of the city's most romantic" Yelp.com

Newly expanded with European Bistro, Wine Bar, Oyster Bar, and Open Air Dining.

617.227.6637
73 Salem Street Boston, MA 02113
(In the heart of the North End)

Berklee Performance Center Norm Zocher and David Gilmore, 8:15 pm, $10, all ages.
Bill's Bar STS9 (Sound Tribe Sector 9), the Glitch Mob, 8:30 pm, $10, 21+.
Bob's Southern Bistro Valery Stephens Trio, 7 pm, $4.
Breezeway Serious Bizness, the Pat Loomis Band, 7:30 pm, no cover.
Bristol Lounge Joe Barbato, 6 pm, no cover, 21+.
The Bulfinch Yacht Club Burnt Fur, the Dig, Real LifeTime Machines, 8 pm, $7, 21+.
Bull Run Restaurant Cristina Fontanelli, 1 pm, $10, all ages.
The Burren Swinging Johnsons, 10 pm, $5, 21+.
Cantab Lounge Upstairs: the Chickenslacks, 9 pm, $5, 21+.
Club Passim Liz Stahler CD Release Party, Kristin Cifelli, 8 pm, $10-$12.
Dick's Last Resort Live Karoke with Brick Park, 8 pm, no cover, 21+.
The Draft Justice Once, 9 pm, $5, 21+.
Felt Stirred Up and guests, 9 pm, $5 in advance, $7 at the door, 21+.
Fireplace Restaurant The Nando Michelin Trio, 9:30 pm, no cover.
The Foundation Lounge Soul Night, Evan Goodrow and the Foundation Lounge band "Soulicious" play Motown, R&B and soul classics, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.
Hennessy's Fly Switch, 8 pm, $5, 21+.
Johnny D's Johnny Irion, Tim Gearan, 9:30 pm, $10, 21+.
Joshua Tree Onset, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.
Kennedy's Midtown Ryan Fitzsimmons, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.
Lizard Lounge The Havemores, 8 pm, 21+.
Matt Murphy's Wild Sextet, 11 pm, no cover, 21+.
Middle East Upstairs: John Vanderslice, 9 pm, $12, 18+. Downstairs: Freezepop, Ad Frank and the Fast Easy Women, Provocateur, 8 pm, $10 in advance, $12 at the door, 18.
Milky Way Bass Invaders, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.
Oak Bar Steve Heck, 8 pm, no cover, 21+.
Orpheum Iron and Wine, 6:30 pm, $22-$30, all ages.
Paradise Lounge Eric Hutchinson, Scarecrow Collection, 8 pm, $10, 18+.
Paradise Rock Club Matt Pond PA with Jesca Hoop, 8 pm, $12 in advance, $14 at the door, 18+.
PA's The Double Stops, Frances, the Thimbles, 8:30 pm, $7-$10, 18+.
Ryles Jazz Club Natraj, Lamine Toure, Prasanna, 9 pm, $12, all ages.
Scullers Jazz Club Steve March Torme, 8 and 10 pm, $25-$65.
Taj Boston Street Bar Bill Duffy, 6 pm, no cover, 21+.
Terrace Lounge Eric McFadden, 7 pm, no cover, 21+.
Tommy Doyles Scott Fisher, Josh Buckley, 9:30 pm, $2.
Top of the Hub Bob Nieske Trio, 8:30 pm, no cover.
T.T. the Bear's Place The Lucksmiths, the Ladybug Transistor, Still Flying, One Happy Island, 8:30 pm, $10-$12, 18+.
ZuZu Mambo Beat Club, 11 pm, no cover, 21+.
Les Zygomates Benjamin Sharoni Quartet, 8 pm, no cover, 21+.

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 28

Abbey Lounge Main Stage: The Shepherdness, the Big Disappointments, the Great Burriers, 9 pm, $8, 21+. Pub Stage: John O'Hara, Vanessa Hayes, no cover, 21+.
The Alchemist Lounge The Beat Train with host DJ Ari, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.
Atwood's Tavern The Tim Gearan Band, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.
Black Horse Tavern Ken Freeman, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.
The Black Rose Bobby Folkes, 9:30 pm, $5, 21+.
Bob's Southern Bistro Pat Loomis, 7:30, $5.
Boston Symphony Hall Herbie Hancock, Branford Marsalis, Lizz Wright, Roy Haynes, and others, 7:30 pm, $40-$100.
Bristol Lounge Joe Morocco, Joe Barato, 6 pm, no cover, 21+.
The Bulfinch Yacht Club Don Preston's Akashic Ensemble, Axemunkee, Tara White, 8 pm, $12, 21+.
The Burren Cover Up, 10 pm, $5, 21+.
Cantab Lounge Upstairs: Diane Blue and the Fatback Band, 9 pm, $5, 21+.
Club Passim Anne Heaton, Noe Venable, 7 and 10 pm, $13-$15.
Dante's of Quincy Blind Billy & the Spectacles, 9 pm, $6, 21+.
The Green Dragon Tavern Old School, 10 pm, $5, 21+.
The Harp Echoburn, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.
Harpers Ferry Akron/Family, Bob Log III, Greg Davies, Megafun, 8 pm, $12, 18+.

Sucka Brown rocks the 18th Annual Harpoon Octoberfest Sept. 28

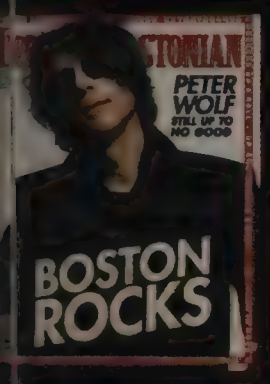
Harpoon Brewery Octoberfest, 5:30 pm, $15, 21+.
Hennessy's Spike the Punch, 9 pm, $5, 21+.
Johnny D's Tarbox Ramblers, 9:45 pm, $10, 21+.
Kennedy's Midtown Paul Minnich, Julie White, the Passing, Domino Saints, 7 pm, $5, 21+ after 9 pm.
Lizard Lounge Audrey Ryan, Gretel, 8 pm, $8, 21+.
Matt Murphy's Los Acoustilocos, 11 pm, no cover, 21+.
Middle East Upstairs: John Vanderslice, 9 pm, $12, 18+. Downstairs: Leedz Entertainment presents Boot Camp Clik with special guests Special Teamz, Dre Robinson, Blak Madeen, $17 in advance, $20 at the door, 18+.
Milky Way Marinate with Louis Logic and JJ Brown, 9 pm, $5, 21+.
Mr. Dooley's Tommy and Alan, 9:30 pm, $5, 21+.
Museum of Fine Arts Tartit trance music, 7:30 pm, $25.
Oak Bar Bill Laughlin Jazz Quartet, 8:15 pm, no cover, 21+.
Orpheum Kings of Leon with Black Rebel Motorcycle Club, Manchester Orchestra, 6:30 pm, $35, all ages.
Paradise Lounge Phish Tribute Trippin' on Nothing, 8 pm, $10 in advance, $12 at the door, 18+.
Paradise Rock Club Lotus, 8 pm, $12.50 in advance, $14 at the door, 18+.
Parris Star 69, 10 pm, $10, 21+.
Regattabar Juanito Pascual, 7:30 and 10 pm, $17-$20, 21+
Scullers Jazz Club Monty Alexander's Jazz & Roots Ensemble, 8 and 10:30 pm, $25-$65.
Somerville Theatre Lúnasa, 8 pm, $22-$28.
Taj Boston Street Bar Eugene Maslov, 6 pm; Bert Seager, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.
Terrace Lounge Airtight, 9:30 pm, no cover, 21+.
Tommy Doyles Vivian Darkbloom, Medina Sod, 9:30 pm, $2.
Top of the Hub Bob Nieske Trio, Maggie Galloway, 8:30 pm, no cover.
Upstairs at Union St. Marie's Children, 10 pm, $5, 21+.
Venezia Boston Soul Review, 8 pm, no cover, 21+.
ZuZu SOLID!, 11 pm, no cover, 21+.

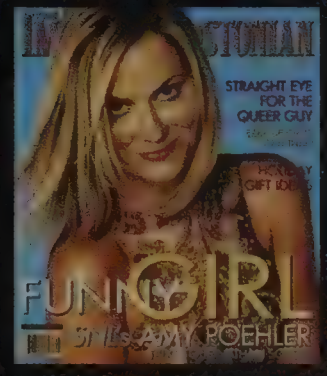
SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 29

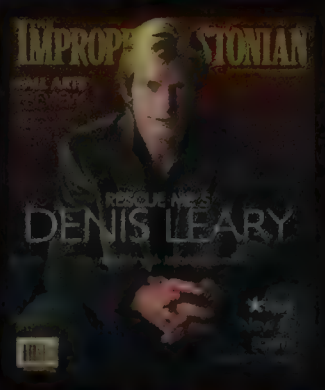
Abbey Lounge Main Stage: Turdus Musicus, Refuse Resist, no cover, 21+. Pub Stage: Gladiola, no cover, 21+.
Agganis Arena MixFest 2007, 7 pm, $40-$75.
The Alchemist Lounge Sonic Reducer DJ Joey and Miss Penny Dreadful, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.
All Asia Cafe Persia Blue, 6:30 pm, no cover, 18+.
Asgard Beantown Project, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.
Bank of America Pavilion ZZ Top, 6:30 pm, $30-$50.
Bill's Bar Sand Machine, Lake Shore Limited, the Brakemen, Mike MacDonald, 8:30 pm, $10, 18+.
Black Horse Tavern Oli and Chris, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.
The Black Rose Bobby Folkes, 9:30 pm, $5, 21+.
Bob's Southern Bistro Herman Johnson, 7:30 pm, $5.
Bristol Lounge Alfredo Cardim, 6 pm, no cover, 21+.
The Bulfinch Yacht Club AraVora, Watts, Triggerlust, 8 pm, $8, 21+.
The Burren Acme Music Trio, 10 pm, $5, 21+.
Cantab Lounge Upstairs: the Fatback Band, 9 pm, $5, 21+. Downstairs: Fresh Act, 9 pm, $5.
Club Passim Bill Staines, Margo Valiante, 8 pm, $13-$15.
Dante's of Quincy Bruce Marshall Group, 9 pm, $7, 21+.
Dick's Last Resort Soul City, 10 pm, no cover
Grand Canal Incadence, 9:30 pm, $5, 21+.
Great Scott The Paul Green School of Rock performs selections from Pink Floyd's The Wall $10 in advance, $12 at the door, all ages.
The Green Dragon Tavern Planet Envy, 10 p 21+.
The Harp Echoburn, 10 pm, $10, 21+.
Harpers Ferry Akron/Family with Bob Log II Davies, Megafaun, 8 pm, $12, 18+.
Harpoon Brewery Octoberfest, 2 pm, $15, 21
Hennessy's Syndicate, 9 pm, $5, 21+.
Johnny D's Superhoney, 9:45 pm, $10, 21+.
Kennedy's Midtown Eric Salt and Electri Leaving Grace, Old Jack, 9:30 pm, $5, 21+.
Lily Pad Miriam Miller Chamber Music, 8 p suggested donation, all ages.
Lizard Lounge Max Heinegg CD release Dana Colley, Mike Piehl, Jay Marsh from Ta Heidi Saperstein and Mike Oor from the Leopards, Thom Ramon from the Bon Sav pm, 21+.
Matt Murphy's Mumbles, 11 pm, no cover, 2
Middle East Upstairs: +/–, Sleepyhead, Mooo ken River Prophet, $10, 18+; Downstairs: F Miyagi, Dirty on Purpose, $12, 18+.
Mr. Dooley's Tommy and Alan, 9:30 pm, $5,
Oak Bar Bill Laughlin Jazz Quartet, 8:15 cover, 21+.
Orpheum Scorpions, 6:30 pm, $39.50-$51, a
Paradise Lounge The Brew with 3VE, 9 p 18+.
Paradise Rock Club Pat McGee Band, Josh with the Kin, 8 pm, $17.50, 18+.
Parris Star 69, 10 pm, $10, 21+.
PA's Big Bear, Hallelujah the Hills, Ford & Lights, 8:30 pm, $8-$11, 18+.
Regattabar Sol y Canto 13th Anniversary, 7 10 pm, $18-$20, 21+.
Roxy Soulive, 6 pm, $20, all ages.
Scullers Jazz Club Monty Alexander's Jazz & Ensemble, 8 and 10:30 pm, $25-$65.
Somerville Theatre The Either/Orchestra fe Mulatu Astatke, Hana Shenkute, Setegn A 8 pm, $28.
Taj Boston Street Bar Eugene Maslov, 6 cover, 21+.
Terrace Lounge Johnny Ray Band, 9:30 cover, 21+.
Tommy Doyles The Navigators, Daniel Bon ture Ghosts, 9:30 pm, $2.
Top of the Hub Bob Nieske Group, Magg loway, 8:30 pm, no cover.
T.T. the Bear's Place Cyanide Valentine, Back Entirely, Thick as Thieves, 9 pm, $8.
Upstairs at Union St. Mark Morris & the C 10 pm, $5, 21+.
Venezia K&S Jazz, 8 pm, no cover, 21+.
ZuZu Soul-le-lu-jah, Claude Money, 11 cover, 21+.
Les Zygomates Al Vega Quartet, 8 pm, n 21+.

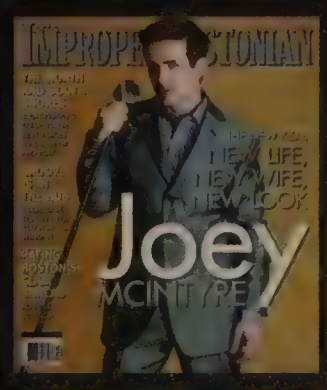
SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 30

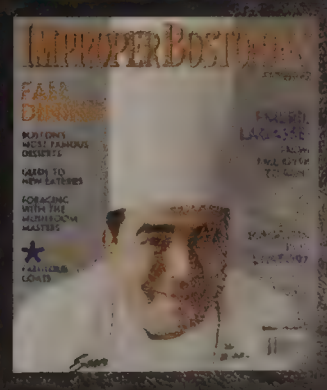
Abbey Lounge The Art of All, Peter Baldrac Face, 9 pm, $7, 21+.
The Alchemist Lounge "Little Memphis" Ro 10 pm, no cover, 21+.
All Asia Cafe Italian Sweaters, 9:30 pm, n 18+.
Avalon Dropkick Murphys, HorrorPops, Ev Out, 6 pm, $30.

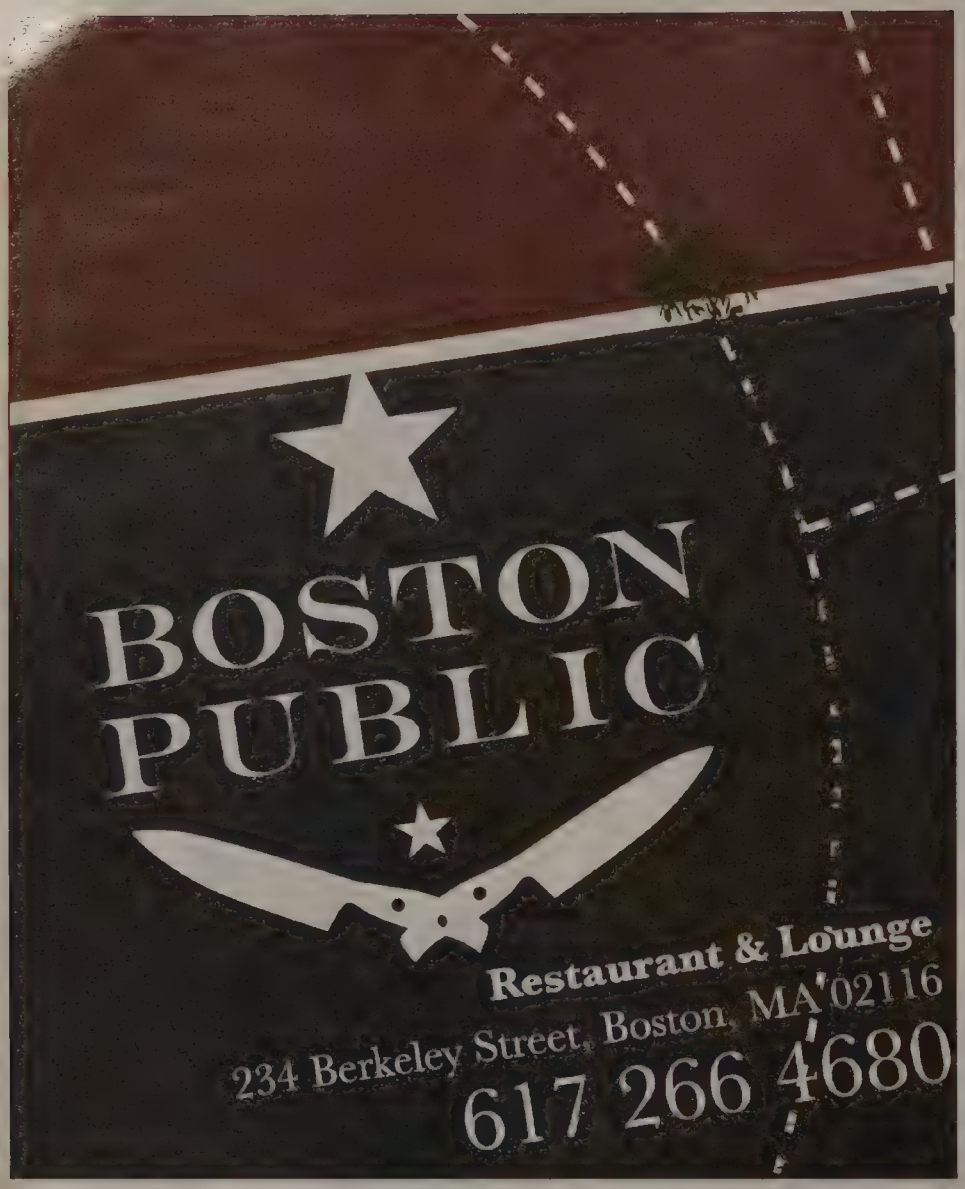












For advertising information call Julie Kane @ 617-859-1400, ext. 238

ADVANCE SEATING

UPCOMING HEADLINERS

Tori Amos Oct. 18-19, Orpheum Theater (617-679-0810).
Buffalo Tom Oct. 26, Somerville Theater (617-625-5700).
Kelly Clarkson, Jon McLaughlin Oct. 23, Orpheum Theater (617-679-0810).
Warren Hill Oct. 12, Scullers Jazz Club (617-562-4111).
The Hold Steady, Art Brut, Demander Oct. 22, Roxy (617-338-7699).
Hot Hot Heat, Bedouin Soundclash, De Novo Dahl Oct. 11, Paradise Rock Club (617-562-8800).
JAM'N 94.5 Monster Jam '07: Kanye West, Akon, Lil' Wayne and more Oct. 29, TD Banknorth Garden (617-624-1000).
Maroon 5, the Hives, Kevin Michael Oct. 15, TD Banknorth Garden (617-624-1000).
Morrissey Oct. 30, Orpheum Theater (617-679-0810).
Sinead O'Connor, Damien Dempsey Oct. 22, Orpheum Theater (617-679-0810).
Queens of the Stone Age, Biffy Clyro Oct. 12, Orpheum Theater (617-679-0810).
Smashing Pumpkins Oct. 13, 15 and 16, Orpheum Theater (617-679-0810).
Regina Spektor Oct. 14, Orpheum Theater (617-679-0810).
Spoon, the Ponys Oct. 17, Roxy (617-338-7699).
They Might Be Giants Oct. 19, Roxy (617-338-7699).
Van Halen Oct. 30, TD Banknorth Garden (617-624-1000).

Bill's Bar Reggae Sundays, 10 pm, call for cover, 21+.
Bob's Southern Bistro John Radosta Jr., 10 am.
Bravo at the MFA Ron Poster, 11:30 am, no cover.
Bristol Lounge Dan Greenspan, 11 am; Alfredo Cardim, 6 pm, no cover, 21+.
The Bulfinch Yacht Club Jetavanna Grove, 8 pm, $7, 21+.
The Burren Singer-Songwriter Series w/ Danielle M, 8 pm, $5, 21+.
Club Passim Old School Freight Train, 7 pm, $16-$18.
Dick's Last Resort Jonno, 7 pm, no cover, 21+.
Great Scott The Paul Green School of Rock Music performs selections from Pink Floyd's The Wall, 4 pm, $10 in advance, $12 at the door, all ages.
Harpers Ferry CNC Music Productions Indie Rock Parade, Daniel Wright's World Collective Two Hour Change, Dave Cavalier, Julian Peterson, the Garrison Delight, 8 pm, $5, 21+.
Hennessy's Sweep the Leg, 9 pm, $5, 21+.
Kennedy's Midtown Brendan Murphy, Mere
Luce, Shawn Fogel, 6 pm, $5, 18+; Two Change, Dave Cavalier, Julian Peterson, the C son Delight, 8:30 pm, $5, 21+.
Lily Pad David Maxwell, 7 pm; Gill Aharon Tri pm, $10 suggested donation, all ages.
Middle East Upstairs: Sister Suvi, Casey Diene
the Flapjacks, Finn Riggins, Cuddle Magic,
Chica, 8:30 pm, $8, 18+. Downstairs: Mour
Goats, Bowerbirds, $14, 18+.
Milky Way Project Move, $7, 21+.
Mr. Dooley's Tommy and Alan, 8 pm, no cover,
Paradise Rock Club Jose Gonzalez with J
Blackshaw, 7 pm, $18 in advance, $20 at the 18+.
Terrace Lounge Al Vega Trio, 7 pm, no cover, 2
Top of the Hub Lee Child's Group, 12 pm, no c
Marty Ballou Trio, 8 pm, no cover, all ages.
T.T. the Bear's Place The Roland High Life, A
10:15 pm, $7 pm.

RESERVE YOUR HOLIDAY PARTY NOW!

Boston Event Solutions
617•248•9933
www.bostoneventsolutions.com

Expert Advice • Business Functions • Creative Themes • Custom Solutions • Fundraisers Holiday Parties • Receptions • Innovative Menus • More Choices • Premier Venues

thern rockers Kings of Leon prowl the Orpheum stage Sept. 28.

n Weekend Warriors, Professor Z, Kavalier, 10
o cover, 21+.

NDAY, OCTOBER 1

ee Performance Center Leo Blanco, 8:15 pm, Gill ages.
ol Lounge Alfredo Cardim, 6 pm, no cover,
ers Ferry Teddy Geiger, 7 pm, $15, all ages.
ad The Fringe, 10 pm, $10 suggested donation,
Murphy's Cato/Shanko, 11 pm, no cover, 21+.
cle East Upstairs: the Brunettes, Ferraby Lion- $10 in advance, $12 at the door. Downstairs: olia Electric Co., the Watson Twins, Nurse and er, 7:30 pm, $12, 18+.
Way Matt Sisto, Mean Creak, Emeen, 6 pm, ver, all ages.
lise Lounge Brian Jackson with Bojah & the ection, Terry Orlando Jones, 7 pm, $8 in ad- $10 at the door, 18+.
the Hub Marty Ballou Trio, 8 pm.
he Bear's Place Paul Janovitz, Chris McFar- Sodafrog, 9 pm, $8.
gomates Jam Session with Rusty Scott, 8 pm, ver, 21+.

ESDAY, OCTOBER 2

l Lounge Joe Barbato, 6 pm, no cover, 21+.
ulfinch Yacht Club The Change Up, 8 Sym- Steve Dunn, Russell McLaughlin, 8 pm, $7, Passim Missy Higgins, 8 pm, $13-$15.
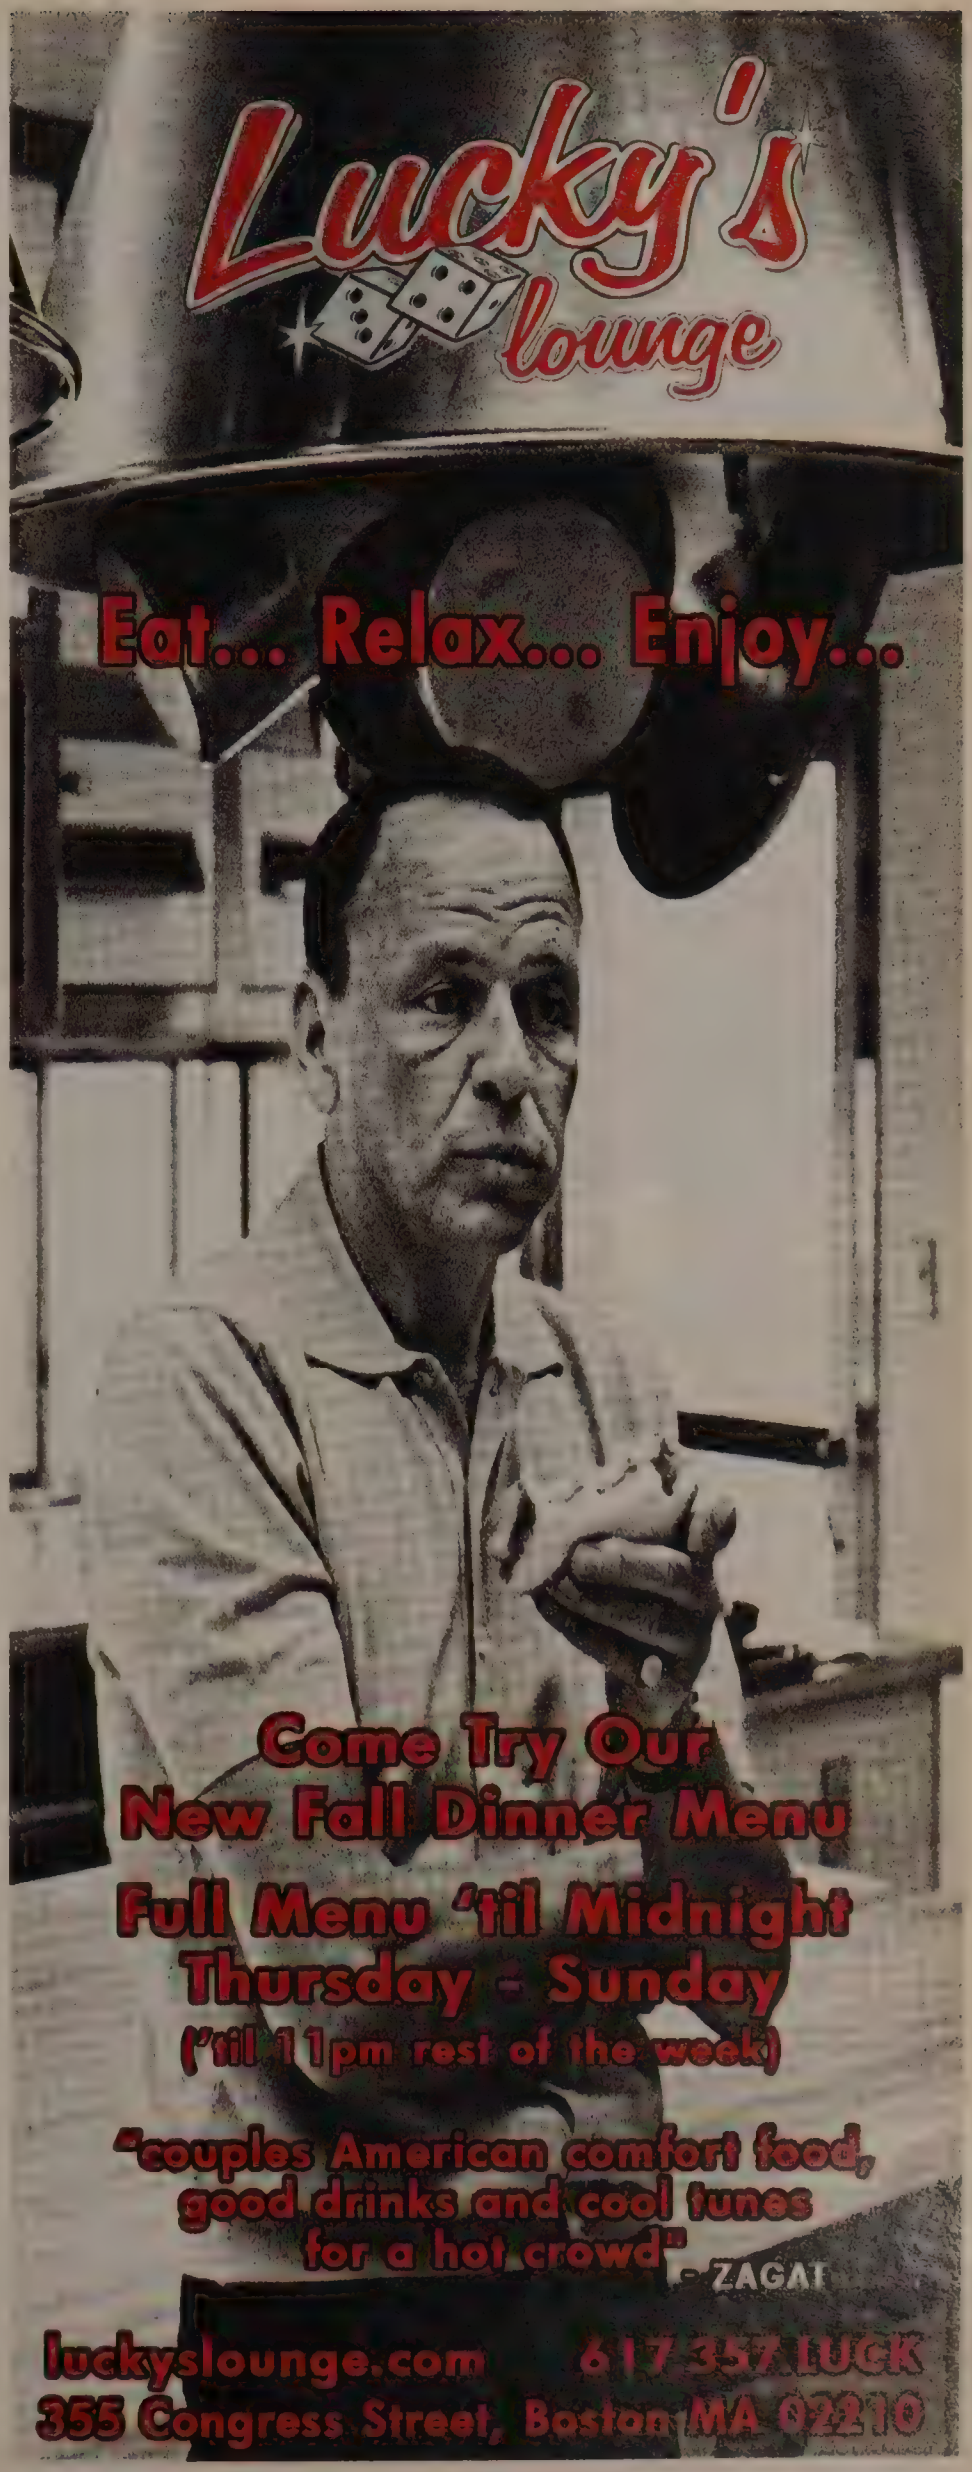
Center Bob Dylan, Elvis Costello, Amos Lee, $39.50-$69.50.
oundation Lounge Torch Tuesdays with Jeanie and the Strays, 8 pm, no cover, 21+.
rs Ferry Stroke 9 with Castine the Minus & Keith Kane of Vertical Horizon, 8 pm, $10 ance, $12 at the door, 18+.
Murphy's B3 King, 11 pm, no cover, 21+.
e East Downstairs: the Good Life, Luke Tem- 30 pm, $12, 18+.
ar Rebecca Cline, 8 pm, no cover, 21+.
lise Lounge Matt Lowell with Matt Stamm, 7 10, 18+.
lise Rock Club Nelly McKay with John da International Airport, 7 pm, $15, 18+.
Nautical Almanac, Anna Rampage, Ganja, s," 8:30 pm, $7-$10, 18+.
y Doyles Tuesday Acoustic Showcase, Erin Gabby Young, Stephen Revere, 9:30 pm, no 21+.
the Hub Chris Taylor Trio, 8:30 pm.
e Bear's Place John Charles, Patrick Dunn, Levecque, 9 pm, $7, 18+.
gomates Steve Fell Trio, 8 pm, no cover, 21+.



ONESDAY, OCTOBER 3

Bar That Ish and the Abby, Dave Alpert, the the Divorced, 8:30 pm, $7 in advance, $10 at or, 18+.
ulfinch Yacht Club Copal, 8 pm, $7, 21+.
l Lounge Bill Duffy, 6 pm, no cover, 21+.
ace Restaurant The Vanessa Morris Trio, 9:30 cover.
rs Ferry Balkan Beat Box, 8 pm, $15 in ad- $18 at the door, 18+.

Middle East Upstairs: Great Lake Swimmers, Arthur & U, Horse Feathers, $9 in advance, $10 at the door, 18+. Downstairs: Minus the Bear, Subtle, Ela, Night One, 7:30 pm, $15 in advance, $17 at the door, 18+.
Oak Bar Rebecca Cline, 8 pm, no cover, 21+.
Paradise Lounge The Gulf with the Main Drag, St. Helena, 8 pm, $7, 18+.
Paradise Rock Club Apollo Sunshine, Dr. Dog with High Strung, 7 pm, $14, 18+.
PA's Sera Del Fuego, 8:30 pm, $7-$10, 18+.
Scullers Jazz Club Dominique Eade, 8 pm, $18-$58.
Terrace Lounge Al Vega Trio, 7 pm, no cover, 21+.
Top of the Hub Chris Taylor Trio, 8:30 pm.
T.T. the Bear's Place The Rationales, Girl on Top, Tell, Jake & the Jakes , 9 pm, $7.
Les Zygomates Pablo Bencid Trio, 8 pm, no cover, 21+.

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 4

The Alchemist Lounge The Vinyl Skyways, 10:30 pm, no cover, 21+.
Berklee Performance Center Steve Vai, 7:30 pm, $25 in advance, $35 at the door, all ages.
Bill's Bar Trebek, Dave Crespo, 2X1, Southbound Underground, 8:30 pm, $10, 18+.
Breezeway The Sonny Watson Jazz Quartet, 7:30 pm, no cover.
Bristol Lounge Joe Barbato, 6 pm, no cover, 21+.
The Bulfinch Yacht Club Z02, Carry the Zero, 8 pm, $7, 21+.
The Burren Swinging Johnsons, 10 pm, $5, 21+.
Club Passim Country Joe's Tribute to Woody Guthrie, 8 pm, $28-$30.
Felt Madi Diaz, Safdar, 9 pm, $5 in advance, $7 at the door, 21+.
Fireplace Restaurant Pepe Gutierrez "El Tapio" & Su Mariachi Mexamerica, 9:30 pm, no cover.
The Foundation Lounge Soul Night, Evan Goodrow and the Foundation Lounge band, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.
Harpers Ferry Enter the Haggis, Three Day Threshold, 8 pm, $10 in advance, $12 day of show, 21+.
Johnny D's Anita Coelho, 9:30 pm, $10, 21+.
Lily Pad Kate Schutt, Duane Andrews, 8 pm, $10 suggested donation, all ages.
Matt Murphy's Wild Sextet, 11 pm, no cover, 21+.
Middle East Upsairs: the Draft, Dead to Me, 9 pm, $10, 18+. Downstairs: Minus the Bear, Subtle, Ela, 7:30 pm, 18 +.
Milky Way Chris Devlin, 9:30 pm, no cover, 21+.
MIT Michael Musillami Trio with Mark Feldman, 8 pm, $10 suggested donation.
Oak Bar Steve Heck, 8 pm, no cover, 21+.
Paradise Lounge Johnette Napolitano with guests, 8 pm, $18 in advance, $20 at the door, 18+.
Paradise Rock Club Patrick Wolf with Bishi, 8 pm, $16.50, 18+.
PA's Dark Sky Productions Crimes of Fashion Night with Hardwired: Seppuku, Eternal Embrace, the Shadows Smile, Happy the Clown, 8:30 pm, $7-$10, 18+.
Regattabar John Scofield, 7:30 and 10 pm, $25-$28, 21+.
Roxy Assembly of Dust, JJ Grey, Mofro, 6:30 pm, $20, all ages.
Scullers Jazz Club Danilo Perez, 8 pm and 10 pm, $22-$62.
Somerville Theatre Josh Ritter, 6:30 pm, $21.

LiNEaGe

Modern American Food

Open for Dinner 7 Nights
Sunday Brunch
Private Events
Bar Menu

Chef Jeremy Sewall is pushing New England seafood to the next level.
—Bon Appetit

242 Harvard Street
Brookline, MA 02446
617-232-0065
www.lineagerestaurant.com

Terrace Lounge Eric McFadden, 7 pm, no cover, 21+.
Tommy Doyles Timewarp Thursday, Fast Times, 9:30 pm, $2, 21+.
Top of the Hub Chris Taylor Trio, 8:30 pm.
T.T. the Bear's Place Stop Switch, Nalband, 10 pm, $8. (New Model Army cancelled; refunds at point of purchase.)
Les Zygomates Ed Harlo Trio, 8 pm, no cover, 21+.

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 5

Bill's Bar The Falls, Escape to Everything, Said in Stone, 8:30 pm, $10, 18+.
The Black Rose Sundays Well, 9:30 pm, $5, 21+.
Bristol Lounge Alfredo Cardim, 6 pm, no cover, 21+.
The Bulfinch Yacht Club Stirred Up, School for Robots, Left Hand Does CD release, Streightangular, 8 pm, $8, 21+.
The Burren Classic Trax, 10 pm, $5, 21+.
Cantab Lounge Stan Martin, the Billies, 9 pm, $5, 21+.
Club Passim John McGann, Billy Novick, David Hollender, Maeve Gilchrist, 8 pm, $13-$15.
Dante's of Quincy Vykki Vox, 9 pm, $7, 21+.
Felt Vastine, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.
Johnny D's Jonathan Coulton, Paul & Storm, 8:30 pm, $15, 21+.
Jose McIntyre's Plaid Daddy, 10 pm, $5, 21+.
Lily Pad Prince Rama of Ayodhya, 7 pm; Gabriel Solomon, 8 pm, $10 suggested donation, all ages.
Matt Murphy's Burning Fence, 11 pm, no cover, 21+.
Middle East Upstairs: Caribou, Born Ruffians, $10, 18+. Downstairs: Two Gallants, Blitzen Trapper, Songs for Moms, $12, 18+.
Oak Bar Bill Laughlin Jazz Quartet, 8:15 pm, no cover, 21+.
Orpheum Brandi Carlile, A Fine Frenzy, 7 pm, $21.50-$25, all ages.
Paradise Lounge Stepanian with guests, 9 pm, $8 in advance, $10 at the door, 18+.
Paradise Rock Club Ken Andrews, Charlotte Martin with First Wave Hello, 8 pm, $13, 18+.
PA's Pink Reason, the In/Out, Thomas Function, 8:30 pm, $7-$10, 18+.
Regattabar John Scofield, 7:30 and 10 pm, $25-$28, 21+.
Roxy Michael Franti, Spearhead, 6:30 pm, $22, all ages.
Scullers Jazz Club Danilo Perez, 8 and 10:30 $22-$62.
Somerville Theatre Josh Ritter, 6:30 pm, $21.
Terrace Lounge Modern Manners, 9:30 pn cover, 21+.
Tommy Doyles The Beantown Project, 9:30pn 21+.
Top of the Hub Chris Taylor Trio, 8:30 pm.
T.T. the Bear's Place Self-Righteous Brother Luxury, 9:15 pm, $9.
Venezia Sweet, 8 pm, no cover, 21+.
Les Zygomates Ronnie Ron Trio, 8 pm, no cover

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 6

Bill's Bar 3rd Left, Jon Hall, 8:30 pm, $10, 18+.
The Black Rose Sundays Well, 9:30 pm, $5, 21
Bristol Lounge Alfredo Cardim, 6 pm, no c 21+.
The Bulfinch Yacht Club The Ride, 8 pm, $8, 2
The Burren Comicion Fits, 10 pm, $5, 21+.
Cantab Lounge Poverty Line Old Time Band, erend Bob & the Darkness, Los Hijos Unicos, $7, 21+.
Club Passim Issa Trio, Adrienne Pierce, 7 and $33-$35.
Dante's of Quincy The Mystix, 9 pm, $7, 21+.
Harpers Ferry Ari Hest, Mieka Pauley & Tim 8 pm, $15 in advance, $20 at the door, 21 +.
Johnny D's Hungry March Band, Black Bear C 9:45 pm, 21 +.
Lily Pad Esthema, Orchestra of This, 7 pm; M Winograd's Infection, 10 pm, $10 suggested tion, all ages.
Matt Murphy's Samba Lolo, 11 pm, no cover,
Middle East Upstairs: Qui, Black Helicopter, tune, $10, 18+. Downstairs: Mr. Lif, $15, 18+.
Mohegan Sun Maná, 8 pm, $110-$225.
Oak Bar Bill Laughlin Jazz Quartet, 8:15 p cover, 21+.
Orpheum Paolo Nutini with Jon McLaughli ena Ryder, 6:30 pm, $25, all ages.
Paradise Lounge Ourstage.com presents the ners Circle Showcase: fans vote for the best em music and film artists, 6 pm, no cover, 18+.
Roxy The National, 6:30 pm, $18, all ages.
Terrace Lounge Modern Manners, 9:30 p cover, 21+.
Top of the Hub Chris Taylor Trio, 8:30 pm.

BOSTON'S BEST 2007 WINNER IMPROPER BOSTONIAN
BEST OF BOSTON 2006
BEST OF BOSTON 2007

french dressing

a lingerie boutique

Specializing in everyday luxury
Cosabella, Huit, Eberjey, Aubade,
Hanky Panky, On Gossamer and many more.

49 River Street, Beacon Hill
617/723/4YOU • www.frenchdressinglingerie.com

ANNa's TAQUERIA

Burritos & Tacos To Go!

BOSTON'S BEST 2007 WINNER IMPROPER BOSTONIAN

Burrito

Open Everyday 10 a.m. to 11 p.m.

1412 Beacon Street • Coolidge Corner • 739-7300
446 Harvard Street • Brookline • 277-7111
822 Somerville Avenue • Porter Square • Cambridge • 661-8500
236A Elm Street • Davis Square • Somerville • 666-3900
84 Mass Avenue • MIT Stratton Center • Cambridge • 324-2662

he Bear's Place The Return of SCARCE, Bliz- of 78, the Crushing Low, $10 in advance, $12 at loor.
zia Sweet, 8 pm, no cover, 21+.
Zygomates Yoko Miwa Trio, 8 pm, no cover, 21+.

NDAY, OCTOBER 7

Bar Reggae Sundays, 10 pm, call for cover, 21+.
o at the MFA Ron Poster, 11:30 am, no cover.
ol Lounge Dan Greenspan, 11 am; Alfredo im, 6 pm, no cover, 21+.
Bulfinch Yacht Club Manteca Beat, 8 pm, $7,
Burren Singer Songwriter Labor Day Show, 10 55, 21+.
Passim Ember Swift, Ellery, 7:30 pm, $13-$15.
ers Ferry Earlimart, Office, Cassavettes, 8 pm, advance, $10 at the door, 18+.
edy's Midtown Teresa Franco, Wyndy Jones, Schwachman.
Murphy's Fully Celebrated, 11 pm, no cover, lle East Upstairs: Strung Out, I Am Ghost, 1 13 in advance, $15 at the door, all ages. Down- : Sunset Rubdown, Magic Weapon, Johnny and loon, $12, 18+.
Killian Hall: IIZ+M Three Zee Plus, Asian r Quartet, 3 pm, no cover. Wong Auditorium: rishnam, 4 pm, $10-$20.
dise Lounge Two Hour Change, Eric Jason ell, Flo, Boston and Bosco, 8 pm, $10, 18+.
dise Rock Club The Donnas with Donita s, Switches, 7 pm, $15, 18+.
We Are the Seahorses, Real Life Time Machines, derhole, Magic People, 8:30 pm, $7-$10, 18+.
ce Lounge Ray Santisi Trio, 5:30 pm, no cover, ny Doyles Open Mike, 8 pm, no cover, 21+.
f the Hub Lee Childs Group, 12 pm; Marty Bal- rio, 8 pm.

NDAY, OCTOBER 8

ol Lounge Alfredo Cardim, 6 pm, no cover, t Scott Black Mountain, the Cave Singers, 9 10, 18+.
ad The Fringe, 10 pm, $10 suggested donation, es.
Murphy's Madi Diaz, 11 pm, no cover, 21+.
le East Upstairs: the Helio Sequence, the ing States, $10 in advance, $12 at the door.
lay Reatard, Tunnel of Love, Nervous Wrecks, pm, $7-$10, 18+.
f the Hub Marty Ballou Trio, 8 pm.
he Bear's Place East Boston Makeout Club, ael Wagner, Ian Schwartz, Ed White, 8:30 pm,

ESDAY, OCTOBER 9

ulfinch Yacht Club Ebb & Flow, 8 pm, $7, 21+.
l Lounge Joe Barbato, 6 pm, no cover, 21+.
oundation Lounge Torch Tuesdays with Jeanie and the Strays, 8 pm, no cover, 21+.
t Scott This Car Up, Amoroso, Paper Thin s, 9 pm, $8, 18+.
hy D's Paul Geremia, 8:30 pm, $10, 21+.
Murphy's Public House, 11 pm, no cover, 21+.
le East The Helio Sequence, the Sleeping , $10 in advance, $12 at the door, 18+.
Artist Beyond the Desk Concert: Lee Smith, ael Denton, 12 pm.
Bar Rebecca Cline, 8 pm, no cover, 21+.
eum Phil Lesh and friends, 6:30 pm, $45, all lise Lounge BODOG Battle of the Bands, 5 all for price, 18+.
lise Rock Club The Pipettes with Monster , 7 pm, $13 in advance, $15 at the door, 18+.
Prize Country, 8:30 pm, $7-$10, 18+.
tabar Club d'Elf, Rudder, 7:30 pm, $15, 21+.
ers Jazz Club Average White Band, 8 pm and , $25-$65.
ny Doyles Tuesday Acoustic Showcase, 9:30 o cover, 21+.
f the Hub Chris Taylor Trio, 8:30 pm.
he Bear's Place Oakley Hall, Mean Creek, 9 10.

Music Venues

y Lounge 3 Beacon St., Somerville (617-441- . MBTA: Red Line to Central. is Arena 925 Comm. Ave., Boston (617-353- . MBTA: B Green Line to Pleasant. ia Cafe 334 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-497- . MBTA: Red Line to Central.
d 350 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-577- . MBTA: Red Line to Kendall/MIT.

Atrium The Regal Bostonian Hotel , 20 North St., Boston (617-523-3600). MBTA: Blue or Green Line to Gov. Center.
The Attic 107 Union St., Newton (617-964-6684). MBTA: D Green Line to Newton Centre.
Atwood's Tavern 877 Cambridge St., Cambridge (617-864-2792). MBTA: Red Line to Kendall/MIT or Green Line to Lechmere.
Avalon 15 Lansdowne St., Boston (617-262-2424). MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore.
Axis 13 Lansdowne St., Boston (617-262-2437). MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore.
Berklee Performance Center 136 Mass. Ave., Boston (617-747-2261). MBTA: Green Line to Hynes.
Bill's Bar 5½ Lansdowne St., Boston (617-421-9678). MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore.
The Black Horse Tavern Faneuil Hall Marketplace, Boston (617-227-2038). MBTA: Blue or Green Line to Gov. Center.
The Black Rose 160 State St., Boston (617-742-2286). MBTA: Blue or Green Line to Gov. Center.
Bob's Southern Bistro 604 Columbus Ave., Boston (617-536-6204). MBTA: Orange Line to Mass. Ave.
Boston Harbor Hotel 70 Rowes Wharf, Boston (617-439-7000). MBTA: Red Line to South Station.
Bravo at the MFA 465 Huntington Ave., Boston (617-369-3474). MBTA: E Green Line to Museum.
Breezeway 153 Blue Hill Ave., Roxbury (617-541-5400). MBTA: Orange Line to Jackson.
Bristol Lounge 200 Boylston St., Boston (617-351-2052). MBTA: Green Line to Arlington.
The Bullfinch Yacht Club 234 Friend St., Boston (617-723-0800). MBTA: Green or Orange Line to North Station.
The Burren 247 Elm St., Somerville (617-776-6896). MBTA: Red Line to Davis.
Cantab Lounge 738 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-354-2685). MBTA: Red Line to Central.
Cask 'n Flagon 62 Brookline Ave., Boston (617-536-4840). MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore.
Club Café 209 Columbus Ave., Boston (617-536-0966). MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay.
Club Passim 47 Palmer St., Cambridge (617-492-7679). MBTA: Red Line to Harvard.
Common Ground 85 Harvard Ave., Allston (617-783-2071). MBTA: B Green Line to Harvard.
Copperfield's 98 Brookline Ave., Boston (617-247-8605). MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore.
Dick's Last Resort Faneuil Hall Marketplace, Boston (617-267-8080). MBTA: Blue or Green Line to Gov. Center.
The Draft 34 Harvard Ave., Allston (617-783-9400). MBTA: B Green Line to Harvard.
The Enormous Room 567 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-491-5599). MBTA: Red Line to Central.
Felt 533 Washington St., Boston (617-350-5555). MBTA: Red or Orange Line to Downtown Crossing.
Fireplace 1634 Beacon St., Brookline (617-975-1900). MBTA: C Green Line to Washington.
First Act Guitar Studio 745 Boylston St., Boston (617-226-7899). MBTA: Green Line to Copley.
The Foundation Lounge Hotel Commonwealth, 500 Comm. Ave., Boston (617-859-9900). MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore.
The Good Life Downtown 28 Kingston St., Boston (617-451-2622). MBTA: Red or Green Line to Park.
Grand Canal 57 Canal St., Boston (617-523-1112). MBTA: Green or Orange Line to North Station.
Great Scott 1222 Comm. Ave., Allston (617-566-9014). MBTA: B Green Line to Harvard.
The Green Briar 304 Washington St., Brighton (617-789-4100).
The Green Dragon Tavern 11 Marshall St., Boston (617-367-0055). MBTA: Green or Orange Line to Haymarket.
Green Street 280 Green St., Cambridge (617-876-1655). MBTA: Red Line to Central.
The Harp 85 Causeway St., Boston (617-742-1010). MBTA: Green or Orange Line to North Station.
Harpers Ferry 158 Brighton Ave., Allston (617-254-9743). MBTA: B Green Line to Harvard.
Harpoon Brewery 306 Northern Ave., Boston (617-574-9551). MBTA: Red Line to South Station.
High Street Grill 200 High St., Boston (617-523-4000). MBTA: Red or Orange Line to Downtown Crossing.
Johnny D's 17 Holland St., Somerville (617-776-2004). MBTA: Red Line to Davis.
Joshua Tree 256 Elm St., Somerville (617-623-9910) MBTA: Red Line to Davis.
Kendall Café 233 Cardinal Medeiros Ave., Cambridge (617-547-3802). MBTA: Red Line to Kendall/MIT.
Kennedy's Midtown 42 Province St., Boston (617-426-3333). MBTA: Green or Red Line to Park.
Kings 10 Scotia St., Boston (617-266-2695). MBTA: Green Line to Hynes.
Kinsale 2 Center Plaza, Boston (617-742-5577). MBTA: Blue or Green Line to Gov. Center.

CLASSICAL MU

COME IF BY LAND,
COME IF BY SEA.

Live Music Sunday,
Tuesday and Thursday

Open daily for lunch
and dinner

Boston's favorite, casual, waterfront dining experience

THE BARKING CRAB
RESTAURANT
88 SLEEPER STREET, BOSTON, MA 02210
617.426.CRAB WWW.BARKINGCRAB.COM

Lily Pad 1353 Cambridge St., Cambridge (617-395-1393). MBTA: Red Line to Central.
Lizard Lounge 1667 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-547-0759). MBTA: Red Line to Harvard.
Lucky's Lounge 355 Congress St., Boston (617-357-5825). MBTA: Red Line to South Station.
Matt Murphy's 14 Harvard St., Brookine (617-232-0188). MBTA: D Green Line to Brookline Village.
Middle East 472 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-492-9181). MBTA: Red Line to Central.
Midway Café 3496 Washington St., Jamaica Plain (617-524-9038). MBTA: Orange Line to Green.
Milky Way 403 Centre St., Jamaica Plain (617-524-3740). MBTA: Orange Line to Jackson.
Millennium Bostonian Hotel 26 North St., Boston (617-523-3600). MBTA: Blue or Green Line to Gov. Center.
MIT 77 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-253-4003). MBTA Red Line to Kendall/MIT.
Mohegan Sun 1 Mohegan Sun Blvd., Uncasville, Conn. (888-226-7711).
Mr. Dooley's 77 Broad St., Boston (617-338-5656). MBTA: Blue or Green Line to Gov. Center.
Oak Bar Fairmont Copley Plaza Hotel, 138 St. James Ave., Boston (617-267-5300). MBTA: Green Line to Copley.
O'Brien's 3 Harvard Ave., Allston (617-782-6245). MBTA: B Green Line to Harvard.
Opera House 539 Washington St., Boston (617-880-2442). MBTA: Green Line to Boylston.
Orpheum Theatre 31 Hamilton Place, Boston (617-679-0810). MBTA: Green Line to Boylston.
Paddy O's 33 Union St., Boston (617-742-2121). MBTA: Green or Orange Line to Haymarket.
Paradise Lounge 969 Comm. Ave., Boston (617-562-8800). MBTA: B Green Line to Pleasant.
Paradise Rock Club 969 Comm. Ave., Boston (617-562-8800). MBTA: B Green Line to Pleasant.
Parris Faneuil Hall Marketplace, Boston (617-248-9900). MBTA: Blue or Green Line to Gov. Center.
PA's 345 Somerville Ave., Somerville (617-776-1557). MBTA: Blue or Green Line to Gov. Center.
Plough & Stars 912 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-576-0032). MBTA: Red Line to Central.
Purple Shamrock 1 Union St., Boston (617-227-2060). MBTA: Blue or Orange Line to State.
Regattabar Charles Hotel, Cambridge (617-395-7757). MBTA: Red Line to Harvard.
Revolution Rock Bar 200 High St., Boston (617-261-4200). MBTA: Blue Line to Aquarium.
Roggies 356 Chestnut Hill Ave., Brighton (617-566-1880). MBTA: C Green Line to Cleveland Circle.
Roxy 279 Tremont St., Boston (617-338-7699). MBTA: Green Line to Boylston.
Ryles Jazz Club 212 Hampshire St., Cambridge (617-876-9330). MBTA: Red Line to Harvard.
Sanders Theatre 45 Quincy St., Cambridge (617-496-2222). MBTA: Red Line to Harvard.
Scullers Jazz Club 400 Soldiers Field Road, Cambridge (617-562-4111). MBTA: Red Line to Central.
75 Chestnut 75 Chestnut St., Boston (617-227-2175). MBTA: Red Line to Charles/MGH.
Sky Bar 518 Somerville Ave., Somerville (617-623-5223). MBTA: Red Line to Davis.
Somerville Theatre 55 Davis Square, Somerville (617-625-5700). MBTA: Red Line to Davis.
Sweetwater Café 3 Boylston St., Boston (617-351-2515). MBTA: Green Line to Boylston.
Symphony Hall 301 Mass. Ave., Boston (617 266-1492). MBTA: E Green Line to Symphony.
Taj Boston Street Bar 15 Arlington St., Boston (617-536-5700) MBTA: Green Line to Arlington.
TD Banknorth Garden 100 Legends Way, Boston (617-624-1000). MBTA: Green or Orange Line to North Station.
Terrace Lounge 110 Huntington Ave., Boston (617-236-5800). MBTA: E Green Line to Prudential.
Toad 1912 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-497-4950). MBTA: Red Line to Porter.
Tommy Doyles 96 Winthrop St., Cambridge (617-225-0888). MBTA: Red Line to Harvard.
Top of the Hub Prudential Tower, Boston (617-536-1775). MBTA: E Green Line to Prudential.
Tsongas Arena 300 Martin Luther King Jr. Way, Lowell (617-848-6900). MBTA: Commuter Rail to Lowell.
T.T. the Bear's Place 10 Brookline St., Cambridge (617-492-2327). MBTA: Red Line to Central.
Venezia 20 Ericsson St., Dorchester (617-436-3120). MBTA: Red Line to Ashmont.
The Western Front 343 Western Ave., Cambridge (617-492-7772). MBTA: Red Line to Central.
Wonder Bar 186 Harvard Ave., Boston (617-351-2665). MBTA: B Green Line to Harvard.
ZuZu 472 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-864-3278). MBTA: Red Line to Central.
Les Zygomates 129 South St., Boston (617-542-5108). MBTA: Red Line to South Station.

Pianist Jean-Yves Thibaudet performs Oct. 5 and 6 with the Boston Symphony Orchestra.

classical music

WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 26

New England Conservatory

Jordan Hall, 30 Gainsborough St., Boston (617-585-1260). www.newenglandconservatory.edu. MBTA: E Green Line to Symphony. 8 pm. Free. Pianist Russell Sherman performs sonatas by Beethoven including Op. 31, "The Tempest," and Op. 57, "Appassionata."

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 28

Boston Classical Orchestra

Faneuil Hall Marketplace, Boston (617-423-3883). www.bostonclassicalorchestra.org. MBTA: Blue or Green Line to Gov. Center. 8 pm. Free. Through Sept. 30. Robert Levin, Mozart scholar and pianist, leads the BCO in Mozart's Concerto No. 25 in C, a new concerto based on unfinished fragments.

MIT's Kirsch Auditorium

Stata Center, 77 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-258-7971). www.mithas.org. MBTA: Red Line to Kendall/MIT. 7 pm. $10-$24. Bombayite Jayashri Ramnath performs Carnatic vocals, with HN Bhaskar on violin and J. Vaidyanathan on mridangam, an Indian drum.

New England Conservatory

Williams Hall, 30 Gainsborough St., Boston (617-585-1260). www.newenglandconservatory.edu. MBTA: E Green Line to Symphony. 10 am. Free. This master class with Fou Ts'ong focuses on the challenges facing concert pianists.

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 29

Chameleon Arts Ensemble of Boston

Goethe-Institut, 170 Beacon St., Boston (617-427-8200). www.chameleonarts.org. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. 8 pm. $13-$38. The CAE opens its 10th anniversary season with Strands of a Trio Twining, a re-creation of the first Chameleon concert in 1998. Pieces include Beethoven's Trio in G, Ingolf Dahl's Concerto a Tre and Brahms' Piano Trio No. 3 in C minor.

SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 30

Boston Classical Orchestra

Faneuil Hall Marketplace, Boston (617-423-3883). www.bostonclassicalorchestra.org. MBTA: Green or Orange Line to Haymarket. 3 pm. Free. See Sept. 28 Boston Classical Orchestra listing.

Emmanuel Church

15 Newbury St., Boston (617-536-3356). www.emmanuelmusic.org. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. 10 am. Free. Conductor Craig Smith leads soloist Jayne West and the Orchestra and Chorus of Emmanuel Music at Emmanuel Church in performing Bach's Cantata BWV 84, Ich Bin Vergnügt mit Meinem Glücke.

Isabella Stewart Gardner Museum

280 The Fenway, Boston (617-566-1401). www.gardnermuseum.org. MBTA: E Green Line to Museum of Fine Arts. 1:30 pm. $5-$23. A recital turing the Sonatas of Béla Bartók and Bra performed by young pianist Jonathan Biss wit mother, Miriam Fried, on the violin.

Newton Free Library Concert Program

330 Homer St., Newton (617-796-1360). ww newton.ma.us/library. MBTA: D Green Line to ton Highlands. 2 pm. Free. The trio of c Jonathan Miller, violinist Sharan Leventhal ar anist Lois Shapiro perform.

MONDAY, OCTOBER 1

Boston Landmarks Orchestra

Sanders Theatre, Memorial Hall, 45 Quincy St., bridge (617-520-2200). www.landmarksorchestra MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 8 pm. Free. Liz W and Samantha Power join composer Swanee in a discussion of the film Witness to Darfur, foll by the Boston Landmarks Orchestra's perform of Witness Cantata.

New England Conservatory

Jordan Hall, 30 Gainsborough St., Boston (617-1260). www.newenglandconservatory.edu. M E Green Line to Symphony. 8 pm. Free. NEC st faculty, along with Boston Symphony Orch wind and brass players, perform a variety of nese chamber pieces, including Johann Straus The Emperor's Waltz.

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 2

Boston University Symphony Orche

Tsai Performance Center, 855 Comm. Ave, B (617-353-3349). www.bu.edu/cfa. MBTA: B Line to BU East. 8 pm. Free. David Hoose con the BU Symphony Orchestra in pieces inclu Christopher Rouse's The Infernal Machine.

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 3

New England Conservatory

Jordan Hall, 30 Gainsborough St., Boston (617-1260). www.newenglandconservatory.edu. MBT Green Line to Symphony. 8pm. Free. Hugh Wolf ducts the NEC Harmonic in selections from Mackey's Lost and Found, Mozart's Symphony N in C and more.

Wellesley College

Jewett Arts Center, 106 Central St., Wellesley 283-2028). www.wellesley.edu. MBTA: Com Rail to Wellesley Square. 12:30 pm. Free. P Steven Drury performs Frederic Rzewski's The United Will Never Be Defeated!

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 4

Boston Symphony Orchestra

Symphony Hall, 301 Mass. Ave., Boston (617 1492). www.bso.org. MBTA: E Green Line to phony. 8 pm. $75-$2,500. Conductor James L leads the Pops in Opening Night with special mezzo-soprano Susan Graham and pianist Jean Thibaudet.

Boston University College of Fine Arts

Tsai Performance Center, 855 Comm. Ave., E (617-353-3349). www.bu.edu/cfa. MBTA: B Line to BU East. 8 pm. Free. William Lumpki Ann Howard Jones conduct the BU Chambe chestra and Chorus in Mozart's Overture to The riage of Figaro and Joseph Hadyn's Mass in D, Nelson," among others.

MIT's Chapel

Across from 77 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617 2905). http://web.mit.edu/arts. MBTA: Red L Kendall/MIT. 12 pm. Free. Elizabeth Reian Be plays the shakuhachi, the traditional Japanese boo flute. The Rosetta Trio also performs.

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 5

Boston Conservatory of Music

Boston Conservatory Theater, 8 The Fenway, (617-536-6340). www.bostonconservator MBTA: Green Line to Hynes. 8 pm. Free. Co tor Eric Hewitt leads a wind ensemble perfo Strauss' Serenade, Op.7, Wagner's Siegfrie and Trauermusik, and Paul Hindemith's from Symphonic Metamorphosis.

Boston Symphony Orchestra

Symphony Hall, 301 Mass. Ave., Boston (617 1492). www.bso.org. MBTA: E Green Line t phony. 8 pm. $30-$114. James Levine condu anist Jean-Yves Thibaudet in a performa Maurice Ravel's Piano Concerto in G.

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 6

Boston Symphony Orchestra

Symphony Hall, 301 Mass. Ave., Boston (617 1492). www.bso.org. MBTA: E Green Line t phony. 8 pm. $30-$114. See Oct. 5 Boston phony Orchestra listing.

andeis University
sberg Recital Hall, 415 South St., Waltham (781-3400). www.brandeis.edu. MBTA: Commuter l to Brandeis/Roberts. 7 pm. $10-$25. The Lydian ing Quartet performs Joseph Haydn's Quartet in Op. 76 No. 1; Franghiz Ali-Zadeh's Oasis for artet and Tape; and Schumann's Quartet in F, .41 No. 2.

ngwood Symphony Orchestra
lan Hall, 30 Gainsborough St., Boston (617-667-?7). www.longwoodsymphony.org. MBTA: E :en Line to Symphony. 1:30 pm. $15-$28. In a :cert to benefit their Art of Music program, the ngwood Symphony Orchestra performs Beetho-'s Symphony No. 9 and Samuel Barber's Night ht, Op. 19.

JNDAY, OCTOBER 7

ston Classical Orchestra
the-Institut, 170 Beacon St., Boston (617-423-3). www.bostonclassicalorchestra.org. MBTA: en Line to Copley. 7:30 pm. $75. Pianists Robert in and Ya-Fei Chuang join friends in classical rov as part of the orchestra's Artists-in-Resi-ce program. Dessert and wine included.

manuel Music
Newbury St., Boston (617-536-3356). www. anuelmusic.org. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. m. Free. Conductor Craig Smith leads the Or-stra and Chorus of Emmanuel Music in perform-Bach's Cantata BMV 177, Ich Ruf zu Dir, Herr Christ.

bella Stewart Gardner Museum
The Fenway, Boston (617-566-1401). www. nermuseum.org. MBTA: E Green Line to Museum ine Arts. 1:30 pm. $5-$23. The Amedeo digliani Quartet, winners of Young Concert ists competitions in both America and Europe, orm works by Joseph Hadyn, Beethoven and umann.

gy School of Music
ard M. Pickman Concert Hall, 27 Garden St., bridge (617-876-0956). www.longy.edu. MBTA: Line to Harvard. 7 pm. Free. The faculty artist tal features Jonathan Cohler and friends per-ing Horovitz's Sonatina, Stravinsky's Suite n Histoire du Soldat, Beethoven's Trio and ms' Clarinet Trio in A minor, Op. 114.

MIT's Wong Auditorium
Tang Center, 70 Memorial Drive, Cambridge (617-258-7971). www.mithas.org. MBTA: Red Line to Kendall/MIT. 4 pm. $10-$20. TN Krishnan performs the Carnatic violin, with Rohan Krishnamurthy on mridangam, an Indian drum.

MONDAY, OCTOBER 8

Boston University College of Fine Arts
Tsai Performance Center, 855 Comm. Ave, Boston (617-353-3349). www.bu.edu/cfa. MBTA: B Green Line to BU East. 8 pm. Free. David Martins conducts the BU Wind Ensemble in a selection of pieces, including Matthew Ricketts' Double Concerto, Byron Weigel's Lucid Dreams, Stephen Yips' Shadow of Golconda and others.

New England Conservatory
Jordan Hall, 30 Gainsborough St., Boston (617-585-1260). www.newenglandconservatory.edu. MBTA: E Green Line to Symphony. 11 am. Free. NEC participates in the Fenway Alliance's annual "Opening Our Doors Day," in which arts organizations around the neighborhood showcase their works for the public.

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 9

MIT's Killian Hall
160 Memorial Drive, Cambridge (617-253-6857). http://web.mit.edu/abd. MBTA: Red Line to Kendall/MIT. 12 pm. Free. In this installment of the Artist Beyond the Desk series, pianist Lee Smith performs original compositions along with some of his favorite classical pieces, featuring baritone Michael Denton.

New England Conservatory
30 Gainsborough St., Boston (617-585-1260). www.newenglandconservatory.edu. MBTA: E Green Line to Symphony. •Jordan Hall. 8 pm. Free. In their first recital tour, NEC faculty member/violinist Kim Kashkashian and Harvard professor/pianiast Robert Levin perform works including Bach's Sonata for Viola da Gamba and Piano, and Brahms' Sonata No. 1 in F minor, Op. 120. •Brown Hall. 8 pm. Free. A behind-the-scenes look at what goes on daily under NEC director of opera studies John Greer and his faculty as they prepare students for performance careers.

dance clubs

Advice to Contributors
Submit club listings by fax (617-859-1446), by mail to Calendar/Clubs, or by email to clubs@improper.com. Include day of the week, times, prices, phone numbers and nearest T stop. Deadline is four weeks prior to publication date. Listings not accepted over the phone.

Nights

MONDAYS

An Tua Nua
Ceremony A night of goth and industrial music, 10 pm, $5-$6.

Axis
Static Gay night with DJ Susan Esthera and a themed drag show, 10 pm, $7, free on guest list, 21+.

Caprice
Geisha Lounge Resident DJs Tamer and Gregory play chill beats, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

Felt
Cabana Mondays Free pool, salsa lessons at 7 pm ($10), and music from DJs Hernan and Martinez, 7 pm-2 am, no cover, 21+.

Golden Temple
The E Room DJ Robert Weintraub spins R&B, hip-hop, Motown, pop and acid jazz, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

Green Briar
Irish seissun, 8 pm, no cover, 21+.

Kings
Industry Night 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

Milky Way
DJs and live music, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

Phoenix Landing
Makka Mondays DJ Uppercut spins hip-hop and reggae, 10 pm, $3, 21+.

The Place
Coyote Karaoke Belt out your favorite rock 'n' roll classics, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

River Gods
Weekly Wax Two local DJs go head-to-head in a musical face-off, 8 pm, no cover, 21+.

Saint
SIN Service Industry Night DJ Chris Roxx spins house, hip-hop and more, 10 pm-2 am, 21+.

Sissy K's
Karaoke for a $50 cash prize, then dance upstairs as DJ Littles spins Top 40, 8 pm-2 am, no cover, 21+.

Water Works
Make Up Mondays DJs spin Top 40 dance mixes, 10 pm-2 am, $5 before 10 pm, $10 after, 21+.

Wonder Bar
Northeastern Mondays include DJ 7L spinning hip-hop, R&B and classics, no cover, 21+.

TUESDAYS

Aria
Novitá Tuesday Mingle with young professionals while DJs spin club mixes, women free, $5 off at the door with your business card, 10 pm, 21+.

Bell in Hand
Karaoke night, acoustic music, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

Caprice
Industry Tuesdays DJ Chris Roxx spins Top 40, hip-hop, R&B and dance, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

Dbar
DJs Kevin and Ryan play showtunes, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

The Foundation Lounge
Torch Tuesdays Live '30s, '40s and '50s music, no cover, 21+.

Golden Temple
The E Room DJ Robert Weintraub spins R&B, Motown, pop and acid jazz, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

The Kells
Fat Tuesdays DJ Grasshopper spins Top 40 music, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

Kings
College night, 9 pm, no cover.

Milky Way
All-Star Karaoke Regular karaoke first and third Tuesdays of each month, live-band karaoke second and fourth Tuesdays, 10 pm, up to $3, 21+.

Paradise Lounge
Mashup Tuesdays DJ G-Squared spins hip-hop, rock, '80s and more, 10 pm, $7, 21+.

Phoenix Landing
Take DJ Scott Bliff spins funk, soul and electro '80s, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

The Place
College Party Top 40, hip-hop and dance, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

The Purple Shamrock
Terry Brennan sing-along, 9:30 pm, no cover, 21+.

Redline
Ipodapalooza Show off your DJ skills and your best 30-minute playlist, 9 pm-1 am, no cover, 21+.

River Gods
A mix of DJs and music, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

Rumor
DJ Sender and DJ Roger M spin a mix of hip-hop and house, 11 pm, $20, $15 on guest list, 21+.

Ryles Dance Hall
Noche Latina DJ Ali and special guest DJs keep you dancing with salsa lessons beginning at 7 pm, $13; 9:30 pm, $10.

Saint
Flaunt Tuesday Gay Mafia hosts while DJ Ranny spins Top 40, 10 pm-2 am, 21+.

Sissy K's
Karaoke with a $50 cash prize, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

Tabú
Stupid Keith's Karaoke Participate to win $250, 8 pm, 21+.
MYNT International Tuesdays DJ Eddy Lee spins hip-hop and house, 11 pm-2 am, $15, 21+.

WEDNESDAYS

An Tua Nua
Salsa Night DJs spin salsa music. Includes beginner lessons, 8 pm, $10, 21+.

Common Ground
Guitar Hero Battle Duke it out on the big screen, 10:30 pm, no cover, 21+.

Dockside
Karaoke, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

Flat Top Johnny's
DJs spin rock, 10 pm, no cover, 21+. Ladies' Night: 6 pm-1 am, half-priced pool for women every week.

The Foundation Lounge
"Famous" Wednesdays DJs G-Squared and Dirty Dek spin mashups, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

Golden Temple
The E Room DJ Robert Weintraub spins R&B, Motown, pop and acid jazz, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

Kings
Take the stage at open-mike night, 9 pm, no cover.

Milky Way
Assorted live entertainment including DJs, spoken word and dance, 9 pm-1 am, no cover, 21+.

Phoenix Landing
Return of Techno DJs spin underground dance music, 10 pm-1 am, $5.

The Place
Beach Party DJs spin Top 40, hip-hop and dance, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

The Purple Shamrock
Karaoke, 9:30 pm, no cover, 21+.

Rain
Oldies but Goodies DJ Russ McQueen spins hits from the '50s, '60s and '70s, 8 pm, no cover, 21+.

Redline
Mood Mosaic DJ Deano Sounds spins boogaloo, basilica, funk and soul, 8:30 pm-12 am, no cover, 21+.

River Gods
Dance to rock, gospel and blues, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

Sissy K's
DJ Littles spins Top 40 and dance, 8 pm, no cover.

Tabú
Under 21 Party Themes vary each week at this party for the younger crowd, 8 pm, $15, 18+.

Underbar
DJ Ricky Fatts and DJ Bruno spin hip-hop, R&B and reggae, 11 pm, 21+.

Venu
DJ Adilson, 11 pm, $20, $15 on guest list, 21+.
Chaps Latino Night Gay night with DJs Adilson and Dina spinning Latin, house, hip-hop and Top 40 in two rooms, 10 pm-2 am, $8, 21+.

Vertigo
Analogue DJs Pete Yagmin, Special Pete, Peter Ellis and Greg Blake spin dance and house, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

Wonder Bar
Wonder Bar Wednesdays DJ Tommy C spins hip-hop, R&B and classics, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

THURSDAYS

An Tua Nua
'80s, one-hit wonders, Top 40 and hip-hop, 10 pm, $5, 21+.

Aria
Sutra Thursdays Various DJs spin Top 40, mash, international house and Latin, 10 pm-2 am, $20 on guestlist, women free before 12 am, 21+.

Axis
DJ Tim Ryan spins house and alternative, 10 pm 21+.

Bell in Hand
Party Music Master spins everything, 10 pm, no c 21+.

Boston Rocks
DJs spin Top 40 and hip-hop, no cover, 21+.

Caprice
After Dark Boston DJs Pup Dawg and Bruno hip-hop and Hindi music, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

Clerys
DJ Rhythm Nights, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

Common Ground
Love Night DJ Brian Love plays tunes from the 10:30 pm, $3, 21+.

Felt
True Music Thursdays Live rock, funk and altern performances by local and national bands, 9 pm cover, 21+.

The Foundation Lounge
Soulicious Thursdays Evan Goodrow and the F dation Lounge band "Soulicious" play music by Charles, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

Golden Temple
The E Room DJ Robert Weintraub spins R&B, town, pop and acid jazz, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

Green Briar
DJs spin dance music, 9:30 pm, no cover, 21+.

Jake Ivory's
'80s Night '80s-themed dress, 9 pm, no cover, 21

Jose McIntyre's
Karyn & Caitlyn Promo Night No cover, 21+.

The Kells
Fun House DJ Grasshopper spins dance tunes and hop, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

Kings
Let It Out Karaoke night featuring prizes and aways, 10 pm, no cover.

Milky Way
Aquanet Dance Party Old-school hip-hop, '80s, and soul, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

Om
DJ Mario spins international beats.

Phoenix Landing
Elements DJs Crook, Lenore and Mad Dog pr drum 'n' bass with special guests, 10 pm, $5.

The Place
DJ Chris Roxx spins Top 40 and dance, 10 pr cover, 21+.

The Point
Ladies Night DJs spin dance and hip-hop, 9 pm-

The Purple Shamrock
Musician Jim Plunkett and DJ Mike Flanagin pm, $5, 21+.

The Quarter
The Glamorous Life DJ Susan Esthera spins hip and Top 40 party music at this gay night.

Redline
All Star Roulette Six Boston DJs provide the m 10 pm-2 am, $5, 21+.

Revolution Rock Bar
Ditch Thursdays DJ Rick Rude, TBA.

River Gods
A mix of DJs and music, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

Roggies
Karaoke night, 8 pm, no cover, 21+.

Rumor
DJs Roger M and JC spin house and Latin, 11 am, $20, $15 on guest list, 21+.

Ryles Dance Hall
Temporada Latina A night of salsa lessons and ing, 8:30 pm-1 am, $8-$12, 21+.

Saint
Mashup Thursdays Guest DJs spin hip-hop, and Top 40, 10 pm, 21+.

Sissy K's
Karaoke downstairs, while DJ Littles spins Top 4 dance music upstairs, 8 pm-2 am, no cover, 21+.

Tabú
Nightclub: DJ Gee-Spin from JAM'N 94.5 hip-hop, reggae and R&B beats, 10 pm, no 18+. Ultralounge: DJ Guillian spins salsa, mer and bachata, 10 pm, $10; women free befo pm, 18+.

Toast
International Brazilian Night 10 pm-1 am, varies.

Underbar
Moda Thursdays DJ Franklin spins Latin and national house, 11 pm, $20 at the door, $15 on list, 21+.

Vertigo
Analog Thursdays Electronic music, 10 pm cover, 21+.

BORN IN IRELAND
RAISED EVERYWHERE
TRIPLE DISTILLED. PATIENTLY AGED. DISTINCTIVELY SMOOTH.
Tullamore Dew
FINEST OLD IRISH WHISKEY
12
Tullamore Dew
IRISH WHISKEY
Give every man his Dew
TULLAMOREDEW.COM
Enjoy Responsibly

Wonder Bar
Thirsty Thursdays with DJs Heven and Turbz, along with DJs K-Rich and Kreation, 10 pm, 21+.

FRIDAYS

An Tua Nua
'80s, one-hit wonders, Top 40 and hip-hop, 10 pm, $5, 21+.

Aria
DJs Big and Uptown spin hip-hop, salsa, house and international, 10 pm, $15, $10 on guest list, 21+.

Asgard
DJ Dave M spins dance and Top 40, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

Avalon
Avaland Guest DJs spin house and techno, 10 pm, $10.

The Avenue
DJ Murray spins Top 40, 9 pm, $5, 21+.

Axis
Axis Fridays Top 40 upstairs, trance and house downstairs, 10 pm, $10, 21+.

Bell in Hand
Party Music Master spins everything, 10 pm, $5, 21+.

Boston Rocks
Party Like a Rockstar Fridays DJ SugaShane spins hip-hop, dancehall, reggaeton and party breaks, 10 pm-2 am, free on guest list until 12 am, 21+.

Caprice
Downstairs: Greek Night DJ Paul Yotis spins international and ethnic house, 10 pm, no cover, 19+. Upstairs: Casablanca@Caprice DJs Tom Bartlett, Matt Dimond and Sergio Santos spin house, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

Clerys
DJ Rhythm Nights, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

Common Ground
Guest DJs spin, 10 pm, 21+.

Coogan's
DJ C-Nice spins dance favorites, 10 pm, cover varies, 21+.

Dbar
DJ Mike Giller spins Top 40 and house beats, 10 pm-2 am, no cover, 21+.

Devlin's
DJs spin dance and hip-hop, 9 pm-1 am, no cover, 21+.

The Estate
Resurrection Fridays International DJs spin the latest in house, trance and break-beat music, 10 pm-2 am, no cover, 21+.

Felt
Heated Fridays DJs spin Top 40, house, rock and hip-hop, 10 pm, no cover, 21+. Fourth Floor: DJ Vinnie of Mashup Mafia spins mashups, '80s, dance and rock, 10 pm, 21+.

The Foundation Lounge
Various DJs mix everything from jazz and lounge to disco, funk, dance and R&B, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

Golden Temple
The E Room DJ Robert Weintraub spins '70s, '80s, '90s and vocal house, 9:30 pm, 21+.

Great Scott
DJs Ken and Michael V spin , 9 pm, $5, 21+.

Green Briar
DJs and live music, 9:30 pm, $5, 21+.

Gypsy Bar
DJ Niso spins Top 40, hip-hop and house, 10 pm-2 am, $10, 21+.

The Harp
DJs spin dance mixes upstairs and downstairs bands upstairs, 9 pm, $5 before 10 pm, $10 21+.

Hurricane O'Reilly's
DJ Dennis spins Top 40 and dance, 10 pm cover, 21+.

ID
Doubleplus Fridays DJs spin trance, breaks house, 10 pm, $10, 21+.

Jake Ivory's
Dueling Rock and Roll Piano Show 8:30 pm 21+.

Jose McIntyre's
DJ Massi spins Top 40 and hip-hop, 10 pm 21+.

The Kells
Ladies' Night DJ Sender spins Top 40 and hip-h

the main room, and DJ Doc spins '80s, '90s and jams, 10 pm, $6, women free before 12 am, 21+

Liquor Store
DJ Mario spins Top 40, hip-hop and rock, 9 am, $5, 21+.

Mantra
Flow Fridays DJ K Rich spins hip-hop, '80s, and house, 10 pm, women free until 12 am, $15, 21+.

Middlesex Lounge
Various DJs spin soul, funk, down-tempo and hop, no cover, 21+.

Milky Way
Live music and performance, 10 pm, $7-$10,

Om
DJ Mike Swells spins house beats.

Parris
DJ Scortch spins Top 40 and hip-hop at 8 pm bands at 10 pm, $5 before 9 pm, 21+.

Phoenix Landing
Pretty Young Thing Top 40 with DJ Vinny, 1 no cover, 21+.

The Place
VJ Dweb spins a mix of Top 40 and hip-hop screens show Boston sports highlights, 10 pm 21+.

The Point
Rock Reggae Friday takes place downstairs wh Obsession oversees the music upstairs, 10 pm- 21+.

Pure
Pure Fridays Lesbian Night Rotating DJs spi hop and Top 40, 9 pm, $5 before 11 pm, 21+.

The Purple Shamrock
Top 40 with DJ Thom, 10 pm, $5, 21+.

The Quarter
DJs spin rock, hip-hop, mashups, Top 40 and beats, 21+.

Rain
Corona Beach Party DJ Jim from KISS 108 Top 40, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

Redline
Friday Alternative DJ KC Hallett spins, 8 pm $5 after 10 pm, 21+.

Revolution Rock Bar
Lettin' Loose Fridays Enjoy afterwork specia classic rock favorites, 5-8 pm, followed by DJ S 10 pm-2 am, no cover, 21+.

River Gods
An eclectic mix of DJs and music, 9 pm, no 21+.

…ky
…dilson spins high-energy dance music, 11 pm-2 …15 before 12 am, $20 after 12 am, $10 on guest …21+.

…nor
…rofenna and weekly guest DJs, 11 pm-2 am, $20, …n guest list, 21+.

…es Dance Hall
… Dance Party Rotating DJs provide bachata, …ngue, reggaeton and salsa music, free before 10 …5 before 11 pm, $10 after, tasteful attire required.

…nt
…ven Fridays DJs G-Squared and Tanno provide a …of everything, 10 pm, 21+.

…y K's
…hnny C spins Top 40 and dance music, 9 pm-2 …o cover, 21+.

…te
…nti and guest DJs spin Eurohouse, rock and '80s …es, 11 pm, $20, 21+.

…ú
… Fridays DJ Spitaleri spins hip-hop, reggae and …eton, women free before 11 pm, $10 after, $10 for …21+, $15 for guys 18+.

…uila Rain
…ike spins Top 40, hip-hop and rock, 9 pm-2 am, …1+.

…Restaurant
…io 33 Fridays DJs spin retro dance mixes, hip-… house and Latin, 10 pm-2 am, no cover, 21+.

… Ultralounge
…Fresh DJ Babyface spins Top 40, R&B and hip-… 10:30 pm, $15, 21+.

…st
…y Night 9 pm-2 am, $5, 21+.

…llerbar
…e Music Fridays DJ Franklin spins hip-hop, …e and Latin, 11 pm, $20, 21+.

…u
…oger M spins hip-hop, Latin and international, …er dress required, 11 pm, $20, $15 on guest list, …

…tigo
… Fridays DJs spin a mix of Latin, reggae, hip-hop …nternational, 10 pm, $15, 21+.

…er Works
…s Night Out Fridays DJs spin Top 40 dance mixes, 10 pm-2 am, women free before 11 pm, $10 after, 21+.

Wonder Bar
DJs Kon and Lazee Boy spin hip-hop, R&B and old-school classics, 10 pm, $5, 21+.

SATURDAYS

An Tua Nua
DJ Howie spins Top 40 and hip-hop, 10 pm, $5, 21+.

Aria
Various DJs spin house, 10:30 pm-2 am, 21+.

Avalon
DJ Tim Collins spins mashups, rock and Top 40, 10 pm, $10, free on guest list, 21+.

Axis
Heroes Night Various DJs spin '80s and retro, 10 pm, $6.

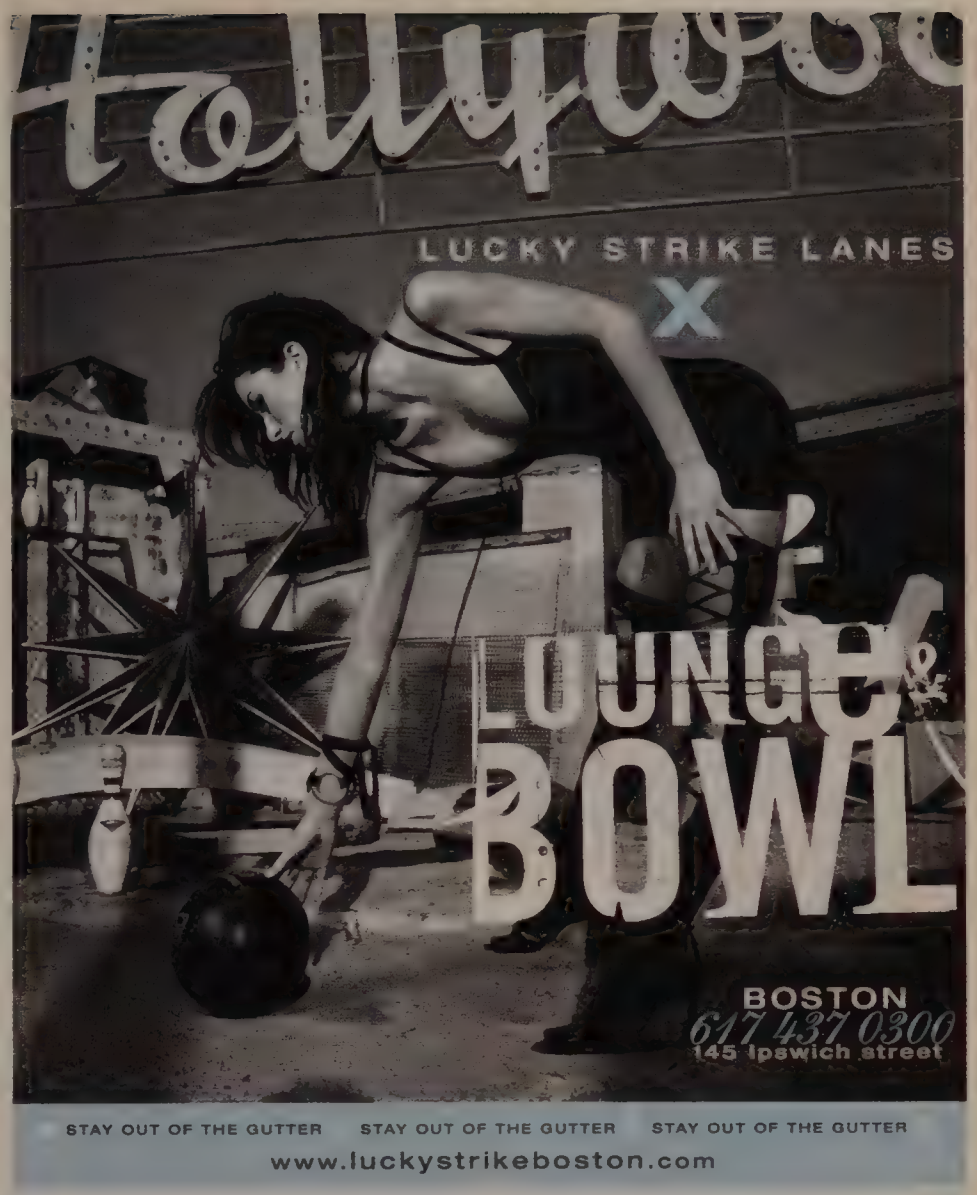
Bell in Hand
Party Music Master spins everything, 10 pm, $10, 21+.

Boston Rocks
DJ Voodoo spins Top 40 and hip-hop, 5 pm-2 am, $5 after 11 pm, 21+.

Buzz
The gay crowd gets busy to DJ Mary Alice's popular dance and DJ Michael Sheehan's deep house and trance, 10 pm, $10, 21+.

Caprice
First floor: DJ Franklin spins international music, 10 pm, no cover, 21+. Second floor: Privé Saturdays DJ Paul Yioti spins ethnic house, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

Clerys
DJ Rhythm Nights, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.



Common Ground
DJ Hannon and DJs Deano and Jay, 10 pm, 21+.

Coogan's
DJ C-Nice spins a mix of dance favorites, 10 pm, $5, 21+.

Dbar
DJs Jay Ine and Ted Ellison spin house beats, 10 pm-2 am, no cover, 21+.

Devlin's
DJ Brother Cleve spins a mix of '80s, '90s and current favorites, 9 pm-1 am, no cover, 21+.

Felt
Social Club Saturdays DJ Mike Bose spins Top 40, classic rock, house and hip-hop, 11 pm, $10, 21+.

Try the best Lobster Ravioli in Boston for the best price!
$12.95

Have one of our 21 sauces over any one of our 17 freshly made pastas and raviolis.
We cater to vegetarians.
First time callers get 20% off, just mention this ad!

52 Queensberry Street, Boston
617-266-1313

Order online at Blackjackpasta.com | Ask for our Catering Menu
Free Delivery to Boston and Cambridge

The Foundation Lounge
DJ Tanno spins Top 40, reggae, house and disco, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

Golden Temple
The E Room DJ John Reed spins music from the '70s, '80s and '90s, as well as Top 40, 9:30 pm, no cover, 21+.

Green Briar
DJs and live music, 9:30 pm, $5, 21+.

Gypsy Bar
DJ Niso spins in the dance room, and DJ Mario spins at the front bar, 10 pm-2 am, $10, 21+.

The Harp
DJs spin hottest dance mixes upstairs and downstairs, live bands upstairs, 9 pm, $5 before 10 pm, $10 after, 21+.

Hurricane O'Reilly's
DJ Massi, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

ID
Heroes DJ Chris Ewen spins retro, punk and new wave, 10 pm, $6, 21+.

Jake Ivory's
Dueling Rock and Roll Piano Show 8:30 pm, $8, 21+.

Jose McIntyre's
DJ Dennis spins Top 40, hip-hop and dance, 9 pm, $5, 21+.

The Kells
DJ Darren spins Top 40, dance and house in the main room, and DJ Grasshopper mixes '80s, '90s and new jams downstairs, 10 pm, $6, 21+.

Liquor Store
DJ Mario spins Top 40 and rock, 9 pm-2 am, $5, 21+.

Mantra
Night Life DJ Liam spins a mix of house, hip-hop, and rock, 11 pm, $20, 21+.

Middlesex Lounge
DJ Kon spins dance and Top 40 hits, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

Milky Way
Mango's Latin Dance Night DJ Antonio Ortíz spins merengue, salsa and bachata beats, 9 pm, $5-$10, free for women before 10:30 pm, 21+.

Om
DJs spin house music with a global edge.

Parris
DJ Scortch spins Top 40 and hip-hop beats at 8 pm, live bands at 10 pm, $5 before 9 pm, 21+.

Phoenix Landing
Boom Boom Room DJ Vinny spins one-hit wonders, New Wave and disco, 10 pm, $4, 21+.

The Place
VJ Dweb entertains, 10 pm, $5, 21+.

The Point
DJ Obsession provides music upstairs, 9 pm-2 am, 21+.

Pure
Sensual Saturdays DJ NRG spins hip-hop, old-school classics, R&B and dancehall, 10:30 pm, $20, 21+.

The Purple Shamrock
Cover bands perform and DJ Thom spins Top 40 beats, 10 pm, $5, 21+.

The Quarter
DJs spin rock, hip-hop and mashups, 10 pm, 21+.

Rain
KISS 108's Billy Costa hosts as DJ Randy spins Top 40, house, dance and rock music, 10 pm, $10, 21+.

Redline
Soul Shack DJ Inkognito spins disco, soul, funk and old-school favorites, and DJ Paul Foley spins on the last Saturday of the month, 10 pm-2 am, $5, 21+.

Revolution Rock Bar
DJ Rick Rude, TBA.

River Gods
A variety of DJs and music, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

Roxy
Latin Saturdays DJs spin Latin beats, 10 pm, $10 before 11 pm, $15 after 11 pm, 21+.

Rumor
DJs Thamer and JC spin a mix of hip-hop, house and Latin music, 11 pm-2 am, $20, $15 on guest list, 21+.

Ryles Dance Hall
Four on the Floor Supershag Productions supplies Latin, tango and salsa dancing, 9:15 pm-2 am.

Saint
Guest DJs from Boston and abroad spin, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

Sissy K's
Dance Party Saturdays DJ Tiz spins Top 40 and dance beats, 8 pm-2 am, no cover, 21+.

6B Lounge
'80s Night DJ Azure spins retro rock tunes while decked out in his most stylish '80s gear, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

Suite
DJs Jamie, Juan de la Luna and Santi spin house and international, 11 pm, $10, 21+.

Tabú
Nightclub: DJ Leandro spins hip-hop, reggae, reg ton and house beats, 11 pm, $15, 18+. Ultralounge Steve Anderson spins '80s, '90s and Top 40, 7 pm cover, 21+.

Tequila Rain
DJ Mike spins Top 40, hip-hop and rock, 9 pm-2 $5, 21+.

33 Restaurant
Filter Saturdays DJs Tasso and Niko G spin L Top 40, dance, hip-hop and international house b 10 pm-2 am, 21+.

360 Ultralounge
Sapphire Saturdays DJs spin hip-hop, Latin, h and R&B, 10 pm, $15, 21+.

Underbar
DJ Angel Moraes alternates with international h DJs, 11 pm, $20, 21+.

Venu
DJs Sender and JC spin the newest R&B, hip-hop Latin, 10 pm, $15, 21+.

Vertigo
DJs Hectik and Hevan, 11 pm, $10, 21+.

Water Works
Buckwild Saturdays DJs spin Top 40 dance mixe pm-2 am, $5 before 10 pm, $10 after, 21+.

West Street Grille
Late Night Lounge DJs play funk and Top 4 night, 10:30 pm, $5, 21+.

Whiskey Bar
Wicked Saturdays DJs spin hip-hop, R&B, pop Top 40, 10:30 pm, $10, 21+.

Wonder Bar
DJs 7L and Braun Johnson spin hip-hop, R&B old-school beats, 10 pm, $5, 21+.

SUNDAYS

Avalon
Gay Night DJ Rich Ladue spins progressive h trance and techno at Boston's longest-running night, 10 pm, $10, 21+.

Bill's Bar
Reggae Sundays Dub Station features a variety o reggae acts, 10 pm $7-$10, 21+.

Devlin's
Service Industry Night, 9 pm-1 am, no cover, 21+

Golden Temple
The E Room DJ John Reed spins music from the '80s and '90s, as well as Top 40, 9:30 pm, no cove

Green Briar
DJ Doc spins, no cover, 21+.

Milky Way
Live music, 9 pm, cost varies, 21+.

Phoenix Landing
Bump An underground house-music night featu rotating roster of resident DJs, 10 pm, $5.

The Place
Chad LaMarsh appears with VJ Leathers, 10 pm,

Pure
Caribbean night, 9 pm, $10, 21+.

Rain
DJ Danny Sharp and/or the World Premier Banc ply old-school funk, Top 40 and dance tunes, band nights, 8 pm, 21+.

River Gods
Action Sunday DJs play punk, garage and rock, 1 no cover, 21+.

Roggies
Caribbean night, 8 pm, no cover, 21+.

Ryles Dance Hall
Salsa Sundays An evening of salsa music, danc food, 7-11 pm, $10.

Saint
Style Sundays Two guest DJs spin a variety of mu this Industry Night, 10 pm-2 am, 21+.

Sissy K's
Karaoke, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

Tabú
Under 21 Party 8 pm, $15, 18+.

360 Ultralounge
Miami Heat DJ Dru Nyce spins R&B, hip-hop, r and salsa beats, 10:30 pm, $10, 21+.

Vertigo
Jump Off DJs spin hip-hop, reggae and reggaeto pm, no cover, 21+.

Water Works
We Love Sundays DJs spin Top 40 dance mix pm-2 am, $5 before 10 pm, $10 after, 21+.

Wonder Bar
DJs Chu and Krucial spin a mix of soul, funk, hi and reggae, 10 pm, 21+.

Club Venues

An Tua Nua 835 Beacon St., Boston (617-262-21
Aria 246 Tremont St., Boston (617-338-7080).
Asgard 350 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-577-91
Avalon 15 Lansdowne St., Boston (617-262-2424

Avenue 1249 Comm. Ave., Allston (617-782-
3 Lansdowne St., Boston (617-262-2437).
n Hand 45-55 Union St., Boston (617-227- Bar 5½ Lansdowne St., Boston (617-421-9678).
n Rocks 245 Quincy St., Boston (617-726- 51 Stuart St., Boston (617-482-3939).
ce 275 Tremont St., Boston (617-292-0080).
s 331 Columbus Ave., Boston (617-262-9874).
non Ground 85 Harvard Ave., Allston (617-783- an's 173 Milk St., Boston (617-451-7415).
1236 Dorchester Ave., Dorchester (617-265-
's 332 Washington St., Brighton (617-779-8822).
side 183 State St., Boston (617-723-7050).
istate 1 Boylston Place, Boston (617-351-7000).
sior 272 Boylston St., Boston (617-426-7878).
33 Washington St., Boston (617-350-5555). op Johnny's 1 Kendall Square, Cambridge (617- 565). oundation Lounge 500 Comm. Ave., Boston 859-9900).
n Temple 1651 Beacon St., Brookline (617-277- Scott 1222 Comm. Ave., Boston (617-566- Briar 304 Washington St., Brighton (617-789- Bar 116 Boylston St., Boston (617-482-7799). larp 85 Causeway St., Boston (617-742-1010).
cane O'Reilly's 150 Canal St., Boston (617-722- Lansdowne St., Boston (617-262-2437).
vory's 9 Lansdowne St., Boston (617-247-1222).
IcIntyre's 160 Milk St., Boston (617-451-9460).
Cells 161 Brighton Ave., Allston (617-782-9082).
10 Dalton St., Boston (617-266-2695).
r Store The Alley, Boston (617-357-6800).
ra 52 Temple Place, Boston (617-542-8111).
nn's 197 Portland St., Boston (617-227-4059). esex Lounge 315 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617- 739).
Way 403-405 Centre St., Jamaica Plain (617- 740).

The Office 5 Broad St., Boston (617-474-7866).
Om 92 Winthrop St., Cambridge (617-576-2800).
Parris Quincy Market Building, Boston (617-248-9900).
Phoenix Landing 512 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-576-6260).
The Place 2 Broad St., Boston (617-523-2081).
The Point 147 Hanover St., Boston (617-523-7020).
Pure 275 Tremont St., Boston (617-542-4077).
The Purple Shamrock 1 Union St., Boston (617-227-2060).
The Quarter 36 Lansdowne St., Boston (617-536-2100).
Rain 665 Broadway, Malden (781-322-2101).
Redline 59 JFK St., Cambridge (617-491-9851).
Revolution Rock Bar 200 High St., Boston (617-261-4200).
River Gods 125 River St., Cambridge (617-576-1881).
Roggies 56 Chestnut Hill Ave., Brighton (617-566-1880).
Roxy 279 Tremont St., Boston (617-338-7699).
Rumor 100 Warrenton St., Boston (617-482-6958).
Ryles Dance Hall 212 Hampshire St., Cambridge (617-876-9300).
Saint 90 Exeter St., Boston (617-236-1134).
Sissy K's 6 Commercial St., Boston (617-248-6511).
6B 6 Beacon St., Boston (617-742-8565).
Suite 1 Boylston Place, Boston (617-512-5311).
Tabú 168 Broadway, Saugus (781-231-5111).
Tequila Rain 3 Lansdowne St., Boston (617-437-0300).
33 Restaurant 33 Stanhope St., Boston (617-572-3311).
360 Lounge 33 Batterymarch St., Boston (617-695-9333).
Toast 70 Union Square, Somerville (617-623-9211).
Umbria 295 Franklin St., Boston (617-338-1000).
Underbar 275 Tremont St., Boston (617-292-7122).
Venu 100 Warrenton St., Boston (617-338-8061).
Vertigo 126 State St., Boston (617-723-7277).
Water Works 333 Victory Road, Quincy (617-689-0600).
West Street Grille 15 West St., Boston (617-423-0300).
Wonder Bar 186 Harvard Ave., Allston (617-351-2665).

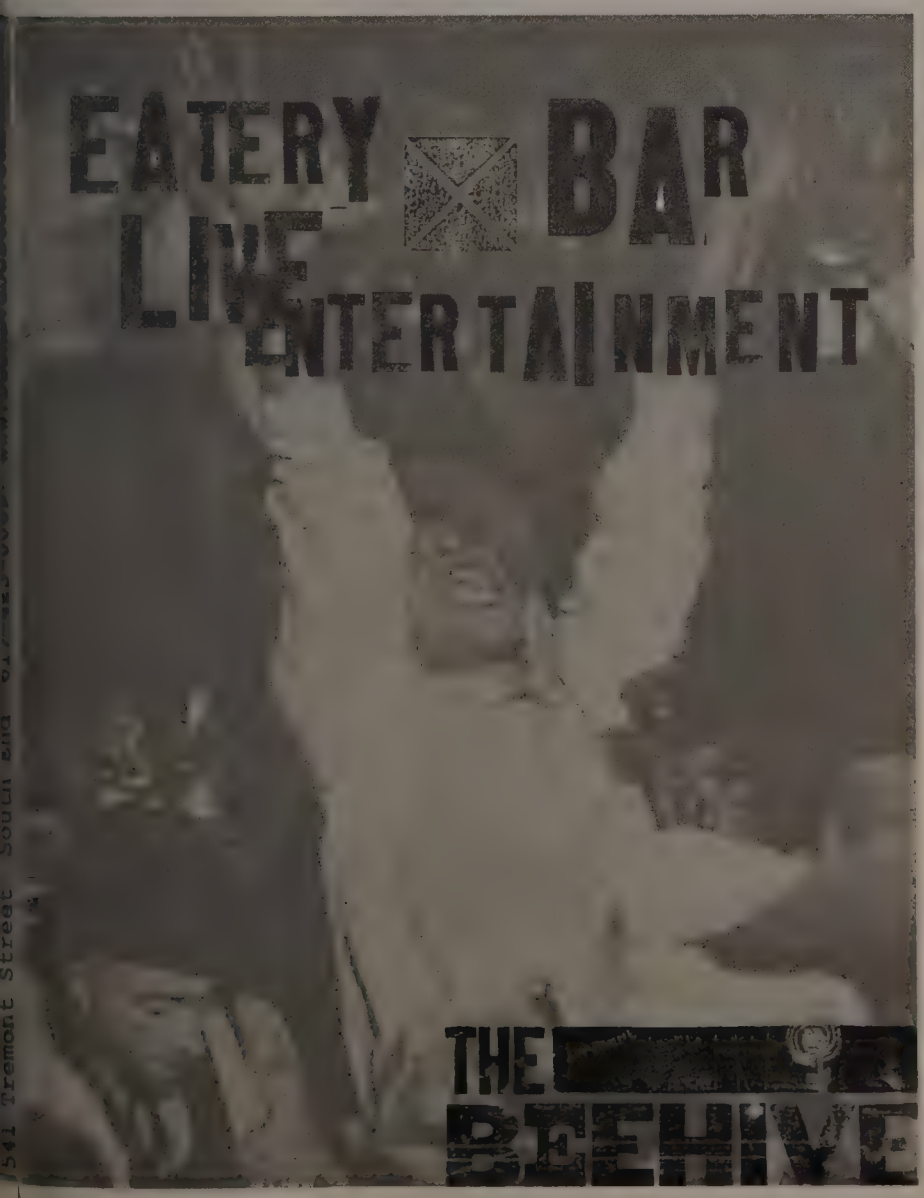
ROGGIE'S

catering ✶ party platters ✶ free delivery ✶ luncheons

ROGGIE'S FULL MENU AVAILABLE
BRUNCH - LUNCH - DINNER



www.roggies.com
OPEN LATE
356 Chestnut Hill Ave.
Brighton

617.713.0555
617.566.1880

for booking info:
krisyliz00@aol.com
rroggies@aol.com

We use
0g trans fat

DANCE CLUBS

Love Your Lunch!

Enjoy lunch for a change!
Lounge on the couch or chill on the patio. Open at 11:00
Check out our pajama brunch on Saturdays and Sundays at 11:00

more than martinis great food and great drinks.

food • drinks • music • life

The living room

full menu til midnight • cocktails 'til 1 am 101 Atlantic Avenue, Boston • 617.723.5101 • thelivingroomboston.com

museums & galleries

Advice to Contributors
Submit gallery and museum listings by fax (617-859-1446) or mail to Calendar: Museums/Galleries, or e-mail arts@improper.com. Include dates, nearest T stop and phone number. Deadline is four weeks prior to publication. Listings cannot be accepted over the phone.

Museums

Armenian Library & Museum of America
65 Main St., Watertown (617-926-2562). www.almainc.org. MBTA: #71 Bus to Watertown. Thu., 6-9 pm; Fri. and Sun., 1-5 pm; Sat., 10 am-2 pm. •Genatsed features mixed-media works looking at Armenia's history of viticulture and wine production. Through January 2008. •Highlights from the Collection features a wide range of mixed-media works. Ongoing.

Arthur M. Sackler Museum
485 Broadway, Cambridge (617-495-9400). www.artmuseums.harvard.edu. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. Mon.-Sat., 10 am-5 pm; Sun., 1-5 pm. $9; $7, seniors; $6, students; free, under 18; free, Sat. until 12 pm and every day after 4:30 pm. •Downtime features four contemporary Chinese paintings, displayed with the ceramics in the Asian gallery. Through Jan. 27, 2008. •Gods in Color: Painted Sculpture of Classical Antiquity features full-size replicas of Greek and Roman sculptures. Sept. 22-Jan. 20. •Overlapping Realms: Arts of the Islamic World and India, 900-1900 explores themes of commonality, continuity and diversity, featuring ceramics and metalwork by southern European and South Asian artists. Through spring 2008. •Alexander's Image and the Beginning of Greek Portraiture showcases ancient coins depicting Alexander the Great and his successors. Ongoing. •The Art of Ancient Rome features funerary art and stone masterpieces depicting daily life, public entertainment and leaders of Ancient Rome. Ongoing.

Bostonian Society Old State House Museum
206 Washington St., Boston (617-720-1713). www.bostonhistory.org. MBTA: Blue or Orange Line to State. Daily, 9 am-6 pm. $5; $4, students and seniors; $1, ages 6-18. •The Boston Massacre: A Sound and Light Show explains how a snowball fight escalated into a deadly riot prior to the American Revolution. Ongoing. •The Old State House: A Hands-On History features multimedia interpretations of the old Massachusetts capitol. Ongoing. •Every Picture Tells a Story is a collection of historic photographs of Boston-area places, events and people. Ongoing. •From Colony to Commonwealth presents 150 artifacts and images documenting Boston's fight for independence from England and Massachusetts' establishment as a state. Ongoing. •Our Favorite Things features historical artifacts from the museum's collection. Ongoing. •Preservation of the Old State House displays architectural plans of the building and details the preservation and restoration process from 1881 to 1991. Ongoing. •Treasures From the Bostonian Society's Collections features marine paintings and harbor views from Boston's maritime history. Ongoing.

Davis Museum and Cultural Center
Wellesley College, 106 Central St., Wellesley (781-283-2051). www.davismuseum.wellesley.edu. MBTA: Commuter Rail to Wellesley. Tue., Thu., Fri. and Sat., 11 am-5 pm; Wed., 11 am-8 pm; Sun., 12-4 pm. Free. •Global Feminisms features mixed-media works by 60 women artists that explore the influence of feminist thought. Through Dec. 9. •Don't Look features drawings from the collection of Martina Yamin. Through Dec. 9.

DeCordova Museum and Sculpture Park
51 Sandy Pond Road, Lincoln (781-259-8355). www.decordova.org. MBTA: Commuter Rail to Lincoln. Tue.-Sun., 11 am-5 pm. $9; $6, students and seniors; free, ages 5 and under. •Moving Through New England features mixed-media works capturing the region by Jules Aarons, Laura Anderson, Frank Gohlke and others. Oct. 6-14, 2008. •New Arrivals: Gifts to the Permanent Collection features mixed-media works recently donated to the museum. Through Jan. 13, 2008. •Ricardo Barros: Facing Sculpture features black-and-white photographs of contemporary sculptors by Barros. Through Jan. 13, 2008. •Trainscape: Installation Art for Model Railroads features an operational model railway that traverses miniature landscapes created by 12 local artists. Through Jan. 13, 2008. •Approaches to Narrative highlights work from the DeCordova's permanent collection. •Beauty and Decay: Photographs of Flowers features photographs from the museum's permanent collection. Through March 2008. •Nina Levy's outdoor sculptures "Headlong" and "Big Baby" greet visitors as they enter the museum's roof-top terrace. Ongoing.

Fogg Art Museum/ Busch-Reisinger Museum
32 Quincy St., Cambridge (617-495-9400). www.artmuseums.harvard.edu. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. Mon.-Sat., 10 am-5 pm; Sun., 1-5 pm. $9; $7, seniors; $6, students; free, under 18; free, Sat. until 12 pm and every day after 4:30 pm. •Light Display Machines: Two Works by Lászlo Moholy-Nagy features a light-space modulator using metal, plastics, glass, paint, wood and a short film. Through Nov. 4. •Kara Walker: Harper's Pictorial History of the Civil War features lithographs and screen prints of Civil War images. Oct. 6-Nov. 11. •Making Myth Modern: Primordial Themes in German 20th-Century Sculpture features sculptures by Franz von Stuck, Renée Sintenis, Max Beckmann, Gerhard Marcks and others. Through Dec. 30. •Paintings by Max Beckmann from the Pinakothek der Moderne, Munich features three major paintings by Beckmann over three decades. Through Jan. 6, 2008. •Contemporary Art from the Harvard University Art Museums Collections features mixed-media works by Ellen Gallagher, Edward Ruscha, Rudolf Stingel and others. Through February 10. •Gian Lorenzo Bernini: Sketches in Clay displays 15 of Bernini's terracotta sculptures. Ongoing. •Modern Art, 1865-1965 presents sculptures and paintings by Matisse, Miró and Rodin, among others. Ongoing. •17th-Century French Painting and Sculpture features works of portraiture by Nicolas Régnier and Pierre Mignard. Ongoing.

French Library and Cultural Center
53 Marlborough St., Boston (617-912-0400). www.frenchlib.org. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Mon.,Tue. and Thu., 10 am-6 pm; Wed., 10 am-8 pm; Fri. and Sat., 10 am-5pm. Free. A Devotion to Sculptural Construction, a Passion for Paints features abstract paintings by Yanick Lapuh. Through Oct. 1.

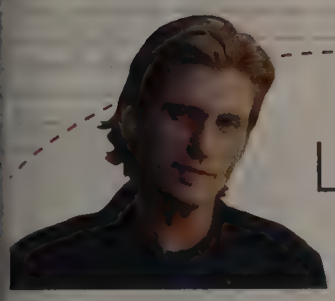
Harvard Museum of Natural History
26 Oxford St., Cambridge (617-495-3045). www.hmnh.harvard.edu. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. Daily, 9 am-5 pm. $9; $7, students and seniors; $6, ages 3-18; free, children under 3; free to Mass. residents, Sun. until 12 pm. •Nests & Eggs features mixed-media displays of eggs. Through March 2008. •Looking at Animals features photographs of land and sea creatures by Henry Horenstein. Sept. 28-June 2008. •Arthropods: Creatures That Rule features fossils, preserved specimens, video presentations and color photographs of hundreds of arthropods. Ongoing. •Climate Change: Our Global Experiment uses computer simulations to explore scientific studies of climate change. Ongoing. •Dodos, Trilobites and Meteorites: Treasures of Nature and Science at Harvard documents more than 200 years of scientific exploration. Ongoing. •Meteorites includes meteorites from around the world as well as a video about how they come into contact with Earth. Ongoing. •The Ware Collection of Glass Flowers by Leopold and Rudolph Blaschka features glass models of more than 830 plant species. Ongoing.

Institute of Contemporary Art
100 Northern Ave., Boston (617-478-3169). www.icaboston.org. MBTA: Red Line to South Station. Tue., Wed., Sat. and Sun., 10 am-5 pm; Thu. and Fri., 10 am-9 pm. $12; $10, students and seniors; free, children under 17 and ICA members; free, Thu. after 5 pm. •Art on the Harbor Islands explores the Boston Harbor Island's natural resources through mixed-media works, including interactive exhibits by Ernesto Pujol, Teri Rueb and Anna Schuleit. Visitors must arrange travel to the islands. Visit Web site for performance schedule. Through Oct. 8. •Chiho Aoshima presents "The Divine Gas," a mural depicting a giant girl. Through Oct. 28. •Momentum 8: Dave McKenzie features a new video by the New York based artist. Through Oct. 28. •Bourgeois in Boston displays the stages of Louise Bourgeois' career through her sculptures, prints and drawings. Through March 2, 2008. •Accumulations:More Than the Sum of Their Parts features mixed-media works that assemble multiple parts by artists Ambreen Butt, Paul Chan, Tara Donovan, and more. Through July 13, 2008. •The permanent collection features 21st-century works by Kai Althoff, Paul Chan, Taylor Davis, Marlene Dumas, Nan Goldin and others.

The exhibition Kara Walker: Harper's Pictorial History of the Civil War is on display at the Fogg Art Museum Oct. 6 through Nov. 11.

Isabella Stewart Gardner Museum
280 The Fenway, Boston (617-566-1401). www.gardnermuseum.org. MBTA: E Green Line to Museum. Tue.-Sun., 11 am-5 pm. $12; $10, seniors; $5, students; free for children under 18 and all visitors named Isabella; $2 off with same-day Museum of Fine Arts admission. •Stefano Arienti: The Asian Shore features 17th-century Japanese sliding doors, drawings, photocopies and rugs by Arienti. Through Oct. 14. •The permanent collection features more than 2,500 paintings, sculptures, tapestries, manuscripts, rare books and decorative pieces by artists including Rembrandt, Michelangelo, Botticelli and Degas.

Mary Baker Eddy Library
200 Mass. Ave., Boston (617-450-7000). www.marybakereddylibrary.org. MBTA: Green Line to Hynes. Tue.-Sun., 10 am-4 pm. $6; $4, seniors, students and children ages 6-17; free, ages 5 and under. •The Historic Bible Collection showcases rare Bibles in the reference room. Ongoing. •The Mapparium: An Inside View features public documents, artifacts and letters created during the exhibition's construction. Ongoing. •Sensational Press: Radical Response examines the influence of the Christian Science Monitor over the past century. Ongoing. •Verse-Maker: Poetry and Mary Baker Eddy displays the influence of poetry on Mary Baker Eddy's writings. Ongoing. •Hall of Ideas celebrates the ideas that have inspired human beings throughout history with glass and bronze sculptures and digital media. The exhibition features works by Ben Tré and David Small. Ongoing. •Quest Gallery features mixed-media works examining life's age-old questions and includes writings by Mary Baker Eddy. Ongoing.



McMullen Museum of A
Boston College, Devlin Hall, Comm. Ave., Chestnut Hill (552-8100). www.bc.edu/artmus MBTA: B Green Line to B College. KaMon-Fri., 11 am-4 Sat. and Sun., 12-5 pm. P Matters features mixed-media v by Pollack and photographer He Matter. Through Dec. 9.

MIT List Visual Arts Ce
20 Ames St., Cambridge (617-4680). http://web.mit.edu MBTA: Red Line to Kendall/ Tue.-Thu., Sat. and Sun., 12- Fri., 12-8 pm. Free. •The D Gallery includes selections national and international a encompassing a broad rang techniques. Through Oct. 19.

MIT Museum
265 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617 4444). http://web.mit.edu/mu MBTA: Red Line to Kendall/ Tue.-Fri., 10 am-5 pm; Sat. and 12-5 pm. $5; $2, students and se free, children under 5. •MIT Pro Jerry Milgrim: An Exceptional E Engineer celebrates the career longest-serving professor of engineering at MIT with art from his accomplishments. Thr Feb. , 2008. •Deep Frontiers: Engineering at MIT displays tec ogy developed for the preservati our oceans. Ongoing. •Flashes spiration: The Work of Doc Edg features multimedia work comm rating the life of Harold Edge Ongoing. •Gestural Engineering Sculpture of Arthur Ganson dis kinetic sculptures by Ganson. ing. •Holography: The Light Fan exhibits 23 holograms from the seum's extensive collection by including Margaret Benyon and suko Ishii. Ongoing. •Mind Hand: The Making of MIT Scie and Engineers portrays the life MIT student through mixed m Ongoing. •Robots and Beyond ploring Artificial Intelligence at features multimedia work foc on studies into artificial intellig Ongoing. •Ship Models: The Evolution of Ship D features 40 full-hull ship models representing years of ship building. Ongoing.

Museum of African-American Histo
46 Joy St., Boston (617-725-0022). www.af museum.org. MBTA: Green or Red Line to Mon.-Sat., 10 am-4 pm. Free. •A Gathering Pla Freedom features more than 100 books, drawing other documents from African-American hi Through December.

Museum of Fine Arts
465 Huntington Ave., Boston (617-267-9300). mfa.org. MBTA: E Green Line to Museum. Fri., 10 am-9:45 pm; Sat.-Tue., 10 am-4:45 Thu. and Fri. after 5 pm, only the west wing is $17; $15, seniors; $8.50, children ages 7-17 school hours; free, children 17 and under all other admission by voluntary contribution, Wed., 4-9:4 •Women of Renown:Female Heroes and Villains Prints of Utagawa Kuniyoshi (1797-1861) fea Kuniyoshi's warrior prints displaying empow women. Through Oct. 8. •Drama and Desire: J ese Paintings From the Floating World 1690-185 picts the daily activities of Tokyo's inhabitan the time through woodblock prints and paintin Harunobu, Utamaro and Hokusai. Through De* •Shy Boy, She Devil, and Isis: The Art of Conce Craft, Selections from the Wornick Collection fea a variety of mixed-media works by 107 artists 20 countries. Through Jan. 6, 2008. •Arts of J The John C. Weber Collection features Japa mixed-media works from the 12th to the 20th tury. Through Jan. 13, 2008. •Glittering Gold: I nation in Islamic Art features illuminated Korar sages by Gilhas Diptas and other artists. Thr Jan. 27, 2008. •Contemporary Outlook: German tography features works by Bernd and Hilla Be Andreas Gursky and Thomas Ruff. Through 2008. •Contemporary Outlook: Japan features m media works between World War II and presen Through Feb. 10. •Jewelry by Artists: The D Farago Collection features contemporary craft je by Sam Kramer, Man Ray, Pablo Picasso and ot Through March 5, 2008. •Ed Rossbach Fibe From the Daphne Farago Collection features Laugh it up with DENIS LEARY and friends at the longest-running comedy benefit in the nation.

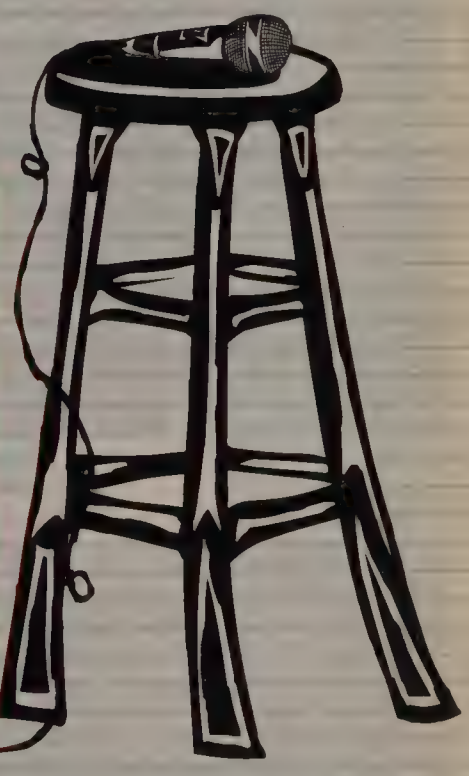
THE CAM NEELY FOUNDATION FOR CANCER CARE

Providing comfort, support, and hope to cancer patients and their families



WWW.CAMNEELYFOUNDATION.ORG

TICKETS ON SALE NOW!

TICKET PRICES Floor Section: $155 + $85
Floor and Arena Sections: $85, $60 + $35

APOSTLE

COMICS come home

ALSO FEATURING: MIKE BIRBIGLIA + ENY CLARKE + PETE CORREALE + ROBERT KELLY - ARTIE LANGE + JIM NORTON + JOE YANNETTY

SATURDAY, NOV. 10, 2007 7:30 P.M. Agganis Arena at Boston University

TO BENEFIT THE CAM NEELY FOUNDATION FOR CANCER CARE AND TUFTS-NEW ENGLAND MEDICAL CENTER

PRESENTED BY:

Tudor Investment Corporation

CO-SPONSORED BY:

CHAUFFEURED TRANSPORTATION NETWORK
Over 550 Cities Worldwide

THE CHARLES HOTEL
HARVARD SQUARE

Kiss 108 fm
www.kiss108.com

THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN
MAGAZINE

Herald Media Inc.

WBZ NEWS RADIO 1030

Sovereign Bank℠

WAAF 97.7/107.3

GAME ON!
SPORT CAFE

than 40 textile works by Rossbach. Through March 5, 2008. •Walk This Way features historic footwear and explores their cultural significance. Sept. 27-March 23, 2008.

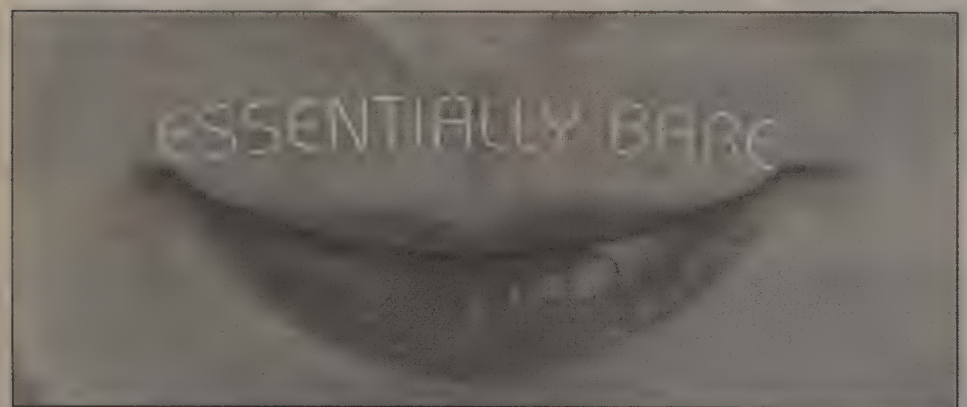
Museum of Science

Science Park, Boston (617-723-2500). www.mos.org. MBTA: D Green Line to Science Park. Sun.-Thu., 9 am-7 pm; Fri. and Sat., 9 am-9 pm. $16; $14, seniors; $13, children ages 3-11. •Weems Animal Sculptures features bronze animal sculptures donated by Katharine Lane Weems. Ongoing. •Earth: Inside Out features displays portraying the Earth's interior. Ongoing. •Welcome to the Universe educates visitors about the universe and displays a scaled model of the solar system. Ongoing. •WeatherWise, a new permanent exhibition, shows visitors the techniques of short-term forecasting.

National Heritage Museum

33 Marrett Road, Lexington (781-861-6559). www.monh.org. Mon.-Sat., 10 am-5 pm; Sun., 12-5 pm. Free. •Pets in America: The Story of Our Lives with Animals at Home features objects and photographs of pets. Through Oct. 14. •Unlocking the Code: Masonic and Fraternal Aprons features a selection of aprons from the collection of the Grand Lodge of Masons in Massachusetts, including pieces from around the world over the past two centuries. Through Dec. 9. •Fins, Wings and Other Such Things features photos from the polaroid collectionwith works by international and local photographers including Ansel Adams. Through Feb. 10. •Sowing the Seeds of Liberty: Lexington and the American Revolution uses mixed media to discuss the battle at Lexington. Ongoing. •American Family Treasures: Decorative Arts from the D.J. and Alice Shumway Nadeau Collection features crafted furniture, metal work, glass and other objects. Ongoing.

Peabody Essex Museum



East India Square, Salem (978-745-9500). www.pem.org. Daily, 10 am-5 pm. $9, $11, seniors; $9, students; free to children under 16 and residents of Salem. •Sketched at Sea features sketchbooks used by mariners to document their experiences at sea. Through Jan. 6, 2008. •Accidental Mysteries features vintage snapshots with double exposure or other darkroom mistakes from the John and Teenuh Foster collection. Through Jan. 27, 2008. •Origami Now! features origami works by artists from around the world.Through June 8, 2008. •Gateway Bo features paintings, works on paper, photograph a mixed-media installation by Chriodeep Ch huri, Bal Chhabda, Atul Dodiya and o Through Dec. 7, 2008. •Perfect Imbalance: Exp Chinese Aesthetics features 30 Chinese artifact cluding paintings, jade and porcelain, v demonstrate the distinctive culture of C Through May 17, 2009. •All of My Life fea works exploring nine contemporary Native A can artists' world views. Featured artists in David Bradley, Truman Lowe and Mateo Ro Ongoing. •Intersections, Native American Ar New Light examines Native American artwork the 17th century to the present in ceramics tiles, drawings and more. Ongoing. •Of God Mortals: Traditional Art From India showcases from the 1800s to the present. Ongoing.

Peabody Museum of Archaeology and Ethnology

11 Divinity Ave., Cambridge (617-496-1027). peabody.harvard.edu. MBTA: Red Line to Har Daily, 9 am-5 pm. $9; $7, seniors and students ages 3-18; free, children under 3. •Distinguished C Curating Lost Monuments at the Peabody Museu tures casts from Mesoamerica. Through Oc •The Moche of Ancient Peru: Media and Message tures over 100 pieces including ceramics, te and photographs. Through Nov. 30. •Imazi Beauty and Artisanship in Berber Life features century artifacts made by the North Af Berbers. Through November. •From Nation t tion: Examining Lewis and Clark's Indian Coll features 38 Native American artifacts from the 18th century. Through June 2008. •The exhib Feeding the Ancestors: Tlingit Carved Horn S displays spoons made by the Tlingit people of N America during the 1800s. Through March •Encounters With the Americas examines N American culture before and after the arriv Christopher Columbus in 1492. Ongoing. •C and Continuity portrays Native American cu through objects from the 19th century. Ongoin

Rose Art Museum

Brandeis University, Kniznick Gallery, 415 Sout Waltham (781-736-3434). www.brandeis.edu MBTA: Commuter Rail to Brandeis/Roberts. Tue. 12-5 pm. Tiger by the Tail! Women Artists of Never Better.

It's not easy to look good. You count on will power, sweat and, if you're lucky, good genes. Rely on science to add the finishing touch.

ADVANCED SKIN CARE
LASER HAIR REMOVAL
BOTOX™
RESTYLANE™
RADIESSE™

Essentially Bare
Cosmetic & Laser Clinics

Medical Director: Elliot Lach, M.D.,F.A.C.S., Board Certified Plastic Surgeon
617.876.5258 essentiallybare.com

HIPsters!

A TOTAL CONCERT EXPERIENCE

THREE outstanding Friday night concerts from October to April at Boston's Symphony Hall, featuring beloved works by Beethoven, Mozart,and Haydn. Each performance preceded by a reception where you meet musicians and hear about the evening's music.

$209 PER PERSON

Discover how the music sounded in the composer's day with HIP, Historically Informed Performances!

ORDER TODAY!

Call our Box Office at 617 266 3605 or visit www.handelandhaydn.org

Handel AND Haydn SOCIETY

StyleFixx
girls' night out
Celebrating Our 6th Year of Events!

Hurry!

Tickets are Selling Fast!
FREE Swag Bag for Advance Ticket Holders.

BUY YOUR TICKETS TODAY!
www.StyleFixx.com

Don't Miss the Best Shopping Party of the Year!

StyleFixx Swag Bags (Our best ever!)

MORE FREE products from Hollywood Fashion Tape, SkinMilk, Mavala, Redken, Kerastase Paris, Earrings by SB Jewelry and more. For a sneak peek of new products added every week visit www.StyleFixx.com.

Evening Highlights!

- Complimentary Cocktails by Ketel One Vodka served through 6 foot Tall Ice Bars. Enjoy Bacardi Silver Mojitos, Sofia Coppola Champagne, Stella Artois and more.
- FREE Essential and Innovative Beauty Products passed all night long.
- Indulge in complimentary hair and beauty treatments, makeovers and massages.
- FREE appetizers from Boston's hottest restaurants.
- Experience the latest trends in cosmetic enhancements, travel, spas and fitness.
- Shop over 55 up and coming designers offering incredible values in fashion, beauty and accessories.

Thursday, October 18th, 2007

Cyclorama – Boston Center for the Arts, 539 Tremont Street
5:00 pm – 10:00 pm Buy your tickets Now at www.StyleFixx.com

Sponsored by

Improper Bostonian · Ketel One Vodka · Stella Artois · Bacardi Silver

www.StyleFixx.com

installations by 17 Indian women artists. Through Dec. 14.

Special Events

Art and the Walls to Hang It On 230 Amory St., Jamaica Plain (617-648-4466). www.arthouseboston.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Stony Brook. Sept. 29-Oct. 7. Sat. and Sun., 11 am-6 pm. Free. A partnership between local artists, realtors and developers, this event presents the work of eight different artists in a newly renovated property.

Gallery Talk
Brandeis University, Mildred Lee Gallery, 415 South St., Waltham (781-736-3434). www.brandeis.edu/rose. MBTA: Commuter Rail to Brandeis/Roberts. Oct. 6, 2-3 pm. Free. Women's Studies Research Center scholar and co-curator Elinor Gadon gives a tour and discusses contemporary Indian video by female artists.

Gallery Tour
Tufts University Art Gallery, 40R Talbot Ave., Medford (617-627-3518). www.ase.tufts.edu/gallery. MBTA: Red Line to Davis. Sept. 27, 6-6:45 pm. Free. Director of galleries and collections and exhibition curator Amy Ingrid Schlegel leads a tour of the Center of Cosmic Energy.

Jamaica Plain Open Studios
Jamaica Plain, (617-943-7819). www.jpopenstudios.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Jackson. Sept. 29 and 30, 11 am-6 pm. Free. This annual arts event showcases more than 220 artists at 71 sites throughout Jamaica Plain, including artist studios, the Sam Adams brewery and the Arnold Arboretum.

Light Display Machines Exhibit Tour
Busch-Reisinger Museum, 32 Quincy St., Cambridge (617-495-9400). www.artmuseums.harvard.edu. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. Sept. 28, 12:15-12:45 pm. Free with admission. Join a docent for an in-depth tour of the exhibition Light Display: Two Works by László Moholy-Nagy.

Peabody Museum Weekend of the Americas
Peabody Museum of Archaeology and Ethnology, 11 Divinity Ave., Cambridge (617-496-1027). www.peabody.harvard.edu. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. Oct. 5-7. Prices vary. This three-day event features lectures, workshops and receptions discussing and celebrating the exhibition Storied Walls: Murals of the Americas.

Photography Salon With Boston Camera Club
Brookline Arts Center, 86 Monmouth St., Brookline (617-566-5715). www.brooklineartscenter.com. MBTA: C Green Line to St. Mary's. Oct. 4, 6:30-8:30 pm. $4. Photographers at all levels of ability are invited to come and show their work and meet other enthusiasts.

Women Artists of India International Symposium
Brandeis University, Shapiro Theatre, 415 South St., Waltham (781-736-3434). www.brandeis.edu/rose. MBTA: Commuter Rail to Brandeis/Roberts. Oct. 2, 9 am-3 pm; Oct. 3, 8 am-4 pm. Free. This two-day symposium of Indian and American artists and scholars addresses the change of Indian culture through the work of female Indian artists.

Galleries

FINE ART

Acme Fine Art
38 Newbury St., Boston (617-585-9551). www.acmefineart.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Tue.-Sat., 11 am-5:30 pm. •Lester Johnson: Oil Paintings from the 1960s features oil-on-canvas works by Johnson completed early in his career. Through Oct. 6. •Provincetown Watercolors 1934-1964 features works by Kenneth Stubbs. Through Oct. 6.

Adams Gallery
Suffolk University Law School 120 Tremont St., Boston (617-305-1782). www.suffolk.edu/adams_gallery. MBTA: Red or Green Line to Park St. Daily 9 am-7 pm. Faces and Places of Suffolk University features photographs of the campus itself and those who inhabit it. Through September.

Allston Skirt Gallery
65 Thayer Ave., Boston (617-482-3652). www.allstonskirt.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. Wed.-Sat., 11 am-5 pm, or by appointment. •Robin Dash: Don't Climb the Pyramids features mixed-media works by the exhibit's namesake artist. Through Sept. 29. •Rachel Sumpter: New Work features gouache and pastel works on paper by Sumpter. Through Sept. 29. •The Great Depression: Brad Phillips and Rasool Sarangi features mixed-media works capturing the era. Oct. 5-27. •Michelle Cotez: New Work features drawings by the namesake artist. Oct. 5-27.

Alpha Gallery
38 Newbury St., Boston (617-536-4465). alphagallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlin Tue.-Fri., 10 am-5:30 pm; Sat., 11 am-5:30 pm Sattler features oil-on-canvas paintings by the n sake artist. Sept. 15-Oct. 10.

Arden Gallery
129 Newbury St., Boston (617-247-0610). ardengallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to C Mon.-Sat., 11 am-5:30 pm. •Les Humanites fea acrylic-on-canvas works by Paul Béliveau ins by various book bindings. Through Sept. 29. Fisher features oil and wax-on-panel works b namesake artist. Oct. 2-29.

Ars Libri
500 Harrison Ave., Boston (617-357-5212). arslibri.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. Fri., 9 am-6 pm; Sat., 11 am-5 pm. An untitled bition features new paintings by Kelley W Through Oct. 3.

Art Institute of Boston
700 Beacon St., Boston (617-585-6600). http: lesley.edu/aib. MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore. Sat., 9 am-6 pm, Sun., 12-5 pm. Anita Kunz Ill tions Published and Unpublished features mixed- works by Kunz. Through Oct. 21.

Atlantic Works Gallery
80 Border St., Boston (781-872-2432). www.a works.org. MBTA: Blue Line to Maverick. Thu pm; Fri.-Sat., 12-6 pm. Jaye Woodstock and Baltzell: Make Lemonade features mixed- works by the exhibit's namesake artists. Th Sept. 29.

L'Attitude Gallery
218 Newbury St., Boston (617-927-4400). lattitudegallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to C Mon.-Sat., 10 am-6 pm; Sun., 12-5 pm. •The Facets of Sheryl Ellinwood features the artist's v of styles including glass panels and sculp Through Oct. 31. •The Natural Elements of DeSimone features paintings of nature by the n sake artist. Through October.

Axelle Fine Arts
91 Newbury St., Boston (617-450-0700). axelle.com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Dai am-6 pm. •The permanent collection features by French contemporary artists Elizabeth Esti Michel Delacroix and Andre Bourrie, among o

Baak Gallery
35 Battle St., Cambridge (617-354-0407). baakgallery.com. MBTA: Red Line to Ha Mon.-Sat., 10:30 am-7 pm. Janet Shapero E tions features Rete Chromes works by the n sake artist. Through Oct. 17.

Barbara Krakow Gallery
10 Newbury St., 5th floor, Boston (617 4490). www.barbarakrakowgallery.com. M Green Line to Arlington. Tue.-Sat., 10 am pm. Four Forms features yarn, wood, drawing print works by Fred Sandback. Through Oct

Berenberg Gallery
4 Clarendon St., Boston (617-536-0800). berenberggallery.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Bay. Tue.-Sat., 11 am-6 pm. Animal Returns Se ber features mixed-media works by Gabrielle Sh Through Nov. 3.

Bernard Toale Gallery
450 Harrison Ave., Boston (617-482-2477). bernardtoalegallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to ley. Tue.-Sat., 10:30 am-5:30 and by appoint •Ambiguous Ambassador. features a selection self-portrait, gelatin silver prints by the artist Kwong Chi. •Provisional: features drawing video work by Nancy Murphy Spicer. Through 29. •Heide Fasnacht: In Transit features drawing sculptures by the namesake artist. Oct. 3-No •Simulating Iraq features color photograph Claire Becket. Oct. 3- Nov. 10.

Beth Urdang Gallery
129 Newbury St., Boston (617-424-5550). bethurdanggallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to H Mon.-Sat., 10:30 am-5:30 pm. •Joe Brubake tures sculpture by the namesake artist. Throug 13. •Margo Margolis features recent paintings namesake artist. Through Oct. 13.

Boston Center for the Arts
Mills Gallery, 539 Tremont St., Boston (617 8835). www.bcaonline.org. MBTA: Orange l Back Bay. Wed.-Thu. 12-5 pm; Fri.-Sat. 12-1 Sun. 12-5 pm. The Lights Going On and Off fe an installation using electric light by Martin Through Oct. 28.

Boston Public Library
700 Boylston St., Boston (617-536-5400). bpl.org. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Mon.-T am-9 pm; Fri. & Sat., 9 am-5 pm. •The Extra Ambassador: Alexandre Vattemare, The Frenc triloquist Who Changed the World explores the of one of the BPL's founders. Through Sept. 2

...on Sculptors Gallery
...arrison Ave., Boston (617-482-7781). www...sculptors.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Back ...Wed.-Sun., 12 pm-6 pm. •Fluid States features ...media works incorporating light and shadow ...ia Shepley. Through Oct. 7. •Out of My ...s features dried, cut and polished gourds as...d into abstract sculpture by Terry Albright. ...gh Oct. 7.

...bottom Gallery
...burg St., Somerville (617-776-3410). www...ottomartists.com. MBTA: Green Line to ...ere. Thu.-Sat., 12-5pm. Fabrications: Fabric As ...n features works by Kate James, John Tricomi, ...Wainwright and others. Through Oct. 14.

...nfield Gallery
...arrison Ave., Boston (617-451-3605). www...ldgallery.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Back ...ue.-Sat., 12-6 pm. •Plus One features print...g, sculpture and paintings by gallery artists. ...gh Sept. 29. •Precious: A Year of Looking at ...ff (and Other New Work) features 365 small ...gs by Gail Martin. Oct. 3-27.

...kline Arts Center
...nmouth St., Brookline (617-566-5715). www...neartscenter.com. MBTA: C Green Line to St. ... Mon.-Fri., 9 am-4:30 pm. •Conversation ... features mixed-media and outdoor sculptures ...es Burnes, Mark Favermann, Madeleine Lord ...ners. Through Sept. 2008. •BCC at the BAC ...s photography by 17 members of the Boston ...a Club. Through Oct. 5. •The Amsterdam ... features paintings in Batik by George Sum... Oct. 4-Nov. 9.

...oridge Arts Association
...sity Place Gallery, 124 Mount Auburn St., ...idge (617-876-0246). www.cambridgeart.org. ...Fri., 9 am-6 pm; Sat. 9 am-1 pm. Sixty-Third ...l Fall Salon features mixed-media works by ...e artists. Through Oct. 4.

...oridge Arts Council
...oadway, Cambridge (617-349-4380). www...lgeartscouncil.org. MBTA: Red Line to Central. ...Wed. and Thu., 8:30 am-8 pm; Tue., 8:30 am-...Fri., 8:30 am-12 pm. •Brain Terrain: An Exhi...f Painting and Drawings by Heidi Whitman fea...ixed-media works exploring states of mind. ...gh Nov. 9.

Charles Ellsby's "Dream Angel" is on display at Gateway Gallery through Nov. 10.

Cambridge Multicultural Arts Center
41 Second St., Cambridge (617-577-1400). www.cmacusa.org. MBTA: Red Line to Kendall/MIT. Mon.-Fri., 10 am-6 pm. Legacies features mixed-media works by various artists that examine the bombings of Laos during the Vietnam war. Through Oct. 30.

Carpenter Center for the Visual Arts
24 Quincy St., Cambridge (617-496-6617). www.ves.fas.harvard.edu. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. Mon.-Sat. 9 am-11 pm, Sun. 12-11pm. •Berlin Remake and Deathstar/Todesstern features 16mm and 35 mm film, video, sound and writing by Amie Siegel. Oct. 4-November. •New Faculty Show features photography, animation and multi-media installations by faculty members Drew Beattie, Miles Coolidge, Andreas Hykade and others. Through Oct. 28.

Chase Gallery
129 Newbury St., Boston (617-859-7222). www.chasegallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Mon.-Fri., 11 am-5:30 pm; Sat., 10 am-5 pm. •Interior Toroids features paintings on canvas exploring the visual and artistic language of mathematics by Michael Schultheis. Through Sept. 29. •New Paintings features oil-on-paper works by Tezh Modarressi. Through Sept. 29. •New Paintings features alkyd-on-board works by Stephen Coyle. Oct. 3-27.

Childs Gallery
169 Newbury St., Boston (617-266-1108). www.childsgallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Mon. and Sat., 10 am-5 pm; Tue.-Fri., 9 am-6 pm. •The Bostonians: Painters, Sculptors and Draftsmen 1840-1940 features works by Boston artists over a 100 year period. Through Nov. 10. •Monhegan Watercolors of Ted Davis features works by the artist. Through Nov. 10. •The Place Where Maine Vacations: Grisaille Watercolors of Bernard Brussel-Smith features landscapes by the titular artist. Through Nov. 10.

Copley Society of Art
158 Newbury St., Boston (617-536-5049). www.copleysociety.org. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Tue.-Sat., 11 am-6 pm; Sun., 12-5 pm. •On a Wire features Ellen Granter's paintings of birds. Through Oct. 13. •Painted Turtles features oil paintings of turtles. Through Oct. 13. •CoSo Artists A-Z: Crisp features small mixed-media pieces by gallery artists. Through Nov. 3.

Crump McCole Gallery
200 Seaport Blvd., Boston (617-330-1133). MBTA: Red Line to South Station. Mon.-Wed. and Fri., 10 am-6 pm; Thu., 10 am-8 pm; Sat. and Sun., 12-5 pm. Artists' Gallery Exhibit features oil paintings of Boston by Norman Crump, watercolors by Dan McCole and marine art by Jeff Eldredge. Ongoing.

DTR Modern Galleries
167 Newbury St., Boston (617-424-9700). www.dtrmodern.com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Mon.-Thu., 11 am-7 pm; Fri. and Sat., 11 am-8 pm; Sun., 11 am-6 pm. 60 Years of American Art: 1947-2007 features prints, lithographs and works on paper of American artwork by Andy Warhol, Jean-Michel Basquiat, Robert Indiana and others. Through Oct. 30.

Experimental Art Gallery & Studio
24 Derby St., Salem (781-439-1540). MBTA: Commuter Rail to Salem. Thu., 10 am-8 pm, Fri.-Sun., 10 am-6 pm. Juncture-An Installation by Susan Halter features sculpture and installation art by the titular artist. Through September.

Fort Point Arts Community Gallery
300 Summer St., Boston (617-423-4299). www.fortpointarts.org. MBTA: Red Line to South Station. Mon.-Fri., 9 am-3:30 pm; Thurs. 9 am-6 pm. Time and Space features mixed-media works from seven artists celebrating the MacDowell Colony's centennial. Through Sept. 28.

Galerie d'Orsay
33 Newbury St., Boston (617-266-8001). www.galerie-dorsay.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Mon.-Sat., 10 am-6 pm; Sun., 12-6 pm. Royo features oil-on-canvas works by the namesake artist. Through Oct. 3.

Gallery Anthony Curtis
186 South St., Boston (617-988-8119). www.galleryanthonycurtis.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Forest Hills. Tue.-Sat., 11 am-6 pm and by appointment. Marie-Joseé Roy Enfin/At Last features works on metal by the titular artist.

Gallery Artists Studio Projects
362-4 Boylston St., Brookline (617-418-4308). www.g-a-s-p.net. MBTA: D Green Line to Brookline Hills. Thu.-Sat., 11 am-5 pm; Wed. and Sun., by appointment only. Abstraction Updated features abstract modern art by Susan Schwalb, Deborah Mulrhead and Suzanne Volmer. Through Oct. 12.

"Circa 1957 (Bingo)" is on display at the Kidder Smith Gallery through Sept. 29.

Gallery Kayafas
450 Harrison Ave., Boston (617-482-0411). www.gallerykayafas.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Tue.-Sat., 10 am-5:30 pm. Heat/Light features photography and pigment inks by Jo Sandman. Through Sept. 29.

Gallery Naga
67 Newbury St., Boston (617-267-9060). www.gallerynaga.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Tue.-Sat., 10 am-5:30 pm. New Paintings features gouache-on-panel works by Masako Kamiya. Through Oct. 6. •Mistakes, I've Made a Few features oil-on-panel works by Stuart Ober. Through Oct. 6.

Gateway Gallery
62 Harvard St., Brookline (617-734-1577). www.gatewayarts.org. MBTA: D Green Line to Brookline Village. Mon.-Fri., 9 am-4:30 pm; Sat., 12-5 pm. Free. You Are in My Eyes exhibits works inspired by certain people or situations by artists with disabilities. Through Nov. 10.

Guild of Boston Artists
162 Newbury St., Boston (617-536-7660). www.guildofbostonartists.org. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Tue.-Sat., 10:30 am-5:30 pm; Sun. and Mon., by appointment only. •Historic Boston features oil and acrylic paintings by member artists. Through Sept. 29. •Frank Strazzulla: Recent Works features paintings of landscapes and interiors by the artist. Oct. 5-27.

Howard Yezerski Gallery
14 Newbury St., Boston (617-262-0550). www.howardyezerskigallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Tue.-Sat., 10 am-5:30 pm. •Nocturnes features photographic collages dealing with death, aging and war. Through Oct. 2. •When My Neighbor Told Me I Would Die features Russian folkloric acrylic and gouache-on-canvas paintings by Yana Payusova. Through Oct. 2. •Hannah Barrett: The Secret Society features paintings of photograph composites by the artist. Oct. 5-30.

Judi Rotenberg Gallery
130 Newbury St., Boston (617-437-1518). www.judirotenberg.com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Tue.-Sat., 10 am-6 pm. •At Work looks at the construction of professional environments through mixed-media works by Mary Ellen Strom, Anne Carlson, Rebecca Chamberlain and Shellburne Thurber. Through Oct. 6. •But I Digress... features mixed-media works by Anne Beresford. Through Nov. 10.

Judy Goldman Fine Art
14 Newbury St., Boston (617-424-8468). www.judygoldmanfineart.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Mon.-Sat., 10:30 am-5:30 pm or by appointment. Rock, Paper, Scissors features sculptures and drawings by Jay Brattle, Doug Bosch and Jill Slosburg-Ackerman. Through Oct. 13.

Kidder Smith Gallery
131 Newbury St., Boston (617-424-6900). www.kiddersmithgallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Tue.-Sat., 11 am-5:30 pm. Stratagem features paint-on-metal works by Tom Liddy that represent vintage board game boxes. Through Sept. 29.

Kingston Gallery
37 Thayer St., Boston (617-423-4113). www.kingstongallery.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. Tue.-Sat., 12-5 pm and by appointment. High Ho Silver! features a group show celebrating 25 years at the gallery with mixed-media works by gallery artists. Through Sept. 29. •Remains: Barbara Moody features large drawings by the namesake artist. Oct. 2-27.

Laconia Gallery
433 Harrison Ave., Boston (617-670-1568). www.laconiagallery.org. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. Sat., 12-4 pm. Live:Work features mixed-media works by Laconia Loft residents. Through Sept. 29.

Martha Richardson Fine Art
38 Newbury St., Boston (617-266-3321). www.martharichardsonfineart.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Tue.-Fri., 10 am-5 pm; Sat., 11 am-5 pm. The ongoing exhibition American and European 19th- and 20th-Century Paintings features works from the gallery's collection.

Massachusetts College of Art
621 Huntington Ave., Boston (617-879-7333). www.massart.edu. MBTA: E Green Line to Longwood. Mon.-Fri., 10 am-6 pm; Sat., 11 am-5 pm. •Selections From the Master Print Series features prints by MassArt faculty and students. Through September. •Sensacional! Mexican Street Graphics features comic books, flyers and posters capturing Mexico's street culture. Through Dec. 1.

Mercury Gallery
8 Newbury St., 2nd Floor, Boston (617-859-0054). www.mercurygallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Mon.-Sat., 10 am-5:30 pm and by appointment. Paintings from the WPA features works by Herman Rose, Louis Schanker and Joseph Solman, artists of the Works Progress Administration. Through Oct. 9.

Mobilia Gallery
358 Huron Ave., Cambridge (617-876-2109). www.mobilia-gallery.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. Tue.-Fri., 11 am-6 pm; Sat., 10 am-5 pm and by appointment. •Joe Wood: New York is an exhibition of jewelery work showing connecting systems. Through Sept. 29. •Baskets as Architecture features a group exhibit of textile, beadwork and basketry work. Oct. 2-Nov. 13. •Kevin Coates: A Notebook of Pins displays a new collection of pins by Britain's premier goldsmith. Oct. 2-Nov. 13. •The gallery collection features studio jewelry, sculpture, baskets and vessels by various artists.

Montserrat College of Art Gallery
23 Essex St., Beverly (978-921-4242). www.montserrat.edu/galleries. MBTA: Commuter Rail to Beverly. Mon.-Thu., 10 am-5 pm; Fri. 10 am- Merging Influence: Eastern Elements in New Am Art features mixed-media works linking visu with cultural history by Ahmed Abdalla, Eun Park, Shiva Ahmadi and others. Through Oct.

MPG Contemporary
450 Harrison Ave., Boston (617-357-8881). mpgallery.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Tue.-Sat., 11 am-5 pm. Moving Shadows fe acrylic-on-canvas paintings by Eva Na Through Sept. 29.

New Art Center
61 Washington Park, Newtonville (617-964-3 www.newartcenter.org. MBTA: Commuter Rail to tonville. Mon.-Fri., 9 am-5 pm. Sun., 1-5 pm. B Paint r features large paint works by Thorpe John Grillo and Richard B. Lethem. Through O

New England Institute of Art
10 Brookline Place West, Brookline (617-582-4 www.artinstitutes.edu/boston. MBTA: E Green Riverway. Mon.-Thu., 8:30 am-8 pm; Fri., 8:3 5 pm; Sat., 9 am-3 pm. Recovering New Orlea tures large-scale drawings of post-Katrina Ne leans by Jeffrey Marshall. Through Oct.10.

New England School of Art and De
75 Arlington St., Boston (617-573-8785). suffolk.edu/nesad/gallery.com. MBTA: Green Arlington. Mon.-Fri., 9 am-9 pm. •The Ellip ries features prints and a projected light ins tion by John Powell. Through Oct. 6. •New features pieces using light by John P Through Oct. 6.

Nielsen Gallery
179 Newbury St., Boston (617-266-4835). nielsengallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to C Tue.-Sat., 10 am-5:30 pm. Jay Defeo: Appla Black Fact features mixed-media works show the artist's lifetime achievements. Through O

OHT Gallery
450 Harrison Ave., Boston (617-357-8881). ohtgallery.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Tue.-Sat., 11 am-5 pm. •New Paintings featu on-canvas works by Jennifer Riley. Through 29. •Spilled Milk features thread and ink-on- works by Nava Lubelski. Oct. 5-27.

t of the Blue Gallery
Prospect St., Cambridge (617-354-5287). www.fthebluegallery.com. MBTA: Red Line to Central. -Sun., 12-6 pm. •This is Soo Gay features gay-ned paintings, sculptures, mixed-media and po- by Deborah M. Priestly, D. L. Polonsky, Devon ost and others. Through September. •Landscape Brush features ink and brush works by Julien g. Through Oct. 10.

oper Gallery
Newbury St., Boston (617-236-4497). www.ergalleryboston.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arn. Tue.-Fri., 10 am-5:30 pm; Sat., 11 am-5 pm. Schneider Oil Illustrations features the namesake t's pieces from the children's book Once I Ate a Through Oct. 6.

no Factory
Tremont St., Boston (617-262-1988). MBTA: Or- Line to Mass. Ave. Sat. and Sun., 1-5 pm. Artists the Other Side features the work of Piano Factory ts from the past and today. Through September.

rre Menard Gallery
Arrow St., Cambridge (617-868-2033). www.emenardgallery.com. MBTA: Red Line to Har- . Wed.-Sun., 11 am-7 pm. Nicholas Kilmer Reflec- in Oil features oil paintings by the namesake t. Through Oct. 2.

oof Gallery
East 2nd St., 2nd Floor, Unit 20, South Boston. .proof-gallery.com. MBTA: Red Line to Broad- Thu.-Sat., 12-6 pm and by appointment. Fringe fits features sculptures and mixed-media works ff DeGolier. Through Nov. 3.

:ker Gallery
Newbury St., Boston (617-267-9473). www.ergallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Mon.- 10 am-5:30 pm; Sun., 1-5 pm. •Language of lscape features oil-on-canvas and oil-on-wooden d works by Marguerite Robichaux. Through Oct. Simple Beauty features ceramic Japanese art by yasu Tsuchiya. Through Oct. 8. •The permanent ction includes mixed-media works by artists from rse cultures, including Inuit, South and West an, Israeli, Japanese, Welsh and American.

rs Gallery
Harrison Ave., Boston (617-357-7497). www.gallery.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Mass. Ave., -Sun., 11 am-6 pm. Amir H. Fallah and Evelyn features mixed-media works by the artists. ough Oct. 5.

ert Klein Gallery
Newbury ST., Boston (617-267-7997). www.rtkleingallery.com MBTA: Green Line to Arling- Tue.-Fri., 10 am-5:30 pm, Sat., 11 am-5 pm. Di- Massard features landscape and nature paintings e namesake artist. Through Nov. 23.

ly-Michaux Galleries
Dartmouth St., Boston (617-536-9898). MTA: Red Line to Harvard. Tue.-Fri., 11 am-4 Sat. 1 am-5:30 pm. •Vistas features color tographs from Robert Castagna's Kyoto se- Through Sept. 29. •Le Jazz Hot features tings by Thierry Faure. Through Sept. 29.

nson Projects
Harrison Ave., Boston (617-357-7177). w.samsonprojects.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Bay. Wed.-Sat., 11 am-5 pm and by appoint- t. ...A Landscape Show features mixed-media ctions of terrains by Maureen Gallace, Jef- Gibson, Julia Hechtman and others. ough Oct. 20.

ool of the MFA
sman Gallery, 230 The Fenway, Boston (617- 3718). www.smfa.edu. MBTA: E Green Line to eum. Mon.-Fri., 10 am-5 pm. America's dise and Isla Del Encanto: Contemporary Art the American Caribbean features paintings and s on paper by Edgar Endress, Monica Marin, María Meléndez, Shansi Miller and others. ough Oct. 13.

erman Gallery
Comm. Ave., Boston (617-358-0295). www.du/cfu. MBTA: B Green Line to BU Central. -Fri., 11 am-5 pm; Sat. and Sun., 1-5 pm. ther Modernity: Works on Paper by Uche ke and Nigerian Poetics: Works by Obiora chukwu feature works exploring the develop- t of modernism in Nigerian art.

mons College Trustman Gallery
The Fenway, Boston (617-521-2268). www.mons.edu/trustman. MBTA: E Green Line to eum. Mon.-Fri., 10 am-4:30 pm. Transgress ures photographs by Chantal Zakari. ough Oct. 5.

ciety of Arts and Crafts
Newbury St., Boston (617-266-1810). www.tyofcrafts.org. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. .-Sat., 10 am-6 pm; Sun., 12-5 pm. hitecture/Structure in Contemporary Craft features multi-media works by various artists including Boris Bally and Ruth McDowell. Through Oct. 28.

Somerville Museum
1 Westwood Road, Somerville (617-666-9810). www.somervillemuseum.org. MBTA: Red Line to Porter. Thu., 2-7 pm, Fri., 2-5 pm, Sat., 12-5 pm, Sun., 2-6 pm. The Art of Mosaic features selected works of mosaic artists through out New England. Through Oct. 6.

Soprafina Gallery
73 Thayer St., Boston (617-728-0770). www.soprafina.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. by appointment. •Donald Kelley Hot features paintings by Donald C. Kelley. Through September. •New Paintings features works by Judith Wolfe. Oct. 5-27.

St. George Gallery
245 Newbury St., Boston (617-450-0321). www.stgeorgegallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Tue.-Sat., 10 am-5:30 pm; Sun., 12-5 pm. Autumn Painters features landscapes and cityscapes by William St. George, watercolors by Sandra Mueller-Dick and acrylic paintings of Greece, Provence and Santa Fe by Yvette Stenzel. Through September.

13 Forest Gallery
13 Forest St., Medford (781-396-0092). www.13forest.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Oak Grove. Mon.-Wed., Fri., 1 pm-7 pm; Thu., 1 pm-8 pm; Sat., 12 pm-5 pm. •Icons features photographs, photo transfers and etchings of iconic images by Will Tenney, Lisa Tang Liu, David Colombo and Nancy Hopper. Through Sept. 27. •Adele Travisano: Summer Garden Series features oil-on-canvas works by the exhibition's namesake artist. Through Sept. 27.

Tufts University Art Gallery
40R Talbot Ave., Medford (617-627-3518). www.ase.tufts.edu/gallery. MBTA: Red Line to Davis. Tue.-Sun., 11 am-5 pm.; Thursdays until 8 pm. •The Center of Cosmic Energy features a specially designed amphitheater with an audio narrative. Through Nov. 11. •Global Village Shelters features full-size, biodegradable houses by Daniel Ferrara and Mia Ferrari-Pelosi. Through Dec. 23.

Vose Galleries
238 Newbury St., Boston (617-536-6176). www.vosegalleries.com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Mon.-Fri., 9:30 am-5:30 pm. Sat., 10 am-5:30 pm. Spotlight on Vose Contemporary features contemporary works by gallery artists. Through Sept. 29.

Washington Street Art
321 Washington St., Somerville (617-623-5315). www.washingtonst.org. MBTA: Orange Line to Sullivan. Sat., 12-4 pm. Landscapes: Real and Imagined features mixed-media works by Meredith Fitzgerald and sound provided by Steven K. Smith. Through Sept. 29.

Wolk Gallery
MIT School of Architecture & Planning, 77 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-258-9106). MBTA: Red Line to Kendall/MIT. Mon.-Fri., 9 am-5 pm. Between Spaces features sculpture and site-based installations exploring the relationship between the body and architecture. Through Dec. 21.

Photography

The Arsenal Center for the Arts Gallery
321 Arsenal St., Watertown (617-923-0100). www.arsenalarts.org. Wed.-Sun., 12-8 pm. In Sights exhibits the work of photographers David Bookbinder, Stephen DiRado, Barry Goldstein and others. Through Nov. 18.

Griffin Museum of Photography
67 Shore Road, Winchester (781-729-1158). www.griffinmuseum.org. MBTA: Commuter Rail to Winchester Center. Tue.-Thu., 11 am-5 pm; Fri., 11 am-4 pm; Sat. and Sun., 12-4 pm. $5. The 13th Griffin Museum Juried Exhibition displays selected winning photographs by artists from across the country. Through Oct. 28.

Larz Anderson Auto Museum
15 Newton St., Brookline (617-522-6547). www.larzanderson.org. MBTA: Orange Line to Forest Hills. Tue.-Sun., 10-5 pm. The Wheels Project exhibits photographs by local photographers focused on wheels-based culture. Through May 10.

New England School of Photography
537 Comm. Ave., Boston (617-267-8929). www.nesop.com. MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore. Mon.-Fri.; call ahead for hours. Empty Spaces features large-format black-and-white photographs by Paul Wainwright. Oct. 1-26.

Panopticon Gallery Boston
502 Comm. Ave., Boston (617-437-1868). www.panopt.com. MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore. Tue.-Sat. 11 am-6 pm and by appointment. •Eyes on the Past features images from the Collection of Historic New England. Through Nov. 5. •Panoramic Photographs features images of Boston and New York City by John Woolf. Through Nov. 5.

gay & lesbian

Advice to Contributors
Submit information, including telephone numbers and nearest MBTA stop, by fax (617-859-1446) or mail, or e-mail gaylesbian@improper.com.

Clubs, Bars & Hangouts

The Alley (Daily)
14 Pi Alley, 275 Washington St., Boston (617-263-1449). www.thealleybar.com. MBTA: Blue or Green Line to Gov. Center. Mon.-Fri., 2 pm-2 am; Sat. and Sun., 12 pm-2 am. No cover. 21+. Boston's leather-and-Levis neighborhood bar offers pool, pinball, a jukebox and video games.

Avalon (Sundays)
15 Lansdowne St., Boston (617-262-2424). MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore. 10 pm. $10. 21+. Sunday-night parties include drag acts and house music from resident DJ Rich Ladue.

Axis (Mondays)
13 Lansdowne St., Boston (617-262-2424). MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore. 10 pm. $7. 21+. Static Mondays features a drag show hosted by Ms. Kris Knievil on the last Monday of each month, and DJ Susan Esthera spins vocal house weekly. .

Breezeway Bar & Grill (Fridays)
153 Blue Hill Ave., Roxbury (617-541-5400). www.breezewayboston.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Ruggles. 10 pm. $10. This night features Urban Lesbian Night, with DJs spinning hip-hop, reggae and Top 40 hits.

Buzz @ Aria (Saturdays)
246 Tremont St., Boston (617-267-8969). www.buzzboston.com. MBTA: Green Line to Boylston or Orange Line to NE Medical Center. 10 pm. $10. 21+. At this weekly party, DJ Michael Sheehan spins trance and house music in the front room, while DJ Mary Alice spins hip-hop in the back of the house.

Eagle (Daily)
520 Tremont St., Boston (617-542-4494). MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. No cover. 21+. This neighborhood cruise bar is open nightly.

Fran's Place (Tuesdays)
776 Washington St., Lynn (781-598-5618). www.gofrans.com. MBTA: Commuter Rail to Lynn. 9 pm. No cover. Each Tuesday, Fran's hosts live music from local bands followed by karaoke 10 pm-1:30 am.

Fritz (Daily)
26 Chandler St., Boston (617-482-4428). www.fritzboston.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. Mon.-Sat., 12 pm-2 am; Sun., 11 am-2 am. This gay sports bar, with six large-screen plasma TVs, serves brunch Saturday, Sunday and on Monday holidays.

Jacques Cabaret (Daily)
79 Broadway, Boston (617-426-8902). MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Mon.-Sat., 11 am-12 am; Sun., 12 pm-12 am. $6, weekdays; $10, weekends. 21+. Patrons mingle with dancing drag queens. •Mon.: First Monday of each month is TraniWreck; second Monday is Eleganza, a rock ensemble; third Monday is Wreckage, TraniWreck's Contest Show; fourth Monday is Fire and Ice Revue. •Tue.: Karaoke. •Wed.: Delightful Divas with Melinda Wilson. •Thu.: Jacques Angels with Ms. Kris Knievil. •Fri. and Sat.: Miss Norelle's Leading Ladies and live music. •Sun.: An Evening of Mizery: Amateur Talent Night.

Machine (Sundays, Tuesdays, Fridays, Saturdays)
1254 Boylston St., Boston (617-536-1950). www.ramrodmachine.com. MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore. •Sun., 10 pm-2 am, 21+: Service Industry Night. •Tue., 10 pm-2 am, $10, 21+: Indigo Tuesdays featuring hip-hop and dance with DJ Sun One, as well as go-go boys and a drag show. •Fri., 10 pm-2 am, $8, 21+: Best Night Out, featuring deep house music. •Sat., 10 pm-2 am, $8, 21+: Anthem with diva house music.

Midway Café (Thursdays)
3496 Washington St., Jamaica Plain (617-524-9038). www.midwaycafe.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Green. 9 pm-2 am. $2. 21+. Ladies Night with DJ Summer's Eve features occasional Queer-a-Oke performances.

Paradise (Daily)
180 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-868-3000). www.paradisecambridge.com. MBTA: Red Line to Central. Sun.-Wed., 7 pm-1 am; Thu.-Sat., 7 pm-2 am. No cover. 21+. Male strippers perform every night, and DJs spin Top 40 beats every Thursday through Saturday.

Ramrod (Daily)
1254 Boylston St., Boston (617-266-2986). MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore. 12 pm-2 am. Billed as the largest leather bar on the East Coast, Ramrod enforces a strict dress code (leather is mandatory for the back room on weekends). •Mon.: Pool, dart tournaments and pizza. •Wed.: Twitch 4.0 with DJ Mac. •Thu.: Mandance with DJ Jason Taylor. •Fri.: Bound to Please with DJ Danae Jacovidis. •Sat.: Leather Cruise with DJ Freespace. •Sun.: Service Industry Night.

Rise (Saturdays)
306 Stuart St., Boston (617-423-7473). www.riseclub.us. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. 1:30-6:30 am. $10, members; $20, guests. This members-only club is predominantly gay on Saturdays. Storm Saturdays feature resident DJs Billy Carroll, Chad Jack, Gilles Massicotte, Joe Gauthreaux and Mark Anthony upstairs, with David McNeary spinning downstairs.

Rumor (Sundays)
100 Warrenton St., Boston (617-338-8061). www.rumorboston.com. MBTA: Green Line to Boylston. Sun., 7-11 pm. $8. Sunday Power T-Dance, sponsored by Gay Mafia Boston, features local DJs spinning house and Top 40.

Saint (Tuesdays)
90 Exeter St., Boston (617-236-1134). www.saintnitery.com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Tue., 10 pm-2 am. Gay Mafia hosts Flaunt Tuesdays at Saint, where DJ Ranny spins house and Top 40 remixes. Bacardi drink samples are free to the first 100 guests.

Shine (Fridays)
1 Kendall Square, Building 300, Cambridge (617-621-9500). www.shinecambridge.com. MBTA: Red Line to Kendall/MIT. 10 pm. DJ Dena spins a blend of Top 40, hip-hop and house.

Switch (Sundays)
711 Boylston St., Square, Boston (617-236-1777). www.myspace.com/diamondsundays. MBTA: Green Line to Boylston. 10 pm-2 am. 21+. Weekly party produced by Berman & The Famous Diamond Dunhill, featuring celebrity bartenders, queens and more. Sushi served till 12 am.

Toast (Fridays)
70 Union Square, Somerville (617-623-9211). www.toastlounge.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Oak Grove. 21+. •Fri: Dyke Night Productions hosts a lesbian dance party with rotating DJs and special events, 9 pm-2 am.

Tribe at Felt (Thursdays)
Felt, 533 Washington St., 4th floor, Boston (617-350-5555). www.tribenightclub.com. MBTA: Red or Orange Line to Downtown Crossing. 9:30 pm-2 am. $5. 21+. DJ Jim from KISS 108 spins hip-hop and Top 40 on Felt's fourth floor at this weekly lesbian night.

209 at Club Café (Daily)
209 Columbus Ave., Boston (617-536-0966). www.clubcafe.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington or Orange Line to Back Bay. Wed.-Sat., 11:30 pm-2 am; Sat.,12 pm-2 am; Sun., 10:30 pm-2 am. No cover. 21+. This South End spot offers dining and unobtrusive music in the front room at Restaurant 209 and video entertainment in the back room at Club Café. •Wed., 9 pm: Karaoke Idol. •Thu.: DJ Aga. •Fri.: Edge Fridays with Edgeboston.com. •Sat.: Music videos.

Venu (Wednesdays)
100 Warrenton St., Boston (617-695-9500). www.chapsboston.com. MBTA: Green Line to Boylston. 10 pm. $8. 21+. Wednesday is Latino night with DJ Adilson, complete with go-go boys and drag shows.

Shows and Events

Bagly Theater Fundraiser
Roberts Studio Theatre, Boston Center for the Arts, 539 Tremont St., Boston (617-227-4313). www.bagly.org. MBTA: Red or Green Line to Park. Oct. 4., 7:30 pm. $100. 21+. This fundraiser—which supports the Boston Alliance of GLBT Youth—features a night of musical theater with a performance of the off-Broadway hit Zanna, Don't!. After the show, wine and light refreshments are served during a special reception with the cast.

Dyke Night Stand-Up Comedy
Toast Lounge, 70 Union Square, Somerville (617-876-6837). www.brattlefilm.org. MBTA: Red Line to Kendall/MIT. Sept. 28, 9 pm. $5. 21+. Dyke Night presents a night of stand-up with comic Carmen Esposito. The performance is followed by music from guest DJ Kelvin until 2 am.

Carmen Esposito performs her stand-up at Toast Lounge Sept. 28.

In My Shoes
Spontaneous Celebrations, 45 Danforth St., Jamaica Plain (617-876-6837). www.brattlefilm.org. MBTA: Orange Line to Stonybrook. Sept. 30, 4-7 pm. Free. COLAGE of Greater Boston presents this documentary by and about youth with LGBT parents. The event also includes an open discussion, panel and food.

Same Sex America
The Art Institute of Boston at Lesley University, 1815 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-585-6656). http://web.lesley.edu/aib. MBTA: Red Line to Porter. Through Oct. 6. Tue.-Fri., 12-8 pm; Sat. and Sun., 12-5 pm. Free. The Art Institute at Lesley University showcases a film by Henry Corra and Charlene Rule as well as a photo exhibition by Amber Davis Tourlentes documenting the road to marriage for same-sex couples.

Ongoing

Bagly
St. John the Evangelist Church, 35 Bowdoin St., Boston (617-227-4313). www.bagly.org. MBTA: Red or Green Line to Park. Wed., 5-9 pm. The Boston Alliance of Gay, Lesbian, Bisexual and Transgender Youth hosts weekly meetings and social events for young people seeking community, support and a place to discuss relevant issues.

Beantown North G/L Bowling League
Lanes & Games, 195 Concord Turnpike, Cambridge (617-876-5533). www.beantownbowling.com. MBTA: Red Line to Alewife. Tue., 8:30 pm. This bowling league for gays and lesbians meets weekly.

Beantown Soft-Tip Dart League
The Alley, 14 Pi Alley, 275 Washington St., Boston (617-263-1449). MBTA: Blue or Green Line to Gov. Center. Fritz, 26 Chandler St., Boston (617-482-4428). MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. www.bsdl.org. Mon., 8:30 pm. $12 for the season. This dart league hosts weekly 301, 601 and cricket matches at the Alley and Fritz.

Beantown South G/L Bowling League
Boston Bowl, 820 Morrissey Blvd., Dorchester (617-889-1552). www.beantownbowling.com. MBTA: Red Line to Shawmut. Wed., 7 pm. This weekly bowling league for gays and lesbians meets on Wednesdays.

Bi Focus
(617-697-9244). MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Wed., 7 pm. Bisexual men and women discuss books, videos and other topics of interest.

Bi Rap
Cambridge Women's Center, 46 Pleasant St., Cambridge (617-354-8807). MBTA: Red Line to Central. First Tue. of each month, 7:30 pm. This discussion group provides support and information for women who are bisexual or are questioning their sexuality.

Boston Bears Barnight
The Alley, 275 Washington St., Boston (617-263-1449). http://bostonbears.us. MBTA: Blue or Green Line to Gov. Center. 9:30 pm-2 am. Free. This club meets the first and third Saturdays of each mon holds a happy hour every Friday from 5:30 to 7:

Boston Boasts Squash
Central YMCA, 316 Huntington Ave., Boston 536-0316). www.bostonboasts.com. Tue., 7 Sat., 10 am-12 pm. This squash league is con of gay and lesbian players and their friends.

Boston Gay Basketball League
(617-937-5858). www.bgbl.com. This bask league offers a full regular season and playoff ule each year. E-mail info@bgbl.com for deta

Boston Lesbian Avengers
Despina's Place, 47 Mass. Ave., Boston. www avengers.org. Mon., 7-8 pm. This bisexua transsexual-friendly direct-action political gr cuses on issues affecting lesbians.

Boston Prime Timers
United South End Settlements, 566 Columbu Boston (617-447-2344). www.primetimersw boston. Third Sat. of each month, 3:30-5:30 p This network of more than 300 gay and b men, and their friends, meets once a month.

Boston Uncommons
Central Congregational Church, 85 Seavern Jamaica Plain (617-926-9267). www.lcfd. MBTA: Orange Line to Green. Wed., 7 pm. and lesbian square-dancing group.

Boston's Gay and Bisexual Marri Men's Support Group
Boston Living Center, 29 Stanhope St., Bosto 316-1985). http://world.std.com/~ewk. First a Mon., second and fourth Tue. of each month, This group meets to discuss marriage and div

BRC Board Meeting
Bisexual Resource Center, 29 Stanhope St., (617-424-9595). MBTA: Orange Line to Ba Second Wed. of each month, 7 pm. This m gathering of the BRC board in the Back Bay to the public.

COLAGE
Third Sat. of each month, 10:30 am-12 pm. C of Lesbians and Gays Everywhere meets in M for support and activities, and holds a con meeting for interested parents and their part mail medfordcolage@hotmail.com for detai

Coming Out as Bisexual
Boston's Bisexual Resource Center at the Bos ing Center, 29 Stanhope St., Boston (6 9595). www.biresource.org. MBTA: Orange Back Bay. First Wed. and third Thu. of each m pm. Free. An informal group for people wh they may be bisexual or are attracted to mer both sexes.

Coming Out Support Group for Adults
Meetings are in Coolidge Corner, Brookline (6 2166). Thu., 7-8:15 pm. This group offers dential place for men and women who are for a safe space to discuss issues of sexual ide

Compass
(781-899-2212). Compass is a New Engla support and social group for people assigned at birth, but who feel the designation isn't a rate or a complete description of their gend group meets monthly at locations around N land. E-mail compassftm@usa.com for detail

Downtown Auxiliary League
http://groups.yahoo.com/group/downtowna league. The DAL is group of gay Do Boston/Financial District professionals wh gether monthly for casual afterwork happ

Fenway Community Health
7 Haviland St., Boston (617-267-0900) fenwayhealth.org. MBTA: Green Line to Hyn way Community Health offers an array of for the LGBT community, from discussion parenting and safe-sex practices to progr dressing domestic violence and substance a

GayLab
www.gaylab.org. This experiment in dev healthy gay relationships features alterna meeting and dating, communication games a ers for area singles. E-mail info@gaylab.org fo

Gays for Patsy
(617-412-5751). www.gaysforpatsy.org. Th try-western dancing club, featuring two-ste and line dancing, holds events twice a month ners welcome; no partner needed. Call for d

GBBC North Shore Group
Bugaboo Creek Steak House, Route 114, (781-593-0386). www.gbbc.org. Third Wed month. MBTA: Commuter Rail to Lynn. Free lunch cost varies. The Greater Boston Council invites GLBT professionals to conr the GLBT business community over lunch.

GBBC 128 Group
Naked Fish, 455 Totten Pond Road, Waltha 777-6500, ext. 112). www.gbbc.org. Fourt onth. Free to attend, lunch cost varies. GLBT sionals connect with the GLBT business unity over lunch.

der Crash
neous Celebrations, 45 Danforth St., Jamaica 617-524-6373). www.gendercrash.com. MBTA: e Line to Stony Brook. Second Thu. of each , 7:30 pm. $5-$10. Members of the LGBT unity are invited to share poetry, prose and nance pieces at this open-mike event.

FAN
ns Available for Fun and Networking is a so- nd networking group that connects local n and sponsors dances and benefits. E-mail boston2004@yahoo.com for details.

day Night Bowling League
Bowl, 820 Morrissey Blvd., Dorchester (617- 552). www.mnbl.net. Mon., 7:30 pm. The 's bowling season runs weekly.

Neighborhood
lidway Café, 3496 Washington St., Jamaica (617-524-9038). www.midwaycafe.com. : Orange Line to Green. Second Sat. of each , 9 pm. $5. 21+. A welcoming space for the exual and transgender community featuring ls and bands.

ly Diagnosed Group
ealth Peer Support Services, 25 West St., (617-457-8142, ext. 329). MBTA: Red or e Line to Downtown Crossing. First and third of each month, 7:30-9 pm. Free. This group ts local gay and bisexual men who've been sed with HIV during the last two years.

to Dance
Roxbury School of Dance, 29 Corey St. West ry (617-363-0029). www.outtodance.com. o Dance offers a variety of swing, Latin llroom dance classes in a gay-friendly envi- nt.

TwentySomethings Boston
somethingsboston-subscribe@yahoogroups.com. cial and peer support group is for lesbian, gay, al, transgender and questioning members of mmunity, as well as their straight allies in 0s and early 30s.

Social
hine Room at Club Café, 209 Columbus Ave., (617-457-8142, ext. 326). MBTA: Orange Back Bay. Second Mon. of each month, 6-11 pm. Free. This monthly evening of raffles, food, music and drink benefits those affected by HIV/AIDS.

POZ 30s Plus
JRI Health Peer Support Services, 132 Boylston St., Boston (617-457-8142, ext. 314). MBTA: Red or Green Line to Park. Wed., 7-9 pm. This social group supports HIV-positive gay and bisexual men ages 30 and over. E-mail hyee@jri.org for details.

POZ 20s
JRI Health, 25 West St., Boston (617-457-8142, ext. 329). MBTA: Red or Orange Line to Downtown Crossing. Thu., 7:30-9 pm. This social group offers support for HIV-positive gay and bisexual men in their 20s.

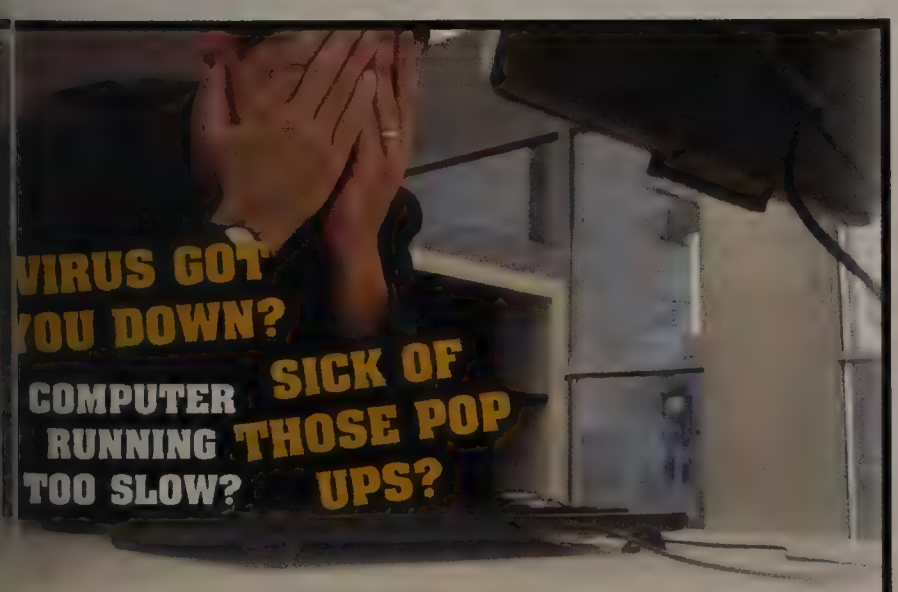
The Rainbow Café
rainbowboston-subscribe@yahoogroups.com. The Rainbow Café, a social lesbian group, meets bi-weekly in gay-owned or gay-friendly establishments around the Boston area.

Slice of Rice
Boston Glass, 93 Mass. Ave., Boston (617-266-3349). MBTA: Green Line to Hynes. Wed., 6-7 pm. This peer-run queer Asian youth group for those under 25 meets for mutual support. E-mail sungyun@chickmail.com for details.

Somos Latin@s LGBT Coalition
www.somoslatinoslgbt.org. A social and networking group for LGBT Latinos and Latinas around Boston, Somos Latin@s hosts Viernes Sociales (Social Fridays) every month. E-mail somoslatinoslgbt@hotmail.com for details.

Stonewall Communities Lifelong Learning Institute
Wheelock College, 43 Hawes St., Brookline (617-369-9090). MBTA: C Green Line to Cleveland Circle. Stonewall Communities teams up with Wheelock College for eight-week courses that feature events, workshops and lunch speakers for older GLBT people and their friends.

Under the Radar
(617-851-7911). www.radarboston.com. Under the Radar, Boston's gay, all-male contemporary a cappella group, is always auditioning prospective members. E-mail info@radarboston.com for details.

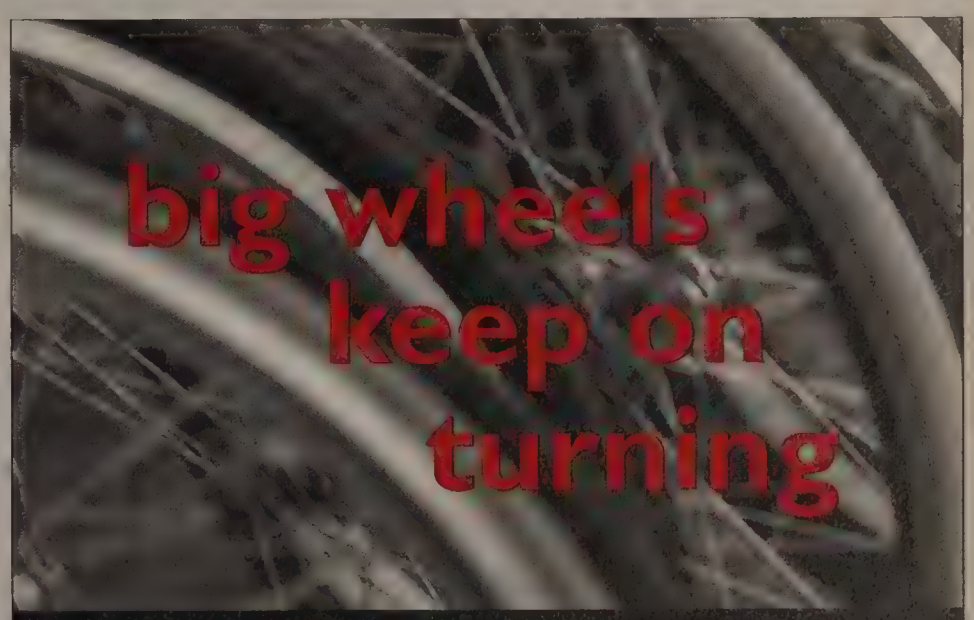


Wonder Women Boston
http://groups.yahoo.com/wonder_women_boston. Second Fri. of each month. This local social group includes lesbian and bisexual women in their 20s and 30s.

Mention this ad and receive 10% off*.
*some restrictions apply, see store for details.

alphagraphics®
DESIGN ■ COPY ■ PRINT ▶ COMMUNICATE

74 Canal Street
Boston, MA 02114
617.742.9587 • 617.742.9584
Order online at:
▶ www.us541.alphagraphics.com



COMPUTER PAIN RELIEF
$99 Gets You Back On Track

- 24-hour turn around time
- Drop off today, pick up tomorrow
- Software and hardware upgrades available
- Software parts, data back up and retrieval subject to additional cost

"Giving You The Power To Produce" 800-869-9390
www.nbminc.com

NBM
Northern Business Machines
Boston • Burlington
Canton • Bedford, NH

Powerful pedal support for thousands of deliveries each day.

CE CITY EXPRESS
Increasing the Speed and Efficiency of Business for More Than 15 Years
BEST OF BOSTON 2003 · 2004 WINNER · 2005 WINNER · 2007 WINNER
617.350.4000
212.406.0330
"Boston's Best Courier" "Best Courier Service"

THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN
MAGAZINE

will publish its annual

Bachelors & Bachelorettes

issue in early 2008

Please nominate your favorite local single guy or gal to be featured in this issue.

Please Include:

Your name: _____

Your phone number and e-mail address:

_____

Your nominee's name, phone number, e-mail address and the local city where he/she lives:

_____

_____

Tell us why he/she is a catch. Be specific.

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

His/her occupation and age:

_____

Please include a recent color photo, or high-res digital image, of your friend.

Mail nominations to:

The Improper Bostonian | Attn: Bachelor/Bachelorette Nomination
142 Berkeley St., 3rd Floor, Boston, MA 02116

or e-mail to:

BostonBach@improper.com

Please note that you can't nominate yourself and you must provide all of the above information in order to qualify.

Entries must be received no later than October 24, 2007.

education

Advice to Contributors
Submit updated information by mail or fax (617-859-1446); to Calendar: Education; or e-mail information to education@improper.com. Include a brief but thorough description of the event, including time, date, location, directions, cost and contact information. Deadline is four weeks prior to publication. Listings cannot be accepted by phone.

WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 26

Boomer Business Launcher
Boston Center for Adult Education, 5 Comm. Ave., Boston (617-267-4430). www.bcae.org. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. 10 am. $49, nonmembers; $45, members. Get advice on building your dream business, including how to identify your target customer.

Observatory Public Open Night
Coit Observatory, 725 Comm. Ave., Boston (617-353-2000). www.bu.edu/phpbin/calendar. MBTA: B Green Line to BU Central. 8:30 pm. Free. Come observe the night sky through telescopes and binoculars.

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 27

Berlin: Symphony of a New City
Cambridge Center for Adult Education, 42 Brattle St., Cambridge (617-547-6789). www.ccae.org. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 10:30 am. $2. Discover modern Berlin through film and photographs at this lecture.

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 28

Choreographing the Moment: Dance at Your Wedding
Boston Center for Adult Education, 5 Comm. Ave., Boston (617-267-4430). www.bcae.org. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. 6:30 pm. $112, general admission per couple; $102, member couples. This session helps couples pick out and choreograph a dance for their wedding reception.

A Conversation With Ken Burns
JFK Presidential Library, Columbia Point, Boston (617-514-1600). www.jfklibrary.org. MBTA: Red Line to JFK/UMass. 5:30 pm. Free. Filmmaker Ken Burns shows and discusses his new World War II documentary The War.

Deep Ancestry: Inside the Genographic Project
Museum of Science, Science Park, Boston (617-589-0300). www.mos.org. MBTA: Green Line to Science Park. 7 pm. $25, general admission; $23, members. Dr. Spencer Wells, director of National Geographic and IBM's Genographic Project, discusses the use of DNA to decode human ancestry and explains how to uncover your personal genetic history.

Wine and Craft Night
Spark Craft Studios, 1962 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-441-5520). www.sparkcrafts.com. MBTA: Red Line to Porter. 6 pm. $40. Registration required. Enjoy an evening of wine tasting and learn to make your own cocktail ring.

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 29

Beacon Hill Walking Tour
Harrison Gray Otis House, 141 Cambridge St., Boston (617-227-3596). www.historicnewengland.org. 11 am. $12, nonmembers; $6, members. Registration recommended. Visit the Otis House and take a guided tour of Beacon Hill mansions and other historical landmarks.

Boston Founders Trail Walking Tour
Boston National Historical Park Visitors Center, 15 State St., Boston (617-373-3853). www.historicbostons.com. MBTA: Blue or Green Line to Gov. Center. 10 am and 2 pm. $15. Northeastern anthropology professor Will Holton guides this tour around various historical sites.

Fashion for Boomers
Boston Center for Adult Education, 5 Comm. Ave., Boston (617-267-4430). www.bcae.org. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. 10 am. $49, nonmembers; $45, members. Wardrobe consultant Susan Mullins reveals how to get a trendy, fashionable look. The workshop also includes time to shop in the Back Bay area.

SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 30

The Architects and Architecture of Forest Hills
Forest Hills Educational Trust, 95 Forest Hills Ave., Jamaica Plain (617-524-0128). www.foresthillstrust.org. MBTA: Orange Line to Green. 2 pm. $9. Boston historian Anthony Sammarco disc the history of the area and the people who sh its architecture.

The Christ-Life: Worship, Communion and Service
St. Paul Catholic Church, 29 Mt. Auburn St., bridge (781-235-1942). www.saint-paul-cspa MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 3:30 pm. Free. N appointed St. Paul's pastor Robert J. Congdo livers a lecture on contemporary spirituality.

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 2

The Art and Industry of Fashion
The School of Fashion Design, 136 Newbury Boston (617-267-4430). www.bcae.org. MB Green Line to Arlington. 6 pm. $120, general a sion; $108, members. Learn the basics of brea into the fashion industry, including sketch marketing and clothing construction.

Low-Fat, Low-Carb, Full of Flavor
Boston Center for Adult Education, 5 Comm. Boston (617-267-4430). www.bcae.org. MB Green Line to Arlington. 10 am. $70, nonmem $65, members. Learn how to cook various f including pork chops and spicy chicken cakes healthier way.

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 3

A Discussion With Richard Danielpo
David Friend Recital Hall, Berklee College of Music Mass. Ave., Boston (617-266-1400). www.be edu/events/default.php. MBTA: Green Line to Hy pm. Free. Richard Danielpour, a Grammy-wi composer, leads a discussion about his opera garet Garner.

Observatory Public Open Night
Coit Observatory, 725 Comm. Ave., 5th floor 353-2630). www.bu.edu/phpbin/calendar. MB Green Line to BU Central. 8:30 pm. Come ob the night sky through telescopes and binocula

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 4

The Art & Science & Practice, Practice, Practice of Cartooning
Devlin Hall, 140 Comm. Ave., Boston (617 8000). www.bc.edu. MBTA: Green Line to C 7:30 pm. Free. New Yorker cartoonist R Mankoff discusses his creative process and h draw your own cartoons.

The Return of the Imperial Presidency and the Subversion of American Democracy
Ford Hall Forum, 716 Columbus Ave., Suit Boston (617-373-5800). www.fordhallforum edu. MBTA: Orange Line to Ruggles. 6:30 pm Boston Globe reporter Charlie Savage discusse our current government has drastically chang role of the executive branch.

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 5

Wine and Craft Night
Spark Craft Studios, 1963 Mass. Ave., Cam (617-441-5520). www.sparkcrafts.com: M Red Line to Porter. 6 pm. $40. Registration re Learn how to make your own necklace whi joying fine wines.

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 6

Beacon Hill Walking Tour
Harrison Gray Otis House, 141 Cambridge St., (617-227-3596). www.historicnewengland.org. $12, nonmembers; $6, members. Registration mended. Visit the Otis House and take a guided Beacon Hill mansions and other historical land

Pocket Pets
National Heritage Museum, 33 Marrett Road, l ton (781-861-6559). www.nationalheritagem org. MBTA: #76 Bus to Mass. Ave. and Ma pm. $7, nonmembers; $5, members. Learn smaller animals, such as hamsters, gerbils an chillas, and how to pick the right pet for your

SUNDAY, OCTOBER 7

Collectors and Philanthropists
Forest Hills Educational Trust, 95 Forest Hill Jamaica Plain (617-524-0128). www.foresthil org. MBTA: Orange Line to Green. 4 pm. $ Anthony Sammarco for a tour around Fore Cemetery, stopping at the graves of well- Boston philanthropists.

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 9

Galapagos: A Laboratory for Global Marine Conservation
Harborside Learning Lab, New England Aq Central Wharf, Boston (617-973-5200). ww org. MBTA: Blue Line to Aquarium. 7 pm. Fr rine biologist Jack Grove will discuss his exp researching seascapes in the Galapagos Islan

ooks & oetry

vice to Contributors
nit listings by fax (617-859-1446); mail to Cal-r: Books and Poetry; or e-mail information to s@improper.com. Deadline is four weeks prior to ication.

eadings & Signings

EDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 26

nes & Noble Boston University
Beacon St., Boston (617-267-8484). www.bu.
re.com. MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore. 7 pm.
er Madison, a recent Tufts graduate and for-sex columnist, discusses sexual health topics, vers questions and signs copies of her nonfic-book, Hooking Up: A Girl's All-Out Guide to & Sexuality.

ders Downtown Crossing
4 School St., Boston (617-557-7188). www.
ersstores.com. MBTA: Green or Red Line to Park.
. Free. Terry Shaw reads and signs his novel, Way Life Should Be, which tells the story of a spaper editor who investigates his best friend's h in a coastal Maine town.

okline Booksmith Event
idge Corner Theatre, 290 Harvard St., Brookline
-566-6660). www.brooklinebooksmith.com.
TA: C Green Line to Coolidge Corner. 6 pm. $5.
Patchett reads from her new novel, Run, a nare set in the heart of Boston about the events change a family.

e French Library
Marlborough St., Boston (617-912-0410). www.
hlib.org/events. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington.
. $15, nonmembers; free, members. RSVP red. James R. Gaines presents his book, For Lib- and Glory: Washington, Lafayette and Their Revo-ns, which explores how the connection between rica and France grew stronger over the course ch country's revolution.

rvard Book Store
Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-661-1515). www.
ard.com/events. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 7
Free. Dr. Vincent Lam reads from Bloodletting Miraculous Cures, his fiction debut about four g doctors making the transition from medical ol to the ER.

e's Mystery Books
Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-491-2660). www.
mysterybooks.com. MBTA: Red Line to Davis. 6 Free. Steve Hamilton reads from Night Work, the novel in the Alex McKnight series.

ter Square Books
White St., Cambridge (617-491-2220). www.porter rebooks.com. MBTA: Red Line to Porter. 7 pm.
Ethan Nichtern discusses his new book, One
A Declaration of Interdependence, which mixes his s on social unity with modern Buddhist practice
Martin Luther King's message of togetherness.

URSDAY, SEPTEMBER 27

nes & Noble Boston University
Beacon St., Boston (617-267-8484). www.bu.
re.com. MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore. 5:30 pm.
ck Burgess and Bill Nowlin discuss their book,
That Dirty Water, which explores the history be-the Boston Red Sox anthem. A signing follows.

nes & Noble Prudential Center
Boylston St., Boston (617-247-6959). MBTA: E n Line to Prudential. 12 pm. Editor Adam ter will be signing copies of his Red Sox angy Further Fenway Fiction.

ders Downtown Crossing
4 School St., Boston (617-557-7188). www.
rsstores.com. MBTA: Green or Red Line to Park. 1 Free. Mötley Crüe's Nikki Sixx reads from The n Diaries, a collection of journal entries from the when his drug addiction and self-destructive be-or spiraled out of control.

ton Public Library
Boylston St., Boston (617-536-5400). www.
rg. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. 6 pm. Free.
hen Fox speaks about his new book, Wolf of the
, a biography of Confederate naval captain hael Semmes.

ookline Booksmith
Harvard St., Brookline (617-566-6660). www.
klinebooksmith.com. MBTA: C Green Line to Coolidge Corner. 7 pm. Free. John Robison presents Look Me in the Eye, his memoir about growing up with Aspberger's syndrome.

Harvard Book Store
1256 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-661-1515). www.harvard.com/events. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 7 pm. Free. Mary Gordon reads from her newly released memoir, Circling My Mother, which reflects on the long life Anna Gordon led as a widow and parent through most of the 20th century. David Plante also reads from his new novel, ABC, about a father who travels the world looking for answers after the death of his son.

Harvard Coop
1400 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-499-2000). www.harvard.bkstore.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 7 pm. Free. Best-selling author Tess Gerritsen reads from and signs The Bone Garden, a murder mystery that weaves tales from the 19th and 21st centuries.

Newtonville Books
296 Walnut St., Newton (617-244-6619). www.newtonvillebooks.com. MBTA: Commuter Rail to Newtonville. 7 pm. Free. Ellen Litman reads from her new book, The Last Chicken in America: A Novel in Stories, which tells the separate tales of 12 Russian immigrants who struggle during their transitions into American society.

Bill Littlefield reads Oct. 9 at Porter Square Books.

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 28

Borders Downtown Crossing
10-24 School St., Boston (617-557-7188). www.bordersstores.com. MBTA: Green or Red Line to Park. 1 pm. Free. Hannah Seligson discusses her book New Girl on the Job, which offers young women tips and strategies for succeeding in the workplace.

Harvard Book Store
1256 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-661-1515). www.harvard.com/events. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 3 pm. Free. Yale professor Ben Kiernan discusses his new nonfiction book Blood and Soil: A World History of Genocide and Extermination From Sparta to Darfur, in which he examines genocidal acts throughout history and observes patterns and connections.

Harvard Book Store
1256 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-661-1515). www.harvard.com/events. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 7 pm. Free. Anne Packer reads from her second novel, Songs Without Words, about two lifelong friends faced with personal challenges that threaten their bond.

Harvard Coop
1400 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-499-2000). www.harvard.bkstore.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 7 pm. Free. Columbia University business professor Jonathan Knee discusses and signs copies of his book, The Accidental Investment Banker, which gives insight into some of Wall Street's most influential businesses.

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 29

Harvard Coop
1400 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-499-2000). www.harvard.bkstore.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 3 pm. Free. Robin Wasserman reads from her novel Hacking Harvard, about a group of teenagers who come together in an attempt to help their slacker friend get into Harvard.

SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 30

Newtonville Books
296 Walnut St., Newton (617-244-6619). www.newtonvillebooks.com. MBTA: Commuter Rail to Newtonville. 2 pm. Free. Jennifer Block reads from her new book, Pushed: The Painful Truth About Childbirth and Modern Maternity Care, in which she investigates the strictly business approach hospitals take toward childbirth.

Wellesley Booksmith
Wellesley Free Library, 530 Washington St., Wellesley (781-431-1160). www.wellesleybooksmith.com. MBTA: Commuter Rail to Wellesley Square. 2 pm. Free. Michael Holley signs his new book Never Give Up, which he cowrote with Patriots linebacker Tedy Bruschi about Bruschi's recovery from a stroke and return to football.

MONDAY, OCTOBER 1

Harvard Book Store
1256 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-661-1515). www.harvard.com/events. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 7 pm. Free. Katha Pollitt reads from her book Learning to Drive and Other Life Stories, in which she shares memories from her past.

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 2

Barnes & Noble Boston University
660 Beacon St., Boston (617-267-8484). www.bu.bkstore.com. MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore. 7 pm. Members of the Baseball Prospectus Team are on hand to discuss their book It Ain't Over 'Til It's Over, which reviews and analyzes some of the best-known pennant races in baseball history.

Brookline Booksmith
279 Harvard St., Brookline (617-566-6660). www.brooklinebooksmith.com. MBTA: C Green Line to Coolidge Corner. 7 pm. Free. Francisco Goldman discusses his nonfiction work The Art of Political Murder, about the murder of Guatemalan human rights activist bishop Juan Gerardi.

Harvard Coop
1400 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-499-2000). www.harvard.bkstore.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 7 pm. Free. Authors Thomas Cathhart and Daniel Klein will discuss and sign copies of their book, Plato and a Platypus Walk Into a Bar: Understanding Philosophy Through Jokes.

Newtonville Books
296 Walnut St., Newton (617-244-6619). www.newtonvillebooks.com. MBTA: Commuter Rail to Newtonville. 7 pm. Free. Brock Clarke reads from his new novel An Arsonist's Guide to Writers' Homes in New England, which chronicles the dark life of a man who cannot escape his past mistakes.

Porter Square Books
25 White St., Cambridge (617-491-2220). www.porter squarebooks.com. MBTA: Red Line to Porter. 7 pm. Free. Mark Z. Danielewski unveils his road novel, Only Revolutions, which outlines the journey of two American teenagers on their way across the country.

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 3

Barnes & Noble Boston University
660 Beacon St., Boston (617-267-8484). www.bu.bkstore.com. MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore. 7 pm. Boston University professor Lou Ureneck discusses his memoir, Backcast, about the post-divorce struggle to maintain a positive relationship with his son.

Borders Downtown Crossing
10-24 School St., Boston (617-557-7188). www.bordersstores.com. MBTA: Green or Red Line to Park. 1 pm. Free. See Sept. 27 Barnes & Noble Boston University listing.

The Boston Poetry Slam
The Cantab Lounge, 738 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-354-2685). www.slamnews.com. MBTA: Red Line to Central. 7:30 pm. $3. Danny Sherrard, winner of the 2007 Individual National Poetry Slam, performs original works.

Brookline Booksmith
279 Harvard St., Brookline (617-566-6660). www.brooklinebooksmith.com. MBTA: C Green Line to Coolidge Corner. 7 pm. Free. Michelle Wildgen discusses her debut novel, You're Not You, about a troubled college student who takes a job as a caregiver for a young woman with Lou Gehrig's disease.

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 4

Brookline Booksmith Event
Coolidge Corner Theatre, 290 Harvard St., Brookline (617-566-6660). www.brooklinebooksmith.com. MBTA: C Green Line to Coolidge Corner. 6 pm. $5. Pulitzer Prize winner Richard Russo reads from his new novel, Bridge of Sighs, which spans half a century and explores the relationships one man holds with his loved ones and his dying town.

Porter Square Books
25 White St., Cambridge (617-491-2220). www.portersquarebooks.com. MBTA: Red Line to Porter. 7 pm. Free. See Sept. 27 Newtonville Books listing.

Tufts University Bookstore
40 Talbot Ave., Medford (617-627-3468). www.tufts.bncollege.com. 7 pm. Free. Tufts professor Maryanne Wolf reads from, discusses and signs her new book, Proust and the Squid, a scientific study of reading's effects on the brain.

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 5

Harvard Coop
1400 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-499-2000). www.harvard.bkstore.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 7 pm. Free. Sociologist Katherine S. Newman discusses her new book, The Missing Class, a collection of case studies looking at the growing number of families who make just enough to not qualify for public assistance. A signing follows.

Porter Square Books
25 White St., Cambridge (617-491-2220). www.portersquarebooks.com. MBTA: Red Line to Porter. 7 pm. Free. Author Haven Kimmel presents her new work, The Used World, in which three lonely women support each other as new people enter their lives.

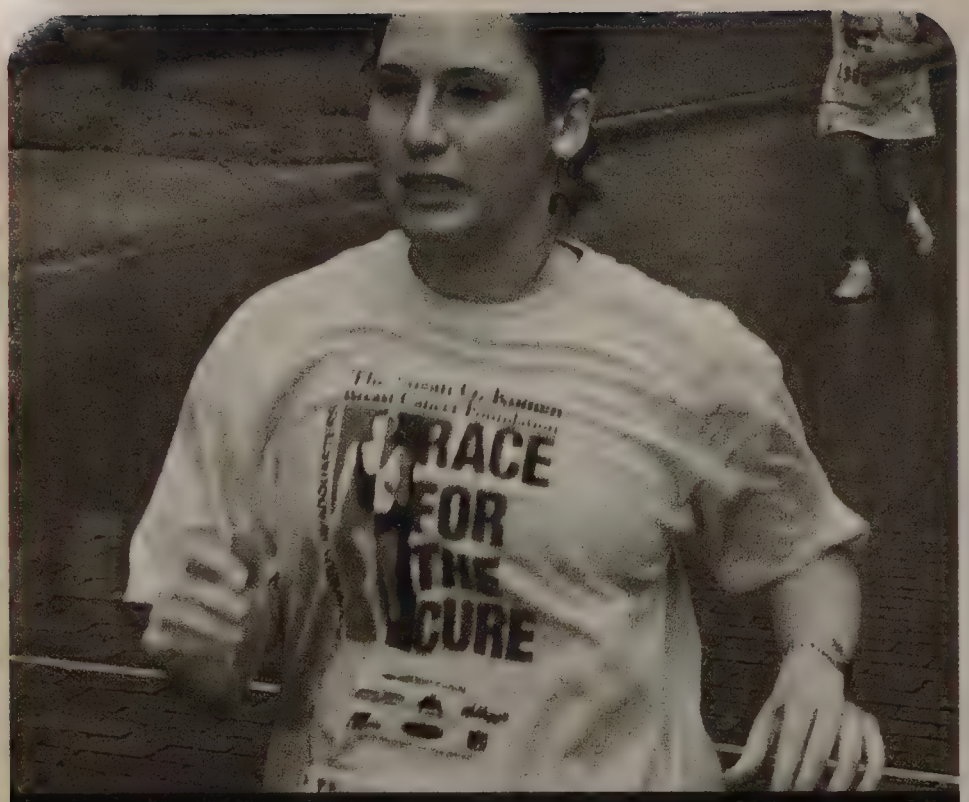
SATURDAY, OCTOBER 6

DeCordova Museum
51 Sandy Pond Road, Lincoln (781-259-8355). www.decordova.org. MBTA: Commuter Rail to Lincoln. 3 pm. Free. Sculptor Rick Barros discusses his artwork and his book, Facing Sculpture. A signing follows.

MONDAY, OCTOBER 8

Porter Square Books
25 White St., Cambridge (617-491-2220). www.portersquarebooks.com. MBTA: Red Line to Porter. 7 pm. Free. Joseph Coulson discusses his second novel, Of Song and Water, about a jazz musician dealing with the end of his career, his past and his family. Author Anca Vlasopolos discusses her memoir, The New Bedford Samurai, which deals with both environmental and human issues.

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 9



Barnes & Noble Boston University
660 Beacon St., Boston (617-267-8484). www.bu.bkstore.com. MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore. 7 pm. Marcus Rediker presents his new book, The Slave Ship, a historical look at the various relationships aboard the ships that brought African slaves to America.

Borders Back Bay
511 Boylston St., Boston (617-236-1444). www.bordersstores.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. 5 pm. Free. See Oct. 9 Borders Downtown Crossing listing.

Borders Downtown Crossing
10-24 School St., Boston (617-557-7188). www.bordersstores.com. MBTA: Green or Red Line to Park. 12:30 pm. Free. Investigative reporter Hank Phillippi Ryan will sign copies of her mystery novel, Face Time.

Brookline Booksmith
279 Harvard St., Brookline (617-566-6660). www.brooklinebooksmith.com. MBTA: C Green Line to Coolidge Corner. 7 pm. Free. Author Amir Aczel presents The Jesuit and the Skull, which recounts the challenges faced by priest and scientist Pierre Teilhard de Chardin.

Porter Square Books
25 White St., Cambridge (617-491-2220). www.portersquarebooks.com. MBTA: Red Line to Porter. 7 pm. Free. NPR's Bill Littlefield reads from his book, Only a Game, about the importance of keeping sports in perspective.

The only race more important IS THE ONE TO GET SCREENED.

As worthwhile as our Race may be, it's not as important as each woman's individual race to detect breast cancer early, when it can be most successfully treated. Learn more at komen.org or 1.800 I'M AWARE®.

The Susan G. Komen Breast Cancer Foundation

This space provided as a public service.
©2006, The Susan G. Komen Breast Cancer Foundation

Liza Miller leads a meditation class at the Brookline Dahn Yoga and Healing Center

body & mind

Advice to Contributors
Submit updated information by mail or fax (617-859-1446) to Calendar: Body/Mind, or e-mail information to bodymind@improper.com. Provide a brief but thorough description of the event, including time, date, location, directions, cost and contact information. Listings cannot be accepted by phone and must be received at least four weeks in advance.

Events

Cancer Rehabilitation: The New Frontier 2007
Simmons College, Building 12, 331 Brookline Ave., Boston (617-795-2214). www.cottingco.com/cancerconference07/index.html. MBTA: D Green Line to Fenway. Oct. 5 and 6: 7 am, registration; 8 am-4:30 pm, program. $295, professionals; $75, general public; call for group rates and scholarship information. Cosponsored by Simmons College, this breast cancer conference focuses on care and prevention. It features a variety of speakers, from health care professionals to cancer survivors.

Dances of Universal Peace
Cambridge Friends Meeting, 5 Longfellow Park, Cambridge (617-491-8694; 617-776-5767). MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. Oct. 5, 7:30-9:30 pm. $6-$10. Participants hold hands and dance in honor of global spiritual traditions.

Isabella Stewart Gardner Museum Meditation
280 The Fenway, Boston (617-278-5156; boxoffice@isgm.org). www.gardnermuseum.org; www.exhalespa.com. MBTA: E Green Line to Museum. Oct. 2, 10-11 am. Free with museum admission; free for museum members; $2 discount, Exhale Mind Body Spa and Japan Society of Boston members. Reservations by e-mail or phone required. Inspired by the exhibition Stefano Arienti: The Asian Shore, Exhale Mind Body Spa conducts meditation workshops that feature music and Chinese acupuncture. Participants receive exclusive early access to the museum.

Lectures

Lighten Up: Laughing Our Way Through Our Spiritual Path
Theosophical Society in Boston, 21 Maple St., Arlington (781-363-9673; pedro@comeforitzone.info). www.tsboston.org. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard, then #77 Bus to Arlington. Sept. 29, 7:30-9 pm. $10; $5, members. Author Pedro S. Silva II takes a humorous look at spirituality.

National Alliance on Mental Illness Family-to-Family Education Program
Nate Smith House Community Room, 155 Lamartine St., Jamaica Plain (617-522-7439). www.namimass.org. MBTA: Orange Line to Stony Brook. Classes start Sept. 26, 7-9:30 pm. Free. Weekly classes teach family and friends of people with mental illness how to administer care while maintai their own well-being.

Workshops

Adult Creative Arts Class
YWCA, 7 Temple St., Cambridge (617-868-9 lace@beyondthefourthwall.com). www.beyondthef wall.com. MBTA: Red Line to Central. Classes Oct. 1, 7-8:30 pm. $200. Participants paint, play clay, draw, act and perform music as a means o gaging with the world. Classes conclude with a hibition and reception.

Good Vibrations Workshops
308-A Harvard St., Brookline. www.goode com. MBTA: C Green Line to Coolidge Corner. O 8-10 pm. $50, drop-ins; $45, preregistered coupl Intro to Tantra for Couples, certified Tantra ins tors Lisa and Richard Levine show couples me for enhancing their sexual connection. Partici are encouraged to wear loose, comfortable clothi

Yin and Yang Yoga
Back Bay Yoga Studio, 1112 Boylston St., Boston 375-0785). www.backbayyoga.com. MBTA: Line to Hynes. Oct. 6 (hips and shoulders) and 7 bends), 1-4 pm. $50 each; $90 for both. Instr Heather Tiddens leads participants in both Yin where poses are held passively for minutes, and yoga, where pose sequences are more intensive.

Ongoing

AltThera Health Yoga Class
AltThera Health, 30 Chauncy St., Boston (617 8500). www.altthera.com. MBTA: Red or Orang to Downtown Crossing. Daily, check Web site for ule. $25; free, Fri. 12-1 pm. Please preregister. L to four students per class, AltThera yoga off include Kripalu and Vinyasa yoga instruction.

Blissful Monkey Lunchtime Yoga
Blissful Monkey Yoga Studio, 663 Centre St., Ja Plain (617-522-4411). www.blissfulmonkey MBTA: Orange Line to Green. Tue., Thu. an 12-1 pm. $10. These mixed-level classes are de for busy students.

Brookline Dahn Yoga & Healing Ce
235 Harvard St., Brookline (617-264-2451). dahnyoga.com. MBTA: C Green Line to Co Corner. Daily, check Web site for schedule. yoga, based on ancient Korean philosoph practice, helps practitioners relax and through meditation and exercises.

Gentle/Restorative Yoga
Om City Yoga, 2400 Mass. Ave., Cambridge 648-0722). www.cambridgeyoga.net. MBTA Line to Davis. Tue., 6:30-7:30 pm; Sat., 9 am. $12-$15. Recharge your spiritual, emo and physical batteries at this class led by K certified instructor Dee Greenberg. Learn g ing postures, deep stretches, and breathing t the chakras and enhance the flow of prar levels are welcome.

O2 Yoga Prenatal Class
O2 Yoga Somerville, 288 Highland Ave., Som (617-625-0267). MBTA: Red Line to Porter. S 8:30 pm. $15. Instructor Barrett Lauck t modified yoga poses suitable for women in al of pregnancy.

ports

ice to Contributors

it listings by fax (617-859-1446), by mail to Calen-ports, or by e-mail to sports@improper. com. Include ss, phone number, nearest T stop, along with a brief ption. Listings can't be accepted over the phone and be received at least four weeks in advance.

ome Games

ton Red Sox
way Park, Boston
ets: 617-482-4769
26, 7:05 pm vs. Oakland A's
27, 7:05 pm vs. Minnesota Twins
28, 7:05 pm vs. Minnesota Twins
29, 7:05 pm vs. Minnesota Twins
30, 2:05 pm vs. Minnesota Twins

v England Patriots
ette Stadium, Foxborough
ets: 617-931-2222
1, 1 pm vs. Cleveland Browns annual Marine Corps Honor Run returns Sept. 30

ents

ine Corps Honor Run
egins at Houghton's Pond, Blue Hill Reservation, n (888-767-7223). www.conventures.com. 30, 10 am. $22-$27. Runners can choose to cipate in a five- or 10K run through Blue Hills rvation to help raise funds for the Marine s Law Enforcement Foundation and Semper is Society—Boston.

s Health Plan 10K for Women tarts in Boston Common, Boston (888-767-7223). .tufts-healthplan.com/tufts10k. MBTA: Green or ine to Park. Oct. 8. 12 pm. $30-$39. This annual or women starts in Boston Common and takes cipants on a course around the Charles River.

Play

SEBALL

ry's Baseball
-891-0621). Seeking players ages 17-40.

SKETBALL

ton Ski & Sports Club
-789-4070). www.bssc.com. BSSC offers men's, en's and co-ed leagues for players of all levels in ury and Watertown.

nbridge Racquet Fitness Club
-491-8989). www.crfcbasketball.com. CRFC year-round leagues for individuals and teams. evels welcome.

porate Basketball League
-248-7811). This league seeks teams for the sum-Games are held in Newton and Waltham.

ver Too Late Basketball
-488-3333). www.nevertoolate.com. Adults shoot s in locations around Boston.

XING

ton Sport Boxing Club
Church St., Newton (617-595-8141). www. boxing.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard, then #71 o Walnut. Mon.-Sat., 2-10 pm.* This boxing club lessons for all skill levels at its Watertown gym.

The Ring Boxing Club
971 Comm. Ave., Boston (617-782-6946). www.ringboxingclub.com. MBTA: B Green Line to Pleasant. Mon.-Fri., 12-10 pm; Sat., 12-6 pm. Certified professional coaches teach boxers of all levels.

DODGEBALL

Boston Ski & Sports Club
(617-789-4070). www.bssc.com. The BSSC offers co-ed dodgeball leagues in Belmont and Watertown. Leagues play for eight to 10 weeks.

FLAG AND TOUCH FOOTBALL

Boston Ski & Sports Club
Games are held in Brighton (617-789-4070). www.bssc.com. Six-on-six and four-on-four men's teams compete each weekend.

HOCKEY

Boston Ski & Sports Club
(617-789-4070). www.bssc.com. The BSSC offers various co-ed floor hockey leagues at its Brighton and Newton locations.

ICE SKATING

Bay State Skating School
13 rinks in towns including Cambridge, Brookline and Somerville (781-890-8480). www.baystateskatingschool.org. The BSSS offers beginner, intermediate and advanced classes.

KICKBALL

Boston Ski & Sports Club
(617-789-4070). www.bssc.com. The BSSC offers outdoor co-ed kickball leagues in Charlestown and Newton. Each season includes eight games, plus playoffs.

RUGBY

Beantown Women's Rugby Club
www.beantownrugby.com. Tue. and Thu. in Allston; games Sat. Beantown has won the national women's championship six times.

Boston Rugby Club
(617-566-2732). www.brfc.org. This club is looking for players to join its national-level team for the upcoming season.

Boston Women's Rugby Football Club
(781-340-2192). www.bwrfc.org. This club seeks new players for rugby games in Brookline and Cambridge.

Mystic River Rugby Club
(617-267-5221). www.mysticrugby.com. Mystic River is a Division 1 rugby club which competes in the New England Rugby Union.

RUNNING

Boston Hash House Harriers
Various location in and around Boston (617-499-4835).www.bostonhash.com. This social club hosts weekly runs on either Wednesdays or Sundays.

Cambridge Friday Night Fun Run
Cambridge Racquet and Fitness Club, 215 First St., Cambridge (781-275-1584). www.srr.org. MBTA: Red Line to Kendall/ MIT. Fri., 6 pm. The Somerville Road Runners host this weekly run in the Cambridge area.

Team LunaChix Boston
BostonRun@teamlunachix.com. www.bostonlunachix.com. Wed., 6:30 pm. Women only. This women's running group gathers weekly to promote healthy living and breast cancer awareness. The four-mile jogs start on the MIT side of the Mass. Ave. bridge.

SOCCER

Boston Ski & Sports Club
(617-789-4070). www.bssc.com. The BSSC offers a series of outdoor co-ed soccer leagues in Canton, Lexington, Newton and Waltham. Each season lasts for eight weeks.

SOFTBALL

Boston Ski & Sports Club
(617-789-4070). www.bssc.com. The BSSC offers a series of outdoor co-ed softball leagues in the Greater Boston area.

WHITE-WATER RAFTING

Boston Ski & Sports Club
(617-789-4070). www.bssc.com. This summer, the BSSC offers weekend white-water rafting trips to Maine, Canada and western Massachusetts.

children

Advice to Contributors
Submit updated listings by mail or fax (617-859-1446) to Calendar: Children, or e-mail information to children@improper.com. Include address, phone number, subway stop, ticket price, dates, times and a brief description of the event. Deadline is four weeks prior to publication. Listings cannot be accepted over the phone.

Things to See

Arthropods: Creatures That Rule
Harvard Museum of Natural History, 26 Oxford St., Cambridge (617-495-3045). www.hmnh.harvard.edu. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. Ongoing. 9 am-5 pm. $9, adults; $7, seniors and students; $6, members and children ages 3-18. Get up close and personal with scorpions, spiders and butterflies in the museum's newest permanent exhibition. The exhibit includes hands-on interactive games, multimedia presentations, preserved specimens and live creatures. Ages 3 and up.

CSI: The Experience
Museum of Science, Science Park, Boston (617-723-2500). www.mos.org. MBTA: Green Line to Science Park. Ongoing. Through Jan. 1. $23, adult nonmembers; $20.50, senior nonmembers; $19, children nonmembers; $5, adult members; $4.50, senior members; $4, children members. Think you might be the next Gil Grissom? Find out as you explore this interactive exhibit, inspired by CBS' hit TV show. Visitors learn the ins and outs of forensic science and the latest investigative techniques featured on CSI. Admission also includes a voucher for the main exhibit halls, which is valid the same day or within six months of viewing the experience.

Franklin Park Zoo
One Franklin Park Road, Dorchester (617-541-5466). www.franklinparkzoo.org. Mon.-Fri., 10 am-5 pm; Sat. and Sun., 10 am-6 pm. $11, adults; $9.50, seniors; $6, children; free, under age 2. •Come experience "Tiger Tales" at the Franklin Park Zoo where kids can meet the new tigers, Anala and Luther, and learn about the problems that can happen when exotic animals fall into the wrong hands. •Take a walk through the "Outback Trail" and view the kangaroos, emus, sheep and kookaburra. •Enter "Bird's World" to see various bird species from the scrublands, swamps and wetlands.

Puppet Showplace Theater
32 Station St., Brookline (617-731-6400). www.puppetshowplace.org. MBTA: D Green Line to Brookline Village. $9.50, nonmembers; $7.50, members. •Sept. 26 and 27, 10 am. Prince Tad learns a few lessons about being kind and keeping promises in the Pumpernickel Puppet performance of The Frog Prince. Ages 3-6. •Sept. 29 and 30, 1 and 3 pm. See a classic fairytale come to life in the Spring Valley Puppet production of Jack and the Beanstalk, in which a young boy's magical beans lead to big surprises. Ages 4-10.

Ringling Bros. and Barnum & Bailey Circus
Causeway St., Boston (617-624-1000). www.ringling.com. MBTA: Green or Orange Line to North Station. Oct. 5-14. Thu-Fri., 7 pm; Sat., 11 am, 3 and 7 pm; Sun., 1 and 5 pm; Mon., 11 am and 3 pm. $15-$100. Enjoy "the Greatest Show on Earth," featuring equestrian stunts, six rare white-striped Bengal tigers, acrobatic feats, fun-loving clowns and more. Former American Idol finalist Jennifer Fuentes serves as master of ceremonies. Families are invited to join the Ringling Bros. athletic cast an hour before the performance for the free preshow. Ages 2 and up.

Things to Do

Artbeat
212-A Mass. Ave., Arlington (781-646-2200). www.artbeatonline.com. Oct. 6, 3-6 pm. •$12 for materials. Children create leaf magnets using autumn colors and beads. •$10-$15 for materials. Celebrate Halloween by creating spooky spider art at this fun workshop.

Barefoot Books
1771 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-349-1610). www.barefootbooks.com. Free. •Sept. 27, 6-7 pm. Come dressed in pajamas and listen to bedtime stories at the bookstore's "Pajama Party." •Sept. 28, 10:30 am. Listen to a story about growing up.

•Sept. 29, 10:30 am. Hear about Friends, Ne Old at story hour.

Boston Children's Museum
300 Congress St., Boston (617-426-8855). bostonkids.org. MBTA: Red Line to South St Sat.-Thu., 10 am-5 pm; Fri., 10 am-9 pm. adults; $8, seniors and children; $2, age 1 under age 1 and members. $1, Fri. 5-9 pm. • 11 am. Kids can dance and make tasty during "Playspace." •Daily, 10 am-4 pm. Visi Studio" this month and learn how to m variety of collages with various materials. • 10:30-11:30 am. Children are introduced basics of science at "Pint Sized Science." •Fr pm. "Fresh Fridays" encourages children to s the ingredient of the month, learn fun foo and take home recipes. •Sat.-Thu., 10 an pm; Fri., 10 am-7:30 pm. During "PlaySpace Activity," children participate in a vari activities ranging from sticky collages to pa and playing with shaving cream or water.

Brookline Arts Center
86 Monmouth St., Brookline (617-566-5 www.brooklineartscenter.com. MBTA: C Gree to St. Mary's. •Sat., 10 am. Through Nov. 3. nonmembers; $112, members; $30, mat Children create art using a variety of ma including pastels, charcoal and watercolor. A 13. •Mon., 4:30 pm. Through Nov. 5. nonmembers; $144, members; $30, mat Children are taught the basics of drawing intensive course. Ages 8+. •Mon. and Tue pm. Sept. 10-Nov. 6. $160, nonmembers; members; $30, materials. Kids learn the ba metalworking using copper and brass. Age Adults welcome. •Tue., 3:30 pm. Through N $185, nonmembers; $168, members; materials. Kids learn to draw both Japanes American-style comics. Ages 10+. •Tue., 3: Through Nov. 6. $185, nonmembers; members; $40, materials. Kids learn the ba pottery and wheel-throwing.

The Colonial Theatre
106 Boylston St., Boston (617-880-2460). 7, 2 pm. $80-$108. Join Arthur and his fri Arthur Live! Arthur Tricks the Tooth Fairy. on the popular PBS series, the show in singing, dancing and audience participati ages are welcome.

ImprovBoston Family Show
1253 Cambridge St., Cambridge (617-576- www.improvboston.com. MBTA: Red L Kendall/MIT. Sat., 6 pm. $12, adults; $10, $7, students and children. This improv featuring a variety of skits, is designed entire family.

Institute of Contemporary Art
100 Northern Ave., Boston (617-478- www.icaboston.org. 10 am-4 pm. Free. Se Celebrate the arrival of autumn with "Pla Color Light & Movement," a family tou permanent collection. Children learn sketch on an easel with help from arti investigate colors in the art lab. Kids also tips for inventing their own colorful tales professional storyteller in the theater. Ages

Museum of Science
One Science Park, Boston (617-723-2500) mos.org. MBTA: D Green Line to Science Par Sat., 11 am. Ongoing. Free with admissio adult; $15, senior; $14, children. Enjoy an tales from professional storytellers in the M Science Theater program. Stories combi tales and myths with live animals and a participation in the Discovery Center.

New England Aquarium
Central Wharf, Boston (617-973-5200). neaq.org. MBTA: Blue Line to Aquarium. 25 and 28, Oct. 2 and 5. See Web site for ti age details. $65, nonmembers, $45, memb the Family Explorer classes, kids and adul about the ocean and its inhabitants, from and small to the warm and cold. •Sept. 4, 11, and 18, 9:30-10:30 am. $95, nonm $70, members. In this six-week series for o olds and their parents, the Little Fishes F Group introduces children to the wonder aquatic world.

Take a Walk: Autumn Adventur
52 Gore Place, Watertown/Waltham (7 2798). www.goreplace.org. Mon.-Fri., 9 a Sat.-Sun., 12-3 pm. $5 per backpack. Rese recommended. Grab an "activity pack" and the wide-open spaces on this 45-acre Children and their accompanying ad invited to visit the llama, sheep, go chickens that live on the farm. Each b pack contains binoculars, a magnifying g age-appropriate activities. Ages 3-9.

round
own

ghts to See

ston Public Library Art
l Architecture Tour
Boylston St., Boston (617-536-5400). www.bpl.
MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Mon., 2:30 pm;
and Thu., 6 pm; Fri. and Sat., 11 am. Free.

ston University Observatory
Observatory, 725 Comm. Ave., Boston (617-
-2630). www.bu.edu/astronomy/opennight.html.
TA: B Green Line to BU East. Clear Wed. nights:
nd winter, 7:30 pm; spring and summer, 8:30 pm.

euil Hall Marketplace
uth Market Building, Boston (617-523-1300).
.faneuilhallmarketplace.com. MBTA: Green or Or-Line to Haymarket. Mon.-Sat., 10 am-9 pm; Sun.,
pm.

vard Museum of Natural History
Oxford St., Cambridge (617-495-3045). www.
.harvard.edu. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. Daily,
-5 pm. $9; $7, students and seniors; $6, ages 3-18.
., 3-5 pm (Sept. through May), and Sun., 9 am-12
ree to all Massachusetts residents.

n F. Kennedy Library & Museum
mbia Point, Dorchester (617-514-1600). www.jfk
ry.org. MBTA: Red Line to JFK/UMass. Daily,
-5 pm. $10; $8, seniors and students; $7, ages 13-
ree, ages 12 and under.

z Anderson Antique to Museum
lewton St., Brookline (617-522-6547). www.mot.
MBTA: C Green Line to Cleveland Circle. Tue.-
. 10 am-5 pm. $5; $3, ages 6-17, students and se-
; free, ages 6 and under.

ry Baker Eddy Library Mapparium
Mass. Ave., Boston (888-222-3711). www.
bakereddylibrary.org. MBTA: Green Line to es. Tue.-Sun., 10 am-4 pm. $6; $4, seniors, stuand ages 6-17; free, children under 6.

unt Auburn Cemetery
Mount Auburn St., Cambridge (617-547-7105).
.mountauburn.org. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard.
-May, 8 am-5 pm; May-Sept., 8 am-7 pm. Free.

seum of Afro-American History
y St., Boston (617-725-0022). www.afroam um.org. MBTA: Red or Green Line to Park.
.-Sat., 10 am-4 pm. Guided walking tours avail-
by special request. $5, suggested donation.

seum of Science
ce Park, Boston (617-723-2500). www.mos.
MBTA: Green Line to Science Park. Sat.-Thu., 9 pm, adults, $17; seniors, $15; children, $14.

v England Aquarium
eral Wharf, Boston (617-973-5200). www.neaq.
MBTA: Blue Line to Aquarium. Mon.-Fri., 9 am-
; Sat. and Sun., 9 am-7 pm. $18.95; $10.95,
3-11.

North Church
Salem St., Boston (617-523-6676). www.old
.com. MBTA: Green or Orange Line to Haymarpen daily, 9 am-6 pm. Free.

South Meeting House
Washington St., Boston (617-482-6439). www.
uthmeetinghouse.org. MBTA: Blue or Orange Line
ue. Daily, 9:30 am-5 pm. $5; $4, seniors and stu-
; $1, ages 6-18; free, children under 6.

State House Museum
Washington St., Boston (617-720-1713). www.
nhistory.org. MBTA: Blue or Orange Line to State.
. 9 am-5 pm. $5; $4, seniors and students; $1, ages
free, children under 6.

dential Center Skywalk
Boylston St., Boston (617-859-0648). www.
ntialcenter.com. MBTA: E Green Line to Pruden-Daily, 10 am-9:30 pm. $11, adults, $11; $9, se-$7.50, children under 12.

ity Church
Clarendon St., Boston (617-536-0944). www.
boston.org. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Tue.-
9 am-6 pm; Sun., 7 am-7 pm. Tours: adults, $5;
rs and students, $4; free, children under 16 with ult.

olunteer

Mentoring Program
-224-1300, ext. 3). www.afcmentoring.org. Men-foster-care or adopted child.

AIDS Action Committee
(617-437-6200). www.aac.org. Help patients with HIV/AIDS.

American Cancer Society
(617-556-7400). www.cancer.org. Drive cancer patients to their local treatment appointments or get involved with upcoming events.

Big Brothers of Massachusetts Bay
(617-542-9090). www.bbmb.org. BBMB seeks volunteers to provide friendship to boys in need.

Big Sister Association
(617-236-8060). www.bigsister.org. Volunteers act as friends and mentors to young girls.

BNA Care Network
(617-547-2620, ext. 4271). www.bostoncarenetwork.org. Volunteers support terminally ill patients.

Boston Cares
(617-422-0910). www.bostoncares.org. More than 100 opportunities to volunteer are available.

Boston Jaycees
(888-274-8682). www.bostonjaycees.org. Volunteer at area nonprofits with other young professionals.

Boston Living Center
(617-236-1012, ext. 227). www.bostonlivingcenter.org. This HIV/AIDS organization needs volunteers for kitchen tasks, office work and special events.

Charles River Arc
(781-444-4347). www.crarc.org. Provide support for children and adults with developmental disabilities.

Dana-Farber Cancer Institute
(617-632-3307). www.dana-farber.org. Volunteers help adults living with cancer.

Extra Hands for ALS
(617-331-3014). www.extrahands.org. Help ALS patients and their families with housework.

HealthCare Dimensions Hospice
(781-894-1100). www.hcdhospice.org. Support terminally ill patients and their families.

Home for Little Wanderers
(617-585-7521). www.thehome.org. Mentor and support a child at risk.

Horizons for Homeless Children
(617-445-1480, ext. 345). www.horizonsforhomeless children.org. Provide support for homeless children.

Jewish Volunteer Program
(617-558-6585). www.cjp.org. Spend time with a senior citizen, mentor a child or teach an adult to read.

Literacy Volunteers of Massachusetts
(617-367-1313). www.lvm.org. Literacy volunteers help teach adults to read.

MAB Community Services
(617-972-9119). www.mabcommunity.org. Read to or shop with a blind person.

Match-Up Interfaith Volunteers
(617-482-1510). www.matchelder.org. Help with a variety of needs for disabled adults and seniors.

Neighborhood Action
(617-723-5800). http://nai.stjohnsbowdoinst.org. Serve meals to the homeless.

New England Aquarium
(617-973-5235). www.neaq.org. Support the aquarium as a guide or marine mammal volunteer.

Newton Free Library ESL Program
(617-796-1364). www.newtonfreelibrary.net. Tutor adults in English as a second language.

Parental Stress Line
(800-882-1250). Counsel parents and caregivers, and facilitate support groups.

Pedipathways
(617-633-1659). Volunteer to do administrative work or to visit patients for this children's hospice.

Pine Street Inn
(617-892-9187). www.pinestreetinn.org. Volunteer for food preparation and meal service.

Planned Parenthood
(617-616-1600, ext. 1645). www.pplm.org. Volunteer to raise awareness about women's health issues.

Project Place
(617-262-3740, ext. 14). www.projectplace.org. Help homeless men and women in the computer lab.

Recording for the Blind and Dyslexic
(617-577-1111, ext. 17). www.rfbd.org. Volunteers read textbooks for recording.

Red Cross
(617-375-0700, ext. 438). www.bostonredcross.org. Volunteer in the food pantry and public relations department.

Respond
(617-625-5996). www.respondinc.org. Volunteers are needed at this agency for battered women.

Rosie's Place
(617-442-9322). www.rosies.org. Volunteers are needed at this homeless women's shelter.

Samaritans
(617-536-2460). www.samaritanshope.org. Provide support over the phone to people in crisis.

Single Volunteers Boston
www.svboston.org. Volunteer with young, single professionals.

I'm a SUBSCRIBER

Don't get stranded.
Subscribe to THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN,
Boston's guide to entertainment and culture—
it's worth more than a million dollars.

Only $14.95 for 25 issues!
617-859-1400
or subscribe online @
www.improper.com.

THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN
MAGAZINE
You can't read just one.

If everyone kept their feelings bottled up like warm beer, we'd soon have antisocial behavior exploding all over the place and ruining the upholstery.

So send us your letters of love and spleen, and we'll print them for the world to see!

e-mail:
impersonals@improper.com

fax: 617-859-1446

or write to:
Improper Impersonals
The Improper Bostonian Magazine
142 Berkeley St., 3rd Floor
Boston, MA 02116

THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN

rockie horoscope

SEPTEMBER 26 – OCTOBER 9, 2007 BY ROCKIE GARDINER

LIBRA

SEPTEMBER 23–OCTOBER 22

At long last, a healthy dose of planetary energy is about to invigorate your career and your reputation. Better yet, Mars' transit through your Cancer midheaven will stir things up for a lot longer than its customary six-week transit. Prepare to work your tush off, to attack an assortment of assignments until early May. For those who've been waiting for the starter's gun to sound so that your race can begin, this is welcome news. But if you want to coast through another season of openings, parties and games, you're going to miss the boat.

SCORPIO

OCTOBER 23–NOVEMBER 21

It's not too early to learn that Mercury enters your sign Sept. 27 and turns retrograde Oct. 11 for the next three weeks. Make travel plans, buy electronic equipment and repair your ride fairly soon so the retrogression doesn't become a bigger hassle than necessary. You could cut it close, just be aware that this is one variable you can exercise some control over. Meanwhile your Mars coruler also changes signs this week, entering Cancer (a nurturing water sign) Sept. 28 for seven months—far longer than six weeks.

SAGITTARIUS

NOVEMBER 22–DECEMBER 21

Isn't it romantic? If not, it should be: the famous Harvest Moon up in the sky, bringing you the loving you haven't had since June or July. This is the first action your Aries house of romance has seen since spring, so make the most of whatever opportunity comes your way. The Ram is traditionally the Centaur's good buddy, glad to provide a well-timed push from behind. However, while the sun transits sociable Libra, you should have plenty of invitations to keep your dance card filled up.

CAPRICORN

DECEMBER 22–JANUARY 20

Cardinal sign alert! All four primary movers and shakers in the cosmic zoo tend to go through changes whenever the sun enters one of your signs or, like this week, a full moon hooks up two of them. While your Libra career house and Aries family zone are illuminated by the sun and the moon, you can't avoid the challenge this opposition presents. But help is on the way thanks to forceful Mars, the ruler of Aries, entering Cancer, the sign of your cosmic mate, the next day. Don't call on the militia, an ally or partner will do.

AQUARIUS

JANUARY 21–FEBRUARY 18

All the air signs have a good time during solar Libra, what with so much camaraderie in the air and invitations to social events. Aquarians, who need friendships to breathe, seem to thrive best. However, for the February-born, the Libra-Aries full moon might bring up a financial situation that didn't wind up being an April Fools' prank. Make sure there are no loose ends—especially now that Mercury is in your Scorpio career house attending to the small print, and staying there through Thanksgiving.

PISCES

FEBRUARY 19–MARCH 19

Help is on the way, and on two fronts! Whether or not you're in dire straits, Fish are about to benefit from two major changes in the planetary picture. Right after the Harvest moon works its legendary magic, little Mercury enters water-sign-friendly Scorpio, where it'll remain, more or less, through November. The next day, energetic Mars enters Cancer, the compatible water sign governing your house of romance, recreation and risk, where it'll maintain your interest in pursuing those objectives until early May. Enjoy!

ARIES

MARCH 20–APRIL 19

Steamy secrets may be revealed, arcane knowledge stumbled upon as your courageous Mars ruler ends its current confrontation with Pluto. For the next few days, gather as much information as you can before Mars abandons Gemini's many interests and focuses your attention on family members, real estate and food. Once Mars enters Cancer Sept. 28, it'll remain there more or l until May, retrograde from mid-November through January. If you haven't seen the relatives for some time, visit during this holiday season would be beneficial.

TAURUS

APRIL 20–MAY 20

Before you become too emotional about a financial matt or too passionately involved with a person attached to t matter, try to obtain as much information as you can, particularly data that isn't readily available. Once your Venus ruler comes under the spell of sexy, secretive Plut it'll be difficult to differentiate between a normal desire and a bona fide obsession. You may have been flirting w this idea or person since early July, when Venus first hooked up with Pluto; however, the moment to make yo move is fast approaching.

GEMINI

MAY 21–JUNE 20

Solar Libra is usually a fun time for the Twins. Having th sun illuminate your house of romance and recreation ca make that area of your life vitally important. It's where action is. Nevertheless, as long as daredevil Mars is still your sign, you shouldn't act with haste or reckless abandon. You don't want to get a jealous partner worke up enough to exact revenge. Meanwhile, be aware that y Mercury ruler, in Scorpio as of Sept. 27, turns retrograd Oct. 11 for the next three weeks. Plan accordingly.

CANCER

JUNE 21–JULY 22

The Libra-Aries full moon can be a critical point in the Moon Child's annual odyssey through the zodiac. The emphasis on the four cardinal signs and their mission t initiate action could stress out the more sensitive Crab among you. Nonetheless, they're often the beneficiaries a spiritual or psychological payoff the Harvest moon ra fails to deliver. With this renewed sense of balance you better manage the surge of physical energy and self-interest you'll get when Mars enters your sign Sept. 28.

LEO

JULY 23–AUGUST 22

Magnetic Venus doesn't officially leave Leo until Oct. 7, for all intents and purposes, the goddess' work is done Perhaps you'll experience one more episode with a seductive playmate. But will the third and final Venus-Pluto trine validate your desire to avoid temptation, o you finally succumb to the mysterious circumstances surrounding this attraction? A romantic comedy it's n Some Lions may get sidetracked chasing down a mone matter that the Aries full moon exposes; others might into ravenous social animals.

VIRGO

AUGUST 23–SEPTEMBER 22

Virgins could find themselves caught between a rock (Saturn in your sign) and a soon-to-be-cushy place (V enters Virgo Oct. 7). Anticipating the pleasures the go of love and beauty will bestow can kill time, but you'd better off planning how to maximize the benefits that she'll shower on you before she exits Nov. 8. Knowing your fortunes will improve, if only to make you the fla of the month for those four weeks, might take the edg the pressures exerted by an unpredictable partner an bossy relative.

For a personalized Transit Forecast (30 to 40+ pages) detailing the major themes and issues that will arise over the next 12 months, send name, date, time and place of birth, plus a check or money order for $42.50 per report to ROCKIE GARDINER, 6701 Colbath Ave. Valley Glen, CA 91405; more details at www.rockiehoroscope.com. Rockie's daily forecast appears online at www.laweekly.com.

improperimpersonals

everyone kept their feelings bottled up like warm beer, we'd soon have antisocial behavior exploding all over e place and ruining the upholstery. So send us your letters of love and spleen, and we'll print them for the orld to see. (Impersonals may be edited for taste, space and clarity.) Heck, it's better than making a fool of urself in person. And IT'S FREE! Pick up a pen or keyboard (hint: we like the fact that we don't have to type e-mailed messages) and write to:

IMPROPER IMPERSONALS
THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN MAGAZINE
142 Berkeley St., 3rd Floor
Boston, MA 02116
FAX: 617-859-1446 · E-MAIL: impersonals@improper.com
RECENT CORRESPONDENCE FOLLOWS.

Jamaican Me Crazy

To that certain event planner: Beautiful, brown, buxom and bright. Your tender, sweet smile beams mysterious delight. Jamaican coffee with extra cream. Your warm glow dawns romantic dreams serene. Smooth voice of melodic jazz and angelic face full of charm, you liven my heart and warm the soul. I could love you all over, high maintenance and all! Business is business, friends are friends. One has ended so let the other begin. I want to know you in a trusting, intimate way. Can I cook you dinner, mix your spices and serve you breakfast some day?
—Buckman 40

omise of a Nu-bian Day respect to that fine, fine petite bian princess in blue uniform at ith Bay. I love a beautiful brown man in uniform! All that toughness tly combined with the poise of an y dancer, the cool grace of royalty the coy smile of nobility. Your liance is second only to a full on on a late-spring night. What's oman like you doing in a place this? We could've been high ool sweathearts, sippin' hot cocoa er the meet, reminiscing love lyrics weet soul sounds. This is the ng place at the wrong time. ybe next lifetime.

Redman Black

tchen Confidential

were my supervisor in the dish m at our jumbo university. From first day you slopped ground-up d at me during clean up, I knew were the one for me. My heart is ised brown and blue when you're around. Say you love me too.
Loving you from Medford

ght Back at You

the Sept. 12 Impersonal, "You're an TA-Hole," I wish to offer this der the following advice. First, get ood book, then get a life and ally mind your own business. This ident in no way rises to the level of le behavior. On the other hand, r judgmental analysis of the uation and your need to give "dirty glances" only reflect your lack of sophistication and manners. And finally, if you want to look at a bitter, cynical, disgruntled hag-like person, try the mirror.
—Anonymous

We're a Classic Double

It was Saturday afternoon at the Wendy's in Copley. Me: a 20-something single girl. You: an attractive male trailed by three blond little boys. We bonded over the lovable kids you appeared to be entertaining for the day and the restaurant's inability to produce enough chicken nuggets for both parties. I regretted not introducing myself while you waited for my food to come out and so nicely told me to "have a nice day"... twice. If you'd like another Wendy's date—or maybe something a little nicer—e-mail me. Have a nice day ;)
—Mysterious Wendy's Girl
wendysgirlboston@yahoo.com

Out at First Base

No, I will not make out with you creepy cab driver. Sure you gave me a ride but that doesn't mean I'm gonna give you a ride. Rides may cost gas, grass or ass, but not in my book. Have a little class. Believe me, I've been there before with a cab driver and now I have road rash, if you know what I mean.
PS: You smell.
—N

D-Bag, Aisle 5

To the man who couldn't spare any change: I was at Whole Foods in Cambridge at the front of the line when I realized I left my credit card at home. I've never done anything like that before and was already feeling self-conscious. Luckily I had money in my pocket and was able to buy the majority of my groceries, but was about $10 short. I had the cashier start subtracting items one by one and had $0.75 to go, forcing me to sacrifice a tomato, which the cashier had to call the manager over for. You stood there, opened your wallet and taunted me by obviously counting your money and rolling your eyes. Maybe you could've spared the three quarters so that we didn't have to waste 10 extra minutes of our time. I realize I was "that" girl at the front of the line, but come on, I was in a tight spot. Thank you for convincing me that chivalry is dead.
—Jen

The Beard's Just Weird

To the guy who wears mountain gear to the office: What's up with that? It's climbing the corporate ladder, not the corporate mountain! There's a fine line between rugged and ragged. Try shaving once in a while, Paul Bunyan. You're just as tall too. You might not have a big blue ox, but you look like a big ass, Babe.
—Anonymous

IMPROPERAZZI

The Improper Bostonian's client-related promotions and events

On Wednesday, September 5, Nordstrom had an opening party to celebrate its first Boston-area store at the Natick Collection. The event included dinner, dessert buffets, live entertainment, a runway fashion show, and of course, incredible shopping. All of the proceeds of the night benefited the Museum of Fine Arts Boston and Boston Ballet.

1. Sam Gersten, sales consultant for Horizon Beverages, and Alison Quartermain Gersten, president of the Junior League of Boston.
2. Bridget Duval, model at Dynasty Models; Lauren Fitzgerald and Lacey Drucker, both models for Maggie.
3. Adam Rinne, manager; Kristen Vanneste and Alex Ivker, sales associates; all of Nordstrom.

On Thursday, September 13, The Improper Bostonian was pleased to be a sponsor of the Beckett Bowl 2007. Guests got to throw strikes with Josh Beckett at Town Line Ten Pin & Rain Nightlife. The Beckett Bowl included a celebrity bowling tournament, celebrity red carpet, live and silent auctions as well as a post-event party with live entertainment by the Honey Brothers and pizza from Upper Crust pizza.The event benefited the Josh Beckett Foundati which supports community-based programs that strive to improve the health and well-being of children, especially children that are seriously ill, disabled, poor or otherwise disadvantaged.

1. Lonie Paxton, long snapper for the New England Patriots, with his moth Karyn Paxton.
2. Jason Oberle, executive director of the Josh Beckett Foundation, and Jo Beckett, pitcher for the Boston Red
3. Amy Fisher, sales and marketing director for Ruth's Chris Steakhouse; actor Adrian Grenier; and Amy Carroccia, manager of promotions marketing for FSN New England.

On Sunday, September 16, the Improper Bostonian was proud to be a sponsor of the Boston Marathon Jimmy Fund Walk. Participants experienced the famous Boston Marathon course and chose the route option that worked for them—3, 5, 13.1 or 26.2 miles.

1. Tara Nolan, sales advisor for Sirius Computer Solutions, and Ebony Glass, executive assistant at Watson Wyatt.
2. David Jacobson and Kim Birong, both volunteers for the Boston Marathon Jimmy Fund Walk.
3. Michele Setterlund, school adjustment counselor at Brockton Public Schools, and Melissa Setterlund, receptionist at Poli Mortgage Group.

On Wednesday, September 12, the Intercontinental Hotel hosted a special s event at Intercontinental Spa. Guests experienced treatments from around t world. Complimentary hors d'oeuvres and beverages were provided by the ho

1. Mike Barrett, director of group at Intercontinental Hotel Boston; LeBlanc, owner of Yoga Power S DeMarco McMillan, sales exec and Lindsay Lasserre, sales ma both at Intercontinental Hotel Bo
2. Ines DeSa, owner and stylist, an Cruz Mesa, owner and colorist, at Debu Salon and Day Spa.
3. Travis Umpleby, spa director at Intercontinental Hotel Boston; Je Athans, founder of the Martini Workout; and Erin Tracy, directo PR at Intercontinental Hotel Bost

PHOTOS: NORDSTROMS, JULIE KANE; BECKETT BOWL, JULIE KANE, STACEY SHANE; INTERCONTINENTAL HOTEL BOSTON, JESSICA FEDERICO; BOSTON MARATHON JIMMY FUND WALK, STACI

IMPROPERAZZI

The Improper Bostonian's client-related promotions and events

On Sunday, September 9, the Improper Bostonian was a proud sponsor of the 2007 MSPCA-Angell Walk for Animals which was held on the Boston Common. Animal lovers (and some of their favorite canines) walked to promote kindness and care for animals. The Walk for Animals raised vital funds to help MSPCA-Angell care for over 250,000 homeless, injured and abused animals each year.

George Lewis, founder of the Foundation Lounge, and Claudine Lewis, district manager at J. McLaughlin.

Carter Luke, executive vice president at MSPCA-Angell, and Anqunette Jamison, morning anchor at Fox 25.

Brian Adams, public relations manager, and Jessica Gifford Busch, member of the board of directors, both at MSPCA-Angell; and Jennifer Stevens, marketing at Bingham McCutchen.

On Saturday, September 15, The Improper Bostonian was pleased to be a sponsor of Harbor to the Bay. The 68- or 125-mile one-day bike ride started in Boston and finished in Provincetown. The Harbor to the Bay ride raises funds to help educate, treat and care for those affected by AIDS.

1. Steve Gack, committee member and crew volunteer for Harbor to the Bay, and Pam Azar, rider and volunteer on the planning committee for Harbor to the Bay and occupational therapist at South Shore Visiting Nurses.
2. Jim Morgrage, president of Harbor to the Bay and manager of Club Cafe.

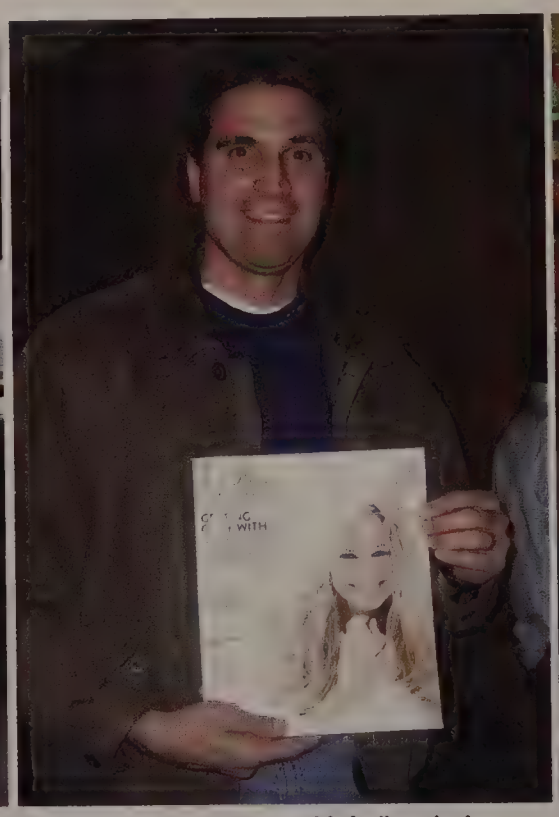
PHOTOS: HARBOR TO THE BAY, RHONDA HARRISON/CONSORTIUM EVENTS; MSPCA-ANGELL WALK FOR ANIMALS, JAMES P. PHILLIPS.

church

music. food. booze.

this fall, save your prayers for the morning.

69 kilmarnock street ⌘ boston ⌘ churchofboston.com



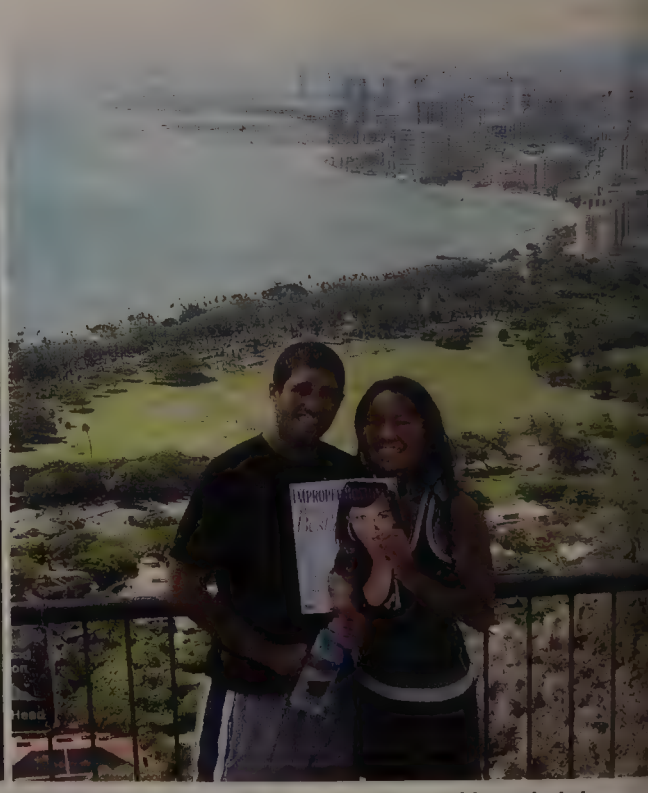
IMPROPER sightings

UNLIKE THE REST OF YOUR FRIENDS, WE WANT TO SEE THE PHOTOS FROM YOUR NEXT TRI

Where do you take us? Send us a picture of you or a friend, or better yet, someone famous reading THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN and tell us where you wer The wilder your destination and the more creative your photo, the better your chances of making the cut in the esteemed Improper Sightings.

Nancy Shapiro and Bill Nelsen visited Curaçao's Board Room beach bar—a favorite haunt of Frank Sinatra, who was known locally as Chairman of the Board Room.

Congressman Brad Ellsworth's Indiana is the birthplace of Larry Bird, of course, but it's also home to Peyton Manning. Eh, can't win them all.



Jamie Reichle, Sarah Higgins and Lauren Regan partied the night away a Señor Frog's Swingers Club in Cancun. "Swingers Club" is a hilarious pun—check out all the swings! Get it?!

Joseph Buonadonna, Gail Sobha and Robert Lynes took this shot while hanging out on the docks of Cozumel, Mexico. We believe Otis Redding wrote a song about a similar experience.

Robin Hamilton, Ruben Peralta and Mark Falzone visited Machu Picchu, Peru, where it looks like they were trying to re-create our favorite scene from Garden State.

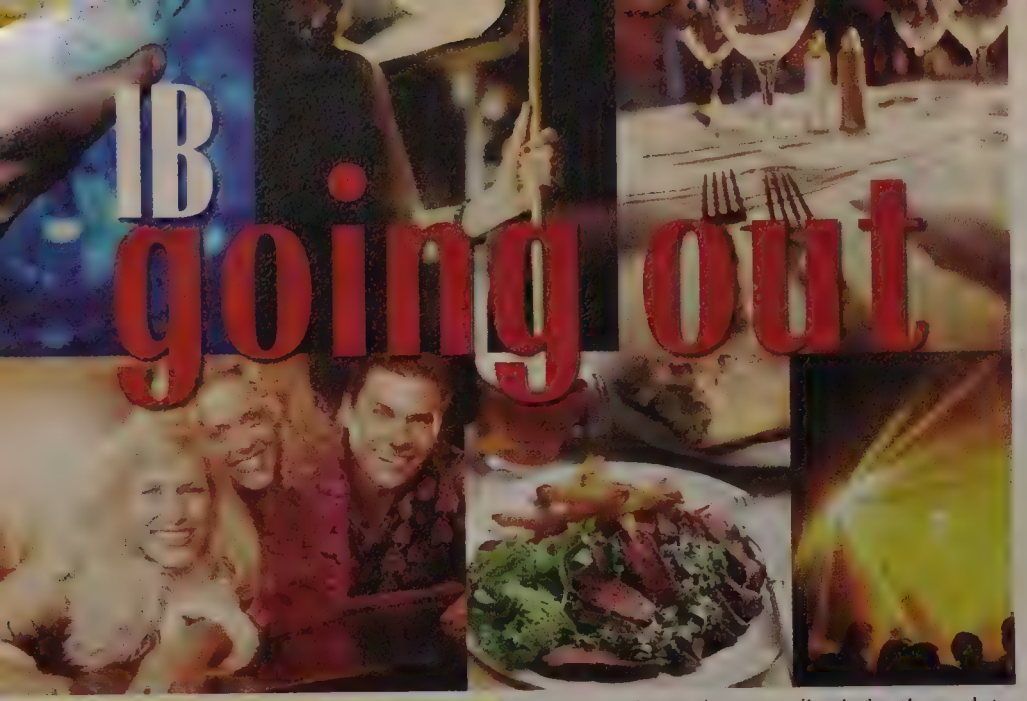
While in Oahu, Hawaii, Joanna and Scott Ng scaled the Diamond Head volcano—which is a lot more beautiful whe it's not unloading scalding-hot magma.

IMPROPER BOUNTY

BONUS POINTS TO ANYONE WHO CAN CAPTURE AN IMPROPER READER: Wearing a T-shirt that says "No Rules, Just Right" at the biennial Outback Festival, held Sept. 26–30 in Winton, Australia.

Send high-resolution digital photos (at least 500K file size) to sightings@improper.com, or mail professionally printed color photos (min. 3x5) to Improper Sightings, The Improper Bostonian Magazine, 142 Berkeley St., 3rd floor, Boston, MA 02116. Please include the exact photo location, full names of all people in the photo, your phone number and e-mail address. All photos become the property of THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN MAGAZINE and will not be returned. Ink-jet or laser-printed photos cannot be accepted.

Great pediatric care is just a hop, skip or a jump away.



13 CONVENIENT LOCATIONS, ONE NEAR YOU.

The Children's Hospital Network, in conjunction with leading community hospitals, provides convenient access to great pediatric care and the expertise of Children's specialists. With 13 locations in and around Boston, your children can see the same doctors and get the same excellent care they get at our main location, without the Boston traffic and hassles. For information on all of our Children's Hospital Network sites, including our specialty care centers in Waltham, Peabody and Lexington, visit www.childrenshospital.org/locations. Chances are you'll find one that's just a stone's throw away.

Children's Hospital Boston

www.childrenshospital.org/locations

Children's Hospital Physicians at Beverly Hospital • Children's Hospital Physicians at Caritas St. Elizabeth's Hospital (Boston)
Children's Hospital Physicians at Caritas Good Samaritan Medical Center (Brockton) • Children's Hospital Physicians at Metro West Medical Center (Framingham)
Martha Eliot Health Center (Jamaica Plain) • Children's Hospital Boston at Lexington • Children's Hospital Physicians at Caritas Holy Family Hospital (Methuen)
Children's Hospital Physicians at Caritas Norwood Hospital • Children's Hospital Boston at Peabody • Children's Hospital Boston at Waltham
Children's Hospital Physicians at South Shore Hospital (Weymouth) • Children's Hospital Physicians at Winchester Hospital

RESTAURANTS

BROWNSTONE 111 Dartmouth Street, Boston, MA, 617-867-4142 www.irishconnection.com. Situated on the border of Back Bay and the South End, Brownstone is named for the style and the elegance reflective of the architecture of Boston's two neighborhoods. From the hardwood flooring to the Venetian plaster ceiling, the interior exudes classic warmth with a sleek and intimate bar made of mahogany and granite. Brownstone's menu features creative, comfort cuisine. On weekends, Chef Michael McEwen turns out "late-night" cuisine until 1:30 a.m., featuring midnight snacks of fritto misto, baked fondue and pancakes and eggs from the brunch menu. Brownstone is open seven days a week from 11 a.m. – 2 a.m., serving brunch on Saturday and Sunday from 10 a.m. – 3 p.m.

CACTUS CLUB 939 Boylston St., 617-236-0200. Have the notorious Cactus margarita, voted Boston's Best 6 years in a row! Our southwestern specialties include Sizlin' Fajitas, Chimichangas, or Quesadillas and the daring wash it all down with a Cactus Bowl. Open daily for lunch and dinner. Visit our suburban Iguana Cantina restaurant in Waltham. Amex, Visa and Diners Club. www.bestmargaritas.com.

COOGAN'S 171 Milk Street, Boston, 617-451-7415. www.irishconnection.com. Established in 1996, Coogan's is a cozy pub located in the heart of Boston's financial district. It's the perfect place to enjoy hearty pasta dishes, fresh seafood or the aged Black Angus cuts of beef. Wash it down with your pick of one of our 20 draught beers. Enjoy the view of the street side from the bay windows, the warmth of the fireplace or cozy up in a booth with friends. After dark, Coogan's heats up, with DJ's playing top 40.

FUGAKYU 1280 Beacon Street (Coolidge Corner), Brookline, MA 02446, 617-734-1268. www.fugakyu. net. Authentic Japanese cuisine in an elegant and serene setting. Open Daily for lunch and dinner, Fugakyu's menu consists of traditional and nouveau Japanese cuisine including sushi, sashimi, tempura and an extensive sake list. Fugakyu is the largest Japanese restaurant in New England. It's two floors include a sushi bar, cocktail bar, common dining areas, bamboo-enclosed booths, screened Tatami rooms and several private function rooms. Reservations for parties of all sizes are accepted. Takeout and delivery available.

IGUANA CANTINA 313 Moody St., Waltham, 781-891-3039; The Iguana Cantina serves a variety of Caribbean, Tex-Mex and Southwestern fare. The atmosphere is fun and the food is tasty. Visit our website at www.theiguanacantina.com.

MATCH 94 Massachusetts Ave., at Newbury Street, Boston, 617-247-9922. This modern restaurant/ lounge maintains an unpretentious yet hip vibe. A sleek fire display and glass wine room are just two of its many features. Match's signature mini burgers and martinis are guaranteed to please the most discriminating palate. Match music has a distinct early evening lounge feel with the beat and volume picking up as the night progresses. Open daily 5pm-1am. AE, DC, MC,V.

M.J. O'CONNOR'S 27 Columbus Ave., at Park Plaza, Boston 617-482-2255 www.mjocconors.com. Eclectic Irish Food and spirits, a warm friendly staff and beautifully handcrafted woodwork and murals make this authentic upscale Irish pub one of Boston's best. Starting with only the finest ingredients, each dish is slow cooked according to recipes that have been used for generations. If you're looking for a respite from the hustle and bustle of the city, M.J. O'Connor's is a comfortable and welcoming environment to enjoy a delicious meal, have a pint and some great conversation. Open 11am - 2am 7 days a week.

NED DEVINE'S Faneuil Hall Marketplace, Quincy Market Building, Boston 617-248-8800 www.neddevineboston. com. Located in historic Faneuil Hall Marketplace's Quincy Market Building, Ned Devine's is an upscale Irish Pub concept which features hearty Irish specialties and contemporary American cuisine. Whether it's an afternoon business meeting, dinner with family or after work social gathering, Ned's is a warm meeting spot to enjoy conversation and a wonderful meal. Hand painted murals, imported Irish woodwork, original brickwork and ambient lighting create a comfortable atmosphere in the heart of downtown Boston. Open 11am - 2am, 7 days a week.

ROGGIE'S NEW AGE BREW & GRILLE 356 Chestnut Hill Avenue, Cleveland Circle, Brighton, 617-566-1880. www.roggies.com. This all time favorite restaurant and bar has over 52 beers on tap. Come enjoy breakfast all day, lunch, and dinner. Extensive menu ranging from sandwiches, ribs, pizza, to pasta. Catering also available as well as party platters, call 617-713-0555.

SIDNEY'S GRILLE 20 Sidney St., Cambridge, 617-494-0011 Enjoy fresh flavors, good friends, and a great bar at Sidney's Grille in Central Square. Discover why Bon Appetit magazine says "It's almost shocking to pay this little for food this good, in surroundings this gorgeous." Memorable cuisine combines international flair with regional accents. Serving breakfast, lunch, dinner and weekend brunch. Private dining available. For menus www.sidneysgrille.com.

STOCKYARD 135 Market Street, Brighton, MA, 02135, 617.782-4700. www.stockyardrestaurant.com. Well known on the Brighton landscape, what began as a small local steakhouse has grown into one of the area's most respected and frequented quality establishments. The Stockyard has been the place to meet, relax and enjoy for over 35 years. Today we continue that tradition. In addition to having a great dinner, at the Stockyard you can relax at one of our bar's and watch the game while enjoying a beverage & burger, have a private dinner to celebrate a special occasion, or sit on our outdoor patio. Our extensive menu offers modern comfort food with choices of steaks, seafood, burgers, ribs and much more. Open 7 days, Sunday brunch, reservations for 6 or larger, free parking.

SUNSET GRILL & TAP:130 Brighton Ave., Allston, 617-254-1331; SUNSET CANTINA: 916 Commonwealth Ave., Boston 617-731-8646. Don't just come for Boston's Best Beer Selection featuring 112 taps and 300 microbrews. Come also to enjoy Boston's award winning steam beer burgers and famous curly fries, original buffalo wings and giant nachos. Still hungry? Try our juicy BBQ steak tips, grilled fish, homemade pastas, tender Yankee ribs or our sizzling fajitas. Full menu until 1 am.

THE BLACK ROSE 160 State Street, Boston, 617-742-2286. www.irishconnec tion.com. Voted one of America's top ten Irish establishments, The Black Rose is Boston's premier Irish pub and restaurant. Established in 1976, the pub is located in the historic Faneuil Hall-Quincy market area of Boston and is known far and wide for its convivial atmosphere, good food and live Irish entertainment. The menu features honest, made-from-scratch food including traditional Irish fare, award winning clam chowder, fish and chips, native lobster, aged Black Angus cuts of beef and of course, Mother Sweeney's corned beef, a recipe from Mother Sweeney herself. For thirty years, The Black Rose has offered live Irish music seven nights a week. Memorable guests on stage have included members of the Chieftains, flutist James Galway, Tommy Makim, Liam Clancy, John Denver and a once relatively unknown member of an Irish rock group called U2.

THE PURPLE SHAMROCK 1 Union Street, Boston, 617-227-2060. www. irishconnection. com. Located on the freedom trail across from Boston City Hall on Union Street. The Purple Shamrock is the perfect place to stop by and have a bite to eat. The fare is composed of New England specialties with burgers, sandwiches, hearty pastas, fresh seafood, tender steaks and other great favorites. After dark, The Purple Shamrock has nightly entertainment with a mix of live music, karaoke and DJ's. At The Purple Shamrock there is something for everyone.

BARS & CLUBS

Beer Specialty

SUNSET GRILL & TAP: 130 Brighton Ave., Allston, 617-254-1331; SUNSET CANTINA: 916 Commonwealth Ave., Boston 617-731-8646. Something's always brewing at Best of Boston's award winning beer bar. Here you'll find the largest selection on the East Coast-112 taps and 300+ microbrews and exotic imports. Join our beer club and enjoy every style of beer under the sun. Take advantage of the yards, cask conditioned beer, flight samples, vintage and new beers, seasonals, meads, ciders, etc. Full menu until 1am. Experience our beer festival 365 days a year.

Billiards

BIG CITY - POOL HALL, Pizza Kitchen, Beer Bar 138 Brighton Ave., Allston, 617-782-2020 www.allstonsfinest.com. BIG TIME FUN: 21 Championship pool tables, 80 big beers on tap, outrageous signature pizzas and BIG MENU Sat/Sun Brunch in our BIG BANK BUILDING with our one of a kind "metro retro decor". THE BIG DEAL is free rooms and pool for your next party or function of any kind. Call the "Party Specialists". Sun - Weds 3P's (pool, pitcher, pizza) $19.99. Life is good in the Big City! Come experience it in a big way!

Clubs

FELT 533 Washington St., Boston, 617-350-5555. www.FeltBoston.com. A four level venue offering a New York style Lounge, a hip bar scene, with sophisticated pool tables and a dance club in the 4th level. Enjoy a gourmet dinner while lounging in a plush, red-velvet booth. The perfect setting for a pre or post-theater dinner or a big birthday bash. The hip atmosphere of DJ's and dancing, sophisticated pool tables & bars...and FELT's posh fourth level club are the perfect blend to satisfy all your senses.

General

CACTUS CLUB 939 Boylston St., 617- 236 0200. Have the notorious Cactus margarita voted Boston's Best 6 years running! Ou southwestern specialties include Sizzlin' Faj tas, Chimichangas, or Quesadillas and th daring wash it all down with a Cactus Bow Open daily for lunch and dinner. Visit our sub urban Iguana Cantina restaurants i Waltham. Amex, Visa and Diners Clu www.bestmargaritas. com.

HURRICANE O'REILLY'S 150 Canal Stree Boston, 617-722-0161. www.irish connectio com. It's Hurricane season on Canal Street! Ju yards across from the Garden, Hurricane's is t perfect place to gather pre- and post-gam Serving lunch and dinner seven days a wee this sports bar is a great escape for your lun break with our express menu, specializing, great food in about ten minutes. Hurricane serves Creole, Irish and American pub-style fa After the sun sets on Canal Street, Hurricane lights up into one of Boston's hottest nightclu with Boston's best DJ's, illuminating disco ligh and 6,800 square feet of Madri Gras spirit.

JILLIAN'S BOSTON / LUCKY STRIKE LAN 145 Ipswich St., Boston, 617-437-03 www.jilliansboston.com. Jillian's is a 70,0 square foot entertainment megaplex featuri 16 bowling lanes, 50 pool tables, high-te games, high definition video walls, multi lounges and private rooms. Located on the fi floor is Tequila Rain, which offers an amazi Tex-Mex menu and dancing to the hottest Friday and Saturday nights.

JOSÉ MCINTYRE'S 160 Milk Street, Bost 617-451-9460. ww.irishconnection.com. J McIntyre's is located across from the Aquari on Milk Street. This is Boston's only Mexic Irish pub, specializing in Margaritas and co tails. Come in the afternoon to watch the ga after work to unwind, or at night when Jo transforms into a lively and exciting dance/p This pub has a total of 5 rooms, 3.5 bar floors, 5 big screen TV's and a pool table. newest room is the ideal place to relax a work with co-workers on big comfy couc and a soothing atmosphere. The fare is a var of Mexican, classic New England seafood American favorites. Whoever you are, what you do, José's has something for everyone.

PARRIS Faneuil Hall Marketplace, Qui Market Building, Boston 617-248-8 www.parrisboston. com. Lounge. Cockt Dancing. Nightlife. Come see the lights of ris. Sample the eclectic lounge menu featu grilled pizza, oyster shooters and steak ta Sip a Classic, Apple or French 75 martini, then motion onto the huge dance floor fea ing live music with the best bands and Thursday through Saturday. Named for original architect of the Greek-revival-s building, Alexander Parris, you're nightlife perience at Parris will be Boston and bey Open 5pm - 2am Wedneday - Saturday. C charge on Friday and Saturday.

SAINT 90 Exeter Street, Boston, 617- 1134. www.saintnitery.com. Boston's pre ultra lounge featuring SIN Mon 10pm–2am, Sutra Thursdays 10pm– Heaven Fridays 7pm–2am, Spin Satur 7pm–2am, Style Sundays 10pm–2am. Lo dining available Thursday–Saturday. Ca table reservations.

THE AVENUE SPORTS BAR & GRILL Commonwealth Avenue, Allston, 617-782- www.avenuebar.com. Located right in All food and sports are the heart of The Avenue. over 30 beers on tap and a full menu this ideal bar to lounge, watch the game, and Come take advantage of our DirectTV, Pla 25 cent wings 4-7 daily, and $1.00 drafts. T vorite sports bar can transform into a party out as the weekends have a resident DJ.

E HARP 85 Causeway St., Boston 617-742-0. www.harpboston.com. Voted Boston Mag-e's "Best After The Game", the Harp is a fa-te downtown hotspot any day of the week, ated directly across from the TD Banknorth den. Featuring live bands upstairs from ton, Philadelphia and New York plus DJs ning tunes downstairs, on Thursday, Friday Saturday nights set the pace for the great -energy environment. The Harp provides a wd-pleasing menu with tastes from around globe. Located in the heart of downtown ton, the Harp also serves as an excellent eting place for business luncheons, social herings and events.

BRUNCH

ERY'S 113 Dartmouth Street, Boston, 617-)-9874. www.irishconnection. com. Located lock from Copley Plaza at the corner of tmouth and Columbus, this bistro and bar ned the title of the 2002-2006 Best of ton's Best Neighborhood bar, serving more n 400 regulars. Enjoy one of the 16 draught rs either at one of the three bars, by the ro windows or by the fireplace in a cozy th when the fickle weather of New England s cold. It's the perfect place to meet nds and enjoy a comfortable atmosphere h fast & friendly bartenders. On select hts partake in team trivia or dance the night ay with DJ Rhythm Nights. Downstairs is a ate and roomy space featuring a full bar dance floor, and is the perfect nook for pany functions and holiday parties.

LON'S 955 Boylston Street, Boston, 617-)-1818. www.irishconnection. com. Dillon's nds after-work chill with cocktail chic. Ac-ted by dark bamboo woodwork and large ba-a fans, it's the ideal spot to bring a date, sen your tie after work or watch the game with friends. Relax with a Blueberry Pie Martini in the warmly lit lounge or an ice cold beer on the patio. Then retire to the dining room where you can browse the eclectic Continental menu featuring a variety of items, including pan seared tuna salad, steak sirloin, shrimp tempura, Gourmet prosciutto pizza and more. Also featuring a tapas bar, perfect for sharing, w-ith tasty bites such as Fried Aubergine, Chicken & Chorizo, and Saigon Scallops. Dillon's is open seven days a week from 10:00 a.m. – 2 a.m., serving brunch on Saturday and Sunday beginning at 10:00 a.m.

KENNEDY'S MIDTOWN 42 Province Street, Boston, 617-426-3333 www. kennedysmidtown.com. Ideally situated in Boston's Midtown, Kennedy's is located between Downtown Crossing and the Boston Common; Just steps from Beacon Hill and The Freedom Trail. One of Boston's best kept secrets, Kennedy's menu boast prime aged steaks, seafood,assorted pub fare, and daily creations. Open 7 days a week, brunch served Saturdays and Sundays, and lively piano bar. Call us for that special function or event.

ROGGIE'S 356 Chestnut Hill Avenue, Cleveland Circle, Brighton, 617-566-1880, www.roggies. com. Shake off the morning blues with Brunch at Roggie's! Brunch is served Saturday and Sunday. Live bands, open mic on Tuesdays, karaoke on Wednesday, and DJ on weekends. Breakfast is also served all day, lunch, and dinner served seven days a week.

SUNSET GRILL & TAP 130 Brighton Ave., Allston, 617-254-1331; SUNSET CANTINA, 916 Commonwealth Ave., Boston 617-731-8646. "Beer's not just for breakfast anymore." At the Sunset Super Sunday Brewers Brunch, try our thick-cut French toast, potato skins and eggs, eggs benny, crispy quesadillas or our All You Can Eat Brunch Taco Bar, including a free Sunday paper and your first beery mary or mimosa. Full menu also available. 112 taps, 300+microbrews.

Account Executive

OUR IDEAL CANDIDATE IS:

• HUNGRY • DRIVEN • TEAM PLAYER

THIS IS AN OPPORTUNITY for an accomplished business-to-business sales rep to break into career in media and magazine sales. Strong organizational, planning, written and verbal skills are must. Minimum 2 years of sales experience necessary. Join a great team!

Send Resumes to:

THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN
MAGAZINE

Attn: Robyn Sarkisian-Miller
142 Berkeley St., 3rd Floor, Boston, MA 02116
or email: Robyn@improper.com
No phone calls please.

IMPROPER SHOPPER

Classifieds for Bostonians

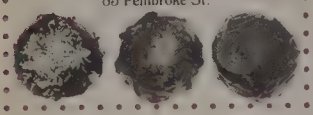
BUSINESS OPPORTUNITY

REAL ESTATE INVESTOR WANTED

No cash required, just good credit (700 fico) to make 1million in 90 days! Call Mark, 407-416-6007

CHOCOLATES

Choco Choco House



Oprah say's:

"The most ladylike chocolates I've ever seen"

Fresh chocolate favors

Favor chocolate handbags

Visit us online at chocochocohouse.com
Or come by our Boston store on
85 Pembroke St.

DESIGNER HANDBAGS

Selling authentic Hermès Birken and Kelly bags

Anna (401) 816-0885

DON'T PAY FOR FRIENDS

The Newest Community for Young Professionals Who Live, Work, and Play in Boston.

social boston sports.com

Visit us at
SOCIALBOSTONSPORTS.COM
to learn about the wide variety of social events and athletic activities you can get involved in.

HEALTH AWARENESS

TOTALLY CONFIDENTIAL PRIVATE MD

For Rx of sexually transmitted diseases, erectile dysfunction and general medical care. Call and talk directly to Dr. Robert Taylor 617-232-1459, Brookline MA. Free STD guide at www.healthac.org.

HOUSE CLEANING

HOUSE CLEANING

INTERIORS

Introducing
HunterDouglas
HERITANCE HARDWOOD SHUTTERS

Now!
With New Features,
Specialty Shapes,
& 100 Standard Colors

This Exclusive Debut is Offered by only a few Authorized Dealers Nationally

the reflective designer
interiors for your style and budget.

www.reflectivedesigner.com
1-800-FABRIC-8
Showroom 978-750-0005

LAW

Bad Day at Work?

Business Law, P.C.
617-422-0505

For help with sexual harassment, unpaid wages, and other workplace violations.

Free Confidential Consultation

Employment, Real Estate, and Corporate Law Focus

NEAR DOWNTOWN CROSSING
www.BusinessLawPC.com

PSYCHIC

A SPIRITUAL COUNSELOR AND MEDIUM-SHIP

Past life reading available for private and telephone readings by Linda Stanton, of Newburyport (978) 255-2536

VACATIONS

MAINE FALL GETAWAY

Attractive fall packages near the beach in beautiful Kennebunkport, ME. 3 nights for the price of 2! Prices from only $159. Continental breakfast & 1 dinner coupon included. Shorelands Guest Resort, www.shorelands.com For reservations, call 1-800-992-3224

VOLUNTEERS

HOSPICE VOLUNTEERS

needed in S. Boston & Beyond. Free training to provide friendly visits & support for patients & families facing end of life transition. Call Marjie @ Evercare Hospice for info: 800-956-1276

LOOKING FOR RENTERS AND BUYERS?

List your property with the IMPROPER BOSTONIAN.

Our readers live, work and play in Boston. They know that parking is not always included—and they still want to live there!!

Call today for rate information.
617-859-1400 x272

ICE SKATING CLASSES

14 Greater Boston Rinks

CHILDREN & ADULTS

(781) 890-8480

Sign up Now

www.baystateskatingschool.org

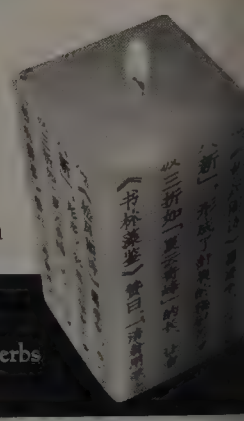
39 years

Bay State Skating School

PUPPIES

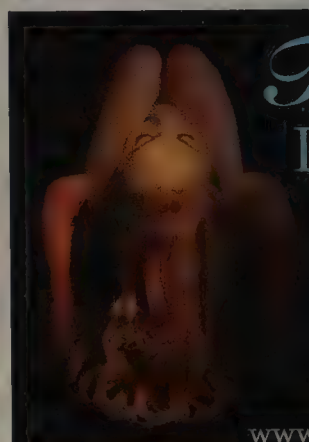
starting at $299

Cute and healthy
1 year health warran
Microchipped
Vet checked/shots
Mixed breeds availa
Much, much, more



PET EXPRESS
www.petexpressboston.c
781.592.2003

Oriental Medicine



ACUPUNCTURE AND HERBS

Chinese ◆ Japanese ◆ Korean

NARA MARGOLIN
M.S., M.Ac., Lic.Ac., Dipl.Chin.Herbs
(617)308-3617

Fantasy Photography by Daphne

(781) 641-21
www.FantasyPhotography.co

WELCOME TO BOSTON BAR TOUR

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 15, 2007 AT NOON $20.00

Starting at Paddy O's | Union Street, Faneuil Hall, Boston

If you're new to Boston, (or even if you're not!) come join us and all your fellow young professionals for a fun Saturday getting to know the bars of Faneuil Hall! We've lined up a few of our favorites, and we guarantee it will be a good time!

tickets and more details at WWW.BOSTONYPA.COM

and get ready for... MAYHEM AND MADNESS W

HALLOWEEN BASH!

Saturday, October 27 8 PM — 2 AM at McGann's Pub

Tickets include six drinks, cash prizes for best costumes, complimentary appetizers, psychics, and candy!

Tickets are $40.

This event has sold out in advance four years in a row.

Get tickets in advance at www.BostonYPA.com

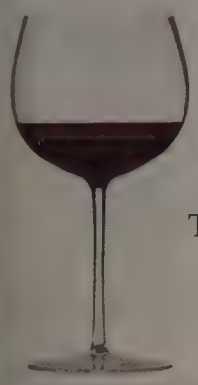
BYPA BOSTON YOUNG PROFESSIONALS ASSOCIATION

WE PACK, WE MOVE, WE STORE, WE DO IT ALL

TOPHILL INC

FIVE STARS MOVERS

877-738-2800



WWW.FIVESTARSMOVERS.COM

IMPROPER SHOPPER

Classifieds for Bostonians

Boston's Best Kept Secret...

HUNTINGTON WINE & SPIRITS

Unique Wines • Boutique Beers • Exotic Spirits!

THANK YOU BOSTON!

for letting us serve all your beverage needs ince 1936

Celebrating our 70th Year in Beantown!

ENJOY OUR YEAR LONG WINE SALE

Take 20% off any 5 bottles of wine (sale items excluded)

Huntington Wine & Spirits

Across from the YMCA

301 Huntington Ave. (just minutes away on the green line)

Delivery Available 617.536.0164

Who's your best repeat customer?

IMPROPER SHOPPER

Classifieds for Bostonians

Call Carly at 617.859.1400 x272

Fresh Organic Produce

Featuring Local New England Specialty Products

Traditional Butcher Shop

Prepared Foods to Go from our Deli

Local & Imported Cheeses

BEST OF BOSTON 2007 Awarded by Boston magazine

We are pleased to announce that we will be opening a second Foodie's Market in Duxbury, MA in late October.

www.foodies-urban-market.com

Hours: 8am-9pm Mon.-Fri.
9am-8pm Sundays

1421 Washington Street,
South End, Boston
tel. 617.266.9911

Foodie's Urban Market

For Gourmet and Every Day

ultimate bootcamp

New England's Hottest Outdoor Fitness Program

4-week programs begin...

October 9, 2007

>> Register online

www.ultimatebootcamp.com

now more class times to choose from
6:00am | 6:30am | 7:15am | 6:00pm

LAST SCENE HERE

BY JONATHAN SOROFF

At Beat the Heat, top row: James Fry; Jennifer Kinsman, and Susan and Patrick Tierney. Bottom row: Christine Garabedian and Jason Sohigian; Nikki Moran, Barbara Erickson and Alison Moran; a fire juggler; Marian Titlow

IT'S GETTIN' HOT IN HERE...

Given the cussedly contrary nature of Mother Nature in New England, it's no wonder that Beat the Heat—the Earthwatch Institute's fundraiser to battle climate change—took place on one of the coldest nights of the summer.

Not that it stopped anyone from enjoying the cocktail soiree on the banks of the Charles, under the Washburn Pavilion behind the Science Museum, but the irony didn't go unnoticed. A few people also wondered if the entertainment—fire jugglers—was entirely appropriate, since, as one guest phrased it, "they're wasting fossil fuel for our entertainment." (Someone else countered, "Art trumps environmentalism.")

Still, the ice sculpture in the shape of the globe dutifully melted, while the ice clinked in cocktails held by the likes of savvy investor Dennis McCoy, the hale and hearty Jon Swanson, man-about-town Jason Sohigian and the fetching Christine Garabedian, ridiculously good-looking do-gooder James Fry, va-va-va-voomalicious redhead Jennifer Kinsman, Harvard factotum Blue Magruder, the sibling tag team of Susan and Patrick Tierney (visiting his sister from the Midwest), queen of all that's good Nikki Moran and blonde fashion plate Alison Moran, statuesque Scandinavian Barbara Erickson, ethereal beauty Marian Titlow, and doe-eyed beauty Ashley Badger (a transplant from South Carolina), whose boyfriend was one of the fire spinners (a wildly talented crew that included Logan Miller, Emerson Gray and Grisha G).

"I look like a cross between a 1980s hooker and a nun," said one woman, to which a friend responded, "I like it. You're embracing your inner Charo."

Meanwhile, a silent auction raised oodles of cash, while the evening's message was effectively communicated by signs explaining the top reasons why climate change is not only a buzz-crusher but a threat to romance—no more skiing in Europe once the snows retreat, warming the ocean will kill coral reefs and spawn more jellyfish, poison ivy will flourish and become itchier, and (most alarmingly) by the end of the century, at the rate we're going, 80 percent of the world's wine-producing regions will be rendered inhospitable to grapes.

In other words, there's apparently only one group who will benefit from global warming: the makers of Viagra.

AVAST, YE LANDLUBBERS...

There's no better place in Boston to watch the sun set than from the docks outside Community Boating's headquarters on the Charles, and when you add a steel band, cocktails and a raw bar, you've got yourself some enchanted evening.

That was the scenario at Raise the Sails for Kids!, the 17th annual fundraiser for the public sailing school's junior programs. In addition to silent and live auctions, the evening highlights included a screening of CBI's laughably dated promos from the 1950s, which had as much corn and repressed innuendo as any Eisenhower-era sex-ed film.

Present and accounted for: Cambridge refugees Annie Lehmann and Chris Hiam, stunning mother-daughter duo Elizabeth and Alexis Dean, hotelier Benson Willis and his devilishly handsome husband Dan Avery, skipper John Millar (who learned to sail at CBI as a kid and now makes a living sailing, as a US Coast Guard Master of Oceans with a 100-ton license), executive director Charlie Zeckel, Herald muckety-muck Shelley Cohen, ubiquitous schmoozer Conrado Bondoc, a woman who said, "I'm afraid these shoes are going to pitch me into the river," and a man who pointed out, apropos of absolutely nothing, that now is a good time to be a papal knight because Giorgio Armani wants to become one, and he's trying to butter them all up with free stuff.

The sunset was spectacular, and although it got a bit buggy after dark—prompting one of the bartenders to joke, "Care for a mosquito martini?"—the evening was a resounding success.

It also offered the opportunity to eavesdrop on exchanges like the following:

"I think I met you on my friend's boat, a 50-something-foot Swan docked at Long Wharf."

"No, I know the boat you mean, but I've never been on it."

"Are you sure? I know it's a memorable boat, but when I'm on it, I'm usually so drunk I forget where I was the next day."

At Raise the Sails for Kids!, top row: Annie Lehmann and Chris Hiam; Dan Avery and Benson Willis. Bottom row: sunset over the boat basin; sensible and not-so-sensible shoes; Alexis and Elizabeth Dean

Avez-vous dish?

Dirt? A spectacular social occasion? Call JS at 617-859-1400, ext. 303, or send an e-mail to jonathan@improper.com.

PARTIES, PEOPLE & PLACES

YOUNG FRIENDS OF ROGERSON COMMUNITIES" July 19, 2007
The "Young Friends" are a new group of Boston's most fabulous young movers and shakers whose desire is to bring a greater awareness of the need to care for the elders in our community.

THE WESTON GOLF CLUB MEN'S MEMBER TOURNAMENT September 13, 2007

WILLOWBEND GOLF TOURNAMENT TO BENEFIT DANA FARBER September 10, 2007

GREY GOOSE®
World's Best Tasting Vodka

©2007 GREY GOOSE AND GREY GOOSE AND DESIGN ARE REGISTERED TRADEMARKS AND THE FLYING GOOSE DEVICE IS A TRADEMARK IMPORTED BY GREY GOOSE IMPORTING COMPANY MIAMI FL VODKA 40% ALC BY VOL DISTILLED FROM GR...

Sip Responsibly.

ON DISCERNING TASTE

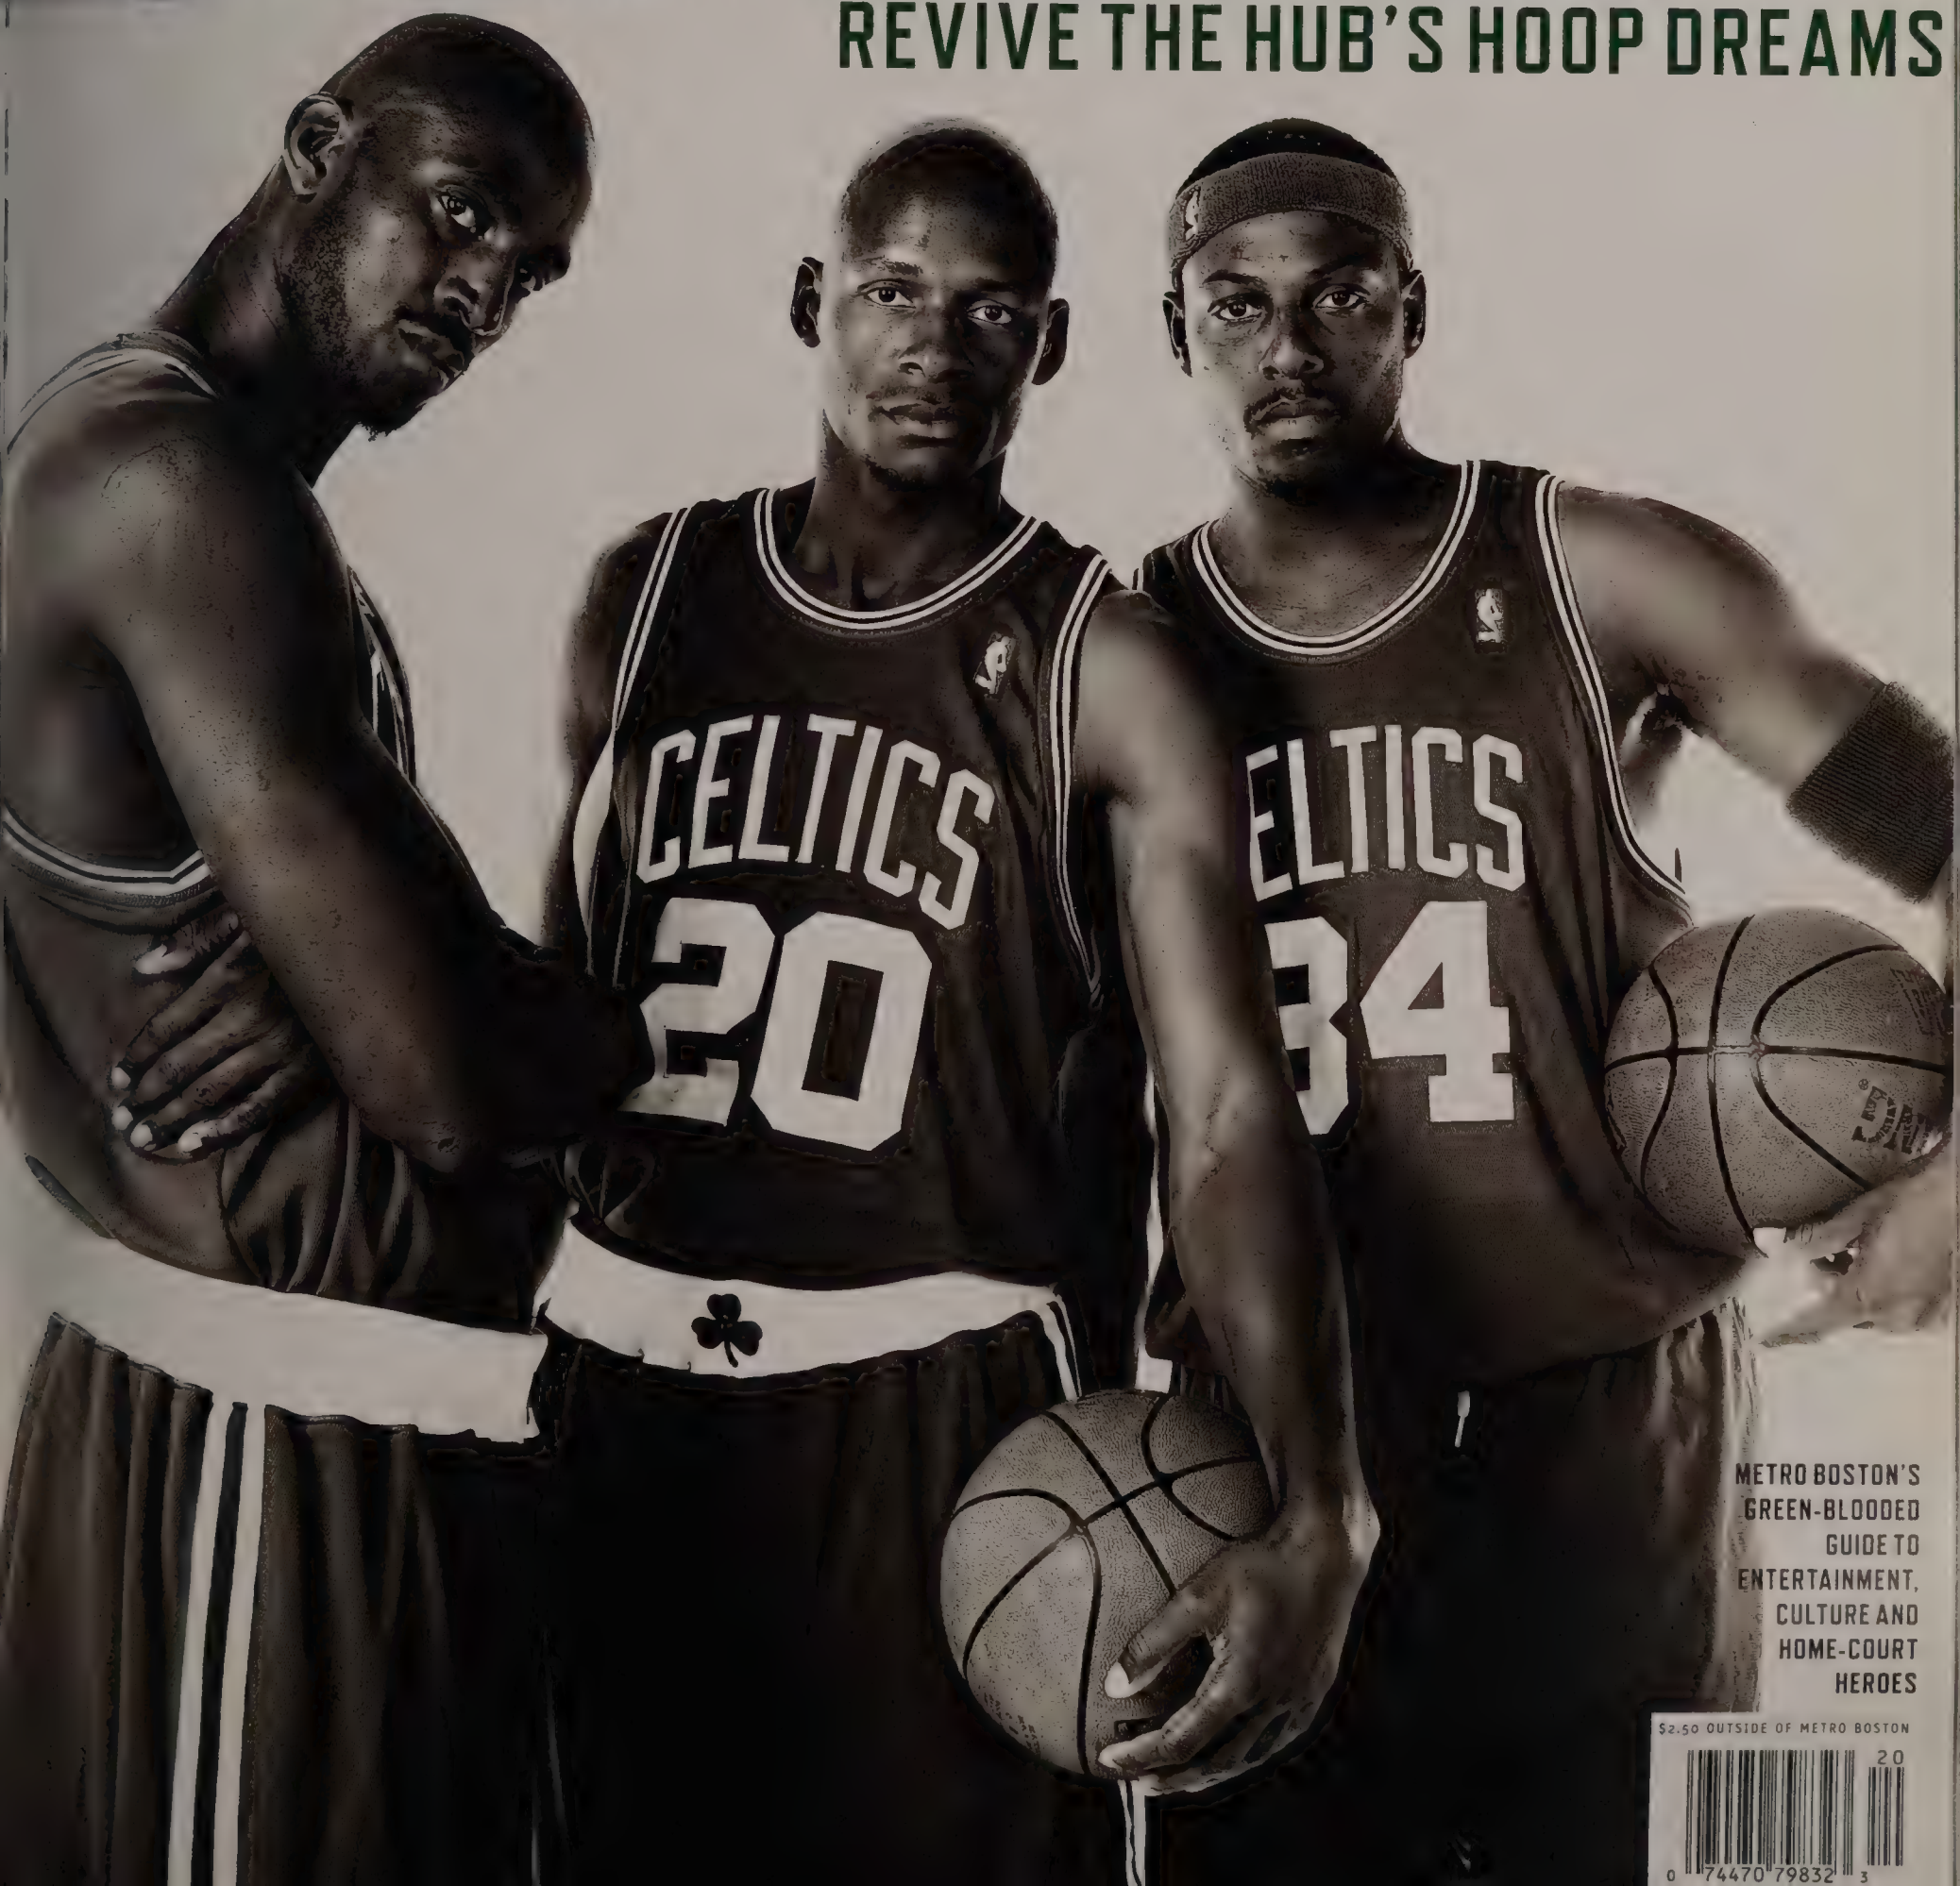
LATE NIGHT DINING

THERE'S SOMETHING WONDERFUL about a late night dinner, when no reservations are needed. The intimacy. The company of insiders. The spontaneous swapping of stories and seats at the table. The impromptu pleasure of lingering over a meal long after the day players have gone to bed.

GREY GOOSE
World's Best Tasting Vo

: STYLE ISSUE
er 10–23, 2007

10 STYLISH BOSTONIANS SHOW HOW IT'S DONE



TRAD TALK
THE LOOK THAT SCREAMS BOSTON

SNEAKER CRAZE
THESE SHOES ARE TOO COOL FOR SCHOOL

SOROFF/ON
JOHN LARROQUETTE

THE MPROPER BOSTONIAN

GH C's KEVIN GARNETT, RAY ALLEN & PAUL PIERCE REVIVE THE HUB'S HOOP DREAMS

METRO BOSTON'S GREEN-BLOODED GUIDE TO ENTERTAINMENT, CULTURE AND HOME-COURT HEROES

$2.50 OUTSIDE OF METRO BOSTON
20
0 74470 79832 3

THE WORLD'S SMOOTHEST VODKA™

SPECIAL OFFER FOR IMPROPER BOSTONIAN READERS: SIGN UP TO JOIN OUR PRIVATE ONLINE COMMUNITY & GET A BONUS 50 CROWNS. TAKE ADVANTAGE BEFORE NOVEMBER 30TH AT: WWW.CROWNSOCIETY.COM/IMPROPERBOSTONIAN

christianiaVodka.com

© Christiania Spirits, Inc., Manhasset, N.Y. Christiania Vodka is an Ultra Premium Norwegian Vodka, six times distilled from organic potatoes. 80 proof.

Dress $34.90

H&M

the Upper Crust
Boston
617-723-9600
CELTICS
20
CELTICS
5
CELTICS
the Upper Crust
Pizza
20 CHARLES STREET, BEACON HILL
617.723.9600
280 HARVARD STREET, COOLIDGE CORNER
617.734.4900
511 DUVAL STREET, KEY WEST, FL
305.293.8890
41 WALTHAM STREET, LEXINGTON
781.274.0089
222 NEWBURY STREET, BACK BAY
617.262.0090
73 SOUTH STREET, HINGHAM
781.740.2775
435 MOODY STREET, WALTHAM
781.736.0044
NOW OPEN!
118 WASHINGTON STREET, SALEM
978.741.2787
THE UPPER CRUST PIZZERIA
ESTABLISHED 2007
THE LEGACY.
IT'S BACK.
BOSTON'S BEST 2004 WINNER IMPROPER BOSTONIAN
Pizza, Nouveau
BOSTON'S BEST 2005 WINNER IMPROPER BOSTONIAN
Pizza
BOSTON'S BEST 2006 WINNER IMPROPER BOSTONIAN
Pizza
BOSTON'S BEST 2007 WINNER IMPROPER BOSTONIAN
Pizza

IZZA

izza Margherita (cheese pizza) SMALL 14" LARGE 18"

NY PIZZA CAN BE MADE WHITE (W/O TOMATO SAUCE), OR RED (W/O CHEESE), OR ON A WHOLE WHEAT DOUGH

HE 3 CHEESE
ur white pizza combining the tastes of mozzarella, ricotta, asiago, diced tomatoes and minced garlic

EDRO'S STEAK & GORGONZOLA
argherita pizza topped with marinated steak and gorgonzola cheese

PINACH LEAF
ur red pizza topped with fresh Spinach, ricotta and fresh garlic

HITE SPINACH
ur white pizza topped with fresh Spinach, mozzarella, feta cheese and fresh garlic

AWAIIAN
tropical combination of Canadian bacon and chopped pineapples

HICKEN FAJITA PIZZA
rilled white meat chicken, chopped olives and onion (jalapeno peppers optional)

ARDEN VEGGIE wonderful combination of fresh mushrooms, onions, diced bell peppers, broccoli and fresh garlic

EACON HILL
mix of our sun-dried tomatoes, rounded out with delicious eggplant

HE UNCOMMON PIZZA mouth watering combination of bacon, fresh pineapple and jalapeno peppers

HE MGH healthy mixture of fresh spinach and chopped broccoli topped off with imported feta cheese

HE HARVARD STREET
classic combination of fresh tomato, fresh basil, fresh mozzarella and fresh garlic

RENDAN'S BUFFALO CHICKEN
hite pizza, combines Buffalo chicken, blue cheese and mozzarella

UB'S BBQ CHICKEN
ur white pizza, combining BBQ chicken, sliced onion and mozzarella

HE STATE HOUSE
reated for the meat lover, a tantalizing combination of hamburger, sliced pepperoni and italian sausage

HE JOHN 'CHIEF' BUCYK
eloved by Boston's own 'Chief', sliced pepperoni and sliced baby mushrooms

HARLES STREET
local favorite consisting of portabella mushroom, delicious sundried tomatoes and freshly chopped garlic

HE LUCKY LUCIANO
izza Brasileira- Chourizo sausage, hearts of palm, fresh tomatoes, sliced green onions on a white pizza

HE NEWBURY STREET
eal Parmesan- Billy Costa's favorite! Breaded veal scallopine, fresh mozzarella, marinara and fresh basil

SEAFOOD SPECIALTIES

WHITE CLAM
Our white pizza covered with baby clams and fresh garlic

WHITE SHRIMP
Our white pizza covered with baby shrimp, chopped onion and fresh garlic

THE HINGHAM
Scallops and Bacon – Herb roasted scallops, crisp bacon, mozzarella and asiago cheeses on a white pie

PESTO SPECIALTIES

SLIGHTLY PESTO
Our white pizza splashed with pesto, diced tomatoes and fresh garlic

MEDI PESTO
A wonderful pesto base, sprinkled with feta cheese, freshly diced tomatoes and garlic
(black olives are optional)

POLLOGO PESTO
Pesto base, with our grilled white meat chicken, gorgonzola cheese, light asiago, fresh garlic

GARDEN PESTO
A pesto base, artichoke hearts, diced tomatoes, fresh garlic and asiago cheese

CALZONES
A combination of mozzarella, ricotta and imported asiago, rolled in our famous pizza dough and baked to perfection

ONE SIZE 12"

TOPPINGS

MEATS:
Chicken
Grilled Chicken
Breaded Chicken
Breaded BBQ Chicken
Breaded Buffalo Chicken
Hamburger
Bacon
Prosciutto
Canadian Bacon
Pepperoni
Italian Sausage
Chourizo
Breaded Veal

CHEESES:
Asiago
Ricotta
Gorgonzola
Blue Cheese
Feta Cheese
Fresh Mozzarella
Extra Cheese

SEAFOOD:
Baby Clams
Baby Shrimp
Anchovies
Scallops Market Price*
Lobster Market Price*

VEGGIES & MORE!
Mushrooms
Portabella Mushrooms
Broccoli
Artichoke Hearts
Hearts of Palm
Arugala
Eggplant
Fresh Basil
Fresh Garlic
Spinach
Pineapple
Black Olives
Diced Tomatoes
Sliced Tomatoes
Sun-Dried Tomatoes

Pesto Splash
Pesto Base
White Onions
Green Onions (Scallions)
Sliced Peppers
Jalapeno Peppers
Roasted Red Peppers

contents

OCTOBER 10–23, 2007

40
Got Sole

CHRIS VARRICCHIONE

FEATURES

26 GREEN DAY
These aren't your father's Boston Celtics… oh wait, yes they are. The C's are back, and the team's three-headed superstar tells us what it's like to have Boston at your feet.
BY RICH LEVINE

30 SOROFF/ON JOHN LARROQUETTE
The venerated actor talks about his new gig on Boston Legal, the roles he regrets and the one actor he'll never work with again.
BY JONATHAN SOROFF

32 TEN WITH STYLE
Who says our city isn't hip? These Bostonians have the goods.
BY LISA PIERPONT

40 GOT SOLE
The sneaker subculture is buzzing in Beantown. Here are five hot looks from local shops.
BY RICH LEVINE

42 IT'S A TRAD, TRAD WORLD
One of the city's most understated fashions is also one of its most complex.
BY NATHANIEL ADAMS

46 LOUD AND CLEAR
You'll be the talk of the party in these looks.
PHOTOGRAPHS BY PAUL ARESU

Photographed for THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN by
Kerry Brett

Photographer's Assistants: Lynn Gonsalves and Chris Rioux

COLUMNS

12 THE WORD
STIX; Pizza Oggi; Ken Burns.

18 PROPER BOSTONIANS
Proper partygoers pictured.
BY KERRY BRETT

20 EZRA
Life in Kid Nation.
BY EZRA DYER

22 THE DANCE
A model of style.
BY JOHN D. SPOONER

24 TAKE FIVE
Tommy Heinsohn; Mike Lowell; the end of the Cowboys.
BY RICH LEVINE

52 MOPSY
Still Alice; Arlington Reiki Associates; Cambridge Antique Market.
BY MOPSY STRANGE KENNEDY

66 MOVIES
Michael Clayton brings out George Clooney's maturity.
BY SEAN BURNS

72 MUSIC
BC alum leads the Hold Steady to a higher grou
BY PAUL ROBICHEAU

108 LAST SCENE HERE
Our Man in Black Tie hits Fenway and the runw
BY JONATHAN SOROFF

EAT.DRINK.

54 DINING
More ups than downs at Rialto.
BY J. CHARLES MOKRISKI

56 DISH
New face enters the fray at Eclano.
BY CAROLYN FAYE FOX

58 TASTINGS
Biodynamic wine dinner and other morsels.
BY RICH LEVINE

AGENDA

The two-week forecast from Amanda and Nick. Complete listing follow page 61.

Boston Comedy Festival • Rock Star Momma • Vegetarian Food Festival • The Abstinence Teacher • Camp Sunshine Pumpkin Fe

ET CETERA

Letters
Rockie Horoscope
Improper Impersonals
Improper Sightings

Guaranteed Rate Base 85,000 biweekly:
ABC audited
We are an Equal Opportunity Employer

VOLUME XVI, ISSUE 20

THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN MAGAZINE is published biweekly.
Subscriptions available for $14.95 per year, by
Improper Publications Inc.

POSTMASTER:
Send address changes to:
THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN MAGAZINE
142 Berkeley St., Third Floor, Boston, MA 02116

THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN MAGAZINE

AN EYE-OPENING EXPERIENCE. MEET THE EXPERTS.

it presents Face Time with a special guest nefit and author Hank Phillippi Ryan, Wed, October 17, 6pm, at Macy's own Crossing for a hot new look and a hot-off-the-presses mystery.
perts will show you how to beautify your brows using the latest Benefit ts while you enjoy music and refreshments. First time customers will receive plimentary brow-shaping. Plus, meet investigative TV reporter and best-selling Hank Phillippi Ryan and receive her new book, Face Time, as your gift with any nefit purchase. Call 617-357-3368 to schedule your appointment.

macy's

macys.com

e gift per customer, while supplies last. For store location and hours, log on to macys.com

THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN MAGAZINE

PUBLISHER Wendy Semonian Eppich

ACTING EDITOR Megan Lisagor

CONSULTING EDITOR Veronica Chao

FEATURE WRITER/SOCIAL COLUMNIST Jonathan Soroff

FEATURE WRITER/COLUMNIST Ezra Dyer

ASSISTANT EDITORS Nick Altschuller, Rich Levine

EDITORIAL ASSISTANT Amanda Knorr

COPYEDITORS Nathaniel Adams, Linh Tran Brincat

FASHION EDITOR Victor Vargas

CONTRIBUTING EDITORS Sandy Block, M.W., Sean Burns, Chris Collins, Carolyn Faye Fox, Marni Elyse Katz, Mopsy Strange Kennedy, J. Charles Mokriski, Paul Robicheau, John D. Spooner

EDITORIAL INTERNS Liz Fiandaca, Chaseedaw Giles, Christopher Griffin, Amy Gromek, Amy Laskowski, Molly McCormick, Michael Miccoli, Joseph Scapicchio, Courtney White, Kate Wen

DESIGN CONSULTANT Heroun + Co.

PHOTO EDITOR Katie Noble

STAFF PHOTOGRAPHER Kerry Brett

PHOTO INTERNS Jocelyn Gabriel, Alan Gwizdowski, Samantha A. Tyler

ADVERTISING DIRECTOR Julie Kane

DIRECTOR OF BUSINESS DEVELOPMENT Alison Morant

SENIOR NATIONAL ACCOUNT MANAGER Carrie Wallace

ACCOUNT EXECUTIVES Meghan Brady, Bill Eppich, Jessica Federico

CLASSIFIED ACCOUNT EXECUTIVE Carly Rubin

GRAPHIC ARTIST Nicole Begin

DIRECTOR OF MARKETING AND PUBLIC RELATIONS Stacey Shane

ADVERTISING AND MARKETING INTERNS Sarah Bernstein, Dihan Fields-Coard, Victor John, James Phillips, Meghan Rourke, Bryan Russo, Tonya Smith, Allison Zarick

PRODUCTION DIRECTOR Merinda Pattullo

V.P. OF FINANCE & ADMINISTRATION Arthur Souza

LEGAL COUNSEL John S. Day, Esq.

GENERAL MANAGER Robyn Sarkisian Miller

OFFICE MANAGER Gretchen Bostrom

SALES ASSISTANT/RECEPTIONIST Nicole Zoto

FOUNDER Mark Semonian

THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN MAGAZINE
142 Berkeley St., 3rd Floor
Boston, MA 02116
Phone: 617-859-1400; Fax: 617-859-1446

E-mail: info@improper.com
www.improper.com

Published by Improper Publications Inc. Copyright©2007 by Improper Publications Inc. All rights reserved. Reproduction in part or in whole without permission is strictly prohibited.

All correspondence to THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN MAGAZINE is read, considered, filed and/or forwarded to the appropriate parties. Due to the volume of correspondence, editors cannot respond individually to solicitations, queries or press releases.

Member
Audit Bureau of Circulations

The shopping. The dining.

The best of it all.

PRU BOO

Trick-or-Treat for Charity
Sunday, October 28
11:00am - 1:00pm

Come for the shopping and stay for the dining. Or come for the dining and stay for the shopping. No wonder The Shops at Prudential Center is New England's number one destination for fun.

destination extraordinary.

THE SHOPS AT PRUDENTIAL CENTER

Back Bay | 1.800.SHOP.PRU | www.prudentialcenter.com

Saks Fifth Avenue | Charles David | P.F. Chang's China Bistro | Sephora | Tossed

LETTERS

FROM THE EDITOR

A DIFFERENT LOOK

As I wait in line at the South End Buttery on a recent Saturday, I people-watch to pass the time. A 20-something in a preppy uniform of khaki shorts and white top sits across from an older lady in head-to-toe black, Gucci sunglasses crowning her enormous blowout. Another woman, looking like she just came in from the Esplanade, wears running shorts and a frayed T-shirt (OK, that's me). Bostonians, it appears, have very different ideas about style.

In this issue, we introduce you to 10 locals—including a soccer player, a broadcast journalist and a waitress—who not only have strong opinions on the subject, but also a personal flair for it. Even in our own office, diverse looks prevail. Nat Adams has been known to throw on a tweed sport coat, while Rich Levine is more likely to put his paycheck toward a killer pair of Adidas. Appropriately enough, the two writers dig into the trad (as in traditional) and sneaker subcultures, which are thriving in this town.

This marks my first issue since taking over the editorial department, and I couldn't be happier to work with the likes of Adams, Levine and the rest of the staff. We have great changes in store, including a November redesign of the magazine that'll show our style is fluid and changing with the times. In a city where boleros and barn jackets peacefully coexist, we anticipate a strong response.

Megan Lisagor

MEGAN LISAGOR, Acting Editor
megan_lisagor@improper.com

OFF THE BEATEN PASTURE

Your writer not only gave us an update on the metamorphosis of The Federalist into Mooo ("The Word," Sept. 12), but also pointed us in the direction of three other steakhouses easily reached from the intersection of Beacon and Tremont streets. We suspect that it was a cloudy day without the sun to verify his compass points. Alas, heading east from that intersection would bring one not to Mooo but rather to the Old City Hall building, which houses Ruth's Chris Steakhouse. Heading west up Beacon Street would bring one to the newly fashioned Mooo. We also know that heading east is School Street, not Beacon Street, as one might reasonably expect. Trivial points, but in an age when we have difficulty getting our bearings as a nation, it helps to at least put our local geographic bearings in order.

—ROBERT C. ADAMS
Milton

CORRECTION

The phone number for Rustic Kitchen was misprinted in our Sept. 26 issue. The correct number is 617-423-5700.

CONTRIBUTOR

LISA PIERPONT

Lisa Pierpont is the founder and editor-in-chief of Boldfacers.com, a weekly Web publication and videocast uncovering Boston's coolest talent and personalities. Prior to Boldfacers, she produced Emmy Award–winning programs for Chronicle on WCVB-TV. She currently answers fashion questions as Miss Sartorialist for the Boston Globe. A graduate of the Columbia University Graduate School of Journalism, her most recent article for the IMPROPER, "Ten With Style," begins on page 32.

Tell Us What You Think

SEND LETTERS TO THE EDITOR TO: The Improper Bostonian, 142 Berkeley St., Third Floor, Boston, MA 02116. E-mail: letters@improper.com. Fax: 617-859-1446. Letters must be signed; please include your town and phone number. Letters may be edited for space and clarity.

170 STORES FEATURING Ann Taylor Factory Store, Banana Republic Factory Store, J.Crew, Michael Kors, Nine West, Polo Ralph Lauren Factory Store, Puma, Saks Fifth Avenue - Off 5th, Salvatore Ferragamo, Timberland, Ugg and more AT SAVINGS OF 25% TO 65% EVERY DAY.

WRENTHAM VILLAGE PREMIUM OUTLETS

Daily transportation available from Boston via Boston Common Coach (877) 723-3833

WRENTHAM, MA • I-95 TO I-495N, EXIT 15 • (508) 384-0600 • ALSO VISIT KITTERY PREMIUM OUTLETS, KITTERY, ME
VISIT PREMIUMOUTLETS.COM FOR HOURS • CHELSEA PROPERTY GROUP

A SIMON Company

THE WORD

Beef, zucchini and red pepper on a honey-bourbon skewer

NEW IN TOWN

Pick up STIX

This is a restaurant built on sticks. I mean that in a literal way. Skewers, to be exact, in all imaginable flavors—Mexican fiesta, Thai basil, mango curry—that infuse whatever food they're piercing. The upscale shish kebabs even give the place its name.

Opening this month, STIX (the "-cks" spelling is so uncool) occupies Bomboa's former quarters on Stanhope Street, which the owners of neighboring 33 Restaurant & Lounge snatched up last year. "We're very much a destination here," explains managing partner and CEO Greg Den Herder, who grew up in Saudi Arabia where kebabs are ubiquitous. "I've always wanted to control that space." What he and his team—managing partner Igor Blatnik and co-owner Steven Carreiro—didn't want was another steakhouse or seafood joint. "We're opening something that has a concept to it."

Indeed: The skewers constitute about 40 percent of the global menu. They're made of a special birch that absorbs various marinades (seven at press time). Served in sets of three sticks ($9), the signature plates can be mixed and matched. Skewering options include meat, poultry, seafood and vegetables. That translates to dishes like shrimp and pineapple on a coconut-lime skewer or grilled veggie and tofu on a garlic-rosemary one.

But STIX is about more than sticks. Small plates ($9), or appetizers, feature soups and salads including squid and octopus, and Portobello carpaccio with mesclun, shaved fennel and sun-dried tomatoes. At about $19, entrees (called large plates) also seem affordable. Choices like linguine with tomatoes, sherry vinegar and garlic, and veal meatballs with chorizo, linguine and pecorino have not a skewer in sight.

Which isn't to say the sticks should be ignored. Den Herder expects patrons to like them so much, he plans to sell them to home cooks. And speaking of branding, 33 Management Group has another nightclub in the works, the next step in a larger expansion. Already, you could go to 33 and, when the kitchen closes at 11 pm, grab a bite at STIX, which will serve food until 2 am.

Greg Den Herder

That complementary spirit gets translated into the décor, which features exposed brick and oak paneling. The 40-seat dining room (plus a lounge downstairs) was created by the same design firm behind 33. Touches like flat-screen TVs and a Sensitile bar that registers movement with lights lend a modern air. It's an overall feel that the owners hope sticks. STIX Restaurant & Lounge, 35 Stanhope St., Boston (617-456-7849). www.stixboston.com. —Megan Lisagor

INNER VIEW

Ken You Dig It?

Ken Burns established himself years ago as a premier documentarian. The War, Burns' new film about World War II, runs on PBS this month. The Walpole, N.H., native sat down with the IMPROPER before his Sept. 28 appearance at the JFK Library.

Improper Bostonian: Do you consider yourself a filmmaker, storyteller or historian?

Ken Burns: Definitely filmmaker. I've chosen history i the way an artist might choose to work in still lifes an not landscapes, or choose oil instead of watercolor. firmly believe in public history, so that's what I've bee doing for the past 30-plus years, but I see myself as filmmaker and that alone.

IB: How do you approach an interview?

KB: I think the first interview I did was in January of 197 and I still feel like an amateur. What [matters] is how yo approach people with an openness and willingness to li ten. It's really trying to listen and even watching faci ticks 'cause you knew you'd hit some sensitive plac And we were so privileged to get out of people thin they had never told. You know, the best single wor we've ever heard in an interview were, "Pop, you' never told us that."

IB: You said your father was part of the reason you chos this subject.

KB: Well, he arrived in France in May, or late April, of '4 and the fighting was ending. He did talk about it, but passed away in 2001 as I was gearing up for this proje And there's a bizarre thing that happens, you actually rea for the phone, physically, and you suddenly catch yours It gets quicker and quicker, but nonetheless, you have th regret that there's now a closed system, and I can't do th and I really don't want anyone else to experience that.

IB: With the success of consecutive projects, is there pres sure to beat the last one?

KB: I think that we go in much harder on ourselves th any expectation could exert on us. And you realize th war, the intensity of the experience just heightens it, a it becomes more a lingua franca for people. It's just t nature of war, whereas if you chose jazz, which w hugely successful, it's just not going to attract the sa volume of people. Nobody's father's died in jazz.

—Nick Altschuller

Introducing 360 Vodka

Vodka with a "Green" State of Mind

Vodka is crafted from a philosophy of eco-awareness. Quadruple Distilled and Five Times Filtered odka with an enlightened spirit, it's "The Evolution of Vodka."

360 The Evolution of Vodka
Vodka360.com

7 Earth Friendly Distilling Co., Weston, MO 40% alc./vol. (80 Proof) Distilled From American Grain Vodka360.com Drink Responsibly. Drive Responsibly.

TASTY TIDBITS

Brothers to Broad Street

Jim and Andrew Statires

Give Us a New Bar, Stat… You know how the story goes: A pair of brothers from New Hampshire head out to San Diego and make it big in the restaurant biz. But after a few years, New England's siren song calls them back, and they open a new venture in the heart of Boston's Financial District. Pretty typical, really. OK, maybe not, but that's the path that brought brothers Jim and Andrew Statires and their new bar/restaurant, JA Stats, to the Hub. The eatery—slated to open this fall—takes over the Broad Street space that formerly housed Tiernan's and will offer an eclectic menu featuring items like homemade chicken tenders, California wraps and grape leaves. 99 Broad St., Boston (617-357-8287). www.jastats.com.

Davio's Goes Deep… If you've been to Gillette Stadium this year, you probably aren't a fan of Patriots Place, the mall-in-the-making that's wrecked havoc on the pre-game scene and will continue to do so all season. But here's a silver lining: When it opens in fall 2008, a new Davio's will come with it. The Italian steakhouse will be one of about 80 stores and restaurants inside the mall, located directly next to the stadium, and will serve up the same fare that's made the Boston outpost one of our favorites. www.davios.com.

Davio's fried calamari

B.good's Looking Good… Looks like B.good is making a run at the title of Expansion Kings of Boston. The healthful fast-food joint opened its third location in Coolidge Corner this summer, and by the end of October, a fourth location should be ready at 272 Newbury St. The spot will be relatively small (only 20 seats or so) but will also offer take-out. www.bgood.com.

B.good's Cousin Oliver burger

An Oggi Opening… Remember Pizza Oggi's sesame seed–infused crust? It was like nothing else in the city, and its two locations—in JP and on Broad Street in Boston—always seemed hopping. Then, almost without a word, both Pizza Oggis disappeared. Luckily for Oggiphiles, the eatery is on the verge of a comeback. A new place at 1350 Mass. Ave. in Harvard Square (the old Campo de Fior space) should be open by the week of Oct. 12. We're already salivating. 1350 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-345-0022). www.oggigourmet.com.

Reverse the Curse?…The space at 279 Newbury St. has seen its share of turnover over the past few years. It was Saffron, then 279A, then INQ and then Luigi & Roscoe's. None of them stayed around. Now, One World Cuisine (the folks that brought us Kashmir, Diva Lounge, Mantra and more) is taking a crack at the Back Bay building. Cafeteria is an American-Italian themed café that'll serve salads, sandwiches, pizzas and an array of entrees, including pan-roasted sea bass, beef tenderloin and veal Milanese. The restaurant should be up and running by October's end. 279A Newbury St., Boston (617-536-2233). www.cafeteriaboston.com. —Rich Levine

BEAUTY BUZZ

Straight A Head

Before you get hung up on the "Brazilian" part of "Brazilian Keratin Treatment," be assured this Beauty Buzz has nothing to do with wax. The treatment happens to be the biggest thing to happen to curly hair since Japanese thermal reconditioning hit the market. Unlike its predecessor, the Brazilian doesn't render tresses limp and lifeless; it simply relaxes the wave, leaving in a bit of body. And it washes out gradually over a period of three months, so you don't get the bumpy, frizzy effect at the roots. Made from a mixture that contains formaldehyde, the potion has been more than a wee bit controversial for its potential cancer-causing effects and has yet to appear at many salons. Tanya Mitnik, who performs the procedure ($300–$400) at her Newton Center Tête-à-Tête, asserts that she has had nothing but success with her solution, which contains 1 percent keratin protein and 2 percent formaldehyde. Nevertheless, she takes appropriate precautions—both she and her clients wear gas masks and goggles to block the fumes. The results after two hours? Shiny, oh-so-straight hair. Tête-à-Tête, 765 Beacon St., Newton Center (617-559-0660). —Marni Elyse Katz

BORN FROM JETS

The new Saab 9-3 Sport Sedan. More jet inspired than ever.

Saab was founded by 16 aircraft engineers and their spirit lives on. The 2008 Saab 9-3 Aero has an all new exterior design that brings some of the most innovative ideas in the skies to the streets. It features a 255-hp turbocharged engine that's sure to make any pilot happy. The sleek grille, flush headlights and u-shaped styling of the hood make for a more aerodynamic ride, while rain-sensing wipers, Xenon cornering headlamps and OnStar* help keep your whole crew safe. Finally, with a quiet package that further reduces road noise, you're free to sit back, relax, and enjoy the standard moonroof and XM Radio† in peace. Now that's design any pilot can appreciate. After all, once you've built jets, you don't build just another car.

*For one year. Call 1-888-4ONSTAR (1-888-466-7827) or visit onstar.com for system limitations and details. †With three month trial. XM is available only in the 48 contiguous United States. Service fees extra. Visit gm.xmradio.com for details.

©2007 SAAB AUTOMOBILE USA

saabusa.com

VILLAGE SAAB
Acton, MA

WOODWORTH SAAB
Andover, MA

PATRICK MOTORS, INC.
Auburn, MA

HERB CHAMBERS SAAB
Boston, MA

TRACY BANKS SAAB
Concord, NH

GARY BLAKE SAAB
Exeter, NH

SAAB CITY OF FRAMINGHAM
Framingham, MA

SHAW SAAB
Norwell, MA

SAAB NASHUA NORTH
Merrimack, NH

CENTRAL SAAB
Norwood, MA

HYANNIS SAAB
South Yarmouth, MA

128 SALES, INC.
Wakefield, MA

CHARLES RIVER SAAB
Watertown, MA

IMPROPER REPORTS

Ahoy, Halloween!

Hide your rum. Retailers are predicting the pirate will be big in Boston this Oct. 31. Find the popular costume at these area stores, which'll have you looking savvier than Jack Sparrow and Elizabeth Swann in the Caribbean (eyeliner not included).

Boston Costume

200 Broadway, Cambridge (888-482-1632).
www.bostoncostume.com.
This Cambridge superstore has serious credentials, having provided costumes and accessories to the television, film and theater industries since 1965. For rent or sale. $45–$165.

Broadway Costume Co.

273 Summer St., Boston (617-426-3560).
www.broadwaycostume.com
With more than 40,000 costumes (covering historic and cartoon characters from Marie Antoinette to Bart Simpson), customers are bound to find something at this Boston outlet. For rent or sale. $50–$120.

Dorothy's Boutique

190 Mass. Ave., Boston (617-262-9255). www.dorothysboutique.biz.
Dorothy's has long packed 'em in, thanks to its array of jewelry, hats, wigs, shoes and accessories. And don't be fooled by their Web site; you needn't look like a porn star to shop here. For rent or sale. $30–$100.

iParty

Various locations. www.iparty.com.
Need an extra bag of pirate loot for your Halloween bash? Get favors at iParty, a supplier of costumes and other goodies for the entire family, including Fido. For sale. Kids: $10–$80; adults: $20–$150; pets: $14–$20.

Samantha's Costumes

177 Essex St., Salem (877-451-0444).
www.samanthasboutique.com.
Named after a certain bewitching TV character, this emporium has superheros, famous figures and more, available in store or through an online catalogue. For rent or sale. $40–$400.
—Molly McCormick

IMPROPER SPEAKING

SEEN, OVERHEARD OR OTHERWISE BROUGHT TO OUR ATTENTION

Nothing "Sub" About This Suburban Style…

Once upon a time, in the land of chain stores and strip malls, women who craved standout style had to fire up their SUVs, pony up for parking and spend the day scouring the city. Recently, retail's gone topsy-turvy. While the Back Bay has been welcoming corporate giants, specialty shops have been sprouting in posh Boston 'burbs. We found four new boutiques that are worth the commute…

What to do when the guy you've had your eye on asks you out? If you're anywhere near Andover, check out First Date, owned by 20-something sisters Keri and Brianne Barrett. The clothing ($60–$300) is organized by activity: Just Cocktails, Sunday Stroll, Rent-A-Movie and Soirée. You'll find jeans and cute tops, sexy and demure dresses, and plenty of post-hook-up hoodies. Brands include Shoshanna, Corey Lynn Calter and Molly B. The atmosphere is preppy chic, with bright blue walls trimmed in white, trellis-patterned prints and perky pink pillows. Hang out awhile—chick flicks like The Holiday play all day. Now that's a great first date. First Date, 28 Chestnut St., Andover (978-247-8999). www.shopfirstdate.com.

Those of you who think jeans, a wrap and a unique necklace are the fashion trifecta will love Glee Belmont. The bubble-gum-pink and orange spot is the fifth outpost of an independent minichain, conceived by North Shore couple Sigrid and Steve Orne. With a mix of familiar and undiscovered designers ($60–$750), the look is casual but not overly so. Labels include Red Engine and Billy Blues denim, tops by Marika Charles, Kinross cashmere and shearling by Blue Duck. Glee, 59 Leonard St., Belmont (617-484-3711). www.glee.us.

Tastemaker Betty Riaz has taken her great Dane westward to the Natick Collection. Amidst the high-end hubbub, Stil is a standout. With bamboo flooring, a fuchsia-backlit cappuccino ba and boudoir-like dressing rooms, the space, lik the clothing ($60–$800), is edgy and modern with touches of rococo. Riaz stocks distinctive la bels out of Denmark, like Noir, Munthe Plus Si monsen and By Malene Birger. There's also Schu macher, a cosmopolitan German line, Raasta, Spanish label inspired by local artisans, Brit Su Stemp, with her rock 'n' roll sensibility and gown from Finnish fave Uman. All proof that Stil sti means "style." Stil, Natick Collection, Natic (508-651-7845). www.stilinc.com.

After years of managing boutiques on the Sout Shore, Joyce Brennick has gone into business for herself. Gia B., at the Derby Street Shoppes in Hingham, caters to women who crave pulled-together citified style ($60–$1,200), with sophisticate brands like D&G, Valentino Red and Elie Taha as well as more feminine and fun looks by Ali + Olivia, Tracy Reese and Flora Kung. The bo tique is airy and beautiful, with a keen attenti to detail. Beyond the glass façade are da floors, white walls, crystal-like Lucite shelvi racks of metal tubing, white ultrasuede seati and oversized silver-framed mirrors. Gia Derby Street Shoppes, Hingham (781-74 5510). www.giaboutique.net. —MEK

GOT SCOOP?
Got an inside tip? Overheard some juicy news? Let us know what it is. Send an e-m to theword@improper.com.

DRINK ODWALLA.

EXPERIENCE

FULL-BODY

FLAVOR.

Exhilarating? Yes. Healthy? Of course. Vibrant? Definitely. Odwalla artfully creates fruit juices and smoothies that celebrate nature's living flavors, to bring out the best in you.

Nourishing the Body Whole

Naturally, you'll find Odwalla in the produce section.

odwalla

PROPER BOSTONIANS

BY KERRY BRETT

The ninth annual Big Dreams Start Small benefit for St. Jude Children's Research Hospital took place Sept. 29 at the Marriott Copley Place. The theme of the evening was Dressing to the Nines, and the event included a live and silent auction, dinner and a fashion show featuring the fall collection by Denise Hajjar, as well as dancing to the Marsels. Heather Unruh, WCVB-TV news anchor and health beat reporter, returned for the third year as emcee.

1. Starla Pathak, academic coordinator of OB-GYN at New England Medical, and Denise Hajjar, fashion designer
2. Tom Abreu, senior director of corporate strategy for Blue Cross Blue Shield, and his wife, Carol
3. Nicole Russo, event manager for Grey Goose Vodka, and Aislinn Brooks, fashion model for CMG Agency
4. Colin Eastman, wholesaler for Sunlight Financial in Boston, and Nina Yancich, group life representative for Sunlight Financial in Wellesley
5. Hilary and Michael Glynn, CEO of Glynn Hospitality Group
6. Eric Theriault, sales manager for Avaya, and his wife, Amy
7. Michael Zimmer, president of Fluent Technologies in Woburn, and his wife, Leslie
8. Anne Tamer and Charles Hajjar, co-owners of the Charlesmark Hotel

The Boston Film Festival hosted a prescreening party for Good Luck Chuck Sept. 16 at Todd English's Bonfire. The movie's star, Dane Cook, was the guest of honor.

9. Diane Allen, events coordinator for the Boston Film Festival, and Todd English, chef/owner of Bonfire, Figs and Olives
10. Alison Eastwood, film director, and John Michael Williams, creative director of the Boston Film Festival
11. Dane Cook, star of Good Luck Chuck

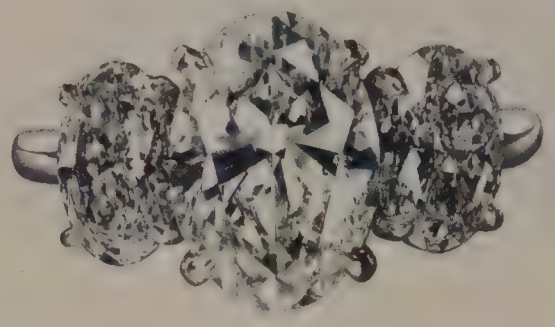
CHAMBORD®

FRANCE



FRENCH MARTINI

CHAMBORD | VODKA | PINEAPPLE JUICE

Enjoy responsibly s'il vous plait.

©2007 Chambord Liqueur, 16.5% - 23% Alc. by Volume, Imported by Brown-Forman Beverages, Louisville, KY.

Good things come in threes.

Joseph Gann Jewelers LLC
SINCE 1933

387 Washington Street
4th floor, Boston
617.426.4932
www.josephgann.com

WHERE'S THE WEDGIE

CBS' Kid Nation presents a fantastical vision of grade-school social life

I usually make up my mind about the new fall TV shows before I even see a single episode. It's all so predictable. Chuck will be canceled by next month, the Kelsey Grammar sitcom will be OK and Bionic Woman will be the next Heroes—a huge hit that I never watch.

But there's one new show that actually carried an air of intrigue going into its debut: Kid Nation. The premise of CBS' latest reality show is that 40 children are dropped off in an abandoned Wild West town called Bonanza City and left to fend for themselves with no adult help. It's been described as "controversial." I realized why it's controversial after hearing that a bunch of the kids ganged up on this one weaker kid, Piggy, and killed him. What? Oh, I'm sorry. That wasn't Kid Nation. That was Lord of the Flies.

Which, incidentally, is a much more accurate model of child behavior, if you ask me. The Kid Nation social dynamic just doesn't ring true to anyone who's been through middle school. The 40 participants range in age from 8 to 15, and four of them are designated as leaders. So you're telling me that, in absence of adults, a 15-year-old jock is going to take orders from a bespectacled 11-year-old Boy Scout? Wrong. He'd tell ol' four-eyes to go play with his Power Rangers, because he's got girls to get to second base with.

If I were the 15-year-old, I'd immediately recruit the other older kids and hoard all the food. Then I'd make the little ones build me a go-kart, or they wouldn't get fed. I'd cultivate team unity and instill fear by marginalizing one kid and mercilessly ostracizing him. The playground is a jungle, and the big kids are the lions. If Kid Nation were the slightest bit realistic, that's how it would play out.

Of course, that's not how things go. By the end of the first episode everyone's cooperating, and the leadership roles and social positions are evenly distributed. There was even one point where the smaller kids, including the Boy Scout, taunt the big kids and get away with it.

This show sets a horrible example for our youth, because in the real world you simply cannot taunt big kids and escape with your life. Let me share a little anecdote. When I was in fourth grade, an eighth-grader named Wayne was shoving little kids down a snowy hill at recess, king-of-the-mountain style. We just wanted to sled down the hill, but Wayne wouldn't let us reach the summit. Well, I snapped. The next time I reached the top of the hill, I grabbed him the ankles and toppled him over, draggi us both down the hill and getting snow over his jean jacket and mustache. mighty triumph ended the second Way stood up, reached down the back of pants and gave me a wedgie so hard that ripped the elastic off my tightie-whitie flouted the social order, and I paid price. That's the way it works.

Kid Nation promotes an idealized yo in which dorky kids don't get taunt brains rule over brawn, and popularity rectly correlates with industrious behav instead of looks, athletic ability or who the coolest stuff. There are no wedgies, purple-nurples and no cries of "fatty fa two-by-four, coming through the lun room door." In other words, it's total BS

IN THE REAL WORL YOU SIMPLY CANNO TAUNT BIG KID AND ESCAPE WIT YOUR LIF

About the only realistic part of the s is that one of the leaders, Laurel, is a year-old redhead girl from Massachus She has a wicked accent, and, in her line profile, she writes, "If this was Lau country, illegal immigrants would bounced out and quickly." Girls like are the reason why, growing up in Mai was scared of Massachusetts kids. Th hard-ass. My wife, Heather, was bor Taunton, and as we watched the show said, "I think if I were on this show, I the boss of these kids." Massachusetts are just raised to think that way.

I relate more to Jimmy, the 8-yea from New Hampshire. Jimmy concl the first episode by going home, demonstrating that he might be smartest kid on the show. Jimmy's u vering determination to get the hell o there actually made me wonder if pe Kid Nation is more true-to-life tha cameras let on. As Jimmy walked ou door, he had a distinct, shuffling gait looked eerily familiar. I suspect that i CBS edit-room archive, there's evid that Bonanza City isn't so wedgie after all. iB

YOU THINK THAT'S FUNNY?
Send unbiased e-mails to ezra@improper.com.

Come On Down

"A vehicle for every road you travel."

BOCH AUTOMOTIVE

"On the Automile" Route 1, Norwood, MA Boch.com

Vote For Your Favorite Ad At Boch.com/Improper

Get the shirt. Shop the weekend.
Show your support.

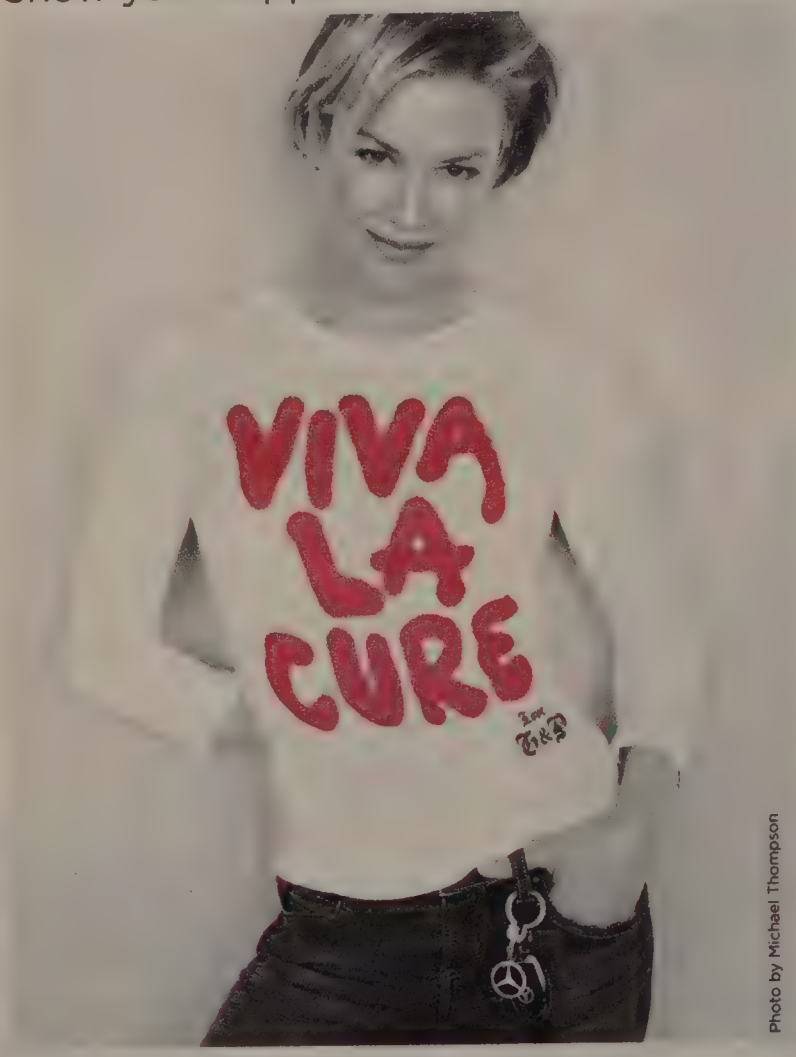


Photo by Michael Thompson

KEY TO THE CURE

A charitable initiative to fight women's cancers

October 18 to 21
at Saks Fifth Avenue

All Saks stores and saks.com will donate 2% of sales, and Off 5th stores will donate 1% of sales up to $1 million to local and national women's cancer charities. 100% of the proceeds from the sale of each limited-edition T-shirt designed by Juicy Couture will benefit the Women's Cancer Research Fund, a program of the Entertainment Industry Foundation. Available in S,M,L,XL. $35. To order beginning October 1, or for more information about this event, call 888.771.2323 or visit saks.com. Mercedes-Benz USA will also make a generous donation of $1 million to Saks Fifth Avenue's Key To The Cure through the sale of 1000 Special Edition 2008 C350 Sport Sedans. Special thanks to Renée Zellweger, the 2007 Ambassador for EIF's Women's Cancer Research Fund and Saks Fifth Avenue's Key To The Cure.

Women's Cancer Research Fund
An Entertainment Industry Foundation Program
EIF ENTERTAINMENT INDUSTRY FOUNDATION
Mercedes-Benz

KEY TO THE CURE
Saks Fifth Avenue

THE DANCE

BY JOHN D. SPOONER

A Model of Style

Two women offer lessons on fashion and beauty

I dated a model once, years ago. She taught me a lot, including something about beautiful women that seemed amazing. "We stay home a lot," she said. "I learned to play solitaire because men think I'm always busy and that I'd never say 'yes' to a date with them. So they don't dare to give it a try. No one wants rejection." Then she said, "But there's an asterisk to this. The aggressive a-holes do call—the guys who are pushy and obnoxious and won't accept 'no.' They usually, being this way, would bring evenings to a close by having drunk too much and throwing up."

SHE WEARS CLOTHES SEEMINGLY FROM ANOTHER ERA: SHE WEARS DRESSES AND SKIRTS

The night she told me this we happened to be in my apartment. The seven o'clock news was on, until a commercial break arrived. There was a flash of a lake on the screen and the sound of a speedboat. The model launched herself at the TV, hitting the off button sharply with her palm. I realized she had been in that ad and stared at her angrily.

"I was on water skis," she said. "In a bathing suit. It showed my bum. You don't want to look at your own bum, no matter who you are." I never did get to see that ad. But we continued to date, and she taught me lessons about beauty's fragility.

"First of all," she said, "cameras all add pounds to you. TV is the worst, probably; you seem 10 to 12 pounds heavier. So your agency is always on you about your weight, which drove a lot of my modeling buddies to drugs and other really bad habits." She also told me about her own rules of fashion. "Try not to overload your wardrobe with current department store fads. The orange cashmere sweater is probably a total loss item, even if you bought it on the third markdown. The staples of your wardrobe should dictate your own style. They should include as many pieces of fine quality, bought slowly, as you can afford. Don't be afraid to mix in a Chanel suit with a T-shirt underneath from the Gap. Classics last, and they are timeless."

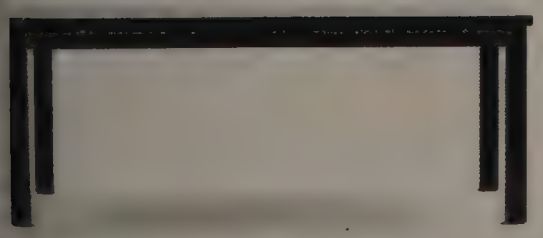
"Then what should every woman have?" I asked.

"I'd have a great Chanel suit and/or the same in a St. John knit. One fabulous black blazer, a few really good cashmere sweaters, one pair of fine pants in blac gray and white, one wonderful shawl and knockout pair of dressy boots, preferab by Stuart Weitzman. Again, hunt th stores for sales and accumulate these cla sics over time."

"Anything else?" I asked.

"Yes," she said. "Never marry anyo prettier than you."

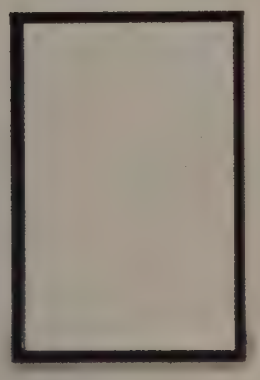
The model certainly left an impressio With her fashion advice still on my mi I think I may have fou the best-dressed woman Boston. I say "I thin because she is mysterio She works in the financ district. She's tall, abo 5'10", with long, dark ha cut pageboy style. And s wears clothes seemin from another era: She we dresses and skirts. S comes into the building odd hours and often ri the elevator with me. Af watching her for month screwed up the courage ask her, "Where do you buy your clothe Every time I saw her she was in a differ outfit, but always in dresses and skirts heels. She smiled a brilliant smile. over the place."



Conversations were always snatche color, about clothes and never las more than 30 floors. We were ships t pass in the night. One day she s "Many of the young girls in the office not own a skirt or a dress. I tell th 'Whatever happened to soft and cli ing?' They laugh at me. And I tell th not to wear clothes too small. T includes bras. Nothing ruins an ou worse than lumps and bumps from str And no one wants to see your tho tattoo/piercing." Last week she told "Those gorgeous shoes will not stret half size and you cannot break them After Easter she threw a line to me her shoulder: "White shoes look bac everyone." She's my female fash leprechaun, like the blonde in the T- in American Graffiti.

As for the model who told me "neve marry anyone prettier than you," she her own advice. She married me. IB

John D. Spooner, an investment advisor, author and novelist. Contact him at: thedance@improper.com.



Featuring: Logan rectangular dining table, Kiki dining chairs slipcovered in white denim, Logan buffet and mirrors, Corona pendant lamps and Soft & Modern accessories. To view our entire collection, please visit www.mgbwboston.com

logan rectangular dining table $1195 opens to 112" 76w 40d 30h

logan buffet $995
58w 18d 46h

logan mirror $295
42w 1.5d 30h

Kiki dining chairs slipcovered in bleached white denim armchair 26w 27d 39h $595
sidechair 19w 27d 39h $495

Corona pendant lamps $235
17h 13.75d

NATICK 395 Worcester Street / Route 9 508.650.1400 mgbwnatick.com
BOSTON 142 Berkeley Street at Columbus 617.266.0075 mgbwboston.com

Mitchell Gold
+Bob Williams

5 Questions for Tommy Heinsohn

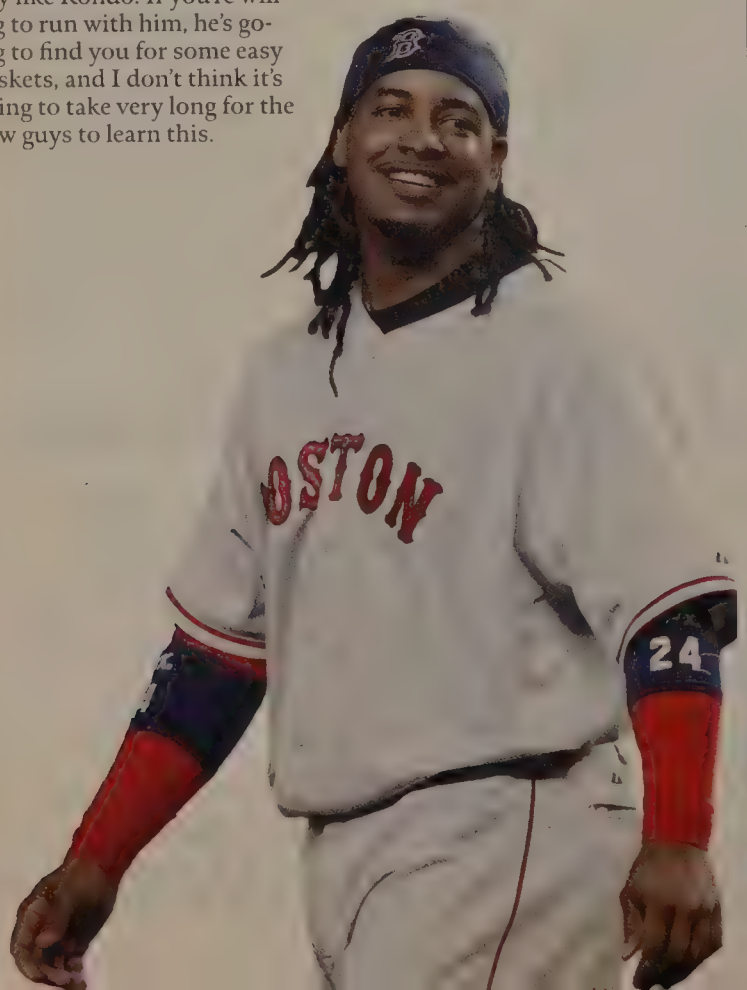
Improper Bostonian: What's the single most important factor in this year ending with a title?

Tommy Heinsohn: I'd say that the bench is No. 1. It's finding guys other than the top three who can consistently contribute. After that they're going to need to avoid injuries and hope that Pierce, Allen and Garnett are able to successfully blend their skills together.

IB: Let's talk Tommy Points. If you had to guess now, who's going to rack up the most this season?

TH: I'll have to go with Rajon Rondo, Kendrick Perkins and James Posey. The big names will be doing what they have to, but these other guys will be taking care of the little things.

IB: So does this mean you think Rondo's ready to take the leap as a starting point guard?



TH: When I was a coach, I would have killed to have a guy like Rondo. If you're willing to run with him, he's going to find you for some easy baskets, and I don't think it's going to take very long for the new guys to learn this.

IB: In all your years in basketball, is there any player you could compare to Kevin Garnett?

TH: As far as Celtics go, I sometimes think of him like a Kevin McHale because of his ability to create in the post, but he's very unique. He can score, he can pass, rebound and defend. And he's seven feet tall. There's nothing like him.

IB: How about your prediction for the year? How many wins are you thinking? 50? 55?

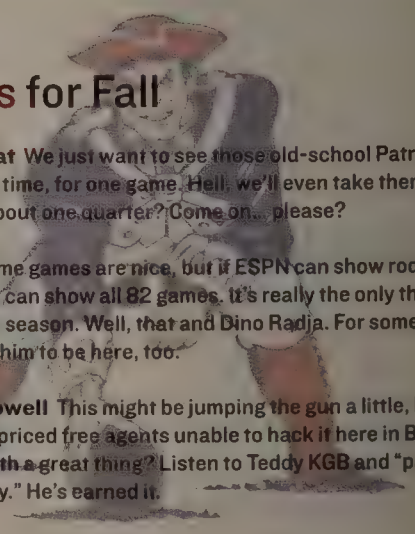
TH: I'm really not a guy who likes to think about number of wins but if they stay healthy, they'll be in the hunt for a title. Back when I played, it took eight solid players to win a title. By the time I was coaching, you could do it with five good players. Nowadays, all it takes is two, so if the Celtics have three healthy stars I'll feel good about their chances.

2 REASONS THE PATS WON'T GO UNDEFEATED

1. Simple Division We heard this argument first from Steve Young, but have you considered how obscenely early the Patriots will clinch the AFC East? It might be in the bag before Thanksgiving. Not only would it make sense to rest some of the guys (don't forget, they don't have a starting linebacker under 30), but it's human nature to have a slipup at some point.

2. Belichick Won't Let Them The man's notorious for not letting his team get too full of itself, and we all know that when it comes to football, he's clearly and certifiably insane. So who's to say that at some point he doesn't design a game plan that, you know... OK, so maybe not, but when it comes to Belichick, impossible is nothing.

4 DATES TO WATCH



1. Oct. 12: It's Game One of the ALCS, a night when Sox fans will get either wildly drunk with their friends at a bar or dangerously drunk, by themselves, in a dark, dark basement.

2. Oct. 14: The Pats head to Dallas for a match-up between two likely undefeated teams. Coincidentally, it's also the last morning of the season that the Cowboys will wake up undefeated.

3. Oct. 18: The Bruins host the Tampa Bay Lightning for their 2007 home opener. Still plenty of tickets available. Yup, lots and lots of tickets.

4. Oct. 20: The Celtics preseason takes them to Mohegan Sun for a match against the Philadelphia 76ers. Stick around for the post-game festivities as the referees don disguises and gamble like mad men until their flights leave the next morning.

3 Wishes for Fall

1. Bring Back Pat We just want to see those old-school Patriots jerseys one more time, for one game. Hell, we'll even take them for a half. OK, how about one quarter? Come on... please?

2. C's in HD Home games are nice, but if ESPN can show rodeo in HD, the Celtics can show all 82 games. It's really the only thing missing from this season. Well, that and Dino Radja. For some reason we'd love for him to be here, too.

3. Sign Mike Lowell This might be jumping the gun a little, but with all the high-priced free agents unable to hack it here in Boston, why mess with a great thing? Listen to Teddy KGB and "pay dat myan hees money." He's earned it.

1 Note on the MLB Playoffs...

The MLB really kicked us in the bi-weekly groin this post-season, essentially scheduling the entire Red Sox/Angels series between the time we write this and you read it, and severely handicapping the kind of coverage we can give the Sox. Our only hope is that by now, they've thoroughly smashed L.A. and ownership's promised to never ever have another weird Monday afternoon Super Red Sox Fan Rally.

Send sporting questions, comments, criticisms and—if you want—a lifetime supply of Tommy Points to rich@improper.c

THE BEAR IS BACK!

THE HUB OF HOCKEY

NESN HD

OCT 10 AT ANA – 9:30PM • OCT 12 AT LA – 10PM • OCT 13 AT SJ – 10PM

OCT 18 HOME OPENER VS TB – 6:30PM • OCT 20 VS NYR – 6:30PM

CALL 617.624.BEAR OR VISIT BOSTONBRUINS.COM

TICKETS STARTING AT $10

Green Day

WITH GARNETT AND ALLEN, THE CELTICS GET READY TO ROCK THE NBA

On the morning of Aug. 31, my friend Carl and I purchased two season tickets to the Boston Celtics. This isn't a problem if you're a wildly successful businessman or a trust-fund baby or even mildly mature enough to have a bank account in your own name. We are none of these things. These tickets have seriously set us back, and will continue to do so. They will cut into dinners with girlfriends, wedding gifts for our best friends and the number of games we can bet on each NFL Sunday. We are two very average guys paying almost $500 a month for a chance to watch 41 basketball games that we could just as easily watch at home. We haven't regretted our decision for a second.

The reasons are Kevin Garnett, Ray Allen and Paul Pierce. After nearly 15 years of living and dying (mostly dying) with the Celtics, we want to be there now that the C's are back.

On Sept. 28, the "there" was Celtics Media Day, and the team's talented triumvirate were on display. Some are calling them the Big Three, but that's old news. I'm nicknaming them the PGA Tour (Pierce, Garnett and Allen) and you should, too—and tell your friends. The Tour is on the verge of bringing something very special back to Boston, and they're ready to get started.

FEEL THE LOVE

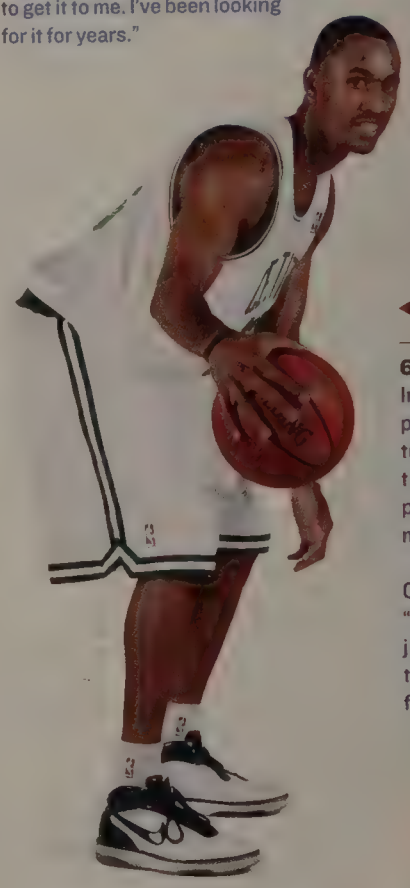
"It's all been surreal for the most part," Garnett says about his short time in Boston. "I've been out [to Fenway Park and Gillette Stadium] and seen what it's like around here, and Paul's been telling me all about the fans. It's something I'm ready to be a part of. We've been anticipating this for a while now."

Allen's felt it, too. "The most interesting thing for me is that the people who you'd never think would be Celtics fans are coming up to me and saying, 'We're so happy to have you here.' It's crazy. These people are from all walks of life. It really shows you the depth of history and tradition this team has, and how ready everyone is for the Celtics to succeed."

Some are calling them the Big Three, but that's old news. I'm nicknaming them the PGA Tour.

Of course, the players know that winning is hardly a forgone conclusion. Many in the basketball world have questioned the Celtics' depth after the front three, especially at the other

6 CELTS TO WATCH



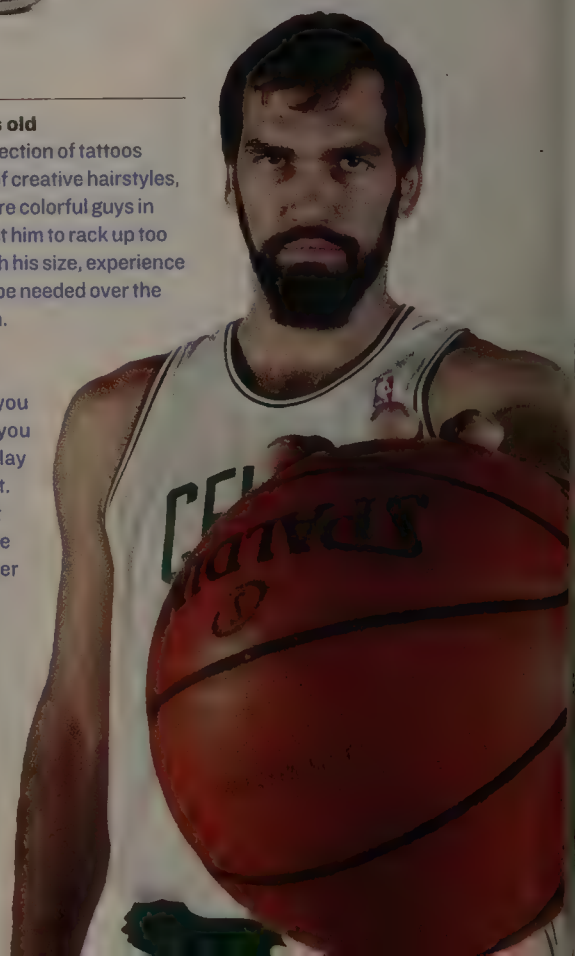
KG and Ray Allen aren't the only new faces in Boston this season

▶ Glen Davis

6-9 • F • 21 years old
Weighing in at nearly 300 pounds, you don't have to worry about Big Baby getting pushed around in his rookie year. The only question is whether that body can withstand 82 games. If it can, Davis' soft touch and inside presence might be valuable off the bench.

On his high school football career: "I was recruited pretty heavily to play football in college. Nick Saban even came by once. So that shows you how it was. If anyone knows where my high school highlight video is, they got to get it to me. I've been looking for it for years."

◀ Gabe Pruitt



6-4 • G • 21 years old
In his first year out of USC, Pruitt probably won't see much playing time early in the season. But over the long haul, his experience at point guard and overall quickness might earn him some minutes.

On his first time seeing the Garden: "We drove by the other day, and it just gets you very excited. Being in the NBA and going through all this for the first time is amazing."

▶ Scot Pollard

6-11 • F/C • 32 years old
With an impressive collection of tattoos and a rotating arsenal of creative hairstyles, Pollard is one of the more colorful guys in the league. Don't expect him to rack up too many minutes, although his size, experience and comedic relief will be needed over the course of a long season.

Pollard on aging: "It's kind of strange when you start playing for guys you remember watching play or even played against. I guess that's just part of getting older. Maybe someday I'll get to order everybody around."

Official Coffee of the Boston Celtics

©2007 DD-IP-HOLDER-LLC. ALL RIGHTS RESERVED.

two starting spots. The additions of Garnett and Allen (which cost a total of seven players from last year's roster) have forced point guard Rajon Rondo and center Kendrick Perkins into the spotlight, and some wonder whether they're ready. Allen's confident that if they aren't now, it won't be long until they are.

FOLLOW THE LEAD

"Both Rajon and Perk are still very young and learning what their niche is in this league, but having us around is only going to make that easier," he says. "When you're on a young team, everyone is trying to find themselves at the same time and it

Since the day these three players came together, they've given us no reason to believe this experiment will fail.

can get crazy, but playing with a group of established veterans lets them focus on their own game and find out who they are."

But what about the bench? What if an injury turns the Big Three into the Big Two?

"We understand it's not about just Ray, Paul and me," Garnett says. "That's not the way basketball works. This is a team, and we're going to have to work to make it a team. That's why this trip to Europe [the team starts the pre-season in Italy and London] is so big. You couldn't come up with a better platform to build that chemistry."

And then there's the biggie, the question that's been asked ad nauseam since day one: When the game's on the line, which of these three superstars—each used to running his own show—will take the last shot? "We'll go with whoever's hot," Pierce tells us.

You can speculate all you want about whether it will be as easy as Pierce's answer makes it sound, but truth is, since the day these three players came together, they've given us no reason to believe this experiment will fail. And even though KG's star might shine a little brighter, he refuses to single himself out.

That is, until we ask which of his new teammates has the best sense of style. "Well, Ray's more grown, so he's got that mature look to him and Paul's just a prankster, so it's gotta be me. I'll look good in anything." Especially in green and white.

▶ Dahntay Jones

6-6 • SG • 26 years old
Jones was originally drafted by the Celtics (but was traded almost immediately) and averaged nearly eight points a game last year for the Grizzlies. He's an athletic swingman and solid defender who'll most certainly find his way into the rotation.

On one of the best parts about coming to Boston: "If you asked me who the toughest guys I've ever had to guard were, two of them [Pierce and Allen] are right here, so it's nice knowing I'll just be up against them in practice."

▲ Eddie House

6-1 • SG • 29 years old
For the past seven years, House has made a living off his three-point shot. He'll make teams think twice about collapsing too many guys on the PGA Tour.

On how he'd fare in a shooting contest against GM (and former NBA All-Star) Danny Ainge: "Oh, please. I'll take Danny. I'll tell him that, too. We can do it right now."

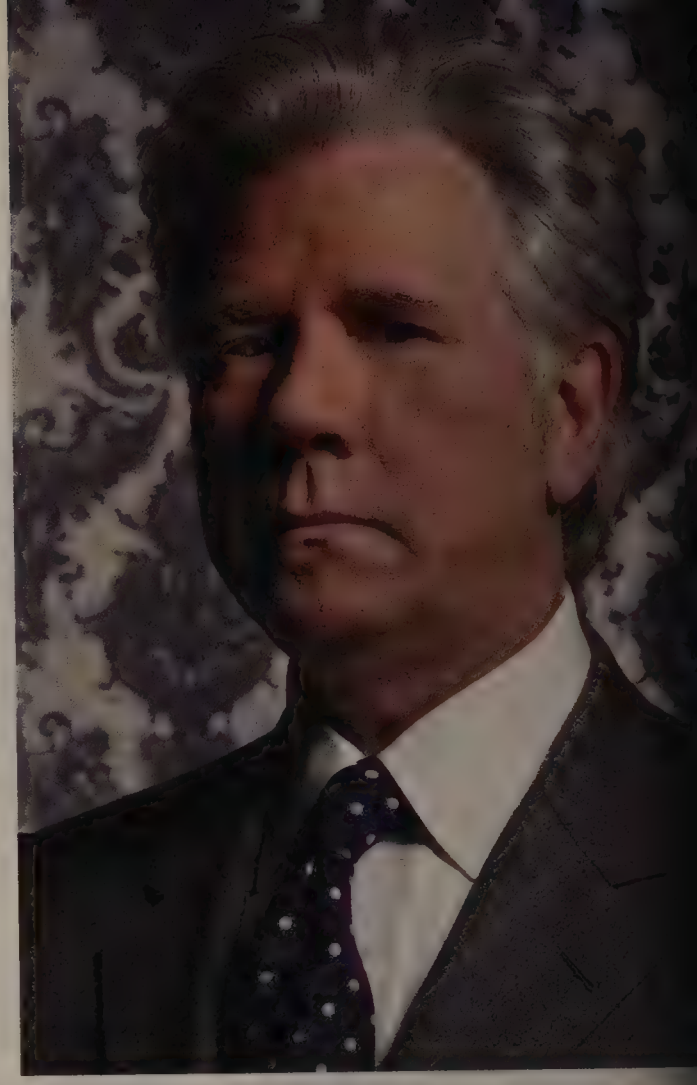
◀ James Posey

6-8 • F • 30 years old
Posey's the type of player who makes good teams great. He's a lockdown defender and an outside threat, which means he'll be invaluable off the bench. He's also been to the promised land, having won a title in 2006 with the Heat.

On being the only Celtic with a championship ring: "It comes with some responsibility. Just knowing what it takes and having been through the experience has an effect both on the court and in the locker room."

'fection has its price.

Of course it tastes better than other beers. We've had over 600 years to get the recipe right. Our esteemed brewery has been producing beer in Leuven since 1366. Which means we've been around a bit longer than most. Mind you, over the years our beer has witnessed the odd change or two. For instance, our customers no longer drink it to ward off the Plague, as they used to in medieval times. However, one thing has stayed the same after all these years. Stella Artois is still painstakingly brewed in a time-honored tradition with the choicest ingredients. Which is why our customers have kept coming back for more, even after 600 years.



Always Enjoy Responsibly. www.stellaartois.com

© 2006 Imported by InBev USA, Norwalk, CT.

Soroff ON

JOHN LARROQUETTE

BY JONATHAN SOROFF

This fall, inveterate TV actor John Larroquette joins the cast of Boston Legal, playing William Shatner's nemesis on the Emmy-nominated series. Born and raised in New Orleans, Larroquette was an only child and studied music intensively. Eager to see the world, he joined the Naval Reserves, then worked as an FM disc jockey. After being bitten by the acting bug, he landed in Los Angeles and quickly scored roles in the theater. His film credits include Blake Edwards' Blind Date, Summer Rental, Stripes, Choose Me, Star Trek III: The Search for Spock, Altered States, Cat People and Twilight Zone: The Movie. He became known to TV audiences as assistant DA Dan Fielding on the eight-season run of Night Court, and then starred in his own series, The John Larroquette Show, which ran for four seasons on NBC. He has guest-hosted Saturday Night Live twice, and in 1998 he won his fifth Emmy as a guest star on The Practice, portraying a gay man who murdered his lover. A passionate collector of rare books (among other things), he hosted A&E's 22-part series The Incurable Collector. He lives in Los Angeles.

Jonathan Soroff: What's it like to be working with Captain Kirk?

John Larroquette: Well, first of all, I've worked with him before. I was the only surviving Klingon in that Star Trek movie, and I still have a group of people in New Zealand who say they're going to try and break me out of Federation prison. But I adore Bill Shatner. He's a diva, in the best possible definition of the word. He's the ultrapro. He's also got very diverse tastes and a wide circle of friends. I went over to his house to watch Monday Night Football, and Henry Rollins was sitting there.

JS: Are you as sarcastic in real life as many of your characters on TV?

JL: As Jason Robards once said, "Every character is stuck with the actor who plays him." I think every role you play has some facet of the actor.

JS: You've played a lot of lawyers, and there was a long stretch where you were a recovering alcoholic in a bus station. What do you think that says about you as a human being?

JL: That I have a deep voice and I can articulate. The lawyer part, that's the only thing I can figure. Being the yat, coon-ass I am, I worked hard to lose my accent.

JS: One thing you'd like to erase from your résumé?

JL: [Laughs.] I can only choose one? Umm, probably Beethoven's Fifth, which I don't think was released theatrically, anyway.

JS: When people recognize you but can't place your face, who do they mistake you for?

JL: That's interesting, because it happened last night. I was standing in an elevator and a young guy turned to me and said he loved me in The Shawshank Redemption.

JS: So he thought you were Tim Robbins?

JL: Well, certainly not Morgan Freeman, I'm assuming. But the one I get the most is either that they loved me on Saturday Night Live all those years and the Blues Brothers is one of their favorite movies, or they loved Third Rock From the Sun. And I consider both compliments. John Lithgow is a very good actor, and Dan Aykroyd is one of the best comedians of the century. I'll take that.

"I'VE GOT A FACE MADE FOR RADIO, SO THE IDEA THAT I CAN MAKE A LIVING IN FRONT OF THE CAMERA IS A MIRACLE."

JS: You play gay very well. Do people assume you are?

JL: Well, I'm not gay, but I sleep with a man who is....

JS: I'm sure your wife will be thrilled to hear it.

JL: I actually stole that line from my brother-in-law, who's very English and about as straight as a Roman highway.

JS: Did being in the Navy teach you to play gay?

JL: [Laughs.] No, I learned to play gay from growing up in the French Quarter of New Orleans! I had a drinking buddy when I was a teenager named Tinkerbell, for Christ's sake. First guy whose testicles I ever saw who wasn't a blood relative, his shorts were so short. Frayed blue jean shorts. And he always had a tooth missing or a black eye from some sailor who clocked the shit out of him for trying to grope [him] in a bar. I had another friend who was a very good, very convincing tranny, and she'd make a lot of money off sailors in Pirate's Alley. They'd never know they weren't with a girl. Very pretty. Just beautiful.

JS: OK, one thing the Navy taught you that helped your acting career?

JL: I suppose how to lie convincingly and make others believe you're something other than you are. That, and how to type really fast.

JS: Best TV series you were ever on?

JL: To be honest, the first 13 episodes of The John Larroquette Show. Its nuts were cut off by the network, but it started out phenomenal.

JS: You did an episode of The West Wing. Is Aaron Sorkin a genius?

JL: No, he's a very good writer. Stephen Hawking is a genius. Let's get our terms straight here.

JS: Are you better in scary roles or comedic roles?

JL: All roles are comedic to me, even the psychopathic murderers I've played. In my mind, I was thinking, "This is just like if Paul Lynde was stabbing somebody."

JS: Is it ever insulting to get cast as the creepy guy?

JL: Not at all. I mean, look at my face. I've got a face made for radio, so the idea that I can make a living in front of the camera is a miracle to me, frankly. And I don't think I've played that many creepy guys except in stupid inane movies I did for the money...

JS: Well, you kidnapped MacCauley Culkin's parents in Richie Rich.

JL: Yes, that's true, and that's exactly what I was thinking of when I said it, Jonathan. My testicles shrivel every time I come across a reminder of that.... The things we do for money.

JS: You were on Fantasy Island once...

JL: Yes, but you can't tell it's me. I was this shimmery angel thing, and again, I think I was hired for that just because of my voice.

JS: Is there a show you never miss on TV?

JL: No, but there are things I watch consistently, though most of it isn't network TV. Flight of the Conchords [on HBO] is one.

JS: Any show you just don't get?

JL: I don't know enough about what's on to say with authority, but I do understand the popularity of American Idol. It's the freak show we all love. When I was a kid and we'd drive to Mississippi, we'd always stop to see the two-headed snake on the side of the road. So I get why people love it.

JS: If you were to do a reality show, what would it be and why?

JL: I'm trying to watch what I say these days, but I wouldn't f---ing touch any of them with a barge pole.

JS: You've worked with everyone. Is there anyone you'd never work with again?

JL: I'm trying to think of who's dead so they won't get upset. I guess Telly Savalas. He was an asshole to me. Then again, I probably would have acted the same way he did.

JS: What do you like best about Boston?

JL: The architecture. That, and the fact that I grew up in a very old, dirty, corrupt and crime-ridden city, so Boston reminds me of home. But seriously, you also have two of the best rare book dealers in America. In fact, I was on the phone with one of them yesterday because I was thinking about selling a few books because I wanted to buy a new Rolls Royce.

JS: Must be some books.

JL: They are. When you have a signed copy of William Faulkner with a nine-line poem written in his hand to the recipient, it's worth a lot.

JS: Last question: You turn 60 this November-

JL: Thanks for reminding me. AARP time. Cheap insurance and discounts at Denny's. Great.

JS: Any advice to the young kids reading this?

JL: Just use a condom and make sure the needle's clean. IB

FOXWOODS WORLD POKER FINALS™

OCTOBER 22-NOVEMBER 13, 2007

WORLD POKER FINALS TOURNAMENT SCHEDULE

DAY	DATE	TIME	BUY-IN/ ENTRY FEE	TOURNAMENT
Mon	Oct 22	10am	$260/$40	$300 No-Limit Hold'em Shoot-out Round 1 (Limited to 700 entries) Top 3 players at each table advance to the Finals on 10/22/07 @ 4pm
Mon	Oct 22	1pm	$260/$40	$300 No-Limit Hold'em Shoot-out Round 2 (Limited to 450 entries) Top 3 players at each table advance to the Finals on 10/22/07 @ 4pm
Mon	Oct 22	4pm	N/A	$300 No-Limit Hold'em Shoot-out Finals Only Round 1 & 2 table winners from 10/22/07 will be allowed to play
Tue	Oct 23	10am	$530/$70	$600 7-Card Stud
Wed	Oct 24	10am	$530/$70	$600 No-Limit Hold'em (Limited to 938 entries)
Thur	Oct 25	10am	$530/$70	$600 Omaha 8+
Fri	Oct 26	10am	$530/$70	$600 Seniors No-Limit Hold'em (Must be 50 by 10/26/07 in order to qualify)
Sat	Oct 27	10am	$530/$70	$600 Ladies Only No-Limit Hold'em
Sun	Oct 28	10am	$530/$70	$600 No-Limit Hold'em Shoot-out Round 1 (Limited to 600 entries) Top 3 players at each table advance to the Finals on 10/28/07 @ 4pm
Sun	Oct 28	1pm	$530/$70	$600 No-Limit Hold'em Shoot-out Round 2 (Limited to 380 entries) Top 3 players at each table advance to the Finals on 10/28/07 @ 4pm
Sun	Oct 28	4pm	N/A	$600 No-Limit Hold'em Shoot-out Finals Only Round 1 & 2 table winners from 10/28/07 will be allowed to play
Mon	Oct 29	10am	$530/$70	$600 7-Card Stud 8+
Tue	Oct 30	10am	$530/$70	$600 Limit Hold'em
Wed	Oct 31	10am	$530/$70	$600 No-Limit Hold'em (Limited to 938 entries)
Thur	Nov 1	10am	$910/$90	$1,000 No-Limit Hold'em (Limited to 938 entries)
Fri	Nov 2	10am	$1,375/$125	$1,500 No-Limit Hold'em (Limited to 938 entries)
Sat	Nov 3	10am	$1,850/$150	$2,000 No-Limit Hold'em
Sun	Nov 4	10am	$2,800/$200	$3,000 No-Limit Hold'em
Mon	Nov 5	10am	$4,800/$200	$5,000 No-Limit Hold'em
Tue	Nov 6	12pm	$1,040/$60	Act 3 $10,000 Championship Qualifier
Tue	Nov 6	6pm	$1,040/$60	Act 3 $10,000 Championship Qualifier
Wed	Nov 7	12pm	$9,700/$300	Day 1A $10,000 No-Limit Hold'em Championship
Wed	Nov 7	6pm	$1,040/$60	Act 3 $10,000 Championship Qualifier
Thur	Nov 8	12pm		Day 1B $10,000 No-Limit Hold'em Championship
Fri	Nov 9	12pm		Day 2 $10,000 No-Limit Hold'em Championship
Sat	Nov 10	12pm		Day 3 $10,000 No-Limit Hold'em Championship
Sun	Nov 11	12pm		Day 4 No-Limit Hold'em Championship
Mon	Nov 12	12pm		Day 5 No-Limit Hold'em Championship
Tue	Nov 13	5pm		Day 6 $10,000 No-Limit Hold'em Championship "WPT Final Table"

WPT WORLD POKER TOUR

- Must be at least 21 years of age.
- 3% of each prize pool will be withheld for Tournament Staff.
- Foxwoods reserves the right to limit seating, cancel or modify tournaments at its sole discretion and without prior notice.

Visit foxwoods.com for tournament information/results or call 1-800-48-POKER

Hotel Reservations Call 1-800-FOXWOODS

Two Trees Inn: Fri – Sat $139 • Sun – Thur $89 (Group #9647)

Great Cedar Hotel: Fri – Sat $159 • Sun – Thur $109 (Group #3566)

Grand Pequot Tower: Fri – Sat $209 • Sun – Thur $149 (Group #3321)

FOXWOODS RESORT ✦ CASINO

Mashantucket Pequot Tribal Nation

FIVE MEN. FIVE WOMEN. A WHOLE LOTTA ATTITUDE. BY LISA L. PIERPONT

TEN WITH Style

You want style, baby? We've got style—in the form of 10 Bostonians with seriously different looks. To find them, we quizzed boutique owners, sweet-talked stylists and chased down complete strangers (hey, they looked cool). "Who's got it?" we asked. "Names, names, we want names." No fashion professionals among our 10, just real people with pure panache. Whom did we discover? A batch of risk-takers including a fishnet-prancing waitress, a Jockey-less jock and a nightclubber-cum-banker who proudly owns more than 100 very loud ties. Now we're not saying these folks wear your look, but it doesn't matter, because that's the beauty of style—it's a mirror of personality. French novelist Colette described clothing as our "civilizing masks." That's how we look at it, too. Style isn't about the most expensive label or fancy-pants designer. It's about knowing who you are and presenting yourself in a way that reflects a what-you-see-is-what-you-get confidence... along with maybe, just maybe, a killer pair of shoes. Above all: You know it when you see it. Say hello to this year's freshest stylemakers.

PHOTOGRAPHS BY KATHLEEN DOOHER AND ANDREA FISCHMAN

Paul Grant

Real Estate Developer

He's heard this one before, but Paul Grant is one heckuva tall guy! So it makes sense that he played in the NBA for the Minnesota Timberwolves, Milwaukee Bucks and Utah Jazz before launching his own real estate company, G&P Properties. But what really impresses us is that he can be his size and stylish at the same time. Steering clear of Big & Tall stores, he doesn't hire tailors to make his clothes either. And yet, there he is, strutting down Newbury Street with that swagger, that confidence—and a Zegna jacket that fits! Seven feet of inspiration.

How would you describe your style? A reflection of how I feel. I'm always confident in that feeling, whether it be upbeat, pensive, melancholy or manic. My clothes reflect that comfort and confidence in feeling.

Let's do a little name-dropping. List your best stuff. Gentry Portofino double-zip cashmere sweater, complete comfort; Zegna three-piece gray flannel suit, timeless classic; Dolce e Gabbana double-breasted leather motorcycle jacket, enough said; Incotex pants, tailored perfectly; Casey Videlec wool jacket, can wear with anything; Donald J. Pliner knee-high boots, for the swashbuckler in all of us.

Take us on a shopping tour. Where do you go? It's all about the people: Stel's (Tina, Dave and Jon), Alan Bilzerian (John Stefanelli), Zegna (David Godreau)... and the folks at eBay.

Any fashion faux pas? Just the facts. Detroit, sixth grade: pink shirt with black bold stripes. It gets better... also had a leather collar with pink minidots. Now that is ghetto fabulous.

Who are your favorite clothing designers? Helmut Lang—he captures mood with simple, clean-cut designs. Raf Simons—not afraid to be blatant about his influences, especially when it comes to music.

What's your best master-of-the-universe outfit? In the summer, I wore white jeans and a white T-shirt every day for three weeks. I received a lot of positive energy.

Who are your favorite dressers? James Dean, Vincent Gallo, my older brother, Greg.

What are your steady-eddy pieces? Ever T-shirt, Imperial Denim jeans, sunglasses, boots, military coat.

PAUL GRANT HAS COME A LONG WAY FROM HIS DAYS IN DETROIT

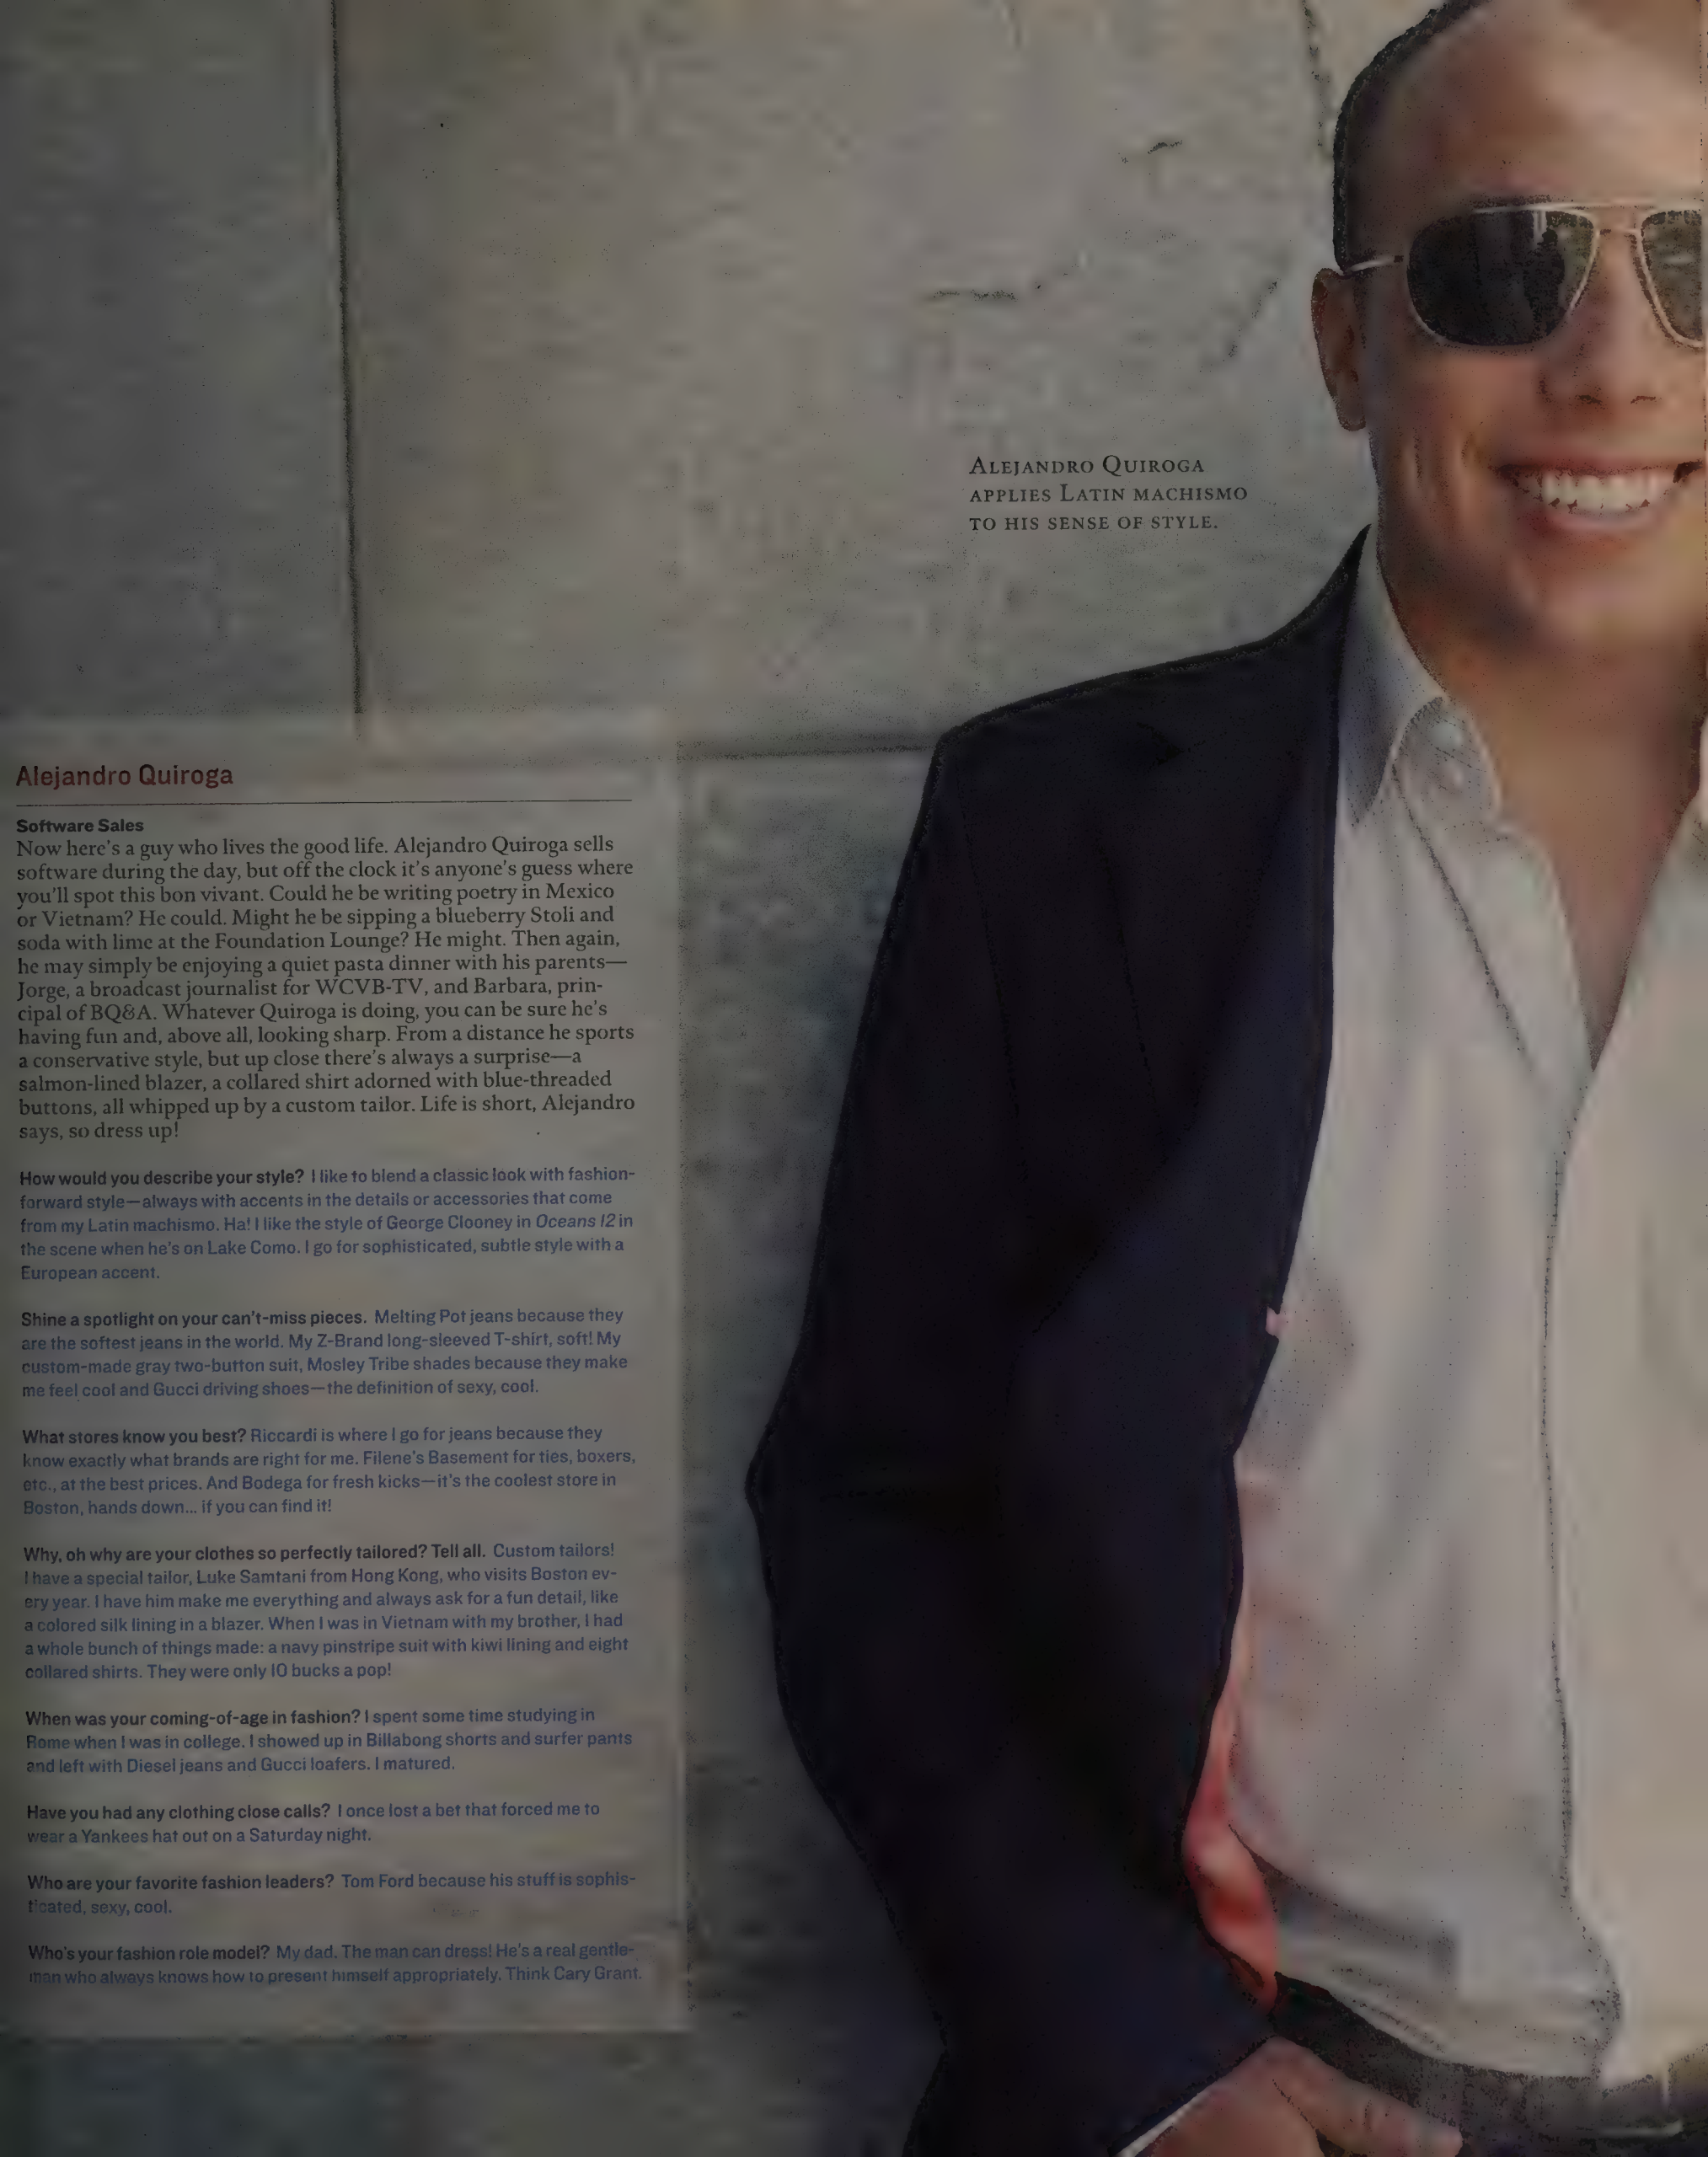
Shayna Seymour

Broadcast Journalist

If she weren't so nice, it would be impossible to like this girl. Just look at her! That mile-wide smile, those shimmering eyes and always, always a drop-dead outfit. Seymour's the whole package. After growing up in Amherst in an academic family, she moved to San Francisco to work as a Gap buyer, then switched to a broadcast journalism career. Within three years, she slam-dunked a stint as a reporter for Channel 5's multi-award–winning Chronicle. On top of it all, she dresses for success every day by combining gamine with glam. For the on-air report, it's a proper tailored navy suit, but after the camera turns off? She switches into a leopard-print skirt sure to send any schoolboy's heart aflutter. (Sorry guys—she just got hitched.)

How would you describe your style? Fun and sassy! Feminine, tailored, simple, clean-cut, conservative, sophisticated, trendy but understated. I like to be current, but I try to stay away from pieces that appear to only be "hot" for a season. My outfits are never too bold but can make a statement. I do like something in my outfit to pop.

What are Shayna's staples? Uggs—boy, oh boy—how did I ever live without these? There's a good chance they are now out of style, but I don't care. Yves St. Laurent silver and gold sandals—they were passed down from my mother and they are my absolute favorite going-out shoes. J Brand jeans—when I'm not on the job, I live in jeans. I love my jeans. Admittedly I have way too many. Stretch is key—if you eat too many peanut M&M's (my favorite) it doesn't matter. The jeans still look good.



Where will you always score an outfit? I love Dresscode in Andover—great stuff for work or hitting the town. Love, love, love! Just around the corner is Native Sun, which has a lot of Nicole Miller and Michael Stars T-shirts, which I also enjoy wearing. For national stores, I like Barneys and J.Crew.

Who are your favorite clothing designers? My favorite designers are Diane von Furstenberg and Rebecca Taylor. Both designers use cuts and materials that flatter my figure very well.

How does your style reflect your work in television? I have to think about what's going to look good on camera; sometimes fashion doesn't translate through the lens, so I try to keep it simple on air. I stick with solids and clean lines to create a more sophisticated look, but I might throw on a funky pair of shoes to make the outfit more fun.

Is there a ghost of fashion past? When I was living in San Francisco I had a pair of light-blue Gap "leather" pants that I used to wear with sneakers. Yikes! At the time I thought the outfit was "hot stuff," but now I'm pretty confident it was a fashion no-no!

SHAYNA SEYMOUR PREFERS TAILORED SUITS TO HER "LEATHER" PANTS OF YORE.

ALEJANDRO QUIROGA APPLIES LATIN MACHISMO TO HIS SENSE OF STYLE.

Alejandro Quiroga

Software Sales

Now here's a guy who lives the good life. Alejandro Quiroga sells software during the day, but off the clock it's anyone's guess where you'll spot this bon vivant. Could he be writing poetry in Mexico or Vietnam? He could. Might he be sipping a blueberry Stoli and soda with lime at the Foundation Lounge? He might. Then again, he may simply be enjoying a quiet pasta dinner with his parents—Jorge, a broadcast journalist for WCVB-TV, and Barbara, principal of BQ&A. Whatever Quiroga is doing, you can be sure he's having fun and, above all, looking sharp. From a distance he sports a conservative style, but up close there's always a surprise—a salmon-lined blazer, a collared shirt adorned with blue-threaded buttons, all whipped up by a custom tailor. Life is short, Alejandro says, so dress up!

How would you describe your style? I like to blend a classic look with fashion-forward style—always with accents in the details or accessories that come from my Latin machismo. Ha! I like the style of George Clooney in Oceans 12 in the scene when he's on Lake Como. I go for sophisticated, subtle style with a European accent.

Shine a spotlight on your can't-miss pieces. Melting Pot jeans because they are the softest jeans in the world. My Z-Brand long-sleeved T-shirt, soft! My custom-made gray two-button suit, Mosley Tribe shades because they make me feel cool and Gucci driving shoes—the definition of sexy, cool.

What stores know you best? Riccardi is where I go for jeans because they know exactly what brands are right for me. Filene's Basement for ties, boxers, etc., at the best prices. And Bodega for fresh kicks—it's the coolest store in Boston, hands down... if you can find it!

Why, oh why are your clothes so perfectly tailored? Tell all. Custom tailors! I have a special tailor, Luke Samtani from Hong Kong, who visits Boston every year. I have him make me everything and always ask for a fun detail, like a colored silk lining in a blazer. When I was in Vietnam with my brother, I had a whole bunch of things made: a navy pinstripe suit with kiwi lining and eight collared shirts. They were only 10 bucks a pop!

When was your coming-of-age in fashion? I spent some time studying in Rome when I was in college. I showed up in Billabong shorts and surfer pants and left with Diesel jeans and Gucci loafers. I matured.

Have you had any clothing close calls? I once lost a bet that forced me to wear a Yankees hat out on a Saturday night.

Who are your favorite fashion leaders? Tom Ford because his stuff is sophisticated, sexy, cool.

Who's your fashion role model? My dad. The man can dress! He's a real gentleman who always knows how to present himself appropriately. Think Cary Grant.

PROFESSOR EMMA TENG DOING THE IMPOSSIBLE: BRINGING STYLE TO MIT.

Emma Teng

Professor
Alongside the offices of Birkenstock-wearing, pony tail–swinging Nobel Prize winners, professor Emma Teng cuts a different image—sky-high stilettos and black miniskirts. No wonder her classes are filled to capacity! Teng isn't your average MIT professor. The daughter of career academics, the Harvard graduate thought about rebelling against her cerebral destiny by attending the Fashion Institute of Technology. She stayed on course, but dresses to kill and engages in regular debates about the elements of style. Fashion, she says, is not anti-intellectual; it's creative and OK to look good. Teng's students depend on her to unlock allegorical truths in her literature classes, and more than a few stick around afterward for some cum laude fashion tips.

How would you describe your style? I like clean, classic lines and generally form-fitting shapes. I tend to wear a lot of black or white, which I consider timeless. But I also like to accessorize with fun, colorful pieces—these are things I have found in vintage stores or got from my grandmothers (one was an English flapper, the other a Chinese matriarch). Sometimes these are things I knit or sew for myself, so they are truly one-off pieces. I also enjoy things that have a sense of humor—like children's lunch bags with funny animal characters on them.

What pieces of clothing would you grade an A? One of my favorites is a white suit I got at Agnès B. years ago. It's boucle wool, and it defies the whole "no white after Labor Day" thing. Many of my favorites are things that I bought while traveling—a shawl from India, a funky silk top from Tokyo, a T-shirt from Paris—they remind me of those places. One of my favorite shoes is a pair of ice-pink, strappy stilettos with little rhinestones. They are very girly and definitely unacceptable to certain feminist friends, so I feel somewhat rebellious wearing them.

Any secret places to shop? My favorite place to shop is Bliss on Newbury Street. It's a well-kept secret, but they not only have amazing modern furniture and home goods, but also fabulous accessories, jewelry, handbags and other "necessities." [Also] Settebello in Cambridge, and I love Old Navy.

What's the trendiest fashion piece you've ever worn and lived to tell about? Definitely that black vinyl minidress!

What's your win-over-the-world outfit? An off-the-shoulder black dress.

How does your style reflect your work in academia? Since I'm an MIT professor, my style probably does not reflect my profession. Perhaps I should start wearing blazers with leather elbow patches.

Who are your favorite style icons? My favorite icon from daily life is a French woman I work with, Isabelle de Courtivron. She epitomizes the Parisian sense of style. Need I say more? From film, I would have to say Ava Gardner. She does amazing things with both the sari and a military uniform in Bhowani Junction. She is a true classic beauty.

What piece of clothing is your best friend? My black jeans.

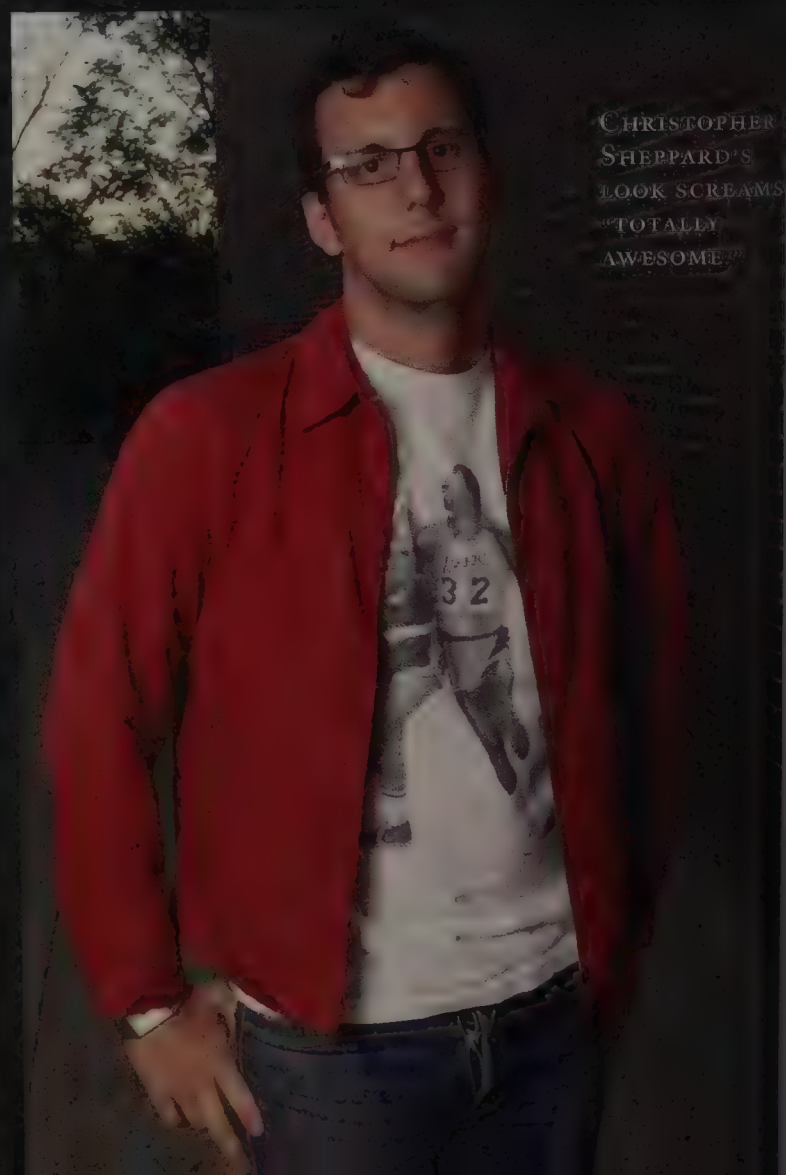
What parts of your wardrobe do you invest in, and where are you thrifty? I recently blew a wad on a swimsuit. When you're wearing that little, it had better look good! I love to cheap out on jeans from the juniors department. I also enjoy buying funny bags and lunchboxes, or hair clips from children's toy stores.

Swimming Instructor
We've caught Christopher Sheppard looking like a jock, a Euro sophisticate and Mr. Monochromatic. Which one is the real him? All of the above, says Sheppard, who refuses to be pinned down by a single style. He's over that. As a kid in Florida, when he was being taught by Olympic gold medalist Mark Spitz, he dressed the part of an athlete. Later, when he took up the punk rock life, he channeled Sid Vicious. Now he suits up according to his mood, which is a little bit casual cool, with a touch of Dries Van Noten and always accompanied by vintage Nike kicks.

How would you describe your style? I'm a renaissance man! My individuality is not dictated by my wardrobe, but rather the other way around.

What makes you tick? I love my Diesel watch. People stop me on the street to ask about it. It's steel with a square face and a map of the Earth. My red James Dean jacket from Dries Van Noten. I stalked it at Filene's Basement for a couple weeks, and my Mexican rodeo belt.

You're great at mixing styles. How do you do it? Stel's is by far the best store in Boston. Tina, John and Dave just know what they're doing. I also love Bobby from Boston in the South End, and Gumshoe and Boomerangs in JP (all for vintage). I like Concepts in Cambridge for shoes.



What was your biggest fashion blunder? I wouldn't call them "blunders," but rather "opportunities for improvement."

Any fashion victim stages you'd care to share? I somehow managed to survive and learn from the Allston Beat phase of my life.

How does your style show off your personality? I'm totally awesome. There are few people who really know me who would deny that fact. I think my clothes reflect that, but in a more subtle way.

How does your style relate to your job? Swimming metaphors welcome. As a swim coach, I like to wear clothes that move and breathe. I know, I know, those words make any truly "stylish" person cringe. I like to think that I do it in a way that's stylish.

What's your most meaningful piece of clothing? My Charles River Aquatic Sea Dragons Swim Team uniform. The kids on my team and I all work hard and we wear our uniforms with pride.

CHRISTOPHER SHEPPARD'S LOOK SCREAMS "TOTALLY AWESOME."

Jodi Black

Waitress

Jodi Black—those dreadlocks, the tattoos, the sock garters. Wow. She's bold—and she is what she wears. Her cult following of customers flocks to Pho Republique not just for the yummy food but to check out what she's got going on that day. Black combat boots are a given, as is the hairstyle (she tells us she got dreads because she was sick of brushing her hair), but what color fishnet socks will it be? Where does one buy sock garters? What are sock garters? These are the questions that keep her fans awake at night. Listen up, folks: Black is dishing out the goods right here, right now...

How would you describe your style? Mix and match, crazy bohemian with elegance. It's a mixture of all my phases in this life. I was into New Wave, then punk, then onto hippy. Everything I wear represents all of that.

Where does someone like you come from? I grew up in Braintree, but the 'burb thing didn't really work for me. I hung out in Harvard Square.

What's with the sock garters? Oh, man! They're cool! I have black and purple ones. I Google them and buy them online. I also love my fishnet socks. I've been trying to bring them back for years.

Is Boston worthy of your style? Sure! I find stuff at Poor Little Rich Girl in Davis Square, the Garment District and vintage shops. You may find this hard to believe, but I love Abercrombie. I always thought they should have me model for them!

Let's dissect the tattoo situation. I have one continuous tattoo. It started when I was 17—a woman named Ruby tattooed a bleeding black rose on me behind a bar. I've had one every year since. I get things that I love: jewels, fairies, eyeballs. My artist is Juli Moon in Lynn.

What's an unlikely piece that you love? My Louis Vuitton handbag that I dream about every day.

Do any clothing designers scream "Jodi Black"? Free People always makes ME feel free.

What's your best, whiplash-causing ensemble? My black miniskirt, sock garters and of course my ever-aging combat boots! Oh yeah, did I mention my collection of G-strings?

How does your style reflect your spirit? It's free to be whatever it wants...

How does waitressing fit in with your style? I love people and the energy. Pho Republique is perfect for me. It's relaxing and easy. It's chill. I'm just lucky to have a boss who hired me for me, and how weird my clothes are!

JODI BLACK AND HER POOCH (CREDIT AFRAID TO GET A LITTLE CRAZY)

Marissa Mehall

Financial Analyst

A steel-blue python Chanel bag, a form-fitting, low-back navy dress and patent Miu Miu pumps are sure-fire ways to live for the day. Carpe diem, Marissa Mehall. This financial analyst has an eye for seizing opportunity, whether it's commercial real estate or a leather trench coat. The Boston College graduate prides herself on showcasing her femininity through elegant, fun pieces—each of which is given a thorough review of pros and cons before the final ching-ching. Will it look good? How long will it last? Those are the questions that culminate in a yes to a slim sheath, but a no to cuff pants. Hey, that's our kind of businesswoman.

How would you describe your style? Classic with a twist. I like simple, elegant, well-tailored yet unique pieces that I can wear for more than one season.

What are your closet highlights? Vince black leather coat, because it's soft and casual but still a little tailored. My Balenciaga messenger bag, because it's purple (my favorite color) and only looks better with age. Designers include By Malene Birger, Thomas Pink, 3.1 Phillip Lim and Theory. Any pair of shoes, Puma sneakers to Jimmy Choo pumps—I love them all!

What's your shopping hit list? Stil, Matsu, Reiss, Barneys, Club Monaco and Saks.

Show us a wild and crazy Marissa. I have a Bruuns Bazaar leather trench coat from Stil. It's a beautiful shade of purple with big, brown pearly buttons.

What's your bring-them-to-their-knees outfit? A Black Vera Wang Lavender Label cocktail dress... it's two years old and still does the trick.

What does your style tell us about you? Well, I went to an all-girls Catholic high school in Ohio and wore a uniform everyday. I'm making up for that now! I love wearing the color purple and any leather jacket. I'm having fun.

Do you swear by any style tricks? I love wearing black. It takes me from the office to a nightclub. I just mix it up with textures and layer it. I like black high-waisted skirts or dresses tapered at the waist.

Whose wardrobe would you love to raid? Lately, I really like what Jessica Alba and Reese Witherspoon have been wearing on the red carpet. They both have an effortless style and wear dresses that are sophisticated, simple and flattering.

What's always worth the dough? I tend to have a hard time turning down a great pair of shoes... so there's not much left over for socks!

Professional Soccer Player

Maybe it was the day his high-stylin' sister Katie bought him a camel suede jacket, or when he wore his first pair of second skin–fitting jeans, but somewhere along the line, Jay Heaps was bitten by the fashion bug. The New England Revolution star certainly has the athletic physique to carry off clothes well, but it's more than that. He shoots and scores in the snappy dressing department over and over. Heaps, a Longmeadow native, knew long ago that soccer was his calling. But off the field, he attracts attention by knowing what looks good on him. His game strategy? Aim for the perfect cut, texture and fit. Goal!

How would you describe your style? Mix and match preppy with a little urban flavor. I like the way Michael Jordan's pants fit—loose and cool.

Give us the best of Jay's closet. Old, old pair of boot-cut Guess jeans and any pair of Adidas sneakers because they both are as comfortable as they look. Comfort is key with me.

What are your favorite stores to shop? I like to hit Newbury Street for some mainstream stores, mostly Banana Republic, Ralph Lauren, Guess, Brooks Brothers... You can get anything and everything on Newbury. But for a nice tailored suit, I go to the small shop of Summer Burke—he makes a great fitting, affordable suit—and for jeans, I go to the National Jean Company in Newton Center.

Any fashion secrets? We want true confessions. I've been known to wear a suit with no socks and sometimes no underwear.

Why do clothes look so good on you? I have quadzilla legs. So everything I pick has to be comfortable and fit me the right way. I do that by being a stickler about tailoring. I've been known to return to a tailor three times to get the pant length just right.

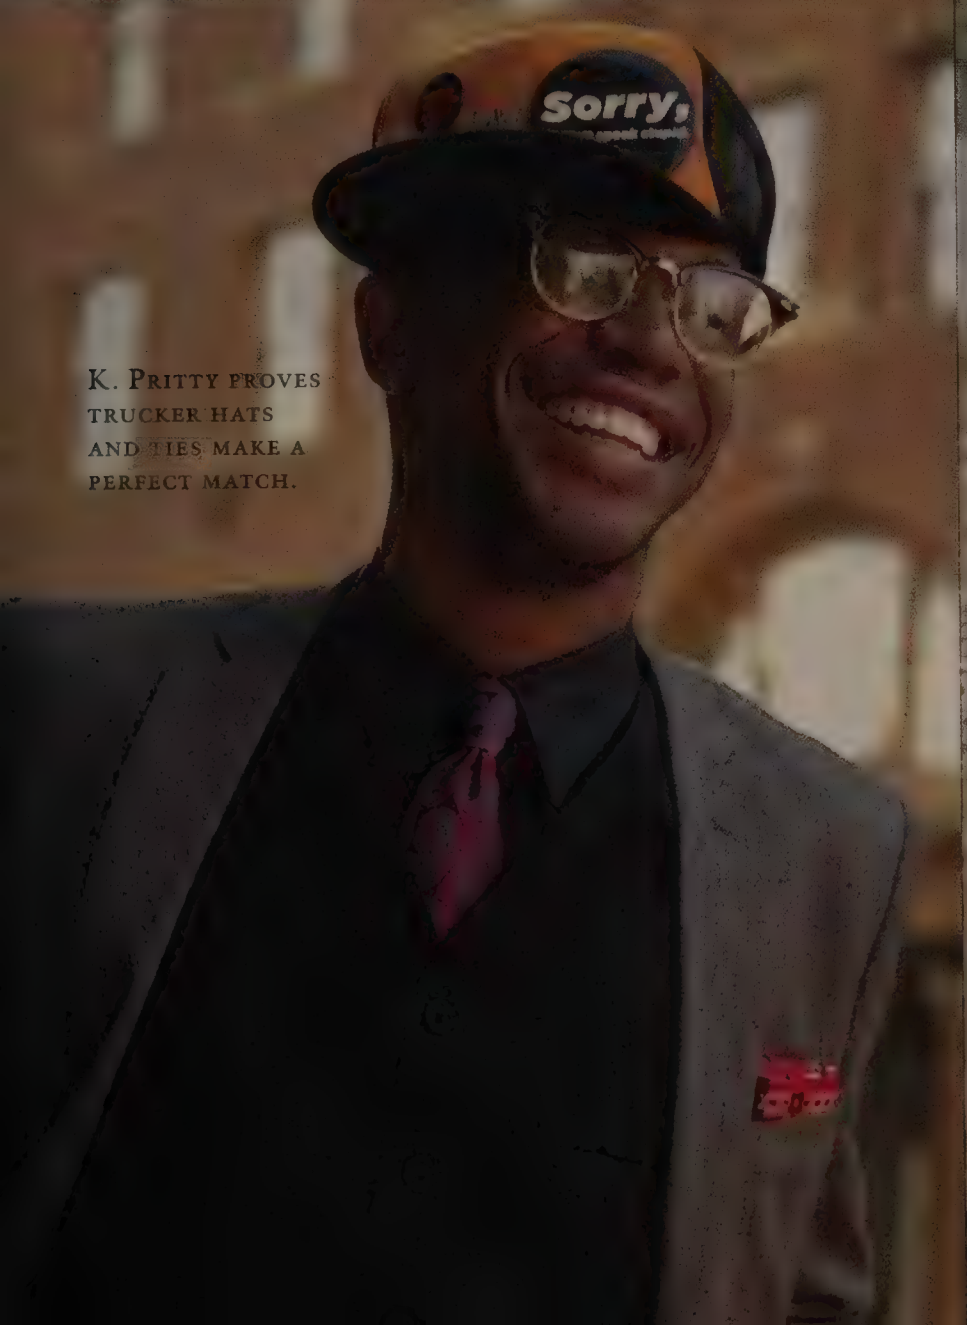
What's your favorite trendy piece? I love two-tone shoes, and people either love them or hate 'em.

Kareem "K. Pritty" Lyder

Account Executive/Party Promoter/Music Agent

P. Diddy, watch out! K. Pritty is nipping at your Nike Dunk heels. His Bank of America colleagues know him as Kareem, but to anyone hitting the Boston night scene? K. Pritty's the name, livin' large is the game. Lyder, it turns out, has lots of dreams. The Boston Latin School graduate and Dorchester native manages various rap and R&B artists, and works as a party promoter at Aria and 360 Ultralounge for his company, A1! Entertainment. He's hoping K.Pritty will someday stand for a mega music brand. Until then, he's making a name for himself in other ways—trucker hats and psychedelic ties are all part of the equation.

How would you describe your style? A mix of hip-hop, prep and skateboard with a sprinkle of '80s. Nothing about it is the norm.



Show us the K. Pritty way! I love ties. My collection of ties is probably reaching 100 by now. I just like different colors. I have a lot of pink, purple and red ties with different prints. Another thing I've become a fanatic of is the Nike Dunk sneaker. I'm always looking in custom stores, Internet sites, etc., for the next pair that nobody else can say they have. Fresh! And the last but not least favorite items are my hats. I have an assortment of hats that range from trucker hats to top hats.

What are your regular stops? H&M and Express for Men for my preppy clothing. For my '80s funk stuff I go to the Garment District in Cambridge. I found a leopard belt there and a tuxedo shirt with ruffles. Classic! For my Nike Dunks I usually go to Laced or Expressions. They usually carry exclusives that a lot of other stores don't have (I got my Notebook Nike Dunks from Expressions, and nobody else has them!).

What's your biggest fashion blunder, past or present? Well I don't believe I ever had a fashion blunder.

How does your style reflect the K. Pritty spirit? I am very creative and at the same time very aggressive. I think that comes out in my style. The outfits I come up with people either would never think of or wouldn't dare wearing. I am a risk taker. You only live once so [you] might as well try different things.

Who are your fashion heroes? When it comes to style I look at people like Jimi Hendrix, Kanye West, Pharrell and André 3000. These people weren't and aren't afraid to look different (though I would never wear what Kanye wore for the Grammy's last year!).

K. Pritty proves trucker hats and ties make a perfect match.

Shirin Shahriar

Dentist

The next time you need a cavity filled, book an appointment with Dr. Shirin Shahriar. You won't feel a thing. You'll be too busy asking where she bought her black skyscraper heels. Shahriar, who was born in Iran and moved to the U.S. for college, is an unlikely cool ambassador. (Seriously, when was the last time you were curious about what was underneath your dentist's white lab coat?) She grew up traveling to London for shopping sprees with her fashionista mother and sat in the front row of Yves Saint Laurent and Christian Dior runway shows. And although she chose drills over designing dresses, the shopping education wasn't lost on her. The thought of wearing cheap material or an ill-fitting trouser? She'd rather have a root canal.

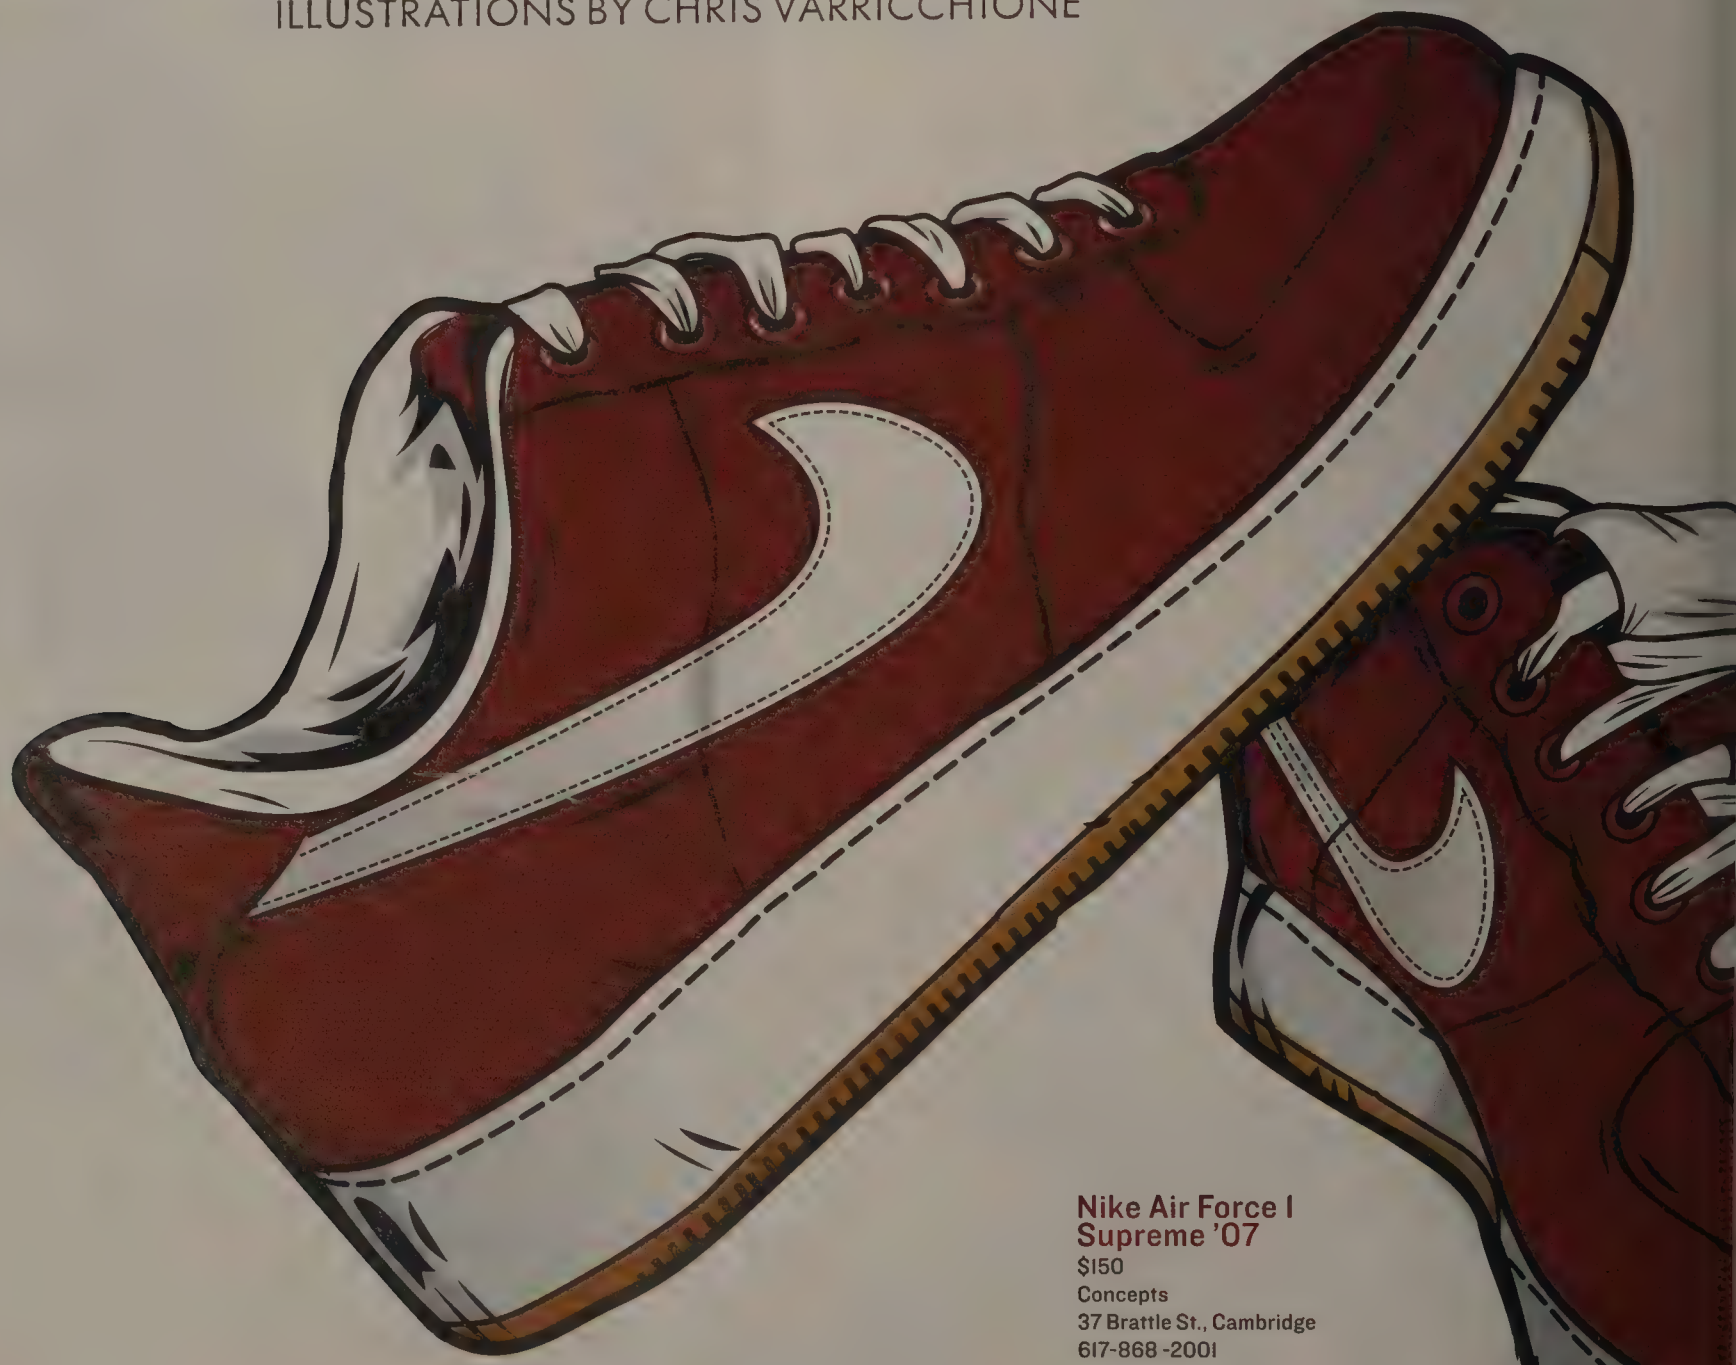
How would you describe your style? Tailored/edgy with a little dark side.

What are your most treasured pieces of clothing? I love Armani and D&G fitted jackets, because they fit perfectly, true to the size, no alterations needed. As for shoes, I'm addicted to very high heels, particularly those by Lanvin, YSL and Gucci; wear them all day long with no problems! I think shoes are the most important part of any ensemble; they can make or break an outfit. As for accessories, I wouldn't leave home without big dark sunglasses (even on a rainy day), big bulky men's watches and gloves.

Map out a shopping itinerary. Barneys is my all-time favorite. I go there for relaxation and retail therapy at least once a week, even if I don't buy anything. On my way back, I take a detour through Newbury, checking out Intermix and this cute little boutique called European Fashion. You can find some different and edgy pieces to incorporate into your wardrobe.

Who are your most prized clothing designers? D&G corset dresses (wearing them is like having an instant liposuction!), Jean Paul Gaultier (love the asymmetrical cuts), Pia_a Sempione pants for work, and my all-time favorite: Gucci from the Tom Ford era (eternally chic).

How does your style reflect your personality? Strong and unapproachable from the outside; however, soft and nice inside!

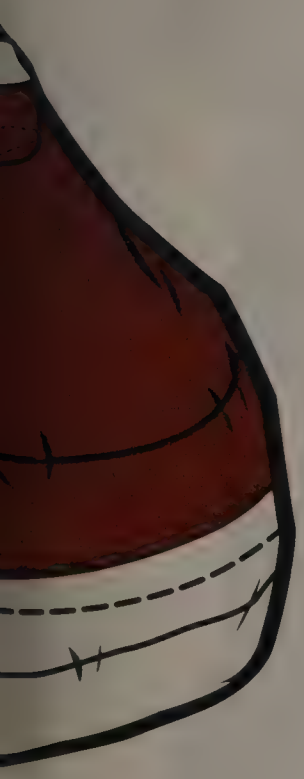


Who are your favorite style icons? Names, please! Audrey Hepburn and Carolyn Bessette Kennedy. Both were always effortlessly elegant and chic.

What's your fashion philosophy? Everything in black, with one touch of bright color, like a blue Birkin bag. And of course, extremely high heels!

Got Sole

LOCAL SNEAKER-HEADS DISH ON THE HOTTEST KICKS FOR FALL BY RICH LEVINE



ILLUSTRATIONS BY CHRIS VARRICCHIONE

Nike Air Force I Supreme '07
$150 Concepts
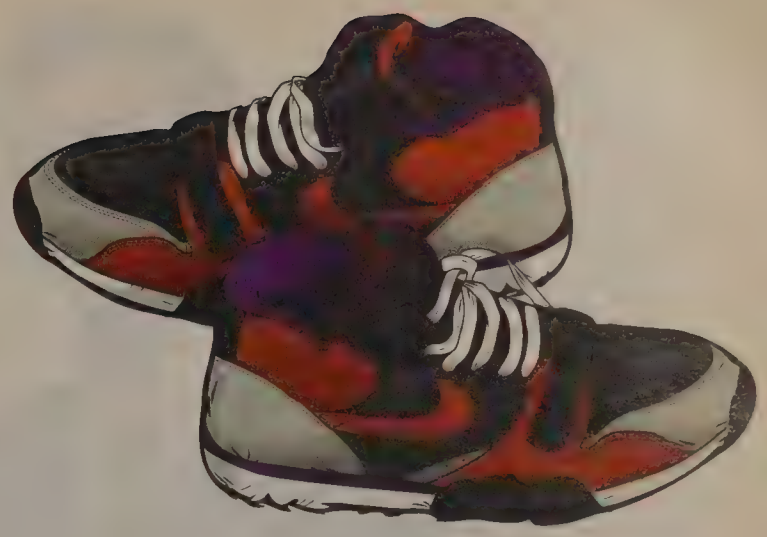
37 Brattle St., Cambridge
617-868-2001
www.cncpts.com

If you're new to the sneaker game, here's a helpful hint: You can't go wrong with a pair of Air Force Ones, and Concepts—which recently upgraded to a 3,000-square-foot space on Brattle Street—has one of the hottest AFI accounts out there. This fall, Nike celebrates 25 years of Air Force Ones with the '07 Supremes, and Concepts is the only place in town to find them.



Here's what you need to understand about the art of sneaker collecting: It's not what you have that counts, but what others don't have. Real sneaker-heads don't just bounce around town snatching up pairs in a race to build the biggest and baddest collection. Instead, they scour sneaker magazines and Web sites with the mania of Belichick breaking down game film and chart upcoming releases with an obsession that would make Mark David Chapman proud. Real sneaker-heads bide their time and only strike when they find a pair of shoes that will separate them from the pack, because the truth is, even the world's hottest sneaker seems about as sexy as Steve Buscemi in drag when it's sitting in the closet of every hack in the 617. ¶ Lucky for us, the sneaker culture in Boston is flourishing at a pace that should have the world's rubber meccas, including Manhattan and Tokyo, shaking in their designer kicks. Shops like Bodega, Laced, Concepts and A.W.O.L. rock the rights (aka exclusive accounts with various brands) to the kind of hard-to-find, limited edition lines the in-the-know die for. These shops have made the Hub a destination for sole lovers nationwide. ¶ For our Style Issue, we asked the leaders of Boston's sneaker-sphere to give us one hot shoe for the fall, and what follows are their picks. Now, you're probably thinking: "Won't hyping these shoes in print make them more mainstream, and in turn, less cool?" Damn, you're good. The answer is... maybe, but only slightly. In reality, this is merely an introduction to what these stores have to offer. You'll have to study up to really play.

Nike Dawn of the Dead Air Trainer I $100

Laced Boston
569 Columbus Ave., Boston
617-262-5223
www.lacedboston.com

The Nike Air Trainer I was Bo Jackson's original shoe, which pretty much confirms its cool factor, and the latest Nike Air Trainer I SB drop is set to murder the competition. These Dawn of the Dead–inspired sneaks pay tribute to the freaky 1978 flick and are part of the new Nike Horror Pack, which also channels Freddy Krueger and Jason Voorhees. Laced—one of the few Nike SB accounts in Boston—plans to have each of the set's items on shelves by Halloween.

Adidas Boston Super

$60
Adidas Retail
1270 Mass. Ave., Cambridge
617-864-1772
www.shopadidas.com

This summer, Boston was one of three NBA cities, along with New York and Los Angeles, included in the Adidas Original City Pack. Each sneaker is a unique model incorporating the home team's colors, and the Celtics' shoe is pretty badass. Wear them to the Garden. Wear them on St. Patty's Day (or anytime you're in Southie). Hell, you can wear them whenever you want, and know you're showing Boston a little love.

Alife 2007 Frog Pack Low

$125
A.W.O.L.
190 Harvard Ave., Allston
617-787-0600
www.awolboston.com

Alife—an independent company that made waves last year with its Wu Tang Clan sneaker collaboration—released its fall collection in late September, and it's available exclusively at A.W.O.L. The hot sneaker is from the brand's Deluxe Frog Pack, one of five new offerings. A post-purchase pour-out for ODB is not required, but definitely recommended.

Nike Air Rhyolite

$300
Bodega
6 Clearway St., Boston
www.bdgastore.com

The new Nike Tech Pack—a hipper, updated take on the old ACG line—is available at only seven stores nationally (and only two on the East Coast). Fortunately, Bodega is one of them. The king of the Tech Pack, which dropped Sept. 1, is the Air Rhyolite boot. Thanks to its high quality and durability, the Air Rhyolite is being called one of the most technologically advanced sneakers of its generation.

Oxford-cloth button-down
Silk knit tie with regimental stripe
Two-button wool flannel suit
Plain-front trousers
Black oxford
Fair Isle knit hat
English striped rowing scarf
English duffle coat
Tweed wool pants
Brown oxford

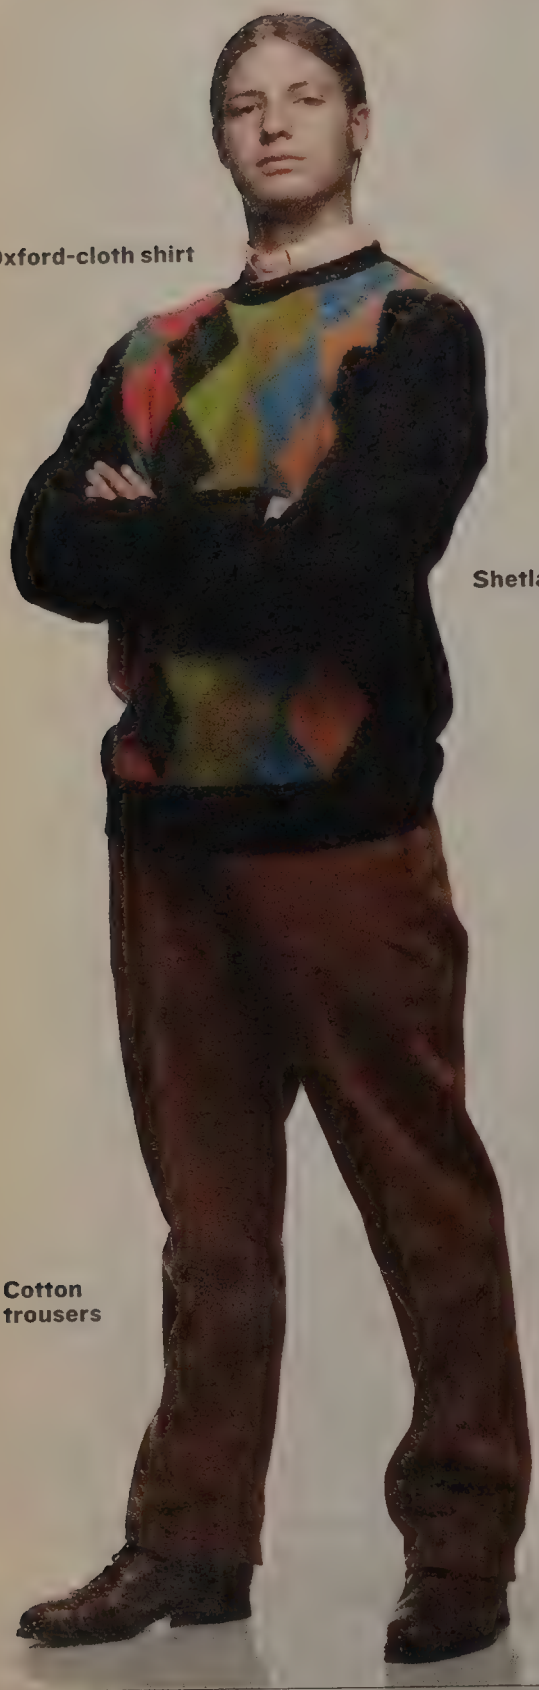
BOSTON'S SNAPPIEST DRESSERS WEREN'T BORN YESTERDAY. THEY JUST WANT TO LOOK THAT WAY. BY NATHANIEL ADAMS

PHOTOS BY TRACY POWELL

IT'S A Trad, Trad, World

When Americans think fashion, Boston may not immediately pop to mind. According to the owner of the Andover Shop, a local menswear retailer open since 1948, when it comes to clothes, "this is as conservative an area as you'll find in the country." But that very conservatism creates a niche market, and for a certain type of dresser, our city is ground zero. We're talking trad, as in traditional, and if you don't know the term, you probably know the look. Envision MSNBC talk show host Tucker Carlson in his blazer, khakis and bowtie. Carlson isn't wearing those old-timey clothes just to reflect old-timey politics. In fact, he's showing off a style of dress that's been popular (though lately under the radar) for the past half-century. ¶ Some folks associate trad with the Ivy League—absent-minded professors (and professor wannabes) briskly walking across manicured quads. Others identify it with the East Coast establishment: your Achesons, your Buckleys, your HW Bushes. What do these different types have in common? A fondness for leather shoes, flannel pants, cotton shirts and silk ties. In short, trad is a term for the style preferred by American gentlemen of bygone taste.

But before you glance in the mirror and declare yourself trad, let's discuss the finer points—and there are many. True practitioners take themselves much more seriously than the garden-variety prepster with a J.Crew card and a penchant for patchwork. Authentic trad has its own set of essential guidelines. Take those leather shoes: Lace-up oxfords are OK for work, but downtime (or casual Friday) calls for loafers. Pennies? Pretty good. Tassels? Perfection. ¶ To help you get a handle on these devilish details, we've put together the following glossary of basic vocab: the people, places and things that every trad needs to have in his address book or at the tip of his tongue.



Hello, My Name Is...

AskAndyAboutClothes.com (AAAC) Founded in 2001 by San Francisco–based writer Andy Gilchrist, this site is the first (and usually last) stop online for information and advice about men's fashion. Especially popular is the site's Trad Forum, a message board populated by polite, knowledgeable guys whose taste in clothes and class anxieties are straight out of The Man in the Gray Flannel Suit. Topics under debate range from the practical (who makes the best boat shoe?) to the ridiculous (are blazer and flannels déclassé?). There are also useful reference threads, which include a glossary like the one you're reading, albeit way, way more extensive; links to online retailers who specialize in the trad look; eBay sales of interest to board members; etc. By the way: If you want to blame someone for the word "trad," AAAC's forum says they invented it.

Preppy/Ivy League Common misnomers for the American traditional style. "Preppy" derives from the fact that the look once served young men attending prep schools with shirt-and-tie dress codes. (The original Andover Shop is literally a stone's throw from Phillips Academy, which incidentally no longer has a dress code.) But that word has been an insult for at least 20 years, and today it tends to connote the loud, obnoxious clothing preferred by loud, obnoxious tools, like bright Polos and patchwork madras pants; picture the villains in Wedding Crashers or any college student named Tyler. "Ivy League" is a less pejorative term, and more historically apt given that the style achieved full flower on college campuses in the 1950s. If you're uncomfortable with the class implications of the phrase, just consider that in Animal House—set in 1962 at a thinly veiled Dartmouth—most of the guys, slobs and snobs alike, dress like Andover Shop models. Of course, it ultimately doesn't matter what you call the look; just follow the rules, and let the clothes speak for themselves.

Trad From Head to Toe

Oxford-cloth button-down (OCBD) The preferred shirt of the traditional dresser. As the name implies, the shirt's essential characteristics are its fabric—oxford cloth, a sturdy cotton that can be quite soft—and its collar—the kind you hold in place by, um, buttoning it down. Once it meets those criteria, you can soup up your OCBD with dandyish details. Hypertraditionalists might go for a J. Press–style button-down flap over the breast pocket—not very useful, but pretty cool-looking. Less classic but more widely available would be a third button at the back of the collar, which is even less useful than the flap pocket and prone to destruction by dry cleaners. Acceptable/encouraged colors and patterns include white, blue, yellow and pink solids; university stripes (the light blue kind); and tattersall checks. Note: Although most upscale men's stores sell cuff links, trads generally prefer barrel cuffs (the kind you button) to French. Also, the less said about contrast-collar shirts, the better.

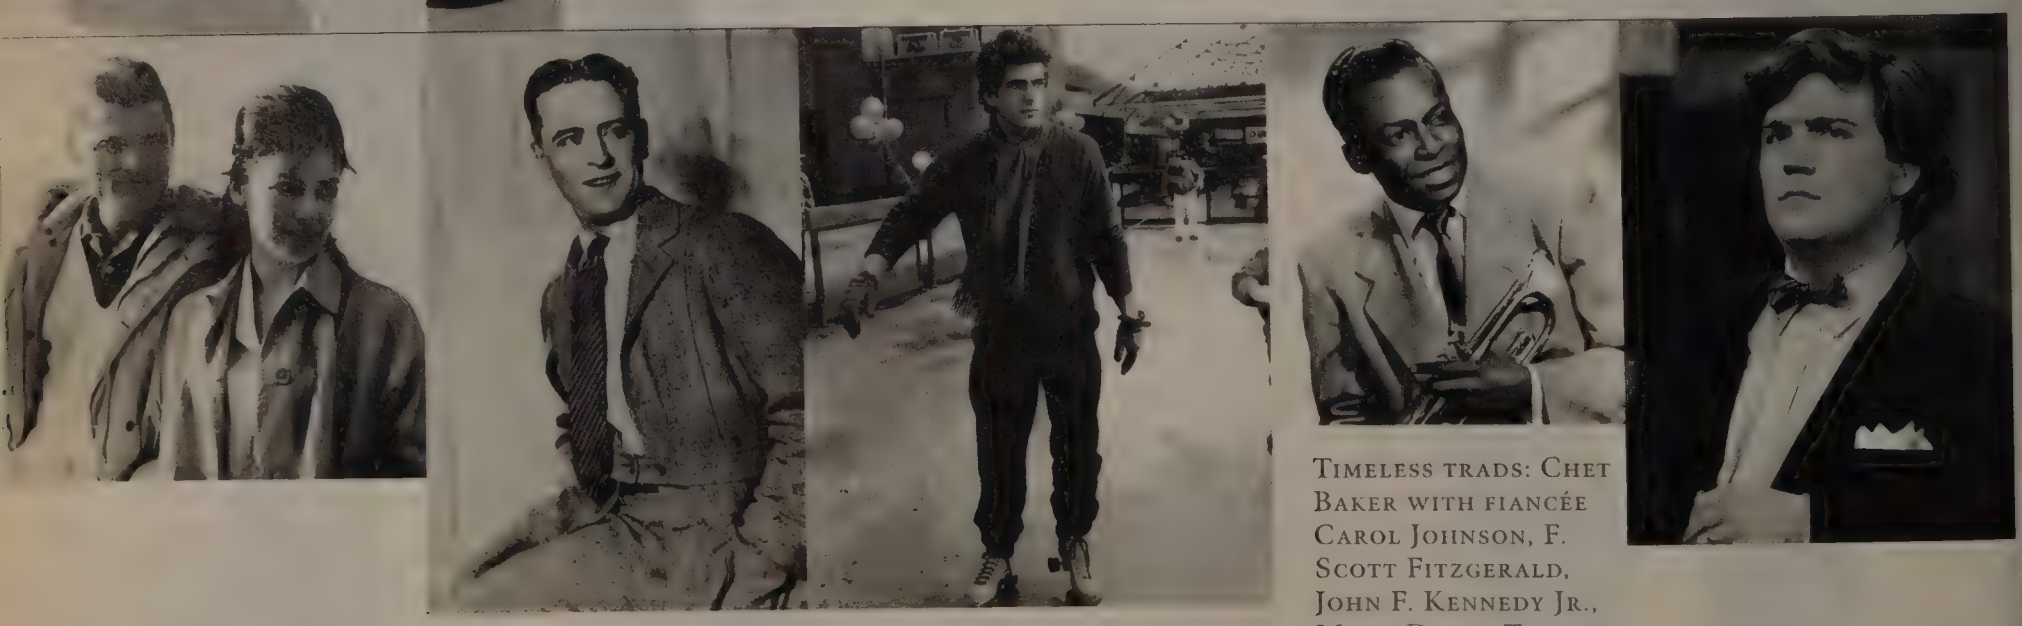
Rep tie Contrary to popular belief, the word "rep" doesn't refer to the hypnotic repeating patterns you see on traditional neckwear. (OK, maybe I'm the only one who thought that.) It's actually a bastardization of the French for "rib," and it refers to the weave of the silk such ties are made of. But silk, no matter how brightly it shines, is still kind of dull; so let's focus instead on what really catches the eye. There are really no wrong choices here, as long as you stick with the tightly controlled patterns: faux-British regimental stripes (usually running diagonally from top-left to bottom-right); white pin dots over a solid dark color; the rhomboid family of tiny checks, squares and diamonds; little blobby teardrops, also known as paisley; and sporty motifs like tiny pointer dogs or ducks in flight. In the summer, an appropriate alternative to stiff silk is ultrasoft madras cotton. Now you might be asking, are we talking neckties or bow ties? Answer: both, but if your fingers can handle the knot, go for the bow. The trad mantra regarding neckwear, paraphrasing Phil Gramm: I've got more bow ties than I need, but less than I want.

Sack An adjective applied to a suit or coat, acknowledging that it's little more than a bolt of cloth hanging from your shoulders. The sack coat has three distinct features. First, and to most traditionalists non-negotiable: no darts. Darts are nearly invisible seams running down the front of the jacket, parallel to the line of the buttons, that pull the sides in close to give the appearance of a tighter fit. Good for effete Europeans; bad for manly Americans. Second: a single vent in the rear. The vent is that slit, maybe a foot long, that lets the jacket part when you sit down. Side vents, which are relatively uncommon, make it easier to put your hands in your pockets; a rear vent makes it easier to sit in a riding saddle. Don't bother asking why traditionalists prefer the rear vent. Third: minimal shoulder padding to accentuate the length of your neck and create the "natural shoulder" look prized by men of leisure.

3/2 Refers to the buttons on a classic suit coat or odd jacket—single-breasted with three buttons, but the top one is covered by the roll of the jacket's lapel so that only the bottom two are visible. Now, you're probably wondering: What good is a button that can't be buttoned? It may not be functional, but its construction does require a fair amount of sewing skill, and useless details have a place on clothes—if they let the world know the wearer paid for high quality. Also note that the traditional jacket has subdued notch lapels, not the in-your-face peak lapels you commonly find on leisure suits, which hark back to a tradition we don't want any part of.

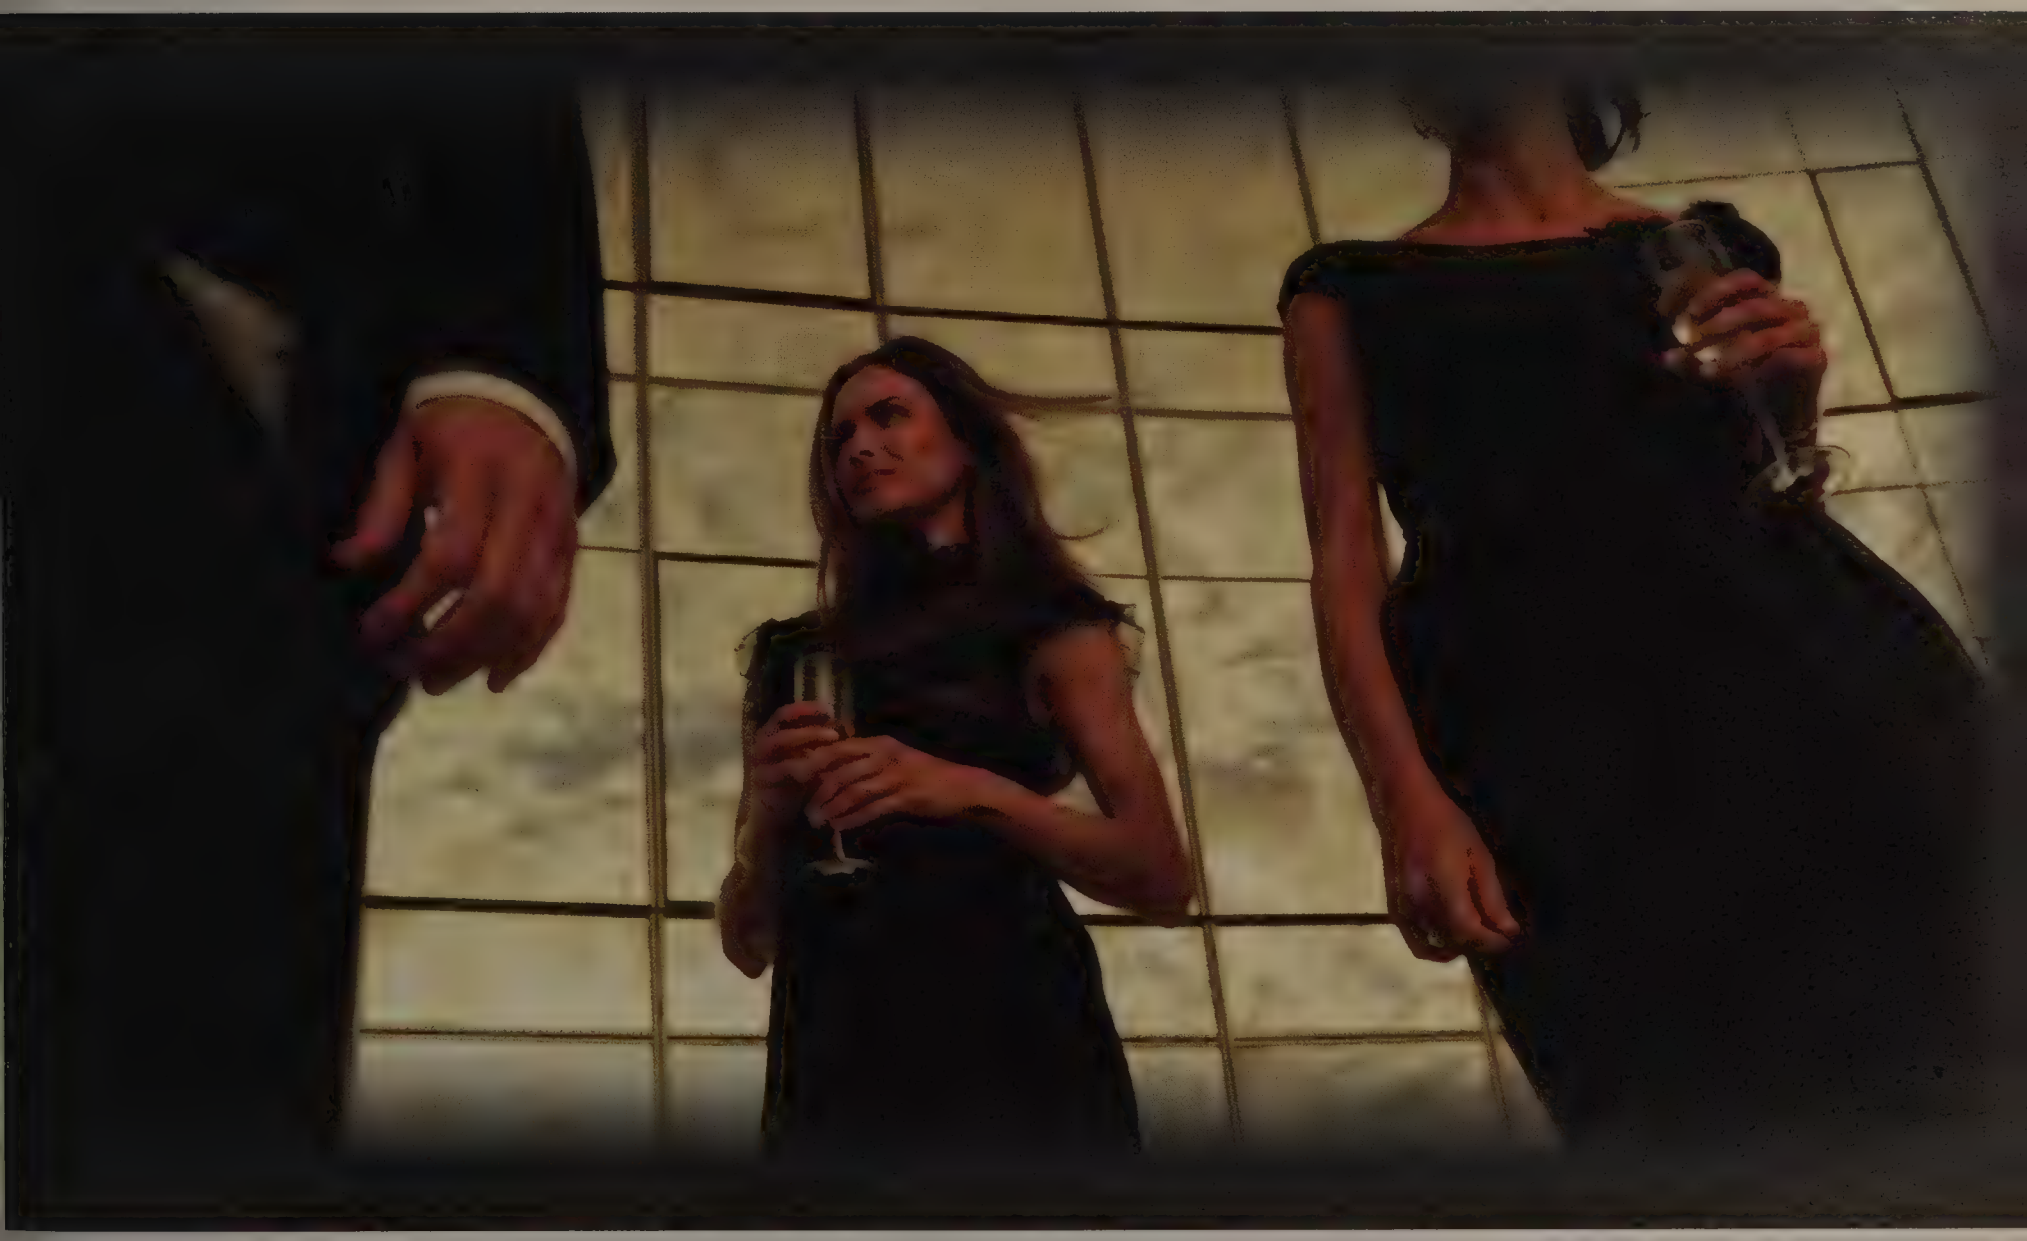
Pants OK, these don't need a definition per se, but you should keep in mind two guidelines. Just repeat to yourself every time you enter a store looking for a new pair: "Cuffs, yes; pleats, no." The cuffs should be, at a minimum, 1.5 inches high, though if you're feeling saucy you can go as high as 2 full inches. As for pleats... no. Just, no. Fabric-wise, the traditional (always natural) materials are flannel and corduroy for cool weather, cotton and khaki for warm. Trad Forum members are especially partial to the Bill's Khakis brand.



LHS 986 The Leisure Handsewn Color 8 Shell Cordovan penny loafer, manufactured by Middleborough-based Alden of New England. This is the Holy Grail of classic footwear, and it comes at a price: Expect to drop something in the neighborhood of half a grand for a single pair. If you—or your significant other—aren't ready to take that plunge, you've got lots of alternatives to choose from: Allen-Edmonds and Sebago make a number of suitable options that will tide your feet over while you pinch those 50,000 pennies. (FYI: "Color 8" is Alden-speak for burgundy, and "shell cordovan" is a heavily pampered leather. "Leisure Handsewn" means "You can't put a price on style this dapper, but we did our best.")

Where It's At

Brooks Brothers (B2) Ostensible inventors of the American traditional look, they claim to have introduced to our country such classic menswear staples as ready-to-wear suits, the button-down collar, Shetland sweaters (see below), seersucker and argyle socks. Notwithstanding the company's recent deviations from trad orthodoxy—exhibit A: their non-iron dress shirts—AAAC members agree that no wardrobe is complete without a few B2 OCBDs in the primary colors.



J. Press One of the main reasons people call this style the "Ivy League" look. Founded as a custom-tailoring shop in New Haven in the early 1900s, followed by expansion to Harvard Square, New York City and Washington, D.C. (as well as now-closed stores in Princeton and San Francisco), Press comes up often in the Trad Forum and is usually mentioned in near-reverential tones. It's not that they can do no wrong (search for "J. Press 'Daddy' tie" if you want to witness the wrath of trads); but customers know that the bulk of Press' merchandise will meet their very particular needs. Bonus: You can start building a traditional wardrobe on the cheap(ish) at their semiannual store-wide sales.

Scotland Home to many, many sheep, and hence the producer of much raw material used in trad clothing. Two wools merit special mention: Shetland and Harris Tweed. Every fall, J. Press and the Andover Shop stock their shelves with fuzzy Shetland sweaters in various shades of heather, and their racks brim with tweed jackets appropriate for a stroll in the moors.

Timeless trads: Chet Baker with fiancée Carol Johnson, F. Scott Fitzgerald, John F. Kennedy Jr., Miles Davis, Tucker Carlson

YOU MAY HAVE ARRIVED, BUT YOUR SENSES WILL WANT TO KEEP TRAVELING.

hen you enter from the Greenway, warm smiles and "welcomes" greet you from points along the expansive lobby. You continue down the eaming marble floor past the RumBa lounge which is in full swing and arrive at the harbor entrance. The InterContinental Gardens are ive with locals and guests enjoying the evening. The pleasant chatter and laughter of diners and drinkers intermingles with the music from ıshiTeq and the waft of French cuisine from Miel, "Brasserie Provencal." Order a drink? Maybe a bite to eat? Or, just take in the wide open y across the Harbor. Inside or outside, it's good to be in Boston.

Do you live an InterContinental life?

USHITEQ

RumBa
RUM & CHAMPAGNE BAR

MIEL
Brasserie Provençale

INTERCONTINENTAL
BOSTON

510 Atlantic Avenue • 617.747.1000
www.intercontinentalboston.com

Ignite your winter with a modern dress that's both traditional and trendy. Short sleeves and a patent leather belt add up to sizzling heat. Red and ecru fancy tweed high waisted dress, $5,690 at Chanel

Loud and Clear

INFUSE YOUR WARDROBE WITH EXTROVERTED PIECES THAT SET YOU APART FROM THE CROWD

FASHION EDITOR VICTOR VARGAS

PHOTOGRAPHS PAUL ARESU

This military-influenced jacket, with its exquisite cut and designer dog tag command attention. Black wool coat by Burberry Prorsum, $2,250 at Burberry. Pavé black diamond and silver dog tag necklace, $1,200, large, elongated silver alligator necklace, $580. Both at David Yurman.

The new must-have for men this winter, an Astrakhan fur has rock-star sex appeal. Gray Astrakhan coat, $26,890 at Gucci.

Up the drama at any cocktail soiree with this exquisite confection. Gray velvet, raffia and feather hat, Dior by John Galliano, $1,255 at Dior.

The latest It bag to emerge from this goddess fashion house, the Hit purse is high on glamour and not for the meek. White fur Hit bag, $4,750 at Versace.

HAIR: HIKARI TEZUKA/
STOCKLAND MARTEL, NYC

MAKEUP: LANDY DEAN FOR EDRIS SALON/STOCKLAND
MARTEL, NYC

MODELS: ELENA P,
NY MODELS AND PAUL
ANTHONY/REQUEST
MANAGEMENT

DIGITAL IMAGING:
JUSTIN PAGUIA

PHOTO ASSISTANT:
CHRISTOPHE RANDALL

FASHION ASSISTANTS:
MARIEL KOED, ASHLEY
KUJAWSKI AND SEVAST
TUSTIN

STORES:

BURBERRY
2 NEWBURY ST
617-236-1000

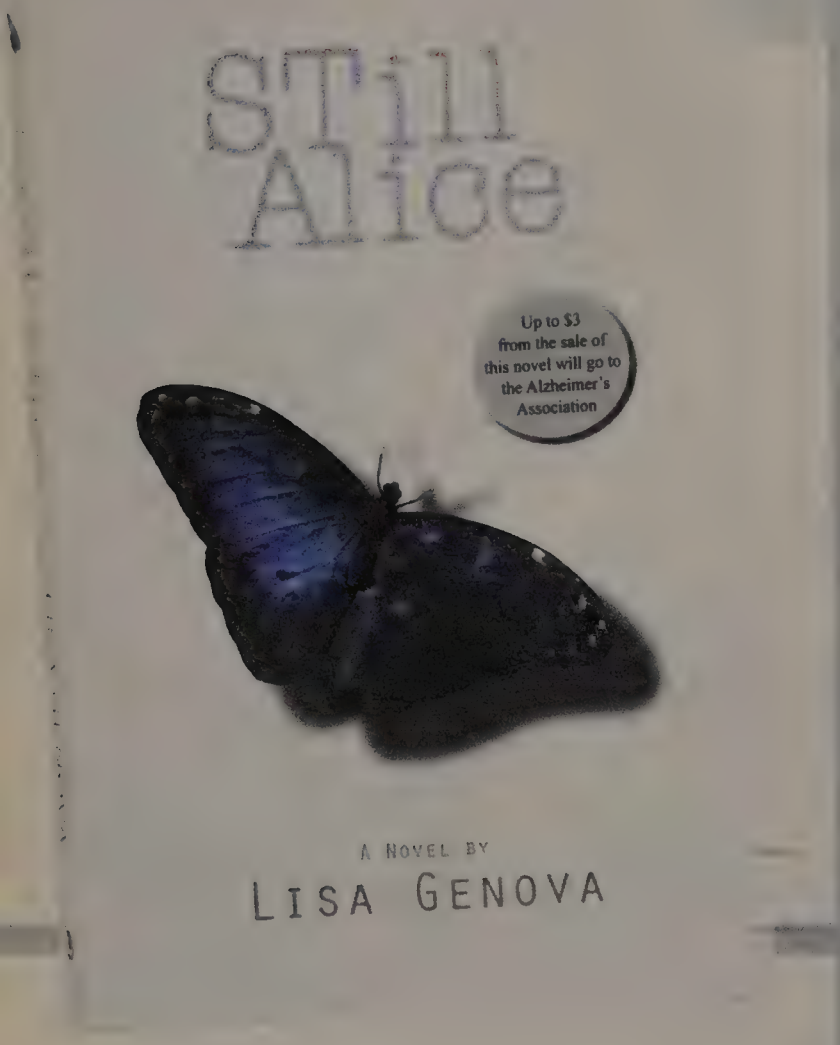
CHANEL
5 NEWBURY ST
617-859-0055

DAVID YURMAN
COPLEY PLACE
617-236-8777

DIOR
COPLEY PLACE
617-927-7577

ERMENEGILDO ZEGNA
39 NEWBURY ST
617-424-6657

GUCCI
COPLEY PLACE
617-247-3000



VERSACE
647 5TH AVE., NYC
212-317-0224

RETRO ELEGANCE IN THIS '40S-INSPIRED COLLECTION COMES ACROSS IN STYLIZED FISHERMAN PANTS, GRAY ANKLE BOOTS AND CLASSIC FABRICS. GRAY DOUBLE-BREASTED JACKET, $895; STRIPED COTTON DRESS SHIRT, $125; CHARCOAL CREWNECK SWEATER, $595; GRAY PLAID WOOL BUTTON-CUFF TROUSERS, $350; GRAY LEATHER PERFORATED BOOTS, $595. ALL BY Z ZEGNA AT ERMENEGILDO ZEGNA.

MOPSY

SERENDIPITOUS SHOPPING: OUR UNFETTERED CORRESPONDENT SEEKS OUT THE SALUBRIOUS AND THE CEREBRAL.

BY MOPSY STRANGE KENNEDY

WHAT A TANGLED NEURON WE WEAVE

Still Alice*, a novel by neuroscientist Lisa Genova, tracks early-onset Alzheimer's in a Harvard professor.

Into the sunshiney life of 50-year-old Harvard professor Alice Howland, who teaches psycholinguistics, come a few disturbing ripples. She gets lost on her familiar path home from Harvard Square. Then, lecturing, she forgets the word "lexicon," and only remembers it days later when she sees the acronym LAX in a California airport. Alice, confused, visits the class she teaches as if she were a student whose professor never showed up. Lisa Genova, a Harvard-trained neuroscientist, gracefully chronicles the gathering oddness of it all. The crazy cubism of Alice's perceptions are such that at times her family members seem like third-person strangers: some woman, actually her daughter, is talking to some man, her colleague-husband John, but they're drained of familiarity and context. She forgets recent conversations, and more and more things become a "thingy." Family dynamics with John and their three children, one of whom has been drifting and battling tensely with Alice, all get reshuffled as she begins to evaporate. Genova gives us Alice's own baffled perspective, sometimes poetically, as she has to quit her job to inhabit, willy-nilly this new identity, and confront the frightened love and frustrations felt by her family.

FUNKY, VINTAGE FUN

Babs and Whoopi have shopped the Cambridge Antique Market (201 Msgr. O'Brien Highway, Cambridge; 617-868-9655; www.marketantique.com).

Allow lots of time to roam around these five floors in an ancient daze and a trance of nostalgia. Around 150 booths hold treasures of many pasts: it may be sterling silver clamshells or formal serving spoons from the era of some mythic, classy grandmother. Seemingly, a party is eternally about to happen with punch bowls, ladles and delicately etched glasses awaiting sociable ghostly guests. Chic Armani dresses, fur coats, elaborately embroidered frocks and jazzy beaded bags create one feeling here. But equally mixed with Upper Yesteryear are nostalgic tableaux, one celebrating the '70s, all innocent cheer and comic-book sexiness, painted in the pinks and beiges of the time. A glittery world of highly ornamental jewelry is available: estate pieces or the bubbly, baubly colorful costume variety want to be wrapped around an occasion. One cozy little shrine sports is filled with eternal- guys, fan-worthy hats, baseb and dreamy photos, as well as elaborate toys that enshrine athletic stars of the past: a jack the-box delivers Davy Crock Furniture goes from utilitarian up to a well-upholstered, ve Empire sofa.

HANDS ON, SOMETIMES FROM AFAR

Learn energy healing at one-day workshops with Ulrike and Denis Dettling-Kalthofer of Arlington Reiki Associates (366 Mass. Ave., Suite 304, Arlington; 781-648-9334; arlingtonreiki.com).

Once touched by the soothing, nonagitating hands of a reiki practitioner, you know something mysteriously affecting travels between participants. This harnessing of universal energy was rediscovered in Japan in the 1800s. You can start on the path to giving and receiving treatments in classes with Ulrike and Denis Dettling-Kalthofer who offer gradual development through stages, potentially leading to reiki master. Delivering reiki to yourself, says rike, is like riding a bike; having it done is like being chauffeured. Probably in a Prius. Reiki invo what Denis calls, the Four Ps: the Present, "you are healing" (not the vaguer, promissory "you will Positive tilt that banishes the word "pain" in favor of streamingly-ameliorative words like "healin stance that emphasizes the Possible, all of it Personally addressed to you. A golden, peaceful aura i duced with a warmth-delivering touch and certain sacred symbols. Treatments involves customi positive affirmations. For pain and trauma, before or after surgery (when people report a pleasa meditative distance from the medical crunch that's happening), Reiki feels wonderful. It can als emanated long-distance to a recipient elsewhere.

HEALTHWORKS
FITNESS CENTERS FOR WOMEN

visit

Do you want to see what Healthworks is all about? Join us now through October 14th for the annual Healthworks Open House. For more information on our special programs and daily events, visit us at www.healthworksfitness.com/openhouse07

Part mind, part body, all gym – entirely for women.

Back Bay · Brookline · Cambridge · Chestnut Hill · Salem

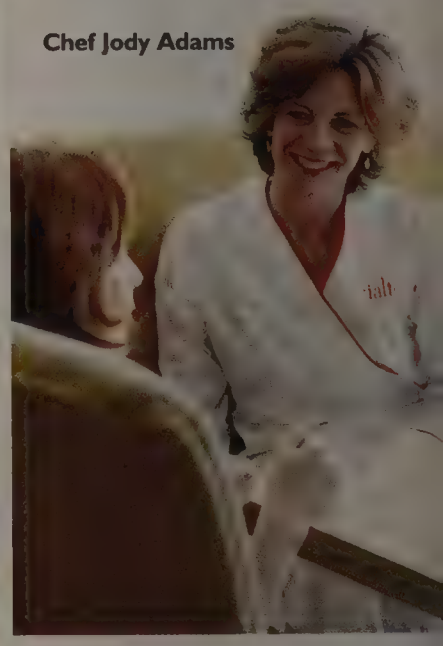
www.healthworksfitness.com
www.healthworksfoundation.org

Join during Open House and receive a $50 Gift Card.*

be 18 years of age or older

REVIEW

RIALTO REINVENTED



Most dishes shine, but a few classics stumble

BY J. CHARLES MOKRISKI • PHOTOGRAPHS BY ANTHONY TIEULI

The exquisite Rialto Bridge over Venice's Grand Canal epitomizes the visual charms of that city. In similar fashion, Rialto, Jody Adams' luxurious Italian restaurant in Cambridge's Charles Hotel, has come to symbolize upscale, ambitious dining in what some consider the epicenter of the universe. With lively Harvard Square at its doorstep and serious culinary competition from the likes of Upstairs on the Square, Om and other eateries nearby, Rialto has developed a vocal and enthusiastic following in Boston and beyond.

Since she amicably parted ways with former partner Michela Larson, whose popular Rocca debuted in SoWa earlier this year, Adams commissioned a makeover of Rialto's interior, which created distinct, hospitable areas ranging from the chic 20-seat bar and cocktail lounge to a main dining room with small alcoves, an open antipasti station and upholstered banquettes. A smaller room, suitable for private parties, makes an elegant statement with a black wall-covering and salmon upholstered chairs. In the far corner of the restaurant, the Parker Room looks out onto Harvard Square through tall windows flanked by classic white shutters.

Grilled littlenecks

Chef Jody Adams

My dinners at Rialto started auspiciously with a basket of remarkably light wheat rolls baked in house, with crust at once crisp and chewy, served with aromatic extra virgin olive oil and a small mound of rock salt. Staving off hunger with the terrific bread, my perusal of the wine list revealed inviting, reasonably priced reds despite a warning from an earlier review that the serious choices start at $50 a bottle. Serious or not, a glass of Coltibuono Cetamura Chianti ($8) proved pleasant and fruity but with good acidity. Even better was the 2004 Umberto Caesare "Moma" ($35), a blend of sangiovese and cabernet sauvignon from Umbria. Fruit forward, it proved more substantial than the Chianti, with good structure and a fine finish. A rosé from Italy's Veneto region, Corte Marzago Bardolino Chiaretto ($35), combined beautiful color with mouth-filling flavor and lively effervescence. Finally, a glass of primitivo ($8) from Italy's south hit the spot—robust, full-bodied and lacking the ponderous character that has caused me to be leery of wines of the Mezzogiorno.

Of the appetizers, the Tuscan tomato soup ($12) made a simple but eloquent statement. Thickened with bread, it let the natural, sweet and tangy flavor of the tomatoes speak for themselves without untoward interference by the kitchen. A simple salad of farm lettuce with cucumbers, tomatoes, basil salsa, radishes and cheese ($12) refreshed and charmed, the addition of corn giving it a mellow sweetness. Provençal fisherman's soup ($12), a full-bodied, flavorful preparation based on rich fish stock, came in a traditional small white tureen accompanied by basil oil, rouille and shredded Gruyère cheese. Deserving of its status on the menu as a "Rialto Classic," the soup summoned memories of the French Riviera. "Perfect" grilled littleneck clams with andouille sausage and toasted garlic bread ($16), also grouped with the classics, elevated presentation over substance. Six tiny littleneck clams, well-seasoned joined by a couple spicy sausage slice rived on a small cast-iron grill, but minimalism (in size as well as art) le puzzled as to their "classic" pro Grilled porcini mushrooms ($13), hanced here by nuggets of pleasantly pancetta, displayed the distinctive f of these popular fungi.

Pasta courses included a well-exec risotto ($11), its texture both creamy al dente, its flavor redolent of extra v olive oil and fresh basil. The Sardi semolina gnocchi ($12) combined d chewy texture with sv salty-smoky pancetta, pa and bottarga, a preserved dinian fish roe that tributed a distinctive s Rialto's delectable pasta b nese ($13) added two wrinkles to this familiar ing: by using lamb in the along with the usual veal pork, and by substituting ularly cut fragments of h made pasta for long noo Beet ravioli ($13), tende lows of pasta filled with toes and stracciatella ch had a pleasing sweetness accentuated garnish of small cubes of yellow beet nally among the pastas, spaghetti and ster ($18), another Rialto classic, spa debate at our table, with comments

RIALTO

1 Bennett St., Cambridge
617-661-5050
www.rialto-restaurant.com
HOURS Mon.–Fri., 5:30–10 pm; Sat., 5:30–11 pm; Sun., 5:30–9 pm
RESERVATIONS recommended
CREDIT CARDS Visa, MasterCard, AmEx
HANDICAPPED ACCESSIBLE yes
PARKING garage
LIQUOR LICENSE full

g from "good but xceptional" to "sub." It was duly ed, however, that he end, the bowl empty, and the l-constructed sauce
n meaty chunks of atoes and sautéed
on had been pped into obliv-
by the people had previously ried the dish as exceptional."
wo of the three n courses I tried ialto did not fare
ell as the superb
pastas and pastas.
ning first to the
-roasted duck
6), another clas-
I found the flesh
orful but its texture dense and its rred skin disappointingly dry. On a equent night I went for the most ex-sive dish in the Rialto repertoire, fe's Neck Farm sirloin steak ($43), yet ther classic. I ordered it "on the rare of medium rare," but it arrived a gray-shade of pink, dry and without the ness of a properly grilled steak at that eness. A second attempt by the hen erred on the other side—the reement was unseared on the outside uncooked within. With the law of di-ishing returns setting in, I requested server wrap the steak so we could cook t home at a later time. The next ing, after sizzling for a few seconds on t-iron griddle, the steak lived up to its ng with the intense, satisfying beef fla-that its dry-aging was designed to eve. Moreover, its garnishes, sautéed abella mushrooms, arugula and en-
, survived the reheating and, together truffle oil and shavings of Parmigiano giano cheese, made the dish special.

Chocolate crèma

When we moved from the highest-priced main course to the lowest, the selection of baby chicken (at $28, the only entree under $30) rewarded us with a whole chicken grilled under a brick, its crisp skin and moist flesh enhanced by a garnish of a pickled nectarine, plump, al dente pole beans and more shavings of Parmigiano Reggiano.

Of Rialto's desserts, the chocolate crèma ($10) took first prize with its heavenly texture and intense chocolate flavor. Flourless chocolate cake, of which this appeared to be an exemplar, has found its way on to almost every restaurant menu in the city. Many are forgettable, but this one was not.

Service, meanwhile, varied from solicitous to hurried, but it remained professional throughout. Especially memorable was the hospitality shown by Rialto's knowledgeable and gracious front-of-the-house manager and sommelier, who assisted us in getting value and enjoyment from the wine list and insisted on taking the errant steak off of our bill. iB

Tuscan tomato soup

DISH

It's All North From Here

Eclano brings a new face to Salem Street

BY CAROLYN FAYE FOX

Renowned for its charming adherence to cultural identity, Boston's North End has a parallel reputation for a not-so-charming insularity that's made "outsiders"—particularly African-Americans—feel less than welcome in the neighborhood. Well, just like the Central Artery, that negative rep may finally be biting the dust, thanks to a resident North Ender who's hired a fabulously well-credentialed—and yes, black—executive chef to head up the kitchen at Eclano, her Salem Street restaurant.

"You don't have to be Italian to cook Italian food," says Caterina DiPrisco. You do, however, need the kind of experience that Jerome Watkins—who's worked with Mario Batali at Esca in Manhattan and Lydia Shire at Excelsior—draws on to prepare traditionally based Italian dishes, often with sides of specialty grains such as fregola and faro. Watkins, who started to make a name for himself in Boston as the opening chef for the since-closed South Kitchen, is determined to attract more diners with $25, three-course "Neighborhood Nights" dinners on Mondays and Tuesdays. No blah-blah chicken or salmon here—instead, expect mostly items from the regular menu, such as hand-made ricotta and pumpkin ravioli with crispy sage and balsamic reduction, and main-dish choices such as grilled venison chop, leg and juniper sausage with gnocchi, or roasted duck breast and confit with kale and quinoa.

Combine DiPrisco's practicality—"These are tough economic times" for many people, she says—and Watkins' ambition—"We want people to be wowed"—and, well, here comes the neighborhood.

Eclano chef Jerome Watkins

Sandrine's on Speed

After closing for a mere 24 hours, Sandrine's in Harvard Square has reopened with a totally revamped decor and a maple-backed bar, all the better to feature the freshly won full liquor license that's inspired both a new bar menu—featuring escargots, mussels and a variety of flammekueche—and signature cocktails, such as the Provençal martini: Citadelle Vodka shadowed by picholine olives and their murky brine.

Nibbles

It's his very first executive-chef position, but Marco Suarez is hitting the ground running in that role at Eastern Standard fore helping to open Bouchée on New Street as executive sous chef, Suarez Andy Husbands' sous chef at Trem 647 and also worked in the kitchens of of the Hub and BlackFin.... Cheers! acquiring a full liquor license, Lumièr West Newton has installed a five-sea and will soon introduce a new menu cocktail list...

Portsmouth and Your Mouth

On the other end of the spectrum tourist trap pub grub and barely an north of Boston, Black Trumpet Bistr as they say, worth the drive... and with Boston connection. In the rustic brick dlery formerly home to the famous Strawbery, and more recently to the famous Lindbergh's Crossing, chef/o Evan Mallett—who years ago wrote very "Dish" column—is serving a spiced with Spanish and North Africa fluences. Flavors are bold, vivid and balanced, as in a "medium dish" of ba salad: briny salt cod, chewy bacon and sweet Brussels sprouts harmonizing smooth maple-glazed squash and assert herbaceous arugula pesto. The upstairs bar boasts a lighter repast of "little di like tomato-braised octopus with chori

Serving Dish

Seen a food fight? Got a restaurant rant? Send dish@improper.com.

INTRODUCING LUXURY CONDOMINIUMS AT NATICK COLLECTION.
NEW ENGLAND'S NEWEST LIVING, DINING AND SHOPPING DESTINATION.

WHERE LIFE AND STYLE COME TOGETHER.

Nouvelle at Natick combines the best of urban conveniences with the comforts of suburban living. Mixed-use. Maintenance-free. Full-service. Park views. Private entrance. Secured parking. Reminiscent of The Belvedere at Boston's Prudential Center, Nouvelle is an oasis of calm on one hand; instant access to upscale shopping, dining and a multitude of services on the other. Nouvelle at Natick truly is a whole new way to live.

EXCITING AMENITIES
- Bosse Sports fitness center
- Piano lounge
- Screening room
- Expansive roof garden

NATICK COLLECTION
Neiman Marcus, Nordstrom and many other shops, restaurants, and other conveniences all just an elevator ride away

LUXE FINISHES
- Granite countertops
- Marble tile
- Stainless steel appliances
- Hardwood flooring

FULL SERVICES
- 24-hour doorman
- Managed by Barkan Management
- On-site storage
- Private, secured parking
- Valet dry cleaning

NOUVELLE℠ at NATICK

A WHOLE NEW WAY TO LIVE℠

ONE, TWO AND THREE BEDROOMS FROM THE $400s TO OVER $1 MILLION

VISIT OUR SALES GALLERY ON THE SECOND LEVEL OF THE NEW NATICK COLLECTION, ADJACENT TO NEIMAN MARCUS
Sales Gallery open Monday - Saturday, 10am - 10pm, Sunday, 11am - 6pm, appt. recommended

877.723.0283 NOUVELLEATNATICK.COM EXCLUSIVE SALES AND MARKETING / OTIS & AHEARN

Don't Miss Boston's Biggest Comedy Event

See Lewis Black, Denis Leary and the hottest comedy contest in the east! Buy a ticket to either the Emerson 30 Years show or Lewis Black & Friends and get a ticket to the finals for only $15. Go to www.maj.org for details. Call 1-800-233-3123 and request code LAUGH07 for tickets.

30 YEARS of COMEDY at Emerson
Thursday, 10/11 at 7:30pm
Featuring: Denis Leary, Bill Burr, Anthony Clark, Eddie Brill, & Bill Dana

LEWIS BLACK & FRIENDS
Friday, 10/12 at 8:30pm
Featuring: Lewis Black, Ed Byrne, DJ Hazzard, & Lizz Winstead

FESTIVAL FINALS Comedy Award
Saturday, 10/13 at 8:15pm
Top comedians compete for $10,000 in prize money. With special Guests Shelley Berman, Bill Dana & Lewis Black

BOSTON COMEDY FESTIVAL
Classic Rock 1065 WROR
Vin Di Bona Productions
Emerson College
cn8 THE comcast NETWORK
SOUTHWEST.COM
comcast
www.bostoncomedyfestival.com

TASTINGS

BY RICH LEVINE

Advice to Contributors
Submit listings by mail or e-mail (tastings@improper.com). Include address, phone number, ticket price, dates and times, the nearest T stop and a brief description of the event. Deadline is four weeks prior to publication. Listings cannot be accepted over the phone.

Events

Bernard Magrez Wine Dinner
Bravo at the MFA, 465 Huntington Ave., Boston (617-369-3474). www.mfa.org. MBTA: E Green Line to Museum. Oct. 10, 6 pm. $95. Chef Jacqueline Kelly prepares a five-course dinner—featuring dishes like braised short rib, squash salad and foie gras torchon—paired with wines from Bernard and Philippe Magrez.

Biodynamic Wines
UpStairs on the Square, 92 Winthrop St., Cambridge (617-864-1933). www.upstairsonthesquare.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. Oct. 16, 6:30 pm. $80. Stephanie Harris from Wilson Daniels Ltd. leads a discussion and sampling of biodynamic wines from around the world. The tasting is accompanied by a multi-course dinner.

Butcher Series
Savenor's Market, 92 Kirkland St., Cambridge (617-576-6328). www.savenorsmarket.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. Oct. 13, 3-4 pm. $25. Ron Savenor leads a seminar on preparing Scottish meats from the field and stream.

Epicurean Evenings
Aujourd'hui at the Four Seasons, 200 Boylston St., Boston (617-351-2037). www.fourseasons.com/boston/dining.html. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Tue., 6 pm. $45. Sommelier Brick Loomis and chef William Kovel host this weekly wine event that offers three light courses built around a theme, region or grape variety. •Oct. 16: Santa Barbara. •Oct. 23: Pasa Robles.

Far Nienre/Nickel & Nickel Dinner
The Wine Cellar at Legal Sea Foods, 26 Park Plaza, Boston (617-530-9397). MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Oct. 23, 7:30 pm. $165. Master of wine Sandy Block and Far Niente's Larry Maguire host this five-course dinner, featuring dishes including poached Atlantic cod, seared foie gras and herb-crusted venison—all paired with Far Niente and Nickel & Nickel wines.

Fireside Chats
The Fireplace, 1634 Beacon St., Brookline (617-975-1900). www.fireplacerest.com. MBTA: C Green Line to Washington. Oct. 20, 3 pm. $25. The Fireplace hosts experts who share their knowledge of white wine blends.

Hot Off the Vine
33 Restaurant, 33 Stanhope St., Boston (617-572-3311). www.33restaurant.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington or Orange Line to Back Bay. Wed., 5-7 pm. $20-$40. Join chef Anthony Dawodu and wine director Paul Westerkamp for a sampling of four wines paired with food tastings.

In the Kitchen
Rustic Kitchen, 210 Stuart St., Boston (617-423-5700). www.rustickitchen.biz. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Fri., 6:30 pm. $50. On Fridays, Alissa Bigelow hosts an interactive cooking class. The October–November program is entitled "Fall Harvest Pasta."

Lobster Night at Lineage
Lineage, 242 Harvard St., Brookline (617-232-0065). www.lineagerestaurant.com. MBTA: C Green Line to Coolidge Corner. Sun., 5-9 pm. $45. Every Sunday, Lineage chef Jeremy S wall presents a three-course, prix-fixe lobst dinner paired with diffrent wines, includi Olivier Leflaive Bourgogne Blanc from Bu gundy and Molnar Family Chardonnay fr Napa Valley.

Monday Flight Night
Salvatore's, 225 Northern Ave., South Bost (617-737-5454). MBTA: Red Line to Broa way. Mon., 6-8 pm. $15. Every Monday, S vatore's offers four cocktail infusions, inclu ing the Cherry Bomb, Starfruit and Cocon Strawberry.

Monday Night Wine Club
Ashmont Grill, 555 Talbot St., Dorchester (61 825-4300). www.ashmontgrill.com. MBT #22 Bus to Talbot Ave. Mon., 6-8 pm. $2 Each Monday, four to five wine selections served on the patio, accompanied by sm plates of seasonal food.

Party Under the Harvest Moon
Morss Hall, 142 Memorial Drive, Cambri (617-868-2900, ext. 132). www.foodforfr org. MBTA: Red Line to Kendall/MIT. Oct. 6-10 pm. $50-$60. Enjoy a sampling of fare spired by the fall harvest from local resta rants, including Casablanca, Emma's and U Stairs on the Square, at this annual event benefit the Food for Free Committee.

Sake Bomb Sundays
Uni Restaurant, 370A Comm. Ave., Bost (617-536-7200). www.cliorestaurant.co MBTA: Green Line to Hynes. Sun., 6 pm. $ Chefs Ken Oringer and Chris Chung prep a weekly four-course dinner from the sashi bar, and afterward guests wash it down wit sake bomb.

Steak Frites Fridays at Pigalle
Pigalle, 75 Charles St. South, Boston (617-4 4944). www.pigalleboston.com. MBTA: Gre Line to Boylston. Fri. $35. Sundays this fall, galle offers a prix-fixe, steak-frites–themed d ner that also features live music.

Tuesday Night Wine Tasting
Les Zygomates, 129 South St., Boston (617-5 5108). www.winebar.com. MBTA: Red Line South Station. Tue., 7 pm. $30. Sommel Geoffrey Fallon leads a tasting of a them wine paired with hors d'oeuvres made by c Ian Just, who also offers cooking demonst tions. •Oct. 16: Loire Valley. •Oct. 23: Pet Syrah.

Wine and Dine Mondays
Beacon Hill Bistro, 25 Charles St., Boston (6 723-7575). www.beaconhillhotel.com. MBT Red Line to Charles/MGH. First and third Mon each month. 7 pm, $55. Chef Jason Bond p pares a four-course meal paired with vari wines from around the world. A brief discuss of each wine follows the meal, led by B owner Cecilia Rait and MS Walker's Tra Burgis. •Oct. 15: Sicily.

Wine Mondays at L'Espalier
L'Espalier, 30 Gloucester St., Boston (617-2 3023). www.lespalier.com. MBTA: Green L to Hynes. Mon., 7 pm. $55. Chef Frank M Clelland prepares a four-course French m paired with wines chosen by sommelier E Johnson. •Oct. 15: Like Wow... Tota Organic.

Wine Wednesdays
Sel de la Terre, 255 State St., Boston (617-7 1300). www.seldelaterre.com. MBTA: Line to Aquarium. Wed., 7 pm. $45. C Geoff Gardner pairs rustic French cuis with wines selected by sommeliers Erik Jol son and Michael Meagher at this wee event. •Oct. 10: Brave New World. •Oct. Mike's Favorites.

Introducing the new 2007/2008 Fall–Winter collection!

EXPERIENCE THE DESSANGE DIFFERENC

- There are currently 1013 Dessange salons in 45 countries around the worl
- We are the first Dessange full service salon and spa in Boston and in Massachusett
- All our professionals train either in France or in the U.S. with Dessange expert
- We have complimentary wireless services available inside

DESSANGE

PARIS

- Unique Hair Cutting Techniques
- Nourishing Hair Treatments
- European Coloring Philosophy
- Creative Make up Services
- Precise Nail, Hand and Foot care
- Effective Facial Services and Treatments
- Exclusive Body Treatments
- Ultimate Relaxation and Energizing Massages

505 Tremont Street Boston, MA 02116
Appointments available from 7 AM to 9 PM, 7 days a week
For an appointment please call: 617.236.0101
salon@dessange-boston.com ||| www.dessange-boston.com

TRUE STYLE ISN'T ABOUT
FOLLOWING THE TREND

BELVEDERE
LUXURY REBORN

agenda

MPROPER PICKS

ctober 10 - 23

SUNDAY	MONDAY	TUESDAY	WEDNESDAY	THURSDAY	FRIDAY	SATURDAY
7	8	9	10	11	12	13
			Former U.S. senator, ambassador and presidential candidate Carol Mosley Braun discusses social change. See Education on page 93.		 Larry Miles performs at Nick's Comedy Stop. See Performing Arts on page 65.
14	15	16	17	18	19	20
 The Hives play at the Middle East. See Music on page 74.		The Smashing Pumpkins rock the Orpheum Theatre. See Music on page 74.		The Brattle Theatre screens Donnie Darko. See Movies on page 64. 	Tori Amos takes the stage at the Orpheum Theatre. See Music on page 76.
21	22	23	24
The Wallflowers play at the Somerville Theatre. See Music on page 76.

WED.–SAT./OCT. 10–13

Performing Arts: The Best Medicine

Summer is dead. As we head further into fall—the wind chill, the 4 pm dusk, the tragic sheathing of nubile skin—we're going to crave a bit of a mood lifter. The eighth annual Boston Comedy Festival should provide the inoculation needed to stay cheery at least until the first ice storm. Events include three days of Irish comics at the Burren in Somerville, Denis Leary leading a celebration of 31 years of comedy at Emerson, Lewis Black and Friends at the Cutler Majestic Theatre and the Boston Comedy Contest Finals. It's a weeklong endorphin rush that promises to steel your resolve—at least until the end of daylight saving officially crushes your spirit. (617-782-8100). www.bostoncomedyfestival.com. See Web site for details. —NA

CITYSCOPE 63

PERFORMING ARTS 64

MOVIES 66

MUSIC 72

CLASSICAL MUSIC 77

DANCE CLUBS 80

MUSEUMS & GALLERIES . . 84

GAY & LESBIAN 90

BOOKS & POETRY 92

EDUCATION 93

BODY & MIND 94

SPORTS 95

CHILDREN 96

AROUND TOWN 97

CALENDAR EDITED BY

Nick Altschuller Books & Poetry, CityScope, Movies, Museums & Galleries, Music, Performing Arts

Amanda Knorr Around Town, Body & Mind, Children, Dance Clubs, Education, Movies

Rich Levine Gay & Lesbian, Sports

ADDITIONAL LISTINGS BY

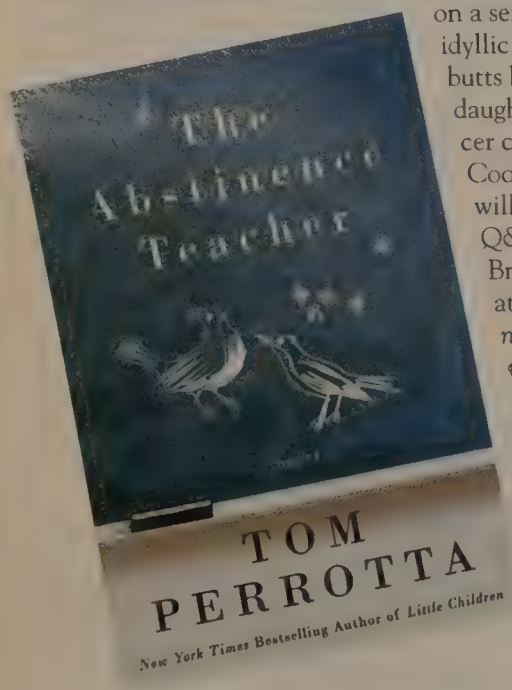
Sean Burns Movie Capsules

Linh Tran Body & Mind

Camp Sunshine Pumpkin Festival

SAT./OCT. 20

CityScope: Pumpkin High



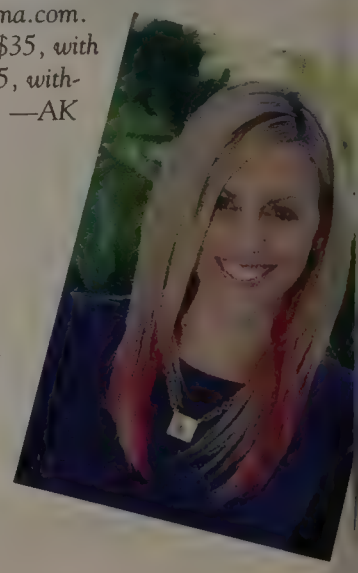
We all want to be immortalized, which might explain why being published in the Guinness Book of World Records is so damn appealing. But you don't need to grow your fingernails out 10 feet or eat 300 hot dogs to make history. Just join in the Camp Sunshine Pumpkin Festival and top their 2006 record for most lit jack o' lanterns (30,128 to be exact). Along with a variety of pumpkin-related contests (including one for most unique carving), the festivities include live music, food, magic shows, a costume parade and face painting. All proceeds benefit Camp Sunshine, a national retreat for kids with life-threatening diseases and their families. City Hall Plaza, Boston (207-655-3800). www.campsunshine.org. 12-8 pm. Free. —AK

TUE./OCT. 16

Books: Abstinence Makes the Heart Grow Fonder

High school faculties from Arlington to Weston now have their next book club selection: Belmont resident and literary heavyweight Tom Perrotta has finished his new novel, The Abstinence Teacher. Like his 2004 bestseller, Little Children, Perrotta's latest work explores the rough edges around seemingly perfect suburban lifestyles. The story centers on a sex-ed teacher in an idyllic neighborhood who butts heads with her daughter's evangelical soccer coach. This reading at Coolidge Corner Theatre will be followed by a Q&A and a signing at Brookline Booksmith at 7 pm. Coolidge Corner Theatre, 290 Harvard St., Brookline (617-734-2501). www.brooklinebooksmith.com. 6 pm. $5. —NA

SAT./OCT. 20



CityScope: Veg Out

For those of you who started gagging after reading our steakhouse article in the last issue, let us make it up to you now. The Boston Vegetarian Food Festival is back for its 12th year with hundreds of exhibits highlighting the benefits of life without meat. The event features national chefs and speakers on animal-friendly subjects. Additionally, the authors of books like the Joy of Vegan Baking will be on hand to share recipes—and to prove there's more to comfort food this fall than chicken pot pies and beef stew. Reggie Lewis Athletic Center, 1350 Tremont St., Boston (617-424-8846). www.bostonveg.org/foodfest. 10 am-6 pm. Free. —AK

THU./OCT. 11

CityScope: Hot Momma

Looks like Gwen Stefani has some compe tion. Skye Hoppus, wife of Blink 182 bass Mark Hoppus, isn't only the founder/desi behind Childish Clothing; she also has c out with a new book, Rock Star Momma. doubt a result of Hollywood's baby boom go-to guide gives pointers on staying hip through all three trimesters. Topics inclu looking fabulous at your shower and findi the perfect pair of jeans (which is hard enough when you're not carrying an extr pounds). See living proof when Hoppus comes to town to signs copies at District an event hosted by Newbury's superchic maternity store, 9 Months. District, 180 I coln St., Boston (617-236-5523). www.r starmomma.com. 6-8 pm. $35, with book; $25, without book. —AK

Skye Hoppus

ephants at the Ringling Bros. and Barnum & Bailey Circus of Dreams ityscope

vice to Contributors
nit updated listings for benefits, festivals, activities events by mail or fax (617-859-1446) to Calen- CityScope. Or e-mail information to cityscope@ oper.com. Include address, phone number, ticket , dates and times, and a brief description of the t. Deadline is four weeks prior to publication. List- cannot be accepted over the phone.

enefits

EDNESDAY, OCTOBER 10
rizons for Homeless Children es Convention Center, 900 Boylston St., Boston -445-1480). www.horizonsforhomelesschildren. MBTA: Green Line to Hynes. 7:30 am. $100. annual breakfast featuring Maya Angelou gs women together to celebrate the achieve- ts of Horizons for Homeless Children. It also s funds for early education and the care of sachusetts' homeless youth.

IDAY, OCTOBER 12
Evening With Champions
ard's Bright Hockey Center, 79 North Harvard Allston (617-495-4205). www.aneveningwith pions.org. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 8 pm; 13, 7 pm. $8-$32. World-renowned skaters rm to raise money for the Jimmy Fund, which orts pediatric cancer treatment at the Dana- er Cancer Institute.

nt the Town (La) Red bridge Marriott, 2 Cambridge Center, Cam- e (617-695-0877). www.thenetworklared.org. TA: Red Line to Kendall/MIT. 7 pm. $100. sachusetts first lady Diane B. Patrick and fea- d speaker Barbara Smith celebrate survivors of estic violence with cocktails, dinner, dancing a silent auction.

TURDAY, OCTOBER 13
C Kids Marblehead Ride to Raise ney for the Pan-Mass. Challenge eth School, Brook Road, Marblehead (781-639-). http://kids.pmc.org. 1 pm. $25. This third al event lets kids ages 4 to 14 ride a mile-long while raising money for the Pan-Mass. Chal- e, which funds cancer research and treatment.

p Out to Fight Diabetes Walk
Hatch Shell, Charles River Esplanade, Boston -342-2383). http://stepout.diabetes.org. MBTA: Line to Charles/MGH. 9 am. The American Di- es Association invites Bostonians to support its e by participating in a one-, three- or seven- fundraising walk.

SUNDAY, OCTOBER 14
Eighth Annual Doug Flutie Foundation 5K Road Race
Natick High School, 15 West St., Natick (508-270-8855). www.flutiefoundation.org. 11 am. This Doug Flutie Jr. Foundation event raises money for autism research.

15th Annual Making Strides Against Breast Cancer Walk
DCR Hatch Shell, Charles River Esplanade, Boston (800-227-2345). www.cancer.org/stridesonline. MBTA: Red Line to Charles/MGH. 8 am. The American Cancer Society hosts a five-mile walk along the Charles River to raise money for breast cancer research.

Walk Now for Autism
Suffolk Downs Racetrack, Route 1A, East Boston (617-924-3356). www.walknow.org. MBTA: Blue Line to Suffolk Downs. 9 am. The seventh annual Autism Speaks and Cure Autism Now event raises funds to support autism research.

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 20
Fighting & Fabulous
Back Bay Events Center, 180 Berkeley St., Boston (781-449-0100). www.elliefund.org. MBTA: Green Line to Copley, Arlington or Back Bay. 7 pm. $125. The Ellie Fund celebrates National Breast Cancer Awareness Month with this evening gala honoring individuals and companies that are helping the fight against breast cancer.

Eerie Evenings begin in Salem Oct. 12

Festivals & Parties

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 10
Spooky World 2007
Bayside City Exposition Center, 200 Mount Vernon St., Columbia Point, Boston (617-474-6541). MBTA: Red Line to JFK/UMass. www.spookyworld.com. Fri.-Sun., 6 pm. $18.50-$24.50. Enjoy annual spooks and scares through Oct. 28.

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 11
Ringling Bros. and Barnum & Bailey Circus of Dreams
TD Banknorth Garden, Boston (617-624-1805). www.ringling.com. MBTA: Green or Orange Line to North Station. Through Oct. 14. Thu. and Fri., 7 pm; Sat., 11 am, 3 and 7 pm; Sun., 1 and 5 pm. $15-$25; $45, VIP; $75, front row; $100, Circus Celebrity. Enjoy the 136th edition of the "Greatest Show on Earth."

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 12
ArtsCentral: See Art in Everything
Central Square, Cambridge (617-441-7707). www.centralsquarecambridge.com/artscentral. MBTA: Red Line to Central. 6 pm; Oct. 13, 10 am. $5-$10. This Cambridge festival brings unique art forms to the streets of Central Square, with live performances Friday night and a daylong outdoor festival on Saturday.

Boston History Award Gala
Liberty Hotel Boston, 215 Charles St., Boston (617-720-1713). www.bostonhistory.org. MBTA: Red Line to Charles/MGH. 6 pm. $500. The Bostonian Society celebrates this year's honorees, including Mayor Menino, Richard Friedman, Alden Gifford and author Nathaniel Philbrick.

Changing Modes: An Opera Fashion Show
Saint Nitery, 90 Exeter St., Boston (617-236-1134). www.operahub.org. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. 7:30 pm. $20 in advance; $25 at the door. This year's OperaHub fundraiser includes cocktails, a runway show and an afterparty, with performances by the OperaHub players and clothing by up-and-coming local designers.

Eerie Evenings
The Witch House, 310 Essex St., Salem (978-744-8815). www.salemweb.com/witchhouse. MBTA: Commuter Rail to Salem. Through Oct. 27. Fri. and Sat., 6-10 pm. $5-$12. The 20-year tradition of this haunted mansion continues with scary new stories, costumed actors and creepy surprises.

SUNDAY, OCTOBER 14
Celebrity Series of Boston Gala
Symphony Hall, 301 Mass. Ave., Boston (617-482-2595). www.celebrityseries.org. 5 pm. $500. This benefit gala features the farewell performance of dame Kiri Te Kanawa and benefits the Walter Pierce Annual Performance Fund.

Fall Family Festival
New England Wild Flower Society's Garden in the Woods, 180 Hemenway Road, Framingham (508-877-7630). www.newenglandwild.org. 12 pm. $3-$7; free for members and kids under five. This rain or shine festival includes a scavenger hunt, a labyrinth, the Art Goes Wild show and interactions with live animals.

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 20
Camp Sunshine Pumpkin Festival
City Hall Plaza, Boston (207-655-3800). www.campsunshine.org. MBTA: Blue or Green Line to Gov. Center. 12-8 pm. Free. Last year, the annual festival broke the Guinness World Record for the largest number of Halloween pumpkins ever assembled in one place. Besides another attempt to set the record, this year's daylong event features food, live music, magic shows, a costume parade, a pie-eating contest, face painting and pumpkin carving. Proceeds benefit Camp Sunshine, a national retreat for children with life-threatening illnesses and their families.

FurBall
Newburyport City Hall, 60 Pleasant St., Newburyport (978-462-0760). www.mrfrs.org. 6 pm. $20 in advance; $25 at the door. The Merrimack River Feline Rescue Society hosts its annual fundraiser, featuring live and silent auctions, a raffle, music and food. All proceeds benefit the area's needy cats and kittens.

12th Annual Boston Vegetarian Food Festival
Reggie Lewis Athletic Center, 1350 Tremont St., Boston (617-424-8846). www.bostonveg.org. MBTA: #66 Bus to Tremont and Columbus streets. 10 am. Free. This event features hundreds of exhibits about the benefits of a vegetarian lifestyle, plus loads of free food samples and a variety of guest speakers.

performing arts

Advice to Contributors
Submit listings by fax (617-859-1446) or mail to Calendar: Performing Arts, or e-mail performing@improper.com. Include venue address, phone number, subway stop, ticket price, dates and times, and a brief description of the event. Deadline is four weeks prior to publication. Listings cannot be accepted over the telephone.

Tickets

Ace Tickets
(800-MY-SEATS or 617-734-6666). www.acetickets.com. Tickets to sold-out shows.

Bostix
(617-723-5181). www.artsboston.org. Same-day tickets at half price.

Next Ticketing
(617-423-NEXT). www.nextticketing.com.

Out of Town Tickets
(617-247-1300 or 800-442-1854). Tickets to sold-out shows.

StubHub
www.stubhub.com. Buy and sell tickets online.

Ticket City of Boston
(617-787-2370). www.tixboston.com.

Ticketmaster
(617-931-2000). www.ticketmaster.com.

Theater and Opera

JUST OPENED

Bat Boy
The Piano Factory, 791 Tremont St., Boston. www.fudgetheatre.org. MBTA: Orange Line to Mass. Ave. Oct. 19-27. Thu.-Sat., 8 pm; Sun., 2 pm. $15; $12, students and seniors. In this musical, the infamous tabloid character Bat Boy adjusts to life in a backward town. Directed by Joe DeMita.

Brendan
The Huntington Theatre, 264 Huntington Ave., Boston (617-266-0800). www.huntingtontheatre.org. MBTA: E Green Line to Symphony. Oct. 12-Nov. 17. Tue. and Thu., 7:30 pm; Wed. and Sun., 2 and 7:30 pm; Fri. and Sat., 8 pm. $15-$50. A homesick young Irishman tries to adapt to American culture. Written by Ronan Noone.

The Devil's Teacup
Boston University, Playwright's Theatre, 949 Comm. Ave., Boston (866-811-4111). www.bostonplaywrights.org. MBTA: B Green Line to Pleasant. Oct. 18-28. Thu., 7:30 pm; Fri. and Sat., 8 pm; Sun., 2 pm. A New Yorker returns to his Arkansas hometown for a funeral and the sale of the family bar. Directed by Kathleen O'Leary.

Dying City
Lyric Stage Company of Boston, 140 Clarendon St., Boston (617-585-5678). www.lyricstage.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. Oct. 19-Nov.17. Wed., 2 and 7:30 pm; Thu., 7:30 pm; Fri., 8 pm; Sat., 4 and 8 pm; Sun., 3 pm. The widow of a man killed in the Iraq war reminisces with her dead husband's twin brother.

Macbeth
Boston University, 855 Comm. Ave., Boston (866-811-4111). www.actorsshakespeareproject.org. MBTA: B Green Line to BU West. Oct. 18-Nov. 11. Thu.-Sat., 7:30 pm; Sun., 2 pm. $30-$42. Adrianne Krstansky directs an all-female cast in Shakespeare's classic tragedy about an ambitious couple.

Les Misérables
North Shore Music Theatre, 62 Dunham Road, Beverly (978-232-7200). www.nsmt.org. Oct. 23-Nov. 18. Tue. and Thu., 7:30 pm; Wed., 1:30 pm; Fri. and Sat., 8 pm; Sun., 2 pm. $30-$75. Revolutionary France serves as the setting for this musical about a policeman's quest to capture an escaped convict.

Sweeney Todd
The Colonial Theatre, 106 Boylston St., Boston (617-931-2787). www.broadwayacrossamerica.com/boston. MBTA: Green Line to Boylston. Oct. 23-Nov. 4. Tue.-Thu., 7:30 pm; Fri. and Sat., 8 pm; Sun., 7:30 pm. Matinees: Sat. and Sun, 2 pm. $42.50-$91. In Stephen Sondheim's dark musical, a murderous barber teams up with a woman who turns his victims into meat pies. Directed by John Doyle.

The Threepenny Opera
Laurie Theater, Brandeis University, 415 South St., Waltham (781-736-3400). www.brandeis.edu/btc. Oct. 11-21. Thu. and Fri., 8 pm; Sat. 2 and 8 pm; Sun., 2 pm. $16-$20. Eric Hill directs this satire about working class London and the business of being bad.

The Veiled Monologues
American Repertory Theatre, 64 Brattle St., Cambridge (617-547-8300). www.amrep.org. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. Oct. 16-21. Tue.-Thu., 7:30 pm; Fri. and Sat., 8 pm. Matinees: Sat. and Sun., 2 pm. $39-$52. Muslim women answer questions about their sexuality in a fashion similar to The Vagina Monologues. Written and directed by Adelheid Roosen.

NOW RUNNING

American Buffalo
Julia Harris Stage, 1 Kendrick Ave., Wellfleet (508-349-9428). www.what.org. Through Oct. 14. Wed.-Sun., 8:15 pm. $29. In this David Mamet play, a man who dreams of success encounters a dilemma when business and friendship clash. Directed by Evan Bergman.

American Twistory
Tremont Cabaret Theatre, 75 Warrenton St., Boston (857-366-8181). www.twisttix.com. MBTA: Green Line to Boylston. Through Nov. 4. Wed.-Sat., 8 pm. Matinees: Sat. and Sun., 2 pm. $45-$47. This musical production provides a unique and comedic look at American history.

Blue Man Group
Charles Playhouse, 74 Warrenton St., Boston (617-931-2787). www.blueman.com. MBTA: Green Line to Boylston. Wed. and Thu., 8 pm; Fri., 7 and 10 pm; Sat., 2, 5 and 8 pm; Sun., 2 and 5 pm. $46-$56. The popular blue trio performs an ongoing show that mixes art, music, comedy and a lot of toilet paper.

Diptych
Elizabeth Peabody House, 277 Broadway, Somerville (617-297-2638). www.myspace.com/plantboston. Sept. 27-Oct. 13. Check Web site for complete listings. $12-$15. The Plant presents a two-person show that intertwines the tales of distantly connected storytellers.

A Funny Thing Happened on the Way to the Forum
Boston Center for the Arts, 539 Tremont St., Boston (617-728-4321). www.bostontheatreworks.com. Through Oct. 20. Check Web site for complete listings. $37-$42. The Boston Theatre Works performs Steven Sondheim's musical romp through ancient Rome. Directed by Erick Devine.

Indian Blood
Harbor Stage, 1 Kendrick Ave., Wellfleet (508-349-9428). www.what.org. Through Oct. 14. Wed.-Sun., 8 pm. $29. In this comedy written by A.R. Gurney, a young man comes to terms with his Indian ancestry. Directed by Tom Gladwell.

The Kentucky Cycle
Plaza Black Box Theatre at the Boston Center for the Arts, 116 West Newton St., Boston (617-759-8836). www.zeitgeiststage.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. Through Nov. 17. Part I: Thu., 7:30 pm; Sat. and Sun., 2 pm. Part II: Fri., 7:30 pm; Sat. and Sun., 7:30 pm. $35, one part; $60, both parts. Nine plays divided into two parts focus on the lives of Kentucky families over 200 years.

Man of La Mancha
Lyric Stage Company of Boston, 140 Clarendon St., Boston (617-585-5678). www.lyricstage.com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley or Orange Line to Back Bay. Through Oct. 13. Check Web site for complete listings. $15-$30. In this musical by Dale Wasserman, Miguel Cervantes and his servant Sancho perform Don Quixote in an effort to defend themselves while on trial. Directed by Spiro Veloudos.

The Secret of Sherlock Holmes
Founders' Theatre, 70 Kemble St., Lenox (413-637-1199). www.shakespeare.org. Through Oct. 28. Check Web site for complete listings. $10-$38. The legendary investigator keeps somehing hidden from his sidekick, Watson. Written by Jeremy Paul

Shear Madness
Charles Playhouse, 74 Warrenton St., Boston (617-426-5225). www.shearmadness.com. MBTA: Green Line to Boylston. Tue.-Fri., 8 pm; Sat., 6 and 9 pm; Sun., 3 and 7 pm. $38. This comedic whodunit by Paul Portner, set in a unisex hair salon, holds the record as Boston's longest-running play, with more than 10,000 local performances dating back to 1980.

Les Misérables opens at the North Shore Music Theatre Oct. 23.

The 39 Steps
The Huntington Theatre, 264 Huntington Ave., Boston (617-266-0800). www.huntingtontheatre.org. MBTA: E Green Line to Symphony. Through Oct.14. Check Web site for complete listings. $15-$75. This slapstick spoof of Alfred Hitchcock's classic movie hits Boston before its Broadway run. Directed by Maria Aitken.

Tick, Tick... Boom!
Arsenal Center for the Arts, 321 Arsenal St., Watertown (617-923-8487). www.newrep.org. Through Oct. 21. Check Web site for complete listings. $10-$30. The New Repertory Theatre presents Jonathan Larson's autobiographical musical about a young waiter struggling to make it as a composer in New York City.

Wicked
The Opera House, 539 Washington St., Boston (617-259-3400). www.bostonoperahouse.com. MBTA: Green Line to Boylston. Through Nov. 11. Tue.-Thu., 7:30 pm; Fri.-Sat., 8 pm; Sun., 7:30 pm. Matinees: Sat. and Sun., 2 pm. $35-$132.50. This musical details how the two most famous witches from Oz met. Directed by Joe Mantello.

Zanna, Don't!
Boston Center for the Arts, 539 Tremont St., Boston (617-482-3279). www.speakeasystage.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. Through Oct. 13. Wed. and Thu., 7:30 pm; Fri., 8 pm; Sat., 4 and 8 pm; Sun., 3 pm. $47-$50. In this musical fairy tale, a teen matchmaker causes relationship chaos. Written and directed by Tim Acito.

Dance

La Sylphide
Citi Performing Arts Center, 270 Tremont St., Boston (617-482-9393). www.citicenter.org. MBTA: Green Line to Boylston. Oct. 18-28. Thu., 7 pm; Fri. and Sat., 8 pm. Matinees: Sat. and Sun., 2 pm. $45-$110. This modern piece choreographed by Sorella Englund features George Balanchine's Monumentum pro Gesualdo and Movements for Piano and Orchestra.

Verve
Boston University Dance Theater, 915 Comm. Ave., Boston (617-353-2748). www.bu.edu/fitrec. MBTA: B Green Line to St. Paul. Oct. 19 and 20, 8 pm. $30; $25, students. The BoSoma Dance Company performs alongside the Amy Marshall Dance Company in a unique piece defined by highly precise and stimulating movement.

Comedy

Advice to Contributors
Submit listings by fax (617-859-144[illegible] mail them to Calendar: Comedy, or e-info to comedy@improper.com. Deadlin[illegible] listings is four weeks prior to publication

SHOWS

Boston Comedy Festival
Various locations around Boston (617-8000). www.bostoncomedyfestival.[illegible] See Web site for details. •Oct. 10, 8 $25-$30: Off the Boat Comedy wit[illegible] Byrne, Keith Farnan and Brian Jo[illegible] •Oct. 11, 7:30 pm, $45-$65: Denis L[illegible] Bill Burr, Anthony Clark and mor[illegible] featured in this performance celebr[illegible] 31 years of comedy at Emerson Col[illegible] Proceeds benefit a scholarship[illegible] Emerson students studying com[illegible] •Oct. 11, 8 pm, $25-$30: Off the[illegible] Comedy with Ed Byrne, Keith Fa[illegible] and Brian Joyce. •Oct. 12, 8:30 pm,[illegible] $65: Lewis Black and Friends. •Oct[illegible] 8 pm, $25-$30: Off the Boat Co[illegible] with Ed Byrne, Keith Farnan and[illegible] Joyce. •Oct. 13, 8:15 pm, $45-[illegible] Boston Comedy Contest finals and a[illegible] presentation.

Comedy for a Cause
Sanders Theatre, Memorial Hall[illegible] Quincy St., Cambridge (617-496-22[illegible] www.harvardconcerts.org. MBTA:[illegible] Line to Harvard. Oct. 20, 8 pm.[illegible] $15, students; $10, Harvard stud[illegible] Stand-up comics Louis CK, Lisa La[illegible] Tim Young and more perform. Proc[illegible] benefit Kiva.

The Fun Room: Urban Comedy Showcase
Roxbury Center for the Arts at Hib[illegible] Hall, 182-186 Dudley St., Roxbury[illegible] 849-6324). www.rcahh.org. MB[illegible] Silver Line to Dudley. Oct. 10, 8 pm[illegible] in advance; $20 at the door. Comedian C[illegible] Manning headlines this event featuring stand[illegible] from around the country.

STAND-UP CLUBS

Beantown Comedy Vault
Remington's, 124 Boylston St., Boston (781-2565). www.dickdoherty.com/remsched.htm. M[illegible] Green Line to Boylston. Thu.-Sun., 9 pm. $12
The Beantown Comedy Vault features local pr[illegible] amateur stand-up comedians. •Oct. 16: Gondelman's Campus Comedy. •Oct. 17: [illegible] Rodrigues. •Oct. 18: Greg Howell and fri[illegible] •Oct. 19: Dick Doherty and Boston Comics[illegible] Attitude. •Oct. 20: Dick Doherty and B[illegible] Comics with Attitude. •Oct. 23: Josh Gondel[illegible] Campus Comedy.

Comedy Connection
Faneuil Hall Marketplace, 245 Quincy Market[illegible] ing, Boston (617-248-9700). www.comedyconn[illegible] boston.com. MBTA: Green or Orange Line to[illegible] market. The oldest comedy club in Boston[illegible] nationally known comedians on weekend[illegible] showcases up-and-coming local talent durin[illegible] week. •Oct. 11, 8:30 pm, $15: Frank Santos[illegible] R-Rated Hypnotist." •Oct. 12, 8 and 10:1[illegible] $25: John Oliver. •Oct. 13, 7, 9 and 11:15 pm[illegible] John Oliver. •Oct. 18, 8:30 pm, $15: Frank S[illegible] "The R-Rated Hypnotist." •Oct. 19, 8 and[illegible] pm, $26: Bill Bellamy. •Oct. 20, 8 pm, $29:[illegible] Sweeney. •Oct. 20, 10:30 pm, $31: Bill Be[illegible] •Oct. 21, 7 pm, $22.50: Bill Bellamy.

The Comedy Studio
1238 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-661-6507).[illegible] thecomedystudio.com. MBTA: Red Line to H[illegible] Wed.-Sun., 8 pm. $8-$10. Sketch comedy t[illegible] and local comedians perform. •Oct. 10: Ste[illegible] cone, Tim Dillon, Jimmy Wahl, Drew Sp[illegible] Matt McArthur, Jon Rineman. •Oct. 11: Co[illegible] residence. •Oct. 12: Gerroll Bennett, Chris[illegible] Jon Rineman. •Oct. 13: Greg Rodrigues, [illegible] Henry, Chris Coxen, Mike Lemme, Jon Rit[illegible] •Oct. 14: Joe LaRoche, Ken Reid, Chibuzo,[illegible] Sapiro, Janet Cormier, Jon Rineman. •O[illegible] Mystery Lounge! •Oct. 17: Jono Zalay, Jo[illegible] man. •Oct. 18: Micah/Myq Club with[illegible] Baade, Giulia Rozzi, Rick Caravan, Alvin[illegible] Vincent Golden, Jon Rineman. •Oct. 19[illegible] Whitman, Tony Moschetto, Jon Rineman[illegible] 20: Mike Whitman, Tony Moschetto, Jon Ri[illegible] •Oct. 21: Gary Petersen, Brian Joyce, Drew[illegible] gler, Jono Zalay, Mike Lemme, Jon Rineman[illegible] 23: Mystery Lounge!

k's Comedy Stop
Warrenton St., Boston (617-423-2900). www.comedystop.com. MBTA: Green Line to Boylor Orange Line to New England Medical Center. ınd Sat., 8:30 pm. $20-$22. Now in its 24th the longest-running comedy club in Boston res a line-up of local and visiting comics. t. 12 and 13: Larry Miles. •Oct. 19 and 20: e Mauss.

PROV COMEDY

rov Asylum
Hanover St., Boston (617-263-6887). www.vasylum.com. MBTA: Green or Orange Line to Haymarket. Dinner packages available. •Wed., 8 pm, $15: Lost in Boston, or How I Learned to Love that Dirty Water is a comedy revue that offers songs and scenes based on audience suggestions. •Thu., 8 pm; Fri. and Sat., 8 and 10 pm, $20: It's the North End of the World as We Know It (And I Feel Fine) runs as the main stage show.

Improv Jones Boston
Arsenal Center for the Arts, 321 Arsenal St., Watertown (617-923-0100). www.improvjonesboston.com. MBTA: Red Line to Central, then #70 Bus to Western Ave. Fri., 8 pm. $10. Improv Jones Boston features improv appropriate for all ages every Friday night.

ImprovBoston
1253 Cambridge St., Cambridge (617-576-1253). www.improvboston.com. MBTA: Red Line to Central, then #83 or #91 Bus to Inman. $7-$12. Boston's longest-running improvisational comedy troupe creates everything on the spot: characters, stories, settings, songs and dances. •Wed., Oct. 10, 8 pm, $10; $7, students and seniors: The Hump Fringe Show. Local troupes perform a variety of improvisational shows featuring "Doc Severinson and Short Range Time Machine" and "Road Trip." •Thu., 8 pm, $12; $10, students and seniors: Zebro Presents the Original Zings of Comedy. Nat Towsen and Pat Boccuzzi host this weekly variety show mixing sketch, improv and stand-up comedy with music. •Thu., 10 pm, $10; $7, students and seniors: The Great and Secret Comedy Show. Renata Tutko hosts a sketch show that incorporates video and a variety of characters. •Fri., 8 pm, $15, $10, students and seniors: Neutrino. Improv teams film scenes outside the theater and then showcase them to the audience. •Fri., 10 pm, $12; $10, students and seniors: Theatre Sports. Two teams face off in a battle for comedy supremacy. •Fri. and Sat., 11:30 pm, $5: Night Cap. A 30-minute show packed with adult-oriented stand-up, improv and sketch comedy. •Sat., 6 pm, $12; $10, seniors; $7, students and children: ImprovBoston Family Show. This short-form improvisational show is appropriate for all ages. •Sat., 8 and 10 pm, $15; $10, students and seniors: ImprovBoston Mainstage. Blending storytelling, music and audience participation, a cast of improvisers creates a show that changes with every performance. •Sun., 7 pm, $7; $5, students and seniors: The Culpepper Comedy Jam. This show features performances by local and visiting improv troupes.

MOVIES

Law and Disorder

Clooney's leading role cements his throwback status

BY SEAN BURNS

Michael Clayton is the "fixer." Even after decades of work at a big-money Manhattan law firm, he's never made partner, and the luckier, more reputable clients don't even know he exists. But he's the guy everybody calls at two in the morning, right after the you-know-what hits the fan. He can work whatever room you put him in, because Clayton instinctively knows whom you have to flatter and whom you have to bribe. He's a shark in a suit who sells his charm and savvy to the highest bidder and works shady compromises out of seemingly untenable situations. He's a creep and a fraud, and somehow people still like him—probably because he's played by George Clooney.

Tom Wilkinson's breakdown spurs a crisis of conscience for George Clooney.

It's hard to remember, but once upon a time Clooney's big-screen career didn't seem like such a done deal. His ER fame led to lots of starring roles in turds like The Peacemaker and even an ill-fated outing as the worst Batman ever. But then a funny thing happened: Clooney got smart. He started saddling up with directors like Steven Soderbergh, David O. Russell and the Coen Brothers and stretched his acting chops while at the same time exchanging the big money for creative street cred. Eventually, Clooney and Soderbergh brilliantly engineered the deal of a lifetime by cobbling together to-die-for casts at bargain prices for the Ocean heist pictures, which serve as blackmail forcing studios to fund their more subversive projects, such as Syriana and Good Night and Good Luck.

Michael Clayton belongs in this latter category, even though it probably would have qualified as a blockbuster back in 1973. A deliberate throwback to the kind of politically pointed thrillers once headlined by the likes of Warren Beatty, Robert Redford and Paul Newman, Michael Clayton fortifies Clooney's status as a leading man seemingly beamed here from a previous era.

We're stuck in a strange time for American male movie stars—a perpetual boyishness. (You know things are rough when we're turning to foppish old England for manly men like Clive Owen and Daniel Craig.) Tom Cruise is barely a year younger than George Clooney. Keanu Reeves, only three. Yet it's impossible to imagine either of these actors conveying enough weight, enough world-weary gravitas to pull off a role like Michael Clayton.

In the film, a popular weed-killing spray just happens to be filled with carcinogens. Okay, so it killed a few farm folk, but we're talking about big profits for a massive multinational corporation. The result is the kind of class action lawsuit that a firm like Clayton's prides itself on being able to drag out for decades—outspending and outlasting the aggrieved plaintiffs before the case ever sees trial. The only catch is that the company's lead defense lawyer, Arthur Edens (the brilliant Tom Wilkinson), has had some personal problems and goes off his medication. Next thing you know, he's tearing off his clothes in the middle of a deposition and running around screaming about countersuits.

Sounds like another clean-up job for Clayton, who's in a bit of a bind himself. He's riddled with debt. A restaurant deal with his junkie brother turned into a disaster, and now he's itching to get back to the illicit, high-stakes poker tables that caused him so much trouble many years ago. He's a crummy father and a lousy husband. Really, the only thing Clayton has ever been good at is his job. And yet something about the callous way his firm's treating the plight of crazy old Edens sets him off. He could give a damn about the weed spray or the innocent victims. He's grown a conscience because the case is finally personal.

If any of this sounds familiar that's probably because George Clooney won an Oscar for playing pretty much this very same role in Syriana just a couple years ago. But if it ain't broke, don't fix it, and anyway, Michael Clayton is a much sharper, better picture than that convoluted oil-crisis quagmire. This particular role also keys more effectively into Clooney's God-given movie-star strengths by allotting plenty of screen time for roguish charisma and righteous, deep-voiced indignation.

Written and directed by Tony Gilroy—who recently penned the Jason Bourne trilogy and knows a thing or two about sleek, stripped-down entertainment—Michael Clayton is sparse, short and to the point. It exists in a neutral-colored world of hotels, convention centers and conference rooms, all burnished in their banality by cinematographer Robert Elswit.

The great Sydney Pollack costars as the head of Clayton's shady firm and offers the kind of no-nonsense, casually terrifying turn that the director-turned-actor knocks out of the park. Of course, if you're going to make a paranoid, '70s-style thriller, casting the man who helmed Three Days of the Condor, The Yakuza and Absence of Malice is a fitting homage, and it's one Michael Clayton earns. IB

Michael Clayton ★★★½

Starring George Clooney, Tom Wilkinson, Tilda Swinton, Sydney Pollack and Michael O'Keefe. Written and directed by Tony Gilroy. At Boston Common, Fenway and in the suburbs.

New Releases

BY SEAN BURNS

Across the Universe ★
Destined to become a camp classic, the lates
dious, hagiographic salute to the 1960s by a na
gazing baby boomer is far weirder than your typ
stroll down memory lane. Newton native Julie mor has fashioned a visually berserk, deathly ea musical consisting entirely of Beatles songs sung cast of attractive moppets muttering hippy-d chestnuts, eventually realizing that, yes, all you
is love. There's little in the way of story or chara just a lot of Forrest Gump–ish historical signposts laughable interpretations of Lennon and McCar lyrics. All these kids have names like Jude, Lucy, dence and Sadie, and the only suspense comes trying to guess when Taymor will shoehorn in next awkward sing-along. It's a completely hu less, self-important affair that finally hits rock tom once Bono turns up as a Ken Kesey wannab preach the wonders of LSD and warble somet about being the walrus. The U2 frontman loo uncomfortable onscreen, I spent half the nu thinking he was Robin Williams. (At Boston C mon, Fenway and in the suburbs.)

The Assassination of Jesse James by the Coward Robert Ford ★★★★
By turns mesmerizing, maddening and maste
writer-director Andrew Dominik's bleak, hypn
triumph is unlike anything you'll see this year
owes more to druggy, fatalistic '70s anti-West
like Robert Altman's McCabe and Mrs. Miller
Sam Peckinpah's Pat Garrett and Billy the Kid
any traditional horse opera. Brad Pitt deliver scariest, saddest performance yet as the noto railroad bandit slowly rotting away thanks to noia and the heavy psychic toll of his outsized tation. There's also a revelatory turn from Case fleck as the title's scaredy-cat who's danger
obsessed with dime novels and James Gang fant
and sorely unequipped to handle anything re bling reality. Sumptuously photographed by the Roger Deakins as a painterly procession of linge forbidding landscapes that often threaten to sw our characters whole, The Assassination of Jesse blossoms into a moving, often sickly comic me tion on the power of myth, with these small standing helpless before a giant inexorable ti American legend. Long, but purposefully so movie haunts your dreams. (At Kendall Square.

The Bourne Ultimatum ★★★★
As propulsive, brilliantly assembled and breath paced as any action picture I've seen, the third finest chapter in this superior spy saga finds
Damon's amnesiac assassin heading home to
York City to put together the final, harrowing p pieces of his lost identity. United 93 director
Greengrass shoots exclusively with handheld eras, supercharging the impeccably choreogra cat-and-mouse sequences with a jittery, you there immediacy. As always, Damon deftly u plays, communicating the character's inner tor
strictly through his sleek physicality and hau
stare. Joan Allen returns as a jaded CIA oper who becomes Bourne's most unlikely ally, this butting heads with David Strathairn's oily arm
warrior. These Bourne pictures have shrewdl dated Robert Ludlum's Cold War novels for our distrustful, troubled times and seethe with a found loss of faith in our leaders. There's also a moral severity at work—the killings hurt and with them a tremendous psychological price. T classy, sophisticated entertainment for adults, a outstanding example of sheer, brute-force crafts ship. (At Boston Common, Fenway, Harvard S and in the suburbs.)

The Brave One ★★½
Irresponsible and irresistible, Jodie Foster's exploration of female victimhood and empowe is a clash of wildly divergent sensibilities. I corner, we've got blockbuster super-produce Silver, king of mouth-breathing crowd-pl dating back to the Lethal Weapon/Die Hard e
the other we've got Neil Jordan, director of finely toned fables as Mona Lisa and The Game. It's Death Wish for liberals, as Foster pl
NPR host traumatized after a brutal Centra mugging leaves her fiancé dead. It isn't long Jodie's got a gun and is offering her diminutive as bait for subway hoodlums and then blasting
The material is elevated not by the po voiceover regarding the nature of vengeance
Jordan's keen visual intelligence and str deployment of surreal fairy-tale tropes.
revenge movies are seldom this well acted elegantly put together—in particular, some st

PUSSYCAT DOLLS

EVERYBODY IS SOMEBODY
AT GYPSY BAR...

WHO ARE YOU?

Gypsy BAR

116 BOYLSTON STREET, BOSTON, MA 02116
617 482 7799 WWW.GYPSYBARBOSTON.COM

Viggo Mortensen takes Naomi Watts on a tour of the underworld in David Cronenberg's graphic Eastern Promises sequences with Terrence Howard as an NYPD detective who just might have Foster's number. You'll hate yourself in the morning, but it works. (At Boston Common, Fenway and in the suburbs.)

Eastern Promises ★★★

David Cronenberg strikes again with this graphic, grisly and entertaining tale. No great shakes in the screenplay department, this peculiar Russian mafioso saga was penned by Dirty Pretty Things scribe Steven Knight and has something to do with the lineage of a mysterious orphan—delivered in graphic detail, with maximum splattery viscera, by Naomi Watts' nosey midwife. The dead mom's secret diary leads our heroine on a tour of the Trans-Siberian underworld, where Armin Mueller-Stahl insinuates all sorts of suspect shenanigans. But the real draw is Viggo Mortensen, who seethes behind wraparound sunglasses and a museum's worth of telling tattoos. As a slippery chauffeur, he has a secret or two that he doesn't particularly feel like sharing, and Mortensen's captivating, nearly silent performance glues you to your seat despite some mildly ridiculous plot turns. Cronenberg, using the script as a mere launching pad for his particular brand of bodily havoc, climaxes early with a berserk, full-frontal bathhouse smackdown that ranks as one of the greatest fight scenes ever filmed. (At Boston Common, Fenway and in the suburbs.)

Feast of Love ★★

Someday I hope Morgan Freeman will be allowed to just act in a movie without also having to narrate it. But I guess it's tough for any filmmaker to resist ladling that gravelly voice of wisdom over the soundtrack, particularly when the material is as thin and meandering as director Robert Benton's lightweight adaptation of Charles Baxter's book. Freeman stars as a friendly professor in a college town who watches from his favorite local coffee shop as a variety of less interesting characters fall in and out of love. Some get married, some get divorced and everybody has a lot of sex as soft adult contemporary music plays in the background. Greg Kinnear is a likeable dim bulb who falls for a lesbian (Selma Blair) and a harlot (Radha Mitchell) as Freeman laughs and shakes his head sagely. The flat direction and uninspired visuals feel more like a cable show than a theatrical feature. Sure, these seem like swell people, but that doesn't explain why anybody would make a movie about them. (At Boston Common, Fenway and in the suburbs.)

Hairspray ★★★

A bouncy, unexpected delight, this vibrant adaptation of the hit Broadway musical—itself a reworking of John Waters' subversive 1992 dance-a-thon—might be the summer's sweetest surprise. Newcomer Nikki Blonsky stars as Tracy Turnblad, a hefty hoofer dedicated to breaking the color barrier on Baltimore's hottest local dance show. Facing off against Michelle Pfeiffer's slatternly racist station manager, Tracy enlists a marvelous supporting cast of progressively minded misfits and outcasts to take a stand for inclusiveness during an exclusionary era. The improbably touching John Travolta dons drag as Tracy's morbidly obese mother, Edna. Though the gigantic fat suit and outlandish accent take some getting used to, Travolta's daring, committed performance grows on you, culminating in a lovely duet with his hubby, Christopher Walken. Ditching the recent trend in movie musicals of overediting every number into incoherence, director/choreographer Adam Shankman favors wide angles and long shots, allowing us to actually see and appreciate the sheer infectiousness of these bopping bodies in motion. (In the suburbs.)

Halloween ★★½

Though an unnecessary project from the get-go, director Rob Zombie's remake of John Carpenter's 1978 slasher standard-bearer boasts sequences of genuine inspiration and several serious chills. The fine first hour fills in the stark childhood of Michael Myers as the Haverhill-born filmmaker revels in his own peculiar rotgut sensibility and exudes a strange empathy for the wonder years of his young serial killer. As in his astonishing 2005 opus, The Devil's Rejects, Zombie skillfully manipulates questions of audience identification and muddies the waters between good and evil to a fairly disturbing degree. Miles away from the panty-sniffing torture-porn that's currently all the rage, the killings in Zombie's films have hideous moral weight and consequence, which is why the second half of Halloween is such a disappointment. Dropping all the personal flourishes to become an almost shot-for-shot clone of the Carpenter flick, the movie trashes all our hard-earned sympathies for this particular devil. It ends up as just another pile of dead teenagers, when it was almost so much more. (In the suburbs.)

Harry Potter and the Order of the Phoenix ★★★½

The Harry Potter films thus far have felt like a collection of tie-in products dutifully recreating everybody's favorite scenes as if genuflecting before the Stations of the Cross. But now, four sequels into this saga, it finally feels like we're watching an honest-to-god movie. Forced to slash JK Rowling's unwieldy 870-page novel to a trim two hours and change, director David Yates and screenwriter Michael Goldenberg have at last reconceived the Potter-verse in purely cinematic terms. They scrapped all that Quidditch nonsense and zero in on Harry's adolescent struggle to wrap his still-forming mind around the fallibility of authority figures, the finality of death and the stinking unfairness of how the world really works. It's a surprisingly dark and violent coming-of-age tale, and Yates finds some nifty visual parallels for the character's inner journey. Young Daniel Radcliffe is growing into the role quite nicely, and the most overqualified supporting cast in history again excels, with extra kudos going to Gary Oldman, Alan Rickman and Imelda Staunton's fascist schoolmarm. (In the suburbs.)

In the Shadow of the Moon ★★★★

Simply wonderful. In an age when NASA is taken so much for granted that it can only make headlines if an astronaut gets arrested driving cross country in a diaper, director David Sington's stirring, brilliantly edited documentary combines never-before-seen footage with some surprisingly funny space jocks to bring the triumph of the Apollo missions to the big screen with full force. More than just an educational filmstrip, this is a warm, humane, emotional and evocative picture. Shots hold on these elderly astronauts for at least a half a second longer than expected and catch the men in repose. We take in the contours of these marvelously wrinkled faces as they attempt to explain exactly what it's like to peer down upon Earth from the reaches of space. Most astonishing is the lunar photography. Burnished and synced up with sound for the first time, it's tranquil, desolate and forbidding. In the Shadow of the Moon is a rousing tribute to a national spirit of exploration and a not-too-long-ago era that sadly now feels further away than the moon itself. (At Harvard Square, Coolidge Corner and Waltham Embassy.)

In the Valley of Elah ★★

Tommy Lee Jones gives a performance of such shattering intensity; it's almost powerful enough to salvage writer-director Paul Haggis' ham-fisted Iraq War drama. Playing the grizzled father of a young soldier gone AWOL, Jones teams with Charlize Theron's de-glammed policewoman and heartbreakingly squints and mumbles his way through this TV-standard police procedural. Photographed in ugly, washed-out tones, there's a plaintive quality to the visuals that jibes with Jones' grim, strangulated line readings. But alas, as in Haggis' cloddish, inexplicably lauded Crash, fine performances take a backseat to inert soapbox ranting and trite plot twists so schematically over-determined they border on insanity. A single, wordless close-up of Jones' anguish says more about America and this war than an entire four-page monologue ever could, but Haggis can't help himself and closes with a final shot so overwrought it's already the stuff of legend. (At Boston Common, Fenway and in the suburbs.)

Into The Wild ★★★½

In 1990, Christopher McCandless (Emile Hirsch) donated his life savings to Oxfam, burned his Social Security card and disappeared down the high into self-imposed obscurity. Rechristening him "Alexander Supertramp," McCandless yearne live the kind of pure existence he'd only read a in books by Henry David Thoreau and Jack Lon Two years later he starved to death inside abandoned bus in Alaska, barely 20 miles from highway. Plenty of people consider McCandl hero. Countless folk songs have been written a his journey, and that bus has become a pop tourist attraction. Just as many people, especial Alaska, will tell you he was an idiot. The beau this film, written and directed by Sean Penn, is it's both dreamy and lucid and filled with a respect for McCandless' ideals, but it never lets off the hook for the spitefulness and naiveté inhe in his foolish, transcendent quest. It feels li breakthrough for Penn as it throbs with c possibilities and hope. (At Harvard Square Waltham Embassy.)

Pete Seeger: The Power of Song ★★½

The film is a pleasant, if blinkered, salute to banjo-strumming troubadour who led the '60s movement and outraged conservatives with plainspoken commitment to progressive ca Produced for the American Masters PBS series, fawning documentary is getting a brief pus theaters, even as the talking-head interview fo feels better-suited for the small screen. Hear testimonials abound from the likes of Bob D Bruce Springsteen and Natalie Maines, but the interesting material comes from archival foota Seeger's squabbles with the House Un-Amer Activities Committee and tales of the blacklist kept him out of the mainstream media for som years. The songs and performances are, predict wonderful. But director Jim Brown skips unflattering details and ignores the larger mu picture of the time. There's no mention of See falling-out with Dylan after the latter "plugged i Newport, and for all this talk about the tunes defined the antiwar protests, it's odd not to hea words "rock 'n' roll" uttered aloud even once Waltham Embassy.)

Rush Hour 3 ★½

In the sorry tradition of Beverly Hills Cop III, another of those years-late, breathakingly threequels in which everybody involved carri as if they've already earned their massive paych simply by showing up. Jackie Chan and Tucker once again play mismatched cop buc and once again both men seem to be competi some private wager to see who can do more da to the English language. Jeff Nathanson's sc play, which is really more a collection of arbi twists and unmotivated set pieces, sends the bi ing duo to Paris in search of a mythical Triad guess a $150 million budget doesn't buy wh used to. Thanks to Brett Ratner's limp, funct direction, the City of Lights looks more like a lywood backlot. Chan just seems tired, and h robatic hijinks are more dutiful than insp Tucker does what he always does: squeal, ya ad-lib with no regard for character, his co-st what's happening around him. (At Boston mon and in the suburbs.)

Stardust ★★★

In his Sandman comics, as well as the terrific Good Omens, writer Neil Gaiman is at hi when he's grounding supernatural concep banal workaday realities. There's a droll, u stated comedy to Gaiman's enchanted realm director Matthew Vaughn's adaptation of hi dust nails this tricky tone better than one pr had any right to expect. This fractured fai stars Claire Danes as a star who has plumme Earth and possesses certain celestial pro sought by a rogue's gallery of villains and sters—most notably Michelle Pfeiffer's va wicked witch. Charlie Cox is the bumbling buckler who comes to our damsel's rescu these two bicker their way, screwball-style, th an episodic collection of inventive set-piec throwaway gags. Danes is a bit awkward role, but the supporting cast runs away wi film, particularly a revitalized Robert De N fearsome pirate with a secret. Sometimes S gets sloppy, but there's plenty of life and in tion in the margins. (In the suburbs.)

Superbad ★★★½

2007 is going to go down in history as the s that Judd Apatow and Seth Rogen saved Ar comedy. On the heels of their triumphant Up comes the funniest and most down-t high school movie since Fast Times at Ri High. Superbad stars the blisteringly profan Hill as a kid whose entire sexual education h from dubious sources on the Internet, while e Foster plays a blonde Charles Bronson in the vigilante pic The Brave One.

opment's Michael Cera tags along as his side- —a gentle young man who doesn't seem to have d out how to work his body just yet. It's a long, night of misadventures as this less-than-dy- duo and their brilliantly squirmy friend Fogell stopher Mintz-Plasse) attempt to score some and seduce their dreamgirls. The intricate gag ructions devised by Rogen and his writing part- van Goldberg, spin from disasters to delights hen back again. These characters keep finding to surprise us with improbable, but quite gen- pangs of pathos, even as you can't believe what e hearing. (At Boston Common, Fenway and suburbs.)

to Yuma ★★★

tian Bale gives yet another ferociously commit- erformance as a down-on-his luck rancher who himself guarding Russell Crowe's silver-tongued coach robber. In the time-honored tradition of man's-gotta-do-what-a-man's-gotta-do horse (yep, another one), local lawmen and crooked ad types turn tail and scatter. But our hero n't shake so easy. Crowe's sly, playful perfor- e bounces beautifully off Bale's intensity, pok- nd prodding, trying to find a crack in the armor. n't every man have a price? Running a half-hour r than the 1957 original, Walk the Line director s Mangold's remake pads a terse, dialogue-dri- narrative with poorly staged chase scenes and couts that the film's meager budget can't quite le. But even all the obvious flaws can't detract the pure pleasure of watching these two actors a blast circling and sniffing each other out, each g to figure out what makes the other guy tick. Boston Common, Fenway and in the suburbs.)

ays in Paris ★★★

enchanting Julie Delpy makes her directorial and stars in this very funny, if slightly uneven, re-clash farce that follows a bickering young le's strained 48 hours in the city of light. Just expect the dreamy romanticism of the simi- structured Delpy vehicle Before Sunset, as here nd real-life ex Adam Goldberg mine all sorts of ward and uncomfortable comedic scenarios that nt Paris as swarming with psycho cabdrivers, ly nymphomaniacs and sleazy former lovers ng around every corner. A muscled, tattooed berg borrows Woody Allen's timing and deliv- s he plays a jittery hypochondriac aghast at the de of exes Delpy's loopy photographer keeps ping into. Surprisingly enough, 2 Days in Paris s almost as many penis jokes as Superbad, as as the inspired use of an arsonist, vegan dian angel. Delpy's use of handheld cameras and cuts pay cheeky homage to the French New e, but occasionally the filmmaking becomes so led you wish she'd back off just a bit. (At dall Square.)

pecial Events

ton Bike Film Festival

tle Theater, 40 Brattle St., Cambridge (617-876- 7). www.brattlefilm.org. MBTA: Red Line to Har- . Oct. 19 and 20, 7 pm. Call for prices. A different ram of short films about bicycles plays every night, with food from Redbones and beer from Harpoon Brewery. The event benefits both Mass. Bike and Hub on Wheels. See Web site for film schedule and descriptions.

Boston Fantastic Film Festival

Brattle Theater, 40 Brattle St., Cambridge (617-876-6837). www.brattlefilm.org. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. Oct. 11-15. Call for prices. The fifth anniversary of this festival promises up-and-coming films, such as the schlock-horror anthology Trapped Ashes and The District, referred to as the "Eastern European South Park." See Web site for a complete event schedule and film descriptions.

Brattle Film Foundation and American Repertory Theatre Benefit

Brattle Theater, 40 Brattle St., Cambridge (617-876-6837). www.brattlefilm.org. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. Oct. 18, 5, 7:15 and 10 pm. Call for prices. The Brattle Film Foundation and the American Repertory Theatre present Donnie Darko 2001 on the eve of the A.R.T.'s premiere of the stage production of the film, with special guests and surprises. Richard Kelley directs Jake Gyllenhaal in the sci-fi cult classic about a disturbed teenager with visions of a giant bunny who warns him of the apocalypse.

Director Presents

Museum of Fine Arts, 465 Huntington Ave., Boston (617-267-9300). www.mfa.org. MBTA: E Green Line to Museum. Oct.14, 7 pm. Call for prices. The MFA screens Esther Khan 2000, about a poor young Jewish girl, played by Summer Phoenix, who dreams of becoming an actress in 19th-century London. Director Arnaud Desplechin presents the film and holds a discussion.

Repertories and Revivals

Advice to Contributors

Submit film listings by fax (617-859-1446), mail to Calendar: Film or e-mail to film@improper.com. Deadline is four weeks prior to publication.

BOSTON PUBLIC LIBRARY

Westerns of the 1950s

•Oct. 15, 6 pm. Shane 1953. A former gunslinger settles down with his family until a conflict arises. George Stevens directs.

•Oct. 22, 6 pm. Gunfight at the O.K. Corral 1957. John Sturges directs this film about an outlaw and a lawmaker who eventually stage a legendary showdown.

BRATTLE THEATRE

•Oct. 13, 11 am. The Bride of Frankenstein 1935. James Whale directs this classic horror film about a mad scientist trying to create the perfect bride for his lonely monster.

•Oct. 20, 1:30 and 3:30 pm. Pee Wee's Big Adventure 1985. Tim Burton directs this film in which cult hero Pee Wee Herman goes searching for his favorite red bicycle.

Comedy on the Road

•Oct. 10, 8 and 10 pm. The Long Long Trailer 1954. Lucille Ball and Desi Arnaz star in this film about a newly married couple who dream of owning a mobile home. Vincente Minnelli directs.

Seventies Shooter: A Tribute to Laszlo Kovacs

•Oct. 16, 5:15 and 9:30 pm; Oct. 17, 5:15 pm. The King of Marvin Gardens 1972. A man drags his brother into a scheme to build up a resort on a Pacific island. Bob Rafelson directs.

•Oct. 16 and 17, 7:30 pm. Bob Rafelson directs Five Easy Pieces 1970, about a man from a haut-bourgeois background who doesn't want to be tied down.

•Oct. 21, 3 and 7:15 pm. Peter Bogdanovich directs Paper Moon 1973, about a con man who becomes the legal guardian of a recently orphaned young girl. Immediately following at 5:15 and 9:30 pm, What's Up Doc? 1972. Directed by Bogdanovich, the film follows a man who mistakenly picks up the wrong suitcase on his way to San Francisco.

•Oct. 22, 5 pm, 7:30 and 10 pm. Freebie and the Bean 1974. This comedy about two San Francisco cops searching for a crime boss stars Alan Arkin and James Caan. Directed by Richard Rush.

•Oct. 23, 5:15 pm, 7:30 and 9:45 pm. Shampoo 1975. Hal Ashby directs this comedy classic about a hairdresser and womanizer trying to keep all of his ducks in a row.

COOLIDGE CORNER THEATRE

German Film Series

•Oct. 14, 1 pm. Matthias Luthardt directs Ping Pong 2006, about a young man devastated by the death of his father who develops feelings for his aunt. In German with English subtitles.

HARVARD FILM ARCHIVE

Boston Latino International Film Festival

•Oct. 12, 7 pm. Imitation 2006. Federico Hidalgo directs this film about a Mexican woman traveling to Montreal to look for the husband who abandoned her.

•Oct. 12, 9 pm. Noelle Stout directs Luchando 2006, a startling look at Cuba's gay sex trade through the eyes of four hustlers.

•Oct. 13, 3 pm. Elizabeth Massie directs Companeras 2006, in which America's first female mariachi band, Mariachi Reyna de Los Angeles, tries to overcome gender stereotypes and increase the popularity of mariachi music. In Spanish with English subtitles.

•Oct. 13, 5:30 pm. Pancho Villa: La Revolución No Ha Terminado (Pancho Villa: The Revolution Has Not Ended) 2006. Directed by Francesco Taboada Tabone, this film documents a son returning to Mexico and discovering his father is a hero to millions of peasants. Also features the short Classificados 2006.

•Oct. 13, 7:30 pm. David Ocanas directs Poppy Montgomery in Between 2005. A woman travels to Tijuana to find her missing sister and questions her sanity in the process.

•Oct. 14, 4:30 pm. Connie Field directs Salud! 2006, a film about Cuban doctors who are often the only ones who visit the poorest communities in poverty-stricken countries. In Spanish with English subtitles.

•Oct. 14, 8:30 pm. La Ultima Mirada (The Last Gaze) 2006. Patricia Arriaga-Jordan directs this film about a famous artist who can only see the color red but manages to find inspiration in a young prostitute. In Spanish with English subtitles.

Michael Haneke: A Cinema of Provocation

•Oct. 20, 7 pm. Lemminge (Lemmings) 1979. This two-part drama focuses on Haneke's generation, which grew up after World War II. In German with English subtitles.

•Oct. 21, 3 pm. Wer War Edgar Allan? (Who Was Edgar Allan?) 1984. Set in a stylized Venice, this film follows an art history student befriended by a shady American, "Edgar Allan," who seems intent on driving him insane. Haneke directs. In German with English subtitles.

•Oct. 21, 7 pm. Fraulein: A German Melodrama 1985. Haneke directs this film about a soldier returning home to Germany in the 1950s to find his family in shambles. In German with English subtitles.

•Oct. 21, 9 pm. Haneke directs Variation 1983, a film about how an adulterous relationship between two people impacts their significant others. In German with English subtitles.

•Oct. 22, 7 pm. Die Rebellion (The Rebellion) 1993. In this adaptation of Joseph Rothe's novel, a World War I veteran returning to Vienna struggles in the changing world. Haneke directs. In German with English subtitles.

•Oct. 22, 9 pm. Haneke directs Drei Wege Zum See (Three Paths to the Lake)1976, in which a war photographer grapples with his conscience as he tak photographs. In German with English subtitles.

MIT

Italian Cinema

•Oct. 19, 7:30 and 10:30 pm. Il Postino (The man) 1994. Michael Radford directs this film an Italian postman who learns to love poetry he delivers mail to a famous poet and subsequ forms a close friendship. In Italian with En subtitles.

MUSEUM OF FINE ARTS

Art on Film

•Oct. 19, 7 pm. Zubeidaa 2001. Shyam Benegal rects this love story about a young man's qu learn about the mother he never knew from that knew her best. In Hindi with English subti

Indian Cinema

•Oct. 20, 2 pm. Shyam Benegal directs Netaji has Chandra Bose: The Forgotten Hero 200 intimate portrait of Subhas Chandra Bose, t mous Bengali freedom fighter who declared warfare on the British Empire. In Hindi with E subtitles.

•Oct. 21, 2 pm. Manthan 2004. This art-hous umentary is about poor Indian dairy farmers gling to survive when facing large dairy congl ates. Directed by Shyam Benegal. In Hindi English subtitles.

Michael Haneke: A Cinema of Provocation

•Oct. 11, 5:45 pm. Variation 1983. See Oct. 2 vard Film Archive listing for film description.

•Oct. 11, 7:45 pm. Caché (Hidden) 2005. Thi chological thriller examines the dangers of pe guilt and jealousy. Haneke directs. In French English subtitles.

•Oct. 12, 6 pm. Haneke directs Drei Wege See (Three Paths to the Lake) 1976. See O Harvard Film Archive listing for film descrip

•Oct. 12, 7:45 pm. La Pianiste (The Teacher) 2001. An uptight piano teacher with her mother has a secret interest in por phy, voyeurism and sadomasochism. In F with English subtitles. Haneke directs.

•Oct. 13, 1:30 pm. Lemminge (Lemmings) See Harvard Film Archive for film descriptio

•Oct. 14, 12:45 pm. Benny's Video 1992. H directs this film about a young boy who wat movie in which a pig is slaughtered and the a schoolmate in a similar fashion.

•Oct. 14, 4:40 pm. Haneke directs Das S (The Castle) 1997, in which a family is as leave their house when a nearby airport wis expand, but the family tries to protect its tu

•Oct. 17, 8:30 pm. Wer War Edgar Allan? Was Edgar Allan?) 1984. See Oct. 21 Harvar Archive listing for film description.

•Oct. 18, 5:45 pm. Siebente Kontinent, De Seventh Continent) 1989. A family plans t to Australia, after their daughter pretends blind to protest how boring and mundan lives have become. Haneke directs.

•Oct. 18, 7:45 pm. Haneke directs Die Re (The Rebellion) 1993. See Oct. 22 Harvar Archive listing for film description.

•Oct. 20, 12 pm. Funny Games 1997. D Michael Haneke's film follows two youn who find entertainment in torturing an class family on vacation.

MUSEUM OF SCIENCE

Charles Hayden Planetarium

•Far, Far Away: The Worlds of Star War the Death Star to Tatooine, explore the te backgrounds of the Star Wars movies and c them to real planets in our solar system.T Oct. 29.

•Into the Unknown. This planetarium sho ines the current science concerning the univ traterrestrial life and mysterious phenomena black holes. Through Oct. 31.

•The Sky Tonight. Learn how to point stars, planets and constellations visible a Ongoing.

3-D Digital Cinema

•Bugs! A live-action nature film starring a mantis and a butterfly.

•3-D Sun. Join NASA's STEREO satelli mission to document and study Earth's close

•The World of Sharks. Come face-to-face ocean's greatest and often most misun predator, as filmed by Jean-Michel Cousteau

NEW ENGLAND AQUARIUM

•Deep Sea 3-D. An underwater crew sper than 300 hours studying squid in the Sea o jellyfish off Monterey and coral reefs in the B nosaurs 3-D: Giants of Patagonia. Follow a team rgentinian paleontologists in their quest to un- r information about the lives of early dinosaurs.

arks. Come face-to-face with the ocean's great- nd often most misunderstood predator, as filmed an-Michel Cousteau.
nales. Follow different whales during their ation journey and learn how they interact ugh a system of calls.

MERVILLE THEATRE
t. 12, 7 pm. Imitation 2006. See Oct. 12 Harvard Archive listing for film description.

IDIO CINEMA
t. 12, 7 pm. Imitation 2006. See Oct. 12 Har- Film Archive listing for film description. Im- iatly following, the shorts The Job 2007 and ipajes (Baggage Claim) 2007. In Spanish with ish subtitles.

inema Venues

LINGTON
pitol Theater
Mass. Ave. (781-648-4340). MBTA: Red Line to er, then #77 Bus to Arlington Center.
gent Theatre
edford St. (781-646-4849). MBTA: Red Line to ife, then #79 Bus to Arlington Heights.

MONT
idio Cinema
Trapelo Road (617-484-1706) MBTA: Red Line to vard, then #73 Bus to Beech St.

STON
ston Public Library
Boylston St. (617-536-5400). MBTA: Green Line opley or Orange Line to Back Bay.
nway 13 Theatre
Brookline Ave. (617-424-6266). MBTA: D en Line to Fenway.
ethe-Institut Boston
Beacon St. (617-262-6050). MBTA: Green Line rlington.
titute of Contemporary Art

In the Shadow of the Moon documents the glories of NASA's Apollo missions.

100 Northern Ave. (617-266-5152). MBTA: Red Line to South Station, then Silver Line to Courthouse.
Loews Boston Common
175 Tremont St. (617-423-3499). MBTA: Green Line to Boylston.
Museum of Fine Arts
465 Huntington Ave. (617-267-9300). MBTA: E Green Line to Museum.
Museum of Science
1 Science Park (617-723-2500). MBTA: Green Line to Science Park.
New England Aquarium
1 Central Wharf (866-815-4629). MBTA: Blue Line to Aquarium.

BROOKLINE
Coolidge Corner Theatre
290 Harvard St. (617-734-2500). MBTA: C Green Line to Coolidge Corner.

CAMBRIDGE
Brattle Theatre
40 Brattle St. (617-876-6837). MBTA: Red Line to Harvard.
Harvard Film Archive
24 Quincy St. (617-495-4700). MBTA: Red Line to Harvard.
Harvard Natural History Museum
26 Oxford St. (617-495-3045). MBTA: Red Line to Harvard.
Kendall Square Cinema
1 Kendall Square (617-499-1996). MBTA: Red Line to Kendall/MIT.
Loews/Sony
10 Church St. (617-864-4580). MBTA: Red Line to Harvard.

NEWTON
Chestnut Hill Cinema
27 Boylston St. (617-277-2500). MBTA: D Green Line to Chestnut Hill.
West Newton Cinema
1296 Washington St. (617-964-6060). MBTA: Commuter Rail to West Newton.

SOMERVILLE
Loews/Sony
35 Middlesex Ave. (617-628-7000). MBTA: Orange Line to Sullivan.
Somerville Theatre
55 Davis Square (617-625-5700). MBTA: Red Line to Davis.

WALTHAM
Brandeis University
415 South St. (781-736-8600). MBTA: Commuter Rail to Brandeis/Roberts.

My Old School

The Hold Steady's Craig Finn spins yarns of misspent youth

BY PAUL ROBICHEAU

Even in its most literary form, rock 'n' roll doesn't usually garner academic recognition—especially if it paints characters down at the party pit, plastered, "screwed up by religion" and "screwed by soccer players." So it was interesting to find Craig Finn of the Hold Steady returning to his alma mater, Boston College, last month to discuss his craft in a master class.

Craig Finn (center), Boston College class of '93, anchors the Hold Steady

"It's kind of a testament to rock 'n' roll and what it can be," says 36-year-old Finn, who once intended to apply his 1993 communications degree to work as a traditional writer like other friends. "I go to see them read, and there are 14 people there. That's a good thing about writing along with the volume and melody that comes with rock 'n' roll. It does make it easier to gain a receptive audience.

"It's flattering for the university to recognize that," he says on the train from his Brooklyn home to the BC event. "Among other things, it's just way different from what I've done 300 other times this year, which is to play a rock show."

That's what he'll be doing when the Hold Steady launch a national tour Oct. 21 at Lupo's in Providence and Oct. 22 at the Roxy. That'll be the first time the quintet hits Boston since their 2006 album Boys and Girls in America earned Top 10 honors from Rolling Stone, Entertainment Weekly, Pitchfork and Billboard, as well as the IMPROPER. Not that Finn expected to be any kind of rock star when he was at BC.

"I didn't know it was an option for me," says Finn, who began college before Nirvana broke out. "There was a big chasm between what was on the radio and what was in the clubs, and I was interested in what was in the clubs.

"I went to see shows a lot at the Middle East and T.T.'s, but I was a pretty traditional BC kid," he says. "It's a pretty conservative campus. I went to a lot of keg parties and football games. I was into punk rock and things like that from when I [grew up] in Minneapolis, but it was kind of a solitary pursuit while I was in Boston."

Once back in Minneapolis, Finn tried his hand at fronting a rock group, Lifter Puller, and found his foil in guitarist Tad Kubler. After that band broke up, the two relocated to New York and formed the Hold Steady, which reflected their love for Thin Lizzy, Cheap Trick and the Replacements.

It was a sound that definitely didn't fit the New York scene of the '90s. "Things were way more related to the fashion industry in some ways than they were to rock 'n' roll," says Finn. "We didn't think [our music] would be that unusual. We're just trying to do straight-ahead rock, but only in the way that we can play."

That would include Finn's anecdotal, gruff-voiced vignettes ("My talking voice, amplified," he told his BC disciples), which ride the Hold Steady's old-school guitar riffs and keyboard flourishes with a distinct echo of early Bruce Springsteen. "We're all huge Springsteen fans," says the singer. "He's a bit of a storyteller with a really good rock band, and that's what we hope to be also."

Finn says his lyrics are "mainly based on the types of people that I knew from [ages] 17 to 23. They aren't one-to-one relationships. Characters aren't based on one specific person. It's kind of that age where you think you know everything, but you actually aren't that smart." His characters' booze and drug-riddled adventures also include references to Minnesota and Massachusetts in the way the Boss would describe the Jersey shore. "My teenage years involved both booze and drugs," Finn says, "but I don't think any more than what I think of as your average American kid.

"There's some part of rock 'n' roll that is hearsay also—you don't necessarily trust the guy who's telling you the story," he says. "But what we do is actually pretty honest.... When you can actually describe something in detail that someone else feels—that's how you start to connect with people through writing."

That night at BC, Finn was holding court on such subjects as suffering and redemption, sharing the microphone with Springsteen at a Carnegie Hall tribute and a repeating reference to "Penetration Park" on the Hold Steady's 2005 disc Separation Sunday. He compared that fictional park to the reed-thick Back Bay Fens, "the kind of place where people say, 'What were you doing there?'" The fact that Finn was addressing this stuff at a BC writer's forum might have prompted the same question.

The Hold Steady
plays the Roxy Oct. 22.

Advice to Contributors

Submit information labeled "Rock," "Blues," etc fax (617-859-1446), by mail to Calendar/Music by email to music@improper.com. Include da times, prices, phone numbers and nearest T s Deadline is four weeks prior to publication date. I ings not accepted over the phone.

Advice to Readers

Information for the Music section is compiled from ferent sources. Although we make every effort to vide accurate dates and times, changes do occur. ahead to double-check dates and times (see comp list of venues at the end of the section).

Top Billings

Tori Amos Oct. 18 and 19, Orpheum The (617-679-0810).
Bad Religion Oct. 16, Roxy (617-338-7699).
Kelly Clarkson, Jon McLaughlin Oct. 21, Mohe Sun (888-226-7711); Oct. 23, Orpheum The (617-679-0810).
The Hives Oct. 14, The Middle East (617- 9181).
Hot Hot Heat Oct. 11, Paradise Rock Club (562-8800).
Maroon 5 Oct. 12, Mohegan Sun (888-226-77 Oct. 15, TD Banknorth Garden (617-931-200 Matt Nathanson Oct. 13, Roxy (617-338-769
The Smashing Pumpkins Oct. 13 and 15, pheum Theatre (617-679-0810).
Regina Spektor Oct. 14, Orpheum Theatre (679-0810).
The Wallflowers Oct. 21, Somerville The (617-625-5700).

Rock, Jazz and Blues

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 10

Abbey Lounge Knuckledusters, Sweet Chooglin, Thrillride, 9 pm, $8, 21+.
Atwood's Tavern Teresa Storch, 10 pm, no c 21+.
Cantab Lounge Candy's Blues, Jazz and Rock 9 pm, no cover, 21+.
Club Passim Tom Brosseau, 8 pm, $10-$12.
Dick's Last Resort Jonno, 7 pm, no cover.
The Fireplace The Dow Brain Trio, 9:30 pm.
Great Scott Casey Desmond, 9 pm, $8, 18+.
The Green Dragon Tavern John Cochran, pm, no cover, 21+.
Harpers Ferry Ingram Hill, 9 pm, $12, 18+.
Johnny D's Stratospheerius, 9 pm, $10, 21+.
Kennedy's Midtown Christie Leigh, 8:30 pm 18+.
Lizard Lounge The Dennis Brennan Band, pm, $5, 21+.
Middle East Upstairs: Tim Barry, William Whitmore, Josh Small, $10, 18+. Downstairs: talism, Big Digits, DJ E-Marce, $10 in adv $12 at the door, 18+.
Northshore Music Theater Englebert Hu dinck, 7:30 pm, $55-$65, all ages.
O'Brien's Fjord, Irepress, Jacobi Wichita, Mo pm, $7, 21+.
Orpheum Phil Lesh, Jackie Green, 7:30 pm,
Paddy O's Bear Fight, 9:30 pm, no cover, 21-
Paradise Rock Club ALO, the Brakes, 7 pm 18+.
PA's Mad Happy, Shmu L, 9 pm, $6-8, 21+.
Regattabar Pierre Hurel, 7:30 pm, $12, 21+.
Roxy Pinback, 8 pm, $17.50, all ages.
Scullers Jazz Club Average White Band, 8 p 10 pm, $25-$65.
Taj Boston Street Bar Alfredo Cardim, 6 pm cover, 21+.
Terrace Lounge Al Vega Trio, 9:30 pm, no 21+.
Toad Alexandra Scott and the Fleurs Tragi pm, no cover, 21+; Julie Lloyd, 9:30 pm, no 21+.
Top of the Hub Chris Taylor Trio, 8:30 pm.
T.T. the Bear's Place Jesse Malin, Thalia Viva Viva, 9 pm, $10, 18+.
Les Zygomates Yoko Miwa Trio, 8 pm, Free

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 11

Abbey Lounge Blow Up Dad, the Dirty C Fireking, 9 pm, $8, 21+.
Alchemist Lounge John Hayden, 10 pm, no 21+.
Atwood's Tavern The Resophonics, 10 cover, 21+.
Breezeway Serious Bizness, 7:30 pm, no co
The Burren Swinging Johnsons, 10 pm, $5,

ADVANCE SEATING

UPCOMING HEADLINERS

The Academy Is Nov. 7, Palladium (508-797-9696).
Augustana, Dashboard Confessional Nov. 8 and 9, Palladium (508-797-9696).
Buffalo Tom Oct. 26, Somerville Theater (617-625-5700).
Crosby & Nash Oct. 24, Mechanics Hall (508-752-5608).
Fall Out Boy, Cute Is What We Aim For, Gym Class Heroes, Plain White T's Nov. 9, Tsongas Arena (978-848-6900).
JAM'N 94.5 Monster Jam '07 featuring Kanye West, Akon, Lil' Wayne and more Oct. 29, TD Banknorth Garden (617-624-1000).
Morrissey Oct. 30, Orpheum Theater (617-679-0810).
New Found Glory, Senses Fail Oct. 31, Palladium (508-797-9696).
The Police Nov. 11, TD Banknorth Garden (617-624-1000).
Van Halen Oct. 30, TD Banknorth Garden (617-624-1000).
Dionne Warwick Oct. 27 and 28, Cutler Majestic Theatre (800-233-3123).

tab Lounge The Chicken Slacks, 9 pm, no r, 21+.
Passim Peter Mulvey, 8 pm, $18-$20.
Fireplace The Cuban Jazz Project, 9:30 pm.
Foundation Lounge Soul Night, Evan drow and the Foundation Lounge band "Souli-s" play Motown, R&B and soul classics, 9 pm, over, 21+.
at Scott Shitdisco, 9 pm, $10, 18+.
Green Dragon Tavern The Spitting Vinnies, pm, no cover, 21+.
nessy's Upstairs: Hookers and Blow, 9:30 pm, over, 21+. Downstairs: Fly Switch, 9:30 pm, no r, 21+.
ny D's F.O.D. Fest, 9:30 pm, no cover, all ages.
Joshua Tree DJ Don, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.
rd Lounge The Parker String Quartet, 8 pm, 21+; Jeff Ginsburg, Jesse Dee, Ryan Fitzsim-s Band, 9:30 pm, $8, 21+.
t Murphy's Wild Sextet, 11 pm, no cover, 21+.
dle East Upstairs: gNotes, Elemental Zazen, erpowers, Kabir, Aztech, 9 pm, $10 in advance, at the door, 18+. Downstairs: High On Fire, no, Panthers, Coliseum, 7:30 pm, $10 in ad-ce, $12 at the door, 18+.
Dooley's Finbar Furey, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.
dy O's Inbound, 9:30 pm, no cover, 21+.
adise Rock Club Hot Hot Heat, 8 pm, $19.50, .
; The Honored Guests, Blanketeer, 9 pm, $6-8, .
attabar Tierra Tango featuring Katie Viqueira, pm, $17, 21+.
y Gogol Bordello, 7:30 pm, $17, all ages.
liers Jazz Club Stanley Jordan Trio, 8 pm and m, $25-$65.
etwater Café Birds on a Wire, 8 pm, no cover, .
Boston Street Bar Bill Duffy, 6 pm, no cover, .
race Lounge Eric McFadden, 9:30 pm, no er, 21+.
d Garrett Brennan, 7 pm, no cover, 21+; The astman Band, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.
my Doyles The Josh Dion Band, 9:30 pm, $2, .
of the Hub Chris Taylor Trio, 8:30 pm.
the Bear's Place Middle Distance Runner, the in Janes, the Gay Blades, Syme, 9 pm, $9, 18+.
Zygomates Rusty Scott Quartet, 8 pm, no er, 21+.

IDAY, OCTOBER 12

bey Lounge Dirt Mall, Eric Salt and Electric y, Auto Interiors, 9 pm, $8, 21+.
Asia Café Southbound Underground, Death-k, the Bad Apples, Acoustic Chatter, 7 pm, $6, . wood's Tavern The Tim Gearan Band, 10 pm, cover, 21+.
e Baseball Tavern: Downstairs Dexter Romwe-, 8 pm, 21+.
rklee Performance Center Ashford and Simp-, 8 pm, $48-$58.
's Bar Primary Others, Dirty Sanchez, the nksquad, 8:30 pm, $10, 18+.
ck Horse Tavern Ken Freeman, 9 pm, no cover, .
e Black Rose McTaggerts, 9:30 pm, $5, 21+.
e Burren Moonshine, 10 pm, $5, 21+.
ntab Lounge Upstairs: Diane Blue and the Fat-back Band, 9 pm, $5, 21+. Downstairs: Geezer, Clydesdale Cowboys, 9 pm, $5, 21+.
Club Café The Painted Lady, Dana Danzel, Thirsty Burlington, Ashley Michelle, 7 pm, $15-$32, 21+.
Club Passim Peter Mulvey, 8 pm, $18-$20.
Copperfield's Umelt, 8 pm, $10, 21+.
Dante's of Quincy Hoodoo Revelator, 9:30 pm, $6, 21+.
Dick's Last Resort The Remix, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.
Felt Las Chicas Cazadores, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.
The Fireplace Gypsy Schaeffer, 9:30 pm.
The Green Dragon Tavern Planet Envy, 9:30 pm, $5, 21+.
The Harp Liquid A, 10 pm, $10, 21+.
Harpers Ferry Playin' Dead, 9 pm, $7, 21+.
Hennessy's Upstairs: Inbound, 9:30 pm, $5, 21+. Downstairs: Me and Julio, 5 pm, $5, 21+; Lisa Love Connection, 9:30 pm, $5, 21+.
Jacob Wirth Mel Stiller, 8 pm, no cover, 21+.
Johnny D's Entrain, 9:45 pm, $15, 21+.
Jose McIntyres Velvet Jones, 10 pm, $5, 21+.
The Joshua Tree DJ Don, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.
Lizard Lounge The Chandler Travis Philharmonic, John Powhida International Airport, Amy Fairchild, $10, 21+.
Matt Murphy's Greg Luttrel, 11 pm, no cover, 21+.
Middle East Upstairs: On Fire, Shore Leave, Uz Jsme Doma, Capillary Action, 9 pm, $10 in advance, $12 at the door, 18+.
Midway Café Brian Kenney Fresno, the Gang Clan Mafia, 9 pm, 21+.
Mohegan Sun Maroon 5, 8 pm, $67.50-$75.
Mr. Dooley's Declan and Kevin, 9 pm, $5, 21+.
O'Brien's Yip Yip, Life Partners, Health, Crime Novels, 9 pm, $7, 21+.
Orpheum Queens of the Stone Age, 7:30 pm, $35, all ages.
Paddy O's Incadence, 9:30 pm, $5, 21+.
Paradise Lounge Cahill, Adam Payne, Jen Murdza, 8 pm, $10, 18+.
Paradise Rock Club !!!, the Field, 8 pm, $15, 18+.
Parris Kristen and the Noise, 10 pm, $10, 21+.
PA's Mariee Sioux, Aaron Ross, Lee Bob Watson, 9 pm, $6-8, 21+.
Regattabar Chris Potter's Underground, 7:30 and 10 pm, $22-$25, 21+.
Roxy Of Montreal, 6:30 pm, $20, all ages.
Ryles Jazz Club Mark Elf, 9 pm.
Scullers Jazz Club Warren Hill, 8 pm and 10:30 pm, $25-$65.
Taj Boston Street Bar Eugene Maslov, Bert Seager Trio, 6 pm, no cover, 21+.
Terrace Lounge Front and Center, 9:30 pm, no cover, 21+.
Toad Rocky Velvet, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.
Tommy Doyles Ezra Furman and the Harpoons, the Willows, 9:30 pm, $2, 21+.
Top of the Hub Chris Taylor Group, 9 pm.
Venezia Passions, 8 pm, no cover, 21+.
Les Zygomates Ronnie Ron Trio, 8 pm, no cover, 21+.

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 13

Abbey Lounge Reports, Dead Mechanical, Black Clouds, Sick Sick Bird, 9 pm, $8.
Berklee Performance Center Mary Black, 8 pm, $40-$45.
Bill's Bar Syd, 8:30 pm, $10, 18+.

COME IF BY LAND,
COME IF BY SEA.

Live Music Sunday,
Tuesday and Thursday

Open daily for lunch
and dinner

Boston's favorite, casual, waterfront
dining experience

THE BARKING CRAB
RESTAURANT
88 SLEEPER STREET, BOSTON, MA 02210
617.426.CRAB WWW.BARKINGCRAB.COM

Black Horse Tavern Wishful Thinking, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.
The Black Rose McTaggerts, 9:30 pm, $5, 21+.
The Burren Pi Alley, 10 pm, $5, 21+.
Cantab Lounge Upstairs: Diane Blue and the Fatback Band, 9 pm, $5, 21+. Downstairs: Napoleon Solo, Gout 32, 9 pm, $5, 21+.
Club Café The Painted Lady, Dana Danzel, Thirsty Burlington, Ashley Michelle, 7 pm, $15-$32, 21+.
Dante's of Quincy Lisa Marie and All Shook Up, 9:30 pm, $7, 21+.
Dick's Last Resort Emergency Broadcast System, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.
The Fireplace Grupo Fantasia, 9:30 pm.
Great Scott Hooray for Earth Age Rings, Harris, the Secret Life of Sophia, 9 pm, $10, 21+.
The Green Dragon Tavern Incadence, 9:30 pm, $5, 21+.
The Harp Liquid A, 10 pm, $10, 21+.
Harpers Ferry The Indefinite Article, Bleedin' Bleedins, Gonna Get Got, the Alchemystics, 9 pm, $10 in advance, $12 at the door, 18+.
Hennessy's Upstairs: Sweep the Leg, 9:30pm, $5, 21+. Downstairs: Scooby Snax, 9:30 pm, $5, 21+.
Johnny D's The Mystics, 9:45 pm, $10, 21+.
Kennedy's Midtown My Lucky Stars, Glenn Michael, Garth Michael McDermott, 9:30 pm, $5, 21+.
Lizard Lounge Emergency Music, the Russians, Brad Byrd, $10, 21+.
Matt Murphy's Gypsy Schaeff, 11 pm, no cover, 21+.
Middle East Upstairs: Pet Genius, Clouds, Blacktail, Angels of Meth, 9 pm, $8, 18+. Downstairs: Voxtrot, 1990s, the Little Ones, 8 pm, $12, 18+.
Mr. Dooley's Declan and Kevin, 9:30 pm, $5, 21+.
O'Brien's The Welch Boys, the Blue Bloods, the Pug Uglies, 9 pm, $7, 21+.
Orpheum The Smashing Pumpkins, 7:30 pm, $39.50-$59.50, all ages.
Paradise Rock Club Architecture in Helsinki, Panther, 8 pm, $15, 18+.
Parris Kristen and the Noise, 10 pm, $10, 21+.
PA's Matters and Dunaway, Birds and Batteries, the Curtain Society, Deer Tick, 9 pm, $6-8, 21+.
Purple Shamrock Velvet Jones and DJ Jeff, 10 pm, $5, 21+.
Regattabar Chris Potter's Underground, 7:30 and 10 pm, $22-$25, 21+.
Roxy Matt Nathanson, 6 pm, $18, all ages.
Scullers Jazz Club Warren Hill, 8 pm and 10:30 pm, $25-$65.
Sweetwater Café Jackson Weatherbee and the Groove Merchant, 8 pm, no cover, 21+.
Taj Boston Street Bar Eugene Maslov, 6 pm, no cover, 21+.
Terrace Lounge Front and Center, 9:30 pm, no cover, 21+.
Toad Dave Alpert, 7 pm, no cover, 21+; George Overdrive, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.
Tommy Doyles Six Day Slide, 9:30 pm, $2, 21+.
Top of the Hub Chris Taylor Group, 9pm.
T.T. the Bear's Place Red Elvises, 11:30 pm, $15, 18+.
Venezia Passions, 8 pm, no cover, 21+.
Les Zygomates Al Vega, 8 pm, no cover, 21+.

SUNDAY, OCTOBER 14

Atwood's Tavern Sinti Rhythm, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.
Cantab Lounge Candy's Blues, Jazz and Rock Jam, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.
Dick's Last Resort Jonno, 7 pm, no cover.
Great Scott The Ricecookers, the Silent Years, 9 pm, $7, 18+.
The Green Dragon Tavern Velvet Morning, 9:30 pm, no cover, 21+.
Harpers Ferry The Sinister Turns, Forest Henderson, the Dreamscapes Project, American Princes, 9 pm, $7, 21+.
Hennessy's Downstairs: Sweep the Leg, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.
Kennedy's Midtown Ashley Rhodes, Sean Kalis, Julia Carroll, Eric Colville, 6 pm, $5, 18+.
Lily Pad Steve Thomas and the Co-Conspirators, 3 pm, $10, all ages.
Matt Murphy's Vibewise, 11 pm, no cover, 21+.
Middle East Upstairs: Division Day, iLikeTrains, 9 pm, $9, 18+. Downstairs: The Hives, 8 pm, $12, 18+.
Mr. Dooley's Declan and Kevin, 9:30 pm, no cover, 21+.
O'Brien's Serious Geniuses, Jena Berlin, the Hours, Rosetta, 9 pm, $7, 21+.
Orpheum Regina Spektor, 7:30 pm, $25-$35, all ages.
Paddy O's The Gobshites, 9:30 pm, no cover, 21+.
Paradise Lounge Barefoot Truth, Annie Lynch, 7 pm, $8, 18+.

!!! imperatively thunders its way through a set at the Paradise Rock Club Oct. 12.

Paradise Rock Club Shooter Jennings, Earl Greyhound 7 pm, $15, 18+.
PA's Grunt, Putrifier, FFH, Karlheinz, Fire in the Head, 9 pm, $6-8, 21+.
Roxy Alter Bridge, 7 pm, $22.50, all ages.
Sanders Theater Spiritual Music of Central Asia, 7:30 pm, $28-$40, all ages.
Terrace Lounge Ray Santisi Trio, 5:30 pm, no cover, 21+.
Toad Teresa Storch, 8 pm, no cover, 21+; Miss Tess and the Bon Tron Parade, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.
Top of the Hub Marty Ballou Trio, 8 pm; Lee Childs Group, 12 pm.
T.T. the Bear's Place Anders Parker, Walter Salas-Humara, Michael Murray, 9:15 pm, $10, 18+.

MONDAY, OCTOBER 15

Atwood's Tavern Duke Levine Band, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.
The Burren Set Dancing, 8 pm, $5, 21+.
Cantab Lounge Lisa Marie and Paul Speidel, 9:30 pm, no cover, 21+.
Club Passim Leonia Teaneck, 11 pm, $10.
Dick's Last Resort Paul Fudin, 7 pm, no cover.
Hennessy's Downstairs: Joe Carson, 9:30 pm, no cover, 21+.
Matt Murphy's Maeve Gilchrist, 11 pm, no cover, 21+.
Middle East Upstairs: Township, Major Stars, Sky Pilot, Bald Eagle, 9 pm, $8, 18+.
Midway Café Samba Lolo, Boubacar Diabete, 9:30 pm, 21+.
Orpheum The Smashing Pumpkins, 7:30 pm, $39.50-$59.50, all ages.
Paradise Rock Club Serj Tankian, the Nightwatchman, 7 pm, $26, 18+.
PA's Southeast Engine, Cuddle Magic, 9 pm, $6-8, 21+.
TD Banknorth Garden Maroon 5, 7:30 pm, $38-$48, all ages.
Toad Shwang, Anita Suhanin, 8 pm; the Tim Gearan Band, 10:51 pm. No cover, 21+.
Top of the Hub Chris Taylor Trio, 8 pm.

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 16

Atwood's Tavern Jeremy Lyons, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.
Bill's Bar You Can Be a Wesley, the Make, the Peasantry, Coffinberry, Lifejacket, 7:30 pm, $10, 18+.
Cantab Lounge Jubilee Mule, 8:30 pm; Flynn Cohen and the Chagrin River Band, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.
Club Passim Po' Girl, 8 pm, $15.
Dick's Last Resort Jason Marr, 7 pm, no cover.
The Green Dragon Tavern Dave Leib, 9:30 pm, no cover, 21+.
Harpers Ferry The Lawrence Arms, American Steel, the Falcon, Sundowner, 8 pm, $10 in advance, $12 at door, all ages.
Hennessy's Downstairs: Scott Damgaard, 9:30 pm, no cover, 21+.
Johnny D's Princes of Hollywood, 8:30 pm, $10, 21+.
Lizard Lounge Sparrow, 9 pm, $7, 21+.
Matt Murphy's B3 Kings, 11 pm, no cover, 21+.
Mr. Dooley's Ring of Fire Band, 8:30, no cover, 21+.
O'Brien's Winsome Griffles, Spoilsport, 9 pm 21+.
Orpheum The Smashing Pumpkins, 7:30 $39.50-$59.50, all ages.
Paradise Lounge Pigeon John, 7 pm, $10 in vance, $12 day of the show, 18+.
PA's Slaraffendland, the Coast, the Can't H Enough Pitching Players, 9 pm, $6-8, 21+.
Regattabar Dave Fiuczynski's KiF, 7:30 pm, 21+.
Roxy Bad Religion, 7 pm, $23.50, all ages.
Scullers Jazz Club Al and Barb Boudreau Qua 8 pm and 10 pm, $16-$56.
Toad Gretel, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.
Top of the Hub Chris Taylor Trio, 8:30 pm.
T.T. the Bear's Place The Cliks, the Divor Pink Nasty, 9 pm, $8, 18+.
Les Zygomates Mark Zaleski Trio, 8 pm, no c 21+.

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 17

Abbey Lounge Ben Hochberg, Christine L Band, Natalie Flanagan, Danielle Miraglia, 9 $7, 21+.
Atwood's Tavern Teresa Storch, 10 pm, no c 21+.
Bill's Bar 2Adam12, Laura Vecchione, Inf Frequency, Shira Buckler, 8:30 pm, $7-$10, 18
Club Passim Erin McKeown, Joshua James, $25, $23 for members.
The Green Dragon Tavern John Cochran, pm, no cover, 21+.
Harpers Ferry Voodoo Glow Skulls, Mustard Left Alone, the Thickness, 8 pm, $12, all ages
Hennessy's Upstairs: 4th of July, 9:30, no c 21+.
Johnny D's Beausoleil, 9 pm, $22, 21+.
Kennedy's Midtown Paul Minnich, 8:30 pn 18+.
Lily Pad Bobby Toabe, Kyle Aho, Josh Rosen Aharon Huge Band, 12 pm, $15-$20, all ages.
Lizard Lounge Alexandra Scott, the Fleurs iques, 7:30 pm, no cover, 21+; the Dennis Bre Band, 9:30 pm, $5, 21+.
Middle East Upstairs: Fake Problems, Nothir Movers and Shakers, 9 pm, $8 in advance, the door, 18+.
O'Brien's Doug Stanhope, Tim McIntire, Dustin, 9 pm, $10 in advance, $12 at the 21+.
Orpheum Rodrigo y Gabriela, 7:30 pm, $ $35, all ages.
Paddy O's Bear Fight, 9:30 pm, no cover, 21-
Paradise Lounge Smoke Bulga, Frankie wright, Dre Robinson, Certified Gz, 8 pm 21+.
Paradise Rock Club Little Brother, Evi Psalm One, 7 pm, $15, 18+.
PA's MV & EE, Windy Smiles, Mmoss, 9 pm 21+.
Regattabar Anat Cohen, 7:30 pm, $18, 21+
Roxy Spoon, 8 pm, $20, all ages.
Ryles Jazz Club Lamine Toure and Group S 9 pm.
Scullers Jazz Club Bobby Caldwell, 8 and $40-$80.
Taj Boston Street Bar Alfredo Cardim, 6 pr cover, 21+.

ıce Lounge Al Vega Trio, 7 pm, no cover, 21+.
The Fathoms Trio, 9:30 pm, no cover, 21+.
of the Hub Chris Taylor Trio, 8:30 pm.
he Bear's Place The Broken West, Mittens, haky Hands, 9:15 pm, $8, 18+.
Zygomates Eric van Damm Trio, 8 pm, no , 21+.

URSDAY, OCTOBER 18

emist Lounge Todne Texeira Jazz Band, 10 no cover, 21+.
ood's Tavern The Resophonics, 10 pm, no , 21+.
zeway Serious Bizness, 7:30 pm, no cover.
Burren Swinging Johnsons, 10 pm, $5, 21+.
ab Lounge Chicken Slacks, 9:30, 21+.
Passim Erin McKeown, Joshua James, 7 and m, $25, $23 for members.
t Scott IAMX, 9 pm, $12, 18+.
Green Dragon Tavern The Spitting Vinnies, pm, no cover, 21+.
ers Ferry Amy Lavere, 9 pm, $8 in advance, t door, 18+.
nessy's Upstairs: The Wonderful Spells, 9:30 no cover, 21+. Downstairs: Fly Switch, 9:30 no cover, 21+.
ny D's Burkina Electric, 9:30 pm.
oshua Tree DJ Don, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.
edy's Midtown John Mansfield, 9 pm, $5,

Pad Paul Barringer, Manisha Shahane, andra Samsonova, Sam Gilman, 12 pm, $15- all ages.
rd Lounge The Parker String Quartet, Miss and the Bon Ton Parade, $8, 21+.
Murphy's Wild Sextet, 11 pm, no cover, 21+.
lle East Upstairs: Slim Cessna's Auto Club, Wrong Reasons, 9 pm, $10, 18+.
eum Tori Amos, 7:30 pm, $39.50-$49.50, all y O's Inbound, 9:30 pm, no cover, 21+.

dise Lounge The Indobox, Lifted, 8 pm, $10,

dise Rock Club Stephen Kellogg and the Six- Tyrone Wells, Brian Bergeron, 8 pm, $16.50, Maleblood, We Versus the Shark, Debate, en Catcher, 9 pm, $6-$8, 21+.

Regattabar Jazz Mandolin Project, 7:30 pm, $20, 21+.
Roxy Yonder Mountain String Band, 8 pm, $20, all ages.
Scullers Jazz Club Bobby Caldwell, 8 and 10 pm, $40-$80.
Sweetwater Café Dann Russo, 8 pm, no cover, 21+.
Taj Boston Street Bar Bill Duffy, 6 pm, no cover, 21+.
Terrace Lounge Eric McFadden, 7 pm, no cover, 21+.
Toad Beth Boucher, 7 pm, no cover, 21+; Madi Diaz, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.
Tommy Doyles Audio Underground, 9:30 pm, $2, 21+.
Top of the Hub Chris Taylor Trio, 8:30 pm.
Les Zygomates Benjamin Sharoni Quartet, 8 pm, no cover, 21+.

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 19

Armenian Library and Museum of America Musaner Folk Jazz Band, 8 pm, $10, all ages.
Atwood's Tavern The Tim Gearan Band, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.
The Basement GangGreen, 8 pm, 21+.
Berklee Performance Center Stars, 7:30 pm, $20.
Bill's Bar On the Drop, the Big Heavy, 8:30, $10, 18+.
Black Horse Tavern Wishful Thinking, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.
The Black Rose Frank Ryan, 9:30 pm, $5, 21+.
The Burren Cover Up, 10 pm, $5, 21+.
Cantab Lounge Butterknife, the Doug MacDonald Band and others, 9 pm, $5, 21+.
Club Passim Eric Anderson, 8 pm, $18-$20.
Dante's of Quincy Dirty Blonde, 9:30 pm, $6, 21+.
Dick's Last Resort Spogga, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.
The Green Dragon Tavern Freeze Pop, 9:30, $5, 21+.
The Harp The Zoo, 10 pm, $10, 21+.
Harpers Ferry Chad Perrone, 9 pm, $8, 18+.
Hennessy's Upstairs: Incadence, 9:30 pm, $5, 21+. Downstairs: Four Inch Stud, 9:30 pm, $5, 21+.
Jacob Wirth Mel Stiller, no cover, 21+.
Jose McIntyres Fast Times, 10 pm, $5, 21+.
Lily Pad Sharon C., Michael McNeill, Natti Vogel, Colin Stack Big Band, Peter Cp, all ages.

Matt Murphy's The Well, 11 pm, no cover, 21+.
Middle East Upstairs: Cheeseburger, Cocked n' Loaded, Wild Zero, Blood Vessels, 9 pm, $9, 18+. Downstairs: Clandestino, 8 pm, $10 in advance, $15 after 10 pm, 18+.
Mohegan Sun Phil Lesh, 7 pm, $35.
Mr. Dooley's Eamonn Sheehan, 5 pm, $5, 21+; Sunday's Well, 9 pm, $5, 21+.
O'Brien's Disaster Strikes, Confront, Milo's Syndicate, 9 pm, $8, 21+.
Orpheum Tori Amos, 7:30 pm, $39.50-$49.50, all ages.
Paddy O's Last Laugh, 9:30 pm, $5, 21+.
Paradise Lounge Future Rock, Psylab, 8 pm, $12, 18+.
Paradise Rock Club Stephen Kellogg and the Sixers, Tyrone Wells, Brian Bergeron, 8 pm, $16.50, 18+.
Parris The Benderz, 10 pm, $10, 21+.
PA's The Gulf, Juan Prophet Organization, Muy Casanado, Drink Up Buttercup, 9 pm, $6-$8, 21+.
Real Deal Jazz Club and Café The Marta Gomez Group, 7 and 9:30 pm, $16.
Regattabar Paquito D'Rivera, 7:30 and 10 pm, $25-$28, 21+.
Roxy They Might Be Giants, 7:45 pm, $20, 18+.
Sander's Theatre Harvard Glee Club, Princeton Glee Club, St. George's Chapel Choir, 8 pm, $8-$16, all ages.
Scullers Jazz Club The Yellowjackets, 8 and 10:30 pm, $25-$65.
Somerville Theatre Oliver Mtukudzi and Black Spirits, 8 pm.
Taj Boston Street Bar Eugene Maslov, Bert Seager Trio, 6 pm, no cover, 21+.
Terrace Lounge Grove Alliance, 9:30 pm, no cover, 21+.
Toad John Cate and the Van Gogh Brothers, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.
Tommy Doyles Hot Day at the Zoo, 9:30 pm, $2, 21+.
Top of the Hub Chris Taylor Group, 9 pm.
T.T. the Bear's Place Caspian, Constants, Charlene, Junius, 9:15 pm, $10, 18+.
Venezia Tom Pitman, 8 pm, no cover, 21+.
Les Zygomates Ronnie Ron Trio, 8 pm, no cover, 21+.

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 20

Atwood's Tavern Jason Criegler, 6 pm, no cover, 21+.
Black Horse Tavern Freeman and Rohrer, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.
The Black Rose Frank Ryan, 9:30 pm, $5, 21+.
The Burren Spitting Vinnies, 10 pm, $5, 21+ .
Cantab Lounge Downstairs: Doom Buggies, Bunny Ranch, Lyres, Almighty Terribles, 9 pm, $10, 21+.
Club Passim Melissa Ferrick, 7 and 10 pm, $28-$30.
Dante's of Quincy Insufficient Funds, 9:30 pm, $6, 21+.
Dick's Last Resort Sweep the Leg, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.
Great Scott The Octopus Project, Enon, Ho-Ag, 9 pm, $10, 21+.
The Green Dragon Tavern Scooby Snax, 9:30 pm, $5, 21+.
The Harp The Zoo, 10 pm, $10, 21+.
Harpers Ferry Adam Ezra Group, 9 pm, 18+.
Hennessy's Upstairs: Ten Year Vamp, 9:30 pm, $5, 21+. Downstairs: Syndicate, 9:30 pm, $5, 21+.
Johnny D's Alpha Yaya Diallo, Boubacar Diabate, Samba Lolo, 9:45 pm.
Lily Pad Ben Stepner, Doug Johnson, Kevin Harris and others, 12 pm, $15-$20, all ages.
Lizard Lounge The Hellblinki Sextet, Walter Sickert and the Army of Broken Toys, 7 pm, $10, 21+.
Matt Murphy's Ten Tumbao, 11 pm, no cover, 21+.
Middle East Upstairs: Golem, 8 pm, $12, 18+. Downstairs: Del Tha Funkee Homosapien, Devin the Dude, Bukue One, 8 pm, $22, 18+.
Mr. Dooley's Sunday's Well, 9:30 pm, $5, 21+.
Paradise Rock Club Parker House and Theory, Eric Hutchinson, Scott Harris, 8 pm, $12, 18+.
Parris The Benderz, 10 pm, $10, 21+.
PA's Thomas Nola, Kill Henry Sugar, Milquetoast, 9 pm, $6-8, 21+.
Purple Shamrock Blockhead, 10 pm, $5, 21+.
Scullers Jazz Club The Yellowjackets, 8 pm and 10:30 pm, $25-$65.
Sweetwater Café Jackson Weatherbee and the Groove Merchant, 8 pm, no cover, 21+.
Taj Boston Street Bar Eugene Maslov, 6 pm, no cover, 21+.
Terrace Lounge Groove Alliance, 9:30 pm, no cover, 21+.
Toad Ryan Fitzsimmons, 7 pm, no cover, 21+.

Jackie Green joins Phil Lesh at the Orpheum Theatre Oct. 10.

Tommy Doyles The Lonesomes, 9:30 pm, $2, 21+.
Top of the Hub Chris Taylor Group, 9 pm.
T.T. the Bear's Place Imperial Teen, the Snowleopards, Okay Thursday, Miskatonic, 9:15 pm, $10, 18+.
Upstairs at Union Street Jay Leonard and friends, 10 pm, $5, 21+.
Venezia Tom Pitman, 8 pm, no cover, 21+.
Les Zygomates DD Martin, 8 pm, no cover, 21+.

SUNDAY, OCTOBER 21

Cantab Lounge Candy's Blues, Jazz and Rock Jam, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.
Club Passim Melissa Ferrick, 7 pm, $28-$30.
Dick's Last Resort Jonno, 7 pm, no cover.
The Green Dragon Tavern Velvet Morning, 9:30 pm, no cover, 21+.
Hennessy's Downstairs: Sweep the Leg, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.
Kennedy's Midtown Christopher Michaud, 6 pm, $5, 18+.
Lily Pad Joanne Brackeen, Nando Michelin, Tim Peck and others, 12 pm, $15-$20, all ages.
Matt Murphy's Alex Toth, 11 pm, no cover, 21+.
Middle East Upstairs: Secondhand Serenade, Permanent Me, Rookie of the Year, 1 pm, $13, all ages. Downstairs: British Sea Power, Stardeath and White Dwarfs, 8 pm, $12, 18+.
Mohegan Sun Kelly Clarkson, 7 pm, $35-$75.
Mr. Dooley's Traditional Irish Sessuin, 4 pm, no cover, 21+.
O'Brien's Jupiter One, Copal, the Cyanide Valentine, 9 pm, $8, 21+.
Orpheum Twelve Girls Band, 7:30 pm, $35-$45.
Paddy O's The Gobshites, 9:30 pm, no cover, 21+.
Paradise Rock Club Puddle Of Mudd, Deep Field, 7 pm, $22, 18+.
PA's Mannequin Men, Identified, 9 pm, $6-$8, 21+.
Somerville Theatre The Wallflowers, 7:30 pm, $26, all ages.
Terrace Lounge Ray Santisi Trio, 5:30 pm, no cover, 21+.
T.T. the Bear's Place Ponies in the Surf, the Finches, Battle of Land and Sea, 9:15 pm, $7, 18+.
Toad Lydia Warren, 8 pm, no cover, 21+; Miss Tess and the Bon Ton parade, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.
Top of the Hub Lee Childs Group, 12 pm; Marty Ballou Trio, 8 pm.

MONDAY, OCTOBER 22

Abbey Lounge Anthems for Odyssey, Cober, Happy the Clown, Henry, 9 pm, $7, 21+.
Atwood's Tavern Duke Levine Band, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.
The Burren Set Dancing, 8 pm, $5, 21+.
Club Passim Leonia Teaneck, 7:30 pm, $10.
Dick's Last Resort Keith Lewis, 7 pm, no cover.
Harpers Ferry Blind Melon, Dusty Rhodes, the River Band, 9 pm, $12, 18+.
Hennessy's Downstairs: Joe Carson, 9:30 pm, no cover, 21+.
Matt Murphy's Sparrow, 11 pm, no cover, 21+.
Middle East Upstairs: Deertick, Carter Tanton, Shivers, Baba Yaga, 9 pm, $8, 18+.
Orpheum Sinead O'Conner, 7:30 pm, $35-$55, all ages.
Paradise Lounge Julian Velard, Jordan Carp, 7 pm, $10, 18+.
Paradise Rock Club CeU, 7 pm, $16.50, 18+.
Roxy The Hold Steady, 7 pm, $20, all ages.
Toad Shwang, Anita Suhanin, 8 pm, no cover, 21+; the Tim Gearan Band, 10:49 pm, no cover, 21+.
Top of the Hub Marty Ballou Trio, 8 pm.

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 23

Atwood's Tavern Anita Suhanin, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.
Dick's Last Resort Keith Lewis, 7 pm, no cover.
The Green Dragon Tavern Dave Leib, 9:30 pm, no cover, 21+.
Harpers Ferry Michael Bernie, the Uprising, Jaik Miller Band, 9 pm, $7, 21+.
Hennessy's Downstairs: Scott Damgaard, 9:30 pm, no cover, 21+.
Matt Murphy's Public House, 11 pm, no cover, 21+.
Middle East Downstairs: D Jesu, Torche, Fox, 7:30 pm, $10 in advance, $12 at door, 18+.
Mr. Dooley's The Ring of Fire Band, 8:30 pm, no cover, 21+.
O'Brien's Casper and the Cookies, Pretty and Nice, Sleepybird, 9 pm, $7, 21+.
Orpheum Kelly Clarkson, 7:30 pm, $39.50, all ages.
Paradise Rock Club She Wants Revenge, Kenna, io echo, 7 pm, $18, 18+.
PA's The Critique of Pure Reason Presents, No Age, 9 pm, $6-$8, 21+.
Roxy The New Pornographers, 7 pm, $22.50, 18+.
Scullers Jazz Club Mark Shilansky, 8 pm, $15-$55.
Toad Gretel, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.
Top of the Hub Chris Taylor Trio, 8:30 pm.
T.T. the Bear's Place Stars of Track and Field, Eskimo Joe, People Noise, Jeff Klein, 8:45 pm, $8, 18+.
Les Zygomates Rusty Scott, 8 pm, no cover, 21+.

Music Venues

Abbey Lounge 3 Beacon St., Somerville (617-441-9631). MBTA: Red Line to Central.
Agganis Arena 925 Comm Ave., Boston (617-4628). MBTA: B Green Line to Pleasant.
All Asia Café 334 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-1544). MBTA: Red Line to Central.
Armenian Library 65 Main St., Watertown (6926-2562). MBTA: #504 Bus to Watertown Ya
Asgard 350 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-577-9100). MBTA: Red Line to Kendall/MIT.
Atrium The Regal Bostonian Hotel , 20 North Boston (617-523-3600). MBTA: Blue or Gree to Gov. Center.
The Attic 107 Union St., Newton (617-964-6 MBTA: D Green Line to Newton Centre.
Atwood's Tavern 877 Cambridge St., Cambrid (617-864-2792). MBTA: Red Line to Kendall/ or Green Line to Lechmere.
Avalon 15 Lansdowne St., Boston (617-262-24 MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore.
Axis 13 Lansdowne St., Boston (617-262-243 MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore.
The Baseball Tavern 1270 Boylston St., Bosto (617-867-6526). MBTA: #55 Bus to Ipswich a Boylston.
Berklee Performance Center 136 Mass Ave. Boston (617-747-2261). MBTA: Green Line t Hynes.
Bill's Bar 5½ Lansdowne St., Boston (617-421-9678). MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore.
The Black Horse Tavern Faneuil Hall Marketp Boston (617-227-2038). MBTA: Blue or Gree to Gov. Center.
The Black Rose 160 State St., Boston (617-74 2286). MBTA: Blue or Green Line to Gov. Ce
Bob's Southern Bistro 604 Columbus Ave., Boston (617-536-6204). MBTA: Orange Line Mass. Ave.
Boston Harbor Hotel 70 Rowes Warf, Bosto (617-439-7000). MBTA: Red Line to South St
Bravo @ the MFA 465 Huntington Ave., Bost (617-369-3474). MBTA: E Green Line to Mu
Breezeway 153 Blue Hill Ave., Roxbury (617-5400). MBTA: Orange Line to Jackson.
Bristol Lounge 200 Boylston St., Boston (617-2052). MBTA: Green Line to Arlington.
The Burren 247 Elm St., Somerville (617-776-6896). MBTA: Red Line to Davis.
Cantab Lounge 738 Mass Ave., Cambridge (6 354-2685). MBTA: Red Line to Central.
Cask 'n Flagon 62 Brookline Ave., Boston (61 536-4840). MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore.
Club Café 209 Columbus Ave., Boston (617-5 0966). MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay.
Club Passim 47 Palmer St., Cambridge (617-4 7679). MBTA: Red Line to Harvard.
Common Ground 85 Harvard Ave., Allston (783-2071). MBTA: B Green Line to Harvard.
Copperfield's 98 Brookline Ave., Boston (617 8605). MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore.
Dick's Last Resort Faneuil Hall Market Place, Boston (617-267-8080). MBTA: Blue or Gree to Gov. Center.
The Draft 34 Harvard Ave., Allston (617 9400). MBTA: B Green Line to Harvard Ave.
The Enormous Room 567 Mass Ave., Camri (617-491-5599). MBTA: Red Line to Central.
Felt 533 Washington St., Boston (617-350-55 MBTA: Red or Orange Line to Downtown Crossing.
The Fireplace 1634 Beacon St., Brookline (6 975-1900). MBTA: C Green Line to Washing
First Act Guitar Studio 745 Boylston St., Bo (617-226-7899). MBTA: Green Line to Copl
The Foundation Lounge Hotel Commonweal Kenmore Square, 500 Comm. Ave., Boston (6 859-9900). MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore.
The Good Life Downtown 28 Kingston St., Bos (617-451-2622). MBTA: Red or Green Line to Grand Canal 57 Canal St., Boston (617-523-1112). MBTA: Green or Orange Line to Nort Station.
Great Scott 1222 Comm. Ave., Allston (617 9014). MBTA: D Green Line to Longwood.
The Green Briar 304 Washington St., Brighto (617-789-4100).
The Green Dragon Tavern 11 Marshall St., (617-367-0055). MBTA: Green or Orange L Haymarket.
Green Street 280 Green St., Cambridge (61 1655). MBTA: Red Line to Central.
The Harp 85 Causeway St., Boston (617-74 1010). MBTA: Green or Orange Line to Nor Station.
Harpers Ferry 158 Brighton Ave., Allston (6 254-9743). MBTA: B Green Line to Harvard
Hennessy's 25 Union St., Boston (617-742- MBTA: Blue or Green Line to Gov. Center.
High Street Grill 200 High St., Boston (617-4000). MBTA: Red or Orange Line to Downt Crossing.

ey Might Be Giants will most definitely be at the Roxy Oct. 19.

o Wirth 31 Stuart St., Boston (617-338-8586). TA: Green Line to Boylston.
ny D's 17 Holland St., Somerville (617-776-). MBTA: Red Line to Davis.
McIntyre's 160 Milk St., Boston (617- 451-). MBTA: Orange Line to Oak Grove.
lall Café 233 Cardinal Medeiros Ave., Cam- e (617-547-3802). MBTA: Red Line to all/MIT.
nedy's Midtown 42 Province St., Boston (617- 3333). MBTA: Green or Red Line to Park.
s 10 Scotia St., Boston (617-266-2695). TA: Green Line to Hynes.
ale 2 Center Plaza, Boston (617-742-5577). TA: Blue or Green Line to Gov. Center.
Pad 1353 Cambridge St., Cambridge (617-395-). MBTA: Red Line to Central.
rd Lounge 1667 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617- 0759). MBTA: Red Line to Harvard.
y's Lounge 355 Congress St., Boston (617- 5825). MBTA: Red Line to South Station.
Murphy's 14 Harvard St., Brookine (617-232-). MBTA: D Green Line to Brookline Village.
lle East 472 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-492-). MBTA: Red Line to Central.
vay Café 3496 Washington St., Jamaica Plain -524-9038). MBTA: Orange Line to Green.
y Way 403 Centre St., Jamaica Plain (617-524-). MBTA: Orange Line to Jackson.
nnium Bostonian Hotel 26 North St., Boston -523-3600). MBTA: Blue or Green Line to Center. egan Sun 1 Mohegan Sun Blvd., Uncasville -226-7711).
Dooley's 77 Broad St., Boston (617-338-). MBTA: Blue or Green Line to Gov. Center.
h Shore Music Theater 62 Dunham Rd., Bev- 978-232-7200). MBTA: Commuter Rail to rly Depot.
Bar Fairmont Copley Plaza Hotel, 138 St. s Ave., Boston (617-267-5300). MBTA: Green to Copley.
ien's 3 Harvard Ave., Allston (617-782-). MBTA: B Green Line to Harvard.
ra House 539 Washington St., Boston (617- 2442). MBTA: Green Line to Boylston.
neum Theatre 31 Hamilton Place, Boston -679-0810). MBTA: Green Line to Boylston.
ly O's 33 Union St., Boston (617-742-2121). TA: Green or Orange Line to Haymarket.
dise Lounge 969 Comm. Ave., Boston (617- 8800). MBTA: B Green Line to Pleasant. dise Rock Club 969 Comm. Ave., Boston -562-8800). MBTA: B Green Line to Pleasant.
is Faneuil Hall Marketplace, Boston (617-248-). MBTA: Blue or Green Line to Gov. Center.
345 Somerville Ave., Somerville (617-776-). MBTA: Green or Blue Line to Gov. Center.
gh & Stars 912 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617- 0032). MBTA: Red Line to Central.
le Shamrock 1 Union St., Boston (617-227-). MBTA: Blue or Orange Line to State.
Deal Jazz Club and Café Cambridge Multicultural Center, 41 Second St., Cambridge (617-876-). MBTA: Green or Orange Line to Lechmere.
ttabar Charles Hotel, Cambridge (617-395-). MBTA: Red Line to Harvard.
olution Rock Bar 200 High St., Boston (617- 4200). MBTA: Blue Line to Aquarium.
gies 356 Chestnut Hill Ave., Brighton (617- 1880). MBTA: Green Line to Cleveland le.

Roxy 279 Tremont St., Boston (617-338-7699). MBTA: Green Line to Boylston.
Ryles Jazz Club 212 Hampshire St., Cambridge (617-876-9330). MBTA: Red Line to Harvard.
Sander's Theatre 45 Quincy St., Cambridge (617-496-2222). MBTA: Red Line to Harvard.
Scullers Jazz Club 400 Soldiers Field Road, Cambridge (617-562-4111). MBTA: Red Line to Central.
75 Chestnut 75 Chestnut St., Boston (617-227-2175). MBTA: Red Line to Charles/MGH.
Sky Bar 518 Somerville Ave., Somerville (617-623-5223). MBTA: Red Line to Davis.
Somerville Theatre 55 Davis Square, Somerville (617-625-5700). MBTA: Red Line to Davis.
Sweetwater Café 3 Boylston St., Boston (617-351-2515). MBTA: Green Line to Boylston.
Symphony Hall 301 Massachusetts Ave., Boston (617 266-1492). MBTA: Green Line to Symphony.
TD Banknorth Garden 100 Legends Way, Boston (617-624-1000). MBTA: Green or Orange Line to North Station.
Taj Boston Street Bar 15 Arlington St., Boston (617-536-5700). MBTA: Green Line to Arlington.
Terrace Lounge 110 Huntington Ave., Boston (617-236-5800). MBTA: E Green Line to Prudential.
Toad 1912 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-497-4950). MBTA: Red Line to Porter.
Tommy Doyles 96 Winthrop St., Cambridge (617-225-0888). MBTA: Red Line to Harvard.
Top of the Hub Prudential Tower, Boston (617-536-1775). MBTA: E Green Line to Prudential.
Tsongas Arena 300 Martin Luther King Jr. Way, Lowell (617-848-6900). MBTA: Commuter Rail to Lowell.
T.T. the Bear's Place 10 Brookline St., Cambridge (617-492-2327). MBTA: Red Line to Central.
Venezia 20 Ericsson St., Dorchester (617-436-3120). MBTA: Red Line to Ashmont.
The Western Front 343 Western Ave., Cambridge (617-492-7772). MBTA: Red Line to Central.
Wonder Bar 186 Harvard Ave., Boston (617-351-2665). MBTA: B Green Line to Harvard Ave.
ZuZu 472 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-864-3278). MBTA: Red Line to Central.
Les Zygomates 129 South St., Boston (617-542-5108). MBTA: Red Line to South Station.

classical music

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 10

Boston Conservatory of Music
Boston Conservatory Theater, 31 Hemenway St., Boston (617-536-6340). www.bostonconservatory.edu. MBTA: Green Line to Hynes. 8 pm. Free. Violinist Lynn Chang presents Tan Dun's Ghost Opera in this String Masters Series performance.

Emmanuel Church
15 Newbury St., Boston (617-536-3356). www.emmanuelmusic.org. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. 7:30 pm. $10-$200. In this Emmanuel Music

Prague rockers Uz Jsme Doma play the Middle East Upstairs Oct. 12 benefit, Art of Fugue, 14 pianists, including Leslie Amper and John Harbison, perform fugues by Bach.

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 11

Boston Symphony Orchestra

Symphony Hall, 301 Mass. Ave., Boston (617-266-1492). www.bso.org. MBTA: Green Line to Symphony. 8 pm. $29-$103. Guest director Robert Spano conducts the orchestra in Francis Poulenc's Concerto for Organ, Timpani and Strings. The program also includes Tchaikovsky's Symphony No. 6 and Michael Gandolfi's The Garden of Cosmic Speculation.

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 12

Boston Baroque

Jordan Hall, New England Conservatory, 30 Gainsborough St., Boston (617-484-9200). www.bostonbaroque.org. MBTA: Green Line to Symphony. 7:30 pm. $25-$72. Ned Canty directs Mozart's Italian opera Così Fan Tutte.

Boston Symphony Orchestra

Symphony Hall, 301 Mass. Ave., Boston (617-266-1492). www.bso.org. MBTA: Green Line to Symphony. 1:30 pm. $29-$103. See Oct. 11 Boston Symphony Orchestra listing.

St. Andrew's Performing Arts Series

79 Denton Rd., Wellesley (781-235-7310). www.sapas.org. MBTA: Commuter Rail to Wellesley Square. 7:30 pm. $5-$20. The Olmsted Chamber Players perform works by Mozart, Beethoven, Ignaz Pleyel and Charles Hommann.

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 13

Boston Baroque

Jordan Hall, New England Conservatory, 30 Gainsborough St., Boston (617-484-9200). www.bostonbaroque.org. MBTA: Green Line to Symphony. 7:30 pm. $25-$72. See Oct. 12 listing.

Boston Symphony Orchestra

Symphony Hall, 301 Mass. Ave., Boston (617-266-1492). www.bso.org. MBTA: Green Line to Symphony. 8 pm. $29-$103. See Oct. 11 Boston Symphony Orchestra listing.

Brookline Library

361 Washington St., Brookline (617-730-2370). www.brooklinelibrary.org. MBTA: Green Line to Brookline Hills. 3 pm. Free. Pianist John Ferguson performs pieces by Beethoven, George Handel, Jean Sibelius, Howard Ferguson and Karlheinz Stockhausen.

SUNDAY, OCTOBER 14

Boston Conservatory of Music

Seully Hall, 8 The Fenway, Boston (617-536-6340). www.bostonconservatory.edu. MBTA: Green Line to Hynes. 2 pm. Free. This Faculty Recital Series program, entitled The Children's Hour, includes pieces by Charles Ives, Aaron Copland and Francis Poulenc.

Celebrity Series of Boston

Symphony Hall, 301 Mass. Ave., Boston (617-482-6661). www.celebrityseries.org. MBTA: Green Line to Symphony. 5 pm. $50-$65. The season opener features soprano Kiri Te Kanawa and pianist Warren Jones in selections by Mozart, Giacomo Puccini, Francis Poulenc and Aaron Copland.

The Chamber Orchestra of Bosto

Jordan Hall, New England Conservatory, 30 G borough St., Boston (617-266-1626). www.ch orchestraofboston.org. MBTA: Green Line to phony. 3 pm. $10-$50. Peggy Pearson and th chestra open the season with Mozart's Di mento in F, Tison Street's Adagio for Obo Strings and Antonin Dvorak's "Serenade," O

Emmanuel Church

15 Newbury St., Boston (617-536-3356). emmanuelmusic.org. MBTA: Green Line to A ton. •10 am, free. Conductor Michael B leads the Emmanuel Orchestra and Cho their performance of Bach's Jesu, der du Seele. •4 pm, $10-$55. The Schumann Cha Series performs Robert Schumann's String tet in F, Op. 41, No. 2, 5 Lieder, Op. 37 Liebesfrühling, Op. 37.

Forsyth Chapel

95 Forest Hills Ave., Jamaica Plain (617-524-3 www.foresthillstrust.org. MBTA: Orange Li Green. 4 pm. $25-$55. The Borromeo String tet performs works by Franz Josef Haydn, D Shostakovich and Beethoven.

Isabella Stewart Gardner Museum

280 The Fenway, Boston (617-566-1401). gardnermuseum.org. MBTA: Green Line to 1:30 pm. $5-$23. Pianist Paavali Jumppane forms piano sonatas by Beethoven, incl Sonata in C minor, Op. 13, "Pathetique."

Peabody Essex Museum

East India Square, Salem (978-745-9500). pem.org. MBTA: Commuter Rail to Salem. $20-$50. Sitarist Allyn Miner and tabla Anuradha Pal perform traditional Indian mu

World Music

Harvard University, Sanders Theater, Me Hall, 45 Quincy St., Cambridge (617-876-4 www.worldmusic.org. MBTA: Red Line to Ha 7:30 pm. $28-$40. Spiritual Sounds of C Asia features 18 musicians and their unique and classical music, including Alim and Fe Qasimov accompanied by a four-man ensemb

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 16

Berklee Performance Center

136 Mass. Ave., Boston (617-482-2595). berkleebpc.com. MBTA: Green Line to Hynes. $2-$10. The Laszlo Gardony Trio performs ar ments on piano, bass and percussion.

Boston Symphony Orchestra

Symphony Hall, 301 Mass. Ave., Boston (617 1492). www.bso.org. MBTA: Green Line to phony. 8 pm. $29-$103. See Oct. 11 Boston phony Orchestra listing.

King's Chapel

58 Tremont St., Boston (617-277-2155). kings-chapel.org. MBTA: Orange Line to Su Station. 12:15 pm. $3. The Olmsted Ens plays works by Beethoven and Ernst Nauman

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 18

Boston Philharmonic

Harvard University, Sanders Theater, Me Hall, 45 Quincy St., Cambridge (617-236-0 www.bostonphil.org. MBTA: Red Line to Ha pm. $16-$63. Conductor Benjamin Zander the orchestra in Alberto Ginastera's Vara- Concertantes*,* Modest Mussorgsk's Pictures at hibition and Shirish Korde's Svara-Yantra with r Chatterjee on tabla.

ton Symphony Orchestra
hony Hall, 301 Mass. Ave., Boston (617-266-). www.bso.org. MBTA: Green Line to Sym-. 8 pm. $29-$103. Chrisoph von Dohnányi ucts pianist Lars Vogt's performance of ioven's Piano Concerto No. 3, Symphony No. Witold Lutoslawski's Musique Funèbre.

mmunity Music Center of Boston
Tremont St., Boston (617-482-7494). www.org. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. 7 pm. Cellist Dale Henderson performs Bach's Solo Suites No. 1 and 6.

ella Stewart Gardner Museum
The Fenway, Boston (617-566-1401). www.ermuseum.org. MBTA: Green Line to MFA. $5-$23. The Composer Portrait series presents music of Julius Hemphill with Ursula ens on piano and Marty Ehrlich on alto hone.

Chapel
ass. Ave., Cambridge (617-253-2905). http://nit.edu/arts. MBTA: Red Line to Kendall/MIT. m. Free. Guitarist Steven Lin performs tin Barrios' Three Paraguayan Waltzes, Bach's de, Fugue and Allegro BWV 998, Antonio o's Two Venezuelan Waltzes and Tedesco's dilla on the Name of Andrés Segovia.

DAY, OCTOBER 19

ton Chamber Music Society
n Hall, New England Conservatory, 30 Gainsgh St., Boston (617-349-0086). www.bostonbermusic.org. MBTA: Green Line to Sym-. 7:30 pm. $25. The Silver Jubilee Concert s performs Beethoven's Violin Sonata in G, 96, Zoltán Kodály's Duo for Violin and Cello, 7, and Robert Schumann's Piano Quintet in , Op.44.

ton Classical Orchestra uil Hall, Boston (617-423-3883). www.bostoncalorchestra.org. MBTA: Green Line to Gov. er or Orange Line to Haymarket. 8 pm. $32- Trumpeter Steven Burns performs Georg pp Telemann's Suite in D major, Tomaso noni's Concerto in B-flat and Bach's Three honies.

ton Symphony Orchestra
hony Hall, 301 Mass. Ave., Boston (617-266-). www.bso.org. MBTA: Green Line to Sym-. 1:30 pm. $29-$103. See Oct. 18 Boston hony Orchestra listing.

del and Haydn Society
hony Hall, 301 Mass. Ave., Boston (617-266-). www.handelandhaydn.org. MBTA: Green to Symphony. 8 pm. $15-$67. Conductor t Llewellyn leads performances of Beethoven's hony No.7 and Piano Concerto No. 3 with pianist Kristian Bezuidenhout.

Kresge Auditorium
Memorial Drive, Cambridge (617-253-2826). //web.mit.edu/arts. MBTA: Red Line to Ken-MIT. 8 pm. Free. The Vento Chiaro Wood- Quartet, featuring Joanna Goldstein on , performs Leonard Bernstein's Candide, 's Italian Concerto, Villa Lobos' Quintette and rt Dick's Startling Stories.

ola Cantorum of Boston ch of St. John the Evangelist, 35 Bowdoin St., n. MBTA: Green Line to Gov. Center. 8 pm. 20. Schola Cantorum of Boston performs Clau- Monteverdi's Missa di Quattro Voci di Capella and igals and motets by Giaches de Wert.

TURDAY, OCTOBER 20

Boston Cecilia
aints Parish, 1773 Beacon St., Brookline (617-4540). www.bostoncecilia.org. MBTA: C Green to Dean. 8 pm. $15-$62. Baritone Christò- en Nomura and pianist Barbara Bruns perform cis Poulenc's Banalités, selections from Chanson ardes and more.

ton Conservatory of Music
y Hall, 8 The Fenway, Boston (617-536-6340). bostonconservatory.edu. MBTA: Green Line to es. 12 and 2 pm. Free. Kristen Z. Cairnes di- a children's opera performance of Jack and the stalk with music by Sir Arthur Sullivan and Davies.

ton Philharmonic an Hall, New England Conservatory, 30 sborough St., Boston (617-236-0999). www.nphil.org. MBTA: Green Line to Symphony. pm. $29-$76. See Oct. 18 Boston Philharic listing.

Boston Symphony Orchestra
Symphony Hall, 301 Mass. Ave., Boston (617-266-1492). www.bso.org. MBTA: Green Line to Symphony. 8 pm. $29-$103. See Oct. 18 Boston Symphony Orchestra listing.

Cambridge Society for Early Music
The Salem Athenaeum, 337 Essex St., Salem (617-489-2062). www.csem.org. MBTA: Commuter Rail to Salem. 8 pm. $5-$35. Fortepianist Sylvia Berry performs The Many Faces of Mozart.

MIT
Kresge Auditorium, 362 Memorial Drive, Cambridge (617-2532826). http://web.mit.edu/arts. MBTA: Red Line to Kendall/MIT. 8 pm. Free. Conductor Nanse Gum leads the Euro-Asian Philharmonic Orchestra and the Borromeo String Quartet in Dmitri Shostakovich's Chamber Symphony in C, Edward Elgar's Introduction and Allegro and Tchaikovsky's Serenade.

Schola Cantorum of Boston
St. Peter's Church, 320 Boston Post Road, Weston. 4 pm. $7-$20. See Oct. 19 Schola Cantorum of Boston listing.

Serenata Chamber Musicians
25 Lowell St., Cambridge (617-492-8105). www.serenatamusicians.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 7:30 pm. Free. The Serenata Chamber Musicians perform Franz Schubert's Fantasy in F minor for piano four-hands, Op. 103, D.940, Felix Mendelssohn's Sonata in F and Max Bruch's Selections in Eight Pieces.

SUNDAY, OCTOBER 21

Boston Chamber Music Society
Sanders Theater, Memorial Hall, 45 Quincy St., Cambridge (617-349-0086). www.bostonchambermusic.org. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 7:30 pm. $25. See Oct. 19 Boston Chamber Music Society listing.

Boston Classical Orchestra
Faneuil Hall, Boston (617-423-3883). www.bostonclassicalorchestra.org. MBTA: Orange Line to Haymarket. 3 pm. $32-$57. See Oct. 19 Boston Classical Orchestra listing.

Boston Conservatory of Music
Coolidge Corner Theatre, 290 Harvard St., Brookline (617-734-2500). www.coolidge.org. MBTA: Green Line to Coolidge Corner. 10:30 am. $6-$8. See Oct. 20 Boston Conservatory of Music listing.

Boston Philharmonic
Harvard University, Sanders Theater, Memorial Hall, 45 Quincy St., Cambridge (617-236-0999). www.bostonphil.org. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 1:45 pm. $29-$76. See Oct. 18 Boston Philharmonic listing.

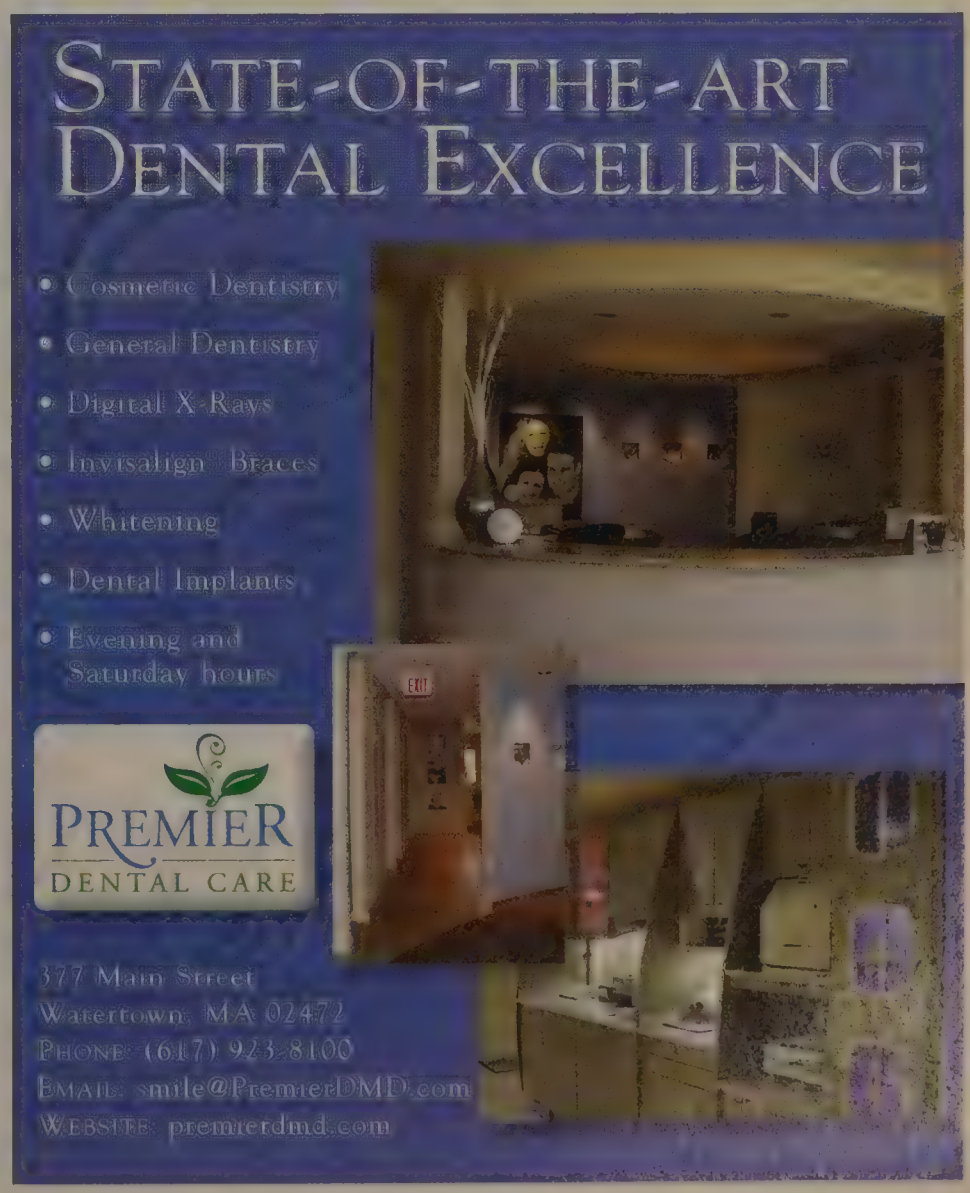
Cambridge Society for Early Music
The Heard House Museum, 54 South Main St., Ipswich (617-489-2062). www.csem.org. MBTA: Commuter Rail to Ipswich. 4 pm. $5-$35. See Oct. 20 Cambridge Society for Early Music listing.

Emmanuel Church
15 Newbury St., Boston (617-536-3356). www.emmanuelmusic.org. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. •10 am, free. The Emmanuel Orchestra and Chorus perform Bach's Widerstehe doch der Sünde with mezzo-soprano Pamela Dellal. •4 pm, $10-$55. See Oct. 14 Emmanuel Church listing.

Handel and Haydn Society
Symphony Hall, 301 Mass. Ave., Boston (617-266-3605). www.handelandhaydn.org. MBTA: Green Line to Symphony. 3 pm. $15-$67. See Oct. 19 Handel and Haydn Society listing.

Isabella Stewart Gardner Museum
280 The Fenway, Boston (617-566-1401). www.gardnermuseum.org. MBTA: Green Line to Museum of Fine Arts. 1:30 pm. $5-$23. The Claremont Trio performs The Piano Trios of Brahms and Schumann, Part I.

MONDAY, OCTOBER 22



Boston University College of Fine Arts
Tsai Performance Center, 855 Comm. Ave., Boston (617-353-3349). www.bu.edu/cfa. MBTA: B Green Line to BU West. 8 pm. Free. Violinist Peter Zazofsky and violist Michael Zaretsky perform works by Aaron Copland, Jakov Jakoulov, Bohuslav Martinu, Mozart and more.

Cambridge Society for Early Music
Christ Church Cambridge, Zero Garden St., Cambridge (617-489-2062). www.csem.org. MBTA: Red Line to Porter. 7:30 pm. $5-$35. See Oct. 20 Cambridge Society for Early Music listing.

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 23

King's Chapel
58 Tremont St., Boston (617-277-2155). www.kingschapel.org. MBTA: Green or Red Line to Park. 12:15 pm. $3. Organist Martin Rein performs the works of Bach, Dietrich Buxtehude and Marcel Dupré.

dance clubs

Advice to Contributors
Submit club listings by fax (617-859-1446), by mail to Calendar/Clubs, or by email to clubs@improper.com. Include day of the week, times, prices, phone numbers and nearest T stop. Deadline is four weeks prior to publication date. Listings not accepted over the phone.

Nights

MONDAYS

An Tua Nua
Ceremony A night of goth and industrial music, 10 pm, $5-$6.

Caprice
Geisha Lounge Resident DJs Tamer and Gregory play chill beats, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

Golden Temple
The E Room DJ Robert Weintraub spins R&B, hip-hop, Motown, pop and acid jazz, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

Green Briar
Irish seissun, 8 pm, no cover, 21+.

Kings
Industry Night 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

Milky Way
DJs and live music, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

Phoenix Landing
Makka Mondays DJ Uppercut spins hip-hop and reggae, 10 pm, $3, 21+.

The Place
Coyote Karaoke Belt out your favorite rock 'n' roll classics, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

River Gods
Weekly Wax Two local DJs go head-to-head in a musical face-off, 8 pm, no cover, 21+.

Saint
SIN Service Industry Night DJ Chris Roxx spins house, hip-hop and more, 10 pm-2 am, 21+.

Sissy K's
Karaoke for a $50 cash prize, then DJ Littles spins Top 40, 8 pm-2 am, no cover, 21+.

Water Works
Make Up Mondays DJs spin Top 40 dance mixes, 10 pm-2 am, $5 before 10 pm, $10 after, 21+.

Wonder Bar
Northeastern Mondays include DJ 7L spinning hip-hop, R&B and classics, no cover, 21+.

TUESDAYS

Aria
Novitá Tuesday Mingle with young professionals while DJs spin club mixes, women free, $5 off at the door with your business card, 10 pm, 21+.

Bell in Hand
Karaoke night, acoustic music, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

Caprice
Industry Tuesdays DJ Chris Roxx spins Top 40, hip-hop, R&B and dance, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

Dbar
DJs Kevin and Ryan play show tunes, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

The Foundation Lounge
Torch Tuesdays Live '30s, '40s and '50s music, 8 pm, no cover, 21+.

Golden Temple
The E Room DJ Robert Weintraub spins R&B, Motown, pop and acid jazz, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

The Kells
Fat Tuesdays DJ Grasshopper spins Top 40 music, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

Kings
College, Ladies and Trivia Night 9 pm, no cover.

Milky Way
All-Star Karaoke Regular karaoke first and third Tuesdays of each month, live-band karaoke second and fourth Tuesdays, 10 pm, up to $3, 21+.

Paradise Lounge
Mashup Tuesdays DJ G-Squared spins hip-hop, rock, '80s and more, 10 pm, $7, 21+.

Phoenix Landing
Take DJ Scott Bliff spins funk, soul and electro '80s, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

The Place
College Party Top 40, hip-hop and dance, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

The Purple Shamrock
Terry Brennan sing-along, 9:30 pm, no cover, 21+.

Redline
Ipodapalooza Show off your DJ skills and your best 30-minute playlist, 9 pm-1 am, no cover, 21+.

River Gods
A mix of DJs and music, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

Rumor
DJ Sender and DJ Roger M spin a mix of hip-hop and house, 11 pm, $20, $15 on guest list, 21+.

Ryles Dance Hall
Noche Latina DJ Ali and special guest DJs keep you dancing with salsa lessons beginning at 7 pm, $13; 9:30 pm, $10.

Saint
Flaunt Tuesday Gay Mafia hosts while DJ Ranny spins Top 40, 10 pm-2 am, 21+.

Sissy K's
Karaoke with a $50 cash prize, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

Tabú
Stupid Keith's Karaoke Participate to win $250, 8 pm, 21+.
MYNT International Tuesdays DJ Eddy Lee spins hip-hop and house, 11 pm-2 am, $15, 21+.

WEDNESDAYS

An Tua Nua
Salsa Night DJs spin salsa music. Includes beginner lessons, 8 pm, $10, 21+.

Common Ground
Guitar Hero Battle Duke it out on the big screen, 10:30 pm, no cover, 21+.

Dockside
Karaoke, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

Flat Top Johnny's
DJs spin rock, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

The Foundation Lounge
"Famous" Wednesdays DJs G-Squared and Dirty Dek spin mashups, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

Golden Temple
The E Room DJ Robert Weintraub spins R&B, Motown, pop and acid jazz, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

The Kells
Get Over the Hump Wednesdays DJ Doc spins Top 40, dance and hip-hop, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

Kings
Take the stage at open-mike night, 9 pm, no cover.

Milky Way
Assorted live entertainment including DJs, spoken word and dance, 9 pm-1 am, no cover, 21+.

Phoenix Landing
Return of Techno DJs spin underground dance music, 10 pm-1 am, $5.

The Place
Beach Party DJs spin Top 40, hip-hop and dance, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

The Purple Shamrock
Karaoke, 9:30 pm, no cover, 21+.

Rain
Oldies but Goodies DJ Russ McQueen spins hits from the '50s, '60s and '70s, 8 pm, no cover, 21+.

Redline
Mood Mosaic DJ Deano Sounds spins boogaloo, basilica, funk and soul, 8:30 pm-12 am, no cover, 21+.

River Gods
Dance to rock, gospel and blues, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

Sissy K's
DJ Littles spins Top 40 and dance, 8 pm, no cover.

Tabú
Under 21 Party Themes vary each week at this party for the younger crowd, 8 pm, $15, 18+.

Underbar
DJ Ricky Fatts and DJ Bruno spin hip-hop, R&B and reggae, 11 pm, 21+.

Venu
DJ Adilson, 11 pm, $20, $15 on guest list, 21+.
Chaps Latino Night Gay night with DJs Adilson and Dina spinning Latin, house, hip-hop and Top 40 in two rooms, 10 pm-2 am, $8, 21+.

Vertigo
Analogue DJs Pete Yagmin, Special Pete, Peter Ellis and Greg Blake spin dance and house, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

Wonder Bar
Wonder Bar Wednesdays DJ Tommy C spins hip-hop, R&B and classics, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

THURSDAYS

An Tua Nua
'80s, one-hit wonders, Top 40 and hip-hop, 10 pm, $5, 21+.

Aria
Sutra Thursdays Various DJs spin Top 40, mashups, international house and Latin, 10 pm-2 am, $20, $10 on guest list, women free before 12 am, 21+.

Bell in Hand
Party Music Master spins everything, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

Boston Rocks
DJs spin Top 40 and hip-hop, no cover, 21+.

Caprice
After Dark Boston DJs Pup Dawg and Bruno spin hip-hop and Hindi music, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

Clerys
DJ Rhythm Nights, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

Common Ground
Love Night DJ Brian Love plays tunes from the '80s, 10:30 pm, $3, 21+.

Felt
True Music Thursdays Live rock, funk and alternative performances by local and national bands, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

The Foundation Lounge
Club XO DJ Moon Lee, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

Golden Temple
The E Room DJ Robert Weintraub spins R&B, Motown, pop and acid jazz, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

Green Briar
DJs spin dance music, 9:30 pm, no cover, 21+.

Jake Ivory's
Karaoke Night 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

Jose McIntyre's
Karyn & Caitlyn Promo Night No cover, 21+.

The Kells
Fun House DJ Grasshopper spins dance tunes and hip-hop, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

Kings
Let It Out Karaoke night featuring prizes and giveaways, 10 pm, no cover.

Milky Way
Aquanet Dance Party Old-school hip-hop, '80s, funk and soul, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

Om
DJ Mario spins international beats.

Phoenix Landing
Elements DJs Crook, Lenore and Mad Dog present drum 'n' bass with special guests, 10 pm, $5.

The Place
DJ Chris Roxx spins Top 40 and dance, 10 pm, 21+.

The Point
Ladies Night DJs spin dance hip-hop, 9 pm-2 am.

The Purple Shamrock
Musician Jim Plunkett and DJ Flanagin, 9:30 pm, $5, 21+.

The Quarter
The Glamorous Life DJ Susan thera spins hip-hop and To party music at this gay night.

Redline
All Star Roulette Six Boston provide the music, 10 pm-2 an 21+.

Revolution Rock Bar
Ditch Thursdays DJ Rick R TBA.

River Gods
A mix of DJs and music, 9 pm cover, 21+.

Roggies
Karaoke night, 8 pm, no cover,

Rumor
DJs Roger M and JC spin hous Latin, 11 pm-2 am, $20, $1 guest list, 21+.

Ryles Dance Hall
Temporada Latina A night of lessons and dancing, 8:30 pm- $8-$12, 21+.

Saint
Mashup Thursdays Guest DJ hip-hop, house and Top 40, 1 21+.

Sissy K's
Karaoke downstairs, while D tles spins Top 40 and dance upstairs, 8 pm-2 am, no cover,

Tabú
Nightclub: DJ Gee-Spin JAM'N 94.5 drops hip-hop, and R&B beats, 10 pm, no 18+. Ultralounge: DJ Guillian salsa, merengue and bachat pm, $10; women free before 1 18+.

Toast
International Brazilian Nig pm-1 am, cover varies.

Underbar
Moda Thursdays DJ Franklin Latin and international house, 11 pm, $20 door, $15 on guest list, 21+.

Vertigo
Analog Thursdays Electronic music, 10 p cover, 21+.

Wonder Bar
Thirsty Thursdays with DJs Heven and Turbz, with DJs K-Rich and Kreation, 10 pm, 21+.

FRIDAYS

An Tua Nua
'80s, one-hit wonders, Top 40 and hip-hop, $5, 21+.

Aria
DJs Big and Uptown spin hip-hop, salsa, and international, 10 pm, $15, $10 on gue 21+.

Asgard
DJ Dave M spins dance and Top 40, 10 p cover, 21+.

The Avenue
DJ Murray spins Top 40, 9 pm, $5, 21+.

Bell in Hand
Party Music Master spins everything, 10 p 21+.

Boston Rocks
Party Like a Rockstar Fridays DJ SugaShan hip-hop, dancehall, reggaeton and party bre pm-2 am, free on guest list until 12 am, 21+.

Caprice
Downstairs: Greek Night DJ Paul Yotis spin national and ethnic house, 10 pm, no cove Upstairs: Casablanca@Caprice DJs Tom B Matt Dimond and Sergio Santos spin house, no cover, 21+.

Clerys
DJ Rhythm Nights, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

Common Ground
Guest DJs spin, 10 pm, 21+.

Coogan's
DJ C-Nice spins dance favorites, 10 pm, varies, 21+.

Dbar
DJ Mike Giller spins Top 40 and house beats, 2 am, no cover, 21+.

Devlin's
DJs spin dance and hip-hop, 9 pm-1 am, n 21+.

Estate
rection Fridays International DJs spin the lat- house, trance and break-beat music, 10 pm-2 o cover, 21+.

lsior
ay jazz and lounge, no cover, 21+.

-Up Fridays DJs spin Top 40, house, rock and op, 10 pm, no cover, 21+. Fourth Floor: DJ e of Mashup Mafia spins mashups, '80s, dance ck, 10 pm, 21+.

Foundation Lounge
us DJs mix everything from jazz and lounge to funk, dance and R&B, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

len Temple
: Room DJ Robert Weintraub spins '70s, '80s, nd vocal house, 9:30 pm, 21+.

at Scott
en and Michael V spin, 9 pm, $5, 21+.

en Briar
d live music, 9:30 pm, $5, 21+.

sy Bar
so spins Top 40, hip-hop and house, 10 pm-2 10, 21+.

Harp
in dance mixes upstairs and downstairs, live upstairs, 9 pm, $5 before 10 pm, $10 after, 21+.

ricane O'Reilly's
nnis spins Top 40 and dance, 10 pm, no cover, leplus Fridays DJs spin trance, breaks and , 10 pm, $10, 21+.

Ivory's
ing Rock and Roll Piano Show 8:30 pm, $8,

McIntyre's
assi spins Top 40 and hip-hop, 10 pm, $5, 21+.

Kells
s' Night DJ Sender spins Top 40 and hip-hop e main room, and DJ Doc spins '80s, '90s and ams, 10 pm, $6, women free before 12 am, 21+.

ior Store
lario spins Top 40, hip-hop and rock, 9 pm-2 5, 21+.

ltra
Fridays DJ Pup Dawg spins hip-hop, '80s, rock house, 10 pm, $20, 21+.

dlesex Lounge
us DJs spin soul, funk, down-tempo and hip- no cover, 21+.

cy Way
music and performance, 10 pm, $7-$10, 21+.

like Swells spins house beats.

ris
cortch spins Top 40 and hip-hop at 8 pm, live s at 10 pm, $5 before 9 pm, 21+.

enix Landing
ty Young Thing Top 40 with DJ Vinny, 10 pm, ver, 21+.

Place
web spins a mix of Top 40 and hip-hop as TV ns show Boston sports highlights, 10 pm, $5,

Point
Reggae Friday takes place downstairs while DJ ssion oversees the music upstairs, 10 pm-2 am,

e
Fridays Lesbian Night Rotating DJs spin hip- and Top 40, 9 pm, $5 before 11 pm, 21+.

Purple Shamrock
40 with DJ Thom, 10 pm, $5, 21+.

Quarter
spin rock, hip-hop, mashups, Top 40 and dance s, 21+.

n
ona Beach Party DJ Jim from KISS 108 spins 40, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

dline
ay Alternative DJ KC Hallett spins, 8 2 am, $5 after 10 pm, 21+.

volution Rock Bar
tin' Loose Fridays Enjoy afterwork specials and sic rock favorites, 5-8 pm, followed by DJ Silly 0 pm-2 am, no cover, 21+.

er Gods
eclectic mix of DJs and music, 9 pm, no cover,

xy
Adilson spins high-energy dance music, 11 pm-2 $15 before 12 am, $20 after 12 am, $10 on guest 21+.

mor
Profenna and weekly guest DJs, 11 pm-2 am, $20, on guest list, 21+.

les Dance Hall
in Dance Party Rotating DJs provide bachata, merengue, reggaeton and salsa music, free before 10 pm, $5 before 11 pm, $10 after, tasteful attire required.

Saint
Heaven Fridays DJs G-Squared and Tanno provide a mix of everything, 10 pm, 21+.

Sissy K's
DJ Johnny C spins Top 40 and dance music, 9 pm-2 am, no cover, 21+.

Suite
DJ Santi and guest DJs spin Eurohouse, rock and '80s remixes, 11 pm, $20, 21+.

Tabú
Flirt Fridays DJ Spitaleri spins hip-hop, reggae and reggaeton, women free before 11 pm, $10 after, $10 for guys 21+, $15 for guys 18+.

Tequila Rain
DJ Mike spins Top 40, hip-hop and rock, 9 pm-2 am, $5, 21+.

33 Restaurant
Studio 33 Fridays DJs spin retro dance mixes, hip-hop, house and Latin, 10 pm-2 am, no cover, 21+.

360 Ultralounge
Get Fresh DJ Babyface spins Top 40, R&B and hip-hop, 10:30 pm, $15, 21+.

Toast
Dyke Night 9 pm-2 am, $5, 21+.

Underbar
House Music Fridays DJ Franklin spins hip-hop, house and Latin, 11 pm, $20, 21+.

Venu
DJ Roger M spins hip-hop, Latin and international, proper dress required, 11 pm, $20, $15 on guest list, 21+.

Vertigo
Sexy Fridays DJs spin a mix of Latin, reggae, hip-hop and international, 10 pm, $15, 21+.

Water Works
Ladies Night Out Fridays DJs spin Top 40 dance mixes, 10 pm-2 am, women free before 11 pm, $10 after, 21+.

Wonder Bar
DJs Kon and Lazee Boy spin hip-hop, R&B and old-school classics, 10 pm, $5, 21+.

SATURDAYS

An Tua Nua
DJ Howie spins Top 40 and hip-hop, 10 pm, $5, 21+.

Aria
Various DJs spin house, 10:30 pm-2 am, 21+.

Bell in Hand
Party Music Master spins everything, 10 pm, $10, 21+.

Boston Rocks
DJ Voodoo spins Top 40 and hip-hop, 5 pm-2 am, $5 after 11 pm, 21+.

Caprice
First floor: DJ Franklin spins international music, 10 pm, no cover, 21+. Second floor: Privé Saturdays DJ Paul Yioti spins ethnic house, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

Clerys
DJ Rhythm Nights, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

Common Ground
DJ Hannon and DJs Deano and Jay, 10 pm, 21+.

Coogan's
DJ C-Nice spins a mix of dance favorites, 10 pm, $5, 21+.

Dbar
DJs Jay Ine and Ted Ellison spin house beats, 10 pm-2 am, no cover, 21+.

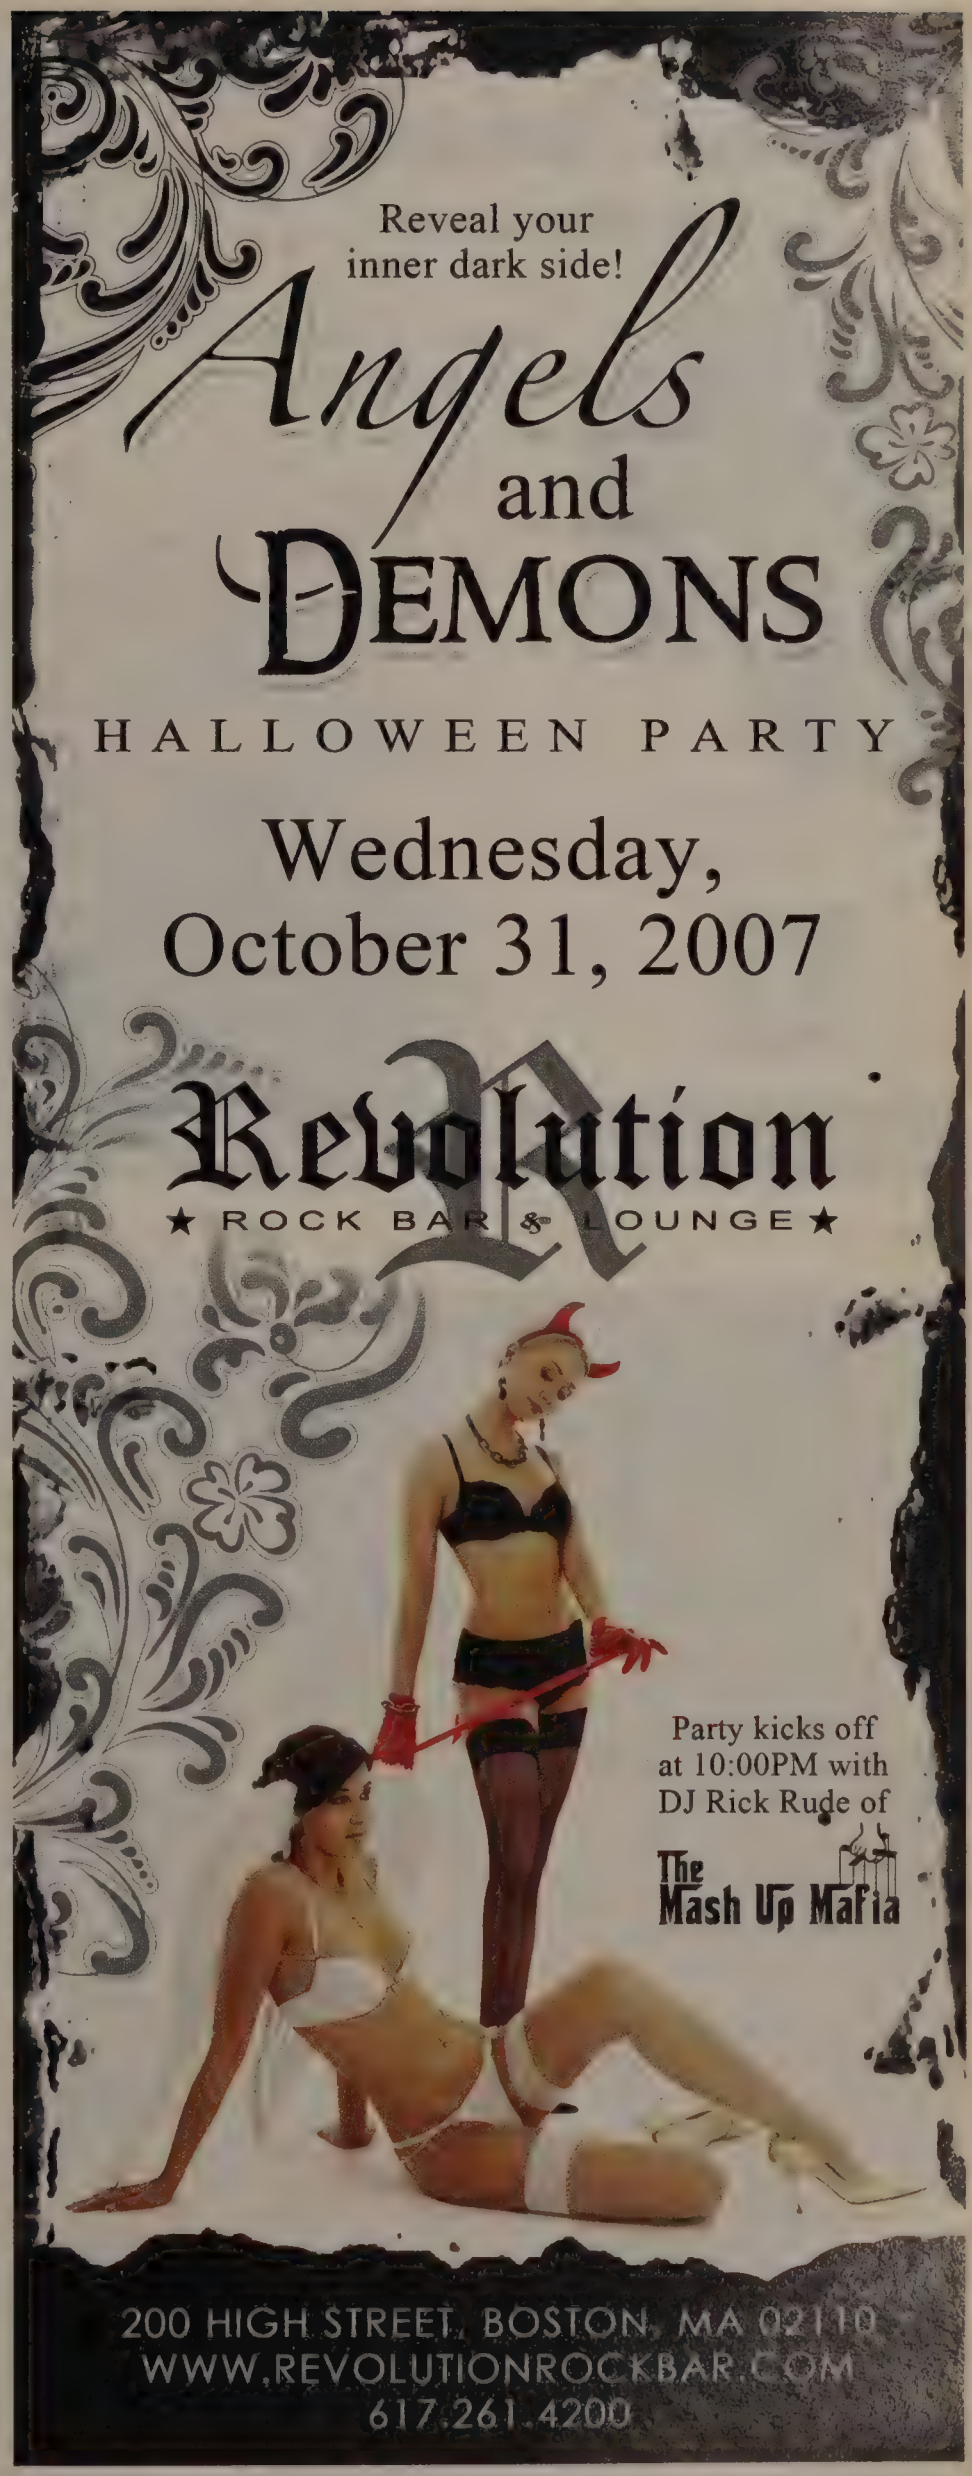
Devlin's
DJ Brother Cleve spins a mix of '80s, '90s and current favorites, 9 pm-1 am, no cover, 21+.

Felt
Social Club Saturdays DJ Mike Bose spins Top 40, classic rock, house and hip-hop, 11 pm, $10, 21+.

The Foundation Lounge
DJ Tanno spins Top 40, reggae, house and disco, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

Golden Temple
The E Room DJ John Reed spins music from the '70s, '80s and '90s, as well as Top 40, 9:30 pm, no cover, 21+.

Green Briar
DJs and live music, 9:30 pm, $5, 21+.



Gypsy Bar
DJ Niso spins in the dance room, and DJ Mario spins at the front bar, 10 pm-2 am, $10, 21+.

The Harp
DJs spin dance mixes upstairs and downstairs, live bands upstairs, 9 pm, $5 before 10 pm, $10 after, 21+.

Hurricane O'Reilly's
DJ Massi, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

ID
Heroes DJ Chris Ewen spins retro, punk and new wave, 10 pm, $6, 21+.

Jake Ivory's
Dueling Rock and Roll Piano Show 8:30 pm, $8, 21+.

UMass Boston Open House 2007

Saturday, October 20th

Begins at 8:30am

- Learn about our vast array of academic programs
- Tour the campus on beautiful Boston Harbor
- Meet professors and students
- Visit apartments just steps from the university

UMASS BOSTON

For more info or to reserve your spot, go to www.umb.edu/openhouse or call 617.287.6000

Jose McIntyre's
DJ Dennis spins Top 40, hip-hop and dance, 9 pm, $5, 21+.

The Kells
DJ Darren spins Top 40, dance and house in the main room, and DJ Grasshopper mixes '80s, '90s and new jams downstairs, 10 pm, $6, 21+.

Liquor Store
DJ Mario spins Top 40 and rock, 9 pm-2 am, $5, 21+.

Mantra
Flow Fridays DJ Pup Dawg spins hip-hop, '80s, rock and house, 10 pm, $20, 21+.

Middlesex Lounge
DJ Kon spins dance and Top 40 hits, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

Milky Way
Mango's Latin Dance Night DJ Antonio Ortíz spins merengue, salsa and bachata beats, 9 pm, $5-$10, free for women before 10:30 pm, 21+.

Om
DJs spin house music with a global edge.

Parris
DJ Scortch spins Top 40 and hip-hop beats at 8 pm, live bands at 10 pm, $5 before 9 pm, 21+.

Phoenix Landing
Boom Boom Room DJ Vinny spins one-hit wonders, New Wave and disco, 10 pm, $4, 21+.

The Place
VJ Dweb entertains, 10 pm, $5, 21+.

The Point
DJ Obsession provides music upstairs, 9 pm-2 am, 21+.

Pure
Sensual Saturdays DJ NRG spins hip-hop, old-school classics, R&B and dancehall, 10:30 pm, $20, 21+.

The Purple Shamrock
Cover bands perform and DJ Thom spins Top 40 beats, 10 pm, $5, 21+.

The Quarter
DJs spin rock, hip-hop and mashups, 10 pm, 21+.

Rain
KISS 108's Billy Costa hosts as DJ Randy spins Top 40, house, dance and rock music, 10 pm, $10, 21+.

Redline
Soul Shack DJ Inkognito spins disco, soul, and old-school favorites, and DJ Paul Foley on the last Saturday of the month, 10 pm-2 a 21+.

Revolution Rock Bar
DJ Rick Rude, TBA.

River Gods
A variety of DJs and music, 9 pm, no cover, 21

Roxy
Latin Saturdays DJs spin Latin beats, 10 pn before 11 pm, $15 after 11 pm, 21+.

Rumor
DJs Thamer and JC spin a mix of hip-hop, and Latin music, 11 pm-2 am, $20, $15 on gue 21+.

Ryles Dance Hall
Four on the Floor Supershag Productions su Latin, tango and salsa dancing, 9:15 pm-2 am.

Saint
Guest DJs from Boston and abroad spin, 10 p cover, 21+.

Sissy K's
Dance Party Saturdays DJ Tiz spins Top 4 dance beats, 8 pm-2 am, no cover, 21+.

6B Lounge
'80s Night DJ Azure spins retro rock tunes decked out in his most stylish '80s gear, 10 p cover, 21+.

Suite
DJs Jamie, Juan de la Luna and Santi spin hou international, 11 pm, $10, 21+.

Tabú
Nightclub: DJ Leandro spins hip-hop, reggae, ton and house beats, 11 pm, $15, 18+. Ultra DJ Steve Anderson spins '80s, '90s and To pm, no cover, 21+.

Tequila Rain
DJ Mike spins Top 40, hip-hop and rock, 9 pn $5, 21+.

33 Restaurant
Filter Saturdays DJs Tasso and Niko G spin Top 40, dance, hip-hop and international beats, 10 pm-2 am, 21+.

Ultralounge
hire Saturdays DJs spin hip-hop, Latin, house &B, 10 pm, $15, 21+.

erbar
ngel Moraes alternates with international DJs, 11 pm, $20, 21+.

ender and JC spin the newest R&B, hip-hop atin, 10 pm, $15, 21+.

igo
ectik and Hevan, 11 pm, $10, 21+.

er Works
wild Saturdays DJs spin Top 40 dance mixes, -2 am, $5 before 10 pm, $10 after, 21+.

t Street Grille
Night Lounge DJs play funk and Top 40 all , 10:30 pm, $5, 21+.

skey Bar
ed Saturdays DJs spin hip-hop, R&B, pop and 0, 10:30 pm, $10, 21+.

der Bar
L and Braun Johnson spin hip-hop, R&B and chool beats, 10 pm, $5, 21+.

NDAYS

Tua Nua
no/House Night, 10 pm, 21+.

lon
Night DJ Rich Ladue spins progressive house, e and techno at Boston's longest-running gay , 10 pm, $10, 21+.

s Bar
ae Sundays Dub Station features a variety of eggae acts, 10 pm $7-$10, 21+.

lin's
ce Industry Night, 9 pm-1 am, no cover, 21+.

den Temple
E Room DJ John Reed spins music from the '80s and '90s, as well as Top 40, 9:30 pm, no .

en Briar
core, no cover, 21+.

y Way
music, 9 pm, cost varies, 21+.

enix Landing
p An underground house-music night featuring ating roster of resident DJs, 10 pm, $5.

Place
l LaMarsh appears with VJ Leathers, 10 pm,

e
bean night, 9 pm, $10, 21+.

anny Sharp and/or the World Premier Band y old-school funk, Top 40 and dance tunes, $5 nd nights, 8 pm, 21+.

er Gods
on Sunday DJs play punk, garage and rock, 10 o cover, 21+.

gies
bean night, 8 pm, no cover, 21+.

es Dance Hall
Sundays An evening of salsa music, dance and 7-11 pm, $10.

t
Sundays Two guest DJs spin a variety of music s Industry Night, 10 pm-2 am, 21+.

y K's
oke, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

ú
er 21 Party 8 pm, $15, 18+.

Ultralounge
ni Heat DJ Dru Nyce spins R&B, hip-hop, reg- nd salsa beats, 10:30 pm, $10, 21+.

tigo
Off DJs spin hip-hop, reggae and reggaeton, 10 o cover, 21+.

ter Works
ove Sundays DJs spin Top 40 dance mixes, 10 am, $5 before 10 pm, $10 after, 21+.

nder Bar
Chu and Krucial spin a mix of soul, funk, hip- nd reggae, 10 pm, 21+.

ub Venues

ua Nua 835 Beacon St., Boston (617-262-2121).
246 Tremont St., Boston (617-338-7080). rd 350 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-577-).
on 15 Lansdowne St., Boston (617-262-2424).
Avenue 1249 Comm. Ave., Allston (617-782-).
13 Lansdowne St., Boston (617-262-2437).
in Hand 45-55 Union St., Boston (617-227-).
Bar 5½ Lansdowne St., Boston (617-421-).

Boston Rocks 245 Quincy St., Boston (617-726-1110).
Buzz 51 Stuart St., Boston (617-482-3939).
Caprice 275 Tremont St., Boston (617-292-0080).
Clerys 331 Columbus Ave., Boston (617-262-9874).
Common Ground 85 Harvard Ave., Allston (617-783-2071).
Coogan's 173 Milk St., Boston (617-451-7415).
Dbar 1236 Dorchester Ave., Dorchester (617-265-4490).
Devlin's 332 Washington St., Brighton (617-779-8822).
Dockside 183 State St., Boston (617-723-7050).
The Estate 1 Boylston Place, Boston (617-351-7000).
Excelsior 272 Boylston St., Boston (617-426-7878).
Felt 533 Washington St., Boston (617-350-5555).
Flat Top Johnny's 1 Kendall Square, Cambridge (617-494-9565).
The Foundation Lounge 500 Comm. Ave., Boston (617-859-9900).
Golden Temple 1651 Beacon St., Brookline (617-277-9722).
Great Scott 1222 Comm. Ave., Boston (617-566-9014).
Green Briar 304 Washington St., Brighton (617-789-4100).
Gypsy Bar 116 Boylston St., Boston (617-482-7799).
The Harp 85 Causeway St., Boston (617-742-1010).
Hurricane O'Reilly's 150 Canal St., Boston (617-722-0161).
ID 13 Lansdowne St., Boston (617-262-2437).
Jake Ivory's 9 Lansdowne St., Boston (617-247-1222).
Jose McIntyre's 160 Milk St., Boston (617-451-9460).
The Kells 161 Brighton Ave., Allston (617-782-9082).
Kings 10 Dalton St., Boston (617-266-2695).
Liquor Store The Alley, Boston (617-357-6800).
Mantra 52 Temple Place, Boston (617-542-8111).
McGann's 197 Portland St., Boston (617-227-4059).
Middlesex Lounge 315 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-868-6739).
Milky Way 403-405 Centre St., Jamaica Plain (617-524-3740).
The Office 5 Broad St., Boston (617-474-7866).
Om 92 Winthrop St., Cambridge (617-576-2800).
Parris Quincy Market Building, Boston (617-248-9900).
Phoenix Landing 512 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-576-6260).
The Place 2 Broad St., Boston (617-523-2081).
The Point 147 Hanover St., Boston (617-523-7020).
Pure 275 Tremont St., Boston (617-542-4077).
The Purple Shamrock 1 Union St., Boston (617-227-2060).
The Quarter 36 Lansdowne St., Boston (617-536-2100).
Rain 665 Broadway, Malden (781-322-2101).
Redline 59 JFK St., Cambridge (617-491-9851).
Revolution Rock Bar 200 High St., Boston (617-261-4200).
River Gods 125 River St., Cambridge (617-576-1881).
Roggies 56 Chestnut Hill Ave., Brighton (617-566-1880).
Roxy 279 Tremont St., Boston (617-338-7699).
Rumor 100 Warrenton St., Boston (617-482-6958).
Ryles Dance Hall 212 Hampshire St., Cambridge (617-876-9300).
Saint 90 Exeter St., Boston (617-236-1134).
Sissy K's 6 Commercial St., Boston (617-248-6511).
6B 6 Beacon St., Boston (617-742-8565).
Suite 1 Boylston Place, Boston (617-512-5311).
Tabú 168 Broadway, Saugus (781-231-5111).
Tequila Rain 3 Lansdowne St., Boston (617-437-0300).
33 Restaurant 33 Stanhope St., Boston (617-572-3311).
360 Lounge 33 Batterymarch St., Boston (617-695-9333).
Toast 70 Union Square, Somerville (617-623-9211).
Umbria 295 Franklin St., Boston (617-338-1000).
Underbar 275 Tremont St., Boston (617-292-7122).
Venu 100 Warrenton St., Boston (617-338-8061).
Vertigo 126 State St., Boston (617-723-7277).
Water Works 333 Victory Road, Quincy (617-689-0600).
West Street Grille 15 West St., Boston (617-423-0300).
Wonder Bar 186 Harvard Ave., Allston (617-351-2665).

ROGGIE'S

catering ✶ party platters ✶ free delivery ✶ luncheons

ROGGIE'S FULL MENU AVAILABLE
BRUNCH - LUNCH - DINNER

www.roggies.com
OPEN LATE
356 Chestnut Hill Ave.
Brighton

617.713.0555
617.566.1880

for booking info:
krisyliz00@aol.com
rroggies@aol.com

We use
0g trans fat

museums & galleries

Advice to Contributors
Submit gallery and museum listings by fax (617-859-1446) or mail to Calendar: Museums/Galleries, or e-mail arts@improper.com. Include dates, nearest T stop and phone number. Deadline is four weeks prior to publication. Listings cannot be accepted over the phone.

Museums

Armenian Library & Museum of America
65 Main St., Watertown (617-926-2562). www.almainc.org. MBTA: #71 Bus to Watertown. Thu., 6-9 pm; Fri. and Sun., 1-5 pm; Sat., 10 am-2 pm. •Genatsed features mixed-media works looking at Armenia's history of viticulture and wine production. Through January 2008. •Highlights from the Collection features a wide range of mixed-media works. Ongoing.

Arthur M. Sackler Museum
485 Broadway, Cambridge (617-495-9400). www.artmuseums.harvard.edu. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. Mon.-Sat., 10 am-5 pm; Sun., 1-5 pm. $9; $7, seniors; $6, students; free, under 18; free, Sat. until 12 pm and every day after 4:30 pm. •Downtime features four contemporary Chinese paintings, displayed with the ceramics in the Asian gallery. Through Jan. 27, 2008. •Gods in Color: Painted Sculpture of Classical Antiquity features full-size replicas of Greek and Roman sculptures. Through Jan. 20. •Overlapping Realms: Arts of the Islamic World and India, 900-1900 explores themes of commonality, continuity and diversity, featuring ceramics and metalwork by southern European and South Asian artists. Through spring 2008. •Alexander's Image and the Beginning of Greek Portraiture showcases ancient coins depicting Alexander the Great and his successors. Ongoing. •The Art of Ancient Rome features funerary art and stone masterpieces depicting daily life, public entertainment and leaders of Ancient Rome. Ongoing. •On the Path of Madness: Representations of Majnunn in Persian, Turkish, and Indian Painting details the romance of Majnun and Layla. Through Feb. 10, 2008.

Bostonian Society Old State House Museum
206 Washington St., Boston (617-720-1713). www.bostonhistory.org. MBTA: Blue or Orange Line to State. Daily, 9 am-6 pm. $5; $4, students and seniors; $1, ages 6-18. •The Boston Massacre: A Sound and Light Show explains how a snowball fight escalated into a deadly riot prior to the American Revolution. Ongoing. •The Old State House: A Hands-On History features multimedia interpretations of the old Massachusetts capitol. Ongoing. •Every Picture Tells a Story is a collection of historic photographs of Boston-area places, events and people. Ongoing. •From Colony to Commonwealth presents 150 artifacts and images documenting Boston's fight for independence from England and Massachusetts' establishment as a state. Ongoing. •Our Favorite Things features historical artifacts from the museum's collection. Ongoing. •Preservation of the Old State House displays architectural plans of the building and details the preservation and restoration process from 1881 to 1991. Ongoing. •Treasures From the Bostonian Society's Collections features marine paintings and harbor views from Boston's maritime history. Ongoing.

Davis Museum and Cultural Center
Wellesley College, 106 Central St., Wellesley (781-283-2051). www.davismuseum.wellesley.edu. MBTA: Commuter Rail to Wellesley. Tue., Thu., Fri. and Sat., 11 am-5 pm; Wed., 11 am-8 pm; Sun., 12-4 pm. Free. •Global Feminisms features mixed-media works by 60 women artists that explore the influence of feminist thought. Through Dec. 9. •Don't Look features drawings from the collection of Martina Yamin. Through Dec. 9.

DeCordova Museum and Sculpture Park
51 Sandy Pond Road, Lincoln (781-259-8355). www.decordova.org. MBTA: Commuter Rail to Lincoln. Tue.-Sun., 11 am-5 pm. $9; $6, students and seniors; free, ages 5 and under. •Moving Through New England features mixed-media works capturing the region by Jules Aarons, Laura Anderson, Frank Gohlke and others. Through Oct. 14, 2008. •New Arrivals: Gifts to the Permanent Collection features mixed-media works recently donated to the museum. Through Jan. 13, 2008. •Ricardo Barros: Facing Sculpture features black-and-white photographs of contemporary sculptors by Barros. Through Jan. 13, 2008. •Trainscape: Installation Art for Model Railroads features an operational model railway that traverses miniature landscapes created by 12 local artists. Through Jan. 13, 2008. •Approaches to Narrative highlights work from the DeCordova's permanent collection. •Beauty and Decay: Photographs of Flowers features photographs from the museum's permanent collection. Through March 2008. •Nina Levy's outdoor sculptures "Headlong" and "Big Baby" greet visitors as they enter the museum's roof-top terrace. Ongoing.

Paul Budnitz and Tristan Easton's "Kid Robot" is on display at the ICA through Jan. 6

Fogg Art Museum/ Busch-Reisinger Museum
32 Quincy St., Cambridge (617-495-9400). www.artmuseums.harvard.edu. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. Mon.-Sat., 10 am-5 pm; Sun., 1-5 pm. $9; $7, seniors; $6, students; free, under 18; free, Sat. until 12 pm and every day after 4:30 pm. •Bernin's Moor: A Monumental Model for a Roman Fountain features Bernini's clay model for Rome's Fountain of the Moor. Through Nov. 4. •Investigating the Renaissance features early Italian Renaissance painting. Ongoing. •Light Display Machines: Two Works by László Moholy-Nagy features a light-space modulator using metal, plastics, glass, paint, wood and a short film. Through Nov. 4. •Kara Walker: Harper's Pictorial History of the Civil War features lithographs and screen prints of Civil War images. Through Nov. 11. •Making Myth Modern: Primordial Themes in German 20th-Century Sculpture features sculptures by Franz von Stuck, Renée Sintenis, Max Beckmann, Gerhard Marcks and others. Through Dec. 30. •Paintings by Max Beckmann from the Pinakothek der Moderne, Munich features three major paintings by Beckmann over three decades. Through Jan. 6, 2008. •Contemporary Art from the Harvard University Art Museums Collections features mixed-media works by Ellen Gallagher, Edward Ruscha, Rudolf Stingel and others. Through February 10. •Gian Lorenzo Bernini: Sketches in Clay displays 15 of Bernini's terracotta sculptures. Ongoing. •Modern Art, 1865-1965 presents sculptures and paintings by Matisse, Miró and Rodin, among others. Ongoing. •17th-Century French Painting and Sculpture features works of portraiture by Nicolas Régnier and Pierre Mignard. Ongoing.

French Library and Cultural Center
53 Marlborough St., Boston (617-912-0400). www.frenchlib.org. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Mon.,Tue. and Thu., 10 am-6 pm; Wed., 10 am-8 pm; Fri. and Sat., 10 am-5pm. Free. Paris Insolite - The Living City features photographs by Virginia Bonesteel. Oct. 10, 6:30pm.

Harvard Museum of Natural History
26 Oxford St., Cambridge (617-495-3045). www.hmnh.harvard.edu. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. Daily, 9 am-5 pm. $9; $7, students and seniors; $6, ages 3-18; free, children under 3; free to Mass. residents, Sun. until 12 pm. •Nests & Eggs features mixed-media displays of eggs. Through March 2008. •Looking at Animals features photographs of land and sea creatures by Henry Horenstein. Sept. 28-June 2008. •Arthropods: Creatures That Rule features fossils, preserved specimens, video presentations and color photographs of hundreds of arthropods. Ongoing. •Climate Change: Our Global Experiment uses computer simulations to explore scientific studies of climate change. Ongoing. •Dodos, Trilobites and Meteorites: Treasures of Nature and Science at Harvard documents more than 200 years of scientific exploration. Ongoing. •The Ware Collection of Glass Flowers by Leopold and Rudolph Blaschka features glass models of more than 830 plant species. Ongoing.

Institute of Contemporary Art
100 Northern Ave., Boston (617-478-3169). www.icaboston.org. MBTA: Red Line to South Station. Tue., Wed., Sat. and Sun., 10 am-5 pm; Thu. and Fri., 10 am-9 pm. $12; $10, students and seniors; free, children under 17 and ICA members; free, Thu. after 5 pm. •Art on the Harbor Islands explores the Boston Harbor Island's natural resources through mixed-media works, including interactive exhibits by Ernesto Pujol, Teri Rueb and Anna Schuleit. Visitors must arrange travel to the islands. Visit Web site for performance schedule. Through Oct. 8. •Chiho Aoshima presents "The Divine Gas," a mural depicting a giant girl. Through Oct. 28. •Momentum 8: Dave McKenzie features a new video by the New York based artist. Through Oct. 28. •Design Life Now: National Design Triennial highlights the most innovative design over the past three years through architecture, film, graphics and so much more. Through Jan. 6, 2008. •Bourgeois in Boston displays the stages of Louise Bourgeois' career through her sculptures, prints and drawings. Through March 2, 2008. •Accumulations:More Than the Sum of Their Parts features mixed-media works that assemble multiple parts by artists Ambreen Butt, Paul Chan, Tara Donovan, and more. Through July 13, 2008. •The permanent collection features 21st-century works by Kai Althoff, Paul Chan, Taylor Davis, Marlene Dumas, Nan Goldin and others.

Isabella Stewart Gardner Museum
280 The Fenway, Boston (617-566-1401). www.gardnermuseum.org. MBTA: E Green Line to Museum. Tue.-Sun., 11 am-5 pm. $12; $10, seniors; $5, students; free for children under 18 and all visitors named Isabella; $2 off with same-day Museum of Fine Arts admission. •Stefano Arienti: The Asian Shore features 17th-century Japanese sliding doors, drawings, photocopies and rugs by Arienti. Through Oct. 14. •The permanent collection features more than 2,500 paintings, sculptures, tapestries, manuscripts, rare books and decorative pieces by artists inclu Rembrandt, Michelangelo, Botticelli and Degas

Mary Baker Eddy Library
200 Mass. Ave., Boston (617-450-7000). marybakereddylibrary.org. MBTA: Green Line to H Tue.-Sun., 10 am-4 pm. $6; $4, seniors, student children ages 6-17; free, ages 5 and under. •The Hi Bible Collection showcases rare Bibles in the refer room. Ongoing. •The Mapparium: An Inside View tures public documents, artifacts and letters cre during the exhibition's construction. Ongoing. • sational Press: Radical Response examines the influ of the Christian Science Monitor over the past cen Ongoing. •Verse-Maker: Poetry and Mary Baker displays the influence of poetry on Mary Baker E writings. Ongoing. •Hall of Ideas celebrates the that have inspired human beings throughout hi with glass and bronze sculptures and digital m The exhibition features works by Ben Tré and D Small. Ongoing. •Quest Gallery features mixed-m works examining life's age-old questions and incl writings by Mary Baker Eddy. Ongoing.

McMullen Museum of Art
Boston College, Devlin Hall, 140 Comm. A Chestnut Hill (617-552-8100). www.bc.ed museum. MBTA: B Green Line to Boston Col KaMon-Fri., 11 am-4 pm; Sat. and Sun., 12-5 Pollack Matters features mixed-media work Pollack and photographer Herbert Ma Through Dec. 9.

MIT List Visual Arts Center
20 Ames St., Cambridge (617-253-4680). h web.mit.edu/lvac. MBTA: Red Line to Kendall/ Tue.-Thu., 12-6 pm, Fri., 12-8 pm, Sat. and S 12-6 pm. Free. •The Dean's Gallery incl selections from national and international a encompassing a broad range of techni Through Oct. 19. •Sounding the Subject: Selec from the Pamela and Richard Kramlich Collectio the New Art Trust features the use of sound, and live performances by Eija-Liisa Ahtila, Douglas, David Hammons, Nam June Paik Pipilotti Rist. Oct. 12-Dec. 30.

MIT Museum
265 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-253-4 http://web.mit.edu/museum. MBTA: Red Li Kendall/MIT. Tue.-Fri., 10 am-5 pm; Sat. and 12-5 pm. $5; $2, students and seniors; free, ch under 5. •MIT Professor Jerry Milgrim: An E tional Ocean Engineer celebrates the career longest-serving professor of ocean engineeri MIT with artifacts from his accomplishm Through Feb. , 2008. •Deep Frontiers: Ocean neering at MIT displays technology develope the preservation of our oceans. Ongoing. •F of Inspiration: The Work of Harold Edgerton fe multimedia work commemorating the li Harold Edgerton. Ongoing. •Gestural Engine The Sculpture of Arthur Ganson displays ki sculptures by Ganson. Ongoing. •Holography Light Fantastic exhibits 23 holograms from th seum's extensive collection by artists incl Margaret Benyon and Setsuko Ishii. On •Mind and Hand: The Making of MIT Scientis Engineers portrays the life of an MIT st through mixed media. Ongoing. •Robots ar yond: Exploring Artificial Intelligence at MIT fe multimedia work focusing on studies into art intelligence. Ongoing. •Su-Mei Tse's Les Bal du desert (The Desert Sweepers) features a mu dia exhibit. with the sounds of Parisian city s ers. Through Oct. 15.

Museum of African-American Hist
46 Joy St., Boston (617-725-0022). www.c museum.org. MBTA: Green or Red Line to Mon.-Sat., 10 am-4 pm. Free. •A Gathering Pl Freedom features more than 100 books, drawin other documents from African-American h Through December.

Museum of Fine Arts
465 Huntington Ave., Boston (617-267-9300). mfa.org. MBTA: E Green Line to Museum. Wed 10 am-9:45 pm; Sat.-Tue., 10 am-4:45 pm. $17 seniors; $8.50, children ages 7-17 during school free, children 17 and under all other times; admis voluntary contribution, Wed., 4-9:45 pm. •Dra Desire: Japanese Paintings From the Floating World 1850 depicts the daily activities of Tokyo's inha at the time through woodblock prints and paint Harunobu, Utamaro and Hokusai. Through D •Winslow Homer at the MFA features painting the permanent collection. Through Dec. 31, •Shy Boy, She Devil, and Isis: The Art of Con Craft, Selections from the Wornick Collection fea variety of mixed-media works by 107 artists fr countries. Through Jan. 6, 2008. •Arts of Japa John C. Weber Collection features Japanese media works from the 12th to the 20th c ıgh Jan. 13, 2008. •Glittering Gold: Illumination mic Art features illuminated Koran passages by s Diptas and other artists. Through Jan. 27, •Contemporary Outlook: German Photography es works by Bernd and Hilla Becher, Andreas y and Thomas Ruff. Through Feb. 2008. •Con- ary Outlook: Japan features mixed-media works en World War II and present day. Through Feb. ewelry by Artists: The Daphne Farago Collection es contemporary craft jewelry by Sam Kramer, Ray, Pablo Picasso and others. Through March 5, •Ed Rossbach Fiber Art From the Daphne Farago tion features more than 40 textile works by Ross- Through March 5, 2008. •Walk This Way ex- footwear design throughout the ages. Through ı 23, 2008. •Resounding Ragas: Paintings and Mu- Memory in India features Indian paintings that t music and the modes of raga that they evoke. gh April 13, 2008.

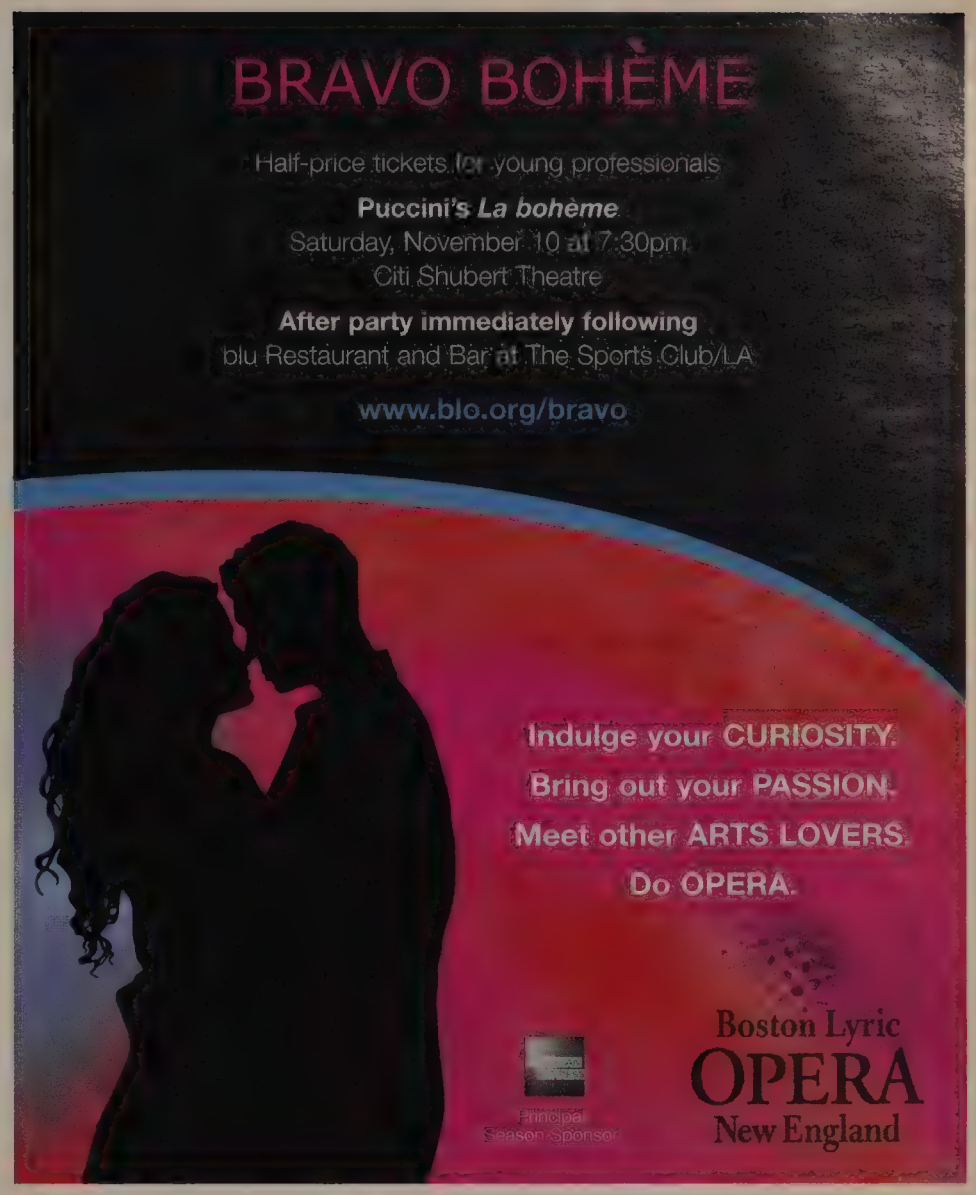
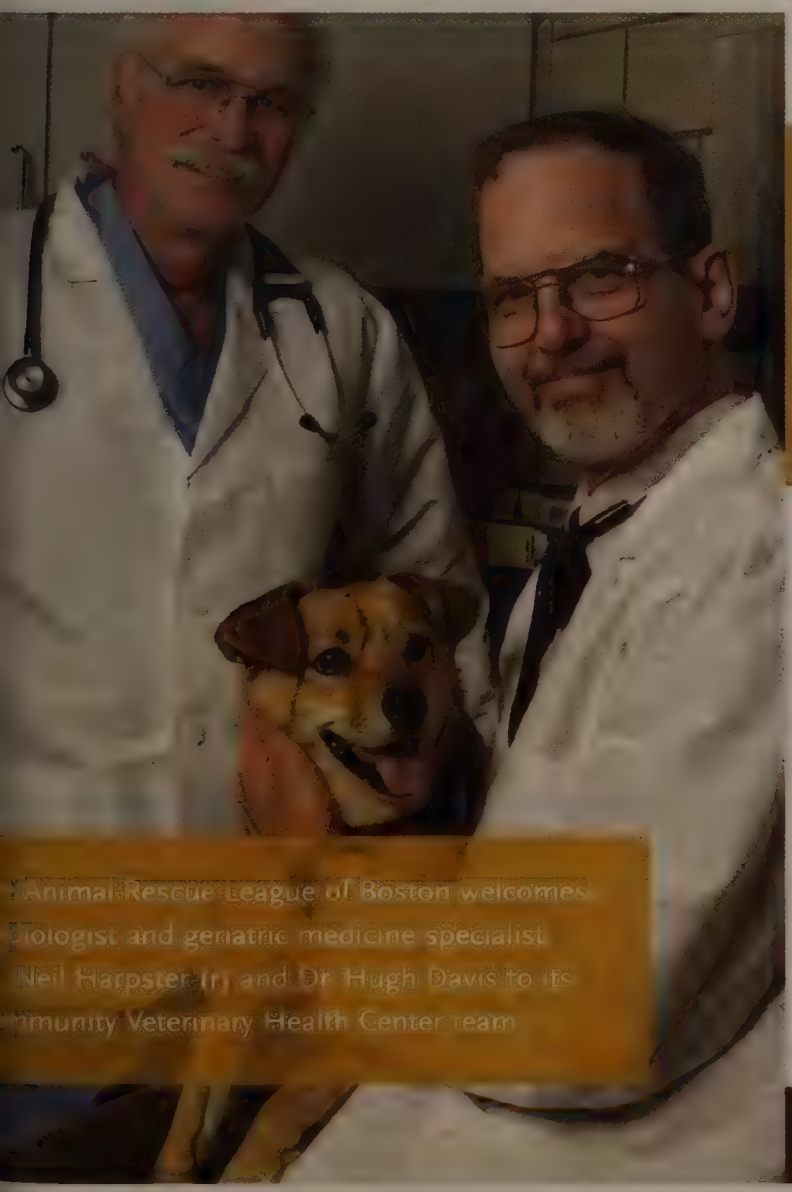
eum of Science

e Park, Boston (617-723-2500). www.mos. MBTA: D Green Line to Science Park. Sun.- 9 am-7 pm; Fri. and Sat., 9 am-9 pm. $16; $14, s; $13, children ages 3-11. •Weems Animal ures features bronze animal sculptures donated tharine Lane Weems. Ongoing. •Earth: Inside eatures displays portraying the Earth's interior. ing. •Welcome to the Universe educates visitors the universe and displays a scaled model of lar system. Ongoing. •WeatherWise, a new nent exhibition, shows visitors the techniques rt-term forecasting.

onal Heritage Museum



arrett Road, Lexington (781-861-6559). www. org. Mon.-Sat., 10 am-5 pm; Sun., 12-5 pm. •Pets in America: The Story of Our Lives with ls at Home features objects and photographs of Through Oct. 14. •Unlocking the Code: Ma- and Fraternal Aprons features a selection of s from the collection of the Grand Lodge of ns in Massachusetts, including pieces from d the world over the past two centuries. gh Dec. 9. •Fins, Wings and Other Such Things es photos from the polaroid collection with by international and local photographers in- g Ansel Adams. Through Feb. 10. •Raymond : Designs for a Consumer Culture features consumer design innovations from the 20th century. Oct. 13-March 23. •Sowing the Seeds of Liberty: Lexington and the American Revolution uses mixed media to discuss the battle at Lexington. Ongoing. •American Family Treasures: Decorative Arts from the D.J. and Alice Shumway Nadeau Collection features crafted furniture, metal work, glass and other objects. Ongoing.



Peabody Essex Museum

East India Square, Salem (978-745-9500). www. pem.org. Daily, 10 am-5 pm. $9, $11, seniors; $9, students; free to children under 16 and residents of Salem. •Sketched at Sea features sketchbooks used by mariners to document their experiences at sea. Through Jan. 6, 2008. •Accidental Mysteries features vintage snapshots with double exposure or other darkroom mistakes from the John and Teenuh Foster collection. Through Jan. 27, 2008. •Origami Now! features origami works by artists from around the world.Through June 8, 2008. •Gateway Bombay features paintings, works on paper, photographs and a mixed-media installation by Chriodeep Chaudhuri, Bal Chhabda, Atul Dodiya and others. Through Dec. 7, 2008. •Perfect Imbalance: Exploring Chinese Aesthetics features 30 Chinese artifacts, including paintings, jade and porcelain, which demonstrate the distinctive culture of China. Through May 17, 2009. •All of My Life features works exploring nine contemporary Native American artists' world views. Featured artists include David Bradley, Truman Lowe and Mateo Romero. Ongoing. •Intersections, Native American Art in a New Light examines Native American artwork from the 17th century to the present in ceramics, textiles, drawings and more. Ongoing. •Of Gods and Mortals: Traditional Art From India showcases works from the 1800s to the present. Ongoing.

Peabody Museum of Archaeology and Ethnology

11 Divinity Ave., Cambridge (617-496-1027). www. peabody.harvard.edu. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. Daily, 9 am-5 pm. $9; $7, seniors and students; $6, ages 3-18; free, children under 3. •Distinguished Casts: Curating Lost Monuments at the Peabody Museum features casts from Mesoamerica. Through Oct. 30. •The Moche of Ancient Peru: Media and Messages features over 100 pieces including ceramics, textiles

COMMUNITY VETERINARY HEALTH CENTER

A SERVICE OF THE ANIMAL RESCUE LEAGUE OF BOSTON LOCATED IN THE SOUTH END

PROVIDING QUALITY CARE:

PREVENTATIVE MEDICINE
GERIATRIC MEDICINE
OUTPATIENT SURGERY
CARDIOLOGY
WELLNESS
DENTISTRY

since 1899

WELCOMING NEW CLIENTS
FREE ON-SITE PARKING
CONVENIENT HOURS

ANIMAL RESCUE LEAGUE of BOSTON

10 CHANDLER STREET BOSTON, MA 02116 (617) 226-5605

BOSTON'S BEST 2007 WINNER IMPROPER BOSTONIAN

BEST OF BOSTON 2006

BEST OF BOSTON 2007

french dressing

a lingerie boutique

Specializing in everyday luxury

Cosabella, Huit, Eberjey, Aubade,
Hanky Panky, On Gossamer and many more.

49 River Street, Beacon Hill
617/723/4YOU • www.frenchdressinglingerie.com

ANNa's TAQUERIA

Burritos & Tacos To Go!

BOSTON'S BEST 2007 WINNER IMPROPER BOSTONIAN

Burrito

Open Everyday 10 a.m. to 11 p.m.

1412 Beacon Street • Coolidge Corner • 739-7300
446 Harvard Street • Brookline • 277-7111
822 Somerville Avenue • Porter Square • Cambridge • 661-8500
236A Elm Street • Davis Square • Somerville • 666-3900
84 Mass Avenue • MIT Stratton Center • Cambridge • 324-2662

"The Ring Cafeteria" is on display at the Massachusetts College of Art through Dec.

and photographs. Through Nov. 30. •Imazighen! Beauty and Artisanship in Berber Life features 20th-century artifacts made by the North African Berbers. Through November. •From Nation to Nation: Examining Lewis and Clark's Indian Collection features 38 Native American artifacts from the early 18th century. Through June 2008. •The exhibition Feeding the Ancestors: Tlingit Carved Horn Spoons displays spoons made by the Tlingit people of North America during the 1800s. Through March 2008. •Encounters With the Americas examines Native American culture before and after the arrival of Christopher Columbus in 1492. Ongoing. •Change and Continuity portrays Native American culture through objects from the 19th century. Ongoing.

Rose Art Museum

Brandeis University, Kniznick Gallery, 415 South St., Waltham (781-736-3434). www.brandeis.edu/rose. MBTA: Commuter Rail to Brandeis/Roberts. Tue.-Sun. 12-5 pm. •Tiger by the Tail! Women Artists of India Transforming Culture features mixed-media installations by 17 Indian women artists. Through Dec. 14. •Logjam features 12 installations by Tom Sachs. Through Dec. 16. •Spiraling Inward features paintings and drawings exploring the boundaries of art and science by Steve Miller. Through Dec. 16.

Special Events

Curator's Talk

MIT List Visual Arts Center, 20 Ames St., Cambridge (617-253-4680). www.mit.edu/lvac/www/general/index.html. MBTA: Red Line to Kendall/MIT. Oct. 20, 5 pm. Free. Curator Daniel Birnbaum discusses the exhibition Sounding the Subject.

Dogs and the Universe

Art Beat: The Creativity Store, 212 A Mass. Ave., Arlington (781-646-2200). www.artbeatonline.com. MBTA: Red Line to Davis. Oct. 21, 5:30 pm. Free. Upperwalls Gallery presents Dogs and the Universe, featuring paintings by A.E. Irvine.

The Truth of Spirituality Is Happiness

Aladdin Auto Repair Gallery, 162 Alewife Brook Pkwy., Cambridge (617-547-8000). www.mrkart.com. MBTA: Red Line to Alewife. Oct. 12-14. 9 am-9 pm. Free. Mahmood Rezaei-Kamalabad exhibits his metal sculptures.

You Are in My Eyes: Attraction to People and Situations

Gateway Arts, 62 Harvard St., Brookline (617-734-1577). www.gatewayarts.org. MBTA: D Green Line to Brookline Village. Oct. 18, 6 pm. Free. This reception features works by local artists with disabilities.

Young Turks Two

The Nave Gallery, 155 Powderhouse Blvd., Some (617-625-4823). www.artsomerville.org. MBTA Line to Davis. Oct. 12, 6 pm. Free. Come fo opening reception and viewing of the avant-g exhibition where 10 artists explore the ide healthy dissent and rebellion.

Galleries

FINE ART

Acme Fine Art

38 Newbury St., Boston (617-585-9551). acmefineart.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlin Tue.-Sat., 11 am-5:30 pm. Maine Modern II fea mid-19th-century paintings by Michael L William Kienbusch, Dorothy Eisner and ot Oct. 12-Nov. 24.

Adams Gallery

Suffolk University Law School, 120 Tremont Boston (617-305-1782). www.suffolk.edu/ad gallery. MBTA: Red or Green Line to Park. Da am-7 pm. From Dairy to Doorstep: Milk Deliv New England, 1860-1960 features photogr advertisements and artifacts chronicling a ce in the profession. Oct. 15-Jan. 20, 2008.

Allston Skirt Gallery

65 Thayer Ave., Boston (617-482-3652). allstonskirt.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Wed.-Sat., 11 am-5 pm and by appointment. Great Depression: Brad Phillips and Rasool Sc features mixed-media works capturing the Through Oct. 27. •Michelle Cotez: New Wor tures drawings by the namesake artist. Thr Oct. 27.

Alpha Gallery

38 Newbury St., Boston (617-536-4465). alphagallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlir Tue.-Fri., 10 am-5:30 pm; Sat., 11 am-5:3 William Bailey features oil- and tempera-on-c works by the namesake artist. Oct. 13-Nov. 7.

Arden Gallery

129 Newbury St., Boston (617-247-0610). ardengallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to C Mon.-Sat., 11 am-5:30 pm. •Bill Fisher featu and wax-on-panel works by the namesake Through Oct. 29.

Ars Libri

500 Harrison Ave., Boston (617-357-5212). arslibri.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. Fri., 9 am-6 pm; Sat., 11 am-5 pm. Sally Ross Hi-Fi features recent works by the artist. Th October.

nstitute of Boston
eacon St., Boston. (617-585-6600). http://web.
du/iaib. MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore. Mon.-
am-6 pm, Sun., 12-5 pm. Anita Kunz Illustraublished and Unpublished features mixed-media by Kunz. Through Oct. 21.

na
Beacon St., Brookline (617-879-3111). www.
gallery.com. MBTA: C Green Line to Coolidge
r. Wed.-Fri., 11 am-6 pm; Sat., 10 am-5 pm
y appointment. Autumn Opulence features -on-canvas paintings of French Canadian culy Nicole St-Pierre. Through October.

itude Gallery
Newbury St., Boston (617-927-4400). www.
degallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley.
Sat., 10 am-6 pm; Sun., 12-5 pm. •The Many of Sheryl Ellinwood showcases the artist's variedia, including glass panels and sculpture.
gh October. •The Natural Elements of Paula one features paintings of nature by the name-rtist. Through October. •Artifacts: New Work Harding features layered silk sculptural wall
ngs. Oct. 11-Nov. 30.

le Fine Arts
ewbury St., Boston (617-450-0700). www.
com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Daily, 10
m. •The permanent collection features works
nch contemporary artists Elizabeth Estivalet, l Delacroix and Andre Bourrie, among others.

m reen St., Boston (617-953-6413). www.axiom
. MBTA: Orange Line to Green. Wed.-Thu., 6
m; Sat., 2-5 pm and by appointment. Witness es video and braille installations by Denise a and the artist collective Think Again. Oct.
c. 1.

Gallery
ttle St., Cambridge (617-354-0407). www.
allery.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard.
-Sat., 10:30 am-7 pm. Janet Shapero Evolu-eatures Rete Chromes works by the name-rtist. Through Oct. 17.

ara Krakow Gallery
ewbury St., 5th floor, Boston (617-262-
. www.barbarakrakowgallery.com. MBTA:
Line to Arlington. Tue.-Sat., 10 am-5:30 our Forms features yarn, wood, drawings and works by Fred Sandback. Through Oct. 17.

nberg Gallery
rendon St., Boston (617-536-0800). www.
erggallery.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Back ue.-Sat., 11 am-6 pm. Gabriel Shaffer: Animal s features mixed-media works by Gabrielle
r. Through Nov. 3.

ard Toale Gallery
larrison Ave., Boston (617-482-2477). www.
dtoalegallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to Copue.-Sat., 10:30 am-5:30 and by appointment.
e Fasnacht: In Transit features drawings and ures by the namesake artist. Through Nov. 10.
lating Iraq features color photographs by Becket. Through Nov. 10.

Urdang Gallery
Newbury St., Boston (617-424-5550). www.
danggallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to Hynes.
-Sat., 10:30 am-5:30 pm. •Joe Brubaker fea-culpture by the namesake artist. Through Oct.
Margo Margolis features recent paintings by the ake artist. Through Oct. 13. •Colin Brant: Re-aintings features oil-on-canvas works. Oct. 19-
.

on Center for the Arts Gallery, 539 Tremont St., Boston (617-426-
. www.bcaonline.org. MBTA: Orange Line to Bay. Wed.-Thu., 12-5 pm; Fri.-Sat., 12-10 pm;
12-5 pm. The Lights Going On and Off features tallation using electric light by Martin Creed.
gh Oct. 28.

on Sculptors Gallery
larrison Ave., Boston (617-482-7781). www.
sculptors.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Back
Wed.-Sun., 12 pm-6 pm. •Murray Dewart and Kozuru feature ceramic works by the artists.
gh Nov. 11.

nfield Gallery
larrison Ave., Boston (617-451-3605). www.
ieldgallery.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Back ue.-Sat., 12-6 pm. •Precious: A Year of Look-
My Stuff (and Other New Work) features 365 paintings by Gail Martin. Oct. 3-27.

kline Arts Center
onmouth St., Brookline (617-566-5715). www.
ineartscenter.com. MBTA: C Green Line to St.
s. Mon.-Fri., 9 am-4:30 pm. •The Amsterdam
t features paintings in Batik by George Sum-Through Nov. 9. •People and Places features graphy of Fenway Park, the Boston skyline and dian forests by Norm Scotch. Through Nov. 9.

•Conversation Pieces features mixed-media and outdoor sculptures by James Burnes, Mark Favermann, Madeleine Lord and others. Through Sept. 2008.

Cambridge Art Association
University Place Gallery, 124 Mount Auburn St., Cambridge (617-876-0246). www.cambridgeart.org. Mon.-Fri., 9 am-6 pm; Sat., 9 am-1 pm. •Waves Whimsy Windows features works by Richard Bertman, Alicia Cromie and Kitty Pechet. Through Nov. 13. •Members' Prize Show features works by association members juried by Howard Yezerski. Through Nov. 7.

Cambridge Arts Council
344 Broadway, Cambridge (617-349-4380). www.cambridgeartscouncil.org. MBTA: Red Line to Central. Mon., Wed. and Thu., 8:30 am-8 pm; Tue., 8:30 am-5 pm; Fri., 8:30 am-12 pm. •Brain Terrain: An Exhibition of Painting and Drawings by Heidi Whitman features mixed-media works exploring states of mind. Through Nov. 9.

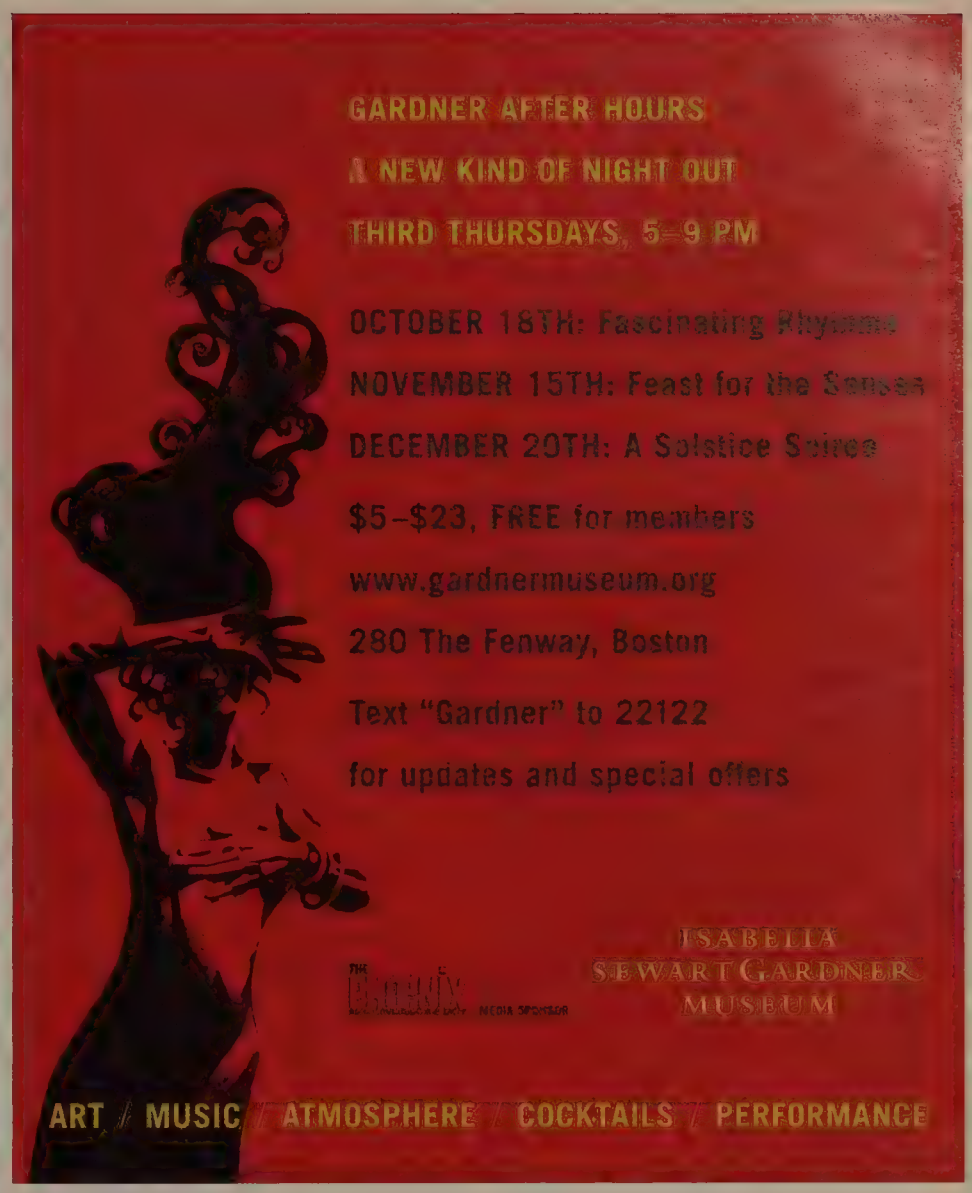
Cambridge Multicultural Arts Center
41 Second St., Cambridge (617-577-1400). www.cmacusa.org. MBTA: Red Line to Kendall/MIT. Mon.-Fri., 10 am-6 pm. Legacies features mixed-media works by various artists that examine the bombings of Laos during the Vietnam war. Through Oct. 30.

Carpenter Center for the Visual Arts
24 Quincy St., Cambridge (617-496-6617). www.ves.fas.harvard.edu. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. Mon.-Sat. 9 am-11 pm, Sun. 12-11pm. •Berlin Remake and Deathstar/Todesstern features 16mm and 35 mm film, video, sound and writing by Amie Siegel. Through November. •New Faculty Show features photography, animation and multi-media installations by faculty members Drew Beattie, Miles Coolidge, Andreas Hykade and others. Through Oct. 28.

Chase Gallery
129 Newbury St., Boston (617-859-7222). www.chasegallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Mon.-Fri., 11 am-5:30 pm; Sat., 10 am-5 pm. Stephen Coyle New Paintings features alkyd-on-board works by the namesake artist. Through Oct. 27.

Childs Gallery
169 Newbury St., Boston (617-266-1108). www.childsgallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Mon. and Sat., 10 am-5 pm; Tue.-Fri., 9 am-6 pm. •The Bostonians: Painters, Sculptors and Draftsmen 1840-1940 features works by Boston artists over a 100 year period. Through Nov. 10. •Monhegan Watercolors of Ted Davis features works by the artist. Through Nov. 10. •The Place Where Maine Vacations: Grisaille Watercolors of Bernard Brussel-Smith features landscapes by the titular artist. Through Nov. 10.

Copley Society of Art
158 Newbury St., Boston (617-536-5049). www.copleysociety.org. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Tue.-Sat., 11 am-6 pm; Sun., 12-5 pm. •On a Wire features Ellen Granter's paintings of birds. Through Oct. 13. •Painted Turtles features oil paintings of turtles. Through Oct. 13. •CoSo Artists A-Z: Crisp features small mixed-media pieces by gallery artists. Through Nov. 3. •Fall Members' Show: Equinox features mixed-media works by gallery artists. Oct. 18-Nov. 10.



Crump McCole Gallery
200 Seaport Blvd., Boston (617-330-1133). MBTA: Red Line to South Station. Mon.-Wed. and Fri., 10 am-6 pm; Thu., 10 am-8 pm; Sat. and Sun., 12-5 pm. Artists' Gallery Exhibit features oil paintings of Boston by Norman Crump, watercolors by Dan McCole and marine art by Jeff Eldredge. Ongoing.

DTR Modern Galleries
167 Newbury St., Boston (617-424-9700). www.dtrmodern.com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Mon.-Thu., 11 am-7 pm; Fri. and Sat., 11 am-8 pm; Sun., 11 am-6 pm. 60 Years of American Art: 1947-2007 features prints, lithographs and works on paper of American artwork by Andy Warhol, Jean-Michel Basquiat, Robert Indiana and others. Through Oct. 30.

Galerie d'Orsay
33 Newbury St., Boston (617-266-8001). www.galerie-dorsay.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Mon.-Sat., 10 am-6 pm; Sun., 12-6 pm. Samir Sammoun features paintings by the namesake artist. Oct. 19-Nov. 18.

Gallery Anthony Curtis
186 South St., Boston (617-988-8119). www.galleryanthonycurtis.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Forest Hills. Tue.-Sat., 11 am-6 pm and by appointment. •Andrew Tavarelli: Floating Worlds features works on canvas of foreign lands and cultures. Through Nov.5. •Katherine D. Crone: Boxed Memory features mixed-media works of light, shadows, architecture and landscapes. Through Nov. 5.

Gallery Artists Studio Projects
362-4 Boylston St., Brookline (617-418-4308). www.g-a-s-p.net. MBTA: D Green Line to Brookline Hills. Thu.-Sat., 11 am-5 pm; Wed. and Sun., by appointment only. Abstraction Updated features abstract modern art by Susan Schwalb, Deborah Mulrhead and Suzanne Volmer. Through Oct. 12.

Gallery Naga
67 Newbury St., Boston (617-267-9060). www.gallerynaga.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Tue.-Sat., 10 am-5:30 pm. Robert Ferrandini: New Paintings on Paper features gouache and watercolor works on paper by the artist. Oct.12-Nov. 3.

Gateway Gallery
62 Harvard St., Brookline (617-734-1577). www.gatewayarts.org. MBTA: D Green Line to Brookline Village. Mon.-Fri., 9 am-4:30 pm; Sat., 12-5 pm. Free. You Are in My Eyes exhibits works inspired by certain people or situations by artists with disabilities. Through Nov. 10.

Guild of Boston Artists
162 Newbury St., Boston (617-536-7660). www.guildofbostonartists.org. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Tue.-Sat., 10:30 am-5:30 pm; Sun. and Mon., by appointment only. •Frank Strazzulla: Recent Works features paintings of landscapes and interiors by the artist. Through Oct. 27.

Howard Yezerski Gallery
14 Newbury St., Boston (617-262-0550). www.howardyezerskigallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Tue.-Sat., 10 am-5:30 pm. Hannah Barrett: The Secret Society features paintings of photograph composites by the artist. Through Oct. 30.

International Poster Gallery
205 Newbury St., Boston (617-375-0076). www.internationalposter.com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Mon.-Sat., 10 am-6 pm; Sun., 12-6 pm. Baby Boom: Posters From the Fifties and Early Sixties features advertising posters from the postwar era. Through Nov. 18.

Judi Rotenberg Gallery
130 Newbury St., Boston (617-437-1518). www.judirotenberg.com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Tue.-Sat., 10 am-6 pm. But I Digress... features mixed-media works by Anne Beresford. Through Nov. 10.

Judy Goldman Fine Art
14 Newbury St., Boston (617-424-8468). www.judygoldmanfineart.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Mon.-Sat., 10:30 am-5:30 pm and by appointment. •Rock, Paper, Scissors features sculptures and drawings by Jay Brattle, Doug Bosch and Jill Slosburg-Ackerman. Through Oct. 13. •Nancy Blum: Dangle, Dart and Drift features new botanical drawings by the artist. Oct. 20-Nov. 24.

Kidder Smith Gallery
131 Newbury St., Boston (617-424-6900). www.kiddersmithgallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Tue.-Sat., 11 am-5:30 pm. On Locations features paintings by Patti Oleon. Through Oct. 27.

Kingston Gallery
37 Thayer St., Boston (617-423-4113). www.kingstongallery.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. Tue.-Sat., 12-5 pm and by appointment. •Remains: Barbara Moody features large drawings by the namesake artist. Through Oct. 27.

Laconia Gallery
433 Harrison Ave., Boston (617-670-1568). www.laconiagallery.org. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. Sat., 12-4 pm. Black Tide features video, sound and drawings by Candice Ivy. Through Nov. 17.

Martha Richardson Fine Art
38 Newbury St., Boston (617-266-3321). www.martharichardsonfineart.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Tue.-Fri., 10 am-5 pm; Sat., 11 am-5 pm. Charles Hovey Pepper: Boston Modernist features watercolor and gouache works by the namesake artist. Oct. 12 through November.

Massachusetts College of Art
621 Huntington Ave., Boston (617-879-7333). www.massart.edu. MBTA: E Green Line to Longwood. Mon.-Fri., 10 am-6 pm; Sat., 11 am-5 pm. •Sensacional! Mexican Street Graphics features comic books, flyers and posters capturing Mexico's street culture. Through Dec. 1. •Golden Clogs, Dutch Mountains and In Situ investigate jewelry and human connections to personal objects. Oct. 15-Dec. 7.

Mercury Gallery
8 Newbury St., 2nd Floor, Boston (617-859-0054). www.mercurygallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Mon.-Sat., 10 am-5:30 pm and by appointment. A Group Show features ceramics, photographs and paintings by gallery artists. Through Nov. 6.

Mobilia Gallery
358 Huron Ave., Cambridge (617-876-2109). www.mobilia-gallery.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. Tue.-Fri., 11 am-6 pm; Sat., 10 am-5 pm and by appointment. •Baskets as Architecture features a group exhibit of textile, beadwork and basketry work. Through Nov. 13. •Kevin Coates: A Notebook of Pins displays a new collection of pins by Britain's premier goldsmith. Through Nov. 13. • The gallery collection features studio jewelry, sculpture, baskets and vessels by various artists.

Montserrat College of Art Gallery
23 Essex St., Beverly (978-921-4242). www.montserrat.edu/galleries. MBTA: Commuter Rail to Beverly. Mon.-Thu., 10 am-5 pm; Fri. 10 am-1 Merging Influence: Eastern Elements in New Am Art features mixed-media works linking visu with cultural history by Ahmed Abdalla, Eun Park, Shiva Ahmadi and others. Through Oct.

MPG Contemporary
450 Harrison Ave., Boston (617-357-8881). mpgallery.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Tue.-Sat., 11 am-5 pm. Rearranging Myths fea paintings and sculptures by Tim Kadish. Thr Oct. 27.

New Art Center
61 Washington Park, Newtonville (617-964-3 www.newartcenter.org. MBTA: Commuter Rail to tonville. Mon.-Fri., 9 am-5 pm. Sun., 1-5 pm. Be Paint features large paint works by Thorpe Feidt, Grillo and Richard B. Lethem. Through Oct. 28.

New England Institute of Art
10 Brookline Place West, Brookline (617-582-4 www.artinstitutes.edu/boston. MBTA: E Green L Riverway. Mon.-Thu., 8:30 am-8 pm; Fri., 8:3 5 pm; Sat., 9 am-3 pm. Recovering New Orlean tures large-scale drawings of post-Katrina New leans by Jeffrey Marshall. Through Oct.10.

New England School of Art and Design
75 Arlington St., Boston (617-573-8785). suffolk.edu/nesad/gallery.com. MBTA: Green L Arlington. Mon.-Fri., 9 am-9 pm. Susan N features new paintings by the namesake a Oct. 11-Nov. 10.

Nielsen Gallery
179 Newbury St., Boston (617-266-4835). nielsengallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to C Tue.-Sat., 10 am-5:30 pm. Jay Defeo: Applau Black Fact features mixed-media works showc the artist's lifetime achievements. Through Oc

OHT Gallery
450 Harrison Ave., Boston (617-357-8881). ohtgallery.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Tue.-Sat., 11 am-5 pm. Spilled Milk features t and ink-on-canvas works by Nava Lub Through Oct. 27.

OSP Gallery
450 Harrison Ave., Boston (617-778-5265). ospgallery.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Tue.-Sat.,11 am-5 pm. Andrew Masullo fea new paintings by the namesake artist. Th Nov. 24.

Out of the Blue Gallery
106 Prospect St., Cambridge (617-354-5 www.outoftheblueartgallery.com. MBTA: Re to Central. Daily, 12-6 pm. •Landscape and features ink and brush works by Julien V Through Oct. 10. •Meow-La-Ween! feature loween-inspired multimedia works by Debor Priestly, Devon Prevost, Ann H. Block and o Through October.

Pepper Gallery
38 Newbury St., Boston (617-236-4497). peppergalleryboston.com. MBTA: Green Line lington. Tue.-Fri., 10 am-5:30 pm; Sat., 11 am Anne Peretz New Paintings features recent wo the namesake artist. Oct. 12-Nov. 17.

Pierre Menard Gallery
10 Arrow St., Cambridge (617-868-2033). pierremenardgallery.com. MBTA: Red Line t vard. Wed.-Sun., 11 am-7 pm. Carolee Schnee A Selection of Recent and Early Work features ings, film and multimedia installations by the sake artist. Oct. 12-Nov. 25.

Proof Gallery
516 East 2nd St., 2nd Floor, Unit 20, South E www.proof-gallery.com. MBTA: Red Line to way. Thu.-Sat., 12-6 pm and by appointment. Benefits features sculptures and mixed-media by Jeff DeGolier. Through Nov. 3.

Pucker Gallery
171 Newbury St., Boston (617-267-9473). puckergallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Sat., 10 am-5:30 pm; Sun., 1-5 pm. •The Deed:The Art of Brother Thomas features c works by the former Benedictine monk. Oct. 1 26. •The permanent collection includes mixed works by artists from diverse cultures, includin South and West African, Israeli, Japanese, Wel American.

Rhys Gallery
401 Harrison Ave., Boston (617-357-7497). rhysgallery.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Mas Wed.-Sun., 11 am-6 pm. •Year 07—London f more than 60 exhibitors from internation leries. Oct. 11-14. •Gabriel & Gilberto Colaço Rodrigues features acrylic-on-canvas works twin brothers and photographs by Rodrique 18-Nov. 8.

ɔert Klein Gallery
Newbury St., Boston (617-267-7997). www.
rtkleingallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arling-
Tue.-Fri., 10 am-5:30 pm, Sat., 11 am-5 pm. Di-Massard features landscape and nature paintings he namesake artist. Through Nov. 23.

nson Projects
Harrison Ave., Boston (617-357-7177).
w.samsonprojects.com. MBTA: Orange Line to k Bay. Wed.-Sat., 11 am-5 pm and by appointt. ...A Landscape Show features mixed-media ictions of terrains by Maureen Gallace, Jef-Gibson, Julia Hechtman and others.
ough Oct. 20.

nool of the MFA
ssman Gallery, 230 The Fenway, Boston (617--3718). www.smfa.edu. MBTA: E Green Line to seum. Mon.-Fri., 10 am-5 pm. America's adise and Isla Del Encanto: Contemporary Art n the American Caribbean features paintings and ks on paper by Edgar Endress, Monica Marin, María Meléndez, Shansi Miller and others.
ough Oct. 13.

erman Gallery
Comm. Ave., Boston (617-358-0295). www.
edu/cfu. MBTA: B Green Line to BU Central.
.-Fri., 11 am-5 pm; Sat. and Sun., 1-5 pm. Anr Modernity: Works on Paper by Uche Okeke
l Nigerian Poetics: Works by Obiora Udechukwu ure works exploring the development of modism in Nigerian art. Through Oct. 19.

ciety of Arts and Crafts
Newbury St., Boston (617-266-1810). www.
ietyofcrafts.org. MBTA: Green Line to Copley.
n.-Sat., 10 am-6 pm; Sun., 12-5 pm.
hitecture/Structure in Contemporary Craft features lti-media works by various artists including Boris ly and Ruth McDowell. Through Oct. 28.

prafina Gallery
Thayer St., Boston (617-728-0770). www.
rafina.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. By ointment. New Paintings features works by Judith lfe. Through Oct. 27.

George Gallery
Newbury St., Boston (617-450-0321). www.
orgegallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley.
.-Sat., 10 am-5:30 pm; Sun., 12-5 pm. Harvest ures watercolor, oil and acrylic paintings depict-

Daisuke Matsuzaka's baseball cleats are on display in the exhibition Walk This Way, running at the Museum of Fine Arts through March 23.

ing autumn locally and abroad by Sandra Mueller-Dick, Yvette Stenzel and William St. George. Through October.

Tufts University Art Gallery
40R Talbot Ave., Medford (617-627-3518). www.ase.tufts.edu/gallery. MBTA: Red Line to Davis. Tue.-Sun., 11 am-5 pm.; Thursdays until 8 pm. •The Center of Cosmic Energy features a specially designed amphitheater with an audio narrative. Through Nov. 11. •Global Village Shelters features full-size, biodegradable houses by Daniel Ferrara and Mia Ferrari-Pelosi. Through Dec. 23.

Vose Galleries
238 Newbury St., Boston (617-536-6176). www.vosegalleries.com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Mon.-Fri., 9:30 am-5:30 pm; Sat., 10 am-5:30 pm. Liz Haywood-Sullivan: Traveling Light features pastels emphasizing light and shadow. Through Nov. 17.

Wolk Gallery
MIT School of Architecture & Planning, 77 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-258-9106). MBTA: Red Line to Kendall/MIT. Mon.-Fri., 9 am-5 pm. Between Spaces features sculpture and site-based installations exploring the relationship between the body and architecture. Through Dec. 21.

Photography

The Arsenal Center for the Arts Gallery
321 Arsenal St., Watertown (617-923-0100). www.arsenalarts.org. Wed.-Sun., 12-8 pm. In Sights exhibits the work of photographers David Bookbinder, Stephen DiRado, Barry Goldstein and others. Through Nov. 18.

Gallery Kayafas
450 Harrison Ave., Boston (617-482-0411). www.gallerykayafas.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Tue.-Sat., 10 am-5:30 pm. Thomas J. Gustainis displays the photographs of the namesake artist. Through Nov. 10.

Griffin Museum of Photography
67 Shore Road, Winchester (781-729-1158). www.griffinmuseum.org. MBTA: Commuter Rail to Winchester Center. Tue.-Thu., 11 am-5 pm; Fri., 11 am-4 pm; Sat. and Sun., 12-4 pm. $5. The 13th Griffin Museum Juried Exhibition displays selected winning photographs by artists from across the country. Through Oct. 28.

Judy Goldman Fine Art
14 Newbury St., Boston (617-424-8468). www.judygoldmanfineart.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Mon.-Sat., 10:30 am-5:30 pm and by appointment. Bill Durgin Fashion Refigured features new photographs by the artist. Oct. 20-Nov. 24.

Larz Anderson Auto Museum
15 Newton St., Brookline (617-522-6547). www.larzanderson.org. MBTA: Orange Line to Forest Hills. Tue.-Sun., 10-5 pm. The Wheels Project exhibits photographs by local photographers focused on wheels-based culture. Through May 10, 2008.

Massachusetts College of Art
621 Huntington Ave., Boston (617-879-7333). www.massart.edu. MBTA: E Green Line to Longwood. Mon.-Fri., 10 am-6 pm; Sat., 11 am-5 pm. •20 Years of Partners in Health features photographs of world regions suffering from health and economic disparities. Through Oct. 19.

New England School of Photography
537 Comm. Ave., Boston (617-267-8929). www.nesop.com. MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore. Mon.-Fri.; call ahead for hours. Empty Spaces features large-format black-and-white photographs by Paul Wainwright. Through Oct. 26.

Panopticon Gallery Boston
502 Comm. Ave., Boston (617-437-1868). www.panopt.com. MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore. Tue.-Sat. 11 am-6 pm and by appointment. •Eyes on the Past features images from the Collection of Historic New England. Through Nov. 5. •Panoramic Photographs features images of Boston and New York City by John Woolf. Through Nov. 5.

OSTON SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA

repartee

A program for music enthusiasts
between the ages of 21 and 38

Repartee events begin at 7pm at Symphony Hall with hors d'oeuvres and cocktail receptions in a private room designated for Repartee. You'll hear remarks from an orchestra member or special guest who will discuss elements of the evening's concert program while you mingle, relax and unwind... then take your seat at 8pm in one of Boston's most treasured landmarks and be transformed by the BSO.

For Repartee dates, prices, and information go to bso.org/repartee or call 617-266-1200.

BOSTON SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA
2007-2008 season

Bolero

High-spirited evenings for individuals over 40

The Boston Symphony Orchestra presents Bolero, concert events for classically-minded singles over 40. Attend one or all four evenings.

Join others for an hors d'oeuvres and cocktail reception in a private room in Symphony Hall for a chance to meet in an atmosphere of shared interests. A brief talk on that evening's program will take place before the performance of the world-renowned BSO.

For Bolero dates, prices, and information go to bso.org/bolero or call 617-266-1200.

gay & lesbian

Advice to Contributors
Submit information, including telephone numbers and nearest MBTA stop, by fax (617-859-1446) or mail, or e-mail gaylesbian@improper.com.

Clubs, Bars & Hangouts

The Alley (Daily)
14 Pi Alley, 275 Washington St., Boston (617-263-1449). www.thealleybar.com. MBTA: Blue or Green Line to Gov. Center. Mon.-Fri., 2 pm-2 am; Sat. and Sun., 12 pm-2 am. No cover. 21+. Boston's leather-and-Levis neighborhood bar offers pool, pinball, a jukebox and video games.

Avalon (Sundays)
15 Lansdowne St., Boston (617-262-2424). MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore. 10 pm. $10. 21+. Sunday- night parties include drag acts and house music from resident DJ Rich Ladue.

Axis (Mondays)
13 Lansdowne St., Boston (617-262-2424). MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore. 10 pm. $7. 21+. Static Mondays features a drag show hosted by Ms. Kris Knievil on the last Monday of each month, and DJ Susan Esthera spins vocal house weekly. .

Breezeway Bar & Grill (Fridays)
153 Blue Hill Ave., Roxbury (617-541-5400). www.breezewayboston.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Ruggles. 10 pm. $10. This night features Urban Lesbian Night, with DJs spinning hip-hop, reggae and Top 40 hits.

Buzz @ Aria (Saturdays)
246 Tremont St., Boston (617-267-8969). www.buzzboston.com. MBTA: Green Line to Boylston or Orange Line to NE Medical Center. 10 pm. $10. 21+. At this weekly party, DJ Michael Sheehan spins trance and house music in the front room, while DJ Mary Alice spins hip-hop in the back of the house.

Eagle (Daily)
520 Tremont St., Boston (617-542-4494). MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. No cover. 21+. This neighborhood cruise bar is open nightly.

Fran's Place (Tuesdays)
776 Washington St., Lynn (781-598-5618). www.gofrans.com. MBTA: Commuter Rail to Lynn. 9 pm. No cover. Each Tuesday, Fran's hosts live music from local bands followed by karaoke 10 pm-1:30 am.

Fritz (Daily)
26 Chandler St., Boston (617-482-4428). www.fritzboston.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. Mon.-Sat., 12 pm-2 am; Sun., 11 am-2 am. This gay sports bar, with six large-screen plasma TVs, serves brunch Saturday, Sunday and on Monday holidays.

Jacques Cabaret (Daily)
79 Broadway, Boston (617-426-8902). MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Mon.-Sat., 11 am-12 am; Sun., 12 pm-12 am. $6, weekdays; $10, weekends. 21+. Patrons mingle with dancing drag queens. •Mon.: First Monday of each month is TraniWreck; second Monday is Eleganza, a rock ensemble; third Monday is Wreckage, TraniWreck's Contest Show; fourth Monday is Fire and Ice Revue. •Tue.: Karaoke. •Wed.: Delightful Divas with Melinda Wilson. •Thu.: Jacques Angels with Ms. Kris Knievil. •Fri. and Sat.: Miss Norelle's Leading Ladies and live music. •Sun.: An Evening of Mizery: Amateur Talent Night.

Machine (Sundays, Tuesdays, Fridays, Saturdays)
1254 Boylston St., Boston (617-536-1950). www.ramrodmachine.com. MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore. •Sun., 10 pm-2 am, 21+: Service Industry Night. •Tue., 10 pm-2 am, $10, 21+: Indigo Tuesdays featuring hip-hop and dance with DJ Sun One, as well as go-go boys and a drag show. •Fri., 10 pm-2 am, $8, 21+: Best Night Out, featuring deep house music. •Sat., 10 pm-2 am, $8, 21+: Anthem with diva house music.

Midway Café (Thursdays)
3496 Washington St., Jamaica Plain (617-524-9038). www.midwaycafe.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Green. 9 pm-2 am. $2. 21+. Ladies Night with DJ Summer's Eve features occasional Queer-a-Oke performances.

Paradise (Daily)
180 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-868-3000). www.paradisecambridge.com. MBTA: Red Line to Central. Sun.-Wed., 7 pm-1 am; Thu.-Sat., 7 pm-2 am. No cover. 21+. Male strippers perform every night, and DJs spin Top 40 beats every Thursday through Saturday.

Ramrod (Daily)
1254 Boylston St., Boston (617-266-2986). MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore. 12 pm-2 am. Billed as the largest leather bar on the East Coast, Ramrod enforces a strict dress code (leather is mandatory for the back room on weekends). •Mon.: Pool, dart tournaments and pizza. •Wed.: Twitch 4.0 with DJ Mac. •Thu.: Mandance with DJ Jason Taylor. •Fri.: Bound to Please with DJ Danae Jacovidis. •Sat.: Leather Cruise with DJ Freespace. •Sun.: Service Industry Night.

Rise (Saturdays)
306 Stuart St., Boston (617-423-7473). www.riseclub.us. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. 1:30-6:30 am. $10, members; $20, guests. This members-only club is predominantly gay on Saturdays. Storm Saturdays feature resident DJs Billy Carroll, Chad Jack, Gilles Massicotte, Joe Gauthreaux and Mark Anthony upstairs, with David McNeary spinning downstairs.

In the Streets presents The Femme Show in JP Oct. 12 and 13

Rumor (Sundays)
100 Warrenton St., Boston (617-338-8061). www.rumorboston.com. MBTA: Green Line to Boylston. Sun., 7-11 pm. $8. Sunday Power T-Dance, sponsored by Gay Mafia Boston, features local DJs spinning house and Top 40.

Saint (Tuesdays)
90 Exeter St., Boston (617-236-1134). www.saintnitery.com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Tue., 10 pm-2 am. Gay Mafia hosts Flaunt Tuesdays at Saint, where DJ Ranny spins house and Top 40 remixes. Bacardi drink samples are free to the first 100 guests.

Shine (Fridays)
1 Kendall Square, Building 300, Cambridge (617-621-9500). www.shinecambridge.com. MBTA: Red Line to Kendall/MIT. 10 pm. DJ Dena spins a blend of Top 40, hip-hop and house.

Switch (Sundays)
711 Boylston St., Square, Boston (617-236-1777). www.myspace.com/diamondsundays. MBTA: Green Line to Boylston. 10 pm-2 am. 21+. Weekly party produced by Berman & The Famous Diamond Dunhill, featuring celebrity bartenders, queens and more. Sushi served till 12 am.

Toast (Fridays)
70 Union Square, Somerville (617-623-9211). www.toastlounge.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Oak Grove. 21+. •Fri: Dyke Night Productions hosts a lesbian dance party with rotating DJs and special events, 9 pm-2 am.

Tribe at Felt (Thursdays)
Felt, 533 Washington St., 4th floor, Boston (617-350-5555). www.tribenightclub.com. MBTA: Red or Orange Line to Downtown Crossing. 9:30 pm-2 am. $5. 21+. DJ Jim from KISS 108 spins hip-hop and Top 40 on Felt's fourth floor at this weekly lesbian night.

209 at Club Café (Daily)
209 Columbus Ave., Boston (617-536-0966). www.clubcafe.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington or Orange Line to Back Bay. Wed.-Sat., 11:30 pm-2 am; Sat., 12 pm-2 am; Sun., 10:30 pm-2 am. No cover. 21+. This South End spot offers dining and unobtrusive music in the front room at Restaurant 209 and video entertainment in the back room at Club Café. •Wed., 9 pm: Karaoke Idol. •Thu.: DJ Aga. •Fri.: Edge Fridays with Edgeboston.com. •Sat.: Music videos.

Venu (Wednesdays)
100 Warrenton St., Boston (617-695-9500). www.chapsboston.com. MBTA: Green Line to Boylston. 10 pm. $8. 21+. Wednesday is Latino night with DJ Adilson, complete with go-go boys and drag shows.

Shows and Events

The Femme Show
Capen Auditorium, Central Congregational Church, Jamaica Plain. www.thefemmeshow.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Green. Oct. 12 and 13, 8 pm. $11 in advance, $12 at the door. The Femme Show—the debut performance from In the Streets Productions—is an interactive show on queer femme identity, which features dance, music, literary readings, burlesque, film and more.

Out on the Edge Festival
Calderwood Pavilion, Boston Center for the Arts, 539 Tremont St., Boston (617-933-8600). www.theatheroffensive.org. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. Oct. 20-Nov. 10. See Web site for full schedule and times. $10-$50. This annual celebration of queer thinkers and artists from around the world kicks off with Playworks (Oct. 20-25), a weeklong creative workshop where participants can hone their acting chops in staged readings of Hello Goodbye Peace by Abe Rybeck and Blue Fire on the Water by Renita Martin. Tickets are only available on the day of the performance. A $10 donation is suggested for the readings.

Paint the Town (La)Red
Cambridge Marriott, 2 Cambridge Center, Cambridge (617-695-0877). MBTA: Red Line to Kendall/MIT. Oct. 12, 7 pm. $100. Celebrate the work to end domestic violence in the LBT community with honorary cochair Massachusetts' first lady Diane B. Patrick and speaker Barbara Smith. The event features cocktails, dinner, dancing and a silent auction.

Ongoing

Bagly
St. John the Evangelist Church, 35 Bowdoin St., Boston (617-227-4313). www.bagly.org. MBTA: Red or Green Line to Park. Wed., 5-9 pm. The Boston Alliance of Gay, Lesbian, Bisexual and Transgender Youth hosts weekly meetings and social events for young people seeking community, support and a place to discuss relevant issues.

Beantown North G/L Bowling League
Lanes & Games, 195 Concord Turnpike, Cambridge (617-876-5533). www.beantownbowling.com. MBTA: Red Line to Alewife. Tue., 8:30 pm. This bowling league for gays and lesbians meets weekly.

Beantown Soft-Tip Dart League
The Alley, 14 Pi Alley, 275 Washington St., Boston (617-263-1449). MBTA: Blue or Green Line to Gov. Center. Fritz, 26 Chandler St., Boston (617-482-4428). MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. www.bsdl.org. Mon., 8:30 pm. $12 for the season. This dart league hosts weekly 301, 601 and cricket matches at the Alley and Fritz.

Beantown South G/L Bowling League
Boston Bowl, 820 Morrissey Blvd., Dorchester (617-889-1552). www.beantownbowling.com. MBTA: Red Line to Shawmut. Wed., 7 pm. This weekly bowling league for gays and lesbians meets on Wednesdays.

Bi Focus
(617-697-9244). MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Wed., 7 pm. Bisexual men and women discuss books, videos and other topics of interest.

Bi Rap
Cambridge Women's Center, 46 Pleasant St., Cambridge (617-354-8807). MBTA: Red Line to Central. First Tue. of each month, 7:30 pm. This discussion group provides support and information for women who are bisexual or are questioning their sexuality.

Boston Bears Barnight
The Alley, 275 Washington St., Boston (617-263-1449). http://bostonbears.us. MBTA: Blue or Green Line to Gov. Center. 9:30 pm-2 am. Free. This club meets the first and third Saturdays of each month and holds a happy hour every Friday from 5:30 to 7:30 pm.

Boston Boasts Squash
Central YMCA, 316 Huntington Ave., Boston (617-536-0316). www.bostonboasts.com. Tue., 7-9 pm; Sat., 10 am-12 pm. This squash league is compris of gay and lesbian players and their friends.

Boston Gay Basketball League
(617-937-5858). www.bgbl.com. This basketb league offers a full regular season and playoff sch ule each year. E-mail info@bgbl.com for details.

Boston Lesbian Avengers
Despina's Place, 47 Mass. Ave., Boston. www.lesb avengers.org. Mon., 7-8 pm. This bisexual- a transsexual-friendly direct-action political group cuses on issues affecting lesbians.

Boston Prime Timers
United South End Settlements, 566 Columbus Av Boston (617-447-2344). www.primetimersww.o boston. Third Sat. of each month, 3:30-5:30 pm. This network of more than 300 gay and bisex men, and their friends, meets once a month.

Boston Uncommons
Central Congregational Church, 85 Seaverns Av Jamaica Plain (617-926-9267). www.lcfd.org/b MBTA: Orange Line to Green. Wed., 7 pm. A and lesbian square-dancing group.

Boston's Gay and Bisexual Married Men's Support Group
Boston Living Center, 29 Stanhope St., Boston (78 316-1985). http://world.std.com/~ewk. First third Mon., second and fourth Tue. of each month, 9 pm. This group meets to discuss marriage a divorce.

BRC Board Meeting
Bisexual Resource Center, 29 Stanhope St., Bos (617-424-9595). MBTA: Orange Line to Back B Second Wed. of each month, 7 pm. This month gathering of the BRC board in the Back Bay is op to the public.

Coming Out as Bisexual
Boston's Bisexual Resource Center at the Boston L ing Center, 29 Stanhope St., Boston (617-42 9595). www.biresource.org. MBTA: Orange Line Back Bay. First Wed. and third Thu. of each mon 7 pm. Free. An informal group for people w think they may be bisexual or are attracted members of both sexes.

Coming Out Support Group for Adul
Meetings are in Coolidge Corner, Brookline (6 482-2166). Thu., 7-8:15 pm. This group offer confidential place for men and women who looking for a safe space to discuss issues of sex identity.

Compass
(781-899-2212). Compass is a New England–a support and social group for people assigned fem at birth, but who feel the designation isn't an ac rate or a complete description of their gender. T group meets monthly at locations around New E land. E-mail compassftm@usa.com for details.

Downtown Auxiliary League
http://groups.yahoo.com/group/downtownauxili league. The DAL is group of gay Downto Boston/Financial District professionals who get gether monthly for casual afterwork happy hou

Fenway Community Health
7 Haviland St., Boston (617-267-0900). ww fenwayhealth.org. MBTA: Green Line to Hyn Fenway Community Health offers an array of vices for the LGBT community, from discussi about parenting and safe-sex practices to p grams addressing domestic violence and substa abuse.

GayLab
www.gaylab.org. This experiment in develop healthy gay relationships features alternatives meeting and dating, communication games mixers for area singles. E-mail info@gaylab.org details.

Gays for Patsy
(617-412-5751). www.gaysforpatsy.org. This co try-western dancing club, featuring two-st swing and line dancing, holds events twic month. Beginners welcome; no partner neec Call for details.

GBBC North Shore Group
Bugaboo Creek Steak House, Route 114, Peab (781-593-0386). www.gbbc.org. Third Wed. of month. MBTA: Commuter Rail to Lynn. Fre attend, lunch cost varies. The Greater Bos Business Council invites GLBT professio to connect with the GLBT business commu over lunch.

GBBC 128 Group
Naked Fish, 455 Totten Pond Road, Waltham (9 777-6500, ext. 112). www.gbbc.org. Fourth Tue each month. Free to attend, lunch cost varies. GL professionals connect with the GLBT busi community over lunch.

Gender Crash
Spontaneous Celebrations, 45 Danforth St., Jar ca Plain (617-524-6373). www.gendercrash.c

'A: Orange Line to Stony Brook. Second Thu. of month, 7:30 pm. $5-$10. Members of the T community are invited to share poetry, e and performance pieces at this open- event.

FAN

ians Available for Fun and Networking is a so- and networking group that connects local en and sponsors dances and benefits. E-mail laf-oston2004@yahoo.com for details.

nday Night
vling League

n Bowl, 820 Morrissey Blvd., Dorchester (617-1552). www.mnbl.net. Mon., 7:30 pm. The BL's bowling season runs weekly.

Neighborhood

Midway Café, 3496 Washington St., Jamai-lain (617-524-9038). www.midwaycafe.com. 'A: Orange Line to Green. Second Sat. of each h, 9 pm. $5. 21+. A welcoming space for the osexual and transgender community featuring DJs and bands.

wly Diagnosed Group

Health Peer Support Services, 25 West St., Boston -457-8142, ext. 329). MBTA: Red or Orange to Downtown Crossing. First and third Mon. of month, 7:30-9 pm. Free. This group supports gay and bisexual men who've been diagnosed HIV during the last two years.

: to Dance

Roxbury School of Dance, 29 Corey St. West ury (617-363-0029). www.outtodance.com. Out Dance offers a variety of swing, Latin ballroom dance classes in a gay-friendly envi-ent.

: TwentySomethings Boston

tysomethingsboston-subscribe@yahoogroups.com. social and peer support group is for lesbian, gay, ual, transgender and questioning members of community, as well as their straight allies in 20s and early 30s.

Z Social

nshine Room at Club Café, 209 Columbus Ave., n (617-457-8142, ext. 326). MBTA: Orange to Back Bay. Second Mon. of each month, 6-11 Free. This monthly evening of raffles, food, c and drink benefits those affected by /AIDS.

POZ 30s Plus

JRI Health Peer Support Services, 132 Boylston St., Boston (617-457-8142, ext. 314). MBTA: Red or Green Line to Park. Wed., 7-9 pm. This social group supports HIV-positive gay and bisexual men ages 30 and over. E-mail hyee@jri.org for details.

POZ 20s

JRI Health, 25 West St., Boston (617-457-8142, ext. 329). MBTA: Red or Orange Line to Downtown Crossing. Thu., 7:30-9 pm. This social group offers support for HIV-positive gay and bisexual men in their 20s.

The Rainbow Café

rainbowboston-subscribe@yahoogroups.com. The Rainbow Café, a social lesbian group, meets biweekly in gay-owned or gay-friendly establishments around the Boston area.

Slice of Rice

Boston Glass, 93 Mass. Ave., Boston (617-266-3349). MBTA: Green Line to Hynes. Wed., 6-7 pm. This peer-run queer Asian youth group for those under 25 meets for mutual support. E-mail sungyun@chickmail.com for details.

Somos Latin@s LGBT Coalition

www.somoslatinoslgbt.org. A social and networking group for LGBT Latinos and Latinas around Boston, Somos Latin@s hosts Viernes Sociales (Social Fridays) every month. E-mail somoslatinoslgbt@hotmail.com for details.

Stonewall Communities Lifelong Learning Institute

Wheelock College, 43 Hawes St., Brookline (617-369-9090). MBTA: C Green Line to Cleveland Circle. Stonewall Communities teams up with Wheelock College for eight-week courses that feature events, workshops and lunch speakers for older GLBT people and their friends.

Under the Radar

(617-851-7911). www.radarboston.com. Under the Radar, Boston's gay, all-male contemporary a cappella group, is always auditioning prospective members. E-mail info@radarboston.com for details.

Wonder Women Boston

http://groups.yahoo.com/wonder_women_boston. Second Fri. of each month. This local social group includes lesbian and bisexual women in their 20s and 30s.

THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN MAGAZINE

will publish its annual

Bachelors & Bachelorettes

issue in early 2008

Please nominate your favorite local single guy or gal to be featured in this issue.

Please Include:

Your name: _____

Your phone number and e-mail address:

_____

Your nominee's name, phone number, e-mail address and the local city where he/she lives:

_____

_____

Tell us why he/she is a catch. Be specific.

_____

_____

_____

_____

_____

His/her occupation and age:

_____

Please include a recent color photo, or high-res digital image, of your friend.

Mail nominations to:

The Improper Bostonian | Attn: Bachelor/Bachelorette Nomination
142 Berkeley St., 3rd Floor, Boston, MA 02116

or e-mail to:

BostonBach@improper.com

Please note that you can't nominate yourself and you must provide all of the above information in order to qualify.

Entries must be received no later than October 24, 2007.

books & poetry

Advice to Contributors
Submit listings by fax (617-859-1446); mail to Calendar: Books and Poetry; or e-mail information to books@improper.com. Deadline is four weeks prior to publication.

Readings & Signings

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 10

Barnes & Noble Boston University
660 Beacon St., Boston (617-267-8484). www.bu.bkstore.com. MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore. 5:30 pm. Free. Masaharu Morimoto, of Iron Chef fame, signs his book, Morimoto: The New Art of Japanese Cooking.

Boston Poetry Slam
Cantab Lounge, 738 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-354-2685). www.slamnews.com. MBTA: Red Line to Central. 7:30 pm. $3. Gary Mex Glazner performs original works.

Harvard Coop
1400 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-499-2000). www.harvard.bkstore.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 7 pm. Free. Journalist Emily Benedek reads from and signs copies of her debut novel, the international thriller Red Sea.

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 11

Barnes & Noble Boston University
660 Beacon St., Boston (617-267-8484). www.bu.bkstore.com. MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore. 7 pm. Free. Boston University professor Charles Capper discusses and signs his book, Margaret Fuller: An American Romantic Life, The Public Years.

Brandeis University
Shapiro Campus Center, 415 South St., Waltham (781-736-4205). www.brandeis.edu. MBTA: Commuter Rail to Brandeis/Roberts. 4 pm. Free. Sari Nusseibeh discusses his memoir, Once Upon a Country: A Palestinian Life, which addresses the relationship between Israel and Palestine, as well as his own life and upbringing.

Brookline Booksmith
279 Harvard St., Brookline (617-566-6660). www.brooklinebooksmith.com. MBTA: C Green Line to Coolidge Corner. 7 pm. Free. Shalom Auslander discusses his memoir, Foreskin's Lament, about his lifelong struggles with Orthodox Judaism.

Harvard Bookstore
1256 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-661-1515). www.harvard.com/events. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 7 pm. Free. Ian Klaus reads from his memoir, Elvis Is Titanic, which chronicles the 2005 semester he spent teaching American history and English in Iraqi Kurdistan.

Harvard Bookstore Event
Brattle Theatre, 40 Brattle St., Cambridge (617-661-1515). www.harvard.com/events. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 6 pm. $5. Robert Reich discusses his book, Supercapitalism: The Transformation of Business, Democracy and Everyday Life, which looks at how democracy is being compromised by capitalist society.

Harvard Coop
1400 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-499-2000). www.harvard.bkstore.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 7 pm. Free. DT Max discusses and signs his book, The Family That Couldn't Sleep: A Medical Mystery, which chronicles the symptoms and lives of a sleepless family and investigates other diseases caused by misfolded proteins.

MIT
Room 6-120, 77 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-253-7894). http://web.mit.edu/arts. MBTA: Red Line to Kendall/MIT. 7 pm. Free. Award-winning Irish poet Dennis O'Driscoll and his wife, American poet Julie O'Callaghan, each read from their original poetry.

Newtonville Books
296 Walnut St., Newton (617-244-6619). www.newtonvillebooks.com. MBTA: Commuter Rail to Newtonville. 7 pm. Free. Rachel Kadish reads from her novel, Tolstoy Lied, about an English professor up for tenure who's at odds with an important colleague.

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 12

Borders Braintree
255 Grossman Ave., Braintree (781-356-5111). www.bordersstores.com. MBTA: Red Line to Braintree. 7 pm. Free. Investigative reporter Hank Phillippi Ryan signs copies of her mystery, Face Time.

Harvard Bookstore Event
Memorial Church, Harvard Yard, Cambridge (617-661-1515). www.harvard.com/events. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 7 pm. $5. Nobel Prize–winner Orhan Pamuk reads from his new collection, Other Colors: Essays and a Story.

Harvard Coop
1400 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-499-2000). www.harvard.bkstore.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 4:30 pm. Free. John Byrne Cooke signs and discusses his book, Reporting the War: Freedom of the Press From the American Revolution to the War on Terror, about media coverage of wars throughout our history.

Harvard Coop
1400 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-499-2000). www.harvard.bkstore.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 7 pm. Free. Sharon Niederhaus discusses and signs her book, Together Again: A Creative Guide to Successful Multi-Generational Living.

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 13

Wellesley Booksmith
82 Central St., Wellesley (781-431-1160). www.wellesleybooksmith.com. MBTA: Commuter Rail to Wellesley. 7 pm. Free. Margaret Cezair-Thompson reads from The Pirate's Daughter, a work of historical fiction about Errol Flynn's illegitimate daughter.

MONDAY, OCTOBER 15

Brookline Booksmith
279 Harvard St., Brookline (617-566-6660). www.brooklinebooksmith.com. MBTA: C Green Line to Coolidge Corner. 7 pm. Free. Kathleen Flinn discusses The Sharper Your Knife, the Less You Cry, which chronicles her decision to move to Paris to attend cooking school after losing her job—and how she found love along the way.

Harvard Bookstore Event
First Parish Church Meetinghouse, 3 Church St., Cambridge (617-661-1515). www.harvard.com/events. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 7 pm. Free. Garry Kasparov, retired professional chess champion and founder of the United Civil Front in Russia, discusses his book, How Life Imitates Chess: Making the Right Moves, which relates playing chess to important matters in everyday life.

Harvard Coop
1400 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-499-2000). www.harvard.bkstore.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 7 pm. Free. Lisa Genova reads and signs her book, Still Alice, about the journey of a professor who's been diagnosed with Alzheimer's Disease.

Porter Square Books
25 White St., Cambridge (617-491-2220). www.portersquarebooks.com. MBTA: Red Line to Porter. 7 pm. Free. Steve Almond discusses his new book, Not That You Asked, a collection of humorous essays, observations and rants.

Wellesley Booksmith
82 Central St., Wellesley (781-431-1160). www.wellesleybooksmith.com. MBTA: Commuter Rail to Wellesley. 7 pm. Free. Gabrielle Zevin discusses and signs Memoirs of a Teenage Amnesiac, her new novel about a girl who suffers a slight concussion and finds she can't remember anything from the past four years.

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 16

Brookline Booksmith Event
Coolidge Corner Theatre, 290 Harvard St., Brookline (617-566-6660). www.brooklinebooksmith.com. MBTA: C Green Line to Coolidge Corner. 6 pm. $5. Tom Perrotta discusses his new novel, The Abstinence Teacher, a satire about a high school sex-ed teacher who faces off against her daughter's evangelical soccer coach.

Harvard Bookstore Event
Memorial Church, Harvard Yard, Cambridge (617-661-1515). www.harvard.com/events. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 8 pm. $15. Stephen King, guest editor of The Best American Short Stories 2007, along with Richard Russo, Karen Russell, Jim Shepard and new series editor Heidi Pitlor, discuss some of 2007's best short fiction.

Harvard Coop
1400 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-499-2000). www.harvard.bkstore.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 7 pm. Free. Dean Cycon discusses his book, Javatrekker: Dispatches From the World of Fair Trade Coffee, about the java business.

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 17

Barnes & Noble Boston University
660 Beacon St., Boston (617-267-8484). www.bu.bkstore.com. MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore. 6:30 pm. Free. Robert Greer reads from and signs his latest mystery, The Mongoose Deception, about an antique dealer who gets mixed up in the JFK assassination conspiracy.

Brookline Booksmith
279 Harvard St., Brookline (617-566-6660). www.brooklinebooksmith.com. MBTA: C Green Line to Coolidge Corner. 7 pm. Free. Richard Pevear and Larissa Volokhonsky discuss their translation of Tolstoy's epic War and Peace.

Emerson College
Charles Beard Room, 80 Boylston St., Boston (617-824-8500). www.jasonroush.com. MBTA: Green Line to Boylston. 7:30 pm. Free. Jason Roush reads from and signs his book, Breezeway, a collection of poems on memories.

Harvard Coop
1400 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-499-2000). www.harvard.bkstore.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 7 pm. Free. George Washington University Law School professor of business law Lawrence E. Mitchell discusses his book, Speculation Economy: How Finance Triumphed Over Industry.

Stephen King appears at a Harvard Bookstore event Oct. 16

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 18

Barnes & Noble Boston University
660 Beacon St., Boston (617-267-8484). www.bu.bkstore.com. MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore. 7 pm. Free. Rock critic Brett Milano speaks and signs his new book, The Sound of Our Town: A History of Boston Rock & Roll, in which he looks at the history and evolution of rock music in Boston.

Borders Downtown
10-24 School St., Boston (617-557-7188). www.bordersstores.com. MBTA: Orange or Red Line to Downtown Crossing. 1 pm. Free. Award-winning journalist Peter Duffy discusses his book, The Killing of Major Denis Mahon: A Mystery of Old Ireland, in which he attempts to uncover the truth behin assassination of one of the Great Famine's most troversial figures.

Brookline Booksmith Event
The Devotion School, 345 Harvard St., Broo (617-566-6660). www.brooklinebooksmith MBTA: C Green Line to Coolidge Corner. 6 pm Nick Hornby discusses his new novel, Slam, a teenage boy who discovers his ex-girlfrie pregnant with his child.

Harvard Coop
1400 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-499-2 www.harvard.bkstore.com. MBTA: Red Line to vard. 7 pm. Free. Political activist Naomi Wo cusses her new book, The End of America: Le Warning to a Young Patriot, a study comparing century America to some of the 20th century's dictatorships.

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 19

Borders Downtown
10-24 School St., Boston (617-557-7188). borderssstores.com. MBTA: Orange or Red Line to town Crossing. 1 pm. Free. Dr. Mark Liponis pr his new book, Ultralongevity, which looks at the of the immune system on the aging process.

Harvard Coop
1400 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-499-2 www.harvard.bkstore.com. MBTA: Red Line to vard. 7 pm. Free. Rick and John Wolff discuss book, Harvard Boys: A Father and Unlikely Adventures in Minor L Baseball, a true story about the W graduation from Harvard and ent into the world of professional baseb

SUNDAY, OCTOBER 21

Harvard Coop
1400 Mass. Ave., Cambridge 499-2000). www.harvard.bkstore MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 7 pm. Ingrid Newkirk, founder and presid PETA, discusses and signs copies new book, Let's Have a Dog Party, lection of tips and tricks for hosti nine shindigs.

MONDAY, OCTOBER 2

Barnes & Noble Boston University
660 Beacon St., Boston (617-267-8 www.bu.bkstore.com. MBTA: Gree to Kenmore. Boston University pro Kevin Gallagher discusses The E Economy: Foreign Investment and S able Development in Mexico's Silicon Joining him is Michael Conroy, aut Branded!, which examines how the fication revolution" is changin global economy.

Brookline Booksmith
279 Harvard St., Brookline (617-566- www.brooklinebooksmith.com. MB Green Line to Coolidge Corner. 7 pm Josh Henkin discusses his novel, mony, about the complexities and ships of two married couples. John follows, discussing his collection of las and short stories, The Animal Gi

Harvard Coop
1400 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (61 2000). www.harvard.bkstore.com. Red Line to Harvard. 7 pm. Fre Atkinson reads and signs his book, Amber, about the town of Law Mass., during the 1990s.

Porter Square Books
25 White St., Cambridge (617-491-2220). www squarebooks.com. MBTA: Red line to Porter. 7 pm Eric Dolan discusses Leviathan: The History of W in America, which chronicles the impact of the ing industry on our country's history.

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 23

Brookline Booksmith
279 Harvard St., Brookline (617-566-6660). brooklinebooksmith.com. MBTA: C Green Coolidge Corner. 7 pm. Free. Jim Shepard rea his new book, Like You'd Understand, Anyway lection of short stories that each explores a di personal hardship. He is joined by filmmak Rose, who discusses Musical Illusionist, his det tale collection.

Porter Square Books
25 White St., Cambridge (617-491-2220). portersquarebooks.com. MBTA: Red Line to P pm. Free. Roland Merullo discusses his Breakfast With Buddha, about a man on a ro through Middle America with his sister's gur

ducation

ice to Contributors

it updated information by mail or fax (617-859-); to Calendar: Education; or e-mail information lucation@improper.com. Include a brief but ugh description of the event, including time, date, on, directions, cost and contact information. line is four weeks prior to publication. Listings ıt be accepted by phone.

DNESDAY, OCTOBER 10

l Water and the Power of One leis University, Shapiro Campus Center, 415 South Waltham (781-736-3042). www.brandeis.edu. 5 Free. Former U.S. senator, ambassador and presi-al candidate Carol Mosley Braun discusses the hat individuals play in effecting social change, a particular emphasis on changes in the Ameri-ocial order during the last generation.

s de Balincourt achusetts College of Art and Design, Kennedy Build-Room 406, 621 Huntington Ave., Boston (617-879-). www.massart.edu/calendar. MBTA: E Green to Longwood. 12:30 pm. Free. French artist Jules alincourt, now located in Brooklyn, discusses his , which focuses on alienation and personal sur-ance, depicted on wooden boards.

ook Inside Pakistan's Military on University, General Classroom Building, 750 m. Ave., Boston (617-358-2370). www.bu.edu/enstudies. MBTA: B Green Line to Blandford. 5 Free. Ayesha Siddiqa speaks about her experience e first civilian and woman to work as the director val research with the Pakistani navy.

URSDAY, OCTOBER 11

other View of Grief: moting Resilience

deis University, Women's Studies Research Center, ein Building, 515 South St., Waltham (781-736-). www.brandeis.edu. 12:30 pm. Free. WSRC lar Phyllis Silverman discusses the spectrum of uage used to express grief.

oes of Abolition Across the Sea

eum of African American History, Abiel Smith ol Gallery, 46 Joy St., Beacon Hill, Boston (617-5415). www.afroammuseum.org. MBTA: Red or n line to Park. 6 pm. Free. Horace Seldon, a Na-al Park Service ranger, discusses the abolition ements in the U.K. and the U.S., with an em-is on the role women played in both countries. lso shares a report on his trip to the U.K. and cipation in the 200th anniversary of the end of British slave trade.

et the Author Series

ndeis University, Shapiro Campus Center Multi-ose Room, 415 South St., Waltham (781-736-5). www.brandeis.edu. 4 pm. Free. Philosophy essor Sari Nusseibeh, president of Al-Quds versity in Jerusalem, discusses his autobiogra-Once Upon a Country: A Palestinian Life, which emplates dispossession and struggle in the century.

IDAY, OCTOBER 12

light in Italy

bridge Center for Adult Education, 56 Brattle St., bridge (617-547-6789). 6 pm. $75. If you can't be aly, you might as well pretend you are. Taste Ital-vines, enjoy a full meal and discuss some current ural issues.

TURDAY, OCTOBER 13

ston Discovers Boston: th-Century Treasures

Newbury St., Boston (617-226-1226). www.englandancestors.org. MBTA: Green Line to Cop-10 am. Free. This seminar features a discussion at the books and documents from the officers of Massachusetts Bay Colony. Attendees also learn Boston, Mass., and Boston Lincolnshire, Eng-, are linked.

ONDAY, OCTOBER 15

e Culture War in the Courts

ssiz Theater, 10 Garden St., Radcliffe Yard, Cam-ge (617-495-8608). www.radcliffe.edu. MBTA: Line to Harvard. 4 pm. Phyllis Schlafly discusses beliefs related to nonelected, "activist" judges how they dictate policy decisions surrounding es of free speech, immigration, religion, marriage more.

erhazy String Quartet Readings klee College of Music, Recital Hall 1W, 1140 lston St., Boston (617-266-1400). www.berklee.edu/events. MBTA: Green Line to Hynes. 7 pm. Free. The Esterhazy String Quartet plays and discusses original compositions by Berklee students.

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 16

Are We Rome?

Boston College, Murray Graduate Center, 292 Hammond St., Chestnut Hill (617-552-9296). www.bc.edu/schools/csom/leadership/programs/collaborations.html. MBTA: B Green Line to Boston College. 7:30 pm. Free. Author Cullen Murphy discusses the fall of the Roman Empire and what our nation can learn from it.

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 17

The Cuban Missile Crisis: An Eyewitness Perspective

John F. Kennedy Presidential Library and Museum, Columbia Point, Boston (617-514-1643). www.jfklibrary.org. MBTA: Red Line to JFK/UMass. 11 am. $10, adults; $8, seniors and students; $7, ages 13-17; Free, children 12 and under. Theodore Sorensen, special counsel to president John F. Kennedy, discusses his account of the Cuban Missile Crisis during the event's 45th anniversary. Graham Allison, professor of government at Harvard University's Kennedy School of Government, moderates.

The 2008 Presidential Election—What's Ahead: An Evening With Michael Dukakis

Brookline High, 115 Greenough St., Brookline (617-730-2700). www.brooklineadulted.org. MBTA: D Green Line to Brookline Hills. 7 pm. $5. Michael Dukakis, former governor of Massachusetts and 1988 Democratic nominee for president, discusses the 2008 campaign and touches on current hot political issues.

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 18

Gaelic Roots Music, Song and Dance

Boston College, Connolly House, 300 Hammond St., Chestnut Hill (617-552-3938). www.bc.edu/irish. MBTA: B Green Line to Boston College. 7 pm. Free. Learn about the traditional music of Newfoundland through lectures and various musical performances.

The Motherhood Manifesto

Boston Public Library, Rabb Auditorium, 700 Boylston St., Boston (617-373-5800). www.fordhallforum.neu.edu. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. 6:30 pm. Free. Join Joan Blades as she discusses her new organization, Momsrising.org, and issues around maternity leave laws, fair wages and better healthcare coverage.

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 20

A Tour of the Great Migration Project

New England Historic Geneaolgical Society, 101 Newbury St., Boston (617-226-1226). www.newenglandancestors.org. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. 9 am. $95; advance registration required. In this one-day seminar, Robert Charles Anderson delivers four lectures on the Great Migration.

SUNDAY, OCTOBER 21

Celebrating the Art of Wilda Gerideau-Squires

Brookline Center for Adult Education, Brookline High School, 115 Greenough St., Brookline (617-730-2700). www.brooklineadulted.org. MBTA: D Green Line to Brookline Hills. 2 pm. Free; preregistration required. Join Wilda Gerideau-Squires for an afternoon of live music and refreshments while viewing her exhibition featuring abstract, landscape and human-interest photographic images.

e.e. cummings Celebration

Forest Hills Educational Trust, 95 Forest Hills Ave., Boston (617-524-0128). www.foresthillstrust.org. MBTA: Orange Line to Forest Hills. 2 pm. $5. Join four local poets who pay tribute to and read from e.e. cummings' poems, followed by a walk to his gravesite.

MONDAY, OCTOBER 22

An Evening With Elie Wiesel

Boston University, George Sherman Union Metcalf Hall, 775 Comm. Ave., Boston (617-353-2238). www.bu.edu/calendar. MBTA: B Green Line to BU Central. 7 pm. Free. Nobel laureate and Holocaust survivor Elie Wiesel discusses Jewish tales in "In the Bible: The Akedah Revisited."

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 23

America in the Promised Land

Brandeis University, Epstein Building, 515 South St., Waltham (781-736-8100). www.brandeis.edu/hbi/events/lectures.html. 12:30 pm. Free. Scholar Hannah Safron discusses originality and imitation in the history of the feminist movement in Israel.

WONDER HOW HOLLYWOOD STAYS CLEAN & GREEN WHEN IN BOSTON?

Keeping Hollywood clean & green is what we do best.

Thank you Jagged Films for Annette Bening's "The Women"
And to Lionsgate Films for Kate Hudson's "Bachelor 2"

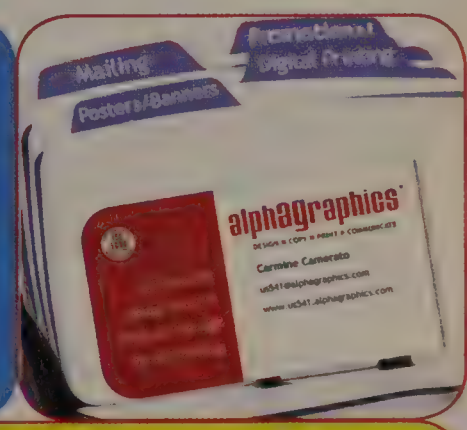
BEST OF BOSTON 2006

clevergreen PROFESSIONAL DRY CLEANERS

BEST OF BOSTON 2007

www.clevergreencleaners.com 617.523.6925

Toxin free cleaning that loves your clothes as much as you do.



upcoming issues

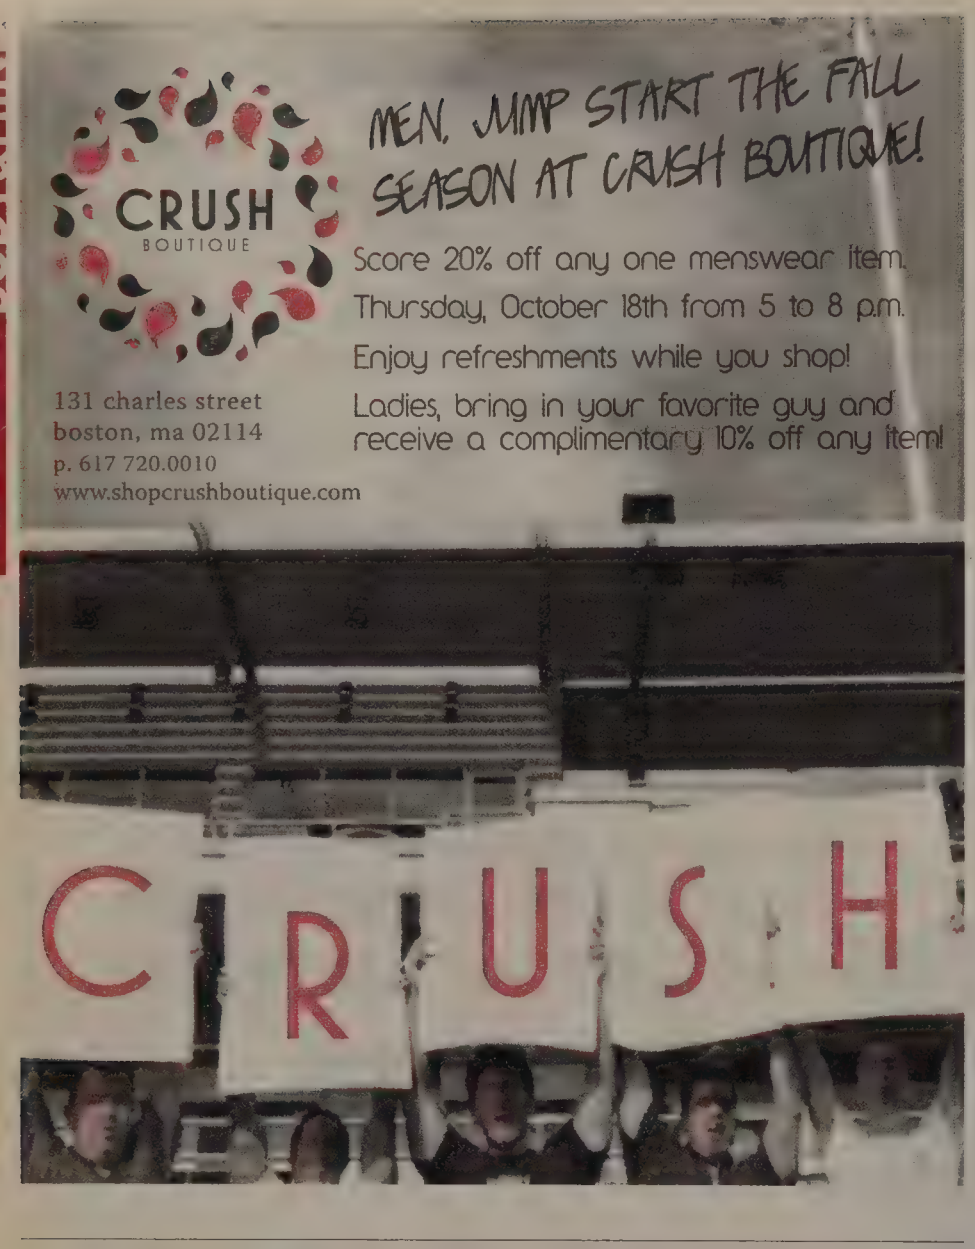
October 24, 2007 Music
November 7, 2007 Worst of Boston
November 21, 2007 Holiday Shopping
December 5, 2007 Winter Sports Report

THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN MAGAZINE

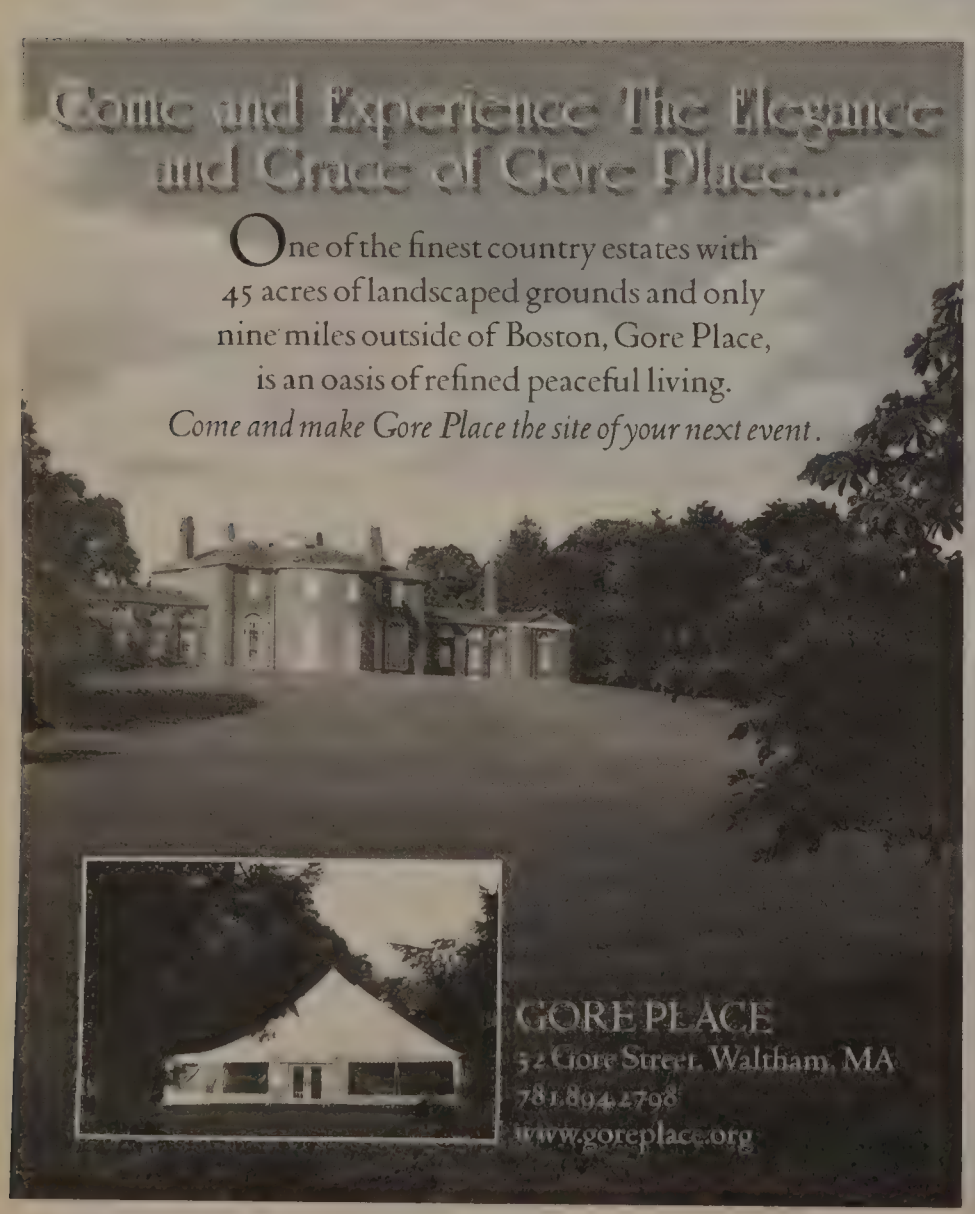
Call 617-859-1400 ext. 238 to advertise

AlphaGraphics... one source for all your printing and visual communications needs.

Mention this ad and receive 10% off*.



*some restrictions apply, see store for details.



alphagraphics

DESIGN ■ COPY ■ PRINT ▶ COMMUNICATE

74 Canal Street
Boston, MA 02114
617.742.9587 • 617.742.9584

Order online at:
▶ www.us541.alphagraphics.com

body & mind

Advice to Contributors

Submit updated information by mail or fax (617-859-1446) to Calendar: Body/Mind, or e-mail information to bodymind@improper.com. Provide a brief but thorough description of the event, including time, date, location, directions, cost and contact information. Listings cannot be accepted by phone and must be received at least four weeks in advance.

Events

Heads Held High: Brain Injury Awareness Walk

Jamaica Pond, Jamaica Plain (617-573-2539). www.babis.info. MBTA: Orange Line to Green. Oct. 13, 10 am-2 pm. $10, registration fee includes a T-shirt or baseball cap. Participants walk 1.5 miles around Jamaica Pond to raise awareness for the thousands of people affected by traumatic brain injuries. Proceeds benefit Boston Acquired Brain Injury Support Group (BABIS), the Brain Injury Association of Massachusetts and the Alan Cromer Literacy Fund.

Participants work out at the Ultimate Bootcamp Blast.

Mystical Art and Talent Show

Cambridge Swedenborg Chapel, 50 Quincy St., Cambridge. www.soulstirring.org. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. Oct. 13, 7-9:30 pm. $5-$10, sliding scale. This annual event showcases paintings, stories, theatrical performances and songs by local artists inspired by spiritual themes.

Spa Week

Various locations around Boston. www.spaweek.org. Oct. 15-21. See Web site for locations. Thirteen Boston-area spas, including Spa Newbury, Breathe Spa and Salon Mario Russo, offer special treatments for $50. A portion of proceeds from Spa Week benefits Cancer and Careers, an organization that helps working women with cancer.

Step Out to Fight Diabetes

DCR Hatch Shell, 10 Storrow Drive, Boston (888-342-2383, ext. 3458). http://stepout.diabetes.org. MBTA: Red Line to Charles/MGH. Oct. 13, 9 am. $15 in advance; $20, day of walk. Beginning at the Hatch Shell, walkers stroll either one, three or seven miles around the Charles River to benefit the American Diabetes Association.

Lectures

Key to Healing

Theosophical Society in Boston, 21 Maple St., Arlington (617-773-2616; novalis@alphacenteronline.com). www.tsboston.org. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard, then #77 Bus to Arlington. Oct. 12, 7:30-9 pm. $10; $5, members. Brigitte Novalis, founder of the Alpha Center for Personal Development, teaches positive thinking to attendees who want to move on from their past.

National Institute of Whole Health Celebrity Speaker Series

Newton-Wellesley Hospital, Shipley Auditorium, 3 Cameron Place, Wellesley (888-354-4325, ext. 4325). www.wholehealtheducation.com. MBTA: D Green Line to Woodland. Oct. 13. $25, each talk; $39, both talks.

•11 am-1 pm. Author Helen Palmer discusses book The Enneagram: Understanding Yourself and Others in Your Life, which identifies nine type personalities.

•2-5 pm. New York Times–bestselling author S Piver talks about successfully dealing with changes, which she also wrote about in How N Be Afraid of Your Own Life and The Hard Ques series.

Shock: The Healing Power of Electroconvulsive Therapy

Northeastern University, Raytheon Amphithe 120 Forsyth St., Boston (617-373-5800). u fordhallforum.org. MBTA: E Green Line to N eastern or Orange Line to Ruggles. Oct. 15, 6:30 Free. Former Massachusetts governor Mic Dukakis, his wife, Kitty, and author Larry speak at this free public forum about the b fits of Electroconvulsive Therapy for trea depression.

Workshops

Letting Go of the Burning Coal: Anger and How to Heal It

Temple Beth Zion, 1566 Beacon St., Brookline (566-8171, ext. 20). www.nishmathayyim.org. MB C Green Line to Fairbanks. Oct. 21, 10 am-4 $85; $36, students and seniors. Includes lunch and erages. Rabbi Alan Lew leads a daylong work exploring anger and how to deal with it thr meditation.

Om City Yoga Worksho

Om City Yoga, 2400 Mass. A Cambridge (781-648-0722; yoga boston@earthlink.net). www.camb yoga.net. MBTA: Red Line to D •Oct. 14, 3:30-4:30 pm. Pleas rive by 3 pm. $10, adults; $5, dren. Kids, ages 5 to 12, and parents learn yoga moves togeth Family Yoga.

•Oct. 20, 8:15-10 pm. Doors at 8 pm. $10. Instructor Dee G berg leads Yoga Trance Dan process of letting go of inhibi through music and movement.

Sharing Wisdom for Practitioners and Laypersons

Theosophical Society in Boston Maple St., Arlington (617-470-9 lindaclave@aol.com). www.tsbo org. MBTA: Red Line to Har then #77 Bus to Arlington. Oct 7:30-9 pm. $10; $5, members structor Linda Clave teaches hands-on techniq sense and decipher vibration.

Shim Sung Workshop

Brookline Dahn Yoga & Healing, 235 Harvar Brookline (617-264-4851). www.dahnyoga. MBTA: C Green Line to Coolidge Corner. Oct 21. Call for times. $295. Preregistration required. two-day Dahn workshop seeks to help partici find their true selves.

Ultimate Bootcamp Blast

Boston Common, Charles and Beacon streets (787-1224). www.ultimatebootcamp.com. MI Red or Green Line to Park. Oct. 20, 9:30-1 $20. Register by Oct. 19. A condensed versi the four-week bootcamp workout, this 90-m version features cardio drills, obstacle co agility exercises and muscle conditioning.

Ongoing

AltThera Health Yoga Class

AltThera Health, 30 Chauncy St., Boston (617 8500). www.altthera.com. MBTA: Red or O Line to Downtown Crossing. Daily, check Web s schedule. $25; free, Fri. 12-1 pm. Please prere Limited to four students per class, AltThera offerings include Kripalu- and Vinyasa-style instruction.

Blissful Monkey Lunchtime Yoga

Blissful Monkey Yoga Studio, 663 Centre St., Ja Plain (617-522-4411). www.blissfulmonkey MBTA: Orange Line to Green. Tue., Thu. an 12-1 pm $10. These mixed-level classes are de for busy students.

Healing Martial Arts Class

Brookline Dahn Yoga & Healing, 235 Harvar Brookline (617-264-4851). www.dahnyoga MBTA: C Green Line to Coolidge Corner. Th am and 6:30 pm; Sat., 12 pm. $15. This nonco ive martial arts class teaches participants exe to build their strength and maintain their bala

Sports

Advice to Contributors
Submit listings by fax (617-859-1446), by mail to Calendar Sports, or by e-mail to sports@improper.com. Include address, phone number, nearest T stop, along with a brief description. Listings can't be accepted over the phone and must be received at least four weeks in advance.

Home Games

Boston Bruins
TD Banknorth Garden, Boston
Tickets: 617-931-2222
Oct. 18, 7 pm vs. Tampa Bay Lightning
Oct. 20, 7 pm vs. New York Rangers

Events

An Evening With Champions
Bright Hockey Center, 79 N. Harvard St., Cambridge (617-495-4205). www.aneveningwithchampions.org. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. Oct. 12 and 13. Fri., 8 pm; Sat., 7 pm. $8-$32. At this annual event, world-renowned skaters, including Oksana Baiul and Emily Hughes, perform to raise money for the Jimmy Fund.

Making Strides Against Breast Cancer
DCR Hatch Memorial Shell, 10 Storrow Dr., Boston (800-ACS-2345). www.cancer.org/stridesonline. MBTA: Red Line to Charles/MGH. Oct. 14, 8 am. $30. The American Cancer Society hosts its 15th five-mile walk along the Charles River Esplanade to raise money for breast cancer research.

Step Out to Fight Diabetes Walk
DCR Hatch Memorial Shell, 10 Storrow Dr., Boston (888-342-2383). http://stepout.diabetes.org. MBTA: Red Line to Charles/MGH. Oct. 13, 9 am. $15. Help fight diabetes by participating in a one-, three- or seven-mile fundraising walk around Boston. Proceeds benefit the American Diabetes Association.

Time to Play

BASEBALL

Henry's Baseball
(781-891-0621). Seeking players ages 17-40.

BASKETBALL

Boston Ski & Sports Club
(617-789-4070). www.bssc.com. BSSC offers men's, women's and co-ed leagues for players of all levels in Quincy and Watertown.

Cambridge Racquet and Fitness Club
(617-491-8989). www.crfcbasketball.com. CRFC hosts year-round leagues for individuals and teams. All levels welcome.

Corporate Basketball League
(781-248-7811). This league seeks teams for the summer. Games are held in Newton and Waltham.

Never Too Late Basketball
(781-488-3333). www.nevertoolate.com. Adults shoot hoops in locations around Boston.

BOXING

Boston Sport Boxing Club
55 Church St., Newton (617-595-8141). www.bostonboxing.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard, then #71 bus to Walnut. Mon.-Sat., 2-10 pm. This boxing club offers lessons for all skill levels at its Watertown gym.

The Ring Boxing Club
21 Comm. Ave., Boston (617-782-6946). www.ringboxingclub.com. MBTA: B Green Line to Pleasant. Mon.-Fri., 12-10 pm; Sat., 12-6 pm. Certified professional coaches teach boxers of all levels.

DODGEBALL

Boston Ski & Sports Club
(617-789-4070). www.bssc.com. The BSSC offers co-ed dodgeball leagues in Belmont and Watertown. Leagues play for eight to 10 weeks.

FLAG AND TOUCH FOOTBALL

Boston Ski & Sports Club
Games are held in Brighton (617-789-4070). www.bssc.com. Teams compete each weekend.

HOCKEY

Boston Ski & Sports Club
(617-789-4070). www.bssc.com. The BSSC offers various co-ed floor hockey leagues at its Brighton and Newton locations.

ICE SKATING

Bay State Skating School
13 rinks in towns including Cambridge, Brookline and Somerville (781-890-8480). www.baystateskatingschool.org. The BSSS offers beginner, intermediate and advanced classes.

KICKBALL

Boston Ski & Sports Club
(617-789-4070). www.bssc.com. The BSSC offers outdoor co-ed kickball leagues in Charlestown and Newton. Each season includes eight games, plus playoffs.

RUGBY

Beantown Women's Rugby Club
www.beantownrugby.com. Tue. and Thu. in Allston; games Sat. Beantown has won the national women's championship six times.

Boston Rugby Club
(617-566-2732). www.brfc.org. This club is looking for players to join its national-level team for the upcoming season.

Boston Women's Rugby Football Club
(781-340-2192). www.bwrfc.org. This club seeks new players for rugby games in Brookline and Cambridge.

Mystic River Rugby Club
(617-267-5221). www.mysticrugby.com. Mystic River is a Division 1 rugby club which competes in the New England Rugby Union.

RUNNING

Boston Hash House Harriers
Various location in and around Boston (617-499-4835). www.bostonhash.com. This running and social club hosts weekly runs on either Wednesdays or Sundays.

The BSSC offers a variety of basketball leagues in and around the city.

Cambridge Friday Night Fun Run
Cambridge Racquet and Fitness Club, 215 First St., Cambridge (781-275-1584). www.srr.org. MBTA: Red Line to Kendall/ MIT. Fri., 6 pm. The Somerville Road Runners host this weekly run in the Cambridge area.

Team LunaChix Boston
BostonRun@teamlunachix.com. www.bostonlunachix.com. Wed., 6:30 pm. Women only. This women's running group gathers weekly to promote healthy living and breast cancer awareness. The four-mile jogs start on the MIT side of the Mass. Ave. bridge.

SOCCER

Boston Ski & Sports Club
(617-789-4070). www.bssc.com. The BSSC offers a series of outdoor co-ed soccer leagues in Canton, Lexington, Newton and Waltham. Each season lasts for eight weeks.

SOFTBALL

Boston Ski & Sports Club
(617-789-4070). www.bssc.com. The BSSC offers a series of outdoor co-ed softball leagues in the Greater Boston area.

WHITE-WATER RAFTING

Boston Ski & Sports Club
(617-789-4070). www.bssc.com. This summer, the BSSC offers weekend white-water rafting trips to Maine, Canada and western Massachusetts.

THE SPORTSDECK

Come experience Boston's newest hot spot.

This membership only section at the Garden is sure to impress clients, employees, friends and family. Enjoy great views of the court to see Paul Pierce, Kevin Garnett, Ray Allen and the Celtics take on the NBA this season.

Memberships include early admission into the game through a private entrance of the arena, complimentary appetizers and soft drinks, high-end waitstaff and bar service, playoff ticket priority and much more.

For more information, visit Celtics.com or call 617-854-8018.

THINK BIG

THE CAMBRIDGE SCHOOL OF CULINARY ARTS

ANNUAL FALL OPEN HOUSE
SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 3, 2007
11:00AM – 3:00PM

FALL INTO YOUR NEW CAREER!

- Cooking Demonstrations
- Cooking Contests
- Food Tastings
- Program Presentations
- Facility Tours
- Chef Appearances
- Door Prizes

www.cambridgeculinary.com/improper
2020 MASS. AVE., CAMBRIDGE, MA
617.354.2020

children

Advice to Contributors

Submit updated listings by mail or fax (617-859-1446) to Calendar: Children, or e-mail information to children@improper.com. Include address, phone number, subway stop, ticket price, dates, times and a brief description of the event. Deadline is four weeks prior to publication. Listings cannot be accepted over the phone.

Things to See

Boston Public Library

Central Library, 700 Boylston St., Boston (617-536-5400). www.bpl.org. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Oct.14, 2 pm. Archaeologist Ellen Berkland reads a story and tells tales of her personal experiences and adventures.

Coolidge Corner Theater Kid's Variety Show

290 Harvard St, Brookline (617-734-201). www.coolidge.com. MBTA: Green Line to Coolidge Corner. •Oct. 13 and 20, 10:30 am. $10, adults; $8, children and seniors. Enjoy a classic presentation of Jack and the Beanstalk put on by the Makeshift Theater Company. •Oct. 21, 10:30 am. $8, adults; $6, children and seniors. The Boston Conservatory introduces opera to school-aged children with its presentation Opera for Kids: Jack and the Beanstalk.

CSI: The Experience

Museum of Science, Science Park, Boston (617-723-2500). www.mos.org. MBTA: Green Line to Science Park. Ongoing. Through Jan. 1. $23, adult nonmembers; $20.50, senior nonmembers; $19, children nonmembers; $5, adult members; $4.50, senior members; $4, children members. Think you might be the next Gil Grissom? Find out as you explore this interactive exhibit, inspired by CBS' hit TV show. Visitors will learn the ins and outs of forensic science and the latest investigative techniques featured on CSI. Admission also includes a voucher for the main exhibit halls, which is valid the same day or within six months of viewing the exhibit.

ImprovBoston Family Show

1253 Cambridge St., Cambridge (617-576-1253). www.improvboston.com. MBTA: Red Line to Kendall/MIT. Sat., 6 pm. $12, adults; $10, seniors; $7, children and students. Ongoing. This improv show, featuring a variety of skits, is designed for the entire family to enjoy.

Puppet Showplace Theater

32 Station St., Brookline (617-731-6400). www.puppetshowplace.org. MBTA: Green Line to Brookline Village. $9.50, nonmembers; $7.50, members. •Oct. 10 and 11, 10:30 am; Oct. 13 and 14, 1 and 3 pm. Puppeteer Katie Adams tells the story of Johnny Appleseed through a story quilt and music. Ages 3 and up. •Oct. 17 and 18, 10:30 am. Sparky Davis performs versions of The Tortoise and the Hare, The Grasshopper and the Ant and the Boy Who Cried "Wolf." Ages 3 and up. •Oct. 20 and 21, 1 and 3 pm. Goat in a Boat Puppet Theater presents The Princess, the Frog and the Pea, a compilation of old classics retold in a quirky new tale using tabletop puppets. Ages 4 and up.

Ringling Bros. and Barnum & Bailey Circus

Causeway St., Boston (617-624-1000). www.ringling.com. MBTA: Green or Orange Line to North Station. Oct. 11-14. Thu-Sat., 7 pm; Sat., 11 am, 3 and 7 pm; Sun., 1 and 5 pm. $15-$100. Enjoy "The Greatest Show on Earth," featuring equestrian stunts, six rare white-striped Bengal tigers, acrobatic feats, fun-loving clowns and more. Former American Idol finalist Jennifer Fuentes serves as master of ceremonies. Families are invited to join the Ringling Bros. athletic performers an hour before the performance for the free preshow. Ages 2 and up.

Things to Do

Artbeat

212-A Mass. Ave., Arlington (781-646-2200). www.artbeatonline.com. •Oct. 13, 3-6 pm. $18 for materials. Children create a realistic papier mâché skull just in time for Halloween. •Oct 20, 3-6 pm. $12 for materials. Illuminate your home with your child's spooky candles, accented with ghosts and pumpkins.

Barefoot Books

1771 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-349-1610). www.barefootbooks.com. Oct. 13 and 20, 10:30 am. Free. Hear about Friends, New and Old at this we story hour.

Boston Children's Museum

300 Congress St., Boston (617-426-8855). w bostonkids.org. MBTA: Red Line to South Sta Sat.-Thu., 10 am-5 pm; Fri., 10 am-9 pm. $ adults; $8, seniors and children; $2, age 1; f under age 1 and members. $1, Fri. 5-9 pm. •D 11 am. Kids can dance and make tasty tr during "Playspace." •Daily, 10 am-4 pm. Joi "Art Studio" this month and learn how to ma variety of collages with various materials. •W 10:30-11:30 am. Children are introduced to basics of science at "Pint Sized Science." •S Thu., 10 am-3:30 pm; Fri., 10 am-7:30 pm. Du "PlaySpace Messy Activity," children partici in a variety of activities ranging from st collages to painting and playing with sha cream or water. •Through January. Children experience the hands-on exhibit, "Josh Journey: Diary of a Black Cowboy," with activ including saddling a horse, riding a buck bronco and modeling Western clothing. Chil will also learn the story of 16-year-old Joshua, drives cattle up the Chisholm Trail.

Brookline Arts Center

86 Monmouth St., Brookline (617-566-57 www.brooklineartscenter.com. MBTA: C Green to St. Mary's. •Sat., 10 am. Through Nov. 3. $ nonmembers; $112, members; $30, mater Children create art using a variety of mate including pastels, charcoal and watercolor. Ag 13. •Mon., 4:30 pm. Through Nov. 5. $ nonmembers; $144, members; $30, mater Children are taught the basics of drawing in intensive course. Ages 8+. •Mon. and Tue., pm. Sept. 10-Nov. 6. $160, nonmembers; $ members; $30, materials. Kids learn the basi metalworking using copper and brass. Ages Adults welcome. •Tue., 3:30 pm. Through No $185, nonmembers; $168, members; materials. Kids learn to draw both Japanese- American-style comics. Ages 10+. •Tue., 3:30 Through Nov. 6. $185, nonmembers; $ members; $40, materials. Kids learn the basi pottery and wheel-throwing in this intro tory course.

Brookline Arts Festival

Larz Anderson Auto Museum, 15 Newton Brookline (617-522-6547). www.mot.org. Oct 9 am-5 pm. $7, adults; $5, children, seniors students; free, children 6 and under. Families e arts and crafts along with an assortmen demonstrations and vendors.

Children's Costume Brunch

Hawthorne Hotel, 18 Washington Square W Salem (978-825-4311) www.hawthornehotel. Oct. 21, 11 am-2 pm. $28.95, adults; $1 children. "The Stop by for a Spell" child costume brunch is an opportunity for kids to some interesting "characters," decorate a H ween pumpkin and enjoy some treats while dr in a costume.

Halloween at Hogwarts

The Phoenix School, 89 Margin St., Salem (741-0870). www.phoenixschool.org. Oct. 13, 12 pm. $25, preregistration required. Boar Hogwarts Express at Track 9¾ for a mo adventure and help Harry and the gang Halloween. Ages 6-11.

New England Aquarium

Central Wharf, Boston (617-973-5200). neaq.org. MBTA: Blue Line to Aquarium. O and 18, 9:30-10:30 am. $95, nonmembers, members. In this six-week series for one-yea and their parents, the Little Fishes Fall Play C introduces children to the wonders of the ac environment.

New England Wildflower Society

180 Hemenway Road, Framingham (508 7630). www.newfs.org. Oct. 14, 12-4 pm nonmembers; free, members. Commune with n and experience fall foliage at its peak at th Family Festival. Enjoy learning about severa critters at the Art Goes Wild exhibit.

Newtonville Books

296 Walnut St., Newton (617-244-6619). newtonvillebooks.com. Oct. 20, 11 am. Laurie reads from her picture book, Do Unto Activities to follow. Ages 4-8.

Stone Zoo

149 Pond Street, Stoneham (781-438-5100). stonezoo.org. Oct. 20 and 21, 11 am-3 pm adults; $5, ages 2-12; free, 2 and under into the Halloween spirit and explore a tri treat trail, enjoy craft activities, particip howling and costume contests and get l the Haunted Maze. The event is copresent Radio Disney.

round
own

ghts to See

ton Public Library Art Architecture Tour
Boylston St., Boston (617-536-5400). www. rg. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Sun., 2 pm; , 2:30 pm; Tue. and Thu., 6 pm; Fri. and Sat., n. Free.

ton University Observatory
Observatory, 725 Comm. Ave., Boston (617-2630). www.bu.edu/astronomy/opennight.html. TA: B Green Line to BU East. Clear Wed. s: fall and winter, 7:30 pm; spring and summer, pm. Free.

euil Hall Marketplace
uth Market Building, Boston (617-523-1300). .faneuilhallmarketplace.com. MBTA: Green or ge Line to Haymarket. Mon.-Sat., 10 am-9 pm; 12-6 pm.

rvard Museum of Natural History
xford St., Cambridge (617-495-3045). www. .harvard.edu. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. , 9 am-5 pm. $9; $7, students and seniors; $6, 3-18. Wed., 3-5 pm (Sept. through May), and 9 am-12 pm, free to all Massachusetts residents.

n F. Kennedy Library & Museum
mbia Point, Dorchester (617-514-1600). www.jfk y.org. MBTA: Red Line to JFK/UMass. Daily, 9 pm. $10; $8, seniors and students; $7, ages 13-17; ages 12 and under.

z Anderson Antique o Museum
Newton St., Brookline (617-522-6547). www. rg. MBTA: C Green Line to Cleveland Circle. Sun., 10 am-5 pm. $5; $3, ages 6-17, students and s; free, ages 6 and under.

y Baker Eddy Library Mapparium
Mass. Ave., Boston (888-222-3711). www. bakereddylibrary.org. MBTA: Green Line to s. Tue.-Sun., 10 am-4 pm. $6; $4, seniors, stu- and ages 6-17; free, children under 6.

unt Auburn Cemetery
Mount Auburn St., Cambridge (617-547-). www.mountauburn.org. MBTA: Red Line to ard. Oct.-May, 8 am-5 pm; May-Sept., 8 am-7 Free.

seum of Afro-American History
y St., Boston (617-725-0022). www.afroam um.org. MBTA: Red or Green Line to Park. -Sat., 10 am-4 pm. Guided walking tours avail- y special request. $5, suggested donation.

seum of Science
ce Park, Boston (617-723-2500). www.mos. MBTA: Green Line to Science Park. Sat.-Thu., 9 pm; Fri., 9 am-9 pm. $17; $15, seniors; $14, en.

v England Aquarium
ral Wharf, Boston (617-973-5200). www.neaq. MBTA: Blue Line to Aquarium. Mon.-Fri., 9 am- ; Sat. and Sun., 9 am-6 pm. $18.95; $10.95, 3-11.

North Church
Salem St., Boston (617-523-6676). www.old .com. MBTA: Green or Orange Line to Haymar- Open daily, 9 am-6 pm. Free.

South Meeting House
Washington St., Boston (617-482-6439). www. uthmeetinghouse.org. MBTA: Blue or Orange Line te. Daily, 9:30 am-5 pm. $5; $4, seniors and stu- ; $1, ages 6-18; free, children under 6.

State House Museum
Washington St., Boston (617-720-1713). www. nhistory.org. MBTA: Blue or Orange Line to State. , 9 am-5 pm. $5; $4, seniors and students; $1, ages free, children under 6.

dential Center Skywalk
Boylston St., Boston (617-859-0648). www. ntialcenter.com. MBTA: E Green Line to Pruden- Daily, 10 am-10 pm. $11; $9, students and seniors; 0, children under 12.

ity Church
Clarendon St., Boston (617-536-0944). www. vboston.org. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Tue.- 9 am-6 pm; Sun., 7 am-7 pm. Tours: $5; $4, stu- and seniors; free, children under 16 with lult.

S Constitution & Museum
lestown Navy Yard, Boston (617-426-1812). ussconstitutionmuseum.org. May 1-Oct. 15, 9 am- ; Oct. 16-April 30, 10 am-5 pm; open daily.

Volunteer

AFC Mentoring Program
(617-224-1300, ext. 3). www.afcmentoring.org. Mentor a foster-care or adopted child.

AIDS Action Committee
(617-437-6200). www.aac.org. Help patients with HIV/AIDS.

American Cancer Society
(617-556-7400). www.cancer.org. Drive cancer patients to their local treatment appointments or get involved with upcoming events.

Big Brothers of Massachusetts Bay
(617-542-9090). www.bbmb.org. BBMB seeks volunteers to provide friendship to boys in need.

Big Sister Association
(617-236-8060). www.bigsister.org. Volunteers act as friends and mentors to young girls.

BNA Care Network
(617-547-2620, ext. 4271). www.bostoncarenetwork.org. Volunteers support terminally ill patients.

Boston Cares
(617-422-0910). www.bostoncares.org. More than 100 opportunities to volunteer are available.

Boston Jaycees
(888-274-8682). www.bostonjaycees.org. Volunteer at area nonprofits with other young professionals.

Boston Living Center
(617-236-1012, ext. 227). www.bostonlivingcenter.org. This HIV/AIDS organization needs volunteers for kitchen tasks, office work and special events.

Charles River Arc
(781-444-4347). www.crarc.org. Provide support for children and adults with developmental disabilities.

Dana-Farber Cancer Institute
(617-632-3307). www.dana-farber.org. Volunteers help adults living with cancer.

Extra Hands for ALS
(617-331-3014). www.extrahands.org. Help ALS patients and their families with housework.

HealthCare Dimensions Hospice
(781-894-1100). www.hcdhospice.org. Support terminally ill patients and their families.

Horizons for Homeless Children
(617-445-1480, ext. 345). www.horizonsforhomeless children.org. Provide support for homeless children.

Jewish Volunteer Program
(617-558-6585). www.cjp.org. Spend time with a senior citizen, mentor a child or teach an adult to read.

Literacy Volunteers of Massachusetts
(617-367-1313). www.lvm.org. Literacy volunteers help teach adults to read.

MAB Community Services
(617-972-9119). www.mabcommunity.org. Read to or shop with a blind person.

Match-Up Interfaith Volunteers
(617-482-1510). www.matchelder.org. Help with a variety of needs for disabled adults and seniors.

Neighborhood Action
(617-723-5800). http://nai.stjohnsbowdoinst.org. Serve meals to the homeless.

New England Aquarium
(617-973-5235). www.neaq.org. Support the aquarium as a guide or marine mammal volunteer.

Newton Free Library ESL Program
(617-796-1364). www.newtonfreelibrary.net. Tutor adults in English as a second language.

Parental Stress Line
(800-882-1250). Counsel parents and caregivers, and facilitate support groups.

Pedipathways
(617-633-1659). Volunteer to do administrative work or to visit patients for this children's hospice.

Planned Parenthood
(617-616-1600, ext. 1645). www.pplm.org. Volunteer to raise awareness about women's health issues.

Project Place
(617-262-3740, ext. 14). www.projectplace.org. Help homeless men and women in the computer lab.

Recording for the Blind and Dyslexic
(617-577-1111, ext. 17). www.rfbd.org. Volunteers read textbooks for recording.

Red Cross
(617-375-0700, ext. 438). www.bostonredcross.org. Volunteer in the food pantry and public relations department.

Respond
(617-625-5996). www.respondinc.org. Volunteers are needed at this agency for battered women.

Rosie's Place
(617-442-9322). www.rosies.org. Volunteers are needed at this homeless women's shelter.

Samaritans
(617-536-2460). www.samaritanshope.org. Provide support over the phone to people in crisis.

Single Volunteers Boston
www.svboston.org. Volunteer with young, single professionals.

OPEN HOUSE EVERY SUNDAY 11:00 AM - 4:00 PM

LONGWOOD TOWERS

Live the Life You've Always Imagined

Boston's sister landmarks, The New Longwood Towers, are built on a legacy of prime location, attentive service, and luxury accommodations, now adapted for today's most discerning homeowner. Enjoy the grand lobby, brand new on-site fitness center, private club room, and lifestyle amenity services that include a 24-hour concierge and valet parking. Experience sweeping views of Boston's skyline and the Emerald Necklace from your balcony.

Studio to Penthouse homes with bay windows, hardwood flooring, stainless steel appliances, granite countertops and upgrade options. Pricing from mid $300Ks to over $1.5 million.

20 CHAPEL STREET
BROOKLINE, MA 02446

T 617.975.2880

WWW.LONGWOODCONDOMINIUMS.COM

CONTACT OUR SALES CENTER TODAY TO FIND OUT ABOUT OUR HOMES THAT ARE AVAILABLE FOR IMMEDIATE OCCUPANCY. SALES OFFICE OPEN DAILY 11 AM TO 4 PM AND VIA APPOINTMENT.

EQUAL HOUSING OPPORTUNITY

ACCELERATED MARKETING PARTNERS

Exclusive Financing: Chase 2006 JP Morgan Chase & Co. All Rights Reserved.

improperimpersonals

If everyone kept their feelings bottled up like warm beer, we'd soon have antisocial behavior exploding all over the place and ruining the upholstery. So send us your letters of love and spleen, and we'll print them for the world to see. (Impersonals may be edited for taste, space and clarity.) Heck, it's better than making a fool of yourself in person. And IT'S FREE! Pick up a pen or keyboard (hint: we like the fact that we don't have to type up e-mailed messages) and write to:

IMPROPER IMPERSONALS
THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN MAGAZINE
142 Berkeley St., 3rd Floor
Boston, MA 02116
FAX: 617-859-1446 E-MAIL: impersonals@improper.com
RECENT CORRESPONDENCE FOLLOWS.

Sweet as Honey

This is an ode to you, Mr. Winnie the Pooh Helmet. The two of us felt too inclined to share our delight at your general presence. We have often seen you riding your bike down the street, gracing everyone's presence on the sidewalks with glorious renditions of Creedence. You seem to appear on those days when a good laugh is definitely needed and for that, we salute you. There is nothing like seeing you, in your Winnie the Pooh helmet, bombing down the street on your bike hollering "Feel Like Making Love" by Bad Company to every woman (or man, who knows?) around. We love it, we love you and maybe next time we could request some Styx? Forever yours,

—Tigger and Piglet

Stuff It

To the annoying girl who works in the office: I want to eat my lunch. Stop talking to your damn friends on the phone who I'm sure you saw four hours ago at the bar. Are you that dependent on other people that you not only see your friends 24-7, but need to talk to them at work so they can tell you their problems? Tell them to get a therapist because no one feels like listening in on all your problems at work, especially when I'm trying to peacefully enjoy my sandwich on my lunch break—you know, that one time of day I DON'T have to deal with other people's bullshit. Kindly get new friends or a new job.

—Lunch Lady

Dial It Back

To the lady who got out of the cab in front of me and gave it to me when all the others were passing me by: Thanks! But also, the cab driver told me that you told him cell phones were invented in the 1960s and that you owned one! What type of hallucinogenic drugs were you on, anyway? Are you really trying to tell me that hippies were using cell phones? I think not. Brush up on your technology facts, lady.

—Generation X

Sweaty and Ready

I've admired you from afar. You're the hot trainer from the Boston Athletic Club. You seem really cool. I would love to hang out with you sometime. Are you single?

—Anonymous L

Slippery When Wet

To the sweaty woman in the 1980s white dress on the inbound Red Line train on the morning of Sept. 20. I can understand how wearing a dress can make mobility difficult, especially when it's so tight your legs can't move. And how having your overprocessed, frizzy brown hair down can make you so sweaty the beads form a thick soup on your back. But to not move away from the subway pole located next to the doors is really unreasonable. By having your iron claw (and body) on that pole, you made your fellow Bostonians rub against your wet dress in order to exit the train. No slight step to the right or the left. No thoughts of "Hmm, maybe I'm in the way of 25 people trying to get into and out of a very crowded train." The kicker was the the look on your face, one of snobby disdain, that made me want to bodycheck you and have you lick that adorable pole you were holding till the viruses came crawling.

—Red Liner

You Blow

To the Steamship Authority: You're the only reason I'm happy summer is finally over. While I appreciate your service in getting me to/from both Martha's Vineyard and Nantucket, the level of frustration incurred while trying to set up these trips is nearly enough to make me stay at home. Let me be specific about what I truly abhor: the Web site, the parking lots and the unnecessary ticket lines upon arrival. Seriously, if you're looking for a reason to beat your head against a wall, spend some quality time on www.steamshipauthority.com. There are a few things I do like about the Steamship Authority, the obvious points being that it takes me to and from my two favorite islands. Beyond that, the free wireless is wonderful—particularly when I've ducked out of the office early to catch my ferry. Even better is the draft beer on board. Quite necessary, too, after all the indignities suffered actually getting there. Is it too much to hope that little ingenuities like these are applied to the Steamship Authority's Web site (or at least the parking lot locations) by next summer? Probably. In the meantime I'll be enjoying nine more months of being Steamship Authority–free.

—Anonymous

Stinky Shrimp

To my cab driver who picked me up at Park Plaza the other night: I'm really sorry about how smelly my Chinese take-out was in the cab. It was the garlic shrimp! I'm also really sorry that I proceeded to laugh about the smell and what you thought it might have been.

—J

rockiehoroscope

OCTOBER 10 – 23, 2007 BY ROCKIE GARDINER

LIBRA

SEPTEMBER 23–OCTOBER 22

Even if you've already celebrated your birthday, you can still make a wish on the Libra new moon. The prospect of getting another shot at a fresh start, if only for a month, is not to be sneezed at. However, if you sense that you're about to run into an authority figure who'll cramp your style—i.e., when your Venus ruler meets restrictive Saturn in picky Virgo—ask for a painless, practical outcome. Financial errors are likely to multiply while Mercury is retrograde in your Scorpio money house; postpone important decisions.

SCORPIO

OCTOBER 23–NOVEMBER 21

Yes, Mercury's retrograde trip through your sign could turn out to be a drag, but as the Messenger backtracks and revisits recent events and decisions, you might unearth information you needed to know back then, particularly paperwork you couldn't find. Just make sure that you give yourself plenty of time (Mercury's last day in Scorpio is Dec. 1) before you rush to judgment again. Your Mars coruler tends to push the "impatient" button, but thank the gods you have Pluto protecting your long-range interests.

SAGITTARIUS

NOVEMBER 22–DECEMBER 21

This is the week you can figure out what the past nine months have been leading up to. As growth-oriented Jupiter in your sign completes the third and final square to inventive Uranus in chaotic Pisces, the weird moments that occurred in January and May might add up. Seers don't always see the forest or the trees, especially when our heads are in the clouds or, under the direction of those two barrier-breaking planets, focusing on the future. Better pay attention to specific ideas that cross your mind, as well as detailed visions that pop up.

CAPRICORN

DECEMBER 22–JANUARY 20

Picture something fresh and lovely sauntering into your life. Perhaps the Libra new moon in your career midheaven will introduce a harmonious element, e.g., an attractive person you work well with or a companion who'll help you navigate through Mercury's retrogression. Maybe the Libra sun will shed light on a questionable money matter when it favors foggy Neptune Oct. 12. Go ahead and assume that when affectionate Venus meets up with your Saturn ruler, you'll feel twice-blessed—not only loved, but highly valued.

AQUARIUS

JANUARY 21–FEBRUARY 18

Mercury turning retrograde in your Scorpio midheaven suggests that an issue concerning your career or the family's reputation will be decided between now and December. However, what gets finalized during the third challenging square between "bigger is better" Jupiter in Sag and your Uranus ruler in your money house is yours to know and ours to guess. This future-oriented matter started at the first square aspect in January, had a major impact on you during the second square in May and is about to be concluded.

PISCES

FEBRUARY 19–MARCH 19

So much for your precious anonymity. The spotlight beckons as effusive Jupiter in your career midheaven provokes a response from non-conformist Uranus in your sign for the third and final time this year. If that much attention doesn't bring you out of the shadows, then the artistic Libra sun's beneficial trine shining on your Neptune ruler might. But if you manage to evade the vibes these alignments are focusing on you personally, the combination of Venus and Saturn in your Virgo marriage zone make their pleas hard to resist.

ARIES

MARCH 20–APRIL 19

As self-sufficient as the Ram appears to be, during Libra, the sign of your significant others, your motivation may change as you become more accommodating and open to suggestion. Although it's difficult to think of the single-minded Aries as a team player, somehow you manage to recruit folks who are willing to support your cause. Now the time to replenish those troops, to forge new alliance and, because your Mars ruler is in homey Cancer for the first time in two years, to be prepared to feed them well

TAURUS

APRIL 20–MAY 20

Your Venus ruler was in dramatic Leo for so long, its trip through demure Virgo could take some getting used to. While you might miss the roar of the crowd, the vibe anot earth-friendly sign sends out is much easier to take and more comfortable to live with. Because Virgo governs you house of recreation, risk and romance, no matter how mu work lies ahead, Venus' presence there suggests that whate you do will seem like play. However, as the weekend of Oc 13 draws near, a casual romance could turn serious.

GEMINI

MAY 21–JUNE 20

If not you, then your partner is in for a surprise when generous Jupiter in your Sagittarius marriage house receives an offer from eccentric Uranus. How weird or h wonderful this is depends on how willing you are to ma whatever adjustment the opportunity entails. At the sa time, the sociable Libra new moon may introduce an appealing alternative, pressuring you to make a decisio before you've thought it through. Remember, your Mer ruler goes retrograde Oct. 11. Over the next three week anything can happen.

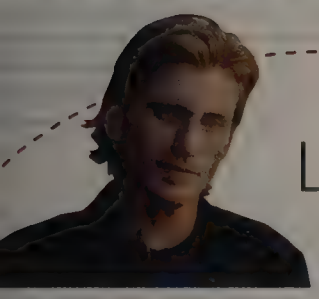
CANCER

JUNE 21–JULY 22

By October, most signs are well into their autumn rout busy at work, in school and at play. However, the Moon Child might still be waiting to learn what the Libra ne moon has up its sleeve. Don't be shocked if your agend for the next four weeks centers on the ways and means achieving domestic bliss, the area of your solar chart t Libra rules. It makes little difference if you're fixing up house or entertaining the extended family, as long as y thoughts and attention don't stray too far from home.

LEO

JULY 23–AUGUST 22



Let's hope that the waves of optimism washing over yo while your sun ruler and enthusiastic Jupiter form a favorable sextile don't knock you off your feet. Althou the Libra sun should help you maintain your balance, trine to fanciful Neptune in your Aquarius house of partners can make you both a bit delusional. This supportive aspect is fine if you intend to create beauti music together, but since Mercury turns retrograde at time, you'd be foolish to take anything you hear or re face value. Double-check.

VIRGO

AUGUST 23–SEPTEMBER 22

It's good to be Prince Charming or the belle of the ball having desirable Venus in your sign can throw you off-guard—especially since the radiant goddess might lo her glow when she brushes up against dour Saturn Oc But once that encounter is over, your social life shoul suffer. Meanwhile, the Libra new moon on 10/10 may the seeds of a new financial matter that'll develop while Mercury ruler is retrograde Oct. 11-Nov. 1. Go slow, th next four weeks could be filled with contradictions.

For a personalized Transit Forecast (30 to 40+ pages) detailing the major themes and issues that will arise over the next 12 months, send name, date, time and place of birth, plus a check or money order for $42.50 per report to ROCKIE GARDINER, 6701 Colbath Ave. Valley Glen, CA 91405; more details at www.rockiehoroscope.com. Rockie's daily forecast appears online at www.laweekly.com.

Laugh
it up with
ENIS LEARY and friends
t the longest-running comedy benefit in the nation.

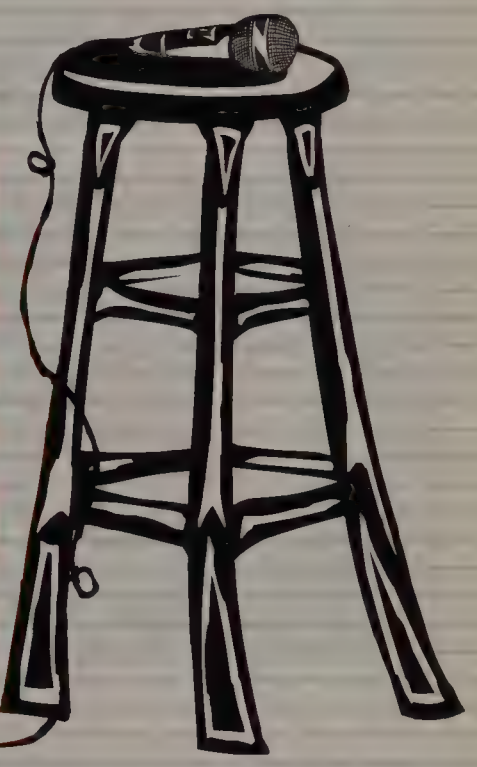
THE CAM NEELY FOUNDATION
FOR CANCER CARE

Providing comfort, support, and hope to cancer patients and their families



WWW.CAMNEELYFOUNDATION.ORG

TICKETS ON SALE NOW!

TICKET PRICES Floor Section: $155 + $85
Floor and Arena Sections: $85, $60 + $35

APOSTLE

COMICS come home

ALSO FEATURING: MIKE BIRBIGLIA + NY CLARKE + PETE CORREALE + ROBERT KELLY ARTIE LANGE + JIM NORTON + JOE YANNETTY

SATURDAY, Nov. 10, 2007 7:30 P.M. Agganis Arena at Boston University

TO BENEFIT THE CAM NEELY FOUNDATION FOR CANCER CARE AND TUFTS-NEW ENGLAND MEDICAL CENTER

PRESENTED BY:

Tudor Investment Corporation

CO-SPONSORED BY:

CHAUFFEURED TRANSPORTATION NETWORK
Over 550 Cities Worldwide

THE CHARLES HOTEL
HARVARD SQUARE

Kiss 108 fm
www.kiss108.com

THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN
MAGAZINE

M ld Media Inc.

WBZ NEWS RADIO 1030

Sovereign Bank℠

WAAF 97.7/107.3

GAME ON!
SPORT CAFE

IMPROPERAZZI

The Improper Bostonian's client-related promotions and events

On Thursday, September 27, the Improper Bostonian celebrated our Fall Fashion issue at Shreve, Crump & Low. Guests got to preview the season's hottest trends with fashions by La Perla's ready-to-wear fall '07 collection, fine jewelry by Shreve, Crump & Low, shoes by Moxie, vintage tuxedos by Keezer's Classic Clothing, makeup by Melt Spa and hair by Salon Marc Harris, while enjoying libations by 360 Vodka and Stella Artois and culinary treats by East Meets West.

1. JK Nicholas, president of Chelsea Clock Company, and Tim Brett, manager of acquisitions for Pyramid Hotel Group.
2. John Winer, advertising executive; David Walker, chief executive officer; Nancy Haas, store manager; Jack Winer, vice president; and Stefan DelGreco, diamond buyer, all with Shreve, Crump & Low.
3. Lisa Przystup, graduate student at Boston University, and K Levas, sales rep for Sanofi-Aventis.
4. Mike Tardiff, Lauren Tangard, Vanessa Lawrence, and John Blizzard, all models with Maggie Inc.
5. Cara McDonough, brand manager for Stella Artois; Barry McMenamin, business travel sales manager with Jurys Boston Hotel; and Abbey Brown, assistant brand manager for Stella Artois.

On Tuesday, September 25, the Improper Bostonian was pleased to be a sponsor of the third annual Say It With Flowers presented by Shonda Schilling and Dawn Timlin. Guests enjoyed a hands-on flower-arranging class led by Dale Rohman, followed by a wine reception, a silent auction and a luncheon with a keynote speaker. The event was held at the State Room. All proceeds benefit the ALS Association Massachusetts Chapter.

1. "America's Flower Man" Dale Rohman and Jennifer Ouimette, event coordinator for Say It With Flowers.
2. Ashley Papelbon and Kelli Pedroia.
3. Jillian Zona, brand director at Christinia, and Erin Tracy, PR director at the InterContinental Hotel Boston.

On Wednesday, September 19, 33 Restaurant and Lounge rolled out the re carpet for a star-studded Boston Film Festival pre-screening event. The evenir guest of honor was Maria Menounos, who stars in the upcoming In the Land o Merry Misfits.

1. Maria Menounos, star of the upcoming comedy In the Land of Merry Misfits.
2. Deanna Madsen and her husband, actor Michael Madsen.
3. Greg Den Herder, co-owner; Maria Giannaris and George Giannaris, both investors, all of 33 Restauran Lounge.

PHOTOS: 33 RESTAURANT & LOUNGE, MEGHAN BRADY, DREA CATALANO; SHREVE, CRUMP & LOW, STACEY SHANE, JAMES P. PHILLIPS; SAY IT WITH FLOWERS, STACEY

BACARDI®

DRINK RESPONSIBLY.
Bacardi.com
©2007 BACARDI AND THE BAT DEVICE ARE REGISTERED TRADEMARKS OF BACARDI & COMPANY LIMITED. BACARDI U.S.A., INC., MIAMI, FL.
RUM – 40% ALC. BY VOL.
ALL OTHER MARKS ARE TRADEMARKS OF THEIR RESPECTIVE OWNERS.

EXCLUSIVE PARTNER OF THE BOSTON CELTICS

IMPROPERAZZI

The Improper Bostonian's client-related promotions and events

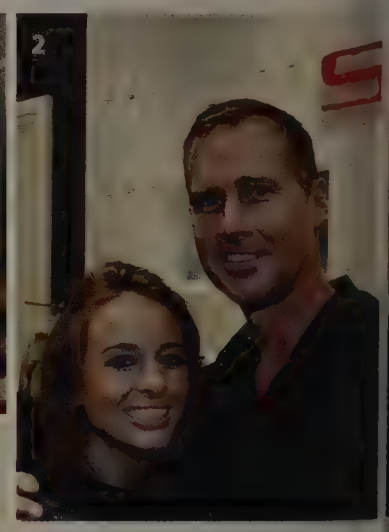
On Thursday, September 20, the Boss Orange Store had a grand opening party at their new location on Huntington Ave. Guests rocked out to the sound of DJ Mario and enjoyed fabulous food and cocktails. Models showed the new Boss Orange line while guests browsed the store.

1. Ace Gershfeld, promoter with 6one7 Productions; Wes Welker, wide receiver, and Ben Rawitz, staffer, both for the New England Patriots.
2. Bill Ryan, general manager at Winston's Flowers, and Francesco Cella, general manager of Hugo Boss in Boston.
3. Boss Orange Models.

On Thursday, September 20, The Isabella Stewart Gardner Museum launched their Garden After Hours series with a Journey to the East. The premier event featured Japanese music in the courtyard, exploration and discussion of the museum's Asian works and a session in which attendees sketched the dramatic architectural elements of the museum. The evening was complete with specialty sake cocktails and savory small plates.

1. Michael DeRamo and Dan Kamyck, both students at Northeastern University.
2. David Rubaltelli M.D., vitrecretinal surgery fellow at Harvard Medical School; Alessia Ferrari, engineer at Haley & Aldrich; and Duccio Urbinati, Pharm. D, Msc. at Beth Israel Deaconess Medical Center.
3. Nova Summers, development office manager; Liza Harsh, assistant to the director; Laura Hughes, development assistant, all of the Isabella Stewart Gardner Museum.

On Monday, September 17, New Amsterdam Gin held a special orientation and sampling event for the elite bartenders of Boston at the Beehive. Guests enjoyed various New Amsterdam Gin cocktails created by Master Mixologist Alex Ott and dined on hors d'oeuvres by the Beehive.



1. Alex Gavurin, head server, and Mike Donaldson, bartender, both at Sonsie.
2. Lance Davis, Michael Caradonna, Michael Woolfson, Steve Cuoco, Richard Kolack, and Kate Palmer, all on premise sales representatives; Johnny Gill, spirits specialist; all with Commonwealth Wine & Spirits; and Megan Jennings, brand manager in MA for New Amsterdam.
3. Master mixologist Alex Ott.

On Thursday, September 20, Stil celebrated the opening of its third location in the new Natick Collection. Guests enjoyed fashions, cocktails and hors d'oeuvres by Sel de la Terre.

1. Betty Riaz, owner of Stil; Cristina Fernandez, principal of C Squared Capitol, Boston; and Kerie Musum of Weston.
2. Bonnie Cardillo, district manager Stil, and Steve Lawton, designer a Waterworks.
3. Natalia Soares, stylist for Stil, and Denise DeMartini, store manager Stil, Natick Collection.

PHOTOS: ISABELLA STEWART GARDNER MUSEUM, MEGHAN BRADY; HUGO BOSS, BEEHIVE, JESSICA FEDERICO; STIL, CONNIE

SAVE A GODDESS.™

FIVE RIVERS®

In 2007, nearly 300,000 women will be diagnosed with breast, ovarian, cervical or uterine cancer. Together we can help save the goddesses in our lives.

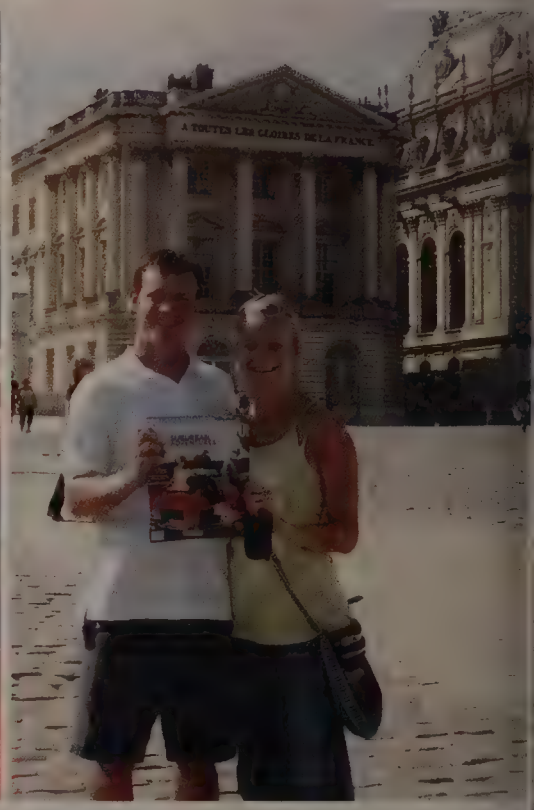
With your help Five Rivers will make a donation during the month of October to Massachusetts General Hospital for breast cancer research. Show all the women in your life how much you care. Together we can get the word out and raise money for this incredible organization.

THE GODDESS ASKS THAT YOU ENJOY HER WINES RESPONSIBLY.

fiveriverswinery.com/frostedpink ©2007 Five Rivers, Hopland, Mendocino Co., CA

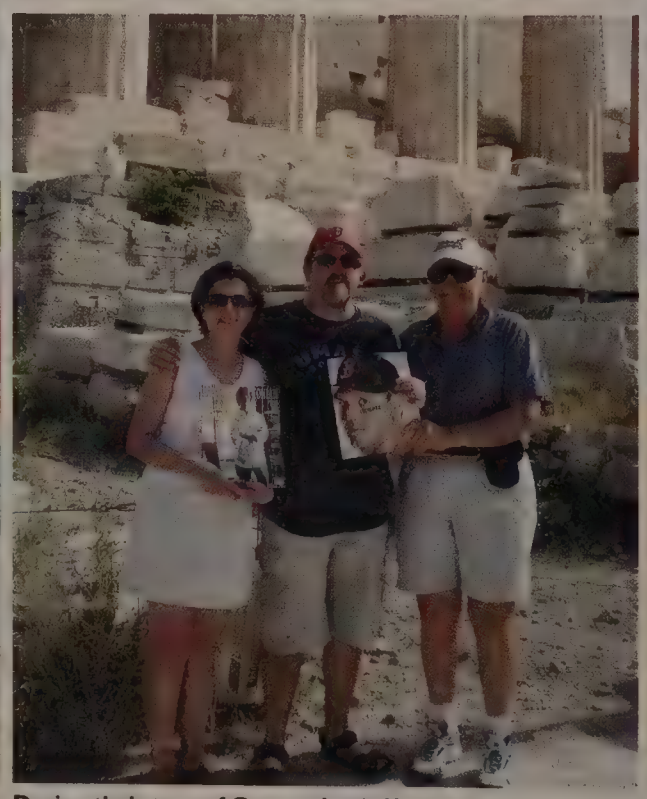
IMPROPER sightings

UNLIKE THE REST OF YOUR FRIENDS, WE WANT TO SEE THE PHOTOS FROM YOUR NEXT TRIP



Where do you take us? Send us a picture of you or a friend, or better yet, someone famous reading THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN and tell us where you were. The wilder your destination and the more creative your photo, the better your chances of making the cut in the esteemed Improper Sightings.

Chuck and Andrea Peters climbed Ben Nevis, the highest mountain in the British Isles. It's also the least rainy.



Emily Ackman, Abby Wright, Jaime Grodberg and Melody Kwan put their funny faces on at the 3,500-year-old Lamanai ruins in the Orange Walk District of Belize. Thankfully, no one was there to smack them in the back.

While in France, Chris Busch and Brianna Jakubi posed at the Château de Versailles, better know here in America as the Chateau of Versailles.

Joshua and Olivia Millonig tied the knot on Palm Beach in Aruba. You might recognize them as the winning couple from last year's Fox reality show Who Wants to Marry a Millonig?

During their tour of Greece, Louis Karvelas and John and Mary Lynn Pergantis checked out the Acropolis—star of the upcoming film My Big Fat Obnoxious Greek Acropolis.

Christine Jhong and Cosmin Nicula visited Transylva nia, Romania. Truth be told, we thought there'd be a lot more blood-sucking in the background.

IMPROPER BOUNTY

BONUS POINTS TO ANYONE WHO CAN CAPTURE AN IMPROPER READER: Finding out what the hell a "conker" is at the World Conker Championships, held Oct. 14 in Ashton, England.

Send high-resolution digital photos (at least 500K file size) to sightings@improper.com, or mail professionally printed color photos (min. 3x5) to Improper Sightings, The Improper Bostonian Magazine, 42 Berkeley St., 3rd floor, Boston, MA 02116. Please include the exact photo location, full names of all people in the photo, your phone number and e-mail address. All photos become the property of THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN MAGAZINE and will not be returned. Ink-jet & laser-printed photos cannot be accepted.

RESTAURANTS

ROWNSTONE 111 Dartmouth Street, Boston, A, 617-867-4142 www.irishconnection.com. Sit- ted on the border of Back Bay and the South ld, Brownstone is named for the style and the el- ance reflective of the architecture of Boston's o neighborhoods. From the hardwood flooring the Venetian plaster ceiling, the interior exudes ssic warmth with a sleek and intimate bar ade of mahogany and granite. Brownstone's nu features creative, comfort cuisine. On week- ds, Chef Michael McEwen turns out "late- ght" cuisine until 1:30 a.m., featuring midnight acks of fritto misto, baked fondue and pancakes d eggs from the brunch menu. Brownstone is en seven days a week from 11 a.m. – 2 a.m., rving brunch on Saturday and Sunday from 10 n. – 3 p.m.

OOGAN'S 171 Milk Street, Boston, 617-451- 15. www.irishconnection.com. Established in 96, Coogan's is a cozy pub located in the heart of ston's financial district. It's the perfect place to joy hearty pasta dishes, fresh seafood or the ed Black Angus cuts of beef. Wash it down with ur pick of one of our 20 draught beers. Enjoy the ew of the street side from the bay windows, the armth of the fireplace or cozy up in a booth with ends. After dark, Coogan's heats up, with DJ's aying top 40.

UGAKYU 1280 Beacon Street (Coolidge Corner), rookline, MA 02446, 617-734-1268. www.fugakyu. t. Authentic Japanese cuisine in an elegant and rene setting. Open Daily for lunch and dinner, Fu- kyu's menu consists of traditional and nouveau panese cuisine including sushi, sashimi, tempura nd an extensive sake list. Fugakyu is the largest panese restaurant in New England. It's two floors clude a sushi bar, cocktail bar, common dining eas, bamboo-enclosed booths, screened Tatami oms and several private function rooms. Reserva- ons for parties of all sizes are accepted. Takeout and elivery available.

IATCH 94 Massachusetts Ave., at Newbury Street, oston, 617-247-9922. This modern restaurant/ ounge maintains an unpretentious yet hip vibe. A eek fire display and glass wine room are just two f its many features. Match's signature mini burg- rs and martinis are guaranteed to please the most iscriminating palate. Match music has a distinct arly evening lounge feel with the beat and volume icking up as the night progresses. Open daily 5pm- am. AE, DC, MC,V.

M.J. O'CONNOR'S 27 Columbus Ave., at Park laza, Boston 617-482-2255 www.mjocconors. om. Eclectic Irish Food and spirits, a warm riendly staff and beautifully handcrafted wood- vork and murals make this authentic upscale Irish ub one of Boston's best. Starting with only the inest ingredients, each dish is slow cooked ac- ording to recipes that have been used for genera- ions. If you're looking for a respite from the hus- le and bustle of the city, M.J. O'Connor's is a comfortable and welcoming environment to enjoy a delicious meal, have a pint and some great con- versation. Open 11am - 2am 7 days a week.

NED DEVINE'S Faneuil Hall Marketplace, Quincy Market Building, Boston 617-248-8800 www.neddevineboston. com. Located in historic Fa- neuil Hall Marketplace's Quincy Market Building, Ned Devine's is an upscale Irish Pub concept which features hearty Irish specialties and con- temporary American cuisine. Whether it's an after- noon business meeting, dinner with family or after work social gathering, Ned's is a warm meeting spot to enjoy conversation and a wonderful meal. Hand painted murals, imported Irish woodwork, original brickwork and ambient lighting create a comfortable atmosphere in the heart of down- town Boston. Open 11am - 2am, 7 days a week.

ROGGIE'S NEW AGE BREW & GRILLE 356 Chestnut Hill Avenue, Cleveland Circle, Brighton, 617-566-1880. www.roggies.com. This all time fa- vorite restaurant and bar has over 52 beers on tap. Come enjoy breakfast all day, lunch, and dinner. Ex- tensive menu ranging from sandwiches, ribs, pizza, to pasta. Catering also available as well as party platters, call 617-713-0555.

SIDNEY'S GRILLE 20 Sidney St., Cambridge, 617-494-0011 Enjoy fresh flavors, good friends, and a great bar at Sidney's Grille in Central Square. Discover why Bon Appetit magazine says "It's almost shocking to pay this little for food this good, in surroundings this gorgeous." Memorable cuisine combines international flair with regional accents. Serving breakfast, lunch, dinner and weekend brunch. Private dining available. For menus www.sidneysgrille.com.

SUNSET GRILL & TAP:130 Brighton Ave., All- ston, 617-254-1331; SUNSET CANTINA: 916 Commonwealth Ave., Boston 617-731-8646. Don't just come for Boston's Best Beer Selection featur- ing 112 taps and 300 microbrews. Come also to enjoy Boston's award winning steam beer burgers and famous curly fries, original buffalo wings and giant nachos. Still hungry? Try our juicy BBQ steak tips, grilled fish, homemade pastas, tender Yankee ribs or our sizzling fajitas. Full menu until 1 am.

THE BLACK ROSE 160 State Street, Boston, 617- 742-2286. www.irishconnec tion.com. Voted one of America's top ten Irish establishments, The Black Rose is Boston's premier Irish pub and restaurant. Established in 1976, the pub is located in the his- toric Faneuil Hall-Quincy market area of Boston and is known far and wide for its convivial atmosphere, good food and live Irish entertainment. The menu features honest, made-from-scratch food including traditional Irish fare, award winning clam chowder, fish and chips, native lobster, aged Black Angus cuts of beef and of course, Mother Sweeney's corned beef, a recipe from Mother Sweeney herself. For thirty years, The Black Rose has offered live Irish music seven nights a week. Memorable guests on stage have included members of the Chieftains, flutist James Galway, Tommy Makim, Liam Clancy, John Denver and a once relatively unknown mem- ber of an Irish rock group called U2.

THE PURPLE SHAMROCK 1 Union Street, Boston, 617-227-2060. www. irishconnection. com. Located on the freedom trail across from Boston City Hall on Union Street. The Purple Shamrock is the perfect place to stop by and have a bite to eat. The fare is composed of New England specialties with burgers, sandwiches, hearty pastas, fresh seafood, tender steaks and other great favorites. After dark, The Purple Shamrock has nightly enter- tainment with a mix of live music, karaoke and DJ's. At The Purple Shamrock there is something for everyone.

BARS & CLUBS

Beer Specialty

SUNSET GRILL & TAP: 130 Brighton Ave., All- ston, 617-254-1331; SUNSET CANTINA: 916 Commonwealth Ave., Boston 617-731-8646. Some- thing's always brewing at Best of Boston's award winning beer bar. Here you'll find the largest selec- tion on the East Coast-112 taps and 300+ micro- brews and exotic imports. Join our beer club and enjoy every style of beer under the sun. Take ad- vantage of the yards, cask conditioned beer, flight samples, vintage and new beers, seasonals, meads, ciders, etc. Full menu until 1am. Experience our beer festival 365 days a year.

Billiards

BIG CITY - POOL HALL, Pizza Kitchen, Beer Bar 138 Brighton Ave., Allston, 617-782-2020 www.all- stonsfinest.com. BIG TIME FUN: 21 Championship pool tables, 80 big beers on tap, outrageous signa- ture pizzas and BIG MENU Sat/Sun Brunch in our BIG BANK BUILDING with our one of a kind "metro retro decor". THE BIG DEAL is free rooms and pool for your next party or function of any kind. Call the "Party Specialists". Sun - Weds 3P's (pool, pitcher, pizza) $19.99. Life is good in the Big City! Come experience it in a big way!

Clubs

FELT 533 Washington St., Boston, 617-350-5555. www.FeltBoston.com. A four level venue offering a New York style Lounge, a hip bar scene, with so- phisticated pool tables and a dance club in the 4th level. Enjoy a gourmet dinner while lounging in a plush, red-velvet booth. The perfect setting for a pre or post-theater dinner or a big birthday bash. The hip atmosphere of DJ's and dancing, sophisticated pool tables & bars...and FELT's posh fourth level club are the perfect blend to satisfy all your senses.

General

HURRICANE O'REILLY'S 150 Canal Street, Boston, 617-722-0161. www.irish connection. com. It's Hurricane season on Canal Street! Just yards across from the Garden, Hurricane's is the perfect place to gather pre- and post-game. Serving lunch and dinner seven days a week, this sports bar is a great escape for your lunch break with our express menu, specializing, in great food in about ten minutes. Hurricane's serves Creole, Irish and American pub- style fare. After the sun sets on Canal Street, Hurri- cane's lights up into one of Boston's hottest night- clubs with Boston's best DJ's, illuminating disco lights and 6,800 square feet of Madri Gras spirit.

JILLIAN'S BOSTON / LUCKY STRIKE LANES 145 Ipswich St., Boston, 617-437-0300 www.jil- liansboston.com. Jillian's is a 70,000 square foot entertainment megaplex featuring 16 bowling lanes, 50 pool tables, high-tech games, high defi- nition video walls, multiple lounges and private rooms. Located on the first floor is Tequila Rain, which offers an amazing Tex-Mex menu and danc- ing to the hottest DJs Friday and Saturday nights.

JOSÉ MCINTYRE'S 160 Milk Street, Boston, 617- 451-9460. ww.irishconnection.com. José McIntyre's is located across from the Aquarium on Milk Street. This is Boston's only Mexican-Irish pub, spe- cializing in Margaritas and cocktails. Come in the afternoon to watch the game, after work to un- wind, or at night when José's transforms into a lively and exciting dance/pub. This pub has a total of 5 rooms, 3.5 bars, 2 floors, 5 big screen TV's and a pool table. The newest room is the ideal place to relax after work with co-workers on big comfy couches and a soothing atmosphere. The fare is a variety of Mexican, classic New England seafood and American favorites. Whoever you are, what- ever you do, José's has something for everyone.

PARRIS Faneuil Hall Marketplace, Quincy Mar- ket Building, Boston 617-248-8800. www.parris- boston. com. Lounge. Cocktails. Dancing. Nightlife. Come see the lights of Parris. Sample the eclectic lounge menu featuring grilled pizza, oyster shooters and steak tartar. Sip a Classic, Apple or French 75 martini, and then motion onto the huge dance floor featuring live music with the best bands and DJs Thursday through Saturday. Named for the original architect of the Greek-revival-style building, Alexander Parris, you're nightlife experience at Parris will be Boston and beyond. Open 5pm - 2am Wedneday - Saturday. Cover charge on Friday and Saturday.

SAINT 90 Exeter Street, Boston, 617-236-1134. www.saintnitery.com. Boston's premier ultra lounge featuring SIN Mondays 10pm–2am, Sutra Thursdays 10pm–2am, Heaven Fridays 7pm–2am, Spin Saturdays 7pm–2am, Style Sundays 10pm–2am. Lounge dining available Thursday–Saturday. Call for table reservations.

THE AVENUE SPORTS BAR & GRILL 1249 Com- monwealth Avenue, Allston, 617-782-9508. www.avenuebar.com. Located right in Allston, food and sports are the heart of The Avenue. With over 30 beers on tap and a full menu this is the ideal bar to lounge, watch the game, and relax. Come take ad- vantage of our DirectTV, Plasmas, 25 cent wings 4-7 daily, and $1.00 drafts. This favorite sports bar can transform into a party hangout as the weekends have a resident DJ.

THE HARP 85 Causeway St., Boston 617-742- 1010. www.harpboston.com. Voted Boston Maga- zine's "Best After The Game", the Harp is a favorite downtown hotspot any day of the week, located di- rectly across from the TD Banknorth Garden. Fea- turing live bands upstairs from Boston, Philadelphia and New York plus DJs spinning tunes downstairs, on Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights set the pace for the great high-energy environment. The Harp provides a crowd-pleasing menu with tastes from around the globe. Located in the heart of downtown Boston, the Harp also serves as an ex- cellent meeting place for business luncheons, social gatherings and events.

BRUNCH

CLERY'S 113 Dartmouth Street, Boston, 617- 262-9874. www.irishconnection. com. Located a block from Copley Plaza at the corner of Dart- mouth and Columbus, this bistro and bar earned the title of the 2002-2006 Best of Boston's Best Neighborhood bar, serving more than 400 regu- lars. Enjoy one of the 16 draught beers either at one of the three bars, by the bistro windows or by the fireplace in a cozy booth when the fickle weather of New England turns cold. It's the per- fect place to meet friends and enjoy a comfort- able atmosphere with fast & friendly bartenders. On select nights partake in team trivia or dance the night away with DJ Rhythm Nights. Down- stairs is a private and roomy space featuring a full bar and dance floor, and is the perfect nook for company functions and holiday parties.

DILLON'S 955 Boylston Street, Boston, 617-421- 1818. www.irishconnection. com. Dillon's blends after-work chill with cocktail chic. Accented by dark bamboo woodwork and large banana fans, it's the ideal spot to bring a date, loosen your tie after work or watch the game with friends. Relax with a Blueberry Pie Martini in the warmly lit lounge or an ice cold beer on the patio. Then retire to the dining room where you can browse the eclectic Continental menu featuring a variety of items, including pan seared tuna salad, steak sir- loin, shrimp tempura, Gourmet prosciutto pizza and more. Also featuring a tapas bar, perfect for sharing, w-ith tasty bites such as Fried Aubergine, Chicken & Chorizo, and Saigon Scallops. Dillon's is open seven days a week from 10:00 a.m. – 2 a.m., serving brunch on Saturday and Sunday beginning at 10:00 a.m.

ROGGIE'S 356 Chestnut Hill Avenue, Cleveland Circle, Brighton, 617-566-1880, www.roggies. com. Shake off the morning blues with Brunch at Roggie's! Brunch is served Saturday and Sunday. Live bands, open mic on Tuesdays, karaoke on Wednesday, and DJ on weekends. Breakfast is also served all day, lunch, and dinner served seven days a week.

SUNSET GRILL & TAP 130 Brighton Ave., All- ston, 617-254-1331; SUNSET CANTINA, 916 Commonwealth Ave., Boston 617-731-8646. "Beer's not just for breakfast anymore." At the Sunset Super Sunday Brewers Brunch, try our thick-cut French toast, potato skins and eggs, eggs benny, crispy quesadillas or our All You Can Eat Brunch Taco Bar, including a free Sunday paper and your first beery mary or mimosa. Full menu also available. 112 taps, 300+microbrews.

IMPROPER SHOPPER

Classifieds for Bostonians

DON'T PAY FOR FRIENDS

The Newest Community for Young Professionals Who Live, Work, and Play in Boston.

social boston sports.com

Visit us at SOCIALBOSTONSPORTS.COM to learn about the wide variety of social events and athletic activities you can get involved in.

HEALTH AWARENESS

TOTALLY CONFIDENTIAL PRIVATE MD

For Rx of sexually transmitted diseases, erectile dysfunction and general medical care. Call and talk directly to Dr. Robert Taylor 617-232-1459, Brookline MA. Free STD guide at www.healthac.org.

HOUSE CLEANING

INTERIORS

Introducing

HunterDouglas

HERITANCE HARDWOOD SHUTTERS

Now! With New Features, Specialty Shapes, & 100 Standard Colors

This Exclusive Debut is Offered by only a few Authorized Dealers Nationally

the reflective designer
interiors for your style and budget.

www.reflectivedesigner.com
1-800-FABRIC-8
Showroom 978-750-0005

LAW

Bad Day at Work?

Business Law, P.C.
617-422-0505

For help with sexual harassment, unpaid wages, and other workplace violations.

Free Confidential Consultation

Employment, Real Estate, and Corporate Law Focus

NEAR DOWNTOWN CROSSING
www.BusinessLawPC.com

PERSONAL TRAINING

FITNESS FIRST

PERSONAL TRAINING FOR THE MIND, BODY AND SPIRIT

BY APPOINTMENT ONLY

CALL GUNNER AT (617) 786-3113

PSYCHIC

READINGS BY MICHAEL LAFFERTY

Private and personal phone readings. Credit Cards accepted 215-482-6517. Call today!!

PSYCHIC

A SPIRITUAL COUNSELOR AND MEDIUM-SHIP

Past life reading available for private and telephone readings by Linda Stanton, of Newburyport (978) 255-2536

REAL ESTATE

MOVING TO NORTH CAROLINA?

Beautiful 1928 home, near downtown Southern Pines & world famous Pinehurst. Over an acre of land, 3 bedrooms, guesthouse. visit www.1495connecticutave.com for details. Call Catherine Drexel, ERA Sandhills Realty @ (910)783-8773 or email @ cassie.drexel@era.com

ORLANDO, FL HOME

Orlando, Florida, $149,000, 2/2, like new, remodeled, 1989 manufactured home, 900 sq' on it's own large fenced lot in beautiful Longwood. No downpayment needed; owner financing available. Call Mark 407-416-6007. Investors wanted also.

VACATIONS

MAINE FALL GETAWAY

Attractive fall packages near the beach in beautiful Kennebunkport, ME. 3 nights for the price of 2! Prices from only $159. Continental breakfast & 1 dinner coupon included. Shorelands Guest Resort, www.shorelands.com For reservations, call 1-800-992-3224

VOLUNTEERS

HOSPICE VOLUNTEERS

needed in S. Boston & Beyond. Free training to provide friendly visits & support for patients & families facing end of life transition. Call Marjie @ Evercare Hospice for info: 800-956-1276

LOOKING FOR RENTERS AND BUYERS?

List your property with the Improper Bostonian

Our readers live, work and play in Boston. They know that parking is not always included — and they still want to live there!!

Call today for rate information.
617-859-1400 x272

Mary Lou's Vintage Clothing & Accessories

@ The Cambridge Antique Market
201 Msgr. O'Brien Hwy, Cambridge
617-868-9655
Tues.-Sun. 11-6
Visa/Mastercard
Vintage clothing, purses, jewelry & furs
Free parking available
Check out marylousvintage on eBay!

NATURAL FABRICS and LIGHT WOOL FOR FALL

Winner of Best of Boston Award — Local & Independent

KEEZER'S CLASSIC CLOTHING SINCE 1895

We carry a tremendous selection of new and resale men's suits, sportcoats, overcoats, tuxedos and accessories.

High quality men's clothing for a fraction of the cost

KEEZER'S CLASSIC CLOTHING SINCE 1895

140 River Street, Central Square, Cambridge
617.547.2455 Mon.-Sat. 10-6
Free Parking www.keezers.com

Joseph Sullivan
carpet care

There is a difference.

Prompt • Thorough • Knowledgeable

Since 1977 we have been offering affordable carpet and upholstery cleaning.

We hand-wash oriental rugs. Pick-up, delivery, and drop-off services available.

Call for appointments:
617.445.1693
695 Parker Street, Boston
www.josephsullivan.biz

WHO'S YOUR BEST REPEAT CUSTOMER?

IMPROPER SHOPPER
Classifieds for Bostonians

Call Carly at 617.859.1400 x272

ICE SKATING CLASSES

14 Greater Boston Rinks

CHILDREN & ADULTS

(781) 890-8480

Sign up Now — www.baystateskatingschool.org — 39 years

Bay State Skating School

IMPROPER SHOPPER

Classifieds for Bostonians

Journey back in time for optimum skincare and body wellness

SpringRain face & body spa

AT TWO CONVENIENT LOCATIONS!
Copley Square, Boston
617 247 0400
Route 128. Exit 27 B
(Reservoir plaza)
781 895 0010

Luxury Spa Packages for Couples
10% off for Improper readers
www.SpringRainSpa.com

Beautiful sunsets and dining experiences just steps away!
NANTASKET BEACH INN
WWW.NANTASKETBEACHINN.COM • 781.925.2240
115 NANTASKET AVE., HULL, MA 02045 • MICHAEL & PATRICIA ASHE, PROPRIETORS

www.susanstyle.com
susanstyle
Personal Shopping
Wardrobe Evaluations
susan mullins, Fashion Stylist
boston, ma 617.437.0490
www.susanstyle.com

Oriental Medicine
ACUPUNCTURE AND HERBS
Chinese ◆ Japanese ◆ Korean
NARA MARGOLIN
M.S., M.Ac., Lic.Ac., Dipl.Chin.Herbs
(617)308-3617

Discover the secrets of
ASIAN BEAUTY
GET $30 OFF WITH THIS AD
258 Elm St., Suite 220 (Davis Sq.)
Somerville • 617.625.3366
fushenbeauty@yahoo.com
6737 miles from BEIJING
Only 10 minutes from YOUR HOME
Fu Shen Therapeutic

Play it Again
Video Productions
A Full Service Video Transfer Lab
• Film, Photos and Slides to Digital
• DVD, CD & Videotape Duplication • Scattered Pictures Video Album®
Your Photos Set to Music
• Your Legacy On Video™
A Biography Style Keepsake
• Audiotape or Records to CD
Serving New England since 1987
295 Reservoir St. Needham, MA 02494
781-449-3800 • 800-872-0986 • Fax 781-449-0131
please visit us at playitagainvideo.com

Clothes Call
Personal Shopper & Stylist
Rebecca Woodfork
780 Boylston Street
Boston, MA 02199
857.222.6288
rebeccawoodfork@aol.com

PUPPIES
starting at $299
Cute and healthy
1 year health warranty
Microchipped
Vet checked/shots
Mixed breeds available
Much, much, more
PET EXPRESS
www.petexpressboston.com
781.592.2003

TEMPO DANCE CENTER
380 Washington Street, Brighton Center, MA 02135
Gail Rundlett, Director
Latin — Swing — Salsa — Ballroom
Argentine Tango — Adult Hip Hop — Dance Socials
Wedding Survival Course — Nightclub Survival Course
Classes also held in Concord Center
Group & Private Lessons — Gift Certificates available
NEW SEMESTER BEGINS NOVEMBER 11TH!
For information: (617) 783-5467 www.havetodance.com/tempodancecenter
BALLROOM DANCE COMPETITION
November 3rd – 4th, 2007 - Lowell Memorial Auditorium
Commonwealth Classic
Spectator Tickets available for 3 sessions
For information call (617) 783-5467 or go to www.commonwealthclassic.com

WELCOME TO BOSTON BAR TOUR
SATURDAY OCTOBER 13, 2007 AT NOON $20.00
Starting: Paddy O's, 33 Union Street, Faneuil Hall, Boston
If you're new to Boston, (or even if you're not!) come join us and all your fellow young professionals for a fun Saturday getting to know the bars of Faneuil Hall! We've lined up a few of our favorites, and we guarantee it will be a good time!
tickets and more details at WWW.BOSTONYPA.COM
and get ready for... MAYHEM AND MADNESS V
HALLOWEEN BASH!
Saturday, October 27 8 PM — 2 AM at McGann's Pub
Tickets include six drinks, cash prizes for best costumes, complimentary appetizers, psychics, and candy!
Tickets are $40.
This event has sold out in advance four years in a row.
Get tickets in advance at www.BostonYPA.com
BYPA BOSTON YOUNG PROFESSIONALS ASSOCIATION

Boston's Premier Movers
Mark's MOVING & STORAGE
MOVING · PACKING · STORAGE
Personal & Reliable Quality Service
To discuss your project or relocation needs, please call 800.966.6275.

Fantasy Photography by Daphne
www.FantasyPhotography.com (781) 611-3[illegible]

To advertise in the Improper Shopper call Carly at 617.859.1400 x272

LAST SCENE HERE

BY JONATHAN SOROFF

At From Fenway to the Runway, top row: Donna Gittens and Stacey Lucchino; Liz Brunner. Bottom row: Suki Bingham and Nancy Adams; Amy Fisher and Randi Cutler; Jane Roy and Molly Dunne; Maura Connolly

THE GIRLS BEHIND THE BOYS OF SUMMER...

From Fenway to the Runway, the Red Sox Wives' annual charity fashion show and luncheon, could have been renamed From Back Bay to the 'Burbs, since this year it was held at the spankin' new Natick Collection, meaning that Boston's top socialites had to schlep all the way out to the hinterlands.

"I feel like I should have my passport and a visa for this place," quipped one, while another sniffed, "This is the first and last time you'll catch me here. I don't do malls and I definitely don't do the suburbs."

She probably changed her tune by the end of the afternoon, though, as athletes' wives like Tiffany Ortiz, Shonda Schilling, Kelli Pedroia and Dawn Timlin showcased clothing from the high-end boutiques and department stores housed by the mall.

As one guest put it, "All of a sudden, Natick is the fashion capital of the world. Who knew?"

On hand for the event were such high-powered and high-profile ladies who lunch as emcee Liz Brunner, real estate babe Amy Fisher, the ever-sparkly Patty Ribakoff, the drop-dead gorgeous Randi Cutler, the one and only Rachael Goldfarb, Red Sox bigwig Meg Vaillancourt, brunette fashion plate Nancy Adams, bubbly blonde Suki Bingham, the super-fabulous Wendy Pierce, the eternally chic Jane Roy, South End yummy mummy Molly Dunne, the comme il faut Debbie First, Celtics wife Beth Havlicek, PR powerhouse Barbara Quiroga, the swan-like Stacey Lucchino, the naturally carbonated Mary Kakas, überphilanthropist Nancy Eskandarian, and even first lady Angela Menino and her daughter, Susan Fenton.

When Brunner mentioned that "this year in fashion, it's all about the waist," one attendee lamented, "Great. The best look for me happens to be a muu-muu."

However, the afternoon's funniest remark occurred when it was announced that to date, the Red Sox Wives' charitable foundation has given away $18 million, which prompted someone to say, "In other words, a week's salary for most of the players."

TAUTOLOGY 101...

For its annual Community Leadership Award Dinner, the Franciscan Children's Hospital pulled out all the stops, hosting a hoedown of hootenanny proportions at the InterContinental Hotel.

Among the big machers on hand: board chair Alan Shoolman and his pretty-in-pink wife, Barbara, legal giant Alan Miller and his perfectly lovely other half, Natalie, merger mastermind Ken Novack and his stunning daughter, Liz, wife, Marianne, and father, Hyman (after whom the hospital has named its medical day care center), major donor Doug Chamberlain, business consultant and former Celtics CFO Joe DiLorenzo, Microsoft muckety muck Mark Romano, gardening guru Hilda Morrill and the ever-affable Ron, State Room honcho Jim Apteker with the statuesque Caitlin Joyce, high-powered do-gooder Steve Grossman, comedian Tony V, and one person standing by the raw bar who couldn't resist a bad pun, saying, "They aren't skimping on the shrimp, and there's nothing shrimpy about them."

Then there was the young woman who said, "Look at the ring my Dad just gave me!" which prompted a friend to say, "An chance he wants to adopt me?" while an other guest was overheard saying, "He's th guy over there with the bad toupee," t which his friend responded, "What othe kind is there?"

FLEA COLLAR NOT INCLUDED...

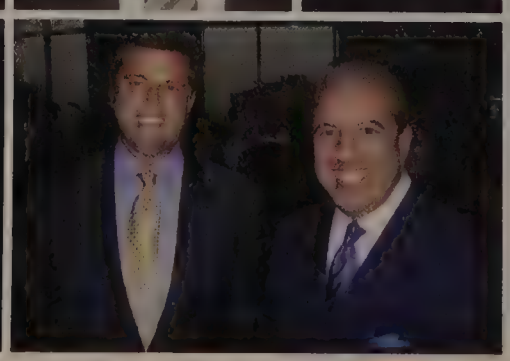
"You'd go to the opening of a dog park sounds like an insult, but when the openin in question takes the form of a party at on of the South End's swankiest penthouses with a crowd so intimidatingly good-look ing you could've mistaken it for a modelin casting call, it's an entirely different story.

The fundraiser for the Joe Wex Do Recreation Space at Peters Park, hoste by tech mogul Tom Gerace and enginee ing wunderkind Guy Busa, attracted suc high-profile dog lovers as restaurateur Ga Sullivan, Colombian hottie Ricardo Ro driguez and his devilishly handsome hu band, Michael Kelley, stunning southe belle Elizabeth Georgantas and her deve oper husband, Peter, handsome hunk Dea Hara, Harvard professor Paul Cantor, an one person who said, "Shouldn't there b more dogs here?" to which a friend r sponded, "No, my boyfriend's enough."

Delicious little nibbly things were pr vided by 18 of the South End's hotte restaurants, and the vodka flowed li water (to my eternal regret the next mor ing), but by far the evening's funniest e change came when someone asked friend, "Where's your husband?"

The friend looked at him as if he were half-wit and said, "If he knows what's go for him, he's out walking the dogs." IB

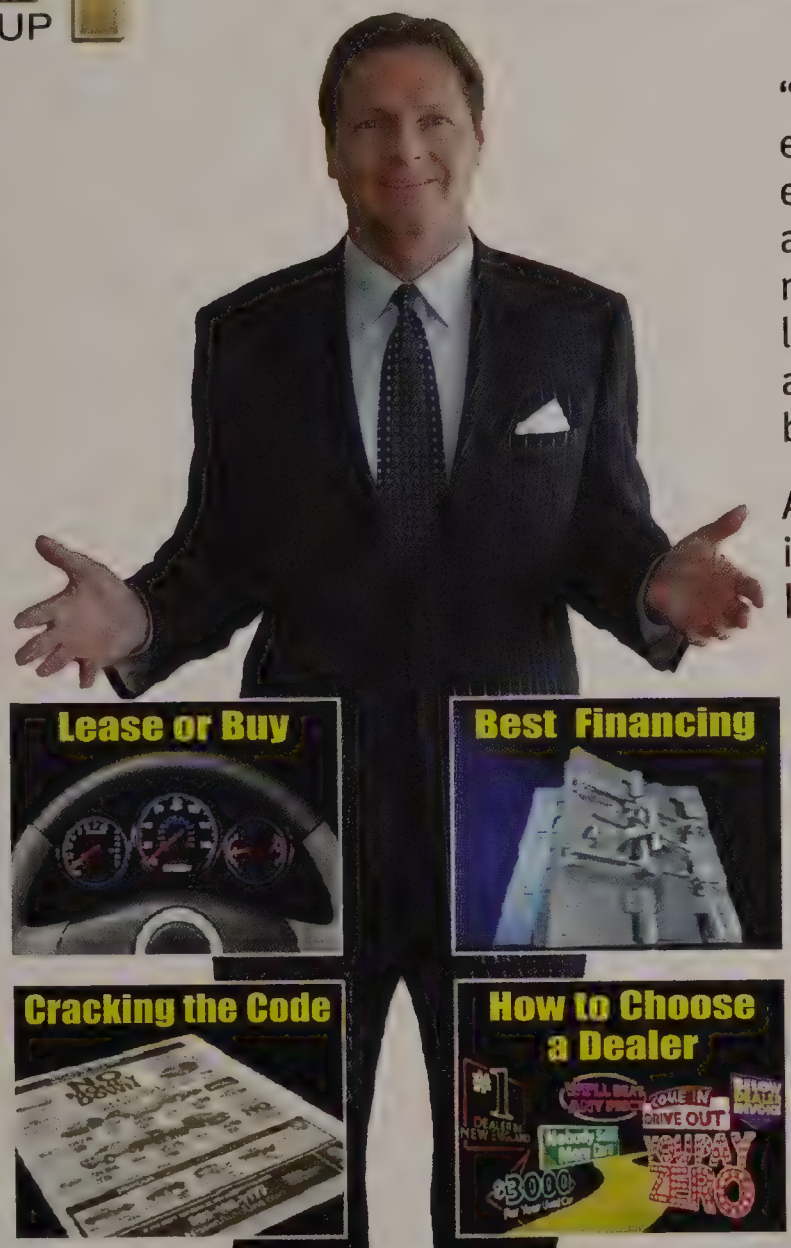
Avez-vous dish?



Dirt? A spectacular social occasion? Call JS at 617-859-1400, ext. 303, or send an e-mail to jonathan@improper.com.

At the InterCon, top row: Natalie and Alan Miller with Barbara and Alan Shoolman; ML Carr. Bottom row: Caitlin Joyce, Edith Moritz and Jim Apteker; Joe DiLorenzo and Mark Romano

At the Joe Wex Dog Recreation Space fundraiser, top row: Gary Sullivan; Peter and Elizabeth Ge gantas. Bottom row: Tom Gerac Ricardo Rodriguez, Dean Hara a Michael Kelley; Tony Corey



KELLY
AUTOMOTIVE GROUP

The Kelly Automotive Group Offers Answers to the Frequently Pondered Questions of Car Buyers.

In a world when the internet offers an array of endless automotive data, there are still fundamental questions consumers struggle with every day. So, Brian Kelly, President of the Kelly Automotive Group has produced a series of videos that answer some of these questions, in a detailed, yet easy to understand manner, without a business agenda.

There are four such videos...

- Lease Or Buy
- Best Way To Finance
- How To Read A Car Ad
- How To Choose A Dealer

"I am asked these questions everywhere I go," Brian Kelly explains. "It's time the public has a professional and inside explanation. At first glance, it would be logical to assume these videos are elongated Kelly commercials, but refreshingly they are not."

All four videos are there for your immediate viewing, right now, at kellyauto.com

"It's All About Saving You Time, And Saving You Money"

Brian Kelly

2008 Infiniti G37 Coupe | 2008 Harley-Davidson Rocker C | 2008 Jeep Wrangler Unlimited

kellyauto.com

NISSAN | JEEP | CHRYSLER | INFINITI | HONDA | MITSUBISHI | SUZUKI | HARLEY DAVIDSON

IF NOTHING HAPPENS IN THIS BED DON'T BLAME US

People may think that furniture would be one of the last things that would bring a bit of excitement back into their bedroom but we beg to differ. Check out your local BoConcept store for stylish, cutting-edge designs that might just make your bedroom rock.

$1,999
Bed, excl. mattress.

BoConcept Cambridge
999 Mass. Avenue • 617 588 7777 • Cambridge@BoConcept-USA.com
Check out our other store locations at www.BoConcept.com

BoConcept
urban desig

OCTOBER 24 – NOVEMBER 6, 2007

THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN

THE MUSIC ISSUE

RED-HOT SINGER CASEY DESMOND LIGHTS OUR FIRE

10 BANDS YOU HAVE TO HEAR

CHEAP THRILLS WHERE STUDENT MUSICIANS PLAY FOR FREE

YOUTUBE THIS EZRA GOES FOR HITS

PLUS DRESS LIKE A DIVA

BOSTON'S GUITAR-STRUMMING ENTERTAINMENT, CULTURE AND JOHN MAYER

$2.50 OUTSIDE OF METRO BOSTON

0 74470 79832 3

The new Saab 9-3 family.

Saab was founded by 16 aircraft engineers and their spirit lives on. The 2008 Saab 9-3 Aero family has an all new exte turbocharged engine that's sure to make any pilot happy. The sleek grille, flush headlights and u-shaped styling o your whole crew safe. Not only that, but you can pick a 9-3 that's geared toward your needs. The SportCombi bo that further reduces road noise, you're free to sit back, relax, and enjoy the standard moonroof and XM Radi

©2007 SAAB AUTOMOBILE USA

*For one year. Call 1-888-4ONSTAR (1-888-466-7827) or visit onstar.com for system limitations an

VILLAGE SAAB
Acton, MA

WOODWORTH SAAB
Andover, MA

PATRICK MOTORS, INC.
Auburn, MA

SAAB CITY OF FRAMINGHAM
Framingham, MA

SHAW SAAB
Norwell, MA

SAAB NASHUA NORTH
Merrimack, NH

BORN FROM JETS

SAAB

More jet inspired than ever.

gn that brings some of the most innovative ideas in the skies to the streets. It features an available 255-hp d make for a more aerodynamic ride, while rain-sensing wipers, Xenon cornering headlamps and OnStar* help keep ty of cargo room, while the 9-3 Convertible has a remote opener for faster take off. Finally, with a quiet package
e. Now that's design any pilot can appreciate. After all, once you've built jets, you don't build just another car.

ree month trial. XM is available only in the 48 contiguous United States. Service fees extra. Visit gm.xmradio.com for details.

saabusa.com

HERB CHAMBERS SAAB
Boston, MA

TRACY BANKS SAAB
Concord, NH

GARY BLAKE SAAB
Exeter, NH

CENTRAL SAAB
Norwood, MA

HYANNIS SAAB
South Yarmouth, MA

128 SALES, INC.
Wakefield, MA

CHARLES RIVER SAAB
Watertown, MA

"Love Your Hair"

SALON MARC HARRIS

www.salonmarcharris.com

BEST OF BOSTON 2006

ANDOVER
978·749·9888

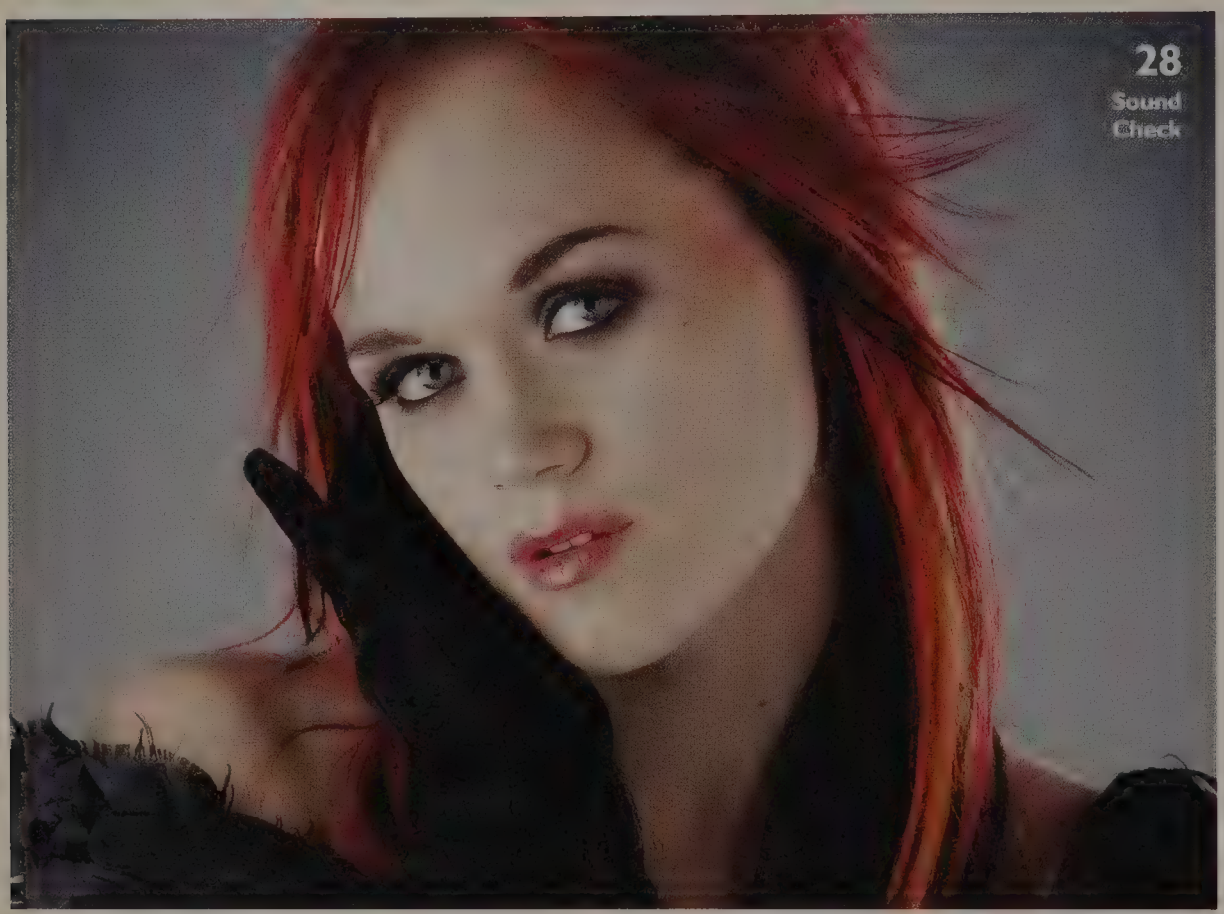
Rhode Island Monthly's best OF RHODE ISLAND

PROVIDENCE
401·521·2777

BOSTON'S BEST 2007 WINNER IMPROPER BOSTONIAN

NEWBURY ST
617·262·2222

BANGLE FEVER



Arlene AND Roberta

Fine Jewelry

233 NEEDHAM STREET · NEWTON, MASSACHUSETTS · 617.527.3344

contents

OCTOBER 24–NOVEMBER 6, 2007

KERRY BRETT

FEATURES

26 SOROFF/ON MARGO HOWARD
The syndicated advice columnist talks about her life as "Dear Prudence," the power of common sense and finding love in her fourth marriage.
BY JONATHAN SOROFF

28 SOUND CHECK
We left no stage undived and no pit unmoshed in our search for Boston's 10 hottest homegrown bands.
BY PAUL ROBICHEAU

36 METUBE
One man. One guitar. One new Internet sensation.
BY EZRA DYER

38 WILL PLAY FOR PRAISE
When school gets out, the Hub's student musicians light up the local scene.
BY CARMEN NOBEL

42 THE BOLD AND THE BEAUTIFUL
Old-school looks get a new-age upgrade.
PHOTOGRAPHS BY PAUL ARESU

Photographed for THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN by Kerry Brett

Photographer's assistant: Lynn Gonsalves; makeup: Dianna Quagenti using Yaby cosmetics; hairstyling: Mari Joe/James Joseph Studio

COLUMNS

10 THE WORD
Haru; Scampo; Ben Mezrich.

16 PROPER BOSTONIANS
Proper partygoers pictured.
BY KERRY BRETT

18 EZRA
Feeling kind of 30.
BY EZRA DYER

20 THE COLLINS CARD
Talking up Tom Terrific.
BY CHRIS COLLINS

22 THE DANCE
You can call him Al.
BY JOHN D. SPOONER

24 TAKE FIVE
Pats/Colts; Celtics tip-off; Larry Legend.
BY RICH LEVINE

48 MOPSY
Haunted Baseball; Four Preppy Paws; Time Trade Circle.
BY MOPSY STRANGE KENNEDY

62 MOVIES
Gone Baby Gone puts Ben Affleck back in our good graces.
BY SEAN BURNS

68 MUSIC
Crooked Still serves up a great time with many strings attached.
BY PAUL ROBICHEAU

100 LAST SCENE HERE
Our Man in Black Tie gets a taste of America.
BY JONATHAN SOROFF

EAT.DRINK.

50 DINING
Pizza and pasta shine at Salvatore's.
BY J. CHARLES MOKRISKI

52 DISH
Jacky Robert welcomes bistro No. 3.
BY CAROLYN FAYE FOX

54 TASTINGS
Tuscan wine dinner and other morsels.
BY RICH LEVINE

56 WINE
Sizing up sauvignon blanc.
BY SANDY BLOCK, M.W.

AGENDA

The two-week forecast from Amanda and Nick. Complete listings follow page 57.

"Pick Your Poison" • This Is So Not About the Simpsons • "Under the Cover Bands" • Donnie Darko • David Sedaris

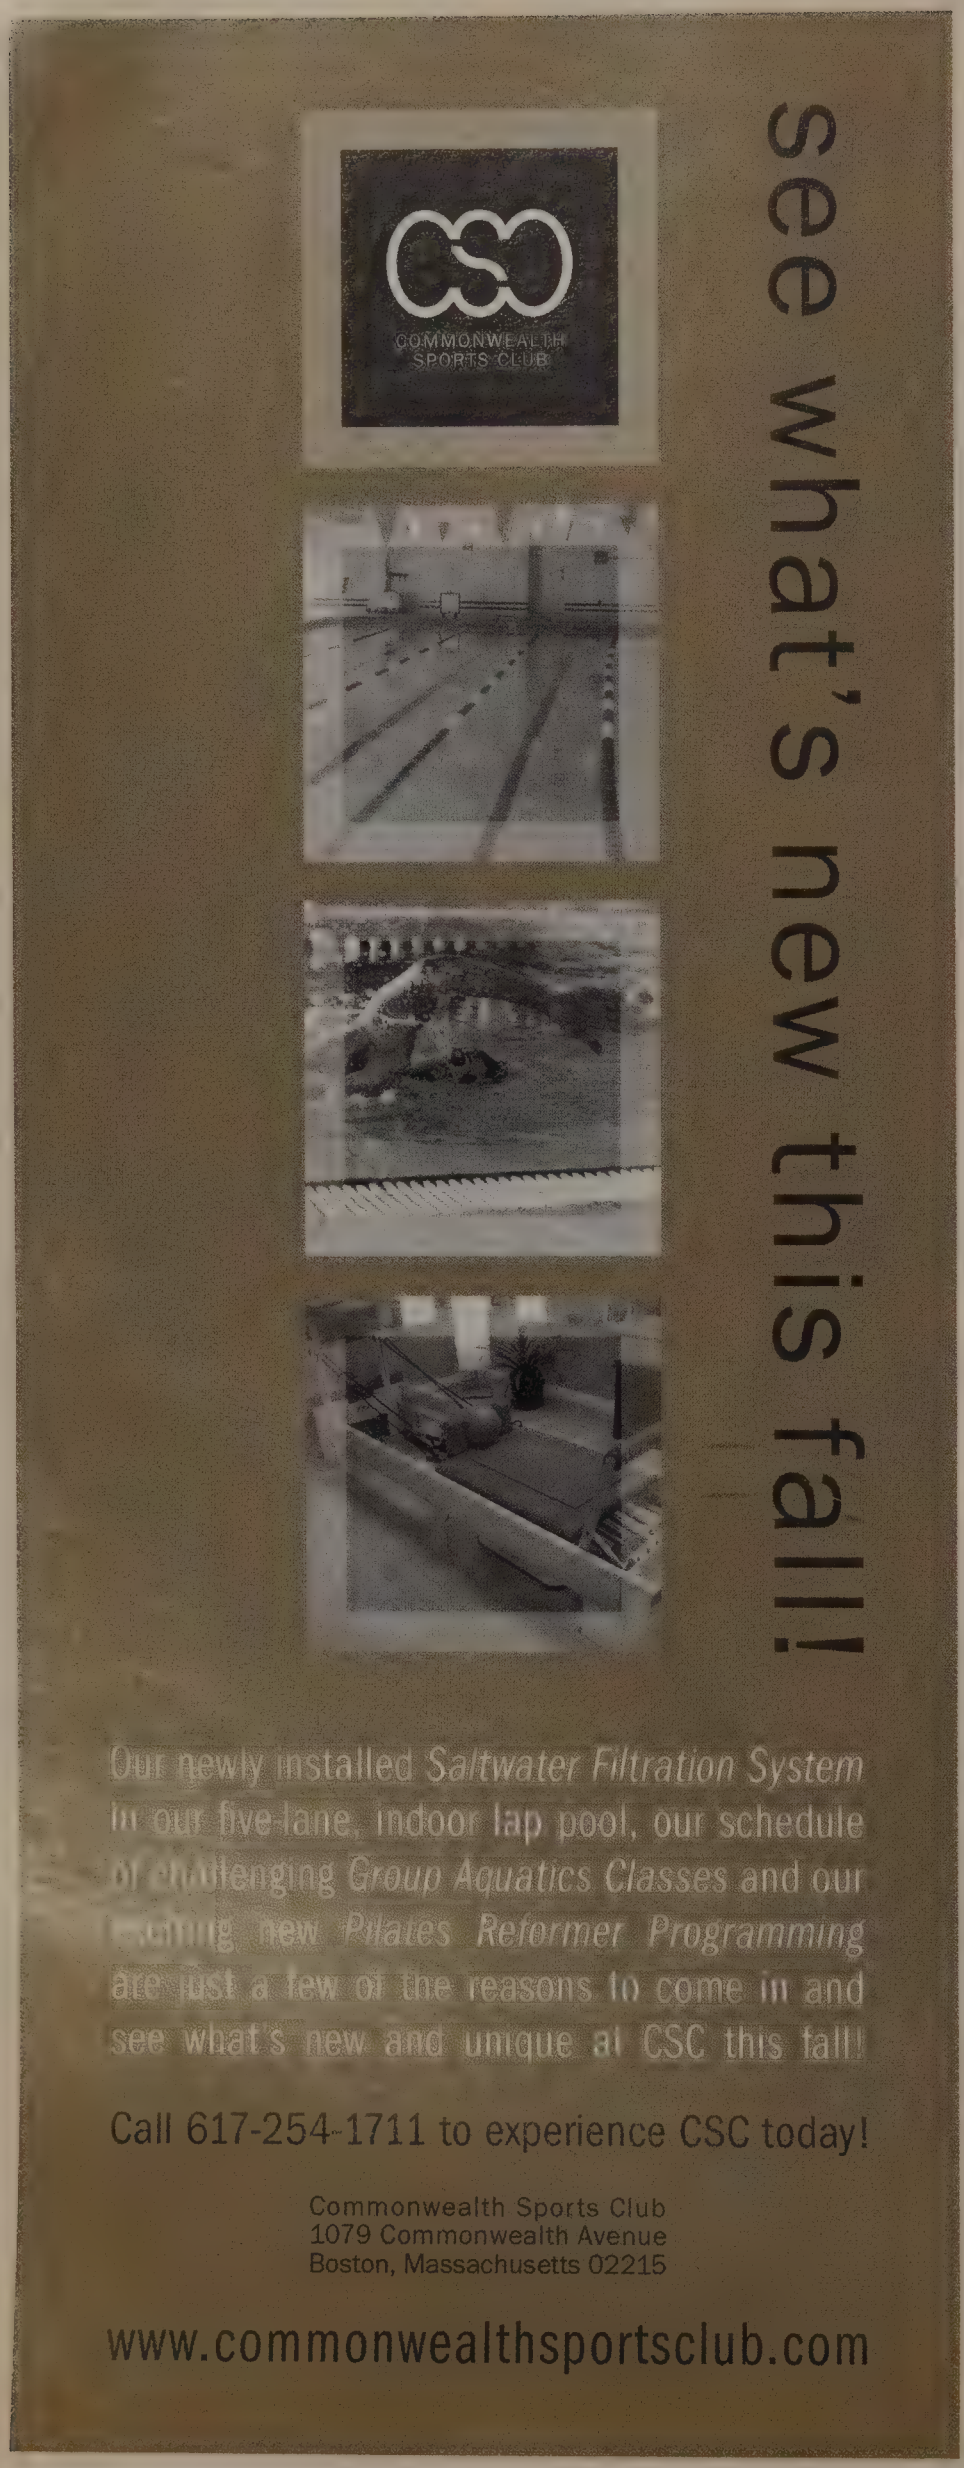
ET CETERA

Letters
Improper Impersonals
Improper Sightings
Rockie Horoscope

Guaranteed Rate Base 85,000 biweekly;
ABC audited
We are an Equal Opportunity Employer

VOLUME XVI, ISSUE 21

THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN MAGAZINE is published biweekly.
Subscriptions available for $14.95 per year, by
Improper Publications Inc.



POSTMASTER:
Send address changes to:
THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN MAGAZINE
142 Berkeley St., Third Floor, Boston, MA 02116

THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN MAGAZINE

COPLEY PLACE NATICK COLLECTION NEIMANMARCUS.COM

100TH ANNIVERSARY NM EXCLUSIVE MANOLO BLAHNIK COLLECTION

THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN MAGAZINE

PUBLISHER Wendy Semonian Eppich

ACTING EDITOR Megan Lisagor

MANAGING EDITOR Andrew Rimas

FEATURE WRITER/SOCIAL COLUMNIST Jonathan Soroff

FEATURE WRITER/COLUMNIST Ezra Dyer

ASSISTANT EDITORS Nick Altschuller, Rich Levine

EDITORIAL ASSISTANT Amanda Knorr

COPYEDITORS Nathaniel Adams, Linh Tran Brincat

FASHION EDITOR Victor Vargas

CONTRIBUTING EDITORS Sandy Block, M.W., Sean Burns, Chris Collins, Carolyn Faye Fox, Marni Elyse Katz, Mopsy Strange Kennedy, J. Charles Mokriski, Paul Robicheau, John D. Spooner

EDITORIAL INTERNS Liz Fiandaca, Christopher Griffin, Amy Gromek, Amy Laskowski, Molly McCormick, Michael Miccoli, Joseph Scapicchio, Courtney White, Kate Wen

DESIGN CONSULTANT Heroun + Co.

PHOTO EDITOR Katie Noble

STAFF PHOTOGRAPHER Kerry Brett

PHOTO INTERNS Jocelyn Gabriel, Alan Gwizdowski, Samantha A. Tyler

ADVERTISING DIRECTOR Julie Kane

DIRECTOR OF BUSINESS DEVELOPMENT Alison Morant

SENIOR NATIONAL ACCOUNT MANAGER Carrie Wallace

ACCOUNT EXECUTIVES Meghan Brady, Bill Eppich, Jessica Federico

CLASSIFIED ACCOUNT EXECUTIVE Carly Rubin

GRAPHIC ARTIST Nicole Begin

DIRECTOR OF MARKETING AND PUBLIC RELATIONS Stacey Shane

ADVERTISING AND MARKETING INTERNS Sarah Bernstein, Dihan Fields-Coard, Victor John, James Phillips, Meghan Rourke, Bryan Russo, Tonya Smith, Allison Zarick

PRODUCTION DIRECTOR Merinda Pattullo

V.P. OF FINANCE & ADMINISTRATION Arthur Souza

LEGAL COUNSEL John S. Day, Esq.

GENERAL MANAGER Robyn Sarkisian Miller

OFFICE MANAGER Gretchen Bostrom

SALES ASSISTANT/RECEPTIONIST Nicole Zoto

FOUNDER Mark Semonian

THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN MAGAZINE
142 Berkeley St., 3rd Floor
Boston, MA 02116
Phone: 617-859-1400; Fax: 617-859-1446

E-mail: info@improper.com
www.improper.com

Published by Improper Publications Inc. Copyright©2007 by Improper Publications Inc. All rights reserved. Reproduction in part or in whole without permission is strictly prohibited.

All correspondence to THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN MAGAZINE is read, considered, filed and/or forwarded to the appropriate parties. Due to the volume of correspondence, editors cannot respond individually to solicitations, queries or press releases.

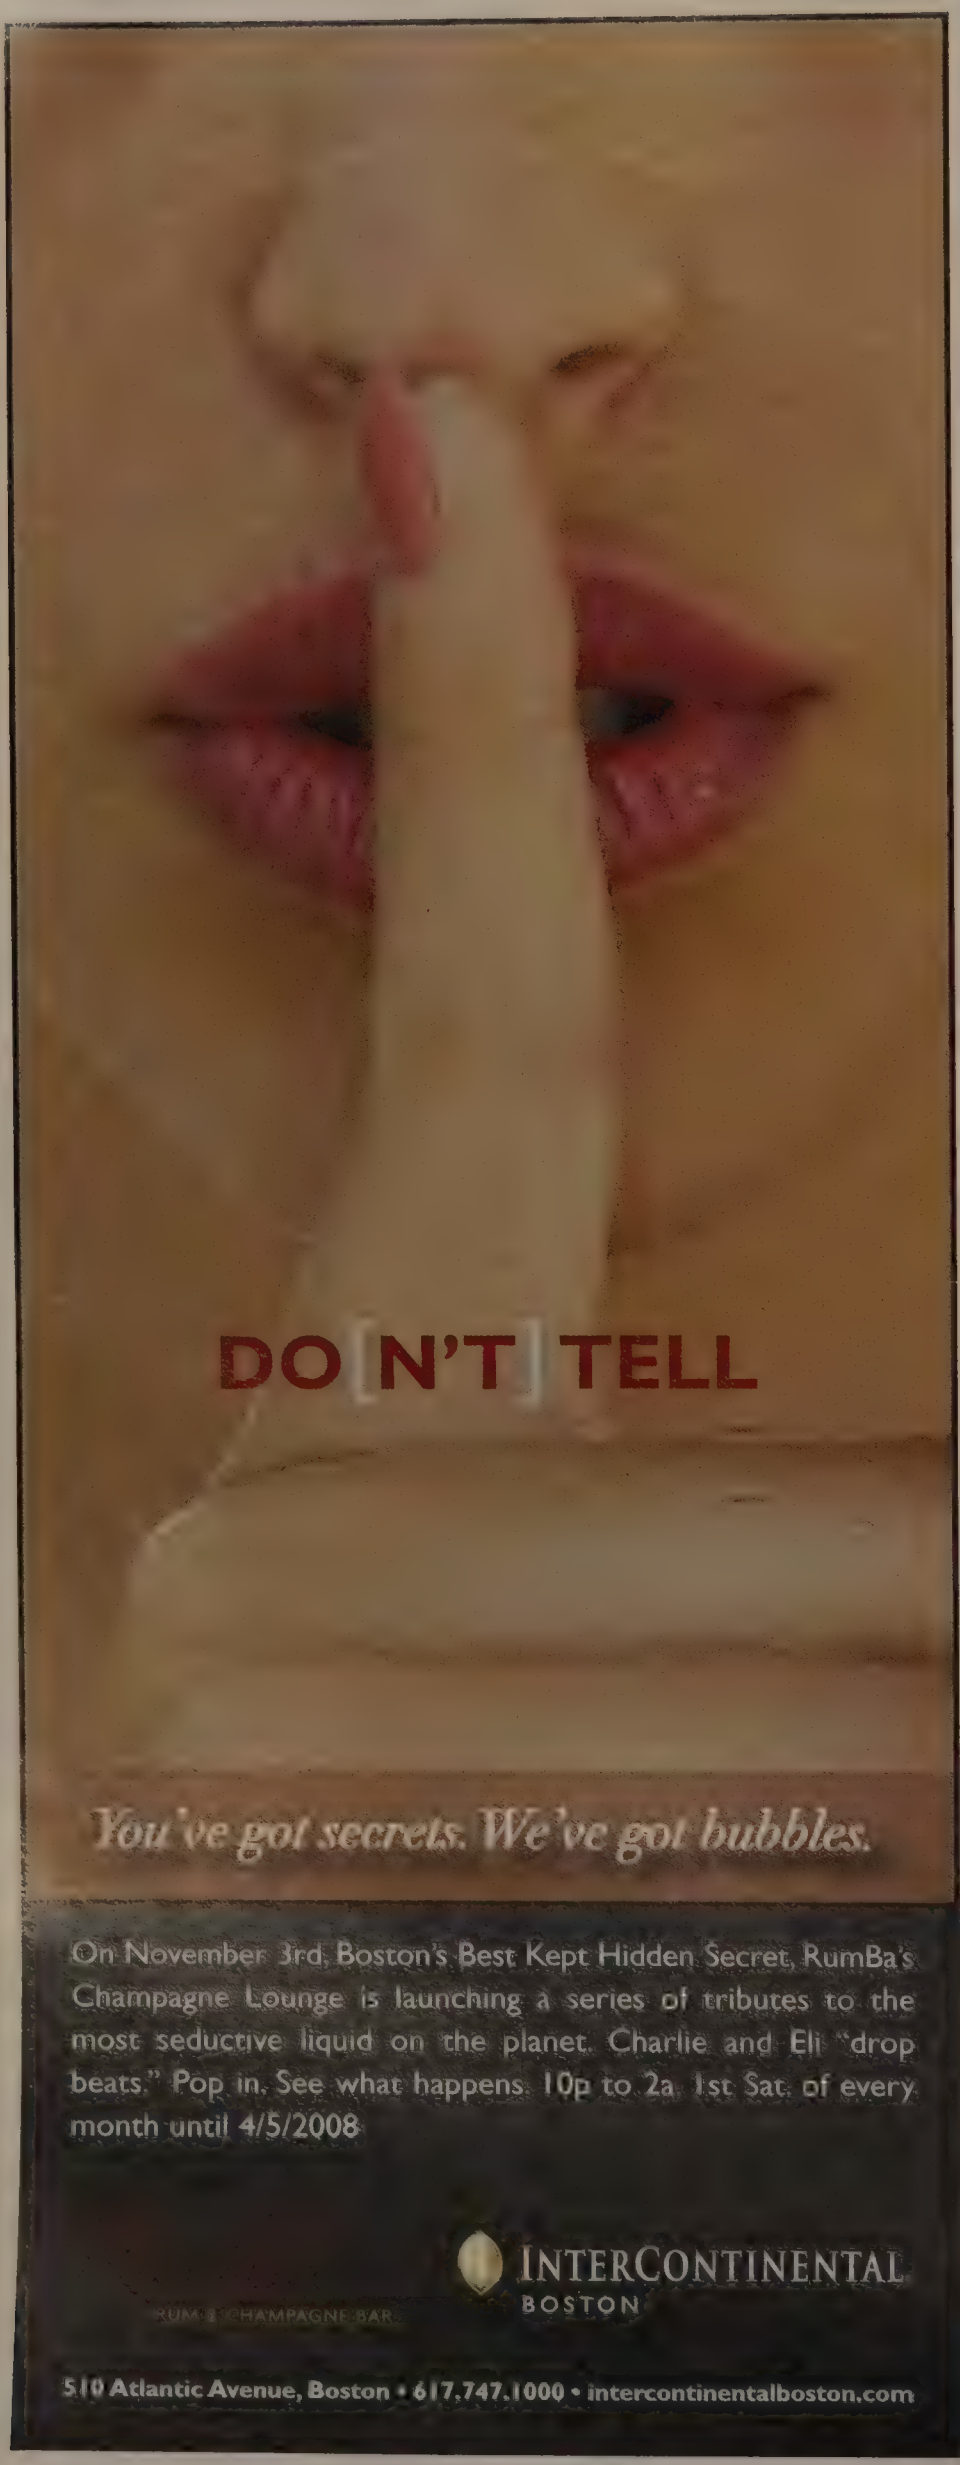
Member

Audit Bureau of Circulations

BONIA

TRANSCENDING ITALIAN DESIGN & INSPIRATION

FOR THE FIRST TIME IN THE U.S.



Private Holiday Sales Event

SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 11, 3:00 TO 8:00 P.M.

11 WABAN STREET, NEWTON, MA 02458

FOR FURTHER PRODUCT INFORMATION, OR TO CARRY BONIA IN YOUR STORE, VISIT US AT...

WWW.LIONINVESTMENT.NET LION INVESTMENT, LLC EMAIL: FASHION@LIONINVESTMENT.NET

LETTERS

FROM THE EDITOR

READY YOUR NANO

I spotted her cherry-red hair first. Casey Desmond politely rummaged through a rack of clothes we'd borrowed for her IMPROPER shoot. Desmond then showed us her own stuff, including the necklace she wears on the cover. Evidently, this rock star has a stylist's eye.

At 21, Desmond has more than the look down. Her voice is the real deal, and she keeps good company in this issue with nine other acts worth checking out. Music editor Paul Robicheau's annual list includes a seven-piece soul band, a pop group and a country quintet.

It's all about the local scene. No amount of hair extensions could get me interested in Britney Spears' latest album. I prefer newcomers like Desmond. With such diversity, you're sure to find your own favorite.

Megan Lisagor

MEGAN LISAGOR, Acting Editor
megan_lisagor@improper.com

WUSS UP, EZRA?

I'm just taking a moment to compliment Ezra's writing. The article about taking no prisoners (Sept. 26) is great. Only thing is, if you know you're a "wuss" in public then you ought to take up Brazilian Jiu-Jitsu and kickboxing. You don't need to hand your life over to grasshopper-dom; only do it to have fun with an exercise that expands the mind, and realize that the vast majority of "tough guys" out there—around 99.99 percent—are bluffing. But only call their bluff if you know you have it in you. It's a s---- load of fun.

Also, the article about your wedding ring (Aug. 29) was laugh-out-loud material, and the people around me at lunch must have thought I was close to a seizure.

—MATTHEW JOHN ROSENFELD
Dedham

HONG KONGRATULATIONS

I have read the [Sept. 12] issue of the IMPROPER and was so delighted to see that Jonathan Soroff traveled halfway across the world to my home city, Hong Kong. The president of the Langham Place Hotel is a close family friend, and the "Bostonian" restaurant in the HK Langham Hotel introduced me to Boston lobster at a young age! Thank you very much for the positive, exciting and true depiction of my favorite city in the world. It's about time that Bostonians get a taste of what I have been trying to tell everyone all along!

—EDWINA KLUENDER
Boston

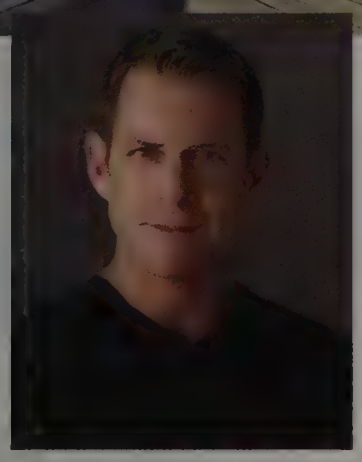
CONTRIBUTORS

CARMEN NOBEL

Carmen Nobel lives in Watertown and writes at window tables in several Boston-area coffee shops. A frequent contributor to the IMPROPER, she also has written for Boston magazine, InfoWorld and Playboy Online. She maintains an angst-ridden blog called "Overmatter." The daughter of a professional musician, her most recent article, "Will Play for Praise," begins on page 38.

KELLY DAVIDSON

Kelly Davidson has been photographing the Boston music scene for the past decade. She loves musical photography and takes pictures for the Liz Borden Band, in which she plays guitar. Her work has also been published in Go NYC magazine, Bust magazine, Utne Reader, Billboard, Design New England and Amplifier. Her latest photographs for the IMPROPER appear in the article "Will Play for Praise," starting on page 38.



Tell Us What You Think

SEND LETTERS TO THE EDITOR TO: The Improper Bostonian, 142 Berkeley St., Third Floor, Boston, MA 02116. E-mail: letters@improper.com. Fax: 617-859-1446. Letters must be signed; please include your town and phone number. Letters may be edited for space and clarity.

Open House – Sunday 12-4pm

"IN REPTON PLACE, WE INSTILLED THE DESIGN SENSIBILITY OF OUR "DOWNTOWN" PROJECTS, WHILE MAINTAINING THE VALUE THAT REPTON OFFERS."

DENNIS DUFFY, RENOWNED BOSTON DESIGNER

Enjoy Life... Downtown Style Without the Downtown Price!

REPTON
place

NEW BUILDING JUST COMPLETED!

Purchase one of our newly released 2BR units starting in the $300's by the end of 2007 and take advantage of exclusive buyer incentives.

Studios, 1 Bedrooms and Three Bedrooms also available.

NEW CONSTRUCTION CONDOMINIUM HOMES IN WATERTOWN

Hardwood Floors, Stainless Steel Appliances & Granite Countertops

Ceiling Heights up to 9'8" • Windows over 8' High • Parking & Storage Included

"The Boston Area's Best New Construction Value."

SALES OFFICE HOURS: Monday - Friday 10 - 5:30 and by Appointment.

Call today to set up an appointment 888-842-9497 • 555 Pleasant Street • Watertown, MA • www.reptonplace.com

Exclusive Sales and Marketing Agents OTIS & AHEARN • Developed by Beacon Communities Development LLC

THE WORD

Green tea margarita

Lobster mango ceviche

Kiss of Fire roll

NEW IN TOWN

On a Roll

Just what this city's dining scene needs: another lobster roll. But, then, the lobster roll at Haru has little in common with New England's ubiquitous cold sandwich. It's actually a sushi roll—albeit with Boston lettuce and spicy mayo.

The new Haru, which follows locations in New York and Philadelphia, has adapted a Japanese menu to American tastes. The lobster roll ($18), which also includes avocado, cucumber, mango and tobiko (flying fish roe), is one such example. There's also the Boston unCommon ($18) with spicy salmon, tuna, mango, black tobiko and gold leaf topping.

Much of the modern-fusion fare is the same as at other Harus (good news for Manhattan transplants). Appetizers include the signature dish, lobster-mango ceviche ($16), as well as miso black cod ($13) and chicken yakitori ($6.50). For entrees, there's wok-seared tuna ($21), grilled filet mignon ($22) and grilled, spicy garlic shrimp ($21).

General manager Patrick Sansac sees Haru filling a gap among Boston's sushi havens. It's an "accessible Japanese restaurant with a high energy," Sansac says. An energy that's given a high-octane boost by a serious selection of sake—the largest in the city. Cocktails include the Komodo Dragon ($9), Blue Moon Over Mount Fuji ($9) and One Night in Tokyo ($9).

Even with that stock of sake, Haru has room to spare. It's moved into the yawning cavern once occupied by Dick's Last Resort on the Huntington Ave. side of the Prudential Center, giving it a spread of 6,100 square feet. But the vast dimensions aren't chilly. Instead, they allow Haru to be all things: lounge, sushi bar and upscale dining room. 55 Huntington Ave., Boston (617-536-0770). www.harusushi.com.

—Tracey Ceurvels

INNER VIEW

Oil Man

Boston author Ben Mezrich has published eight books, most notably Ugly Americans, Busting Vegas and Bringing Down the House; a film based on the latter, titled 21, will be released this March by Sony Pictures. His latest work, Rigged: The True Story of an Ivy League Kid Who Changed the World of Oil, From Wall Street to Dubai, hits stores Oct. 23.

Improper Bostonian: Do people come to you with ideas?
Ben Mezrich: People are always sending me ideas, but most of them aren't that great. Luckily, because of my lifestyle, I meet a lot of young people with money, and when I do, I try to find out why they have a lot of money.
IB: Rigged is all about a young kid's rise to the top of the oil trade, which must be a pretty intense and complex world.
BM: I'd never done anything like this before, but I spent six months following these guys in and out of New York and Dubai, and learned a lot about the trade. [Oil is] a crazy, volatile and insane commodity, and a very odd thing to watch.
IB: And they just rake in a ridiculous amount of money, right?
BM: What's wild isn't the amount, but that it's made everyday by 2 pm. It's bizarre wealth. These are all guys from Brooklyn who go back and spend their money there. They buy townhouses in the neighborhoods they grew up in.
IB: What was it like watching Bringing Down the House developed for the big screen?
BM: It was amazing. They let me in on everything, which is rare; writers are often just thrown in the corner. Plus, watching Kevin Spacey act is unreal.
IB: In the movie version of your life, who'd play Ben Mezrich?
BM: Wow, that's a tough call, but I think it would have to be Leonardo DiCaprio… just kidding! It would probably be like a young Larry David.
IB: Can you gamble in Vegas, or do they recognize you now and kick you out?
BM: I can still play, but if I ever played for big money at a blackjack table, they'd kick me out. But they love us in Vegas now. It's one of those places that feel like home.
IB: Any plans to ditch Boston for Vegas, NYC or L.A.?
BM: Boston will always be home. There are so few cities where you can go out with your friends, head to a baseball game and walk home. Plus as a writer, you want to lock yourself up, and the winter here is great for that.

—Rich Levine

JAMES JOSEPH SALON

BOSTON'S BEST
2007 WINNER
IMPROPER BOSTONIAN

also...
Awarded
"Best Salon"
in Boston for 2007
by Allure
Magazine

CELEBRATING TEN YEARS OF AWARD-WINNING HAIR

30 NEWBURY STREET // 617.266.7222 // WWW.JAMESJOSEPHSALON.COM

TASTY TIDBITS

Three's Company

La Voile Boston

The Great Escape… While the Celtics' new Big Three make headlines over on Causeway Street, the Liberty Hotel is unleashing its own triple threat on Beacon Hill. Having already raised the curtains on two dining destinations—Clink and Alibi—the hotel will soon lend its space to a third. Scampo (Italian for "escape," to keep with the jailhouse theme) is, yep, an Italian restaurant headed by local legend Lydia Shire and should be ready by early 2008. Stay tuned for details. 215 Charles St., Boston (617-224-4000). www.libertyhotel.com.

Da Vinci Done Right… In 2003, The Da Vinci Code made author Dan Brown a household name (and a hell of a lot of money). In 2007, restaurateur Wioletta Zywina is hoping for similar success with Da Vinci Ristorante, and we're betting this one won't result in a crappy Tom Hanks movie. The upscale eatery, located at 162 Columbus Ave. in the Back Bay, is slated to open Nov. 7 and will serve a traditional Italian menu featuring pastas handmade by chef Peppino (just one name). The space holds 124 patrons indoors and out, and boasts a full bar that's open until 1 am on weekends. 162 Columbus Ave., Boston (617-350-0007). www.davinciboston.com.

Santos Cannes Cook… It's not quite the Statue of Liberty, but Bostonians will reap the benefits of a new gift from France this fall thanks to Stephane Santos. Over the last decade, Santos made a name for himself on the French Riviera with his restaurant La Voile Cannes, but when taxes became too, um, taxing, he looked to relocate to the States and chose Boston as his new roost. La Voile Boston—set to open Oct. 25 on Newbury Street—will offer a French-Mediterranean menu with dishes like mini raviolis stuffed with pesto and sautéed baby squid, steak frites and beef fondue. The space seats 75 diners (with an additional 35 on an outdoor terrace) and will serve beer and wine. 261 Newbury St., Boston (617-587-4200).

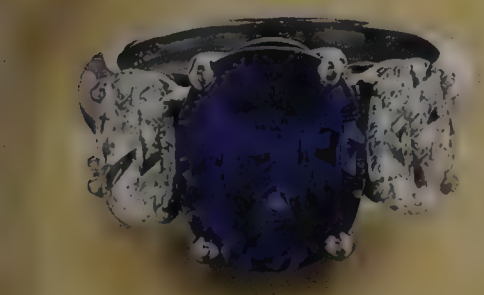
The Savant Project's portobello sandwich

They're on a Mission… No, the Savant Project isn't a new exhibition featuring artwork by Dustin Hoffman's character in Rain Man—although we kind of wish it were. Instead, it's a new bar/restaurant that's bringing upscale culinary flavor to Mission Hill. The spot opened in September with an Asian-inspired menu courtesy of chef Isaac Kaufman, featuring dishes like panko salmon over wasabi, vegetarian paella and seared rare tuna steak. The restaurant is open for lunch (on weekdays) and dinner seven days a week. Yes, definitely seven. Seven days a week… 1625 Tremont St., Boston (617-566-5958). www.thesavantproject.com.

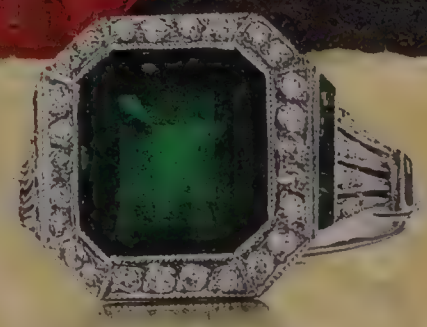
Somerville High… Mark Romano, former head chef at Central Square's Green Street Grill, returns to the cuisine scene this winter with a venture of his own. Highland Kitchen is expected to open by December in the Somerville space that formerly housed Devlin's Bar, and will feature a contemporary American menu of appetizers, sandwiches, soups and salads. The restaurant/bar will seat about 90—seats Romano hopes will be filled by people from all walks of Somerville life. "We want to make this a neighborhood pub where the old locals, hipsters and yuppies can all come to hang out together," he tells us. 150 Highland Ave., Somerville. —RL

Mark Romano

FASH FLASH



Where the Street Has a Name



The Boston street scene just got a whole lot hipper. While we were prancing around Newbury and hunting down the hidden gems of the South End, 3000 square feet of urban coolness opened in Allston. It's called Re-Up and is owned by three local guys, childhood friends Steve Thoi, Peter Huynh and Davis Huynh (no relation). Their boutique, which will also serve as a community event space, carries upscale street apparel brands not often seen in these parts: Future Laboratories, Staple Design, Recon, Maharishi and SSUR. Now they're being gobbled up by everyone from Watertown skaters to collegiate BU'ers. "Streetwear is the bridge between urban style and mainstream culture," explains Davis Huynh, "so we're really excited to have found this space in Allston, with its blend of diverse cultures." The space reflects the dichotomy and togetherness of its neighborhood. Half is painted black, the other white, with a retractable, clear glass wall in-between. The white side houses men's apparel (women's is coming this winter), with T-shirts ranging in price from $22 to $75, as well as hoodies and pants. The black side, which opens soon, will display a collection of supercool sneaks. Re-Up, 1 Brighton Ave., Allston (617-783-REUP).

—Marni Elyse Katz

We Promise
exceptional Quality & extraordinary Service
at competitive Prices.

SHREVE, CRUMP & LOW
The Gem of Boston Since 1796™

Corner of Berkeley & Boylston
(800) 225-7088
• Validated parking in Back Bay Garage •

www.shrevecrumpandlow.com

The Mall at Chestnut Hill
(866) 965-2700

IMPROPER REPORTS

Dancing in the Streets

Free public service or just cause for a macing? Before you cough up your crumpled dollar bill, a street performer needs to impress. These T-stop troubadours and cobblestone clowns will have you reaching for your change purse, not your pepper spray.

Alakazam

www.thehumanknot.com

Not since Puppetry of the Penis went on tour has Boston seen such a flexible Australian. Also going by the name of "the Human Knot," celebrity contortionist Al Millar delights and appalls the Faneuil Hall crowds with his "Look, Ma! No tendons!" stunts.

Gian Carlo Buscaglia

www.myspace.com/giancarlobuscaglia

"I just finished another glorious summer on the streets of Harvard Square," says the city's finest purveyor of politics-inflected, acoustic Latin music. "Been there since 1984." And thankfully he's not leaving except to front Balaton—a mixed-genre sextet in the tradition of the Buena Vista Social Club.

David Johnston

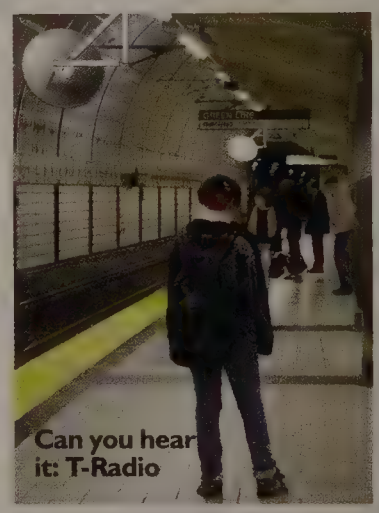
Once resident at the late, lamented Tír na nÓg Pub in Somerville, lucky commuters at Davis Square can still sometimes hear Johnston strumming his mix of rock, soul and blues. At least when he's not fronting his namesake band.

Lloyd Thayer

A virtuoso dobro player in an age that doesn't know what a dobro is (it's a resonator guitar, sometimes played on the lap), Thayer is both a prolific songwriter—he put out three albums in a year—and an underground treasure. Folky without being folksy, with nods to blues, Eastern music and Run-DMC, he's as often found at the Harvard Square T as at clubs like Sky Bar or the Middle East.

The Yo-Yo People

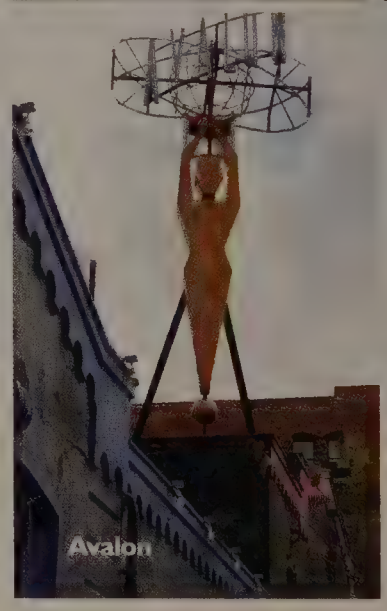
www.yoyoshow.com



"A yo-yo show for the 21st-century" is how this husband-and-wife team of virtuoso yo-yo slingers describe their act. From Quincy Market to Capetown, they amaze audiences with tricks like "Iron Whip" and "Boingy-Boingy," not to mention an incredibly creative use of a unicycle.

—Andrew Rimas

IMPROPER SPEAKING



SEEN, OVERHEARD OR OTHERWISE BROUGHT TO OUR ATTENTION

T Minus... The MBTA's T-Radio launched Oct. 10 at the North Station, South Station and Airport platforms, broadcasting a mix of music, news and entertainment pieces with celebrity contributors. Before making airwaves throughout the system, though, the MBTA is assessing rider feedback. Expect delays, T-Radio fans. "Feedback has been more negative than positive," says spokeswoman Lydia Rivera. Responses range from desperate thanks ("T-Radio is great; they won't let us listen to music at work") to annoyance ("I hated it; it pollutes public space with commercials") to extreme umbrage ("It's hindering on [sic] my rights"). Some of the most outspoken critics are musicians who perform at T stations. The MBTA has considered playing their music over the airwaves, which could increase their exposure, but would surely cost them spare change by the violin caseload. www.mbta.com/riding_the_t/feedback.

Can you hear it: T-Radio

Ava-gone... On Sept. 30, the Dropkick Murphys blew the doors off of Avalon with "Pipebomb on Landsdowne," the last song ever to be played at the Lyons Group landmark. Avalon has officially closed and, as we previously reported, plans are underway to combine the space with next-door Axis creating a supervenue on the Fenway stretch that's cleaning up its act. No word yet on a name, but when Dropkick returns it'll no doubt host an even larger sweaty, rock-fueled rampage.

Central Berk... So you went to Starbucks last night, knocked back a cup of joe and saw a hippy read a lame poem about his navel. Booooring. Berklee College is recaffeinating the coffeehouse-performance scene with Café 939, set to open around late fall. By day, it's a mild-mannered sandwich and pastry shop. By night, it comes alive with student acts in every genre from rock to jazz to folk. This new extension to Berklee will be open to the public, and shows are seven nights a week with varying covers. The performers have a lot to prove—esteemed alumni include John Mayer, Melissa Etheridge and Aerosmith's Joey Kramer. Café 939, Berklee College, 939 Boylston St., Boston. www.berklee.edu.

Curtain Call... As Jimmy Tingle's Off Broadway Theatre in Somerville gives up its lease, political satirist Jim Morris is being sworn in for the venue's last hurrah. After five years and more than 230 shows, Tingle (our 2007 Boston's Best "Activist With a Funny Bone") closes the doors of his Davis Square performance space Oct. 31. In addition to Jim Morris and the Presidential Follies of 2008, which takes aim at lame-duck target George W. Bush, the final weeks' lineup includes a memorial fundraiser with comedian Tony V and a show dubbed Jimmy Tingle for President. Fair enough, but we're casting our ballots against the closure. 255 Elm St., Somerville (866-811-4111) www.jimmytingle.com.

—Nick Altschuller and Amanda Knorr

GOT SCOOP?

Got an inside tip? Overheard some juicy news? Let us know what it is. Send an e-mail to theword@improper.com.

HEALTHWORKS
FITNESS CENTERS FOR WOMEN

lengthen

Rates are increasing! Join by October 31st to secure the lowest possible monthly rate.

Part mind, part body, all gym – entirely for women

Back Bay · Brookline · Cambridge · Chestnut Hill · Salem

www.healthworksfitness.com
www.healthworksfoundation.org

*Must be 18 years of age or older.

PROPER BOSTONIANS

BY KERRY BRETT, PHOTOGRAPHS BY BILL BRETT AND KATIE NOBLE

The premiere of Gone Baby Gone was held on Oct. 15 at Loews Boston Common. The stars of the locally filmed movie turned out for Ben Affleck's directorial debut.

1. Ben Affleck, director of the film
2. Casey Affleck, star of the film
3. Actress Jennifer Garner
4. Amy Ryan, actress in the film
5. Denis Lehane, writer of the novel on which the film is based, and his wife, Angie

Some 250 guests attended Harvesting Hope, a fundraiser for Dove, Inc., Norfolk County's domestic violence agency. The annual event took place on Sept. 27 at the Granite Links Golf Club in Quincy.

6. David McCool, attorney in Boston, and Stephanie Flaherty, executive director of Dove
7. Scott Wahle, Channel 4 news anchor, and Melissa Mammary
8. Nancy and Chris Keating, vice president of River Source Investments, and Ruth Adomunes, nurse at the Beth Israel Deaconess Hospital

The Breast Cancer Research Foundation (BCRF) illuminated the Museum of Fine Arts, Boston, in honor of Breast Cancer Awareness Month on Oct. 9. Malcolm Rogers, director of the MFA; Larry Lucchino, president of the Boston Red Sox; his wife, Stacey; and Myra Biblowit, president of the BCRF, flipped the switch, bathing the museum in pink.

9. Stacey Lucchino, Kelly Tuthill, Channel 5 news reporter, and Larry Lucchino, president of the Boston Red Sox
10. Donna Gavin, Boston police sergeant
11. Kathleen and Craig LoConte, sales representative for MFS, Kevin Karlberg, real estate developer for James F Stearns in Hingham, and his wife, Melanie, financial planner for Fidelity
12. Mary Wheeler, retired publisher, and Robin Pelissier, interior designer and owner of Robin's Nest in Hingham

Taste Fusion

*Lobster Mango Ceviche

Opening
October
29th

HARU™

55 huntington ave | 617.536.0770 | www.harusushi.com

OPEN HOUSE EVERY SUNDAY 11:00 AM - 4:00 PM

LONGWOOD TOWERS

Live the Life You've Always Imagined

Boston's sister landmarks, The New Longwood Towers, are built on a legacy of prime location, attentive service, and luxury accommodations, now adapted for today's most discerning homeowner. Enjoy the grand lobby, brand new on-site fitness center, private club room, and lifestyle amenity services that include a 24-hour concierge and valet parking. Experience sweeping views of Boston's skyline and the Emerald Necklace from your balcony.

Studio to Penthouse homes with bay windows, hardwood flooring, stainless steel appliances, granite countertops and upgrade options. Pricing from mid $300Ks to over $1.5 million.

20 CHAPEL STREET
BROOKLINE, MA 02446

T 617.975.2880

WWW.LONGWOODCONDOMINIUMS.COM

CONTACT OUR SALES CENTER TODAY TO FIND OUT ABOUT OUR HOMES THAT ARE AVAILABLE FOR IMMEDIATE OCCUPANCY. SALES OFFICE OPEN DAILY 11 AM TO 4 PM AND VIA APPOINTMENT.

ACCELERATED MARKETING PARTNERS

Exclusive Financing: Chase 2006 JP Morgan Chase & Co. All Rights Reserved.

THIRTY ROCKS

It's the big 3-0. Does anyone really care?

On the eve of my 30th birthday, my wife, Heather, asked me if I was upset about the impending life milestone. I replied that I wasn't, and I meant it. To prove the point, I immediately started bragging about how awesome I am and listing my life's achievements, including "getting a hot wife who laughs when I fart on the dog's head." I think she was touched that I ranked that one above "having a kick-ass car" and "friends with lots of hot chicks on MySpace." I'd give you younger guys pointers on how to say romantic stuff like that, but being super-smooth with the ladies is something that just comes with age.

Still, her question got me thinking: Have I really accomplished anything yet? Am I where I need to be at this stage of my life? Do I have all the possessions I need to possess? Because if all the other 30-year-olds have Xbox 360s, I don't want to be left out.

So I began consulting lists—lists of items people think you should own, experiences notched, goals attained by age 30. And I came to realize that perhaps, in some ways, I misspent my youth.

For instance, one magazine's list of "30 Things a Man Should Have by 30" began with a suit, a life insurance policy and a savings account. Check, check and check. I have all those things. But then I got to No. 6—an ab machine—and wondered where I went awry. All that time in my 20s, when I was laughing and livin' it up, thinking life was some kind of joke, the guys with their heads on straight were buckling down and buying ab machines. And just when I was starting to feel a little bit better because I'm a registered voter (No. 13), I get to No. 14 and come up short yet again, because I'm 30 years old and don't have an NAACP card. I just can't seem to measure up to your standards, can I, Ebony magazine?

Another article on a financial site decreed that by the time you're 30, your salary should be four times your age, or else you need to seriously reexamine your career. So 30-year-olds should be pulling down at least 120 grand? That seemed kind of high until I realized that the author lived in the Philippines and was quoting his salary numbers in Philippine pesos. After checking the exchange rate, I realized not only that my career would be right on track in Manila, but that there's still at least one currency that's worth less than the U.S. dollar. Sure, the dollar's so weak that in Britain, illegal Americans stand around outside Home Depot looking for work, but at least our money's worth more than the Philippine peso—for now!

On yet another "30 Things to Have by 30" list, I was particularly intrigued by No. 11, "A set of screwdrivers, a cordless drill and a black lace bra." I'd be worried that I only have two out of the three things Glamour magazine thinks I should own by now, but I could complete that requirement with one trip to the hardware store.

And maybe in some ways I could be a little more worldly, but at least I've got the whole virginity thing squared away. One British checklist included "sex" as one of the activities you should try by age 30, citing a survey that claims seven percent of 30-year-olds are virgins. I'd think that if I were reading this list and hadn't checked that off (and I wasn't part of the clergy or terrifically ugly), I might move that one to top priority. Even higher than "Drive the Pacific Coast Highway" and "Learn a second language." Unless the first thing you were learning in that language was, "Would you like to have sex with me?"

AT LEAST I'VE GOT THE WHOLE VIRGINITY THING SQUARED AWAY.

By the time I got done combing through scads of lists and saw that everyone has a different idea of where a person should be three decades into his or her life, I realized that turning 30 reminded me a lot of turning 21. It's a contrived, arbitrary milestone. I'm the same guy I was five years ago, except maybe now I have a better idea of who I am and where I'm going in life, and don't need some stupid list to tell me I'm off course. If I've learned anything in my 10,950 days on this planet, it's that the real winners follow their instincts and write their own rules. As I embark on my 30s, my only regret is that I don't have a slightly bigger apartment. Mine barely has space for my new ab machine. IB

YOU THINK THAT'S FUNNY?

Send unbiased e-mails to ezra@improper.com.

the Upper Crust
Boston
617-723-9600
CELTICS
20
CELTICS
CELTICS
5
CELTICS
the Upper Crust
Upper Crust
20 CHARLES STREET, BEACON HILL
617.723.9600
286 HARVARD STREET, COOLIDGE CORNER
617.734.4900
611 DUVAL STREET, KEY WEST, FL
305.293.8890
41 WALTHAM STREET, LEXINGTON
781.274.0089
222 NEWBURY STREET, BACK BAY
617.262.0090
73 SOUTH STREET, HINGHAM
781.740.2775
435 MOODY STREET, WALTHAM
781.736.0044
NOW OPEN!
118 WASHINGTON STREET, SALEM
978.741.2787
THE UPPER CRUST PIZZERIA
ESTABLISHED 2001
THE LEGACY.
IT'S BACK.
BOSTON'S BEST 2004 WINNER IMPROPER BOSTONIAN
BOSTON'S BEST 2005 WINNER IMPROPER BOSTONIAN
BOSTON'S BEST 2006 WINNER IMPROPER BOSTONIAN
BOSTON'S BEST 2007 WINNER IMPROPER BOSTONIAN
Pizza, Nouveau
Pizza
Pizza
Pizza
WWW.THEUPPERCRUSTPIZZERIA.COM

THE COLLINS CARD

BY CHRIS COLLINS

IS TOM BRADY THE BEST EVER?

New weapons take the QB to the next level

The dreaming started after Week 3, when a reporter asked Bill Belichick about the prospect of having an undefeated season.

If you've ever been within 100 miles of a Bill Belichick press conference, you'd be laughing. With three months still to play, why would anyone ask the only guy I know who lives hour-to-hour such a crazy question?

Bill Parcells was asked an off-the-wall question like that once and he exploded: "That's a dumb-ass question! You're a jerk!"

Belichick was a tad more respectful, just a tad, but the look in his eyes defined disgust.

Yes, asking Belichick the question was crazy, but the prospect of an undefeated season isn't. The New England Patriots look perfect. They really do.

And the player who looks most perfect is the quarterback, Tom Brady. As great as Brady has looked in his first six seasons as quarterback of the Patriots, which already has him on rails to the Hall of Fame, he's getting better.

That's right, Mr. Perfect is better than ever. In fact, he's a lot better than ever.

The list of great quarterbacks always starts with Joe Montana. Not only was he great, but his teams won championships. Terry Bradshaw, to the contrary, didn't look great, but the man won four titles in six years. There are others in recent memory, like Johnny Unitas, John Elway, Dan Marino and Bart Starr.

The one thing Brady didn't have in common with most of the these all-time greats, which now includes Indianapolis Colts quarterback Peyton Manning, is the supporting cast. Brady hasn't had that complementary wide receiver. You know the kind I'm talking about—the wideout with Hall of Fame credentials.

Until now.

Even Manning, who has always been considered the best signal caller in the NFL, which is a little different than being the best "winner," has always had the security blanket of future Hall of Famer Marvin Harrison. The dynamic duo have been setting records from the time Manning stepped off the campus at Tennessee.

Even when Manning was losing the "big" games, he was putting up numbers that made heads shake. Last season, he finally did it. He beat the Patriots and Tom Brady, for the third straight time, and won a Super Bowl title. We were impressed.

But you know what? We really didn't focus on what was more impressive: the fact that Brady and the Patriots almost won a Super Bowl with the Three Stooges for wide receivers. My God, Brady had the worst collection of ball catchers these eyes have ever seen, yet they were one first down away from beating the Colts and burying the Bears two weeks later for a fourth Super Bowl ring.

It took the arrival of one man, Randy Moss, to show everyone how great Brady really is.

Moss has changed everything. Donté Stallworth and Wes Welker are definitely an upgrade from last year, but only Moss improves the offense exponentially.

Do you ever remember Brady throwing the ball up for grabs? I don't.

With Moss on the outside, especially when he's in single coverage, all Brady has to do is throw the ball up to Moss' side, and the odds are about 9-1 that he'll get it.

Mind you, there are other factors at work here. Brady is getting great protection. And the other receivers, including tight end Benjamin Watson, are no slouches. But Brady-to-Moss is weapon No. 1 on this team. As a matter of fact, it's the best weapon in the league—almost as good as Montana-to-Rice.

MR. PERFECT IS BETTER THAN EVER. IN FACT, HE'S A LOT BETTER THAN EVER

Brady's numbers after five weeks are staggering. His accuracy is hovering near 75 percent. His touchdown to interception ratio is 8-to-1.

The Patriots are impressive in so many ways. Defensively, Belichick has his best unit since joining the franchise in 2000. I believe this is the team's most underrated aspect. The defense is stellar.

But you know what? Brady is greater.

A recent story in one of the local papers had Joe Montana saying Brady might be better than him. I don't know if he really believed it, but I do. Or at least if things continue this way, I'm inclined to.

We knew Brady was great. But with the addition of Moss and Co., it seems he's even better than we thought. IB

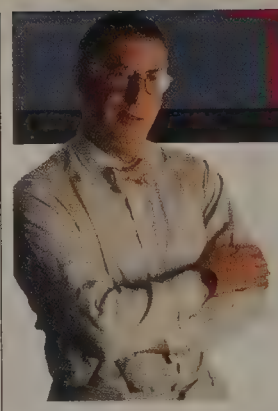
Chris Collins is a sportscaster for New England Cable News. Address sporting opinions and feedback to sportsdesk@improper.com.

THE BEAR IS BACK!

THE HUB OF HOCKEY

NESN HD

CT 25 vs CHI – 6:30PM • OCT 27 vs PHI – 6:30PM • NOV 1 vs BUF – 6:30PM



NOV 3 AT OTT – 6:30PM • NOV 4 vs OTT – 6:30PM

IDS TICKETS ARE FREE* THROUGH 11/15 COURTESY OF TD Banknorth

OR MORE INFORMATION CALL 617-624-BEAR OR VISIT BOSTONBRUINS.COM

*OFFER GOOD FOR CHILDREN UNDER 14 WITH THE PURCHASE OF A FULL PRICE TICKET. NOT VALID FOR ALL PRICE RANGES AND SUBJECT TO AVAILABILITY

THE DANCE

BY JOHN D. SPOONER

Alexander the Great

That's my friend, a former bombardier

Watching Ken Burns' new World War II series made me think of Yossarian, the hero of Catch 22 who was a bombardier during the war. My friend, Mike Alexander, was a bombardier as well, flying missions over Europe. One of the great secrets to longevity is to have friendships with people both older and younger than you. These relationships keep the adrenaline pumping, giving you insight into everything from history to consumer tastes to secrets of the human soul.

"Ever know anyone Jewish named Alexander?" he asked me long ago when I first met him. Without waiting for an answer he said, "When Alexander the Great ruled the world, he also ruled Judah. One year the crops were particularly bad, and Alexander waived taxes on the farmers for that year. In gratitude, many of the farmers named their sons Alexander, the first nonbiblical name given to Jewish boys. And the tradition exists to this day."

> "WE BELIEVED WE WERE SAVING OUR FAMILIES AND THE CIVILIZED WORLD."

This is the kind of interesting trivia that pours out of Alexander. He and his wife, Charlotte, got together pre-bombardiering.

"Was World War II the defining event in your life?" I asked him.

"No," he smiled. "It was my marriage. We fell in love in high school. When the war came, Charlotte wanted to follow me to pilot training. In those days, no ring, no one follows anyone. So we married. And, amazingly, this has made everything in my life easier, the bumps more bearable. The ring cost 40 bucks, by the way.

"I was in the 100th Bomb group," he told me. "We were called 'The Bloody Hundredth' because of the heavy losses we took. What did I know about life till then, a 25-year-old, wet behind the ears? We swaggered, put metal on our boots so we clinked while we walked, smoking big cigars. We were frightened in the air, as if each mission was the definition of fear. We obliterated the Germans' naval bases at Swinemunde, and we obliterated Hamburg. We got a Presidential Citation for the best radar bombing of World War II. Did we all have mixed emotions, misgivings, angst? You bet. But think about it. World War II was the only modern war that we knew was a war for survival. We believed, for God's sake, that the Nazis were going to drop bombs on Brookline. It was a different mindset, and Hitler was the embodiment of evil. And they were not going to take that evil to our shores and our families."

Alexander, like all people who fascinate me, loves stories, learning and life lessons. He went on. "The Nazis had the first jets. Frightening. Could fly over 500 miles per hour. Our mission—I flew 18 of them—was to destroy the facilities producing the jets, ball bearings, oil, anything industrial. Cut down their ability to wage war."

Incidentally in Burns' series, the narrator mentioned that if you got beyond 14 missions, you were probably going to die. "Flak would come at us from ships," Alexander said, "120-millimeter flak, and from 88s on the ground. And from the German planes as well. I'd throw my hands up, we all would, as if we could ward off the bullets, as our bombers moved toward targets, dropped our bombs and headed home, with death all around us. But we believed we were saving our families and the civilized world."

Alexander is both humble and amusing. I told him as much, and he said, "I can afford to be. Because the biggest lesson I learned from the war is that from that point on, I would never be afraid of anyone or anything ever again." He showed me his study, photos of his plane his buddies, politicians he helped, admired, supported—Mike Dukakis, Jack Kennedy, Adlai Stevenson—and his family. "Everything in your house should have a story attached to it," he said. "Every chest, chair, painting should have a personal meaning."

At one point, Charlotte came into the study. "Sixty-six years married," he said. "Respect is the biggest secret to a long-term relationship: mutual respect. But when we first met, we'd go to the Brookline library, then go make out in the back of my parents' car. I still want to do that."

She added, "And I've never considered divorce. Murder, yes. But not divorce."

"What a woman," he said.

And what a man. iB

John D. Spooner is an investment advisor, author and novelist. Contact him at thedance@improper.com.

INTRODUCING LUXURY CONDOMINIUMS AT NATICK COLLECTION.
NEW ENGLAND'S NEWEST LIVING, DINING AND SHOPPING DESTINATION.

WHERE LIFE AND STYLE COME TOGETHER.

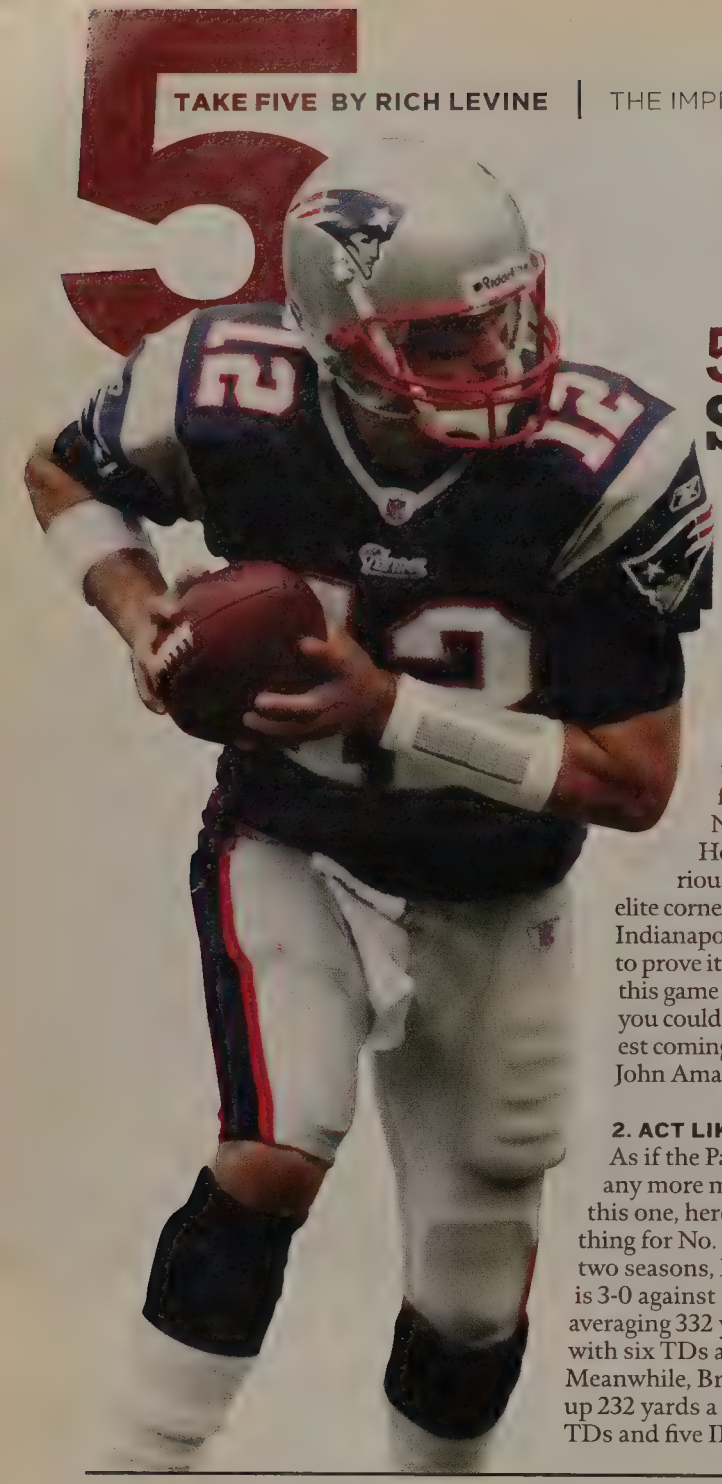
Nouvelle at Natick combines the best of urban conveniences with the comforts of suburban living. Mixed-use. Maintenance-free. Full-service. Park views. Private entrance. Secured parking. Reminiscent of The Belvedere at Boston's Prudential Center, Nouvelle is an oasis of calm on one hand; instant access to upscale shopping, dining and a multitude of services on the other. Nouvelle at Natick truly is a whole new way to live.

EXCITING AMENITIES
- Bosse Sports fitness center
- Piano lounge
- Screening room
- Expansive roof garden

NATICK COLLECTION
Neiman Marcus, Nordstrom and many other shops, restaurants, and other conveniences all just an elevator ride away

LUXE FINISHES
- Granite countertops
- Marble tile
- Stainless steel appliances
- Hardwood flooring

FULL SERVICES
- 24-hour doorman
- Managed by Barkan Management
- On-site storage
- Private, secured parking
- Valet dry cleaning



NOUVELLE℠ at NATICK

A WHOLE NEW WAY TO LIVE℠

ONE, TWO AND THREE BEDROOMS FROM THE $400S TO OVER $1 MILLION

VISIT OUR SALES GALLERY ON THE SECOND LEVEL OF THE NEW NATICK COLLECTION, ADJACENT TO NEIMAN MARCUS
Sales Gallery open Monday - Saturday, 10am - 10pm, Sunday, 11am - 6pm, appt. recommended

877.723.0283 NOUVELLEATNATICK.COM EXCLUSIVE SALES AND MARKETING / OTIS & AHEARN

5 Pats-Colts Storylines

1. HOBB-NOBBIN'
Mrs. Owens and the Cowboys were a good test, but nothing (outside of New England) compares to the Colts' offensive attack. Note to Ellis Hobbs: If you're serious about being an elite corner in this league, Indianapolis is the place to prove it. With the hype this game is going to get, you could have the loudest coming-out party since John Amaechi.

2. ACT LIKE A BRADY
As if the Patriots needed any more motivation for this one, here's a little something for No. 12: Over the last two seasons, Peyton Manning is 3-0 against the Pats and is averaging 332 yards a game with six TDs and three INTs. Meanwhile, Brady's putting up 232 yards a game with four TDs and five INTs.

3. SEE MORE SEYMOUR
To think that the best defensive player on the Patriots has yet to take the field this year is... well, it's just ridiculous. This whole season is ridiculous. And while we're not sure exactly when Richard Seymour will return, you've got to hope he's back on the field for this one.

4. GET HIGH WITH MOSS
The average height of the Colts' starting secondary is 5-10. Randy Moss is 6-4. This could get ugly. Just once, for fun, we'd like to see Moss make a catch, then stop and hold the ball over his head as Bob Sanders (5-8) jumps for it like a little fat kid trying to grab his backpack off a tree limb.

5. THE PREDICTION
Pats 42, Colts 27. Let's be honest: Barring some sort of—knocking on wood—horrible injury, the Patriots aren't losing this or any game until home-field advantage is locked up. The team probably hates reading that, and non–New England fans hate us for writing it, but really, who's going to beat them?

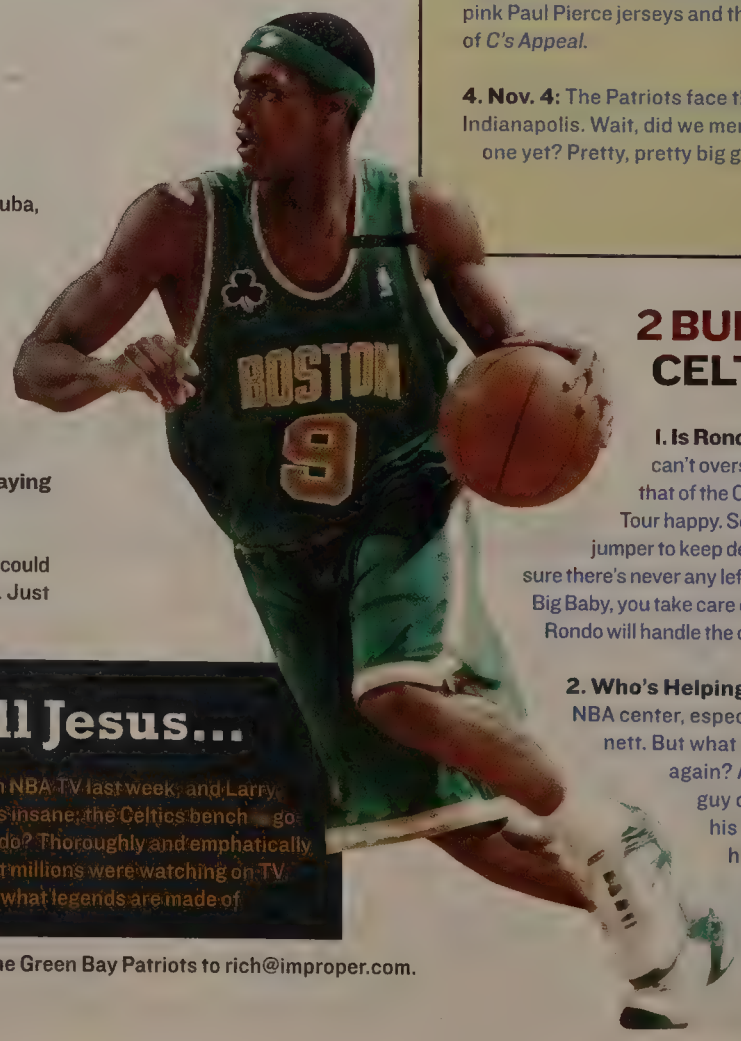
4 DATES TO WATCH

1. Oct. 25: Boston College travels to Blacksburg, Va., for a Thursday-night game against No. 11 Virginia Tech. QB Matt Ryan finishes this one as either a major Heisman candidate on a BCS contender or an above-average quarterback on a middle-of-the-road team. There's no in-between.

2. Nov. 1: It's Game 7 of the World Series, which would be a lot more fun if it didn't hinge on the Colorado Rockies dropping three of the first six. Not sure the 1927 Yankees could beat them now. Especially since they're all dead.

3. Nov. 2: Celtics open the season at home against the Wizards, and a new era officially begins. An era we're praying doesn't lead to pink Paul Pierce jerseys and the premiere of C's Appeal.

4. Nov. 4: The Patriots face the Colts in Indianapolis. Wait, did we mention this one yet? Pretty, pretty big game.



3 Did They Really Say Thats

1. "For all the negative attention that I caught coming to Green Bay..."
—Randy Moss after the Dallas game
We really couldn't care less where Moss thinks he's playing this year. You want to be in Aruba, Randy? Done. You're in Aruba. But seriously, what were you talking about here?

2. "And there goes Randy Moss!"
—CBS broadcaster Phil Simms as Donté Stallworth ran in for a TD against the Cowboys
The only thing more uncomfortable was watching Simms spend the next five minutes frantically defending himself and screening text messages from Rev. Sharpton. Shhh... Phil, it's OK.

3. "Cabrera was playing in on Ortiz' double play, but now with Hafner up you'll see he's playing back. Oh wait, that's Pedroia."
—Tim McCarver during Game 3 of the ALCS
Anything that comes out of McCarver's old mouth could be used here. He's the Eric Gagne of broadcasting. Just when you think he can't get any worse...

1 Shout-Out to the Basketball Jesus...

How cool was Larry Bird? So we're watching a playoff game from 1987 on NBA TV last week, and Larry hits a huge jumper to put the Celtics ahead late in the fourth. The crowd's insane, the Celtics bench is going wild. The camera zooms in for a close-up on Larry, and what does he do? Thoroughly and emphatically picks his nose. He knew every camera in the Garden was on him, and that millions were watching on TV, and he still said, "Eff it, I'm going in." That's Larry Bird for you, and that's what legends are made of.

2 BURNING CELTICS QUESTIONS

1. Is Rondo Ready? Yes, he definitely is, but you can't overstate how essential his success is to that of the Celtics. Someone's got to keep the PGA Tour happy. Someone's got to knock down an open jumper to keep defenses honest. Someone's got to make sure there's never any leftover food at the team buffet. All right, Big Baby, you take care of that last one. We're pretty sure Rajon Rondo will handle the others.

2. Who's Helping Perk? Kendrick Perkins is a solid NBA center, especially when paired with Kevin Garnett. But what if he struggles with foul trouble again? At press time, Scot Pollard is the only guy on the bench taller than 6-9—and his left ankle's so swollen, Barry Bonds' head just sued it for copyright infringement. The answer's simple: Perk needs to stay on the court.

Send sporting questions, comments, criticisms and—if you want—season tickets to the Green Bay Patriots to rich@improper.com.

Of course it tastes better than other beers. We've had over 600 years to get the recipe right. Our esteemed brewery has been producing beer in Leuven since 1366. Which means we've been around a bit longer than most. Mind you, over the years our beer has witnessed the odd change or two. For instance, our customers no longer drink it to ward off the Plague, as they used to in medieval times. However, one thing has stayed the same after all these years. Stella Artois is still painstakingly brewed in a time-honored tradition with the choicest ingredients. Which is why our customers have kept coming back for more, even after 600 years.

ANNO 1366
STELLA ARTOIS

ection has its price.

Always Enjoy Responsibly. www.stellaartois.com

© 2006 Imported by InBev USA, Norwalk, CT.

Soroff ON

MARGO HOWARD

BY JONATHAN SOROFF

Born and raised in Chicago, advice columnist Margo Howard (aka "Dear Margo") is the daughter of the legendary Ann Landers. Howard attended Brandeis University but left to get married to the first of her four husbands. She began her career in journalism in the late '60s at the Chicago Tribune but jumped ship after six months for the Daily News and the Field Syndicate. Her eponymous column appeared three times a week. In 1977, she moved to Los Angeles and left the newspaper business to freelance for such publications as The New Republic, People, The Nation and TV Guide. She is the author of two books: Eppie: The Story of Ann Landers and A Life in Letters: Ann Landers' Letters to Her Only Child. After a 30-year career in journalism, she finally joined "the family business" in 1998, writing for the online magazine Slate as "Dear Prudence." (Her mother's twin sister was the advice columnist known as "Dear Abby.") Now writing under her own name, Howard's column is published on Yahoo! News and in numerous newspapers here and abroad. A longtime resident of Cambridge, she is married to a Harvard heart surgeon and has three grown children.

Jonathan Soroff: What qualifies you to dispense advice?

Margo Howard: I had a famous mother, a rich father, four husbands, a good analyst, lunatic children and a sense of humor.

JS: Do you offer advice unbidden?

MH: I'm afraid I do, but I think that's a girl thing. I think the way women relate is to offer advice to each other from experience, asked for or not.

JS: That's funny, because women tell me it drives them crazy how men try to fix the problem or offer a solution as opposed to just hearing and empathizing when they need a good listener.

MH: I would disagree with that. In fact, that's why straight men don't have really good boyfriends the way women have really good girlfriends.

JS: Best piece of advice your mother ever gave you?

MH: She said, "When things go haywire, go to bed, go to sleep, get up and start again."

JS: Worst piece of advice she ever gave you?

MH: There was none. But the piece of advice she gave and I didn't take was not to marry my starter husband. She said very much not to marry him, but I did it. I should have listened to her, but it was the road not taken… or the husband taken, whatever.

JS: Your mother and aunt were famous rivals. Did you ever feel a rivalry with your mother?

MH: Oh, no. I think she substituted me for her twin sister. She was trying to get out of the twin business, and I had all her attention. She was my biggest supporter. There are very few celebrities' kids who don't feel damaged somehow, but I don't, and I think she saw to it. When I was very young, even before she was Ann Landers, she'd say, "You're better-looking than I am, smarter, better-educated…"—and I believed it. [Laughs.] So I had great confidence.

JS: Any subject you'd never ever touch in your column?

> "I'VE ADOPTED MY MOTHER'S PHILOSOPHY THAT IT'S NOT WHAT HAPPENS TO YOU, IT'S HOW YOU DEAL WITH IT."

MH: That's interesting. I suppose there is, because I skip over some things, but I can't think what they are. I talk about pretty much everything.

JS: Strangest question you've ever gotten?

MH: Oh, it's hard to think on the spot. When you see all the letters I see, the best you can sorta come up with is categories. Some of them are strange…

JS: Sexually?

MH: I think the sex ones go to Dan Savage, who's a pal, by the way. And you know what I find interesting? He was devoted to my mother. We met on an NPR show over the air, and he said, "Your mother saved my life. I was this geeky gay kid outside of Chicago, and if she hadn't said it was OK, I don't know what I would have done." When she died, I had an auction, and she worked on the most beat-up old desk. Dan got in touch. By then we were friends, and he said, "Would you mind if I bought your mother's desk?" I said, "Honey, help yourself." It must've cost him three times in shipping what it cost him to buy it, but he says he channels her. Where was I?

JS: I asked about strange sexual stuff.

MH: Oh, right. Well, the reason I brought it up is that if my mother ever read Dan's stuff [the sex-advice column "Savage Love"], she would have fallen off her chair in a dead faint, because she was quite a stickler for language and propriety. I may have invented the appellation "the s-word" and "the f-word," because I could never say it to her. You could not use bad language in front of Eppie. You just could not.

JS: Most common topic people ask for advice about?

MH: Well, the big one would be relationships, either with the spouse, the kids, the in-laws, the boss. Getting along or not getting along with somebody.

JS: Do you get follow-ups and find out how things worked out for the person?

MH: You do with e-mail. One of the gratifying things is that people write and say, "It's terrific; you solved my problem." But what is more interesting to me is that I often answer people personally, if I have time and I can do it in a few sentences, and it also applies to letters I run: I'll hear from the person, and they'll say, "I thought that's what I should do, but I just needed the validation." That to me is the big shock. They sort of know but hearing from me cements it.

JS: Do you follow your own advice?

MH: I try to. But dear, I'm so old, I'm like 114, so if you haven't got it figured out at my age, forget it.

JS: Fill in this blank: Do as I say, _____.

MH: …because I'm the mother. [Laughs.]

JS: Do you have a personal motto or philosophy?

MH: No, but there are things I'm always seeking. One of them is serenity. That, to me, is the top value in life. I've also adopted my mother's philosophy that it's not so much what happens to you, it's how you deal with it. Everybody's gonna get dealt a hand, but it's really how you play it. That's what separates the me from the boys.

JS: Any strange encounters with readers?

MH: No, but I've had very sweet proposa of marriage, A lot of people don't kno how old I am. One guy said, "You sour like you're for me." I wrote back, "How o are you?" He said, "33." I said, "Well, could be your mother." I've had people s to me that I "write young." I'm not su what that means, but people do not reali that I'm this old bag of a person.

JS: How much of what you tell people is just plain common sense?

MH: Probably most of it. A few times th need to be instructed to find resources th don't know about, but I think a lot of exp rienced people could do what I do if th knew how to write.

JS: Do your children ask for or take your advice?

MH: Two do. One doesn't.

JS: How about your husband?

MH: He's adorable. He tolerates me beautifully. We are not an original ma riage, but we finally chose well, both of u

JS: Do you regret your divorces?

MH: None of them. They were all for reason, and I was euphoric, almost, aft every one but the last, because that o had a little sadness to it. But I've alwa picked myself up and moved on. Mayb I'm shallow. Maybe I don't understan What's so wrong with four husbands? don't know.

JS: What, besides being able to write prescriptions, is the difference between you and a shrin

MH: I could write a prescription if I ste my husband's pad. [Laughs.] But the a swer is that I'm not trained.

JS: But you function as the world's psychiatris

MH: For some people, yes, and it's sa really. I mean, they're writing to a newsp per or a Web site because they don't kno who to go to, or they can't afford a ther pist, or it never occurs to them to seek o a clinic. And I'm anonymous.

JS: Last question: What should I do with the rest of my life?

MH: Exactly what you're doing, but do more and do it better. iB

Come On Down

A VEHICLE FOR EVERY ROAD YOU TRAVEL

BOSTON'S CW

CREATURE DOUBLE FEATURE

SATURDAY OCTOBER 27, 2007 AT NOON

BOCH AUTOMOTIVE

TOYOTA SCION HONDA NEW TO YOU KIA

"On the Automile" Route 1, Norwood, MA Boch.com

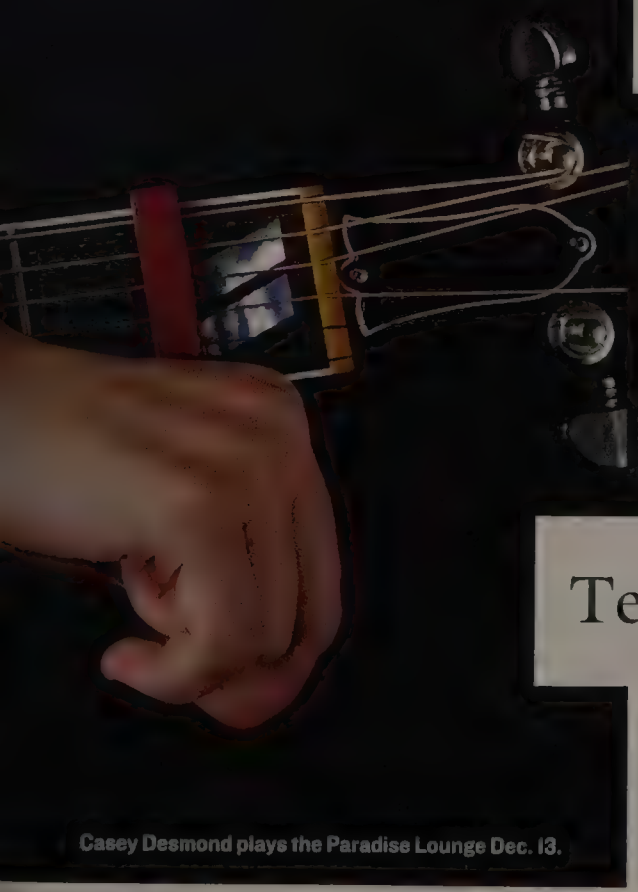
Vote For Your Favorite Ad At [illegible].com/Improper

Casey Desmond

Casey Desmond is growing—fast. The 21-year-old's second CD, No Disguise, takes an unabashedly commercial turn that sounds more like Evanescence or Tori Amos than fellow local rockers. Its sophisticated sound is a surprise when one considers that she produced the record with her parents, Bill and Kathy Desmond, who lead the theatrical, trash-art band Bentmen, and guitarist Taylor Barefoot from her own group.

But cutting through the polish is Desmond's clarion voice, a natural instrument that proves she's the real deal. Unlike many young pop singers (hello Avril Lavigne), Desmond soars in tune, both on record and onstage.

"I'm not going to have [producers] cut up my voice a thousand times and auto-tune it to hell," says Desmond, who counts Nick Cave, Ani DiFranco, Jewel and Alanis Morissette among her influences. "If I don't have a voice, then I'm just going to be a [visual] artist or write music on the piano."



In fact, she deferred art school to give music a full-time shot—not surprising considering that she grew up around her parents' Sound Museum studios, meeting musicians and going to gigs. It whetted her appetite for variety. Desmond plays both keyboards and guitar, and is thinking about cellos and organ for her next disc.

Her youth sometimes comes across in her relationship songs, but the vulnerability is honest, even if her delivery pays a nod to her days in high school theater. "Probably because I had punky, short, multicolored hair, I never got lead roles," she recalls. "I was kinda, OK, I'll do my own thing."

PHOTOGRAPHER: KERRY BRETT; PHOTOGRAPHER'S ASSISTANT: LYNN GONSALVES; MAKE-UP: DIANNA QUAGENTI USING YABY COSMETICS; HAIRSTYLING: MARI DE JAMES JOSEPH STUDIO

SOUND CHECK

Ten Bands That Rock By Paul Robicheau

Casey Desmond plays the Paradise Lounge Dec. 13.

TRENDS AREN'T EASILY FOUND ON THE LOCAL ROCK SCENE. WHILE ALT-COUNTRY SEEMS TO BE A PREVALENT FLAVOR, IT'S FILTERED THROUGH SO MANY OTHER INFLUENCES THAT THE TAG BECOMES MOOT. VARIETY IS ALL. HERE ARE 10 WILDLY DIVERSE BOSTON ACTS THAT ARE WORTH A LISTEN.

Tulsa plays Nov. 14 at Great Scott.

Tulsa

Singer-guitarist Carter Tanton can't fathom why some people call Tulsa alt-country. "When we all end up with our hands on the song, it doesn't end up sounding too country," says Tanton, 27. He says that the band probably gets compared to My Morning Jacket because of the reverb on his vocals. "My voice is indebted to Wilco and things of that vein, but if you're listening to the music, it leaves you more perplexed."

Indeed, the raw, spacious sound that Tanton conjures with bassist Erik Wormwood and drummer Greg Hatem evokes bands as divergent as the Byrds (a model for his 12-string work on Tulsa's debut CD I Was Submerged) and early Pink Floyd.

Onstage, he sticks to an electric guitar eerily fed through delay and tremolo. "I'm probably soloing more these days, but I've never been that much into it," says Tanton, who kept Tulsa as a trio after guitarist-keyboardist Marc Pinansky left to concentrate on his group Township (see page 31). Wormwood and Hatem have risen to the occasion with shifting parts of their own.

"For the bulk of the songs, I'm bringing in a sketch and it changes instantaneously as soon as we all start playing it," says Tanton, who has moonlighted as a producer and player with Drug Rug in addition to a stint in Township. "[My songs] get turned upside-down, and that's nice."

The Baltimore native, who cites Dinosaur Jr. and Red Hot Chili Peppers guitarist John Frusciante as main influences, named his band after Larry Clark's graphic 1971 photo book depicting a group of degenerate friends. Tanton says the book put him in mind of people he grew up with. "It's mostly the idea of going for your dreams," he says, "or the opposite end of letting those dreams die." There's no question which path he chose.

Eli "Paperboy" Reed & the True Loves

Eli Reed was just a nice Jewish boy from Brookline when he heard his parents' Ray Charles box set, and his life changed. Today he fronts a seven-piece soul band. Not that he's intimidated. Before the singer-guitarist launched the True Loves, he cut his teeth playing juke joints in Mississippi, fresh out of high school.

"When I got there, my parents had no idea what it was about," says Reed, 24. "We bought some furniture at Wal-Mart, they gave me a few hundred dollars and took off."

He played four or five nights a week in some rough places where crime and crack were close at hand, Reed says. "It was hard, but I was always just excited to play. I knew songs and I wasn't afraid to sing, and a lot of people, especially the musicians down there, respected that."

Later, Reed went to college in Chicago where he moonlighted as an organist at a gospel church on the South Side. "There were a lot of intricacies about responding to the preacher that I didn't know," he says, "but I picked them up pretty fast." Returning to Boston one summer, he began gigging and took a year off. He's still here, ready for the January release of his second True Loves CD, a record that proves his growth as a vintage-styled singer and songwriter.

"I definitely come from a different place musically and with my influences, but I don't think that means the nature of the process is that different," says Reed, nicknamed "Paperboy" for his scally cap. "We're all young and we're all excited. We're pretty much just like a rock band. We play our own music and we play it with energy."

Eli "Paperboy" Reed & the True Loves play T.T. the Bear's Oct. 25.

TULSA: MARYANNE PARRONE; TOWNSHIP: LIZ LINDER

Township plays Great Scott Dec. 4.

Township

Meaty rock riffs. Long hair and beards. Stage charisma. It was no wonder that Township topped the field in April's WBCN Rock 'n' Roll Rumble. "Sure, the hair and beards help catch people's attention," says singer-guitarist Marc Pinansky, "but people see it's a genuine good time.

"We're less concerned about making music that could possibly fit a certain trend and concentrating on music that sounds good, that we like," says Pinansky, 30, who likes "Led Zeppelin and Thin Lizzy and stretching out in the classic-rock sense."

As for benefits of the Rumble, he says, "In the short-term sense, it was great to turn on so many people live that we normally wouldn't have [reached]. But in the long term, we're almost as excited to be getting to make a record."

That third disc for the group should be out next month, providing a more textured sound than Township's largely acoustic, homemade debut and rocking follow-up. "We wanted to bring all those elements, and add a lot more of what we heard, like piano and strings, and spend more time with the vocals," says Pinansky, who was joined on the CD by drummer Greg Beadle, bassist John Sheeran and guitarist Carter Tanton, who has since left to focus on his group Tulsa (see page 30).

"A lot of people crap on major labels, but we're not averse to [signing with one]," the ex–Runner and the Thermodynamics frontman adds of his future hopes for Township. "We have more traditional expectations."

The Everyday Visuals

The winsome pop melodies of the Everyday Visuals belie singer-guitarist Christopher Pappas' melancholy tales of heartache. Yet there's a reason for the sunny side. "The process of writing the lyrics and getting the hurt out, that's the silver lining," he says. "That's why there's a tinge of hope with every desperate lyric. Once you get it out and create something with it, it turns to good."

Granted, things are very good these days for the Everyday Visuals, who moved here from New Hampshire two years ago to quick acclaim from both critics and fans who appreciated Pappas' intimacies, even when the band rocked out. And the quintet laces its country-tinged melodies with experimental touches à la Yankee Hotel Foxtrot–era Wilco, particularly on the Visuals' aptly named second CD Things Will Look Up.

"You're not going to avoid heartache and all this stuff, but what can you turn it into?" says Pappas, 27. "Can you use it to fuel this fire that's burning in you?"

He could well be talking about his Ankylosing Spondylitis, or AS, an illness that causes severe arthritis in his neck and spine. "I made a choice early on to really make the best of it," he says. "There are so many more noteworthy things than me not being able to turn my head around."

Indeed, people might not even be aware of his AS when they see the quintet live, and that's the way Pappas wants it. "The album sets up the framework with good harmonies and playing, but live, we like to deconstruct [the music] and put a different spin on it," says Pappas, whose bandmates are drummer Joseph Seiders, bassist Chris Zembower, and guitarist-keyboardists Eli Scheer and Kyle Frederickson. "We love using dynamics to convey the sentiment of the song."

The Everyday Visuals play the Middle East Downstairs Nov. 10.

The Big Disappointments play O'Brien's Oct. 26 and Nov. 17.

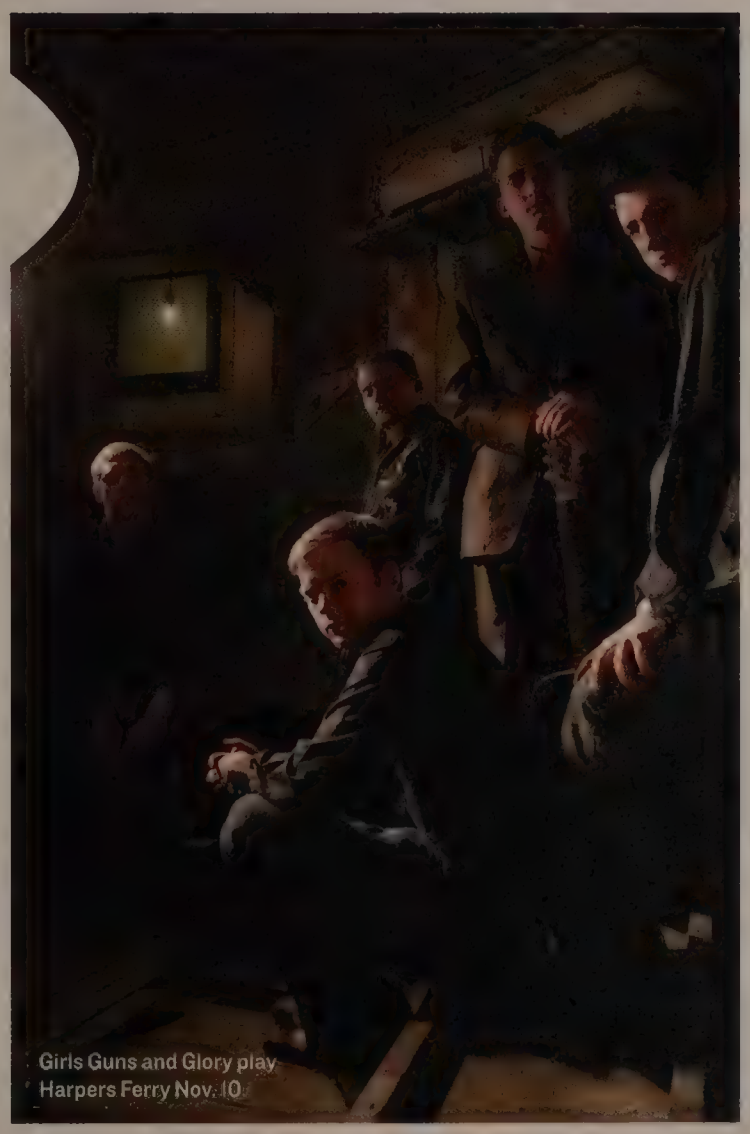
The Big Disappointments

The name draws a laugh, even if the Big Disappointments are anything but. Nor is the group's steamrolling din of cavernous exhortations, corrosive guitars, big-bottomed bass and thumping drums even remotely a let-down.

"If you could say that we're influenced by anything, it's energy," says singer-guitarist Eric Boomhower. That's the quality to which he and fellow guitarist Andy Abrahamson, bassist Jon Littlefield and drummer Lisa Mullen best relate. "It's difficult to explain, but it's like a fire that's coming at you, that's very controlled, but out of control at the same time." Hence, Boomhower says he can appreciate that their collision of garage, punk, psychobilly, country and blues draws comparisons to the Fall and the Gunn Club. But he discounts the Stooges for "not enough output."

After only a year of existence, the Big Disappointments can't boast much output either. Still, the quartet's eponymous studio debut (co-produced by Thalia Zedek and mixed by Paul Q. Kolderie of Buffalo Tom/Pixies fame) is on the right track, swallowing the listener with rock that's loud and layered. And if the 30-something group hangs in as long as the In Out, Boomhower and Abrahamson's previous band of seven years, the underground scene will be richer for it.

As for his "subconscious" lyrics and echo-chamber vocals, Boomhower adds, "I like it to sound a little more dangerous than if you [just] hear my voice. My voice isn't interesting."

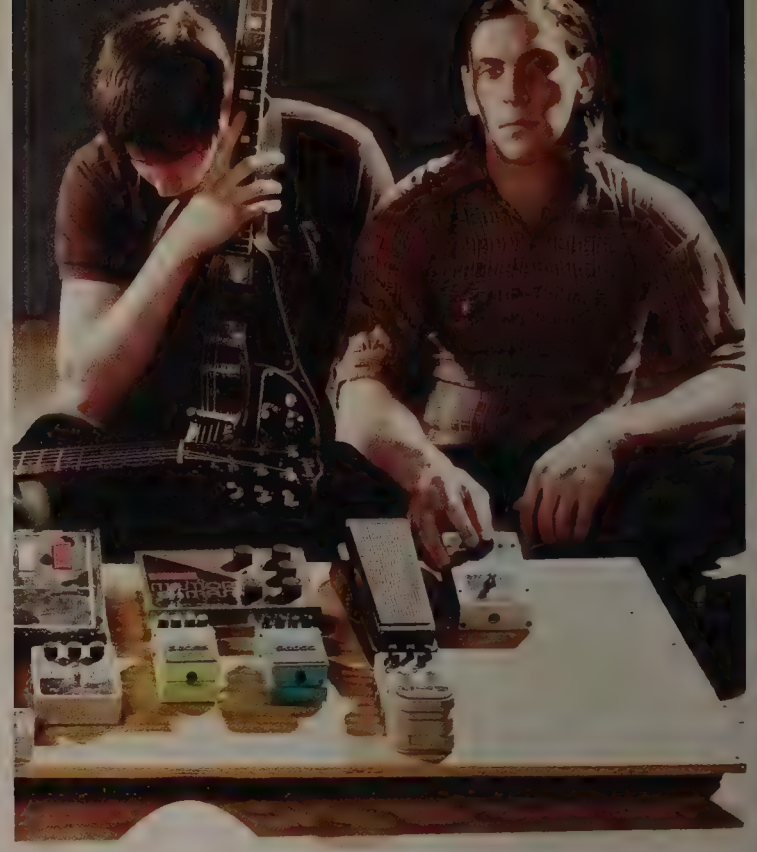


Girls Guns and Glory

Singer-guitarist Ward Hayden's sweet, traditional country crooning in Girls Guns and Glory is a far cry from his previous experience as drummer for the Stan Thompson Band, which, despite its plain name, played avant-garde noise rock. No one knows the difference better than his parents, who let both bands rehearse in their Scituate basement.

"Now they leave the door open 'cause they like to listen," says Hayden, whose mother used to love playing Hank Williams, Johnny Cash and Dolly Parton around the house. It's a sound that the 26-year-old returned to after his dalliances with punk, ska and, yes, noise rock.

"The general idea was to stray from the norm," says Hayden, who claims he only ever sang in the privacy of his bedroom before stepping out with Girls Guns and Glory. "People are always asking me what genre of music this is. It's a bit of a hodge-podge, but we draw on a lot of traditional country."



The quintet also draws some rock 'n' roll spark from lead guitarist Colin Toomey and drummer John T. Graham, while bassist Bruce Beagley and percussionist Brendan Murphy are fellow transfers from the Stan Thompson Band. Hayden adds, "I'm still crazy for the Ramones. There's something beautiful about simple, catchy music. It's almost timeless."

Girls Guns and Glory play Harpers Ferry Nov. 10.

Protokoll plays O'Brien's Nov. 18.

Protokoll

The members of Protokoll need to watch out for moving objects onstage—themselves. "We've definitely hurt each other before," singer-guitarist Jose DeLara says. "On the first gig [of the band's latest tour], I got an elbow to the back of the head and a guitar headstock in the face."

"We go pretty nuts up there," agrees bassist Danny O'Neill, but DeLara adds, "It's completely a physical manifestation of what's going on sonically. It's a loud, aggressive thing, and I can't help but throw my entire body into it."

It's hard to believe Protokoll began as a laptop synth-pop dance project. But San Diego–native DeLara and Boston-bred O'Neill both grew up on hardcore punk, and when the band retired its drum machine in favor of the hard-hitting Reid Calkin, DeLara says, "We started turning up our amps a bit more."

The most recent addition to the 20-something group came in guitarist Ryan Z, who brought shred-savvy chops, yet has also been working with DeLara on computerized dance beats.

With DeLara's love for '60s psychedelia and 20th-century classical mavericks like Edgard Varese, it's no wonder that "Mystic Lips, Mystic Hands," one of six songs recorded for a new limited-edition CD, Children of the Future Age, closes with a noisy, ambient jam. Just don't get in the way if Protokoll plays it live.

The Eclectic Collective

When the Eclectic Collective busted out a cover of the Foo Fighters' "My Hero" at the Paradise last month, the place exploded like a rocket. "I don't know if it's a novelty to see people of different ethnicities performing that song," says guitarist Salim Akram, "but it takes people by surprise."

Perhaps you're setting yourself up when you call your group the Eclectic Collective. Yet Akram, 25, says people seem slow to recognize that the group has adopted a harder-edged rock sound both onstage and on its second CD, The Flux, moving beyond the slick jazz and hip-hop flavors of its past.

"We're not a hip-hop band," he says, and while the eight-piece group no longer features a DJ, it still backs rapper Slick Rick on occasion. "[Our music] still has the groove and the boom-bat elements of hip-hop, but a lot of bands do that and don't get pigeonholed."

The ensemble sounds more like an R&B cousin of 311, with uplifting, socially conscious vocals from Dua Agyeman and Noni Kai, plus two guitars, bass, drums, keys and sax.

"Everybody puts their piece in the puzzle," says Walpole-native Akram, who laid the seeds for EC with Agyeman and drummer Sheel Dave as an acoustic duo in 2001, before they sought a full band. "This is more of a team effort as opposed to individuals."

The Eclectic Collective plays Harpers Ferry Dec. 8.

Hallelujah the Hills

Few bands have their own fight song. Fewer can boast one laced with trumpet and cello. "We thought it would be fun to have those elements full-time," says singer-guitarist Ryan Walsh, who adds impressionistic lyrics. "I get excited to hear a high school marching band. So I like the idea of this group of people marching forward with the melody."

Thus Brian Rutledge's trumpet and guitarist David Bentley's cello help lift "Hallelujah the Hills" and other songs. The mystique grows when Elio DeLuca flexes his Moog synth and Walsh runs both his acoustic guitar and—at least on the band's rich debut Collective Psychosis Begone—his vocals through distortion effects. Their wave of sound evokes such orchestral pop outfits as Arcade Fire and Guided by Voices.

"We love a big sound," Walsh, 28, says of the two-year-old sextet, anchored by drummer Eric Meyer and bassist Joe Marrett, who also respectively play for the kindred combos Ho-Ag and Ketman. "We definitely want it to be joyful and celebratory, even when dealing with sad topics. What was the phrase we once came up with? Depressingly triumphant!" Indeed, Walsh's imagery of poltergeists, math-magicians and "a cat with a windchime skeleton" seems too way out for wallowing. "Sometimes it's to paint a picture or tell a story," he says of his lyrics, "albeit it's surreal or abstract."

Once a Boston University film major, Walsh named Hallelujah the Hills after a '60s cult movie and calls his band's vow to release 33 albums "a ridiculous way of saying we're going to try and do this for a long time."

ONE MAN SETS OUT TO FIND INTERNET STARDOM ARMED WITH NOTHING BUT A PARODY SONG, A COMPUTER AND A DREAM

BY EZRA DYER PHOTOGRAPHS BY ALAN GWIZDOWSKI

ME TUBE

NEVER UNDERESTIMATE the enduring appeal of "Weird Al" Yankovic. When I was in grade school, Weird Al scored a huge hit with "Eat It"—a parody, of course, of Michael Jackson's "Beat It." In high school, I became a fan of his feature film, UHF, which, in retrospect, was a prescient harbinger of the coming wave of reality TV. (These days, a game show called Wheel of Fish isn't that far-fetched.) When I got to college, Weird Al came back with "Amish Paradise," and last year he hit No. 9 on the Billboard Hot 100 with "White & Nerdy." Weird Al owns three Grammy awards.

Based on the fact that Weird Al has not only a career, but probably more money than all the former members of LFO put together, I can infer that the American public has an insatiable appetite for parody songs. And, as luck would have it, I've been known to write a parody song myself from time to time. In high school, for instance, my girlfriend dumped me, so I responded by writing a mean tune about her. This girl's name was Jen, and although she was a cheerleader and thus required by cultural stereotype to be hot and in shape, she was prone to eating enormous quantities of McDonald's French fries. My song, set to the tune of Warren G's "Regulate," was all about a girl who ate too much, and it was called "Jennulate." You know the part at the beginning of "Regulate" where it goes, "You've gotta be handy with the steel, if you know what I mean. Regulators... mount up!'"? Well, in "Jennulate" that part went, "You've gotta be handy with a meal, if you know what I mean. Jennulators... eat up!" And so on.

Jennulate was a hit amongst the five people I shared it with, but in 1994 there was no easy way to send a song from your notebook out into the world, and so my ode to overeating cheerleaders was quietly retired (good since we eventually got back together). But these days, anyone with an idea and a camera can record a song, post it on YouTube and let the bored, Web-surfing public turn it into a hit (or not). And that's why I recently awakened my long-dormant songwriting self and set about the task of writing, recording and posting a parody song that would bring me YouTube fame. This time around, I'm not just looking to amuse myself during pre-calc. I want recognition. That, and Weird Al money.

The first challenge is choosing a starting point. Which song should provide the basis for my masterpiece? I scan the Billboard charts, looking for a candidate. It needs to be a current song, something relevant. It also needs to have clearly discernible lyrics, because the success or failure of a parody song is intrinsically bound up in its message. The song must have more than two or three verses, which rules out tempting candidates like Rihanna's "Umbrella." And finally, this will work best if the song has a male vocalist, since I'm the one who's going to perform it. Lucky for me, there's one song that meets all these criteria: "Hey There Delilah" by the Plain White T's.

"Hey There Delilah" is ubiquitous. It's sappy. The singer clearly enunciates. It's perfect. Now, to pick a topic. As Weird Al demonstrates time and again, your parody title must sound like the name of the original song. That's tough, because not much rhymes with "Delilah." Elmira? Papaya? Or perhaps... vagina?

I download the real Delilah lyrics, so I can figure out what sort of structure I need to make my song parallel the original. Then I scrawl the words "Hey Bare Vagina" on a piece of paper and get to work. (Blame it on current depilatory practices and the glut of celebutantes flashing the paparazzi.)

Over the next couple days, the phrase comes to rule my life. Once it gets in gear, my brain refuses to stop churning out possibilities for funny lyrics. One night, I jump out of bed and grab my notebook so I can write down, "Hey bare vagina / there's no seaweed in your harbor / thank God guys don't have to do this / or it'd be awkward at the barber." I'm in a silly-songwriting spell, I tell you. This must be what Mozart felt like—at least, if Mozart ever wrote an ode to the Brazilian.

It's a good thing I'm coming up with a lot of lyrical possibilities, because I didn't realize at the outset that "Hey There Delilah" has only slightly fewer verses than The Rime of the Ancient Mariner. A four-minute song doesn't sound that long until you're trying to write a word-for-word parody of it, in which case it becomes War and Peace set to acoustic guitar. Now I see why Weird Al only comes out with a hit song about once a decade.

I sound like an American Idol reject crossed with fingernails on a blackboard crossed with Heidi Montag from The Hills.

My problems escalate once I download the karaoke track from a site called Karaoke-version.com. While my lyrics look like they'll work on paper, when I sing along with the music, it turns out that certain verses have too many syllables, or the wrong stresses, which causes those lines to jump out of sync with the music, thus wrecking the song. For this reason alone, I have to abandon lines such as, "Like Larry, Moe and Shemp we're surely / happier without Curley." I'm such a tormented songwriter, I should be sitting in a coffee shop in the rain and contemplating suicide.

But the show must go on, and so, armed with a guitar that I bought at Target and that I intend to return as soon as this is over, I set up my camera and begin performing. On the first take, the camera is pointed toward the ground and my head is cut out of the frame. On the second take, I get nearly to the end and completely screw up the timing. Same deal for the third take. As I keep starting over, I begin singing louder. I'm gaining confidence in lines like, "Normally you look so pretty / but there are a few exceptions / like when you're attached to Britney / there's a chance / some people should wear underpants." I'm also gaining confidence—hopefully not misplaced—that my downstairs neighbors aren't home. Our walls are pretty thin.

Finally, I make it all the way through without screwing up too badly, although I'm getting hoarse, which doesn't improve my already dubious singing ability. I thought the guy from the Plain White T's was a pretty mediocre singer, but I sound like an American Idol reject crossed with fingernails on a blackboard crossed with Heidi Montag from The Hills. No matter, though. It's game time, and five minutes after registering with YouTube under the name Johnny Sensitivo, my tasteless tune goes live.

Three hours after posting the video, I have 32 views. I'm off to a good start, but that puts me 23,451 views behind "Hey There Cicada," one of the other 84 "Hey There Delilah" parodies currently on YouTube. Still, that's already 27 more people than ever got to hear "Jennulate." I'm on my way up the charts, baby. And you know what? I think I'm actually gonna keep my guitar. See, I've got this hilarious idea for "Your Body Is a Wonderland."

To view Ezra's hit video, go to www.youtube.com/watch?v=pw_gkdzAoEs. Viewer discretion is advised.

Left, right: Dmitry Ishenko entertains the cocktail crowd at the Beehive; the New England Conservatory brings free classical music to the masses

WILL PLAY FOR PRAISE

STUDENT MUSICIANS OFFER SOME OF THE BEST CHEAP ENTERTAINMENT IN TOWN BY CARMEN NOBEL PHOTOGRAPHS BY KELLY DAVIDSON

NOBODY WOULD ARGUE that Boston is the country's music capital. Most of the giants make their homes in hackneyed New York, L.A. and Nashville. But our fair city provides something unique: a training ground for tomorrow's superstars. ¶ Thanks to the world-renowned Berklee College of Music and the New England Conservatory (NEC), Beantown is the temporary home to thousands of young, hungry and (mostly) talented student musicians. And while they're here, these students play their eager hearts out in venues all over town. They play for practice, they play for fun and, more often than not, they play for free. ¶ Of course, some spots are better than others. "It's really a networking thing," says Joy Daniels, a music business major at Berklee. "You ask around and find out where's cool to play." So we asked around. What follows is a guide to some of the cooler places to hear Boston's best student musicians. Catch them now, and in a few years you'll be able to say you knew them when.

Wally's Café

Joe Matzzie, a film-scoring major at Berklee, sits perched on a barstool in Wally's Café, drumming his fingers against a $9 martini. To his right, two bespectacled 22-year-olds in torn T-shirts discuss how to broach the subject of group sex with their respective girlfriends. To his left, an elderly man in a natty white suit quietly sips whiskey. They're all pretty typical of the fan base at the beloved South End nightclub—a multigenerational, diverse group of Bostonians with a common love of good jazz.

Around 9:30 pm, five guys shuffle onto the stage at the front of the bar and launch into a funky, peppy version of the wistful Coltrane classic "Naima." Flawless and in sync, they sound like they've been playing together for a generation.

"These guys could totally play at the Newport Jazz Festival," Matzzie says. The band reveals its greenness only when the front-man taps his mike for an announcement. "Hey, we finally got a name!" says sax player James Casey. "We're going to call ourselves Six Figures. It won't make sense right now because one of us isn't here tonight, but hey...." They begin to play Stevie Wonder's "I Wish." The crowd is pleased.

The grandfather of Boston's jazz scene, Wally's has been fostering young geniuses since its inception in 1947. The club's South End location is an easy walk from both Berklee and NEC, and it has gained its own reputation as an unofficial school of sorts—the best place in town to practice and perfect the improvisational art of jazz. Students and recent grads comprise most of the talent at Wally's, which offers live music 365 nights a year, from 9-ish pm to 2 am. (There are also weekend jam sessions from 6 to 8 pm on Saturdays and 4:30 to 7:30 pm on Sundays.)

The best part? There's never a door charge at Wally's. Although the drinks are pricey, there's no minimum and the pours are generous. And with student music this good, even a drunken evening is a steal. Wally's is a gem.

Clockwise, from top: Simone Scazzocchio breaks out his bodhran at Berklee Beach on Mass. Ave.; Johnnie Nicholson's Songwriter Circle looks to make more magic at All Asia Café; performers at Jordan Hall enjoy the city's prettiest student music venue

"It's not about busking here; nobody puts out a hat for money."

"Not many people get to hear music like this around here," Casey says on a break between sets. "We don't make much money, but we love it here because we get to play."

Open seven nights a week, Wally's Café is located at 427 Mass. Ave. in Boston. www.wallyscafe.com.

Jordan Hall at the New England Conservatory of Music

On the first Wednesday evening in October, most of Boston is watching the Red Sox cream the Angels in the opening game of the playoffs. But a few hundred of us sit rapt in Jordan Hall, where guest conductor Hugh Wolff leads a concert by the NEC Philharmonia, the premier student orchestra at Boston's premier classical music school.

For sure, the Philharmonia is no Boston Symphony Orchestra. That Wednesday night, while dressed in formal black, the group still looks a little like the cast of a Judd Apatow movie—beautiful young women and guys with weird hair. The timpani player sports a red mohawk. And during intermission, a couple of finicky audience members grumble that two of the violinists hadn't lifted their strings quickly enough during the first movement of the Jupiter symphony. Whatever. Unlike a BSO performance, nobody in the audience is sneaking a peek at a cell phone to get the latest game score. For a student orchestra performance, it's pretty damned terrific. And it's free.

Located one long block (and a few long years of practice) away from Symphony Hall, the 1,013-seat Jordan Hall hosts hundreds of classical student performances every year, almost all of which are free to the public. Among the most popular are the "First Monday" concerts, which include faculty and distinguished alumni, as well as top students.

And regardless of your taste in music, you'd be hard-pressed to argue that Jordan Hall isn't the prettiest student music venue in the city. In fact, it's the only conservatory building on the U.S. list of National Historic Landmarks.

Jordan Hall is located at 30 Gainsborough St. in Boston. www.newengland conservatory.edu.

Berklee Beach

Anyone who watched TV between 1982 and 1987 will remember a show called Fame, which followed the fictional lives of students at the New York City High School for the Performing Arts. Between classes and angst-ridden plotlines, the kids would break out into impromptu song-and-dance numbers on the sidewalk in front of the school. Remember?

Berklee College of Music offers a Bostonian, collegiate version of Fame. On any given afternoon, you'll find a hip mix of students hanging out in a cloud of Marlboro smoke in front of the school's main building, on the block of Mass. Ave. between Boylston and Belvedere streets. Known locally as "Berklee Beach," the block is host to some terrific impromptu play sessions.

"Everyone sits out here, in their pajamas sometimes, and just jams," says the aforementioned Joe Matzzie. "Anything goes. You put 4,000 musicians together and it's always going to be interesting."

To wit: On a recent balmy Tuesday afternoon at the Beach, Simone Scazzocchio sits in a niche in the school's wall, thumping a bodhran, a traditional Irish frame drum.

"It's the best way to meet new people," says Scazzocchio, a film-scoring student from Rome who hangs out on Berklee Beach several days a week.

Fellow student Aaron Burnett stands next to Scazzocchio, improvising on his alto sax to the beat of the bodhran. He manages multiple notes simultaneously, which is no small feat on a woodwind instrument.

"Controlled, organized tones," says Burnett, a classical composition major from Chicago who also plays locally in the band Sistine Criminals. "It's pretty hard to do."

A couple of students dance a goofy Irish jig nearby. A Greenpeace activist stops to watch. He doesn't ask anyone for money. And neither do the musicians.

"It's not about busking here; nobody puts out a hat for money," Matzzie says. "It's about people showing off for each other."

Berklee Beach is located in Boston, on the stretch of Mass. Ave. between Boylston and Belvedere streets. www.berklee.edu.

All Asia Café

Situated on a scruffy block of Mass. Ave. near MIT, All Asia Café is an 80-seat venue with a deceptive name. While it does serve up crab Rangoon, "Mandarin mozzarella sticks" and other Americanized Asian fare, the quirky restaurant is better known as a springboard for new musicians.

"We are the premier venue for launching new acts in Boston," boasts Marc Shulman, manager and operator of All Asia. "We feature all the new stuff. People come in here all the time and say that they heard All Asia was the place to start."

The vibe at All Asia is both quirky and comfy. The decor is eclectic; Chinese lanterns, brick walls, band stickers and a permanent installation by cartoon artist Bren Bataclan make the place feel like a cross between a divey rock club and an artsy coffee house. The bands set the cover charge, and because there's no stage fee they get to keep 100 percent of the profits. Generally that cover charge ranges from low to nonexistent; the musicians just want a friendly audience. Many of the acts feature students from Berklee, NEC or MIT, as well as theater majors from Emerson College.

"I used to play there with my singer-songwriter friends," says Justine Ok, a recent Berklee grad who now performs with musicians such as Kevin So and Vudoo Soul. "It was a way for us to showcase our material and gain experience at a familiar venue. I think our performances improved because of it."

All Asia has hosted more than 4,000 shows in the past eight years, with multiple folk, rock, funk, soul or comedy acts every day of the week. Its Web site describes the place as "a community theatre," and claims that "anybody can get a booking at All Asia... well, almost."

"I think the theory is that if you throw enough spaghetti at the wall, some of it is going to stick," Shulman says, noting that standout acts have included the Thungs, Sleep Station and "the guy who did the sound for Spider-Man 3."

On Wednesday nights after 10 pm, All Asia opens its little stage to a free open-mike show hosted by Bryan Murphy, lead singer of local pop-rock band the Shills.

"We have some incredible singers at the open mikes," Shulman says.

Open seven nights a week, All Asia Café is located at 334 Mass. Ave. in Cambridge. www.allasiabar.com.

The Beehive at the BCA

Fewer new businesses created more excitement this year than the Beehive—the spacious, spiffy new club (and former boiler room) in the South End's Cyclorama building. Throughout August the club hosted a formal program called the Berklee Emerging Artists series, in which the club reserved Tuesday nights for some of the city's finest student performers. "It was fantastic," says Beehive co-owner Jack Bardy, also of the popular Pho Republique restaurant. "Every week [there was] a new, talented group."

The formal program ended with the summer, but the relationship with Berklee continues—if only because students know the 'hive is the hottest spot in town. There's a line out the door almost every weekend (the joint is open 5:30 pm to 2 am Monday through Sunday). "Come in on any night and there's a good chance you're going to hear some talented Berklee students," Bardy says, citing Afropop group Zili Musik. "There's just always a lot of activity here."

The club still features Berklee faculty jams on Sunday and Wednesday evenings, and Bardy and partner Darryl Settles are considering a future iteration of the Emerging Artists series. "It's all about what youth can bring to a performance," Bardy says, "new ideas and new expressions."

Open seven nights a week, the Beehive is located at 541 Tremont St. in Boston. www.beehiveboston.com.

careerbuilder.com™
Career Fairs

LOOKING FOR A BETTER JOB?

Join us at the CareerBuilder.com Boston Career Fair

Friday, November 2, 2007

10:00am-3:00pm

Free admission
Register at event
Business attire & résumé required

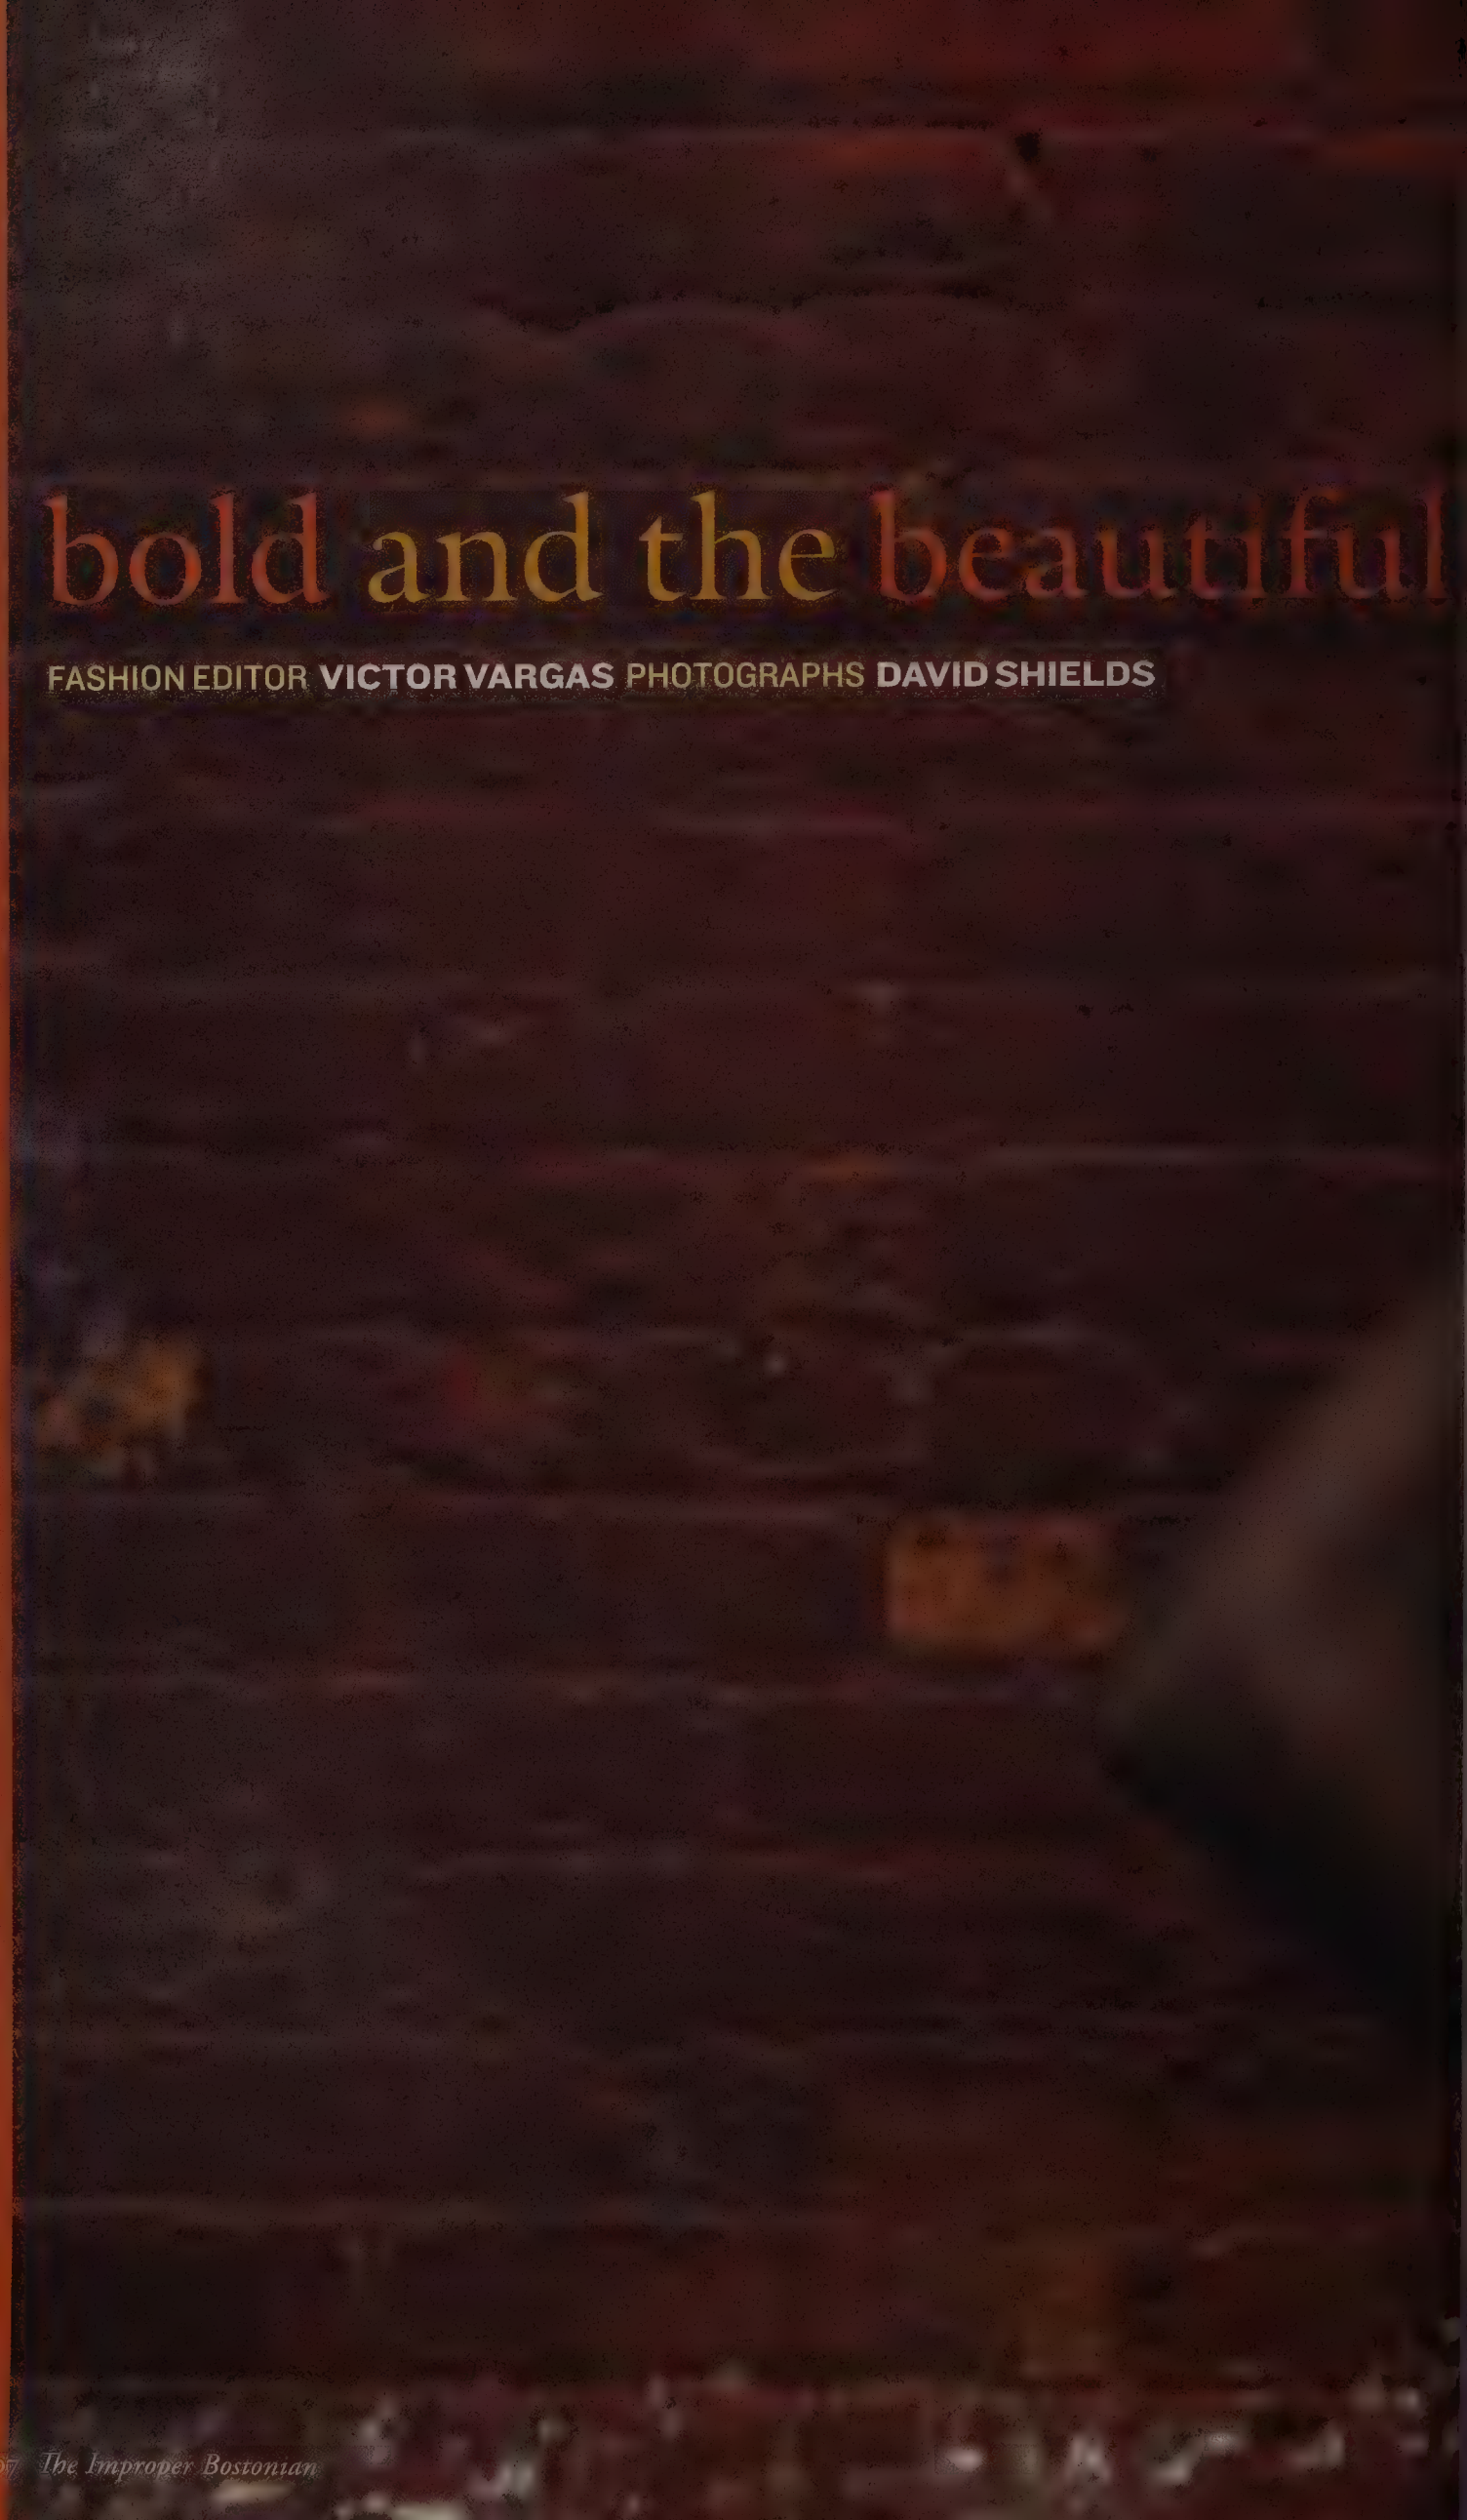
Sheraton Boston Hotel
Grand Ballroom
39 Dalton Street, Boston, MA 02199

This is your chance to meet top employers IN PERSON, in one day! Earn salaries between $25K-125K

Entry Level to Management Positions Available in:
Sales • Finance • Customer Service • Accounting • Technology/ IT • Engineering • Retail • Hospitality • Marketing • And much, much more!

Companies Present:
Ameriprise Financial • AFLAC • Pure Weight Loss • University of Phoenix-Massachusetts Campuses • Sprint • Konica Minolta Business Solutions
BAO Inc. • Nichols College • Comcast • American Student Assistance • Snap-on Tools • US Border Patrol • And many more!

Proudly sponsored by



WBCN 104.1 FM

For details and a complete list of exhibitors, visit the Career tab at Careerbuilder.com under advice and resources.

RETRO ELEGANCE AND FLASHY ACCESSORIES REDEFINE THE MODERN DIVA

the bold and the beautiful

FASHION EDITOR VICTOR VARGAS PHOTOGRAPHS DAVID SHIELDS

Gray silk gazar illusion dress: Dior by John Galliano, $6,990 at Dior. Plexiglass resin breastplate, $1,950 at Chanel. Chandelier earrings, $495; extra-wide cuff, $2,500; 20-coil bracelet, $3,500. All by John Hardy at Neiman Marcus.

White wool and silk bell-shaped dress by Versace, $2,290 at Nordstrom. Gray Diva pump, $1,080 at Versace. Plexiglass resin breastplate, $1,950; patent calfskin belt, $650. Both at Chanel. Monogram Mirage Speedy bag, $1,800 at Louis Vuitton. Convex wide cuff, $895. Menari bead necklace, $1,895. Both by John Hardy at Neiman Marcus.

Turquoise strapless bell-shaped dress by Versace, $2,156 at Nordstrom. Black wool beret, by special order at Versace. Black suede and patent leather wide belt, $560 at Gucci. Square grid cuff, $3,500; narrow cuff, $1,995; round cluster drop earrings, $1,995; all by John Hardy at Neiman Marcus.

PINK SILK-VELVET ZIP JACKET, $2,060; RED WOOL LAMÉ A-LINE SKIRT, $1,094; OFF-WHITE SPLASHED PARISIAN CAP, $462. ALL AT LOUIS VUITTON. GRAY PLATFORM PUMP WITH ANKLE STRAP IN BRAIDED LEATHER AND PYTHON, DIOR BY JOHN GALLIANO, $1,390 AT DIOR. ROUND DROP EARRINGS, $795; COCOON CUFF, $2,500. BOTH BY JOHN HARDY AT NEIMAN MARCUS.

STORES:

Chanel
5 Newbury St.
617-859-0055

Dior
Copley Place
617-927-7577

Gucci
Copley Place
617-247-3000

Louis Vuitton
Copley Place
617-437-6519

Neiman Marcus
Copley Place
617-536-3660

Nordstrom
The Natick Collection
508-318-2600

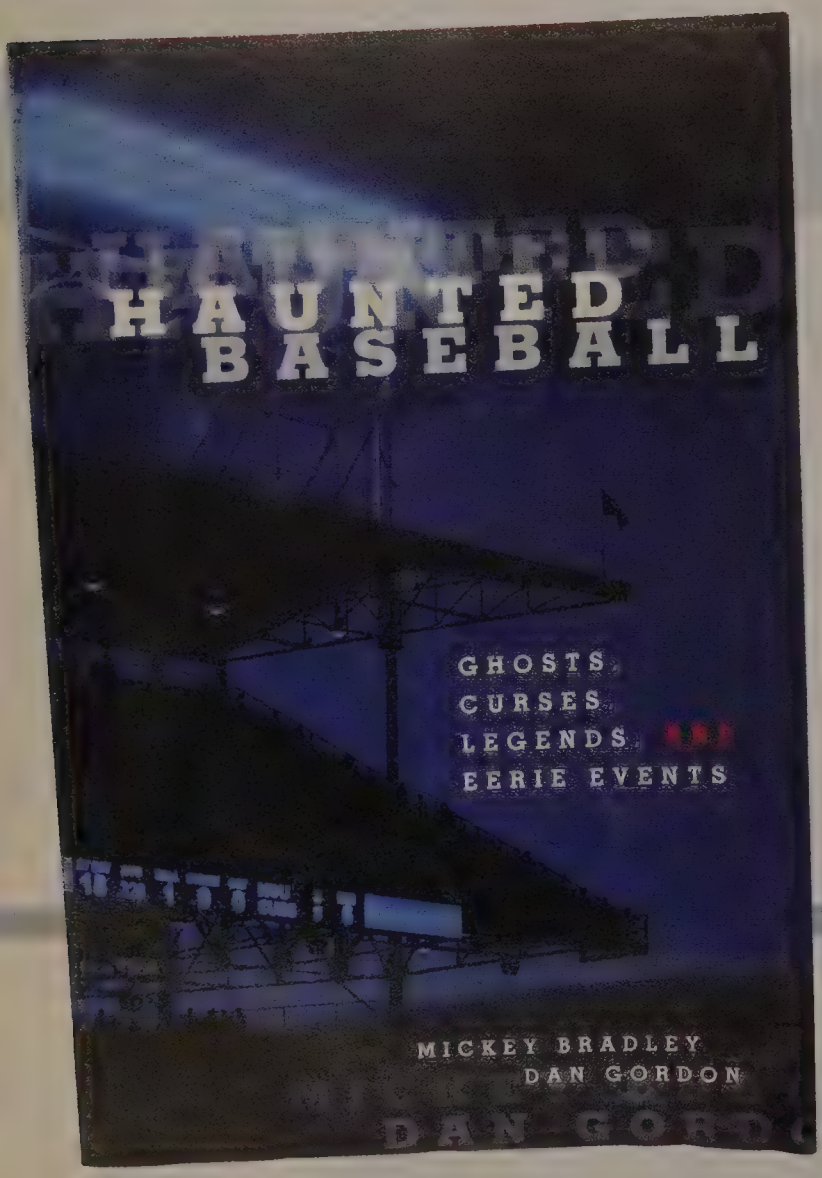
Valentino
47 Newbury St.
617-578-0300

Versace
New York
212-317-0224

Hair: Michele Salvadori/ L'Atelier, NYC

Makeup: Charlene Burris/Susan Price, NYC using Benefit cosmetics

Models: Venantia and Jotasha/Elite, NYC



Fashion assistants: Mariel Koed, Ashley Kujawski and Sevasti Tustin

Purple multitier silk dress, $5,950, at Valentino. Large circle bib necklace, $1,495; wide cuff, $3,950; and large round ring, $995. All by John Hardy at Neiman Marcus

MOPSY

SERENDIPITOUS SHOPPING: OUR UNFETTERED CORRESPONDENT SEEKS OUT THE SALUBRIOUS AND THE CEREBRAL.

BY MOPSY STRANGE KENNEDY

HIT OR MYTH

In Haunted Baseball: Ghosts, Curses, Legends and Eerie Events, Mickey Bradley and Dan Gordon demystify the Red Sox.

Baseball is seething with significance both weird and wonderful, and people—fans and players alike—imbue it with religious, otherworldly and knock-on-wood powers. Most famously there's The Curse (and its attendant ice cream flavor, The Curse Reversed). Less well-known is the paranormal visit Red Sox left-hander Bill Lee received from late Sox owner Tom Yawkey, who appeared to him in the form of an intrusive pigeon. The Chicago Cubs are careful not to cross Becky, a brave, quirky survivor of mental and physical handicaps who's a sort of amulet/nemesis to the team. Her letters and predictions to players ("Cherry gum is good for a home run") make them listen. Johnny Damon reports being briefly paralyzed by a ghost in his house. The gravelly-voiced Red Sox announcer Sherm Feller, more iconic than demonic, still visits the current announcer (though he sometimes flips switches and steals papers.) Soon after Sept. 11, the Yankees, late in the game and against all odds, enjoyed three explosively cathartic wins, one of them on Halloween. And the Reds' Ken Griffey, after a dreadful game, suddenly hit a home run for a felled Sept. 11 firefighter who had been a fan. These electric resonances, which include stories of ashes scattered on ballparks, are thrilling.

POOCHES OF PRIVILEGE

Four Preppy Paws (103 Charles St., Boston; 617-723-0112) carries favors and fancy food for Fido.

Dogs of a certain social class who trot fetchingly down the beautiful streets of Beacon Hill want, need, to be as well-appointed as their owner At this canine couturierie, portraits (and your dog can become a candidate for one) show pooches posing with aristocratic dignity and grace on the steps of local houses; one golden sits in an elegant doorway each flattering the other. The shop has a "Barkery" counter with all-natural, no-wheat cookies decorated like baseballs, ladybugs or Mr. Potato Head. Plush pillows are covered in fabrics to coordinate nicely with Brahmin upholstery, and that goes for unusually suave dog beds, to One ingenious canvas-handled bag has a PVC lining, so it can actually work as a water dish. Owner Heidi Barraza designs leashes and collars printed with the iconography of human preppiness: tennis rackets, frogs sailboats, even a pink-ribbon line so Fido can support breast cancer research. Likewise, cute winter coats, teeny and bigger, sport Burberry and pastel fabrics: like mummy, like doggy. And of course, there are mit to wipe horrible winter salt from delicate paws. Some greeting cards are edible, others celebrate canine joys and transitions. Fine dog foods like Newman's Own and Merrick are also available.

LOVE THY NEIGHBOR (OR JUST HELP HIM MOVE HIS COUCH)

Time Trade Circle (617-868-9855; www.timetradecircle.org) offers trading or bartering of services.

Once upon a cozy tribe, it was natural for people to help each other out with everyday tasks. Fam members may still do it, but among chilly semi-strangers, asking and getting is rare. So this mutu aid, barter-like system is taking hold in Cambridge and Somerville, weaving connections throu the exchange of services mundane, humane and arty. Through Time Trade Circle, you can give an hour of some service and in return receive an hour of another service. The categories are wonderfully smorgasbordian: lifting a heavy object beyond the strength of the elderly or ill, running errands (often easy to piggyback on your own), navigating something on the Web. Other services entail compassion—say, being available for a 3 am phone call during a dark night of the soul. You could knit something, or meet a child coming home from school. Social jobs like helping run an event or political ones like leafleting are on the ever-expanding list. You might water a plant or take a dog out to "make water." Repair a motorbike here; learn about local resources there. The exchange need not be merely quid pro quo; you can give to Jack and get from Jill. As Edgar Cahn said, "We have what we need if we use what we have."

"One Night Only"

Friday, November 2nd

Gypsy BAR

1 place.

DJ AM

3 djs.

Tiesto

1 time only.

The Biggest Night in Boston Nightlife History.

116 Boylston Street, Boston, MA 02116
617-482-7799 www.gypsybarboston.com

REVIEW

SEAPORT SALVATORE'S

Superb pizzas and pastas fill void left by unexceptional entrees

BY J. CHARLES MOKRISKI • PHOTOGRAPHS BY ANTHONY TIEULI

SALVATORE'S
225 Northern Ave., Boston
617-737-5454
www.salvatoresboston.com
HOURS Mon.-Sat., 11 am–12 am
RESERVATIONS recommended
CREDIT CARDS Visa, MasterCard, AmEx
HANDICAPPED ACCESSIBLE yes
PARKING garage
LIQUOR LICENSE full

When I think of the Seaport District, I think of new office towers, hotels and convention space. I think of the grand federal courthouse with its sweeping lines and beautiful views; of the chic Institute of Contemporary Art and the high-decibel Bank of America Pavilion. But when I emerged from dinner one Saturday and stepped onto Northern Ave., I was reminded of what the Seaport is really about. The sea's fresh, bracing, briny perfume filled my nose. No matter what the developers do, this quarter is defined by the sights, sounds, smells and ambiance of the waterfront.

I had been put in a good mood by a parade of plates from the kitchen of Salvatore's, a pleasant, unpretentious Italian eatery that opened in the Seaport District earlier this year. Owned by the Lupoli brothers, Salvatore's occupies a ground-floor corner of the building that also houses LTK. The Lupolis' original Salvatore's, located in Lawrence, along with their 30-plus Sal's pizzerias, evidence considerable experience in the red-sauce department. The chain is known, in particular, for its generous portions—behold the three-pound pizza.

Salvatore's lengthy menu is just as daunting. Twenty different pizza varieties, not counting the exhausting number of permutations possible with the 40 listed toppings, appear with 40 appetizer, salad, pasta and main course offerings. Over my two visits I sampled two pizzas, three appetizers, four pastas, four main courses and three desserts. The pizzas and pastas proved outstanding across the board. Two of the appetizers were nothing short of terrific, and a third appetizer was decent if not distinguished. Their tiramisu elevated this compulsory Italian dessert-card entry to a new level. Only one of the main courses, however, equaled the superlative quality of the pastas. The other three didn't deserve to share space on the menu, and I would send them back to the drawing board with instructions to attend to their perfunctory garnishes.

Yet the pizza is reason enough to come to Salvatore's. One night we tried the spinach and ricotta ($12), grouped with the "12-inch gourmet pizzas." It boasted well-baked crust with puffy edges, a topping of tender baby spinach bathed in fruity olive oil, fresh garlic and ricotta, mozzarella and Parmesan cheeses. My pizza choice on our second visit was even better. Called the "Italian lover" ($14), its ultra-thin, pleasantly oily crust supported a cornucopia of cold cuts—prosciutto, sopressata and capicola—spanning the flavor spectrum from salty to garlicky to sweet and tangy. Caramelized onions, fresh garlic and basil completed the dish and made this a pie to remember. I ordered this pizza upon arriving in order to have something to nibble while studying the menu and planned to stop after one piece. This "Italian lover" mocked such self-restraint and was soon history.

Mammarosa picante

These superb delicatessen favorites played an encore in the antipasti all'italiana ($11). The meat came in razor-thin slices moistened with olive oil and served with hunks of sharp provolone cheese, creamy mozzarella and olives. A generous serving, the antipasta provided much more than a taste for our party of four. My favorite appetizer, shrimp crostini ($11), showed what can be done with this crustacean. Not plastic in texture and washed out in flavor, eight giant shrimp had been quickly sauteed in oil with a little garlic and basil and then splashed with brandy. Combined with ripe cherry tomatoes, they came served on grilled toasts moistened with olive oil. Extraordinary. Our third appetizer, rice balls ($11), mig have shone brighter if not tri in the shadow of the shrim Breaded and deep-fried, th were supposed to contain thr different fillings—Bologne sauce, mushrooms and spina with mozzarella—but t
heavy breading masked th distinctiveness and render them a little dry.

The consistent quality of the pas made it difficult to pick a winner. Pa pardelle with mushrooms ($16) broug broad housemade noodles (cooked to firm but tender texture) dressed in a sau of thyme, garlic, Romano and Parmes cheeses, and assorted fresh mushrooms their earthy flavor well-married with t tartness of cherry tomatoes. Linguini w clams ($20) yielded a dozen delicious tlenecks sauteed in their shells with ga and oil, spiked with a touch of red pep and served on top of perfectly al de noodles. Mafaldine, a Neapolitan pa like a rippled pappardelle, came in a nu ber of different preparations. My favor the pasta abruzzese ($16), was tossed w large meaty nuggets of succulent pancet garlic, hot red pepper, more of the ta cherry tomatoes and Romano cheese. T coolness of the cheese helped balance heat of the pepper. In mammarosa picca ($16), the pasta had been sauteed in b ter, onions, prosciutto, chili peppers, tor toes and cream. In both mafaldine prepa tions, the pasta emerged with its text and shape intact.

The only main course I tried at Sal tore's that merited mention, the chick piccata ($18), was really another pas with more of the mafaldine noodles a moist pieces of chicken breast witl lemon-caper sauce enriched with g gonzola mascarpone. The haddock liv nese ($22), a decent piece of ligh
breaded, reasonably firm fish sauteed olive oil with garlic, shallots and che tomatoes, might have been better ha not been garnished with soggy roas potatoes, undercooked green beans a overcooked asparagus. The same g nishes were heaped with the filet of b ($27) and the abysmal mass of tir mushy, slightly sour-tasting eggpl

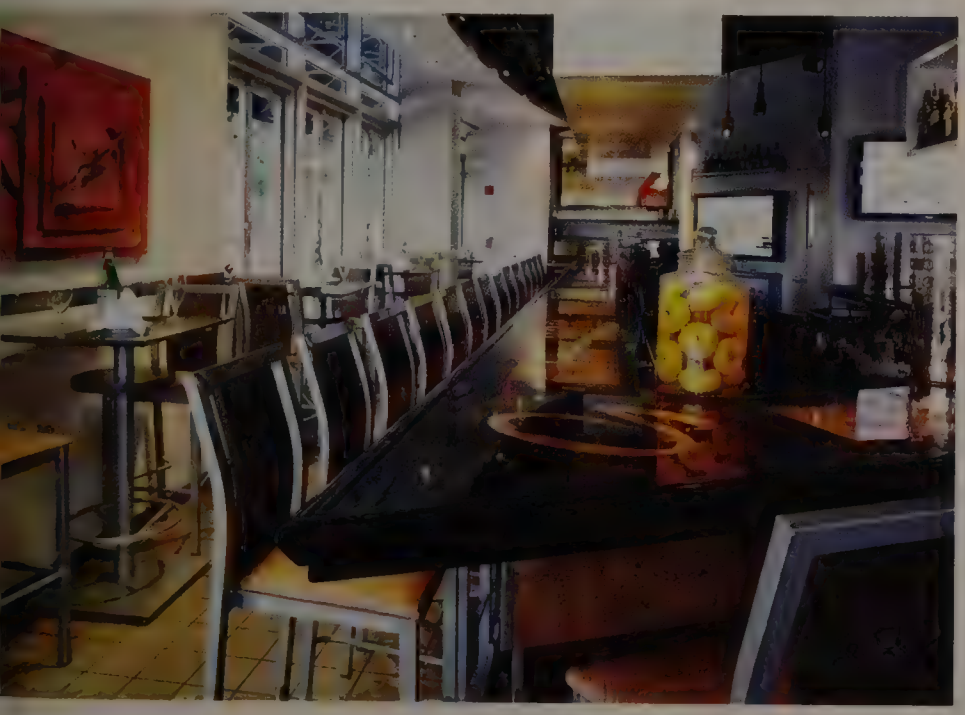
Chocolate pizza

rmesan ($16). The beef at least showed me promise, despite its coarse texture d pale flavor, thanks to the kitchen's ll-constructed Madeira sauce. The gplant, on the other hand, was beyond demption.

As mentioned earlier, the tiramisu ($8) itomized the proption that "all's ll that ends well." assive in size, this ered confection ld its form rather an collapsing into sodden mass the y the dessert often es. It had the right ance of sweetness, h coffee flavor and t enough liqueur give it an engaging ge. A chocolate za ($8), despite its using presentan, didn't merit the ories.



Chicken piccata

The restaurant's wine list contained a od selection at very reasonable prices. e 2005 Bastardo Sangiovese ($23), ity and straightforward, provided good companiment, as did the 2005 Nederberg Pinotage ($27) from South Africa. The whimsically named "Fourplay" ($29), a substantial red from Tuscany, combined full flavor with marvelous aroma. The last of the wines I tried, the 2003 Mattei Barbera ($26) from Piemonte, may have been my favorite—refreshing, flavorful and with a depth I don't usually associate with barbera.

Salvatore's space is brightly lit, from the roughly horseshoe-shaped bar at the front of the house to the long, narrow dining room. Two large white girders appear both functional and aesthetic, as do elevated triangular wine storage bins that pick up colors from the abstract paintings hung on the rear wall.

Efficient, friendly, knowledgeable service combined with enormous portions and reasonable prices should make this a popular spot. My recommendation: come for the pizza, stay for pasta and antipasti, then proceed directly to the tiramisu. iB

DISH

The French Collection?

Chef Jacky Robert builds a French empire...

BY CAROLYN FAYE FOX

Petit Robert Bistro pastry chef Kristen Lawson

Once known primarily as a member of the Robert dynasty of Maison Robert fame, chef Jacky Robert is busily carving out his own growing niche. After opening two Petit Robert Bistros, the first in Kenmore Square and the second in the South End, Robert is embarking on a new, markedly more ambitious project: a third PRB in the 180-seat space formerly occupied by Copia in Charlestown.

Slated to open early next year, the new PRB will offer an expansive dessert bar ("like a French pastry shop," says pastry chef Kristen Lawson) and a wide range of prepared foods for take-out: "You can buy your whole dinner to go—the pâtés, the boeuf bourguignon," says Loic Le Garrec, Robert's general manager and business partner in the first two PRBs. To manage the newest project, Robert and Le Garrec have joined forces with a third partner: Paul Licari, who co-owns Locke-Ober with Lydia Shire.

The large dining room will be redesigned to accommodate 180 diners, with new banquettes and booths to lend a "warmer" touch, more "like a French brasserie," says Le Garrec. "The place is so big, we want to make it more welcoming."

On the partners' wish list, but not yet a done deal, is a traditional French outdoor oyster bar, complete with "a guy in a big yellow apron, very mean and in a bad mood," says Le Garrec.

Got Elk?

Football isn't the only game in town this time of year. Autumn is the season when the deer formerly known as Bambi is renamed venison. To celebrate, executive chef Eric Brennan of Excelsior is featuring "Game of the Week," focusing on elk and its ilk. So far, the roster has included roast sirloin of Ontario wild boar with red-currant boar-bacon sauce and juniper-roasted venison saddle with Thai-spiced huckleberry compote.

The Life of Pie

Remember back when Mrs. Fields' cook stores were a hot trend? Sure you do. Noti all the cupcake bakeries sprouting up? course. But does anybody recall the sho lived Pudding It First in Coolidge Corn the store dedicated to the doomed conce of selling various flavors of pudding? Prob bly not. Fads have a short shelf life; tren endure longer, and pastry chefs Paige Ret (formerly of Olives and The Metropolit Club) and Ellen Kaplansky (formerly Figs)—who are preparing to open Pie Ba ery and Café in Newton Centre—are b ting that pie, in all its sweet and savo forms, will prove to be a keeper.

"It's not a cutting-edge, cool thing sell," says owner Kaplansky, who plans offer globally inspired "hand pies like c zones, Welsh pasties, spanakopita a knishes," as well as sandwiches, soups, p tries and classic sweet pies ranging fr apple to banana cream. Slated to golden-brown and ready by the end of t year, the 24-seat PB&C will operate sev days a week from 6:30 am to 8 pm. iB

Serving Dish

Seen a food fight? Got a restaurant rant? Send it dish@improper.com.

CONTENDER 3 LIVE FINALE

HOSTED BY SUGAR RAY LEONARD

TUESDAY NOVEMBER 6, 2007

TD BANKNORTH GARDEN - BOSTON

DOORS OPEN: 6:00PM MAIN EVENT: 9:00PM

TICKETS ON SALE AT TICKETMASTER.COM OR THE BOX OFFICE

TM & © 2007 BY CONTENDER PARTNERS, LLC. ALL RIGHTS RESERVED. VISIT WWW.TOURNAMENTOFCONTENDERS.COM TODAY FOR MORE INFORMATION.

Rabias.com
RABIA'S
RISTORANTE
(In the heart of the North End)

PRELUDE TO LOVE™

At Rabia's, we know that food is indeed the Prelude to Love - whether it's the excitement of young passions, the celebration of love renewed, or simply the love of life. So for that special night, let romance seek its own time. Just sit back and relax, while we passionately search out and prepare for you the very best of Italy and the Mediterranean.

"Diner's are transported to a faraway world"
Boston.com Citysearch

"There's a real enthusiasm on their seafood platters that makes for special dinners, and it's generating a certain buzz."
Boston Phoenix

"One of the city's most romantic" Yelp.com

Italian & Mediterranean Cuisine

HEY! Time To Book Your Holiday Party!
Up to 100 people!

NEW! Raw Bar

NEW, Wine Bar, Oyster Bar, & 60" Plasma TV

617.227.6637 - 73 Salem Street Boston, MA 02113

TASTINGS

BY RICH LEVINE

Advice to Contributors
Submit listings by mail or e-mail (tastings@improper.com). Include address, phone number, ticket price, dates and times, the nearest T stop and a brief description of the event. Deadline is four weeks prior to publication. Listings cannot be accepted over the phone.

Events

Belgian Beer Fest
Cyclorama, 539 Tremont St., Boston. www.beeradvocate.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. Oct. 27, 1-4:30 pm and 6-9:30 pm. $45. Beeradvocate.com's annual Belgian Beer Fest features music, guest speakers and a wide selection of hand-picked Belgian brews.

Burmese Food Fair
International Community Church, 30 Gordon St., Allston (617-782-8120). www.obcfboston.com. Oct. 27, 5-8 pm. $4-$6 per dish. The Overseas Burmese Christian Fellowship hosts its annual festival of authentic Burmese fare at the ICC.

Butcher Series
Savenor's Market, 92 Kirkland St., Cambridge (617-576-6328). www.savenorsmarket.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. Nov. 3, 3-4 pm. $25. Ron Savenor leads a seminar on carving a turkey.

Epicurean Evenings
Aujourd'hui at the Four Seasons, 200 Boylston St., Boston (617-351-2037). www.fourseasons.com/boston/dining.html. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Tue., 6 pm. $45. Sommelier Brick Loomis and chef William Kovel host this weekly wine event that offers three light courses built around a theme, region or grape variety. •Oct. 30: Legend of Sleepy Hollow.

Great Sicilian Wines
UpStairs on the Square, 92 Winthrop St., Cambridge (617-864-1933). www.upstairsonthesquare.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. Oct. 30, 6:30 pm. $85. Antonio Rallo from the Donnafugata family winery leads a discussion, followed by a multicourse southern Italian dinner paired with wines from Sicily.

Halloween Chocolate Boofet
Langham Hotel, 250 Franklin St., Boston (617-956-8751). www.boston.langhamhotels.com. MBTA: Red Line to South Station. Oct. 27, 12-3 pm. $35. Café Fleuri hosts a special Halloween-themed day at its Chocolate Bar, featuring items like Frankenstein Surprise, Dirty Worms and Pile of Bones.

Hot Off the Vine
33 Restaurant, 33 Stanhope St., Boston (617-572-3311). www.33restaurant.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington or Orange Line to Back Bay. Wed., 5-7 pm. $20-$40. Join chef Anthony Dawodu and wine director Paul Westerkamp for a sampling of four wines paired with food tastings. •Oct 24: Wine 101. •Oct. 31: Monthly Grand Tasting.

In the Kitchen
Rustic Kitchen, 210 Stuart St., Boston (617-423-5700). www.rustickitchen.biz. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Fri., 6:30 pm. $50. On Fridays, Alissa Bigelow hosts an interactive cooking class. The October/November program is entitled "Fall Harvest Pasta."

Leave No One Behind Dinner
Seaport Hotel, 1 Seaport Lane, Boston (617-371-1729). www.neshv.org. MBTA: Red Line to South Station. Nov. 6, 6:30 pm. $275. This annual fundraising dinner—featuring a speech by Nathaniel Fick, former marine captain and author of the book One Bullet Away—benefits the New England Shelter for Homeless Veterans.

Monday Flight Night
Salvatore's, 225 Northern Ave., Boston (617-73 5454). MBTA: Silver Line to World Trade Cente Mon., 6-8 pm. $15. Every Monday, Salvatore offers four cocktail infusions, including th Cherry Bomb, Starfruit and Coconut Strawber

Monday Night Wine Club
Ashmont Grill, 555 Talbot St., Dorchester (61 825-4300). www.ashmontgrill.com. MBT #22 Bus to Talbot Ave. Mon., 6-8 pm. $2 Each Monday, four to five wine selections a served on the patio, accompanied by sma plates of seasonal food.

Seafood and Reds Dinner
Great Bay, 500 Comm Ave., Boston (617-74 0242). www.bostonuncorked.com. MBTA: Gre Line to Kenmore. Oct. 24, 6:30-9:30 pm. $6 Boston Uncorked and Great Bay team up to pr sent a three-course seafood dinner paired wi white wines.

Steak Frites Fridays at Pigalle
Pigalle, 75 Charles St. South, Boston (617-42 4944). www.pigalleboston.com. MBTA: Gre Line to Boylston. Fri. $35. Sundays this fall, P galle offers a prix-fixe, steak-frites–themed di ner that also features live music.

Taste of Grub
Parkman House, 33 Beacon St., Boston (617-69 0075). www.grubstreet.org. MBTA: Red or Gre Line to Park. Nov. 2, 7 pm. $150. Guests enj appetizers and desserts while local authors, i cluding Hank Phillipi Ryan, Andres Dubus and Anita Diamant, read from their works.

Tuesday Night Wine Tasting
Les Zygomates, 129 South St., Boston (617-54 5108). www.winebar.com. MBTA: Red Line South Station. Tue., 7 pm. $30. Sommeli Geoffrey Fallon leads a tasting of a them wine paired with hors d'oeuvres made by ch Ian Just, who also offers cooking demonstr tions. •Oct. 30: Chile. •Nov. 6: Argentina.

Tuscan Wine Dinner
La Morra, 48 Boylston St., Brookline (617-73 0007). www.lamorra.com. Nov. 4, 6:30 pm. $7 Chef Josh Ziskin prepares a five-course Itali dinner paired with wines from Morellino Scanscano's Erik Banti.

Wine and Chocolate Pairing
Boston Center for Adult Education, 5 Com Ave., Boston (617-267-4330). www.bcae.o MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Nov. 1, 7 p $68. Chocolate sommelier Suzanne Oakl and wine educator Adam Chase lead a class pairing wine and chocolate.

Wine and Dine Mondays
Beacon Hill Bistro, 25 Charles St., Boston (61 723-7575). www.beaconhillhotel.com. MBT Red Line to Charles/MGH. First and third Mon. each month. 7 pm, $55. Chef Jason Bond p pares a four-course meal paired with varic wines. A discussion of each wine follows t meal, led by BHB owner Cecilia Rait and M Walker's Tracy Burgis. •Nov. 5: South Afric

Wine Mondays at L'Espalier
L'Espalier, 30 Gloucester St., Boston (617-26 3023). www.lespalier.com. MBTA: Green Line Hynes. Mon., 7 pm. $55. Chef Frank McCl land prepares a four-course French meal pair with wines chosen by sommelier Erik Johnso •Oct. 29: Hallow-wine. •Nov. 5: Spain.

Wine Wednesdays
Sel de la Terre, 255 State St., Boston (617-72 1300). www.seldelaterre.com. MBTA: Bl Line to Aquarium. Wed., 7 pm. $45. Ch Geoff Gardner pairs rustic French cuisi with wines selected by sommeliers Erik Joh son and Michael Meagher at this week event. •Oct. 24: Brave Oktoberfest—Ge many and Austria. •Oct. 31: Trick or Treat.

In this issue, Boston's own Walsh Bros. break down what bothers them most about the city. Plus, we take an inside look at some of the dirtiest jobs in town, prove why Boston has the most rotten weather in the country and explore some local fall trends.

Don't miss this opportunity to advertise in the Worst of Boston issue.

The Improper Bostonian reaches more than 420,500 readers every two weeks!

Call 617-859-1400, ext. 238, to book advertising space now

Issue date: November 7
Advertising deadline: October 24

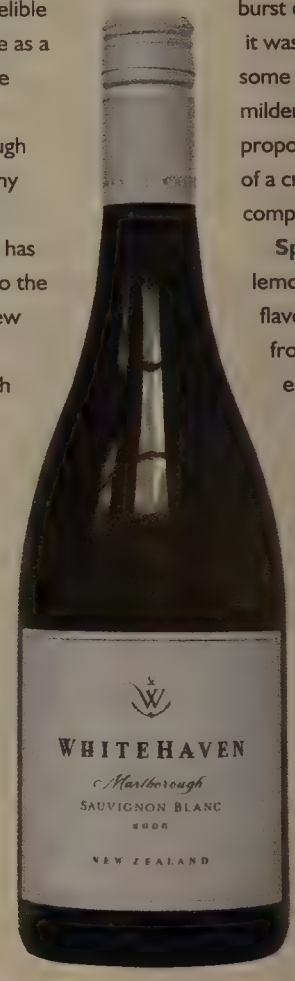
WORST OF BOSTON



WINE

Strong Sauvignon Blanc

BY SANDY BLOCK, M.W.

Sauvignon blanc's been done and redone, but a recent trip to New Zealand has convinced me all over again that there's something special going on with the grape in the country's Marlborough district. My avowed reason for taking the 20-hour flight to the farthest reaches of planet Earth was to taste pinot noir, and I wasn't disappointed. But I went expecting as much. One of the indelible impressions I received, which came as a surprise, was a renewed faith in the special magic that exists between sauvignon blanc and the Marlborough terroir, with its stony soils and sunny cool climate. Why unexpected? Probably because as New Zealand has started to export masses of wine to the United States, I've tasted quite a few bottles with a dull, industrial sameness to their flavors, as though they were made in a lab by formula. Unfortunately, it's no longer the sure thing it was when New Zealand was first reaching out to our shores, and you may have to choose more carefully. The only drawback is economics. The U.S. dollar has been in a prolonged slump, and some of the smaller producers can no longer afford to sell their wines over here at moderate prices. This isn't a major problem, though, as there are plenty of sauvignon blancs exported to the States that I highly recommend and that still cost less than $20. Listed below are my favorites in ascending order of preference. I sampled them at a massive blind tasting (a total of 82 wines). I tended to downgrade those that were strongly tropical in character and those where I tasted sugar. To me, sauvignon blanc should be dry, appetizing and lingering in flavor—the stronger the better.

Terrace Heights, 2006 ($19). Somewhat understated, with hints of lemon and peach tones, this wine showed the more gentle side of Marlborough sauvignon. It actually illustrated the point that these wines are all essentially made according to formula: light pressing, cold fermentation, no wood and aging for a short time on the yeast lees. What differentiates them is how the fruit tastes; when it's as good as this, with persistent but delicate citrus flavors, the formula functions to enhance the natural expression of the grape, rather than to stand in its way. It's a fine aperitif, or something that would complement lightly smoked fish.

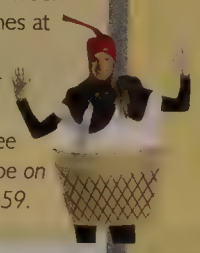
Clos Marguerite, 2006 ($18). This single-vineyard wine from grapes grown in close proximity to the Awatere River had a fresh grapefruit and appetizing dill-like aroma. Dry, tangy and ripe, its citrus flavors tasted quite refreshing. There was an appealing hint of spice in the slightly bitter finish. I imagined enjoying it with a goat cheese salad.

Lake Chalice, 2006 ($16). This wine had an intriguing green-leaf, slightly oily aroma, with a burst of pungent grapefruit. On the palate it was quite ripe but a bit softer than some of the other sauvignon blancs, with milder acidity. Lively but nicely proportioned, this struck me as somewhat of a crowd pleaser. It would serve as a fine complement to raw shellfish.

Spy Valley, 2006 ($18). With vegeta lemony scents and dry, crisp, spicy fruit flavors, this wine's character is right up front. It tastes somewhat like the pure essence of sauvignon blanc. Nicely layered in flavor, this no-compromise wine shows a touch of minerality, which I rarely encounter in New Zealand. I would enjoy it with mussels.

Eradus, 2006 ($15). I didn't initially think that this wine would appeal to me with its aromas of guava and melon and undertones of fragrant citrus. On the palate, however, it showed a classic balance of pure grapefruit flavors, mineral accents and fleshy textures, with a dry impression lingering well into the finish. This is full enough to take on a halibut prepared with a mustard-caper sauce.

Whitehaven, 2006 ($18). This has been a longtime personal favorite. Some might consider it a bit overly assertive, but the bright grapefruit and leafy herb aromas to me are refreshing. The flavors are brilliant and the palate impression is bone dry. After your initial taste, the flavors continue to expand and develop for quite some time. That's what happens with fine sauvignon blanc. You can enjoy this with a wide range of fish and white meat dishes, but tuna sashimi would be ideal.



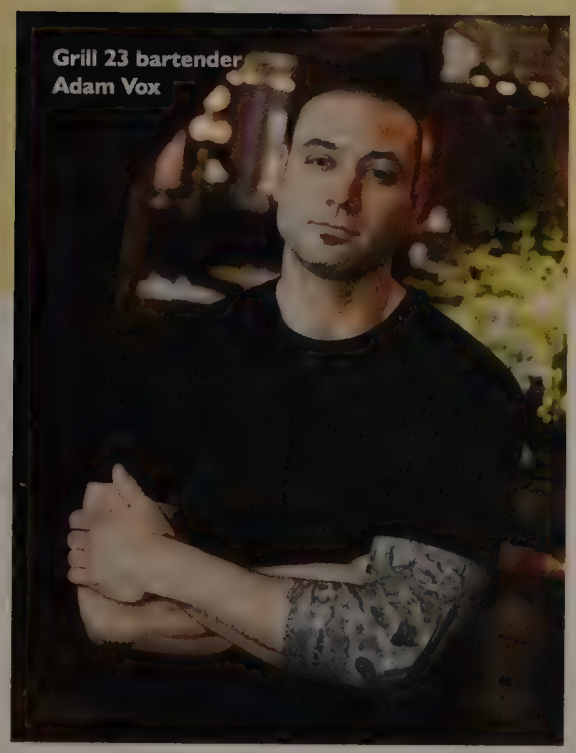
Wairau River, 2006 ($18). This wine to me was the most interesting of all as it incorporated several different flavors and bound them together seamlessly. That's my definition of balance. Fleshy and ripe with appealing pink grapefruit, vegetal spice and a lush though delicate fruit essence, it had an expansive feel on the palate. A wonderful choice for grilled snapper or mahi. IB

Master of Wine Sandy Block is vice president of beverage operations for Legal Sea Foods.

agenda

MPROPER PICKS

october 24 - november 6



SUNDAY	MONDAY	TUESDAY	WEDNESDAY	THURSDAY	FRIDAY	SATURDAY
21	22	23	24 Slam poet Laura Moran performs at the Cantab Lounge. See Books on page 86.	25 	26 Buffalo Tom plays at the Somerville Theatre. See Music on page 69.	27 Jog in your Halloween costumes at the Trick or Treat Trot. See CityScope on page 59.
28	29	30	31 The Brattle screens Evil Dead 2. See Movies on page 65. 	1	2 	3 The Decemberists take the stage at the Orpheum Theatre. See Music on page 71.
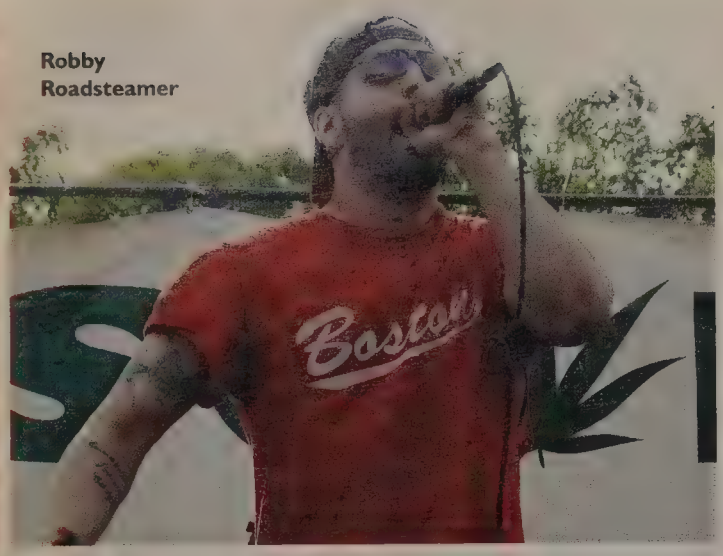
4 Enjoy a five-course Italian meal and wine at La Morra Ristorante. See Tastings on page 54. 	5	6 Van Halen performs at the DCU Center. See Music on page 72.	7

CITYSCOPE 59
PERFORMING ARTS 60
MOVIES 62
MUSIC 68
CLASSICAL MUSIC 73
DANCE CLUBS 76
MUSEUMS & GALLERIES . . 79
GAY & LESBIAN 84
BOOKS & POETRY 86
EDUCATION 87
BODY & MIND 88
SPORTS 89
CHILDREN 90
AROUND TOWN 91

WED./OCT. 24

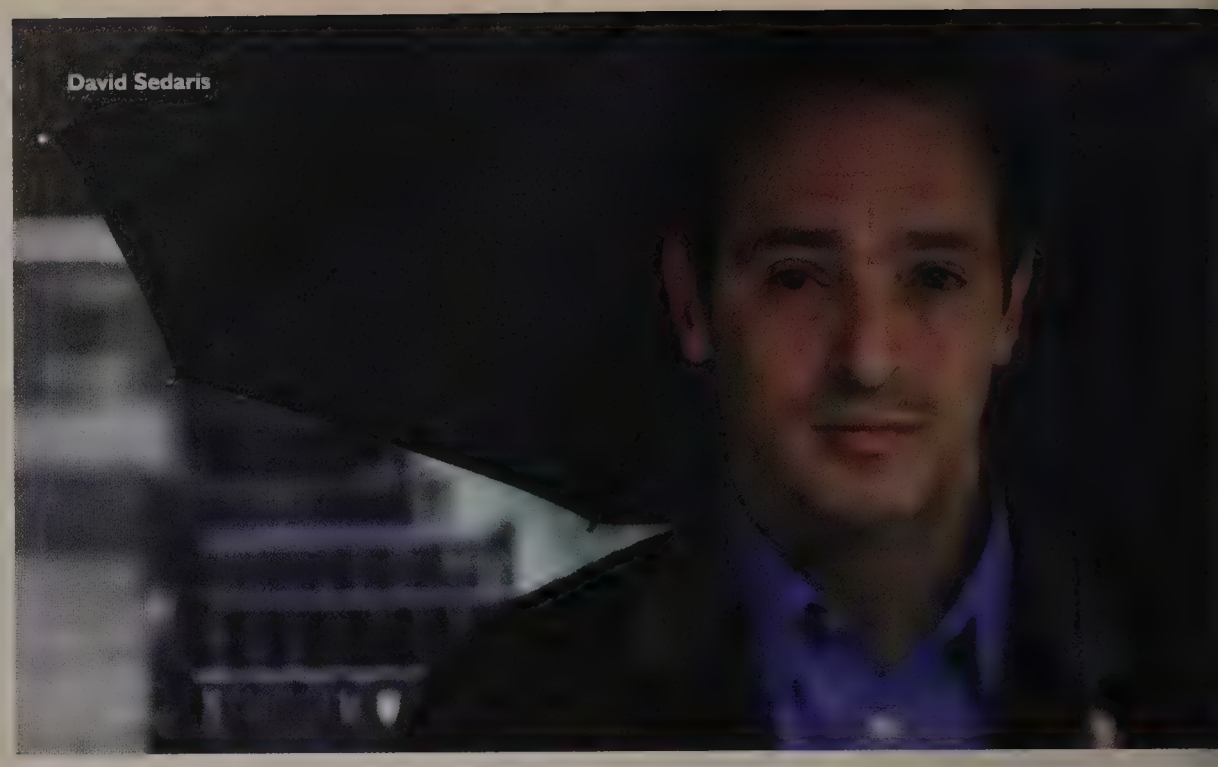


CityScope: Cyanide-tinis

Fresh off its grand opening on Oct. 3, Venom is holding a killer contest called "Pick Your Poison." Ten mixologists pour their lethal inventions for a panel of Boston's bartending legends; they'll be judged on timeliness, technical ability and taste. The winner will receive a $3,000 tip, their drink will be crowned Venom's signature cocktail and, perhaps best of all, Venom will name it after him or her. Imagine the possibilities! "Have you tried the Nick Altschullers? They're delicious," or "I had too many Nick Altschullers and said some things I shouldn't have said. My wife took the kids and ran off to her mother's." Venom, 384 Boylston St., Boston (617-859-7772). 7-9 pm. Free. —NA

Grill 23 bartender Adam Vox

ADAM VOX: KELLY DAVIDSON



CALENDAR EDITED BY
Nick Altschuller Books & Poetry, Movies, Museums & Galleries, Music, Performing Arts
Amanda Knorr Around Town, Body & Mind, Children, Dance Clubs, Education, Movies
Rich Levine CityScope, Gay & Lesbian, Sports
ADDITIONAL LISTINGS BY
Sean Burns Movie Capsules
Linh Tran Body & Mind

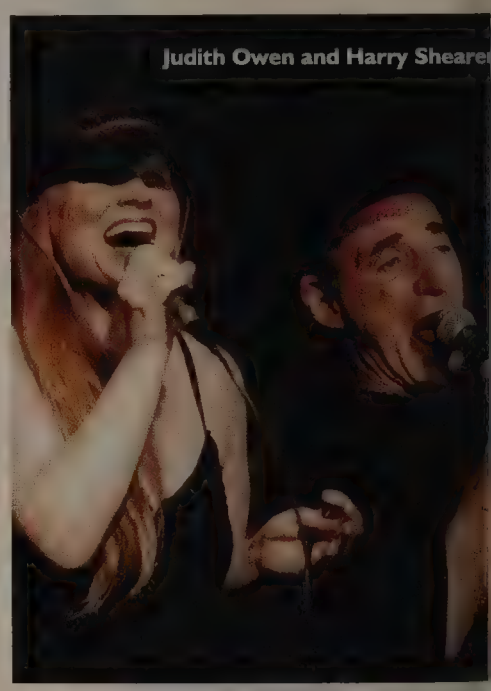
SAT./OCT. 27

Music: Quelle Homage!

In the name of Halloween dress-up, the Middle East channels the spirits (and spandex) of rock bands past with "Under the Cover Bands," a revue of flattering imitators like Noble Rots (as Motörhead), The Unstoppable Black Clouds (as Nirvana) and the Vershok (as Guns N' Roses). Deck yourself in flannel and misery for that summer of 1991 look, or glam it up with leather and crotch-stuffing—both Nevermind and Appetite for Destruction get their due on the playlists. Hosts are nightlife planner Honah Lee and the infamous Robby Roadsteamer of WBCN and NESN's Sox Appeal. The Middle East Upstairs, 472 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-492-9181). www.mideastclub.com. 9 pm. 18+. $10. —AK

FRI./NOV. 2

Books: Me Talk Pretty Today



You've read his books. You've heard his signature nasal whine on NPR. But connoisseurs of humorous short essays know that the best way to enjoy David Sedaris is to hear him in person. It seems strange to think that a diminutive gay man who lives in France could sell out Symphony Hall just by reading aloud from books the audience has already read, but that's the power of making jokes about family dysfunction, sexuality and excruciating faux pas. As those who saw his show last year can attest. If you want to see him this year, drop this magazine and pick up the phone immediately. Symphony Hall, 301 Mass. Ave., 8 pm. $30-$48. —NA

SAT.-SUN./OCT. 27-NOV. 18

Performing Arts: Fur and Loathing

When a beloved film gets overhauled into a stage production, it's natural to arch one's eyebrows in knowing disdain. ("You're doing Octopussy off-Broadway? How... nice for you.") But when the American Repertory Theatre's associate director Marcus Stern tackles cult-hit Donnie Darko, it just seems right. This twisted story of a troubled teen (played in the film by Jake Gyllenhaal), a sinister six-foot rabbit and impending apocalypse wasn't written as a three-act psychological drama by Jean-Paul Sartre, but it could have been. Check it out in the ART's Zero Arrow Theatre, just in time for Halloween. American Repertory Theatre, 64 Brattle St., Cambridge (617-495-2668). www.amrep.org. Tue.-Thu., 7:30 pm; Fri., 8 pm; Sat., 2 pm; Sun., 2 and 7:30 pm. $39-$52, general admission; $15-$25, students. —AK

SAT. AND SUN./OCT. 27 AND OCT. 28

Performing Arts: Worst. Agenda. Ever.

Harry Shearer, immortalized in the annals of pop culture as the voice of Montgomery Burns, Ned Flanders and Seymour Skinner, presents This Is So Not About the Simpsons (collective groan from the audience). Hold on, this cabaret-style mix of stand-up, music and video puts Shearer's myriad other talents on display in a comedic skewering of American discourse and politics. Partnering with Shearer is his wife, singer-songwriter Judith Owen. Maybe there are no Simpsons but with luck there'll be a Spinal Tap reference or two. Leventhal-Sidman Jewish Community Center, 333 Nahanton St., Newton (617-965-5226). Oct. 27, 8 pm; Oct. 28, and 7 pm. $28-$32. —NA

cityscope

dvice to Contributors
pmit updated listings for benefits, festivals, activities events by mail or fax (617-859-1446) to Calendar: yScope. Or e-mail information to cityscope@improper. . Include address, phone number, ticket price, dates times, and a brief description of the event. Deadline ur weeks prior to publication. Listings cannot be ac- ted over the phone.

enefits

EDNESDAY, OCTOBER 24
the Way Home
mont Copley Plaza, 138 St. James Ave., Boston 7-204-4272). www.stfrancishouse.org. MBTA: en Line to Copley. 6 pm. $250. The St. Francis se homeless shelter hosts its annual gala, featur- a cocktail reception, a dinner and a tribute to l philanthropists John and Margarete McNeice. eeds benefit the St. Francis House.

RIDAY, OCTOBER 26
ing Disorders Benefit mont Copley Plaza, 138 St. James Ave., Boston 1-356-6616). www.medainc.org. MBTA: Green to Copley. 6 pm. $250. This event features a re- ion, a dinner, a silent auction, and a speech by or and media critic Jean Kilbourne. Proceeds efit MEDA, a nonprofit organization dedicated e prevention and treatment of eating disorders.

Night of Music-Boston
oort Hotel, 1 Seaport Lane, Boston (508-624- 7). www.necc.org. MBTA: Silver Line to World ile Center. 6 pm. $200. This annual benefit for New England Center for Children features silent live auctions, dinner and live music.

ATURDAY, OCTOBER 27
rry Price Center Fundraiser
l Concert day Inn Brookline, 1200 Beacon St., Brookline -239-1480). www.barrypricecenter.org. MBTA: reen Line to Cleveland Circle. 6:30 pm. $150. annual event features a buffet dinner and a live rmance by singer Steve Tyrell. Proceeds benefit Barry Price Center, which provides support ser- s to adults with developmental disabilities.

lodfeast
hine, 1254 Boylston St., Boston (617-967-7561) .spikeyem.com/bostonbloodfeast. MBTA: Green to Kenmore. 9 pm. $15. 21+. This Halloween y features food, a DJ, costume contests and e. Proceeds benefit the New England Society of essional Journalists' scholarship fund.

-O-Ween 5: The Black
l White Masquerade
Liberty Hotel, 215 Charles St., Boston (617-227- 8). www.hillhouseboston.org. MBTA: Red Line to les/MGH. 7 pm. $150. Come dressed in your black-and-white costume in support of the Hill se and enjoy a festive evening, which includes nd silent auctions.

C Benefit Auction
Gallery at BU, 808 Comm. Ave., Boston (617- 0600). www.prcboston.org. MBTA: B Green to BU West. 6 pm. $75. More than 200 pho- ghs will be auctioned off to support the Photo- ic Resource Center. Auction catalogues can be ined prior to the event, and a preview of the ex- ion runs at the PRC and 808 Gallery through- October.

k or Trot 5K
illow St., Chelsea (617-884-9435). www.thelast acing.com/trickortrot5k. MBTA: Blue Line to d Island, then #112 Bus to Willow Street. 8 am. $20. Proceeds from this first annual 5K around sea benefit the Jordan Boys & Girls Club.

NDAY, OCTOBER 28
ies For Teo
nt Theatre, 7 Medford St., Arlington (781-646-). www.regenttheatre.com. MBTA: Red Line to r. 4 pm. $25-$30. Local musicians, including ell Nulisch, Mike Welch, Brian Templeton and d Maxwell, perform to raise money for the Teo smeyer Family Fund.

ating the Spirit
Sports Club/LA, 4 Avery St., Boston (617-859- 0). www.pathwaysboston.org. MBTA: Green Line to ylston. 9 am. $500 fundraising minimum. This al fundraiser, which helps support Pathways to ness' AIDS Care Project and YogaHope's programs for underserved women, brings together Boston's best yoga instructors, who lead the crowd in 108 Sun Salutations.

The Boston Ski & Sports Club hosts its annual Bewicked Ball at the International Oct. 26.

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 30
Champions for Children's
Boston Convention and Exhibition Center, 415 Summer St., Boston (617-355-0969). www.chtrust.org. MBTA: Red Line to South Station. 5 pm. $1,500. This event features a cocktail reception, dinner, and live and silent auctions, as well as appearances by members of the Patriots, Celtics and Bruins. Proceeds benefit Children's Hospital.

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 31
Wicked Big Pahty!
Ned Devine's, Fanueil Hall Marketplace, Boston (617-236-5304). MBTA: Green or Orange Line to Haymarket. www.bigsister.org/wbp. 5:30 pm. $20-$25. The Big Sister Association of Greater Boston's Young Professional Group hosts its annual Halloween costume party at Ned Devine's, featuring a silent auction, raffle prizes and other treats. Proceeds benefit the Big Sister Association.

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 2
Celebrating John Belushi Fundraiser
The Regent Theatre, 7 Medford St., Arlington (617-859-3036). www.right-turn.org. 7 pm. $15-$25. Right Turn, a nonprofit group that supports local artists and entertainers affected by alcoholism and substance addiction, hosts its second annual fundraiser featuring live music and comedy.

21st Annual Christmas Festival
Seaport World Trade Center, 200 Seaport Blvd., Boston (617-385-5000). www.christmascraftfestival.com. MBTA: Silver Line to World Trade Center. Through Nov. 4. Fri., 12 pm; Sat. and Sun., 10 am. $10-$12. More than 350 American craftsmen exhibit and sell holiday gifts. The festival also features a gingerbread-house competition, which benefits Rosie's Place.

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 3
High Hopes Gala
The Westin Copley Place, 10 Huntington Ave., Boston (617-732-2513). www.joslin.org. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. 6 pm. $400. This gala benefiting the Joslin Diabetes Center includes silent and live auctions, a cocktail reception, dinner and live music.

Silk Road Gala
Boston Marriott Copley Plaza Hotel, 110 Huntington Ave., Boston (617-338-2350). www.atask.org. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. 5 pm. $175. The 14th annual Silk Road Gala benefits the Asian Task Force Against Domestic Violence, and includes a silent auction and an Asian-themed dinner.

Steppin' Out
The Westin Boston Waterfront Hotel, 425 Summer St., Boston (617-442-8800, ext. 1006). www.steppinoutgala.org. MBTA: Silver Line to World Trade Center . 8 pm. $100-$350. This black-tie gala benefits the Dimock Community Health Center and features a performance by eight-time Grammy Award-winning jazz guitarist George Benson.

SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 4
The Best Is Yet to Come
Jordan's Furniture, 50 Walker's Brook Drive, Reading (617-542-3678). www.mareinc.org. 7 pm. $125. This benefit for Massachusetts Adoption Resource Exchange includes a dinner buffet, a cash bar, a silent auction and a performance by country/western singer Glenn Stewart.

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 6
Leave No One Behind Dinner
Seaport Hotel, 1 Seaport Lane, Boston (617-371-1729). www.neshv.org. MBTA: Red Line to South Station. 6:30 pm. $275. This annual fundraising dinner, featuring a speech by Nathaniel Fick, former Marine captain and author of the book One Bullet Away, benefits the New England Shelter for Homeless Veterans.

Festivals & Parties

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 24
Signature Cocktail Contest
Rattlesnake Bar, 384 Boylston St., Boston (617-859-8555). MBTA: Green Line to Boylston. www.rattlesnakebar.com. 7 pm. Free. Partygoers enjoy free appetizers and drink specials as five finalists compete to have their original recipe deemed the "signature" cocktail of the Rattlesnake's new Venom Bar.

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 25
Spooky World
Bayside Expo Center, 200 Mount Vernon St., Boston (617-474-6541). MBTA: Red Line to JFK/UMass. www.baysideexpo.com. 6 pm. $24.50, adults; $18.50, children. Through Oct. 28. This annual Halloween event features a variety of haunted attractions including Dracula's Dungeon and the Catacombs.

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 26
Bewicked Ball
The International, 184 High St., Boston (617-789-4070). MBTA: Blue Line to Aquarium. www.bssc.com/bewicked. 9 pm, VIP; 10 pm, general admission. $20-$25. Show up in your best costume for a chance to win cash prizes while enjoying cocktails, food, a DJ and dancing.

Halloween at Gore Place
Gore Place, 52 Gore St., Waltham (781-894-2798). www.goreplace.org. MBTA: Commuter Rail to Waltham. Through Oct. 27. 8:30 pm. $2-$12. The historic Governor Gore estate hosts a spooky weekend with Victorian Lantern shows, wagon rides and an evening tour of the mansion.

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 27
Belgian Beer Fest
Cyclorama, 539 Tremont St., Boston. www.beeradvocate.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. Oct. 27, 1-4:30 pm and 6-9:30 pm. $45. Beeradvocate.com's annual Belgian Beer Fest features music, guest speakers and a wide selection of flavorful, hand-picked Belgian brews.

Burmese Food Fair
International Community Church, 30 Gordon St., Allston (617-782-8120). www.obcfboston.com. 5-8 pm. $4-$6 per dish. The Overseas Burmese Christian Fellowship hosts its annual festival of authentic Burmese fare.

Eat, Drink and Be Scary
Dick's Last Resort, Faneuil Hall Marketplace, Boston (617-287-8080). MBTA: Green or Orange Line to Haymarket. www.bostondickslastresort.com. 5 pm. Free. 21+. This annual Halloween party includes a costume contest with a cash prize, festive food and drinks, and the opportunity to hang out with the Coors Girls.

Halloween Ball
Vinalia Boston, 101 Arch St., Boston (781-444-7771). www.bostoneventguide.com. MBTA: Red or Green Line to Park. 8:30 pm. $10-$20. This Halloween Ball awards prizes for the best "sinner" and "saint" costumes, as well as the best overall costume. Enjoy hors d'oeuvres, drinks and dancing.

Halloween Chocolate "Boofet"
Langham Hotel, 250 Franklin St., Boston (617-956-8751). www.boston.langhamhotels.com. MBTA: Red Line to South Station. 12-3 pm. $35. Café Fleuri hosts a special Halloween-themed day at its Chocolate Bar, featuring items like Frankenstein Surprise, Dirty Worms and Pile of Bones.

Mayhem and Madness: Halloween Bash
McGann's Pub, 197 Portland St., Boston (617-227-4059). www.bostonypa.com. MBTA: Green or Orange Line to North Station. 8 pm. $35-$40. The Boston Young Professionals Association presents its fifth-annual Halloween costume party, featuring a cash-prize costume contest, psychics, a DJ and free candy.

Under the Cover Bands Halloween Show
The Middle East Upstairs, 480 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-697-7405). MBTA: Red Line to Central. 9 pm. $10. 18+. This costume party and concert, hosted by Honah Lee and Robby Roadsteamer, features local groups covering their favorite bands, including Noble Rot as Motorhead and the Unstoppable Black Clouds as Nirvana.

Vamps and Tramps Halloween Costume Party
Felt, 533 Washington St., Boston (617-350-5555). www.feltboston.com. MBTA: Red or Orange Line to Downtown Crossing. 9 pm. $10. This party includes a Vamp vs. Tramp costume contest, a card reader, a DJ, dancing and a special performance by Dirt Poor Robins.

SUNDAY, OCTOBER 28
Winds of Peace
Cambridge Hyatt Regency Hotel, 14F Empress Room, 575 Memorial Drive, Cambridge (617-492-1234). www.jrex.us. 1 pm. $10, advance reservations. This networking event features a live musical performance by artists from Living Sound Entertainment and an appearance by Masayuki Imai, director of the film Winds of God.

performing arts

Advice to Contributors
Submit listings by fax (617-859-1446) or mail to Calendar: Performing Arts, or e-mail performing@improper.com. Include venue address, phone number, subway stop, ticket price, dates and times, and a brief description of the event. Deadline is four weeks prior to publication. Listings cannot be accepted over the telephone.

Tickets

Ace Tickets
(800-MY-SEATS or 617-734-6666). www.acetickets.com. Tickets to sold-out shows.
Bostix
(617-723-5181). www.artsboston.org. Same-day tickets at half price.
Next Ticketing
(617-423-NEXT). www.nextticketing.com.
Out of Town Tickets
(617-247-1300 or 800-442-1854). Tickets to sold-out shows.
StubHub
www.stubhub.com. Buy and sell tickets online.
Ticket City of Boston
(617-787-2370). www.tixboston.com.
Ticketmaster
(617-931-2000). www.ticketmaster.com.

Theater and Opera

JUST OPENED

Art Song as Theatre
BU Theatre, 264 Huntington Ave., Boston (617-933-8600). www.bostontheatrescene.com. MBTA: Green Line to Hynes. Nov. 3 and 4, 2 pm. Free. BU Opera Institute tenors and baritones perform songs from a range of cultures, accompanied by visual artists, musicians, a dancer and an actor.

The Bluest Eye
Plaza Theatre at the Boston Center for the Arts, 539 Tremont St., Boston (617-426-5000). www.company one.org. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. Oct. 26-Nov. 17. Wed. and Thu., 7:30 pm; Fri. and Sat., 8 pm; Sun., 2 pm. $15-$30. Set in the 1940s, this play tells the story of a young black girl in search of love and acceptance from her family and peers. Written by Nobel Prize winner Toni Morrison. Directed by Summer L. Williams.

La Bohème
Citi Shubert Theatre, 265 Tremont St., Boston (617-542-4912). www.blo.org. MBTA: Green Line to Boylston. Nov. 2-13. Tue., Wed. and Fri., 7:30 pm; Sun., 3 pm. $33-$181. Wine, friendship and wasting disease are covered in Puccinni's immortal opera. Directed by Timothy Ocel.

The Crucible
Mainstage Theater at Roxbury Community College, 1234 Columbus Ave., Roxbury (617-541-5380). www.rccmainstage.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Ruggles. Oct. 25-Nov. 3. Thu. and Fri., 10 am and 8 pm; Sat., 2 pm. $5-$10. Arthur Miller's dark, allegorical drama is set during the 17th-century Salem witch trials.

Donnie Darko
Zero Arrow Theatre, 2 Arrow St., Cambridge (617-547-8300). www.amrep.org. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. Oct. 27-Nov. 18. See Web site for complete listings. $15-$52. In this stage adaptation of the 2001 cult film, a troubled teenager is warned of the apocalypse by a six-foot-tall rabbit. Directed by Marcus Stern.

L'Enfant et les Sortilèges
Tsai Performance Center, 685 Comm. Ave., Boston (617-353-6467). www.bu.edu/tsai. MBTA: B Green Line to BU East. Oct. 30, 8 pm. Free. The BU Symphony Orchestra and singers from the Opera Institute join in this fantastical opera featuring music by Maurice Ravel. Directed by Sharon Daniels.

High School Musical
Citi Performing Arts Center, 270 Tremont St., Boston (800-447-7400). www.citicenter.org. MBTA: Green Line to Boylston. Oct. 30-Nov. 4. Wed.-Sat., 7:30 pm; Sun., 6:30 pm. Matinees: Thu. and Sat., 2 pm; Sun., 1 pm. $15-$68. High school students discover a shared love of singing in this stage adaptation of the popular Disney movie.

Toni Morrison's The Bluest Eye opens Oct. 26 at the BCA's Plaza Theatre.

A House With No Walls
New Repertory Theatre, 321 Arsenal St., Watertown (617-923-8487). www.newrep.org. MBTA: #70 or #70A bus to School St. Oct. 26-Nov. 18. Check Web site for complete listings. $10-$55. This play is based on the story of Ona Judge, a slave of George Washington who tries to find the courage to escape from bondage. Directed by Lois Roach.

A Night at the Rock Opera
Wilbur Theater, 246 Tremont St., Boston (617-931-2787). www.anatro.com. MBTA: Green Line to Boylston. Oct. 26-Nov. 18. Check Web site for complete listings. $35. Boston-based Ultrasonic Rock Opera performs classic songs from the Beatles, David Bowie, Queen and other supergroups in this 23-performer extravaganza.

Oedipus at Palm Springs
Calderwood Pavilion, 527 Tremont St., Boston (617-933-8600). www.thetheateroffensive.org. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Oct. 24-28. Thu., 7:30 pm; Fri. and Sat., 8 pm. Matinees: Sat., 4 pm; Sun., 2 pm. $10-$48. Five Lesbian Brothers presents this play about couples exploring the realities of long-term relationships, commitment, passion and motherhood.

Out of the Box: Twisted Tales
Calderwood Pavilion, 527 Tremont St., Boston (617-933-8600). www.thetheateroffensive.org. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Nov. 2 and 3, 10 pm. $10-$48. All The Kings Men presents this musical comedy about crazy princes, horny old women, superheroes in love and other oddities.

Paved Paradise
Calderwood Pavilion, 527 Tremont St., Boston (617-933-8600). www.thetheateroffensive.org. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Nov. 1-4. Thu., 7:30 pm; Fri. and Sat., 8 pm; Sun., 3 pm. $10-$48. This performance is a visual and musical tribute to singer-songwriter Joni Mitchell from performer John Kelly.

This Is So Not About the Simpsons
Leventhal-Sidman Jewish Community Center, 333 Nahanton St., Newton (617-965-5226). www.lsjcc.org. MBTA: D Green Line to Newton Center. Oct. 27 and 28. Sat., 8 pm; Sun., 4 and 7 pm. $28-$30. Simpsons cast member Harry Shearer and Judith Owen mix music, humor and video to create a comic commentary on the lunacy of the United States.

To Kill a Mockingbird
Wheelock Family Theatre, 200 The Riverway, Boston (617-879-2300). www.wheelock.edu. MBTA: D Green Line to Fenway. Oct. 27-Nov. 25. Fri., 7:30 pm; Sat. and Sun., 3 pm. $13-$23. A stage adaptation of Harper Lee's classic novel, this play presents notions of race, class and justice through the eyes of a young girl.

West Side Story
Boston Conservatory Theater, 8 The Fenway, Boston (617-536-6340). www.bostonconservatory.edu. MBTA: Green Line to Hynes. Oct. 27, 8 pm. $5-$20. Two rival New York gangs, at odds due to their different ethnicities and cultures, face off in this tragic musical love story.

NOW RUNNING

American Twistory
Tremont Cabaret Theatre, 75 Warrenton St., Boston (857-366-8181). www.twisttix.com. MBTA: Green Line to Boylston. Through Nov. 4. Wed.-Sat., 8 pm. Matinees: Sat. and Sun., 2 pm. $45-$47. This musical takes a unique and comedic look at American history.

Bat Boy
The Piano Factory, 791 Tremont St., Boston. www.fudgetheatre.org. MBTA: Orange Line to Mass. Ave. Through Oct. 27. Thu.-Sat., 8 pm; Sun., 2 pm. $15; $12, students and seniors. In this musical, the infamous tabloid character Bat Boy adjusts to life in a strange town. Directed by Joe DeMita.

Blue Man Group
Charles Playhouse, 74 Warrenton St., Boston (617-931-2787). www.blueman.com. MBTA: Green Line to Boylston. Wed. and Thu., 8 pm; Fri., 7 and 10 pm; Sat., 2, 5 and 8 pm; Sun., 2 and 5 pm. $48-$58. The popular blue trio performs an ongoing show that mixes art, music, comedy and a lot of toilet paper.

Brendan
The Huntington Theatre, 264 Huntington Ave., Boston (617-266-0800). www.huntingtontheatre.org. MBTA: E Green Line to Symphony. Through Nov. 17. Check Web site for complete listings. $15-$50. A homesick young Irishman tries to adapt to American culture. Written by Ronan Noone.

The Devil's Teacup
Boston University, Playwright's Theatre, 949 Comm. Ave., Boston (866-811-4111). www.bostonplaywrights.org. MBTA: B Green Line to Pleasant. Through Oct. 28. Thu., 7:30 pm; Fri. and Sat., 8 pm; Sun., 2 pm. A New Yorker returns to his Arkansas hometown for a funeral and the sale of the family bar. Directed by Kathleen O'Leary.

Dying City
Lyric Stage Company of Boston, 140 Clarendon St., Boston (617-585-5678). www.lyricstage.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. Through Nov. 11. Wed., 2 and 7:30 pm; Thu., 7:30 pm; Fri., 8 pm; Sat., 4 and 8 pm; Sun., 3 pm. The widow of a man killed in the Iraq war reminisces with her dead husband's twin brother.

The Hostage
BU Theatre, 264 Huntington Ave., Boston (617-933-8600). www.bu.edu/but/. MBTA: Green Line E to Symphony. Through Nov. 3. See Web site for complete listings. $7. This politically themed opera presents the tale of a woman fighting for the release of her diplomat husband from terrorists. Directed by Craig Wich.

The Kentucky Cycle
Plaza Black Box Theatre, Boston Center for the Arts, 116 West Newton St., Boston (617-759-8836). www.zeitgeiststage.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. Through Nov. 17. Check Web site for complete listings. $35, one part; $60, both parts. Nine plays divided into two parts focus on the lives of Kentucky families over 200 years.

Macbeth
Boston University, 855 Comm. Ave., Boston (866-811-4111). www.actorsshakespeareproject.org. MBTA: B Green Line to BU West. Through Nov. 11. Thu.-Sat., 7:30 pm; Sun., 2 pm. $30-$42. Adrianne Krstansky directs an all-female cast in Shakespeare's classic tragedy about an ambitious couple.

The Man Who Mistook His Wife for a Hat
BU Theatre, 264 Huntington Ave., Boston (617-933-8600). www.bu.edu/but/. MBTA: E Green Line to Symphony. Through Nov. 3. Check Web site for complete listings. $7. In this humorous one-act opera, a neurologist, a singer and his wife cope with the singer's rare mental disorder.

Metamorphoses
Loeb Drama Center, 64 Brattle St., Cambridge (617-547-8300). www.boxoffice.harvard.edu. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard Square. Through Oct. 27. Thu.-Fri., 8 pm; Sun., 2 and 8 pm. $8-$12. The Harv Radcliffe Dramatic Club performs a stage adapta of Ovid's tales of gods, love and lust.

Les Misérables
North Shore Music Theatre, 62 Dunham Road, B erly (978-232-7200). www.nsmt.org. Through N 18. Tue. and Thu., 7:30 pm; Wed., 1:30 pm; and Sat., 8 pm; Sun., 2 pm. $30-$75. Vi Hugo's novel of redemption, love and histrio gets tuneful in what is, arguably, the most pop musical of all time.

Reefer Madness
Arlington Center for the Arts, 41 Foster St., Arlin (781-648-6220). www.lokiarts.com. MBTA: #77 to Arlington Heights. Through Oct. 27. Fri. and S 8 pm; Sun., 2 pm. $18-$20. This show satirizes evils of marijuana and authority figures camouflage their agendas in patriotism.

The Secret of Sherlock Holmes
Founders' Theatre, 70 Kemble St., Lenox (413-6 1199). www.shakespeare.org. Through Oct. Check Web site for complete listings. $10-$38. legendary investigator keeps something hidden f his sidekick, Watson. Written by Jeremy Paul.

Shear Madness
Charles Playhouse, 74 Warrenton St., Boston (6 426-5225). www.shearmadness.com. MBTA: G Line to Boylston. Tue.-Fri., 8 pm; Sat., 6 and 9 Sun., 3 and 7 pm. $38. This comedic whod by Paul Portner, set in a unisex hair salon, h the record as Boston's longest-running play, more than 10,000 local performances dating b to 1980.

Sweeney Todd
The Colonial Theatre, 106 Boylston St., Boston (931-2787). www.broadwayacrossamerica.com/bos MBTA: Green Line to Boylston. Through Nov Tue.-Thu., 7:30 pm; Fri. and Sat., 8 pm; Sun., pm. Matinees: Sat. and Sun, 2 pm. $42.50-$91 Stephen Sondheim's dark musical, a murde barber teams up with a woman who turns his vic into meat pies. Directed by John Doyle.

Tartuffe
BU Theatre, 264 Huntington Ave., Boston (617-8600). www.bu.edu/but/. MBTA: E Green Li Symphony. Through Oct. 27. Thu., 7:30; Fri., 2 $7. Set in New Orleans in Hurricane Katr aftermath, this play is a comedy about an impo who aims to exploit the family of an affluent naive merchant. Directed by David Gram.

Wicked
The Opera House, 539 Washington St., Boston (259-3400). www.bostonoperahouse.com. MB Green Line to Boylston. Through Nov. 11. Tue.-T 7:30 pm; Fri.-Sat., 8 pm; Sun., 7:30 pm. Matin Sat. and Sun., 2 pm. $35-$132.50. This musica tails how the two most famous witches from Oz Directed by Joe Mantello.

Dance

Babelesque
Regent Theatre, 7 Medford St., Arlington (781-4849). www.regenttheatre.com. MBTA: Red Li Porter, then #77 bus to Arlington Heights. Nov. pm. $27.50-$37.50. Bellydance Superstars sents a diverse sampling of tribal, Egyptian cabaret styles.

El Dia de los Muertos
Cambridge Multicultural Arts Center, 41 Second Cambridge (617-577-1400). www.cmacusa MBTA: Green Line to Lechmere. Nov. 2, 5:30 $8-$12. This event includes Oaxacan dance Xuchipilli Danza y Cultura, music by Mari Mexamerica, food and crafts.

Mixed Space
119 Gallery, 119 Chelmsford St., Lowell (978-8138). www.119gallery.org. MBTA: Commuter R Lowell. Oct. 27, 8 pm. $10. This eclectic eveni tap, modern dance, ballet, Persian dance and co improvisation features choreographers and dar from Boston, Northampton and Lowell.

Rhythm at the Regent
Regent Theatre, 7 Medford St., Arlington (781-4849). www.regenttheatre.com. MBTA: Red Li Porter, then #77 bus to Arlington Heights. Oct. pm. $24-$32. Barbara Duffy and Company pre their tap performance "Stages."

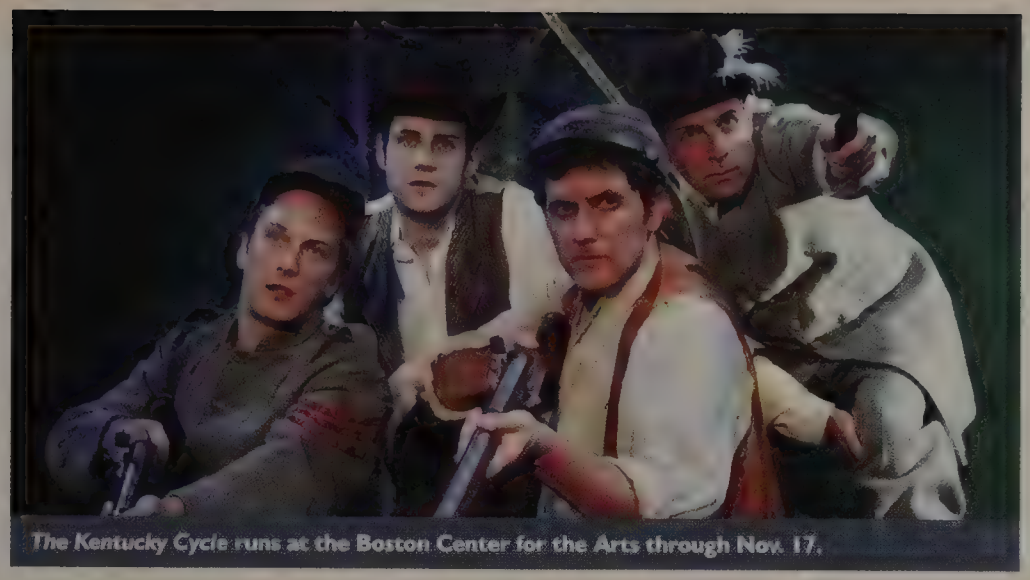
Stealing Fire: Duet Performance
Cambridge Multicultural Arts Center, 41 Second Cambridge (617-577-1400). www.cmacusa MBTA: Green Line to Lechmere. Oct. 27, 7:30 $100 per person; $300 for a table of four. Promet Dance celebrates its 20th anniversary with this featuring live music and a performance by company's artistic directors, Diane Arvanites-I and Tommy Neblett.

Sylphide
Performing Arts Center, 270 Tremont St., Boston (617-482-9393). www.citicenter.org. MBTA: Green Line to Boylston. Oct. 24-28. Thu., 7 pm; Fri. and Sat., 8 pm. Matinees: Sat. and Sun., 2 pm. $45-$110. This modern piece choreographed by Sorella Englund features George Balanchine's Monumentum pro Gesualdo and Movements for Piano and Orchestra.

Masters of Immortality
Shubert Lee Family Foundation Theater, 100 Northern Ave., Boston (617-876-4275). www.crasharts.com. MBTA: Silver Line to City Point. Nov. 2-4. Fri., 7:30 pm; Sat., 8 pm; Sun, 3 pm. $35. Maureen Fleming celebrates the female shape through dance inspired by the poetry of William Butler Yeats.

Comedy

Service to Contributors
Submit listings by fax (617-859-1446) or mail them to Calendar: Comedy, or e-mail info to comedy@improper. Deadline is four weeks prior to publication.



SHOWS

GoreFest V: Blood on the Bayou
ImprovBoston, 1253 Cambridge St., Cambridge (617-576-1253). www.improvboston.com. MBTA: Red Line to Central, then #83 or #91 Bus to Inman. Oct. 25-31. Wed. and Thu., 8 pm; Fri. and Sat., 8 and 10 pm; Sun., 7 pm. $20-35; $17, students and seniors. The popular improv-comedy musical is back for its annual Halloween installment. Written by Don Schuerman.

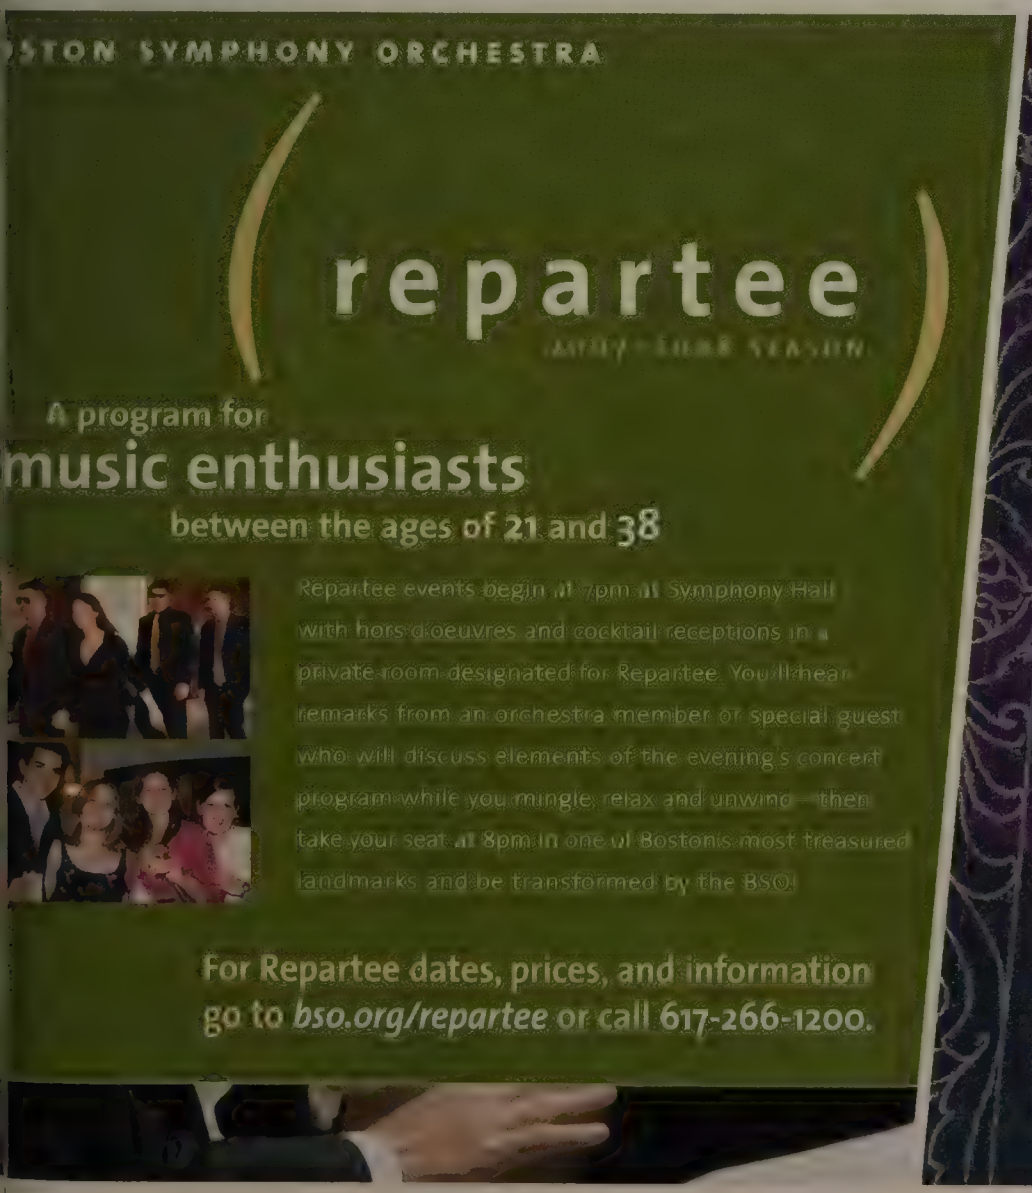
STAND-UP CLUBS

Allentown Comedy Vault
Harrington's, 124 Boylston St., Boston (781-729-2565). www.dickdoherty.com/remsched.htm. MBTA: Green Line to Boylston. Thu.-Sun., 9 pm. $12-$15. The Allentown Comedy Vault features local pro and amateur stand-up comedians. •Oct. 24: Corey Rodrigues. Oct. 25: Greg Howell and friends. •Oct. 19: Dick Doherty and Boston Comics With Attitude. •Oct. 26: Dick Doherty and Boston Comics With Attitude.

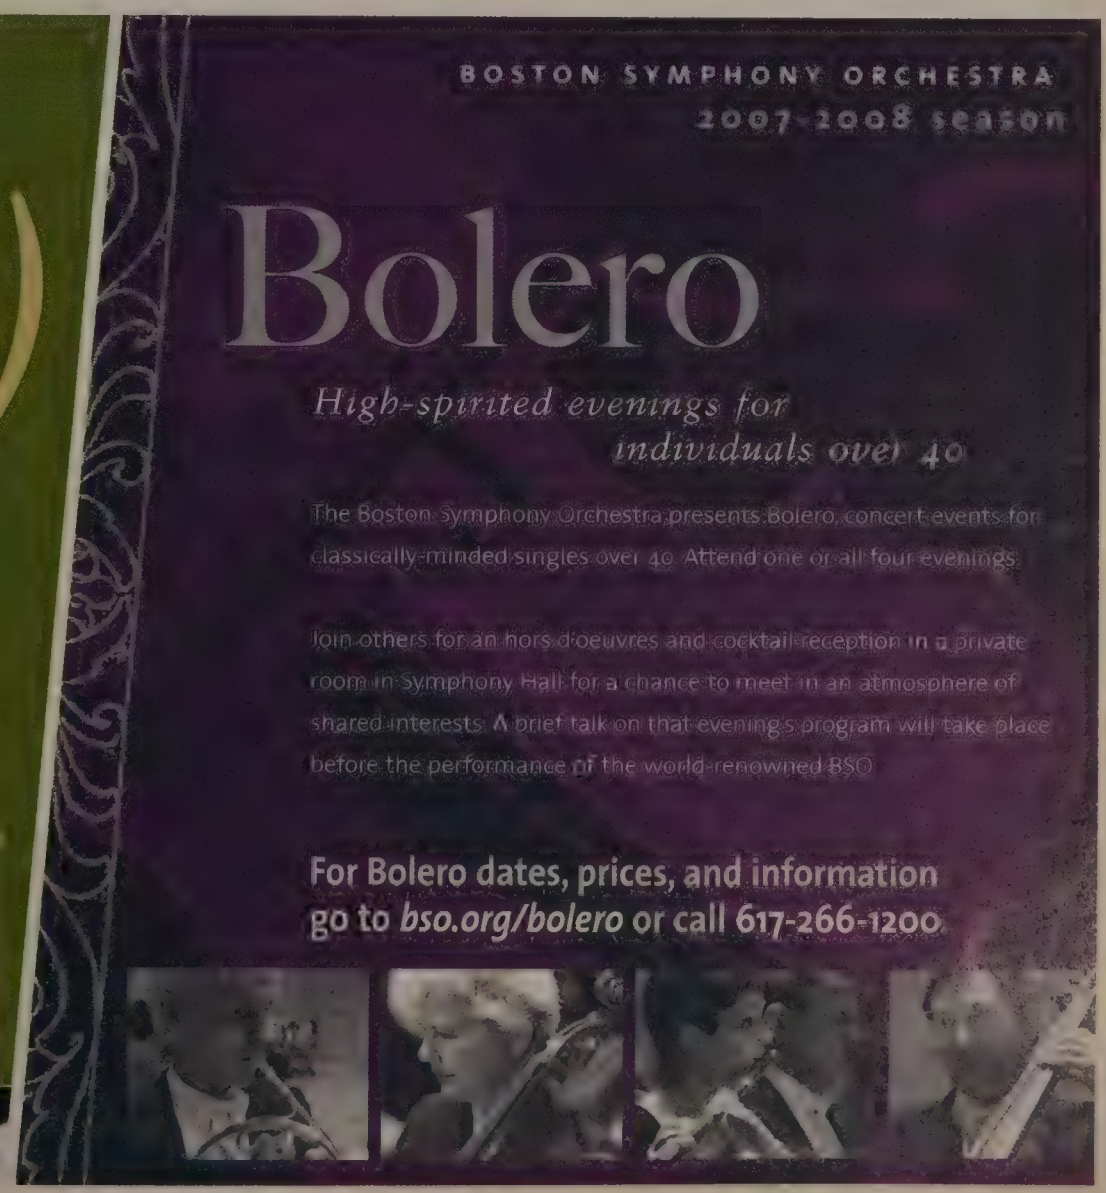
Comedy Connection
Faneuil Hall Marketplace, 245 Quincy Market Building, Boston (617-248-9700). www.comedyconnection.com. MBTA: Green or Orange Line to Haymarket. The oldest comedy club in Boston draws nationally known comedians on weekends and showcases up-and-coming local talent during the week. •Oct. 25, 8:30 pm, $15: Frank Santos, "The R-Rated Hypnotist." •Oct. 26, 8 and 10:15 pm, $30: Eddie Griffin. •Oct. 27, 8 pm, $30: Eddie Griffin. •Nov. 1, 8:30 pm, $15: Frank Santos, "The R-Rated Hypnotist."

The Kentucky Cycle runs at the Boston Center for the Arts through Nov. 17.

The Comedy Studio
1238 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-661-6507). www.thecomedystudio.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. Wed.-Sun., 8 pm. $8-$10. Sketch comedy troupes and local comedians perform. •Oct. 24: Joe Laroche, Clark Elefteriadis, Jon Rineman, Dan Crohn, Wendy Kinal, Mike Howington, Sean Sullivan, Rick Cormier, Owen Bowen, Corey Manning. •Oct. 25: Micah/Myq Club with Pincus, Erin Judge, Dave Grabiner, Steve Donovan, James Duffy, Jan Flanagan, Jon Rineman, Kevin Eis. •Oct. 26: Ken Reid, Jono Zalay, Tom E. Morello, Arielle Goldman, Eskunder Boyd, Jon Rineman. •Oct. 27: Steve Macone, Ken Reid, Lamont Price, Shaun Bedgood, Jon Rineman. •Oct. 28: Rory Lovett, Jon Rineman, Daniel Forlano, Corey Manning, John Garrison. •Oct. 30: Mystery Lounge! •Oct. 31: Jon Rineman, Dan Miles, Bethany Van Delft, Nez, Dave McDoughan, Cori Healy, Chris Pennie, Shaun Donovan, Lois McCormack. •Nov. 1: Alicia Love, Tim Dillon, Dave Decker, Jim Blumenfeld, JJ Leslie, Wendy Kinal, Andy Ofiesh. •Nov. 2: Andrea Henry, Drew Spangler, Brian Joyce, Reggie Williams, Myq Kaplan. •Nov. 3: Myq Kaplan, PJ Westin, Krissy Kelleher, Gerroll Bennett, Brian Joyce, Drew Spangler. •Nov. 4: Tony Moschetto Show with Steve Macone, Erin Judge, Greg Rodrigues, Dave Grabiner, Steve Albert, Larry Starr. •Nov. 6: Mystery Lounge! •Nov. 7: Shaun Bedgood, John Garrison, Daniel Forlano, DJ Reason, Doug Chagnon, Ted Pettigell, Gary Petersen, Joe Cronin, Brian Joyce.



Nick's Comedy Stop
100 Warrenton St., Boston (617-423-2900). www.nickscomedystop.com. MBTA: Green Line to Boylston or Orange Line to New England Medical Center. Fri. and Sat., 8:30 pm. $20-$22. Now in its 24th year, the longest-running comedy club in Boston features a line-up of local and visiting comics. •Oct. 26: Ira Proctor.

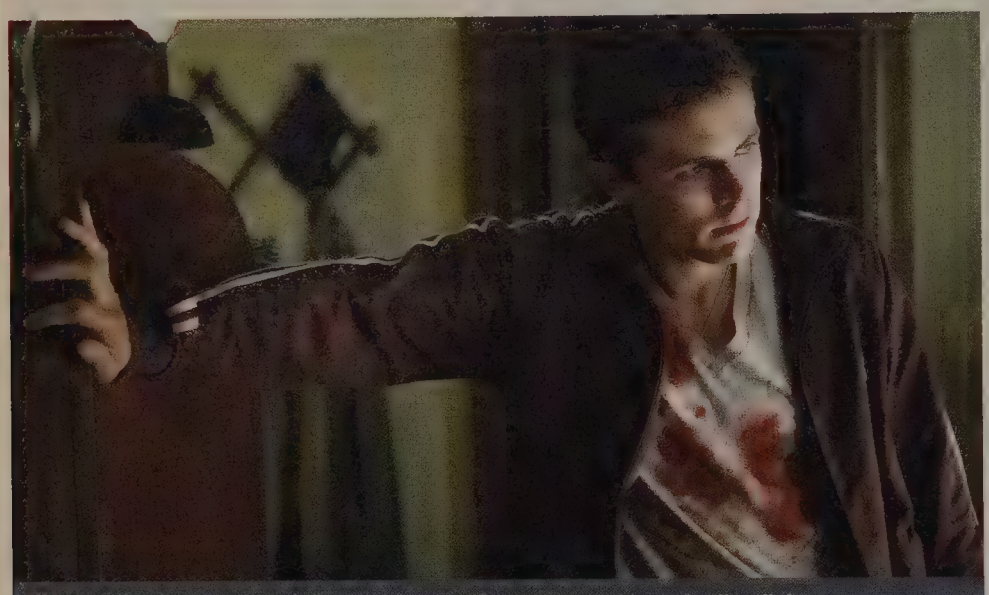


IMPROV COMEDY

Improv Asylum
216 Hanover St., Boston (617-263-6887). www.improvasylum.com. MBTA: Green or Orange Line to Haymarket. Dinner packages available. •Wed., 8 pm, $15: Lost in Boston, or How I Learned to Love that Dirty Water is a comedy revue based on audience suggestions. •Thu., 8 pm; Fri. and Sat., 8 and 10 pm, $20: It's the North End of the World as We Know It (And I Feel Fine) runs as the main stage show.

Improv Jones Boston
Arsenal Center for the Arts, 321 Arsenal St., Watertown (617-923-0100). www.improvjonesboston.com. MBTA: Red Line to Central, then #70 Bus to Western Ave. Fri., 8 pm. $10. Improv Jones Boston features improv appropriate for all ages every Friday night.

ImprovBoston
1253 Cambridge St., Cambridge (617-576-1253). www.improvboston.com. MBTA: Red Line to Central, then #83 or #91 Bus to Inman. $7-$12. Boston's longest-running improvisational comedy troupe creates sketches on the spot. •Oct. 25-31, see Comedy Shows listing for complete details: GoreFest V: Blood on the Bayou. •Wed., Nov. 7, 10 pm, $10: The Naked Comedy Showcase. •Wed., 8 pm, $10; $12, students and seniors: The Hump Fringe Show. Local troupes perform a variety of improvisational shows. •Thu., 8 pm, $12; $10, students and seniors: Zebro Presents the Original Zings of Comedy. Nat Towsen and Pat Boccuzzi host this weekly variety show mixing sketch, improv and stand-up comedy with music. •Thu., 10 pm, $10; $7, students and seniors: The Great and Secret Comedy Show. Renata Tutko hosts a sketch show that incorporates video and characters. •Fri., 10 pm, $12; $10, students and seniors: Theatre Sports. Two teams face off in a battle for comedy supremacy. •Sat., 6 pm, $12; $10, seniors; $7, students and children: ImprovBoston Family Show. This short-form improvisational show is appropriate for all ages. •Sat., 8 and 10 pm, $15; $10, students and seniors: ImprovBoston Mainstage. Blending storytelling, music and audience participation, a cast of improvisers creates a new show at every performance. •Sun., 7 pm, $7; $5, students and seniors: The Sgt. Culpepper Comedy Jamboree. Performances by local and visiting improv troupes.



Gone but Not Forgotten

Ben Affleck shoots for career redemption

BY SEAN BURNS

Casey Affleck steps out of his older brother's shadow and into the limelight.

Rejoice, my fellow Mass-holes; I come to you bearing good tidings: We no longer have to be ashamed of Ben Affleck!

I know, I know, it's been 10 long years since Good Will Hunting, and they haven't been easy on any of us. After a wondrous Oscar-night tidal wave of local pride powerful enough to force busloads of tourists to actually seek out the L Street Tavern, Affleck and his Rindge & Latin pal Matt Damon set out on career paths so diametrically divergent that they resembled one of those old "Goofus and Gallant" cartoons from Highlights magazine. In addition to kickstarting the Bourne franchise, Matt Damon has been in films by Steven Spielberg, Robert Redford, Anthony Minghella, Steven Soderbergh, Robert DeNiro and Martin Scorsese.

Meanwhile, Ben Affleck starred in dreck like Armageddon, Phantoms, Bounce, The Sum of All Fears and Pearl Harbor. And all that was before "Bennifer"—perhaps the most disgraceful nicknaming of a local talent since Aerosmith shared the Super Bowl halftime stage with 'N Sync and dubbed the coupling "Aero-Sync."

The latter spectacle was so hideous that I seem to recall WBCN program director Oedipus openly apologizing for playing Aerosmith's records in the first place. Similarly, watching Affleck bop around like an imbecile in his girlfriend's "Jenny From the Block" video made me spend the next six months pretending I was from New Hampshire.

As horrific and ill-advised as that entire Bennifer media circus was, you're not going to read any hackneyed Gigli jokes in this column. Sorry, folks, but after sitting through both Daredevil and Paycheck, I must begrudgingly admit that Gigli was actually the "best" movie Ben Affleck appeared in during 2003.

There's nothing more satisfying than a comeback story, and after taking a little breather from the tabloid sideshow, Affleck has at last re-emerged as cowriter and director of Gone Baby Gone, a somber and engrossing adaptation of Dennis Lehane's novel. It's an accomplished debut, entertaining but emotionally complicated, admirable for all the stubborn ways in which Affleck refuses to let the audience off the hook.

It's also a terrific Boston movie, photographed everywhere from Dorchester to Winchester, with a local boy's eye for location and detail. Affleck's vision of our fair city lacks the mythic grandeur of Clint Eastwood's Mystic River, and it's hardly the stylized Irish burlesque Scorsese brought to The Departed. Gone Baby Gone plays in a lower register than those two pictures but kicks around similar notions of tribalism while making less of a ruckus.

Jumping straight into the fourth of Lehane's five books about private detectives Patrick Kenzie and Angie Gennaro, Gone Baby Gone begins in the projects with the mysterious disappearance of 4-year-old Amanda McCready. Morgan Freeman leads the investigation as head of the Boston Police Department's Crimes Against Children unit, pontificating about his own tragic backstory at the drop of a hat. But the missing child's aunt and uncle (Amy Madigan and Deadwood's Titus Welliver) perhaps wisely figure that most folks in their neighborhood won't be keen on talking to the cops, so they enlist the assistance of Kenzie (Casey Affleck) and Gennaro (Michelle Monaghan), low-rent gumshoes who prove adept at navigating their way around the illicit activities of this sad drama's participants.

Amanda's mom, Helene (an amazing Amy Ryan), is a piece of work, seemingly more interested in booze, sex and cocaine than the safety of her girl. Helene's version of the story has a few gaping holes in it, and before long we're dealing with some missing drug money, a rotting corpse found in a Chelsea kitchen, and the livid consternation of detective Remy Bressant (Ed Harris) and his partner Nick Poole (John Ashton).

Fans of the Lehane novels might be surprised by the sidelining of Gennaro's character, as Gone Baby Gone is all Casey Affleck's show. His Patrick Kenzie is a modern-day Phillip Marlowe in a tracksuit—slightly built but steely in his resolve, armed with street smarts and an even smarter mouth. Casey's currently delivering a revelation of a performance across the multiplex hall in The Assassination of Jesse James by the Coward Robert Ford, but it is with Gone Baby Gone that he comes into his own as a leading man in the way his big brother never quite managed. The kid is tough, funny and an improbable badass.

Alas, the picture loses considerable steam in its second hour, as Lehane's more preposterous plot twists require everybody to sit around in bars explaining what happened. Affleck directs these endless expository sequences about as well as could be expected, but just as you start to worry that the movie has gotten away from him, Gone Baby Gone delivers one final sucker-punch.

After all the smack talking, shootouts and chase sequences, the movie backs Kenzie into a corner where he must make an impossible choice, and it's a decision neither Affleck takes lightly. An extraordinary final shot will provoke discussion and argument, and it announces not just a morally complex vision but the arrival of a potentially great filmmaker.

It's good to have you back, Ben. IB

Gone Baby Gone ★★★

Starring Casey Affleck, Michelle Monaghan, Morgan Freeman, Ed Harris, John Ashton, Amy Ryan, Titus Welliver and Amy Madigan. Based on the novel by Dennis Lehane. Screenplay by Ben Affleck and Aaron Stockard. Directed by Ben Affleck. At Boston Common, Fenway and in the suburbs.

New Releases

BY SEAN BURNS

Across the Universe ★
Destined to become a camp classic, the latest
dious, hagiographic salute to the 1960s by a na
gazing baby boomer is far weirder than your typ
stroll down memory lane. Newton native Julie T
mor has fashioned a visually berserk, deathly ear
musical consisting entirely of Beatles songs sung
cast of attractive moppets muttering hippy-di
chestnuts, eventually realizing that, yes, all you n is love. There's little in the way of story or charac
just a lot of Forrest Gump–ish historical signp
and laughable interpretations of Lennon and
Cartney lyrics. All these kids have names like J
Lucy, Prudence and Sadie, and the only suspe
comes from trying to guess when Taymor will sl
horn in the next awkward sing-along. It's a c pletely humorless, self-important affair that fin hits rock bottom once Bono turns up as a Ken K
wannabe to preach the wonders of LSD and wa
something about being the walrus. The U2 fr
man looks so uncomfortable onscreen, I spent
the number thinking he was Robin Williams.
Boston Common, Fenway, Harvard Square an
the suburbs.)

The Assassination of Jesse James by the Coward Robert Ford ★★★★
By turns mesmerizing, maddening and maste
writer-director Andrew Dominik's bleak, hypn triumph is unlike anything you'll see this y owing more to druggy, fatalistic '70s anti-West
like Robert Altman's McCabe and Mrs. Miller
Sam Peckinpah's Pat Garrett and Billy the Kid t to any traditional horse opera. Brad Pitt deli his scariest, saddest performance yet as the no ous railroad bandit slowly rotting away thank paranoia and the heavy psychic toll of his outs reputation. There's also a revelatory turn f Casey Affleck as the title's scaredy-cat who's gerously obsessed with dime novels and Ja
Gang fantasies, but is sorely unequipped to ha anything resembling reality. Sumptuously p tographed by the great Roger Deakins painterly procession of lingering, forbidding l scapes that often threaten to swallow our cha ters whole, The Assassination of Jesse James b soms into a moving, often sickly comic medita on the power of myth, with these small men st ing helpless before a giant inexorable tide of A ican legend. Long, but purposefully so, the m haunts your dreams. (At Kendall Square.)

The Bourne Ultimatum ★★★★
As propulsive, brilliantly assembled and breathl paced as any action picture I've seen, the third finest chapter in this superior spy saga finds
Damon's amnesiac assassin heading home to
York City to put together the final, harrowing p
pieces of his lost identity. United 93 director
Greengrass shoots exclusively with handheld eras, supercharging the impeccably choreograp
cat-and-mouse sequences with a jittery, you there immediacy. As always, Damon deftly ur plays, communicating the character's inner tor
strictly through his sleek physicality and hau
stare. Joan Allen returns as a jaded CIA oper
who becomes Bourne's most unlikely ally, this butting heads with David Strathairn's oily arm
warrior. These Bourne pictures have shrewdl dated Robert Ludlum's Cold War novels fo more distrustful, troubled times and seethe w profound loss of faith in our leaders. There's a harsh moral severity at work—the killings hur carry with them a tremendous psychological p
This is classy, sophisticated entertainment adults, and an outstanding example of sheer, b force craftsmanship. (In the suburbs.)

The Brave One ★★ ½
Irresponsible and irresistible, Jodie Foster's l exploration of female victimhood and empo ment is a clash of wildly divergent sensibilitie
one corner, we've got blockbuster super-proc
Joel Silver, king of mouth-breathing crowd-ple dating back to the Lethal Weapon/Die Hard er
the other we've got Neil Jordan, director of finely toned fables as Mona Lisa and The C
Game. It's Death Wish for liberals, as Foster pla NPR host traumatized after a brutal Central mugging leaves her fiancé dead. It isn't long b Jodie's got a gun and is offering her dimin frame as bait for subway hoodlums and then ing away. The material is elevated not by pompous voiceover regarding the natur vengeance but by Jordan's keen visual intellig and strategic deployment of surreal fairy-tale tr

Owen Wilson, Adrien Brody and Jason Schwartzman seek enlightenment in The Darjeeling Limited

ppey revenge movies are seldom this ll acted or so elegantly put together—particular, some standout sequences h Terrence Howard as an NYPD detec-e who just might have Foster's number. 'll hate yourself in the morning, but it rks. (In the suburbs.)

ıe Darjeeling Limited ★★★ ½
·eady an icon to skinny-jeaned, suit-ıted hipsters everywhere, director Wes derson makes a giant leap forward with s lyrical, melancholy tale of three es-ıged brothers traveling through India train in an attempt to reconnect and l some sort of spiritual enlightenment. probably impossible to keep thoughts Owen Wilson's well-publicized personal blems from affecting one's perception is dark and impressive turn as the dom-ering oldest sibling, while Adrien dy and Jason Schwartzman (who co-te the screenplay with Anderson and nan Coppola) offer some very funny, -of-sad turns as similarly stunted man-ldren. Anderson's obsessive-compul-set design, obnoxious color-coding meticulous widescreen compositions often feel like asphyxiating affecta-ıs, but somewhere along the way, *Dar-*ng blossoms into his messiest and most ·ing film to date, with flights of whimsy ınded for the first time in very human ı and confusion. The central motif, lut letting go of baggage both physical emotional, is annoyingly literal, but obtuseness doesn't make it any less oly felt. (At Boston Common, Kendall ıare and in the suburbs.)

:tern Promises ★★★
)id Cronenberg strikes again with this graphic, ·y and entertaining tale. No great shakes in the ;enplay department, this peculiar Russian ıioso saga was penned by Dirty Pretty Things ɔe Steven Knight and has something to do with lineage of a mysterious orphan—delivered in hic detail, with maximum splattery viscera, by mi Watts' nosey midwife. The dead mom's et diary leads our heroine on a tour of the Trans-Siberian underworld, where Armin Mueller-Stahl insinuates all sorts of suspect shenanigans. But the real draw is Viggo Mortensen, who seethes behind wraparound sunglasses and a museum's worth of telling tattoos. As a slippery chauffeur, he has a secret or two that he doesn't particularly feel like sharing, and Mortensen's captivating, nearly silent performance glues you to your seat despite some mildly ridiculous plot turns. Cronenberg, using the script as a mere launching pad for his particular brand of bodily havoc, climaxes early with a berserk, full-frontal bathhouse smackdown that ranks as one of the greatest fight scenes ever filmed. (At Boston Common, Fenway, Harvard Square and in the suburbs.)

Elizabeth: The Golden Age ★½
It might have boasted the breakout performance that rocketed Aussie firebrand Cate Blanchett to international superstardom, but it's worth remembering that 1998's Elizabeth was also a slightly silly picture, with some sly supporting turns keeping the overwrought melodrama from teetering over into camp. Alas, this soppy, belated sequel can't manage such a balancing act and inspires unintentional guffaws from the get-go. Perhaps realizing that the first picture developed a video afterlife as a favorite of teenage girls, director Shekhar Kapur has instructed Blanchett to play the 52-year-old monarch as if auditioning for High School Musical 3. Those dastardly Spanish Catholics are about to invade, but our Virgin Queen is busy giggling girlishly and being all moony-eyed for Clive Owen's Sir Walter Raleigh. Owen seems to be channeling Fabio as he prances around in a hilarious collection of costumes while over-enunciating cringe-worthy double entendres. Kapur's magisterial overhead shots and swirling 360-degree dolly shots are more headache-inducing than evocative. (At Kendall Square and in the suburbs.)

Feast of Love ★★
Someday I hope Morgan Freeman will be allowed to just act in a movie without also having to narrate it. But I guess it's tough for any filmmaker to resist ladling that gravelly voice of wisdom over the soundtrack, particularly when the material is as thin and meandering as director Robert Benton's lightweight adaptation of Charles Baxter's book. Freeman stars as a friendly professor in a college town who watches from his favorite local coffee shop as a variety of less interesting characters fall in and out of love. Some get married, some get divorced and everybody has a lot of sex as soft adult contemporary music plays in the background. Greg Kinnear is a likeable dim bulb who falls for a lesbian (Selma Blair) and a harlot (Radha Mitchell) as Freeman laughs and shakes his head sagely. The flat direction and uninspired visuals feel more like a cable show than a theatrical feature. Sure, these seem like swell people, but that doesn't explain why anybody would make a movie about them. (In the suburbs.)

Hairspray ★★★
A bouncy, unexpected delight, this vibrant adaptation of the hit Broadway musical—itself a reworking

LEGAL SEA FOODS

This holiday season, give the gift of plenty with a Legal gift card

It's an open invitation at any of our restaurants (but we won't take it personally if it's used to shop our online gourmet gifts).

"If it isn't fresh, it isn't Legal!"

Ak Square • Copley Place • Prudential Center • Long Wharf • Kendall Square • Charles Square

For location hours of operation please visit www.LEGALSEAFOODS.com ma soba

SUSHI ASIAN CUISINE WINES Best Sushi #1 rated currently
by Citysearch & AOL Cityguide
156 Cambridge St.
Boston, MA 02114
Tel. 617-973-6680
www.MasobaBoston.com
Delivery • Catering • Large Parties

Ben Stiller tests his range by playing a short-tempered nebbish in The Heartbreak Kid of John Waters' subversive 1992 dance-a-thon—might be the summer's sweetest surprise. Newcomer Nikki Blonsky stars as Tracy Turnblad, a hefty hoofer dedicated to breaking the color barrier on Baltimore's hottest local dance show. Facing off against Michelle Pfeiffer's slatternly racist station manager, Tracy enlists a marvelous supporting cast of progressively minded misfits and outcasts to take a stand for inclusiveness during an exclusionary era. The improbably touching John Travolta dons drag as Tracy's morbidly obese mother, Edna. Though the gigantic fat suit and outlandish accent take some getting used to, Travolta's daring, committed performance grows on you, culminating in a lovely duet with his hubby, Christopher Walken. Ditching the recent trend in movie musicals of overediting every number into incoherence, director/choreographer Adam Shankman favors wide angles and long shots, allowing us to actually see and appreciate the sheer infectiousness of these bopping bodies in motion. (In the suburbs.)

Harry Potter and the Order of the Phoenix ★★★½

The Harry Potter films thus far have felt like a collection of tie-in products dutifully recreating everybody's favorite scenes as if genuflecting before the Stations of the Cross. But now, four sequels into this saga, it finally feels like we're watching an honest-to-god movie. Forced to slash JK Rowling's unwieldy 870-page novel to a trim two hours and change, director David Yates and screenwriter Michael Goldenberg have at last reconceived the Potter-verse in purely cinematic terms. They scrapped all that Quidditch nonsense and zero in on Harry's adolescent struggle to wrap his still-forming mind around the fallibility of authority figures, the finality of death and the stinking unfairness of how the world really works. It's a surprisingly dark and violent coming-of-age tale, and Yates finds some nifty visual parallels for the character's inner journey. Young Daniel Radcliffe is growing into the role quite nicely, and the most overqualified supporting cast in history again excels, with extra kudos going to Gary Oldman, Alan Rickman and Imelda Staunton's fascist schoolmarm. (In the suburbs.)

The Heartbreak Kid ★★

In this remake reeking of desperation, brothers Peter and Bobby Farrelly attempt to graft their patented schtick onto Elaine May's 1972 classic by eschewing the original's tricky tone in favor of four-letter words and bodily functions. The increasingly tiresome Ben Stiller does his uptight, slow-burn routine once again, muttering under his breath as his blonde bombshell bride (the charming and apparently fearless Malin Akerman) reveals herself to be all too human, then flipping for Michelle Monaghan's mousy, rather boring girl next door. The verbal vulgarity isn't nearly as amusing as the Farrellys seem to think it is, especially with Stiller's real-life dad Jerry in an embarrassing turn as a foul-mouthed old pervert. Putting profanity in the mouths of the elderly is the last refuge of screenwriters who've run out of ideas, and The Heartbreak Kid all but curls up and dies onscreen once Akerman's endearing stumblebum gets unfairly shifted to villain status. Also, Carlos Mencia is in the film, and there's simply no excuse for that. (At Boston Common, Fenway and in the suburbs.)

In the Valley of Elah ★★

Tommy Lee Jones gives a performance of such shattering intensity, it's almost powerful enough to salvage writer-director Paul Haggis' ham-fisted Iraq War drama. Playing the grizzled father of a young soldier gone AWOL, Jones teams with Charlize Theron's de-glammed policewoman and heartbreakingly squints and mumbles his way through this TV-standard police procedural. Photographed in ugly, washed-out tones, there's a plaintive quality to the visuals that jibes with Jones' grim, strangulated line readings. But alas, as in Haggis' cloddish, inexplicably lauded Crash, fine performances take a backseat to inert soapbox ranting and trite plot twists so schematically over-determined they border on insanity. A single, wordless close-up of Jones' anguish says more about America and this war than an entire four-page monologue ever could, but Haggis can't help himself and closes with a final shot so overwrought it's already the stuff of legend. (In the suburbs.)

Into The Wild ★★★½

In 1990, Christopher McCandless (Emile Hirsch) donated his life savings to Oxfam, burned his Social Security card and disappeared down the highway into self-imposed obscurity. Rechristening himself "Alexander Supertramp," McCandless yearned to live the kind of pure existence he'd only read about in books by Henry David Thoreau and Jack London. Two years later he starved to death inside an abandoned bus in Alaska, barely 20 miles from the highway. Plenty of people consider McCandless a hero. Countless folk songs have been written about his journey, and that bus has become a popular tourist attraction. Just as many people, especially in Alaska, will tell you he was an idiot. The beauty of this film, written and directed by Sean Penn, is that it's both dreamy and lucid and filled with a deep respect for McCandless' ideals, but it never lets him off the hook for the spitefulness and naiveté inherent in his foolish, transcendent quest. It feels like a breakthrough for Penn as it throbs with color, possibilities and hope. (At Boston Common, Harvard Square and Waltham Embassy.)

The Kingdom ★★★

A bruising action flick with unfortunate delusions of social relevance, this extremely well-made procedural stars Jamie Foxx, Jennifer Garner, Chris Cooper and Jason Bateman as FBI agents dispatched to Saudi Arabia to investigate the terrorist bombing of an oil company housing facility. Adopting both the gruff aura of no-nonsense machismo and the advanced high-def video techniques pioneered by the film's producer (Michael Mann), Friday Night Lights director Peter Berg moves these largely by-the-numbers proceedings along briskly and purposefully until pulling out all the stops for the film's final 30 minutes—a knock-down, drag-out climax boasting the most impeccable combat choreography this side of Jason Bourne. That last hellzapoppin' reel is rousing enough to make you forget about the goofy Oil Crisis for Dummies prologue or the lazy central performance from Jamie Foxx, who seems to assume his sunglasses will do all the acting for him. Garner stands around infuriating the locals in skintight tank tops, but Bateman undercuts all the testosterone with some much-appreciated improvisational banter. (At Boston Common, Fenway and in the suburbs.)

Lust, Caution ★★

The title could probably apply to any of Ang L pictures, from The Ice Storm to Brokeback Moun as this immensely gifted filmmaker has made reer out of chronicling the countless heartbreak ways our basic human emotions are often thwar and repressed by rigid codes of social cond Strange then that this film is such a non-star Adapted by Lee's regular screenwriters, Ja Schamus and Hui Ling Wang, from a short stor Eileen Chang, this World War II drama stars n comer Wei Tang as an ambitious drama studen occupied Shanghai who seduces a sadistic gov ment official (Hong Kong movie legend T Leung) as part of a recklessly conceived assass tion plan. Bloated and sluggish, the movie sub tutes unpleasantly graphic, confusingly acrobatic scenes for emotional connections. Leung's nat charisma, so blinding in films by John Woo Wong Kar-wai, has here been muffled down to a authoritarian drone. There's simply not eno going on between the lines to support the epic ning time. (At Coolidge Corner, Kendall Sq and West Newton.)

Michael Clayton ★★★½

Another whip-smart, politically savvy flick f star/executive producer George Clooney, who ments his status as a throwback to the ag heavyweight leading men with enough gravita handle flawed, complicated leading ro Clooney's title character, a burnt-out fixer f big-money Manhattan law firm, finds him growing a conscience after witnessing the sha treatment of his esteemed colleague (the g Tom Wilkinson) when the latter threatens to b a billion-dollar lawsuit over a carcinogenic w killer. Shot primarily in metallic shades of gra cinematographer Robert Elswit, Bourne-tril screenwriter Tony Gilroy's impressively lean di torial debut has little patience for soft-hea pieties or conventional modern uplift. The kin stark, paranoid star vehicle that probably w have been a summer blockbuster back in the e '70s, Michael Clayton oozes class and adult sop tication. Clooney carries the picture on his w shoulders, subtle glimmers of long-buried idea slowly dawning behind his downcast eyes. picture's stirring climax isn't physical but inste verbal boxing match that's more exciting t most shoot-outs. (At Boston Common, Fen and in the suburbs.)

Rendition ★½

The appalling practice of shipping U.S. terror pects overseas for some, shall we say, crea methods of questioning is a matter that dese better treatment than this tedious talking-po memo from Tsotsi director Gavin Hood. R Witherspoon spends a surprisingly paltry amou screen time weeping and wandering around W ington pregnant after her Egyptian husb (Aramis Knight) gets mistakenly shuttled of some strategic electrocutions in a deliberately named North African country. Jake Gyllenh usually the soft, mushy center of films much b than this one, simpers through the movie drunken stupor as a squeamish CIA agent. ("Th my first torture," he slurs; it's the only good l Admirable in its muckraking intentions, Rend is also maddeningly vague and underwritten. ley Sane's screenplay grants the one-dimensi characters platforms instead of identities, Meryl Streep as a lip-smacking villain so cardb and simplistic she'd seem over-the-top in a film. A pointless time-shifting plot twist at the minute only underscores how little of what w seen has actually mattered. (At Boston Comm Fenway and in the suburbs.)

Rush Hour 3 ★½

In the sorry tradition of Beverly Hills Cop III, h another of those years-late, breathakingly threequels in which everybody involved carri as if they've already earned their massive checks simply by showing up. Jackie Chan Chris Tucker once again play mismatched buddies, and once again both men seem t competing in some private wager to see who do more damage to the English language. Nathanson's screenplay, which is really mo collection of arbitrary twists and unmotivate pieces, sends the bickering duo to Paris in se of a mythical Triad boss. I guess a $150 mil budget doesn't buy what it used to. Thank Brett Ratner's limp, functional direction, the of Lights looks more like a Hollywood back Chan just seems tired, and his acrobatic hij are more dutiful than inspiring. Tucker does he always does: squeal, yap and ad-lib with n gard for character, his co-stars, or what's hap ing around him. (In the suburbs.)

perbad ★★★½
7 is going to go down in history as the summer Judd Apatow and Seth Rogen saved American edy. On the heels of their triumphant Knocked comes the funniest and most down-to-Earth school movie since Fast Times at Ridgemont. Superbad stars the blisteringly profane Jonah as a kid whose entire sexual education has e from dubious sources on the Internet, while sted Development's Michael Cera tags along as idekick—a gentle young man who doesn't seem ave figured out how to work his body just yet. long, wild night of misadventures as this less-dynamic duo and their brilliantly squirmy d Fogell (Christopher Mintz-Plasse) attempt to some liquor and seduce their dreamgirls. The cate gag constructions devised by Rogen and riting partner, Evan Goldberg, spin from disas-to delights and then back again. These charac-keep finding ways to surprise us with improba-but quite genuine, pangs of pathos, even as you believe what you're hearing. (At Boston mon and in the suburbs.)

) to Yuma ★★★
stian Bale gives yet another ferociously com-ed performance as a down-on-his luck rancher finds himself guarding Russell Crowe's silver-ued stage coach robber. In the time-honored tion of every man's-gotta-do-what-a-man's--do horse opera (yep, another one), local law-and crooked railroad types turn tail and scat-But our hero doesn't shake so easy. Crowe's sly, ul performance bounces beautifully off Bale's sity, poking and prodding, trying to find a in the armor. Doesn't every man have a price? ing a half-hour longer than the 1957 original, the Line director James Mangold's remake pads e, dialogue-driven narrative with poorly staged scenes and shootouts that the film's meager et can't quite handle. But even all the obvious can't detract from the pure pleasure of watch-hese two actors have a blast circling and sniff-ach other out, each trying to figure out what s the other guy tick. (At Boston Common and suburbs.)

ays in Paris ★★★
nchanting Julie Delpy makes her directorial and stars in this very funny, if slightly uneven, culture-clash farce that follows a bickering young couple's strained 48 hours in the City of Light. Just don't expect the dreamy romanticism of the similarly structured Delpy vehicle Before Sunset, as here she and real-life ex Adam Goldberg mine all sorts of awkward and uncomfortable comedic scenarios that present Paris as swarming with psycho cabdrivers, elderly nymphomaniacs and sleazy former lovers lurking around every corner. A muscled, tattooed Goldberg borrows Woody Allen's timing and delivery as he plays a jittery hypochondriac aghast at the parade of exes Delpy's loopy photographer keeps bumping into. Surprisingly enough, 2 Days in Paris sports almost as many penis jokes as Superbad, as well as the inspired use of an arsonist, vegan guardian angel. Delpy's use of handheld cameras and jump cuts pay cheeky homage to the French New Wave, but occasionally the filmmaking becomes so frazzled you wish she'd back off just a bit. (In the suburbs.)

Special Events

Boston Jewish Film Festival
Various locations around Boston (617-244-9899). www.bjff.org. Oct.24-Nov. 6. Check Web site for event details. The Boston Jewish Film Festival showcases more than 40 contemporary Jewish-themed films from around the world, including three world premieres. The festival also features panel discussions, visits by directors and actors, and more.

Brattle Theatre Halloween Event
Brattle Theatre, 40 Brattle St., Cambridge (617-876-6837). www.brattlefilm.org. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. Oct. 31. Call ahead for showtime. Sam Raimi directs and Bruce Campbell stars in Evil Dead 2 1987, a cult-classic horror film about a young man fighting for survival against the undead.

Director Presents
Museum of Fine Arts, 465 Huntington Ave., Boston (617-267-9300). www.mfa.org. MBTA: E Green Line to Museum. Oct. 26, 10:30 am; Oct. 28, 2 pm; Nov. 1, 2:15 pm. Free. The MFA presents Orozco: Man of Fire 2007. Laurie Coyle and Rick Tejada-Flores direct this documentary about Mexican muralist José Clemente Orozco. A discussion with director Laurie Coyle and artist John Wilson follows the Oct. 26 and 28 screenings.

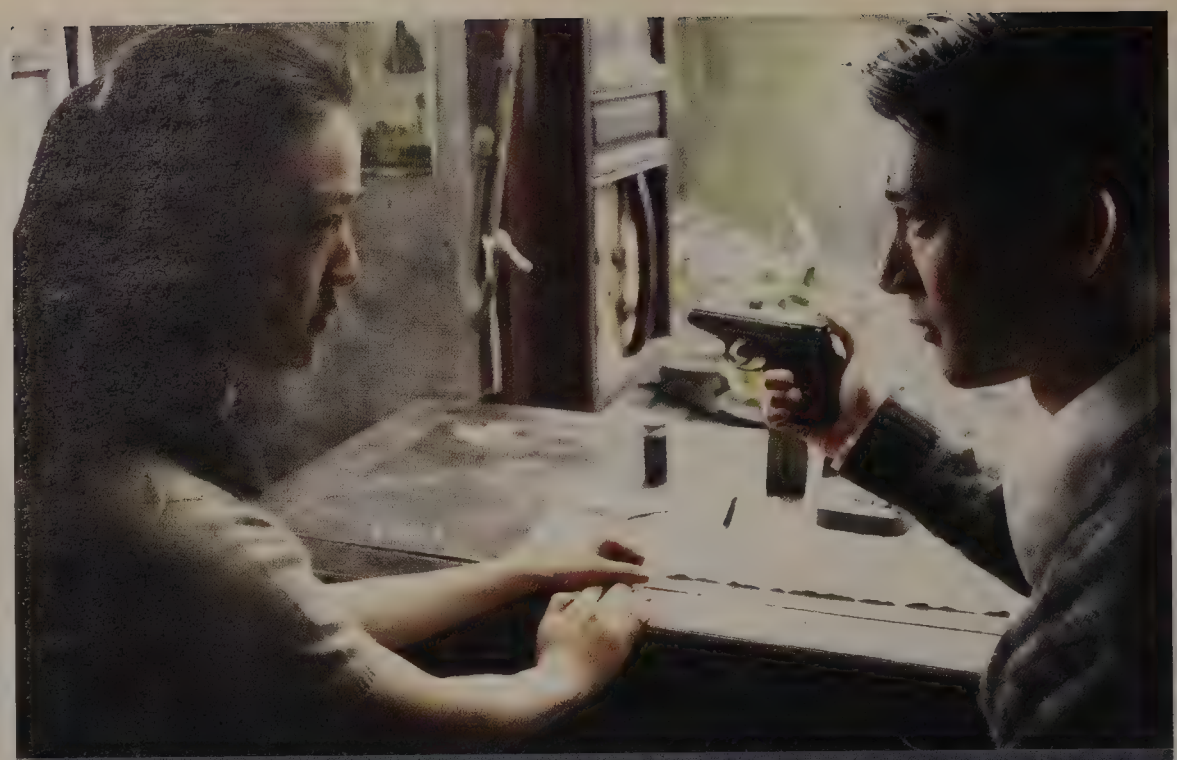
Friends of Film Sneak Preview: The Kite Runner



Museum of Fine Arts, 465 Huntington Ave., Boston (617-267-9300). www.mfa.org. MBTA: E Green Line to Museum. Oct. 28, 8:15 pm. Friends of Film membership required for admission. Based on the best-selling novel by Khaled Hosseini, The Kite Runner 2007 tells the story of Amir, a man who returns to Afghanistan from California to help a childhood friend. Marc Foster directs.

Japanese Resource Exchange Event

Cambridge Hyatt Regency Hotel, 575 Memorial Drive, Cambridge. www.jrex.us. MBTA: B Green Line to BU West. Oct. 28, 1 pm. $10. Masayuki Imai, director and star of the film Kamikaze (Winds of God) 2007, discusses his movie and global politics.

Michael Haneke: A Cinema of Provocation

BU School of Management, 595 Comm. Ave., Boston. www.bu.edu/com/ft/haneke/. Oct. 25-27. See Web site for details. Boston University and the Goethe-Institut Boston sponsor a three-day conference on the cinema of Michael Haneke, focusing on topics such as Haneke's depictions of Austria and Germany, his use of sound and music, and violence in his films.

Pushing the boundaries of safe sex, Wei Tang and Lee-hom Wang mix passion and gunplay in Lust, Caution

Repertories and Revivals

Advice to Contributors

Submit film listings by fax (617-859-1446), mail to Calendar: Film or e-mail to film@improper.com. Deadline is four weeks prior to publication.

BOSTON PUBLIC LIBRARY

Eyes on the Prize

•Nov. 5, 9 pm. PBS's landmark documentary series examines the civil rights struggle in America. Tonight the BPL airs the first two episodes: "Awakenings," about the events of the mid-1950s, and "Fighting Back," about the backlash following the Supreme Court's decision to desegregate public schools in Brown v. Board of Education.

Never Too Late Group

•Oct. 25, 2 pm. The Black Cat 1934. Edgar G. Ulmer directs this dark film about American honeymooners in Hungary who become trapped in the home of a Satan-worshiping priest.

•Nov. 1, 2 pm. Funny Face 1956. Stanley Donen directs this classic comedy in which Fred Astaire plays a fashion photographer and Audrey Hepburn is the ordinary girl who stumbles into a modelling gig in Paris.

Westerns of the 1950s

•Oct. 29, 6 pm. The Left Handed Gun 1958. Paul Newman gives an early star turn as the fabled gunslinger Billy the Kid, who goes on the lam after avenging the death of his friend. Arthur Penn directs.

BRANDEIS UNIVERSITY

Women Filmmakers From India: Film Series

•Oct. 25, 7:30 pm. Amu 2005. Shonali Bose directs this film about an Indian-American woman who returns to India and discovers disturbing truths about her past.

BRATTLE THEATRE

Seventies Shooter: A Tribute to Laszlo Kovacs

•Oct. 24, 5:30, 7:30 and 9:30 pm. Easy Rider 1969. Free-spirited bikers embark on a cross-country road trip to Mardi Gras. Dennis Hopper stars and directs.

•Oct. 25, 8 pm. Close Encoun of the Third Kind 1977. A cable is determined to make contact extraterrestrials after experienc close encounter. Steven Spiel directs.

COOLIDGE CORNER THEA

Coolidge Selects

•Oct. 29-31, 2 and 5 pm. Flynt: The Right to Be Left A 2007. Joan Brooker-Marks di this comprehensive documer about Hustler magazine publ Larry Flynt.

Croatian Film Series

•Oct. 28, 12:30 pm. Volim Love You) 2005. Dalibor Matan rects this story about a man wh everything but loses it all. In C ian with English subtitles.

Science on Screen

•Oct. 29, 7 pm. Pulse 200 group of teens stunned by the den suicide of a friend are surp to see his ghost appear in con ers and videos. Kiyoshi Kuro directs.

HARVARD FILM ARCHIVE

An Evening With Lodge Kerrigan

•Oct. 29, 7 pm. Keane 2004. gan directs this film about a poor, unstable man takes to the streets of New York City looking f abducted daughter.

Michael Haneke: A Cinema of Provocation

•Oct. 26, 7 pm. Benny's Video 1992. Hanek rects this film about a young boy who watc movie in which a pig is slaughtered and then schoolmate in a similar fashion. In German English subtitles.

•Oct. 26, 9 pm. 71 Fragments of a Chronolo Chance 1994. This film focuses on the lives o eral strangers who are linked by a tragedy on C mas Eve. Haneke directs. In German with En subtitles.

Green is good

Good Food. Good Spirits. Good Craic.

the Green Briar

irish pub

Good 'till Last Call.

Showing all Red Sox and Rugby World Cup action!

304 Washington Street Brighton Center www.greenbriarpub.com 617-789-4100

ct. 27, 7 pm. Das Schloss (The Castle) 1997. A d surveyor takes a job at a mysterious castle and ets hostility from his coworkers and the town's dents. Haneke directs. In German with English itles.

ct. 27, 9:15 pm. Siebente Kontinent, Der (The enth Continent) 1989. A family plans to move to stralia after their daughter, in protest at how bor- and mundane their lives have become, pretends ave gone blind. Haneke directs. In German with lish subtitles.

ct. 28, 3 pm. La Pianiste (The Piano Teacher) 1. An uptight piano teacher living with her her has a secret interest in pornography, eurism and sadomasochism. In French with Eng- subtitles. Haneke directs.

ct. 28, 7 pm. Funny Games 1997. Director neke's film follows two young men who find en- ainment in torturing an upper-class family on ation.

t. 28, 9 pm. Code Inconnu (Code Unknown) 0). Presented as a series of disassociated episodes, film follows characters whose lives intersect in a le moment. Haneke directs. In French with Eng- subtitles.

SEUM OF FINE ARTS

ish Advertising Films of 2007

t. 24, 8:15 pm; Oct. 26, 6:15 pm; Oct. 28, 10:20 British Advertising Films of 2007 2007. This collects award-winning British advertisements the past year.

ish Cinema

v. 1, 5:45 pm. Lights in the Dusk 2006. A ly security guard mixes with colorful characters elsinki. Aki Kaurismäki directs. In Finnish with ish subtitles.

hael Haneke: A Cinema rovocation

t. 24, 6 pm. Code Innconu (Code Unknown) 0. See Oct. 28 Harvard Film Archive listing for description.

t. 31, 8 pm. Time of the Wolf 2003. Director ke depicts a society in chaos after an apocalyp- vent. In French with English subtitles.

v. 3, 3:40 pm. 71 Fragments of a Chronology of ce 1994. See Oct. 26 Harvard Film Archive g for a description.

New England Film Artists Present

•Oct. 26, 5 pm; Nov. 1, 1 pm. Holding Our Own: Embracing the End of Life 2007. This film highlights the work of artist Deidre Scherer and the harmonies of the hospice chorus Hallowell as they consider aging, death, grief and spirituality.

•Oct. 28, 12 pm. Forgotten Ellis Island 2007. This documentary portrays stories of patients and medical staff at a public hospital built on the small island.

•Oct. 28, 6 pm. The Dhamma Brothers 2007 is the story of Alabama prison inmates who enter a Vipassana retreat, an intensive, 10-day course of silent meditation. Jenny Phillips, Anne Marie Stein and Andrew Kukura direct.

New Russian Cinema

•Oct. 26, 8 pm; Oct. 28, 3:45 pm; Oct. 31, 5:45 pm. The Island 2006 explores a Russian soldier-turned-holyman's sense of guilt and quest for redemption. In Russian with English subtitles.

MUSEUM OF SCIENCE

Charles Hayden Planetarium

•Far, Far Away: The Worlds of Star Wars. From the Death Star to Tatooine, explore the terrestrial backgrounds of the Star Wars movies and compare them to real planets in our solar system. Through Oct. 29.

•Into the Unknown. This planetarium show examines the current science concerning the universe, extraterrestrial life and mysterious phenomena such as black holes. Through Oct. 31.

•The Sky Tonight. Learn how to point out stars, planets and constellations visible at night. Ongoing.

3-D Digital Cinema

•Bugs! A live-action nature film starring a praying mantis and a butterfly.

•3-D Sun. Join NASA's STEREO satellites on a mission to document and study Earth's closest star.

•The World of Sharks. Come face-to-face with the ocean's greatest and often most misunderstood predator, as filmed by Jean-Michel Cousteau.

NEW ENGLAND AQUARIUM

•Deep Sea 3-D. An underwater crew spends more than 300 hours studying squid in the Sea of Cortez, jellyfish off Monterey and coral reefs in the Bahamas.

•Dinosaurs 3-D: Giants of Patagonia. Follow Argentinian paleontologists in their quest to explore recent discoveries of early dinosaurs.

•Haunted Castle. A boy visits his family's castle after his mother's death, but finds ghosts and spirits awaiting his arrival. Through Oct. 31.

•Sea Monsters. Join fossil hunters to remote locations as they uncover the remains of ancient sea creatures.

•Sharks. Come face-to-face with the ocean's greatest and often most misunderstood predator, as filmed by Jean-Michel Cousteau.

•Whales. Follow different whales during their migration journey and learn how they interact through a system of calls.

Cinema Venues

ARLINGTON

Capitol Theater
204 Mass. Ave. (781-648-4340). MBTA: Red Line to Porter, then #77 Bus to Arlington Center.

Regent Theatre
7 Medford St. (781-646-4849). MBTA: Red Line to Alewife, then #79 Bus to Arlington Heights.

BELMONT

Studio Cinema
376 Trapelo Road (617-484-1706) MBTA: Red Line to Harvard, then #73 Bus to Beech St.

BOSTON

Boston Public Library
700 Boylston St. (617-536-5400). MBTA: Green Line to Copley or Orange Line to Back Bay.

Fenway 13 Theatre
201 Brookline Ave. (617-424-6266). MBTA: D Green Line to Fenway.

Goethe-Institut Boston
170 Beacon St. (617-262-6050). MBTA: Green Line to Arlington.

Institute of Contemporary Art
100 Northern Ave. (617-266-5152). MBTA: Red Line to South Station, then Silver Line to Courthouse.

Loews Boston Common
175 Tremont St. (617-423-3499). MBTA: Green Line to Boylston.

Museum of Fine Arts
465 Huntington Ave. (617-267-9300). MBTA: E Green Line to Museum.

Museum of Science
1 Science Park (617-723-2500). MBTA: Green Line to Science Park.

New England Aquarium
1 Central Wharf (866-815-4629). MBTA: Blue Line to Aquarium.

BROOKLINE

Coolidge Corner Theatre
290 Harvard St. (617-734-2500). MBTA: C Green Line to Coolidge Corner.

CAMBRIDGE

Brattle Theatre
40 Brattle St. (617-876-6837). MBTA: Red Line to Harvard.

Harvard Film Archive
24 Quincy St. (617-495-4700). MBTA: Red Line to Harvard.

Harvard Natural History Museum
26 Oxford St. (617-495-3045). MBTA: Red Line to Harvard.

Kendall Square Cinema
1 Kendall Square (617-499-1996). MBTA: Red Line to Kendall/MIT.

Loews/Sony
10 Church St. (617-864-4580). MBTA: Red Line to Harvard.

NEWTON

Chestnut Hill Cinema
27 Boylston St. (617-277-2500). MBTA: D Green Line to Chestnut Hill.

West Newton Cinema
1296 Washington St. (617-964-6060). MBTA: Commuter Rail to West Newton.

SOMERVILLE

Loews/Sony
35 Middlesex Ave. (617-628-7000). MBTA: Orange Line to Sullivan.

Somerville Theatre
55 Davis Square (617-625-5700). MBTA: Red Line to Davis.

WALTHAM

Brandeis University
415 South St. (781-736-8600).

Case Study

Boston's Crooked Still tests the evolution of the string band

BY PAUL ROBICHEAU

Greg Liszt (right) veers off the straight and narrow path with his band Crooked Still.

With a Ph.D in biology, Greg Liszt could command a high-octane day job. But he's got his hands full playing banjo for Boston's string-band phenomenon Crooked Still—not to mention a recent stint on tour with Bruce Springsteen's Seeger Sessions Band.

"At this point, it's a fallback," Liszt says of his MIT doctorate. He adds that experimenting with music can be very similar to labwork. "You might try lots of things and proceed down paths with many interesting results."

For instance, instead of using the customary three fingers to pluck his banjo, Liszt pushes boundaries by plucking with four. But the daring doesn't end there. Crooked Still is turning the acoustic world on its ear with its novel instrumentation of Liszt's banjo, Rushad Eggleston's cello and Corey DiMario's acoustic bass, plus Aoife O'Donovan's supple vocals.

"Greg always describes it as more of a discovery than an invention," says DiMario, who was studying jazz at the New England Conservatory with O'Donovan when they crossed paths with Liszt and Berklee student Eggleston at a party. "We liked playing together and these were the instruments we played. So we intuitively tried to figure out a way to make it work."

Their intuition clearly paid off. Eggleston's cello, which covers parts more commonly associated with fiddle or blues guitar, complements Liszt's actively percolating banjo to give the quartet a percussive edge. That edge might be attributed to the band members' far-flung tastes. DiMario says, "So often we'll be on the road, and Rushad will be listening to his iPod and blasting Metallica, and then Greg will be off listening to hip-hop. All four of us have a pretty diverse palette in what we like to listen to. I think all these influences come out in different ways."

At the age of 30, DiMario is the band's eldest member. He says that some acoustic bands, faced with the desire for popularity, simply add a drum kit or electric guitar. "But rather than bring in a funk line with an electric bass and a drum set, we try to draw on the energy of that music," he says. "I mean, we all grew up listening to rock 'n' roll. I like Nirvana as much as I like [bluegrass icon] Bill Monroe."

But admiration doesn't mean imitation. "If we're playing a Bill Monroe song, we're not necessarily trying to sound like him," says DiMario. Instead, Crooked Still mixes elements of bluegrass, Appalachian, blues, and old-time music. "All of those things fall under string-band music."

On many tracks the band achieves a natural sparseness, notably in 2006's Shaken by a Low Sound, where the group transforms tunes from Bob Dylan, Robert Johnson and the traditional repertoire. "So often, string-band music is very dense, with constant notes," DiMario says. "It's nice to have a little breathing room."

That space plays to O'Donovan's strengths as a subtle yet expressive singer. "She's a lot more than a pretty voice," adds DiMario, noting that O'Donovan has an instrumental perspective from playing piano and guitar. "She can contribute on an equal musical level."

Perhaps the most interesting result of Crooked Still's internal experiments, however, is external success. The quartet that once played the tiny Cantab Lounge in Central Square is headlining Harvard's Sanders Theatre Nov. 9—a surprising accomplishment for a pure string band, even if O'Donovan's voice can be reminiscent of bluegrass star Alison Krauss.

"That's a really big deal for us—it's something of a dream venue in the Boston area," Liszt says of the Sanders Theatre. "It's pretty remarkable that so many people would be interested in hearing a quirky, eccentric string band. But we've been cultivating our niche."

DiMario cites the band's home-field advantage. "When we were playing on a Tuesday night at the Cantab, I don't think any of us were thinking in concrete terms like, 'Yeah, if we stick to this for six or seven years, we can headline these bigger venues.' But it's really exciting."

Liszt also notes that the Sanders gig will mark the group's last concert with Eggleston, who'll be replaced with two 21-year-olds: cellist Tristan Clarridge (also a four-time national fiddle champion) and fiddler Brittany Haas. Haas has worked with the band before, guesting on Crooked Still's 2004 debut Hop High while in town to visit Harvard as a high-school junior. She ended up opting for Princeton, where she studies evolutionary biology.

Liszt, the biologist, says that their common academic pursuits didn't affect the band's decision to enlist her. But he admits, "It's almost impossible to believe that it's a coincidence." iB

Crooked Still plays the Sanders Theatre Nov. 9.

Advice to Contributors
Submit information labeled "Rock," "Blues," etc fax (617-859-1446), by mail to Calendar/Music by email to music@improper.com. Include dates, p prices, phone numbers and nearest T stop. Deadli four weeks prior to publication date. Listings no cepted over the phone.

Advice to Readers
Information for the Music section is compiled from ferent sources. Although we make every effort to vide accurate dates and times, changes do occur. ahead to double-check dates and times (see complet of venues at the end of the section).

Top Billings

Blues Traveler Nov. 5, Paradise Rock Club (562-8800).
Monster Jam: Kanye West, Lil' Wayne, A Fabolous, Mims, T-Pain Oct. 29, TD Bankn Garden (617-931-2000).
Morrissey Oct. 30, Orpheum Theatre (617- 0810).
New England Punk, Goth & Metal Festival: Misfits, Mongrel Oct. 28, Palladium (800- 6849).
Van Halen, Ky-Mani Marley Nov. 6, DCU Ce (508-755-6800).
Dionne Warwick Oct. 27 and 28, Cutler Maj Theatre (800-233-3123).

Rock, Jazz and Blues

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 24

Abbey Lounge Private Circus, Your M Progzilla, 9:30 pm, $7, 21+.
Bill's Bar Alexis Babini, Yerba Mate, Chloe an Pappas, Dan Brutti, 8:30 pm, $7 in advance, $ door, 18+.
Breezeway The Frank Wilkins Vocal Show 7:30 pm, no cover.
Bristol Lounge Bill Duffy, 6 pm, no cover, 21+
The Bulfinch Yacht Club The Blind King, 8 pm 21+.
Cantab Lounge Candy's Blues, 9 pm, 21+.
Church Natalie Flanagan Band, the Sprained kles, Jay Allen and the Archcriminals, 8:30 pm 21+.
Club Passim Peter Case, Ben Arnold, 8 pm, $13-
Dick's Last Resort Jonno, 7 pm, no cover.
Fireplace Restaurant Jef Charland and the Monday Band, 9:30 pm, no cover, all ages.
Great Scott C Rayz Walz, Sharkey, 9 pm, $10 21+.
Harpers Ferry ASN, Jake the Snake, the C.A. Crystallite, Sonsofsam, Kay Biggs 57, Bre, 8 pm 21+.
Johnny D's Kalman Balogh Gypsy Cimbalom 9 pm, $15, 21+.
Kennedy's Midtown Christie Leigh, 8:30 pm cover, 21+.
Lizard Lounge The Dennis Brennan Band Sunsets, 7:30 pm, no cover 21+; the Dennis nan Band, 9:30 pm, $5, 21+.
Lucky's Lounge The Ben Zecker Trio, 9 pm cover, 21+.
Middle East Upstairs: Rockfour, Back Door Tab the Band, 8:30 pm, $9, 18+. Downstairs packs, 8 pm, .
Milky Way The Spam All Stars, 9 pm, $10, 21-
Paradise Lounge Jupiter One, the London Sc pm, $8, 18+.
Paradise Rock Club Shout Out Louds, 7 pm, $ advance, $14 day of show, 18+.
PA's Magik Markers, Electric Jellyfish, the M pm, $6-$8, 21+.
River Gods Jason Beek, PJ Eastman, John Fu pm, no cover, 21+.
Ryles Jazz Club Francisco Pais Quintet, 9 pm,
Scullers Jazz Club James Montgomery, 8 pm a pm, $18.
Taj Boston Street Bar Alfredo Cardim, 6 p cover, 21+.
Terrace Lounge Al Vega Trio, 7 pm, no cover
Top of the Hub Chris Taylor Trio, 8:30 pm cover.
T.T. the Bear's Place Film School, Small Sins of Talk, Eulogies, 8:45 pm, $10, 18+.
Vinalia The Circus Band, 7 pm, no cover, 21+
ZuZu Roots and Razors, 10:30 pm, 21+.
Les Zygomates Uziel Colon Trio, 8 pm.

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 25

Abbey Lounge Superlow, the Frosting, Pack Knives, $7, 21+.

hemist Lounge The Big Disappointments, 10 , no cover, 21+.
's Bar Beautiful Lies, 8 Symphony, the West, the t Boston Make-Out Club, 8:30 pm, $10, 18+.
stol Lounge Joe Morocco, 6 pm, no cover, 21+.
e Bulfinch Yacht Club Polarbaron, 8 pm, $7, .
e Burren Swinging Johnsons, 10 pm, $5, 21+.
ıtab Lounge The Chicken Slacks, 9 pm, 21+.
ırch Rick Berlin, Martin Bisi, Humanwine, 8 $10, 21+.
eplace Restaurant The Carmen Staaf Quartet,) pm, no cover, all ages.
e Foundation Lounge Soul Night, Evan ɔdrow and the Foundation Lounge band "Souli- ıs" play Motown, R&B and soul classics, 9 pm, no er, 21+.
at Scott Emergency Music, the Beatings, Scuba, ding Disappointment, 9 pm, $8, 18+.
nessy's Fly Switch, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.
nedy's Midtown Brandon Heisler, 9 pm, no er, 21+.
ıale Magic Dave, 6 pm, no cover, 21+.
rd Lounge Waitiki, Atlas Soul, 8 pm, $10, 21+.
cy's Lounge Alex MacDougall Band, 9:30 pm, over, 21+.
dle East Upstairs: Tunng, Geoff Farina, Brown , 9 pm, $10 in advance, $12 at the door, 18+.
Dooley's Patsy and Johnny, 9 pm, $5, 21+.
rien's This Car Up, 28 Degrees Taurus, the Set ed Things, Action Camp, 9 pm, $7, 21+.
ıdise Lounge Pete Kilpatrick Band, the Kin, ıusy Curve, 8 pm, $10, 18+.
ıdise Rock Club The Go! Team, 8 pm, $17.50, .
Viva Viva, Scout Niblet, Picastro, Ryan Lee by, 9 pm, $6-$8, 21+.
olution Rock Bar Ben Willmott, 8 pm, $7, 21+.
r Gods Brobots, Justin Tiernan, Matt Mirande, ı, no cover, 21+.
s Jazz Club Ezra Weiss, 8:30 pm, $15.
clers Jazz Club Christian Scott, 8 pm and 10 $18.
oston Street Bar Bill Duffy, 6 pm, no cover, 21+.
ace Lounge Eric McFadden, 7 pm, no cover, 21+.
Madi Diaz, 7 pm, no cover, 21+; the Allen Di- Trio, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

ADVANCE SEATING

UPCOMING HEADLINERS

The Academy Is Nov. 7, Palladium (508-797-9696).

AnBerlin, Mae, Motion City Soundtrack Nov. 11, Palladium (508-797-9696).

Ani DiFranco Nov. 9, Orpheum Theatre (617-679-0810).

Fall Out Boy, Cute Is What We Aim For, Gym Class Heroes, Plain White T's Nov. 9, Tsongas Arena (917-848-6900).

Jimmy Eat World Nov. 7, Orpheum Theatre (617-679-0810).

Annie Lennox, Carina Round Nov. 11, Symphony Hall (617-266-1492).

Youssou N'Dour Nov. 24, Somerville Theatre (617-625-5700).

Don Omar Nov. 24, Orpheum Theatre (617-679-0810).

The Police Nov. 11, TD Banknorth Garden (617-624-1000).

Bruce Springsteen and the E Street Band Nov. 18 and 19, TD Banknorth Garden (617-624-1000).

Eliott Yamin Nov. 24, the Roxy (617-338-7699).

Top of the Hub Chris Taylor Trio, 8:30 pm, no cover.
T.T. the Bear's Place The Detroit Cobras, Eli Reed and the True Loves, the Swinedells, 9:30, $14, 18+.
ZuZu Mambo Beat Club, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.
Les Zygomates Jazz Marauders, 8 pm.

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 26

Abbey Lounge Salacious Crumb, Bipolarcoaster, the Dimwits, 9 pm, $8, 21+.
Berklee Performance Center Joe Bonamassa, 8 pm, $26-$41.
Bill's Bar Trans Cardia, the Beautiful Pain, Grind, Era For a Moment, 8:30 pm, $10, 18+.
Black Horse Tavern Wishful Thinking, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.
The Black Rose Bobby Folkes, 9:30 pm, $5, 21+.
Bristol Lounge Joe Barbato, 6 pm, no cover, 21+; Alfredo Cardim, 9:30 pm, no cover, 21+.
The Bulfinch Yacht Club Crespo, Munk, Matthew Ebel, American Water, 8 pm, $8, 21+.
The Burren Cover Up, 10 pm, $5, 21+.
Cantab Lounge Diane Blue and the Fatback Band, 9 pm, 21+.
Church The Proselyte, Bloodcow, Imperial Blacksnake, 8 pm, $8, 21+.
Club Passim David Rovics, 8 pm, $10-$12.
Dante's of Quincy OSB, 9:30, $7, 21+.
Dick's Last Resort Mr. Band, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.
Hennessy's Spike the Punch, 9:30 pm, $5, 21+.
Johnny D's Sarah Borges and the Broken Singles, 9:45 pm, $10, 21+.
Jose McIntyre's Incadence, 10 pm, $5, 21+.
Kinsale Groovestone, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.
Lily Pad Simon Tedeschi, 8 pm, $15, all ages.
Lizard Lounge Angeline, Robin Lane and the Chartbusters, McAlister Drive, 8 pm, $10, 21+.
Lucky's Lounge Alex MacDougall Band, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.
Matt Murphy's Brad Barr, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.
Middle East Upstairs: Holly Golightly and the Broke-Offs, Bread and Roses, Tony the Bookie Orchestra, 9 pm, $12, 18+. Downstairs: The Avengers, Pansy Division, Sasquatch, 8 pm, $10 in advance, $12 at the door, 18+.
Mr. Dooley's Frank Ryan, Patsy and Sean, 5 pm, $5, 21+.
O'Brien's Turpentine Brothers, the Big Disappointments, Sic Alps, Scarcity of Tanks, 9 pm, $8, 21+.
Orpheum Umphrey's McGee, 7:30 pm, $20-$25, all ages.
Paddy O's Sweep the Leg, 9:30 pm, no cover, 21+.
Paradise Lounge Jenny Owen Youngs, Sean Hayes, 5 pm, $12, 18+.
Paradise Rock Club Dear Leader, the Russians, Boone, 8 pm, $12 in advance, $14 at the door, 18+.
Parris Loudmouth, 10 pm, $10, 21+.
PA's Union Square Round Table, 9 pm, $6-$8, 21+.
Regattabar Watermelon Slim and the Workers, 7:30 pm, $16, 21+.
Roxy Bang Camaro, 6 pm, $15, 18+.
Ryles Jazz Club Dunya, 9 pm.
Somerville Theatre Buffalo Tom, 7:30 pm, $21.
Taj Boston Street Bar Eugene Maslov, 6 pm, no cover, 21+; Bert Seager Trio, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.
Terrace Lounge First Class, 9:30 pm, no cover, 21+.
Toad Organ-ism, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.
Top of the Hub Chris Taylor Group, 9 pm, no cover.

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 27

Abbey Lounge The Undead Kennedys, the Mummies, Dennis Most, 9 pm, $8, 21+.
Bill's Bar Mike Maven and the Good Life, Emily Greene, 9 pm, $10, 18+.
Black Horse Tavern Jes Perry, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.
The Black Rose Bobby Folkes, 9:30 pm, $5, 21+.
Bristol Lounge Joe Barbato, 6 pm, no cover, 21+.
The Bulfinch Yacht Club Devil's Run, Welch Boys, Destroy Babylon, Knuckledusters, 8 pm, $8, 21+.
The Burren Boston Dave, 10 pm, $5, 21+.
Cantab Lounge The Fatback Band, 9 pm, 21+.
Church Oliver North, Beantown Boozehounds, Psycho, 8 pm, $10, 21+.

the best STEAK in Boston is now in two locations!

MORTON'S
THE STEAKHOUSE
Savor the Good Life

Lunch • Dinner
Private Boardroom Dining • Bar 12·21

OPENING NOVEMBER 2nd IN SEAPORT
Two Seaport Lane • 617-526-0410

BACK BAY
699 Boylston • 617-266-5858

mortons.com

not your mama's steakhouse
...35 YEARS YOUNG
SPECIAL EVENTS
PRIVATE DINING
LUNCH, DINNER & SUNDAY BRUNCH
FREE PARKING
RESERVATIONS FOR PARTIES LARGER THAN 6
SINATRA FRIDAYS WITH AL VEGA
STOCKYARD
FOOD & SPIRITS
135 Market Street
Brighton, MA 02135
617.782.4700
WWW.STOCKYARDRESTAURANT.COM

Bang Camaro (yes, all these guys are in the band) get off what must be the dirtiest tour bus in America to play the Roxy Oct. 26.

Club Passim Kevin So, the Maybelles, $13-$15.
Cutler Majestic Theatre Dionne Warwick, 8 pm, $28-$78.
Dante's of Quincy Professor Harp, 9:30, $6, 21+.
Dick's Last Resort Soul City, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.
Harpers Ferry The Project, Christie Leigh and the Crooked Hearts, Jay Leonard, 8 pm, $5 in advance, $8 at door, 18+.
Hennessy's Fast Times, 9:30 pm, $5, 21+.
Johnny D's Eilen Jewell, 9:45 pm, $10, 21+.
Kinsale Celtic Clan, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.
Lizard Lounge Paddy Saul, Anna Freitas, 8 pm, $10, 21+.
Matt Murphy's Los Acustilocos, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.
Middle East Upstairs: Noble Rot, the Unstoppable Black Clouds, the Vershok, 9 pm, $10, 18+. Downstairs: Darkbuster, Geniune Rust, 8 Hour Waste, 8 pm, $12, 18+.
Mr. Dooley's Tommy and Alan, 9 pm, $5, 21+.
O'Brien's Sin of Angels, Hirudinea, Slugpuncher, Disc Junky Alex Onslaught, 9 pm, $7, 21+.
Orpheum The Tragically Hip, 7:30 pm, $25-$32.50, all ages.
Paradise Lounge The Wandas, the Mars Patrol, 9 pm, $8, 18+.
Paradise Rock Club Ryan Montbleau Band, Nate Wilson Group, Tom Bianchi, 8 pm, $16.50, 18+.
Parris Loudmouth, 10 pm, $10, 21+.
PA's Tunnel of Love, Sonic Chicken 4, the Black Clouds, Tony Sagger, 9 pm, $6-$8, 21+.
Ryles Jazz Club The Giovanni Moltoni Quartet, 9 pm, $10.
Somerville Theatre Greg Brown, 8 pm, $25.
Taj Boston Street Bar Eugene Maslov, 6 pm, no cover, 21+.
Terrace Lounge First Class, 9:30 pm, no cover, 21+.
Toad Big Blonde, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.
Top of the Hub Chris Taylor Group, 9 pm, no cover.
T.T. the Bear's Place David Bazan, All Smiles, the Soft Drugs, Drew O'Doherty, 9:05 pm, 18+.
ZuZu Soul-le-lu-jah, 11 pm, no cover, 21+.
Les Zygomates Al Vega, 8 pm.

SUNDAY, OCTOBER 28

Abbey Lounge Ledfoot, the Moodus Noise, the Under, 9 pm, $7, 21+.
Bristol Lounge Dan Greenspan, 11 am, no cover; Alfredo Cardim, 6 pm, no cover, 21+.
The Bulfinch Yacht Club Await Rescue, Reign Lee, With a Past Apparition, 8 pm, $7, 21+.
Cantab Lounge Upstairs: Candy's Blues, Jazz and Rock Jam, 9 pm, no cover, 21+. Downstairs: Thylacine, Uncle Big Time, Lucretia's Daggers, My Mercy, 7:30 pm, $10-$12.
Club Passim John White Jr., 5 pm, $13-$15; Lowe, Harkness and Crain, 8:30 pm, $8-$10.
Cutler Majestic Theatre Dionne Warwick, 3 pm, $28-$78.
Dick's Last Resort Jonno, 7 pm, no cover.
Great Scott The Broken River Prophet, Seana Carmody, Dave Lamb, Mandate of Heaven, 9 pm, $7, 18+.
Hennessy's Sweep the Leg, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.
Johnny D's Jazz Brunch with Matt Dorko and Larry Kuker, 9 am, no cover.
Kennedy's Midtown Deborah Neigher, Ramond Gilead, Douglas Frazier, 6 pm, $5, 18+.
Matt Murphy's Three Leg Dog, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.
Middle East Upstairs: Figurines, the Dead Trees, Dappled Cities, 9 pm, $9 in advance, $10 at the door, 18+.
Mr. Dooley's Colm O'Brien, 9 pm, $5, 21+.
Palladium New England Punk, Goth & Metal Festival: The Misfits, Mongrel, 11 am, $28.50 in advance, $30 at the door.
Paradise Rock Club Ryan Montbleau Band, Dwight and Nicole, Jesse Dee, 7 pm, $16.50, 18+.
PA's Cryptacize, 9 pm, $6-$8, 21+.
Regent Theater Blues Tribute to Teo Leyasmeyer, 4 pm, $25-$30, all ages.
River Gods Dinos and Amy, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.
Terrace Lounge Ray Santisi Trio, 5:30 pm, no cover, 21+.
Toad Christie Leigh, 8 pm, no cover, 21+.
Top of the Hub Marty Ballou Trio, 8 pm, no cover.
T.T. the Bear's Place Powderhouse, Phonograph, 9:15 pm, $8, 18+.
ZuZu Professor Z and Kavalier, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

MONDAY, OCTOBER 29

Abbey Lounge Kelly O'Malley, David Zoffer Differential, Nili Brosh, 9 pm, $7, 21+.
Bristol Lounge Alfredo Cardim, 6 pm, no cover, 21+.
The Burren Set Dancing, 8 pm, $5, 21+.
Church Sir Richard Wentworth, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.
Club Passim Mary Gauthier, 8 pm, $23-$25.
Dick's Last Resort Pat Funk, 7 pm, no cover.
Harpers Ferry Thief, Kill the Alarm, Kill Your Ex, 8 pm, $7, 18+.
Hennessy's Joe Carson, 8 pm, no cover, 21+.
Matt Murphy's Shea Rose, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.
Middle East The Sound of Urchin, Clawjob, School for Robots, 8 pm, $9 in advance, $10 at the door, 18+. Downstairs: Boris and Damon Naomi, 8 pm, $12, 18+.
O'Brien's Jared Thomas Lord, Dreaded Silence, trayed by All, Witch Tomb, PanzerBastard, 9 $7, 21+.
Paradise Lounge Refunct, Stop Switch, the Rosenthal Trio, 7 pm, $7, 18+.
Paradise Rock Club Jens Lekman, 7 pm, $14, 18
TD Banknorth Garden Monster Jam: Kanye W Lil' Wayne, Akon, Fabolous, Mims, T-Pain, 6 $27.50-$127.50.
Toad Shwang, 8 pm, no cover, 21+; the Tim Ge Band, 10:42 pm, no cover, 21+.
Top of the Hub Marty Ballou Trio, 8 pm, no co
T.T. the Bear's Place Girl in a Coma, 9:50 pm 18+.

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 30

Abbey Lounge Ellis Eyes, Girl on Top, Den Alley, 9 pm, $7, 21+.
Bristol Lounge Alfredo Cardim, 6 pm, no cover,
Dick's Last Resort Jason Marr, 7 pm, no cover.
The Foundation Lounge Torch Tuesdays Jeanie Flynn and the Strays, 8 pm, no cover, 21
Harpers Ferry The Jumpoff, the Pulse Propl Solos Unit, 8 pm, $7, 21+.
Hennessy's Scott Damgaard, 8 pm, no cover, 21
Johnny D's Geoff Mulduar, 8:30, $15, 21+.
Lizard Lounge Sub Rosa, 9 pm, $5, 21+.
Middle East Upstairs: Liar, Why Twist the H Nostril Dumbass, 9 pm, $9, 18+. Downstairs: Thermals, Chriss Sutherland, Tom Kovacev pm, $12 in advance, $14 at the door, 21+.
Orpheum Morrissey, 6:30 pm, $39.50-$65.5 ages.
Paradise Lounge Caitlin Frame, 7 pm, $7, 18+
Paradise Rock Club Rogue Wave, 7 pm, $12 i vance, $14 day of show, 18+.
PA's The Konks, Demon's Claws, the Coathan Beat Beat Beat, the Hospital Rats, 9 pm, $6 21+.
Roxy Big D and the Kids Table, 5 pm, $15.
Scullers Jazz Club Over the Rhine, 8 pm an pm, $22.
Taj Boston Street Bar Bill Duffy, 6 pm, no cover,
Toad Tiff Jimber, 7 pm, no cover, 21+; Reb Loeb and Liz Stahler, 8 pm, no cover, 21+; Gi 10 pm, no cover, 21+.
Top of the Hub Bob Nieske Trio, 8:30 pm cover.
T.T. the Bear's Place Chelsea City Cou Chloe and the Pappas, the Passing, Julz-A, 9 $7, 18+.
ZuZu Metal Angelz, 11 pm, no cover, 21+.
Les Zygomates Yoko Miwa Solo, 8 pm.

EDNESDAY, OCTOBER 31

bey Lounge Tarboux Ramblers, the Thimbles, 9 $8, 21+.
stol Lounge Bill Duffy, 6 pm, no cover, 21+.
e Bulfinch Yacht Club Gracie Blues Halloween owdown, 8 pm, $7, 21+.
e Burren Swinging Johnsons, 10 pm, $5, 21+.
urch Gein and the Graverobbers, Rock City me Wave, Crimson Ghosts, 8 pm, $10, 21+.
b Passim Rosie Thomas, Kate Kilm, 8 pm, $13-k's Last Resort Jonno, 7 pm, no cover.
at Scott The Pill, the Daily Pravda, the Lie So- y, Mako, Perennials, 9 pm, $10, 18+.
pers Ferry Spiritual Rez, 8 pm, $10 in ad- ce, $12 at door, 18+.
nessy's Halloween Tribute to Jeff Buckley, El- Smith and Nirvana, 8 pm, $8, 21+.
nedy's Midtown Christie Leigh, 8:30 pm, no er, 21+.
rd Lounge Mark Erelli, 7:30 pm, no cover, the Dennis Brennan Band, 9:30 pm, $5, 21+.
ky's Lounge The Ben Zecker Trio, 9 pm, no er, 21+.
dle East Upstairs: The Big Big Bucks, Baker, Self-Righteous Brothers, 9 pm, $9 in advance, at the door, 18+. Downstairs: Avail, Smoke or Deadly Sins, 7:30 pm, $10, 18+.
rien's B.L.O.W.W., the Night Prowlers, the hanoids, E.R., 9 pm, $9, 21+.
heum The Disco Biscuits, 7:30 pm, $29.50, all dise Rock Club Lyrics Born, 7 pm, $15, 18+.

Anthems for Odyssey, This Blue Heaven, k as Thieves, 9 pm, $6-$8, 21+.
Pepper, 7 pm, $17.
s Jazz Club Samba Lolo, 8 pm, $10.
lers Jazz Club Sophie Milman, 8 pm, $18.
Boston Street Bar Alfredo Cardim, 6 pm, no r, 21+.
ace Lounge Al Vega Trio, 7 pm, no cover, 21+. Monique Ortiz, 7 pm, no cover, 21+; Steve ne, 9:30 pm, no cover, 21+.
of the Hub Bob Nieske Trio, 8:30 pm, no cover.
the Bear's Place The Luxury, the Motion , Sidewalk Driver, Red Red Rockit, 9 pm, $8 costume, $10 without, 18+.

Vinalia The Circus Band, 7 pm, no cover, 21+.
Les Zygomates Brian Kelley Trio, 8 pm.

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 1

Berklee Performance Center The Waterboys, 7:30 pm, $35.50.
The Bulfinch Yacht Club Aramis, 8 pm, $7, 21+.
The Burren Swinging Johnsons, 10 pm, $5, 21+.
Cantab Lounge The Chicken Slacks, 9 pm, 21+.
Church The Saints, the Konks, the Mess Me Ups , 8 pm, $10, 21+.
Club Passim Vance Gilbert, 7 and 10 pm, $18-$20.
The Foundation Lounge Soul Night, Evan Goodrow and the Foundation Lounge band "Soulicious" play Motown, R&B and soul classics, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.
Great Scott The Manchester Orchestra, Annuals, the Never, 9 pm, $10, 18+.
Harpers Ferry Moonalice, the Rockhoppers, 8 pm, $12 in advance, $15 at door, 21+.
Johnny D's Wanda Jackson, 10 pm and 11:30 pm, $20.
The Joshua Tree Onset, 10 pm, $2, 21+.
Lizard Lounge The Luminescent Orchestra, 8 pm, $10, 21+.
Lucky's Lounge Alex MacDougall Band, 9:30 pm, no cover, 21+.
Paradise Lounge Fred Shafer, 9 pm, $7, 18+.
Paradise Rock Club The Weakerthans, the Last Town Chorus, Jim Bryson, 8 pm, $15, 18+.
Regattabar Patrice Williamson and Helen Sung, 7:30 pm, $18, 21+.
Roxy Bret Dennen and Colbie Caillat, 6 pm, $22.
Scullers Jazz Club Johnny A, 8 pm and 10 pm, $22.
Somerville Theatre Josh Rouse, 7:30 pm, $21.
Terrace Lounge Eric McFadden, 7 pm, no cover, 21+.
Toad Hamel on Trial, 7 pm, no cover, 21+.
Tommy Doyles Fast Times, 9:30 pm, $2, 21+.

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 2

The Black Rose Rud Eile, 9:30 pm, $5, 21+.
The Bulfinch Yacht Club Full Tilt, Forgo Famine, Derek Schanke Band, Atomic Season, 8 pm, $8, 21+.
The Burren Classic Trax, 10 pm, $5, 21+.
Cantab Lounge Diane Blue and the Fatback Band, 9 pm, 21+.
Church Barbez, the Lost Patrol, Plumerai, Black Forest, 9 pm, $8, 21+.
Club Passim Jeffrey Foucault, Hayward Williams, 8 pm, $13-$15.
Dante's of Quincy Jumpin Juba, 9:30, $6, 21+.
Dick's Last Resort Spogga, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.
Durgin Park Chris Frasco, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.
Harpers Ferry Say When, Delhill, 8 pm, $8, 18+.
Johnny D's Mieka Pauley, 9:45 pm, 21+.
Jose McIntyre's Mojo, 10 pm, $5, 21+.
Lizard Lounge Jerkus Circus, the Steamy Bohemians, 8 pm, $10, 21+.
Middle East Upstairs: Casiotone for the Painfully Alone, To Bad Catholics, 9 pm, $9 in advance, $10 at the door, 18+. Downstairs: Lucero, Bobby Bare, Jr., Whiskey & Co., 8 pm, $12 in advance, $10 at the door, 18+.
Paradise Lounge The Bomb Squad, 9 pm, $10, 18+.
Paradise Rock Club Pat Monahan, 8 pm, $25, 18+.
Parris Joe Rockstar, 10 pm, $10, 21+.
PA's The Press, 9 pm, $6-$8, 21+.
Regattabar Bad Plus, 7:30 pm and 10 pm, $26, 21+.
Roxy Saosin, 5 pm, $15.50.
Scullers Jazz Club Roy Ayers, 8 and 10:30 pm, $28.
Somerville Theatre Richard Shindell with Antje Duvekot, 8 pm, $24-$26.
Tommy Doyles Hi8us, Jo Henley, 9:30 pm, $2, 21+.

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 3

Bill's Bar The Brew, 8:30 pm, $10, 18+.
The Black Rose Rud Eile, 9:30 pm, $5, 21+.
The Bulfinch Yacht Club Lono, 4 Degrees Warmer, Final Hour, 8 pm, $8, 21+.
The Burren Double Take, 10 pm, $5, 21+.
Cantab Lounge Diane Blue and the Fatback Band, 9 pm, 21+.
Church Rotary Club, 9 pm, $8, 21+.
Club Passim Natalia Zukerman, Drew Nelson, 8 pm, $13-$15.
Dante's of Quincy B Street Blues Band, 9:30, $6, 21+.
Dick's Last Resort Mind Game, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.
Durgin Park Wishful Thinking, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.
Johnny D's Kiosk, 9:45 pm, 21+.
Lizard Lounge Josh Lederman y Los Diablos, Miss Tess and the Bon Ton Parade, the Mad Tea Party, 8 pm, $10, 21+.
Middle East Upstairs: Dying Fetus, Skeleton Witch, Demericous, 8:30 pm, $15, 18+. Downstairs: Isis, Oxbow, 8 pm, $16, 18+.
O'Brien's Confier, Lesbian, the Proselyte, 9 pm, $7, 21+.
Orpheum The Decemberists, 7:30 pm, $29.50, all ages.
Paradise Lounge That 1 Guy, 9 pm, $10, 18+.
Paradise Rock Club Superdrag, Stewart Pack, Mic Harrison, the High Score, 8 pm, $20, 18+.
Parris Joe Rockstar, 10 pm, $10, 21+.
PA's The Living Sea, His Mischief, 9 pm, $6-$8, 21+.
Regattabar Bad Plus, 7:30 pm and 10 pm, $26, 21+.
Ryles Jazz Club Javon Jackson, 9 pm, $25.
Scullers Jazz Club Roy Ayers, 8 pm and 10:30 pm, $28.
Tommy Doyles 3rd Left, Oneal-Armstrong, 9:30 pm, $2, 21+.
T.T. the Bear's Place The Enemy, 11:15 pm, $10, 18+.

SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 4

The Bulfinch Yacht Club Foreign Power, Stache, 8 pm, $8, 21+.
Cantab Lounge Candy's Blues, Jazz and Rock Jam, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.
Club Passim Bruce Molsky, 7:30, $13-$15.
Dick's Last Resort Jonno, 7 pm, no cover.
Johnny D's Jazz Brunch with Tom Pendergast, 9 am, no cover.
Middle East Upstairs: Say Hi, the Velvet Teen, the A-Sides, 8 pm, $9 in advance, $10 at the door, 18+. Downstairs: Isis, Clouds, 7 pm, $16, 18+.
O'Brien's Weedeater, Destructathon, 9 pm, $7, 21+.
Orpheum The Decemberists, 7:30 pm, $29.50, all ages.
PA's Nina Violet, Ora Cogan, Milo Jones, Baba Yaga, 9 pm, $6-$8, 21+.

Somerville Theatre Mum, 7:30 pm, $21.50.
Terrace Lounge Ray Santisi Trio, 5:30 pm, no cover, 21+.

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 5

The Burren Set Dancing, 8 pm, $5, 21+.
Cantab Lounge All About Buford, 9:30 pm, 21+.
Club Passim Gordie Tentrees, Roger Mari, 8 pm, $13-$15.
Dick's Last Resort Keith Lewis, 7 pm, no cover.
Harpers Ferry The Venetia Fair, Dusty and the Know, 8 pm, $7, 18+.
Middle East Upstairs: Consequence, Termanology, Reks, 9 pm, $10, 18+. Downstairs: The Spill Canvas, Meg + Dia, Playradioplay!, 8 pm, $13 in advance, $15 at the door, all ages.
O'Brien's Light Pupil Dilate, Harlots, Finisher, 9 pm, $7, 21+.
Paradise Lounge Bob Mould, 8 pm, $15, 18+.
Paradise Rock Club Blues Traveler, 7 pm, $25, 18+.
PA's Tristan Da Cunha, Them, Roaringtwenties, Ebu Gogo, Elephantom, 9 pm, $6-$8, 21+.
Scullers Jazz Club The Follen Angels, 8 pm, $22.
T.T. the Bear's Place Spitzer Space Telescope, Casados, Jacob Tyler Wolfgang, Steven Fiore, 8:25 pm, $3, 18+.

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 6

DCU Center Van Halen, Ky-Mani Marley, 7:30 pm, $48.25-$148.25.
The Foundation Lounge Torch Tuesdays with Jeanie Flynn and the Strays, 8 pm, no cover, 21+.
Johnny D's Paul Thorn, 8:30 pm, 21+.
Middle East Upstairs: Sea Wolf, Mean Creek, 9 pm, $9, 18+. Juliette and the Licks, Scissors for Lefty, Suffrajet, 8 pm, $12 in advance, $15 at the door, 18+.
Mr. Dooley's Johnny Cash Night with the Ring of Fire Band, 8:30 pm, $5, 21+.
O'Brien's Trencher, Ultra Dolphins, 9 pm, $8, 21+.
Orpheum John Fogerty, 8 pm, $42.50-$62.50, all ages.
Paradise Rock Club Zap Mama, 7 pm, $20 in advance, $22 day of show, 18+.
PA's Barbara Trentalange, 9 pm, $6-$8, 21+.
Scullers Jazz Club Hildy Grossman and the Follen Angels, 8 pm, $20-$62.
Somerville Theatre Robert Fripp and the League of Crafty Guitarists, 8 pm, $30-$35.
T.T. the Bear's Place Legendary Shack Shakers, Pine Hill Haints, Chaz and the Motorbikes, 9 pm, $12, 18+.

Music Venues

Abbey Lounge 3 Beacon St., Somerville (617-441-9631). MBTA: Red Line to Central.
Agganis Arena 925 Comm. Ave., Boston (617-353-4628). MBTA: B Green Line to Pleasant.
All Asia Café 334 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-497-1544). MBTA: Red Line to Central.
Asgard 350 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-577-9100). MBTA: Red Line to Kendall/MIT.
Atrium The Regal Bostonian Hotel, 20 North St., Boston (617-523-3600). MBTA: Blue or Green Line to Gov. Center.
The Attic 107 Union St., Newton (617-964-6684). MBTA: D Green Line to Newton Centre.
Atwood's Tavern 877 Cambridge St., Cambridge (617-864-2792). MBTA: Red Line to Kendall/MIT or Green Line to Lechmere.
Berklee Performance Center 136 Mass Ave., Boston (617-747-2261). MBTA: Green Line to Hynes.
Bill's Bar 5½ Lansdowne St., Boston (617-421-9678). MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore.
The Black Horse Tavern Faneuil Hall Marketplace, Boston (617-227-2038). MBTA: Blue or Green Line to Gov. Center.
The Black Rose 160 State St., Boston (617-742-2286). MBTA: Blue or Green Line to Gov. Center.
Bob's Southern Bistro 604 Columbus Ave., Boston (617-536-6204). MBTA: Orange Line to Mass. Ave.
Boston Harbor Hotel 70 Rowes Wharf, Boston (617-439-7000). MBTA: Red Line to South Station.
Bravo @ the MFA 465 Huntington Ave., Boston (617-369-3474). MBTA: E Green Line to Museum.
Breezeway 153 Blue Hill Ave., Roxbury (617-541-5400). MBTA: Orange Line to Jackson.
Bristol Lounge 200 Boylston St., Boston (617-351-2052). MBTA: Green Line to Arlington.
The Bulfinch Yacht Club 234 Friend St., Boston (617-723-0800). MBTA: Green or Orange Line to North Station.
The Burren 247 Elm St., Somerville (617-776-6896). MBTA: Red Line to Davis.

Jenny Owen Youngs rocks casual Friday Oct. 26 at the Paradise Lounge.

Cantab Lounge 738 Mass Ave., Cambridge (617-354-2685). MBTA: Red Line to Central.
Cask 'n Flagon 62 Brookline Ave., Boston (617-536-4840). MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore.
Church 69 Kilmarnock St., Boston (617-236-7600). MBTA: D Green Line to Fenway.
Club Café 209 Columbus Ave., Boston (617-536-0966). MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay.
Club Passim 47 Palmer St., Cambridge (617-492-7679). MBTA: Red Line to Harvard.
Common Ground 85 Harvard Ave., Allston (617-783-2071). MBTA: B Green Line to Harvard.
Copperfield's 98 Brookline Ave., Boston (617-247-8605). MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore.
DCU Center 50 Foster St., Worcester (800-755-6800).
Dick's Last Resort Faneuil Hall Marketplace, Boston (617-267-8080). MBTA: Blue or Green Line to Gov. Center.
The Draft 34 Harvard Ave., Allston (617-783-9400). MBTA: B Green Line to Harvard.
The Enormous Room 567 Mass. Ave., Camridge (617-491-5599). MBTA: Red Line to Central.
Felt 533 Washington St., Boston (617-350-5555). MBTA: Red or Orange Line to Downtown Crossing.
Fireplace 1634 Beacon St., Brookline (617-975-1900). MBTA: C Green Line to Washington.
First Act Guitar Studio 745 Boylston St., Boston (617-226-7899). MBTA: Green Line to Copley.
The Foundation Lounge Hotel Commonwealth, Kenmore Square, 500 Comm. Ave., Boston (617-859-9900). MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore.
The Good Life Downtown 28 Kingston St., Boston (617-451-2622). MBTA: Red or Green Line to Park.
Grand Canal 57 Canal St., Boston (617-523-1112). MBTA: Green or Orange Line to North Station.
Great Scott 1222 Comm. Ave., Allston (617-566-9014). MBTA: B Green Line to Harvard.
The Green Briar 304 Washington St., Brighton (617-789-4100).
The Green Dragon Tavern 11 Marshall St., Boston (617-367-0055). MBTA: Green or Orange Line to Haymarket.
Green Street 280 Green St., Cambridge (617-876-1655). MBTA: Red Line to Central.
The Harp 85 Causeway St., Boston (617-742-1010). MBTA: Green or Orange Line to North Station.
Harpers Ferry 158 Brighton Ave., Allston (617-254-9743). MBTA: B Green Line to Harvard.
Hennessy's 25 Union St., Boston (617-742-2121). MBTA: Blue or Green Line to Gov. Center.
High Street Grill 200 High St., Boston (617-523-4000). MBTA: Red or Orange Line to Downtown Crossing.
Johnny D's 17 Holland St., Somerville (617-776-2004). MBTA: Red Line to Davis.
Kendall Café 233 Cardinal Medeiros Ave., Cambridge (617-547-3802). MBTA: Red Line to Kendall/MIT.
Kennedy's Midtown 42 Province St., Boston (617-426-3333). MBTA: Red or Green Line to Park.
Kings 10 Scotia St., Boston (617-266-2695). MBTA: Green Line to Hynes.
Kinsale 2 Center Plaza, Boston (617-742-5577). MBTA: Blue or Green Line to Gov. Center.
Lily Pad 1353 Cambridge St., Cambridge (617-395-1393). MBTA: Red Line to Central.
Lizard Lounge 1667 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-547-0759). MBTA: Red Line to Harvard.
Lucky's Lounge 355 Congress St., Boston (617-3 5825). MBTA: Red Line to South Station.
Matt Murphy's 14 Harvard St., Brookine (617-23 0188). MBTA: D Green Line to Brookline Village.
Middle East 472 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-49 9181). MBTA: Red Line to Central.
Midway Café 3496 Washington St., Jamaica Pla (617-524-9038). MBTA: Orange Line to Green.
Milky Way 403 Centre St., Jamaica Plain (617-5 3740). MBTA: Orange Line to Jackson.
Millennium Bostonian Hotel 26 North St., Bost (617-523-3600). MBTA: Blue or Green Line to Gov. Center.
Mohegan Sun 1 Mohegan Sun Blvd., Uncasville, Conn. (888-226-7711).
Mr. Dooley's 77 Broad St., Boston (617-338-56 MBTA: Blue or Green Line to Gov. Center.
Oak Bar Fairmont Copley Plaza Hotel, 138 St. J Ave., Boston (617-267-5300). MBTA: Green L to Copley.
O'Brien's 3 Harvard Ave., Allston (617-782-62 MBTA: B Green Line to Harvard.
Opera House 539 Washington St., Boston (617 880-2442). MBTA: Green Line to Boylston.
Orpheum Theatre 1 Hamilton Place, Boston (6 679-0810). MBTA: Green Line to Boylston.
Paddy O's 33 Union St., Boston (617-742-2121 MBTA: Green or Orange Line to Haymarket.
Palladium 261 Main St., Worcester (508-797-96
Paradise Lounge 969 Comm. Ave., Boston (562-8800). MBTA: B Green Line to Pleasant.
Paradise Rock Club 969 Comm. Ave., Boston (617-562-8800). MBTA: B Green Line to Pleas
Parris Faneuil Hall Marketplace, Boston (617-2 9900). MBTA: Blue or Green Line to Gov. Cen
PA's 345 Somerville Ave., Somerville (617-776- 1557). MBTA: Red Line to Porter, then #87 Bu Carlton.
Plough & Stars 912 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (61 576-0032). MBTA: Red Line to Central.
Purple Shamrock 1 Union St., Boston (617-22 2060). MBTA: Blue or Orange Line to State.
Regattabar Charles Hotel, Cambridge (617-395 7757). MBTA: Red Line to Harvard.
Revolution Rock Bar 200 High St., Boston (617 261-4200). MBTA: Blue Line to Aquarium.
Roggies 356 Chestnut Hill Ave., Brighton (617- 1880). MBTA: Green Line to Cleveland Circle.
Roxy 279 Tremont St., Boston (617-338-7699). MBTA: Green Line to Boylston.
Ryles Jazz Club 212 Hampshire St., Cambridg (617-876-9330). MBTA: Red Line to Harvard.
Sanders Theatre 45 Quincy St., Cambridge (61 496-2222). MBTA: Red Line to Harvard.
Scullers Jazz Club 400 Soldiers Field Road, Can bridge (617-562-4111). MBTA: Red Line to Ce
75 Chestnut 75 Chestnut St., Boston (617-227 2175). MBTA: Red Line to Charles/MGH.
Sky Bar 518 Somerville Ave., Somerville (617- 5223). MBTA: Red Line to Davis.
Somerville Theatre 55 Davis Square, Somervil (617-625-5700). MBTA: Red Line to Davis.
Sweetwater Café 3 Boylston St., Boston (617- 2515). MBTA: Green Line to Boylston.
Symphony Hall 301 Mass. Ave., Boston (617 1492). MBTA: E Green Line to Symphony.
Taj Boston Street Bar 15 Arlington St., Boston (617-536-5700) MBTA: Green Line to Arlingt
TD Banknorth Garden 100 Legends Way, Boston (617-624-1000). MBTA: Green or Ora Line to North Station.
Terrace Lounge 110 Huntington Ave., Boston (617-236-5800). MBTA: E Green Line to Prudential.
Toad 1912 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-497-4950). MBTA: Red Line to Porter.
Toast 70 Union Sqaure, Somerville (617-623-9 MBTA: Red Line to Central.
Tommy Doyles 96 Winthrop St., Cambridge (6 225-0888). MBTA: Red Line to Harvard.
Top of the Hub Prudential Tower, Boston (617- 1775). MBTA: E Green Line to Prudential.
Tsongas Arena 300 Martin Luther King Jr. Wa Lowell (617-848-6900). MBTA: Commuter Ra Lowell.
T.T. the Bear's Place 10 Brookline St., Cambri (617-492-2327). MBTA: Red Line to Central.
Venezia 20 Ericsson St., Dorchester (617-436-3 MBTA: Red Line to Ashmont.
Vinalia 34 Summer St., Boston (617-737-1777 MBTA: Orange or Red Line to Downtown Cross
The Western Front 343 Western Ave., Cambr (617-492-7772). MBTA: Red Line to Central.
Wonder Bar 186 Harvard Ave., Boston (617-3 2665). MBTA: B Green Line to Harvard.
ZuZu 472 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-864- MBTA: Red Line to Central.
Les Zygomates 129 South St., Boston (617-54 5108). MBTA: Red Line to South Station.

classical music

EDNESDAY, OCTOBER 24

les Jazz Club
Hampshire St., Inman Square, Cambridge (617-9330). www.ryles.com. MBTA: Red Line to tral. 9 pm. $10. The Francisco Pais Quintet s a mix of American jazz, European classical pop styles.

IURSDAY, OCTOBER 25

ston Symphony Orchestra
phony Hall, 301 Mass. Ave., Boston (617-1492). www.bso.org. MBTA: E Green Line ymphony. 8 pm. $29-$103. Conductor Mark owski leads the orchestra in Dimitry stakovich's Cello Concerto No. 2 and Anton kner's Symphony No. 9, featuring cellist s Mørk.

gy School of Music
arden St., Cambridge (617-876-0956). www.edu. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 8 pm. Free. id Patterson performs Vital Breath: Music of the Century for Classical Guitar.

T Chapel
Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-253-2906). http://edu/mta/www/music/events.html. MBTA: Red to Kendall/MIT. 12 pm. Free. Harpsichordist ki Tsurutani performs.

wton Free Library
Homer St., Newton (617-796-1360). www.wton.ma.us/library/. MBTA: D Green Line to ton Highlands. 7 pm. Free. Winner of the hway Society of Massachusetts Competition, -Yin Chan performs.

IDAY, OCTOBER 26

ton Symphony Orchestra
phony Hall, 301 Mass. Ave., Boston (617-266-). www.bso.org. MBTA: E Green Line to Symphony. 1:30 pm. $29-$103. See Oct. 25 Boston Symphony Orchestra listing.

Cambridge Society for Early Music
The Salem Athenaeum, 337 Essex St., Salem (617-489-2062). www.csem.org. MBTA: Commuter Rail to Salem. 8 pm. $5-$35. Fortepianist Sylvia Berry performs "The Many Faces of Mozart."

Longwood Symphony Orchestra
Symphony Hall, 301 Mass. Ave., Boston (617-266-1492). www.longwoodsymphony.org. MBTA: Green Line to Symphony. 8 pm. $40-$100. This benefit concert, featuring the orchestra's performance of Beethoven's Symphony No. 9, raises money for the Children's Melanoma Prevention Foundation.

Longy School of Music
27 Garden St., Cambridge (617-876-0956). www.longy.edu. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 8 pm. Free. Conductor Frank Battisti leads the Longy Chamber Winds in works by Franz Krommer, Joachim Raff and Johannes Brahms.

MIT Kresge Auditorium
77 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-253-2826). http://web.mit.edu/arts. MBTA: Red Line to Kendall/MIT. 8 pm. $5. The MIT Symphony Orchestra performs selections including Kevin Puts' Millennium Canons, Edward Elgar's Suite No. 1 from The Wand of Youth, Bach's Brandenburg Concerto No. 3 and Rachmaninoff's Symphonic Dances.

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 27

Boston Early Music Festival
Emmanuel Church, 15 Newbury St., Boston (617-661-1812). www.bemf.org. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. 8 pm. $25-$64; $5 discount for students, seniors and groups. Viola da gambist Jordi Savall performs François Couperin's Les Goûts Réunis with his Baroque ensemble, Le Concert des Nations.

Boston Symphony Orchestra
Symphony Hall, 301 Mass. Ave., Boston (617-266-1492). www.bso.org. MBTA: E Green Line to Symphony. 8 pm. $29-$103. See Oct. 25 Boston Symphony Orchestra listing.

Brandeis University
Slosberg Recital Hall, 415 South St., Waltham (781-736-4200). www.brandeis.edu. MBTA: Commuter Rail to Brandeis. 7 pm. $10; $5, students and seniors. Music Fest '07 features performances by Early Music, the Chorus and Chamber Choir, the Leonard Bernstein Scholarship Quartet and the Brandeis Wellesley Orchestra.

MIT Kresge Auditorium
77 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-253-2826). http://web.mit.edu/arts. MBTA: Red Line to Kendall/MIT. 8 pm. $25; $20, seniors; $15, students; free with MIT ID. Director Richard Pittman leads the New England Philharmonic in John Harbison's Symphony No. 1, Gustav Mahler's Lieder Eines Fahrenden Gesellen and Jean Sibelius' Tapiola. Featuring baritone David Kravitz.

Sarasa Chamber Ensemble
Friends' Meeting House, 5 Longfellow Park, Cambridge (617-492-4758). www.sarasamusic.org. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 8 pm. $22; $18, seniors; $13, students. The ensemble performs Mozart's Quartet in C, K. 465, Haydn's String Quartet in C, Op. 9, No. 1 and String Quartet in G, Op. 77, No. 1. Featuring violinists Elizabeth Blumenstock, Jennifer Stirling and Lisa Weiss.

SUNDAY, OCTOBER 28

The Andover Chamber Music Series
42 School St., Andover (978-474-6222). www.andoverchambermusic.org. 5 pm. $60. Artistic director Julie Scolnik presents "Candlelight, Cocktails, Bach and Brie" with cellist Mihail Jojatu.

Celebrity Series of Boston
Symphony Hall, 301 Mass. Ave., Boston (617-482-6661). www.celebrityseries.org. MBTA: Green Line to Symphony. 3 pm. $38-$70. Violinist Itzhak Perlman and pianist Rohan de Silva perform Bach's Sonata No. 3 in E for Violin and Keyboard, BWV 1016, Richard Strauss' Sonata for Violin and Piano in E-flat, Op. 18 and other works.

Emmanuel Church
15 Newbury St., Boston (617-536-3356). www.emmanuelmusic.org. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. 10 am. Free. Conductor Craig Smith leads the orchestra and chorus of Emmanuel Music in Bach's Cantata BWV 47, Wer Sich Selbst Erhöet.

Harvard University
Sanders Theatre, 45 Quincy St., Cambridge (617-496-2222). www.fas.harvard.edu/tickets. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 7:30 pm. $25-$100. Tenor Mario Frangoulis performs Greek and Spanish music in a concert entitled "Amor."

Isabella Stewart Gardner Museum
280 The Fenway, Boston (617-566-1401). www.gardnermuseum.org. MBTA: E Green Line to Museum. 1:30 pm. $5-$23. The Chamber Music Society performs selections from Mozart, Antonin Dvorák and Franz Schubert with pianist Wu Han, violinists Erin Keefe and Arnaud Sussmann, violist Beth Guterman, cellist Julie Albers and contrabassist Kurt Muroki.

King's Chapel
58 Tremont St., Boston (617-277-2155). www.kings-chapel.org. MBTA: Red or Green Line to Park. 5 pm. $12; $8, students and seniors. Director Heinrich Christensen leads the King's Chapel choir and chamber orchestra in Daniel Pinkham's The Small Requiem.

Longy School of Music
27 Garden St., Cambridge (617-876-0956). www.longy.edu. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 7 pm. Free. Flutist Meghan Miller and pianist Mika Tanaka perform works by Arthur Foote, Eugene Bozza, Philippe Gaubert, Claude Debussy, Eldin Burton and Yohei Kurihara.

MIT Wong Auditorium
70 Memorial Drive, Cambridge (617-258-7971). www.mithas.org. MBTA: Red Line to Kendall/MIT. 4 pm. $20; $15, members; $10, students; free, MIT students. Carnatic vocalist TN Seshagopalan performs tillanas, bhajans and namavalis.

Newton Free Library
330 Homer St., Newton (617-796-1360). www.ci.newton.ma.us/library. MBTA: D Green Line to Newton Highlands. 2 pm. Free. Pianist Helena Vesterman performs works by Mozart, Alexander Scriabin, Rachmaninoff and Chopin.

Newton Symphony Orchestra
15 Walnut Park, Newton (617-796-1360). www.ci.newton.ma.us/library. 7:30 pm. $10-$30. This concert of Butterfly Lover's Concerto for violin and orchestra, by He Zhan-hao and Chen Gang, features guest conductor Yoichi Udagawa and violinist Bin Huang.

Somerville Museum
1 Westwood Road, Somerville (617-666-9810). www.somervillemuseum.org. MBTA: Red Line to Porter. 3 pm. $17; $12, students, seniors and members. Il Capriccioso features the guitar music of Francesco Corbetta, Olav Chris Henriksen and James Meadors.

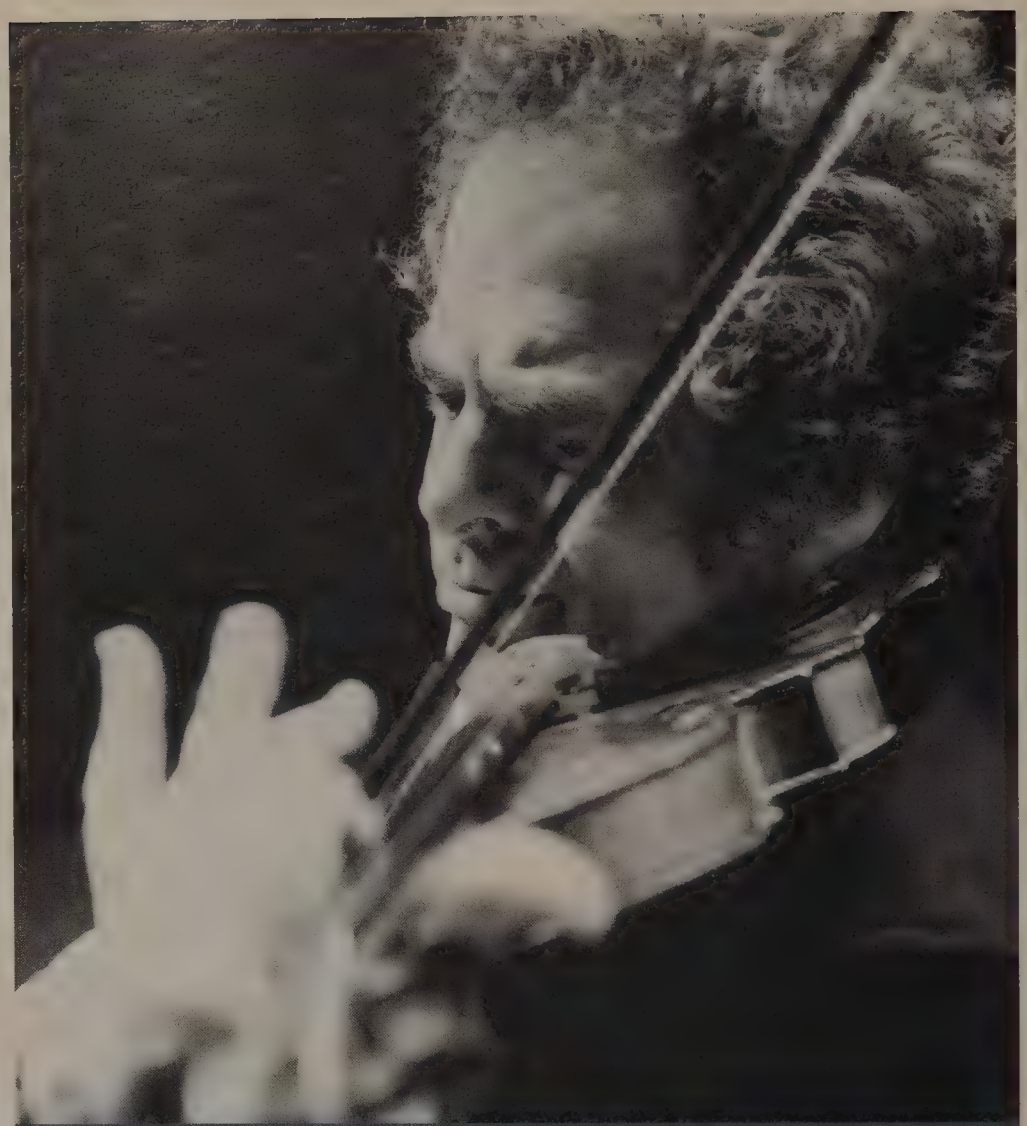
Tufts University
Distler Performance Hall, 20 Talbot Ave., Medford (617-627-3679). www.tufts.edu/musiccenter. MBTA: Red Line to Davis. 3 pm. Free. Violinist Eric Rosenblith and pianist Hisako Hiratsuko perform various masterworks.

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 30



Boston Conservatory of Music
Seully Hall, 8 The Fenway, Boston (617-536-6340). www.bostonconservatory.edu. MBTA: Green Line to Hynes. 8 pm. $10. This performance, featuring pianist Max Levinson, includes Sergei Prokofiev's Visions Fugitives, Tchaikovsky and Mikhail Pletnev's Nutcracker Suite and Modest Mussorgsky's Pictures at an Exhibition.

Boston University College of Fine Arts
Tsai Performance Center, 855 Comm. Ave., Boston (617-353-3349). www.bu.edu/cfa. MBTA: B Green Line to BU West. 8 pm. Free. Conductor David Hoose and director Sharon Daniels lead the Boston University Symphony Orchestra and singers from the Boston University Opera Institute in Arnold Bax's Symphony No. 5 and Maurice Ravel's L'Enfant et les Sortilèges.

King's Chapel
58 Tremont St., Boston (617-277-2155). www.kings-chapel.org. MBTA: Red or Green Line to Park. 12:15 pm. $3, suggested donation. Flutist Timothy Macri performs works by JS Bach and Sigfrid Karg-Elert.

Longy School of Music
27 Garden St., Cambridge (617-876-0956). www.longy.edu. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 8 pm. Free. Conservatory musicians perform works by Longy student conductors.

MIT Killian Hall
Killian Hall, 160 Memorial Drive, Cambridge (617-253-6857). http://web.mit.edu/arts. MBTA: Kendall/MIT. 12 pm. Free. Pianist Nicholas Altenbernd performs works by Franz Schubert.

Violinist Itzhak Perlman performs with pianist Rohan de Silva at Symphony Hall Oct. 28.

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 31

World Music
Friends Meeting House, 5 Longfellow Park, Cambr (802-426-3210). www.villageharmony.org. MB Red Line to Harvard. 8 pm. $15. Director Kete Mindorashvili leads the Zedashe Georgian Song Dance Ensemble.

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 1

Boston Symphony Orchestra
Symphony Hall, 301 Mass. Ave., Boston (617-2 1492). www.bso.org. MBTA: E Green Line to S phony. 8 pm. $29-$103. Conductor Marcus St leads the orchestra in Mozart's Symphony No. 1 Violin Concerto No. 2 in D, as well as Brett De The Lost Art of Letter Writing and Robert Sc mann's Symphony No. 2 featuring violinist Fr Peter Zimmermann.

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 2

Boston Symphony Orchestra
Symphony Hall, 301 Mass. Ave., Boston (617-2 1492). www.bso.org. MBTA: E Green Line to S phony. 1:30 pm. $29-$103. See Nov. 1 Bos Symphony Orchestra listing.

Cappella Clausura
Old South Church, 645 Bolyston St., Boston (6 964-6609). www.clausura.org. MBTA: Green Lin Copley. 7:30 pm. $20; $12, students and seni Amelia LeClair leads the Cappella Clausura pieces by female composers, featuring mezzosopr Laurie Monahan and theorboist Catherine Lidde

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 3

Boston Conservatory of Music
Seully Hall, 8 The Fenway, Boston (617-536-634 www.bostonconservatory.edu. MBTA: Green Lin Hynes. 8 pm. Free. The Ludovico Ensemble forms Helmut Lachenmann's Kinderspiel and All Sustenuto.

Brandeis University
Slosberg Recital Hall, 415 South St., Walth (781-736-4200). www.brandeis.edu. MBTA: C muter Rail to Brandeis/Roberts. 8 pm. $10; $5, dents and seniors. Director James Olesen leads Brandeis Chamber Choir in Bach's Lobet den H and Giovanni Pierluigi da Palestrina's Missa Brev

CONGRATULATIONS TO THE WINNERS OF THE 47TH ANNUA
HATCH AWARDS

The Hatch Awards recognize creative excellence in New England Advertising.

CONGRATULATIONS TO ARNOLD FOR WINNING BEST OF SHOW!
Winning Spot: Singing Cowboy For Their Client: American Legacy Foundation/truth

Chief Creative Officer: Pete Favat / Creative Director: John Kearse
Copywriter: Roger Baldacci / Copywriter: John Kearse / Art Director: Adam Larson / Art Director: Kevin Grady

For a complete list of winners please visit adclub.org and don't forget to check out what happened at the event at Boston.TV and YouTube.com/HatchAwards.

SPONSORED BY:

Soundtrack · YouTube · Google · Uni Graphic · Lindenmeyr Munroe · StockShop · Adobe · tg The Creative Group · The Improper Bostonian · Harpoon · Boston Business Journal · Rentex

ellist Truls Mørk performs Oct. 25 ith the Boston Symphony Orchestra.

ppella Clausura copal Parish of the Messiah, 1900 Comm. Ave., urndale (617-964-6609). www.clausura.org. 8 pm. ; $12, students and seniors. See Nov. 2 Cappella sura listing.

st Congregational Church
Garden St., Cambridge (781-283-2028). www. esley.edu/music/home.html. MBTA: Red Line to vard. 8 pm. Free. Conductors Lisa Graham of lesley College and Frank Albinder of the Univer- of Virginia lead performances by their respective rs and glee clubs, featuring Bach's Magnificat.

tington Symphony
onal Heritage Museum, 33 Marrett Road, Lexing- (781-863-9581). www.lexingtonsymphony.org. TA: #62 or #76 Bus to Mass. Ave. and Marrett l. 3 and 8 pm. $30; $25, seniors; $15, students. ductor Jonathan McPhee leads the Lexington phony through works by Pietro Mascagni, Felix delssoh, Arnold Schoenberg and Georges t. This concert also features animal photos from useum's Polaroid Collection.

SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 4

Boston Conservatory of Music
Seully Hall, 8 The Fenway, Boston (617-536-6340). www.bostonconservatory.edu. MBTA: Green Line to Hynes. 2 pm. $5-$12. The Florestan Recital Project presents "Let Us Garlands Bring: Songs of Shakespeare," featuring works from British composers, including Tom Cipullo's Drifts and Shadows.

Celebrity Series of Boston
Jordan Hall, New England Conservatory, 30 Gainsborough St., Boston (617-482-6661). www.celebrityseries.org. MBTA: E Green Line to Symphony. 3 pm. $45. Pianist Emanuel Ax performs Beethoven's Sonata No. 2 in A, Op. 2, No. 2 and Sonata No. 23 in F minor, Op. 57, "Appassionata," along with Robert Schumann's Humoreske in B-flat, Op. 20 and Papillons, Op. 2.

Emmanuel Church
15 Newbury St., Boston (617-536-3356). www.emmanuelmusic.org. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. 10 am. Free. The orchestra and chorus of Emmanuel Music performs Bach's cantata BWV 72, Alles nur Nach Gottes Willen.

Isabella Stewart Gardner Museum
280 The Fenway, Boston (617-566-1401). www.gardnermuseum.org. MBTA: E Green Line to Museum. 1:30 pm. $5-$23. Pianist Louis Schwizgebel-Wang performs Mozart's Sonata in D, Johannes Brahms' Two Rhapsodies, Op. 79, Erwin Schulhoff's Jazz Etudes and Modest Mussorgsky's Pictures at an Exhibition.

Merrimack College Rogers Center for the Arts
315 Turnpike St., North Andover (978-685-3505). www.mvpomusic.org. 2:30 pm. $20; $14, students and seniors. Conductor George Monseur leads the Merrimack Valley Philharmonic Orchestra in pieces by Joseph Haydn and Cesar Franck, featuring horn soloist Brian Gardell.

Wellesley College
Jewett Auditorium, 106 Central St., Wellesley (781-283-2028). www.triplehelixpianotrio.org. 7 pm. Free. The Triple Helix Piano Trio performs "Celebrating the Radiance, Wit and Humanity of Mozart's Musical World," featuring piano trios by Mozart, Felix Mendelssohn and Fanny Mendelssohn Hensel.

dance clubs

Advice to Contributors
Submit club listings by fax (617-859-1446), by mail to Calendar/Clubs, or by email to clubs@improper.com. Include day of the week, times, prices, phone numbers and nearest T stop. Deadline is four weeks prior to publication date. Listings not accepted over the phone.

Nights

MONDAYS

An Tua Nua
Ceremony A night of goth and industrial music, 10 pm, $5-$6.

Caprice
Geisha Lounge Resident DJs Tamer and Gregory play chill beats, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

Golden Temple
The E Room DJ Robert Weintraub spins R&B, hip-hop, Motown, pop and acid jazz, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

Green Briar
Irish seissun, 8 pm, no cover, 21+.

Kings
Industry Night 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

Milky Way
DJs and live music, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

Phoenix Landing
Makka Mondays DJ Uppercut spins hip-hop and reggae, 10 pm, $3, 21+.

The Place
Coyote Karaoke Belt out your favorite rock 'n' roll classics, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

River Gods
Weekly Wax Two local DJs go head-to-head in a musical face-off, 8 pm, no cover, 21+.

Saint
SIN Service Industry Night DJ Chris Roxx spins house, hip-hop and more, 10 pm-2 am, 21+.

Sissy K's
Karaoke for a $50 cash prize, then dance upstairs as DJ Littles spins Top 40, 8 pm-2 am, no cover, 21+.

TUESDAYS

Aria
Novitá Tuesday Mingle with young professionals while DJs spin club mixes, women free, $5 off at the door with your business card, 10 pm, 21+.

Bell in Hand
Karaoke night, acoustic music, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

Caprice
Industry Tuesdays DJ Chris Roxx spins Top 40, hip-hop, R&B and dance, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

Dbar
DJs Kevin and Ryan play showtunes, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

Felt
Cabana Tuesdays DJ D. Martinez spins salsa music, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

The Foundation Lounge
Torch Tuesdays Live '30s, '40s and '50s music, 8 pm, no cover, 21+.

Golden Temple
The E Room DJ Robert Weintraub spins R&B, Motown, pop and acid jazz, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

The Kells
Fat Tuesdays DJ Grasshopper spins Top 40 music, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

Kings
College, Ladies and Trivia Night 9 pm, no cover.

Milky Way
All-Star Karaoke Regular karaoke first and third Tuesdays of each month, live-band karaoke second and fourth Tuesdays, 10 pm, up to $3, 21+.

Paradise Lounge
Mashup Tuesdays DJ G-Squared spins hip-hop, rock, '80s and more, 10 pm, $7, 21+.

Phoenix Landing
Take DJ Scott Bliff spins funk, soul and electro '80s, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

The Place
Red Light, Green Light Party Rawkstar DJ spins Top 40, hip-hop and dance, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

The Purple Shamrock
Terry Brennan sing-along, 9:30 pm, no cover, 21+.

Redline
Ipodapalooza Show off your DJ skills and your best 30-minute playlist, 9 pm-1 am, no cover, 21+.

River Gods
A mix of DJs and music, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

Rumor
DJ Sender and DJ Roger M spin a mix of hip-hop and house, 11 pm, $20, $15 on guest list, 21+.

Ryles Dance Hall
Noche Latina DJ Ali and special guest DJs keep you dancing with salsa lessons beginning at 7 pm, $13; 9:30 pm, $10.

Saint
Flaunt Tuesday Gay Mafia hosts while DJ Ranny spins Top 40, 10 pm-2 am, 21+.

Sissy K's
Karaoke with a $50 cash prize, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

Tabú
Stupid Keith's Karaoke Participate to win $250, 8 pm, 21+.
MYNT International Tuesdays DJ Eddy Lee spins hip-hop and house, 11 pm-2 am, $15, 21+.

Wonder Bar
Industry Night with DJs Ricky Fatts and G-Squared, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

WEDNESDAYS

An Tua Nua
Salsa Night DJs spin salsa music. Includes beginner lessons, 8 pm, $10, 21+.

Common Ground
Guitar Hero Battle Duke it out on the big screen, 10:30 pm, no cover, 21+.

Dockside
Karaoke, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

Flat Top Johnny's
DJs spin rock, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

The Foundation Lounge
"Famous" Wednesdays DJs G-Squared and Dirty Dek spin mashups, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

Golden Temple
The E Room DJ Robert Weintraub spins R&B, Motown, pop and acid jazz, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

The Kells
Get Over the Hump Wednesdays DJ Doc spins top 40 dance and hip-hop, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

Kings
Take the stage at open-mike night, 9 pm, no cover.

Milky Way
Assorted live entertainment including DJs, spoken word and dance, 9 pm-1 am, no cover, 21+.

Phoenix Landing
Return of Techno DJs spin underground dance music, 10 pm-1 am, $5.

The Place
The Library DJs spin, 10 pm, 21+.

The Purple Shamrock
Karaoke, 9:30 pm, no cover, 21+.

Rain
Oldies but Goodies DJ Russ McQueen spins hits from the '50s, '60s and '70s, 8 pm, no cover, 21+.

Redline
Mood Mosaic DJ Deano Sounds spins boogaloo, basilica, funk and soul, 8:30 pm-12 am, no cover, 21+.

River Gods
Dance to rock, gospel and blues, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

Sissy K's
DJ Littles spins Top 40 and dance, 8 pm, no cover.

Tabú
Under 21 Party Themes vary each week at this party for the younger crowd, 8 pm, $15, 18+.

Underbar
DJ Ricky Fatts and DJ Bruno spin hip-hop, R&B and reggae, 11 pm, 21+.

Venu
Chaps Latino Night Gay night with DJ Adilson spins Latin, house, hip-hop and Top 40, 10 pm-2 am, $20,; $15 on guest list, 21+.

Vertigo
Analogue DJs Pete Yagmin, Special Pete, Peter Ellis and Greg Blake spin dance and house, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

Wonder Bar
Live funk, soul and hip-hop music, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

THURSDAYS

An Tua Nua
College Night '80s, one-hit wonders, Top 40 and hip-hop, 10 pm, $5, college students, free, 21+.

Aria
Sutra Thursdays Various DJs spin Top 40, mashups, international house and Latin, 10 pm-2 am, $20, $10 on guestlist, women free before 12 am, 21+.

Bell in Hand
Party Music Master spins everything, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

Boston Rocks
DJs spin Top 40 and hip-hop, no cover, 21+.

Caprice
After Dark Boston DJs Pup Dawg and Bruno spin hip-hop and Hindi music, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

Clerys
DJ Rhythm Nights, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

Common Ground
Love Night DJ Brian Love plays tunes from the '80s, 10:30 pm, $3, 21+.

Felt
True Music Thursdays Live rock, funk and alternative performances by local and national bands, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

The Foundation Lounge
Club XO DJ Moon Lee, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

Golden Temple
The E Room DJ Robert Weintraub spins R&B, Motown, pop and acid jazz, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

Green Briar
DJs spin dance music, 9:30 pm, no cover, 21+.

Jake Ivory's
Karaoke Night, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

Jose McIntyre's
Karyn & Caitlyn Promo Night No cover, 21+.

The Kells
Fun House DJ Grasshopper spins dance tunes and hip-hop, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

Kings
Let It Out Karaoke night featuring prizes and giveaways, 10 pm, no cover.

Milky Way
Aquanet Dance Party Old-school hip-hop, funk and soul, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

Om
DJ Mario spins international beats.

Phoenix Landing
Elements DJs Crook, Lenore and Mad Dog pre drum 'n' bass with special guests, 10 pm, $5.

The Place
DJ Chris Roxx spins Top 40 and dance, 10 pm cover, 21+.

The Point
Ladies Night DJs spin dance and hip-hop, 9 pm-2

The Purple Shamrock
Musician Jim Plunkett and DJ Mike Flanagin, pm, $5, 21+.

The Quarter
The Glamorous Life DJ Susan Esthera spins hip and Top 40 party music at this gay night.

Redline
All Star Roulette Six Boston DJs provide the m 10 pm-2 am, $5, 21+.

Revolution Rock Bar
Ditch Thursdays DJ Rick Rude, 10 pm, no cover,

River Gods
A mix of DJs and music, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

Roggies
Karaoke night, 8 pm, no cover, 21+.

Rumor
DJs Roger M and JC spin house and Latin, 11 am, $20, $15 on guest list, 21+.

Ryles Dance Hall
Temporada Latina A night of salsa lessons dancing, 8:30 pm-1 am, $8-$12, 21+.

Saint
Mashup Thursdays Guest DJs spin hip-hop, h and Top 40, 10 pm, 21+.

Sissy K's
Karaoke downstairs, while DJ Littles spins To and dance music upstairs, 8 pm-2 am, no cover,

Tabú
Nightclub: DJ Gee-Spin from JAM'N 94.5 drops hop, reggae and R&B beats, 10 pm, no cover, Ultralounge: DJ Guillian spins salsa, merengue bachata, 10 pm, $10; women free before 11 pm,

Toast
International Brazilian Night 10 pm-1 am, c varies.

Underbar
Moda Thursdays DJ Franklin spins Latin and i national house, 11 pm, $20 at the door, $15 on list, 21+.

Vertigo
Analog Thursdays Electronic music, 10 pm cover, 21+.

Wonder Bar
Trend Thursdays DJ Hevan spins, 10 pm, 21+.

FRIDAYS

An Tua Nua
'80s, one-hit wonders, Top 40 and hip-hop, 10 $5, 21+.

ia
cious Fridays, DJs NRG and Kutrate Kid spin
-hop and reggaeton, 10 pm, $5-$10, 21+.

gard
Dave M spins dance and Top 40, 10 pm, no
er, 21+.

e Avenue
Murray spins Top 40, 9 pm, $5, 21+.

ll in Hand
ty Music Master spins everything, 10 pm, $5,
.

ston Rocks
ty Like a Rockstar Fridays DJ SugaShane spins
-hop, dancehall, reggaeton and party breaks, 10 2 am, free on guest list until 12 am, 21+.

price
vnstairs: Greek Night DJ Paul Yotis spins inter-ional and ethnic house, 10 pm, no cover, 19+.
tairs: Casablanca@Caprice DJs Tom Bartlett, t Dimond and Sergio Santos spin house, 10 pm, over, 21+.

rys
Rhythm Nights, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

mmon Ground
st DJs spin, 10 pm, 21+.

ogan's
C-Nice spins dance favorites, 10 pm, cover es, 21+.

ar
Mike Giller spins Top 40 and house beats, 10 pm-
, no cover, 21+.

vlin's
spin dance and hip-hop, 9 pm-1 am, no cover,
.

e Estate
urrection Fridays International DJs spin the lat-n house, trance and break-beat music, 10 pm-2
no cover, 21+.

elsior
play jazz and lounge, no cover, 21+.

t h-Up Fridays DJs spin Top 40, house, rock and hop, 10 pm, no cover, 21+. Fourth Floor: DJ ie of Mashup Mafia spins mashups, '80s, dance rock, 10 pm, 21+.

e Foundation Lounge
ous DJs mix everything from jazz and lounge
isco, funk, dance and R&B, 10 pm, no cover,
.

den Temple
E Room DJ Robert Weintraub spins '70s, '80s, and vocal house, 9:30 pm, 21+.

at Scott
Ken and Michael V spin , 9 pm, $5, 21+.

en Briar
ind live music, 9:30 pm, $5, 21+.

sy Bar
liso spins Top 40, hip-hop and house, 10 pm-2 $10, 21+.

e Harp
pin dance mixes upstairs and downstairs, live s upstairs, 9 pm, $5 before 10 pm, $10 after,
.

ricane O'Reilly's
ennis spins Top 40 and dance, 10 pm, no cover,
.

e Ivory's
ing Rock and Roll Piano Show 8:30 pm, $8,
.

e McIntyre's
lassi spins Top 40 and hip-hop, 10 pm, $5, 21+.

Kells
es' Night DJ Sender spins Top 40 and hip-hop e main room, and DJ Doc spins '80s, '90s and jams, 10 pm, $6, women free before 12 am,
.

uor Store
lario spins Top 40, hip-hop and rock, 9 pm-2 5, 21+.

tra
ic Fridays DJ Pup Dawg spins hip-hop, '80s, rock house, 10 pm, $20, 21+.

dlesex Lounge
ous DJs spin soul, funk, down-tempo and hip-
no cover, 21+.

cy Way
music and performance, 10 pm, $7-$10, 21+.

O
ike Swells spins house beats.

ris
Scortch spins Top 40 and hip-hop at 8 pm, live s at 10 pm, $5 before 9 pm, 21+.

Phenix Landing
cy Young Thing Top 40 with DJ Vinny, 10 pm, ver, 21+.

The Place
web spins a mix of Top 40 and hip-hop as TV
ns show Boston sports highlights, 10 pm, $5, 1

The Point
Rock Reggae Friday takes place downstairs while DJ Obsession oversees the music upstairs, 10 pm-2 am, 21+.

Pure
Pure Fridays Lesbian Night Rotating DJs spin hip-hop and Top 40, 9 pm, $5 before 11 pm, 21+.

The Purple Shamrock
Top 40 with DJ Thom, 10 pm, $5, 21+.

The Quarter
DJs spin rock, hip-hop, mashups, Top 40 and dance beats, 21+.

Redline
Friday Alternative DJ KC Hallett spins, 8 pm-2 am, $5 after 10 pm, 21+.

Revolution Rock Bar
Lettin' Loose Fridays Enjoy afterwork specials and classic rock favorites, 5-8 pm, followed by DJ Silly D, 10 pm-2 am, no cover, 21+.

River Gods
An eclectic mix of DJs and music, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

Roxy
Latin Fridays DJs spin merengue, salsa, bachata, reggaeton, 10 pm, $10 before 11 pm, $15 after 11 pm, 21+.

Rumor
Hip-hop and house music, 11 pm-2 am, $20, $15 on guest list, 21+.

Ryles Dance Hall
Viernes de Vacilon Latin Dance Party Rotating DJs provide bachata, merengue, reggaeton and salsa music, free before 10 pm, $5 before 11 pm, $10 after, tasteful attire required.

Saint
Heaven Fridays DJs G-Squared and Tanno provide a mix of everything, 10 pm, 21+.

Sissy K's
DJ Johnny C spins Top 40 and dance music, 9 pm-2 am, no cover, 21+.

Suite
DJ Santi and guest DJs spin Eurohouse, rock and '80s remixes, 11 pm, $20, 21+.

Tabú
Flirt Fridays DJ Spitaleri spins hip-hop, reggae and reggaeton, women free before 11 pm, $10 after, $10 for guys 21+, $15 for guys 18+.

Tequila Rain
DJ Mike spins Top 40, hip-hop and rock, 9 pm-2 am, $5, 21+.

33 Restaurant
Studio 33 Fridays DJs spin retro dance mixes, hip-hop, house and Latin, 10 pm-2 am, no cover, 21+.

360 Ultralounge
Get Fresh DJ Babyface spins Top 40, R&B and hip-hop, 10:30 pm, $15, 21+.

Toast
Dyke Night 9 pm-2 am, $5, 21+.

Underbar
House Music Fridays DJ Franklin spins hip-hop, house and Latin, 11 pm, $20, 21+.

Venu
DJ Roger M spins hip-hop, Latin and house, 11 pm, $20, $15 on guest list, 21+.

Vertigo
Sexy Fridays DJs spin a mix of Latin, reggae, hip-hop and international, 10 pm, $15, 21+.

Wonder Bar
DJs Kon and Lazee Boy spin hip-hop, R&B and old-school classics, 10 pm, $5, 21+.

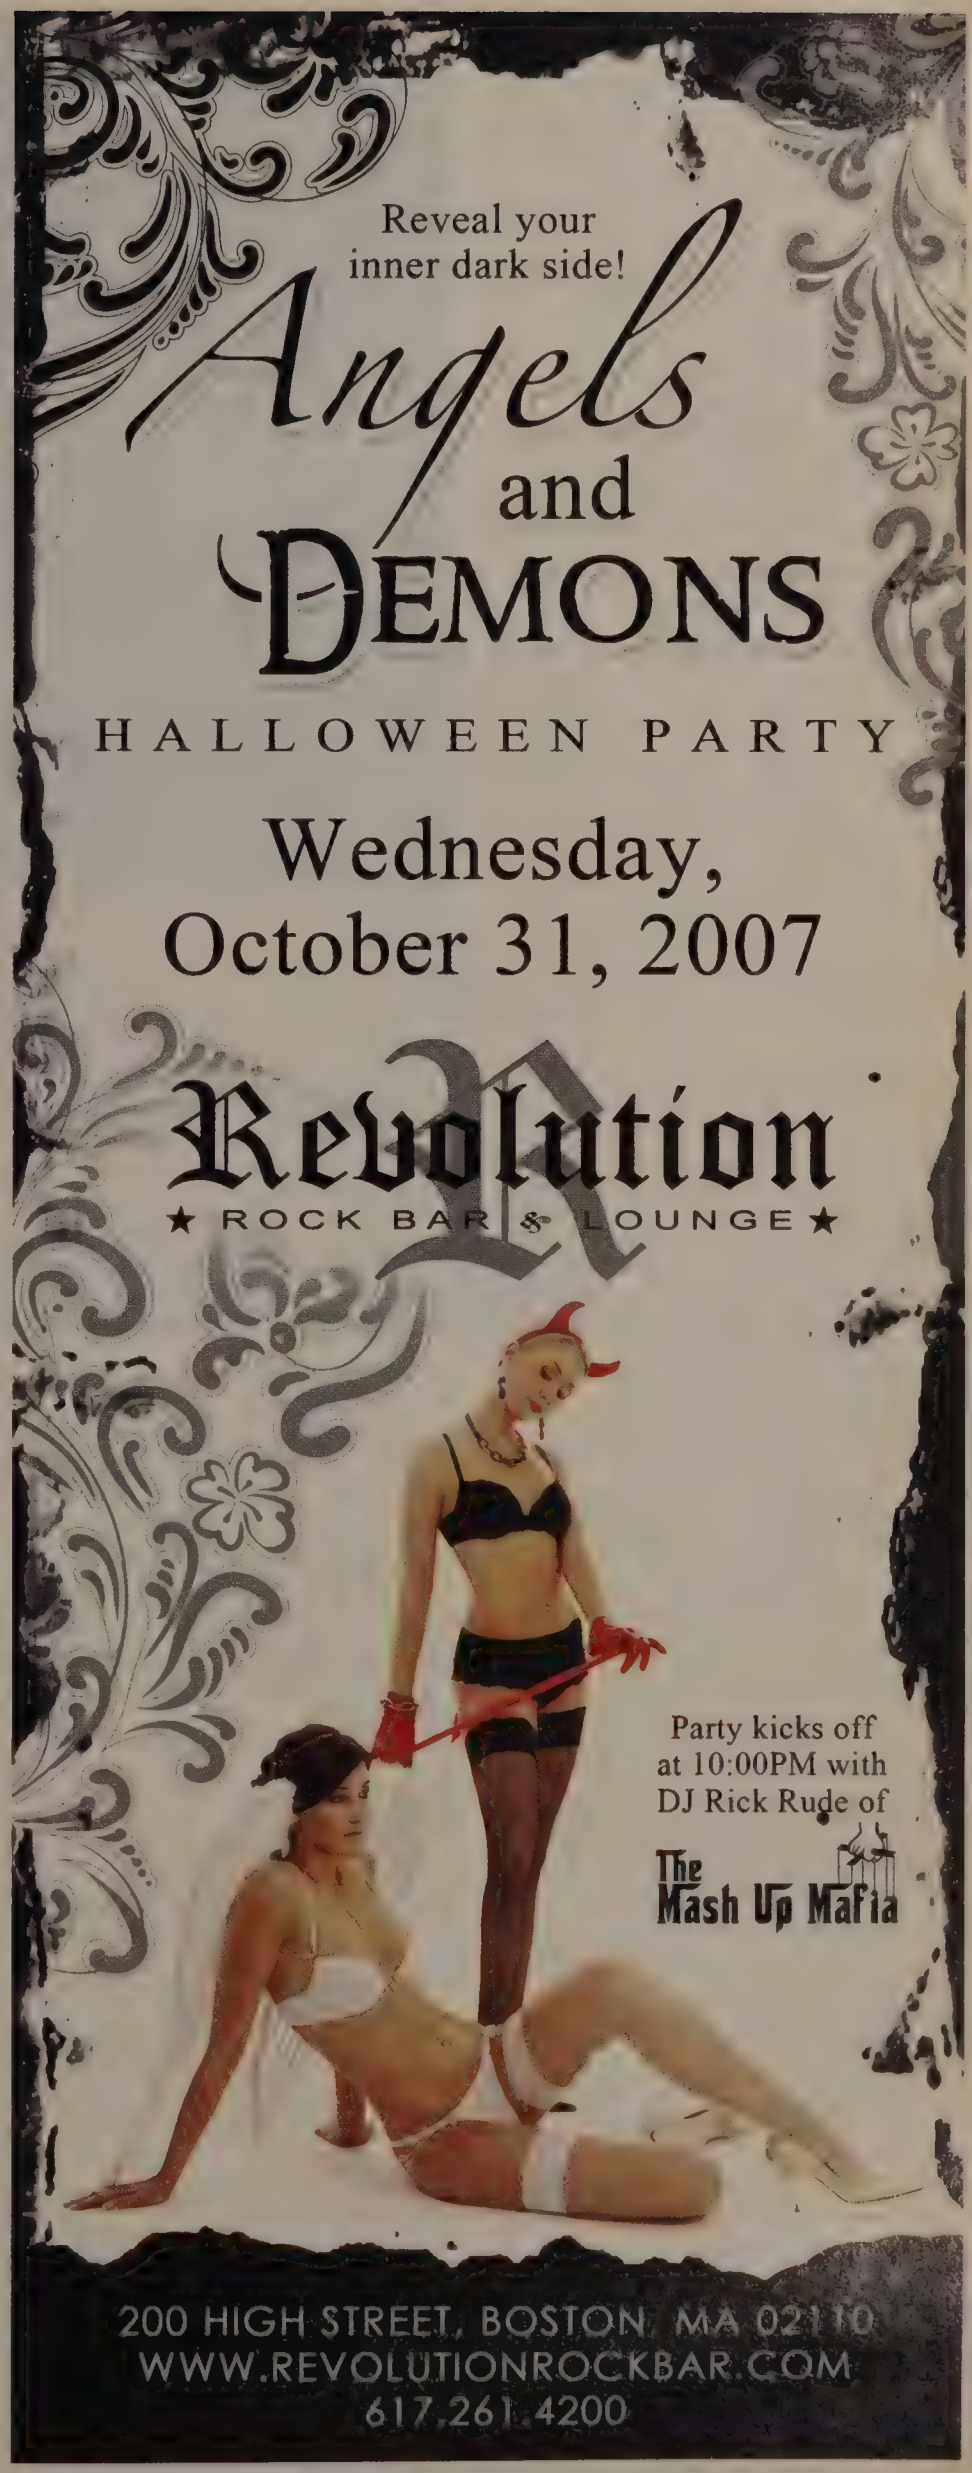
SATURDAYS

An Tua Nua
DJ Howie spins Top 40 and hip-hop, 10 pm, $5, 21+.

Aria
Rockstar Saturdays DJ Pup Dawg spins hip-hop, reggae, reggaeton, rock and house, 10 pm, $20, 21+.

Bell in Hand
Party Music Master spins everything, 10 pm, $10, 21+.

Boston Rocks
DJ Voodoo spins Top 40 and hip-hop, 5 pm-2 am, $5 after 11 pm, 21+.



Caprice
First floor: DJ Franklin spins international music, 10 pm, no cover, 21+. Second floor: Privé Saturdays DJ Paul Yioti spins ethnic house, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

Clerys
DJ Rhythm Nights, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

Common Ground
DJ Hannon and DJs Deano and Jay, 10 pm, 21+.

Coogan's
DJ C-Nice spins a mix of dance favorites, 10 pm, $5, 21+.

Dbar
DJs Jay Ine and Ted Ellison spin house beats, 10 pm-2 am, no cover, 21+.

Devlin's
DJ Brother Cleve spins a mix of '80s, '90s and current favorites, 9 pm-1 am, no cover, 21+.

Felt
Social Club Saturdays DJ Mike Bose spins Top 40, classic rock, house and hip-hop, 11 pm, $10, 21+.

The Foundation Lounge
DJ Tanno spins Top 40, reggae, house and disco, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

Golden Temple
The E Room DJ John Reed spins music from the '70s, '80s and '90s, as well as Top 40, 9:30 pm, no cover, 21+.

Green Briar
DJs and live music, 9:30 pm, $5, 21+.

Gypsy Bar
DJ Niso spins in the dance room, and DJ Mario spins at the front bar, 10 pm-2 am, $10, 21+.

The Harp
DJs spin hottest dance mixes upstairs and downstairs, live bands upstairs, 9 pm, $5 before 10 pm, $10 after, 21+.

Hurricane O'Reilly's
DJ Massi, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

Jake Ivory's
Dueling Rock and Roll Piano Show 8:30 pm, $8, 21+.

Jose McIntyre's
DJ Dennis spins Top 40, hip-hop and dance, 9 pm, $5, 21+.

The Kells
DJ Darren spins Top 40, dance and house in the main room, and DJ Grasshopper mixes '80s, '90s and new jams downstairs, 10 pm, $6, 21+.

Liquor Store
DJ Mario spins Top 40 and rock, 9 pm-2 am, $5, 21+.

Mantra
Flow Fridays DJ Pup Dawg spins hip-hop, '80s, rock and house, 10 pm, $20, 21+.

Middlesex Lounge
DJ Kon spins dance and Top 40 hits, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

Milky Way
Mango's Latin Dance Night DJ Antonio Ortíz spins merengue, salsa and bachata beats, 9 pm, $5-$10, free for women before 10:30 pm, 21+.

Om
DJs spin house music with a global edge.

Parris
DJ Scortch spins Top 40 and hip-hop beats at 8 pm, live bands at 10 pm, $5 before 9 pm, 21+.

Phoenix Landing
Boom Boom Room DJ Vinny spins one-hit wonders, New Wave and disco, 10 pm, $4, 21+.

The Place
VJ Dweb entertains, 10 pm, $5, 21+.

The Point
DJ Obsession provides music upstairs, 9 pm-2 am, 21+.

Pure
Sensual Saturdays DJ NRG spins hip-hop, old-school classics, R&B and dancehall, 10:30 pm, $20, 21+.

The Purple Shamrock
Cover bands perform and DJ Thom spins Top 40 beats, 10 pm, $5, 21+.

The Quarter
DJs spin rock, hip-hop and mashups, 10 pm, 21+.

Rain
KISS 108's Billy Costa hosts as DJ Randy spins Top 40, house, dance and rock music, 10 pm, $10, 21+.

Redline
Soul Shack DJ Inkognito spins disco, soul, funk and old-school favorites, and DJ Paul Foley spins on the last Saturday of the month, 10 pm-2 am, $5, 21+.

Revolution Rock Bar
DJ Rick Rude, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

River Gods
A variety of DJs and music, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

Roxy
Gay Night DJs spin house, trance and tribal music, 10 pm, $10 before 11:30 pm, $15 after 11:30 pm, 21+.

Rumor
DJs Thamer and JC spin a mix of hip-hop, house and Latin music, 11 pm-2 am, $20, $15 on guest list, 21+.

Ryles Dance Hall
Four on the Floor Supershag Productions supplies Latin, tango and salsa dancing, 9:15 pm-2 am.

Saint
Guest DJs from Boston and abroad spin, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

Sissy K's
Dance Party Saturdays DJ Tiz spins Top 40 and dance beats, 8 pm-2 am, no cover, 21+.

6B Lounge
'80s Night DJ Azure spins retro rock tunes while decked out in his most stylish '80s gear, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

Embassy

Suite
DJs Jamie, Juan de la Luna and Santi spin house and international, 11 pm, $10, 21+.

Tabú
Nightclub: DJ Leandro spins hip-hop, reggae, reggaeton and house beats, 11 pm, $15, 18+. Ultralounge: DJ Steve Anderson spins '80s, '90s and Top 40, 7 pm, no cover, 21+.

Tequila Rain
DJ Mike spins Top 40, hip-hop and rock, 9 pm-2 am, $5, 21+.

33 Restaurant
Filter Saturdays DJs Tasso and Niko G spin Latin, Top 40, dance, hip-hop and international house beats, 10 pm-2 am, 21+.

360 Ultralounge
Sapphire Saturdays DJs spin hip-hop, Latin, house and R&B, 10 pm, $15, 21+.

Underbar
DJ Angel Moraes alternates with international house DJs, 11 pm, $20, 21+.

Venu
DJs Tamer K. and JC spin hip-hop and house, 10 pm, $15, 21+.

Vertigo
DJs Hectik and Hevan, 11 pm, $10, 21+.

West Street Grille
Late Night Lounge DJs play funk and Top 40 all night, 10:30 pm, $5, 21+.

Whiskey Bar
Wicked Saturdays DJs spin hip-hop, R&B, pop and Top 40, 10:30 pm, $10, 21+.

Wonder Bar
DJs 7L and Braun Johnson spin hip-hop, R&B and old-school beats, 10 pm, $5, 21+.

SUNDAYS

An Tua Nua
Techno/House Night, 10 pm, 21+.

Bill's Bar
Reggae Sundays Dub Station features a variety of live reggae acts, 10 pm, $7-$10, 21+.

Devlin's
Service Industry Night, 9 pm-1 am, no cover, 21+.

Golden Temple
The E Room DJ John Reed spins music from the '70s, '80s and '90s, as well as Top 40, 9:30 pm, no cover.

Green Briar
Intercore, no cover, 21+.

Milky Way
Live music, 9 pm, cost varies, 21+.

Phoenix Landing
Bump An underground house-music night featuring a rotating roster of resident DJs, 10 pm, $5.

The Place
Chad LaMarsh appears with VJ Leathers, 10 pm, 21+.

Pure
Caribbean night, 9 pm, $10, 21+.

Rain
DJ Danny Sharp and/or the World Premier Band supply old-school funk, Top 40 and dance tunes, $5 on band nights, 8 pm, 21+.

River Gods
Action Sunday DJs play punk, garage and rock, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

Roggies
Caribbean night, 8 pm, no cover, 21+.

Ryles Dance Hall
Salsa Sundays An evening of salsa music, dance and food, 7-11 pm, $10.

Saint
Style Sundays Two guest DJs spin a variety of music at this Industry Night, 10 pm-2 am, 21+.

Sissy K's
Karaoke, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

Tabú
Under 21 Party 8 pm, $15, 18+.

360 Ultralounge
Miami Heat DJ Dru Nyce spins R&B, hip-hop, reggae and salsa beats, 10:30 pm, $10, 21+.

Vertigo
Jump Off DJs spin hip-hop, reggae and reggaeton, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

Club Venues

An Tua Nua 835 Beacon St., Boston (617-262-2121).
Aria 246 Tremont St., Boston (617-338-7080).
Asgard 350 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-577-9100).
The Avenue 1249 Comm. Ave., Allston (617-782-9508).
Bell in Hand 45-55 Union St., Boston (617-227-2098).
Bill's Bar 5½ Lansdowne St., Boston (617-421-9678).
Boston Rocks 245 Quincy St., Boston (617-726-1110).
Buzz 51 Stuart St., Boston (617-482-3939).
Caprice 275 Tremont St., Boston (617-292-0080).
Clerys 331 Columbus Ave., Boston (617-262-9874).
Common Ground 85 Harvard Ave., Allston (617-783-2071).
Coogan's 173 Milk St., Boston (617-451-7415).
Dbar 1236 Dorchester Ave., Dorchester (617-265-4490).
Devlin's 332 Washington St., Brighton (617-779-8822).
Dockside 183 State St., Boston (617-723-7050).
The Estate 1 Boylston Place, Boston (617-351-7000).
Excelsior 272 Boylston St., Boston (617-426-7878).
Felt 533 Washington St., Boston (617-350-5555).
Flat Top Johnny's 1 Kendall Square, Cambridge (617-494-9565).
The Foundation Lounge 500 Comm. Ave., Boston (617-859-9900).
Golden Temple 1651 Beacon St., Brookline (617-277-9722).
Great Scott 1222 Comm. Ave., Boston (617-566-9014).
Green Briar 304 Washington St., Brighton (617-789-4100).
Gypsy Bar 116 Boylston St., Boston (617-482-7799).
The Harp 85 Causeway St., Boston (617-742-10
Hurricane O'Reilly's 150 Canal St., Boston (617-722-0161).
Jake Ivory's 9 Lansdowne St., Boston (617-247-12
Jose McIntyre's 160 Milk St., Boston (617-451-9460).
The Kells 161 Brighton Ave., Allston (617-782-9082).
Kings 10 Dalton St., Boston (617-266-2695).
Liquor Store The Alley, Boston (617-357-6800).
Mantra 52 Temple Place, Boston (617-542-8111).
McGann's 197 Portland St., Boston (617-227-40
Middlesex Lounge 315 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-868-6739).
Milky Way 403-405 Centre St., Jamaica Plain (6 524-3740).
The Office 5 Broad St., Boston (617-474-7866).
Om 92 Winthrop St., Cambridge (617-576-2800).
Parris Quincy Market Building, Boston (617-248 9900).
Phoenix Landing 512 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (6 576-6260).
The Place 2 Broad St., Boston (617-523-2081).
The Point 147 Hanover St., Boston (617-523-70
Pure 275 Tremont St., Boston (617-542-4077).
The Purple Shamrock 1 Union St., Boston (617 227-2060).
The Quarter 36 Lansdowne St., Boston (617-53 2100).
Rain 665 Broadway, Malden (781-322-2101).
Redline 59 JFK St., Cambridge (617-491-9851).
Revolution Rock Bar 200 High St., Boston (617 261-4200).
River Gods 125 River St., Cambridge (617-576-18
Roggies 56 Chestnut Hill Ave., Brighton (617-56 1880).
Roxy 279 Tremont St., Boston (617-338-7699).
Rumor 100 Warrenton St., Boston (617-482-695
Ryles Dance Hall 212 Hampshire St., Cambridge (617-876-9300).
Saint 90 Exeter St., Boston (617-236-1134).
Sissy K's 6 Commercial St., Boston (617-248-65
6B 6 Beacon St., Boston (617-742-8565).
Suite 1 Boylston Place, Boston (617-512-5311).
Tabú 168 Broadway, Saugus (781-231-5111).
Tequila Rain 3 Lansdowne St., Boston (617-437-03
33 Restaurant 33 Stanhope St., Boston (617-57 3311).
360 Lounge 33 Batterymarch St., Boston (617-6 9333).
Toast 70 Union Square, Somerville (617-623-921
Umbria 295 Franklin St., Boston (617-338-1000
Underbar 275 Tremont St., Boston (617-292-71
Venu 100 Warrenton St., Boston (617-338-8061
Vertigo 126 State St., Boston (617-723-7277).
Water Works 333 Victory Road, Quincy (617-68 0600).
West Street Grille 15 West St., Boston (617-42 0300).
Wonder Bar 186 Harvard Ave., Allston (617-35 2665).

museums & galleries

vice to Contributors

mit gallery and museum listings by fax (617-859-6) or mail to Calendar: Museums/Galleries, or ail arts@improper.com. Include dates, nearest top and phone number. Deadline is four weeks prior ublication. Listings cannot be accepted over the he.

useums

menian Library & seum of America

Main St., Watertown (617-926-2562). www. inc.org. MBTA: #71 Bus to Watertown. Thu., pm; Fri. and Sun., 1-5 pm; Sat., 10 am-2 pm. natsed features mixed-media works looking at henia's history of viticulture and wine produc- . Through January 2008. •Highlights from the ection features a wide range of mixed-media ks. Ongoing.

:hur M. Sackler Museum

Broadway, Cambridge (617-495-9400). www. useums.harvard.edu. MBTA: Red Line to Har- . Mon.-Sat., 10 am-5 pm; Sun., 1-5 pm. $9; $7, rs; $6, students; free, under 18; free, Sat. until 12 nd every day after 4:30 pm. •Gods in Color: ted Sculpture of Classical Antiquity features full- replicas of Greek and Roman sculptures. ough Jan. 20. •Downtime features four contem- ry Chinese paintings, displayed with the ceram- the Asian gallery. Through Jan. 27, 2008. •A ition Redefined: Modern and Contemporary Chinese Paintings From the Chu-tsing Li Collection features e than 60 works dated 1950-2000 from the art rian's collection. Nov. 3-Jan. 27, 2008. •On the of Madness: Representations of Majnunn in Per- Turkish, and Indian Painting details the romance fajnun and Layla. Through Feb. 10, 2008. erlapping Realms: Arts of the Islamic World and , 900-1900 explores themes of commonality, inuity and diversity, featuring ceramics and lwork by southern European and South Asian s. Through spring 2008. •Alexander's Image and eginning of Greek Portraiture showcases ancient s depicting Alexander the Great and his succes- Ongoing. •The Art of Ancient Rome features fu- ry art and stone masterpieces depicting daily public entertainment and leaders of Ancient e. Ongoing.

tonian Society Old tte House Museum

Washington St., Boston (617-720-1713). www. nhistory.org. MBTA: Blue or Orange Line to State. , 9 am-6 pm. $5; $4, students and seniors; $1, ages . •The Boston Massacre: A Sound and Light Show ins how a snowball fight escalated into a deadly prior to the American Revolution. Ongoing. Old State House: A Hands-On History features imedia interpretations of the old Massachusetts ol. Ongoing. •Every Picture Tells a Story is a col- n of historic photographs of Boston-area places, s and people. Ongoing. •From Colony to Com- wealth presents 150 artifacts and images docu- ing Boston's fight for independence from Eng- and Massachusetts' establishment as a state. ing. •Our Favorite Things features historical ts from the museum's collection. Ongoing. ervation of the Old State House displays architec- plans of the building and details the preser- n and restoration process from 1881 to 1991. ing. •Treasures From the Bostonian Society's Col- ins features marine paintings and harbor views Boston's maritime history. Ongoing.

is Museum and Cultural Center

sley College, 106 Central St., Wellesley -283-2051). www.davismuseum.wellesley.edu. A: Commuter Rail to Wellesley. Tue., Thu., Fri. at., 11 am-5 pm; Wed., 11 am-8 pm; Sun., 12-4 ree. •Global Feminisms features mixed-media s by 60 women artists that explore the influ- of feminist thought. Through Dec. 9. •Don't features drawings from the collection of Mar- amin. Through Dec. 9.

Cordova Museum n Sculpture Park

Sandy Pond Road, Lincoln (781-259-8355). decordova.org. MBTA: Commuter Rail to Lin- Tue.-Sun., 11 am-5 pm. $9; $6, students and rs; free, ages 5 and under. •New Arrivals: Gifts to the Permanent Collection features mixed-media works recently donated to the museum. Through Jan. 13, 2008. •Ricardo Barros: Facing Sculpture features black-and-white photographs of contemporary sculptors by Barros. Through Jan. 13, 2008. •Trainscape: Installation Art for Model Railroads features an operational model railway that traverses miniature landscapes created by 12 local artists. Through Jan. 13, 2008. •Approaches to Narrative highlights work from the DeCordova's permanent collection. •Beauty and Decay: Photographs of Flowers features photographs from the museum's permanent collection. Through March 2008. •Nina Levy's outdoor sculptures "Headlong" and "Big Baby" greet visitors as they enter the museum's roof-top terrace. Ongoing.

Fogg Art Museum/ Busch-Reisinger Museum

32 Quincy St., Cambridge (617-495-9400). www.art museums.harvard.edu. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. Mon.-Sat., 10 am-5 pm; Sun., 1-5 pm. $9; $7, seniors; $6, students; free, under 18; free, Sat. until 12 pm and every day after 4:30 pm. •Bernin's Moor: A Monumental Model for a Roman Fountain features Bernini's clay model for Rome's Fountain of the Moor. Through Nov. 4. •Light Display Machines: Two Works by László Moholy-Nagy features a light-space modulator using metal, plastics, glass, paint, wood and a short film. Through Nov. 4. •Kara Walker: Harper's Pictorial History of the Civil War features lithographs and screen prints of Civil War images. Through Nov. 11. •Making Myth Modern: Primordial Themes in German 20th-Century Sculpture features sculptures by Franz von Stuck, Renée Sintenis, Max Beckmann, Gerhard Marcks and others. Through Dec. 30. •Paintings by Max Beckmann from the Pinakothek der Moderne, Munich features three major paintings by Beckmann over three decades. Through Jan. 6, 2008. •Contemporary Art from the Harvard University Art Museums Collections features mixed-media works by Ellen Gallagher, Edward Ruscha, Rudolf Stingel and others. Through Feb. 10, 2008. •Gian Lorenzo Bernini: Sketches in Clay displays 15 of Bernini's terracotta sculptures. Ongoing. •Modern Art, 1865-1965 presents sculptures and paintings by Matisse, Miró and Rodin, among others. Ongoing. •Investigating the Renaissance features early Italian Renaissance painting. Ongoing. •17th-Century French Painting and Sculpture features works of portraiture by Nicolas Régnier and Pierre Mignard. Ongoing.

Harvard Museum of Natural History

26 Oxford St., Cambridge (617-495-3045). www. hmnh.harvard.edu. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. Daily, 9 am-5 pm. $9; $7, students and seniors; $6, ages 3-18; free, children under 3; free to Mass. residents, Sun. until 12 pm. •Nests & Eggs features mixed-media displays of eggs. Through March 2008. •Looking at Animals features photographs of land and sea creatures by Henry Horenstein. Through June 2008. •Arthropods: Creatures That Rule features fossils, preserved specimens, video presentations and color photographs of hundreds of arthropods. Ongoing. •Climate Change: Our Global Experiment uses computer simulations to explore scientific studies of climate change. Ongoing. •Dodos, Trilobites and Meteorites: Treasures of Nature and Science at Harvard documents more than 200 years of scientific exploration. Ongoing. •The Ware Collection of Glass Flowers by Leopold and Rudolph Blaschka features glass models of more than 830 plant species. Ongoing.

Institute of Contemporary Art

*100 Northern Ave., Boston (617-478-3169). www. icaboston.org. MBTA: Red Line to South Station. Tue., Wed., Sat. and Sun., 10 am-5 pm; Thu. and Fri., 10 am-9 pm. $12; $10, students and seniors; free, children under 17 and ICA members; free, Thu. after 5 pm. •*Chiho Aoshima presents "The Divine Gas," a mural depicting a giant girl. Through Oct. 28. •Momentum 8: Dave McKenzie features a new video by the New York based artist. Through Oct. 28. •Bourgeois in Boston displays the stages of Louise Bourgeois' career through her sculptures, prints and drawings. Through March 2, 2008. •Accumulations:More Than the Sum of Their Parts features mixed-media works that assemble multiple parts by artists Ambreen Butt, Paul Chan, Tara Donovan, and more. Through July 13, 2008. •Design Life Now: National Design Triennial highlights the most innovative design over the past three years through architecture, film, graphics and so much more. Through Jan. 6, 2008. •The permanent collection features 21st-century works by Kai Althoff, Paul Chan, Taylor Davis, Marlene Dumas, Nan Goldin and others.

"Layla and Majnun," part of the exhibition On the Path of Madness, is on display at the Arthur M. Sackler Museum through Feb. 10.

Isabella Stewart Gardner Museum

*280 The Fenway, Boston (617-566-1401). www. gardnermuseum.org. MBTA: E Green Line to Museum. Tue.-Sun., 11 am-5 pm. $12; $10, seniors; $5, students; free for children under 18 and all visitors named Isabella; $2 off with same-day Museum of Fine Arts admission. •*The permanent collection features more than 2,500 paintings, sculptures, tapestries, manuscripts, rare books and decorative pieces by artists including Rembrandt, Michelangelo, Botticelli and Degas.

Mary Baker Eddy Library

200 Mass. Ave., Boston (617-450-7000). www. marybakereddylibrary.org. MBTA: Green Line to Hynes. Tue.-Sun., 10 am-4 pm. $6; $4, seniors, students and children ages 6-17; free, ages 5 and under. •The Historic Bible Collection showcases rare Bibles in the reference room. Ongoing. •The Mapparium: An Inside View features public documents, artifacts and letters created during the exhibition's construction. Ongoing. •Sensational Press: Radical Response examines the influence of the Christian Science Monitor over the past century. Ongoing. •Verse-Maker: Poetry and Mary Baker Eddy displays the influence of poetry on Mary Baker Eddy's writings. Ongoing. •Hall of Ideas celebrates the ideas that have inspired human beings throughout history with glass and bronze sculptures and digital media. The exhibition features works by Ben Tré and David Small. Ongoing. •Quest Gallery features mixed-media works examining life's age-old questions and includes writings by Mary Baker Eddy. Ongoing.

McMullen Museum of Art

Boston College, Devlin Hall, 140 Comm. Ave., Chestnut Hill (617-552-8100). www.bc.edu/artmuseum. MBTA: B Green Line to Boston College. KaMon-Fri., 11 am-4 pm; Sat. and Sun., 12-5 pm. Pollack Matters features mixed-media works by Pollack and photographer Herbert Matter. Through Dec. 9.

MIT List Visual Arts Center

20 Ames St., Cambridge (617-253-4680). http:// web.mit.edu/lvac. MBTA: Red Line to Kendall/MIT. Tue.-Thu., 12-6 pm, Fri., 12-8 pm, Sat. and Sun., 12-6 pm. Free. •Sounding the Subject: Selections from the Pamela and Richard Kramlich Collection and the New Art Trust features the use of sound, voice and live performances by Eija-Liisa Ahtila, Stan Douglas, David Hammons, Nam June Paik and Pipilotti Rist. Through Dec. 30. •Video Trajectories features videos created from the 1960s to the early 2000s by more than 20 artists including Marina Abramovic, Vito Acconci, Doug Aitkin and others. Through December. •The Mark Epstein Innovation Gallery features MIT and the Sea: Pioneers in Ocean Exploration, Claude Shannon's Ingenious Machines, Hybrid Illusions by Dr. Aude Oliva and other avante-garde exhibits. Ongoing. •Mind and Hand: The Making of MIT Scientists and Engineers explores MIT education from a student perspective. Ongoing. •Holography: The Light Fantastic features the world's largest collection of holograms. Ongoing. •Robots and Beyond: Exploring Artificial Intelligence at MIT features an interactive look at the future of artificial intelligence. Ongoing. •Flashes of Inspiration: The Work of Doc Edgarton features work with stroboscopic light in photography. Ongoing. •Gestural Engineering: The Sculpture of Arthur Ganson features kinetic sculptures and machines. Ongoing.

MIT Museum

265 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-253-4444) http://web.mit.edu/museum. MBTA: Red Line to Kendall/MIT. Tue.-Fri., 10 am-5 pm; Sat. and Sun. 12-5 pm. $5; $2, students and seniors; free, children under 5. •MIT Professor Jerry Milgrim: An Exceptional Ocean Engineer celebrates the career of the longest-serving professor of ocean engineering at MIT with artifacts from his accomplishments. Through Feb. , 2008. •Deep Frontiers: Ocean Engineering at MIT displays technology developed for the preservation of our oceans. Ongoing. •Flashes of Inspiration: The Work of Harold Edgerton showcases multimedia work commemorating the life of Harold Edgerton. Ongoing. •Gestural Engineering: The Sculpture of Arthur Ganson displays kinetic sculptures by Ganson. Ongoing. •Holography: The Light Fantastic exhibits 23 holograms from the museum's extensive collection by artists including Margaret Benyon and Setsuko Ishii. Ongoing. •Mind and Hand: The Making of MIT Scientists and Engineers portrays the life of an MIT student through mixed media. Ongoing. •Robots and Beyond: Exploring Artificial Intelligence at MIT features multimedia work focusing on studies exploring artificial intelligence. Ongoing.

Museum of African-American History

46 Joy St., Boston (617-725-0022). www.afroammuseum.org. MBTA: Green or Red Line to Park. Mon.-Sat., 10 am-4 pm. Free. A Gathering Place for Freedom showcases more than 100 books, drawings and other documents from African-American history. Through December.

Museum of Fine Arts

465 Huntington Ave., Boston (617-267-9300). www.mfa.org. MBTA: E Green Line to Museum. Wed.-Fri., 10 am-9:45 pm; Sat.-Tue., 10 am-4:45 pm. $17; $15, seniors; $8.50, children ages 7-17 during school hours; free, children 17 and under all other times; admission by voluntary contribution, Wed., 4-9:45 pm. •Drama and Desire: Japanese Paintings From the Floating World, 1690-1850 depicts the daily activities of Tokyo's inhabitants at the time through woodblock prints and paintings by Harunobu, Utamaro and Hokusai. Through Dec. 16. •Winslow Homer at the MFA features paintings from the permanent collection. Through December. •Shy Boy, She Devil and Isis: The Art of Conceptual Craft, Selections From the Wornick Collection features a variety of mixed-media works by 107 artists from 20 countries. Through Jan. 6, 2008. •Arts of Japan: The John C. Weber Collection features Japanese mixed-media works from the 12th to the 20th century. Through Jan. 13, 2008. •Glittering Gold: Illumination in Islamic Art features illuminated Koran passages by Gilhas Diptas and other artists. Through Jan. 27, 2008. •Symbols of Power: Napoleon and the Art of the Empire Style, 1800-1815 features 185 objects including paintings, sculptures, furniture, jewelry, musical instruments, firearms, clocks and porcelains from the Napoleonic Empire. Through Jan. 27, 2008. •Contemporary Outlook: German Photography features works by Bernd and Hilla Becher, Andreas Gursky and Thomas Ruff. Through Feb. 2008. •Jewelry by Artists: The Daphne Farago Collection features contemporary craft jewelry by Sam Kramer, Man Ray, Pablo Picasso and others. Through March 5, 2008. •Ed Rossbach Fiber Art From the Daphne Farago Collection features more than 40 textile works by Rossbach. Through March 5, 2008. •Resounding Ragas: Painings and Musical Memory in India features Indian paintings that deptict music and the modes of raga that they evoke. Through April 13, 2008. •Drawing: A Broader Definition features 66 drawings on a variety of surfaces produced from 4000 BC to the 1950s. Oct. 27-May 4, 2008.

Museum of Science

Science Park, Boston (617-723-2500). www.mos. org. MBTA: D Green Line to Science Park. Sun.-Thu., 9 am-7 pm; Fri. and Sat., 9 am-9 pm. $16; $14, seniors; $13, children ages 3-11. •Weems Animal Sculptures features bronze animal sculptures donated by Katharine Lane Weems. Ongoing. •Earth: Inside Out features displays portraying the Earth's interior. Ongoing. •Welcome to the Universe educates visitors about the universe and displays a scaled model of the solar system. Ongoing. •WeatherWise, a new permanent exhibition, shows visitors the techniques of short-term forecasting.

MICHEL DELACROIX

RECEPTION WITH THE ARTIST

OCTOBER 27, 6-9PM

Axelle FINE ARTS

www.axelle.com | 617.450.0700

91 newbury street | daily 6-10

National Heritage Museum

33 Marrett Road, Lexington (781-861-6559). www.monh.org. Mon.-Sat., 10 am-5 pm; Sun., 12-5 pm. Free. •Unlocking the Code: Masonic and Fraternal Aprons features a selection of aprons from the collection of the Grand Lodge of Masons in Massachusetts, including pieces from around the world over the past two centuries. Through Dec. 9. •Fins, Wings and Other Such Things features photos from the polaroid collection with works by international and local photographers including Ansel Adams. Through Feb. 10. •Raymond Loewy: Designs for a Consumer Culture features consumer design innovations from the 20th century. Through March 23, 2008. •Sowing the Seeds of Liberty: Lexington and the American Revolution uses mixed media to discuss the battle at Lexington. Ongoing. •American Family Treasures: Decorative Arts from the D.J. and Alice Shumway Nadeau Collection features crafted furniture, metal work, glass and other objects. Ongoing.

Newton Free Library

330 Homer St., Newton (617-796-1360). www.ci.newton.ma.us/library. Mon.-Thu., 9 am-9 pm; Fri., 9 am-6 pm; Sat., 9 am-5 pm; Sun., 12-5 pm. Free. •Rick Berry: Designer Beings features oil paintings of abstract and figurative works emphasizing random lines, light and color. Through Oct. 30.

Peabody Essex Museum

East India Square, Salem (978-745-9500). www.pem.org. Daily, 10 am-5 pm. $9, $11, seniors; $9, students; free to children under 16 and residents of Salem. •Sketched at Sea features sketchbooks used by mariners to document their experiences at sea. Through Jan. 6, 2008. •Accidental Mysteries features vintage snapshots with double exposure or other darkroom mistakes from the John and Teenuh Foster collection. Through Jan. 27, 2008. •Gateway Bombay features paintings, works on paper, photographs and a mixed-media installation by Chriodeep Chaudhuri, Bal Chhabda, Atul Dodiya and others. Through Dec. 7, 2008. •Samuel McIntire, Carving an American Style features more than 200 works from the famed architecture including furniture, drawings, freestanding sculputures and architecture. Through Feb. 24, 2008. •Origami Now! features origami works by artists from around the world.Through June 8, 2008.•Perfect Imbalance: Exploring Chinese Aesthetics features 30 Chinese artifacts, including paintings, jade and porce which demonstrate the distinctive cultur China. Through May 17, 2009. •All of My Life tures works exploring nine contemporary N American artists' world views. Featured artist clude David Bradley, Truman Lowe and M Romero. Ongoing. •Intersections, Native Ame Art in a New Light examines Native American work from the 17th century to the present i ramics, textiles, drawings and more. Ongoing. Gods and Mortals: Traditional Art From India s cases works from the 1800s to the present. Ong

Peabody Museum of Archaeology and Ethnology

11 Divinity Ave., Cambridge (617-496-1027). peabody.harvard.edu. MBTA: Red Line to Har Daily, 9 am-5 pm. $9; $7, seniors and students ages 3-18; free, children under 3. •Distinguished C Curating Lost Monuments at the Peabody Museum tures casts from Mesoamerica. Through Oct •The Moche of Ancient Peru: Media and Message tures over 100 pieces including ceramics, tex and photographs. Through Nov. 30. •Imazi Beauty and Artisanship in Berber Life features century artifacts made by the North Af Berbers. Through November. •From Nation t tion: Examining Lewis and Clark's Indian Colle features 38 Native American artifacts from the 18th century. Through June 2008. •The exhib Feeding the Ancestors: Tlingit Carved Horn Sp displays spoons made by the Tlingit people of N America during the 1800s. Through March 2 •Encounters With the Americas examines N American culture before and after the arriv Christopher Columbus in 1492. Ongoing. •C and Continuity portrays Native American cu through objects from the 19th century. Ongoin

Rose Art Museum

Brandeis University, Kniznick Gallery, 415 South Waltham (781-736-3434). www.brandeis.edu MBTA: Commuter Rail to Brandeis/Roberts. Tue. 12-5 pm. •Tiger by the Tail! Women Artists of Transforming Culture features mixed-media ins tions by 17 Indian women artists. Through De •Logjam features 12 installations by Tom S Through Dec. 16. •Spiraling Inward features p ings and drawings exploring the boundaries and science by Steve Miller. Through Dec. 16.

pecial Events

: Aids Art
Berenberg Gallery, 4 Clarendon St., Boston (617-0800). www.berenberggallery.com. MBTA: nge Line to Back Bay. Nov. 4, 12 pm. Free. This it features authentic South African beaded sculp-s, jewelry and fabrics for viewing and sale. Pro-s benefit the Art Aids Art Project.

tle Royale (An Art Show) ed South End Artists Image Gallery, 450 Harrison , #223B, Boston (617-686-1923). MBTA: Or- Line to Back Bay. Nov. 2, 6-9 pm. Free. This e-artist competition features works in-d by violence and conflict.

ator Talk
Visual Art Center, 185 Memorial Drive, bridge (617-253-4680). http://web.mit. vac. MBTA: Red Line to Kendall/MIT. 1, 5-6 pm. Free. MIT professor and cura-Caroline Jones discusses the exhibition Trajectories.

rth Annual Tim Hamill ting Artist Lecture
School of Management, 595 Comm. Ave., m (617-353-3371). www.bu.edu/cfa. A: Green Line to Kenmore. Nov. 1, 6 pm. Photographer and painter Chuck Close ritic Robert Storr discuss their work.

s. General Hospital artment of Psychiatry 07 Gala Art Benefit nterContinental, 510 Atlantic Ave., Boston 747-1000). www.mghmindscapes.org. A: Blue Line to Aquarium. Nov. 3, 6 pm. Web site for ticket information. The annual eatures a cocktail reception, a silent art n and dinner.

Public Art Sculpture Tour
er Building, E15, 20 Ames St., Cambridge 253-4680). http://web.mit.edu/lvac. A: Red Line to Kendall/MIT. Oct. 27, 1 ree. Curator Patricia G. Fuller leads a tour MIT campus's public art collection.

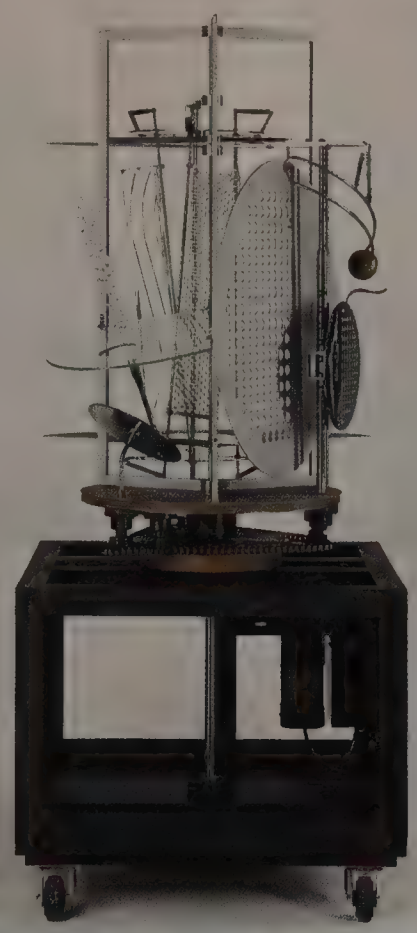
Photographic Resource ter 2007 Benefit Auction
Gallery, 808 Comm. Ave., Boston (617-600). www.prcboston.org. MBTA: B Line to BU West. Oct. 27, 6 pm. $75. fundraiser features 200 artworks by ging and established artists, a catered ion, a silent auction and a live auction.

Photographic Resource ter Lecture Series
Photonics Center, Auditorium 206, 8 Saint s St., Boston (617-975-0600). www.prc .org. MBTA: B Green Line to BU Central. Nov. 7m. $5-$15. Albert Watson discusses his self-book featuring his portraits of various pop-cul-tons.

Sixth Annual chester Open Studios
ester (617-839-6734). www.thedac.org. A: Orange Line to Forest Hills. Oct. 26-28, 12-5 ee. This annual event highlights the works of 100 visual artists throughout Dorchester.

lleries

E ART



e Fine Art
wbury St., Boston (617-585-9551). www. neart.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. at., 11 am-5:30 pm. Maine Modern II features 9th-century paintings by Michael Loew, m Kienbusch, Dorothy Eisner and others. gh Nov. 24.

ns Gallery
University Law School, 120 Tremont St., Boston 305-1782). www.suffolk.edu/adams_gallery. : Red or Green Line to Park.Daily, 9 am-7 pm. Dairy to Doorstep: Milk Delivery in New England, 960 features photographs, advertisements and ts chronicling a century of the profession. gh Jan. 20, 2008.

on Skirt Gallery
ayer Ave., Boston (617-482-3652). www. skirt.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. Sat., 11 am-5 pm and by appointment. •The Depression: Brad Phillips and Rasool Sarangi fea-mixed-media works capturing the era. gh Oct. 27. •Michelle Cotez: New Work fea-rawings by the namesake artist. Through Oct. Heather Hobler features ink-on-mylar and ink-lum works by the artist. Nov. 2-Dec. 1. a Stamatiou features gouache and ink-on-works by the artist. Nov. 2-Dec. 1.

Alpha Gallery
38 Newbury St., Boston (617-536-4465). www.alphagallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Tue.-Fri., 10 am-5:30 pm; Sat., 11 am-5:30 pm. William Bailey features oil and tempera-on-canvas works by the artist. Oct. 24-Nov. 7.

Arden Gallery
129 Newbury St., Boston (617-247-0610). www.ardengallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Mon.-Sat., 11 am-5:30 pm. •Bill Fisher features oil and wax-on-panel works by the namesake artist. Through Oct. 29. •John Stockwell: New Paintings features oil-on-canvas landscapes by the artist. Nov. 1-30.

László Moholy-Nagy's "Light Prop for an Electric Stage" is at the Busch-Reisinger Museum through Nov. 4.

Ars Libri
500 Harrison Ave., Boston (617-357-5212). www.arslibri.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. Mon.-Fri., 9 am-6 pm; Sat., 11 am-5 pm. Sally Ross Canal Hi-Fi features recent works by the artist. Through October.

Artana
1378 Beacon St., Brookline (617-879-3111). www.artanagallery.com. MBTA: C Green Line to Coolidge Corner. Wed.-Fri., 11 am-6 pm; Sat., 10 am-5 pm and by appointment. Autumn Opulence features acrylic-on-canvas paintings of French Canadian culture by Nicole St-Pierre. Through October.

Atlantic Works Gallery
80 Border St., Boston. www.atlanticworks.org. MBTA: Blue Line to Maverick. Thu., 6-9 pm; Fri.-Sat., 12-6 pm. •Elizabeth Hathaway and Bo Petran: Off the Wall features interactive installation art. Through Oct. 29. •Kasia Bytnerowicz: Threadbare features paintings focusing on the qualities of the linen canvas. Nov. 5-29.

L'Attitude Gallery
218 Newbury St., Boston (617-927-4400). www.lattitudegallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Mon.-Sat., 10 am-6 pm; Sun., 12-5 pm. •The Many Facets of Sheryl Ellinwood features the artist's variety of styles including glass panels and sculpture. Through October 31. •Artifacts: New Work by Tim Harding features layered silk sculptural wall hangings. Thorugh Nov. 30. •The Natural Elements of Paula features paintings of nature by the namesake artist. Through October.

Axelle Fine Arts
91 Newbury St., Boston (617-450-0700). www.axelle.com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Daily, 10 am-6 pm. •The permanent collection features works by French contemporary artists Elizabeth Estivalet, Michel Delacroix, Jacques Gatti and Andre Bourrie, among others.

Axiom
141 Green St., Boston (617-953-6413). www.axiomart.org. MBTA: Orange Line to Green. Wed.-Thu., 6 pm-9 pm; Sat., 2 pm- 5 pm and by appointment. •Witness features video and braille installations by Denise Marika and the artist collective Think Again. Through Dec. 1.

Baak Gallery
35 Brattle St., Cambridge (617-354-0407). www.baakgallery.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. Mon.-Sat., 10:30 am-7 pm. Wally Gilbert: Photographs features images of Poland, Scotland and the United States. Through Nov. 14.

Barbara Krakow Gallery
10 Newbury St., 5th floor, Boston (617-262-4490). www.barbarakrakowgallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Tue.-Sat., 10 am-5:30 pm. Julian Opie features computer-film-on-LCD, enamel-on-glass and LED wall-mounted works by the artist. Through Nov. 28.

Berenberg Gallery
4 Clarendon St., Boston (617-536-0800). www.berenberggallery.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. Tue.-Sat., 11 am-6 pm. Gabriel Shaffer: Animal Returns features mixed-media works by Gabrielle Shaffer. Through Nov. 3.

Bernard Toale Gallery
450 Harrison Ave., Boston (617-482-2477). www.bernardtoalegallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Tue.-Sat., 10:30 am-5:30 and by appointment. •Heide Fasnacht: In Transit features drawings and sculptures by the namesake artist. Through Nov. 10. •Simulating Iraq features color photographs by Claire Becket. Through Nov. 10.

Beth Urdang Gallery
129 Newbury St., Boston (617-424-5550). www.bethurdanggallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to Hynes. Mon.-Sat., 10:30 am-5:30 pm. •Colin Brant: Recent Paintings features oil-on-canvas works. Through Dec. 1.

Boston Center for the Arts
Mills Gallery, 539 Tremont St., Boston (617-426-8835). www.bcaonline.org. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. Wed.-Thu., 12-5 pm; Fri.-Sat., 12-10 pm; Sun., 12-5 pm. The Lights Going On and Off features an installation using electric light by Martin Creed. Through Oct. 28.

Boston Frame Works
637 Tremont St., Boston (617-267-4400). www.bostonframeworks.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. Mon.-Sat. 10 am-6 pm, Fri. 10 am-8 pm. Seasonal Expressions features oils and watercolors by local artist, Michael Eder. Through October.

Boston Sculptors Gallery
486 Harrison Ave., Boston (617-482-7781). www.bostonsculptors.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. Wed.-Sun., 12 pm-6 pm. •Murray Dewart The Year of Double Happiness and Niho Kozuru Turned to Nature feature ceramic works by the artists. Through Nov. 11.

Bromfield Gallery
450 Harrison Ave., Boston (617-451-3605). www.bromfieldgallery.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. Tue.-Sat., 12-6 pm. •Precious: A Year of Looking at My Stuff (and Other New Work) features exactly 365 small paintings by artist Gail Martin. Through Oct. 27.

Brookline Arts Center
86 Monmouth St., Brookline (617-566-5715). www.brooklineartscenter.com. MBTA: C Green Line to St. Mary's. Mon.-Fri., 9 am-4:30 pm. •The Amsterdam Project features paintings in Batik by George Summers. Through Nov. 9. •People and Places features photography of Fenway Park, the Boston skyline and Canadian forests by Norm Scotch. Through Nov. 9. •Conversation Pieces features mixed-media and outdoor sculptures by James Burnes, Mark Favermann, Madeleine Lord and others. Through September 2008.

Cambridge Art Association
University Place Gallery, 124 Mount Auburn St., Cambridge (617-876-0246). www.cambridgeart.org. Mon.-Fri., 9 am-6 pm; Sat., 9 am-1 pm. •Waves Whimsy Windows features works by Richard Bertman, Alicia Cromie and Kitty Pechet. Through Nov. 13. •Members' Prize Show is an exhibition featuring the work of association members juried by Howard Yezerski. Through Nov. 7.

Cambridge Arts Council
344 Broadway, Cambridge (617-349-4380). www.cambridgeartscouncil.org. MBTA: Red Line to Central. Mon., Wed. and Thu., 8:30 am-8 pm; Tue., 8:30 am-5 pm; Fri., 8:30 am-12 pm. •Brain Terrain: An Exhibition of Painting and Drawings by Heidi Whitman features mixed-media works exploring states of mind. Through Nov. 9.

Cambridge Multicultural Arts Center
41 Second St., Cambridge (617-577-1400). www.cmacusa.org. MBTA: Red Line to Kendall/MIT.

Mon.-Fri., 10 am-6 pm. Legacies features mixed-media works by various artists that examine the bombings of Laos during the Vietnam war. Through Oct. 30.

Cambridge 7 Associates
1050 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-492-7000). www.c7a.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. Mon.-Fri., 10 am-6 pm. The Power of Seven features various artists that interpret the number seven through mixed-media works. Through Dec. 3.

Carpenter Center for the Visual Arts
24 Quincy St., Cambridge (617-496-6617). www.ves.fas.harvard.edu. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. Mon.-Sat. 9 am-11 pm, Sun. 12-11pm. •Berlin Remake and Deathstar/Todesstern features 16mm and 35 mm film, video, sound and writing by Amie Siegel. Through November. •New Faculty Show features photography, animation and multi-media installations by faculty members Drew Beattie, Miles Coolidge, Andreas Hykade and others. Through Oct. 28.

Chase Gallery
129 Newbury St., Boston (617-859-7222). www.chasegallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Mon.-Fri., 11 am-5:30 pm; Sat., 10 am-5 pm. •Stephen Coyle: New Paintings features alkyd-on-board works by the namesake artist. Through Oct. 27. •Whitney River features oil-on-canvas paintings of reeds, rivers and plant life by the artist. Nov. 1-Dec. 1.

Childs Gallery
169 Newbury St., Boston (617-266-1108). www.childsgallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Mon. and Sat., 10 am-5 pm; Tue.-Fri., 9 am-6 pm. •The Bostonians: Painters, Sculptors and Draftsmen 1840-1940 features works by Boston artists over a 100 year period. Through Nov. 10. •Monhegan Watercolors of Ted Davis features works by the artist. Through Nov. 10. •The Place Where Maine Vacations: Grisaille Watercolors of Bernard Brussel-Smith features landscapes by the titular artist. Through Nov. 10.

Copley Society of Art
158 Newbury St., Boston (617-536-5049). www.copleysociety.org. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Tue.-Sat., 11 am-6 pm; Sun., 12-5 pm. •CoSo Artists A-Z: Crisp features small mixed-media pieces by gallery artists. Through Nov. 3. •Fall Members' Show: Equinox features mixed-media works by gallery artists. Through Nov. 10.

Crump McCole Gallery
200 Seaport Blvd., Boston (617-330-1133). MBTA: Red Line to South Station. Mon.-Wed. and Fri., 10 am-6 pm; Thu., 10 am-8 pm; Sat. and Sun., 12-5 pm. Artists' Gallery Exhibit features oil paintings of Boston by Norman Crump, watercolors by Dan McCole and marine art by Jeff Eldredge. Ongoing.

DTR Modern Galleries
167 Newbury St., Boston (617-424-9700). www.dtrmodern.com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Mon.-Thu., 11 am-7 pm; Fri. and Sat., 11 am-8 pm; Sun., 11 am-6 pm. 60 Years of American Art: 1947-2007 features prints, lithographs and works on paper of American artwork by Andy Warhol, Jean-Michel Basquiat, Robert Indiana and others. Through Oct. 30.

Fort Points Art Community Gallery
300 Summer St., Boston (617-423-4299). www.fortpointarts.org. MBTA: Red Line to South Station. Mon.-Fri., 9 am-9 pm. Open Studios Group Show features mixed-media works by 100 gallery artists. Through Nov. 9.

Galerie d'Orsay
33 Newbury St., Boston (617-266-8001). www.galerie-dorsay.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Mon.-Sat., 10 am-6 pm; Sun., 12-6 pm. Samir Sammoun features paintings by the namesake artist. Through Nov. 18.

Gallery Anthony Curtis
186 South St., Boston (617-988-8119). www.galleryanthonycurtis.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Forest Hills. Tue.-Sat., 11 am-6 pm and by appointment. •Andrew Tavarelli: Floating Worlds features works on canvas of foreign lands and cultures. Through Nov.5. •Katherine D. Crone: Boxed Memory features mixed-media works of light, shadows, architecture and landscapes. Through Nov. 5.

Gallery Naga
67 Newbury St., Boston (617-267-9060). www.gallerynaga.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Tue.-Sat., 10 am-5:30 pm. Robert Ferrandini New Paintings on Paper features gouache and watercolor works on paper by the artist. Through Nov. 3.

Gallery Kayafas
450 Harrison Ave., Boston (617-482-0411). www.gallerykayafas.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. Tue.-Sat., 11 am-5:30 pm. Thomas J. Gustainis features avant-garde photographs by the artist. Through Nov. 10.

George Summers' "Vincent and Me" is on display in the exhibition The Amsterdam Project at the Brookline Arts Center through Nov. 9.

Gateway Gallery
62 Harvard St., Brookline (617-734-1577). www.gatewayarts.org. MBTA: D Green Line to Brookline Village. Mon.-Fri., 9 am-4:30 pm; Sat., 12-5 pm. Free. You Are in My Eyes exhibits works inspired by certain people or situations by artists with disabilities. Through Nov. 10.

Guild of Boston Artists
162 Newbury St., Boston (617-536-7660). www.guildofbostonartists.org. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Tue.-Sat., 10:30 am-5:30 pm; Sun. and Mon., by appointment only. •Frank Strazzulla: Recent Works features paintings of landscapes and interiors by the artist. Through Oct. 27. •Sergio Roffo: The New England Landscape features landscape and coastal paintings by the artist. Nov. 3-30.

Howard Yezerski Gallery
14 Newbury St., Boston (617-262-0550). www.howardyezerskigallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Tue.-Sat., 10 am-5:30 pm. •Hannah Barrett: The Secret Society features paintings of photograph composites by the artist. Through Oct. 30. •Dawoud Bey: Pictures, 1975-2007 features photographs by the artist. Nov. 2-Dec. 18.

International Poster Gallery
205 Newbury St., Boston (617-375-0076). www.internationalposter.com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Mon.-Sat., 10 am-6 pm; Sun., 12-6 pm. Baby Boom: Posters from the Fifties and Early Sixties features advertising posters from the postwar era. Through Nov. 18.

Judi Rotenberg Gallery
130 Newbury St., Boston (617-437-1518). www.judirotenberg.com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Tue.-Sat., 10 am-6 pm. But I Digress... features mixed-media works by Anne Beresford. Through Nov. 10.

Judy Goldman Fine Art
14 Newbury St., Boston (617-424-8468). www.judygoldmanfineart.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Mon.-Sat., 10:30 am-5:30 pm and by appointment. Nancy Blum Dangle, Dart and Drift features new botanical drawings by the artist. Through Nov. 24.

Kidder Smith Gallery
131 Newbury St., Boston (617-424-6900). www.kiddersmithgallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Tue.-Sat., 11 am-5:30 pm. On Locations features paintings by Patti Oleon. Through Oct. 27.

Kingston Gallery
37 Thayer St., Boston (617-423-4113). www.kingstongallery.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. Tue.-Sat., 12-5 pm and by appointment. •Remains: Barbara Moody features large drawings by the namesake artist. Through Oct. 27. •Lines of Supply features large drawings by Antoinette Winters. Through Dec. 1. •The Furniture Outside features oil paintings by Joan Baldwin. Oct. 30-Dec. 1.

Laconia Gallery
433 Harrison Ave., Boston (617-670-1568). www.laconiagallery.org. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. Sat., 12-4 pm. Black Tide features video, sound and drawings by Candice Ivy. Through Nov. 17.

Lanoue Fine Art
160 Newbury St., Boston (617-262-4400). www.lanouefineart.com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Mon.-Sat., 10 am-6 pm; Sun., 12-5 pm. A Group Show features national and international mixed-media artists including Emil Alzamora, Lissa Rankin, Carrie McGee, Petria Mitchell and Michael Kessler. Through Nov. 4.

Martha Richardson Fine Art
38 Newbury St., Boston (617-266-3321). www.martharichardsonfineart.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Tue.-Fri., 10 am-5 pm; Sat., 11 am-5 pm. Charles Hovey Pepper Boston Modernist features watercolor and gouache works by the namesake artist. Through November.

Massachusetts College of Art
621 Huntington Ave., Boston (617-879-7333). www.massart.edu. MBTA: E Green Line to Longwood. Mon.-Fri., 10 am-6 pm; Sat., 11 am-5 pm. •Sensacional! Mexican Street Graphics features comic books, flyers and posters capturing Mexico's street culture. Through Dec. 1. •Golden Clogs, Dutch Mountains and In Situ are two exhibits that investigate jewelry and our connections to personal objects. Through Dec. 7.

Mercury Gallery
8 Newbury St., 2nd Floor, Boston (617-859-0054). www.mercurygallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Mon.-Sat., 10 am-5:30 pm and by appointment. A Group Show features ceramics, photographs and paintings by gallery artists. Through Nov. 6.

Mobilia Gallery
358 Huron Ave., Cambridge (617-876-2109). www.mobilia-gallery.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. Tue.-Fri., 11 am-6 pm; Sat., 10 am-5 pm and by appointment. •Baskets as Architecture features a group exhibit of textile, beadwork and basketry work. Through Nov. 13. •Kevin Coates: A Notebook of Pins displays a new collection of pins by Britain's premier goldsmith. Through Nov. 13. •Sarah Perkins: New Work features the artist's works combining metalsmithing and enameling techniques. Nov. 1-30. •The gallery collection features studio jewelry, sculpture, baskets and vessels by various artists.

Montserrat College of Art Gallery
23 Essex St., Beverly (978-921-4242). www.montserrat.edu/galleries. MBTA: Commuter Rail to Beverly. Mon.-Thu., 10 am-5 pm; Fri. 10 am-1 pm. Merging Influence: Eastern Elements in New American Art features mixed-media works linking visual art with cultural history by Ahmed Abdalla, Eung Ho Park, Shiva Ahmadi and others. Through Oct. 27.

MPG Contemporary
450 Harrison Ave., Boston (617-357-8881). www.mpgallery.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. Tue.-Sat., 11 am-5 pm. Rearranging Myths features paintings and sculptures by Tim Kadish. Through Oct. 27.

New Art Center
61 Washington Park, Newtonville (617-964-3424). www.newartcenter.org. MBTA: Commuter Rail to Newtonville. Mon.-Fri., 9 am-5 pm. Sun., 1-5 pm. lief in Paint r features large paint works by T Feidt, John Grillo and Richard B. Lethem. Th Oct. 28.

New England School of Art and Design
75 Arlington St., Boston (617-573-8785). suffolk.edu/nesad/gallery.com. MBTA: Green L Arlington. Mon.-Fri., 9 am-9 pm. Susan N features new paintings by the titular Through Nov. 10.

Nielsen Gallery
179 Newbury St., Boston (617-266-4835). nielsengallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to C Tue.-Sat., 10 am-5:30 pm. Jay Defeo: Appla Black Fact features mixed-media works showc the artist's lifetime achievements. Through Oc

OHT Gallery
450 Harrison Ave., Boston (617-357-8881). ohtgallery.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Tue.-Sat., 11 am-5 pm. Spilled Milk features t and ink-on-canvas works by Nava Lub Through Oct. 27.

OSP Gallery
450 Harrison Ave., Boston (617-778-5265). ospgallery.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Tue.-Sat.,11 am-5 pm. Andrew Masullo fea new paintings by the namesake artist. Th Nov. 24.

Out of the Blue Gallery
106 Prospect St., Cambridge (617-354-5287). outoftheblueartgallery.com. MBTA: Red Line to tral. Daily, 12-6 pm. Meow-La-Ween! feature loween-inspired multi-media works by Debor Priestly, Devon Prevost, Ann H. Block and o Through October.

Pepper Gallery
38 Newbury St., Boston (617-236-4497). peppergalleryboston.com. MBTA: Green Line lington. Tue.-Fri., 10 am-5:30 pm; Sat., 11 am Anne Peretz New Paintings features recent wo the namesake artist. Through Nov. 17.

Pierre Menard Gallery
10 Arrow St., Cambridge (617-868-2033). pierremenardgallery.com. MBTA: Red Line to vard. Wed.-Sun., 11 am-7 pm. Carolee Schnee a Selection of Recent and Early Work features ings, film and multi-media installations by th lar artist. Through Nov. 25.

Proof Gallery
516 East 2nd St., 2nd Floor, Unit 20, South B www.proof-gallery.com. MBTA: Red Line to way. Thu.-Sat., 12-6 pm and by appointment. Benefits features sculptures and mixed-media by Jeff DeGolier. Through Nov. 3.

Pucker Gallery
171 Newbury St., Boston (617-267-9473). puckergallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Sat., 10 am-5:30 pm; Sun., 1-5 pm. •The Deed:The Art of Brother Thomas features c works by the former Benedictine monk. Th Nov. 26. •The permanent collection includes media works by artists from diverse cultures, inc Inuit, South and West African, Israeli, Jap Welsh and American.

Rhys Gallery
401 Harrison Ave., Boston (617-357-7497). rhysgallery.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Mass Wed.-Sun., 11 am-6 pm. •Gabriel & Gilberto + Nick Rodrigues features acrylic-on-canvas w the twin brothers.and photographs by Rod Through Nov. 8.

Robert Klein Gallery
38 Newbury St., Boston (617-267-7997). robertkleingallery.com. MBTA: Green Line lington. Tue.-Fri., 10 am-5:30 pm, Sat., 1 pm. •Didier Massard features paintings of scapes and nature themes by the namesake Through Nov. 23.

Samson Projects
450 Harrison Ave., Boston (617-357-7 www.samsonprojects.com. MBTA: Orange Back Bay. Wed.-Sat., 11 am-5 pm and by a ment. Gabriel Martinez: Self Portraits fe photographs of feet at the moment of s duced climax. Oct. 26-Dec. 8.

Sherman Gallery
775 Comm. Ave., Boston (617-358- www.bu.edu/cfu. MBTA: B Green Line Central. Tues.-Fri., 11 am-5 pm; Sat. and S 5 pm. Corpora Nova features recent painti Nora Lehmann. Oct. 30-Dec. 14.

Society of Arts and Crafts
175 Newbury St., Boston (617-266-1810). societyofcrafts.org. MBTA: Green Line to Mon.-Sat., 10 am-6 pm; Sun., 12-5 pm. A ture/Structure in Contemporary Craft features media works by various artists including Bori and Ruth McDowell. Through Oct. 28.

prafina Gallery
Thayer St., Boston (617-728-0770). www.rafina.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. By ɔintment. •Judith Wolfe Paintings features figura- and landscape pieces by the artist. Through . 27. •New Paintings by Peggy Badenhausen and lpture by Susan Rodgers feature new works by the sts. Nov. 2-Dec. 1.

George Gallery
Newbury St., Boston (617-450-0321). www. rgegallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. .-Sat., 10 am-5:30 pm; Sun., 12-5 pm. Harvest ures paintings depicting autumn locally and ad by Sandra Mueller-Dick, Yvette Stenzel and liam St. George. Through October.

ts University Art Gallery
Talbot Ave., Medford (617-627-3518). www. ufts.edu/gallery. MBTA: Red Line to Davis. Tue.- , 11 am-5 pm.; Thursdays until 8 pm. •The Center osmic Energy features a specially designed am- heater with an audio narrative. Through Nov. 11. bal Village Shelters features full-size, biodegradable es by Daniel Ferrara and Mia Ferrari-Pelosi. ugh Dec. 23.

e Galleries
Newbury St., Boston (617-536-6176). .vosegalleries.com. MBTA: Green Line to Cop- Mon.-Fri., 9:30 am-5:30 pm; Sat., 10 am-5:30 Liz Haywood-Sullivan: Traveling Light features els emphasizing light and shadow. Through 17.

lk Gallery
School of Architecture & Planning, 77 Mass. Ave., bridge (617-258-9106). MBTA: Red Line to all/MIT. Mon.-Fri., 9 am-5 pm. Between Spaces ures installations exploring the relationship een the body and architecture. Through Dec. 21.

hotography

Arsenal Center for the Arts Gallery
Arsenal St., Watertown (617-923-0100). www. ualarts.org. Wed.-Sun., 12-8 pm. In Sights bits the work of photographers David Book- ier, Stephen DiRado, Barry Goldstein and oth- Through Nov. 18.

Gallery Kayafas
450 Harrison Ave., Boston (617-482-0411). www. gallerykayafas.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Tue.-Sat., 10 am-5:30 pm. Thomas J. Gustainis displays the photographs of the namesake artist. Through Nov. 10.

Griffin Museum of Photography
67 Shore Road, Winchester (781-729-1158). www. griffinmuseum.org. MBTA: Commuter Rail to Winchester Center. Tue.-Thu., 11 am-5 pm; Fri., 11 am-4 pm; Sat. and Sun., 12-4 pm. $5. The 13th Griffin Museum Juried Exhibition displays selected winning photographs by artists from across the country. Through Oct. 28.

Judy Goldman Fine Art
14 Newbury St., Boston (617-424-8468). www. judygoldmanfineart.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Mon.-Sat., 10:30 am-5:30 pm and by appointment. Bill Durgin Fashion Refigured features new photographs by the artist. Through Nov. 24.

Larz Anderson Auto Museum
15 Newton St., Brookline (617-522-6547). www. larzanderson.org. MBTA: Orange Line to Forest Hills. Tue.-Sun., 10-5 pm. The Wheels Project exhibits photographs by local photographers focused on wheels-based culture. Through May 10, 2008.

New England School of Photography
537 Comm. Ave., Boston (617-267-8929). www. nesop.com. MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore. Mon.-Fri.; call ahead for hours. Empty Spaces features large-format black-and-white photographs by Paul Wainwright. Through Oct. 26.

Newton Free Library
330 Homer St., Newton (617-796-1360). www.ci. newton.ma.us/library. Mon.-Thu., 9 am-9 pm; Fri., 9 am-6 pm; Sat., 9 am-5 pm; Sun., 12-5 pm. Free. Sueños: Dreams, Visions of Cuba features photographs from Emily Corboto's 2006 trip to Cuba. Through Oct. 30.

Panopticon Gallery Boston
502 Comm. Ave., Boston (617-437-1868). www. panopt.com. MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore. Tue.-Sat. 11 am-6 pm and by appointment. •Eyes on the Past shows images from the Collection of Historic New England. Through Nov. 5. •Panoramic Photographs features images of Boston and New York City by John Woolf. Through Nov. 5.

gay & lesbian

Advice to Contributors
Submit information, including telephone numbers and nearest MBTA stop, by fax (617-859-1446) or mail, or e-mail gaylesbian@improper.com.

Clubs, Bars & Hangouts

The Alley (Daily)
14 Pi Alley, 275 Washington St., Boston (617-263-1449). www.thealleybar.com. MBTA: Blue or Green Line to Gov. Center. Mon.-Fri., 2 pm-2 am; Sat. and Sun., 12 pm-2 am. No cover. 21+. Boston's leather-and-Levis neighborhood bar offers pool, pinball, a jukebox and video games.

Avalon (Sundays)
15 Lansdowne St., Boston (617-262-2424). MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore. 10 pm. $10. 21+. Sunday-night parties include drag acts and house music from resident DJ Rich Ladue.

Axis (Mondays)
13 Lansdowne St., Boston (617-262-2424). MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore. 10 pm. $7. 21+. Static Mondays features a drag show hosted by Ms. Kris Knievil on the last Monday of each month, and DJ Susan Esthera spins vocal house weekly. .

Breezeway Bar & Grill (Fridays)
153 Blue Hill Ave., Roxbury (617-541-5400). www.breezewayboston.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Ruggles. 10 pm. $10. This night features Urban Lesbian Night, with DJs spinning hip-hop, reggae and Top 40 hits.

Buzz @ Aria (Saturdays)
246 Tremont St., Boston (617-267-8969). www.buzzboston.com. MBTA: Green Line to Boylston or Orange Line to NE Medical Center. 10 pm. $10. 21+. At this weekly party, DJ Michael Sheehan spins trance and house music in the front room, while DJ Mary Alice spins hip-hop in the back of the house.

Club Café (Daily)
209 Columbus Ave., Boston (617-536-0966). www.clubcafe.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington or Orange Line to Back Bay. Wed.-Sat., 11:30 pm-2 am; Sat.,12 pm-2 am; Sun., 10:30 pm-2 am. No cover. 21+. This South End spot offers dining and unobtrusive music in the front room and video entertainment in the back. •Wed., 9:30 pm-2 am: Karaoke. •Thu.-Sat., 9:30 pm-2 am: Live VJ's spin music and comedy videos. •Sun., 4-11 pm: T-Dance with DJ Greg Aga.

Eagle (Daily)
520 Tremont St., Boston (617-542-4494). MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. No cover. 21+. This neighborhood cruise bar is open nightly.

Fran's Place (Tuesdays)
776 Washington St., Lynn (781-598-5618). www.gofrans.com. MBTA: Commuter Rail to Lynn. 9 pm. No cover. Each Tuesday, Fran's hosts live music from local bands followed by karaoke 10 pm-1:30 am.

Fritz (Daily)
26 Chandler St., Boston (617-482-4428). www.fritzboston.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. Mon.-Sat., 12 pm-2 am; Sun., 11 am-2 am. This gay sports bar, with six large-screen plasma TVs, serves brunch Saturday, Sunday and on Monday holidays.

Jacques Cabaret (Daily)
79 Broadway, Boston (617-426-8902). MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Mon.-Sat., 11 am-12 am; Sun., 12 pm-12 am. $6, weekdays; $10, weekends. 21+. Patrons mingle with dancing drag queens. •Mon.: First Monday of each month is TraniWreck; second Monday is Eleganza, a rock ensemble; third Monday is Wreckage, TraniWreck's Contest Show; fourth Monday is Fire and Ice Revue. •Tue.: Karaoke. •Wed.: Delightful Divas with Melinda Wilson. •Thu.: Jacques Angels with Ms. Kris Knievil. •Fri. and Sat.: Miss Norelle's Leading Ladies and live music. •Sun.: An Evening of Mizery: Amateur Talent Night.

Machine (Sundays, Tuesdays, Fridays, Saturdays)
1254 Boylston St., Boston (617-536-1950). www.ramrodmachine.com. MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore. •Sun., 10 pm-2 am, 21+: Service Industry Night. •Tue., 10 pm-2 am, $10, 21+: Indigo Tuesdays featuring hip-hop and dance with DJ Sun One, as well as go-go boys and a drag show. •Fri., 10 pm-2 am, $8, 21+: Best Night Out, featuring deep house music. •Sat., 10 pm-2 am, $8, 21+: Anthem with diva house music.

Midway Café (Thursdays)
3496 Washington St., Jamaica Plain (617-524-9038). www.midwaycafe.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Green. 9 pm-2 am. $2. 21+. Ladies Night with DJ Summer's Eve features occasional Queer-a-Oke performances.

Paradise (Daily)
180 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-868-3000). www.paradisecambridge.com. MBTA: Red Line to Central. Sun.-Wed., 7 pm-1 am; Thu.-Sat., 7 pm-2 am. No cover. 21+. Male strippers perform every night, and DJs spin Top 40 beats every Thursday through Saturday.

Ramrod (Daily)
1254 Boylston St., Boston (617-266-2986). MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore. 12 pm-2 am. Billed as the largest leather bar on the East Coast, Ramrod enforces a strict dress code (leather is mandatory for the back room on weekends). •Mon.: Pool, dart tournaments and pizza. •Wed.: Twitch 4.0 with DJ Mac. •Thu.: Mandance with DJ Jason Taylor. •Fri.: Bound to Please with DJ Danae Jacovidis. •Sat.: Leather Cruise with DJ Freespace. •Sun.: Service Industry Night.

Rise (Saturdays)
306 Stuart St., Boston (617-423-7473). www.riseclub.us. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. 1:30-6:30 am. $10, members; $20, guests. This members-only club is predominantly gay on Saturdays. Storm Saturdays feature resident DJs Billy Carroll, Chad Jack, Gilles Massicotte, Joe Gauthreaux and Mark Anthony upstairs, with David McNeary spinning downstairs.

Rumor (Sundays)
100 Warrenton St., Boston (617-338-8061). www.rumorboston.com. MBTA: Green Line to Boylston. Sun., 7-11 pm. $8. Sunday Power T-Dance, sponsored by Gay Mafia Boston, features local DJs spinning house and Top 40.

Saint (Tuesdays)
90 Exeter St., Boston (617-236-1134). www.saintnitery.com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Tue., 10 pm-2 am. Gay Mafia hosts Flaunt Tuesdays at Saint, where DJ Ranny spins house and Top 40 remixes. Bacardi drink samples are free to the first 100 guests.

Shine (Fridays)
1 Kendall Square, Building 300, Cambridge (617-621-9500). www.shinecambridge.com. MBTA: Red Line to Kendall/MIT. 10 pm. DJ Dena spins a blend of Top 40, hip-hop and house.

Switch (Sundays)
711 Boylston St., Boston (617-236-1777). www.myspace.com/diamondsundays. MBTA: Green Line to Boylston. 10 pm-2 am. 21+. Weekly party produced by Berman & the Famous Diamond Dunhill, featuring celebrity bartenders, queens and more. Sushi served till 12 am.

Toast (Fridays)
70 Union Square, Somerville (617-623-9211). www.toastlounge.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Oak Grove. 21+. •Fri: Dyke Night Productions hosts a lesbian dance party with rotating DJs and special events, 9 pm-2 am.

Tribe at Felt (Thursdays)
Felt, 533 Washington St., 4th floor, Boston (617-350-5555). www.tribenightclub.com. MBTA: Red or Orange Line to Downtown Crossing. 9:30 pm-2 am. $5. 21+. DJ Jim from KISS 108 spins hip-hop and Top 40 on Felt's fourth floor at this weekly lesbian night.

Venu (Wednesdays)
100 Warrenton St., Boston (617-695-9500). www.chapsboston.com. MBTA: Green Line to Boylston. 10 pm. $8. 21+. Wednesday is Latino night with DJ Adilson, complete with go-go boys and drag shows.

Shows and Events

Michele Balan
Club Café, 209 Columbus Ave., Boston (617-536-0966). www.dykenight.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington or Orange Line to Back Bay. Nov. 1, 7 pm. $20. Michele Balan, star of NBC's Last Comic Standing (Season 4), performs a night of stand-up.

LAFFAN Halloween Dance
Best Western Hotel, 380 Winter St., Waltham (781-890-7800). Oct. 27, 8 pm-12 am. $15-$20. Lesbians Available for Fun and Networking (LAFFAN) hosts its annual Halloween party featuring prizes for best costume and music from DJ Kristin Korpos. For more information, email LAFFAN_boston2004@yahoo.com.

Last Comic Standing's Michele Balan performs at Club Café Nov. 1.

Out on the Edge Festival
Calderwood Pavilion, Boston Center for the Arts, 539 Tremont St., Boston (617-933-8600). www.theateroffensive.org. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. Through Nov. 10. See Web site for full schedule and times. $10-$50. •Oedipus at Palm Springs (Oct. 25-28): This modern take on the classic tale follows the drunken escapades of lesbian couples at a Palm Springs resort. •Paved Paradise: The Songs of Joni Mitchell (Nov. 1-4): John Kelly stars in this visual and musical tribute to Joni Mitchell. • Out of the Box: Twisted Tales (Nov. 2 and 3): Local drag king troop All the King's Men presents its latest act.

Ongoing

Bagly
St. John the Evangelist Church, 35 Bowdoin St., Boston (617-227-4313). www.bagly.org. MBTA: Red or Green Line to Park. Wed., 5-9 pm. The Boston Alliance of Gay, Lesbian, Bisexual and Transgender Youth hosts weekly meetings and social events for young people seeking community, support and a place to discuss relevant issues.

Beantown North G/L Bowling League
Lanes & Games, 195 Concord Turnpike, Cambridge (617-876-5533). www.beantownbowling.com. MBTA: Red Line to Alewife. Tue., 8:30 pm. This bowling league for gays and lesbians meets weekly.

Beantown Soft-Tip Dart League
The Alley, 14 Pi Alley, 275 Washington St., Boston (617-263-1449). MBTA: Blue or Green Line to Gov. Center. Fritz, 26 Chandler St., Boston (617-482-4428). MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. www.bsdl.org. Mon., 8:30 pm. $12 for the season. This dart league hosts weekly 301, 601 and cricket matches at the Alley and Fritz.

Beantown South G/L Bowling League
Boston Bowl, 820 Morrissey Blvd., Dorchester (617-889-1552). www.beantownbowling.com. MBTA: Red Line to Shawmut. Wed., 7 pm. This weekly bowling league for gays and lesbians meets on Wednesdays.

Bi Focus
(617-697-9244). MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Wed., 7 pm. Bisexual men and women discuss books, videos and other topics of interest.

Bi Rap
Cambridge Women's Center, 46 Pleasant St., Cambridge (617-354-8807). MBTA: Red Line to Central. First Tue. of each month, 7:30 pm. This discussion group provides support and information for women who are bisexual or are questioning their sexuality.

Boston Bears Barnight
The Alley, 275 Washington St., Boston (617-263-1449). http://bostonbears.us. MBTA: Blue or Green Line to Gov. Center. 9:30 pm-2 am. Free. This club meets the first and third Saturdays of each month and holds a happy hour every Friday from 5:30 to 7:30 pm.

Boston Boasts Squash
Central YMCA, 316 Huntington Ave., Boston (617-536-0316). www.bostonboasts.com. Tue., 7-9 pm; Sat., 10 am-12 pm. This squash league is comp of gay and lesbian players and their friends.

Boston Gay Basketball League
(617-937-5858). www.bgbl.com. This baske league offers a full regular season and playoff sc ule each year. E-mail info@bgbl.com for details.

Boston Lesbian Avengers
Despina's Place, 47 Mass. Ave., Boston. www.le avengers.org. Mon., 7-8 pm. This bisexual-transsexual-friendly direct-action political grou cuses on issues affecting lesbians.

Boston Prime Timers
United South End Settlements, 566 Columbus A Boston (617-447-2344). www.primetimersww boston. Third Sat. of each month, 3:30-5:30 pm. This network of more than 300 gay and bise men, and their friends, meets once a month.

Boston Uncommons
Epiphany School, 154 Centre St., Dorchester (288-8816). www.lcfd.org/bu. MBTA: Red Li Shawmut. This gay and lesbian square-dan group meets Sundays from 4-7 pm.

Boston's Gay and Bisexual Married Men's Support Group
Boston Living Center, 29 Stanhope St., Boston (316-1985). http://world.std.com/~ewk. First third Mon., second and fourth Tue. of each mon 9 pm. This group meets to discuss marriage divorce.

BRC Board Meeting
Bisexual Resource Center, 29 Stanhope St., B (617-424-9595). MBTA: Orange Line to Back Second Wed. of each month, 7 pm. This mo gathering of the BRC board in the Back Bay is to the public.

Coming Out as Bisexual
Boston's Bisexual Resource Center at the Boston ing Center, 29 Stanhope St., Boston (617- 9595). www.biresource.org. MBTA: Orange L Back Bay. First Wed. and third Thu. of each m 7 pm. Free. An informal group for people think they may be bisexual or are attracte members of both sexes.

Coming Out Support Group for Ad
Meetings are in Coolidge Corner, Brookline (482-2166). Thu., 7-8:15 pm. This group of confidential place for men and women wh looking for a safe space to discuss issues of s identity.

Compass
(781-899-2212). Compass is a New England support and social group for people assigned fe at birth, but who feel the designation isn't an rate or a complete description of their gender. group meets monthly at locations around New land. E-mail compassftm@usa.com for details.

Downtown Auxiliary League
http://groups.yahoo.com/group/downtownaux league. The DAL is group of gay Down Boston/Financial District professionals who g gether monthly for casual afterwork happy h

Fenway Community Health
7 Haviland St., Boston (617-267-0900). fenwayhealth.org. MBTA: Green Line to H
Fenway Community Health offers an array o vices for the LGBT community, from discus about parenting and safe-sex practices to grams addressing domestic violence and subs abuse.

GayLab
www.gaylab.org. This experiment in devel healthy gay relationships features alternativ meeting and dating, communication game mixers for area singles. E-mail info@gaylab.o details.

Gays for Patsy
(617-412-5751). www.gaysforpatsy.org. This try-western dancing club, featuring two- swing and line dancing, holds events tw month. Beginners welcome; no partner ne Call for details.

GBBC North Shore Group
Bugaboo Creek Steak House, Route 114, Pe (781-593-0386). www.gbbc.org. Third Wed. o month. MBTA: Commuter Rail to Lynn. F attend, lunch cost varies. The Greater B Business Council invites GLBT professi to connect with the GLBT business comm over lunch.

GBBC 128 Group
Naked Fish, 455 Totten Pond Road, Waltham 777-6500, ext. 112). www.gbbc.org. Fourth T each month. Free to attend, lunch cost varies. C professionals connect with the GLBT bus community over lunch.

Gender Crash
Spontaneous Celebrations, 45 Danforth St., J ca Plain (617-524-6373). www.gendercrash.

TA: Orange Line to Stony Brook. Second Thu. of month, 7:30 pm. $5-$10. Members of the 3T community are invited to share poetry, se and performance pieces at this open-e event.

FFAN

ians Available for Fun and Networking is a so-and networking group that connects local nen and sponsors dances and benefits. E-mail laf-boston2004@yahoo.com for details.

nday Night
wling League

n Bowl, 820 Morrissey Blvd., Dorchester (617-1552). www.mnbl.net. Mon., 7:30 pm. The 3L's bowling season runs weekly.

Neighborhood

Midway Café, 3496 Washington St., Jamailain (617-524-9038). www.midwaycafe.com.
A: Orange Line to Green. Second Sat. of each h, 9 pm. $5. 21+. A welcoming space for the osexual and transgender community featuring DJs and bands.

vly Diagnosed Group

Health Peer Support Services, 25 West St., Boston
-457-8142, ext. 329). MBTA: Red or Orange to Downtown Crossing. First and third Mon. of month, 7:30-9 pm. Free. This group supports gay and bisexual men who've been diagnosed HIV during the last two years.

to Dance

Roxbury School of Dance, 29 Corey St. West
ury (617-363-0029). www.outtodance.com. Out Dance offers a variety of swing, Latin allroom dance classes in a gay-friendly envient.

TwentySomethings Boston

ysomethingsboston-subscribe@yahoogroups.com.
social and peer support group is for lesbian, gay, ual, transgender and questioning members of ommunity, as well as their straight allies in 20s and early 30s.

Social

shine Room at Club Café, 209 Columbus Ave., n (617-457-8142, ext. 326). MBTA: Orange o Back Bay. Second Mon. of each month, 6-11
ree. This monthly evening of raffles, food, and drink benefits those affected by AIDS.

POZ 30s Plus

JRI Health Peer Support Services, 132 Boylston St., Boston (617-457-8142, ext. 314). MBTA: Red or Green Line to Park. Wed., 7-9 pm. This social group supports HIV-positive gay and bisexual men ages 30 and over. E-mail hyee@jri.org for details.

POZ 20s

JRI Health, 25 West St., Boston (617-457-8142, ext. 329). MBTA: Red or Orange Line to Downtown Crossing. Thu., 7:30-9 pm. This social group offers support for HIV-positive gay and bisexual men in their 20s.

The Rainbow Café

rainbowboston-subscribe@yahoogroups.com. The Rainbow Café, a social lesbian group, meets biweekly in gay-owned or gay-friendly establishments around the Boston area.

Slice of Rice

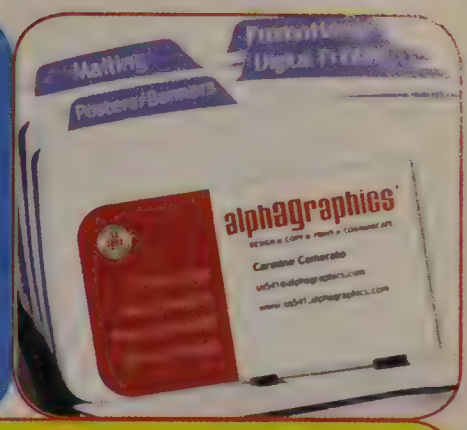
Boston Glass, 93 Mass. Ave., Boston (617-266-3349). MBTA: Green Line to Hynes. Wed., 6-7 pm. This peer-run queer Asian youth group for those under 25 meets for mutual support. E-mail sungyun@chickmail.com for details.

Somos Latin@s LGBT Coalition

www.somoslatinoslgbt.org. A social and networking group for LGBT Latinos and Latinas around Boston, Somos Latin@s hosts Viernes Sociales (Social Fridays) every month. E-mail somoslatinoslgbt@hotmail.com for details.

Stonewall Communities Lifelong Learning Institute

Wheelock College, 43 Hawes St., Brookline (617-369-9090). MBTA: C Green Line to Cleveland Circle. Stonewall Communities teams up with Wheelock College for eight-week courses that feature events, workshops and lunch speakers for older GLBT people and their friends.



Under the Radar

(617-851-7911). www.radarboston.com. Under the Radar, Boston's gay, all-male contemporary a cappella group, is always auditioning prospective members. E-mail info@radarboston.com for details.

Wonder Women Boston

http://groups.yahoo.com/wonder_women_boston. Second Fri. of each month. This local social group includes lesbian and bisexual women in their 20s and 30s.

AlphaGraphics... one source for all your printing and visual communications needs.

Mention this ad and receive 10% off*.
*some restrictions apply, see store for details.

alphagraphics®
DESIGN ■ COPY ■ PRINT ▶ COMMUNICATE

74 Canal Street
Boston, MA 02114
617.742.9587 • 617.742.9584
Order online at:
▶ www.us541.alphagraphics.com

I'm a SUBSCRIBER

Don't get stranded.
Subscribe to THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN,
Boston's guide to entertainment and culture—
it's worth more than a million dollars.
Only $14.95 for 25 issues!
617-859-1400
or subscribe online @ www.improper.com

You can't read just one.

THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN MAGAZINE

books & poetry

Advice to Contributors
Submit listings by fax (617-859-1446); mail to Calendar: Books and Poetry; or e-mail information to books@improper.com. Deadline is four weeks prior to publication.

Readings & Signings

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 24

Brookline Booksmith
279 Harvard St., Brookline (617-566-6660). www.brooklinebooksmith.com. MBTA: C Green Line to Coolidge Corner. 6 pm. $5. Reporter Chris Matthews reads from Life's a Campaign, which profiles the country's most successful politicians and offers tips and tactics for personal success.

Cantab Lounge
738 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-354-2685). www.slamnews.com. MBTA: Red Line to Central. 10 pm. $3. Grand Slam winner Laura Moran performs selections from her collection of poems, Live Bait.

Harvard Book Store Events
First Parish Church Meetinghouse, 3 Church St., Cambridge (617-661-1515). www.harvard.com/events. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard.
•7 pm. Free. Bill Bryson reads from The Life and Times of the Thunderbolt Kid, a memoir about his childhood in the Midwest.
•7:30 pm. Free. Laurence Bergreen reads from Marco Polo: From Venice to Xanadu, a biography of the explorer that separates fact from fiction.

Harvard Coop
1400 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-499-2000). www.harvard.bkstore.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 7 pm. Free. Zachary Kanin discusses The Short Book: Tall Stories, Freakish Facts and the Long and Short of Being Small in a Great Big World, a comedic look at what it's like being short.

Porter Square Books
25 White St., Cambridge (617-491-2220). www.portersquarebooks.com. MBTA: Red Line to Porter. 7 pm. Free. Jay Atkinson presents City in Amber, a story about the transformation of former industrial city Lawrence, Mass.

Wellesley Booksmith
82 Central St., Wellesley (781-431-1160). www.wellesleybooksmith.com. MBTA: Commuter Rail to Wellesley. 7 pm. Free. Clare Dunsford presents Spelling Love With an X, her memoir about raising her son, who has Fragile X Syndrome.

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 25

Harvard Book Store Event
Brattle Theater, 40 Brattle St., Cambridge (617-661-1515). www.harvard.com/events/. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 6 pm. $5. Janet Malcolm reads from Two Lives: Gertrude and Alice, her biography of the tumultuous lives of writer Gertrude Stein and her partner, Alice B. Toklas.

Harvard Coop
1400 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-499-2000). www.harvard.bkstore.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 7 pm. Free. Lenore Terr discusses her book, Magical Moments of Change: How Psychotherapy Turns Kids Around, which includes various stories about children facing traumatic issues.

MIT
Room 6-120, 77 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-253-7894). http://web.mit.edu/arts. MBTA: Red Line to Kendall/MIT. 7 pm. Free. Valerie Boyd reads from Wrapped in Rainbows: The Life of Zora Neale Hurston, her biography of the folklorist and author.

Newtonville Books
296 Walnut St., Newton (617-244-6619). www.newtonvillebooks.com. MBTA: Commuter Rail to Newtonville. 7 pm. Free. Steve Almond discusses his book (Not That You Asked): Rants, Exploits and Obsessions, a collection of essays ranging from past sexual failures to new ventures in fatherhood. Margo Rabb also discusses her book, Cures for Heartbreak, about a young woman's challenge coping with her mother's death and father's sickness.

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 26

Borders Back Bay
511 Boylston St., Boston (617-236-1444). www.bordersstores.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. 6 pm. Free. Harry Shearer discusses Not Enough Indians, a farcical novel about a tribe that opens a casino.

Harvard Book Store
1256 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-661-1515). www.harvard.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 2 pm. Free. Stacy Cordery discusses Alice: Alice Roosevelt Longworth, From the White House Princess to Washington Power Broker, a biography about Theodore Roosevelt's oldest daughter.

SUNDAY, OCTOBER 28

Borders Braintree
255 Grossman Ave., Braintree (781-356-5111). www.bordersstores.com. MBTA: Red Line to Braintree. 2 pm. Free. Jon Keller discusses his book The Bluest State: How Democrats Created the Massachusetts Blueprint for American Political Disaster, about the state's obsession with politics and how it's perceived by the rest of the country.

MONDAY, OCTOBER 29

Barnes & Noble Boston University
660 Beacon St., Boston (617-267-8484). www.bu.bkstore.com. MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore. 7 pm. Free. Ben Mezrich reads from Rigged: The True Story of an Ivy League Kid Who Changed the World of Oil, From Wall Street to Dubai, about a young man from Brooklyn who conquers the stock market.

Blacksmith House Poetry Series
56 Brattle St., Boston (617-547-6789). www.ccae.org. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 8 pm. $3. John Skoyles reads from his poetry collection, The Situation.

Borders Downtown
10-24 School St., Boston (617-557-7188). www.bordersstores.com. MBTA: Orange or Red Line to Downtown Crossing. 1 pm. Free. Sally Bedell Smith discusses her book For Love of Politics: Bill and Hillary Clinton, the White House Years, which explores the power couple's relationship.

Brookline Booksmith
279 Harvard St., Brookline (617-566-6660). www.brooklinebooksmith.com. MBTA: C Green Line to Coolidge Corner. 7 pm. Free. Joe Hill reads from 20th-Century Ghosts, a collection of short stories about ghosts from the past century.

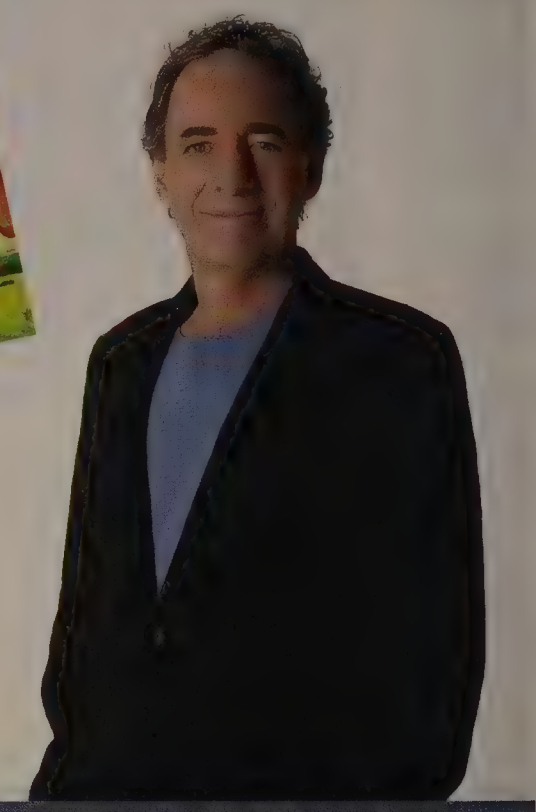
Harvard Bookstore Event
First Parish Church Meetinghouse, 3 Church St., Cambridge (617 661-1515). www.harvard.com/events. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 7:30 pm. Free. John J. Mearsheimer and Stephen M. Walt discuss their book The Israel Lobby and U.S. Foreign Policy, a controversial critique of the Israel lobby's influence on U.S. foreign affairs.

Newton Free Library
330 Homer St., Newton (617-796-1360). www.ci.newton.ma.us/library. MBTA: D Green Line to Newton Highlands. 7 pm. Free. Sally Bedell Smith discusses For Love of Politics: Bill and Hillary Clinton, the White House Years. See Oct. 29 Borders Downtown listing.

Porter Square Books
25 White St., Cambridge (617-491-2220). www.portersquarebooks.com. MBTA: Red Line to Porter. 7 pm. Free. Chris Adrian presents his book The Children's Hospital, about the inhabitants of a floating hospital spared after the Earth floods.

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 30

Barnes & Noble Boston University
660 Beacon St., Boston (617-267-8484). www.bu.bkstore.com. MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore. 7 pm. Free. Ha Jin reads from his novel, A Free Life, about a grad school dropout who struggles to find meaning in life while trying to support his wife and child.



Borders Back Bay
511 Boylston St., Boston (617-236-1444). www.bordersstores.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. 6 pm. Free. Emerson Baker reads from The Devil of Great Island: Witchcraft and Conflict in Early New England, his historical account of the decade before the Salem witch trials.

Boston Public Library
Rabb Lecture Hall, 700 Boylston St., Boston (617-536-5400). www.bpl.org. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. 6 pm. Free. Salman Rushdie discusses his nonfiction book, Public Events, Private Lives: Literature and Politics in the Modern World, about his experiences with modern terrorism.

Harvard Book Store Event
Brattle Theater, 40 Brattle St., Cambridge (617-661-1515). www.harvard.com/events/. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 6 pm. $5. Frank Warren reads from his book A Lifetime of Secrets: A PostSecret Book, a collection of postcards people have sent him detailing their deepest secrets.

Newton Free Library
330 Homer St., Newton (617-796-1360). www.ci.newton.ma.us/library. MBTA: D Green Line to Newton Highlands. 7 pm. Free. David L. Post discusses his novel, Nothing to See Here, about a psychiatrist who can't gain control of his life.

Porter Square Books
25 White St., Cambridge (617-491-2220). www.portersquarebooks.com. MBTA: Red Line to Porter. 7 pm. Free. Wendy Williams discusses Cape Wind: Money, Celebrity, Class, Politics and the Battle for Our Energy Future on Nantucket Sound, about the fight to build wind farms near valuable vacation land.

Harry Shearer appears at Borders Back Bay Oct. 26

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 31

Barnes & Noble Boston University
660 Beacon St., Boston (617-267-8484). www.bu.bkstore.com. MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore. 7 pm. Free. John O'Hurley reads and signs his comedic book, Before Your Dog Can Eat Your Homework, First You Have to Do It: Life Lessons from a Wise Old Dog to a Young Boy.

Harvard Book Store
1256 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-661-1515). www.harvard.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 7 pm. Free. J. Craig Venter discusses A Life Decoded: My Genome, My Life, his autobiography which details his role in sequencing the human genome.

Porter Square Books
25 White St., Cambridge (617-491-2220). www.portersquarebooks.com. MBTA: Red Line to Porter. 7 pm. Free. Josh Swiller discusses The Unheard: A Memoir of Deafness and Africa, about his experiences as a deaf man working for the Peace Corps.

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 1

Barnes & Noble Boston University
660 Beacon St., Boston (617-267-8484). www.bu.bkstore.com. MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore.
•4 pm. Free. WWE wrestler Chris Jerico signs his memoir, A Lion's Tale: Around the World in Spandex.
•7 pm. Free. AJ Jacobs reads from his nonfiction book, The Year of Living Biblically, about his year-long quest to follow all the rules in the Bible, including growing a beard and stoning adulterers.

Borders Back Bay
511 Boylston St., Boston (617-236-1444). www.bordersstores.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. 6 pm. Free. James Macomber discusses his book, A Grave Breach, about a man who's forced to defend a war criminal and struggle with legal and ethical issues.

Borders Downtown
10-24 School St., Boston (617-557-7188). www.bordersstores.com. MBTA: Orange or Red Line to Downtown Crossing. 1 pm. Free. Suzanne Berman discusses her novel, All Through the Night: A Troubleshooter Christmas, about two men attempting to get married while hindered by reporter stalkers.

Brookline Booksmith Event
The Devotion School, 345 Harvard St., Brookline (617-566-6660). www.brooklinebooksmith.com. MBTA: C Green Line to Coolidge Corner. 7 pm. Free. Medrich reads from her cookbook, Pure Dessert: Flavors, Inspiring Ingredients and Simple Recipes, gives tips on how to make simple desserts with a

Center for New Words Event
Simmons College, Linda K. Paresky Conference Center, 300 the Fenway, Boston (617-876-5310). centerfornewwords.org. MBTA: Green Line to Museum. 7 Free. Anthropologist and a Karolyn Smardz Frost from I've Got a Home in Land: A Lost Tale of the Underground Railroad, a previously told story about a married c who inspired the first race r Detroit and made Cana refuge for slaves.

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 2

Harvard Coop
1400 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-499-2000). www.harvard.bkstore.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 7 pm. Free. David A man discusses his nonfi work, A Shattered Peace: Ver 1919 and the Price We Pay T about the failed attempt at after World War I.

Symphony Hall
301 Mass. Ave., Boston (617 2378). www.bostonsymphon org. MBTA: E Green Line to phony. 8 pm. $27-$48. Dav daris reads from his collecti comic essays.

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 5

Blacksmith House Poetry Series
56 Brattle St., Boston (617 6789). www.ccae.org. MBTA Line to Harvard. 8 pm. $3. Kumin reads from her poetry collection, Still to Poet Jeff Friedman also performs.

Brookline Booksmith
290 Harvard St., Brookline (617-566-6660). brooklinebooksmith.com. MBTA: C Green L Coolidge Corner. 6 pm. $5. In celebration of th anniversary of The Red Tent, author Anita Di and guest Stephen McCauley discuss the themes and its status as a modern classic.

Harvard Coop
1400 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-499-2000). harvard.bkstore.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harv pm. Free. Lawrence Hill reads and signs his Someone Knows My Name, which follows a slave as she struggles to retain her freedom.

MIT
Room 6-120, 77 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (61 5629). http://web.mit.edu/arts. MBTA: Red Kendall/MIT. 6:30 pm. Free. Vikram Chandra from Sacred Games, a novel about an Indian inspector.

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 6

Brookline Booksmith
279 Harvard St., Brookline (617-566-6660). brooklinebooksmith.com. MBTA: C Green L Coolidge Corner. 7 pm. Free. Stewart O'Na cusses Last Night at the Lobster, about a Red L restaurant slated to close and the manage won't give up hope.

MIT
Killian Hall, 160 Memorial Drive, Cambridge 253-7894). http://web.mit.edu/arts. MBTA: R to Kendall/MIT. 6 pm. Free. Valerie Boyd reac Wrapped in Rainbows: The Life of Zora Neale H See Oct. 25 MIT listing.

Newtonville Books
296 Walnut St., Newton (617-244-6619). newtonvillebooks.com. MBTA: Commuter Newtonville. 7 pm. Free. Michael Knight dis his novel, The Holiday Season, a story which f one man's quest to bring his father and broth gether for the holidays.

ducation

vice to Contributors
mit updated information by mail or fax (617-859-6); to Calendar: Education; or e-mail information ducation@improper.com. Include a brief but ough description of the event, including time, date, tion, directions, cost and contact information. dline is four weeks prior to publication. Listings ot be accepted by phone.

DNESDAY, OCTOBER 24

fling the Crisis in Darfur and rthern Uganda on College, Robsham Theater, Chestnut Hill ?-552-1968). www.bc.edu. MBTA: B Green to BC. 7:30 pm. Free. Leading human rights vist John Prendergast discusses the Darfur lict and his various trips to Sudan, where he ged in dialogue with rebel group leaders.

Evening With Contemporary nese Ink Painters
eum of Fine Arts, Riley Seminar Room, 465 tington Ave., Boston (617-369-3300). www. org. MBTA: E Green Line to MFA or Orange to Ruggles. 6 pm. Free with admission. Join two hina's most talented ink painters, Qiu Ting Li Jin, as they introduce their work and pro- a demonstration on technique.

fessional and Executive ersity Job Fair iott Copley Place Hotel, 110 Hungtington Ave., n (617-252-4158). www.psijobfair.com/boston. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay or Green Line to y. 10 am. Meet with recruiters and hiring man- from more than 40 companies.

URSDAY, OCTOBER 25

king for Meaning in temporary Art lla Stewart Gardner Museum, 280 The Fenway, m (617-566-1401). www.gardnermuseum.org. A: E Green Line to MFA. 6:30 pm. $7. Philip wine, former education director at the Mu- of Modern Art in New York, discusses how terpret contemporary art.

Writers Series: Valerie Boyd
Women's Studies Research Center, 77 Mass., Cambridge (617-253-7894). www.mit.edu. A: Red Line to Kendall/MIT. 7 pm. Free. Va- Boyd reads from her book, Wrapped in Rain- The Life of Zora Neale Hurston.

DAY, OCTOBER 26

ch Dream
ute of Contemporary Art, 955 Boylston St., n (617-266-5152). www.icaboston.org. 7 pm. neral admission; $7, members, seniors and stu- The ICA screens the comedic film Czech m, about the Czech Republic's largest con- hoax, which involved the construction of a e-only "hypermarket."

go! Dance the World Around: bal Transformations of Latin- erican Culture
iffe Institute for Advanced Study, Agassiz er, 10 Garden St., Cambridge (617-495- . www.radcliffe.edu. 2 pm. MBTA: Red Line rvard. Free. Registration required. This confer- examines the dance and music of the tango, 's political and cultural place in Latin Amer- d the world.

URDAY, OCTOBER 27

nents of Destiny: Two turies of Russian-American omatic Relations chusetts Historical Society, 1154 Boylston St., n (617-646-0508). www.masshist.org. 1 pm. through Oct. 31. MBTA: Green Line to . Free. This exhibition features letters and nents detailing relations between Russia and .S. over the last two centuries. Items on dis- include John Quincy Adams' diary as a diplo- to Russia and 1963's Limited Nuclear Test reaty in Moscow.

go! Dance the World Around: bal Transformations of Latin- erican Culture
iffe Institute for Advanced Study, Agassiz er, 10 Garden St., Cambridge (617-495- . www.radcliffe.edu. 2 pm. MBTA: Red Line rvard. Free. Registration required. This confer- examines the dance and music of the tango, s political and cultural place in Latin Amer- d the world.

MONDAY, OCTOBER 29

The Jewishness of Jesus: Rebbe Leib Soreh and His Mysterious Powers
Boston University, George Sherman Union Metcalf Hall, 775 Comm. Ave., Boston (617-353-2238). www.bu.edu. MBTA: B Green Line to BU Central. 7 pm. Free. Holocaust survivor and BU religion professor Elie Wiesel discusses one of the most charismatic leaders in 18th- and 19th-century European Judaism.

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 30

Ordinary Women, Extraordinary Lives: Evelina Merova
Brandeis University, Epstein Lecture Hall, 415 South St., Waltham (617-736-8100). www.brandeis.edu. 12:30 pm. Free. Ludmila Shtern discusses the heroine of her book, Ordinary Women, Extraordinary Lives. It tells the story of a young girl from Prague whose family died in the gas chambers, chronicling the harrowing experiences that she endured.

Voices of Jazz With Fred Bouchard
Jonathon Alsop's Boston Wine School, 1354 Comm. Ave., Boston (617-784-7150). MBTA: B Green Line to Griggs. www.bostonwineschool.com. 6:30 pm. $75. Join Fred Bouchard, a wine writer and instructor at Berklee College of Music, as he pairs wine and jazz.

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 1

Colum McCann
Boston College, Connolly House, Chestnut Hill (617-552-3938). www.bc.edu. MBTA: B Green Line to BC. 7:30 pm. Free. Join Colum McCann as he reads from his novel Zoli. McCann was nominated in 2005 for an Oscar for his short film Everything in This Country Must and was named Esquire's Writer of the Year in 2003.

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 2

ABCD Community Awards Dinner
Marriott Copley Place Hotel, 110 Hungtington Ave., Boston (617-348-6236). www.bostonabcd.org. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay or Green Line to Copley. 6 pm, VIP; 7 pm, general seating. $200. This annual dinner honors 19 volunteers for their community service. U.S. senator Sherrod Brown of Ohio is the featured speaker.

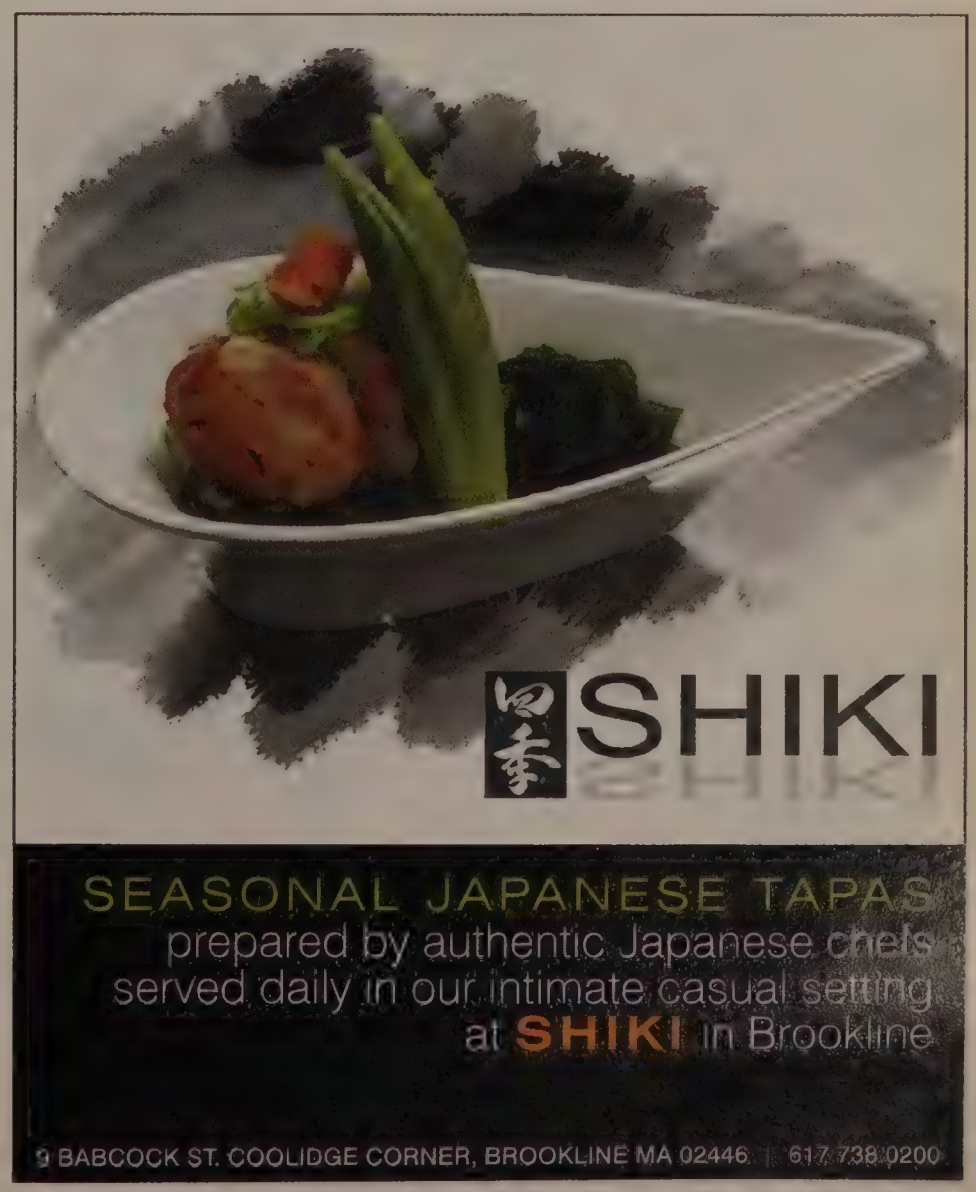
Day of the Dead Tzompantli
Forest Hills Educational Trust, 95 Forest Hills Ave., Boston (617-524-0128). www.foresthillstrust.org. MBTA: Orange Line to Forest Hills. 4:30 pm. Free. Join in an ancient Mexican tradition that celebrates the continuous cycle of life and death with music, dance and offerings to the dead.

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 3

CrashArts Presents: Maureen Fleming
Institute of Contemporary Art, 955 Boylston St., Boston (617-266-5152). www.icaboston.org. 8 pm. $35, reserved seating. Accompanied by music, photography and video projections, Maureen Fleming's multimedia presentation Waters of Immortality highlights the curvature and flow of the body. This performance includes nudity.

SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 4

Parent and Child Workshop: Wheel Throwing
Mudflat Studio, 149 Broadway, Somerville (617-628-0589). www.mudflat.org. MBTA: Orange Line to Sullivan. 12 and 3 pm. $45. Ages 8 and up. Learn different techniques for how to make a pot on the wheel.



MONDAY, NOVEMBER 5

Crying Out for Liberty: Concepts of Freedom and Equality in the Early Abolition Movement
Brandeis University, Women's Studies Research Center, Epstein Building, 515 South St., Waltham (781-736-8100). www.brandeis.edu. 12:30 pm. Free. Kristin Waters discusses social and political structures in North America and how African-Americans and women fight for their rights as citizens.

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 6

Sexualities and the National Body in Asia
Brandeis University, Mildred Lee Gallery, Rose Art Museum, 415 South St., Waltham (617-269-7171). www.brandeis.edu. 12 pm. $3, general admission; free, members and children under 12. This symposium examines Asian culture and the wide range of sexualities and forms of expression that exist within it.

body & mind

Advice to Contributors

Submit updated information by mail or fax (617-859-1446) to Calendar: Body/Mind, or e-mail information to bodymind@improper.com. Provide a brief but thorough description of the event, including time, date, location, directions, cost and contact information. Listings cannot be accepted by phone and must be received at least four weeks in advance.

Events

Contacting the Other Side With John Holland

Back Bay Events Center, John Hancock Hall, 180 Berkeley St., Boston (978-474-8010). www.circlesofwisdom.com or www.ticketweb.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Oct. 25, 7-9:30 pm. $35-$65. Psychic medium John Holland attempts to communicate with spirits at this event sponsored by Circles of Wisdom.

Dances of Universal Peace

Cambridge Friends Meeting, 5 Longfellow Park, Cambridge (617-491-8694 or 617-776-5767). MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. Nov. 2, 7:30-9:30 pm. $6-$10, requested donation. Participants hold hands and dance in honor of global spiritual traditions.

Saluting the Spirit: 108 Sun Salutations

The Sports Club/LA, Mind Body Studios, 4 Avery St., Boston (617-859-3036, ext. 28). www.firstgiving.com/salutingthespirit. MBTA: Green Line to Boylston or Red Line to Park. Oct. 28, 9 am-3 pm; registration begins at 8 am. $500, fundraising minimum. In its fifth year, this yoga fundraising event challenges participants to complete 108 sun salutations and features hors d'oeuvres and a Lululemon trunk show. Proceeds benefit Pathways to Wellness and YogaHope.

Tranquility Day Spa Grand Reopening

15 Spring St., Watertown (617-924-1026). www.watertownspa.com. MBTA: #504 Bus to Watertown Yard. Oct. 29, 5-9 pm. Free. Tranquility Day Spa celebrates its recent renovation with an event featuring champagne, light snacks and a raffle for spa services.

Weekend With Grandmaster Chen Zhenglei

Waltham Athletic Club, 249 Lexington St., Waltham (info@chentaichifederation.org). www.chentaichifederation.org.

•The Emerson Umbrella, 40 Stow St., Concord. Oct. 26, 7 pm. Free. Grandmaster Chen introduces a variation of Tai Chi in The Theory and Practice of Chen Style Taijiquan.

•Waltham Athletic Club, 249 Lexington St., tham. Oct. 27, 9 am-12 pm and 1:30-4:30 pm. $25, nonparticipant observers. In this seminar, g master Chen reviews the foundations of Lao Jia the training routine of Chen Family Tai Chi Chu •Oct. 28, 9 am-12 pm. $70; $25, nonparticipan servers. Grandmaster Chen teaches Lao Jia Er which is characterized by sudden shifts in tempo.

•Oct. 28, 1:30-4:30 pm. $70; $25, nonpartic observers. Grandmaster Chen teaches partici Advanced Taiji Qigong, which helps increase en

Lectures

Guided Self-Healing

Theosophical Society in Boston, 21 Maple St. lington (781-274-6633; info@guidedselfhealing www.tsboston.org. MBTA: Red Line to Har then #77 Bus to Arlington. Oct. 26, 7:30-9 pm. $5, members. Clinical psychologist Andrew teaches guided self-healing, a psychotherap founded, which helps practitioners develop dom and increase happiness.

National Institute of Whole Health Celebrity Speaker Series: Mike Farrell

Newton-Wellesley Hospital, Shipley Auditorium, Washington St., Newton (888-354-4325, ext. 4 www.wholehealtheducation.com. MBTA: D Gree to Woodland. Oct. 27, 2-5 pm. $35. Former M.A actor Mike Farrell, president of Death Penalty discusses his memoir Just Call Me Mike.

Workshops

Addressing Attention Deficit Disorders

The Boston School of Herbal Studies, 12 Pelham race, Arlington (617-965-7846). www.bostonh studies.com. MBTA: Red Line to Alewife, the Bus to Pleasant and Addison streets. Nov. 1, 6:30 pm. $35. Clinical herbalist Katja Swift leads cussion on natural remedies, such as herba nutritional supplements, for treating atten deficit disorders.

Healing the Traumatized Heart Introductory Workshop

3 Central Ave., Newton (617-965-7846). healingtheheartpower.com. MBTA: #554 Bus to ington and Walnut streets. Oct. 28, 1:30-4 pm. preregister and bring a friend for free. Linda M author and creator of emotional kinesthetic chotherapy, teaches participants how to connec and heal each other using the heart's energy fiel

Strap-On 101

Good Vibrations, 308-A Harvard St., Broo (617-264-4400). www.goodvibes.com. MBT Green Line to Coolidge Corner. Oct. 24, 8-1 $25, preregistration; $30, drop-in. Certified se ucator Angel Clutis goes over the basics of ons, including choosing the right toy and lea techniques and positions.

The newly renovated Tranquility Day Spa

Ongoing

Blissful Monkey Lunchtime Yoga

Blissful Monkey Yoga Studio, 663 tre St., Jamaica Plain (617 4411). www.blissfulmonkey MBTA: Orange Line to Green. Thu. and Fri., 12-1 pm. $10. mixed-level classes are design busy students.

Healing Martial Arts C

Brookline Dahn Yoga & Healing Harvard St., Brookline (617 4851). www.dahnyoga.com. M C Green Line to Coolidge C Thu., 10 am and 6:30 pm; Sa pm. $15. This noncombative tial arts class teaches partici exercises to build their strengt maintain their balance.

The Martini Workout

The InterContinental Boston, Atlantic Ave., Boston (617 5090). www.themartiniworkout MBTA: Red Line to South St Mon. and Wed., 6-7 pm. $45 members; $20, hotel guest; fre InterContinental members. Reserv suggested. Combining pilates, and traditional stretches, the m workout benefits people with back pain.

ports

vice to Contributors

mit listings by fax (617-859-1446), by mail to Calen- Sports, or by e-mail to sports@improper. com. Include ess, phone number, nearest T stop, along with a brief ription. Listings can't be accepted over the phone and be received at least four weeks in advance.

ome Games

ston Bruins
) Banknorth
den, Boston
cets: 617-931-2222
25, 7 pm vs. Chicago
khawks
27, 7 pm vs.
adelphia Flyers
. 1, 7 pm vs. Buffalo
es
. 4, 7 pm vs. Ottawa
tors

ston Celtics
) Banknorth
den, Boston
cets: 866-423-5849
2, 8 pm vs.
ington Wizards

w England riots lette Stadium, borough
ets: 617-931-2222
28, 4:15 pm vs.
ington Redskins

The Bruins' Phil Kessel looks to start the season off right.

vents

mpions for Children's n Convention and Exhibition Center, 415 Summer Boston (617-355-0969). www.chtrust.org. MBTA: ine to South Station. Oct. 30. 5 pm. $1500. This t features a cocktail reception, dinner and live ilent auctions, as well as appearances by members cal teams like the Patriots, Celtics and Bruins. eeds benefit Children's Hospital.

k or Trot 5K
Willow St., Chelsea (617-884-9435). www.thelast acing.com/trickortrot5k. Oct. 27, 8 am. $15-$20. eeds from this first annual 5K around Chelsea t the Jordan Boys & Girls Club.

Play

SEBALL

ury's Baseball
891-0621). Seeking players ages 17-40.

SKETBALL

cton Ski & Sports Club
1789-4070). www.bssc.com. BSSC offers men's, en's and co-ed leagues for players of all levels in ury and Watertown.

nbridge Racquet
n Fitness Club
491-8989). www.crfcbasketball.com. CRFC year-round leagues for individuals and teams. vels welcome.

porate Basketball League
248-7811). This league seeks teams for the sum- ames are held in Newton and Waltham.

er Too Late Basketball
488-3333). www.nevertoolate.com. Adults shoot in locations around Boston.

XING

cton Sport Boxing Club
Church St., Newton (617-595-8141). bostonboxing.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard, 71 Bus to Walnut. Mon.-Sat., 2-10 pm. This g club offers lessons for all skill levels at its town gym.

Ring Boxing Club
Comm. Ave., Boston (617-782-6946). www. xingclub.com. MBTA: B Green Line to Pleas- Mon.-Fri., 12-10 pm; Sat., 12-6 pm. Certified ssional coaches teach boxers of all levels.

DGEBALL

cton Ski & Sports Club
789-4070). www.bssc.com. The BSSC offers dodgeball leagues in Belmont and Watertown. es play for eight to 10 weeks.

FLAG AND TOUCH FOOTBALL

Boston Ski & Sports Club
Games are held in Brighton (617-789-4070). www. bssc.com. Teams compete each weekend.

HOCKEY

Boston Ski & Sports Club
(617-789-4070). www.bssc.com. The BSSC offers various co-ed floor hockey leagues at its Brighton and Newton locations.

ICE SKATING

Bay State Skating School
13 rinks in towns including Cambridge, Brookline and Somerville (781-890-8480). www.baystateskatingschool.org. The BSSS offers beginner, intermediate and advanced classes.

KICKBALL

Boston Ski & Sports Club
(617-789-4070). www.bssc. com. The BSSC offers outdoor co-ed kickball leagues in Charlestown and Newton. Each season includes eight games, plus playoffs.

RUGBY

Beantown Women's Rugby Club
www.beantownrugby.com. Tue. and Thu. in Allston; games Sat. Beantown has won the national women's championship six times.

Boston Rugby Club
(617-566-2732). www.brfc. org. This club is looking for players to join its national-level team for the upcoming season.

Boston Women's Rugby Football Club
(781-340-2192). www.bwrfc.org. This club seeks new players for rugby games in Brookline and Cambridge.

Mystic River Rugby Club
(617-267-5221). www.mysticrugby.com. A Division 1 club that competes in the New England Rugby Union.

RUNNING

Boston Hash House Harriers
Various location in and around Boston (617-499-4835). www.bostonhash.com. This running and social club hosts weekly runs on either Wednesdays or Sundays.

Cambridge Friday Night Fun Run
Cambridge Racquet and Fitness Club, 215 First St., Cambridge (781-275-1584). www.srr.org. MBTA: Red Line to Kendall/ MIT. Fri., 6 pm. The Somerville Road Runners host this weekly run in the Cambridge area.

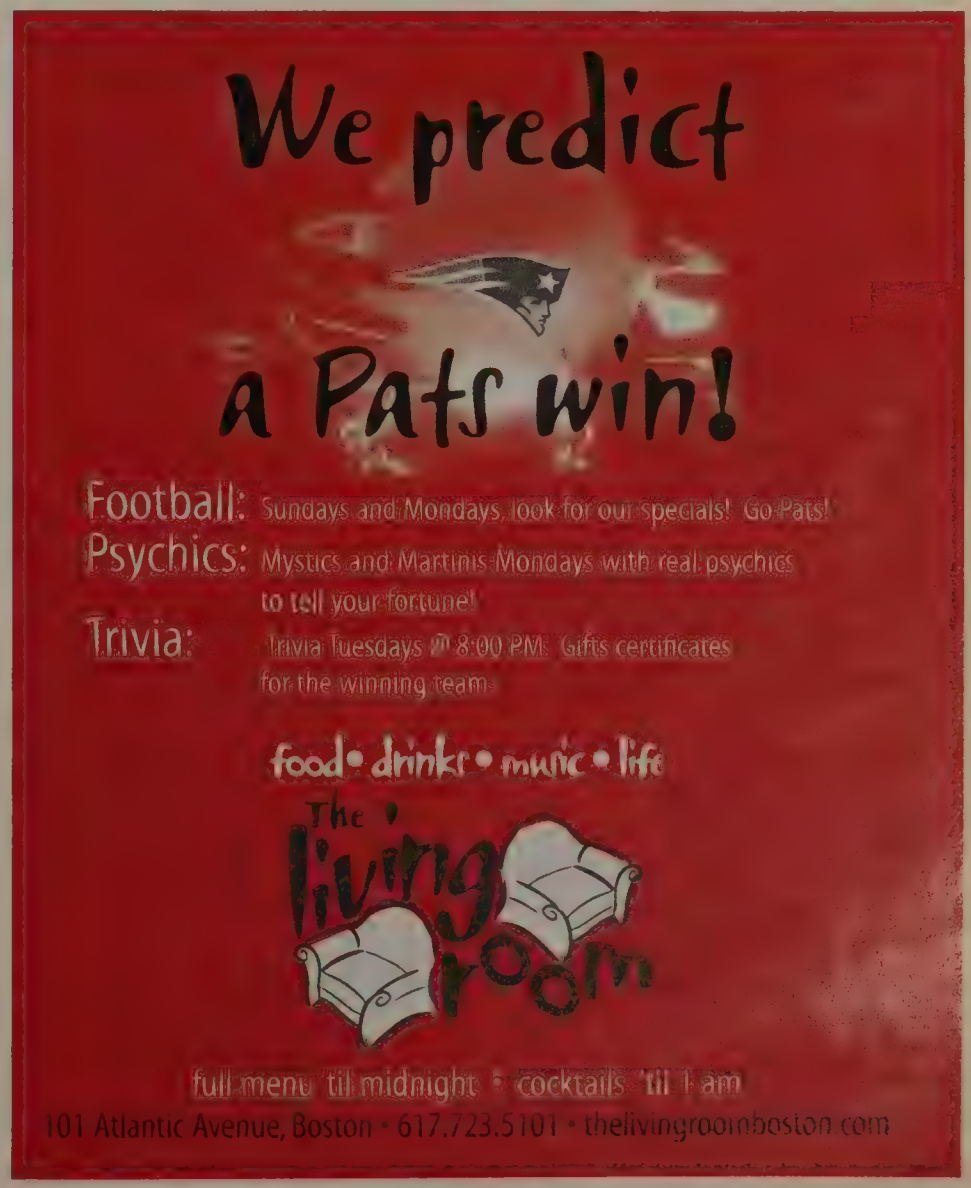
Team LunaChix Boston
www.bostonlunachix.com. Wed., 6:30 pm. Women only. A weekly women's running group that promotes healthy living and breast cancer awareness. The four-mile jogs start on the MIT side of the Mass Ave. bridge. Email BostonRun@teamlunachix.com.

SKIING

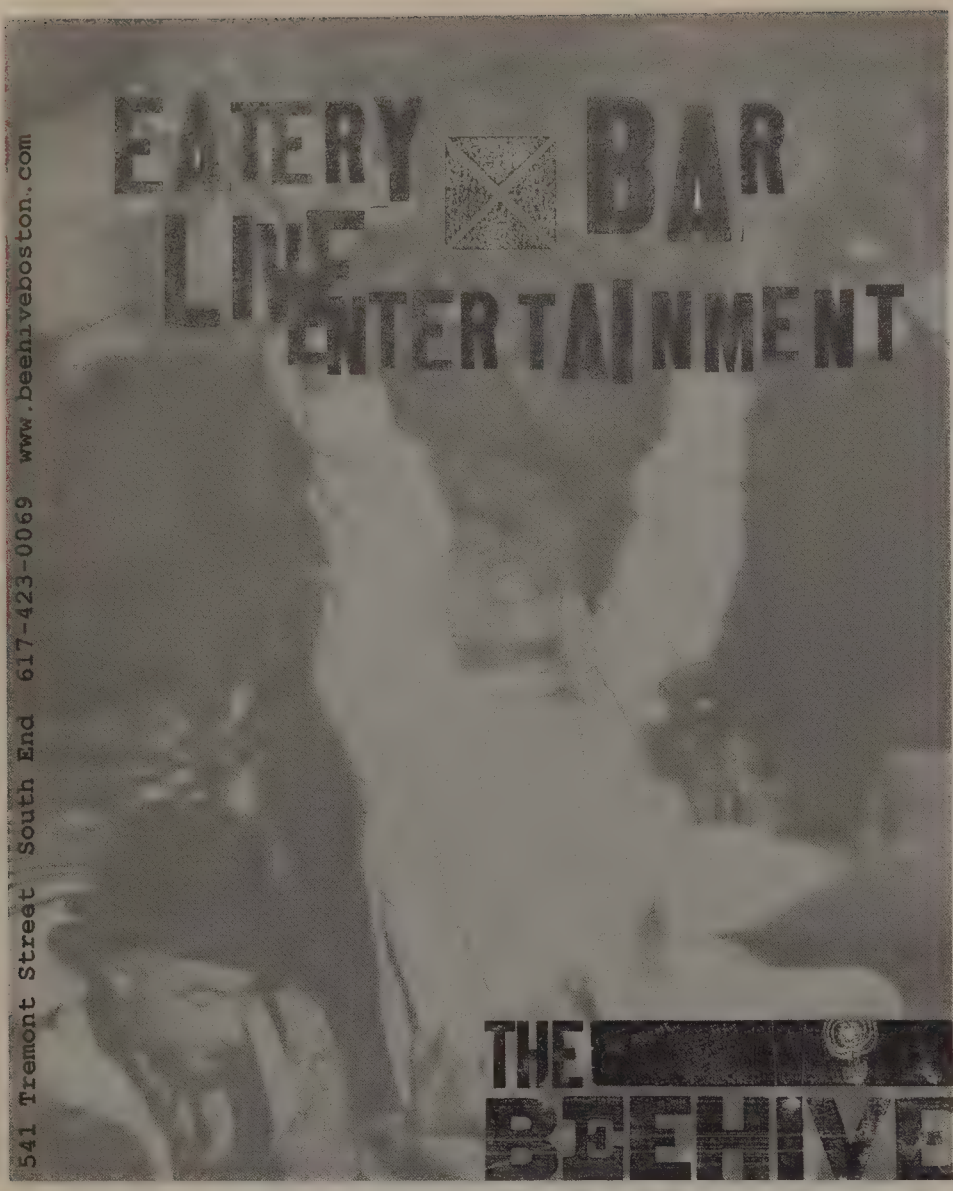
Polecat Skiing & Sports Club
This skiing and snowboarding club has a lodge in North Conway, NH and offers ski/snowboard race teams, discounts on lift tickets and more. For more info email polecatskiclub@hotmail.com.

SOCCER

Boston Ski & Sports Club
(617-789-4070). www.bssc.com. A series of outdoor co-ed soccer leagues in Canton, Lexington, Newton and Waltham. Each season lasts for eight weeks.



SOFTBALL



Boston Ski & Sports Club
(617-789-4070). www.bssc.com. The BSSC offers a series of outdoor co-ed softball leagues in the Greater Boston area.

WHITE-WATER RAFTING

Boston Ski & Sports Club
(617-789-4070). www.bssc.com. The BSSC offers weekend white-water rafting trips to Maine, Canada and western Massachusetts.

children

Advice to Contributors

Submit updated listings by mail or fax (617-859-1446) to Calendar: Children, or e-mail information to children@improper.com. Include address, phone number, subway stop, ticket price, dates, times and a brief description of the event. Deadline is four weeks prior to publication. Listings cannot be accepted over the phone.

Things to See

Boston Children's Theatre

186 Tremont St., Boston (617-424-6634). www.bostonchildrenstheatre.org. MBTA: Green Line to Boylston. Oct. 27-28, 1 pm. $12, adults; $10, children; no children under 3. The Halloween Magic interactive theater performance includes holiday arts and crafts, a snack and a play.

Coolidge Corner Theatre

290 Harvard St., Brookline (617-734-2500). www.coolidge.org. MBTA: C Green Line to Coolidge Corner. Nov. 3, 10:30 am. $10, adults; $8, children and seniors. Check out "Egadz!" with Michael Menes, a juggler and illusionist who gets the audience involved with his act.

Disney's High School Musical

Citi Performing Arts Center, 270 Tremont St., Boston (617-482-9393). www.citicenter.org. MBTA: Green Line to Boylston. Oct. 31-Nov. 4. See Web site for details. $15-$68. Star-crossed high school students discover a shared love for singing in this Disney preteen sensation. Ages 4 and up.

ImprovBoston Family Show

1253 Cambridge St., Cambridge (617-576-1253). www.improvboston.com. MBTA: Red Line to Kendall/MIT. Sat., 6 pm. $12, adults; $10, seniors; $7, students and children. This improv show, featuring a variety of skits, is designed for the entire family.

JFK Library

Columbia Point, Boston (617-514-1646). www.landmarksorchestra.org. MBTA: Red Line to JFK/UMass. Oct. 27, 10:30 am and 12 pm. Free. The Boston Landmarks Orchestra and the Boston Children's Chorus perform a Halloween-inspired concert featuring selections from the Harry Potter films and more. Children are encouraged to dress up, with prizes awarded for the best costumes. Ages 5 and up.

Lyric Stage Company

140 Clarendon St., Boston (617-585-5678). www.lyricstage.com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Nov. 3-11, 11 am, $8; free, children 3 and under. Once Upon a Time with Kidstock! presents an interactive performance of the classic fairytale Rapunzel.

Museum of Science

Museum of Science, Science Park, Boston (617-723-2500). www.mos.org. MBTA: Green Line to Science Park. Through Nov. 8. $23, adult nonmembers; $20.50, senior nonmembers; $19, children nonmembers; $5, adult members; $4.50, senior members; $4, children members. See the world through an insect's eyes in "Bugs!," a documentary chronicling the lives of a butterfly and a praying mantis in the Borneo rain forest.

Puppet Showplace Theater

32 Station St., Brookline (617-731-6400). www.puppetshowplace.org. MBTA: Green Line to Brookline Village. $9.50, nonmembers; $7.50, members. •Oct. 27 and 28, 1 and 3 pm. The Pumpernickel Puppets present Sir George and the Dragon, which follows the adventures of a princess and the friends she meets along the way. Ages 3 and up. •Oct. 31 and Nov. 1, 10:30 am. The Blue Moon Puppets tell the story of three witches who try to create the best recipe in Witch's Brew.

Things to Do

Artbeat

212-A Mass. Ave., Arlington (781-646-2200). www.artbeatonline.com. Oct. 27, 3-6 pm. $15 for materials. Children can create a creepy stuffed animal for Halloween.

Baby Loves Disco

Revolution Rock Bar, 200 High St., Boston. MBTA: Green Line to Gov. Center. Oct. 28, 2-5 pm. $15. Get into the groove at this fun and family-friendly party, which features dancing, a chill-out tent and various healthy snacks.

Barefoot Books

1771 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-349-1610). www.barefootbooks.com. Free. •Oct. 26, 10:30 am. Hear about Animals Around the World at this weekly story hour. •Oct. 27, 10:30 am. Enjoy an ho storytelling at this Un-Spooky Halloween event.

Borders Books and Music

Cambridgeside Galleria, Cambridge (617-679-0 www.bordersstores.com. MBTA: Green Lin Lechmere. Free. Oct. 26, 7 pm. Catch gho storytime, a costume contest and other Hallo activities.

Boston by Little Feet

Faneuil Hall, Boston (617-796-1360). bostonbyfoot.com. MBTA: Green Line to Center. Ongoing. Mon. and Sat., 10 am; Su pm. $8. Take a walk along Boston's Freedom and learn about the city's architecture and his Designed for ages 6-12.

Boston Children's Museum

300 Congress St., Boston (617-426-8855). bostonkids.org. MBTA: Red Line to South Sta Sat.-Thu., 10 am-5 pm; Fri., 10 am-9 pm. adults; $8, seniors and children; $2, age 1; under age 1 and members. $1, Fri. 5-9 pm. •I 11 am. Kids dance and make tasty treats du "Playspace." •Daily, 10 am-4 pm. Join in Studio" this month and learn how to ma variety of collages with various materials. •V 10:30-11:30 am. Children are introduced t basics of science at "Pint-Sized Science." • Thu., 10 am-3:30 pm; Fri., 10 am-7:30 pm. D "PlaySpace Messy Activity," children partic in a variety of activities ranging from s collages to painting and playing with sha cream or water. •Through January. Chil experience the hands-on exhibit, "Jos Journey: Diary of a Black Cowboy," with acti including saddling a horse, riding a buc bronco and modeling Western clothing. Chi also learn the story of 16-year-old Joshua, drives cattle up the Chisholm Trail.

Brookline Arts Center

86 Monmouth St., Brookline (617-566-57 www.brooklineartscenter.com. MBTA: C Green to St. Mary's. •Sat., 10 am. Through Nov. 3. nonmembers; $112, members; $30, mate Children create art using a variety of mat including pastels, charcoal and watercolor. Ag 13. •Mon., 4:30 pm. Through Nov. 5. nonmembers; $144, members; $30, mate Children are taught the basics of drawi this intensive course. Ages 8+. •Mon. and 3:30 pm. Sept. 10-Nov. 6. $160, nonmem $130, members; $30, materials. Kids learn basics of metalworking using copper and Ages 12+. Adults welcome. •Tue., 3:30 Through Nov. 6. $185, nonmembers; members; $30, materials. Kids learn to draw Japanese- and American-style comics. Ages •Tue., 3:30 pm. Through Nov. 6. $185, members; $168, members; $40, materials. learn the basics of pottery and wheel-throwi this introductory course.

Franklin Park Zoo

One Franklin Road, Dorchester (617-541-5 www.franklinparkzoo.org. MBTA: #45 B Franklin Park Zoo. Oct. 27 and 28, 11 am- $11, adults; $9.50, seniors; $6, children; free, age 2. Kids of all ages are invited to join in Howl," a Halloween-themed event featuring g costume contests, a haunted maze, a moon bo and trick-or-treats. Cosponsored by Radio Disne

The Harvard Coop

1400 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-499-2 www.thecoop.com. MBTA: Red Line to Har Oct. 27, 1-3 pm. Free. The Harvard book hosts a Halloween carnival for kids inclu pumpkin games, a spooky story by author L Bannatyne and a costume contest.

Haunted Happenings

Congress St., Salem (877-725-3662). www.ha happenings.org. MBTA: Commuter Rail to S Through Oct. 30. See Web site for details. Ta the spooky sites of Salem as the town's mus and attractions extend their operating hou visitors. Other activities include arts and c contests and theatrical productions.

Newton Free Library

330 Homer St., Newton (617-796-1360) ww newton.ma.us/library. MBTA: D Green Line to N Highlands. Free. •Oct. 25, 4 pm. Susan R Abrams conjures up scary stories for Hallo Ages 5 and up. •Oct. 29, 10:30 am for age 3:30 pm for ages 4-7. Come in costume spooky Halloween story and craft.

Porter Square Books

25 White St., Cambridge (617-491-2220). portersquarebooks.com. MBTA: Red Line to P Oct. 28, 2 pm. Free. Judy Schachner reads her new book, Skippyjon Jones and the Big B which follows a young boy's adventures int world of dinosaurs.

around town

Sights to See

oston Public Library Art d Architecture Tour
0 Boylston St., Boston (617-536-5400). www. .org. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Sun., 2 pm; n., 2:30 pm; Tue. and Thu., 6 pm; Fri. and Sat., am. Free.

oston University Observatory
t Observatory, 725 Comm. Ave., Boston (617-2630). www.bu.edu/astronomy/opennight.html. TA: B Green Line to BU East. Clear Wed. nts: fall and winter, 7:30 pm; spring and summer, 0 pm. Free.

neuil Hall Marketplace
outh Market Building, Boston (617-523-1300). w.faneuilhallmarketplace.com. MBTA: Green or nge Line to Haymarket. Mon.-Sat., 10 am-9 pm; ., 12-6 pm.

rvard Museum of Natural History
Oxford St., Cambridge (617-495-3045). www. h.harvard.edu. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. ly, 9 am-5 pm. $9; $7, students and seniors; $6, : 3-18. Wed., 3-5 pm (Sept. through May), and ., 9 am-12 pm, free to all Massachusetts residents.

n F. Kennedy Library & Museum
ambia Point, Dorchester (617-514-1600). www.jfk ry.org. MBTA: Red Line to JFK/UMass. Daily, 9 5 pm. $10; $8, seniors and students; $7, ages 13-17; ages 12 and under.

L z Anderson Antique to Museum
Newton St., Brookline (617-522-6547). www. .org. MBTA: C Green Line to Cleveland Circle. -Sun., 10 am-5 pm. $5; $3, ages 6-17, students and iors; free, ages 6 and under.

ry Baker Eddy Library Mapparium
0 Mass. Ave., Boston (888-222-3711). www. ybakereddylibrary.org. MBTA: Green Line to s. Tue.-Sun., 10 am-4 pm. $6; $4, seniors, stu- s and ages 6-17; free, children under 6.

unt Auburn Cemetery
Mount Auburn St., Cambridge (617-547- 5). www.mountauburn.org. MBTA: Red Line to rvard. Oct.-May, 8 am-5 pm; May-Sept., 8 am-7 Free.

seum of Afro-American History
oy St., Boston (617-725-0022). www.afroam eum.org. MBTA: Red or Green Line to Park. .-Sat., 10 am-4 pm. Guided walking tours avail- by special request. $5, suggested donation.

seum of Science
ce Park, Boston (617-723-2500). www.mos. MBTA: Green Line to Science Park. Sat.-Thu., 9 pm; Fri., 9 am-9 pm. $17; $15, seniors; $14, ren.

w England Aquarium
ral Wharf, Boston (617-973-5200). www.neaq. MBTA: Blue Line to Aquarium. Mon.-Fri., 9 am- ; Sat. and Sun., 9 am-6 pm. $18.95; $10.95, 3-11.

North Church
Salem St., Boston (617-523-6676). www.old .com. MBTA: Green or Orange Line to Haymar- Open daily, 9 am-6 pm. Free.

South Meeting House
1 Washington St., Boston (617-482-6439). www. uthmeetinghouse.org. MBTA: Blue or Orange Line ue. Daily, 9:30 am-5 pm. $5; $4, seniors and stu- ; $1, ages 6-18; free, children under 6.

State House Museum
Washington St., Boston (617-720-1713). www. nhistory.org. MBTA: Blue or Orange Line to State. , 9 am-5 pm. $5; $4, seniors and students; $1, ages free, children under 6.

dential Center Skywalk
Boylston St., Boston (617-859-0648). www. ntialcenter.com. MBTA: E Green Line to Pruden- Daily, 10 am-10 pm. $11; $9, students and seniors; 0, children under 12.

ity Church
Clarendon St., Boston (617-536-0944). www. tyboston.org. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Tue.- 9 am-6 pm; Sun., 7 am-7 pm. Tours: $5; $4, stu- and seniors; free, children under 16 with ult.

S Constitution & Museum
lestown Navy Yard, Boston (617-426-1812). ussconstitutionmuseum.org. May 1-Oct. 15, 9 am- ; Oct. 16-April 30, 10 am-5 pm; open daily.

Volunteer

AFC Mentoring Program
(617-224-1300, ext. 3). www.afcmentoring.org. Mentor a foster-care or adopted child.

AIDS Action Committee
(617-437-6200). www.aac.org. Help patients with HIV/AIDS.

American Cancer Society
(617-556-7400). www.cancer.org. Drive cancer patients to their local treatment appointments or get involved with upcoming events.

Big Brothers of Massachusetts Bay
(617-542-9090). www.bbmb.org. BBMB seeks volunteers to provide friendship to boys in need.

Big Sister Association
(617-236-8060). www.bigsister.org. Volunteers act as friends and mentors to young girls.

BNA Care Network
(617-547-2620, ext. 4271). www.bostoncarenetwork.org. Volunteers support terminally ill patients.

Boston Cares
(617-422-0910). www.bostoncares.org. More than 100 opportunities to volunteer are available.

Boston Jaycees
(888-274-8682). www.bostonjaycees.org. Volunteer at area nonprofits with other young professionals.

Boston Living Center
(617-236-1012, ext. 227). www.bostonlivingcenter.org. This HIV/AIDS organization needs volunteers for kitchen tasks, office work and special events.

Charles River Arc
(781-444-4347). www.crarc.org. Provide support for children and adults with developmental disabilities.

Dana-Farber Cancer Institute
(617-632-3307). www.dana-farber.org. Volunteers help adults living with cancer.

Extra Hands for ALS
(617-331-3014). www.extrahands.org. Help ALS patients and their families with housework.

HealthCare Dimensions Hospice
(781-894-1100). www.hcdhospice.org. Support terminally ill patients and their families.

Horizons for Homeless Children
(617-445-1480, ext. 345). www.horizonsforhomeless children.org. Provide support for homeless children.

Jewish Volunteer Program
(617-558-6585). www.cjp.org. Spend time with a senior citizen, mentor a child or teach an adult to read.

Literacy Volunteers of Massachusetts
(617-367-1313). www.lvm.org. Literacy volunteers help teach adults to read.

MAB Community Services
(617-972-9119). www.mabcommunity.org. Read to or shop with a blind person.

Match-Up Interfaith Volunteers
(617-482-1510). www.matchelder.org. Help with a variety of needs for disabled adults and seniors.

Neighborhood Action
(617-723-5800). http://nai.stjohnsbowdoinst.org. Serve meals to the homeless.

New England Aquarium
(617-973-5235). www.neaq.org. Support the aquarium as a guide or marine mammal volunteer.

Newton Free Library ESL Program
(617-796-1364). www.newtonfreelibrary.net. Tutor adults in English as a second language.

Parental Stress Line
(800-882-1250). Counsel parents and caregivers, and facilitate support groups.

Pedipathways
(617-633-1659). Volunteer to do administrative work or to visit patients for this children's hospice.

Planned Parenthood
(617-616-1600, ext. 1645). www.pplm.org. Volunteer to raise awareness about women's health issues.

Project Place
(617-262-3740, ext. 14). www.projectplace.org. Help homeless men and women in the computer lab.

Recording for the Blind and Dyslexic
(617-577-1111, ext. 17). www.rfbd.org. Volunteers read textbooks for recording.

Red Cross
(617-375-0700, ext. 438). www.bostonredcross.org. Volunteer in the food pantry and public relations department.

Respond
(617-625-5996). www.respondinc.org. Volunteers are needed at this agency for battered women.

Rosie's Place
(617-442-9322). www.rosies.org. Volunteers are needed at this homeless women's shelter.

Samaritans
(617-536-2460). www.samaritanshope.org. Provide support over the phone to people in crisis.

Single Volunteers Boston
www.svboston.org. Volunteer with young, single professionals.

AUDREY TALBOTT THEORY
TRACY REESE
ROBERT RODRIQUEZ
CHALKEN
MILLY
MICHAEL KORS
ALICE + OLIVIA
PAIGE JEANS
NANETTE LEPORE
JULIE HAUS
WHITE + WARREN
VERA WANG LAVENDER LABEL
HUGO BOSS
STUART WEITZMAN

crossingmain

HINGHAM 5 Main Street 781-740-0550
MARBLEHEAD 9 Pleasant Street 781-631-3777
WELLESLEY 20 Church Street 781-235-3366
NOW OPEN! Crossing Main - Fine Shoes in Hingham

BEST OF BOSTON 2001 · BEST OF BOSTON 2002 · BEST OF BOSTON 2003 · BEST OF BOSTON 2006 · BEST OF BOSTON 2007

Voted Best of Boston, Women's Clothing, South

crossingmain.com

YOUR expectations are MET

BOSTON UNIVERSITY
METROPOLITAN COLLEGE
COLLEGE OF COMMUNICATION

Accessible. Attainable. Advantageous. A MASTER OF SCIENCE in ADVERTISING from BU's Metropolitan College and College of Communication is within your reach. Learn from the best, on a part-time schedule that accommodates yours—and take your advertising career to the top.

Questions? Call 617-353-6000
"Ask MET" at www.bu.edu/met/advertising
Join us for an information session | Thursday, November 1, 6 p.m.
George Sherman Union, 775 Commonwealth Ave., Academy Room
Please call about free parking.

IMPROPERAZZI

The Improper Bostonian's client-related promotions and events

On Sunday, September 30, Equinox Fitness held a Launching Your Life soiree benefiting the Esplanade. Invitees who donned their designer workout duds we treated to the 5K Frozen Bellini (in honor of the Esplanade Association's inaugural 5k earlier that day) and passed hors d'oeuvres provided by 28 Degrees, gift bags with Equinox trial memberships and products, on-site spa services, and a raffle where winners gain all-access passes to the hot new Back Bay fitness mecca.

1. Marzi Alavi and Max Buccini, both account managers; and Valerie Umana, front desk manager, all from Regan Communications.
2. Susanna Kuhl, product manager at Fidelity; Diana Leonard, teacher at the King School; Susan Mlodozeniec, consultant at Exvaprise; and Sarah Reinstein, VP at ICIC.
3. Remy Trouche, engineering manager at XP Power, and Celine Brill, real estate consultant at Coldwell Banker.

On Wednesday, October 3, The Improper Bostonian was proud to be a sponsor of the Hatch Awards. The event was held at the State Room. The Hatch Award the Ad Club's signature event, recognizes creative excellence in advertising and marketing in over 30 categories. Guests enjoyed cocktails, fabulous food, state-o the-art production, exciting performances and a birds-eye-view of the 2007 Hatch Award Winners.

1. Colleen Malachowski, intern; Karen Sargent; director of events; and Adam Goodwin, assistant to the president, all with the Ad Club.
2. Kristen Boch and Ernie Boch Jr., president and CEO of Boch Enterprises.
3. Ryan Habbyshaw, designer, and Meghan Siegel, creative director, both with Arnold; Ed Leffler, flash developer at Beam Interactive; and Dave Fernandez, designer at Arnold.

On Thursday, October 11, Hudson in the South End celebrated its one-year anniversary. Guests enjoyed cocktails and hors d'oeuvres by Pho Republique whil browsing for new furniture and home decor.

1. Barbara Goldberg, co-owner of Mitchell Gold, and Jill Goldberg, owner of Hudson.
2. Audra Bodenstab and Shauna Strachan, both owners of Looc; Trip Boyle, director of ad sales at Third Screen Media; and Steph Ellington, teacher at the Advent School.
3. Steve Elbaz, co-owner of Mitchell Gold, and Ryan Donnelly, furniture sales at Webster and Company.

PHOTOS: EQUINOX, JULIE KANE; HATCH AWARDS, STACEY SHANE; HUDSON, JESSICA F

improperimpersonals

veryone kept their feelings bottled up like warm beer, we'd soon have antisocial behavior exploding all over place and ruining the upholstery. So send us your letters of love and spleen, and we'll print them for the rld to see. (Impersonals may be edited for taste, space and clarity.) Heck, it's better than making a fool of rself in person. And IT'S FREE! Pick up a pen or keyboard (hint: we like the fact that we don't have to type e-mailed messages) and write to:

IMPROPER IMPERSONALS
THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN MAGAZINE
142 Berkeley St., 3rd Floor
Boston, MA 02116
FAX: 617-859-1446 E-MAIL: impersonals@improper.com
RECENT CORRESPONDENCE FOLLOWS.

You Really "Spoke" to Us

To one particularly charming pedicab driver: My friends and I have had the absolute pleasure of riding around Boston with you twice now; you are truly a sweetheart! Whether it's saving us from a certain limo debauchery incident at Faneuil Hall or joking around about State Street accountants at cocktail parties, you always know the perfect thing to say to keep the three of us laughing. Keep up the incredible wit, fantastic sense of humor and, most of all, your charming smile! Maybe we'll all see each other again soon, before another memorable nightcrawl on the streets of Boston. :)

—Anonymous

ared Straight (Almost)

he Green Line crazy who arrived
he Park Street T stop today: Girl,
?! Me and my friend watched you bu purposely threw your pink port backpack at the Asian girl's l beside you on the train. Yes, she up an extra seat with her bag, then, so did you! At first, we hed at your audacity, acting like bag throwing was an accident,
h the poor girl seemed to believe.
then it got better. You next inued to make a scene by putting head in between your knees and saging it while you occasionally ed up to give us the death stare.
rtunately I had to get off at ey while my friend stayed on till phony because that's when you ibercrazy. You slapped the girl took my seat when I left, lifted our sweater and tweaked your les over a T-shirt, which you later ved and rubbed into the Asian s face! I guess my only comment please keep your heroin at home.
ure life gets rough in your early but two gay men confronted with d set of tits is never a good way art off a weekend. And rently everyone on the train d at you and did nothing. Great g guys.

—reaked Out in East Cambridge

rfect 10

our spirit and sense of adventure ur kindness and generosity rds others
ur intelligence, perseverance and ty to forgive
u bring my family closer together u inspire me to be all that I can be r all the superficial-male reasons
(ref: your nurse's outfit)
4. For all the lasting relationship reasons
3. I discover a new reason each day
2. The way you love me
1. You make me happy

Babe,
Happy six months! I love you.

—Sweets

Mom and Pop Store-y

My Pappa: I have such an overwhelming sense of clarity and warmth filling me again now that you're back in my life. I try to leave you thinking it'll pass, but it never does. No one ever makes me feel the way you do, so secure and sure of myself. I know you have a lot going on at present but I just need you to know this. I want to be your best friend and your lover. We need to work out our stubbornness, and I know in time we're meant to be together. The heart doesn't lie, I love you more than anything I have ever known.

—Forever Your Momma...

Men of Steal

Every day of my life is the same boring, miserable story. I go to my nine-to-six job, leave at noon for lunch with my colleagues and come back for the remainder of the day. It wouldn't be so bad if I didn't work with a bunch of kleptomaniacs. That's right—everyone here is a huge klepto. I come back from lunch daily with yellow Post-it notes on my desk saying "Hey, took your pen for a sec, thanks!" Three weeks later, I'm still waiting for my favorite Bic black/medium pen to reappear. It seems every day a different office supply vanishes. Not to sound like Milton from Office Space, but I believe you have my stapler! And because of this, I'm going on two weeks straight of using old paper clips I had to swipe from the mailroom! This is getting so out of hand that I've actually had to bring in my daughter's pencil box to keep pens and pencils away from lurking coworkers. So for anyone reading this right now, if you know you have someone's favorite pen, stapler, legal pad or business card holder (I'm looking at you, klepto from accounting!), just give them back!

—Annoyed from Klepto Corp.

To Chew and Screw

To scumbags at restaurants who walk out on their tabs: As if my job as a waitress isn't depressing enough, you deem it necessary to ruin my day by ducking out just moments before I drop your check. You and your buddies chowed-down like a bunch of gluttonous pigs, running me back and forth to the kitchen to get you countless cups of blue cheese to go with your boneless wings and Coors Light drafts. I smiled, laughed at your obnoxiously bad jokes and let you make inappropriate comments about my ass, and for what? The only reason I even looked at you was because I work for tips... but you think you're some hot shot who can screw over the cocktail waitress before going out on the town. Yeah big guy, save up that extra 20 dollar bill to buy a pretty girl at the bar a nice Cosmo... I'm sure she'll just go crazy for that buffalo smell on your breath. Here's a tip for you, pal: Be nicer to your waitresses... we spit in drinks.

—Waiting for Revenge

DTOX INTERNATIONAL

GET HEALTHY.

DTOX & OXYGENATE. 24 MINUTES - NATURALLY!

225 NEWBURY ST. BOSTON
617.236.7755 WWW.DTOXINTERNATIONAL.COM

BEVERLY BOSTON WELLESLEY N. ANDOVER

ANNA'S TAQUERIA

Burritos & Tacos To Go!

BOSTON'S BEST 2007 WINNER IMPROPER BOSTONIAN

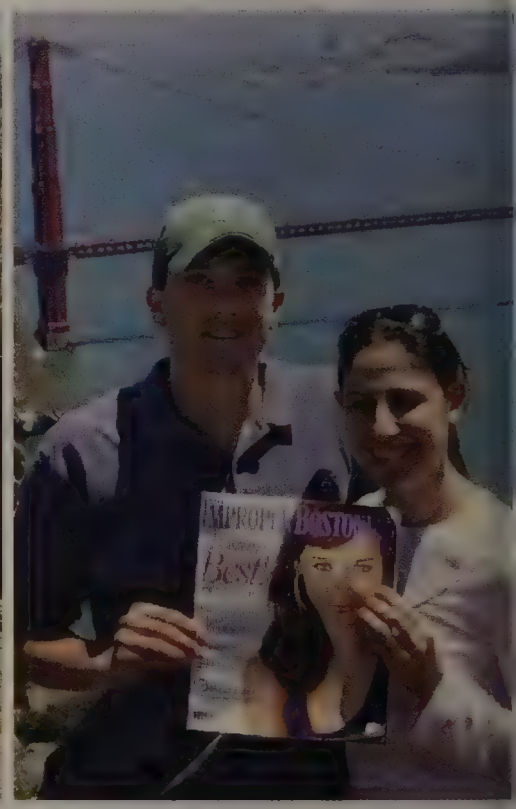
Burrito

Open Everyday 10 a.m. to 11 p.m.

1412 Beacon Street • Coolidge Corner • 739-7300
446 Harvard Street • Brookline • 277-7111
822 Somerville Avenue • Porter Square • Cambridge • 661-8500
236A Elm Street • Davis Square • Somerville • 666-3900
84 Mass Avenue • MIT Stratton Center • Cambridge • 324-2662

IMPROPER sightings

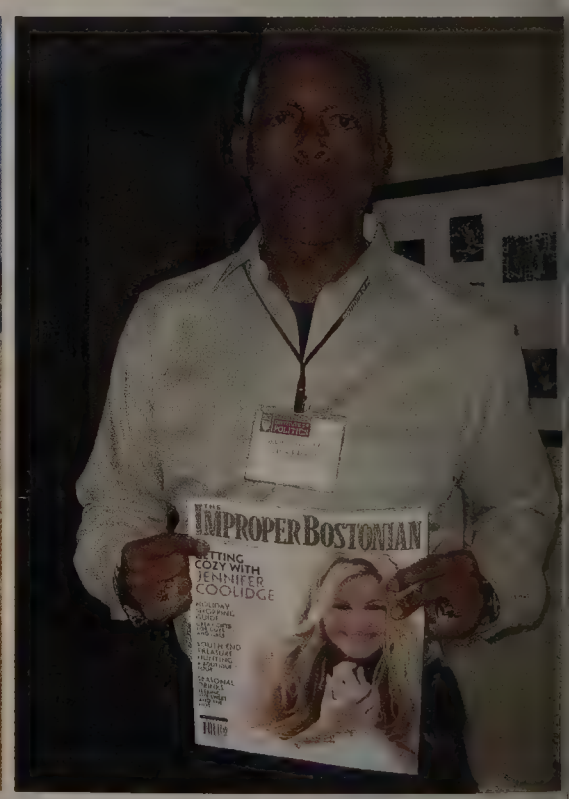
UNLIKE THE REST OF YOUR FRIENDS, WE WANT TO SEE THE PHOTOS FROM YOUR NEXT TRI



Where do you take us? Send us a picture of you or a friend, or better yet, someone famous reading THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN and tell us where you we The wilder your destination and the more creative your photo, the better your chances of making the cut in the esteemed Improper Sightings.

Rep. John Hall (N.Y.) is all smiles with the IMPROPER. You can't fool us, Hall. We know you aren't actually reading… or are you? Damn, you're good.

Mikey Vitousek and Katie Dacier made a pit stop at Badlands National Park in South Dakota. This photo was taken only a few minutes after Mikey removed his Bad Idea Jeans, although some of the karma is definitely lingering.



John Dahlstrom and Lauren Jacobs were in San Francisco, where the only attraction bigger tha the Golden Gate Bridge is Barry Bonds' head.

Ruth Avissar and Robyn Avery visited an ice bar in Stockholm, where it appears they're about to either take a shot of Absolut or sacrifice the IMPROPER as means of entrance into some messed-up Swedish cult.

Emma Heffern drove along Highway 1 from San Francisco to Carmel/Monterey on her honeymoon. Looks like it was a lot of fun and windy… really, really windy.

Georgia congressman Hank Johnson is all business with the IMPROPER. Or maybe he's finally come to gr with the abysmal state of the Atlanta Falcons.

IMPROPER BOUNTY

BONUS POINTS TO ANYONE WHO CAN CAPTURE AN IMPROPER READER:
Effortlessly chunkin' some punkins at the annual World Punkin Chunkin' Championships held Nov. 2–3 in Millsboro, Del.

Send high-resolution digital photos (at least 500K file size) to sightings@improper.com, or mail professionally printed color photos (min. 3x5) to Improper Sightings, The Improper Bostonian Magazine, 142 Berkeley St., 3rd floor, Boston, MA 02116. Please include the exact photo location, full names of all people in the photo, your phone number and e-mail address. All photos become the property of THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN MAGAZINE and will not be returned. Ink-jet or laser-printed photos cannot be accepted.

rockie horoscope

CTOBER 24 – NOVEMBER 6, 2007 BY ROCKIE GARDINER

CORPIO

CTOBER 23–NOVEMBER 21

folks you come in contact with during your daily rounds might play a larger role ply because the Taurus full moon is focused on them. Even if it's nothing or no one major significance, you can't help but become cognizant of the many ways they act your life. Just be prepared to adjust your own schedule to accommodate neone else's inability to make up their mind or to keep to it. However, if you're brating a birthday, feel free to throw caution to the wind and wrap yourself in ury. Happy Halloween.

AGITTARIUS

OVEMBER 22–DECEMBER 21

ile a female client or an artist, one of Venus' minions, is ssuring your Jupiter ruler, you'll either rise reluctantly to challenge or blow it off with a flourish. Although the might not be reckoned in dollars and cents, the ation that results can wind up costing more, in time and itation, than you figured. Venus in hypercritical Virgo d also aggravate a tricky situation at home. Since the dents are easily rattled, use tact when putting up oween decorations or issuing invites.

APRICORN

CEMBER 22–JANUARY 20

ough Mercury is retrograde, its merger with the sun in career midheaven Oct. 23 can reveal more than the s of that meeting imply. Better not take what you've ned as the final word; after Mercury turns direct Nov. 1, ll be presented with yet another version. These revisions be maddening if you're facing a deadline—e.g., tion Day—that can't be tinkered with. Since your ner's input becomes more valuable as we approach that , get him or her on board ASAP.

QUARIUS

NUARY 21–FEBRUARY 18

le not completely at the mercy of a woman with designs our resources, you are susceptible to her wiles. Venus sing your Uranus ruler in your Pisces money house ests an unexpected expenditure is about to occur. If the less convinces an experienced and trustworthy colleague urs to apply pressure as well, then the price you'll wind laying can escalate dramatically. Perhaps the best way f this potentially explosive situation is to lose your per, rant and rave a bit, and let the chips fall where they Perhaps not.

SCES

BRUARY 19–MARCH 19

idiosyncratic Uranus is in Pisces, you are as vulnerable quarius is to the machinations Venus has in mind. If it n't for the unpredictability Uranus brings to a tion, you would probably enjoy whatever an tionate partner was planning. However, if you knew rehand that it's likely to be expensive, as well as a lot of maybe you wouldn't object if and when a surprise is ng. Should the mystery thicken the closer we get to ween, and chances are it will, don't be frightened.

RIES

RCH 20–APRIL 19

to basics. Food, shelter, even clothing could be the erns that need your attention now. And while a natural ter might not be in the cards, you certainly wouldn't the holiday season to wind up that way. Planning d, even though Mercury is retrograde, isn't such a bad especially since your Mars ruler will be stuck in Cancer, ign ruling your unruly family, for months, not weeks. aurus full moon period is a good time to take a realistic at your disposable income vis-à-vis your gift list.

URUS

RIL 20–MAY 20

ull moon in Taurus can serve as a reminder that your ional health is due for its annual check-up. Because is exalted in your sign, you won't have to dig deep cide how you feel about a host of people and tions. Remember that Mercury retrograde left Scorpio, ruler of your significant others, Oct. 23 to focus on folks who aren't as close—e.g., dog-walkers and wheat-grass providers. Around the same time, your Venus ruler could upset your social apple cart by criticizing a colleague.

GEMINI

MAY 21–JUNE 20

Another one of those magical days may have taken place when your Mercury ruler and the sun crossed paths Oct. 23. Whatever you learned that day could resonate until Thanksgiving; it might also be a reason for reliving a romantic episode. Meanwhile, your unpredictable career arc can take another hit as erratic Uranus at the top of your chart is opposed by Venus at the bottom. Since Venus usually indicates a female presence, ask Mom what surprise she's hiding up her sleeve, before it gets too weird.

CANCER

JUNE 21–JULY 22

Once you're aware that your moon ruler is exalted (i.e., exceptionally responsive) whenever it's in Taurus, the compassionate Moon Child might pay more attention to the importance of what occurs while the moon is full in this simpatico, sensual earth sign. This week Luna can smooth out the rough spots you may be experiencing now that abrasive Mars is in your sign. Although your fan base appreciates the bigger set of balls Mars is giving you, your boss or another authority figure could take umbrage. Diplomacy, maybe a dinner?

LEO

JULY 23–AUGUST 22

Try to spend some quality time on the road; that's where you'll benefit the most from what you glean during the meeting between informative Mercury and your sun ruler. It's also where you might catch a glimpse of the way your future will enfold, i.e., which of your goals will take priority and what direction you'll be heading in. From my experience, nothing speeds up change like taking a trip, making the "turn around" and coming home; it's better than erecting relocation charts or consulting the Ouija board.

VIRGO

AUGUST 23–SEPTEMBER 22

News you received regarding something of value to you personally as your Mercury ruler merged with the sun Oct. 23 can quickly become a major asset for both you and a significant other. The Taurus full moon could expose a wealth of resources you have in common, as well as the feelings you share with a partner; and because Taurus is such an earthy, sensual sign, the experience should be quite pleasurable. Just be aware that having indulgent Venus in your sign will make Jupiter's extravagant streak harder to resist.

LIBRA

SEPTEMBER 23–OCTOBER 22

Getting ready for Halloween may become a bigger, more costly deal than you anticipated. Even though it's lodged in pragmatic Virgo, your Venus ruler may put you in danger of succumbing to Jupiter's wildly enthusiastic plans. Going overboard is what these two "fortunate" planets try to get away with whenever they have a chance. However, Venus is also under the influence of unpredictable Uranus, so you might have a change of heart at any minute. It's one thing to call off the party, another to be stuck with the bill. Cool it.

personalized Transit Forecast (30 to 40+ pages) detailing the major themes and issues that will arise over the next 12 months, name, date, time and place of birth, plus a check or money order for $42.50 per report to ROCKIE GARDINER, 6701 Colbath Ave., Glen, CA 91405; more details at www.rockiehoroscope.com. Rockie's daily forecast appears online at www.laweekly.com.

TURN YOUR PASSION INTO YOUR CAREER!

THE CAMBRIDGE SCHOOL OF CULINARY ARTS

Now accepting applications for all January 2008 Programs

INFORMATION SESSIONS

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 25, 2007 | 6:00PM
THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 15, 2007 | 6:00PM

FALL OPEN HOUSE

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 3, 2007 | 11:00AM

www.cambridgeculinary.com
2020 MASSACHUSETTS AVE., CAMBRIDGE, MA
617.354.2020

KENNEDY'S midtown

The Upbeat, Upstairs Restaurant & Pub
Serving Prime Steaks, Seafood and Pub Fare
Brunch offered on Saturday and Sunday from 9:30am

JOIN US FOR MUSIC
WEDNESDAY: Acoustic Showcase at 8:30 pm
THURSDAY, FRIDAY & SATURDAY
Live Music at 9:30 pm

AVAILABLE FOR PRIVATE FUNCTIONS — NO ROOM FEES
NOW BOOKING HOLIDAY PARTIES

LOCATED 1 BLOCK FROM BOSTON COMMON,
DOWNTOWN CROSSING — 42 PROVINCE STREET, BOSTON
617.426.3333

WWW.KENNEDYSMIDTOWN.COM

RESTAURANTS

BROWNSTONE 111 Dartmouth Street, Boston, MA, 617-867-4142 www.irishconnection.com. Situated on the border of Back Bay and the South End, Brownstone is named for the style and the elegance reflective of the architecture of Boston's two neighborhoods. From the hardwood flooring to the Venetian plaster ceiling, the interior exudes classic warmth with a sleek and intimate bar made of mahogany and granite. Brownstone's menu features creative, comfort cuisine. On weekends, Chef Michael McEwen turns out "late-night" cuisine until 1:30 a.m., featuring midnight snacks of fritto misto, baked fondue and pancakes and eggs from the brunch menu. Brownstone is open seven days a week from 11 a.m. – 2 a.m., serving brunch on Saturday and Sunday from 10 a.m. – 3 p.m.

COOGAN'S 171 Milk Street, Boston, 617-451-7415. www.irishconnection.com. Established in 1996, Coogan's is a cozy pub located in the heart of Boston's financial district. It's the perfect place to enjoy hearty pasta dishes, fresh seafood or the aged Black Angus cuts of beef. Wash it down with your pick of one of our 20 draught beers. Enjoy the view of the street side from the bay windows, the warmth of the fireplace or cozy up in a booth with friends. After dark, Coogan's heats up, with DJ's playing top 40.

FUGAKYU 1280 Beacon Street (Coolidge Corner), Brookline, MA 02446, 617-734-1268. www.fugakyu. net. Authentic Japanese cuisine in an elegant and serene setting. Open Daily for lunch and dinner, Fugakyu's menu consists of traditional and nouveau Japanese cuisine including sushi, sashimi, tempura and an extensive sake list. Fugakyu is the largest Japanese restaurant in New England. It's two floors include a sushi bar, cocktail bar, common dining areas, bamboo-enclosed booths, screened Tatami rooms and several private function rooms. Reservations for parties of all sizes are accepted. Takeout and delivery available.

MATCH 94 Massachusetts Ave., at Newbury Street, Boston, 617-247-9922. This modern restaurant/ lounge maintains an unpretentious yet hip vibe. A sleek fire display and glass wine room are just two of its many features. Match's signature mini burgers and martinis are guaranteed to please the most discriminating palate. Match music has a distinct early evening lounge feel with the beat and volume picking up as the night progresses. Open daily 5pm-1am. AE, DC, MC,V.

M.J. O'CONNOR'S 27 Columbus Ave., at Park Plaza, Boston 617-482-2255 www.mjocconors. com. Eclectic Irish Food and spirits, a warm friendly staff and beautifully handcrafted woodwork and murals make this authentic upscale Irish pub one of Boston's best. Starting with only the finest ingredients, each dish is slow cooked according to recipes that have been used for generations. If you're looking for a respite from the hustle and bustle of the city, M.J. O'Connor's is a comfortable and welcoming environment to enjoy a delicious meal, have a pint and some great conversation. Open 11am - 2am 7 days a week.

NED DEVINE'S Faneuil Hall Marketplace, Quincy Market Building, Boston 617-248-8800 www.neddevineboston. com. Located in historic Faneuil Hall Marketplace's Quincy Market Building, Ned Devine's is an upscale Irish Pub concept which features hearty Irish specialties and contemporary American cuisine. Whether it's an afternoon business meeting, dinner with family or after work social gathering, Ned's is a warm meeting spot to enjoy conversation and a wonderful meal. Hand painted murals, imported Irish woodwork, original brickwork and ambient lighting create a comfortable atmosphere in the heart of downtown Boston. Open 11am - 2am, 7 days a week.

ROGGIE'S NEW AGE BREW & GRILLE 356 Chestnut Hill Avenue, Cleveland Circle, Brighton, 617-566-1880. www.roggies.com. This all time favorite restaurant and bar has over 52 beers on tap. Come enjoy breakfast all day, lunch, and dinner. Extensive menu ranging from sandwiches, ribs, pizza, to pasta. Catering also available as well as party platters, call 617-713-0555.

SIDNEY'S GRILLE 20 Sidney St., Cambridge, 617-494-0011 Enjoy fresh flavors, good friends, and a great bar at Sidney's Grille in Central Square. Discover why Bon Appetit magazine says "It's almost shocking to pay this little for food this good, in surroundings this gorgeous." Memorable cuisine combines international flair with regional accents. Serving breakfast, lunch, dinner and weekend brunch. Private dining available. For menus www.sidneysgrille.com.

SUNSET GRILL & TAP:130 Brighton Ave., Allston, 617-254-1331; SUNSET CANTINA: 916 Commonwealth Ave., Boston 617-731-8646. Don't just come for Boston's Best Beer Selection featuring 112 taps and 300 microbrews. Come also to enjoy Boston's award winning steam beer burgers and famous curly fries, original buffalo wings and giant nachos. Still hungry? Try our juicy BBQ steak tips, grilled fish, homemade pastas, tender Yankee ribs or our sizzling fajitas. Full menu until 1 am.

THE BLACK ROSE 160 State Street, Boston, 617-742-2286. www.irishconnec tion.com. Voted one of America's top ten Irish establishments, The Black Rose is Boston's premier Irish pub and restaurant. Established in 1976, the pub is located in the historic Faneuil Hall-Quincy market area of Boston and is known far and wide for its convivial atmosphere, good food and live Irish entertainment. The menu features honest, made-from-scratch food including traditional Irish fare, award winning clam chowder, fish and chips, native lobster, aged Black Angus cuts of beef and of course, Mother Sweeney's corned beef, a recipe from Mother Sweeney herself. For thirty years, The Black Rose has offered live Irish music seven nights a week. Memorable guests on stage have included members of the Chieftains, flutist James Galway, Tommy Makim, Liam Clancy, John Denver and a once relatively unknown member of an Irish rock group called U2.

THE PURPLE SHAMROCK 1 Union Street, Boston, 617-227-2060. www. irish-connection. com. Located on the freedom trail across from Boston City Hall on Union Street. The Purple Shamrock is the perfect place to stop by and have a bite to eat. The fare is composed of New England specialties with burgers, sandwiches, hearty pastas, fresh seafood, tender steaks and other great favorites. After dark, The Purple Shamrock has nightly entertainment with a mix of live music, karaoke and DJ's. At The Purple Shamrock there is something for everyone.

BARS & CLUBS

Beer Specialty

SUNSET GRILL & TAP: 130 Brighton Ave., Allston, 617-254-1331; SUNSET CANTINA: 916 Commonwealth Ave., Boston 617-731-8646. Something's always brewing at Best of Boston's award winning beer bar. Here you'll find the largest selection on the East Coast-112 taps and 300+ microbrews and exotic imports. Join our beer club and enjoy every style of beer under the sun. Take advantage of the yards, cask conditioned beer, flight samples, vintage and new beers, seasonals, meads, ciders, etc. Full menu until 1am. Experience our beer festival 365 days a year.

Billiards

BIG CITY - POOL HALL, Pizza Kitchen, Beer Bar 138 Brighton Ave., Allston, 617-782-2020 www.allstonsfinest.com. BIG TIME FUN: 21 Championship pool tables, 80 big beers on tap, outrageous signature pizzas and BIG MENU Sat/Sun Brunch in our BIG BANK BUILDING with our one of a kind "metro retro decor". THE BIG DEAL is free rooms and pool for your next party or function of any kind. Call the "Party Specialists". Sun - Weds 3P's (pool, pitcher, pizza) $19.99. Life is good in the Big City! Come experience it in a big way!

Clubs

FELT 533 Washington St., Boston, 617-350-5555. www.FeltBoston.com. A four level venue offering a New York style Lounge, a hip bar scene, with sophisticated pool tables and a dance club in the 4th level. Enjoy a gourmet dinner while lounging in a plush, red-velvet booth. The perfect setting for a pre or post-theater dinner or a big birthday bash. The hip atmosphere of DJ's and dancing, sophisticated pool tables & bars...and FELT's posh fourth level club are the perfect blend to satisfy all your senses.

General

HURRICANE O'REILLY'S 150 Canal Stre Boston, 617-722-0161. www.irish connecti com. It's Hurricane season on Canal Stre Just yards across from the Garden, Hur cane's is the perfect place to gather pre- a post-game. Serving lunch and dinner sev days a week, this sports bar is a great esca for your lunch break with our express men specializing, in great food in about ten mi utes. Hurricane's serves Creole, Irish a American pub-style fare. After the sun se on Canal Street, Hurricane's lights up in one of Boston's hottest nightclubs wi Boston's best DJ's, illuminating disco ligh and 6,800 square feet of Madri Gras spirit.

JILLIAN'S BOSTON / LUCKY STRI LANES 145 Ipswich St., Boston, 617-43 0300 www.jilliansboston.com. Jillian's is 70,000 square foot entertainme megaplex featuring 16 bowling lanes, pool tables, high-tech games, high defi tion video walls, multiple lounges and p vate rooms. Located on the first floor Tequila Rain, which offers an amazing Te Mex menu and dancing to the hottest D Friday and Saturday nights.

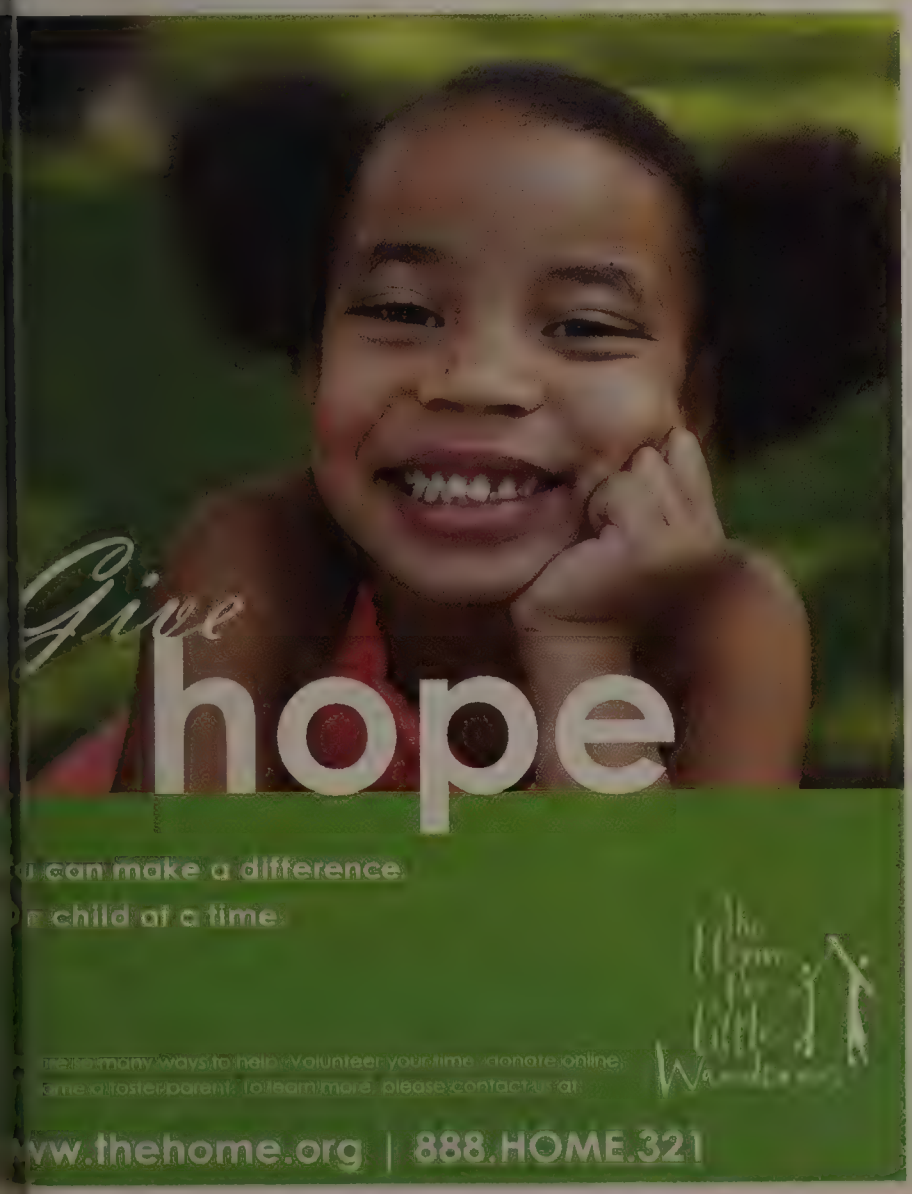
JOSÉ MCINTYRE'S 160 Milk Street, Bosto 617-451-9460. ww.irishconnection.com. Jo McIntyre's is located across from the Aqua ium on Milk Street. This is Boston's only Me ican-Irish pub, specializing in Margaritas a cocktails. Come in the afternoon to watch t game, after work to unwind, or at nig when José's transforms into a lively and e citing dance/pub. This pub has a total of rooms, 3.5 bars, 2 floors, 5 big screen T and a pool table. The newest room is t ideal place to relax after work with co-wor ers on big comfy couches and a soothing a mosphere. The fare is a variety of Mexica classic New England seafood and Americ favorites. Whoever you are, whatever you c José's has something for everyone.

PARRIS Faneuil Hall Marketplace, Quin Market Building, Boston 617-248-880 www.parrisboston. com. Lounge. Cocktai Dancing. Nightlife. Come see the lights Parris. Sample the eclectic lounge me featuring grilled pizza, oyster shooters a steak tartar. Sip a Classic, Apple or Fren 75 martini, and then motion onto the hu dance floor featuring live music with t best bands and DJs Thursday through Sa urday. Named for the original architect the Greek-revival-style building, Alexand Parris, you're nightlife experience at Par will be Boston and beyond. Open 5pm 2am Wedneday - Saturday. Cover char on Friday and Saturday.

SAINT 90 Exeter Street, Boston, 617-23 1134. www.saintnitery.com. Boston's p mier ultra lounge featuring SIN Monda 10pm–2am, Sutra Thursdays 10pm–2a Heaven Fridays 7pm–2am, Spin Saturda 7pm–2am, Style Sundays 10pm–2a Lounge dining available Thursday–Sat day. Call for table reservations.

THE AVENUE SPORTS BAR & GRI 1249 Commonwealth Avenue, Allston, 61 782-9508. www.avenuebar.com. Locat right in Allston, food and sports are t heart of The Avenue. With over 30 beers tap and a full menu this is the ideal bar lounge, watch the game, and relax. Co take advantage of our DirectTV, Plasmas, cent wings 4-7 daily, and $1.00 drafts. T favorite sports bar can transform into party hangout as the weekends have a re dent DJ.

THE HARP 85 Causeway St., Boston 61 742-1010. www.harpboston.com. Vot Boston Magazine's "Best After The Game



e Harp is a favorite downtown hotspot any y of the week, located directly across from e TD Banknorth Garden. Featuring live nds upstairs from Boston, Philadelphia
d New York plus DJs spinning tunes down-irs, on Thursday, Friday and Saturday hts set the pace for the great high-energy vironment. The Harp provides a crowdasing menu with tastes from around the be. Located in the heart of downtown ston, the Harp also serves as an excellent eting place for business luncheons, social herings and events.

BRUNCH

ERY'S 113 Dartmouth Street, Boston,
7-262-9874. www.irishconnection. com.
ated a block from Copley Plaza at the ner of Dartmouth and Columbus, this tro and bar earned the title of the 02-2006 Best of Boston's Best Neigh-hood bar, serving more than 400 regu-
. Enjoy one of the 16 draught beers eir at one of the three bars, by the bistro dows or by the fireplace in a cozy th when the fickle weather of New iland turns cold. It's the perfect place meet friends and enjoy a comfortable osphere with fast & friendly barders. On select nights partake in team ia or dance the night away with DJ thm Nights. Downstairs is a private roomy space featuring a full bar and ce floor, and is the perfect nook for pany functions and holiday parties.
LON'S 955 Boylston Street, Boston,
-421-1818. www.irishconnection.com.
Dillon's blends after-work chill with cock-tail chic. Accented by dark bamboo woodwork and large banana fans, it's the ideal spot to bring a date, loosen your tie after work or watch the game with friends. Relax with a Blueberry Pie Martini in the warmly lit lounge or an ice cold beer on the patio. Then retire to the dining room where you can browse the eclectic Continental menu featuring a variety of items, including pan seared tuna salad, steak sirloin, shrimp tempura, Gourmet prosciutto pizza and more. Also featuring a tapas bar, perfect for sharing, w-ith tasty bites such as Fried Aubergine, Chicken & Chorizo, and Saigon Scallops. Dillon's is open seven days a week from 10:00 a.m. – 2 a.m., serving brunch on Saturday and Sunday beginning at 10:00 a.m.

ROGGIE'S 356 Chestnut Hill Avenue, Cleveland Circle, Brighton, 617-566-1880, www.roggies. com. Shake off the morning blues with Brunch at Roggie's! Brunch is served Saturday and Sunday. Live bands, open mic on Tuesdays, karaoke on Wednesday, and DJ on weekends. Breakfast is also served all day, lunch, and dinner served seven days a week.

SUNSET GRILL & TAP 130 Brighton Ave., Allston, 617-254-1331; SUNSET CANTINA, 916 Commonwealth Ave., Boston 617-731-8646. "Beer's not just for breakfast anymore." At the Sunset Super Sunday Brewers Brunch, try our thick-cut French toast, potato skins and eggs, eggs benny, crispy quesadillas or our All You Can Eat Brunch Taco Bar, including a free Sunday paper and your first beery mary or mimosa. Full menu also available. 112 taps, 300+microbrews.

JOIN US FOR THE HOLIDAYS

Whether it's for a corporate event, a family party or for dinner let us make your dining experience memorable

TRESCA

Owner and Hockey Legend Ray Bourque, General Manager Massimo Tiberi, Extreme's Paul Geary, Real Estate Developer and Co-Owner Harvey Wilk.

One of the North End's Finest Italian Restaurants

NOW WITH A FULL LIQUOR LICENSE

"Home Run"
– Boston Globe

"...first-rate food and well-chosen wines"
–Improper Bostonian

"Award of Excellence"
–Wine Spectator

"...most romantic table in the city"
–Boston Phoenix...Fox TV

"Top Newcomer – Italian"
–Zagat

233 Hanover Street • Boston, MA 02113
617-742-8240 • www.trescanorthend.com

IMPROPER SHOPPER

Classifieds for Bostonians

DON'T PAY FOR FRIENDS

The Newest Community for Young Professionals Who Live, Work, and Play in Boston.

social boston sports.com

Visit us at
SOCIALBOSTONSPORTS.COM
to learn about the wide variety of social events and athletic activities you can get involved in.

HEALTH AWARENESS

TOTALLY CONFIDENTIAL PRIVATE MD

For Rx of sexually transmitted diseases, erectile dysfunction and general medical care. Call and talk directly to Dr. Robert Taylor 617-232-1459, Brookline MA. Free STD guide at www.healthac.org.

INTERIORS

Introducing
HunterDouglas
HERITANCE HARDWOOD SHUTTERS

Now! With New Features, Specialty Shapes, & 100 Standard Colors

This Exclusive Debut is Offered by only a few Authorized Dealers Nationally

the reflective designer
interiors to your style and budget

www.reflectivedesigner.com
1-800-FABRIC-8
Showroom 978-750-0005

LAW

Bad Day at Work?

Business Law, P.C.
617-422-0505

For help with sexual harassment, unpaid wages, and other workplace violations.

Free Confidential Consultation

Employment, Real Estate, and Corporate Law Focus

NEAR DOWNTOWN CROSSING

www.BusinessLawPC.com

LOOKING FOR RENTERS AND BUYERS?

List your property with the IMPROPER BOSTONIAN

Call today for rate information.
617-859-1400 x272

LEAD PAINT/ MOLD TESTING

got lead?

Accurate non-invasive paint testing for apt. owners, tenants, condo associations

We also test for lead in children's toys and lead in drinking water

Mold testing available

HARVARD ENVIRONMENTAL

Please call for an appointment
800-640-0404 — 781-329-0404
www.leadinspection.net

PERSONAL TRAINING

FITNESS FIRST

PERSONAL TRAINING FOR THE MIND, BODY AND SPIRIT

BY APPOINTMENT ONLY
CALL GUNNER AT (617) 786-3113

PSYCHIC

READINGS BY MICHAEL LAFFERTY

Private and personal phone readings. Credit Cards accepted 215-482-6517. Call today!!

A SPIRITUAL COUNSELOR AND MEDIUM-SHIP

Past life reading available for private and telephone readings by Linda Stanton, of Newburyport (978) 255-2536

REAL ESTATE

MOVING TO NORTH CAROLINA?

Beautiful 1928 home, near downtown Southern Pines & world famous Pinehurst. Over an acre of land, 3 bedrooms, guesthouse. visit www.1495connecticutave.com for details. Call Catherine Drexel, ERA Sandhills Realty @ (910)783-8773 or email @ cassie.drexel@era.com

ORLANDO, FL HOME

Orlando, Florida, $149,000, 2/2, like new, remodeled, 1989 manufactured home, 900 sq' on it's own large fenced lot in beautiful Longwood. No downpayment needed; owner financing available. Call Mark 407-416-6007. Investors wanted also.

TEMPO DANCE CENTER

380 Washington Street, Brighton Center, MA 02135
Gail Ruddick, Director

Latin — Swing — Salsa — Ballroom
Argentine Tango — Adult Hip Hop — Dance Socials
Wedding Survival Course — Nightclub Survival Course

Classes also held in Concord Center
Group & Private Lessons — Gift Certificates available
NEW SEMESTER BEGINS NOVEMBER 11TH

For information: (617) 783-5467 www.havetodance.com/tempodancecenter

BALLROOM DANCE COMPETITION

November 3rd – 4th, 2007 - Lowell Memorial Auditorium

Commonwealth Classic

Spectator Tickets available for 3 sessions

For information call (617) 783-5467 or go to www.commonwealthclassic.com

PUPPIES

starting at $299

Cute and healthy
1 year health warranty
Microchipped
Vet checked/shots
Mixed breeds available
Much, much, more

PET EXPRESS
www.petexpressboston.com
781.592.2003

Clothes Call

Personal Shopper & Stylist

Rebecca Woodfork
780 Boylston Street
Boston, MA 02199
857.222.6288
rebeccawoodfork@aol.com

New England Conservatory

Music Referral Service

(617) 585-1170

★ LIVE Ceremony and reception music

★ Classical, jazz, and world music available

HIRE TOMORROW'S STARS TODAY!

Artistic excellence, Exceptional value!

www.newenglandconservatory.edu

Journey back in time for optimum skincare
and body wellness

SpringRain
face & body spa

AT TWO CONVENIENT LOCATIONS!
Copley Square, Boston
617 247 0400
Route 128, Exit 27 B
(Reservoir plaza)
781 895 0010

Luxury Spa Packages for Couples
10% off for Improper readers
www.SpringRainSpa.com

MAYHEM AND MADNESS

HALLOWEEN BASH

Saturday, October 27 8 PM — 2 AM at McGann's Pu

Tickets include six drinks, cash prize for best costumes, complimenta appetizers, psychics, and cand

TICKETS ARE $4

IMPROPER READERS SAVE USING PROMO CODE

This event has sold advance four years lo

BYPA
BOSTON YOUNG PROFESSIONALS ASSOCIATION

Get tickets in advance
www.BostonYPA.co

ICE SKATING CLASSES

14 Greater Boston Rinks

CHILDREN & ADULTS

(781) 890-8480

Sign up Now
www.baystateskatingschool.org
39 years
Bay State Skating School

THE DRUMCONNECTION

SPECIALIZING IN EVERYTHING FOR THE HAND DRUMMER
CLASSES · WORKSHOPS · DRUMCIRCLES · PERFORMANCE

THE WADABA WORKSHOP EXPERIENCE
NOV 30 THRU DEC 2, 2007

SHOP OUR GREAT SELECTION OF: QUALITY DR
BOOKS · CDS · VIDEOS · BAGS · DRUM
PO BOX 1311 ARLINGTON MA 02474 781 316

THE DRUMCONNECTION
New England's Premier Hand Drumming School

WWW.DRUMCONNECTION.COM

Video to DVD

Up to 2 Hours - $25

VHS, Video 8, Hi8, Betamax, miniDV & 3/4" (other formats add'l.

Play it Again Video 295 Reservoir St.
Needham, MA 02494
781-449-3800 • 800-872-0986
please visit us at playitagainvideo.co

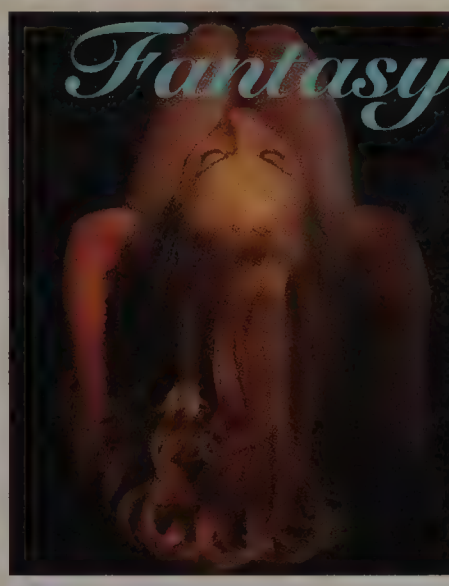
Oriental Medicine

ACUPUNCTURE AND HERBS

Chinese ◆ Japanese ◆ Korean

NARA MARGOLIN
M.S., M.Ac., Lic.Ac., Dipl.Chin.Herbs
(617)308-3617

IMPROPER SHOPPER



Classifieds for Bostonians

BOSTON PLAYERS

Weddings
Events

888-670-7034 www.bostonplayers.com

Fantasy Photography
by Daphne

(781) 641-2100
www.FantasyPhotography.com

SINCE 1980 — GIFT CERTIFICATES

JOSEPH SULLIVAN
CARPET CLEANING
The Best Way to Clean Carpets

Est. 1973. Specializing in hand washing and deep cleaning of all carpets, including delicates (Oriental, Hand-woven, Special dye, etc.) Eliminate dirt/deep stains and odors. Drop-off/pick-up service available. Call now for competitive pricing.

VISA 617-445-1693

www.josephsullivan.biz

ACCOUNT EXECUTIVE

THIS IS AN OPPORTUNITY

for an accomplished business-to-business sales rep to break into a career in media and magazine sales. Strong organizational, planning, written and verbal skills are a must. Minimum 2 years of sales experience necessary.

JOIN A GREAT TEAM!

Send Resumes to: THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN
Attn: Robyn Sarkisian-Miller
142 Berkeley St., 3rd Floor, Boston, MA 02116
or email: Robyn@improper.com No phone calls please

ultimate bootcamp

NEW ENGLAND'S HOTTEST OUTDOOR FITNESS PROGRAM

New 4-week programs begin November 5, 2007

>>www.ultimatebootcamp.com

Your Retreat in the Country

OPEN HOUSE in Bolton, MA

$499,900

Nov. 7 (Wed.), 4 pm to 8 pm
Nov 10 (Sat.), 1 pm to 5 pm
Nov 11 (Sun), 1 pm to 5 pm

X-country ski from your doorstep ■ In the middle of "Best Biking" ■ Relax in a two-person Jacuzzi ■ Warm yourself beside your Vermont Casting stove ■ Nashoba Winery just down the road ■ PRIVATE, WOODS, 5 ACRES ■ Many upgrades — Kitchen, Oak floors

SEE REALTOR.COM MLS IN BOLTON

FOR INFO/DIRECTIONS: KARL 978-368-4239 peggyandkarl@hotmail.com

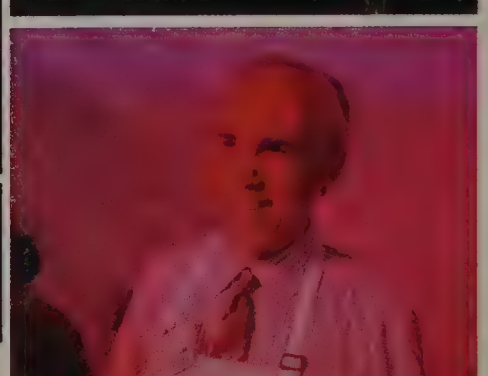
LAST SCENE HERE



BY JONATHAN SOROFF

At Men of Boston Cook for Women's Health, clockwise from left: Sidney Jean-Felix and Tom Finneran; Karen Holmes-Ward; Stan Strickland; Randy Price

WHERE'S JENNY CRAIG WHEN YOU NEED HER?

Men of Boston Cook for Women's Health is both an unwieldy and slightly inaccurate name for the fundraiser held beneath a big white tent outside the Codman Square Health Center in Dorchester.

True, there were men cooking—in fact, an all-star lineup of 52 celebrities, politicians and fat cats who were accompanied by pros from some of the city's best restaurants. Also true: In the past 10 years, the event has raised beaucoup bucks for women's health services at Codman and the Dorchester House Multi-Service Center. However, there was nothing healthy about the food that was being served, which is to say it was delicious.

From fried chicken, macaroni and cheese, and ribs, to chicken marsala and lobster bisque, there wasn't anything that didn't scream "Screw the diet!" and everyone who loosened their belts and tied on the feedbag went home fat and happy.

Among the boldfaced names slinging the chow: Gov. Deval Patrick and Hizzonah Tom Menino, former governor Mike Dukakis, bestseller-list fixture Dennis Lehane, Celtics legend Jo Jo White, news anchor stud muffin Randy Price, sports anchor Steve Burton, House speakers past and present Tom Finneran and Sal DiMasi, conductor Charles Ansbacher, mustachioed fishmonger Roger Berkowitz and son of a speaker man Tom O'Neill, to name but a few.

While everyone grazed, legendary jazzman Stan Strickland worked his magic, which was worth the price of admission, never mind the opportunity to bump into the likes of Channel 5 glamazon Karen Holmes-Ward, sparkly do-gooder Douglas Brooks, first lady Angela Menino, WBZ GM Ed Piette, banking bigwig Larry Fish, the absurdly handsome Milton Benjamin, the unsinkable Millie Clemens, multitasking dad Randal Walker, Channel 5 CEO Bill Fine, restaurateur Jim Solomon, Bank of America president Bob Galley and every last one of the habitual party crashers who seem to wriggle their way into any party with good food.

"Not bad for a parking lot in Codman Square," said one guest with a gift for understatement. (It's not every day that the governor stops you at a party to ask, "Aren't you going to have some pulled pork?") When all was said and done (and eaten), it was a highly caloric evening, and as he walked out the door, one guest was overheard moaning, "I just gained 45 pounds and went up three pant sizes."

At La Vie de Boheme: Jeff and Christine McCormick; Charles and Meryl Gottesman

PUCCINIPALOOZA...

There was no absinthe or opium, starving artists or dissolute babes named Mimi wasting away from tuberculosis, but La Vie de Boheme, a black-tie gala for the Boston Lyric Opera held at the Copley Plaza, was one helluva party.

On hand were such opera buffs as event chair Patricia Collins, board member Charles Gottesman with the stunning Meryl, party pair Jeff and Christine McCormick, broadcasting big wigs Rich Doucette and Mary Cashman, Wang CEO Joe Spaulding and the comme il faut Joyce, blonde bombshell Kyla Akin (looking like a John Singer Sargent painting) with her parents, Steve and Jane, blue-blooded do-gooder Jeffrey Marshall, the soignée Wendy Shattuck, über–arts patron Linda Cabot Black, the perfectly darling Sue Dahling Sullivan, arts booster Joanne Dickinson, the ever affable Peter Wender and a woman who responded to t compliment "You've got great legs" pointing at her husband and saying, "H are better."

During cocktails, an accordion pla gave the gathering a whiff of the Left Ba and then guests were ushered into the gra ballroom, which was tricked out as the C Momus with performers wearing costum from the opera's upcoming production.

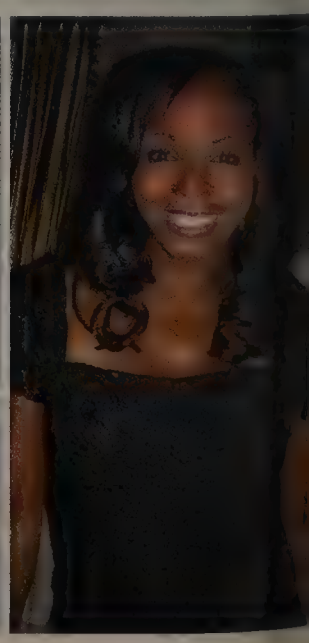
During dinner, young artists of the Bl performed, and following coffee a dessert there was dancing to the New En land Conservatory's Jazz Ensemble. Amo the evening's wittiest exchanges:

One man greeted a friend and said, "T last time I saw you, you were on stage," which the friend replied, "Really? Wa wearing any clothing?"

MMM, MMM GOOD...

Taste America might sound like an ox moron, but the fundraiser for the Jam Beard Foundation, held at the Veroniq Ballroom at Longwood, was anything l a Velveeta on Wonderbread or Cornd Pie kind of affair.

In fact, the tasting featured the han work of such culinary superstars as Ana So tun, Frank McClelland, Dante de Ma istris, Pino Maffeo and Anthony Susi, a it attracted such foodies and celebutantes real estate hottie Brian Doherty with t scrumptious Ann Marie O'Connor, custo tailor to the stars Alan Rouleau with bubl blonde Ruth Jones, catering babe Sus Callender, ubiquitous hipster Charles Ve sey, and legendary mixologists Jacks Canon, John Gertsen and Misty Kalk fen, who concocted fantastic cocktails to company all the fabulous food.



The evening's most amusing comme courtesy of Wellesley Cheese Shop sci Brad Wasik: "I have one of the very f jobs in the world where it's a good idea wash your hands before going to t bathroom." iB

Avez-vous dish?

Dirt? A spectacular social occasion? Call JS at 617-859-1400, ext. 303, or send an e-mail to jonathan@improper.com.

At Taste America: Brian Doherty and Ann Marie O'Connor; Dante di Magistris; Susan Callender

Your neighborhood bank.

Your bank in more neighborhoods.

We're opening 30 new Citibank® branches in the greater Boston area. So we can help you turn your dreams into realities. Stop in today to open a checking account and get everything that comes with it: online banking, fee-free ATMs, mobile banking and more branches in your neighborhood. We're right where you are. We're right where you need us. Citibank is now in Boston.

convenient banking in your neighborhood over 20,000 fee-free ATMs in the U.S.

mobile banking online banking

To locate one of our new branches, visit www.citi.com/ma, or call 866-914-0534.

As part of the community,
Citi® is proud to sponsor
Citi Performing Arts Center™.

citibank®
let's get it done℠

Citibank. Citibank, N.A. Member FDIC. Citi, Citibank and Citibank with Arc Design are registered service marks of Citigroup Inc. Let's Get It Done and Citi Performing Arts Center are service marks of Citigroup Inc.

Dear Ketel One Drinker
Hello again.

Ketel One Vodka distilled from wheat ©2007 Imported by Nolet Spirits U.S.A., Aliso Viejo, CA. All rights reserved. 40% ALC/VOL. www.KetelOne.com

November 7–20, 2007

METRO BOSTON'S GROUCHY GUIDE TO CULTURE, ENTERTAINMENT AND COLLECTIVE PAIN

THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN

What's Up With That?

...upid,
...noying,
...SGUSTING,
...Despicable...
...S BOSTON'S WORST!

...cording to
...WALSH BROTHERS,
...seriously
...comedians]

It's a Lousy Job
THE SECRET LIVES of BOUNCERS, METER MAIDS & T CONDUCTORS

Wicked Bad Weather
THE LONG-TERM FORECAST IS FOR CRAP

Plus

BOSTON'S BEST!
The Red Sox Sweep the WORLD SERIES!

$2.50 OUTSIDE OF METRO BOSTON
20
0 74470 79832 3

LET'S HAVE AN

®RGY

TWO'S COMPANY
THREE'S A CROWD
BUT FIVE'S AN ORGY!
THE MORE THE MERR

www.orsshnapps.com

The ®riginal Irish Schnapps

ŌR IRISH SCHNAPP

BANGLE FEVER

Arlene AND Roberta

Fine Jewelry

233 NEEDHAM STREET · NEWTON, MASSACHUSETTS · 617.527.3344

contents

NOVEMBER 7–20, 2007

JÖRG MEYER

FEATURES

20 SOROFF/ON JONATHAN ELIAS
The WBZ-TV news anchor dishes on awkward on-air moments, the stupidest story he ever covered and pledging allegiance to Red Sox Nation.
BY JONATHAN SOROFF

23 BOSTON'S WORST
Oh, how we hate thee. Let us count the ways:
24 Worse and Worser
The Walsh brothers hit the Hub where it hurts. Listen up, Howie Carr. BY CHRIS AND DAVID WALSH
28 Public Enemies
We walk a day in the shoes of the city's most despised employees. BY NICK ALTSCHULLER
32 This Weather Blows
Don't like the climate? Wait five minutes, it'll get worse. BY MATT HEID

34 GIVE ME LIBERTY OR GIVE ME COATS
We bring new hot looks to the city's new hot hotel.
PHOTOGRAPHS BY CARMELO DONATO

Photographed for THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN by
Jörg Meyer

Photographer's assistant: Jim Brueckner; model: Jamie R/Model Club, Inc.; hairstyling: Mari Joe/James Joseph Studio

COLUMNS

8 THE WORD
Church; Prime 128; Miss USA Rachel Smith.

14 PROPER BOSTONIANS
Proper partygoers pictured.
BY KERRY BRETT

16 EZRA
Welcome to fight club.
BY EZRA DYER

18 TAKE FIVE
Sox win!; Schilling's letters; Manny's brain.
BY RICH LEVINE

40 MOPSY
(Not that You Asked): Rants, Exploits and Obsessions; graphologist Barbara Harding; E.R. Butler & Co.
BY MOPSY STRANGE KENNEDY

52 MOVIES
The Coen brothers go dark in No Country for Old Men.
BY SEAN BURNS

58 MUSIC
At the horn with Chris Botti.
BY PAUL ROBICHEAU

88 LAST SCENE HERE
Our Man in Black Tie hits A Family Gathering.
BY JONATHAN SOROFF

EAT.DRINK.

42 DINING
Beehive's buzz is well-deserved.
BY J. CHARLES MOKRISKI

44 DISH
Closing down Rachel's Kitchen.
BY CAROLYN FAYE FOX

45 TASTINGS
Dinner That Matters and other morsels.
BY RICH LEVINE

AGENDA

The two-week forecast from Amanda and Nick. Complete listings follow page 47.

Dane Cook • On My Own Two Feet • Live Nation art auction • Front Kitchen • Comics Come Home

ET CETERA

Letters
Improper Impersonals 8
Improper Sightings 8
Rockie Horoscope 8

Guaranteed Rate Base 85,000 biweekly;
ABC audited
We are an Equal Opportunity Employer

VOLUME XVI, ISSUE 22

THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN MAGAZINE is published biweekly.
Subscriptions available for $14.95 per year, by
Improper Publications Inc.

POSTMASTER:
Send address changes to:
THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN MAGAZINE
142 Berkeley St., Third Floor, Boston, MA 02116

THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN MAGAZINE

NATICK COLLECTION

JUST GOT SEXIER

VISIT THE ALL NEW VICTORIA'S SECRET

OPENING NOVEMBER 15

Boston's largest PINK boutique

Victoria's Secret Designer Collection
Intimissimi, Just Cavalli, Chantal Thomass and Pleasure State

FREE Backstage Beauty Bag
With any $60 purchase, November 15-21 or while supplies last (comparable value $100)

VICTORIA'S SECRET

THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN MAGAZINE

PUBLISHER Wendy Semonian Eppich

ACTING EDITOR Megan Lisagor

MANAGING EDITOR Andrew Rimas

FEATURE WRITER/SOCIAL COLUMNIST Jonathan Soroff

FEATURE WRITER/COLUMNIST Ezra Dyer

STAFF WRITER Rich Levine

ASSISTANT EDITOR Nick Altschuller

EDITORIAL ASSISTANT Amanda Knorr

COPYEDITORS Nathaniel Adams, Linh Tran Brincat

FASHION EDITOR Victor Vargas

CONTRIBUTING EDITORS Sandy Block, M.W., Sean Burns, Chris Collins, Carolyn Faye Fox, Marni Elyse Katz, Mopsy Strange Kennedy, J. Charles Mokriski, Paul Robicheau, John D. Spooner

EDITORIAL INTERNS Liz Fiandaca, Christopher Griffin, Amy Gromek, Amy Laskowski, Molly McCormick, Michael Miccoli, Joseph Scapicchio, Kate Wen

DESIGN CONSULTANTS Heroun + Co., Paul DiMattia

PHOTO EDITOR Katie Noble

STAFF PHOTOGRAPHER Kerry Brett

PHOTO INTERNS Jocelyn Gabriel, Alan Gwizdowski, Samantha A. Tyler

ADVERTISING DIRECTOR Julie Kane

DIRECTOR OF BUSINESS DEVELOPMENT Alison Morant

SENIOR NATIONAL ACCOUNT MANAGER Carrie Wallace

ACCOUNT EXECUTIVES Meghan Brady, Bill Eppich, Jessica Federico

CLASSIFIED ACCOUNT EXECUTIVE Carly Rubin

GRAPHIC ARTIST Nicole Begin

DIRECTOR OF MARKETING AND PUBLIC RELATIONS Stacey Shane

ADVERTISING AND MARKETING INTERNS Sarah Bernstein, Dihan Fields-Coard, Victor John, James Phillips, Meghan Rourke, Bryan Russo, Tonya Smith, Allison Zarick

PRODUCTION DIRECTOR Merinda Pattullo

V.P. OF FINANCE & ADMINISTRATION Arthur Souza

LEGAL COUNSEL John S. Day, Esq.

GENERAL MANAGER Robyn Sarkisian Miller

OFFICE MANAGER Gretchen Bostrom

SALES ASSISTANT/RECEPTIONIST Nicole Zoto

FOUNDER Mark Semonian

THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN MAGAZINE
142 Berkeley St., 3rd Floor
Boston, MA 02116
Phone: 617-859-1400; Fax: 617-859-1446

E-mail: info@improper.com
www.improper.com

Published by Improper Publications Inc. Copyright©2007 by Improper Publications Inc. All rights reserved. Reproduction in part or in whole without permission is strictly prohibited.

All correspondence to THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN MAGAZINE is read, considered, filed and/or forwarded to the appropriate parties. Due to the volume of correspondence, editors cannot respond individually to solicitations, queries or press releases.

Member
Audit Bureau of Circulations

THERE ARE 250 MILLION BUBBLES IN A BOTTLE OF CHAMPAGNE AND THERE'S A SECRET IN EACH ONE.

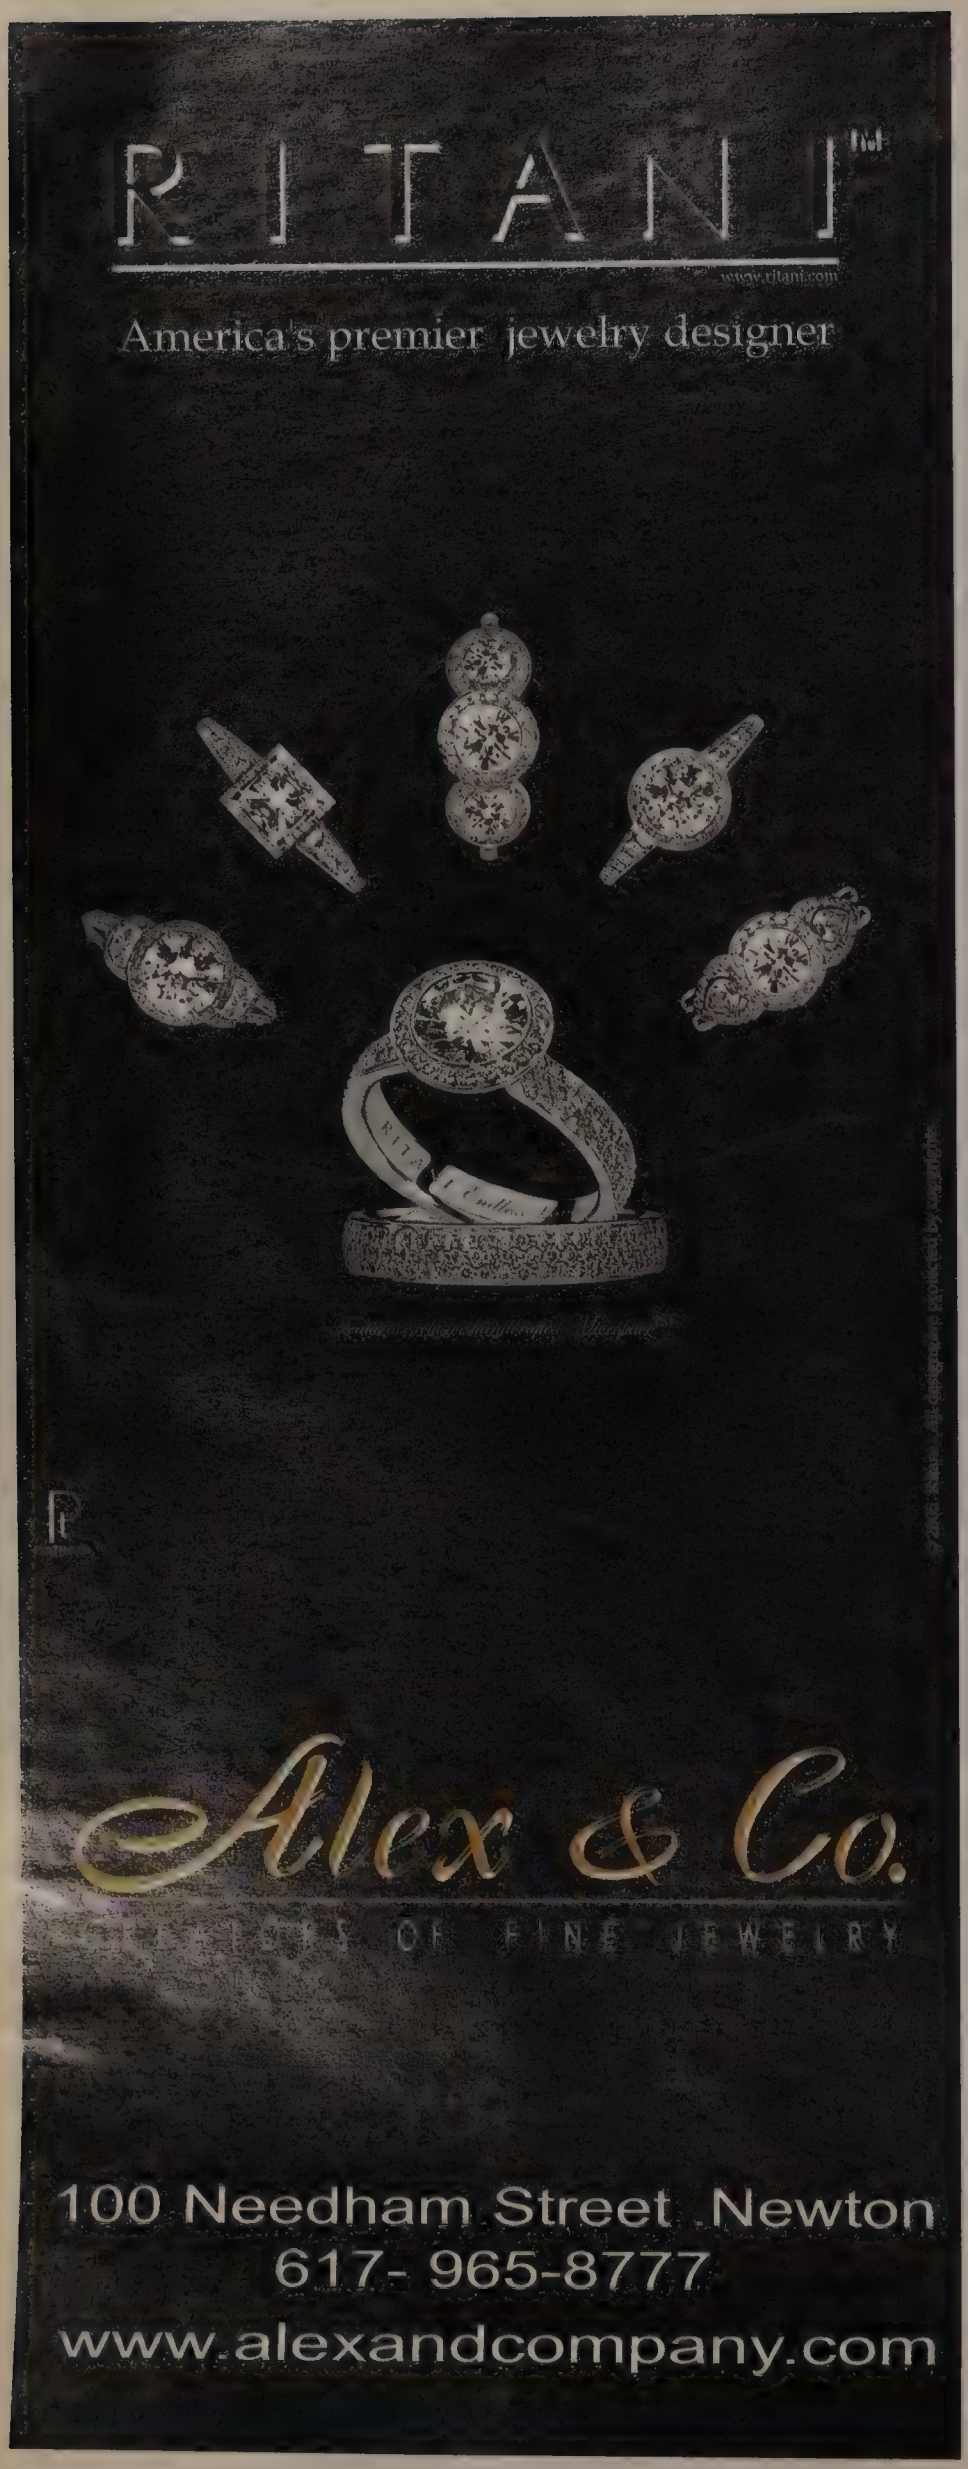
When the cork pops, watch the pressure release as bubbles of thoughts burst into words. With three unique dining experiences, a champagne bar hidden inside a rum themed bar, and lively salsa dancing, there's no better place to celebrate the holidays. Let your senses travel.

Do you live an InterContinental life?

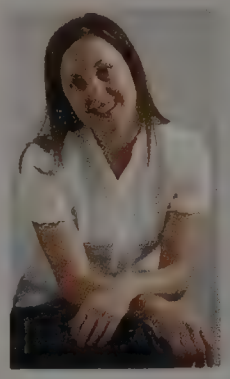


SUSHI TEQ

RumBa
RUM & CHAMPAGNE BAR

MIEL
Brasserie Provençale

INTERCONTINENTAL.
BOSTON



510 Atlantic Avenue • 617.747.1000
intercontinentalboston.com

LETTERS

FROM THE EDITOR

SHARED EXPERIENCE

Once it gets cold, I cut through Copley Place on my walk home. But in the early days of fall, I take the long route from the IMPROPER to Boylston and down Newbury. The stroll makes me fall in love with Boston over and over again.

Unless the clipboard kids are out. You know who I mean—those do-gooders gathering signatures from the materialistic masses in the Back Bay. I confess to not always stopping. While a polite "Sorry, don't have time" usually puts me safely past their pens, it occasionally solicits a nasty response.

As our cover girl says, "What's up with that?" Which gets to the heart of this issue. As much as we adore the city, part of living here means sharing the good and the bad with our fellow Bostonians. In that spirit, we've decided to give the Hub a little roast. We left the actual ribbing to the Walsh brothers, a pair of comedic native sons.

Of course, the Red Sox winning the World Series last month proves more is right than wrong with this town. Seeing Dustin Pedroia hit that first home run goes a long way toward erasing ill will. I may even have high-fived one of the clipboard kids at the parade.

Megan Lisagor

MEGAN LISAGOR, Acting Editor
megan_lisagor@improper.com

COLUMN SUPPORT

I am an avid reader of the IMPROPER and wanted to share my appreciation for John Spooner's column. When I pick up a new issue, I always do a quick flip-through to see if he has written a new article, and if so, that's the first one I read. He consistently contributes well-written and interesting stories, usually with a little take-away at the end. I think that the subjects he writes about appeal to a wide audience of IMPROPER readers. Furthermore, I am a firm believer in respecting any man who can confidently wear a bow tie.

—JAMES DOYLE
Norwood

DOOR BOOR

The timing of Ezra's article in the Sept. 26 issue was priceless. I had almost the identical experience at a bar on a Friday night. A very good friend of mine was visiting the city and was upstairs on the roof deck, but when I asked if I could join her, the bouncer simply pointed to a line. Although I explained that I had 10 friends up there, I was denied access. That wasn't the problem. It was the lack of respect and the rude remarks that followed. When my friend came down to see if she could get me in, the doorman mocked her, and I saw him take at least three $20 bills from people he allowed to cut the line. I don't know if it was the same guy you dealt with, but he made a ferret look like Adonis. My tolerance for crap from evil Bostonians, who don't think I'll do anything about their ridicu lous behavior (such as bad taxi rides, n holding doors and taking up three sea on the T), vanished long before I rea your article. I told the bouncer to go f- himself.

—JAY NICKS
Watertown

CONTRIBUTORS

JÖRG MEYER

German-born Jörg Meyer has lived in the United States for the past 12 years. The father of three daughters, he focuses on children's portraits, and his work has appeared in Parents magazine, Fox Sports Net and Italian Vogue Bambini. His photographs grace this issue's cover and the features starting on page 23.

CHRIS AND DAVID WALSH

Chris and David Walsh are comedians from Charlestown. They have performed for royalty and many small children. Although they recently moved to Los Angeles, their first piece for the IMPROPER, "Worse and Worser," appears on page 24.

Tell Us What You Think

SEND LETTERS TO THE EDITOR TO: The Improper Bostonian, 142 Berkeley St., Third Floor, Boston, MA 02116. E-mail: letters@improper.com. Fax: 617-859-1446. Letters must be signed; please include your town and phone number. Letters may be edited for space and clarity.

BOSTON'S BEST 2004 WINNER IMPROPER BOSTONIAN
Pizza, Nouveau

BOSTON'S BEST 2005 WINNER IMPROPER BOSTONIAN
Pizza

BOSTON'S BEST 2006 WINNER IMPROPER BOSTONIAN
Pizza

BOSTON'S BEST 2007 WINNER IMPROPER BOSTONIAN
Pizza

20 Charles Street, Beacon Hill – 617.723.9600
286 Harvard Street, Coolidge Corner – 617.734.4900
611 Duval Street, Key West, Fl – 305.293.8890
41 Waltham Street, Lexington – 781.274.0089
222 Newbury Street, Back Bay – 617.262.0090
73 South Street, Hingham – 781.740.2775
435 Moody Street, Waltham – 781.736.0044 Now open!
118 Washinton Street, Salem – 978.741.2787 Now open!

Opening Soon:
Harvard Square, Brattle Street
Watertown Square, Main Street

THE UPPER CRUST PIZZERIA
ESTABLISHED 2003

...gins, Owner
...d, Owner
...nts, Founder/Owner
..., General Manager

www.theuppercrustpizzeria.com

THE WORD

Church

NEW IN TOWN

Heaven's Kitchen

There seems to be unlimited thematic potential in naming a restaurant Church. Thankfully, the newly opened spot near Fenway Park, which replaces the decrepit Linwood Grill, chooses to keep the ecclesiastic trappings to a minimum.

The space is divided in two: one part neighborhood restaurant, one part live music club. And while there are a few unmistakable Gothic undertones (wrought-iron chandeliers, gargoyle paraphernalia, candles everywhere), the overall feel is more neighborhood hangout than holy sanctum.

"There is a very fine line that we knew we couldn't cross," says co-owner Kristian Deyesso, who, as a designer and music buff, coordinated the restaurant's overall theme. "The Linwood was always a place where people from every walk of life, every color, every age could get together," he says. "When the space became available, it all clicked for me." So he and partner Chris Tocchio (who helped open restaurants for Todd English and Jim Cafarelli) consciously substituted food and socializing for sermons and prayers to create a welcoming meeting place.

The flagstone-floored dining room gets a flicker of color from the stained-glass windows and chandeliers, making it a place you want to relax in. And the menu boasts a number of ways to do that. The not-so-subtle Seven Deadly Sins cocktail list (Greed and Sloth are both doozies, $10) can easily keep one occupied for hours, while the tightly edited dinner menu from chef Andy Beer (most recently of 209 Boston) ranges from low-key comfort to upscale bistro fare. A plate of tender tagliatelle ladled with chunky bolognese ($9 for a half portion; $18 for a whole) and the grilled cheeseburger ($12) fit the casual profile. There are also the makings of a multicourse feast; start with heady smoked pork and lentil soup ($7), move on to a sturdy order of warm duck confit over an autumn hash of butternut squash and potatoes ($9), followed by the mammoth lamb shank served falling off the bone and resting in a drizzle of parmesan-spinach puree ($24). Finish it off with an old-fashioned ice cream sundae ($7) or the cinnamon panna cotta ($7), which is actually a deconstructed celebration of pumpkin pie.

Food isn't the only draw though. The live music venue has been graced with a fresh coat of paint and a new stage, and local bands are flocking to pay homage. Which, in a sense, means that Church really does live up to its name. Church, 69 Kilmarnock St., Boston (617-236-7600). www.churchofboston.com.

—Erin Byers Murray

Crispy tuna spring rolls with Envy (a kiwi martini)

INNER VIEW

American Beauty

Last March, Tennessee native Rachel Smith joined an exclusive circle of hotness when she bested 50 other competitors to become Miss USA 2007. Smith was recently in town to unveil a 12-foot pink ribbon at New Balance's headquarters in Brighton and to help launch NB's new limited-edition bag, whose proceeds benefit the Susan Komen Breast Cancer Foundation.

Improper Bostonian: Tell us about the cause tha brought you to town.

Rachel Smith: Breast cancer awareness is my platfor as Miss USA, so I'm really looking to make an impact o the younger generation. Young girls need to know ho important it is to be aware of this disease.

IB: What's the coolest thing about being Miss USA?

RS: It's got to be the traveling. I've been to Kenya, Spai Turks and Caicos.... I even got to meet the president!

IB: And the craziest part?

RS: I guess that people want to have their pictures take with me. It weirds me out a little because in my mind I'm still just Rachel.

IB: What's Rachel's grossest habit?

RS: I pick my cuticles and pop my knuckles all the time My mom and dad are always yelling at me about it.

IB: A fifth of the American population can't locate the Unite States on a world map. Why do you think that is?

RS: I just don't think we're putting strong enough empha sis on geography, and—

IB: Wait, do you...

RS: Yes, I recognize the question. People don't under stand how difficult it is to be up there answering thos questions on live TV. You'd be nervous, too.

IB: Yeah, you're right. Especially if I were standing next to A Slater. So what's the better pageant movie: Little Miss Sun shine or Drop Dead Gorgeous*?*

RS: You know, I've never seen either of those, so I'll hav to go with Miss Congeniality.

IB: You interned with Oprah. Is she Miss Congeniality?

RS: Oprah is just as amazing as she seems on TV. If I ca accomplish even half as much as she has in her career the I'll be happy.

—Rich Levine

The presence of a bar stool shouldn't prevent you from standing for something.
Drink Life Deeply KNOB CREEK WHISKEY
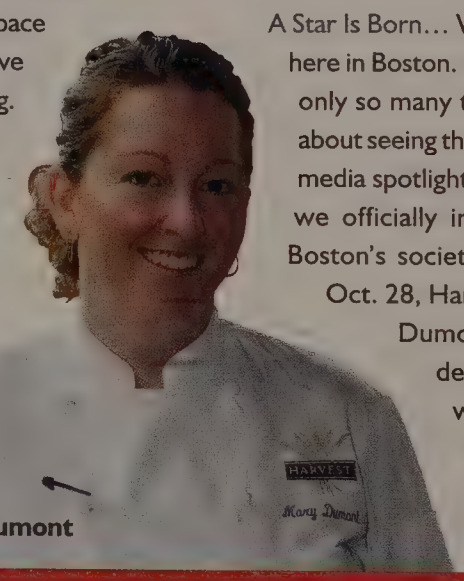
SMALL batch
Knob Creek® Kentucky Straight Bourbon Whiskey
©2006 Knob Creek Distillery, Clermont, KY

TASTY TIDBITS



Yielding Interest

Take It to the Banq… The South End's Penny Savings Bank, now being converted into one of the city's swankiest condo complexes, will soon harbor culinary riches. This new joint from the SOWA Restaurant Group, appropriately dubbed Banq, is slated to open in early December and will feature a French-inspired menu from chef Ranveer Brar. Boasting an impressive list of apps ($4–$9), including saffron-carrot soup with tamarind monkfish and shredded duck confit in a kerala pastry, and moderately priced entrees ($16–$24) like coriander-spiked veal sirloin and morel-dusted grilled halibut, Banq will be open for dinner seven nights a week. 1375 Washington St., Boston (617-451-0077).

Banq's Mark Raab, Ranveer Brar and Hemant Chowhry

Prime Real Estate… We have a confession to make: After so many new steakhouse announcements in this space over the last year, we've officially run out of creative ways to introduce them. It's true. We've got nothing. But that's not slowing down the carnivorous tidal wave. This December, the Aquitaine Group—the gang that brought us Union Bar & Grille, Aquitaine Bistro, the Armani Café and most recently Gaslight—is getting in on the action with the opening of a suburban steakhouse of its own. Prime 128, a 300-seat modern meat mecca, will open in early December at Newton's new Hotel Indigo Riverside (it was formerly a Holiday Inn), offering steakhouse fare plus an array of chicken and seafood options. 399 Grove St., Newton (617-969-5300).

Preppin' for Persephone… Last spring we gave you the heads-up on 2007 James Beard nominee Michael Leviton's new Fort Point Channel venture. After a seemingly endless wait, Persephone is almost ready to roll. The 76-seat eatery—which doubles as a high-end clothing boutique called the Achilles Project—is expected to open in early December and will serve a New American menu courtesy of Leviton, who's been a hit in the 'burbs since 1999 when his first restaurant, Lumière, was named one of the best new restaurants in America by Bon Appetit. 283 Summer St., Boston (617-695-2257). www.achilles-project.com.

Mary Dumont

A Star Is Born… We love our celebrity chefs here in Boston. But to be honest, there are only so many times we can get psyched about seeing the same old faces bask in the media spotlight. So it's with great joy that we officially induct a new member to Boston's society of famous foodies. On Oct. 28, Harvest executive chef Mary Dumont made her national TV debut on the Food Network's Iron Chef America, where she took on the network's resident master chef Cat Cora. And even though Dumont didn't emerge victorious (she was edge out by a narrow margin), we're happy to have another gastro-star to gossip about. 44 Brattle St., Cambridge (61 868-2255). www.harvestcambridge.com.

Bob's Southern Bistro

Stop the Music!… After 50 years of gracing the South En with a never-ending stream of sweet jazz, Nov. 25 w mark the day the music dies at Bob's Southern Bistro. Wi an expanding list of outside business interests occupyi his time, owner Darryl Settles made the decision in la October to close Bob's doors, but he'll do so with styl The restaurant hosts a series of special events over th course of the month, including a Best of Bob's jazz co cert, a charitable auction of the bistro's artwork and Ne Orleans–style "Jazz Funeral" Sunday brunches. Visit the Web site for a full list of activities and information on ho to pay your last respects to the South End staple 604 Columbus Ave., Boston (617-536-6204). www.bob southernbistro.com. —RL

FASH FLASH

Lucky Dogs

Still shuffling around in smelly old sneaks? Have you not noticed Boston's fascinatio with fancy footwear of the athletic persuasion? Doug Palardy, proprietor of Motley an Motley Home, whose favorite sneaks are the Fragment Chuck Taylor Lows (a gift fro Hiroshi Fujiwara), has not only noticed, he's taken action. Last week he opened Mo ley Shoes, the first store in the South End to specialize in premium sneakers perfect fo hipsters and prepsters. The décor of the small space is treehouse chic, with olive-co ored walls, natural wood trim and a dramatic faux-deer-antler chandelier. Perched o recycled railroad-tie shelving (the build-out hails wholly from reused materials, in cluding floorboards from defunct dive bar Waltham Tavern) sit treasures by Puma Nike, Adidas, and Converse by John Varvatos, among others, ranging in price from $6 to $200. Although himself an avid sneaker guy, Palardy understands that levels of devo tion vary. To that end, he offers a solid collection of utilitarian styles as well as the lates must-haves for both men and women. We're grabbing our credit/debit card (cash isn' accepted) and running right over. Motley Shoe Shop, 76 Dartmouth St., Boston (617 351-6969). www.shopmotley.com. —Marni Elyse Katz

The Saab 9-5 Sedan. Never fly coach again.

Saab was founded by 16 aircraft engineers and their spirit lives on in the 2007 Saab 9-5 Sedan. A 260 horsepower Turbocharged engine, leather-appointed seats, dual-zone climate control, six-disc CD changer, Tire Pressure Monitor System, and No-Charge Scheduled Maintenance for three years or 36,000 miles* are all standard. Who says you have to pay extra to fly first class? After all, once you've built jets, you don't build just another car.

©2007 SAAB AUTOMOBILE USA

Manufacturers of Saab vehicles and jets are no longer affiliated. *Three years or 36,000 miles, whichever comes first.

Learn More

VILLAGE SAAB
Acton, MA

WOODWORTH SAAB
Andover, MA

PATRICK MOTORS, INC.
Auburn, MA

HERB CHAMBERS SAAB
Boston, MA

TRACY BANKS SAAB
Concord, NH

GARY BLAKE SAAB
Exeter, NH

SAAB CITY OF FRAMINGHAM
Framingham, MA

SHAW SAAB
Norwell, MA

SAAB NASHUA NORTH
Merrimack, NH

CENTRAL SAAB
Norwood, MA

HYANNIS SAAB
South Yarmouth, MA

128 SALES, INC
Wakefield, MA

CHARLES RIVER SAAB
Watertown, MA

IMPROPER REPORTS

Blue-Ribbon Blue Plates

Kill the tuna melt. Lunchtime is a sacred hour, a respite from the slings and arrows of outrageous routine. Daily specials ought to be special, and these weekly lunches lift the workday out of the ordinary.

Monday

Grassroots Deli

183 Devonshire St., Boston (617-338-8545).

The Grassroots barbecue London broil ($7.95) is almost reason enough to look forward to Mondays. Spiced with homemade barbecue sauce and served with rice and salad, it's sustenance for the long, dark road to the weekend.

Tuesday

Viga

304 Stuart St. and 291 Devonshire St., Boston (617-542-7200).

www.vigaeatery.com

Penne badia (small, $3.29; large, $5.29) is a concoction consisting of chicken breast, sun-dried tomatoes, feta cheese and black olives in a light pesto cream sauce served over penne. Sometimes it's good to be badia.

Wednesday

Seaport Deli of Course

451 D St., Boston (617-261-1664).

Salute our Puritan heritage with a gluttonous feast of roast turkey, stuffing or mashed potatoes, salad, gravy and cranberries in this weekly "Thanksgiving Day" special ($7.35).

Thursday

Doyle's Café

3484 Washington St., Jamaica Plain (617-524-2345).

Old-school cabbage is the foundation of Doyle's New England boiled dinner ($9.95). Fresh corn beef brisket, boiled potatoes, carrots and beets complete this Irish immigrant's feast.

Friday

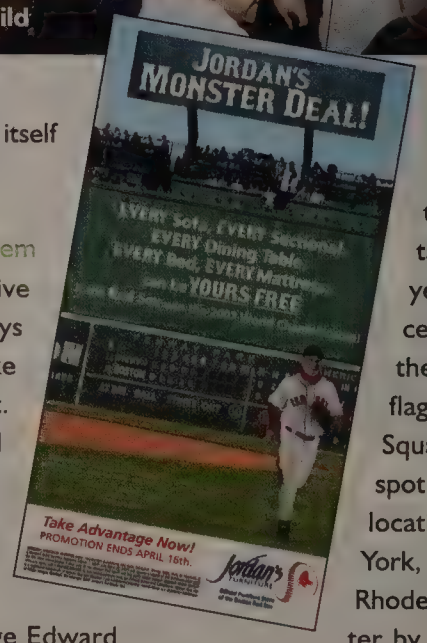
South End Buttery

314 Shawmut Ave., Boston (617-482-1015).

www.southendbuttery.com

Best known for desserts, the Buttery does a mean chicken parmigiana ($9.75) with potato gnocchi, red pepper salsa, arugula and roasted-garlic olive oil. It's an opulent end to the week. —Amy Gromek

IMPROPER SPEAKING



SEEN, OVERHEARD OR OTHERWISE BROUGHT TO OUR ATTENTION

Insert Cruel Britney Joke Here… The West End's boutique Onyx Hotel, which first opened its doors amid the underwear and pyrotechnics of Britney Spears's 2004 Onyx Hotel Tour, is quietly phasing out its Britney Spears Foundation Room. Originally designed to mimic the ambience of Spears' childhood bedroom, a stay in the luxury double is no longer being promoted among the hotel's featured specials. The Onyx's general manager, Mark Fischer, says: "We support Britney, but with all the sports successes that Boston's having right now, we wanted to reposition the hotel [with a sports theme]. Especially considering our proximity to the TD Banknorth Garden." Bruins jerseys instead of Blackout? Fischer says that the verdict's still out on whether the room will be redecorated to rid itself completely of Brit-chic.

He Could've Given Them Detention… "It's a creative sentencing technique," says DA press secretary Jake Wark, referring to the Oct. 21 arrest of seven young Red Sox fans who were charged with disorderly conduct after the ALCS win. Since they had short or nonexistent criminal records, Judge Edward Redd released them prior to their arraignment on the condition that they write five-page essays detailing what they'd learned from being arrested. "While not entirely unusual, it's the first time I've seen it pre-arraignment," adds Wark. Sure, and if they're convicted, maybe they'll get a five-year sentence of copying: I will not behave like a drunken baboon. I will not behave like a drunken baboon….

Red Sox Nation Conquers the Ottoman Empire… In the seconds after Seth Smith whiffed and Jonathan Papelbon threw his hat into orbit, Jordan's Furniture president and CEO Eliot Tatelman was, apparently, elated. But we suspect his accountant had an aneurysm. Back in the long-forgotten weeks before Spring Training, Jordan's Furniture promised full refunds to customers who ordered mattresses, dining tables, sofas or beds between March 7 and April 16, provided the Sox won the World Series. "An order could be a houseful or just a piece," Tatelman tells us. "We had somebody furnish the whole hotel." Red ink aside, Tatelman insists that his Red Sox loyalty remains uncompromised. "Oh no, we're excited for everyone. It doesn't get any better than winning and getting a chance to give money back to our customers."

So Long, Sola… Jasmine Sola, the Massachusetts-based retail store known for its trendy yet affordable clothing and accessories, is closing shop. All of them. Launched in 1970 with a flagship boutique in Harvard Square, the chain has been a hot spot for the fashion-forward with locations in Massachusetts, New York, New Jersey, Connecticut and Rhode Island. The decision to shutter by February 2008 comes from New York and Co., which bought the company in 2005 and was unhappy with its profit returns. We've never felt so bittersweet about a blow-out sale. —Nick Altschuller, Amanda Knorr and Andrew Rimas

GOT SCOOP?

Got an inside tip? Overheard some juicy news? Let us know what it is. Send an e-mail to theword@improper.com

GIVE THE GIFT
THAT RISES ABOVE THE REST.

Some gifts just stand out. Like the Foxwoods® Resort Casino Gift Card. It's good for hotel rooms, meals, shopping, entertainment, golf or at the salon & spa. It's the perfect gift for the perfect Foxwoods experience. Pick one up on your next trip to Foxwoods. Call 1-800-200-2882 or order online at foxwoods.com.

Gift cards cannot be used to purchase chips or coin. Gift cards cannot be used at the Mashantucket Pequot Museum & Research Center, Lake of Isles, Norwich Inn & Spa, Mystic Hilton or for Ferry Service. Gift Cards can be used to purchase Bingo Packages. All major credit cards accepted.

FOXWOODS®
RESORT ✦ CASINO
Mashantucket Pequot Tribal Nation

PROPER BOSTONIANS

BY KERRY BRETT, PHOTOGRAPHS BY BILL BRETT

The Moonlight Ball gala and dinner took place Oct. 20 at the Boston Center for the Arts' Cyclorama in the South End. More than 400 partygoers attended the event, which raised funds for the Animal Rescue League of Boston.

1. Laura Bigwood, shelter agent at the Animal Rescue League, Adrianne Gulick, veterinarian technician, and Megan O'Hara, shelter agent at the Animal Rescue League
2. Lisa Hughes, news anchor on WBZ-TV (Channel 4), Paul Laurent, director of the president's council for the Animal Rescue League, and Kristin Casey, cochair of the event
3. Stephanie Harvey, Moonlight Ball Gala Committee member, and Molly Dunne
4. Jen Richardson, archivist at BU, and Sara Michael, student at Suffolk Business School
5. Eli Akerstein, personal trainer, and his wife, Betsi, administration manager at Boston Ballet School

The Funny Women Serious Business Luncheon was held Oct. 23 at the Hynes Convention Center. Some 1,500 guests attended the event, which benefited programs and services at Rosie's Place. Celebrity guests included comedian Paula Poundstone.

6. Emily Rooney, host of Greater Boston on WGBH-TV (Channel 2), Lauren Baker, wife of Harvard Pilgrim Health Care CEO Charlie Baker, Steven Weisenburger, student at Bentley College, Gloria Larson, president of Bentley College, and Susan Tracy, former state representative for Allston-Brighton
7. Amy Chappel, student at Southfield School, and Jim Carey, member of Rosie's Place board
8. Paula Poundstone, comedian, and Kip Tiernan, founder of Rosie's Place
9. Susan Wornick, news anchor on WCVB-TV (Channel 5), and Leslie Gaydos, news anchor on New England Cable News
10. Sue Marsh, executive director of Rosie's Place, and Sara Underwood, news anchor on WBZ-TV (Channel 4)

170 STORES FEATURING Ann Taylor Factory Store, Anne Klein, Banana Republic Factory Store, Guess, Gymboree Outlet, J.Crew, Kate Spade, Michael Kors, Nine West, Polo Ralph Lauren Factory Store, Puma, Saks Fifth Avenue - Off 5th, Salvatore Ferragamo and more AT SAVINGS OF 25% TO 65% EVERY DAY.

WRENTHAM VILLAGE PREMIUM OUTLETS®

Register for the VIP Shopper Club at www.premiumoutlets.com/vip and receive additional holiday savings.

Daily transportation from Boston via Boston Common Coach (877) 723-3833.

WRENTHAM, MA • I-95 TO I-495N, EXIT 15 • (508) 384-0600 • ALSO VISIT KITTERY PREMIUM OUTLETS, KITTERY, ME
HOLIDAY HOURS LISTED AT PREMIUMOUTLETS.COM • CHELSEA PROPERTY GROUP®

A SIMON® Company

OPEN HOUSE EVERY SUNDAY 11:00 AM - 4:00 PM

LONGWOOD TOWERS

Live the Life You've Always Imagined

Boston's sister landmarks, The New Longwood Towers, are built on a legacy of prime location, attentive service, and luxury accommodations, now adapted for today's most discerning homeowner. Enjoy the grand lobby, brand new on-site fitness center, private club room, and lifestyle amenity services that include a 24-hour concierge and valet parking. Experience sweeping views of Boston's skyline and the Emerald Necklace from your balcony.

Studio to Penthouse homes with bay windows, hardwood flooring, stainless steel appliances, granite countertops and upgrade options. Pricing from mid $300Ks to over $1.5 million.

20 CHAPEL STREET
BROOKLINE, MA 02446

T 617.975.2880

WWW.LONGWOODCONDOMINIUMS.COM

CONTACT OUR SALES CENTER TODAY TO FIND OUT ABOUT OUR HOMES THAT ARE AVAILABLE FOR IMMEDIATE OCCUPANCY. SALES OFFICE OPEN DAILY 11 AM TO 4 PM AND VIA APPOINTMENT.

EQUAL HOUSING OPPORTUNITY

ACCELERATED MARKETING PARTNERS

Exclusive Financing: Chase 2006 JP Morgan Chase & Co. All Rights Reserved.

ezra

BY EZRA DYER

SWING TIME

Sooner or later, everyone in Boston starts a brawl

Boston loves to fight. The British should've known, when they tried to subjugate the Massachusetts Bay Colony, that they were dealing with a people who would eventually spawn an event known as "Brawl at the Pops." The owners of the Green Dragon Tavern probably welcomed the Revolution—otherwise Paul Revere and John Hancock would've been hanging out at the bar all day, punching each other in the head.

My own experience with this city's fighting side came a couple summers ago, after attending a sporting event with my brother. Post-game, we're relaxing at a watering hole when a group of nearby meatheads begin antagonizing my bro. Frankly, I have no idea how this happens, but it all leads to a critical moment: While I stand at the bar, the guy next to me points at my brother and says, "I'm gonna kick that guy's ass!"

Now, in times like this, the sensible thing to do is to find another bar. There really is no advantage to fighting. It's not like you win a prize if you kick someone's ass at the Purple Shamrock. And there are a lot of scary variables involved. Look around any jam-packed bar, and consider: Who's got a knife? Who's a black belt? Who's here with 15 angry, steroid-abusing friends? I have a buddy with a 10-inch scar on the side of his neck, courtesy of a bar fight that involved a broken bottle. I don't have any scars, and I have all my original teeth, because it's my policy to flee these types of situations. If there were a reality show about my attitude toward physical conflict, it'd be called Project Run Away.

So of course, when faced with this drunk, belligerent dude threatening to exact violence, I do the logical, responsible thing. I punch him right in the face.

It just seems like high time I punched someone in the face. Also, I've seen enough bar brawls to know that if you're gonna be involved in one, you may as well be the guy to throw the first punch. Why? Because a bar isn't the Ultimate Fighting octagon—you're not going to circle each other feinting and throwing punches for 10 rounds, yelling, "C'mon, you! Put up your dukes!" There's going to be one punch followed by a complete melee in which both of you end up on the floor getting kicked in the kidneys by bouncers.

This is pretty much how things unfold. When Angry Man says, "I'm gonna kick that guy's ass," I say, "Oh no you're not!" before unloading a right jab, which connects with his right cheek, much to th surprise of everyone involved. (Note: don't consider this a sucker punch, becaus he had a second of warning and openly de clared his malicious intentions. He set th context in which to expect a punch in th face. Now, when I got punched out of m seat in the middle of French class freshma year in high school, that was a sucke punch, because French class is not a con text in which one expects to receive a swi fist to the cranium. Although I guess should've known better than to taunt surly, bearded senior who lived at th home for boys. Lesson learned.)

At any rate, after my successful brawl in tiation, within seconds I'm on the floor an someone is kicking me in the back. It migh be a bouncer, it might be the guy I punched

YOU MAY AS WELL BE THE GUY TO THROW THE FIRST PUNCH

but whoever it is, I'm certainly not going t turn around and find out.

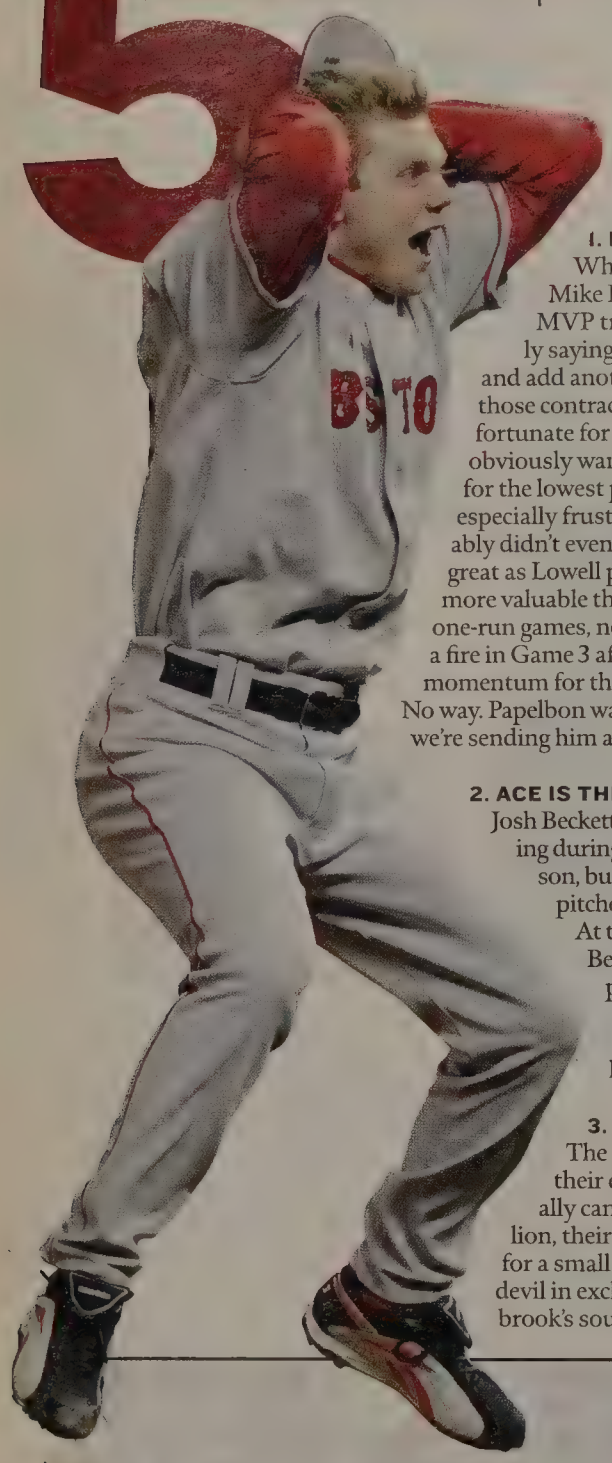
The next thing I know, I'm standing ou on the street next to one of my adversaries We're both surprisingly mellow. Have yo ever seen two guys get in a fight and the buy each other beers? Well, this fellow an I aren't that chummy, but we are quit civil—I let him and his bloody lip get th first cab that comes along. It's a polite in teraction. Meanwhile, one of the bouncer comes outside with my Red Sox hat an asks, "Is this yours? I think you dropped when we were throwing you out."

The anticlimactic aftermath of my roya rumble illustrates the surprising fact tha while fistfights may be a terrifying aberratio in my life, for some people they're awfull normal—those people being bouncers and th legion of guys who instigate fights in bars.

The latter group, incidentally, includes few of my otherwise well-adjusted friends. have a buddy who, in describing a Saturda night at Mary Ann's, said that he and hi wingman made a declaration before walk ing through the door: "Tonight, we're ei ther gettin' laid, or starting a fight!" When I asked him how that went, he said, "Well we didn't get laid." IB

YOU THINK THAT'S FUNNY?

Send unbiased e-mails to ezra@improper.com.



Taste Fusion

*Salmon Jalapeño Roll

HARU™

55 huntington ave | 617.536.0770 | www.harusushi.com

5 World Series Ramblings

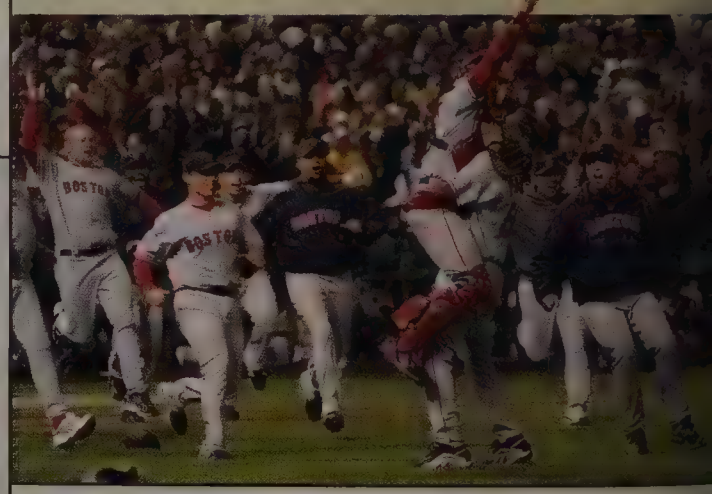
1. M-V-PAPELBON
When Bud Selig handed Mike Lowell his World Series MVP trophy, he was essentially saying, "Hey, Mike, go ahead and add another million dollars to those contract demands." That's unfortunate for Sox management, who obviously want to bring Lowell back for the lowest possible number, and especially frustrating because he probably didn't even deserve the award. As great as Lowell played, was he really more valuable than a guy who saved two one-run games, not to mention put out a fire in Game 3 after the Rockies gained momentum for the first time all series? No way. Papelbon was the MVP. In fact, we're sending him a trophy.

2. ACE IS THE PLACE
Josh Beckett was pretty amazing during the 2007 regular season, but in the postseason he pitched like a Hall of Famer. At this point, it's clear that Beckett will become a great pitcher; the only question is, how great? The ceiling on his potential has officially been lifted.

3. HOMEGROWN HELP
The Sox take a lot of heat for their deep pockets, and we really can't disagree. At $146 million, their payroll could be traded for a small country or paid to the devil in exchange for Gregg Easterbrook's soul. But with all the talent that Boston "buys," there's something to be said for homegrown guys like Pedroia, Youkilis, Lester, Delcarmen, Papelbon and Ellsbury each playing key rolls in the postseason. And we just said it.

4. ALL TOGETHER NOW
Every Red Sox season has its share of heroes and goats, but in the end there wasn't one guy (aside from Eric Gagne, thank God) who didn't leave his fingerprints on the World Series trophy. From Drew's grand slam and Lugo's leaping grab to Kielty's Game 4 homer and Coco's finishing touch on the ALCS, this was the definition of a team effort.

5. THE LARGE FATHER
Forget all the stats, because the level of toughness David Ortiz showed during the playoffs trumps any gawdy numbers he'll ever produce. His injuries have been well-documented, and at times (Game 7 against Cleveland in particular) he seemed on the verge of keeling over and dying at the plate, but Big Papi never stopped leading the team. His now famous quote from the mid-playoffs, players-only meeting ("If you wear a Red Sox uniform, you a badass motherf---er") is now an all-time classic.



4 STAGES OF 2007

1. April-May: This can't be reality. We're up 13.5 games on the Yankees, Beckett looks like Pedro (well, at least his numbers do) and this Pedroia kid is actually decent. JD Drew's kind of sucking, but whatever, he'll snap out of it.

2. June-July: The Yanks still look shaky, but now they're only seven out. Dice-K's arm already seems ready to fall off, but no worries. It's just a matter of time before Drew catches fire.

3. August-September: Did that really just happen? Papi and Manny can hardly walk. Papelbon looks tired. Okie's arm is dead. All of JD Drew is dead. Can't believe they won the Pennant anyway. If we get out of the first round it'll be a miracle.

4. October: The Red Sox just won the World Series, and we hardly broke a sweat. Yeah, there were those seven games against Cleveland, but we never really believed they'd lose (not with a grand slam threat like JD Drew in the lineup!). Two titles in four years? This can't be reality.

2 SADDEST ROLLING RALLIERS

1. Eric Gagne We imagine congratulating Gagne on his World Series ring in 2007 would feel about as dirty as commending OJ on the not guilty verdict back in '95. He knows he didn't deserve it, and it showed during the rally. In a related story, Gagne's duck boat was the first to leave Fenway Park, but by the time they reached Copley Plaza, it had surrendered its lead and sat somewhere in the middle of the pack.

2. Coco Crisp Unlike Gagne, none of what happened to Coco was really his fault. He was the Gold Glove–calibre starting centerfielder on the AL East champs, but a couple of injuries here, one insanely fast, half-Navajo minor league blue chipper there, and Crisp was swept under the rug. We're guessing he ends up somewhere else (like Minnesota or Houston) next year, but either way, we'll always respect the role Coco played in 2007.

3 Goodbye Letters From Curt Schilling

1. Dear JD, If only I'd pledged to make an ALS donation after every one of your double plays instead of after each of my wins... but hey, I guess there's always next year, and the year after that, and then one more year after that. Man, they really still owe you $44 million dollars?

2. Dear Manny, I'm gonna miss... wait, what? Manny, it's me, Curt. You know, Curt Schilling. We won two World Series together... I'm the guy who likes George W. Bush, adventure games and blogging... No, not the one who throws the pitches that float around like butterflies... You know what, forget it.

3. Dear Tito, Remember four seasons ago when the Red Sox only hired you because they thought it would convince me to sign in Boston? You remember that, friend? How about that time in 2007 when you had yourself a pretty little extension and left me sitting contractless to write these stupid letters? Remember that one?!?!

Last Question for Manny...

You ever watch Manny walk from the on-deck circle to the batter's box at Fenway? If so, you know what we mean when we ask: Whatcha lookin' at, buddy? Maybe his family sits up there, or maybe he's got Belichick sending video feed of the catcher's signals to an overhead TV. Whatever the reason, Manny won't takes his eyes off the upper deck down the third base line until he's firmly entrenched in the box. We need to know why. Just let us inside for a second, Manny. We promise not to stay long.

Send sporting questions, comments, criticisms and—if you want—a team of badass motherf---ers to rich@improper.com.

NEW ICE AGE HITS THE HUB!

THE HUB OF HOCKEY

NESN HD

OV 7 AT BUF – 6:30PM • NOV 8 VS MTL – 7PM • NOV 10 VS BUF – 6:30PM

NOV 15 VS TOR – 6:30PM • NOV 17 AT MTL – 6:30PM

S TICKETS ARE FREE* THROUGH 11/15 COURTESY OF TD Banknorth

MORE INFORMATION CALL 617-624-BEAR OR VISIT BOSTONBRUINS.COM

*OFFER GOOD FOR CHILDREN UNDER 14 WITH THE PURCHASE OF A FULL PRICE TICKET. NOT VALID FOR ALL PRICE RANGES AND SUBJECT TO AVAILABILITY.

Soroff ON

JONATHAN ELIAS

BY JONATHAN SOROFF

Born and raised in the Los Angeles area, Jonathan Elias is the newest anchor at WBZ (Channel 4), cohosting the 5 pm broadcast with Lisa Hughes and the 5:30 pm broadcast with Sara Underwood, as well as reporting at 11 pm. After earning a B.A. in history from Cal State Northridge, he began his journalism career in 1988 at KCPM in Chico, Calif. Following stints in Birmingham, Ala. (where both AP and UPI named him reporter of the year), Sacramento (where he covered the L.A. riots and the Oakland Hills fire, garnering an Emmy) and Minneapolis (where he earned a Peabody Award), he joined KCBS in Los Angeles as an anchor. From there he moved to KNXV in Phoenix, where he served as the main anchor for five years before moving to Boston this summer. He and his wife, Holly, met as 5-year-olds and were high school sweethearts. They live with their two children in the western suburbs.

Jonathan Soroff: First of all, do you realize that Lisa Hughes could kick your ass?

Jonathan Elias: Since I trained in martial arts for years, I don't know that I'd bet on that, but she might have a shot.

JS: So the odds are even?

JE: I don't know about that, either, but she's definitely a firecracker. You can't imagine anyone with that much energy. Positive energy. I don't think I've ever heard her say a negative thing about anything or anyone.

JS: Oh, just wait. Anyway, whose legs are better—hers or Sara Underwood's?

JE: Don't think I can weigh in on that one, but they're both very attractive women, both inside and out.

JS: Have people started recognizing you at the supermarket yet?

JE: Only one person, and it was funny. Usually you get the "Did I go to high school with you?" thing, but he looked at me and said, "You're the new guy at 'BZ." The funny thing about Boston, and part of the reason I came here, is that people care about the news and what's going on. They're not apathetic. They're plugged in. They want answers. You don't find that everywhere, so people here aren't just looking at your tie or seeing how your hair is combed. As for getting recognized, I'd give that a couple of years.

JS: Biggest difference between Arizona and Boston?

JE: History's got to be the biggest one. There are bricks on the street here older than anything in Phoenix. This city is where the fight for our freedom began. I'm a huge lover of history. When we first got here, I was having iced tea in Concord, and I was thinking, "Ralph Waldo Emerson might have had iced tea here, or that crazy Thoreau guy."

JS: What one moment in history would you most like to have covered as a reporter?

JE: There are two that really fascinate me. The first shot of the Revolution—the minutemen were an untrained militia who were farmers or silversmiths who buried rifles in their backyards and when the time came, they dug them up and put their lives on the line for freedom. Then there's the Civil War. It must have just been surreal, because people had to go about their everyday lives while a huge chunk of the population was engaged in battle and pretty much everything was on the line.

> "THE FUNNY THING ABOUT BOSTON IS THAT PEOPLE CARE ABOUT THE NEWS AND WHAT'S GOING ON."

JS: I read online that in Phoenix you way overreacted every time it rained. Can we expect that when it snows here?

JE: [Laughs.] First of all, I never overreact when weather hits. I think there's a hysteria created by news organizations who act like it's some remarkable phenomenon when it rains, rather than a natural occurrence.

JS: Wait till you see what happens around here when it snows.

JE: Well, the thing about 'BZ is that we're a smarter station. In L.A. they'd go bananas and assign four reporters if a few raindrops fell on someone's windshield in Studio City.

JS: Should meteorologists be taken out and beaten with sticks every time they get it wrong?

JE: I think you should use a rubber hose so it doesn't leave marks. But in fairness, they call it a science, but it's a very difficult job to predict weather, especially here, where there's so many factors affecting it.

JS: Person you hated sharing screen time with?

JE: Ooh, I'd get in too much trouble naming names. But I will give you qualities: not very bright (and that's being kind) and incredibly arrogant. I have a name for certain people in our business. I call them 220's. They've been in the business two years but act like they've been doing it for 20. The marriage of ignorance and arrogance—this person was a journalism major and didn't even know what Watergate was.

JS: Ouch. Stupidest story you ever had to cover?

JE: In L.A., the producer who was new to the area came running up and grabbed me, saying, "You gotta get on the set. Breaking news!" I'm thinking something like a plane crash, and she says, "We've got the chopper over a coyote walking through Cerritos!" I said, "Where are you from?" Philadelphia. I said, "Cerritos is a foothills town, meaning it encroaches on coyote territory. That's not news. It's not like Sasquatch walked out of the mountains." But the chopper was out there, and I had to do it. Anyone who knew me could see how tongue-in-cheek I was on the air.

JS: Most upsetting story?

JE: Probably the Oklahoma City bombing. I'd just had my first child and you saw baby clothes on the street, hands that had come off bodies. Stuff like that just affects you. With every story like that with an emotional component—Hurricane Katrina, the L.A. riots—you take it with you.

JS: Are you nosy by nature?

JE: I'm naturally inquisitive. Being nosy has a negative connotation of prying into business that really doesn't need to be known. But if, say, there's a tax on something, I'll be the one to question why. I'll say, "Where's that money going? Explain it to me so that it makes sense."

JS: Greatest lengths you've ever gone to for a story?

JE: If you remember the judge in Birmi ham who was killed by a letter-bomb, I h the exclusive interview with his wid and I had to have three different scre ings by the FBI—at one point they ev tried to recruit me. But she was one of sweetest people I ever met. She even s us a wedding gift when we got married.

JS: How important is an anchorman's hair?

JE: [Laughs.] You'd have to ask the viewe I guess you want to keep what you've g and other than that, I just comb it.

JS: Worst on-air moment?

JE: A few years ago, there was that some-odd-year-old woman who had a ba and she already had 15 kids. The father this one looked like he was maybe 17, w eyes shootin' off in different directions just didn't look like the Norman Rockw portrait of a family, and I'm doing the st when my producer says in my earpiece think he was quoting some comedian): " a uterus, not a clown car." I just lost i was howling, and it looked terrible an felt horrible about it.

JS: If I were an investigative reporter, tell m one thing I'd be amazed to uncover about yo

JE: That I pick a banjo and like coun music. I like all kinds of music, but I thi the country thing throws people for a lo

JS: You and your wife have known each oth since you were 5. What's the secret to such long-lasting romance?

JE: I think you've got to be friends first.

JS: Ever borrow your wife's makeup or vice versa?

JE: No, but there are definitely times wh I wear more than she does.

JS: You're a big outdoorsy guy. Think you could outwit, outlast and out-whatever-else they-say on Survivor?

JE: The strenuous physical stuff I could with no question. I don't know that I cou survive the politics. I'm not much o game player.

JS: Last question: Before Boston will accep you, you're going to have to pledge allegian to Red Sox Nation. How do you feel about that?

JE: The kids have the hats, and I've alrea got the tattoo. IB

YOUR EVENING COCKTAIL, inspired by YOUR MORNING COFFEE.

Try for yourself what the Beverage Testing Institute* named:

"Best tasting mudslide"
"Best tasting cream liqueur–95pts"
"Best tasting coffee liqueur–94pts"

Mixed, shaken or served over ice—try Starbucks™ Liqueurs, a blend of the finest spirits and perfectly roasted, real Starbucks® coffee. Ask for them the next time you're out with friends or serve them to guests at home.

STARBUCKS™ LIQUEURS MUDSLIDE
1 part Starbucks™ Cream Liqueur
1 part Starbucks™ Coffee Liqueur
1 part Absolut® Vodka

STARBUCKS Liqueurs

AVAILABLE WHERE SPIRITS ARE SOLD

starbucksliqueurs.com

Enjoy Tastefully & Drink Responsibly.

*Beverage Testing Institute, 2007 professional tasting among leading brands, Chicago, IL.
Starbucks™ Liqueurs, 15% and 20% Alc./Vol.

© 2007 Fielding & Jones, Ltd., Cincinnati, OH, and Starbucks Coffee Company. All rights reserved. BLU-078
Starbucks and the Starbucks logo are trademarks of Starbucks U.S. Brands, LLC.

INTRODUCING LUXURY CONDOMINIUMS AT NATICK COLLECTION.
NEW ENGLAND'S NEWEST LIVING, DINING AND SHOPPING DESTINATION.

WHERE LIFE AND STYLE COME TOGETHER.

Nouvelle at Natick combines the best of urban conveniences with the comforts of suburban living. Mixed-use. Maintenance-free. Full-service. Park views. Private entrance. Secured parking. Reminiscent of The Belvedere at Boston's Prudential Center, Nouvelle is an oasis of calm on one hand; instant access to upscale shopping, dining and a multitude of services on the other. Nouvelle at Natick truly is a whole new way to live.

EXCITING AMENITIES
- Bosse Sports fitness center
- Piano lounge
- Screening room
- Expansive roof garden

NATICK COLLECTION
Neiman Marcus, Nordstrom and many other shops, restaurants, and other conveniences all just an elevator ride away

LUXE FINISHES
- Granite countertops
- Marble tile
- Stainless steel appliances
- Hardwood flooring

FULL SERVICES
- 24-hour doorman
- Managed by Barkan Management
- On-site storage
- Private, secured parking
- Valet dry cleaning

NOUVELLE℠ atNATICK

A WHOLE NEW WAY TO LIVE℠

ONE, TWO AND THREE BEDROOMS FROM THE $400s TO OVER $1 MILLION

VISIT OUR SALES GALLERY ON THE SECOND LEVEL OF THE NEW NATICK COLLECTION, ADJACENT TO NEIMAN MARCUS
Sales Gallery open Monday - Saturday, 10am - 10pm, Sunday, 11am - 6pm, appt. recommended

877.723.0283 NOUVELLEATNATICK.COM EXCLUSIVE SALES AND MARKETING / OTIS & AHEARN

I smell a stinker...
SOMETHING'S ROTTEN
IN THE STATE OF MASSACHUSETTS...

Brotherly spleen courtesy of Chris and David Walsh

WORSE AND WORSER

TWO FUNNY BROTHERS FLIP THE BIRD AT BEANTOWN

BY CHRIS AND DAVID WALSH, PROFESSIONAL COMICS

A couple of weeks ago, the Improper called me at home and politely asked if my brother Chris and I wanted to contribute an article on the worst of Boston. It was foolish, but I didn't ask why and I didn't ask for too many details. I only asked for smutty pictures of Ezra. ¶ Thinking about it now, there's no reason we should be asked to contribute at all—we're not qualified to write articles. Do they even know what we do? We go on stage every night and talk about touching the tips of our dinkies. (It's not sexual. It's a skills game.) ¶ But we're writing it anyway. We are improper Bostonians. We've spent all our lives in Charlestown, we know the city. And now we're moving to Los Angeles, so even if we roast a couple nuts, it won't really matter. ¶ Let me clarify that. We're not going to write a word. While driving across the country, we turned on a cassette recorder and had a conversation. After having it transcribed by two nipples on a California street corner, it has made its way onto the pages of the magazine.

David Walsh We should begin by naming the best of the worst. What is the absolute worst thing in Boston?

Chris Walsh That's easy.

Are you thinking what I'm thinking?

Of course...

CW+DW The Fung Wah Bus.

Somebody told me that Fung Wah means "magnificent wind." I like that.

I like to call it a third-world country on wheels.

A third-world country that gets you to New York in 37 minutes... and for only $10.

It's $15 now.

For fifteen bucks, you can put your life in danger with drivers who are more than likely paying off a mahjong gambling debt.

Yeah, drivers who don't speak English. It's important to know the language when your bus is on fire.

Fire doesn't wait for a game of Fung Wah charades.

We've been on buses that have run out of gas, left people behind at Roy Rogers during stops, had no bathroom door...

... they needed it for the front door.

Out of all the things that happened—catching on fire, losing wheels, getting stuck on concrete barriers—my favorite was when it rolled over speeding into a curve.

That was great. The Fung Wah should invest in over-the-shoulder seat belts like roller coasters. Then nothing happens to you when the floor drops away... and your feet are dangling. If anyone can do it, it's the Japanese...

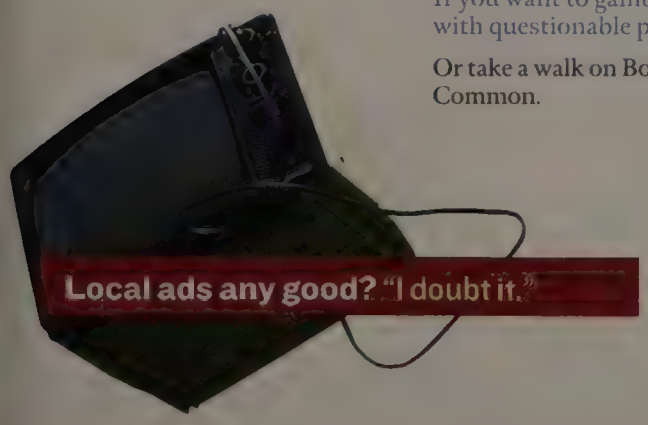
... Chinese, my friend.

Operation Rolling Blunder

What else is good and terrible?

Local commercials.

They are good and terrible. [Singing.] "Who do you call when your windshield's busted?"



The Church of Latter Day Saints. I always think of them when a window is busted. [Singing.] "Who broke my window?"

Instead of Giant Glass? The 1-800-54-Giant song is on a constant loop in my head. That's what I would sing if I went around murdering personal injury lawyers and furniture dealers.

Like Dean "I Doubt It" from Dean's Home Furniture. I always wanted to follow him for a day and ask him questions. Hey Dean, is there a God? "I doubt it." Are you normal Dean? "I doubt it." Things like that.

The perpetrators of bad local commercials are too numerous to mention.

I think they should combine them—Bernie & Phyl on a sleeper sofa with attorney Jim Sokolove.

Local ads any good? "I doubt it."

There are a couple places in the theater district that deserve a little razzoo, and Shear Madness tops the list.

I always thought you went to Shear Madness for a "crazy" haircut.

According to the press, it's the "longest-running off-Broadway play in American history and takes place in a hairstyling salon that's the scene of a wacky murder. Shear Madness is the uproarious mystery where the audience solves the crime."

Poke your finger in my dinkie hole.

This show was written the year of the bicentennial! I don't think "hairstyling" salons exist anymore.

I don't think wacky improv "whodunits" should either. Especially ones that still perceive gay people from a '76 perspective—when all gay people worked in "hairstyling" and didn't have the right to vote.

Speaking of the right to vote: worst politician?

I'm going to go with Deval Patrick.

I agree with Deval being the worst. He acts more like your average white politician every day.

I love how he bombs around in his helicopter playing 'Nam.

Aside from that—which any of us would do—his governorship has been lifeless. I don't think anything's happened since he took office other than the preposterous idea of bringing casinos to the state, which is another of the year's worsts.

I think the first bet they place will be on Deval getting re-elected, 2-5 odds.

Casinos... We're not Jersey or Nevada or—God help us—Connecticut. They're second-rate states. They need casinos. Massachusetts is a wonderful place. We don't need casinos.

If you want to gamble, sleep with questionable people.

Or take a walk on Boston Common.

Little shop of horribly outdated jokes

What's going on down at the Common? It's like a King Richard's Faire of dealers, crackheads and homeless.

And rats. Don't forget the Amazing Jumping Rats.

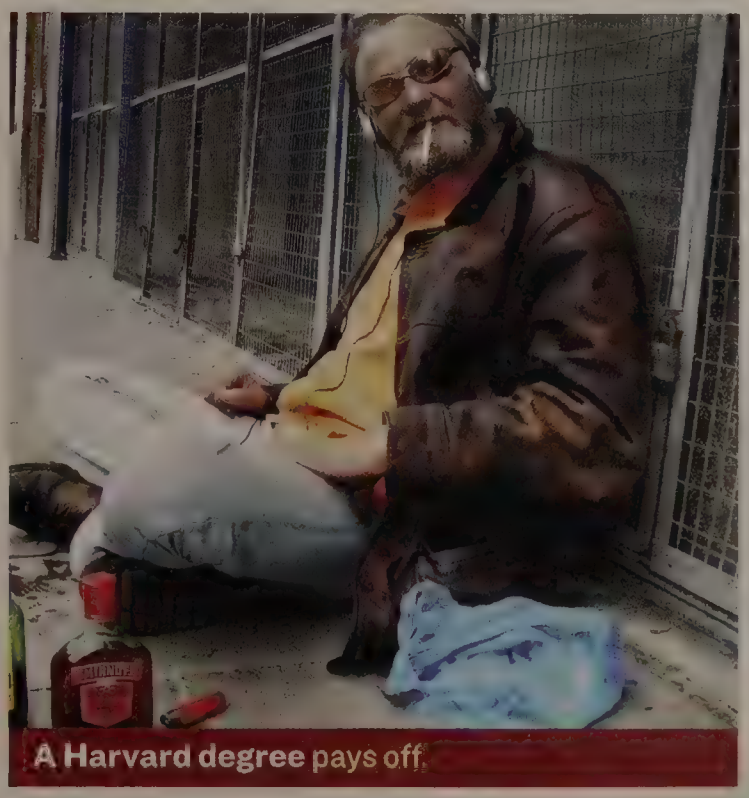
At least there's some entertainment now that Shakespeare on the Common had its funding cut.

And there's been shootings—not of the heroin variety—with bullets. A couple people got shot and a bullet went through a Statehouse window.

That's how people react when you take away their Shakespeare—guns a-blazin'. They're sending a message: "Give us back our park and Shakespeare, yo."

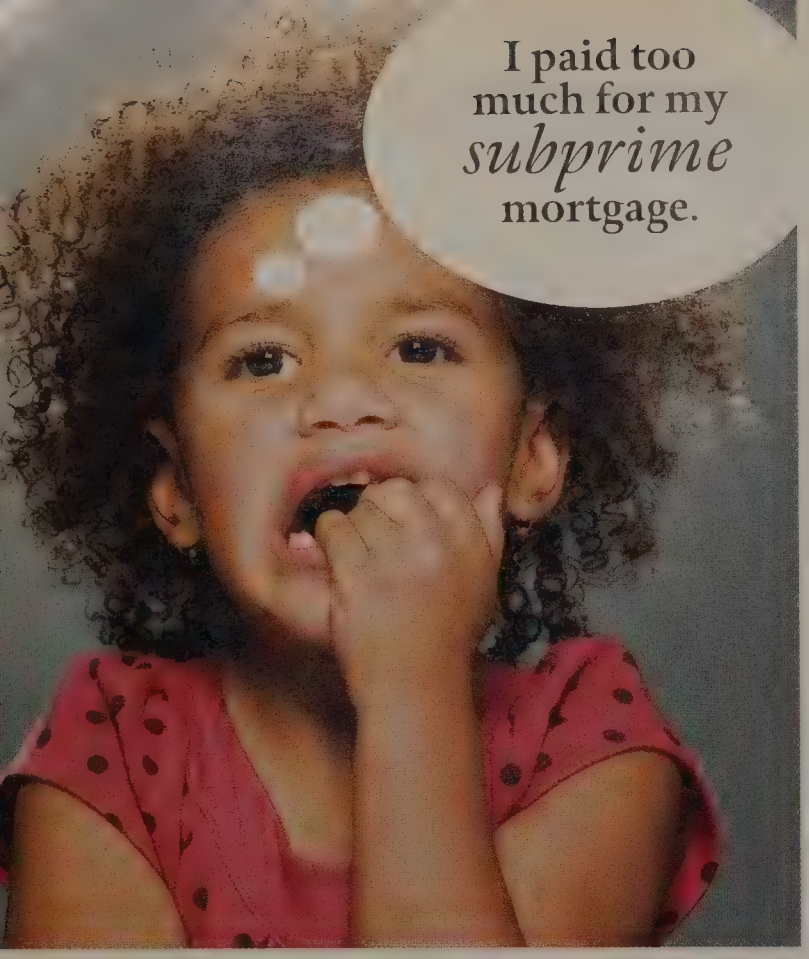
I wish somebody would go down to the Charles with guns a-blazin' and take out all the geese.

We can make it happen. That'd make a lot of pâté, but I don't know anyone who eats it.



It's not as bad as the Common, but the geese in the Charles and the amount of poo they produce have driven away a lot of the people who used to hang out on the grass.

I remember you indulging your homoerotic urges and staring at all the guys tanning up their tight bodies on a fine summer's day down at Gaytona Beach.



I'm comfortable enough with my sexuality to say I rollerbladed shirtless in jean cutoffs around beautiful men. But now I can't because of the geese.

WHAT'S GOING ON DOWN AT THE COMMON? ITS LIKE A KING RICHARD'S FAIRE OF DEALERS, CRACKHEADS AND HOMELESS.

A Harvard degree pays off.

If the Aqua Teen Hunger Force bomb scare proved one thing, it's that the police have a handle on the threat of low-budget, satirical cartoons. Gun violence, not so much.

These geese being from Canada, we should call immigration and have them deported. Send these pooping wetbacks back over the border.

I know a couple of folks who would enjoy living in the Great White North: our friends on the radio, Howie Carr and Dennis & Callahan.

Howie's too easy, like shooting fish in a barrel with an elephant gun.

I've never seen either of those things. He is easy, but he's also everywhere—kind of like goose shit. You can't go anywhere without stepping in him.

What about the other guys? What are their names?

Sports radio's Dennis & Callahan? They're like the two old guys on the Muppets—only racist and homophobic... and secretly attracted to each other.

Kind of like us. Zing!

You zinged us. Nice.

I don't care about sports.

Neither do they. It's always one bigoted non-sports opinion after another. Callahan thinks he knows everything and Dennis supports him.

One of the worst things to come about recently has got to be the Super Duck Tours.

You mean Super Duck Excursions.

Oh yeah. They got sued and had to change their name after stealing every conceivable idea from the original duck boats.

Every idea except how to make a duck boat retarded. That's what their "boats" look like—giant, retarded duck boats that don't know their own strength. That could pick up an entire building if you were trapped underneath.

That's what the "super" in Super Duck Tours...

... excursions...

... really means. "Special" Duck Tours. They're the equivalent of McDowell's in Coming to America. "The Duck Boats go in the river. We go in the harbor. The Duck Boats have silly names. Our boats have serious names. Boston Duck Tours got their boats from World War II. We got our boats from a minor skirmish in Djibouti."

Very funny. Anything else?

Harvard Square, fair Harvard Square, how I miss ye...

I miss it too, Chris, but it's still there.

Every day it gets a little bit worse.

You sound like an old man pining for the good ol' days.

I am an old man pining for the good ol' days. What's wrong with the good ol' days? They were great. We had fun. Harvard Square had characters. And cool places. Now it's a big bank, and everytime I see a bank I just want to rob it.

Maybe what you're sensing is that the banks are keeping the "essence" of Harvard Square locked up in their vaults.

We got a robbery to plan...

We could have definitely robbed a bank while the Aqua Teen Hunger Force thing was going on last spring...

We could have stolen the USS Constitution.

The handling of the bomb scare was one of the worst things we've seen all year.

Terrible idea to begin with and then a worse reaction by the police and Mayor Menino.

It was a marketing thing and after they found that out, they were still calling it a hoax and overreacting.

It reminded me of when we tried to marry each other at City Hall. Two brothers can't get married!

There's an old joke where they say the thick red line painted all around Boston isn't for the Freedom Trail. It's so a drunken Ted Kennedy can find his way home...

What does that have to do with the price of cold tea in Chinatown?

I have no idea. I wanted to say something about the Rose Kennedy Greenway...

So you bring up a bad, drunk Ted Kennedy joke without a point. Who are you, Howie Carr?

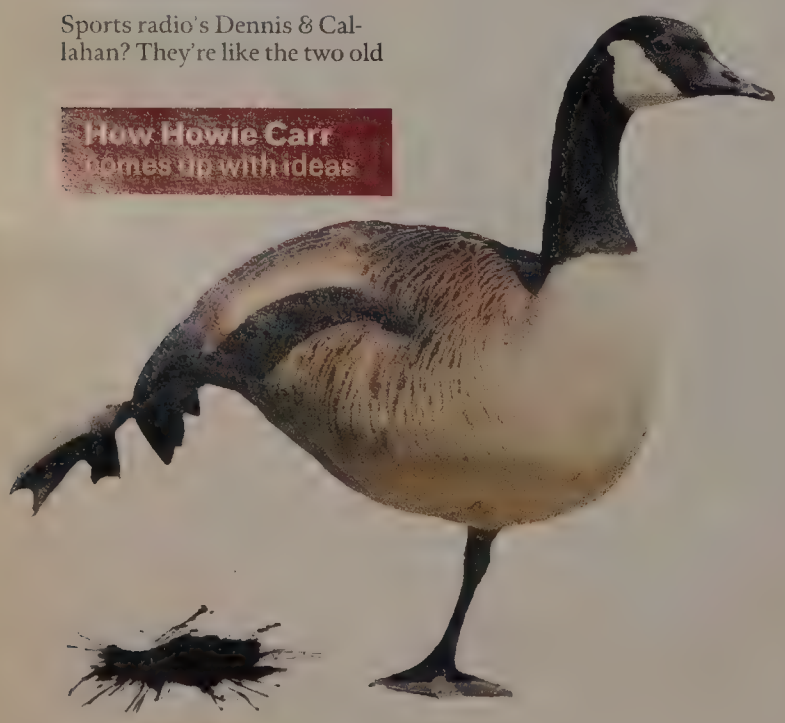
I think his mother would be disappointed that her greenway isn't built already.

Well, since it's not finished, at least it hasn't killed anybody yet.

That we know of.

What's going on over at the Boston Film Festival? I think Rehoboth has a more hyped flick fest.

Ka-ching! I was excited this year because Short Circuit was opening the festival and Fisher Stevens was going to be there.



He couldn't make it so they got Bull from Night Court—and they gave Dane Cook an award.

That's hilarious.

Seriously. Dane Cook won best comedic actor.

That's not funny.

How Howie Carr comes up with ideas

The Rose Kennedy Greenway hasn't killed anyone

I'm just messing with you. They gave it to Jim Belushi for Blues Brothers 2000.

You had me there...

[Dane Cook actually won Best Comedic Actor.]

Jack's Joke Shop is an ex-joke shop.

The last worst thing about Boston is...

... Jack's Joke Shop closed.

I'm tearing up just thinking about it.

That's because I slipped you a piece of onion gum.

We can't stay in a city without a joke shop.

There's still a joke shop—it's called the Boston Police. Look out!

You're on fire.

Like the Fung Wah.

Ba-dum ching.

I'll be here for the rest of my life.

Parking Enforcement Officer Nancy Longo maintains a professional coolness while on duty. Our reporter, on the other hand, spazzes out.

NANCY LONGO, BRIANNE/DYNASTY MODELS; PHOTOGRAPHED BY JÖRG MEYER; HAIR: MARI JOE/JAMES JOSEPH STUDIO

PUBLIC ENEMIES

THE PEOPLE WHO DO THE JOBS YOU LOVE TO HATE

They surround your life with negativity—blackness in an otherwise peaceful existence. The bouncers holding prima nocta with your Saturday night. The meter maids swooping in as your time runs out. The T conductors drilling commands into the jelly of your waking brain.

They are the saltier members of our proletariat. Laborers who treat the confines of their shifts like eight-hour passes to be as irritating as possible. In the barnyard of city living, you're the duteous, respectful livestock; they're the flies feasting on your corneas.

Or maybe you're just a big, dumb animal.

Take the isolated disputes you've had with these workers and compound them. You now have an inkling of what one shift is like on the other side. These workers toil on the receiving end of a long assembly line of your grief. Yes, they dish it out, but how often do they take it?

There's a story behind the attitude, and I tagged along to see a shift from three perspectives. I have seen your worst, Boston. I watched as you pushed all the wrong buttons. Allow me to hold up a mirror and scare you straight. It's time for a little appreciation.

Sept. 29: Bouncer

Even manager Mike Thomas, 24, refers to it as "Ned Deline's." The Faneuil Hall hot spot has the most imposing queue in the city, where in the dead of winter you'll find revelers huddled up like Cold War–era Muscovites waiting for bread.

Thomas stations me out front with Tim Warren, 28, and Matt Wrinn, 27—two veteran doormen. That's the preferred term, and as these imposing figures could probably crush you like a Saltine, I suggest that's how you address them.

At 9:30 pm, the line sputters like a clogged drain, but by 9:45 the humanity really starts to flow. The preps, the meatheads, the bachelorette parties all file by. Before Thomas heads in, he tells us to keep an eye out for drunks coming from Octoberfest. As if on cue, a cadre in Harpoon shirts stumble over.

"You been at Octoberfest?" Warren asks.

"Yeah, dude, I was there all day!" shouts one enthusiastic inebriate.

"Really? You've been drinking all day?"

"Well... it wasn't that long."

I love to watch drunk people reason, but another imbiber in '70s gear flips when he's turned away. "It's the headband, isn't it? Just tell me it's the headband!"

Wrinn calmly pulls Disco Stu to the side. Handling it like a gentleman, Wrinn explains the situation despite being cursed to his face while the detractor's girlfriend bounces and yips around him like a Jack Russell terrier.

"You gotta take it," he later explains. "You try and be cordial and explain things to them, but you gotta roll with the punches."

"A lot of people like to test you," says Warren. "I've been called every name in the book. Sometimes it's tough to take. Most of the time I agree with them. 'Yeah, I am a p---y.'"

These are doormen, people, not royal guards. They've got a high tolerance for swallowed pride; just don't be the one to bring them to their limit. Be polite. I watched Warren let folks bypass a line more than 100 people deep purely because they were civil. And don't lie. Doormen have incredible BS detectors honed from years of dealing with a steady stream of deception.

"People are constantly coming up, 'Oh, I know the bartender or so and so,'" says Wrinn. "People will come up to me and ask for me."

Once people get inside, they're greeted with what may be the biggest kick in the nuts on the Boston bar scene—Devine's second line. This is where they can really start to lose it, and Patrick McGlinchi, 36, is one of the men charged with keeping the peace.

"It's like an amusement park," he says. "Just when you think you've reached the end of the line, you turn that corner, and it keeps going."

With a bar running alongside the line, the foyer acts like a staging area for final liftoff. A dozen or more bouncers also patrol the upstairs, which by 12:30 am has become a peculiar wonderland of inebriation and sweat. I discover that the hardest part of the job isn't dealing with irritating people, it's watching irritating people enjoy themselves. When one drunk is escorted out, I'm actually disappointed that he goes with dignity (unbuckled belt notwithstanding). Take a swing, fall down the stairs, do something.

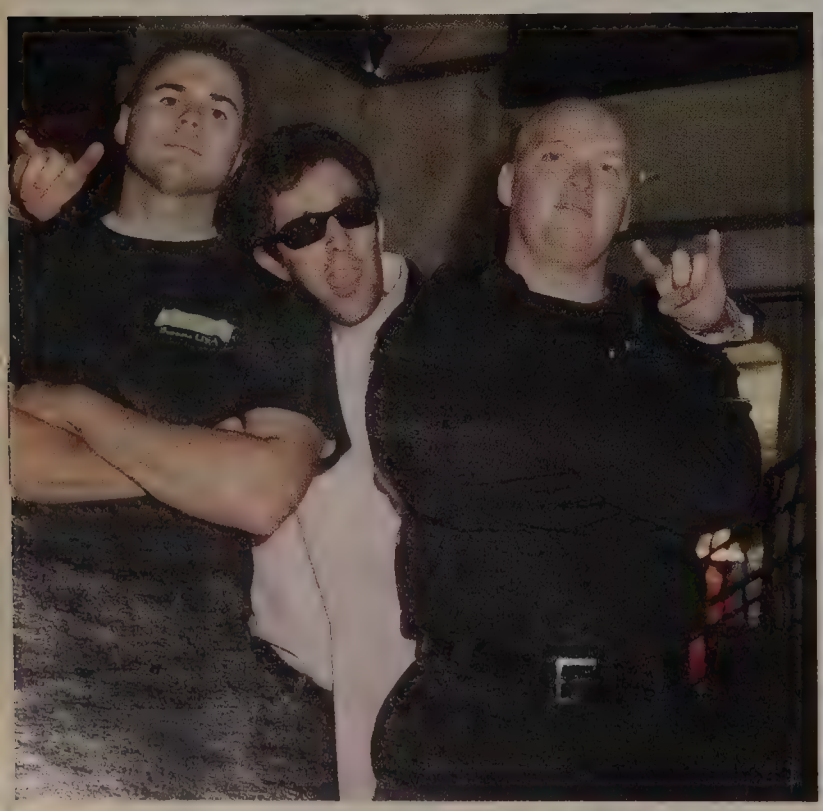
"People come back downstairs, and their hair is messed up, and there's toilet paper stuck to their heel, and it's like 'What happened to you?'" McGlinchi says.

By last call, I'm seething inside a bitter little bubble. There's nothing more absurd and disturbing than seeing people swing and grind to a bad cover of "Smells Like Teen Spirit." All the unrestrained mirth has turned me into a misanthrope.

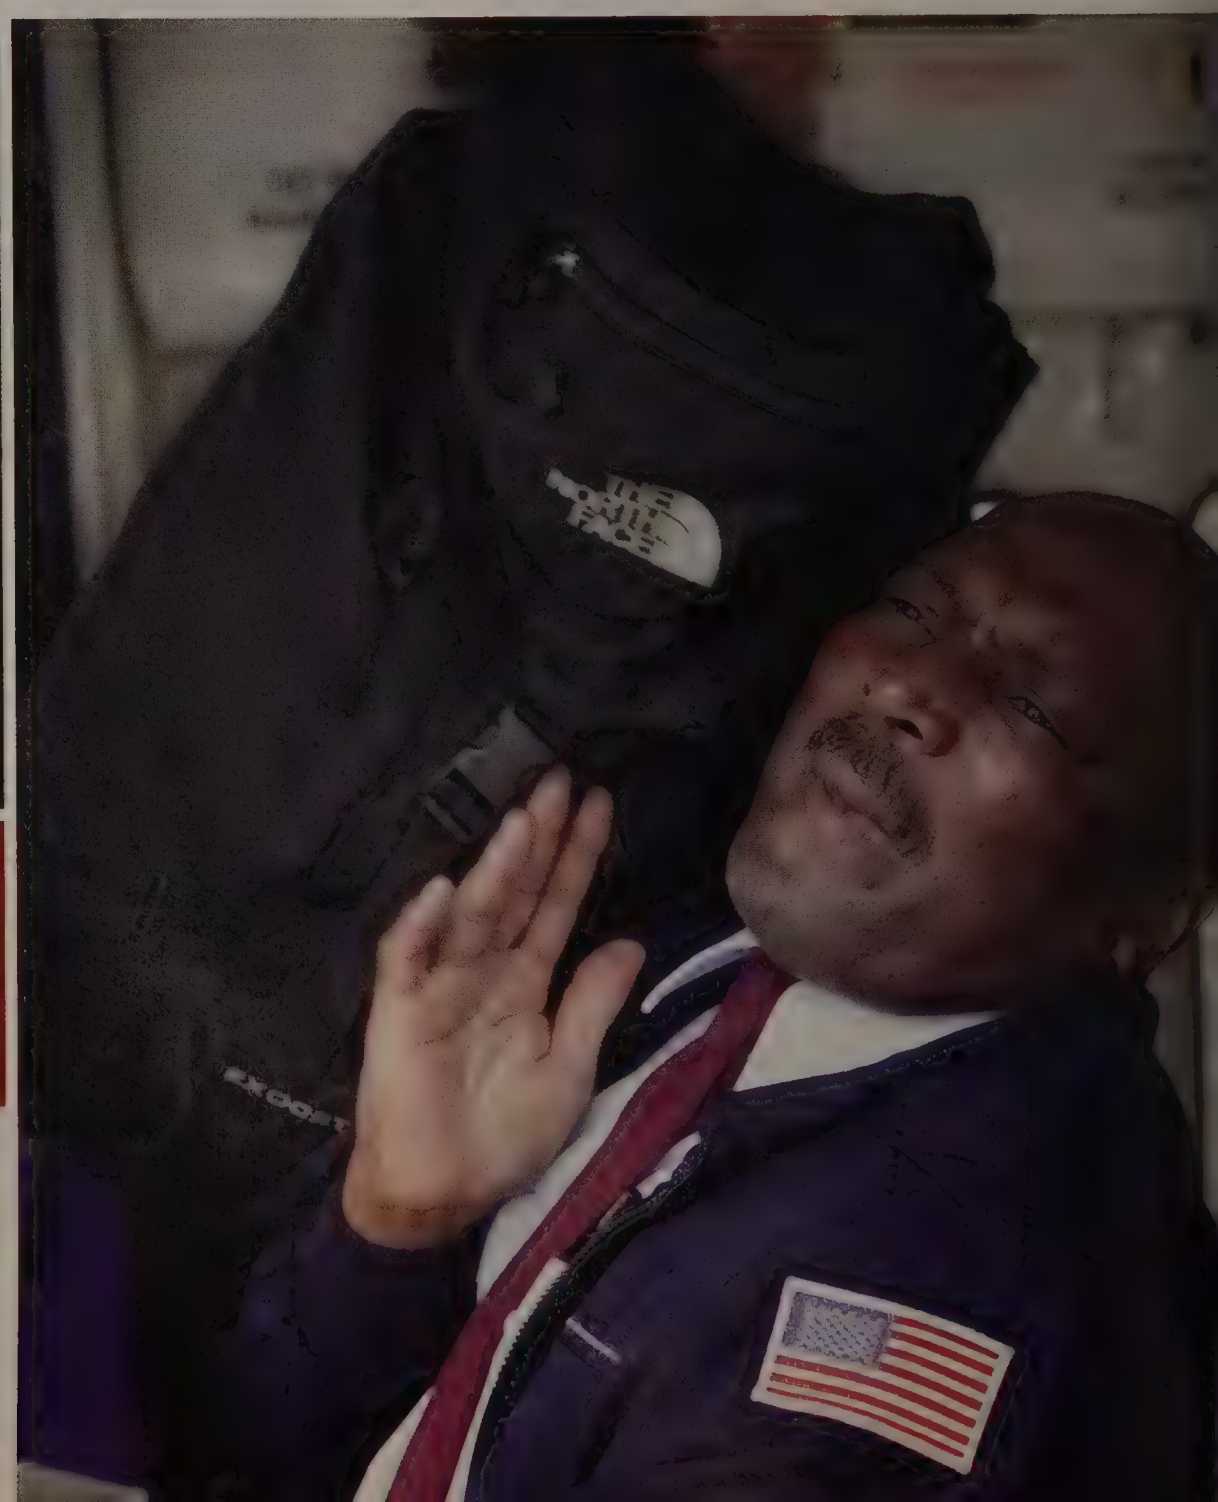
I pass by McGlinchi on the way out. He's leading people to the exit like a cattle rustler, and to his credit, he still looks energetic, even though he now has hours of cleanup ahead of him. Exhausted by people, I wave good-bye and fall into line behind a small blonde in a black dress, a soggy mass of paper sticking to her heel like fungus.

Oct. 2: Meter Maid

"It's parking enforcement officer," Nancy Longo, 48, informs me. This is another job where it pays to watch your terminology.



Longo, a PEO for the last 17 years, leads me around a patch of city stretching from New Sudbury Street into the Financial District. It's 65 degrees and sunny, and with each passing step, I begin to suspect that the diminutive Longo was handpicked by the Parking Office because she's so damn nice. Just as I think that the day is shot—the worst thing to happen being one too many giggles—Longo scares the crap out of me.



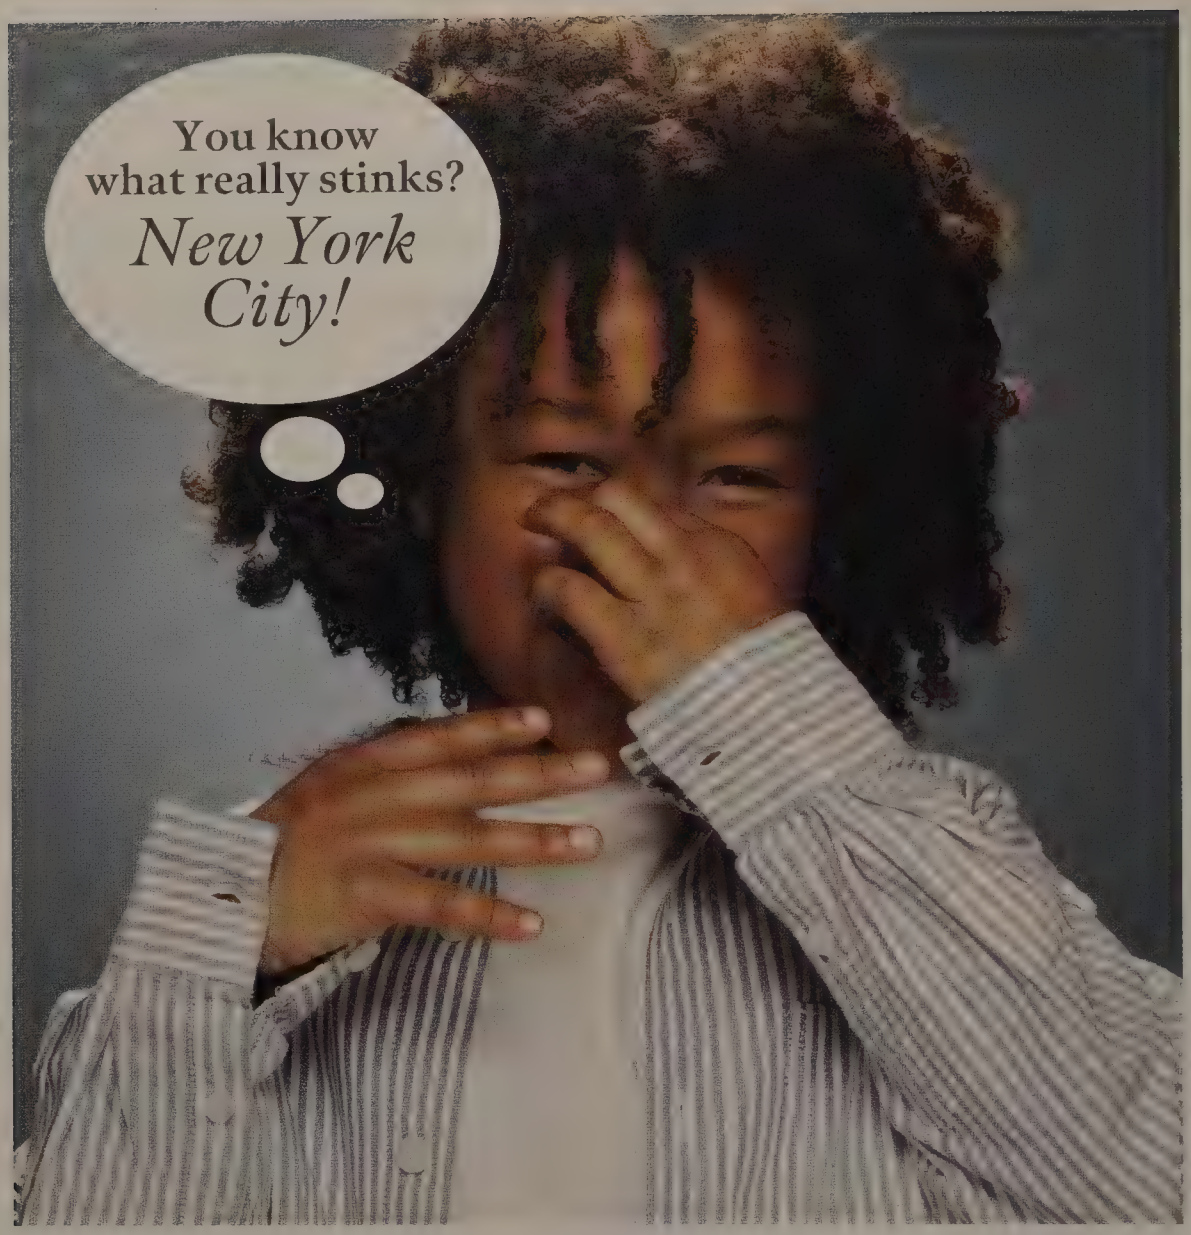
"The biggest thing is, where do you go to the bathroom?"

Three cups of coffee was a horrible decision.

PEOs work eight-hour shifts. Within those shifts, they're given two 15-minute breaks. That's a lot of holding it, a pain worsened by the fact that businesses often bar them from the door like begging lepers.

I LOVE TO WATCH DRUNK PEOPLE REASON. "IT'S THE HEADBAND, ISN'T IT?"

That's "Mr. Doorman" to you. Obnoxious clients like Nick Altschuller are only the beginning of a bouncer's problems. T conductors face angry, abusive and overloaded passengers.



Our esteemed brewery has been producing beer in Leuven since 1366. Which means we've been around a bit longer than most. Mind you, over the years our beer has witnessed the odd change or two. For instance, our customers no longer drink it to ward off the Plague, as they used to in medieval times. However, one thing has stayed the same after all these years. Stella Artois is still painstakingly brewed in a time-honored tradition with the choicest ingredients. Which is why our customers have kept coming back for more, even after 600 years.

tion has its price.

Always Enjoy Responsibly. www.stellaartois.com

© 2016 Imported by InBev USA, Norwalk, CT

TO BE NONEXISTENT WHEN IT'S CONVENIENT AND CULPABLE WHEN THINGS AREN'T YOUR FAULT IS THE BURDEN OF THE MOTOR PERSON.

"People hate us," Longo says. "They say we scare away the customers."

Even with people shunning you like the Elephant Man, Longo says Mother Nature proves the toughest enemy.

On a day this nice, that statement rings ridiculous, but with one mile down, I'm getting a little hot. In the shadows of the Financial District, I'm freezing, and by the time we climb back up the hill to Government Center, my pullover is off and I'm close to sweating through my T-shirt.

"You big baby," Longo says in her standard-issue button-down and tie.

PEOs walk anywhere from four to 12 miles a day, year-round. They're burned by the midsummer sun and chapped by winter winds. On rainy days, they strap a shower cap to their hats and slosh through the city without umbrellas, which could be used as weapons against them. People really don't like PEOs.

No one has assaulted Longo. She hasn't been dropkicked and beaten like some of her coworkers. But like all PEOs, she's forced to contend with daily insults to her intelligence.

People tear the regulatory stickers off the meters—as if PEOs would be lost without a cheat sheet. Or they destroy the meters themselves.

"People put glue, beer tops, popsicle sticks, leaves into the meters," says Longo. "They say 'Oh, the meter's broken.' No, it's vandalized."

Part of this aggression stems from the fact that drivers think parking enforcement officers are part of some shadowy conspiracy. Menino's not lighting cigars with your $25 fine. There is no quota, and refuting a ticket is far easier than you think. In fact, more than 60 percent of disputed tickets are dismissed.

And what may finally burst your indignant bubble—PEOs aren't lying. At a certain point in the electronic ticketing process, there's no going back.

"Once that plate is in, it's a legal document," says Longo. "I can't do anything. But if I don't start it, I don't have to finish it."

These are the words you should cling to like a foraging squirrel—words that could turn your next confrontation into a revelation. Longo has her own maxim, which she repeats throughout our route like Hail Marys: "Try not to take it personal. They're not mad at you. They're mad at getting caught."

But before I nominate her for PEO sainthood, she also says, "Do not take my kindness for weakness," which is the kind of thing movie villains say before killing someone.

Case in point: An SUV and a sedan are parked illegally in front of the courthouse. Both vehicles have passengers but no drivers. Both passengers are told to circle the block until whoever they're waiting for returns. The SUV drives off and later greets Longo and me with a honk and hearty thanks. The woman in the sedan pleads ignorance before slowly cleaving herself from the curb at the speed of drooping wallpaper. Seriously, I could have had grandkids by the time this woman got out into the road. Her face turning hydrant red, Longo says, "You test me again, I write the ticket," before finally crossing a lane of traffic to catch the woman mid-getaway and slap her with a $75 fine.

"Nice Longo disappeared!" she says before asking the tipping-point question for every dirty job, "How much more are you going to take?"

Oct. 23: T Conductor

Every weekday I get up at 7:30 am and know that I'm less than an hour away from what may prove to be the worst part of my morning. Riding a rush-hour train is inarguably the most annoying human interaction to be had in the city. Without fail, some anonymous stranger I'll never see again finds a unique way to irritate or spook me. Just recently, I watched a well-dressed woman close her eyes and then whisper, laugh and cry to herself for five stops.

Every workday Jimmy Holliday wakes at 3 am and knows that the next 12 hours will unfold much as they always have. The Green Line's No. 1 guy, Holliday's biggest problem with driving the morning train isn't the myriad hassles created by riders; it's the single fact that they've been the exact same hassles for 34 years.

"Been a long time and nothing changes," says Holliday, 58. He speaks in a slow, methodical voice with no sign of frustration. "It just is what it is."

People won't move into the train. People don't have the correct change. People try to use last month's pass. "Sometimes they'll come the second week of the month and say, 'Oh, is this a new month? I didn't know.'"

Certain problems bother Holliday more than others, but they share one outcome. A passenger will board a congested car with a dog, and he'll worry about someone getting bit and ask them to wait for a less crowded train. An elderly woman will board, and he'll ask the businessman pretending to read his newspaper to offer his seat. "They'll look at you like you're not saying anything," he says. "They'll sit there like you said nothing to them. That happens all the time."

To be nonexistent when it's convenient and culpable when things aren't your fault is the burden of the motor person. (Yes, it's motor person.) If you make a misstep at work—say you don't turn an article in on time—you're really only inconveniencing a small handful of people. If there's a delay on the track, Holliday pulls into Hades' waiting room, where the masses might as well be carrying torches and pitchforks.

"They say 'the T sucks,' 'you suck,' they give you the finger if you're going express," he says. "You can't satisfy half of them."

As your devil's advocate, I attest that riding the T is often a completely unsatisfying experience. Entering a rush hour car means pushing past riders who believe that the only way to safely exit a train is to barely get on it in the first place. Once you find a small pocket of oxygen, any attempt to sit is ruined by coffee spills, anthropomorphized luggage or guys with their knees spread so wide you could dock a ship in their groin. At this point you need to relax, remind yourself that none of this is Holliday's fault and heed his advice before boarding the next delayed B Line train to the seventh circle of hell.

"If half the people waited for the next train, everything would be easier," Holliday says. "I spend a couple minutes getting people off the first train so the second one can come in."

Of course his decades of experience suggest we'll continue to pack ourselves in like animals—but at least his herding days will soon be over. "I'm almost ready to retire," Holliday says. "I don't let too much bother me anymore."

The key to all this: neither should you.

—Nick Altschuller; Photographs: Jörg Meyer

Come On Down

"A vehicle for every road you travel."

LOADING ZONE
NO PARKING

Please
NO
PARKING
Side of Building

PLEASE
NO
PARKING

NO PARKING
FIRE
LANE

NO
PARKING
FIRE LANE

NO
PARKING

RESERVED
PARKING

NO
PARKING
HERE TO CORNER

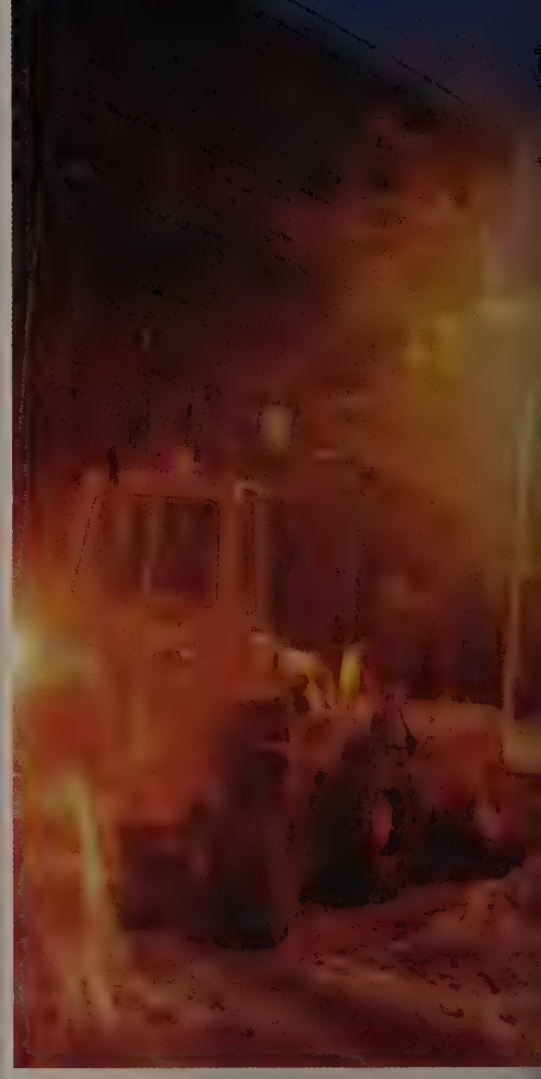
KEEP CLEAR
AT ALL TIMES



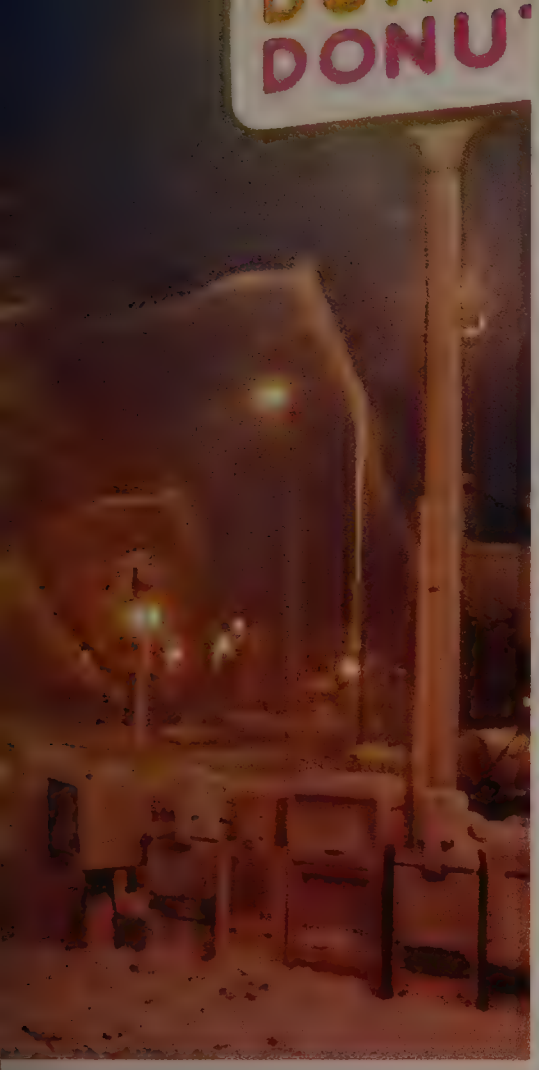
TOYOTA

BOCH AUTOMOTIVE

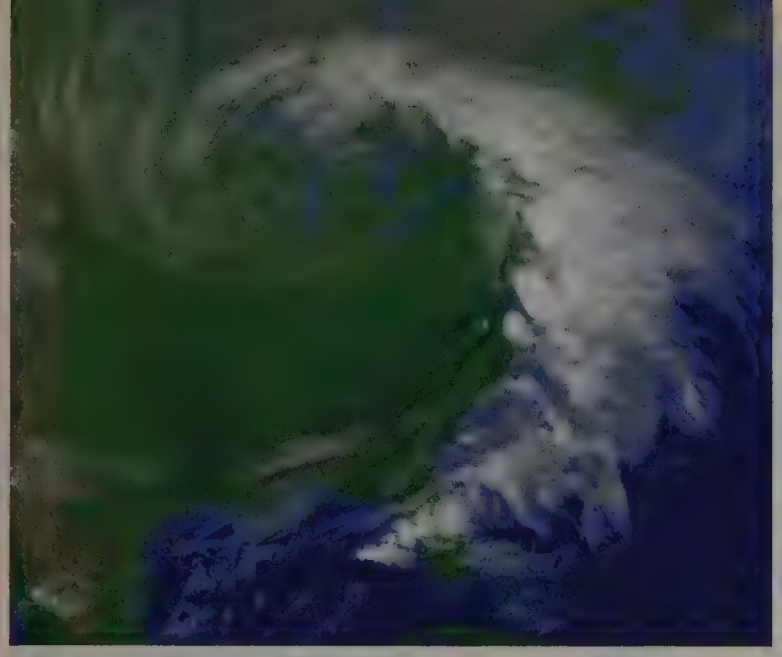
"On the Automile" Route 1, Norwood, MA Boch.com

Vote For Your Favorite Ad At Boch.com/Improper

THIS WEATHER BLOWS



WHY WE LOVE TO HATE BOSTON'S CLIMATE BY MATT HEID



BOSTON'S WEATHER unites us in growling dissent. It sucks. Not only that, it sucks in every way possible, an urban storehouse of all crappy weather phenomena known to man. Needles of rain slap us in the face, blown sideways by incessant winds. Slush falls from the sky, freezing into mounds of gray crud on the sidewalk. Summer humidity stews us in a sweaty marinade. And if it happens, just happens, to be nice today? Enjoy it while you can. It's gonna suck tomorrow. ¶ And yet we secretly revel in our climatic misery, puff out our chests in a twisted display of civic pride. You want to live in Boston? You've got to be tough enough to handle the weather. It's the cost of calling the Hub of the Universe home. We might not like it. But we love to bitch about it. So let's tour the worst weather in America.

Boston sits at a crossroads of atmospheric energy, a fact few people know as well as Tim Kelley, prime-time meteorologist with the New England Cable News Network. "We're located halfway between the North Pole and the Equator and on the edge of a huge continent and ocean," Kelley explains. "We're right at a crux where the polar and tropical jet streams interact. Extreme conditions come in from the north and south. If you throw in the wet and dry [elements], we have the capacity to produce every kind of weather there is. Heat waves, cold snaps, tornadoes, hail, hurricanes... I don't know if there's a type of weather we don't have."

More than 130 years ago, Mark Twain surmised as much. Speaking in 1876 at a meeting of the New England Society in New York, he remarked: "There is a sumptuous variety about the New England weather that compels the stranger's admiration—and regret.... Yes, one of the brightest gems in the New England weather is the dazzling uncertainty of it. There is only one thing certain about it: you are certain there is going to be plenty of it."

It certainly adds up to some rather soggy, and regrettable, numbers. According to the National Weather Service, it rains or snows in Boston an average of 126 days each year, which means there's a better than one-in-three chance you'll get wet when you step outside. The city averages around 41 inches of precipitation (rain and melted snow) annually, spread almost evenly throughout the year. There's no dry season in Boston—just one interminable wet one. In fact, Boston gets more precipitation than Seattle (37 inches per year), a city more famous for its soppy atmosphere. And it hardly ever snows there.

Snowstorms, tidal waves, fallen trees, killer traffic... all that's missing is a rain of frogs. For Bostonians, stepping out the front door is the original extreme sport.

There's no dry season in Boston. Just one interminable wet one.

In Boston, on the other hand, there's measurable snowfall 23 days each year, nearly a month of freezing flakes that accumulate to an annual total averaging around 42 inches. But the numbers can vary substantially from season to season, from roughly 20 inches of total snowfall to the all-time record of 107 inches, set in 1995–96. The only certainty is that it will snow at some point—there has never been a winter in Boston without it.

Next add in the unpleasant fact that temperatures drop to 32 degrees or lower 95 days each year. The atmosphere then dithers around the freezing mark, routinely dropping below and then rising above it. These freeze-thaw cycles transform blizzards into bone-chilling rain, encase snowbanks in shin-slicing crusts of ice and produce sheets of rink-slick ice on the sidewalks. Water trickles into cracks in the roads, then rips apart the asphalt when it freezes. You don't have to walk outside to experience the effects of Boston weather; just drive over some of the city's axle-snapping potholes.

And then there's the wind. Clocking in at 12.4 miles per hour, Boston's average annual wind speed dusts the 10.3 miles per hour posted by that also-ran of a windy city: Chicago. There's nothing like a snot-congealing blast of freezing air to help you appreciate the Hub's pre-eminence in the world of wind. In fact, the second-highest gust ever measured on Earth (186 miles per hour) was recorded in 1938 at the Blue Hill Observatory just south of Boston.

But let us not forget the storms. The storms! Fed by the waters of the Atlantic, they inundate Boston with prodigious quantities of snow, sleet and rain. "We have an enormous supply of moisture sitting next to us that can intensify and enhance any storm system," explains Ken Heideman, publications director for the American Meteorological Society (which just happens to be headquartered in downtown Boston). In winter, such intensified storm systems become the dreaded Nor'easters that break snow-shoveling backs across the region.

If all this weren't bad enough, Tim Kelley points out that we're due for much worse. "Between 1938 and 1954, we had three Category 3 hurricanes," he says. "We haven't [recently] had an experience with a hurricane with an astronomical high tide. We're overdue for one of these. It will be worse than a Nor'easter."

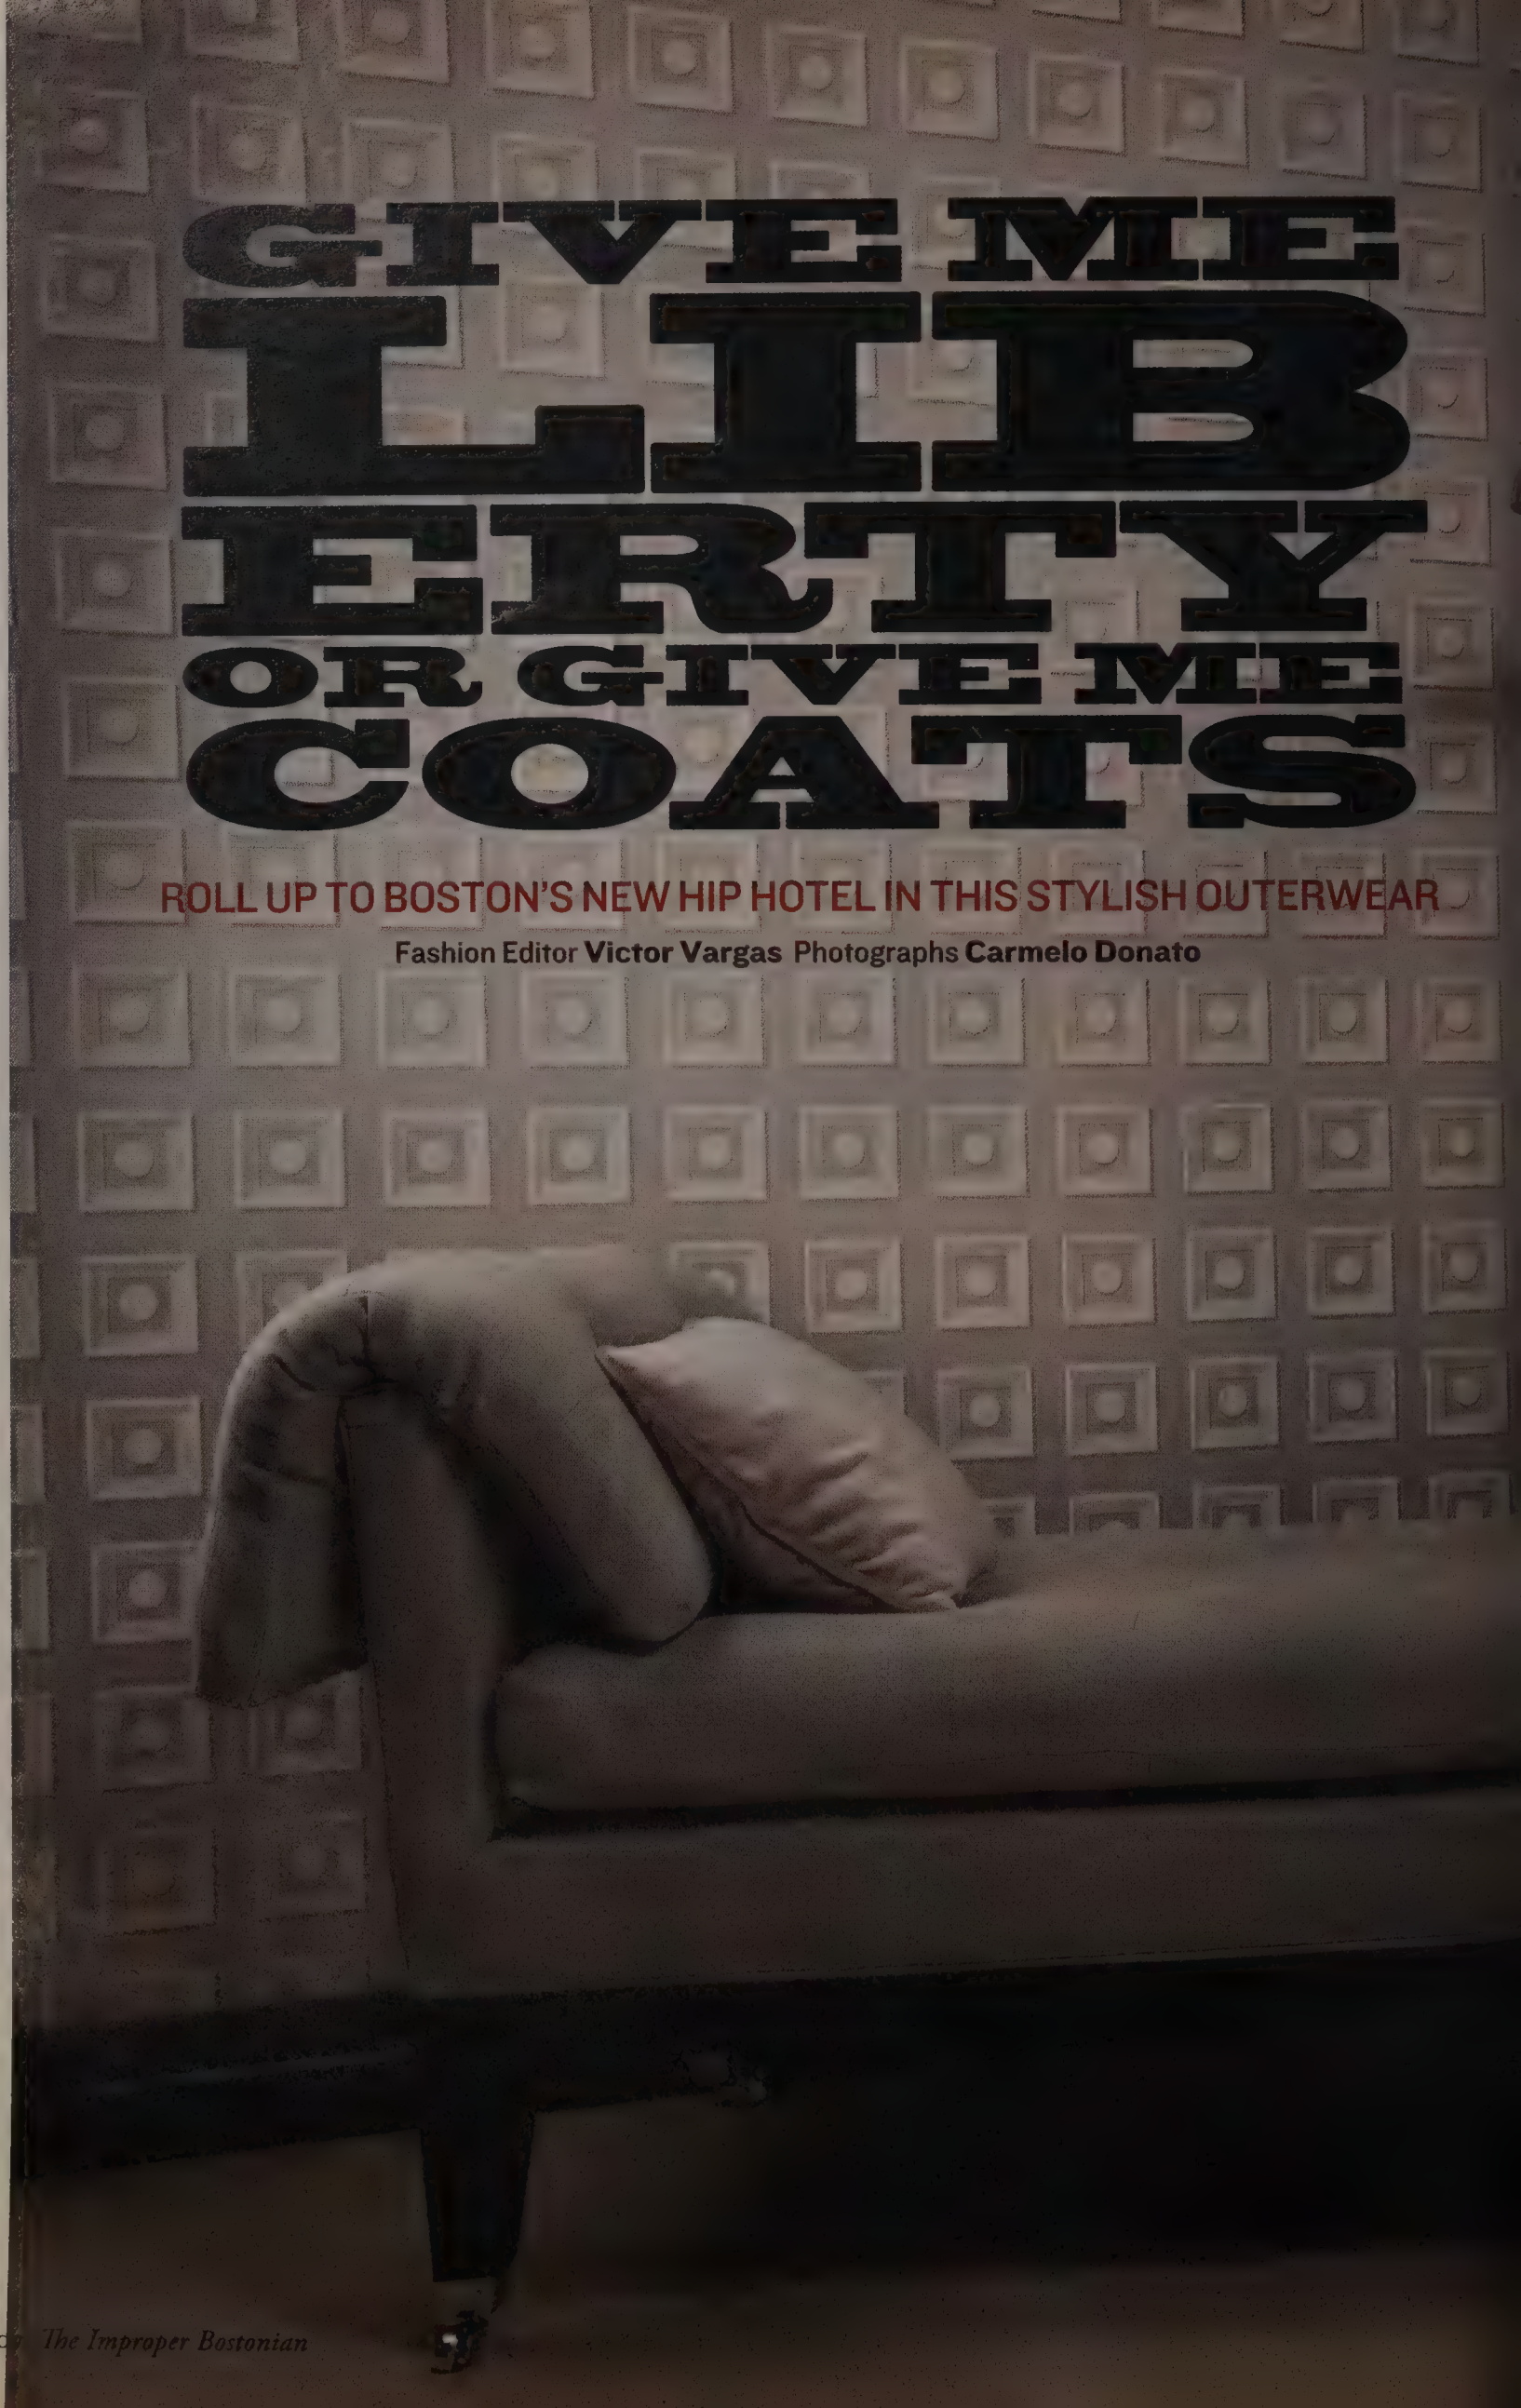
This endless parade of weather nastiness provides constant fodder for conversation, a unifying aspect of life for all city residents. "I think people talk about the weather because it's a common denominator," Heideman muses. "Not just for a lot of people, but for all people. The weather is egalitarian. It doesn't care if you're rich or poor, powerful or not. I think people talk about it more in Boston because it's so variable—we just have more to talk about."

Charles Orloff, executive director of the Blue Hill Observatory, elaborates. "We make major complaints when the variability goes away. When the weather gets stuck in the same patterns, we complain about the long periods of rain or cloudy skies. People [also] probably complain because Boston weather is so difficult to predict. That bothers people more than anything."

"We have very selective memories," Kelley adds. "We remember the bad times more than the good. I don't sense that people hate Boston weather. I sense people get frustrated after a long spell of cold and wet. [But] you're always rewarded. It makes you appreciate the sunny days more. It's a matter of whether we look at the cup [as] half full or half empty." Then again, Kelley is a consummate weatherman. "I love every kind of weather," he claims. "Me loving a certain kind of weather [more] is like a parent saying they love one kid more than another."

Weather-weary Bostonians might take heart from Kelley's open-minded outlook, or they could stick to their guns and prove Orloff's final point: "We like to complain about the weather. It's just the nature of New England."

Brave Boston's Worst



To experience the full brunt of Boston weather, visit an exposed location where winds whip unimpeded and a broad swath of sky roils to the horizon. Coastal beaches combine both of these elements and add a churning sea to the mix. Revere Beach is readily accessible via the Blue Line, a good option when storm-clogged roads may become difficult (and dangerous) to drive. Also check out the seawall in Winthrop, which faces east, or Carson Beach in South Boston, which faces more to the south.

Additionally, you could visit the highest point around Boston atop the 635-foot Great Blue Hill. The Blue Hill Observatory crowns the summit area and has operated since 1885, boasting the oldest continuous weather record in North America. It's open to the public by reservation Mon.–Fri. No reservations are necessary from 10 am to 3 pm on weekends, when docents answer weather questions and provide free 15-minute tours of the building (617-696-0562; www.bluehill.org). At other times, the state park's nearby stone lookout tower offers 360-degree views of the region (617-698-1802; www.mass.gov/dcr/parks/metroboston/blue.htm).

GIVE ME LIBERTY OR GIVE ME COATS

ROLL UP TO BOSTON'S NEW HIP HOTEL IN THIS STYLISH OUTERWEAR

Fashion Editor Victor Vargas Photographs Carmelo Donato

BLACK WOOL TWEED SWING COAT BY HELEN WANG, $396 AT VELVET RIBBON. IVORY SILK KNIT DRESS, $1,900 AT HERMÈS. SPECTATOR PLATFORM SLING-BACK SHOES BY CHANEL, $670 AT BLOOMINGDALE'S. GLASS STONE, PEARL AND GOLD-PLATED CLUSTER EARRINGS, $120, AND MULTILEAF CHAIN TOGGLE BRACELET, $225. BOTH BY MIRIAM HASKELL AT NORDSTROM.

BLACK NYLON COAT WITH CHINCHILLA COLLAR BY FENDI, $7,400 AT BARNEYS NEW YORK. PLATINUM CANARY EARRINGS, $70,000; PLATINUM CLUSTER NECKLACE, $170,000. BOTH AT SHREVE, CRUMP & LOW.

WAXED LAMBSKIN COAT WITH MINK TRIM AND OSTRICH BELT, $17,990; LEATHER AND PYTHON ANNIVERSARY CAGE BOOTIE, $1,160. BOTH DIOR BY JOHN GALLIANO AT DIOR. PLATINUM PEARL DROP DIAMOND EARRINGS, $138,750 AT SHREVE, CRUMP & LOW.

GRAY WOOL TWEED
COAT WITH COWL
NECK, $1,890. WIDE
BELT WITH BUCKLES,
$345. HIGH-HEEL
PUMPS WITH ELASTIC
STRAP, $470. ALL AT
MAX MARA. LARGE
TOTE, $1,195, BY
GIVARD YOSCA. $170

GRAY MOHAIR COAT, $2,870; GREEN RUSHED CLUTCH, $745; BOTH BY PRADA AT BARNEYS NEW YORK. CLEAR PVC BELT BY LANVIN, $565 AT BARNEYS NEW YORK. PRETTINESS CLIP EARRINGS, DIOR BY JOHN GALLIANO, $885 AT DIOR. LARGE FAUX DIAMOND RING, $60; RED CUFF BY DOMINIQUE DENAIVE, $175. BOTH AT BLOOMINGDALE'S

Makeup: Hilary Warner using MAC cosmetics

Hair: Hamid Khouyi and Taylor Nurse/Leon & Co.

Models: Andria/Maggie and Quennha Moore/Click

Fashion assistants: Ashley Kujawski and Sevasti Tustin

Shot on location at the Liberty Hotel

STORES:

Barneys New York
Copley Place
617-385-3300

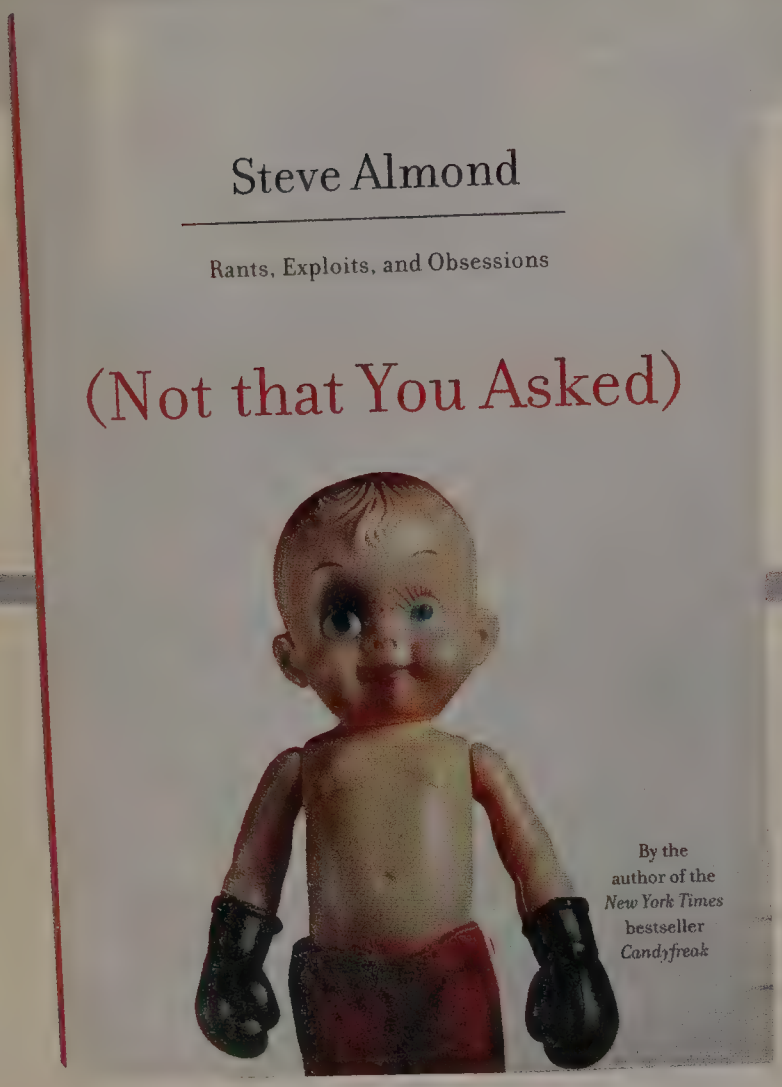
Bloomingdale's
55 Boylston St.
Chestnut Hill
617-630-6000

Dior
Copley Place
617-927-7577

Hermès
Heritage on the Garden
617-482-8707

Max Mara
69 Newbury St.
617-267-9775

Nordstrom
The Natick Collection
508-318-2600



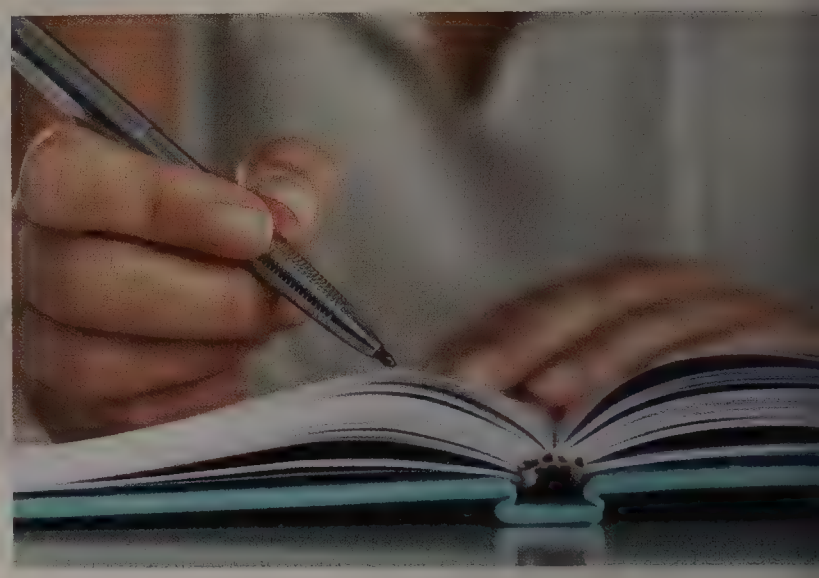
Shreve, Crump & Low
440 Boylston St.
617-267-9100

Velvet Ribbon
1620 Beacon St.
Brookline
617-227-0066

MOPSY

SERENDIPITOUS SHOPPING: OUR UNFETTERED CORRESPONDENT SEEKS OUT THE SALUBRIOUS AND THE CEREBRAL.

BY MOPSY STRANGE KENNEDY

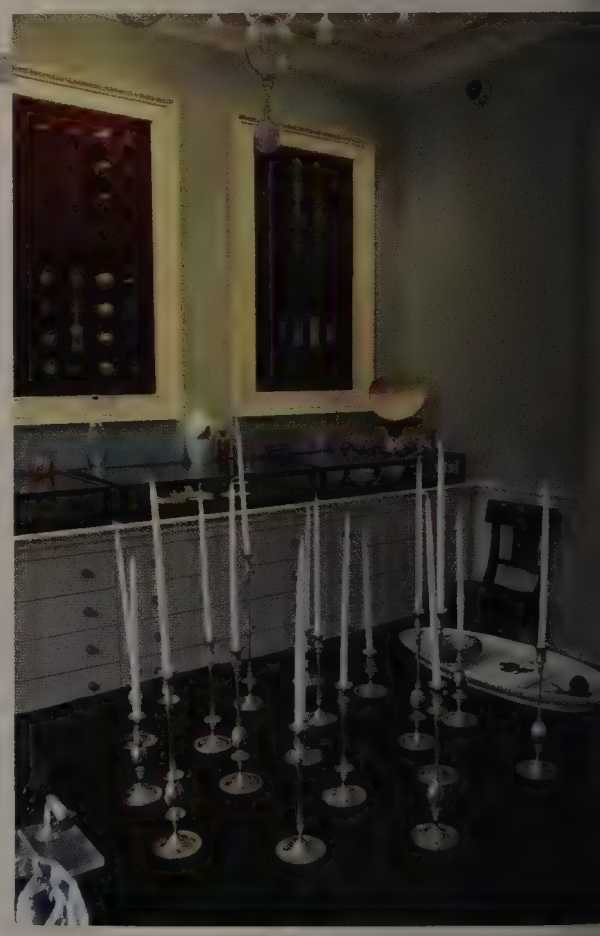


SMARTY RANTS

In his new book of essays, (Not That You Asked): Rants, Exploits and Obsessions, Boston-based author Steve Almond speaks his mind.

Steve Almond of Candyfreak fame is back with essays that explore different ingredients: the vinegar and pepper in his spirit. Like a very funny, sometimes bitter adolescent, he bemoans and brandishes his longings. Attempting to get his book selected for Oprah's Book Club, he writes a series of outrageous letters to Her Highness, from arrogant to chastened and supplicating, ending with a symbolic peace offering to her of his baby daughter. A hostile, jealous, blogging anti-fan stalks him online and off, serving as a sort of wet, salty rope with which he flogs himself while questioning fame, jealousy and worth. Portnoy-like, he takes us on an embarrassing tour of his teenage solitary pleasures in the hot tub. Nor does he show himself mercy when discussing his later sexual exploits, including getting arrested for trying to steal Sta-Hard Gel from the drugstore. It makes sense that Almond worships and pursues Kurt Vonnegut, whose dyspeptic idealism echoes his own—witness his high-minded (and heavily media-covered) protest against Boston College when they invited Condoleezza Rice to speak, and his subsequent tossing away of an adjunct professorship there. Somehow, Almond's tortured loathings and adventures come across as weirdly, interestingly, bravely cool.

PEN OF INIQUITY



Graphologist Barbara Harding (978-369-0073; P.O. Box 312, Concord) analyzes handwriting and teaches her craft a the Cambridge Center for Adult Education.

Handwriting—that blushing giveaway that we sprinkle over checks, love notes and, alas, poison pen letters—reveals a lot. Barbara Harding analyzes handwriting in 30 communities, uncovering anonymous dangers (via threatening letters, for example), doctored wills and, happily, more benign secrets. Employers or people scouting a business partner use her service to look for energy, motivation, attention to detail and broad-spectrum thinking (and honesty). Potential romantic partners, more interested in emotio revelations, may get a keyhole glimpse into the other's true self. There are 22 indicators that bleed badn showing up to five of them is reason to worry. Calling on art and science, Harding evaluates the "pers that can hide behind the mask of handwriting: neediness, insecurity, "look at me!" Interestingly, peo can use handwriting to begin remedying a troublesome personal quality (impatience, lack of focus), p haps by learning not to messily entwine the lower loops of letters. Afterwards, they might proceed to c recting that problem in life itself. Handwriting, always idiosyncratically reflecting the inside "you," wonderful barometer of what's going on in your life, your health, your energy level.

KNOB STORY

E.R. Butler & Co. (38 Charles St., Boston; 617-722-0230) sells decorative hardware.

The initials discreetly hide the owner's ostentatious name: Rhett Butler. And frankly, my dear, the adornments he sells—doorknobs and keyhole coverings, lever handles and blade-like vertical bolts that lock a door with beautiful, decisive authority—do high-class credit to any door or cabinet. Small and large crystal and mercury glass knobs shine appealingly; you'll also find dazzling blue, green and opaline ones. Butler's brass, bronze and nickel pieces aren't lacquered (which can look cheap; hardly the tone here!) but instead tarnish subtly; sterling silver, gold plate and mother-of-pearl show their haughty colors. Some pieces are oval and may have interesting beaded or braided ornamentation around the edges. Deadbolt locks made of substantial, shiny metal rectangles stand against the door like sentries; no wonder big banks and Grand Central Station have bou them. And if you're Bea Hill-y enough to have poc doors, you can get gold a silver door pulls. Aristocra is the prevalent tone, inclu ing exotic pieces of chi decorated with svelte, poe animals or an ultrawhite p celain Diana the Huntre Subtle keyhole covers are other charming offering. coat hooks, choose betwe metal lady figureheads leering devils.

DANE COOK

ROUGH AROUND THE EDGES: THE TOUR

"Cook is a superstar." -Forbes

"There is only one star. His name is Dane Cook" -NY TIMES

"Comedy's breakthrough star." -Rolling Stone

TD Banknorth GARDEN

NOVEMBER 17

Tickets available at the box office, all ticketmaster outlets, by calling (617) 931-2000 or on-line at www.ticketmaster.com

Dane Cook's new CD/DVD Rough Around the Edges Live from Madison Square Garden is available in stores on Tuesday Nov 13th

DANECOOK.com

REVIEW

THE SWEETEST THING

Honeyed words barely do justice to dining at the Beehive

BY J. CHARLES MOKRISKI • PHOTOGRAPHS BY ANTHONY TIEULI

THE BEEHIVE
541 Tremont St., Boston
617-423-0069
www.beehiveboston.com
HOURS 5:30 pm–2 am;
brunch: Sat. and Sun., 11:30 am–4 pm
RESERVATIONS recommended
CREDIT CARDS Visa, MasterCard, AmEx
HANDICAPPED ACCESSIBLE yes
PARKING valet
LIQUOR LICENSE full

When you think things can't get any more lively on Tremont Street in the South End, someone comes along and opens an establishment like the Beehive. Restaurateurs Jack Bardy (Pho Republique) and Darryl Settles (Bob's Southern Bistro) have created a hospitality emporium almost without parallel. The music scene normally starts at 10 pm, but much earlier the Beehive's kitchen is turning out remarkably good things to eat at near-bargain prices. While the restaurant underwent a change in kitchen staffing between my visits for this review—Kevin Crawley, chef/owner of Coriander Bistro, has teamed up with Becca Newell, formerly of Aquitaine Bis and Union Bar and Grille, to replace opening chef Adam Halberg—the food remained excellent.

To see for yourself, head for the South End's nightlife epicenter. Between Hamersley's Bistro and the Calderwood Pavilion, the Beehive's unprepossessing entrance opens to a capacious interior. Formerly home to a theater's boiler room, the venue presents an inviting, intriguing space. Upstairs, a small dining room dimly lit by 32 Victorian crystal chandeliers occupies half the floor, overlooking a wrought-iron banister to an expansive area below. Downstairs, scattered tables seat patrons near a performance space visible from above, with a huge, eclectically furnished dining room—oak tables, cane-backed chairs, a deer's head, exposed girders, colorful prints, art deco sconces and more crystal chandeliers—and a long bar off to the left.

Bohemian platter

The Beehive's delightful menu, paralleling its eclectic décor, presented an inviting array of eats. Garlic, mozzarella and tomato flatbread ($9), an ultrathin pizza with creamy mozzarella, sweet-tart cherry tomatoes and muted garlic, served as the perfect hors d'oeuvre, a light, delicate tease for the taste buds. Fritto misto ($11) of calamari and vegetables—zucchini, peppers and mushrooms—all lightly breaded and flash fried with tempura finesse, boasted fresh flavors and peerless texture. Kielbasa pig-in-a-blanket ($9), a hefty link of rich, spicy Polish sausage swaddled in flaky, tender pastry, combined delicacy with robustness, complemented by a garnish of tender, tangy-sweet sauerkraut and coarse, textured mustard.

Unfortunately, the kielbasa had disappeared from the menu on my third visit, when a pair of risotto arancini with lemon and ricotta ($8) appeared in its stead. Encased in a deep-fried crust, the filling of these rice balls had a vaguely citric flavor and curious vinaigrette dipping sauce. Among the best of the appetizers was the Bohemian platter ($23), a cornucopia of thick-sliced, Lyon-style garlic sausage, thin slices of Genoa salami, silky prosciutto, fat-studded mortadella, grape leaves stuffed with rice and meat, eggplant stuffed with nuts, a slice of eggy frittata, olives of all sizes and colors, succulent, sweet-mellow roasted grapes, assorted greens and a trio of cheeses—Armenian string cheese and hefty chunks of Asiago and pecorino. What it lacked in presentation it made up for in quality.

Main courses started with a superb lobster and asparagus macaroni and cheese ($20). The cresta de gallo pasta were large, hollow crescents with crimped outer edges, tender yet firm to the bite. The sauce, a combination of butter, cream and flavorful but mild cheese, coated the pasta along with segments of asparagus and voluptuous morsels of lobster. A luxurious dish, one order would have made a perfect introductory pasta course for a party of three. Almond-fried veal with spaetzle, choucroute and lemon juic ($19) brought what appeare to be an entire half chicke boned, coated in an almon batter and fried. The crunch crust sealed moist, tender fles with lemony nuances. An a companiment of buttery spae zle and choucroute, sweet-me low "baked" cabbage, mad the dish a standout. Hungarian egg noo dles with braised veal and wild mushroom ($18) represented the kind of substantia Eastern European, stick-to-the-ribs fa that Boston's chilly autumn weather d mands. The soft, velvety texture of th tender veal, wonderfully woodsy, resilie mushrooms and eggy al dente noodles cr ated a flavorful, multi-texture treat. U fortunately, on my last visit to the Beehi the chicken and veal had gone the way the kielbasa, but in a subsequent phon call, Jack Bardy assured me they wou doubtless be back.

In the Beehive's steak frites ($21), thr thick slices of surprisingly tender ski steak, cooked medium-rare as ordered, sa isfied my carnivorous cravings with hear beef flavor and a well-turned sauce, b the star of the dish was the frites. Curl and twisted potato shavings, deep fried crispy perfection and seasoned with sa and sea salt, they defied my diet-drive resolution to only sample, and I ended devouring the whole, huge portion. The fabulous frites also accompanied the Be hive's char-grilled burger ($14). Ma from first-rate, freshly ground beef, t burger must have weighed at least hal pound. Perfectly seared on the outside a rare and juicy within, it came on a spe tacular grilled roll, flaky and crispy—su plied, the waitress told us, by Sevan, Armenian bakery in Watertown. (On subsequent visit, the Sevan roll had be replaced by a pedestrian, supermarke quality sesame seed roll.) Side dish shined almost with the brilliance of t main courses. Besides the frites (availab as a side for $8), I tried the sugar snap pe with honey almonds and balsamic redu tion ($6) and the grilled asparagus wi lemon and parmesan ($7). The pleasant crunchy almonds reinforced the cris texture of the bright green peas, while t ney and balsamic gave them a llow sweetness. The asparagus ears brought an unusual taste of ring in the middle of the au- nn, with perfect texture and t the right accents of lemon d parmesan to highlight the getable's distinctive flavor.

Desserts included two fall clas- s: pear tart and apple cobbler 7). In the pear tart, firm but der pear slices topped tender, ky puff pastry, with a scoop of namon ice cream alongside. e apple cobbler, a large gon- a-shaped dish heaped with iled pastry crumbs over firm ples and raisins, came topped h unsweetened whipped cream, t the right touch for this sweet dessert. A well-chosen, value-priced assortment of wines accompanied the Beehive's food, including some in half-liter carafes. The latter included a sturdy Argentinean red, 2005 Bodega Vina Maipu ($16), full-bodied and well-structured. The Ubalinda, a 2002 tempranillo, was softer, reflecting its greater bottle age, with ripe fruit and a marvelous bouquet. Finally the 2003 Panuelo Rojo, a merlot-cabernet blend, was bigger and more assertive, full-bodied and well-balanced, with a fine finish.

The Beehive's excellent food and affordable wines were served by a spontaneous, energetic, unpretentious and enthusiastic staff. They recited prices for the specials without being asked, a rare occurrence in Boston restaurants. Even rarer, they actually down-sold the wine list by steering us to the carafe choices. Some disorganization and occasional lack of attention to details intruded, but overall the pluses easily trumped any service shortcomings. What seemed most remarkable about the Beehive was the cohabitation of a fine restaurant and a major nightlife hot spot, to which throngs of young and not-so-young flock nightly. If the music is half as good as the food and wine, this place is a triple-crown winner. IB

All New!
The IMPROPER

Debuts November 21. Be part of it.
To advertise, call (617) 859-1400, ext.238

THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN MAGAZINE
CONGRATULATES THE BOSTON RED SOX
2007 WORLD SERIES
CHAMPIONS!

DISH

Kitchen Switchin'

From Bay Village breakfast to Hungry Mother dinner

BY CAROLYN FAYE FOX

The gang from Rachel's Kitchen is on the move.

Although Rachel's Kitchen in Bay Village has closed its cozily welcoming doors, partners Rachel Miller Munzer, Alon Munzer and John Kessen will open another eatery—with chef Barry Maiden still on the team—across the river in Cambridge. Set to debut in Kendall Square sometime this winter, Hungry Mother will serve a dinner-only menu in the former space of the Kendall Café. Southern-influenced American fare, such as shrimp with grits and red-eye gravy, takes center stage, along with a full liquor license and a small room for private functions.

Another change: The Munzers will work the front of the house, while Maiden, formerly of L'Espalier and Lumiere, oversees the kitchen. As for the never-opened Village Table, which the Munzers planned to launch last year and for which they solicited contributions from friends and diners, well, "we're putting up a wall in Cambridge, and everyone who donated will have their name on the wall," says Rachel. Plus, investors will receive a 25 percent discount on their first meal at Hungry Mother. "It's the same de absolutely," says Rachel.

About the name: Hung Mother is a state park in V ginia, so titled for a depressi legend about a lost little g whose mother starved to dea in the woods. Nobody w starve at the upcoming Hung Mother, where dishes will available in three differe sizes: for sharing, for a light b or for a standard meal.

Monday Monday

After a food-intensive wee end—Friday night: deep-fri bar food; Saturday night: fo course dinner with friend Sunday: brunch with a side extra carbs—a straightforwa sandwich holds special appe at dinnertime on Mond That's why Felino Samso chef/owner of Pops in t South End, is now offering expanded sandwich me Monday evenings for dining or takeout. About a doz choices, comfortably priced b tween $7 and $12, include barbecue pull chicken; pressed grilled eggplant with fre mozzarella, hummus and walnuts; and grill Gruyère cheese and onion jam.

Bargain in Brookline

Tucked away in Chestnut Hill, little Ne bury College is the alma mater of a go number of talented local chefs, includi Paul Turano of Tryst. It's also the site of t Weltman Dining Room, freshly opened the public on weeknights for four-cour $25 prix-fixe dinners. Here's how it wor You reserve a table for the single 6:15 p seating; bring your own wine; choose fr entree specials such as rack of lamb, du confit and sweet turnip risotto, or pepper char with shallot compote and parsn mousseline; and settle in for dinner prepar and served by students at the Saund School of Hotel and Restaurant Manag ment. For more info, call 617-730-7037.

Serving Dish

Seen a food fight? Got a restaurant rant? Send dish@improper.com.

TASTINGS

BY RICH LEVINE

dvice to Contributors

ubmit listings by mail or e-mail (tastings@properboston.com). Include address, phone number, cket price, dates and times, the nearest T stop d a brief description of the event. Deadline is ur weeks prior to publication. Listings cannot be cepted over the phone.

vents

est Cellars University

ure at the Lenox Hotel, 65 Exeter St., Boston 17-232-4100). www.bestcellars.com. MBTA: reen Line to Copley. Nov. 13, 7 pm. $85. shua Wesson of Best Cellars leads this six-urse dinner paired with a flight of six wines. esson also discusses the basics of wine ting and picking the right bottle for the lidays.

nner That Matters

T Museum, 265 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-2-3622). www.designthatmatters.com. MBTA: d Line to Kendall/MIT. Nov. 8, 6-9 pm. $100. sign That Matters—a nonprofit product de-n company that works to improve healthcare d education in developing countries—hosts s multicourse benefit dinner.

icurean Evenings

jourd'hui at the Four Seasons, 200 Boylston , Boston (617-351-2037). www.fourseasons.com/boston/dining.html. MBTA: Green Line to lington. Tue., 7 pm. $50. Sommelier Brick omis and chef William Kovel host this ekly wine event that offers three light rses built around a theme, region or grape iety. •Nov. 13: The New Spain. •Nov. 20: ujolais.

t Off the Vine

Restaurant, 33 Stanhope St., Boston (617-2-3311). www.33restaurant.com. MBTA: een Line to Arlington or Orange Line to Back y. Wed., 5-7 pm. $20-$40. Join chef Anthony Dawodu and wine director Paul Westcamp for a sampling of four wines paired h food tastings.

Celebration of Bordeaux

UpStairs on the Square, 92 Winthrop St., mbridge (617-864-1933). www.upstairsonthesquare.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. Nov. 6:30 pm. $125. UpStairs on the Square e director Shane Lessard leads this fifth ual multicourse dinner paired with wines m Bordeaux.

the Kitchen

tic Kitchen, 210 Stuart St., Boston (617-5700). www.rustickitchen.biz. MBTA: en Line to Arlington. Fri., 6:30 pm. $50. On days, Alissa Bigelow hosts an interactive king class. The November program is entitled "Fall Harvest Pasta," and includes dishes : whole wheat ravioli—stuffed with duck fit, Granny Smith apples, fontina cheese il spinach—and apple, frisée and toasted elnut salad.

nday Flight Night

Sportatore's, 225 Northern Ave., Boston (617-7-5454). MBTA: Silver Line to World Trade nter. Mon., 6-8 pm. $15. Every Monday, Salvatore's offers four cocktail infusions, including Cherry Bomb, Starfruit and Coconut Strawberry.

nday Night Wine Club

shmont Grill, 555 Talbot St., Dorchester (617-4-4300). www.ashmontgrill.com. MBTA: Bus to Talbot Ave. Mon., 6-8 pm. $25. h Monday, four to five wine selections are ed on the patio, accompanied by small es of seasonal food.

Pinot Pinot Pinot Seminar

Laurel Grill and Bar, 142 Berkeley St., Boston (617-424-6711). www.laurelgrillandbar.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Nov. 14, 6:30 pm. $25. Laurel Grill and Horizon Beverage host this tasting of pinot noirs paired with harvest fare.

Steak Frites Fridays at Pigalle

Pigalle, 75 Charles St. South, Boston (617-423-4944). www.pigalleboston.com. MBTA: Green Line to Boylston. Fri. $35. Sundays this fall, Pigalle offers a prix-fixe, steak-frites–themed dinner, which also features live music.

A Taste of Provence

Arnold Worldwide, 101 Huntington Ave., 17th floor, Boston (617-587-8000). www.faccne.org/agenda. MBTA: Green Line to Prudential. Nov. 8, 6-9 pm. $30. The French-American Chamber of Commerce hosts this sampling of food and wine from Provence.

Tuesday Night Wine Tasting

Les Zygomates, 129 South St., Boston (617-542-5108). www.winebar.com. MBTA: Red Line to South Station. Tue., 7 pm. $30. Sommelier Geoffrey Fallon leads a tasting of a themed wine paired with hors d'oeuvres made by chef Ian Just, who also offers cooking demonstrations. •Nov. 13: Champagne Shootout ($65). •Nov. 20: Just Desserts.

Veterans' Appreciation Event

McCormick & Schmick's, 34 Columbus Ave., Boston (617-482-3999). MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. North Market Building, Boston (617-720-5522). MBTA: Green Line to Gov. Center. Nov. 11. Free. Local veterans enjoy a complimentary lunch or dinner entree at either McCormick & Schmick's Boston location with proper identification.

Wine and Dine Mondays

Beacon Hill Bistro, 25 Charles St., Boston (617-723-7575). www.beaconhillhotel.com. MBTA: Red Line to Charles/MGH. First and third Mon. of each month. 7 pm, $55. Chef Jason Bond prepares a four-course meal paired with various wines. A discussion of each wine follows the meal, led by BHB owner Cecilia Rait and MS Walker's Tracy Burgis. •Nov. 19: Loire Valley.

Wine and Portos of Portugal

Harvard Club of Boston, 374 Comm. Ave. Boston (877-276-7884). www.mspca.org/wines. MBTA: Green Line to Hynes. Nov. 20, 5:30-7:30 pm. $25. The MSPCA hosts this fundraiser featuring more than 150 varieties of Portuguese wine and port.

Wine Mondays at L'Espalier

L'Espalier, 30 Gloucester St., Boston (617-262-3023). www.lespalier.com. MBTA: Green Line to Hynes. Mon., 7 pm. $55. Chef Frank McClelland prepares a four-course French meal paired with wines chosen by sommelier Erik Johnson. •Nov. 12: Burgundy. •Nov. 19: Quit Your Wineing! It's Beer.

Wine Wednesdays

Sel de la Terre, 255 State St., Boston (617-720-1300). www.seldelaterre.com. MBTA: Blue Line to Aquarium. Wed., 7 pm. $45. Chef Geoff Gardner pairs rustic French cuisine with wines selected by sommeliers Erik Johnson and Michael Meagher at this weekly event. •Nov. 7: Southern France. •Nov. 14: Pacific Northwest.

Women's Wine Pairing Event

Club Café, 209 Columbus Ave., Boston (617-536-0966). www.clubcafe.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. Nov. 15, 6-9 pm. $50. Club Café executive chef Justin Hackett prepares a six-course seasonal menu paired with wines from Winchester Wine and Spirit.

866 330 0346
Call us now to reserve valet & transportation for your holiday event!

VPNE
Parking, Transportation
& Valet Services For Your Perfect Event

Perfect Events & Perfect Parking Services.

The first and last impression your guests have of you is your Parking, Transportation and Valet Service. Don't let it ruin your event. To learn how to avoid the most common Parking & Valet Nightmares, go to: www.MyParkingValet.com

Completing Memorable Events.

VPNE Valet Service Guarantee

"We guarantee that if our event parking, transportation and valet service does not meet your expectations, your next event is on us!"
Kevin J. Leary, President, VPNE

Since 1990, VPNE has served as the expert parking, transportation and valet partner to New England's most prestigious event planners, corporations and hospitality companies including:

The Four Seasons, State Street Corporation, Partners Health Care, The Catered Affair, Max Ultimate Food, Neiman Marcus & Colin Cowie

Let us help make your holiday event memorable.

MASA Events

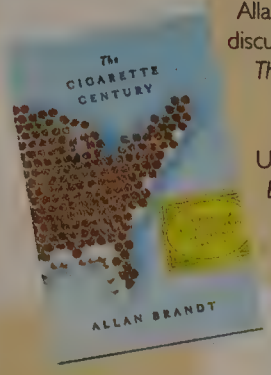
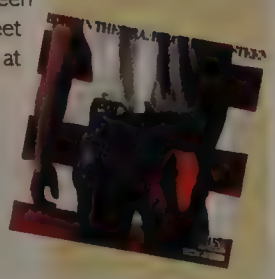
Holiday Special for Events

$39 THREE COURSE MENU

INCLUDES COMPLIMENTARY TAPAS DURING YOUR COCKTAIL HOUR



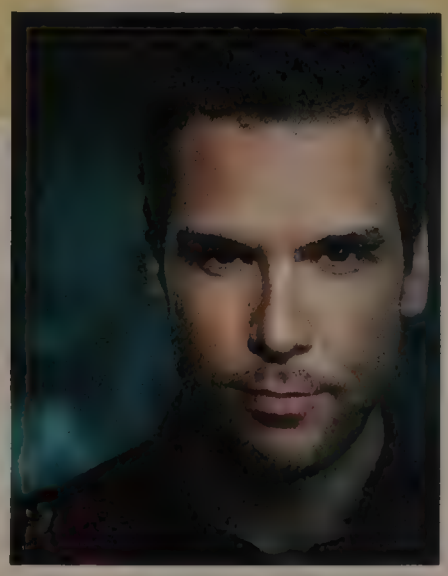


(FOR PARTIES OF 15 AND LARGER)

WWW.MASARESTAURANT.COM 439 TREMONT ST. BOSTON 617.338.8

agenda

MPROPER PICKS



november 7 - 20

SUNDAY	MONDAY	TUESDAY	WEDNESDAY	THURSDAY	FRIDAY	SATURDAY
4	5	6	7	8	9	10
			Jimmy Eat World plays at the Orpheum Theatre. See Music on page 58.			Head to the Chestnut Hill Mall for their Spotlight Fashion Event. See CityScope on page 49.
11	12	13	14	15	16	17
The Police take the stage at the TD Banknorth Garden. See Music on page 60.		Karen Malme talks improv comedy at Stonewall Communities Lifelong Learning Institute. See Gay & Lesbian on page 72.			Allan M. Brandt discusses his book The Cigarette Century at Brandeis University. See Education on page 75.
18	19	20	21
The Brattle Theatre screens Martin Scorsese's The Departed. See Movies on page 55.	Bruce Springsteen and the E Street Band rock out at the TD Banknorth Garden. See Music on page 61.

SAT./NOV. 17

Performing Arts: We Deserve the Super-Finger

Hey, Dane Cook. Listen, sorry about that Walsh brothers business (see "Worse and Worser," starting on page 24). Those guys make the Sklar brothers look like Abbot and Costello. Su-Fi! Right? Am I right? Please don't hate us. We might ask you to pose for another cover in the future, and John Kerry stopped returning our calls. You'll probably sell out two shows at the Garden with your Rough Around the Edges Tour, and we can't wait for Bachelor No. 2. Forgive us this, and we'll pretend Employee of the Month never happened. TD Banknorth Garden, 100 Legends Way, Boston (617-931-2000). www.ticketmaster.com. 7 and 10:30 pm, $30-$100. —Nick Altschuller

CITYSCOPE 49

PERFORMING ARTS 50

MOVIES 52

MUSIC 58

CLASSICAL MUSIC 62

DANCE CLUBS 64

MUSEUMS & GALLERIES . . 68

GAY & LESBIAN 72

BOOKS & POETRY 74

EDUCATION 75

BODY & MIND 76

SPORTS 77

CHILDREN 78

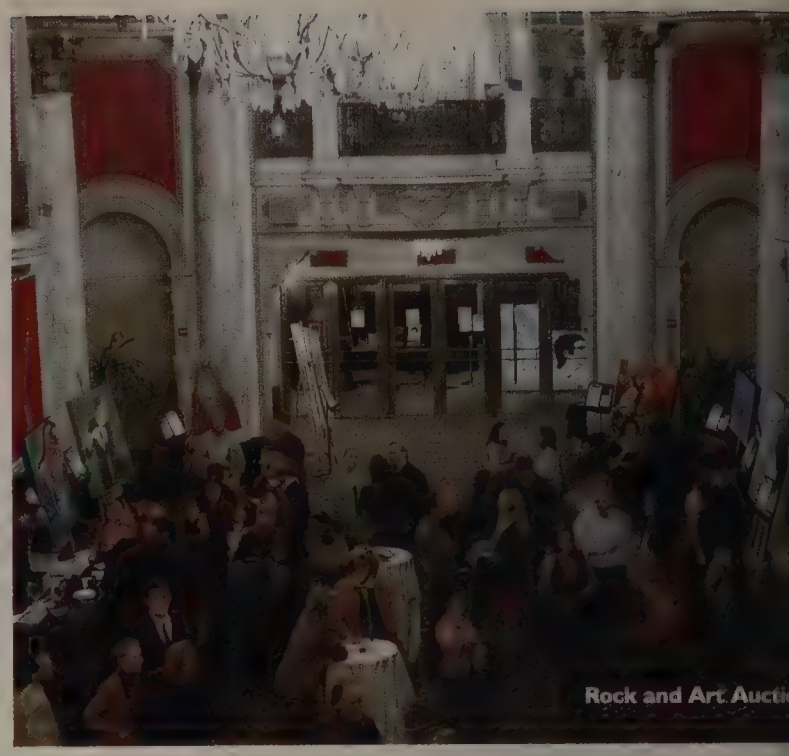
AROUND TOWN 79

CALENDAR EDITED BY

Nick Altschuller Books & Poetry, CityScope, Movies, Museums & Galleries, Performing Arts
Amanda Knorr Around Town, Body & Mind, Children, Dance Clubs, Education, Movies
Rich Levine Gay & Lesbian, Sports
Andrew Rimas Music

ADDITIONAL LISTINGS BY

Sean Burns Movie Capsules
Linh Tran Body & Mind



WED./NOV. 7

Books: Cents and Sensibility

Neiman Marcus bill paid off? Check. Banana Republic account squared away? Check. What about the NSTAR, Comcast and cable TV invoices? Hmm… could be a problem. And gals, if you're thinking those killer boots you just bought are totally worth having your electricity cut off… well, you're not alone. But there is help. For anyone who's ever scratched her head over the mysteries of credit card APR, the Harvard Coop is hosting a reading from On My Own Two Feet: A Modern Girl's Guide to Personal Finance, a self-help book on money matters written from a feminine perspective. Authors Sharon Kedar and Manisha Thakor, both Harvard Business School grads, touch on topics like saving now to spend later, setting a budget that's sensible but lets you have fun, keeping a healthy credit rating and paying off debts. Consider it therapy for the thrift-challenged. 1400 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-499-2000). www.harvard.bkstore.com. 7 pm. Free. —Amanda Knorr

Sharon Kedar and Manisha Thakor

THU./NOV. 15

CityScope: Art Imitates Life

Playing muse, musicians provide the inspiration for the Rock and A Charity Auction, a fundraiser merging portraiture and pop. More th local and national artists have painted portraits of each of the headl bands from this summer's Bank of America Live Nation concert seri including the Moody Blues, Earth Wind & Fire and Bob Weir & Ra An auction of the paintings benefits Action for Boston Community Development Inc., which promotes self-help for low-income neighb hoods, and Artists for Humanity, which provides underserved kids w paid employment in the arts. Boston Opera House, 539 Washington S Boston (617-728-1701). www.rockandart.org. 7 pm. $10. —Joe Scapicchio

SAT./NOV. 10

CityScope: Seriously Funny

For the 13th year, guys with Mass-hole accents crack jokes for a cause at Comics Come Home, now the longest-running comedy fundraiser in the country. The ever-astringent Denis Leary headlines, with a supporting cast featuring Lenny Clarke, Artie Lang and a host of others who hail from the Hub, or were at least lucky enough to pass through at some point on their way to sitcom glory. The IMPROPER is a sponsor of this event, which benefits the Cam Neely Foundation for Cancer Care and the Tufts–New England Medical Center. Agganis Arena, 625 Comm. Ave., Boston (617-931-2000). www.camneelyfoundation.com. 7:30 pm. $35-$155. —NA

SAT./NOV. 10

Education: Cool Beans

Wine and cheese, puh-lease. Any hack can pair malbec with Manchego. Now coffee and cocoa, that's something worth exploring. Front Kitchen is hosting a class on the delicious duo (and if 10 am sounds too early for that sort of thing, what do you think is in your mocha latte?). Sample items from the world's oldest and largest for-profit fair trade company, Equal Exchange, which specializes in organic coffee, tea, sugar, cocoa and chocolate bars. Participants also learn about the production process with quality control manager Beth Ann Caspersen, and everyone leaves with a doggy bag full of treats. Front Kitchen, 5 Comm. Ave., Boston (617-267-4430). www.bcae.org. 10 am-1 pm. $65, members; $62, nonmembers. —AK

Coffee and chocolate

cityscope

vice to Contributors

mit updated listings for benefits, festivals, activities events by mail or fax (617-859-1446) to Calendar: Scope. Or e-mail information to cityscope@improper. Include address, phone number, ticket price, dates times, and a brief description of the event. Deadline ur weeks prior to publication. Listings cannot be ac- ed over the phone.

enefits

EDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 7

minations Retrospective Reception

key Center for Outpatient Care, 55 Fruit St., on (617-726-4808). www.massgeneral.org/cancer. TA: Red Line to Charles/MGH. Free. Celebrating MGH Cancer Center's rotating art exhibition, event features a silent auction, hors d'oeuvres live jazz.

URSDAY, NOVEMBER 8

ect Miracles Wine
l Spirits Extravaganza

State Room, 60 State St., Boston (617-515- 1). www.mutualfundsagainstcancer.com. MBTA: or Orange Line to State. 6 pm. $150. This ben- presents an evening of wine stations, local brities, martini tastings, hors d'oeuvres, music auctions. Proceeds benefit Mutual Funds inst Cancer.

nds of the MGH Cancer Center es & Noble, Prudential Center, 800 Boylston St., n (617-726-5130). www.massgeneral.org/cancer. TA: E Green Line to Prudential. 6:30 pm. This t features book signings and cocktails. Proceeds fit the MGH Cancer Center.

Runway Fashion Show

on Public, 234 Berkeley St., Boston (617-266- 0). www.pinkbluehollywood.com. MBTA: Green to Arlington. 8 pm. See Web site for complete de- An invitation-only runway show and cocktail otion precedes a trunk show open to the public. eeds benefit the Animal Rescue League.

DAY, NOVEMBER 9

t of Compassion Gala

nique Ballroom, 20 Chapel St., Brookline (617- 6111). www.lighthousehospicefoundation.org. TA: D Green Line to Longwood. 6 pm. $200. This features auctions and live entertainment. Pro- benefit the Light House Hospice Foundation rminally ill patients and their families.

t the Town REaD

n Public Library, 700 Boylston St., Boston (617- 2145). www.bpl.org. MBTA: Green Line to Cop- pm. $95-$250. Mingle with young profession- this cocktail party while listening to the music First Class Band. Proceeds benefit youth-edu- n and technology programs at the BPL.

TURDAY, NOVEMBER 10

es Benefit

hester IBEW Hall, 256 Freeport St., Dorchester 545-9909). www.stepup4kids.com. MBTA: Red o Fields Corner. 8 pm. $50. Help support chil- and adolescents with emotional and behavioral lers at this evening that includes dinner, live ilent auctions, and a blues show.

hics Come Home

is Arena, 925 Comm. Ave., Boston (617-346- 0). www.camneelyfoundation.org. MBTA: B n Line to St. Paul. 7:30 pm. $35-$155. Dennis hosts the nation's longest-running comedy aiser. Proceeds benefit the Cam Neely Founda- for Cancer Care and the Tufts-New England al Center.

NDAY, NOVEMBER 12

ton Minstrel Company Benefit

Restaurant, 1612 Comm. Ave., Brighton (617- 002). www.tascarestaurant.com. MBTA: B Line to Washington. This benefit features the rels, a volunteer troupe of singers and musi- who visit prisons, shelters and residential facil- Proceeds benefit the troupe.

ors of Fall

abar, 1 Bennett St., Cambridge (617-441- 0). www.bostonchefs.com. MBTA: Red Line to rd. 5:30 pm. $65. Enjoy live jazz, food from chefs, beer from Brooklyn Brewery and wine Jacob's Creek. Proceeds benefit Cycle Kids, provides after-school instruction for children.

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 13

Boston Cares Benefit

Tasca Restaurant, 1612 Comm. Ave., Brighton (617-730-8002). www.tascarestaurant.com. MBTA: B Green Line to Washington. Enjoy a night out where all money spent on food is donated to the volunteer organization Boston Cares.

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 15

Big in Boston

Fairmont Copley Plaza, 138 St. James Ave., Boston (617-236-8060). www.bigsister.org. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. 7 pm. $300. This dinner and dessert reception is held in honor of the charitable efforts of Divas Uncorked. Proceeds benefit the Big Sister Association of Greater Boston.

Boston, Books and Baseball

State Street Pavilion, 20 Yawkey Way, Boston (617-654-0260). www.ewmb.org. MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore. 5:30 pm. $75-$150. Meet at Fenway Park for this night of food, drink and socializing. Proceeds benefit Everybody Wins, an organization that promotes children's literacy.

Cradles to Crayon Drive

Hazel amd Grace, 254 Washington St., Wellesley (781-235-2313). www.cradlestocrayons.org. MBTA:

Big in Boston takes place Nov. 15 at the Fairmont Copley Plaza

Commuter Rail to Wellesley Hills. 7 pm. Free. A month-long drive to benefit homeless children ends with this celebration featuring food, wine and raffle prizes. Cradles to Crayons accepts donations of clothes, toys and books.

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 16

"Give Us Your Poor" Concert

Strand Theater, 543 Columbia Road, Dorchester (617-635-1939). www.cityofboston.gov/arts. MBTA: Red Line to Andrew. 8 pm. See Web site for full details. This concert features Natalie Merchant, Mighty Sam McClain and artists who were formerly homeless. Proceeds benefit Give Us Your Poor.

MetroLacrosse Fall Ball

Hampshire House, 84 Beacon St., Boston (617-288-6367). www.metrolacrosse.com. MBTA: Red or Green Line to Park. 6:30 pm. $175. This annual fundraising gala includes cocktails, live and silent auctions, casino games and a piano show. Proceeds benefit MetroLacrosse's after-school lacrosse and education programs.

Weaving Dreams Gala

Colonnade Hotel, 120 Huntington Ave., Boston (617-491-5752). www.hild-selfhelp.org. MBTA: E Green Line to Prudential. 6 pm. $150. The Hildebrand Family Self-Help Center hosts this evening of dinner, auctions and dancing. Proceeds benefit homeless families in Boston.

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 17

Homes for the Holidays Tour

East Gloucester (978-283-1601). www.capeann chamber.com. MBTA: Commuter Rail to Gloucester. 11 am. $25 in advance; $30 at the door. Join the Cape Ann Chamber of Commerce in visiting eight Gloucester homes decorated for the holidays. Proceeds benefit women in need.

Red and White Ball

Seaport Hotel, 1 Seaport Lane, Boston (617-783-3900). www.arcgb.org. MBTA: Red Line to South Station. 6:30 pm. $175. The Arc of Greater Boston hosts this evening of cocktails, dinner and a silent auction. Proceeds benefit children and adults with intellectual and developmental disabilities.

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 19

We Are Boston

Boston Convention and Exhibition Center, 415 Summer St., Boston (978-283-1601). www.cityofboston.gov/newbostonians. MBTA: Red Line to South Station. 6 pm. $25 in advance; $30 at the door. This event celebrates Boston's immigrant roots and honors David Ortiz for his community leadership. Proceeds supports programs for new Bostonians and the English for New Bostonians project.

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 20

Wines and Portos of Portugal Benefit

The Harvard Club, 374 Comm. Ave., Boston (617-541-5120). www.mspca.org/wines. MBTA: Green Line to Hynes. 5:30 pm. $25. Sample more than 150 varieties of Portuguese wine and port at this fundraiser benefitting the MSPCA.

Festivals & Parties

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 10

Spotlight Fashion Event

The Mall at Chestnut Hill, 199 Boylston St., Chestnut Hill (617-965-3037). MBTA: D Green Line to Brookline Hills. 1 pm. Free. KISS 108's Billy Costa hosts this holiday-themed fashion show featuring live entertainment and raffles.

SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 11

McCormick & Schmick's Veterans Appreciation Event

Boston Park Plaza, 34 Columbus Ave., Boston (617-482-3999). www.mccormickandschmicks.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. 11:30 am. Free; proper ID required. This annual tribute invites America's veterans to enjoy a complimentary lunch or dinner entree in honor of their service.

Veterans Day Celebration

Boston Common, Boston. MBTA: Red or Green Line to Park. 1 pm. Free. Join in the festivities of Boston's annual Veterans Day Parade, featuring veterans' organizations, marching bands and a ceremony in City Hall Plaza.

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 15

The Boston Globe Ski & Snowboard Expo

Bayside Expo Center, 200 Mount Vernon St., Boston (781-890-3234). www.onthesnow.com. MBTA: Red Line to JFK/UMass. 4 pm. $10. Through Nov. 18. Stock up on ski and snowboard gear, and score savings on mountain resort travel.

Frog Pond Opening Celebration

The Frog Pond, Boston Common, Boston (617-635-2121). www.bostoncommonfrogpond.org. MBTA: Red or Green Line to Park. 5:30 pm. $4, adults; free, children 13 and under. Mayor Menino hosts this year's opening of the Boston Common Frog Pond with demonstrations by precision skating teams and champion figure skaters.

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 17

Methuen Festival of Trees

Valley Office Park, 13 Branch St., Methuen (978-685-8878). www.methuenfestivaloftrees.com. 10 am. $8. This annual festival boasts more than 200 decorated trees, with proceeds benefitting the preservation of the city's heritage and monuments. Through Dec. 1.

SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 18

New Arts Festival Day

Granoff Music Center, Tufts, 20 Talbot Ave., Somerville (617-627-3679). www.tufts.edu. MBTA: Red Line to Davis. 4 pm. The university hosts performances by the Tufts Dance Ensemble, the New Music Ensemble, Tufts Composers and various improv groups.

New England Fine Arts and Antiques Fair

Bunker Hill Community College, Charlestown (781-961-1149). www.newenglandfineartsfair.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Community College. 4 pm. $3. Enjoy arts and crafts demonstrations, children's activities, antiques and improv.

performing arts

Advice to Contributors
Submit listings by fax (617-859-1446) or mail to Calendar: Performing Arts, or e-mail performing@improper.com. Include venue address, phone number, subway stop, ticket price, dates and times, and a brief description of the event. Deadline is four weeks prior to publication. Listings cannot be accepted over the telephone.

Tickets

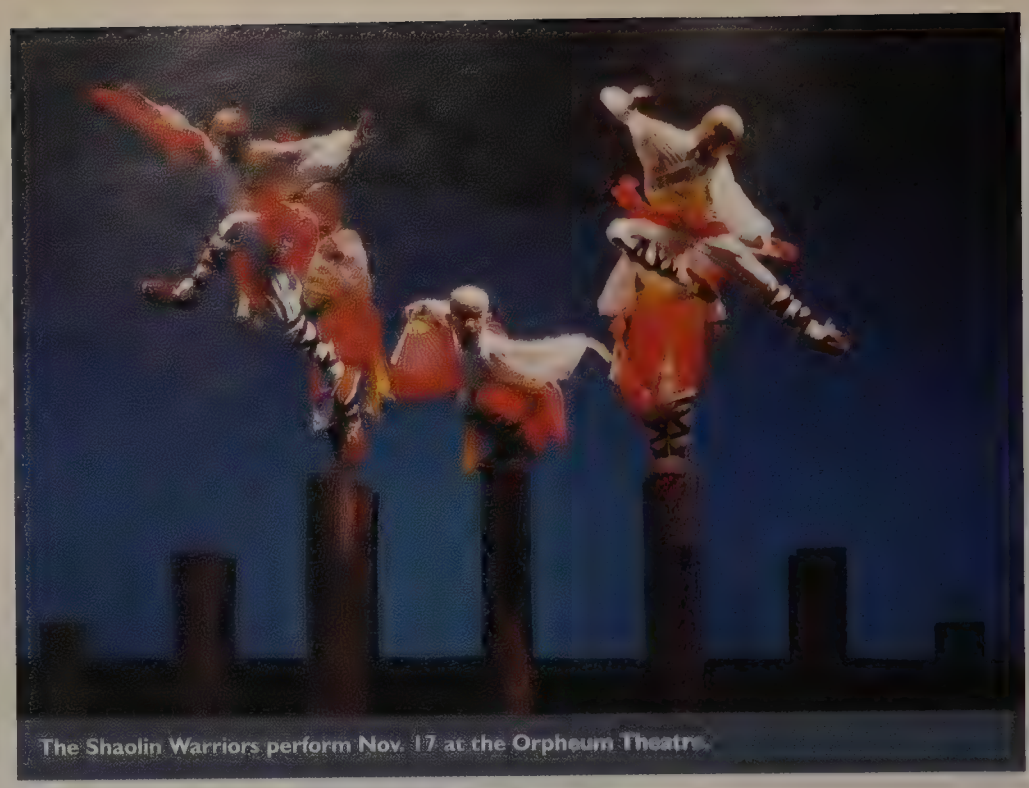
Ace Tickets
(800-MY-SEATS or 617-734-6666). www.acetickets.com. Tickets to sold-out shows.
Bostix
(617-723-5181). www.artsboston.org. Same-day tickets at half price.
Next Ticketing
(617-423-NEXT). www.nextticketing.com.
Out of Town Tickets
(617-247-1300 or 800-442-1854). Tickets to sold-out shows.
StubHub
www.stubhub.com. Buy and sell tickets online.
Ticket City of Boston
(617-787-2370). www.tixboston.com.
Ticketmaster
(617-931-2000). www.ticketmaster.com.

Theater and Opera

JUST OPENED

Celebración 2007: Hispanic Heritage at RCC
Mainstage Theatre, Roxbury Community College, 1234 Columbus Ave., Boston (617-201-5692). www.rccmainstage.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Roxbury Crossing. Nov. 9, 7:30 pm. Free. This cultural celebration features two short comedic plays exploring gender roles, written by Tomás Urtusástegui. Both are performed in Spanish.

HMS Pinafore
MIT, Stratton Student Center, 84 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-253-0190). http://web.mit.edu/gsp/. MBTA: Red Line to Kendall/MIT. Nov. 9-17. See Web site for complete listings. $6-$12. In Gilbert & Sullivan's comic opera, a naval captain's daughter falls in love with a shiphand. Stephanie Wang directs.



The Importance of Being Earnest
Cambridge Family YMCA Theatre, 820 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-556-3513). www.longwoodplayers.org. MBTA: Red Line to Central. Nov. 9-17. Thu and Fri., 8 pm; Sat, 2 and 8 pm. $16-$25. In this comedy by Oscar Wilde, two men who create a fictitious friend get caught up in their lies. Kaitlyn Chantry directs.

The King and I
Turtle Lane Playhouse, 283 Melrose St., Newton (617-244-0169). www.turtlelane.org. Nov. 9-Dec. 16. See Web site for complete listings. $20-$25. Rogers and Hammerstein's musical tells the story of an English schoolteacher who tutors the children of the King of Siam.

Pygmalion
Alice Nagel Jones Theatre, Wellesley College, 106 Central St., Wellesley (781-283-2434). www.wellesley.edu. MBTA: Commuter Rail to Wellesley. Nov. 14-18. Wed. and Thu., 7 pm; Fri. and Sat., 8 pm. Matinees: Sat. and Sun., 2 pm. $12. In this comedic drama, a phonetics professor transforms a meager flower girl into a refined lady. Directed by Nora Hussey.

Shaolin Warriors
Orpheum Theatre, 1 Hamilton Place, Boston (617-876-4275). www.worldmusic.org. MBTA: Red or Green Line to Park. Nov. 17, 8 pm. $30-$45. The Shaolin Warriors Troupe presents a martial arts–themed program showcasing the group's athleticism, grace and skill in the art of Shaolin kung fu.

Streamers
BU Theatre, 264 Huntington Ave., Boston (617-266-0800). www.huntingtontheatre.org. MBTA: E Green Line to Symphony. Nov. 9-Dec. 9. Tue. and Thu., 7:30 pm; Wed., 8 pm; Fri and Sat., 8 pm. Matinees: Wed., Sat. and Sun., 2 pm. $15-$60. In this production directed by Scott Ellis, four soldiers return from boot camp and wait nervously as the Vietnam War escalates.

The Shaolin Warriors perform Nov. 17 at the Orpheum Theatre.

The Tempest
Loeb Drama Center, 64 Brattle St., Cambridge (617-547-8300). www.boxoffice.harvard.edu. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. Nov. 9-17. Wed. and Thu., 7:30 pm; Fri. and Sat., 8 pm; Sun., 2 pm. $12. This performance of Shakespeare's tale about an exiled noble and his daughter features dance and a full orchestra. Directed by Rob Salas and Sarah Kenney.

A Terrible Love of War
Studio Theatre, Suffolk University, 41 Temple St., Boston (617-573-8282). www.suffolk.edu. MBTA: Red or Green Line to Park. Nov. 15-18. See Web site for complete listings. Free. Playwright and director Wesley Savick tackles the themes of war's meaning and society's struggle against it in this performance.

NOW RUNNING

Blue Man Group
Charles Playhouse, 74 Warrenton St., Boston (617-931-2787). www.blueman.com. MBTA: Green Line to Boylston. Wed. and Thu., 8 pm; Fri., 7 and 10 pm; Sat., 2, 5 and 8 pm; Sun., 2 and 5 pm. $48-$58. The popular blue trio performs an ongoing show that mixes art, music, comedy and a lot of toilet paper.

The Bluest Eye
Plaza Theatre at the Boston Center for the Arts, 539 Tremont St., Boston (617-426-5000). www.company one.org. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. Through Nov. 17. Wed. and Thu., 7:30 pm; Fri. and Sat., 8 pm; Sun., 2 pm. $15-$30. Set in the 1940s, this play tells the story of a young black girl in search of love and acceptance from her family and peers. Written by Nobel Prize winner Toni Morrison. Directed by Summer L. Williams.

La Bohème
Citi Shubert Theatre, 265 Tremont St., Boston (617-542-4912). www.blo.org. MBTA: Green Line to Boylston. Through Nov. 13. Tue., Wed. and Fri., 7:30 pm; Sun., 3 pm. $33-$181. Wine, friendship and wasting disease are covered in Puccini's immortal opera. Directed by Timothy Ocel.

Brendan
The Huntington Theatre, 264 Huntington Ave., Boston (617-266-0800). www.huntingtontheatre.org. MBTA: E Green Line to Symphony. Through Nov. 17. Check Web site for complete listings. $15-$50. A homesick young Irishman tries to adapt to American culture. Written by Ronan Noone.

Dead City
Chelsea Theatre Works, 189 Winnisimmet St., Chelsea (617-887-2336). www.apollinairetheatre.com. Through Dec. 2. Fri. and Sat., 8 pm; Sun., 3 pm. $18-$20. This production, based loosely on Ulysses, focuses on a woman who learns of her husband's young lover. Written by Sheila Callaghan.

Donnie Darko
Zero Arrow Theatre, 2 Arrow St., Cambridge (617-547-8300). www.amrep.org. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. Through Nov. 18. See Web site for complete listings. $15-$52. In this stage adaptation of the 2001 cult film, a troubled teenager is warned of the apocalypse by a six-foot-tall rabbit. Directed by Marcus Stern.

Dying City
Lyric Stage Company of Boston, 140 Clarendon St., Boston (617-585-5678). www.lyricstage.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. Through Nov. 11. Wed., 2 and 7:30 pm; Thu., 7:30 pm; Fri., 8 pm; Sat., 4 and 8 pm; Sun., 3 pm. $25-$54. The widow of a man killed in the Iraq war reminisces with her dead husband's twin brother.

A House With No Walls
New Repertory Theatre, 321 Arsenal St., Watertown (617-923-8487). www.newrep.org. MBTA: #70 or #70A Bus to School. Through Nov. 18. Check Web site for complete listings. $10-$55. This play is based on the story of Ona Judge, a slave of George Washington who tries to find the courage to escape from bondage. Directed by Lois Roach.

John Shea's Comp
Boston Playwrights' Theatre, 949 Comm. Ave., Boston (866-811-4111). www.bostonplaywrights.org. MBTA: B Green Line to Pleasant. Through Nov. 18. Thu., 7:30 pm; Fri. and Sat., 8 pm; Sun., 2 pm. $10-$35. In this play set in Somerville, a man is stuck at home after an injury on the job and begins to blame all his life's problems on his brother. Directed by Ron Wilson.

The Kentucky Cycle
Plaza Black Box Theatre, Boston Center for the Arts, 116 West Newton St., Boston (617-759-8836). www.zeitgeiststage.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. Through Nov. 17. Check Web site for complete listings. $35, one part; $60, both parts. Nine plays divided into two parts focus on the lives of Kentucky families over 200 years.

Kimberly Akimbo
Abbot Memorial Theater, 9 Spring St., Waltham (781-893-9171). www.hoveyplayers.com. MBTA: Commuter Rail to Waltham. Through Nov. 17. See Web site for complete listings. $15. A young woman with progeria deals with her neglectful parents and finds solace with her aunt, a homeless ex-convict. Directed by Michelle Aguillon.

Macbeth
Boston University, 855 Comm. Ave., Boston (866-811-4111). www.actorsshakespeareproject.org. MBTA: B Green Line to BU West. Through Nov. 11. Thu.-Sat., 7:30 pm; Sun., 2 pm. $30-$42. Adrianne Krstansky directs an all-female cast in Shakespeare's classic tragedy about an ambitious couple.

Les Misérables
North Shore Music Theatre, 62 Dunham Road, Beverly (978-232-7200). www.nsmt.org. Through Nov. 18. Tue. and Thu., 7:30 pm; Wed., 1:30 pm; Fri. and Sat., 8 pm; Sun., 2 pm. $30-$75. Victor Hugo's novel of redemption, love and histrionics gets tuneful in what is, arguably, the most popular musical of all time.

A Night at the Rock Opera
Wilbur Theater, 246 Tremont St., Boston (617-931-2787). www.anatro.com. MBTA: Green Line to Boylston. Through Nov. 18. Check Web site for complete listings. $35. Boston-based Ultrasonic Rock Opera performs classic songs from the Beatles, David Bowie, Queen and other supergroups in this 23-performer extravaganza.

Shear Madness
Charles Playhouse, 74 Warrenton St., Boston (617-426-5225). www.shearmadness.com. MBTA: Green Line to Boylston. Tue.-Fri., 8 pm; Sat., 6 and 9 pm; Sun., 3 and 7 pm. $38. This comedic whodunit by Paul Portner, set in a unisex hair salon, holds the record as Boston's longest-running play, with more than 10,000 local performances dating back to 1980.

The Three Musketeers
Laurie Theater, Brandeis University, 415 South Waltham (781-736-3400). www.brandeis.edu Through Nov. 18. Thu.-Sat., 8 pm. Matinees: and Sun., 2 pm. $16-$20. This comedic produc presents the story of a group of men fighting to come a malicious cardinal. Directed by Stacy K and Matthew Glassman.

To Kill a Mockingbird
Wheelock Family Theatre, 200 The Riverway, Bo (617-879-2300). www.wheelock.edu. MBTA Green Line to Fenway. Through Nov. 25. Fri., pm; Sat. and Sun., 3 pm. $13-$23. A s adaptation of Harper Lee's classic novel, this presents notions of race, class and justice thr the eyes of a young girl.

Vampire
Black Box Theatre, Arsenal Center for the Arts, Arsenal St., Watertown (617-923-0100). w arsenalarts.net. Through Nov. 17. See Web si complete listings. $10-$25. This play traces a li women who attempt to eliminate demons from lives. Written by Snoo Wilson.

Wicked
The Opera House, 539 Washington St., Boston (259-3400). www.bostonoperahouse.com. MB Green Line to Boylston. Through Nov. 11. Tue.- 7:30 pm; Fri.-Sat., 8 pm; Sun., 7:30 pm. Mati Sat. and Sun., 2 pm. $35-$132.50. This musica tails how the two most famous witches from Oz Directed by Joe Mantello.

Dance

Suite Sixteen
The Julie Ince Thompson Theatre, the Dance Com 536 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-547-9363). dancecomplex.org. MBTA: Red Line to Central. 17, 8 pm; Nov. 18, 7 pm. $16. The Dance Com celebrates its 16th anniversary with a collecti performances, including a collaboration with tor Lorna Cooke deVaron's vocal ensemble to pieces accompanied by a cappella chorales.

3 x 3
The Boston Conservatory Theater, 31 Hemenwa Boston (617-912-9222). www.bostonconserv edu. MBTA: Green Line to Hynes. Nov. 1 Thu.-Sat., 8 pm; Sun. 2 pm. $20. This even tures three premieres, including Gianni DiM "On the Brink," which is choreographed t music of Philip Glass in honor of the comp birthday.

Visions of the East: A Journey Through Dance
Kresge Little Theater, MIT, 48 Mass. Ave., Cam (617-253-2908). www.katiaboston.com. MBTA Line to Kendall/MIT. Nov. 11, 7:30 pm. $20. Nordgren choreographs this performance o dances from Egypt, Nubia, Lebanon and Tunisi

Comedy

Advice to Contributors
Submit listings by fax (617-859-1446) or mail th Calendar: Comedy, or e-mail info to comedy@imp com. Deadline is four weeks prior to publication.

SHOWS

Dane Cook's "Rough Around the Edges" Comedy Tour
TD Banknorth Garden, 100 Legends Way, B (617-624-1000). www.tdbanknorthgarden MBTA: Green or Orange Line to North Station. 17, 7 and 10:30 pm. $30-$100. Arlington n Dane Cook returns to the Garden for a nig laughs and surprises.

Five Funny Females One Night Stand Boston
Midway Café, 3496 Washington St., Jamaica (617-524-9038). www.midwaycafe.com. M Orange Line to Forest Hills. Nov. 10, 8 pm. $15 national tour features up-and-coming come like Michelle Buteau and Erin Judge.

STAND-UP CLUBS

Beantown Comedy Vault
Remington's, 124 Boylston St., Boston (781-729-2 www.dickdoherty.com/remsched.htm. MBTA: Line to Boylston. Thu.-Sun., 9 pm. $12-$15 Beantown Comedy Vault features local pro and teur stand-up comedians.

Comedy Connection
Faneuil Hall Marketplace, 245 Quincy Market Bu Boston (617-248-9700). www.comedyconne boston.com. MBTA: Green or Orange Line to Ha ket. The oldest comedy club in Boston draws na ally known comedians on weekends and show d-coming local talent during the week. •Nov. 0 pm, $15: Frank Santos, "The R-Rated Hypno- •Nov. 9, 7:30 pm, $27: Bobby Collins. •Nov. and 10:15 pm, $28: Bobby Collins. •Nov. 15, m, $15: Frank Santos, "The R-Rated Hypno- •Nov. 16, 8 and 10:15 pm, $25: Robert Klein. 17, 8 and 10:15 pm, $28: Robert Klein.

Comedy Studio

Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-661-6507). www. nedystudio.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. Sun., 8 pm. $8-$10. Sketch comedy troupes cal comedians perform. •Nov. 7: Shaun Bed- John Garrison, Daniel Forlano, DJ Reason, Chagnon, Ted Pettigell, Gary Petersen, Joe n, Brian Joyce. •Nov. 8: Micah-Myq Club: Hayden, Mike Howington, Mike Mindlin, ineman, Joe LaRoche, Mike Whitman, Brian Dan Hirshon. •Nov. 9: Tim McIntire, Mich- uteau, Steve Donovan, James Duffy, Alvin , Brian Joyce, Sarah Blodgett, Taylor Con- •Nov. 10: Tim McIntire, Brian Longwell, Powell, Mandy Donovan, Chris Pennie, Sean an, Alvin David, Brian Joyce. •Nov. 11: ian Lynch, Dan MacDonald, Brian Joyce, Caravan, Jessica Baade, Erin Judge, Tom lo, Clark Elefteriadis, Owen Bowen, Pat Mc- . •Nov. 14: Jordan Clifford, Kevin Eis, Reggie ms, Krissy Kelleher, PJ Westin, Matt McAr- Andy Ofiesh, Jon Rineman, Tony Moschetto, Joyce. •Nov. 15: Micah-Myq Club: Anthony li, Shaun Donovan, Nez, Sean Sullivan, e Goldman, Dan Miles, Ernestine Conklin, Joyce, James "The Glow" Goff. •Nov. 16: Dan er, Brian Moote, Mookie Blaiklock, James Giulia Rozzi, Lamont Price, Tim Dillion, Rory , Ken Reid, Brian Joyce. •Nov. 17: Dan Boul- andy Donovan, Giulia Rozzi, Nate Johnson, y Kinal, Lamont Price, Gary Petersen, Brian •Nov. 18: Pincus, Janet Cormier, Brian Long- Robert Sapiro, Gary Sohmers, PJ Brown, Steve he, Mike Whitman, James Duffy, Brian Joyce, Powell.

's Comedy Stop

Warrenton St., Boston (617-423-2900). www. medystop.com. MBTA: Green Line to Boylston nge Line to New England Medical Center. Fri. t., 8:30 pm. $20-$22. Now in its 24th year, ngest-running comedy club in Boston features a lineup of local and visiting comics. •Nov. 9 and 10: Mark Riley. •Nov. 16 and 17: Jack Lynch.

IMPROV COMEDY

Improv Asylum

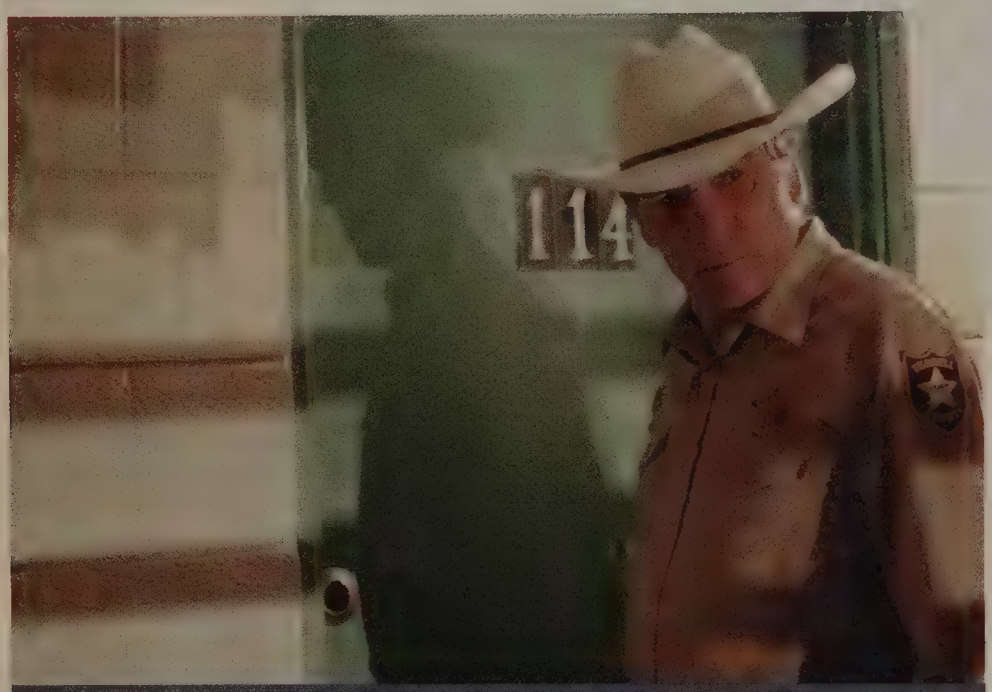
216 Hanover St., Boston (617-263-6887). www. improvasylum.com. MBTA: Green or Orange Line to Haymarket. Dinner packages available. •Wed., 8 pm, $15: Lost in Boston, or How I Learned to Love that Dirty Water is a comedy revue based on audience suggestions. •Thu., 8 pm; Fri. and Sat., 8 and 10 pm, $20: It's the North End of the World as We Know It (And I Feel Fine) runs as the main stage show.

Improv Jones Boston

Arsenal Center for the Arts, 321 Arsenal St., Watertown (617-923-0100). www.improvjonesboston.com. MBTA: Red Line to Central, then #70 Bus to Western Ave. Fri., 8 pm. $10. Improv Jones Boston features improv appropriate for all ages every Friday night.

ImprovBoston

1253 Cambridge St., Cambridge (617-576-1253). www.improvboston.com. MBTA: Red Line to Central, then #83 or #91 Bus to Inman. $7-$12. Boston's longest-running improvisational comedy troupe creates sketches on the spot. •Nov. 7, 10 pm, $10: The Naked Comedy Showcase. •Wed., 8 pm, $10; $12, students and seniors: The Hump Fringe Show. Local troupes perform a variety of improvisational shows. •Thu., 8 pm, $12; $10, students and seniors: Zebro Presents the Original Zings of Comedy. Nat Towsen and Pat Boccuzzi host this weekly variety show mixing sketch, improv and stand-up comedy with music. •Thu., 10 pm, $10; $7, students and seniors: The Great and Secret Comedy Show. Renata Tutko hosts a sketch show that incorporates video and characters. •Fri., 10 pm, $12; $10, students and seniors: Theatre Sports. Two teams face off in a battle for comedy supremacy. •Sat., 6 pm, $12; $10, seniors; $7, students and children: ImprovBoston Family Show. This short-form improvisational show is appropriate for all ages. •Sat., 8 and 10 pm, $15; $10, students and seniors: ImprovBoston Mainstage. Blending storytelling, music and audience participation, a cast of improvisers creates a new show at every performance. •Sun., 7 pm, $7; $5, students and seniors: The Sgt. Culpepper Comedy Jamboree. Performances by local and visiting improv troupes.



Home on the Range

The Coen brothers return to their darker roots with No Country for Old Men

BY SEAN BURNS

Tommy Lee Jones stars as an old-school lawman chasing a soon-to-be-legendary movie villian.

His name is Anton Chigurh, and you don't want to make his acquaintance.

Played by the great Javier Bardem, and peering out from beneath an initially ludicrous coiffure possibly borrowed from one of the Monkees, Chigurh is the most relentless movie villain since the Terminator. A walking, stalking, one-man reckoning, he's been hired to find a suitcase full of cash gone missing after a dope deal gone bad. But Chigurh takes a unique approach to renegotiating his contracts. After all, as another character slyly notes, "Anton is a man of principles."

Llewelyn Moss (Josh Brolin) never should have picked up that bag. He'd probably tell you so himself, but Llewelyn isn't much of a talker. A routine hunting trip found him stumbling over a baroque assemblage of dead Mexican drug dealers, their corpses strewn about amongst countless spent machine gun shells. The satchel had two million dollars in it, and it sure didn't look like anybody was left alive to stake a claim. Moss should've just kept walking.

Adapted from the 2005 novel by Cormac McCarthy, Joel and Ethan Coen's No Country for Old Men is an enthralling, devastating movie experience. Stripped to the bone, it's a model of ruthless narrative efficiency that blossoms into something much larger than the sum of its precision-tooled parts. What at first seems like the simple saga of two tough hombres, a bag of money and everybody unlucky enough to get in their way, eventually attains a mythic, almost Biblical grandeur. For days afterwards, the movie haunts your dreams. The bad ones.

Tommy Lee Jones provides the prickly heart of the film as Sheriff Ed Tom Bell—so old-school he still carries a six-shooter and rides his own horse on official police business. Ed's training a none-too-bright new deputy (Deadwood's Garret Dillahunt) and, in that brusque, inimitable Tommy Lee Jones fashion, trying to explain the ways of a world that he no longer quite understands himself.

It's 1980, and the Wild West ain't what it used to be.

So it goes, with Chigurh's vigorous pursuit providing one white-knuckle sequence after another, and Bell invariably arriving a day late to mop up the scene and tally the lives snuffed out or ruined.

Jones' weathered face is a national treasure, but I daresay I've never seen it used to such profound effect. His clipped diction becoming ever more strangulated as Bell succumbs to self-doubt, the light behind Jones' eyes actually dims as the movie wears on. In a modern America gone raving mad with bloodshed, why should a lone ranger even bother with justice anymore? "I laugh," Bell croaks. "Sometimes it's all I can do."

After a brief, unsuccessful attempt to make their idiosyncrasies work inside the parameters of Hollywood studio comedies like Intolerable Cruelty and The Ladykillers, the Coens have gone back to their roots and infused No Country for Old Men with the meticulousness and parched landscapes of their 1984 debut, Blood Simple. The movie is almost unbearably suspenseful and boasts the filmmakers' trademark strain of sicko gallows humor. But there's also something new—a palpable sense of sorrow. For the first time in their brilliant career, it feels like the Coen Brothers are out to do more than just crack themselves up.

Of course, No Country for Old Men has its share of absurdist giggles, which tend to serve as stress relief after all those gasp-inducing, painstakingly designed cat-and-mouse sequences. And despite the fact that Bardem and Brolin's scenes are largely dialogue-free, rest assured that the Coens still love the English language, and wrestle McCarthy's unpunctuated prose into their unique, deadpan rhythms. Woody Harrelson's loquacious bounty hunter arrives late, but provides the dumbass verbal arias no Coen film would feel complete without.

Roger Deakins' searing, wide-screen cinematography shrinks the characters inside harsh, desolate vistas bereft of romanticism. The credits claim there's a musical score by Carter Burwell, but I don't remember hearing anything besides Craig Berkey's almost surreal sound design—nothing but stillness and distant desert winds imparting every creaky floorboard and ringing telephone with startling, intrusive menace.

No Country for Old Men takes an unexpected detour in the final reel that leaves the fate of two major characters off-screen, much to the consternation of certain people on the Internet who haven't been this angry since the finale of The Sopranos. While nowhere as audacious as David Chase's notorious cut-to-black, the Coens' ending demands a similar amount of thought and reflection.

My take: Chigurh has been an almost supernatural metaphor throughout the picture, but the out-of-left-field ending reveals him as all too human as he attempts to bring order to a world clinging to codes of conduct just as antiquated as the ones trumpeted by Sheriff Bell. The world gets the last laugh on both of them, and that's why No Country for Old Men is a masterpiece. IB

No Country for Old Men ★★★★

Starring Tommy Lee Jones, Javier Bardem, Josh Brolin, Kelly Macdonald, Garret Dillahunt, Stephen Root and Woody Harrelson. Based on the novel by Cormac McCarthy. Written and directed by Joel and Ethan Coen. At Boston Common, Coolidge Corner and in the suburbs.

New Releases

BY SEAN BURNS

Across the Universe ★
Destined to become a camp classic, the late dious, hagiographic salute to the 1960s by a gazing baby boomer is far weirder than your t stroll down memory lane. Newton native Juli mor has fashioned a visually berserk, deathly e musical consisting entirely of Beatles songs sun cast of attractive moppets muttering hippy-chestnuts, eventually realizing that, yes, all you is love. There's little in the way of story or cha just a lot of Forrest Gump–ish historical sig and laughable interpretations of Lennon an Cartney lyrics. All these kids have names like Lucy, Prudence and Sadie, and the only sus comes from trying to guess when Taymor will horn in the next awkward sing-along. It's a pletely humorless, self-important affair that hits rock bottom once Bono turns up as a Ken wannabe to preach the wonders of LSD and something about being the walrus. The U2 man looks so uncomfortable onscreen, I sper the number thinking he was Robin William Fenway, Harvard Square and in the suburbs.)

American Gangster ★★★
There's nothing you haven't seen a dozen tim fore in Ridley Scott's pulpy film that traces th and fall of Harlem's vicious heroin kingpin, Lucas. But even an old tune can be catchy played well, and it's hard to think of two acto are more fun to watch right now than Denzel ington and Russell Crowe. As the uptight Denzel's Wall Street tailoring and Sidney diction makes him stand out like the lone Re can in a swarm of Superflys. By contrast, C slovenly, workaholic Jersey cop is a bundle of nerves and ruined relationships, but he's th man tireless enough to bring Lucas down. S Zaillian's screenplay is cobbled together from parts Scarface and Heat, but it's a blast to s silky-smooth Washington bump up against C boisterous Pacino impersonation. Scott's direc less ostentatious than usual, and he smartly sta of their way. (At Boston Common, Fenway
the suburbs.)

The Assassination of Jesse James b
the Coward Robert Ford ★★★★
By turns mesmerizing, maddening and mas writer-director Andrew Dominik's bleak, hy
triumph is unlike anything you'll see this year, more to druggy, fatalistic '70s anti-Western Robert Altman's McCabe and Mrs. Miller an Peckinpah's Pat Garrett and Billy the Kid than traditional horse opera. Brad Pitt delivers his est, saddest performance yet as the notoriou road bandit slowly rotting away thanks to pa and the heavy psychic toll of his outsized repu
There's also a revelatory turn from Casey Aff the title's scaredy-cat who's dangerously ob with dime novels and James Gang fantasies, sorely unequipped to handle anything reser reality. Sumptuously photographed by the Roger Deakins as a painterly procession of lin forbidding landscapes that often threaten to s
our characters whole, The Assassination of Jesse blossoms into a moving, often sickly comic m tion on the power of myth, with these sma standing helpless before a giant inexorable American legend. Long, but purposefully s movie haunts your dreams. (At Chestnut H Somerville Theatre.)

Before the Devil Knows You're De ★★★ ½
Disproving the theory that folks mellow wit
83-year-old director Sidney Lumet enters h decade of filmmaking with the nastiest, most tic thriller of his career. Philip Seymour Ho and Ethan Hawke star as financially strapped ers who attempt to cover debts by knockin suburban jewelry store. It's literally a mom-an operation run by their parents (Albert Finn Rosemary Harris), which sends this seemingl
ple bungled heist perilously close to Greek t
Kelly Masterson's screenplay is a grim puzz that zips back and forth through time to sav Murphy's Law developments. In lesser hand could have been a glib Tarantino clone, but L austere, unobtrusive style allows his actors ple room to run and linger on old familial resent which develops an emotional resonance rare f kind of gimmicky crime flick. As always, Hoff brilliant, his closed-off cruelty an excellent Hawke's wounded puppy dog performance Kendall Square and Waltham Embassy.)

e Bourne Ultimatum ★★★★ ropulsive, brilliantly assembled and breathlessly d as any action picture I've seen, the third and st chapter in this superior spy saga finds Matt non's amnesiac assassin heading home to New City to put together the final, harrowing puzzle es of his lost identity. United 93 director Paul ngrass shoots exclusively with handheld camsupercharging the impeccably choreographed nd-mouse sequences with a jittery, you-aree immediacy. As always, Damon deftly under-, communicating the character's inner torment ly through his sleek physicality and haunted
. Joan Allen returns as a jaded CIA operative becomes Bourne's most unlikely ally, this time ng heads with David Strathairn's oily armchair ior. These Bourne pictures have shrewdly up-l Robert Ludlum's Cold War novels for our distrustful, troubled times and seethe with a und loss of faith in our leaders. There's also a moral severity at work—the killings hurt and
with them a tremendous psychological price.
is classy, sophisticated entertainment for s, and an outstanding example of sheer, brutecraftsmanship. (In the suburbs.)

in Real Life ★★
ant enough and almost instantly forgettable, well-photographed romantic comedy stars
e Carell as a down-on-his-luck widower with cloyingly cute daughters. En route to a fam-union in Rhode Island, Carell falls hard for te Binoche, not realizing she's his brother's girlfriend. As his brother is played by Dane
, one must pause and wonder in what kind of and unfair universe a sophisticated goddess uilette Binoche would date a loutish My-e comedian. In any case, Carell and Binoche goo-goo eyes and share longing glances ghout the most trite family get-together ever red on film. John Mahoney and Dianne t are on hand as the grandparents who, as if e, deliver knowing chestnuts of wisdom gh wrinkly smiles. The movie is so self-conly warm and cozy it might as well be wearing fuzzy sweater. (At Boston Common, Fenway
the suburbs.)

h Darjeeling Limited ★★★ ½ dy an icon to skinny-jeaned, suit-coated hipsters everywhere, director Wes Anderson makes a giant leap forward with this lyrical, melancholy tale of three estranged brothers traveling through India by train in an attempt to reconnect and find some sort of spiritual enlightenment. It's probably impossible to keep thoughts of Owen Wilson's well-publicized personal problems from affecting one's perception of his dark and impressive turn as the domineering oldest sibling, while Adrien Brody and Jason Schwartzman (who co-wrote the screenplay with Anderson and Roman Coppola) offer some very funny, sort-of-sad turns as similarly stunted man-children. Anderson's obsessive-compulsive set design, obnoxious color-coding and meticulous widescreen compositions can often feel like asphyxiating affectations, but somewhere along the way, Darjeeling blossoms into his messiest and most moving film to date, with flights of whimsy grounded for the first time in very human pain and confusion. The central motif, about letting go of baggage both physical and emotional, is annoyingly literal, but the obtuseness doesn't make it any less deeply felt. (At Boston Common, Kendall Square and in the suburbs.)

Eastern Promises ★★★
David Cronenberg strikes again with this graphic, grisly and entertaining tale. No great shakes in the screenplay department, this peculiar Russian mafioso saga was penned by Dirty Pretty Things scribe Steven Knight and has something to do with the lineage of a mysterious orphan—delivered in graphic detail, with maximum splattery viscera, by Naomi Watts' nosey midwife. The dead mom's secret diary leads our heroine on a tour of the Trans-Siberian underworld, where Armin Mueller-Stahl insinuates all sorts of suspect shenanigans. But the real draw is Viggo Mortensen, who seethes behind wraparound sunglasses and a museum's worth of telling tattoos. As a slippery chauffeur, he has a secret or two that he doesn't particularly feel like sharing, and Mortensen's captivating, nearly silent performance glues you to your seat despite some mildly ridiculous plot turns. Cronenberg, using the script as a mere launching pad for his particular brand of bodily havoc, climaxes early with a berserk, full-frontal bathhouse smackdown that ranks as one of the greatest fight scenes ever filmed. (At Somerville Theatre.)

DTOX
INTERNATIONAL

IT'S NOT REHAB, BUT WE CAN GET RID OF YOUR HANGOVER IN 24 MINUTES.

We can also help prevent you from catching a cold or flu this season by keeping your immune system at peak condition. Not to mention help with other things like insomnia, headaches and stress. 24 minutes is all it takes. Check us out at our Boston flagship location now open with oxygen, or at one of our other four locations opening November 1.

225 NEWBURY ST. 617.236.7755 WWW.DTOXINTERNATIONAL.COM

BEVERLY BOSTON WELLESLEY WINCHESTER N. ANDOVER

BONIA
TRANSCENDING ITALIAN DESIGN & INSPIRATION
FOR THE FIRST TIME IN THE U.S.

Private Holiday Sales Event
SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 11
3:00 TO 8:00 P.M.
11 WABAN STREET
NEWTON, MA 02458

FOR FURTHER PRODUCT INFORMATION OR TO CARRY BONIA IN YOUR STORE, LION INVESTMENT, LLC

WWW.LIONINVESTMENT.NET
FASHION@LIONINVESTMENT.NET

Elizabeth: The Golden Age ★½

It might have boasted the breakout performance that rocketed Aussie firebrand Cate Blanchett to international superstardom, but it's worth remembering that 1998's Elizabeth was also a slightly silly picture, with some sly supporting turns keeping the overwrought melodrama from teetering over into camp. Alas, this soppy, belated sequel can't manage such a balancing act and inspires unintentional guffaws from the get-go. Perhaps realizing that the first picture developed a video afterlife as a favorite of teenage girls, director Shekhar Kapur has instructed Blanchett to play the 52-year-old monarch as if auditioning for High School Musical 3. Those dastardly Spanish Catholics are about to invade, but our Virgin Queen is busy giggling girlishly and being all moony-eyed for Clive Owen's Sir Walter Raleigh. Owen seems to be channeling Fabio as he prances around in a hilarious collection of costumes while over-enunciating cringe-worthy double entendres. Kapur's magisterial overhead shots and swirling 360-degree dolly shots are more headache-inducing than evocative. (At Kendall Square and in the suburbs.)

Feast of Love ★★

Someday I hope Morgan Freeman will be allowed to just act in a movie without also having to narrate it. But I guess it's tough for any filmmaker to resist ladling that gravelly voice of wisdom over the soundtrack, particularly when the material is as thin and meandering as director Robert Benton's lightweight adaptation of Charles Baxter's book. Freeman stars as a friendly professor in a college town who watches from his favorite local coffee shop as a variety of less interesting characters fall in and out of love. Some get married, some get divorced and everybody has a lot of sex as soft adult contemporary music plays in the background. Greg Kinnear is a likeable dim bulb who falls for a lesbian (Selma Blair) and a harlot (Radha Mitchell) as Freeman laughs and shakes his head sagely. The flat direction and uninspired visuals feel more like a cable show than a theatrical feature. Sure, these seem like swell people, but that doesn't explain why anybody would make a movie about them. (In the suburbs.)

Gone Baby Gone ★★★

Good news: Ben Affleck isn't embarrassing anymore. With his confident, downbeat directorial debut, the artist formerly known as Bennifer redeems himself, exhibiting a fantastic knack for getting the most out of Boston's grimmer locations while supplying a star-making role for his kid brother, Casey. Based on the novel by Dennis Lehane, Gone Baby Gone digs deep into the buried secrets of the Dorchester projects after the mysterious disappearance of a 4-year-old girl. As a conscience-stricken private detective, the younger Affleck is a modern-day Phillip Marlowe in a tracksuit as he navigates grungy barrooms and flings four-letter words before arriving at a moral dilemma that's all but impossible to resolve. The picture loses considerable steam in its second hour, with too many expository sequences required to resolve Lehane's knotty plotting. But the extraordinary final shot will provoke discussion and argument long after the closing credits have rolled and announces not just a morally complex vision, but also the arrival of a potentially great filmmaker. Who knew Ben still had it in him? (At Boston Common, Fenway and in the suburbs.)

Hairspray ★★★

A bouncy, unexpected delight, this vibrant adaptation of the hit Broadway musical—itself a reworking of John Waters' subversive 1992 dance-a-thon—might be the summer's sweetest surprise. Newcomer Nikki Blonsky stars as Tracy Turnblad, a hefty hoofer dedicated to breaking the color barrier on Baltimore's hottest local dance show. Facing off against Michelle Pfeiffer's slatternly racist station manager, Tracy enlists a marvelous supporting cast of progressively minded misfits and outcasts to take a stand for inclusiveness during an exclusionary era. The improbably touching John Travolta dons drag as Tracy's morbidly obese mother, Edna. Though the gigantic fat suit and outlandish accent take some getting used to, Travolta's daring, committed performance grows on you, culminating in a lovely duet with his hubby, Christopher Walken. Ditching the recent trend in movie musicals of overediting every number into incoherence, director/choreographer Adam Shankman favors wide angles and long shots, allowing us to actually see and appreciate the sheer infectiousness of these bopping bodies in motion. (In the suburbs.)

Harry Potter and the Order of the Phoenix ★★★½

The Harry Potter films thus far have felt like a collection of tie-in products dutifully recreating everybody's favorite scenes as if genuflecting before the Stations of the Cross. But now, four sequels into this saga, it finally feels like we're watching an honest-to-god movie. Forced to slash JK Rowling's unwieldy 870-page novel to a trim two hours and change, director David Yates and screenwriter Michael Goldenberg have at last reconceived the Potter-verse in purely cinematic terms. They scrapped all that Quidditch nonsense and zero in on Harry's adolescent struggle to wrap his still-forming mind around the fallibility of authority figures, the finality of death and the stinking unfairness of how the world really works. It's a surprisingly dark and violent coming-of-age tale, and Yates finds some nifty visual parallels for the character's inner journey. Young Daniel Radcliffe is growing into the role quite nicely, and the most overqualified supporting cast in history again excels, with extra kudos going to Gary Oldman, Alan Rickman and Imelda Staunton's fascist schoolmarm. (In the suburbs.)

Ethan Hawke and Philip Seymour Hoffman thrill in Before the Devil Knows You're Dead.

The Heartbreak Kid ★★

In this remake reeking of desperation, brothers Peter and Bobby Farrelly attempt to graft their patented schtick onto Elaine May's 1972 classic by eschewing the original's tricky tone in favor of four-letter words and bodily functions. The increasingly tiresome Ben Stiller does his uptight, slow-burn routine once again, muttering under his breath as his blonde bombshell bride (the charming and apparently fearless Malin Akerman) reveals herself to be all too human, then flipping for Michelle Monaghan's mousy, rather boring girl next door. The verbal vulgarity isn't nearly as amusing as the Farrellys seem to think it is, especially with Stiller's real-life dad Jerry in an embarrassing turn as a foul-mouthed old pervert. Putting profanity in the mouths of the elderly is the last refuge of screenwriters who've run out of ideas, and The Heartbreak Kid all but curls up and dies onscreen once Akerman's endearing stumblebum gets unfairly shifted to villain status. Also, Carlos Mencia is in the film, and there's simply no excuse for that. (At Boston Common, Fenway and in the suburbs.)

Into the Wild ★★★½

In 1990, Christopher McCandless (Emile Hirsch) donated his life savings to Oxfam, burned his Social Security card and disappeared down the highway into self-imposed obscurity. Rechristening himself "Alexander Supertramp," McCandless yearned to live the kind of pure existence he'd only read about in books by Henry David Thoreau and Jack London. Two years later he starved to death inside an abandoned bus in Alaska, barely 20 miles from the highway. Plenty of people consider McCandless a hero. Countless folk songs have been written about his journey, and that bus has become a popular tourist attraction. Just as many people, especially in Alaska, will tell you he was an idiot. The beauty of this film, written and directed by Sean Penn, is that it's both dreamy and lucid and filled with a deep respect for McCandless' ideals, but it never lets him off the hook for the spitefulness and naiveté inherent in his foolish, transcendent quest. It feels like a breakthrough for Penn as it throbs with color, possibilities and hope. (At Boston Common, Harvard Square and in the suburbs.)

The Kingdom ★★★

A bruising action flick with unfortunate delusions of social relevance, this extremely well-made procedural stars Jamie Foxx, Jennifer Garner, Chris Cooper and Jason Bateman as FBI agents dispatched to Saudi Arabia to investigate the terrorist bombing of an oil company housing facility. Adopting both the gruff aura of no-nonsense machismo and the advanced high-def video techniques pioneered by the film's producer (Michael Mann), Friday Night Lights director Peter Berg moves these largely by-the-numbers proceedings along briskly and purposefully until pulling out all the stops for the film's final 30 minutes—a knock-down, drag-out climax boasting the most impeccable combat choreography this side of Jason Bourne. That last hellzapoppin' reel is rousing enough to make you forget about the goofy Oil Crisis for Dummies prologue or the lazy central performance from Jamie Foxx, who seems to assume his sunglasses will do all the acting for him. Garner stands around infuriating the locals in skintight tank tops, but Bateman undercuts all the testosterone with some much-appreciated improvisational banter. (At Boston Common and in the suburbs.)

Lust, Caution ★★

The title could probably apply to any of Ang Lee's pictures, from The Ice Storm to Brokeback Mountain, as this immensely gifted filmmaker has made a career out of chronicling the countless heartbreaking ways our basic human emotions are often thwarted and repressed by rigid codes of social conduct. Strange then that this film is such a non-starter. Adapted by Lee's regular screenwriters, James Schamus and Hui Ling Wang, from a short story by Eileen Chang, this World War II drama stars newcomer Wei Tang as an ambitious drama student in occupied Shanghai who seduces a sadistic government official (Hong Kong movie legend Tony Leung) as part of a recklessly conceived assassination plan. Bloated and sluggish, the movie substitutes unpleasantly graphic, confusingly acrobatic sex scenes for emotional connections. Leung's natural charisma, so blinding in films by John Woo and Wong Kar-wai, has here been muffled down to a dull authoritarian drone. There's simply not enough going on between the lines to support the epic running time. (At Coolidge Corner, Kendall Square and in the suburbs.)

Michael Clayton ★★★½

Another whip-smart, politically savvy flick from star/executive producer George Clooney, who cements his status as a throwback to the age of heavyweight leading men with enough gravitas to handle flawed, complicated leading roles. Clooney's title character, a burnt-out fixer for a big-money Manhattan law firm, finds himself growing a conscience after witnessing the shabby treatment of his esteemed colleague (the great Tom Wilkinson) when the latter threatens to blow a billion-dollar lawsuit over a carcinogenic weed-killer. Shot primarily in metallic shades of gray by cinematographer Robert Elswit, Bourne-trilogy screenwriter Tony Gilroy's impressively lean directorial debut has little patience for soft-hearted pieties or conventional modern uplift. The kind of stark, paranoid star vehicle that probably would have been a summer bl buster back in the early '70s, Michael Clayton c class and adult sophistication. Clooney carries picture on his weary shoulders, subtle glimm long-buried idealism slowly dawning behin downcast eyes. The picture's stirring climax physical but instead a verbal boxing match t more exciting than most shoot-outs. (At Bo Common, Fenway and in the suburbs.)

Rendition ★½

The appalling practice of shipping U.S. terror pects overseas for some, shall we say, creative m ods of questioning is a matter that deserves b treatment than this tedious talking-points m from Tsotsi director Gavin Hood. Reese Wit spoon spends a surprisingly paltry amount of sc time weeping and wandering around Washin pregnant after her Egyptian husband (Ar Knight) gets mistakenly shuttled off for some st gic electrocutions in a deliberately unnamed N African country. Jake Gyllenhaal, usually the mushy center of films much better than this simpers through the movie in a drunken stupor squeamish CIA agent. ("This is my first torture slurs; it's the only good line.) Admirable in its m raking intentions, Rendition is also maddeni vague and underwritten. Kelley Sane's screen grants the one-dimensional characters platform stead of identities, with Meryl Streep as a lip-sm ing villain so cardboard and simplistic she'd s over-the-top in a Bond film. A pointless time-s ing plot twist at the last minute only unders how little of what we've seen has actually matt (At Boston Common, Fenway and in the suburb

Superbad ★★★½

2007 is going to go down in history as the sun that Judd Apatow and Seth Rogen saved Amer comedy. On the heels of their triumphant Kn Up comes the funniest and most down-to-E high school movie since Fast Times at Ridge High. Superbad stars the blisteringly profane J Hill as a kid whose entire sexual education has from dubious sources on the Internet, while An Development's Michael Cera tags along as his kick—a gentle young man who doesn't seem to figured out how to work his body just yet. It's a wild night of misadventures as this less-than namic duo and their brilliantly squirmy friend F (Christopher Mintz-Plasse) attempt to score liquor and seduce their dreamgirls. The intricat constructions devised by Rogen and his writing ner, Evan Goldberg, spin from disasters to del and then back again. These characters keep fir ways to surprise us with improbable, but quite uine, pangs of pathos, even as you can't believe you're hearing. (In the suburbs.)

Things We Lost in the Fire ★★

Is there a harder-working actress than Halle B I'm not referring to the number of roles she play rather the unbelievable strain they seem to p upon her. Every telegraphed emotion or stiltec appears to exhaust this woman. She might b most self-conscious performer in movies t Berry's up to her usual hysterical tricks in this d beat drama—the English-language debut fro claimed Danish filmmaker Susanne Bier. Afte sudden death of her husband (David Duchc supplies Berry with more unconvincing Oscar she invites his childhood friend (Benicio Del to come and live above their garage. As a life loser battling a heroin habit, Del Toro is a wonc behold as he finds new behavioral tics an proaches to a been-there, done-that junkie role bad Bier's overwrought direction favors close-u eyeballs, and Allan Loeb's script can't resist sp out everything that should be implied. The scarcely deserves such an amazing performance Boston Common, Fenway and in the suburbs.)

30 Days of Night ★ ½

The idea is so logical, you wonder why nob thought of it before. Of course vampires woul grate to Alaska, where they can enjoy an uni rupted month of darkness and not have to hi their coffins all day! Alas, such a killer prem squandered in director David Slade's awkward adaptation of the graphic novel by Steve Nile Ben Templesmith. Josh Hartnett is vacant an convincing as a beleaguered sheriff who ral handful of survivors against this epic siege of no tus, and somehow gets back together with his ex (Melissa George) in the process. The logistics plan are consistently muddled. It's often impo to discern where these people are hiding, what subsist on all month or why they keep exp themselves for the most arbitrary reasons. Slad cinematographer Jo Willems have digitally fin the colors of every frame to resemble panels comic, but the pretty pictures don't add up to n (At Boston Common, Fenway and in the suburl

Days in Paris ★★★
e enchanting Julie Delpy makes her directorial ut and stars in this very funny, if slightly uneven, ture-clash farce that follows a bickering young ple's strained 48 hours in the City of Light. Just n't expect the dreamy romanticism of the similarly ictured Delpy vehicle Before Sunset, as here she l real-life ex Adam Goldberg mine all sorts of cward and uncomfortable comedic scenarios that sent Paris as swarming with psycho cabdrivers, el- ly nymphomaniacs and sleazy former lovers lurk- around every corner. A muscled, tattooed Gold- g borrows Woody Allen's timing and delivery as plays a jittery hypochondriac aghast at the parade xes Delpy's loopy photographer keeps bumping t). Surprisingly enough, 2 Days in Paris sports al- it as many penis jokes as Superbad, as well as the ired use of an arsonist, vegan guardian angel. py's use of handheld cameras and jump cuts pay eky homage to the French New Wave, but occa- ally the filmmaking becomes so frazzled you wish d back off just a bit. (In the suburbs.)

: Own the Night ★★ ½ great set pieces in search of a movie, writer-direc- lames Gray's humorless retro-drama stars Joaquin enix as a coked-up club promoter who doesn't re- how deep he's in with the Russian mob until his anged cop brother (an uncharacteristically dull k Wahlberg) busts his disco. Robert Duvall gives arvelous performance as the family's hard-nosed ceman patriarch, oozing disappointment and dis- oval through every forced grin. Gorgeously pho- aphed by Joaquín Baca-Asay, We Own the Night a dank, lived-in sense of impending doom and ts a mid-movie raid on a crack den that's exe- d with nerve-jangling aplomb. Even better is the t original car chase in years, which takes place ng a torrential downpour and locks viewers into driver's claustrophobic field of vision. It's an as- ding sequence in a movie that falls apart soon . As in his previous films, Little Odessa and The s, Gray takes the hoary genre chestnuts of 1930's ster pictures and saps the life out of them with nn self-importance. (At Boston Common, Fen- and in the suburbs.)

Special Events

ton Festival of Films from Iran
s Auditorium, Museum of Fine Arts, 465 Hunt- n Ave., Boston (617-267-9300). www.mfa.org. TA: E Green Line to Museum. Nov. 9-24; see site for complete schedule. Full admission: $100; members, students and seniors. Half passes: $40, members, students and seniors. The MFA cases 14 films during this annual festival. All s are in Persian with English subtitles unless rwise noted.

ton Irish Film Festival us locations around Cambridge. www.irishfilm al.com. Nov. 8-11; see Web site for complete dule. The Boston Irish Film Festival showcases ray of contemporary features, documentaries short Irish films. Throughout the festival, ds will be presented honoring achievement in re, documentary and short fiction/animation . Filmmakers are present at many screenings to ss their work with audiences.

ton Jewish Film Festival us locations around Boston (617-244-9899). bjff.org. Through Nov. 15; see Web site for complete schedule. The Boston Jewish Film Festival showcases contemporary Jewish-themed films from around the world. More than 40 films are screened, including three world premieres. Other festival events include panel discussions, visits by directors and actors, and more.

An Evening With Nathaniel Dorsky
Harvard Film Archive, 24 Quincy St., Cambridge (617-495-4700). www.hcl.harvard.edu/hfa. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. Nov. 16, 7 pm. $10, general admission; free, Harvard students. Known for his experiments exploring light and time, Dorsky joins the HFA for a screening of his films Song and Solitude, Threnody and The Visitation. Following the screening, Dorsky signs copies of his book Devotional Cinema.

An Evening With Stanley Cavell
Harvard Film Archive, 24 Quincy St., Cambridge (617-495-4700). www.hcl.harvard.edu/hfa. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. Nov. 12, 7 pm. $10, general admission; free, Harvard students. Cavell, cofounder of the Harvard Film Archive, presents a lecture entitled "What is a Musical Epic? Notes for Reading O Brother, Where Art Thou?," which is preceded by a screening of the Coen brothers' 2000 comedy.

WSAC Film Series
Gallery 321, 321 Washington St., Somerville (617-623-5315). www.washingtonst.org. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard, then #86 Bus to Perry. Nov. 15, 7 pm. Call for details. The Washington Street Art Center presents short films by emerging filmmakers. Featured films include a spoken-word piece and a comedy about visiting a high school guidance counselor.

e Berry trolls for an Oscar and Benicio Del Toro earns one Things We Lost in the Fire.

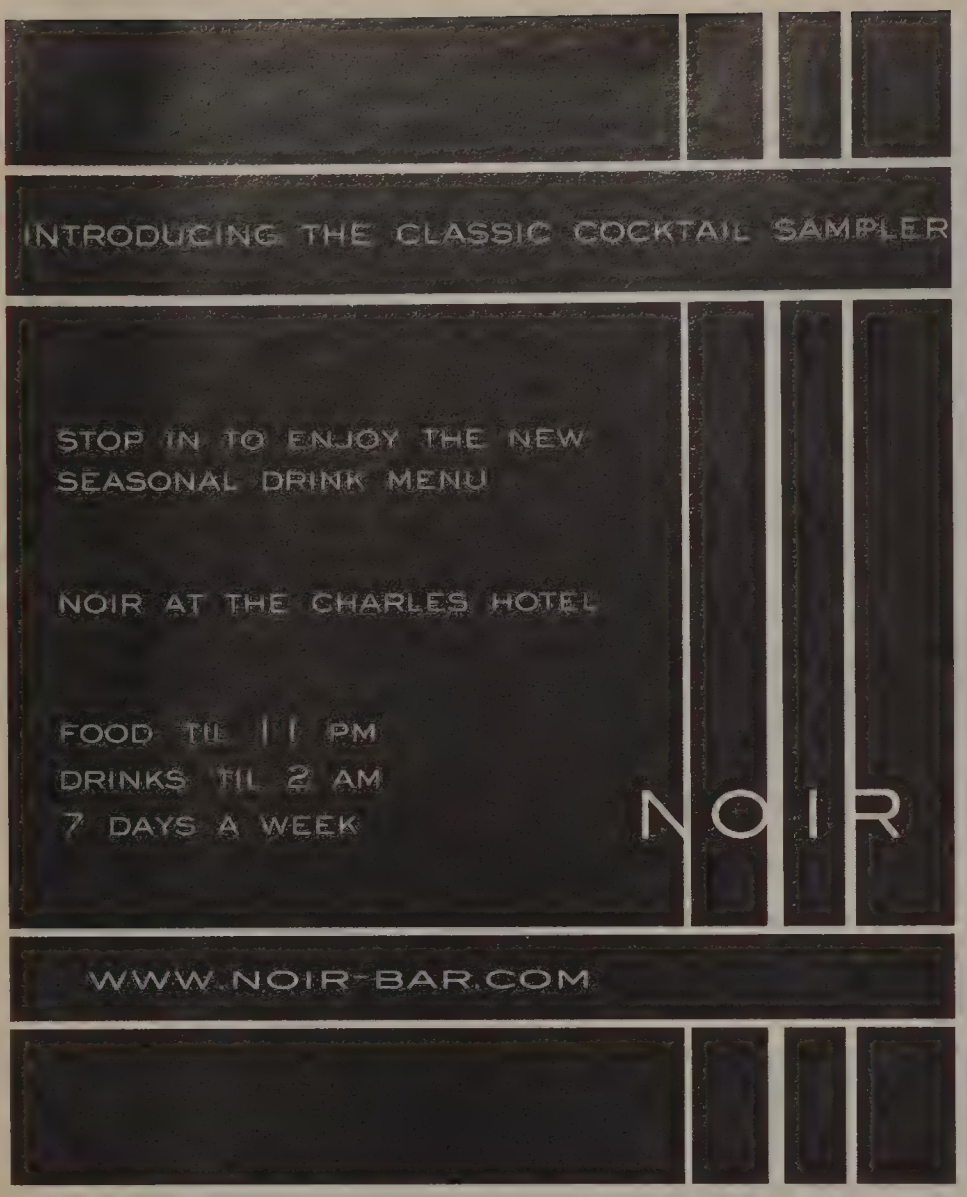
Repertories and Revivals

Advice to Contributors
Submit film listings by fax (617-859-1446), mail to Calendar: Film or e-mail to film@improper.com. Deadline is four weeks prior to publication.

BOSTON PUBLIC LIBRARY
Eyes on the Prize
•Nov. 19, 6 pm. The third segment of PBS's landmark series, Ain't Scared of Your Jails 1986, examines four sit-ins during the early 1960s. The fourth segment, No Easy Walk 1986, tells the story of three cities linked by the Civil Rights movement.



BRATTLE THEATRE
Boston Filmed
•Nov. 16, 5, 7:15 and 9:30 pm. Love Story 1970. Directed by Arthur Hiller, this film tells the story of two Harvard students who fall in love and marry despite their different backgrounds.
•Nov. 17, 2:45 and 7 pm. Next Stop Wonderland 1998. Brad Anderson directs this film about a woman unlucky in love whose mother takes out a personal ad on her behalf.
•Nov. 17, 5 and 9:30 pm. Session 9 2001. Brad Anderson directs this thriller about an asbestos clean-up crew who have to scrub an abandoned Danvers mental hospital.
•Nov. 18, 6:30 pm. Mystic River 2003. Three friends haunted by a childhood incident become involved in a murder case. Clint Eastwood directs.
•Nov. 18, 3:30 and 9:15 pm. The Departed 2006. Martin Scorses directs this film about cops and mobsters who infiltrate each other's operations.
•Nov. 19, 4:30, 7 and 9:30 pm. The Bostonians 1984. This adaptation of Henry James' novel takes place at the beginning of the Suffragette movement, when a woman is torn between a man and the feminist cause.
•Nov. 20, 5, 7:15 and 9:30 pm. Between the Lines 1977. Joan Micklin Silver directs this film about tensions among the staff at an alternative newspaper in the Back Bay.

Boston Irish Film Festival
•Nov. 8, 7 pm. Song for a Raggy Boy 2003. A Spanish Civil War veteran returns to teach at an Irish reformatory school, but the horrors of war haunt him. Aisling Walsh directs.

Elements of Cinema
•Nov. 10, 11 am. Nostalghia 1983. Andrei Tarkovsky directs this film about a young Soviet writer who visits Italy to research the life of an expatriate Russian novelist.

Exclusive Area Premieres

•Nov. 7, 5:15, 7:30 and 9:45 pm; Nov. 8, 10 pm. Exiled 2006. Johnnie To directs this film about a group of gangsters living in Macau who come together and try to protect one of their own.

•Nov. 9-12, 14 and 15, 9:30 pm. Czech Dreams 2004. This documentary pokes fun at consumerism displayed at Czech Dream, a Czech "superstore" that's actually a film set.

COOLIDGE CORNER THEATRE

•Nov. 11, 1 pm. Four Minutes 2006. Chris Kraus directs this film about an 80-year-old woman who enters a talented prison inmate into a prestigious piano contest. In German with English subtitles.

•Nov. 18, 11 am. Moses und Aron (Moses and Aaron) 1973. The French filmmaking duo Jean-Marie Straub and Danièle Huillet direct this film based on the Book of Exodus and the unfinished opera by Arnold Schoenberg.

HARVARD FILM ARCHIVE

Boston Irish Film Festival

•Nov. 9, 7 pm. The Front Line 2006. A Congolese expatriate and his family move to Ireland, where they receive a less than warm welcome.

•Nov. 10, 3 pm. Short Order 2005. Directed by Anthony Byrne, this film focuses on an oddball group of chefs, waiters, food critics and delivery people whose lives and loves are intertwined in the food business.

9 @ Night: The Films of Rob Nilsson

•Nov. 17, 5 pm. Noise 2002. Nilsson directs this story about an ex-con who returns to San Francisco and finds that the city has changed in the 20 years since he last saw it.

•Nov. 17 , 7:30 pm. Used 2007. A man who's had a mental breakdown befriends a homeless person as he begins a life journey. Nilsson directs.

•Nov. 17, 9:30 pm. Attitude 2003. This film tells the story of a brilliant car mechanic who is diagnosed with AIDS. Nilsson directs.

•Nov. 18, 3 pm. Singing 2000. A man leaves his live-in girlfriend of 20 years and becomes entangled in a variety of unfortunate street encounters. Nilsson directs.

•Nov. 18, 7 pm. Stroke 2000. A stroke victim cared for by his longtime friend with his own pro lems, including unwanted involvement in seedy underworld of San Franciso. Nilsson direc

•Nov. 18, 9 pm. Scheme C6 2001. This film po trays the tension between a police officer and h rebellious son who thinks he lives above the la Nilsson directs.

•Nov. 19, 6 pm. Need 2005. This film focuses four prostitutes who struggle with loneliness a drug addiction as they search for a better li Nilsson directs.

•Nov. 19, 8 pm. Pan 2006. This film follows t friends from separate worlds, a homeless man an middle-class child, who re-examine their lives a places in society. Nilsson directs.

•Nov. 19, 10 pm. Go Together 2007. While see ing respite from life on the streets, a man watch scenes from his own past unravel as projections the screen of Oakland's Parkway Theater. Nilss directs.

MASSACHUSETTS INSTITUTE OF TECHNOLOGY

MIT Lecture Series Committee

•Nov. 16, 7 and 10 pm; Nov. 18, 7 pm. Bad Edu tion 2004. When two young boys in rural Spain f in love, the affair is broken up by a priest w wants one of them all to himself. Many years lat a man claiming to be one of the boys contacts t other one, and a secret is exposed. Directed Pedro Almodóvar.

MUSEUM OF FINE ARTS

Art on Film

•Nov. 8, 2:15 pm; Nov. 10, 10:30 am. Tiern Gearon: The Mother Project 2006. For three ye filmmakers Peter Sutherland and Jack Youngels follow the life of photographer Tierney Gear who came under fire for alleged child pornograp in 2001.

Boston Festival of Films From Iran

•Nov. 10, 12 pm. Red Robin 2006. This film plores how Islamic and Christian traditions me after a young boy's prank results in his schoolma death. Parviz Sheikhtadi directs.

•Nov. 16, 6 pm. Havana File 2006. From direc

ve Carell and the cast of Dan in Real Life bring warm and fuzzy to the big screen.

v. 16, 6 pm. Havana File 2006. From director eza Raisian, this film tells the story of a West- educated Iranian whose involvement in a echnology project leads to his being the target smear campaign.

v. 16, 7:45 pm. The Willow Tree 2005. After ears of blindness, a man returns to Iran and is r about the life he missed.

v. 17, 3:15 pm. The Red Card 2006. This doc- ntary examines the murder of a star soccer er's wife by his mistress, which resulted in one ntemporary Iran's most publicized show trials. naz Afzali directs.

nch Cinema

v. 9, 5:45 pm; Nov. 10, 10:45 pm; Nov. 17, 1

The Man of My Life 2006. Director Zabou Bre- n tells the story of a husband and a wife who that their neighbor is gay, sparking a complex ional affair.

SEUM OF SCIENCE
Digital Cinema

gs! A live-action nature film starring a praying is and a butterfly.

Sun. Join NASA's STEREO satellites on a on to document and study the closest star to .

World of Sharks. Come face-to-face with the n's greatest and often most misunderstood tor, as filmed by Jean-Michel Cousteau.

ENGLAND AQUARIUM

ep Sea 3-D. An underwater crew spends more 300 hours studying squid in the Sea of Cortez, ish off Monterey and coral reefs in the Ba- s.

Monsters. Fossil hunters in remote locations er the remains of ancient sea creatures.

rks. Come face-to-face with the ocean's est and often most misunderstood predator, as d by Jean-Michel Cousteau.

ales. Follow different whales during their mi- n journey and learn how they interact gh a system of calls.

nema Venues

NGTON
itol Theater

Mass. Ave. (781-648-4340). MBTA: Red Line ter, then #77 Bus to Arlington Center.

ent Theatre

lford St. (781-646-4849). MBTA: Red Line to fe, then #79 Bus to Arlington Heights.

MONT
dio Cinema

rapelo Road (617-484-1706) MBTA: Red Line rvard, then #73 Bus to Beech St.

TON
on Public Library

Boylston St. (617-536-5400). MBTA: Green o Copley or Orange Line to Back Bay.

Fenway 13 Theatre

201 Brookline Ave. (617-424-6266). MBTA: D Green Line to Fenway.

Goethe-Institut Boston

170 Beacon St. (617-262-6050). MBTA: Green Line to Arlington.

Institute of Contemporary Art

100 Northern Ave. (617-266-5152). MBTA: Red Line to South Station, then Silver Line to Courthouse.

Loews Boston Common

175 Tremont St. (617-423-3499). MBTA: Green Line to Boylston.

Museum of Fine Arts

465 Huntington Ave. (617-267-9300). MBTA: E Green Line to Museum.

Museum of Science

1 Science Park (617-723-2500). MBTA: Green Line to Science Park.

New England Aquarium

1 Central Wharf (866-815-4629). MBTA: Blue Line to Aquarium.

BROOKLINE
Coolidge Corner Theatre

290 Harvard St. (617-734-2500). MBTA: C Green Line to Coolidge Corner.

CAMBRIDGE
Brattle Theatre

40 Brattle St. (617-876-6837). MBTA: Red Line to Harvard.

Harvard Film Archive

24 Quincy St. (617-495-4700). MBTA: Red Line to Harvard.

Harvard Natural History Museum

26 Oxford St. (617-495-3045). MBTA: Red Line to Harvard.

Kendall Square Cinema

1 Kendall Square (617-499-1996). MBTA: Red Line to Kendall/MIT.

Loews/Sony

10 Church St. (617-864-4580). MBTA: Red Line to Harvard.

NEWTON
Chestnut Hill Cinema

27 Boylston St. (617-277-2500). MBTA: D Green Line to Chestnut Hill.

West Newton Cinema

1296 Washington St. (617-964-6060). MBTA: Commuter Rail to West Newton.

SOMERVILLE
Loews/Sony

35 Middlesex Ave. (617-628-7000). MBTA: Orange Line to Sullivan.

Somerville Theatre

55 Davis Square (617-625-5700). MBTA: Red Line to Davis.

WALTHAM
Brandeis University

415 South St. (781-736-8600). MBTA: Commuter Rail to Brandeis/Roberts.

ROGGIE'S

catering ✶ party platters ✶ free delivery ✶ luncheons

ROGGIE'S FULL MENU AVAILABLE
BRUNCH - LUNCH - DINNER

www.roggies.com
OPEN LATE
356 Chestnut Hill Ave.
Brighton

617.713.0555
617.566.1880

for booking info:
krisyliz00@aol.com
rroggies@aol.com

We use
0g trans fat

Kick off the holiday season in

Style with Boston's 21st Annual SnowBall &

Black Diamond

Friday December 7, 2007
Park Plaza Hotel, 64 Arlington St. Boston

For tickets and information about Boston's largest all-volunteer run black-tie benefit, find us online.
Buy your tickets online now and save!

SPONSORED IN PART BY:
ALLIANCE PRINT GROUP
ELLINGER DESIGN
MIX 98.5
STATE STREET
TRISTAN
THE WINTER WYMAN COMPANIES

www.SCABoston.org
www.myspace.com/scasnowball

Santa Claus Anonymous

Botti Call

Horn God Chris Botti is no blowhard

BY PAUL ROBICHEAU

On record, Chris Botti's precise trumpet sets a relaxed, romantic tone that punctuates lush orchestration like a regal stag patrolling leafy hills. But put Botti onstage with a herd of hearty jazz players, and he can take a more aggressive stance, wielding his horn with newfound verve.

"If anyone has seen me, they know the live shows are nothing like the albums," says Botti, 45, who plays at Scullers Nov. 23–26 with drummer Billy Kilson, guitarist Mark Whitfield, bassist James Genus and pianist Peter Martin. "When I listen to an album, I want to be placed in that place and not knocked out of it. But when I go see a show, I want to see the band flex their muscles and see bebop and jazz playing and people going for it. If it were me sitting in the audience, I'd want to see if Chris Botti has any chops or not. I don't want it to be all melancholy, drift-off mode."

With his popular trumpet, Chris Botti proves he has chops.

Of course, more people have seen the jazz heartthrob since he appeared on Oprah, not to mention his PBS concert special and DVD, accompanied by an orchestra and guests that included Sting, Paula Cole, Gladys Knight and Jill Scott.

"Along with my opinionated stance has been a whole lot of luck," Botti says from a tour stop at Mohegan Sun. "Because it could have just as easily not happened for me, and I'd still have the same opinions about the kind of records I want to make. But along with that came the ability to get on TV, to get a PBS special. I've said all along that if [virtuoso jazz pianist] Keith Jarrett went on Oprah and played 'The Melody at Night, With You' or 'Porgy and Bess,' every housewife in the world would be bawling their eyes out and he'd sell three million records of that thing. Fortunately for me, we've gotten into those situations."

Boyish sex appeal hasn't hurt either, nor has his crossover gig as featured soloist on Sting's Brand New Day tour (he also played in a prog-jazz quartet with King Crimson's Tony Levin and Bill Bruford). But Botti broke open the door to mainstream fame with 2004's When I Fall in Love and 2005's duet showcase To Love Again (which included a tune with Aerosmith's Steven Tyler as well as Sting, Cole and the gang). Both stylish offerings topped the jazz charts and cracked the Top 40 of pop album sales.

It's a formula that works. "Why in the world would I want to make a bebop record?" he says. "It's been done the best it can be done. Otherwise you're just standing in the line of people who have done it. So I've found this niche for me."

That niche incorporates impeccable phrasing in atmospheric settings that not only bridge jazz standards and pop, but movie soundtracks and opera, which he touches on in his new disc Italia. "My biggest strength is really the tone of my trumpet, because a lot of trumpet players have a kind of nasally, whiny trumpet sound," says Botti. He notes that he can apply that strength to any genre, "whether it be classical or movie or jazz with a little bit of blowing here and there, but focusing on the tone of the instrument and the arrangements." Among his models, Botti cites Miles Davis' impressionistic classics Sketches of Spain and Kind of Blue, as well as Frank Sinatra's melancholy Only the Lonely album.

Why did Botti choose Italy for the theme of his new record? "Spain was taken," pipes the Oregon native, who started to play trumpet at age 9. Botti also lived outside Milan for two years of grade school. "Even more than Spain, Italy has a transporting quality to it, even if you've never been there. The minute someone says Italy, you think about the food, the fashion, the landscape, the romance and the simplicity of the place, and that comes through in the music, too."

Clearly Botti appreciates his opportunities to travel in his own style. "There are only a handful of cities in America that you can enjoy a vacation in," says Botti, who performed regularly at Scullers before jumping to theater-size venues. "To be at Scullers and be able to sleep in and do my yoga practice unencumbered by a flight is very appealing." iB

Chris Botti
plays Scullers Jazz Club Nov. 23–26.

Advice to Contributors

Submit information labeled "Rock," "Blues," etc. by (617-859-1446), by mail to Calendar/Music, o email to music@improper.com. Include dates, ti prices, phone numbers and nearest T stop. Deadli four weeks prior to publication date. Listings no cepted over the phone.

Advice to Readers

Information for the Music section is compiled from ferent sources. Although we make every effort to pro accurate dates and times, changes do occur. Call a to double-check dates and times (see complete li venues at the end of the section).

Top Billings

The Academy Is Nov. 7, Palladium (508-797-96
Bright Eyes Nov. 18, Palladium (508-797-9696).
Café Tacuba Nov. 18, Roxy (617-338-7699).
Dashboard Confessional, Augustana Nov. 9, P dium (508-797-9696).
Ani DiFranco Nov. 9, Orpheum Theatre (617-6 0810).
The Idan Raichel Project Nov. 17, Paradise R Club (617-562-8800).
Jimmy Eat World Nov. 7, Orpheum Theatre (6 679-0810).
Annie Lennox Nov. 11, Symphony Hall (617-7 1492).
The Police Nov. 11, TD Banknorth Garden (6 624-1000).
Bruce Springsteen and the E Street Band Nov and 19, TD Banknorth Garden (617-624-1000).
Third Eye Blind Nov. 15, Palladium (508-7 9696).

Rock, Jazz and Blues

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 7

Abbey Lounge Bryan McPhearson, Mark L Kelsey Bennet, Eric Wolfson and the War Cabi Lach, 9 pm, $7.
The Black Rose Downstairs: Frank Ryan and C Clan, 9:30 pm, no cover, 21+.
Bristol Lounge Bill Duffy, 6 pm, no cover, 21+.
Cantab Lounge Candy's Blues, Jazz and Rock Ja pm, no cover, 21+.
Copperfield's Madison Project and Akiva, 8 pm 21+.
Dick's Last Resort Jonno, 7 pm, no cover.
Great Scott Tally Hall, Via Audio, Skybox, 9 $10, 18+.
Harpers Ferry The Heavy Pets, State Your M and Tell, 8 pm, $7, 18+.
Johnny D's Eric Dahlman, 9 pm, $8, 21+.
Kennedy's Midtown Jillian Santella, Chris Br ett, Boyan Hristov, 8:30 pm, no cover, 21+.
Lizard Lounge Jennifer Kimball, 7:30, no co 21+; the Dennis Brennan Band, 9:30 pm, $5, 21
Middle East Upstairs: Plastic Little, Big Di Chris Delvin, Reddfoxx, 9 pm, $8, 18+. Downst Razorlight, the Von Bondies, Gran Ronde, 9 $16 advance, $18 doors, 18+.
O'Brien's School For Robots, 9 pm, $7, 21+.
Orpheum Jimmy Eat World, 7:30 pm, $20-$30.
Paddy O's Bear Fight, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.
Palladium The Academy Is, 5:30 pm, $20 in vance; $23 at the door, all ages.
Paradise Lounge The Brakes, 8 pm, $8, 18+.
Paradise Rock Club Sia, Willoughby, 7 pm, $16 18+
PA's Shark Phone, I Love You, 9 pm, $6-$8, 21+
Ryles Jazz Club The New World Jazz Compo Octet, 9 pm, $10.
Scullers Jazz Club Ralph Rosen and the Org Horns, 8 pm, $16-$56.
Terrace Lounge Al Vega Trio, 11 pm, no cover,
Top of the Hub Bob Nieske Trio, 8:30 pm, no co
T.T. the Bear's Place Mercy James Gang, the stries, Sad Bastard Goes Pop, Fugitive Kind, 9 $7, 18+.
Les Zygomates Nick Goumas Trio, 8 pm, no co 21+.

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 8

Abbey Lounge Dirt Mall, the Weistronauts, To Tramps, 9:30 pm, $8.
The Black Rose Downstairs: Frank Ryan and C Clan, 9:30 pm, no cover, 21+.
Bob's Southern Bistro Conscious Band, $7 pm, $5.
Bristol Lounge Joe Morocco, 6 pm, no cover, 21
The Burren Swinging Johnsons, 10 pm, $5, 21+.
Cantab Lounge The Chicken Slacks, 9 pm, cover, 21+.

b Passim Harry Manx, 8 pm, $13-$15.
e Foundation Lounge Evan Goodrow and the ndation Lounge band "Soulicious," 9 pm, no er, 21+.
eat Scott Phosphorescent, Bodies of Water, 9 , $9, 18+.
nnessy's Fly Switch, 9pm, no cover, 21+.
hua Tree Onset, 10 pm, $2, 21+.
nnedy's Midtown Greg Burroughs, 9 pm, no er, 21+.
ard Lounge Jeff Ginsburg, 8 pm, $8, 21+.
tt Murphy's The Wild Sextet, 11 pm, no cover, .
idle East Upstairs: The Black Angels, A Place to y Strangers, Spindrift, 9 pm, $12, 18+. Down- rs: Melt Banana, Daughters, Ho-Ag, 9 pm, $12 ance, $14 doors, 18+.
Dooley's Patsy and Johnny, 9 pm, no cover, .
dy O's Inbound, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.
adise Lounge Peter Bradley Adams, Matthew yman Jones, Katie Herzig, 8 pm, $10, 18+.
s Ponies in the Surf, Castanets, Deer Tick, Tiger- 9 pm, $6-$8, 21+.
gattabar Los Amigos Invisibles, 7 and 10 pm, , 21+.
es Jazz Club Johnny Rodgers Band, 9 pm, $12.
llers Jazz Club Aardvark Jazz Orchestra, 8 pm, -$57.
d Hamel on Trial, 7 pm, no cover, 21+; Pablo er, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.
my Doyles The Joshua Tree, 9:30 pm, $5, 21+.
of the Hub Bob Nieske Trio, 8:30 pm, no cover.
the Bear's Place Emerson Hart, Scott Harris ect, the Brightwings, 9:25 pm, $12, 18+.
Zygomates Mark Zaleski Trio, 8 pm, no cover, .

IDAY, NOVEMBER 9 ey Lounge Blue Bloods, Sonic Bomb, Refuse st, Yesterdays Heroes, 9 pm, $8.

k Horse Tavern Wishful Thinking, 9 pm, no r, 21+.
Black Rose Upstairs: Sunday's Well, 10 pm, $5, .
's Southern Bistro Elan Trotman, 7:30 pm, $3-$5.
tol Lounge Bill Duffy, 6 pm, no cover, 21+.

ADVANCE SEATING

UPCOMING HEADLINERS

Clay Aiken Dec. 9, Mohegan Sun Arena (888-226-7711).
Boys Like Girls Nov. 23, The Palladium (508-797-9696).
Brand New, Thrice Dec. 9, Tsongas Arena (978-848-6900).
The Commodores Nov. 23, Mohegan Sun Arena (888-226-7711).
David Gray Dec. 5, Orpheum Theatre (617-679-0810).
Hall and Oates Dec. 8, Orpheum Theatre (617-679-0810).
Patti Labelle Nov. 24, Mohegan Sun Arena (888-226-7711).
John Mellencamp Dec. 7, Mohegan Sun Arena (888-226-7711).
Youssou N'Dour Dec. 10, Somerville Theatre (617-625-5700).
Don Omar Nov. 24, Orpheum Theatre (617-679-0810).
Kenny Rogers Dec. 16, Tsongas Arena (978-848-6900).
Martha Wainwright Nov. 21, Orpheum Theatre (617-679-0810).
Eliott Yamin Nov. 24, The Roxy (617-338-7699).
Neil Young Dec. 2, 3 and 6, Orpheum Theatre (617-679-0810).

The Burren Moonshine, 10 pm, $5, 21+.
Cantab Lounge Upstairs: Diane Blue and the Fat-back Band, 9 pm, $5, 21+.
Club Bohemia The Hansen Sisters, the Clydesdale Cowboys, 9 pm, $7, 21+.
Club Passim Anais Mitchell and Birdie Busch, 8 pm, $13-$15.
Copperfield's Papa Grows Funk, Jen Kearney and the Lost Onion, 8 pm, $12-$15, 21+.
Dick's Last Resort Spogga, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.
Grand Canal Spike the Punch, 9:30 pm, $5, 21+.
The Green Dragon Tavern Same as Ever, 9:30 pm, $5, 21+.
Harpers Ferry MC Frontalot, Schaffer the Dark Lord, 8 pm, $8 advance, $10 doors, 18+.
Hennessy's Lisa Love Connection, 9 pm, $5, 21+. Upstairs: Incadence, 9 pm, $5, 21+.
Jose McIntyre's Plaid Daddy, 10 pm, $5, 21+
Kennedy's Midtown Ken DoRosario, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.
Lizard Lounge John Doe, the Mistix, 6:30 pm, $20, 21+.
Matt Murphy's Vibe Wise, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.
Middle East Upstairs: Joe McMahon, Tomorrow the Gallows, King Everything, 9 pm, $10, 18+. Downstairs: Sharon Jones & the Dap-Kings, Budos Band, 9 pm, $15 advance, $18 doors, 18+.
Midway Café Chandler Travis Philharmonic, 9 pm, 21+.
Mr. Dooley's Eamonn Sheehan, Patsy and Johnny, 5 pm, $5, 21+.
O'Brien's Ketman, Appomattox, Low Red Land, 9 pm, $8, 21+.
Orpheum Ani DiFranco, 8 pm, $36-$39.
Paddy O's Sweep the Leg, 9 pm, $5, 21+.
Palladium Dashboard Confessional, Augustana, 6:30 pm, $27.50 in advance; $32 at the door, all ages.
Paradise Lounge Baldi & Suburban Graffiti, Delta Wave, 8 pm, $10, 18+.
Paradise Rock Club Menomena, Illinois, 8 pm, $13 advance, $15 doors, 18+.
Parris Liquid A, 9 pm, $10, 21+.
PA's Choo Choo La Rouge, ER, the Blank Tapes, Tim Bracy, 9 pm, $6-$8, 21+.
Regattabar David Maxwell's Maximum Blues, 7:30 and 10 pm, $16, 21+.
Roxy David Crowder Band, 6:30 pm, $20.
Ryles Jazz Club Thaddeus Hogarth, 9 pm, $10.
Scullers Jazz Club Walter Beasley, 8 and 10:30 pm, $30-$70.
Somerville Theatre Marc Cohn, 8 pm, $40.
Terrace Lounge Sweep the Leg, 9 pm, $5, 21+.
Toad The Coots, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.
Tommy Doyles Soul Movement, 9:30 pm, $2, 21+.
Top of the Hub Bob Nieske Group featuring Maggie Galloway, 9 pm, no cover.
Les Zygomates Ronnie Ron Trio, 8 pm, no cover, 21+.

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 10

Abbey Lounge The Bags, the Almighty Terribles, American Speedway, Jay Allen and the Arch Criminals, 9:45 pm, $8.
Bill's Bar Prob C and the DH, Rebel and the Universal Truth, 8:30 pm, $10, 18+.
Black Horse Tavern Chris Frasco, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.
The Black Rose Upstairs: Sunday's Well, 10 pm, $5, 21+. Downstairs: Frank Ryan and Celtic Clan, 9:30 pm, $5, 21+.
Bob's Southern Bistro Herman Johnson, 7:30 pm, $3-$5.
Bristol Lounge Alfredo Cardim, 6 pm, no cover, 21+.
The Bull Run Don White and the Loomers, 8 pm, $15.

Yo La Tengo play a pair of unplugged shows at the Museum of Fine Arts Nov. 15.

The Burren Pi Alley, 10 pm, $5, 21+.
Cantab Lounge Upstairs: Diane Blue and the Fatback Band, 9 pm, $5, 21+.
Club Bohemia Dirigible Ego, Lillac Ambush, the Limitation, the Dirge Carolers, 9 pm, $7, 21+.
Club Passim Willy Porter, 7 & 10 pm, $23-$25.
Dick's Last Resort Sweep the Leg, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.
Grand Canal Breaking Point, 9:30 pm, $5, 21+.
Great Scott Kid: Nap: Kin, This Car Up, Bridget and the Squares, 9 pm, $9, 21+.
The Green Dragon Tavern Them, 9:30 pm, $5, 21+.
The Harp The Zoo, 9 pm, $10, 21+.
Harpers Ferry Rogue Heroes, Girls Guns & Glory, the Peasantry, 8 pm, $12, 21+.
Hennessy's Fast Times, 9 pm, $5, 21+. Upstairs: Dick 'n Jane, 9 pm, $5, 21+.
Johnny D's Melodesiac, 9:45 pm, $10, 21+.
Kennedy's Midtown The Doctor's Fox, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.
Lizard Lounge Signal 2 Noise, Steve Wynn & the Miracle Three, 8 pm, $12, 21+.
Matt Murphy's 3 Day Threshold, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.
Middle East Upstairs: Hallelujah the Hills, the Thalia Zedek Band, Mel Lederman, Empty House Cooperative, Reid Paley Trioo, Helms, IV Diffusion Drug Rug, 8 pm, $10, 18+. Downstairs: The Everyday Visuals, As Fast As, Cassavettes, Chauncey, 9 pm, $10, 18+.
Mr. Dooley's Patsy and Johnny, 9 pm, $5, 21+.
O'Brien's The Tampoffs, Magnetix, Imaginary Icons, the Maintainers, 9 pm, $8, 21+.
Palladium As I Lay Dying, All That Remains, 6:30 pm, $20, all ages.
Parris Liquid A, 9 pm, $10, 21+.
PA's The Double Stops, Whistlejacket, Ara Vora, the Fixations, 9 pm, $6-$8, 21+.
Regattabar The Prodigals, 7:30 pm, $15, 21+.
Scullers Jazz Club Walter Beasley, 8 and 10:30 pm, $30-$70.
Terrace Lounge Fitzsimmons and Price, 5:30 pm; Soul of Boston, 9:30 pm, no cover, 21+.
Toad SPF-4, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.
Tommy Doyles Chelsea City Council, Rocko Dorsey, 9:30 pm, $2, 21+.
Top of the Hub Bob Nieske Group featuring Maggie Galloway, 9 pm, no cover.
T.T. the Bear's Place Steel Train, Ace Enders, Kevin Devine, the Casual Lean, 9:15 pm, $12, 18+.

SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 11

Abbey Lounge Aloke, Hangmans Alphabet, Pukka Argot, Measuremen, 5 pm, $7.
The Black Rose Downstairs: Frank Ryan and Celtic Clan, 9:30 pm, $5, 21+.
Bob's Southern Bistro Black Sole, 10 am, no cover.
Bristol Lounge Dan Greenspan, 11am, no cover; Alfredo Cardim, 6 pm, no cover, 21+.
The Burren Singer Songwriter Series with DanielleM, 8 pm, $5, 21.
Cantab Lounge Candy's Blues, Jazz and Rock Jam, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.
Club Passim Anthony da Costa and Emily Elbert, 5 pm, $5-$10; Ana Egge, 8 pm, $10-$12.
Dick's Last Resort Jonno, 7 pm, no cover.
Great Scott Frightened Rabbit, 28 Degree Taurus, the Brother Kite, 9 pm, $9, 18+.
Harpers Ferry Rx Bandits, Men Women & Children, Nurses, 8 pm, $13 advance, $15 doors,
Hennessy's Sweep the Leg, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.
Matt Murphy's Knockout, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.
Middle East Hypaspace and the Joe Feloni Group, Math the Band, 1 pm, $10 advance, $12 doors; Forest Henderson, Pray For Polanski, Rocko Dorsey, 9 pm, $8, 18+.
Mr. Dooley's Patsy and Christi, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.
O'Brien's Howie Steizer, Astronaut, Gastric Lavage, Rozasia, 8 pm, $7, 21+.
Orpheum John Butler Trio, 7:30 pm, $25.
Paddy O's The Gobshites, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.
Palladium Motion City Soundtrack, Mae, Anberlin, 5:30 pm, $22, all ages.
Paradise Lounge Pete Richard Band, 7 pm, $8 advance, $10 doors, 18+.
PA's The Black, the Knuckledusters, 9 pm, $6-$8, 21+.
Symphony Hall Annie Lennox, 7:30 pm, $56-$126, all ages.
TD Banknorth Garden The Police, 7:30 pm, $95-$225, all ages.
Terrace Lounge Ray Santisi Trio, 11 pm, no cover, 21+.
Toad Jess Clemons, 8 pm, no cover, 21+.
Top of the Hub Marty Ballou Trio, 8 pm, no cover.
T.T. the Bear's Place Euroschilds, David Kilgour, Pseudosix, $8 advance, $10 doors, 9 pm, 18+.

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 12

Abbey Lounge Shoney Lamar, Walter the Orange Organ, Michael Troy, Justin Shoney, 9 pm, $7.
Bristol Lounge Bristol Lounge- Ben Cook, 6 pm, no cover, 21+.
Cantab Lounge PJ Shapiro, 9:30 pm, no cover, 21+.
Club Passim Ellery Klein, 8 pm, $5-$10.
Dick's Last Resort Paul Fudin, 7 pm, no cover.
Hennessy's Joe Carson, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.
Matt Murphy's Scarecrow Mobius, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.
Middle East Upstairs: Final Fantasy, Cadence Weapon, 9 pm, $9 advance, $10 doors, 18+. Downstairs: Clap Your Hands Say Yeah, Quentin Stolzfus, 7:30 pm, $15 adavance, $18 doors, 18+.
Midway Café Samba Lolo, 9:30 pm, 21+.
O'Brien's Bad Ash, 9 pm, $7, 21+.
Paradise Lounge Dan Cohen, the Levees, 7 pm, $7, 18+.
Paradise Rock Club Battles, White Williams, 7 pm, $15, 18+.
PA's Alas Alak, French Quarter, Foot Ox, Jessica Rylan, 9 pm, $6-$8, 21+.
Top of the Hub Marty Ballou Trio, 8 pm, no cover.
T.T. the Bear's Place Ryan Lee Crosby, Tim Williams, the Black Atlantic, 8:30 pm, $3, 18+.

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 13

Abbey Lounge Brilliant, Skoc, Love Drive, Jennifer Mathews, 9 pm, $7.
The Black Rose Downstairs: Sunday's Well, 9:30 pm, no cover, 21+.
Bristol Lounge Alfredo Cardim, 6 pm, no cover, 21+.
Club Passim Tanya Davis, Jenn Grant, Jill Barber, Jim Bryson, Royal Wood, Catherine MacLellan, Chris Luedecke and David Myles, 7 pm, $10-$12.
Dick's Last Resort Keith Lewis, 7 pm, no cover.
The Foundation Lounge Torch Tuesdays with Jeanie Flynn and the Strays, 8 pm, no cover, 21+.
Harpers Ferry Busdriver, Daedelus & Antimc, 8 pm, $10 advance, $12 doors, 18+.
Hennessy's Scott Damgaard, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.
Johnny D's Newfound Road, 8:30 pm, $10, 21+.
Lizard Lounge Tony Furtado, 8 pm, $15, 21+.
Matt Murphy's B3 Kings, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.
Middle East Streetlight Manifesto, Suburban Legends, the Stitch-Up, 7 pm, $12.
Paradise Lounge Needtobreathe, Sons of William, Violet Nine, 7 pm, $10, 18+.
Paradise Rock Club Broken Social Scene, 7 pm, $25, 18+.
PA's Windy Smiles, the Hepburns, Anthony Rocheter, 9 pm, $6-$8, 21+.
Scullers Jazz Club The Subdudes, 8 and 10 pm, $25-$65.
Toad The Low Anthem, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.
Tommy Doyles Tuesday Acoustic Showcase, 9:30 pm, no cover, 21+.
Top of the Hub Brian McCree Group, 8:30 pm, no cover.
T.T. the Bear's Place Action Camp, Lifejacket, Fetish Chicken, Teletext, 9 pm, $7, 18+.
Les Zygomates Yoko Miwa Trio, 8 pm, no cover, 21+.

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 14

Abbey Lounge Doves Dirty Cousin, Emulsion, Arks, the Few, 9 pm, $7.
Bill's Bar Ben Levin, Alex Han and Beyond the Construct, Matt O'Donnell, 8:30 pm, $7 advance, $10 doors, 18+.
The Black Rose Downstairs: Sunday's Well, 9:30 pm, no cover, 21+.
Bristol Lounge Bill Duffy, 6 pm, no cover, 21+.
Cantab Lounge Candy's Blues, Jazz and Rock Jam, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.
Club Passim Paul Curreri and Devon Sproule, 8 pm, $10-$12.
Copperfield's The Ricecookers and Cyphline, 8 pm, $8, 21+.
Great Scott Aqueduct, Georgie James, Tulsa, 9 pm, $10, 18+.
Johnny D's Unfulfilled Desires, 9 pm, $10, 21+.
Kennedy's Midtown Jillian Santella, Chris Brackett, Boyan Hristov, 8:30 pm, no cover, 21+.
Lizard Lounge Jennifer Kimball, 7:30, no cover, 21+; the Dennis Brennan Band, 9:30 pm, $5, 21+.
Middle East Upstairs: Zox, Pete Kilpatrick, 8:30 pm, $12 advance, $14 doors, 18+. Downstairs: Electric Six, Willowz, the Golden Dogs, 9 pm, $12, 18+.
O'Brien's Ichabod, Sin of Angels, Dreaded Silence, 9 pm, $7, 21+.
Paddy O's Bear Fight, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.
Paradise Rock Club Stiff Little Fingers, the New Rivals, 7 pm, $16, 18+.
PA's You Need New Glasses, Remote Islands, Miller Carr & the Shalants, 9 pm, $6-$8, 21+.
Regattabar Shemekia Copeland, 7:30 pm, $22, 21+.
Ryles Jazz Club Joao Marcos & Anita Coelho, 9 pm, $10.
Scullers Jazz Club John Stein, 8 pm, $18-$58.
Terrace Lounge Al Vega Trio, 11 pm, no cover, 21+.
Toad Rose Polenzani, 9:30 pm, no cover, 21+.
Top of the Hub Brian McCree Group, 8:30 pm, no cover.
T.T. the Bear's Place Spottiswoode & His Enemies, Spouse, Ezra Furman & the Harpoons, 9:15 pm, $8, 18+.
Les Zygomates Harry Fix Trio, 8 pm, no cover, 21+.

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 15

Abbey Lounge Axe Munkee, Mascara, Magonia, 9:30 pm, $8, 21+.
Alchemist Lounge Dennis Brennan, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.
The Black Rose Downstairs: Sunday's Well, 9:3 pm, no cover, 21+.
Bob's Southern Bistro Conscious Band, 7 pm, $ $5.
Bristol Lounge Joe Morocco, 6 pm, no cover, 21+.
The Burren Swinging Johnsons, 10 pm, $5, 21+.
Cantab Lounge The Chicken Slacks, 9 pm, r cover, 21+.
Club Passim Girlyman, 7 pm, $18-$20.
Copperfield's The Ride, 8 pm, $7, 21+.
The Foundation Lounge Evan Goodrow and the Foundation Lounge band "Soulicious," 9 pm, no cover, 21+.
Harpers Ferry Easy Star All-Stars, Guvna Dub Se sions, 8 pm, $15, 18+.
Hennessy's Fly Switch, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.
Kennedy's Midtown John Mansfield, 9 pm, cover, 21+.
Lizard Lounge Mike Rivard, 8:30 pm, $10, 21+.
Matt Murphy's The Wild Sextet, 11 pm, no cov 21+.
Middle East Dax Riggs, Beaten Awake, 9 pm, $ 18+.
Mr. Dooley's Patsy and Johnny, 9 pm, no cov 21+.
Musuem of Fine Arts Yo La Tengo, 6:30 and 9: pm, $20-$25.
O'Brien's Refuse Resist, Capital Radio, Y69, 9 p $7, 21+.
Paddy O's Inbound, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.
Palladium Third Eye Blind, 7 pm, $26; $28 at d door, all ages.
Paradise Lounge Beautiful Lies, Revival, 8 pm, $ 18+.
Paradise Rock Club The Cribs, Jeffrey Lewis a the Jitters, Dead Trees, 8 pm, $12 advance, $ doors, 18+.
PA's On Fire, Tartufi, 9 pm, $6-$8, 21+.
Scullers Jazz Club Eddie Palmieri Jazz Band, 8 p $26-$66.
Tommy Doyles Leah Randazzo, 9:30 pm, $2, 21+.
Top of the Hub Brian McCree Group, 8:30 pm, n cover.
Les Zygomates Benjamin Sharoni Quartet, 8 p no cover, 21+.

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 16

Abbey Lounge Cocked and Loaded, Vagiant, Cof Lids, Buried in Leather, 9 pm, $8, 21+.
Black Horse Tavern Wishful Thinking, 9 pm, cover, 21+.
The Black Rose Upstairs: Frank Ryan, 10 pm, 21+. Downstairs: Sunday's Well, 9:30 pm, $5, 21+
Bob's Southern Bistro Pat Loomis, 7:30 pm, $3-$
Bristol Lounge Alfredo Cardim, 6 pm, no cov 21+; Joe Barbato, 9:30 pm, no cover, 21+.
The Burren Cover Up, 10 pm, $5, 21+.
Cantab Lounge The Fatback Band, 9 pm, $5, 21+
Club Bohemia The Boize, Third Rail, Fox P Electrolux, 9 pm, $7, 21+.
Club Passim Girlyman, 7 and 10 pm, $18-$20.
Dick's Last Resort Spogga, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.
Grand Canal Incadence, 9:30 pm, $5, 21+.
The Green Dragon Tavern Scooby Snax, 9:30 $5, 21+.
Hennessy's Spike the Punch, 9 pm, $5, 21+. U stairs: Fast Times, 9 pm, $5, 21+.
Kennedy's Midtown Chilmark Unplugged, 9 no cover, 21+.
Lizard Lounge Copal, Walter Sickert and the Ar of Broken Toys, Nachilus Kezuck, 7:30 pm, $ 21+.
Matt Murphy's The Wild Sextet, 10 pm, no co 21+.
Middle East Upstairs: Die Mannequin, the Peren als, Guillermo Sexo, 9 pm, $9, 18+. Downstairs: Samples, Porter Block, 9 pm, $20, 18+.
Mr. Dooley's Eamonn Sheehan, Declan and Kev 5 pm, $5, 21+.
O'Brien's Black Helicopter, Tall Firs, Lady of Sp Antiques, 9 pm, $8, 21+.
Orpheum State Radio, 7:30, $22.
Paddy O's Dick 'n Jane, 9 pm, $5, 21+.
Paradise Lounge The Indobox, the Void Unior pm, $10, 18+.
Paradise Rock Club The Avett Brothers, 8 pm, $ 18+.
Parris Lifespeed, 9 pm, $10, 21+.
PA's Professor Pez, B for Brontosaurus, Comearounds, 9 pm, $6-$8, 21+.
Regattabar The Ventures, 7:30 and 10 pm, $ 21+.
Scullers Jazz Club Eddie Palmieri Jazz Band, 8 $26-$66.
Terrace Lounge Airtight, 9:30 pm, no cover, 21+.
Toad John Cate, the Van Gogh Brothers, 10 pm, cover, 21+.
Tommy Doyles The Beantown Project, 9:30 pm, 21+.

he David Crowder Band packs them in at the Roxy Nov. 9.

of the Hub Brian McCree Group, 9 pm, no
er.
the Bear's Place The Break Mission, the Gulf, urrectionists, Pony, 9 pm, $8, 18+.
Zygomates Ronnie Ron Trio, 8 pm, no cover,

TURDAY, NOVEMBER 17

ey Lounge Ramoniacs, Cheater Pint, Ghouls
ht Out, the Take Back, 9 pm, $8, 21+.
k Horse Tavern Kobie, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.
Black Rose Upstairs: Frank Ryan, 10 pm, $5,
. Downstairs: Sunday's Well, 9:30 pm, $5,

's Southern Bistro Herman Johnson, 7:30, $3-

tol Lounge Bill Duffy, 6 pm, no cover, 21+.
Burren Spitting Vinnies, 10 pm, $5, 21+.
tab Lounge Diane Blue and the Fatback Band, 9 $5, 21+.
b Bohemia Preacher Roe, Classic Ruins, Radio
ves, Dawn of Mechanized Farming, 9 pm, $5,

Passim Rose Cousins, 8 pm, $13-$15.
nd Canal Magnus, 9:30 pm, $5, 21+.
Green Dragon Tavern Four Inch Stud, 9:30
$5, 21+.
Harp Peatmoss, 9 pm, $10, 21+.
nessy's Syndicate, 9 pm, $5, 21+. Upstairs: Last gh, 9 pm, $5, 21+.
ny D's Milo Z, 9:45 pm, $10, 21+.
nedy's Midtown Mike Barrett, 10 pm, no cover, t Murphy's The Wild Sextet, 10 pm, no cover,

dle East Day Sleeper, Over the Border, 1 pm, $8;
is Morrison Hellfighters, Harris, Statehood,
rge Lewis Jr., 9 pm, $9 advance, $10 doors, 18+.
Dooley's Declan and Kevin, 9 pm, $5, 21+.
rien's The Big Disappointments, Hospital Rats, orts, 9 pm, $8, 21+.
adium Tech N9ne, 7 pm, $23 in advance; $25 at door, all ages.
adise Lounge The Section Quartet, 6:30 pm, advance, $15 doors, 18+.
adise Rock Club The Idan Raichel Project, 8 $35, 18+.
is Lifespeed, 9 pm, $10, 21+.
Cul De Sac, the December Sound, Up-Tight, outek, 9 pm, $6-$8, 21+.
attabar The Commander Cody Band, 7:30 pm, 21+.
Reverend Horton Heat, 6:30, $23.
s Jazz Club Annie Royer and Les Garcons
ettes, 9 pm, $20.

Scullers Jazz Club Eddie Palmieri Jazz Band, 8 pm, $26-$66.
Somerville Theatre Ellis Paul, 8 pm, $27.50.
Terrace Lounge Fitzsimmons and Price, 5:30 pm; Airtight, 9:30 pm, no cover, 21+.
Tommy Doyles The Josh Dion Band, 9:30 pm, $2, 21+.
Top of the Hub Brian McCree Group, 9 pm, no cover.
T.T. the Bear's Place Sand Machine, the Great Bandini, MeandJoanCollins, Something for Rockets, 9 pm, $8, 18+.
Les Zygomates Hot and Dry, 8 pm, no cover, 21+.

SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 18

Abbey Lounge Carbonite, Voda, Foreign Power, 9 pm, $7.
The Black Rose Downstairs: Sunday's Well, 9:30 pm, $5, 21+.
Bob's Southern Bistro Nat Simpkins and Henri Smith. 10 am, no cover.
Bristol Lounge Dan Greenspan, 11am, no cover; Alfredo Cardim, 6 pm, no cover, 21+.
The Burren Singer Songwriter Series with DanielleM, 8 pm, $5, 21.
Club Passim Susan Levine, 7:30 pm, $10-$12.
Dick's Last Resort Jonno, 7 pm, no cover.
First Act Guitar Studio Chris Buono, 6:30 pm, no cover.
Hennessy's Sweep the Leg, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.
Matt Murphy's The Wild Sextet, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.
Middle East Upstairs: OM, Grails, Jack Rose, 9 pm, $10 advance, $12 doors, 18+.
Mr. Dooley's Colm O'Brien, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.
O'Brien's Clipd Beaks, 9 pm, $8, 21+.
Paddy O's The Gobshites, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.
Palladium Bright Eyes, 6:30 pm, $26.50 in advance; $28 at the door.
Paradise Lounge Dirty Sweet, the Art of Ali, 8 pm, 18+.
Paradise Rock Club Galactic, 7 pm, $20, 18+.
PA's Bill, Bleatbox, Matt Griffin, 9 pm, $6-$8, 21+.
Roxy Café Tacuba, 7:30 pm, $30.
Ryles Jazz Club Rathbun Quartet featuring George Garzone, 7 pm, $12.
TD Banknorth Garden Bruce Springsteen and the E Street Band, 7:30 pm, $65-$95, all ages.
Terrace Lounge Ray Santisi Trio, 11 pm, no cover, 21+.
Toad Miss Tess, the Bon Ton Parade, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.
Top of the Hub Marty Ballou Trio, 8 pm, no cover.
T.T. the Bear's Place Scotland Yard Gospel Choir, Varsity Drag, 9:15 pm, $7, 18+.

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 19

Abbey Lounge Static Dynamic, Johnny Nobody, Skin, 9 pm, $7.
Bristol Lounge Ben Cook, 6 pm, no cover, 21+.
Cantab Lounge Ryan and Ortolani, 9:30 pm, no cover, 21+.
Club Passim Story Lab, 8 pm, $8-$10.
Dick's Last Resort Keith Lewis, 7 pm, no cover.
Harpers Ferry Never Syntax, Henry, 8 pm, $7, 21+.
Hennessy's Joe Carson, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.
Matt Murphy's The Wild Sextet, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.
Midway Café Samba Lolo, 9:30 pm, 21+.
O'Brien's Protokoll, Yoni Gordon and the Goods, Hats and Glasses, Wonderful Spells, 9 pm, $8, 21+.
Paradise Rock Club VHS or Beta, Moving Units, the Information, 7 pm, $12 advance, $14 doors, 18+.
TD Banknorth Garden Bruce Springsteen and the E Street Band, 7:30 pm, $65-$95, all ages.
Top of the Hub Marty Ballou Trio, 8 pm, no cover.
T.T. the Bear's Place Sodafrog, Jeremy Lyons, Monique Ortiz, 8:30 pm, $3, 18+

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 20

Abbey Lounge Love Drive, Brilliant, 9 pm, $7, 21+.
The Black Rose Downstairs: The McTaggart's, 9:30 pm, $5, 21+.
Bristol Lounge Alfredo Cardim, 6 pm, no cover, 21+.
Dick's Last Resort Keith Lewis, 7 pm, no cover.
The Foundation Lounge Torch Tuesdays with Jeanie Flynn and the Strays, 8 pm, no cover, 21+.
Harpers Ferry Worlds Collide, Bad News with Blaquelyte, 8 pm, $7, 21+.
Hennessy's Scott Damgaard, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.
Johnny D's Sean Rowe, 8:30 pm, no cover, 21+.
Lizard Lounge St. Helena, 8 pm, $5, 21+.
O'Brien's Punk Rock Stand Up, 8 pm, $5, 21+.
Toad The Low Anthem, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.
Tommy Doyles Tuesday Acoustic Showcase, 9:30 pm, no cover, 21+.
Top of the Hub Tony Carelli Group, 8:30 pm, no cover.
T.T. the Bear's Place Adrian Emberley & the Urban Anthropologists, American Water, the Make, 8:30 pm, $7, 18+.
Les Zygomates Rusty Scott Solo, 8 pm, no cover, 21+.

Music Venues

Abbey Lounge 3 Beacon St., Somerville (617-441-9631). MBTA: Red Line to Central.
Agganis Arena 925 Comm Ave., Boston (617-353-4628). MBTA: B Green Line to Pleasant.
Alchemist Lounge 435 South Huntington Ave., Jamaica Plain (617-477-5741). MBTA Orange Line to Stony Brook or 39 Bus.
All Asia Café 334 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-497-1544). MBTA: Red Line to Central.
Asgard 350 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-577-9100). MBTA: Red Line to Kendall/MIT.
Atrium The Regal Bostonian Hotel , 20 North St., Boston (617-523-3600). MBTA: Blue or Green Line to Gov. Center.
The Attic 107 Union St., Newton (617-964-6684). MBTA: D Green Line to Newton Centre.
Atwood's Tavern 877 Cambridge St., Cambridge (617-864-2792). MBTA: Red Line to Kendall/MIT or Green Line to Lechmere.
Avalon 15 Lansdowne St., Boston (617-262-2424). MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore.
Axis 13 Lansdowne St., Boston (617-262-2437). MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore.
Berklee Performance Center 136 Mass Ave., Boston (617-747-2261). MBTA: Green Line to Hynes.
Bill's Bar 5½ Lansdowne St., Boston (617-421-9678). MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore.
The Black Horse Tavern Faneuil Hall Marketplace, Boston (617-227-2038). MBTA: Blue or Green Line to Gov. Center.
The Black Rose 160 State St., Boston (617-742-2286). MBTA: Blue or Green Line to Gov. Center.
Bob's Southern Bistro 604 Columbus Ave., Boston (617-536-6204). MBTA: Orange Line to Mass. Ave.
Boston Harbor Hotel 70 Rowes Warf, Boston (617-439-7000). MBTA: Red Line to South Station.
Bravo @ the MFA 465 Huntington Ave., Boston (617-369-3474). MBTA: E Green Line to Museum.
Breezeway 153 Blue Hill Ave., Roxbury (617-541-5400). MBTA: Orange Line to Jackson.
Bristol Lounge 200 Boylston St., Boston (617-351-2052). MBTA: Green Line to Arlington.
The Burren 247 Elm St., Somerville (617-776-6896). MBTA: Red Line to Davis.

Cantab Lounge 738 Mass Ave., Cambridge (617-354-2685). MBTA: Red Line to Central.
Cask 'n Flagon 62 Brookline Ave., Boston (617-536-4840). MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore.
Club Bohemia @ Cantab Lounge 738 Mass Ave., Cambridge (617-354-2685). MBTA: Red Line to Central.
Club Café 209 Columbus Ave., Boston (617-536-0966). MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay.
Club Passim 47 Palmer St., Cambridge (617-492-7679). MBTA: Red Line to Harvard.
Common Ground 85 Harvard Ave., Allston (617-783-2071). MBTA: B Green Line to Harvard.
Copperfield's 98 Brookline Ave., Boston (617-247-8605). MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore.
Dick's Last Resort Faneuil Hall Market Place, Boston (617-267-8080). MBTA: Blue or Green Line to Gov. Center.
The Draft 34 Harvard Ave., Allston (617-783-9400). MBTA: B Green Line to Harvard Ave.
The Enormous Room 567 Mass Ave., Camridge (617-491-5599). MBTA: Red Line to Central.
Felt 533 Washington St., Boston (617-350-5555). MBTA: Red or Orange Line to Downtown Crossing.
Fireplace 1634 Beacon St., Brookline (617-975-1900). MBTA: C Green Line to Washington.
First Act Guitar Studio 745 Boylston St., Boston (617-226-7899). MBTA: Green Line to Copley.
The Foundation Lounge Hotel Commonwealth, Kenmore Square, 500 Comm. Ave., Boston (617-859-9900). MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore.
The Good Life Downtown 28 Kingston St., Boston (617-451-2622). MBTA: Red or Green Line to Park.
Grand Canal 57 Canal St., Boston (617-523-1112). MBTA: Green or Orange Line to North Station.
Great Scott 1222 Comm. Ave., Allston (617-566-9014). MBTA: D Green Line to Longwood.
The Green Briar 304 Washington St., Brighton (617-789-4100).
The Green Dragon Tavern 11 Marshall St., Boston (617-367-0055). MBTA: Green or Orange Line to Haymarket.
Green Street 280 Green St., Cambridge (617-876-1655). MBTA: Red Line to Central.
The Harp 85 Causeway St., Boston (617-742-1010). MBTA: Green or Orange Line to North Station.
Harpers Ferry 158 Brighton Ave., Allston (617-254-9743). MBTA: B Green Line to Harvard Ave.
Hennessy's 25 Union St., Boston (617-742-2121). MBTA: Blue or Green Line to Gov. Center.
High Street Grill 200 High St., Boston (617-523-4000). MBTA: Red or Orange Line to Downtown Crossing.
Johnny D's 17 Holland St., Somerville (617-776-2004). MBTA: Red Line to Davis.
Kendall Café 233 Cardinal Medeiros Ave., Cambridge (617-547-3802). MBTA: Red Line to Kendall/MIT.
Kennedy's Midtown 42 Province St., Boston (617-426-3333). MBTA: Green or Red Line to Park.
Kings 10 Scotia St., Boston (617-266-2695). MBTA: Green Line to Hynes.
Kinsale 2 Center Plaza, Boston (617-742-5577). MBTA: Blue or Green Line to Gov. Center.
Lily Pad 1353 Cambridge St., Cambridge (617-395-1393). MBTA: Red Line to Central.
Lizard Lounge 1667 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-547-0759). MBTA: Red Line to Harvard.
Lucky's Lounge 355 Congress St., Boston (617-357-5825). MBTA: Red Line to South Station.
Matt Murphy's 14 Harvard St., Brookine (617-232-0188). MBTA: D Green Line to Brookline Village.
Middle East 472 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-492-9181). MBTA: Red Line to Central.
Midway Café 3496 Washington St., Jamaica Plain (617-524-9038). MBTA: Orange Line to Green.
Milky Way 403 Centre St., Jamaica Plain (617-524-3740). MBTA: Orange Line to Jackson.
Millennium Bostonian Hotel 26 North St., Boston (617-523-3600). MBTA: Blue or Green Line to Gov. Center.
Mohegan Sun 1 Mohegan Sun Blvd., Uncasville (888-226-7711).
Mr. Dooley's 77 Broad St., Boston (617-338-5656). MBTA: Blue or Green Line to Gov. Center.
Museum of Fine Arts 465 Huntington Ave., Boston (617-267-9300). MBTA: Green Line to MFA.
Oak Bar Fairmont Copley Plaza Hotel, 138 St. James Ave., Boston (617-267-5300). MBTA: Green Line to Copley.
O'Brien's 3 Harvard Ave., Allston (617-782-6245). MBTA: B Green Line to Harvard.
Opera House 539 Washington St., Boston (617-880-2442). MBTA: Green Line to Boylston.
Orpheum Theatre 31 Hamilton Place, Boston (617-679-0810). MBTA: Green Line to Boylston.
Paddy O's 33 Union St., Boston (617-742-2121). MBTA: Green or Orange Line to Haymarket.

The John Butler Trio hangs out at the Orpheum Nov. 11

Palladium 261 Main St., Worcester (508-797-9696).
Paradise Lounge 969 Comm. Ave., Boston (617-562-8800). MBTA: B Green Line to Pleasant.
Paradise Rock Club 969 Comm. Ave., Boston (617-562-8800). MBTA: B Green Line to Pleasant.
Parris Faneuil Hall Marketplace, Boston (617-248-9900). MBTA: Blue or Green Line to Gov. Center.
PA's 345 Somerville Ave., Somerville (617-776-1557). MBTA: Green or Blue Line to Gov. Center.
Plough & Stars 912 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-576-0032). MBTA: Red Line to Central.
Purple Shamrock 1 Union St., Boston (617-227-2060). MBTA: Blue or Orange Line to State.
Regattabar Charles Hotel, Cambridge (617-395-7757). MBTA: Red Line to Harvard.
Revolution Rock Bar 200 High St., Boston (617-261-4200). MBTA: Blue Line to Aquarium.
Roggies 356 Chestnut Hill Ave., Brighton (617-566-1880). MBTA: Green Line to Cleveland Circle.
Roxy 279 Tremont St., Boston (617-338-7699). MBTA: Green Line to Boylston.
Ryles Jazz Club 212 Hampshire St., Cambridge (617-876-9330). MBTA: Red Line to Harvard.
Sander's Theatre 45 Quincy St., Cambridge (617-496-2222). MBTA: Red Line to Harvard.
Scullers Jazz Club 400 Soldiers Field Road, Cambridge (617-562-4111). MBTA: Red Line to Central.
75 Chestnut 75 Chestnt St., Boston (617-227-2175). MBTA: Red Line to Charles/MGH.
Sky Bar 518 Somerville Ave., Somerville (617-623-5223). MBTA: Red Line to Davis.
Somerville Theatre 55 Davis Square, Somerville (617-625-5700). MBTA: Red Line to Davis.
Sweetwater Café 3 Boylston St., Boston (617-351-2515). MBTA: Green Line to Boylston.
Symphony Hall 301 Massachusetts Ave., Boston (617 266-1492). MBTA: Green Line to Symphony.
Taj Boston Street Bar 15 Arlington St., Boston (617-536-5700) MBTA: Green Line to Arlington.
TD Banknorth Garden 100 Legends Way, Boston (617-624-1000). MBTA: Green or Orange Line to North Station.
Terrace Lounge 110 Huntington Ave., Boston (617-236-5800). MBTA: E Green Line to Prudential.
Toad 1912 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-497-4950). MBTA: Red Line to Porter.
Tommy Doyles 96 Winthrop St., Cambridge (617-225-0888). MBTA: Red Line to Harvard.
Top of the Hub Prudential Tower, Boston (617-536-1775). MBTA: E Green Line to Prudential.
Tsongas Arena 300 Martin Luther King Jr. Way, Lowell (617-848-6900). MBTA: Commuter Rail to Lowell.
T.T. the Bear's Place 10 Brookline St., Cambridge (617-492-2327). MBTA: Red Line to Central.
Venezia 20 Ericsson St., Dorchester (617-436-3120). MBTA: Red Line to Ashmont.
The Western Front 343 Western Ave., Cambridge (617-492-7772). MBTA: Red Line to Central.
Wonder Bar 186 Harvard Ave., Boston (617-351-2665). MBTA: B Green Line to Harvard Ave.
ZuZu 472 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-864-3278). MBTA: Red Line to Central.
Les Zygomates 129 South St., Boston (617-542-5108). MBTA: Red Line to South Station.

classical music

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 7

Brandeis University
Slosberg Recital Hall, 415 South St., Waltham (781-736-4200). www.brandeis.edu. MBTA: Commuter Rail to Brandeis. 8 pm. $10; $5, students and seniors. Director Thomas Sauza leads the Brandeis Wind Ensemble in Musica da Banda Portugusa, featuring the music of Manuel M. Canito.

Simon Bolivar Youth Orchestra
Symphony Hall, 301 Mass. Ave., Boston (617-266-1200). www.bso.org. MBTA: E Green Line to Symphony. 8 pm. $20-$100. Gustavo Dudamel conducts this Venezuelan orchestra on its first American tour.

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 8

Berklee Performance Center
136 Mass. Ave., Boston (617-747-2261). www.berkleebpc.com. MBTA: Green Line to Hynes. 8:15 pm. $30; $22, seniors. Brazilian singer and songwriter Rosa Passos performs Brazilian songs.

Boston Symphony Orchestra
Symphony Hall, 301 Mass. Ave., Boston (617-266-1492). www.bso.org. MBTA: E Green Line to Symphony. 8 pm. $29-$103. Conductor James Levine leads the orchestra in Berg's Violin Concerto and Mahler's Symphony No. 9, featuring violinist Christian Tetzlaff.

Community Music Center of Boston
34 Warren Ave., Boston (617-482-7494). www.cmcb.org. 7 pm. Free. French horn player Neil Godwin and pianist Stephen Yenger perform pieces from the Netherlands, Belgium, France and Germany.

Longy School of Music
Edward M. Pickman Concert Hall, 27 Garden St., Cambridge (617-876-0956). www.longy.edu. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 8 pm. Free. Soprano Barbara Quintiliani performs in this Gessner-Schocken Series event.

MIT Chapel
77 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-253-2906). http://mit.edu/mta/www/music/events.html. MBTA: Red Line to Kendall/MIT. 12 pm. Free. The Leonora Quartet performs Randall Thompson's Quartet No. 2 and Dmitri Shostakovich's Quartet No. 3.

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 9

Boston Guitar Project
Third Life Studio, 33 Union Square, Somerville (617-628-0916). www.linguitar.com/bostonguitarproject. MBTA: #87 Bus to Bow St. and Warren Ave. 8 pm. $15. Classical guitarist Steve Lin plays a wide range of European and Latin-American music.

Boston Symphony Orchestra
Symphony Hall, 301 Mass. Ave., Boston (617-266-1492). www.bso.org. MBTA: E Green Line to Symphony. 8 pm. $29-$103. See Nov. 8 Boston Symphony Orchestra listing.

Boston University College of Fine Art
CFA Concert Hall, 855 Comm. Ave., Boston (61 353-3349). www.bu.edu/cfa. MBTA: B Green Lin BU West. 5:30 pm. Free. The Muir String Quart performs Joan Tower's Quartet No. 3, "Incande cent," and Schubert's Quartet in D minor, "Dea and the Maiden."

NEC's Jordan Hall
Jordan Hall, New England Conservatory, 30 Gair borough St., Boston (617-868-5885). www.canta singers.org. MBTA: Green Line to Symphony. 8 p $5-$54. Director David Hoose leads the Canta Singers in a performance of Carl Orff's Carmi Burana.

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 10

The Andover Chamber Music Series
Pawtucket Congregational Church, 15 Ma moth Road, Lowell (978-474-6222). www.ando chambermusic.org. 7:30 pm. $30; $8, students. P formances include Ravel's Sonatine, Jonge Concert a Cinq, Francaix's String Trio and Kir Now and Then.

Boston Symphony Orchestra
Symphony Hall, 301 Mass. Ave., Boston (617-26 1492). www.bso.org. MBTA: E Green Line to Sy phony. 8 pm. $29-$103. See Nov. 8 Boston Sy phony Orchestra listing.

Brandeis University
Slosberg Recital Hall, 415 South St., Waltham (78 736-4200). www.brandeis.edu. MBTA: Commu Rail to Brandeis. 8 pm. $10-$25. The Lydian Stri Quartet performs Astor Piazzolla's Four, for Tan David Rakowski's Disparate Measures and Beethove Quartet in B-flat, Op. 130.

Celebrity Series of Boston
Jordan Hall, New England Conservatory, 30 Gainsb ough St., Boston (617-482-6661). www.celebr series.org. MBTA: E Green Line to Symphony. 8 p $36-$46. Canadian soprano Measha Brueggerg man sings works by Britten, Rorem, Schoenbe Poulenc and Bolcom.

Chameleon Arts Ensemble of Boston
Goethe-Institut, 170 Beacon St., Boston (617-4 8200). www.chameleonarts.org. MBTA: Green L to Copley. 8 pm. $18-$38. The ensemble perfor Derek Bermel's Wanderings, Mozart's Quintet in for Clarinet and Strings, and Leo Ornstein's Pia Quintet.

Lowell House Opera Orchestra
Lowell House Dining Hall, 10 Holyoke Place, Harv University, Cambridge (617-496-2222). www.f harvard.edu. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 8:30 p $15; $10, students. Soprano Sarah Nicholas Pr sings selections from Turandot, La Boheme, To and Il Trovatore.

SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 11

American Classics
Edward M. Pickman Concert Hall, 27 Garden S Cambridge (617-254-1125). www.amclass.org. MBT Red Line to Harvard. 3 pm. $20; $15, studen American Classics opens its 12th season with an Gershwin concert featuring Benjamin Sears a Bradford Conner.

The Andover Chamber Music Series
West Parish Church, 129 Reservation Road, Ando (978-474-6222). www.andoverchambermusic.org pm. $30; $8, students. See Nov. 10 Andover Cha ber Music Series listing.

Celebrity Series of Boston
Sanders Theatre, Harvard University, 45 Quincy S Cambridge (617-482-6661). www.celebrityseries.c MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 3 pm. $40-$48. T African Children's Choir sings African, gospel a modern music.

Church of the Covenant
67 Newbury St., Boston (617-236-4011). ww coroallegro.org. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington pm. $18-$36. The Coro Allegro chorus sings Du flé's Requiem, with performances from orgar Susan DeSelms, bassist Thomas Jones and mez soprano Pamela Dellal.

Isabella Stewart Gardner Museum
280 The Fenway, Boston (617-566-1401). ww gardnermuseum.org. MBTA: E Green Line to M seum. 1:30 pm. $5-$23. The Sunday Concert Ser features Musicians from Marlboro performing wo by Beethoven and Zoltán Kodály.

MIT Wong Auditorium
70 Memorial Drive, Cambridge (617-258-797 www.mithas.org. MBTA: Red Line to Kend MIT. 4 pm. $20; $15, members; $10, students; fr MIT students. Hindustani vocalist Shubhra Gu performs.

Tufts University
Distler Performance Hall, 20 Talbot Ave., Medf (617-627-3679). www.tufts.edu/musiccenter. MBT Red Line to Davis. 3 pm. Free. Conductor Gil Ro

the Tufts Symphony Orchestra in a perfor-
e of American orchestral music by Schumann, n Copland and Charles Ives.

ESDAY, NOVEMBER 13

ton Conservatory of Music
Hall, 8 The Fenway, Boston (617-536-6340).
.bostonconservatory.edu. MBTA: Green Line to
s. 8 pm. $10. Violist Cynthia Phelps performs.

ton Symphony Orchestra
hony Hall, 301 Mass. Ave., Boston (617-266-
). www.bso.org. MBTA: E Green Line to Sym-
. 8 pm. $29-$103. Conductor James Levine
the orchestra in Mahler's Symphony No. 9.

g's Chapel
remont St., Boston (617-277-2155). www.
-chapel.org. MBTA: Red or Green Line to Park.
5 pm. $3. Organist Paul Cienniwa plays Hel-Walcha and JS Bach.

gy School of Music
rd M. Pickman Concert Hall, 27 Garden St., ridge (617-876-0956). www.longy.edu. MBTA:
ine to Harvard. 8 pm. Free. New music ensem-Longitude performs a mix of contemporary ber music.

URSDAY, NOVEMBER 15

ton Symphony Orchestra
hony Hall, 301 Mass. Ave., Boston (617-266-
). www.bso.org. MBTA: E Green Line to Sym-
. 8 pm. $29-$103. Conductor James Levine
the orchestra in Haydn's Symphony No. 104, er's Horn Concerto and Mahler's Symphony
, featuring horn player James Sommerville.

mmunity Music Center of Boston
Warren Ave., Boston (617-482-7494). www.
.org. 7 pm. Free. Trumpeter Geoffrey Shamu uitarist Aaron Larget-Caplan perform classical ish music by Manuel de Falla, Joaquín Rodrigo Astor Piazzolla.

ella Stewart Gardner Museum
The Fenway, Boston (617-566-1401). www.
ermuseum.org. MBTA: Green Line to MFA. 7
5-$23. Jazz at the Gardner features music by Chris Enright Quintet.

Chapel
ass. Ave., Cambridge (617-253-2906). http:// du/mta/www/music/events.html. MBTA: Red to Kendall/MIT. 12 pm. Free. The Quilisma ort presents the recorder-music program La
a, Canons, Fantasias, Fugues and Other Musi-ases.

s University
r Performance Hall, 20 Talbot Ave., Med-
(617-627-3679). www.tufts.edu/musiccenter.
A: Red Line to Davis. 8 pm. Free. The Tufts al Extravaganza features the Tufts Chorale, ber Singers, Kiniwe and special guests the n Children's Chorus, performing music by lio Monteverdi and William Byrd.

DAY, NOVEMBER 16

on Chamber Music Society
Hall, New England Conservatory, 30 Gainsgh St., Boston (617-349-0086). www.boston
ermusic.org. MBTA: E Green Line to Sym-
7:30 pm. $17-$47. Chamber musicians play
t Roussel's Trio for Flute, Viola and Cello, rd Bernstein's Clarinet Sonata and Tchaiy's Piano Trio in A minor.

on Classical Orchestra
il Hall, Faneuil Hall Marketplace, Boston 423-3883). www.bostonclassicalorchestra.org.
A: Blue or Green Line to Gov. Center. 8 pm.
57. Steven Lipsitt conducts works by Edward Gustav Holst and Gerald Finzi, featuring etist Richard Stoltzman.

y School of Music
d M. Pickman Concert Hall, 27 Garden St., ridge (617-876-0956). www.longy.edu. MBTA:
ne to Harvard. 8 pm. Free. Conductor Federico se leads the Longy Chamber Orchestra in Gus-ahler's Adagietto from Symphony No. 5, Felix elssohn's Piano Concerto No. 2 in D minor lozart's Symphony No. 41 in C, featuring pi-Tsai-Lan Chen.

Kresge Auditorium
ass. Ave., Cambridge (617-253-2826). http://
it.edu/arts. MBTA: Red Line to Kendall/MIT.
Free. The Zehetmair String Quartet plays t's String Quartet in G major, Paul Hin-h's String Quartet No. 4 and Schumann's Quartet No. 1.

West Organ Society
West Church, 131 Cambridge St., Boston (617-340). www.oldwestorgansociety.org. MBTA:
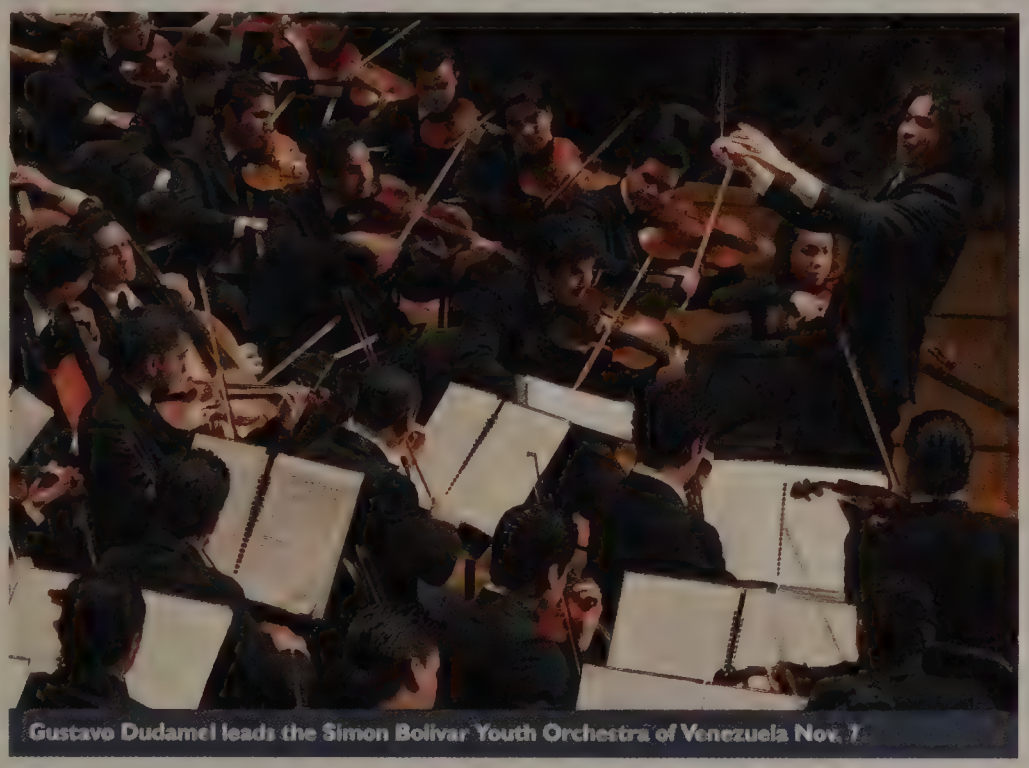
us to Cambridge St. and N. Harvard St. 8 pm.
$10, members; $5, students and seniors. Or-
Lois Regestein performs music by Bach, Jan
Pieterszoon Sweelinck, Johann Krebs, Jean Langlais, Ottorino Respighi, François Couperin and Daniel Pinkham.

St. Andrew's Episcopal Church
79 Denton Road, Wellesley (781-235-7310). www.sapas.org. MBTA: Commuter Rail to Wellesley. 7:30 pm. $20; $10, seniors; $5, students. Guitarists Grigory Goryachev and Steven Link play flamenco and classical music.

World Music
Sanders Theatre, 45 Quincy St., Cambridge (617-876-4275). www.worldmusic.org. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 8 pm. $28-$37. Santoor player Rahul Sharma and tabla player Zakir Hussain perform north Indian classical music.

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 17

American Classics
Follen Community Church, 755 Mass. Ave., Lexington (617-254-1125). www.amclass.org. 7:30 pm. $20; $15, students. See Nov. 11 American Classics listing.



Boston Conservatory of Music
Sanders Theatre, 45 Quincy St., Cambridge (617-912-9240). www.bostonconservatory.edu. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 8 pm. $12; $5, students and seniors. The Boston Conservatory Orchestra performs works by Stravinsky, Max Bruch and Manuel de Falla.

Boston Philharmonic
Jordan Hall, New England Conservatory, 30 Gainsborough St., Boston (617-236-0999). www.bostonphil.org. MBTA: Green Line to Symphony. 8 pm. $29-$76. Conductor Benjamin Zander leads the orchestra in Schubert's "Unfinished" Symphony and Bruckner's Fifth Symphony.

Boston Symphony Orchestra
Symphony Hall, 301 Mass. Ave., Boston (617-266-1492). www.bso.org. MBTA: E Green Line to Symphony. 8 pm. $29-$103. See Nov. 15 Boston Symphony Orchestra listing.

Celebrity Series of Boston
Berklee Performance Center, 136 Mass. Ave., Boston (617-482-6661). www.celebrityseries.org. MBTA: Green Line to Hynes. 8 pm. $30-$48. The Maria Schneider Orchestra performs contemporary jazz.

Celebrity Series of Boston
Tsai Performance Center, Boston University, 855 Comm. Ave., Boston (617-482-6661). www.celebrityseries.org. MBTA: B Green Line to BU East. 12 pm and 2 pm. $25-$30; $17-$22, children. Conductor Rob Kapilow leads soprano Sherry Boone and baritone Jonathan Hays in Camille Saint-Saëns' Carnival of the Animals.

Gustavo Dudamel leads the Simon Bolivar Youth Orchestra of Venezuela Nov. 7

SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 18

Boston Chamber Music Society
Sanders Theatre, 45 Quincy St., Cambridge (617-349-0086). www.bostonchambermusic.org. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 7:30 pm. $17-$47. See Nov. 16 Boston Chamber Music Society listing.

Boston Classical Orchestra
Faneuil Hall, Faneuil Hall Marketplace, Boston (617-423-3883). www.bostonclassicalorchestra.org. MBTA: Blue or Green Line to Gov. Center. 8 pm. $32-$57. See Nov. 16 Boston Classical Orchestra listing.

Boston Philharmonic
Sanders Theatre, 45 Quincy St., Cambridge (617-236-0999). www.bostonphil.org. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 3 pm. $29-$76. See Nov. 17 Boston Philharmonic listing.

Brandeis University
Slosberg Recital Hall, 415 South St., Waltham (781-736-4200). www.brandeis.edu. MBTA: Commuter Rail to Brandeis. $10; $5, students and seniors. •3 pm. The Brandeis Jazz Ensemble performs under the direction of Bob Nieske. •7 pm. The Brandeis-Wellesley Orchestra performs Beethoven's Symphony No. 3, "Eroïca," under conductor Neal Hampton.

Celebrity Series of Boston
Jordan Hall, New England Conservatory, 30 Gainsborough St., Boston (617-482-6661). www.celebrityseries.org. MBTA: E Green Line to Symphony. 3 pm. $45-$55. The St. Lawrence String Quartet, with soprano Heidi Grant Murphy, performs works by Ernest Chausson, Roberto Sierra, Schubert and Beethoven.

Isabella Stewart Gardner Museum
280 The Fenway, Boston (617-566-1401). www.gardnermuseum.org. MBTA: Green Line to MFA. 1:30 pm. $5-$23. This event features the Borromeo String Quartet and the music of Shostakovich.

Longy School of Music
Edward M. Pickman Concert Hall, 27 Garden St., Cambridge (617-876-0956). www.longy.edu. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 2 pm. Free. Pianists in Longy's Preparatory Program present various piano concertos.

MIT Kresge Auditorium
77 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-253-2826). http://web.mit.edu/arts. MBTA: Red Line to Kendall/MIT. 8 pm. Free. William Cutter directs the MIT Chamber Chorus in works by Henry Purcell.

Somerville Museum
One Westwood Road, Somerville (617-666-9810). www.somervillemuseum.org. MBTA: Red Line to Porter. 3 pm. $17; $12, students, seniors and members. Mezzo-soprano Pamela Dellal, Duo Maresienne and violinist William Henriksen perform Daniel Pinkham's Sagas.

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 19

Armenian Library and Museum of America
Contemporary Art Gallery, 65 Main St., Watertown (617-926-2562). www.almainc.org. MBTA: #70 Bus to Main St. and Church St. 8 pm. $10. Pianist Armen Donelian leads the Armen Donelian Trio in traditional Armenian songs, jazz standards and Donelian's original works.

Celebrity Series of Boston
Symphony Hall, 301 Mass. Ave., Boston (617-482-6661). www.celebrityseries.org. MBTA: E Green Line to Symphony. 8 pm. $87-$187. Conductor Sir Simon Rattle leads the Berlin Philharmonic, featuring tenor Ben Heppner and bass-baritone Thomas Quasthoff.

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 20

Boston Symphony Orchestra
Symphony Hall, 301 Mass. Ave., Boston (617-266-1492). www.bso.org. MBTA: E Green Line to Symphony. 8 pm. $29-$103. See Nov. 15 Boston Symphony Orchestra listing.

dance clubs

Advice to Contributors
Submit club listings by fax (617-859-1446), by mail to Calendar/Clubs, or by email to clubs@improper.com. Include day of the week, times, prices, phone numbers and nearest T stop. Deadline is four weeks prior to publication date. Listings not accepted over the phone.

Nights

MONDAYS

An Tua Nua
Ceremony A night of goth and industrial music, 10 pm, $5-$6.

Caprice
Geisha Lounge Resident DJs Tamer and Gregory play chill beats, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

Golden Temple
The E Room DJ Robert Weintraub spins R&B, hip-hop, Motown, pop and acid jazz, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

Green Briar
Irish seissun, 8 pm, no cover, 21+.

Kings
Industry Night 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

Milky Way
DJs and live music, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

Phoenix Landing
Makka Mondays DJ Uppercut spins hip-hop and reggae, 10 pm, $3, 21+.

The Place
Coyote Karaoke Belt out your favorite rock 'n' roll classics, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

River Gods
Weekly Wax Two local DJs go head-to-head in a musical face-off, 8 pm, no cover, 21+.

Saint
SIN Service Industry Night DJ Chris Roxx and DJ Hectik spins house, hip-hop and Top 40, 10 pm-2 am, 21+.

Sissy K's
DJ Littles spins Top 40, 9 pm-2 am, no cover, 21+.

Suite
Static Axis Mondays Gay night with DJ Ranny spinning Top 40 and house, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

TUESDAYS

Aria
Novitá Tuesday Mingle with young professionals while DJs spin club mixes, women free, $5 off at the door with your business card, 10 pm, 21+.

Bell in Hand
Karaoke night, acoustic music, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

Caprice
Industry Tuesdays (Downstairs) DJ Chris Roxx spins Top 40, hip-hop, R&B and dance, 10 pm, $10, 21+.
Brazilian Tuesdays (Upstairs) DJ Alejandro spins Brazilian and house, $10, 21+.

Dbar
DJs Kevin and Ryan play showtunes, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

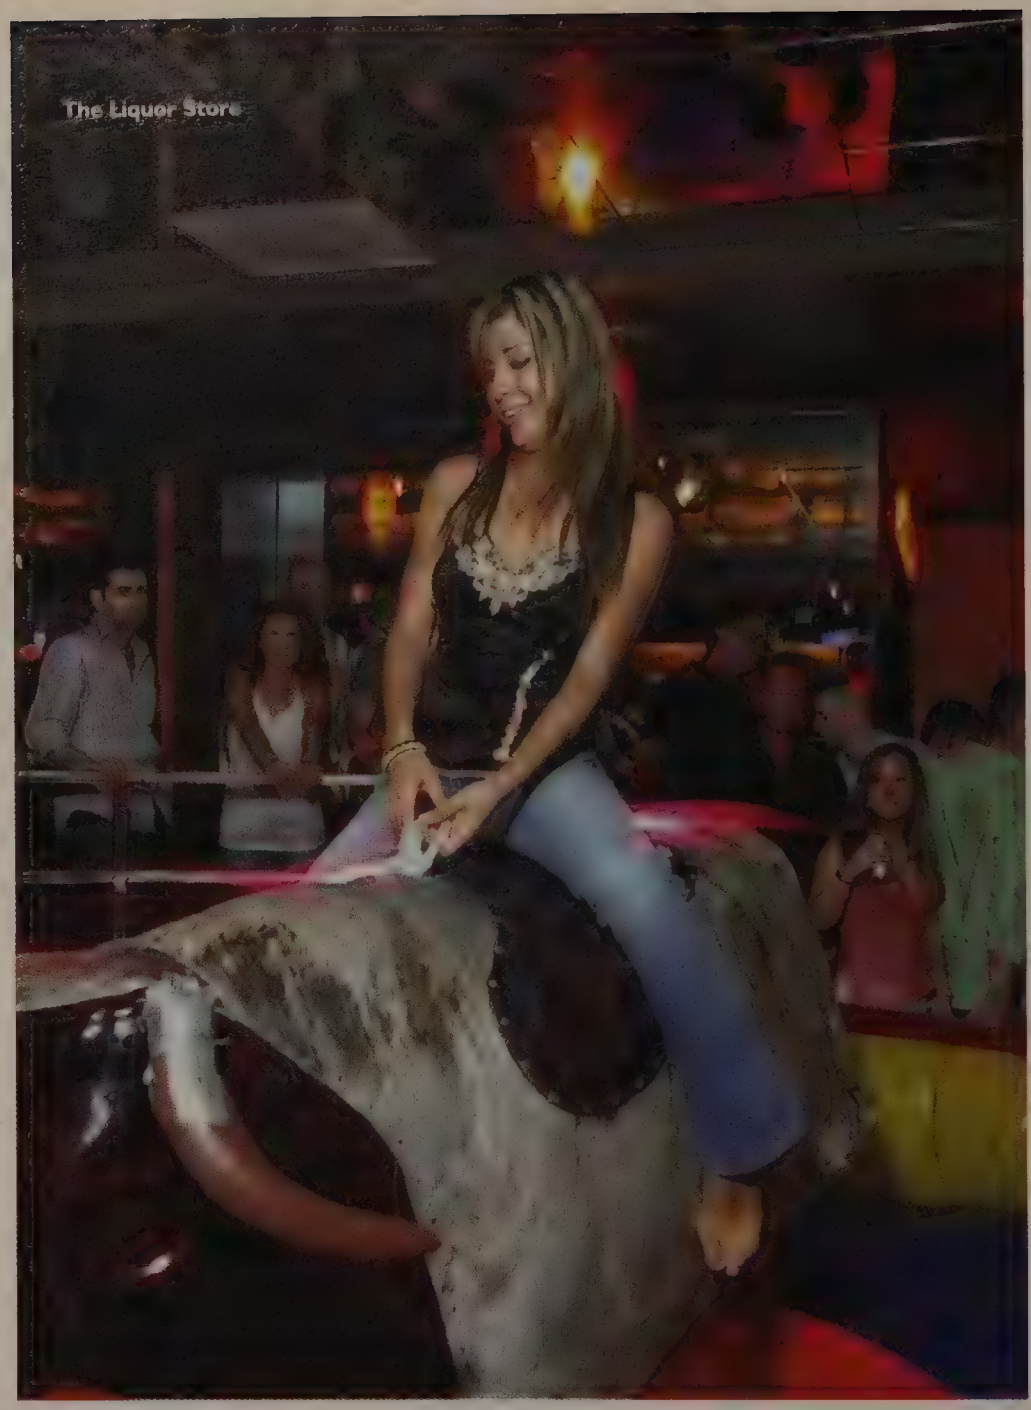
Felt
Cabana Tuesdays DJ D. Martinez spins salsa music for an open dance night, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

The Foundation Lounge
Torch Tuesdays with Jeannie Flynn and The Strays Live '30s, '40s and '50s music, 8 pm, no cover, 21+.

Golden Temple
The E Room DJ Robert Weintraub spins R&B, Motown, pop and acid jazz, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

The Kells
Fat Tuesdays DJ Grasshopper spins Top 40 and pop, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

Kings
College, Ladies and Trivia Night 9 pm, no cover.



Milky Way
All-Star Karaoke Regular karaoke first and third Tuesdays of each month, live-band karaoke second and fourth Tuesdays, 10 pm, up to $3, 21+.

Paradise Lounge
Mashup Tuesdays DJ G-Squared spins hip-hop, rock, '80s and more, 10 pm, $7, 21+.

Phoenix Landing
Take DJ Scott Bliff spins funk, soul and electro '80s, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

The Place
Red Light, Green Light Party DJ E Devious spins Top 40, hip-hop and dance, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

The Purple Shamrock
Terry Brennan sing-along, 9:30 pm, no cover, 21+.

Redline
Ipodapalooza Show off your DJ skills and your best 30-minute playlist, 9 pm-1 am, no cover, 21+.

River Gods
A mix of DJs and music, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

Rumor
DJ Sender and DJ Roger M spin hip-hop and house, 11 pm, $25, $15 on guest list, 21+.

Ryles Dance Hall
Noche Latina Salsa Night DJ Ali and special guest DJs keep you dancing with salsa lessons beginning at 7 pm, $13; 9:30 pm, $8.

Saint
Flaunt Tuesday Gay Mafia hosts while DJ Ranny spins Top 40, 10 pm-2 am, 21+.

Sissy K's
DJ Littles spins Top 40, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

Tabú
Stupid Keith's Karaoke Participate to win $250, 8 pm, 21+.
MYNT International Tuesdays DJ Eddy Lee spins hip-hop and house, 11 pm-2 am, $15, 21+.

Wonder Bar
Industry Night with DJ Ricky Fatts and DJ G-Squared, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

WEDNESDAYS

An Tua Nua
Salsa Night DJs spin salsa music. Includes beginner lessons, 8 pm, $10, 21+.

Caprice
High Voltage Wednesdays DJs Frank White, Dr. Claw and Ms. Thang spin various beats, 10 pm, $5, 21+.

Common Ground
Guitar Hero Battle Duke it out on the big screen, 10:30 pm, no cover, 21+.

Dockside
Karaoke, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

Flat Top Johnny's
DJs spin rock, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

The Foundation Lounge
"Famous" Wednesdays DJs G-Squared and Dek spin mashups, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

Golden Temple
The E Room DJ Robert Weintraub spins R&B, Motown, pop and acid jazz, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

Gypsy Bar
International Wednesdays DJs spin Latin, house, hip-hop and house, 10 pm, $15, 21+.

The Kells
Get Over the Hump Wednesdays DJ Doc spins top 40 dance and hip-hop, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

Kings
Take the stage at open-mike night, 9 pm, no cover.

Milky Way
A variety of DJs and music, 9 pm, $3, 21+.

Phoenix Landing
Return of Techno DJs spin underground dance music, 10 pm-1 am, $5, 19+.

The Purple Shamrock
Karaoke, 9:30 pm, no cover, 21+.

Rain
Oldies but Goodies DJ Russ McQueen spins hits from the '50s, '60s and '70s, 8 pm, no cover, 21+.

Redline
Mood Mosaic DJ Deano Sounds spins boogaloo, basilica, funk and soul, 8:30 pm-12 am, no cover, 21+.

River Gods
Dance to rock, gospel and blues, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

Sissy K's
DJ Nelley Nells spins Top 40, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

Venu
Chaps Latino Night Gay night with DJ Adilson spinning Latin, house, hip-hop and Top 40, 10 pm-2 am, $10, 21+.

Vertigo
Analogue DJs Pete Yagmin, Special Pete, Peter Ellis and Greg Blake spin dance and house, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

Wonder Bar
Live funk, soul and hip-hop, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

THURSDAYS

An Tua Nua
College Night '80s, one-hit wonders, Top 40 and hip-hop, 10 pm, $5, free for students, 21+.

Aria
Sutra Thursdays Various DJs spin Top 40, mas international house and Latin, 10 pm-2 am, $2 on guestlist, women free before 12 am, 21+.

The Avenue
DJ Murray spins '80s music, 9 pm, 21+.

Bell in Hand
Party Music Master spins everything, 10 pm, no 21+.

Boston Rocks
DJs spin Top 40 and hip-hop, no cover, 21+.

Caprice
After Dark Boston DJs Pup Dawg and Brun hip-hop and Hindi music, 10 pm, no cover, 21

Clerys
DJ Rhythm Nights, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

Common Ground
Love Night DJ Brian plays love tunes from th 10:30 pm, $3, 21+.

Felt
True Music Thursdays Live rock, funk and alter performances by local and national bands, 9 p cover, 21+.

The Foundation Lounge
Club XO DJ Moon Lee spins, 10 pm, no 21+.

Golden Temple
The E Room DJ Robert Weintraub spins R&B town, pop and acid jazz, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

Green Briar
DJs spin dance music, 9:30 pm, no cover, 21+.

Jake Ivory's
Karaoke Night, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

Jose McIntyre's
Karyn & Caitlyn Promo Night No cover, 21+.

The Kells
The Fun House DJ Grasshopper spins dance tun hip-hop, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

Kings
Let It Out Karaoke night featuring prizes and aways, 10 pm, no cover.

Mantra
Mantra Thursdays (Upstairs) DJ Naughty spin house and hip-hop, 10 pm, cover varies, 21+.
NYC Vault Thursdays (Downstairs) Guest D hard and vocal house, 11 pm, guest list only, 21

Milky Way
Aquanet Dance Party Old-school hip-hop, '80 and soul, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

Om
DJ Mario spins international beats.

Phoenix Landing
Elements Drum-n-Bass Night DJs Crook, Lenc Mad Dog present drum 'n' bass with special gue pm, $5, 19+.

The Place
DJ Chris Roxx spins Top 40 and dance, 10 p cover, 21+.

The Point
Ladies Night DJs spin dance and hip-hop, 9 am.

The Purple Shamrock
Musician Jim Plunkett and DJ Mike Flanagi pm, $5, 21+.

The Quarter
The Glamorous Life DJ Susan Esthera spins h and Top 40 party music at this gay night, 21+.

Redline
All Star Roulette Six Boston DJs provide the 10 pm-2 am, $5, 21+.

Revolution Rock Bar
Ditch Thursdays DJ Rick Rude spins Top 40, p mashups, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

River Gods
Bullitts and Gravy spin '50s and R&B, 9 pm, n 21+.

Roggies
Karaoke night, 8 pm, no cover, 21+.

Rumor
DJ Roger M and DJJC spin house and Latin, 1 am, $20, $15 on guest list, 21+.

Ryles Dance Hall
Temporada Latina A night of salsa lessons an ing, 8:30 pm-1 am, $8-$12, 21+.

Saint
Mashup Thursdays Guest DJs spin hip-hop, and Top 40, 10 pm, 21+.

Sissy K's
DJ Littles spins Top 40 and dance music ups pm-2 am, $7, 21+.

Tabú
Nightclub: DJ Gee-Spin from JAM'N 94.5 hip-hop, reggae and R&B beats, 10 pm, no 18+. Ultralounge: DJ Guillian spins salsa, me and bachata, 10 pm, $10, women free bef pm, 18+.

Toast
International Brazilian Night 10 pm-1 am, varies.

derbar
orious Thursdays DJ Susan Esthera spins hip-, house, pop and Top 40, 11 pm, $20, $15 on t list, 21+.

tigo
log Thursdays Electronic music, 10 pm, no r, 21+.

nder Bar
d Thursdays DJ Hevan spins hip-hop, R&B and school, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

IDAYS

Tua Nua
, one-hit wonders, Top 40 and hip-hop, 10 pm, 21+.

a ious Fridays DJs NRG and Kutrate Kid spin hop, Top 40 and reggaeton, 10 pm, $5-$10, 21+.

gard
Dave M spins dance and Top 40, 10 pm, no cover,

e Avenue
Murray spins Top 40, 9 pm, $5, 21+.

l in Hand
y Music Master spins everything, 10 pm, $5, 21+.

ston Rocks
y Like a Rockstar Fridays DJ SugaShane spins hop, dancehall, reggaeton and party breaks, 10 2 am, free on guest list until 12 am, 21+.

price
Fridays (Downstairs) DJ Paul Yiotis spins inter- onal and ethnic house, 10 pm, no cover, 19+.
ablanca@Caprice (Upstairs) DJs Tom Bartlett, t Dimond and Sergio Santos spin house, 10 pm, over, 21+.

rys
Rhythm Nights, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

mmon Ground
st DJs spin, 10 pm, 21+.

ogan's
spin dance favorites, 10 pm, cover varies, 21+.

ar
Mike Giller spins Top 40 and house beats, 10 pm- , no cover, 21+.

vlin's
spin dance and hip-hop, 9 pm-1 am, no cover, 21+.

e Estate
urrection Fridays International DJs spin the lat- n house, trance and break-beat music, 10 pm-2 no cover, 21+.

celsior
play jazz and lounge, no cover, 21+.

h-Up Fridays DJ Mike Bose spins Top 40, house, and hip-hop, 10 pm, no cover, 21+. Fourth r: DJ Vinnie of Mashup Mafia spins mashups, dance and rock, 10 pm, 21+.

e Foundation Lounge
ndation Lounge Fridays DJ Mattie D spins, 10 no cover, 21+.

den Temple
E Room DJ Robert Weintraub spins '70s, '80s, and vocal house, 9:30 pm, 21+.

eat Scott
Ken and Michael V spin , 9 pm, $5, 21+.

een Briar
nd live music, 9:30 pm, $5, 21+.

osy Bar
Niso spins Top 40, hip-hop and house, 10 pm, 21+.

e Harp
spin dance mixes upstairs and downstairs, live ds upstairs, 9 pm, $5 before 10 pm, $10 after,

rricane O'Reilly's
Dennis spins Top 40 and dance, 10 pm, no r, 21+.

e Ivory's
ling Rock and Roll Piano Show 8:30 pm, $8,

e McIntyre's
Massi spins Top 40 and hip-hop, 10 pm, $5,

e Kells
es' Night DJ Sender spins Top 40 and hip-hop in main room, DJ Doc spins '80s, '90s and hip-hop nstairs, 10 pm, $6, women free before 12 am,

ior Store
Mario spins Top 40, hip-hop and rock, 9 pm-2 $5, 21+.

ntra
Fridays DJ Lil' Jay spins hip-hop, mashups, and house, 10 pm, $15, $10 on guest list, 21+.

ddlesex Lounge
ous DJs spin soul, funk, down-tempo and hip- no cover, 21+.

cy Way
bands and DJs, 9 pm, cost varies, 21+.

Om
DJ Mike Swells spins house beats.

Parris
DJ Scortch spins Top 40 and hip-hop at 8 pm, live bands at 10 pm, $5 before 9 pm, 21+.

Phoenix Landing
Pretty Young Thing Top 40 with DJ Vinny, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

The Place
VJ Dweb spins a mix of Top 40, pop and hip-hop as TV screens show Boston sports highlights, 9 pm, $5, 21+.

The Point
Rock Reggae Friday takes place downstairs while DJ Obsession oversees the music upstairs, 10 pm-2 am, 21+.

Pure
Pure Fridays Lesbian Night Rotating DJs spin hip-hop and Top 40, 9 pm, $5 before 11 pm, 21+.

The Purple Shamrock
Top 40 with DJ Thom, 10 pm, $5, 21+.

The Quarter
DJs spin rock, hip-hop, mashups, Top 40 and dance beats, 21+.

Rain
KISS 108's DJ Jim spins Top 40 and pop, 10 pm, 21+.

Redline
Friday Alternative DJ Ricky Fatts spins, 8 pm, $5 after 10 pm, 21+.

Revolution Rock Bar
Lettin' Loose Fridays Enjoy afterwork specials and classic rock favorites, 5-8 pm, followed by DJ Silly D, 10 pm-2 am, no cover, 21+.
Future Classic Fridays (Downstairs) DJs Jayceeoh, Dr. Claw and 7L spin old school hip-hop, rock, and reggae, 11 pm, $5, 21+.

River Gods
An eclectic mix of DJs and music, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

Roxy
Latin Fridays DJs spin merengue, salsa, bachata, reggaeton, 10 pm, $10 before 11 pm, $15 after 11 pm, 21+.

Rumor
Fixx Fridays DJ Profenna spins hip-hop, mashups and house, 11 pm, $20, $10 on guest list, 21+.

Ryles Dance Hall
Viernes de Vacilon Latin Dance Party Rotating DJs provide bachata, merengue, reggaeton and salsa music, free before 10 pm, $5 before 11 pm, $10 after, tasteful attire required.

Saint
Heaven Fridays DJs G-Squared and Tanno provide a mix of everything, 10 pm, 21+.

Sissy K's
DJ Brian spins Top 40 and dance music, 9 pm-2 am, $7, 21+.

Suite
DJ NISO Int'l spins mashups, 10:30 pm, $15, $10 reduced, 21+.

Tabú
Flirt Fridays DJ Spitaleri spins hip-hop, reggae and reggaeton, women free before 11 pm, $10 after, $10 for guys 21+, $15 for guys 18+.

Tequila Rain
DJ Mike spins Top 40, hip-hop and rock, 9 pm-2 am, $5, 21+.

33 Restaurant
Studio 33 Fridays DJs spin retro dance mixes, hip-hop, house and Latin, 10 pm-2 am, no cover, 21+.

360 Ultralounge
Get Fresh DJ Babyface spins Top 40, R&B and hip-hop, 10:30 pm, $15, 21+.

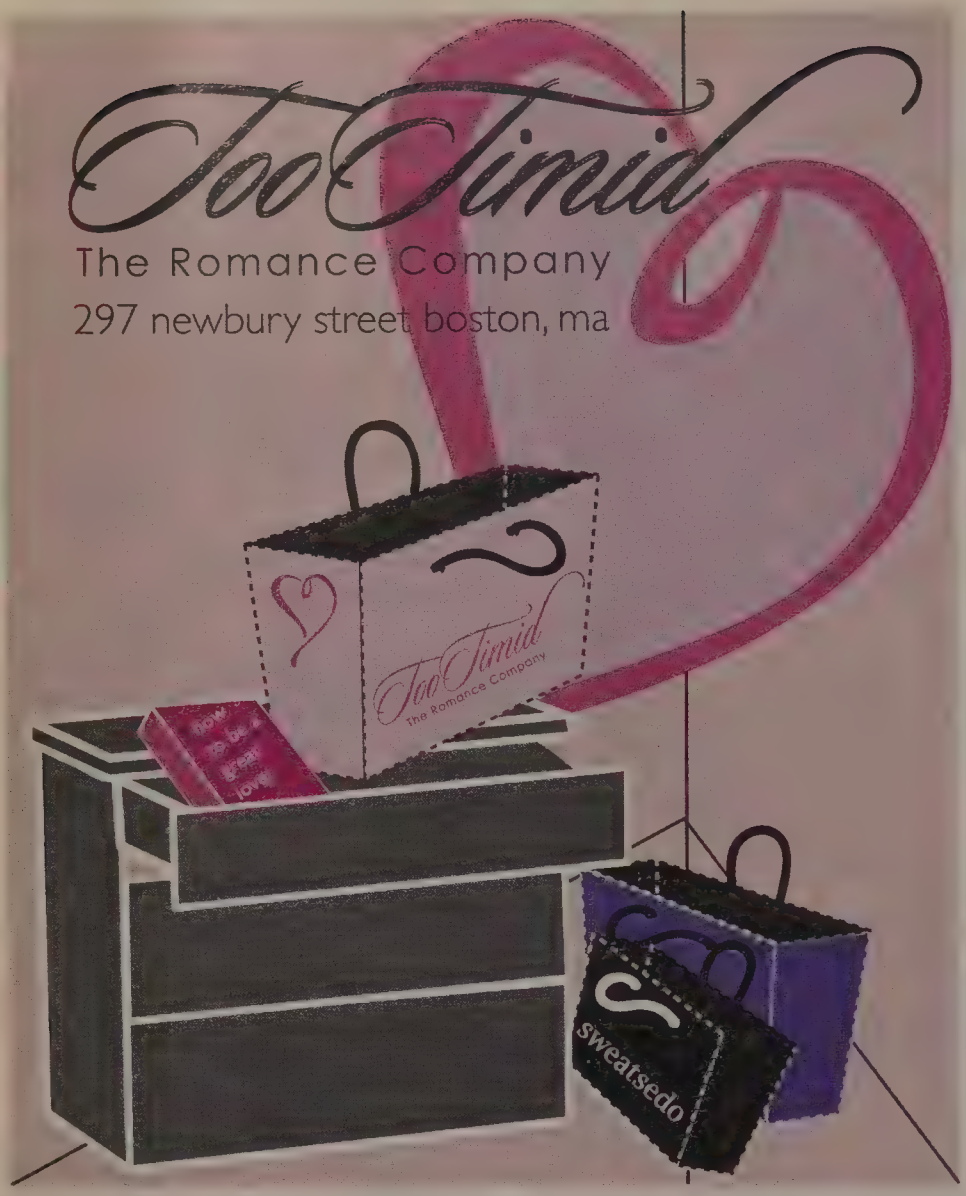
Toast
Dyke Night 9 pm-2 am, $5, 21+.

Underbar
House Music Fridays DJ Franklin spins hip-hop, house and Latin, 11 pm, $20, 21+.

Venu
DJ Roger M spins hip-hop, Latin and house, 11 pm, $20, $15 on guest list, 21+.

Vertigo
Sexy Fridays DJ Killa and DJ Chnyder spin Top 40, hip-hop, R&B, reggae and reggaeton, 10 pm, $15, $10 on reduced list, 21+.

Wonder Bar
DJs Kon and Lazee Boy spin hip-hop, R&B and old-school classics, 10 pm, $5, 21+.



SATURDAYS

An Tua Nua
DJ Howie spins Top 40 and hip-hop, 10 pm, $5, 21+.

Aria
Rockstar Saturdays DJ Pup Dawg spins hip-hop, reggae, reggaeton, rock and house, 10 pm, $20, 21+.

Bell in Hand
Party Music Master spins everything, 10 pm, $10, 21+.

ANNa's
TAQUERIA
Burritos & Tacos To Go!

BOSTON'S BEST 2007 WINNER IMPROPER BOSTONIAN

Burrito

Open Everyday 10 a.m. to 11 p.m.

1412 Beacon Street • Coolidge Corner • 739-7300
446 Harvard Street • Brookline • 277-7111
822 Somerville Avenue • Porter Square • Cambridge • 661-8500
236A Elm Street • Davis Square • Somerville • 666-3900
84 Mass Avenue • MIT Stratton Center • Cambridge • 324-2662

Boston Rocks
Rewind Saturdays DJ Bruno spins Top 40, dance, classic and current rock, hip-hop and old-school, 10 pm, $5, 21+.

Caprice
Saturday International Lounge (Upstairs) DJ Franklin spins international music, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.
Privé Saturdays (Upstairs)DJ Paul Yioti spins euro-house, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

Clerys
DJ Rhythm Nights, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

Common Ground
DJ Hannon spins various beats, 10 pm, 21+.

Coogan's
DJs spin a mix of dance favorites, 10 pm, $5, 21+.

Dbar
DJs Jay Ine and Ted Ellison spin high energy house beats, 10 pm-2 am, no cover, 21+.

Devlin's
DJ Brother Cleve spins a mix of '80s, '90s and current favorites, 9 pm-1 am, no cover, 21+.

Felt
Social Club Saturdays DJ Mike Bose spins Top 40, classic rock, house and hip-hop, 11 pm, $10, 21+.

The Foundation Lounge
DJ Tanno spins Top 40, reggae, house and disco, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

Golden Temple
The E Room DJ John Reed spins music from the '70s, '80s and '90s, as well as Top 40, 9:30 pm, no cover, 21+.

Green Briar
DJs and live music, 9:30 pm, $5, 21+.

Gypsy Bar
DJ Niso spins in the dance room, and DJ Mario spins at the front bar, 10 pm, $10, 21+.

The Harp
DJs spin hottest dance mixes upstairs and downstairs, live bands upstairs, 9 pm, $5 before 10 pm, $10 after, 21+.

Hurricane O'Reilly's
DJ Massi spins hip-hop, house and reggae, 10 pm, no cover, 21+.

Jake Ivory's
Dueling Rock and Roll Piano Show 8:30 pm, $8, 21+.

Jose McIntyre's
DJ Dennis spins Top 40, hip-hop and dance, 9 pm, $5, 21+.

The Kells
DJ Darren spins Top 40, dance and house in the main room, and DJ Grasshopper mixes '80s, '90s and new jams downstairs, 10 pm, $6, 21+.

Liquor Store
DJ Mario spins Top 40 and rock, 9 pm-2 am, $5, 21+.

Mantra
Seductive Saturdays Local DJs spin house, hip-hop and mashups, 10 pm, $20, 21+.

Middlesex Lounge
DJ Kon spins dance and Top 40 hits, 9 pm, no 21+.

Milky Way
Mango's Latin Dance Night DJ Antonio Ortíz merengue, salsa and bachata beats, 9 pm, $5-$1 for women before 10:30 pm, 21+.

Om
DJs spin house music with a global edge.

Parris
DJ Scortch spins Top 40 and hip-hop beats at live bands at 10 pm, $5 before 9 pm, 21+.

Phoenix Landing
Boom Boom Room DJ Vinny spins one-hit wo
New Wave and disco, 10 pm, $4, 21+.

The Place
VJ Dweb spins a mix of Top 40, pop and hip-pm, $5, 21+.

The Point
DJ Obsession provides music upstairs, 9 pm-2 am

Pure
Sensual Saturdays DJ NRG spins hip-hop, old-classics, R&B and dancehall, 10:30 pm, $20, 21

The Purple Shamrock
Top 40 with DJ Thom, 10 pm, $5, 21+.

The Quarter
DJs spin rock, hip-hop and mashups, 10 pm, 21

Rain
KISS 108's Billy Costa hosts as DJ Randy spin
40, house and hip-hop, 10 pm, $10, 21+.

Redline
Soul Shack DJ Inkognito spins disco, soul, fur old-school favorites, and DJ Paul Foley spins last Saturday of the month, 10 pm-2 am, $5, 2

Revolution Rock Bar
Mash Saturdays (Upstairs) Various DJs spin
mashups, rock and hip-hop, 10 pm, 21+.
Revolution Saturdays (Downstairs) DJ Capo
hip-hop, reggae, Top 40 and house, 10 pm, 21+

River Gods
A variety of DJs and music, 9 pm, no cover, 21+

Roxy
Epic Saturdays Gay night with DJs spinning trance and tribal music, 10 pm, $10 before 11:
$15 after, 21+.

Rumor
DJ Tamer K and DJJC spin hip-hop, hous
Latin, 11 pm-2 am, $25, $15 on guest list, 21

Ryles Dance Hall
Four on the Floor Supershag Productions su
Latin, tango and salsa, 10 pm, $15, 21+. Sal swing lessons at 9:15.

Saint
DJ Sender spins hip-hop, house, reggae and ma
10 pm, no cover, 21+.

Sissy K's
Dance Party Saturdays DJ Nelley Nells spins T
9 pm, $7, 21+.

Lounge
Night DJ Azure spins retro rock tunes while ed out in his most stylish '80s gear, 10 pm, no r, 21+.

te
Jamie, Juan de la Luna and Santi spin interna- al house, 11 pm, $10, 21+.

ú
International Night DJ Leandro spins hip-hop and l house, 11 pm, $15, 18+.

uila Rain
Mike spins Top 40, hip-hop and rock, 9 pm-2 am, 21+.

Restaurant
r Saturdays DJs Tasso and Niko G spin Latin, 40, dance, hip-hop and international house , 10 pm-2 am, 21+.

Ultralounge
ohire Saturdays DJs spin hip-hop, Latin, house R&B, 10 pm, $15, 21+.

derbar
ngel Moraes alternates with international house 11 pm, $20, 21+.

u ature Saturdays DJs Hektik and Hevan spin op, R&B and house classics, 10 pm, $25, $15 re- d admission, 21+.

tigo
igo Saturdays DJs Ron Steele, Eight-2 and Nabash spin hip-hop, R&B and reggae, 10 pm, 21+.

st Street Grille
Night Lounge DJs play funk and Top 40 all t, 10:30 pm, $5, 21+.

iskey Bar
xed Saturdays DJs spin hip-hop, R&B, pop and 40, 10:30 pm, $10, 21+.

nder Bar
7L and Braun Johnson spin hip-hop, R&B and chool beats, 10 pm, $5, 21+.

NDAYS

Tua Nua
no/House Night, 10 pm, 21+.

's Bar
gae Sundays Dub Station features a variety of reggae acts, 10 pm $7-$10, 21+.

vlin's
ice Industry Night, 9 pm-1 am, no cover, 21+.

den Temple
E Room DJ John Reed spins music from the '70s, and '90s, as well as Top 40, 9:30 pm, no cover.

en Briar
core, no cover, 21+.

sy Bar
lay T-Dance Gay night with DJ Mary Alice spin- Top 40 and pop, 7 pm, 21+.

cy Way
music, 9 pm, cost varies, 21+.

enix Landing
p An underground house-music night featur- rotating roster of resident DJs, 10 pm, $5,

Place
LaMarsh appears with VJ Leathers, 10 pm,

e
bean Night DJs spin Caribbean music, 9 pm, 21+.

anny Sharp and/or the World Premier Band sup- ld-school funk, Top 40 and dance tunes, $5 on nights, 8 pm, 21+.

er Gods
on Sunday DJs play punk, garage and rock, 10 o cover, 21+.

gies
bean night, 8 pm, no cover, 21+.

s Dance Hall
Sundays An evening of salsa music, dance and 7-11 pm, $10.

t
Sundays Two guest DJs spin a variety of music s Industry Night, 10 pm-2 am, 21+.

y K's
an spins Top 40 and pop, 9 pm, no cover, 21+.

e
ctive Sundays DJs Grec Pic and McCrea spin , techno and trance, 10 pm, $15, 21+.

r 21 Party DJs Spitaleri and Rick Rude spin hip- reggae and reggaeton, 8 pm, $15, 18+.

Ultralounge
i Heat DJ Dru Nyce spins R&B, hip-hop, reggae alsa beats, 10:30 pm, $10, 21+.

igo
Sundays DJs Ozzie and Shorty spin rumba , merengue, reggaeton and bachata, 10 pm, 21+.

Club Venues

An Tua Nua 835 Beacon St., Boston (617-262-2121).
Aria 246 Tremont St., Boston (617-338-7080).
Asgard 350 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-577-9100).
The Avenue 1249 Comm. Ave., Allston (617-782-9508).
Bell in Hand 45-55 Union St., Boston (617-227-2098).
Bill's Bar 5½ Lansdowne St., Boston (617-421-9678).
Boston Rocks 245 Quincy St., Boston (617-726-1110).
Buzz 51 Stuart St., Boston (617-482-3939).
Caprice 275 Tremont St., Boston (617-292-0080).
Clerys 331 Columbus Ave., Boston (617-262-9874).
Common Ground 85 Harvard Ave., Allston (617-783-2071).
Coogan's 173 Milk St., Boston (617-451-7415).
Dbar 1236 Dorchester Ave., Dorchester (617-265-4490).
Devlin's 332 Washington St., Brighton (617-779-8822).
Dockside 183 State St., Boston (617-723-7050).
The Estate 1 Boylston Place, Boston (617-351-7000).
Excelsior 272 Boylston St., Boston (617-426-7878).
Felt 533 Washington St., Boston (617-350-5555).
Flat Top Johnny's 1 Kendall Square, Cambridge (617-494-9565).
The Foundation Lounge 500 Comm. Ave., Boston (617-859-9900).
Golden Temple 1651 Beacon St., Brookline (617-277-9722).
Great Scott 1222 Comm. Ave., Boston (617-566-9014).
Green Briar 304 Washington St., Brighton (617-789-4100).
Gypsy Bar 116 Boylston St., Boston (617-482-7799).
The Harp 85 Causeway St., Boston (617-742-1010).
Hurricane O'Reilly's 150 Canal St., Boston (617-722-0161).
Jake Ivory's 9 Lansdowne St., Boston (617-247-1222).
Jose McIntyre's 160 Milk St., Boston (617-451-9460).
The Kells 161 Brighton Ave., Allston (617-782-9082).
Kings 10 Dalton St., Boston (617-266-2695).
Liquor Store The Alley, Boston (617-357-6800).
Mantra 52 Temple Place, Boston (617-542-8111).
McGann's 197 Portland St., Boston (617-227-4059).
Middlesex Lounge 315 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-868-6739).
Milky Way 403-405 Centre St., Jamaica Plain (617-524-3740).
The Office 5 Broad St., Boston (617-474-7866).
Om 92 Winthrop St., Cambridge (617-576-2800).
Parris Quincy Market Building, Boston (617-248-9900).
Phoenix Landing 512 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-576-6260).
The Place 2 Broad St., Boston (617-523-2081).
The Point 147 Hanover St., Boston (617-523-7020).
Pure 275 Tremont St., Boston (617-542-4077).
The Purple Shamrock 1 Union St., Boston (617-227-2060).
The Quarter 36 Lansdowne St., Boston (617-536-2100).
Rain 665 Broadway, Malden (781-322-2101).
Redline 59 JFK St., Cambridge (617-491-9851).
Revolution Rock Bar 200 High St., Boston (617-261-4200).
River Gods 125 River St., Cambridge (617-576-1881).
Roggies 56 Chestnut Hill Ave., Brighton (617-566-1880).
Roxy 279 Tremont St., Boston (617-338-7699).
Rumor 100 Warrenton St., Boston (617-482-6958).
Ryles Dance Hall 212 Hampshire St., Cambridge (617-876-9300).
Saint 90 Exeter St., Boston (617-236-1134).
Sissy K's 6 Commercial St., Boston (617-248-6511).
6B 6 Beacon St., Boston (617-742-8565).
Suite 1 Boylston Place, Boston (617-512-5311).
Tabú 168 Broadway, Saugus (781-231-5111).
Tequila Rain 3 Lansdowne St., Boston (617-437-0300).
33 Restaurant 33 Stanhope St., Boston (617-572-3311).
360 Lounge 33 Batterymarch St., Boston (617-695-9333).
Toast 70 Union Square, Somerville (617-623-9211).
Umbria 295 Franklin St., Boston (617-338-1000).
Underbar 275 Tremont St., Boston (617-292-7122).
Venu 100 Warrenton St., Boston (617-338-8061).
Vertigo 126 State St., Boston (617-723-7277).
Water Works 333 Victory Road, Quincy (617-689-0600).
West Street Grille 15 West St., Boston (617-423-0300).
Wonder Bar 186 Harvard Ave., Allston (617-351-2665).

museums & galleries

Advice to Contributors
Submit gallery and museum listings by fax (617-859-1446) or mail to Calendar: Museums/Galleries, or e-mail arts@improper.com. Include dates, nearest T stop and phone number. Deadline is four weeks prior to publication. Listings cannot be accepted over the phone.

Museums

Armenian Library & Museum of America
65 Main St., Watertown (617-926-2562). www.almainc.org. MBTA: #71 Bus to Watertown. Thu., 6-9 pm; Fri. and Sun., 1-5 pm; Sat., 10 am-2 pm. •Genatsed features mixed-media works looking at Armenia's history of viticulture and wine production. Through January 2008. •Highlights From the Collection features a wide range of mixed-media works. Ongoing. •When You Wish Upon a Tree features multimedia works by Helena Bebirian. Through Nov. 22.

Arthur M. Sackler Museum
485 Broadway, Cambridge (617-495-9400). www.artmuseums.harvard.edu. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. Mon.-Sat., 10 am-5 pm; Sun., 1-5 pm. $9; $7, seniors; $6, students; free, under 18; free, Sat. until 12 pm and every day after 4:30 pm. •Gods in Color: Painted Sculpture of Classical Antiquity features full-size replicas of Greek and Roman sculptures. Through Jan. 20, 2008. •Downtime features four contemporary Chinese paintings, displayed with the ceramics in the Asian gallery. Through Jan. 27, 2008. •A Tradition Redefined: Modern and Contemporary Chinese Ink Paintings From the Chu-tsing Li Collection features more than 60 works dated 1950-2000 from the art historian's collection. Through Jan. 27, 2008. •On the Path of Madness: Representations of Majnun in Persian, Turkish, and Indian Painting details the romance of Majnun and Layla. Through Feb. 10, 2008. •Overlapping Realms: Arts of the Islamic World and India, 900-1900 explores themes of commonality, continuity and diversity, featuring ceramics and metalwork by southern European and South Asian artists. Through spring 2008. •Alexander's Image and the Beginning of Greek Portraiture showcases ancient coins depicting Alexander the Great and his successors. Ongoing. •The Art of Ancient Rome features funerary art and stone masterpieces depicting daily life, public entertainment and leaders of Ancient Rome. Ongoing.

Bostonian Society Old State House Museum
206 Washington St., Boston (617-720-1713). www.bostonhistory.org. MBTA: Blue or Orange Line to State. Daily, 9 am-6 pm. $5; $4, students and seniors; $1, ages 6-18. •The Boston Massacre: A Sound and Light Show explains how a snowball fight escalated into a deadly riot prior to the American Revolution. Ongoing. •Every Picture Tells a Story is a collection of historic photographs of Boston-area places, events and people. Ongoing. •From Colony to Commonwealth presents 150 artifacts and images documenting Boston's fight for independence from England and Massachusetts' establishment as a state. Ongoing. •The Old State House: A Hands-On History features multimedia interpretations of the old Massachusetts capitol. Ongoing. •Our Favorite Things features historical artifacts from the museum's collection. Ongoing. •Preservation of the Old State House displays architectural plans of the building and details the preservation and restoration process from 1881 to 1991. Ongoing. •Treasures From the Bostonian Society's Collections features marine paintings and harbor views from Boston's maritime history. Ongoing.

Davis Museum and Cultural Center
Wellesley College, 106 Central St., Wellesley (781-283-2051). www.davismuseum.wellesley.edu. MBTA: Commuter Rail to Wellesley. Tue., Thu., Fri. and Sat., 11 am-5 pm; Wed., 11 am-8 pm; Sun., 12-4 pm. Free. •Don't Look features drawings from the collection of Martina Yamin. Through Dec. 9. •Global Feminisms features mixed-media works by 60 women artists that explore the influence of feminist thought. Through Dec. 9.

DeCordova Museum and Sculpture Park
51 Sandy Pond Road, Lincoln (781-259-8355). www.decordova.org. MBTA: Commuter Rail to Lincoln. Tue.-Sun., 11 am-5 pm. $9; $6, students and seniors; free, ages 5 and under. •New Arrivals: Gifts to the Permanent Collection features mixed-media works recently donated to the museum. Through Jan. 13, 2008. •Ricardo Barros: Facing Sculpture features black-and-white photographs of contemporary sculptors by Barros. Through Jan. 13, 2008. •Trainscape: Installation Art for Model Railroads features an operational model railway that traverses miniature landscapes created by 12 local artists. Through Jan. 13, 2008. •Approaches to Narrative highlights work from the DeCordova's permanent collection. •Beauty and Decay: Photographs of Flowers features photographs from the museum's permanent collection. Through March 2008. •Nina Levy's outdoor sculptures "Headlong" and "Big Baby" greet visitors as they enter the museum's roof-top terrace. Ongoing.

William Wegman's "Rolleramer" is displayed at the Griffin Museum of Photography beginning Nov. 8.

Fogg Art Museum/ Busch-Reisinger Museum
32 Quincy St., Cambridge (617-495-9400). www.artmuseums.harvard.edu. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. Mon.-Sat., 10 am-5 pm; Sun., 1-5 pm. $9; $7, seniors; $6, students; free, under 18; free, Sat. until 12 pm and every day after 4:30 pm. •Kara Walker: Harper's Pictorial History of the Civil War features lithographs and screen prints of Civil War images. Through Nov. 11. •Making Myth Modern: Primordial Themes in German 20th-Century Sculpture features sculptures by Franz von Stuck, Renée Sintenis, Max Beckmann, Gerhard Marcks and others. Through Dec. 30. •Paintings by Max Beckmann From the Pinakothek der Moderne, Munich features three major paintings by Beckmann over three decades. Through Jan. 6, 2008. •Contemporary Art From the Harvard University Art Museums Collections features mixed-media works by Ellen Gallagher, Edward Ruscha, Rudolf Stingel and others. Through Feb. 10, 2008. •Gian Lorenzo Bernini: Sketches in Clay displays 15 of Bernini's terracotta sculptures. Ongoing. •Investigating the Renaissance features early Italian Renaissance painting. Ongoing. •17th-Century French Painting and Sculpture features works of portraiture by Nicolas Régnier and Pierre Mignard. Ongoing. •Modern Art, 1865-1965 presents sculptures and paintings by Matisse, Miró and Rodin, among others. Ongoing.

French Library and Cultural Center
53 Marlborough St., Boston (617-912-0400). www.frenchlib.org. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Mon.-Thu., 10 am-8 pm; Fri. and Sat., 10 am-5 pm. Free. Témoignages de Nature features landscape paintings by Michelle Lavallée Berti. Through Jan. 2, 2008.

Harvard Museum of Natural History
26 Oxford St., Cambridge (617-495-3045). www.hmnh.harvard.edu. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. Daily, 9 am-5 pm. $9; $7, students and seniors; $6, ages 3-18; free, children under 3; free to Mass. residents, Sun. until 12 pm. •Nests & Eggs features mixed-media displays of eggs. Through March 2008. •Looking at Animals features photographs of land and sea creatures by Henry Horenstein. Through June 2008. •Arthropods: Creatures That Rule features fossils, preserved specimens, video presentations and color photographs of hundreds of arthropods. Ongoing. •Climate Change: Our Global Experiment uses computer simulations to explore scientific studies of climate change. Ongoing. •Dodos, Trilobites and Meteorites: Treasures of Nature and Science at Harvard documents more than 200 years of scientific exploration. Ongoing. •The Ware Collection of Glass Flowers by Leopold and Rudolph Blaschka features glass models of more than 830 plant species. Ongoing.

Institute of Contemporary Art
100 Northern Ave., Boston (617-478-3169). www.icaboston.org. MBTA: Red Line to South Station. Tue., Wed., Sat. and Sun., 10 am-5 pm; Thu. and Fri., 10 am-9 pm. $12; $10, students and seniors; free, children under 17 and ICA members; free, Thu. after 5 pm. •Bourgeois in Boston displays the stages of Louise Bourgeois' career through her sculptures, prints and drawings. Through March 2, 2008. •Accumulations: More Than the Sum of Their Parts features mixed-media works that assemble multiple parts by artists Ambreen Butt, Paul Chan, Tara Donovan, and more. Through July 13, 2008. •Design Life Now: National Design Triennial highlights the most innovative design over the past three years through architecture, film, graphics and so much more. Through Jan. 6, 2008. •The permanent collection features 21st-century works by Kai Althoff, Paul Chan, Taylor Davis, Marlene Dumas, Nan Goldin and others.

Isabella Stewart Gardner Museum
280 The Fenway, Boston (617-566-1401). www.gardnermuseum.org. MBTA: E Green Line to Museum. Tue.-Sun., 11 am-5 pm. $12; $10, seniors; $5, students; free for children under 18 and all visitors named Isabella; $2 off with same-day Museum of Fine Arts admission. •The permanent collection features more than 2,500 paintings, sculptures, tapestries, manuscripts, rare books and decorative pieces by artists including Rembrandt, Michelangelo, Botticelli and Degas.

Mary Baker Eddy Library
200 Mass. Ave., Boston (617-450-7000). www.marybakereddylibrary.org. MBTA: Green Line to Hynes. Tue.-Sun., 10 am-4 pm. $6; $4, seniors, students and children ages 6-17; free, ages 5 and under. •Hall of Ideas celebrates the ideas that have inspired human beings throughout history with glass and bronze sculptures and digital media. The exhibition features works by Ben Tré and David Small. Ongoing. •The Historic Bible Collection showcases rare Bibles in the reference room. Ongoing. •The Mapparium: An Inside View features public documents, artifacts and letters created during the exhibition's construction. Ongoing. •Sensational Press: Radical Response examines the influence of the Christian Science Monitor over the past century. Ongoing. •Verse-Maker: Poetry and Mary Baker Eddy displays the influence of poetry on Mary Baker Eddy's writings. Ongoing. •Quest Gallery features mixed-media works examining life's age-old questions and includes writings by Mary Baker Eddy. Ongoing.

McMullen Museum of Art
Boston College, Devlin Hall, 140 Comm. Ave., Chestnut Hill (617-552-8100). www.bc.edu/artmuseum. MBTA: B Green Line to Boston College. Mon-Fri., 11 am-4 pm; Sat. and Sun., 12-5 pm. Pollack Matters features mixed-media works by Jackson Pollack and photographer Herbert Matter. Through Dec. 9.

MIT List Visual Arts Center
20 Ames St., Cambridge (617-253-4680). http://web.mit.edu/lvac. MBTA: Red Line to Kendall/MIT. Tue.-Thu., 12-6 pm, Fri., 12-8 pm, Sat. and Sun., 12-6 pm. Free. •Sounding the Subject: Selections from the Pamela and Richard Kramlich Collection and the New Art Trust features the use of sound, voice and live performances by Eija-Liisa Ahtila, Stan Douglas, David Hammons, Nam June Paik and Pipilotti Rist. Through Dec. 30. •Video Trajectories features videos created from the 1960s to the early 2000s by more than 20 artists including Marina Abramovic, Vito Acconci, Doug Aitkin and others. Through December. •The Mark Epstein In[no]vation Gallery features MIT and the Sea: Pione[ering] Ocean Exploration, Claude Shannon's Inge[nious] Machines, Hybrid Illusions by Dr. Aude Oliv[a] other avant-garde exhibits. Ongoing.

MIT Museum
265 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-253-44[77]) http://web.mit.edu/museum. MBTA: Red Lin[e to] Kendall/MIT. Tue.-Fri., 10 am-5 pm; Sat. and S[un.] 12-5 pm. $5; $2, students and seniors; free, chi[ldren] under 5. •MIT Professor Jerry Milgrim: An Excep[tional] Ocean Engineer celebrates the career of the lon[g] serving professor of ocean engineering at MIT [with] artifacts of his accomplishments. Through Fe[b.] 2008. •Deep Frontiers: Ocean Engineering at MIT [ex]plays technology developed for the preservatio[n of] our oceans. Ongoing. •Flashes of Inspiration: [The] Work of Harold Edgerton showcases multimedia [art] commemorating the life of Harold Edgerton. O[n-go]ing. •Gestural Engineering: The Sculpture of A[nn] Ganson displays kinetic sculptures by Ganson. C[on-go]ing. •Holography: The Light Fantastic exhibit[s] holograms from the museum's extensive collectio[n by] artists including Margaret Benyon and Setsuko [Ito]. Ongoing. •Mind and Hand: The Making of MIT [Sci]entists and Engineers portrays the life of an MIT [stu]dent through mixed media. Ongoing. •Robots an[d Be]yond: Exploring Artificial Intelligence at MIT fea[tures] multimedia work focusing on studies exploring [arti]cial intelligence. Ongoing.

Museum of African-American Histo[ry]
46 Joy St., Boston (617-725-0022). www.af[rcr]museum.org. MBTA: Green or Red Line to [Park] Mon.-Sat., 10 am-4 pm. Free. A Gathering Pla[ce] Freedom showcases more than 100 books, drav[ings] and other documents from African-American[s in] tory. Through December.

Museum of Fine Arts
465 Huntington Ave., Boston (617-267-9[300]) www.mfa.org. MBTA: E Green Line to Mus[eum] Wed.-Fri., 10 am-9:45 pm; Sat.-Tue., 10 am-4:4[5] $17; $15, seniors; $8.50, children ages 7-17 d[uring] school hours; free, children 17 and under all other t[imes] admission by voluntary contribution, Wed., 4-9:4[5] •Drama and Desire: Japanese Paintings From the I[mag]ing World, 1690-1850 depicts the daily activit[ies] Tokyo's inhabitants at the time through woodb[lock] prints and paintings by Harunobu, Utamaro [and] Hokusai. Through Dec. 16. •Winslow Homer [at] MFA features paintings from the permanent co[llec]tion. Through December. •Shy Boy, She Devi[l]: Isis: The Art of Conceptual Craft, Selections Fro[m the] Wornick Collection features a variety of mixed-m[edia] works by 107 artists from 20 countries. Through [Jan.] 6, 2008. •Arts of Japan: The John C. Weber Coll[ection] features Japanese mixed-media works from the [8th] to the 20th century. Through Jan. 13, 2008. •G[old] ing Gold: Illumination in Islamic Art features ill[umi]nated Koran passages by Gilhas Diptas and [other] artists. Through Jan. 27, 2008. •Symbols of P[ower:] Napoleon and the Art of the Empire Style, 1800-[1830] features 185 objects including paintings, sculpt[ure,] furniture, jewelry, musical instruments, fire[arms,] clocks and porcelains from the Napoleonic Em[pire.] Through Jan. 27, 2008. •Contemporary Outlook: [Ger]man Photography features works by Bernd and [Hilla] Becher, Andreas Gursky and Thomas Ruff. Thr[ough] Feb. 2008. •Ed Rossbach Fiber Art From the D[aphne] Farago Collection features more than 40 textile [works] by Rossbach. Through March 5, 2008. •Jewe[lry] Artists: The Daphne Farago Collection features cor[tem]porary craft jewelry by Sam Kramer, Man Ray, [Pablo] Picasso and others. Through March 5, 2008. •[Re]sounding Ragas: Paintings and Musical Memory in [Mug]hal features Indian paintings that depict music an[d the] modes of raga that they evoke. Through Apr[il] 2008. •Drawing: A Broader Definition featur[es] drawings on a variety of surfaces produced from [3000] BC to the 1950s. Through May 4, 2008. •RSVI[P:] Lambie features sculptural installations using m[ater]als found in his studio. Nov. 10-May 25, [2008]. •Sumo, Japan's Big Sport features woodblock pri[nts] legendary sumo wrestlers. Nov. 10-Aug. 3, 2008.

Museum of Science
Science Park, Boston (617-723-2500). www[.mos.]org. MBTA: D Green Line to Science Park. Sun.-[Thu.] 9 am-7 pm; Fri. and Sat., 9 am-9 pm. $16; $1[4 se]niors; $13, children ages 3-11. •Weems Animal S[cul]tures features bronze animal sculptures donat[ed by] Katharine Lane Weems. Ongoing. •Earth: [The] Out features displays portraying the Earth's int[erior.] Ongoing. •Welcome to the Universe educates vi[sitors] about the universe and displays a scaled model [of the] solar system. Ongoing. •WeatherWise, a perma[nent] exhibition, presents the techniques of short-[term] forecasting.

National Heritage Museum
33 Marrett Road, Lexington (781-861-6559). [www.]monh.org. Mon.-Sat., 10 am-5 pm; Sun., 12-[5]

. •Unlocking the Code: Masonic and Fraternal ons features a selection of aprons from the collec- of the Grand Lodge of Masons in Massachusetts, uding pieces from around the world over the past centuries. Through Dec. 9. •Fins, Wings and er Such Things features photos from the polaroid ection with works by international and local tographers including Ansel Adams. Through 10. •Raymond Loewy: Designs for a Consumer ure features consumer design innovations from 20th century. Through March 23, 2008. •Sowing Seeds of Liberty: Lexington and the American Revo- n uses mixed media to discuss the battle at Lex- on. Ongoing. •American Family Treasures: Deco- e Arts from the DJ and Alice Shumway Nadeau ection features crafted furniture, metal work, glass other objects. Ongoing.

abody Essex Museum

India Square, Salem (978-745-9500). www. .org. Daily, 10 am-5 pm. $9, $11, seniors; $9, stu- s; free to children under 16 and residents of Salem. etched at Sea features sketchbooks used by iners to document their experiences at sea. ough Jan. 6, 2008. •Accidental Mysteries features age snapshots with double exposure or other room mistakes from the John and Teenuh Foster ection. Through Jan. 27, 2008. •Gateway Bom- features paintings, works on paper, photographs a mixed-media installation by Chriodeep udhuri, Bal Chhabda, Atul Dodiya and others. ough Dec. 7, 2008. •Samuel McIntire, Carving an rican Style features more than 200 works from famed architecture including furniture, draw- , freestanding sculptures and architecture. ough Feb. 24, 2008. •Origami Now! features ami works by artists from around the d.Through June 8, 2008.•Perfect Imbalance: Ex- ng Chinese Aesthetics features 30 Chinese arti- , including paintings, jade and porcelain, which onstrate the distinctive culture of China. ough May 17, 2009. •All of My Life features s exploring nine contemporary Native Ameri- artists' world views. Featured artists include id Bradley, Truman Lowe and Mateo Romero. oing. •Intersections, Native American Art in a Light examines Native American artwork from 7th century to the present in ceramics, textiles, drawings and more. Ongoing. •Of Gods and Mortals: Traditional Art From India showcases works from the 1800s to the present. Ongoing.

Peabody Museum of Archaeology and Ethnology

11 Divinity Ave., Cambridge (617-496-1027). www. peabody.harvard.edu. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. Daily, 9 am-5 pm. $9; $7, seniors and students; $6, ages 3-18; free, children under 3. •Imazighen! Beauty and Artisanship in Berber Life features 20th-century artifacts made by the North African Berbers. Through November. •The Moche of Ancient Peru: Media and Messages features more than 100 pieces including ceramics, textiles and photographs. Through November. •From Nation to Nation: Examining Lewis and Clark's Indian Collection features 38 Native American artifacts from the early 18th century. Through June 2008. •The exhibition Feeding the Ancestors: Tlingit Carved Horn Spoons displays spoons made by the Tlingit people of North America during the 1800s. Through March 2008. •Change and Continuity portrays Native American culture through objects from the 19th century. Ongoing. •Encounters With the Americas examines Native American culture before and after the arrival of Christopher Columbus in 1492. Ongoing.

Rose Art Museum

Brandeis University, Kniznick Gallery, 415 South St., Waltham (781-736-3434). www.brandeis.edu/rose. MBTA: Commuter Rail to Brandeis/Roberts. Tue.-Sun. 12-5 pm. •Tiger by the Tail! Women Artists of India Transforming Culture features mixed-media installations by 17 Indian women artists. Through Dec. 14. •Logjam features 12 installations by Tom Sachs. Through Dec. 16. •Spiraling Inward features paintings and drawings exploring the boundaries of art and science by Steve Miller. Through Dec. 16.

Special Events

Brickbottom District Open Studios

Joy Street Studios and Brickbottom Artists Building, Somerville (617-776-3410). www.brickbottomartists. com. MBTA: Green Line to Lechmere. Nov. 17 and 18, 12-6 pm. Free. This annual event highlights the work of nearly 125 visual artists in two Somerville locations.

A Conversation with Glenn Ligon
Arthur M. Sackler Museum, 485 Broadway St., Cambridge (617-495-9400). www.artmuseums.harvard.edu. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. Nov. 13, 6 pm. Free. Mixed-media artist Glenn Ligon discusses his work, which explores race, sexuality and identity.

Czech Modernist Photography
Busch-Reisinger Museum, 32 Quincy St., Cambridge (617-495-9400). www.artmuseums.harvard.edu. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. Nov. 17, 11:30 am. Free. This seminar presents vintage photographs by Jaroslav Rössler.

11th Annual Boston International Fine Art Show Gala
The Cyclorama, Boston Center for the Arts, 539 Tremont St., Boston (617-266-1200). www.bso.org/bifas. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Nov. 15, 5:30 pm. $250, VIP reception; $100, gala. Enjoy fine food, wine, music, and first choice of an array of traditional and contemporary fine art from 40 galleries. Proceeds benefit the Boston Symphony Orchestra.

An Evening with Illustrators
The Institute of Contemporary Art, 100 Northern Ave., Boston (617-478-3100). www.bso.icaboston.org. MBTA: Silver Line to World Trade Center. Nov. 14. 6:30 pm. $25, general admission; $20, members, seniors and students. Maira Kalman and Roz Chast, illustrators for The New Yorker, present and discuss their works.

Gods in Color
Arthur M. Sackler Museum, 485 Broadway St., Cambridge (617-495-9400). www.artmuseums.harvard.edu. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. Nov. 8, 12:15 pm. $9, adults; $7, seniors; $6, students; free, Harvard students and members. Susan Ebbinghaus, curator of ancient art, speaks about such works. Following her talk, participants look at a medieval sculpture with Stephan Wolohojian, curator of painting, sculpture and decorative arts.

Illuminations Auction
Massachusetts General Hospital, Yawkey Center for Outpatient Care, 55 Fruit St., Boston (617-726-4808). www.massgeneral.org. MBTA: Red Line to Charles/MGH. Nov. 7, 5:30 pm. The Massachusetts General Hospital Cancer Center's auction features multimedia works from various artists, and highlights the work of Michele Renée Ledoux. Through January 2008.

Donald Kuspit Lecture
Linda K. Paresky Center, 300 The Fenway, Boston (617-521-2268). www.simmons.edu/trustman. MBTA: D Green Line to Fenway. Free. Nov. 15, 7 pm. Art critic Donald Kuspit's presents "The Ethics of Transgression: Is It Still Possible?," his lecture about issues in contemporary art provoked by the three-exhibition series Spinning Straw Into Gold: The Ethics of Production.

Manifestations: Some Thoughts on the Work of Felix Gonzalez-Torres Carpenter Center for the Visual Arts, 24 Quincy St., Cambridge (617-496-6617). www.ves.fas.harvard.edu. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. Nov. 8, 6 pm. Free. Miwon Kwon, founding editor of the art journal Documents, shares her thoughts on the work of Cuban sculptor and installation artist Felix Gonzalez-Torres.

Sign of the Dove
1971 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-491-3505). www.signofthedoveco-op.com. MBTA: Red Line to Porter. Nov. 9-Dec. 24. Mon.-Sat., 10 am-7 pm; Sun., 12-5 pm. Free. The Sign of the Dove is a 36-year-old New England cooperative composed of more than 50 artists and craftspeople, who sell their pieces as holiday gifts and discuss their work.

"The Reader" is on display at the Boston International Fine Art Show Nov. 15–18

Galleries

FINE ART

Acme Fine Art
38 Newbury St., Boston (617-585-9551). www.acmefineart.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Tue.-Sat., 11 am-5:30 pm. Maine Modern II features mid-19th-century paintings by Michael Loew, William Kienbusch, Dorothy Eisner and others. Through Nov. 24.

Adams Gallery
Suffolk University Law School, 120 Tremont St., Boston (617-305-1782). www.suffolk.edu/adams_gallery. MBTA: Red or Green Line to Park. Daily, 9 am-7 pm. From Dairy to Doorstep: Milk Delivery in New England, 1860-1960 features photographs, advertisements and artifacts chronicling a century of the profession. Through Jan. 20, 2008.

Allston Skirt Gallery
65 Thayer Ave., Boston (617-482-3652). www.allstonskirt.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. Wed.-Sat., 11 am-5 pm and by appointment. •Alexia Stamatiou: Giving Up the Ghost features gouache and ink-on-paper works by the artist. Through Dec. 1. •Heather Hobler: Sure Sign of Life features ink-on-mylar and ink-on-vellum works by the artist. Through Dec. 1.

Alpha Gallery
38 Newbury St., Boston (617-536-4465). www.alphagallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Tue.-Fri., 10 am-5:30 pm; Sat., 11 am-5:30 pm. Milton Avery and the Sea displays sketches, oil paintings and watercolors by the artist.

Arden Gallery
129 Newbury St., Boston (617-247-0610). www.ardengallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Mon.-Sat., 11 am-5:30 pm. John Stockwell: New Paintings features oil-on-canvas landscapes by the artist.Through November.

Ars Libri
500 Harrison Ave., Boston (617-357-5212). www.arslibri.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. Mon.-Fri., 9 am-6 pm; Sat., 11 am-5 pm. Benjamin Degen Bricklayer features oil and pencil works by the artist. Through Dec. 3.

Artana
1378 Beacon St., Brookline (617-879-3111). www.artanagallery.com. MBTA: C Green Line to Coolidge Corner. Wed.-Fri., 11 am-6 pm; Sat., 10 am-5 pm and by appointment. The Colors of Light VI features oil paintings of local scenery by Kathleen McDonough. Through Nov. 29.

Atlantic Works Gallery
80 Border St., Boston. www.atlanticworks.org. MBTA: Blue Line to Maverick. Thu., 6-9 pm; Fri.-Sat., 12-6 pm. Kasia Bytnerowicz: Threadbare features paintings focusing on the qualities of the linen canvas. Through Nov. 29.

L'Attitude Gallery
218 Newbury St., Boston (617-927-4400). www.lattitudegallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Mon.-Sat., 10 am-6 pm; Sun., 12-5 pm. •Artifacts: New Work by Tim Harding features layered silk sculptural wall hangings. Through November.

Axelle Fine Arts
91 Newbury St., Boston (617-450-0700). www.axelle.com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Daily, 10 am-6 pm. The permanent collection features works by French contemporary artists Elizabeth Estivalet, Michel Delacroix, Jacques Gatti and Andre Bourrie, among others.

Axiom
141 Green St., Boston (617-953-6413). www.axiomart.org. MBTA: Orange Line to Green. Wed.-Thu., 6 pm-9 pm; Sat., 2 pm- 5 pm and by appointment. •Witness features video and braille installations by Denise Marika and the artist collective Think Again. Through Dec. 1.

Baak Gallery
35 Brattle St., Cambridge (617-354-0407). www.baakgallery.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. Mon.-Sat., 10:30 am-7 pm. Wally Gilbert: Photographs features images of Poland, Scotland and the United States. Through Nov. 14.

Barbara Krakow Gallery
10 Newbury St., 5th floor, Boston (617-262-4490). www.barbarakrakowgallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Tue.-Sat., 10 am-5:30 pm. Julian Opie features computer-film-on-LCD, enamel-on-glass and LED wall-mounted works by the artist. Through Nov. 28.

Berenberg Gallery
4 Clarendon St., Boston (617-536-0800). www.berenberggallery.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. Tue.-Sat., 11 am-6 pm. Abdellah RamRam: Le Chemin des Êtres Vivants (The Road of Human Beings Alive) features pen, marker and pencil drawings by the artist. Nov. 14-Jan. 5, 2008.

Bernard Toale Gallery
450 Harrison Ave., Boston (617-482-2477). www.bernardtoalegallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Tue.-Sat., 10:30 am-5:30 and by appointment. •Heide Fasnacht: In Transit features drawings and sculptures by the namesake artist. Through Nov. 10. •Simulating Iraq features color photographs by Claire Becket. Through Nov. 10.

Beth Urdang Gallery
129 Newbury St., Boston (617-424-5550). www.bethurdanggallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to Hynes. Mon.-Sat., 10:30 am-5:30 pm. Colin Brant: Recent Paintings features oil-on-canvas works. Through Nov. 24.

Boston Frame Works
637 Tremont St., Boston (617-267-4400). www.bostonframeworks.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. Mon.-Sat. 10 am-6 pm, Fri. 10 am-8 pm. Seasonal Expressions features oil paintings by Michael Eder. Through November.

Boston Sculptors Gallery
486 Harrison Ave., Boston (617-482-7781). www.bostonsculptors.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. Wed.-Sun., 12 pm-6 pm. •Murray Dewart The Year of Double Happiness and Niho Kozuru Turned to Nature feature ceramic works by the artists. Through Nov. 11. •BSG 2007: A Collection of Wall Relief Sculpture From the Boston Sculptors features works by Laura Baring-Gould, Christopher Frost, Nancy Selvage, William Wainwright and others. Nov. 14-Dec. 23.

Bromfield Gallery
450 Harrison Ave., Boston (617-451-3605). www.bromfieldgallery.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. Tue.-Sat., 12-6 pm. •Elaborations features painting and works on paper by Adria Arch. Through Dec. 1. •Idol features the tribal-style graffiti work of Andrew Leonard. Through Dec. 1.

Brookline Arts Center
86 Monmouth St., Brookline (617-566-5715). www.brooklineartscenter.com. MBTA: C Green Line to St. Mary's. Mon.-Fri., 9 am-4:30 pm. •The Amsterdam Project features paintings in Batik by George Summers. Through Nov. 9. •People and Places features photography of Fenway Park, the Boston skyline and Canadian forests by Norm Scotch. Through Nov. 9.

Cambridge Art Association
University Place Gallery, 124 Mount Auburn St., Cambridge (617-876-0246). www.cambridgeart.org. Mon.-Fri., 9 am-6 pm; Sat., 9 am-1 pm. •Members' Prize Show is an exhibition featuring the work of association members juried by Howard Yezerski. Through Nov. 7. •Waves Whimsy Windows feat works by Richard Bertman, Alicia Cromie and K Pechet. Through Nov. 13.

Cambridge Arts Council
344 Broadway, Cambridge (617-349-4380). w cambridgeartscouncil.org. MBTA: Red Line to Cent Mon., Wed. and Thu., 8:30 am-8 pm; Tue., 8:30 a pm; Fri., 8:30 am-12 pm. •Brain Terrain: An Exhibi of Painting and Drawings by Heidi Whitman feat mixed-media works exploring states of mind. Thro Nov. 9. •Constructions by Nancy Selvage features pe rated metal works by the artist. Nov. 19-Feb. 8, 20

Cambridge Multicultural Arts Center
41 Second St., Cambridge (617-577-1400). w cmacusa.org. MBTA: Red Line to Kendall/M Mon.-Fri., 10 am-6 pm. •The Berklee Sessions tures photographic portraits of Berklee Colleg Music faculty by Lucy Cobos. Through Dec. •Herido de Sombras/A Broken Shadow features p tographs of La Habana de Cuba by Kerry St Coppin. Nov. 9-Dec. 31.

Cambridge 7 Associates
1050 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-492-700 www.c7a.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. M Fri., 10 am-6 pm. The Power of Seven features v ous artists that interpret the number seven thro mixed-media works. Through Dec. 3.

Carpenter Center for the Visual Arts
24 Quincy St., Cambridge (617-496-6617). w ves.fas.harvard.edu. MBTA: Red Line to Harv Mon.-Sat. 9 am-11 pm, Sun. 12-11 pm. •Berlin make and Deathstar/Todesstern features 16mm an mm film, video, sound and writing by Amie Sie Through November. •Felix Gonzalez-Torres feat installation art using everyday materials like be candies and light bulbs. Through Jan. 4, 2008.

Chase Gallery
129 Newbury St., Boston (617-859-7222). w chasegallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to Co Mon.-Fri., 11 am-5:30 pm; Sat., 10 am-5 pm. ney River features oil-on-canvas paintings of re rivers and plant life by the artist. Through Dec

Childs Gallery
169 Newbury St., Boston (617-266-1108). w childsgallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to Co Mon. and Sat., 10 am-5 pm; Tue.-Fri., 9 am-6 •The Bostonians: Painters, Sculptors and Drafts 1840-1940 features works by Boston artists ov 100 year period. Through Nov. 10. •Monhegan tercolors of Ted Davis features works by the ar Through Nov. 10. •The Place Where Maine V tions: Grisaille Watercolors of Bernard Brussel-S features landscapes by the titular artist. Thro Nov. 10. •The Big Picture Show features li graphs and oil-on-canvas works by Alexa Pope, Edward Laning and Chauncey Ryder. 17-Jan 5, 2008. •In Miniature features etch by John Taylor Arms, Henry Rodman Ken William Partridge Burpee and others. Nov. 17- 5, 2008. •Soaring New York features lithogra etchings and pastel-on-paper works showca New York City's architecture by Max We Samuel L. Margolies, Stow Wengenroth William Meyerowitz. Nov. 17-Jan. 5, 2008.

Copley Society of Art
158 Newbury St., Boston (617-536-5049). w copleysociety.org. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Sat., 11 am-6 pm; Sun., 12-5 pm. •Fall Mem Show: Equinox features mixed-media works by ga artists. Through Nov. 10. •Sean Thomas Signs o features oil-on-canvas and watercolor works b artist. Nov. 15-Dec. 22.

Crump McCole Gallery
200 Seaport Blvd., Boston (617-330-1133). MB Red Line to South Station. Mon.-Wed. and 10 am-6 pm; Thu., 10 am-8 pm; Sat. and Sun., pm. Artists' Gallery Exhibit features oil paintin Boston by Norman Crump, watercolors by McCole and marine art by Jeff Eldredge. Ongoi

DTR Modern Galleries
167 Newbury St., Boston (617-424-9700). ww modern.com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. M Thu., 11 am-7 pm; Fri. and Sat., 11 am-8 pm; Sun am-6 pm. 60 Years of American Art: 1947-2007 fea prints, lithographs and works on paper by Warhol, Jean-Michel Basquiat, Robert Indiana others. Through Nov. 27.

Fort Points Art Community Galler
300 Summer St., Boston (617-423-4299). w fortpointarts.org. MBTA: Red Line to South Sta Mon.-Fri., 9 am-9 pm. Open Studios Group Show tures mixed-media works by 100 gallery ar Through Nov. 9.

Galerie d'Orsay
33 Newbury St., Boston (617-266-8001). w galerie-dorsay.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlin Mon.-Sat., 10 am-6 pm; Sun., 12-6 pm. Samir moun features paintings by the namesake a Through Nov. 18.

lery Anthony Curtis
South St., Boston (617-988-8119). www.ryanthonycurtis.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Forills. Tue.-Sat., 11 am-6 pm and by appointment. n-Daniel Rohrer New Paintings features abstract tings by the artist. Through Dec. 8 •Meng Zhao: nt Ceramic Sculpture features traditional Chi- pottery. Through Dec. 8.

lery Artist's Studio Projects
Boylston St., Brookline (617-418-4308). www.s-p.net. MBTA: D Line Green Line to Brookline . Thurs.-Sat., 11 am-5 Meconio features multiia works about war and dangers of modern times arious artists. Through 23.

lery XIV
Thayer St., Boston (617-1414). www.galleryxiv. MBTA: Orange Line to Bay. Tue.-Sat., 12-8 Free. Sound in Silence ures works by German t Ursula Göeb and erican artists Marilyn Ivy Paul Riedi. Through 15.

lery Naga Newbury St., Boston 7-267-9060). www.rynaga.com. MBTA: n Line to Arlington. -Sat., 10 am-5:30 pm. McKie Decent Paintings ures flashe-on-canvas s by the artist. Nov. 9- 15.

lery Kayafas
Harrison Ave., Boston -482-0411). www.galleryfas.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. Tue.- 11 am-5:30 pm. Thomas J. Gustainis features t-garde photographs by the artist. Through 10.

eway Gallery
Harvard St., Brookline (617-734-1577). www.vayarts.org. MBTA: D Green Line to Brookline ge. Mon.-Fri., 9 am-4:30 pm; Sat., 12-5 pm. You Are in My Eyes exhibits works inspired by in people or situations by artists with disabili- Through Nov. 10.

ld of Boston Artists
Newbury St., Boston (617-536-7660). www.fbostonartists.org. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Sat., 10:30 am-5:30 pm; Sun. and Mon., by apment only. •Frank Strazzulla: Recent Works feapaintings of landscapes and interiors by the . Through Oct. 27. •Sergio Roffo: The New EngLandscape features landscape and coastal paintby the artist. Through November.

vard Yezerski Gallery
Newbury St., Boston (617-262-0550). www.rdyezerskigallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to gton. Tue.-Sat., 10 am-5:30 pm. Dawoud Bey: Pic- 1975-2005 features photographs taken by the over the past 32 years exploring the human sub- Through Dec. 18.

rnational Poster Gallery
Newbury St., Boston (617-375-0076). www.ationalposter.com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. -Sat., 10 am-6 pm; Sun., 12-6 pm. Baby Boom: rs from the '50s and Early '60s features advertising rs from the postwar era. Through Nov. 18.

Rotenberg Gallery
Newbury St., Boston (617-437-1518). www.tenberg.com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Sat., 10 am-6 pm. •But I Digress... features d-media works by Anne Beresford. Through 10. •Jennifer Amadeo-Holl features abstract intings by the artist. Nov. 15-Dec. 22.

Goldman Fine Art
Newbury St., Boston (617-424-8468). www.oldmanfineart.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arn. Mon.-Sat., 10:30 am-5:30 pm and by apment. •Bill Durgin: Fashion Refigured features fashion-influenced photographs by the artist. ugh Nov. 24. •Nancy Blu: Dangle, Dart and features new botanical drawings by the artist. ugh Nov. 24.

ler Smith Gallery
Newbury St., Boston (617-424-6900). www.smithgallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Sat., 11 am-5:30 pm. New Work features oil-on- s and acrylic-on-cardboard portraits by Ann man.

ston Gallery
hayer St., Boston (617-423-4113). www.ongallery.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. Tue.-Sat., 12-5 pm and by appointment. •The Furniture Outside features oil paintings by Joan Baldwin. Through Dec. 1. •Lines of Supply features large drawings by Antoinette Winters. Through Dec. 1.

Laconia Gallery
433 Harrison Ave., Boston (617-670-1568). www.laconiagallery.org. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. Sat., 12-4 pm. Black Tide features video, sound and drawings by Candice Ivy. Through Nov. 17.

William Barnett's Ahab II is at Acme Fine Art through Nov. 24

Lanoue Fine Art
160 Newbury St., Boston (617-262-4400). www.lanouefineart.com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Mon.-Sat., 10 am-6 pm; Sun., 12-5 pm. Michael Kessler features acrylic-on-panel works by the artist. Through November.

Martha Richardson Fine Art
38 Newbury St., Boston (617-266-3321). www.martharichardsonfineart.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Tue.-Fri., 10 am-5 pm; Sat., 11 am-5 pm. Charles Hovey Pepper Boston Modernist features watercolor and gouache works by the namesake artist. Through November.

Massachusetts College of Art
621 Huntington Ave., Boston (617-879-7333). www.massart.edu. MBTA: E Green Line to Longwood. Mon.-Fri., 10 am-6 pm; Sat., 11 am-5 pm. •Sensacional! Mexican Street Graphics features comic books, flyers and posters capturing Mexico's street culture. Through Dec. 1. •Golden Clogs, Dutch Mountains and In Situ are two exhibits that investigate jewelry and our connections to personal objects. Through Dec. 7.

Mercury Gallery
8 Newbury St., 2nd Floor, Boston (617-859-0054). www.mercurygallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Mon.w-Sat., 10 am-5:30 pm and by appointment. Daniel Robinson features oil-on-canvas depictions of American landscapes. Through November.

Mobilia Gallery
358 Huron Ave., Cambridge (617-876-2109). www.mobilia-gallery.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. Tue.-Fri., 11 am-6 pm; Sat., 10 am-5 pm and by appointment. •Baskets as Architecture features a group exhibit of textile, beadwork and basketry work. Through Nov. 13. •Kevin Coates: A Notebook of Pins displays a new collection of pins by Britain's premier goldsmith. Through Nov. 13. •Sarah Perkins: New Work features the artist's works combining metalsmithing and enameling techniques. Through November. •The gallery collection features studio jewelry, sculpture, baskets and vessels by various artists.

Montserrat College of Art Gallery
23 Essex St., Beverly (978-921-4242). www.montserrat.edu/galleries. MBTA: Commuter Rail to Beverly. Mon.-Thu., 10 am-5 pm; Fri. 10 am-1 pm. •Uncovering Identity: A Bulgarian Photo Project features photographs by Bulgarian orphans. Through Nov. 29. •Cornucopia: Documenting the Land of Plenty features photographic works by various artists and a sculptural installation by Portia Munson, all exploring American consumerism. Through Feb. 2, 2008.

MPG Contemporary
450 Harrison Ave., Boston (617-357-8881). www.mpgallery.net. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. Tue.-Sat., 11 am-5 pm. Heads & Tales features paintings by Don Hartmann and sculpture by Felice Mendell. Through Dec. 1.

New Art Center
61 Washington Park, Newtonville (617-964-3424). www.newartcenter.org. MBTA: Commuter Rail to Newtonville. Mon.-Fri., 9 am-5 pm. Sun., 1-5 pm. •Across the Universe features works by young artists in the New Art Center's children's program. Nov. 16-Dec. 16. •Icons + Altars features small mixed-media works showcasing personal, cultural, social and spiritual icons or altars by nearly 100 regional artists. Nov. 16-Dec. 16.

New England School of Art and Design
75 Arlington St., Boston (617-573-8785). www.suffolk.edu/nesad/gallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Mon.-Fri., 9 am-9 pm. Susan Nichter features new paintings by the titular artist. Through Nov. 10.

Nielsen Gallery
179 Newbury St., Boston (617-266-4835). www.nielsengallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Tue.-Sat., 10 am-5:30 pm. Paths of My Fathers features paintings inspired by Native American mythology by Duane Slick. Through Dec. 1.

OHT Gallery
450 Harrison Ave., Boston (617-357-8881). www.ohtgallery.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. Tue.-Sat., 11 am-5 pm. Steve Novick features installation works by the artist. Through Nov. 24.

OSP Gallery
450 Harrison Ave., Boston (617-778-5265). www.ospgallery.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. Tue.-Sat.,11 am-5 pm. Andrew Masullo features new paintings by the namesake artist. Through Nov. 24.

Pepper Gallery
38 Newbury St., Boston (617-236-4497). www.peppergalleryboston.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Tue.-Fri., 10 am-5:30 pm; Sat., 11 am-5 pm. Anne Peretz New Paintings features recent works by the namesake artist. Through Nov. 17.

Pierre Menard Gallery
10 Arrow St., Cambridge (617-868-2033). www.pierremenardgallery.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. Wed.-Sun., 11 am-7 pm. Carolee Schneemann: a Selection of Recent and Early Work features paintings, film and multimedia installations by the artist. Through Nov. 25.

Proof Gallery
516 East 2nd St., 2nd Floor, Unit 20, South Boston. www.proof-gallery.com. MBTA: Red Line to Broadway. Thu.-Sat., 12-6 pm and by appointment. Out of the Blue features mixed-media work by Elizabeth Axtman, Ken Fandell, Lilly McElroy, Melanie Schiff and Kirsten Stoltman.

Pucker Gallery
171 Newbury St., Boston (617-267-9473). www.puckergallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Mon.-Sat., 10 am-5:30 pm; Sun., 1-5 pm. •The Sacred Deed:The Art of Brother Thomas features ceramic works by the former Benedictine monk. Through Nov. 26. •The permanent collection includes mixed-media works by artists from diverse cultures, including Inuit, South and West African, Israeli, Japanese, Welsh and American.

Rhys Gallery
401 Harrison Ave., Boston (617-357-7497). www.rhysgallery.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Mass. Ave. Wed.-Sun., 11 am-6 pm. •Gabriel & Gilberto Colaço + Nick Rodrigues features acrylic-on-canvas works by the twin brothers.and photographs by Rodriques. Through Nov. 8. •Jessalyn Haggenjos + Mariana Lopez features mixed-media work by the artists. Nov. 15-Dec. 20.

Robert Klein Gallery
38 Newbury St., Boston (617-267-7997). www.robertkleingallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Tue.-Fri., 10 am-5:30 pm, Sat., 11 am-5 pm. Didier Massard features paintings of landscapes and nature themes by the namesake artist. Through Nov. 23.

Sacramento St. Gallery
Agassiz Baldwin Community Center, 20 Sacramento St., Cambridge (617-349-6287). www.agassiz.org. MBTA: Red Line to Porter. Mon.-Fri., 9 am-5 pm; Sat., 12-5 pm. Free. Small Works Show 2007 features multimedia works by 48 Cambridge-based artists. Through November.

Samson Projects
450 Harrison Ave., Boston (617-357-7177). www.samsonprojects.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. Wed.-Sat., 11 am-5 pm and by appointment. Gabriel Martinez: Self Portraits features photographs of feet at the moment of self-induced climax. Through Dec. 8.

Sherman Gallery
775 Comm. Ave., Boston (617-358-0295). www.bu.edu/cfu. MBTA: B Green Line to BU Central. Tues.-Fri., 11 am-5 pm; Sat. and Sun., 1-5 pm. Corpora Nova features recent paintings by Nora Lehmann. Through Dec. 14.

Society of Arts and Crafts
175 Newbury St., Boston (617-266-1810). www.societyofcrafts.org. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Mon.-Sat., 10 am-6 pm; Sun., 12-5 pm. From Minimal to Bling features contemporary studio jewelry. Nov. 9-Dec. 30.

Soprafina Gallery
73 Thayer St., Boston (617-728-0770). www.soprafina.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. By appointment. New Paintings by Peggy Badenhausen and Sculpture by Susan Rodgers feature new works by the artists. Through Dec. 1.

St. George Gallery
245 Newbury St., Boston (617-450-0321). www.stgeorgegallery.com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Tue.-Sat., 10 am-5:30 pm; Sun., 12-5 pm. The permanent collection features oil-on-canvas works by William St. George.

Tufts University Art Gallery
40R Talbot Ave., Medford (617-627-3518). www.ase.tufts.edu/gallery. MBTA: Red Line to Davis. Tue.-Sun., 11 am-5 pm.; Thu. until 8 pm. •The Cen Cosmic Energy features a specially designed amphitheater with an audio narrative. Through Nov. 11. •Global Village Shelters features full-size, biodegradable houses by Daniel Ferrara and Mia Ferrari-Pelosi. Through Dec. 23.

Vose Galleries
238 Newbury St., Boston (617-536-6176). www.vosegalleries.com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Mon.-Fri., 9:30 am-5:30 pm; Sat., 10 am-5:30 pm. •Liz Haywood-Sullivan: Traveling Light features pastels emphasizing light and shadow. Through Nov. 17. •Celebrating Elliot Offner: Air Land and Sea features 35 sculptures by the artist. Through Dec. 1. •Defining a Nation: Paintings of 19th-Century America features works capturing themes and styles of 19th-century American art by George Loring Brown, Benjamin Champney, Asher B. Durand and others. Through Dec. 15.

Wolk Gallery
MIT School of Architecture and Planning, 77 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-258-9106). MBTA: Red Line to Kendall/MIT. Mon.-Fri., 9 am-5 pm. Between Spaces features installations exploring the relationship between the body and architecture. Through Dec. 21.

Photography

The Arsenal Center for the Arts Gallery
321 Arsenal St., Watertown (617-923-0100). www.arsenalarts.org. Wed.-Sun., 12-8 pm. In Sights exhibits the work of photographers David Bookbinder, Stephen DiRado, Barry Goldstein and others. Through Nov. 18.

Gallery Kayafas
450 Harrison Ave., Boston (617-482-0411). www.gallerykayafas.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Tue.-Sat., 10 am-5:30 pm. Thomas J. Gustainis displays the photographs of the namesake artist. Through Nov. 10.

Griffin Museum of Photography
67 Shore Road, Winchester (781-729-1158). www.griffinmuseum.org. MBTA: Commuter Rail to Winchester Center. Tue.-Thu., 11 am-5 pm; Fri., 11 am-4 pm; Sat. and Sun., 12-4 pm. $5. •Children: Photographs by William Ropp displays black-and-white photographs of children. Nov. 8-Jan. 13. •It's a Dog's Life: Photographs by William Wegman from the Polaroid Collections displays photographs of the artist's weimaraners over a 10-year period. Nov. 8-Jan. 13.

Judy Goldman Fine Art
14 Newbury St., Boston (617-424-8468). www.judygoldmanfineart.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Mon.-Sat., 10:30 am-5:30 pm and by appointment. Bill Durgin Fashion Refigured features new photographs by the artist. Through Nov. 24.

Larz Anderson Auto Museum
15 Newton St., Brookline (617-522-6547). www.larzanderson.org. MBTA: Orange Line to Forest Hills. Tue.-Sun., 10-5 pm. The Wheels Project exhibits photographs by local photographers focused on wheel-based culture. Through May 10, 2008.

New England School of Photography
537 Comm. Ave., Boston (617-267-8929). www.nesop.com. MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore. Mon.-Fri.; call ahead for hours. Eve Damjen features black-and-white photograms. Through Dec. 14

Panopticon Gallery Boston
502 Comm. Ave., Boston (617-267-8929). www.panopt.com. MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore. Tue.-Sat. 11 am-6 pm and by appointment. The annual holiday show features photographs from all the gallery's artists. Through Jan. 21, 2008.

Photographic Resource Center
Boston University Art Gallery, 855 Comm. Ave., Boston (617-975-0600). www.bu.edu/prc. MBTA: B Green Line to BU West. Tue.-Fri.,10 am-6 pm; Sat. and Sun., 12-5 pm. ADJAGENCY features photographs addressing the language of advertising and product photography, and features works by regional, national and international artists including Kate Bingaman-Burt, Jonathan Lewis, Brian Ulrich and others. Nov. 9-Jan. 27, 2008.

Whippoorwill Gallery
93 Franklin St., Boston (617-571-5267). www.whippoorwillcrafts.com. MBTA: Green or Red Line to Park. Mon.-Fri., 10 am -6 pm.; Sat., 12-5 pm. The Photographer's Eye exhibits works by local photographer Jennifer Matson. Through Nov. 18.

gay & lesbian

Advice to Contributors
Submit information, including telephone numbers and nearest MBTA stop, by fax (617-859-1446) or mail, or e-mail gaylesbian@improper.com.

Clubs, Bars & Hangouts

The Alley (Daily)
14 Pi Alley, 275 Washington St., Boston (617-263-1449). www.thealleybar.com. MBTA: Blue or Green Line to Gov. Center. Mon.-Fri., 2 pm-2 am; Sat. and Sun., 12 pm-2 am. No cover. 21+. Boston's leather-and-Levis neighborhood bar offers pool, karaoke, pinball, a jukebox and video games.

Club Café (Daily)
209 Columbus Ave., Boston (617-536-0966). www.clubcafe.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington or Orange Line to Back Bay. Wed.-Sat., 11:30 pm-2 am; Sat.,12 pm-2 am; Sun., 10:30 pm-2 am. No cover. 21+. This South End spot offers dining and unobtrusive music in the front room and video entertainment in the back. •Wed., 9:30 pm-2 am: Karaoke. •Thu.-Sat., 9:30 pm-2 am: Live VJ's spin music and comedy videos. •Sun., 4-11 pm: T-Dance with DJ Greg Aga.

Dbar (Daily)
1236 Dorchester Ave., Dorchester (617-265-4490). www.dbarboston.com. MBTA: Red Line to Savin Hill. Sun.-Thu., 5 pm-12 am; Fri.-Sat., 5 pm-2 am. No cover. 21+. This Dorchester club offers fine dining, drinks and dancing all week.

District (Tuesdays)
180 Lincoln St., Boston (617-417-0186). www.shuttavac.com. MBTA: Red Line to South Station. 5:30 pm. No cover. 21+. Each Tuesday is lesbian night, featuring dinner until 10 pm and dancing all night.

Eagle (Daily)
520 Tremont St., Boston (617-542-4494). MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. No cover. 21+. This neighborhood cruise bar is open nightly.

Estate (Sundays, Thursdays)
1 Boylston Place, Boston (617-351-7000). www.theestateboston.com. MBTA: Green Line to Boylston. 10 pm. $10. 21+. Avalon's DJ Rich LaRue spins the latest in Top 40, house and more.

Felt (Thursdays)
533 Washington St., Boston (617-350-5555). www.tribenightclub.com. MBTA: Red or Orange Line to Downtown Crossing. 10 pm. $5. 21+. DJ Jim from KISS 108 spins hits on the fourth floor for this lesbian party.

Fran's Place (Daily)
776 Washington St., Lynn (781-598-5618). www.gofrans.com. MBTA: Commuter Rail to Lynn. 3 pm. Thu.-Sat. $5. 21+. •Mon.: Monday night football. •Tue.: Karaoke. •Wed.: Mid Week Blast. •Thu.: Divas of the North Shore. •Fri.: Rush with DJ Carlos. •Sat.: Stomp with DJ Carlos. •Sun.: Latin Night with DJ Gordo.

Fritz (Daily)
26 Chandler St., Boston (617-482-4428). www.fritzboston.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. Mon.-Sat., 12 pm-2 am; Sun., 11 am-2 am. This gay sports bar with six large-screen plasma TVs serves brunch every weekend and on Monday holidays.

Gypsy Bar (Sundays)
116 Boylston St., Boston (617-482-7799). www.djmaryalice.com. MBTA: Green Line to Boylston. 7 pm. $10. 21+. DJ Mary Alice hosts dancing at this hot spot every Sunday night.

Jacques Cabaret (Daily)
79 Broadway, Boston (617-426-8902). MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. Mon.-Sat., 11 am-12 am; Sun., 12 pm-12 am. $6, weekdays; $10, weekends. 21+. Patrons mingle with dancing drag queens. •Mon.: First Monday of each month is Perestroika; second Monday is Eleganza, a rock ensemble; third Monday is Jaded Lounge; fourth Monday is Rick Berlin and guest. •Tue.: Karaoke with Mizery. •Wed.: Delightful Divas with Melinda Wilson. •Thu.: Jacques Angels with Ms. Kris Knievil. •Fri. and Sat.: Miss Norelle's Leading Ladies and live music. •Sun.: First Sunday of each month is A Night of Mizery; second Sunday is Work with JuJuBee and Destiny; third Sunday is Mizery; fourth Sunday is Kris Knievil and Company.

Machine (Tuesdays, Fridays, Saturdays)
1254 Boylston St., Boston (617-536-1950). www.ramrodmachine.com. MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore. •Tue., 10 pm-2 am, $5, 21+: Diamond Dunhill hosts Rehab Tuesdays with DJ Dena spinning house and top 40. Drag shows as well. •Fri., 10 pm-2 am, $8, 21+: Machine Fridays, featuring deep house music and Top 40. •Sat., 10 pm-2 am, $8, 21+: Events including male revues, fetish nights, and special DJs.

La Maquina del Sabor (Fridays)
1367 Revere Beach Blvd., Revere (781-367-4615). www.hometown.aol.com/uax4it/myhomepage/index.html. MBTA: Blue Line to Revere Beach. 10 pm. 18+. GLBT Latino Night.

Midway Café (Thursdays)
3496 Washington St., Jamaica Plain (617-524-9038). www.midwaycafe.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Green. 9 pm-2 am. $2. 21+. Ladies Night with DJ Summer's Eve features occasional Queer-a-Oke performances.

Paradise (Daily)
180 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-868-3000). www.paradisecambridge.com. MBTA: Red Line to Central. Sun.-Wed., 7 pm-1 am; Thu.-Sat., 7 pm-2 am. No cover. 21+. Male strippers perform every night, and various DJs spin Top 40 beats every Thursday through Saturday.

Pub at 47 Central (Daily)
47 Central Ave., Lynn (781-586-0551). www.47central.com. MBTA: Commuter Rail to Lynn. 4 pm-2 am. No cover. 21+. •Mon.: Free pool. •Tue.: James on Bar. •Wed.: DJ Greg. •Thu.: Karaoke. •Fri.: DJ Dave G. •Sat.: DJ Mark Anthony. •Sun.: Karaoke.

Pure (Fridays)
75 Warrenton St., Boston (617-417-0186). www.shuttavac.com. MBTA: Green Line to Boylston. 10 pm. $8 before 12 am, $10 after 12 am. 21+. Lesbian night with DJ Lanena.

Ramrod (Daily)
1254 Boylston St., Boston (617-266-2986). www.ramrodboston.com. MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore. 12 pm-2 am. Billed as the largest leather bar on the East Coast, Ramrod enforces a strict dress code (leather is mandatory for the back room on weekends). •Mon.: Pool, dart tournaments and pizza. •Tue.: Pool, darts. •Wed.: Twitch 4.0 with DJ Mac. •Thu.: Mandance with DJ Manuel Santiago. •Fri.: Bound to Please with DJ Danae Jacovidis. •Sat.: Leather Cruise with DJ Freespace. •Sun.: Atomic T-Dance.

Randolph Country Club (Tuesday through Sunday)
44 Mazeo Dr., Randolph (781-961-2414). www.randolphcountryclub.com. 12 pm, Sat. and Sun.; 5 pm, Tue., Wed., Thu.; 2 pm, Fri. 2 pm. $5 Fri. and Sat. 21+. •Tue.: Open Mike Night, •Wed.: Fun in the Dragon's Den. •Thu.: Line Dancing and Karaoke. •Fri. and Sat.: Dance Club. •Sun.: Karaoke.

Rise (Saturdays)
306 Stuart St., Boston (617-423-7473). www.riseclub.us. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. 1:30-6:30 am. $10, members; $20, guests. This members-only club is predominantly gay on Saturdays. Storm Saturdays feature resident DJs Billy Carroll, Chad Jack, Gilles Massicotte, Joe Gauthreaux and Mark Anthony upstairs, with David McNeary spinning downstairs.

The Roxy (Saturdays)
279 Tremont St., Boston (617-338-7699). www.chrisharrispresents.com. MBTA: Orange Line to New England Medical Center; Green Line to Boylston. 10 pm. $10 before 11:30 pm; $15 after 11:30 pm. 21+. Epic Saturdays sponsored by Chris Harris Presents with big name DJs each week.

Saint (Tuesdays)
90 Exeter St., Boston (617-236-1134). www.saintnitery.com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Tue., 10 pm-2 am. Gay Mafia hosts Flaunt Tuesdays at Saint, where DJ Ranny spins house and Top 40 remixes. Bacardi drink samples are free to the first 100 guests.

The Bang Group presents Nut/Cracked Nov. 7-10 at the Out on the Edge Festival.

Shine (Mondays, Fridays, Saturdays)
1 Kendall Square, Building 300, Cambridge (617-621-9500). www.shinecambridge.com. MBTA: Red Line to Kendall/MIT. 10 pm. •Mon.: Diamond Dunhill hosts this weekly party with drag shows and DJ Adilson. 19+: $10; $8 on list; 21+: free before 11 pm; $8 after 11 pm; $5 on list. •Fri.: DJ Dena spins a mix of top 40, hip-hop and house. 10 pm. $8. 19+. •Sat.: Wet@Shine Lesbian party with DJ Sun One. 10 pm. $8. 19+.

Suite (Mondays)
1 Boylston Place, Boston (617-512-5311). MBTA: Green Line to Boylston. 10 pm. $7. 21+. Axis Monday features drag shows and DJ Ranny.

Switch (Sundays)
711 Boylston St., Boston (617-236-7777). www.myspace.com/diamondsundays. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. 10 pm-2 am. 21+. Weekly party hosted by Diamond Dunhill, featuring DJ afro spinning a mix of music. Sushi served till 12 am.

Toast (Fridays, Saturdays)
70 Union Square, Somerville (617-623-9211). www.toastlounge.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Oak Grove. 21+. •Fri: Dyke Night Productions hosts a lesbian dance party with DJs, 9 pm-2 am. •Sat.: Fuel Saturdays with DJ Susan Esthera.

Tribe at Felt (Thursdays)
Felt, 533 Washington St., 4th floor, Boston (617-350-5555). www.tribenightclub.com. MBTA: Red or Orange Line to Downtown Crossing. 9:30 pm-2 am. $5. 21+. DJ Jim from KISS 108 spins hip-hop and Top 40 on Felt's fourth floor at this weekly lesbian night.

Venu (Wednesdays)
100 Warrenton St., Boston (617-695-9500). www.chapsboston.com. MBTA: Green Line to Boyls 10 pm. $8. 21+. Wednesday is Latino night wit Adilson, complete with go-go boys and drag sho

Underbar (Thursdays)
275 Tremont St., Boston (617-292-7122). www.underbarsuperloung.com. MBTA: Orange Line to England Medical Center or Green Line to Boylston pm. 21+. DJ Susan Esthera spins hip-hop, To and more.

Shows and Events

Improv!
Stonewall Communities Lifelong Learning Institute Hawes St., Brookline (617-369-9090). www.stone communities.com. MBTA: D Green Line to L wood. Nov. 13, 12 pm. $3. Karen Malme leads discussion on improvisational comedy.

Masquerade: An Evening of Opulen
Park Plaza Hotel, 50 Park Plaza, Boston (617- 6200). www.aac.org. Nov. 17, 7 pm. $95. MB Green Line to Arlington. The perial Court of Massachu presents this benefit for AIDS Action Committee fea ing the coronation of a monarch, dinner, dancing a cash bar.

Out on the Edge Festi
Calderwood Pavilion, Boston ter for the Arts, 539 Tremont Boston (617-933-8600). ww theateroffensive.org. MBTA: ange Line to Back Bay. Thr Nov. 10. See Web site for schedule and times. $10- •Nov. 7-10: Nut/Cracked. Bang Group presents a twi take on the holiday favo combining Tchaikovsky's cl cal score with jazz, blues contemporary dance.

Ongoing

Bagly
St. John the Evangelist Church Bowdoin St., Boston (617- 4313). www.bagly.org. MB Red or Green Line to Park. W 5-9 pm. The Boston Allianc Gay, Lesbian, Bisexual Transgender Youth hosts we meetings and social events young people seeking com nity, support and a place to cuss relevant issues.

Beantown North G/L Bowling League
Lanes & Games, 195 Con Turnpike, Cambridge (617- 5533). www.beantownbow com. MBTA: Red Line to Alewife. Tue., 8:30 This bowling league for gays and lesbians m weekly.

Beantown Soft-Tip Dart League
The Alley, 14 Pi Alley, 275 Washington St., Bo (617-263-1449). MBTA: Blue or Green Line to Center. Fritz, 26 Chandler St., Boston (617- 4428). MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. w bsdl.org. Mon., 8:30 pm. $12 for the season. This league hosts weekly 301, 601 and cricket match the Alley and Fritz.

Beantown South G/L Bowling Leagu
Boston Bowl, 820 Morrissey Blvd., Dorchester (889-1552). www.beantownbowling.com. MBTA: Line to Shawmut. Wed., 7 pm. This weekly bow league for gays and lesbians meets on Wednesda

Bi Focus
(617-697-9244). MBTA: Green Line to Arling Wed., 7 pm. Bisexual men and women discuss bo videos and other topics of interest.

Bi Rap
Cambridge Women's Center, 46 Pleasant St., C bridge (617-354-8807). MBTA: Red Line to C tral. First Tue. of each month, 7:30 pm. This dis sion group provides support and information women who are bisexual or are questioning t sexuality.

Boston Bears Barnight
The Alley, 275 Washington St., Boston (617- 1449). http://bostonbears.us. MBTA: Blue or G Line to Gov. Center. 9:30 pm-2 am. Free. This meets the first and third Saturdays of each mo holds a happy hour every Friday from 5:30 to pm.

ston Boasts Squash
tral YMCA, 316 Huntington Ave., Boston (617-0316). www.bostonboasts.com. Tue., 7-9 pm; , 10 am-12 pm. This squash league is comprised ıy and lesbian players and their friends.

ston Gay Basketball League
7-937-5858). www.bgbl.com. This basketball ıe offers a full regular season and playoff sched- ach year. E-mail info@bgbl.com for details.

ston Lesbian Avengers
ina's Place, 47 Mass. Ave., Boston. www.lesbian gers.org. Mon., 7-8 pm. This bisexual- and sexual-friendly direct-action political group fo- s on issues affecting lesbians.

ston Prime Timers
ed South End Settlements, 566 Columbus Ave., on (617-447-2344). www.primetimersww.org/ n. Third Sat. of each month, 3:30-5:30 pm. $2. network of more than 300 gay and bisexual and their friends, meets once a month.

ton Uncommons
hany School, 154 Centre St., Dorchester (617-8816). www.lcfd.org/bu. MBTA: Red Line to mut. This gay and lesbian square-dancing meets Sundays from 4-7 pm.

ton's Gay and Bisexual Married n's Support Group
n Living Center, 29 Stanhope St., Boston (781-1985). http://world.std.com/~ewk. First and third , second and fourth Tue. of each month, 7-9 pm. group meets to discuss issues related to mar- and divorce.

C Board Meeting
ual Resource Center, 29 Stanhope St., Boston 424-9595). MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. d Wed. of each month, 7 pm. This monthly ring of the BRC board in the Back Bay is open e public.

ning Out as Bisexual n's Bisexual Resource Center at the Boston Living r, 29 Stanhope St., Boston (617-424-9595). biresource.org. MBTA: Orange Line to Back First Wed. and third Thu. of each month, 7 pm. An informal discussion group for people who they may be bisexual or are attracted to mem- f both sexes.

Coming Out Support Group for Adults
Meetings are in Coolidge Corner, Brookline (617-482-2166). Thu., 7-8:15 pm. This group offers a confidential place for men and women who are looking for a safe space to discuss issues of sexual identity.

Compass
(781-899-2212). Compass is a New England–area support and social group for people assigned female at birth, but who feel the designation isn't an accurate or a complete description of their gender. This group meets monthly at locations around New England. E-mail compassftm@usa.com for details.

Downtown Auxiliary League
http://groups.yahoo.com/group/downtownauxiliaryleague. The DAL is group of gay Downtown Boston/Financial District professionals who get together monthly for casual afterwork happy hours.

Fenway Community Health
7 Haviland St., Boston (617-267-0900). www.fenwayhealth.org. MBTA: Green Line to Hynes. Fenway Community Health offers an array of services for the LGBT community, from discussions about parenting and safe-sex practices to programs addressing domestic violence and substance abuse.

GayLab
www.gaylab.org. This experiment in developing healthy gay relationships features alternatives for meeting and dating, communication games and mixers for area singles. E-mail info@gaylab.org for details.

Gays for Patsy
(617-412-5751). www.gaysforpatsy.org. This country-western dancing club, featuring two-step, swing and line dancing, holds events twice a month. Beginners welcome; no partner needed. Call for details.

GBBC North Shore Group
Bugaboo Creek Steak House, Route 114, Peabody (781-593-0386). www.gbbc.org. Third Wed. of each month. MBTA: Commuter Rail to Lynn. Free to attend, lunch cost varies. The Greater Boston Business Council invites GLBT professionals to connect with the GLBT business community over lunch.

GBBC 128 Group
Naked Fish, 455 Totten Pond Road, Waltham (978-777-6500, ext. 112). www.gbbc.org. Fourth Tue. of each month. Free to attend, lunch cost varies. GLBT professionals connect with the GLBT business community over lunch.

Gender Crash
Spontaneous Celebrations, 45 Danforth St., Jamaica Plain (617-524-6373). www.gendercrash.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Stony Brook. Second Thu. of each month, 7:30 pm. $5-$10. Members of the LGBT community are invited to share poetry, prose and performance pieces at this open-mike event.

LAFFAN
Lesbians Available for Fun and Networking is a social and networking group that connects local women and sponsors dances and benefits. E-mail laffan_boston2004@yahoo.com for details.

Monday Night Bowling League
Boston Bowl, 820 Morrissey Blvd., Dorchester (617-889-1552). www.mnbl.net. Mon., 7:30 pm. The MNBL's bowling season runs weekly.

The Neighborhood
The Midway Café, 3496 Washington St., Jamaica Plain (617-524-9038). www.midwaycafe.com. MBTA: Orange Line to Green. Second Sat. of each month, 9 pm. $5. 21+. A welcoming space for the homosexual and transgender community featuring live DJs and bands.

Newly Diagnosed Group
JRI Health Peer Support Services, 25 West St., Boston (617-457-8142, ext. 329). MBTA: Red or Orange Line to Downtown Crossing. First and third Mon. of each month, 7:30-9 pm. Free. This group supports local gay and bisexual men who've been diagnosed with HIV during the last two years.

Out to Dance
West Roxbury School of Dance, 29 Corey St. West Roxbury (617-363-0029). www.outtodance.com. Out to Dance offers a variety of swing, Latin and ballroom dance classes in a gay-friendly environment.

Out TwentySomethings Boston
twentysomethingsboston-subscribe@yahoogroups.com. This social and peer support group is for lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender and questioning members of the community, as well as their straight allies in their 20s and early 30s.

POZ Social
Moonshine Room at Club Café, 209 Columbus Ave., Boston (617-457-8142, ext. 326). MBTA: Orange Line to Back Bay. Second Mon. of each month, 6-11 pm. Free. This monthly evening of raffles, food, music and drink benefits those affected by HIV/AIDS.

POZ 30s Plus
JRI Health Peer Support Services, 132 Boylston St., Boston (617-457-8142, ext. 314). MBTA: Red or Green Line to Park. Wed., 7-9 pm. This social group supports HIV-positive gay and bisexual men ages 30 and over. E-mail hyee@jri.org for details.

POZ 20s
JRI Health, 25 West St., Boston (617-457-8142, ext. 329). MBTA: Red or Orange Line to Downtown Crossing. Thu., 7:30-9 pm. This social group offers support for HIV-positive gay and bisexual men in their 20s.

The Rainbow Café
rainbowboston-subscribe@yahoogroups.com. The Rainbow Café, a social lesbian group, meets biweekly in gay-owned or gay-friendly establishments around the Boston area.

Slice of Rice
Boston Glass, 93 Mass. Ave., Boston (617-266-3349). MBTA: Green Line to Hynes. Wed., 6-7 pm. This peer-run queer Asian youth group for those under 25 meets for mutual support. E-mail sungyun@chickmail.com for details.

Somos Latin@s LGBT Coalition
www.somoslatinoslgbt.org. A social and networking group for LGBT Latinos and Latinas around Boston, Somos Latin@s hosts Viernes Sociales (Social Fridays) every month. E-mail somoslatinoslgbt@hotmail.com for details.

Stonewall Communities Lifelong Learning Institute
Wheelock College, 43 Hawes St., Brookline (617-369-9090). MBTA: C Green Line to Cleveland Circle. Stonewall Communities teams up with Wheelock College for eight-week courses that feature events, workshops and lunch speakers for older GLBT people and their friends.

Under the Radar
(617-851-7911). www.radarboston.com. Boston's gay, all-male contemporary a cappella group, is always auditioning prospective members. E-mail info@radarboston.com for details.

Wonder Women Boston
http://groups.yahoo.com/wonder_women_boston. Second Fri. of each month. This social group includes lesbian and bisexual women in their 20s and 30s.

YOU ARE INVITED TO THE CULINARY EVENT OF THE YEAR!

SIGNATURE DISHES FROM 20 OF THE GREATEST RESTAURANTS IN NEW ENGLAND

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 17, 7-11 P.M.
AT THE ALL-NEW, HERB CHAMBERS LEXUS,
RTE. 1, THE AUTOMILE, SHARON, MA

COCKTAILS, 9 PIECE DANCE BAND
INCLUDED IN THE $100 TICKET PRICE.
GO TO NECN.COM TO PURCHASE TICKETS.

T.V. DINER PLATINUM PLATE GALA

NECN THE POWER OF NEWS

HOSTED BY BILLY COSTA AND ACTOR/COMEDIAN LENNY CLARKE

A LIVE AUCTION TO BENEFIT COMMUNITY SERVINGS

IMPROPER BOSTONIAN · Herb Chambers · RAFANELLI · ACE TICKET.COM

books & poetry

Advice to Contributors
Submit listings by fax (617-859-1446); mail to Calendar: Books and Poetry; or e-mail information to books@improper.com. Deadline is four weeks prior to publication.

Readings & Signings

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 7

Barnes & Noble, Boston University
660 Beacon St., Boston (617-267-8484). www.bu.bkstore.com. MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore. 7 pm. Free. Barbara Slavin reads from Bitter Friends, Bosom Enemies, a look at the relationship between the United States and Iran.

Harvard Book Store
1256 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-661-1515). www.harvard.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 7 pm. Free. Daphne Abeel reads and discusses the nonfiction book she edited, A City's Life and Times: Cambridge in the 20th Century.

Harvard Coop
1400 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-499-2000). www.harvard.bkstore.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 7 pm. Free. Manisha Thador and Sharon Kedar discuss On My Own Two Feet—A Modern Girl's Guide to Personal Finance, their self-help book that teaches how to balance living well now and saving for the future.

McIntyre and Moore Booksellers
255 Elm St., Somerville., (617-629-4840). www.mcintyreandmoore.com. MBTA: Red Line to Davis. 7:30 pm. Free. Peniel E. Joseph discusses his nonfiction work, Waiting 'Til the Midnight Hour: A Narrative History of Black Power in America, which covers the Black Power Movement and its impact on politics and society.

Porter Square Books
Hotel Marlowe 25 Edwin H. Land Blvd., Cambridge (617-868-8000). www.portersquarebooks.com. MBTA: Green Line to Lechmere. 6 pm. Free. As part of the PEN New England Reading Series, Anne Harleman discusses her story collections, Happiness and Thoreau's Laundryland, and her two novels, Bitter Lake and The Year She Disappeared.

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 8

Barnes & Noble, Boston University
660 Beacon St., Boston (617-267-8484). www.bu.bkstore.com. MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore. 7 pm. Free. Alice Rothchild reads from Broken Promises, Broken Dreams, which explores the history between Israel and Palestine.

Barnes & Noble, Emerson College
114 Boylston St., Boston (617-824-8228). www.emerson.edu. MBTA: Green Line to Boylston. 6 pm. Free. Tom Sleigh discusses Space Walk, his latest collection of poetry.

Barnes & Noble, Prudential Center
800 Boylston St., Boston (617-247-6959). www.bn.com. MBTA: E Green Line to Prudential. 6:30 pm. Free. Eleanor Lipman, Ben Mezrich, Michael Schlow and Catie Copley sign their works as part of this catered affair to benefit the Friends of the MGH Cancer Center.

Borders Back Bay
511 Boylston St., Boston (617-236-1444). www.bordersstores.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. 7 pm. Free. Ha Jin reads from A Free Life, a novel about a Chinese emigrant's hardships in Boston.

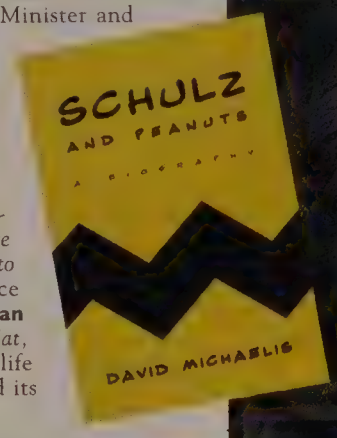
Brookline Booksmith
279 Harvard St., Brookline (617-566-6660). www.brooklinebooksmith.com. MBTA: C Green Line to Coolidge Corner. 7 pm. Free. Essayists Elaine Scarry, Jerald Walker and Robert Atwan read from The Best American Essays, a collection of the year's most memorable short pieces.

Harvard Coop
1400 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-499-2000). www.harvard.bkstore.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 7 pm. Free. Sports psychologist Jeffrey Brown discusses The Competitive Edge, his guide to finding victories in competition, regardless of winning.

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 9

Harvard Book Store
1256 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-661-1515). www.harvard.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. • 3 pm. Free. Jerome Kagan discusses What Is Emotion?, an investigation of emotion studies. • 7 pm. Cultural critic Judith Thurman reads from Cleopatra's Nose: 39 Varieties of Desire, a selection of short essays.

Harvard Coop
1400 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-499-2000). www.harvard.bkstore.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 7 pm. Free. Bob Rains discusses and signs True Tales of Trying Times: Legal Fables for Today, an assortment of modern parables and illustrations based on actual court decisions.



Wellesley Booksmith
Wilson Middle School, 22 Rutledge Road, Natick (781-431-1160). www.wellesleybooksmith.com. 6 pm. Free. Kate DiCamillo reads from her children's holiday picture book, Great Joy.

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 10

Wellesley Booksmith
82 Central St., Wellesley (781-431-1160). www.wellesleybooksmith.com. MBTA: Commuter Rail to Wellesley. 7 pm. Free. Gillian Riley presents The Oxford Companion to Italian Food, her anthology of Italian food and its history.

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 12

Harvard Book Store Event
First Parish Church, 3 Church St., Cambridge (617-661-1515). www.harvard.com/events. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 7 pm. $5. Minister and professor Peter Gomes discusses The Scandalous Gospel of Jesus: What's So Good About the Good News?, an examination of Christianity and the Bible.

Porter Square Books
25 White St., Cambridge (617-491-2220). www.portersquarebooks.com. MBTA: Red Line to Porter. 7 pm. Free. Science journalist Jennifer Ackerman reads from Sex, Sleep, Eat, Drink, Dream, a day-in-the-life look at the human body and its functions.

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 13

Barnes & Noble, Boston University
660 Beacon St., Boston (617-267-8484). www.bu.bkstore.com. MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore. 7 pm. Free. Nick Mills discusses his nonfiction book, Karzai: The Failing American Intervention and the Struggle for Afghanistan, about the rise of Afghani president Hamid Karzai and the issues his country faces.

Borders Back Bay
511 Boylston St., Boston (617-236-1444). www.bordersstores.com. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. 6 pm. Free. Cartoonist Matthew Diffee presents The Rejection Collection Vol. 2: The Cream of the Crap, the second installment of the best cartoons rejected by The New Yorker.

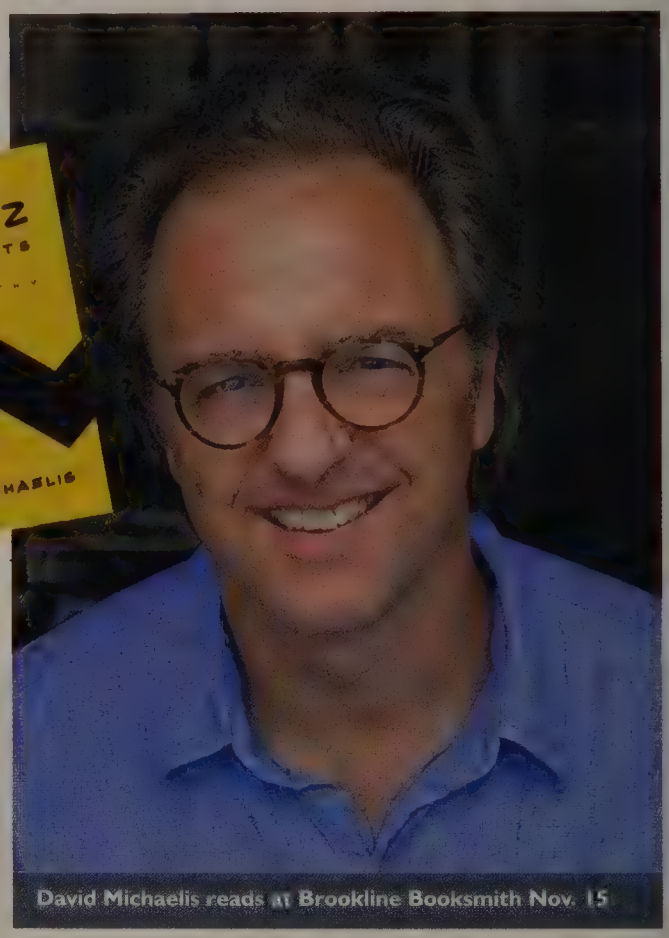
Brookline Booksmith
279 Harvard St., Brookline (617-566-6660). www.brooklinebooksmith.com. MBTA: C Green Line to Coolidge Corner. 7 pm. Free. Ben Mezrich reads from Rigged, his investigation of money and power in the world of international oil trading.

Harvard Book Store Event
Brattle Theater, 40 Brattle St., Cambridge (617-661-1515). www.harvard.com/events. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 6 pm. $5. Cookbook editor Judith Jones reads from her memoir The Tenth Muse: My Life in Food, in which she recounts introducing audiences to Julia Child, counting James Beard as a mentor and learning to de-tendon a goose with a broomstick.

Newtonville Books
Union St. Bar and Grill, 107 Union St., Newton Centre (617-244-6619). www.newtonvillebooks.com. MBTA: D Green Line to Newton Centre. 7 pm. Free. Tom Perrotta reads from his novel The Abstinence Teacher, a story about a war between liberals and evangelists in suburbia.

Porter Square Books
25 White St., Cambridge (617-491-2220). www.portersquarebooks.com. MBTA: Red Line to Porter. 7 pm. Free. Michael Jacoby Brown reads from Building Powerful Community Organizations, a guide to successfully creating groups and tools for social change.

Wellesley Booksmith
82 Central St., Wellesley (781-431-1160). www.wellesleybooksmith.com. MBTA: Commuter Rail to Wellesley. 7 pm. Free. Joseph O'Connor reads from his historical novel, Redemption Falls, about an Irish woman looking for her lover toward the end of the U.S. Civil War.



WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 14

Barnes & Noble, Boston University
660 Beacon St., Boston (617-267-8484). www.bu.bkstore.com. MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore. 7 pm. Free. Lou Ureneck reads from his memoir, Backcast, about his post-divorce struggle to maintain a positive relationship with his son.

Brookline Booksmith
279 Harvard St., Brookline (617-566-6660). www.brooklinebooksmith.com. MBTA: C Green Line to Coolidge Corner. 7 pm. Free. Naim Kattan reads from Farewell Babylon: Coming of Age in Jewish Baghdad, a memoir of his hardships in the divided Middle East during the 1940s.

Harvard Book Store
1256 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-661-1515). www.harvard.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 7 pm. Free. Jonah Lehrer discusses Proust Was a Neuroscientist, a compilation of scientific breakthroughs found in literature.

Harvard Coop
1400 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-499-2000). www.harvard.bkstore.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 7 pm. Free. David Greenwood reads from his collection of humorous holiday stories, A Little Fruitcake.

David Michaelis reads at Brookline Booksmith Nov. 15

Porter Square Books
25 White St., Cambridge (617-491-2220). www.portersquarebooks.com. MBTA: Red Line to Porter. 7 pm. Free. Alan Cheuse reads from his novel, The Fires, which links two novellas—one about a mourning wife making a pilgrimage to honor her husband, the other about a father retrieving his expelled daughter from college.

Wellesley Booksmith
82 Central St., Wellesley (781-431-1160). www.wellesleybooksmith.com. MBTA: Commuter Rail to Wellesley. 7 pm. Free. Irwin Thompson reads from Memories and Milestones: Poems and Paintings, a collection of poetry and artwork based on the origins of life and natural phenomena.

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 15

Barnes & Noble, Boston University
660 Beacon St., Boston (617-267-8484). www.bu.bkstore.com. MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore. 7 pm. Free. Jo Knowles reads from Lessons From a Dead Girl, a novel about abusive friendships and self-healing. Cecil Castellucci also reads from her novel, Beige, about a straight-edge teen who moves to L.A. with her punk-rock dad.

Brookline Booksmith
279 Harvard St., Brookline (617-566-6660). www.brooklinebooksmith.com. MBTA: C Green Line to Coolidge Corner. 7 pm. Free. David Michaelis reads from Schulz and Peanuts: A Biography, his look at the cartoonist's life.

Center for New Words Event
Central Square Library, 45 Pearl St., Cambridge (617-876-5310). www.centerfornewwords.org. MBTA: Red Line to Central. 7 pm. Free. Amy Hoff reads from her memoir An Army of Ex-Lovers Life at the Gay Community News, about her growing up in the gay political movement.

Harvard Coop
1400 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-499-20 www.harvard.bkstore.com. MBTA: Red Line to vard. 7 pm. Free. Rebecca Haile discusses signs her memoir, Held at a Distance: My Redi ery of Ethiopia, about her family's departure Africa during the 1965 military coup and thei justment to life in central Minnesota.

Porter Square Books
25 White St., Cambridge (617-491-2220). portersquarebooks.com. MBTA: Red Line to Por pm. Free. Perrin Ireland reads from Chatter, a about a troubled marriage whose hardships are nified by society's invasive elements.

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 16

Harvard Book Store
1256 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-661-15 www.harvard.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harva pm. Free. Ilan Stavans discusses and reads Love and Language, a nonfic book that investigates the tionship between language romance.

Wellesley Booksmith
Wellesley Free Library, 530 Wa ton St., Wellesley (781-431-11 www.wellesleybooksmith. MBTA: Commuter Rail to Well 4 pm. Free. Mike Lupica reads Two Minute Drill and Hot Han two young-adult novels about with hearts that outshine sports talents.

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 19

Barnes & Noble, Boston University
660 Beacon St., Boston (617 8484). www.bu.bkstore.com. M Green Line to Kenmore. 7 pm. Boston University School of agement professor Beth Gold discusses her resource guide, T timate Small Business Mar Toolkit, which provides strategi attracting customers.

Borders Downtown
10-24 School St., Boston 557-7188). www.borderss com. MBTA: Green or Red L Park. 1 pm. Free. Gerald Mc reads from Old City Hall, a about the high-stakes divorc prominent Massachusetts politi

Faneuil Hall
Boston. MBTA: Blue or Gree to Gov. Center. 7 pm. Free. vard University Press and the Massachusett torical Society present the collection My D Friend: Letters of Abigail and John Adams, readings by senator Ted Kennedy, governor Patrick, former governor Michael Dukaki their respective wives.

Harvard Book Store
1256 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-661-1 www.harvard.com/events. MBTA: Red Line to vard. 7 pm. Free. New Yorker critic Alex Ross from The Rest Is Noise: Listening to the 20th tury, a reflection on the music that defined th century.

Harvard Coop
1400 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-499-2 www.harvard.bkstore.com. MBTA: Red Line to vard. 4 pm. Free. EJ Corey discusses Molecul Medicine, an integrated look at chemistry, bi drug discovery and medicine.

Old South Meeting House
310 Washington St., Boston (617-373-5800). fordhallforum.org. MBTA: Orange or Red L Downtown Crossing. 6:30 pm. Free. Lou D discusses and signs Independents Day: Awak the American Spirit, in which he presents his tion on individual liberties and the conditi the middle class.

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 20

Brookline Booksmith
279 Harvard St., Brookline (617-566-6660). brooklinebooksmith.com. MBTA: C Green L Coolidge Corner. 7 pm. Free. Edward Ball read his nonfiction work, The Genetic Strand, abo investigation into his family's origins and th ence of DNA.

ducation

vice to Contributors

nit updated information by mail or fax (617-859-6); to Calendar: Education; or e-mail information ducation@improper.com. Include a brief but ugh description of the event, including time, date, ion, directions, cost and contact information. lline is four weeks prior to publication. Listings ot be accepted by phone.

EDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 7

nter for Advanced ual Studies Talk

, Room N52-390, 265 Mass. Ave., Cambridge -253-4415). www.cavs.mit.edu. MBTA: Red to Kendall/MIT. 6:30 pm. Free. Artist/writer d Robbins talks about "high entertainment," a bination of fine art and entertainment.

gh Liberal: Albert Shanker Education Reform

vard Graduate School of Education, Longfellow , Appian Way, Cambridge (617-496-5873). harvard.edu. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 5:30 Free. Teacher's union leader Albert Shanker sses the No Child Left Behind Act and the role acher unions in education reform.

URSDAY, NOVEMBER 8

lding a Strong Financial Foundation

Brattle St., Cambridge (617-547-6789). www. org. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 8 pm. $10. n the basics of financing, investing and building a essful future.

's Libraries

n Public Library, Rabb Lecture Hall, 700 Boylston Boston (617-536-5400). www.bpl.org. MBTA: n Line to Copley. 6 pm. Free. Saad Eskander, di- r of the Iraq National Library, speaks on "Rising the Ashes: The Story of the Iraq National Li- Archives."

DAY, NOVEMBER 9

lution of Tectonic Styles

n College, Devlin 307, Chestnut Hill (617-552-). www.bc.edu. MBTA: B Green Line to Boston ge. 4 pm. Free. As part of the fall 2007 Geo- ces Research Seminar, Stephen Marshak from niversity of Illinois shows examples of Precam- tectonic styles from eastern Brazil.

aissance Dance

Church Congregational, Jewett Hall, 11 Garden St., ridge (617-661-3353). MBTA: Red Line to Har- 7:30 pm. $8. Learn popular dances from the 16th and 17th centuries, accompanied by music Renaissonics and Friends.

TURDAY, NOVEMBER 10

ebrating the Art of da Gerideau-Squires

kline Public Library, 361 Washington St., kline (617-730-2700). www.brooklineadulted. MBTA: D Green Line to Brookline Hills. 7 pm. Registration required. Wilda Gerideau-Squires ks about her abstract, landscape and human- est photographs.

ee and Chocolate Pairing

Kitchen, 5 Comm. Ave., Boston (617-267-4430). bcae.org. MBTA: Green Line to Arlington. 10 $65, nonmembers; $62, members. This class s instruction on appreciating high-quality blate and coffee.

ress of Herself: Ernestine L. Rose, erica's First Feminist Leader

leis University, Epstein Building, Women's Stud- search Center, 515 South St., Waltham (781-3100). www.brandeis.edu. MBTA: Commuter o Brandeis/Roberts. 12:30 pm. Free. Scholar Doress Worters discusses Ernestine L. , an American feminist leader.

ESDAY, NOVEMBER 13

ic Research

University, Cabot Intercultural Center, 170 ard Ave., Medford (617-627-2476). www. edu. MBTA: Red Line to Davis. 5:30 pm. l Treadwell, U.S. Arctic Research Com- on chair and 30-year resident of Alaska, a discussion on the USARC's current re- h topics.

DNESDAY, NOVEMBER 14

French Library Alliance Française

arlborough St., Boston (617-912-0410). www. lib.org. 6-8 pm. Free. RSVP required. ane Martin, president of the Quai Branly Museum in Paris, discusses the most successful and controversial museums to open in Paris in the last 20 years.

Reproductive Rights and Responsibility

Radcliffe Institute, 2nd floor, 34 Concord Ave., Cambridge (617-495-8212). www.radcliffe.edu. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 3:30 pm. Free. Frances Kissling of Catholics for a Free Choice speaks on the topic of morality and responsibility in relation to abortion.

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 15

Green Machines

Harvard University, Geological Lecture Hall, 24 Oxford St., Cambridge (617-495-3045). www.hmnh.harvard.edu. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. 6 pm. Free. Harvard professor Michele Holbrook talks about photosynthesis and plants.

Home Design Seminar Series

Van Millwork Design Center, 65 Crawford St., Needham (781-444-8744). www.vanmillwork.com. 11 am. Free. Preregistration required. This seminar presents tips for home improvement, focusing on how to build home theaters and media rooms.

I Am More Than my Medical Record

Brandeis University, Epstein Building, Women's Studies Research Center, 515 South St., Waltham (781-736-8100). www.brandeis.edu. MBTA: Commuter Rail Fitchburg Line to Brandeis/Roberts. 12:30 pm. Free. Wellesley College professor Amy Rutstein-Riley leads a discussion on women's health and relationships.

Middle East Policy

Northeastern University, Raytheon Amphitheater, 120 Forsyth St., Boston (617-353-5800). www.fordhallforum.org. MBTA: Orange Line to Ruggles. 6:30 pm. Free. Rami George Khouri, a Palestinian-Jordanian and U.S. citizen and an internationally syndicated columnist, speaks on "Baghdad, Tehran, Beirut and Jerusalem: A Critical Arab View of America's Middle East Policies."

Suspension, Mobility, Displacements and Rotations: Art and Architecture

MIT, Building NE30, Broad Institute Auditorium, 7 Cambridge Center, Cambridge (617-253-2787). www.mit.edu. MBTA: Red Line to Kendall/MIT. 6:30 pm. Brazilian artist Ana Maria Tavares discusses the modern city and the materials which comprise it, such as mirrors, steel and glass.

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 16

A Dialogue Between Cultures: Breaking Down the Barriers

New Acropolis, Suite #1, 2nd Floor, 2000 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-864-5720). www.acropolisboston.org. MBTA: Red Line to Porter. 7:30 pm. $10. This open discussion looks at ways to bridge the divisions at the root of many current conflicts.

The History of Tobacco

Brandeis University, Shapiro Campus Center, 415 South St., Waltham (781-73-4205). www.brandeis.edu. MBTA: Commuter Rail to Brandeis/Roberts. 4 pm. Free. Alan M. Brandt, author of Cigarette Century, discusses the history of tobacco from a cultural, scientific, political and legal standpoint.

Perceiving Images

Boston College, Fulton 117, Chestnut Hill (617-552-4295). www.bc.edu. MBTA: B Green Line to Boston College. 3:30 pm. Free. Charles M. Falco presents evidence suggesting that optical tools were used by European artists nearly 200 years earlier than previously believed.

The Seven Secrets for Healing Ourselves and Healing Our World

The Theosophical Society, 21 Maple St., Arlington (781-893-6281). www.tsboston.org. MBTA: #77, #79 or #67 Bus to Arlington. 7:30 pm. $10, nonmembers; $5, members. Author Barbara Allys discusses harnessing energy to heal on both a personal and a global level.

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 17

Lowell Lecture Series

National Heritage Museum, 33 Marrett Road, Lexington (781-861-6559). www.nationalheritagemuseum.org. 2 pm. Free. Kory Rogers, curator at the Shelburne Museum, discusses the industrial design trend toward biomimicry and its effects on the environment.

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 20

The Poetry of Carlota Caulfield

Brandeis University, Epstein Building, Women's Studies Research Center, 515 South St., Waltham (781-736-8100). www.brandeis.edu. MBTA: Commuter Rail to Brandeis/Roberts. 12:30 pm. Free. Mary Berg discusses and reads poems by contemporary Cuban-American poet Carlota Caulfield.

13 CONVENIENT LOCATIONS, ONE NEAR YOU.

The Children's Hospital Network, in conjunction with leading community hospitals, provides convenient access to great pediatric care and the expertise of Children's specialists. With 13 locations in and around Boston, your children can see the same doctors and get the same excellent care they get at our main location, without the Boston traffic and hassles. For information on all of our Children's Hospital Network sites, including our specialty care centers in Waltham, Peabody and Lexington, visit www.childrenshospital.org/locations. Chances are you'll find one that's just a stone's throw away.

Children's Hospital Boston
www.childrenshospital.org/locations

Children's Hospital Physicians at Beverly Hospital • Children's Hospital Physicians at Caritas St. Elizabeth's Hospital (Boston)
Children's Hospital Physicians at Caritas Good Samaritan Medical Center (Brockton)
Children's Hospital Physicians • Metro West Medical Center (Framingham) • Martha Eliot Health Center (Jamaica Plain)
Children's Hospital Boston • Lexington • Children's Hospital Physicians at Caritas Holy Family Hospital (Methuen)
Children's Hospital Physicians at Caritas Norwood Hospital • Children's Hospital Boston at Peabody
Children's Hospital Boston at Waltham • Children's Hospital Physicians at South Shore Hospital (Weymouth)
Children's Hospital Physicians at Winchester Hospital

body & mind

Advice to Contributors
Submit updated information by mail or fax (617-859-1446) to Calendar: Body/Mind, or e-mail information to bodymind@improper.com. Provide a brief but thorough description of the event, including time, date, location, directions, cost and contact information. Listings cannot be accepted by phone and must be received at least four weeks in advance.

Events

Benefit Class & Lululemon Trunk Show
North End Yoga, 256 Hanover St., 3rd Floor, Boston (617-738-8187). www.firstgiving.com/yogahope. MBTA: Green or Orange Line to Haymarket. Nov. 10. 2-3:30 pm, class; 3:30-5 pm, reception and trunk show. $25. Register online. Alicia Orr teaches an all-level Vinyasa yoga class to benefit YogaHope, a nonprofit group that teaches yoga to underprivileged women. A reception and Lululemon trunk show immediately follow.

Illuminations Retrospective Exhibit, Auction and Opening Reception
Mass. General Hospital Cancer Center, Yawkey Center for Outpatient Care, 55 Fruit St., Boston (617-726-4808). www.mgh.harvard.edu/cancer/about/environment/illum/index.asp. MBTA: Red Line to Charles/MGH. Nov. 7, 5:30-7:30 pm. Mass. General celebrates the fifth anniversary of its rotating art exhibition Illuminations, which uses art to improve the quality of patient life.

Natural Flu Clinic: Something Better Than Chicken Soup
Whole Foods Market, 15 Washington St., Brighton (617-738-8187). www.wholefoodsmarket.com. MBTA: B Green Line to Washington. Nov. 5-10. Call for schedule. Free. Whole Foods in Brighton hosts a weeklong clinic to get customers ready for flu season. Besides Q&A sessions with a naturopathic doctor, the store's events feature chicken soup demos, health assessments and complimentary samples.

Lectures

National Institute of Whole Health Celebrity Speaker Series: Marianne Williamson
Harvard Medical School, Conference Center, 77 Avenue Louis Pasteur, Boston (888-354-4325, ext. 4325). www.wholehealtheducation.com. MBTA: E Green Line to Longwood. Nov. 10, 3-5 pm. $35, general; $49, preferred seating with onsite parking. Author and frequent talk-show guest Marianne Williamson lectures from her latest self-help tome, The Gift of Change: Spiritual Guidance for a Radically New Life.

Workshops

Good Vibrations Workshops
Good Vibrations, 308-A Harvard St., Brookline (617-264-4400). www.goodvibes.com. MBTA: C Green Line to Coolidge Corner. $25, preregistration; $30, drop-in.

•Nov. 7, 8-10 pm. In the workshop Role Play for Beginners, sexpert Princess Kali helps individuals and couples create their own costumes and fantasy worlds to enhance their sex lives.

•Nov. 14, 8-10 pm. Certified tantra educators Lisa and Rich Levine teach sexual exercises in Intro to Tantra, which welcomes both couples and individuals. Attendees are encouraged to wear loose, comfortable clothes.

Healthy Gums and Teeth
Boston School of Herbal Studies, 22 Mount Auburn St., Arlington (617-965-7846). www.bostonherbalstudies.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. Nov. 8, 6:30-9:30 pm. $35. Clinical herbalist Tommy Priester teaches natural ways to prevent and treat periodontal problems.

Insight Yoga: Embodied Awareness
Cambridge Masonic Hall, 1950 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-566-1489). www.yogastudio.org. MBTA: Red Line to Porter. Nov. 9, 6-8 pm; Nov. 10 and 11, 11 am-3 pm. $200. Sponsored by the Yoga Studio, Sarah Powers teaches this three-day workshop, which aims to reinvigorate practitioners' routines through me tion and active and passive yoga sequences.

Author Marianne Williamson lectures Nov. 10 at Harvard Medical School

It's Never Too Late to Heal
Cambridge Center for Adult Education, 56 Br St., Cambridge (617-547-6789). www.ccae MBTA: Red Line to Harvard. Nov. 7 and 14, 5:45- pm. $65. Instructor Patrice Sirote teaches this part workshop, which shows attendees ways to ch their unhealthy habits and behaviors.

Theosophical Society in Boston
Theosophical Society in Boston, 21 Maple St., lington. www.tsboston.org. MBTA: Red Line to H vard, then #77 Bus to Arlington.

•Nov. 12, 7:30-9 pm. (781-643-5159; liz@co lizblu.com). $10; $5, members. Personal coach Blumenthal discusses using intuition to guide cision-making in You're on Your Own, So Your Life, a class geared at helping people find themselves alone. Attendees also recei coaching consultation.

•Nov. 15, 7:30-9 pm. (617-625-2758; vvenck hotmail.com). $15. Psychic Victor Venckus, of WZBC's "Lucid Sounds—Expanded Awaren demonstrates a past-life regression technique talks about reincarnation, time and alternate ties in You Have Lived Before.

•Nov. 16, 7:30-9 pm. (617-628-5558). $10; members. Author Barbara Allys discusses hart ing energy to heal on both a personal and a gl level in her class The Seven Secrets for Hea Ourselves and Healing Our World.

•Nov. 18, 11 am-5 pm. (617-418-1147; req info@rainbowworks.net). $62. Preregistration quired. Psychic medium Irine Chiu holds an Day Mediumship Group Workshop, which cludes a Q&A session on spirituality, a si lunch period, group readings and medium training.

Retreats

Buddhist Meditation Full-Day Retreat
Theosophical Society in Boston, 21 Maple St., lington (781-646-3272 or 617-460-6156). ww boston.org. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard, then Bus to Arlington. Nov. 17, 9 am-9 pm. $20 dona requested. Buddhist monk Dharman Stortz other CSangha members lead this all-day me tion retreat.

Ongoing

Martial Arts
The American Jiann Shyong Kung Fu Center, Cambridge St., Cambridge (617-497-4459). w jiannshyongkungfu.com. MBTA: Green Lin Lechmere, then #69 Bus to Cardinal Medeiros See Web site for class schedule. $100 per month each class. The American Jiann Shyong Kung Center offers classes in various martial arts, cluding Tai Chi Chuan, Pa-Kua, Hsing-i and No ern Shaolin.

ports

vice to Contributors
mit listings by fax (617-859-1446), by mail to Calen-Sports, or by e-mail to sports@improper.com. Include ess, phone number, nearest T stop, along with a brief ription. Listings can't be accepted over the phone and t be received at least four weeks in advance.

ome Games

ston Bruins
D Banknorth Garden, Boston
kets: 617-931-2222
. 8, 7 pm vs. Montreal Canadiens
. 10, 7 pm vs. Buffalo Sabres
. 15, 7 pm vs. Toronto Maple Leafs
ston Celtics
D Banknorth Garden, Boston
kets: 866-423-5849
. 7, 7:30 pm vs. Denver Nuggets
. 9, 7:30 pm vs. Atlanta Hawks
. 14, 7:30 pm vs. New Jersey Nets
. 16, 7:30 pm vs. Miami Heat

vents

ston Globe Ski & Snowboard Expo
*ide Expo Center, 200 Mount Vernon St., Boston
-474-6000). www.onthesnow.com/bewi/boston.
TA: Red Line to JFK/UMass. Nov. 15 and 16, pm; Nov. 17, 10 am-8 pm; Nov. 18, 10 am-6 $10.* This annual ski and snowboard expo ines interactive exhibits, information on the ing ski season, savings on mountain resort l, and gear.

e MetroLacrosse Fall Ball

roLacrosse Fall Ball
pshire House, 84 Beacon St., Boston (617-288-). www.metrolacrosse.com. MBTA: Red Line harles/MGH. Nov. 16, 6:30 pm. $175. This al fundraising gala features cocktails, live and t auctions, casino games and a piano show.
eeds support MetroLacrosse's free afterschool sse and education programs for underprivi-Boston youth.

Play

SEBALL
ry's Baseball
891-0621). Seeking players ages 17-40.

SKETBALL
cton Ski & Sports Club
789-4070). www.bssc.com. BSSC offers men's, n's and co-ed leagues for players of all levels in ry and Watertown.
nbridge Racquet
n Fitness Club
491-8989). www.crfcbasketball.com. CRFC year-round leagues for individuals and teams.
vels welcome.
rporate Basketball League
248-7811). This league seeks teams for the sum-Games are held in Newton and Waltham.
er Too Late Basketball
488-3333). www.nevertoolate.com. Adults shoot in locations around Boston.

XING
ton Sport Boxing Club
*Church St., Newton (617-595-8141). www. hboxing.com. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard,
71 Bus to Walnut. Mon.-Sat., 2-10 pm.* This boxing club offers lessons for all skill levels at its Watertown gym.

The Ring Boxing Club
971 Comm. Ave., Boston (617-782-6946). www.ringboxingclub.com. MBTA: B Green Line to Pleasant. Mon.-Fri., 12-10 pm; Sat., 12-6 pm. Certified professional coaches teach boxers of all levels.

DODGEBALL
Boston Ski & Sports Club
(617-789-4070). www.bssc.com. The BSSC offers co-ed dodgeball leagues in Belmont and Watertown. Leagues play for eight to 10 weeks.

DRAGON BOAT RACING
Living Root Dragon Boat
(617-413-8360). www.livingroot.org. No experience is necessary to join this co-ed dragon boat-racing team that practices in Boston and Somerville on Thursday evenings and Saturday mornings.

FLAG AND TOUCH FOOTBALL
Boston Ski & Sports Club
Games are held in Brighton (617-789-4070). www.bssc.com. Teams compete each weekend.

HOCKEY
Boston Ski & Sports Club
(617-789-4070). www.bssc.com. The BSSC offers various co-ed floor hockey leagues at its Brighton and Newton locations.

KICKBALL
Boston Ski & Sports Club
(617-789-4070). www.bssc.com. The BSSC offers outdoor co-ed kickball leagues in Charlestown and Newton. Each season includes eight games, plus playoffs.

RUGBY
Beantown Women's Rugby Club
www.beantownrugby.com. Tue. and Thu. in Allston; games Sat. Beantown has won the national women's championship six times.

Boston Rugby Club
(617-566-2732). www.brfc.org. This club is looking for players to join its national-level team for the upcoming season.

Boston Women's Rugby Football Club
(781-340-2192). www.bwrfc.org. This club seeks new players for rugby games in Brookline and Cambridge.

Mystic River Rugby Club
(617-267-5221). www.mysticrugby.com. A Division 1 club that competes in the New England Rugby Union.

RUNNING
Boston Hash House Harriers
Various location in and around Boston (617-499-4835). www.bostonhash.com. This running and social club hosts weekly runs on either Wednesdays or Sundays.

Cambridge Friday Night Fun Run
Cambridge Racquet and Fitness Club, 215 First St., Cambridge (781-275-1584). www.srr.org. MBTA: Red Line to Kendall/MIT. Fri., 6 pm. The Somerville Road Runners host this weekly run in the Cambridge area.

Team LunaChix Boston
www.bostonlunachix.com. Wed., 6:30 pm. Women only. A weekly women's running group that promotes healthy living and breast cancer awareness. The four-mile jogs start on the MIT side of the Mass. Ave. bridge. E-mail BostonRun@teamlunachix.com for details.

SKIING
Polecat Skiing & Sports Club
This skiing and snowboarding club has a lodge in North Conway, N.H., and offers ski/snowboard race teams, discounts on lift tickets and more. For more info e-mail polecatskiclub@hotmail.com.

SOCCER
Boston Ski & Sports Club
(617-789-4070). www.bssc.com. A series of outdoor co-ed soccer leagues in Canton, Lexington, Newton and Waltham. Each season lasts for eight weeks.

SOFTBALL
Boston Ski & Sports Club
(617-789-4070). www.bssc.com. The BSSC offers a series of outdoor co-ed softball leagues in the Greater Boston area.

WHITE-WATER RAFTING
Boston Ski & Sports Club
(617-789-4070). www.bssc.com. The BSSC offers weekend white-water rafting trips to Maine, Canada and western Massachusetts.

WONDER HOW HOLLYWOOD STAYS CLEAN & GREEN WHEN IN BOSTON?
Keeping Hollywood clean & green is what we do best.
Thank you Jagged Films for Annette Bening's "The Women"
And to Lionsgate Films for Kate Hudson's "Bachelor 2"

BEST OF BOSTON 2006
clevergreen PROFESSIONAL DRY CLEANERS
BEST OF BOSTON 2007

www.clevergreencleaners.com 617.523.6925
Toxin free cleaning that loves your clothes as much as you do.

upcomingissues

November 21, 2007 Holiday Shopping
December 5, 2007 Winter Sports Report
December 19, 2007 Year-End Double Issue

THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN MAGAZINE
Call 617-859-1400 ext. 238 to advertise

THE ARC OF GREATER BOSTON
presents
THE Red & White BALL

Join us as we honor
this year's recipient of
The Rose Pessin Memorial Award,
George K. Regan, Jr.
for his contribution
within the disabilities community

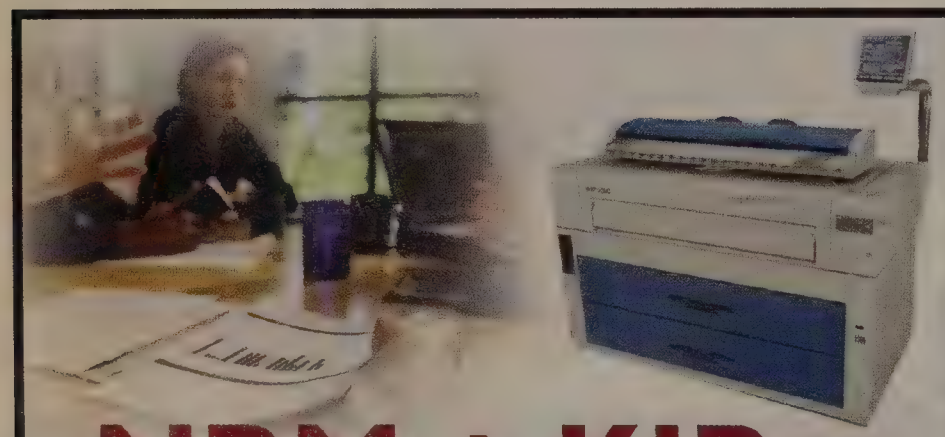
Saturday, November 17th at the Seaport Hotel, Boston

Cocktails and hors d'oeuvres will be served at 6:30 pm
Dinner will be served at 7:30 pm

Live music and silent auction • Black tie optional

The Arc of Greater Boston
The Arc of Greater Boston is a non-profit organization serving children and adults with intellectual and developmental disabilities.
Please call Jennifer at 617-783-3900 ext. 12 for more information.

AlphaGraphics... one source for all your printing and visual communications needs.



Mention this ad and receive 10% off*.
*some restrictions apply, see store for details.

alphagraphics®
DESIGN ■ COPY ■ PRINT ▶ COMMUNICATE

74 Canal Street
Boston, MA 02114
617.742.9587 • 617.742.9584

Order online at:
▶ www.us541.alphagraphics.com

NBM + KIP =
Huge Wide Format Savings

Why pay enormous per page charges when you can save money by acquiring your own KIP Wide Format Printer from NBM. With KIP from NBM, the Northeast's largest independent office technology dealer, you get:

- Full range of products and options to fulfill any wide format requirement
- The industry's lowest operational costs
- Powerful document scanning
- Speeds up to 22 'D' size prints per minute
- Award-winning, KIP patented High Definition Print Technology

"Giving You The Power To Produce" 800-869-9390
www.nbminc.com

NBM
Northern Business Machines
Boston • Burlington
Canton • Bedford, NH

children

Advice to Contributors
Submit updated listings by mail or fax (617-859-1446) to Calendar: Children, or e-mail information to children@improper.com. Include address, phone number, subway stop, ticket price, dates, times and a brief description of the event. Deadline is four weeks prior to publication. Listings cannot be accepted over the phone.

Things to See

The Children's Museum in Easton
9 Sullivan Ave., Easton (508-230-3789). www.childrensmuseumineaston.org. Nov. 8, 10:30 am. $6, nonmembers; free, members and children under 1. At "Tails and Tales With Miss Candy!" children hear stories about animal care and pet critters, too.

Coolidge Corner Theatre
290 Harvard St., Brookline (617-734-2500). www.coolidge.org. MBTA: C Green Line to Coolidge Corner. $10, adults; $8, children. •Nov. 10, 10:30 am. Rose Giovanetti and Harrison Beck present Kids Cabaret: Songs and Dances, a musical variety/talent show for all ages. •Nov. 17, 10:30 am. Magic by George, a comedic magic show, is for all ages.

ImprovBoston Family Show
1253 Cambridge St., Cambridge (617-576-1253). www.improvboston.com. MBTA: Red Line to Kendall/MIT. Sat., 6 pm. $12, adults; $10, seniors; $7, children and students. Ongoing. This improv show, featuring a variety of skits, is designed with the entire family in mind.

Lyric Stage Company
140 Clarendon St., Boston (617-585-5678). www.lyricstage.com. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Through Nov. 11, 11 am. $8; free, children 3 and under. "Once Upon a Time with Kidstock!" presents an interactive performance of the classic fairy tale Rapunzel.

Puppet Showplace Theater
32 Station St., Brookline (617-731-6400). www.puppetshowplace.org. MBTA: Green Line to Brookline Village. $9.50, nonmembers; $7.50, members. •Nov. 7 and 8, 10:30 am. The Tanglewood Marionettes present a musical tale of fairy mischief in Fairy Circus. Ages 3 and up. •Nov. 10, 11 and 12, 1 and 3 pm. A cat has a series of misadventures in Puss and Boots, a classic tale brought to life by the Spring Valley Puppet Theater. Ages 5 and up. •Nov. 17 and 18, 1 and 3 pm. The Perry Alley Theatre presents the The Princess and the Pea, Little Red Riding Hood and Snow White—with a twist. Ages 4 and up.

SteveSongs in Concert
333 Nahanton St., Newton (617-965-5226). www.lsjcc.org. MBTA: Green Line to Newton Centre. Nov. 12, 11 am. $9. Steve Roslonek and the Sensational Sillies perform a mixture of sing-alongs, fun stories and melodies for kids. All ages.

West Side Story
Boston Children's Theatre, 186 Tremont St., Boston (617-424-6634). www.bostonchildrenstheatre.org. MBTA: Green Line to Boylston. Nov. 9 and 10, 7 pm; Nov. 11 and 18, 5:30 pm. $20. This special all-teen performance of the classic musical includes pizza, soda and a discussion on preventing teen violence. Ages 10 and up.

Wheelock Family Theatre
180 Riverway, Boston (617-879-2300). www.wheelock.edu/wft. MBTA: Green Line to Kenmore. Through Nov. 25. Fri., 7:30 pm; Sat. and Sun., 3 pm. $19-$23. The Wheelock Family Theatre presents To Kill a Mockingbird, Harper Lee's timeless coming-of-age tale. Ages 4 and up.

Things to Do

Baby Loves Disco
Revolution Rock Bar, 200 High St., Boston. MBTA: Blue or Green Line to Gov. Center. Nov. 18, 2-5 pm. $15. Get into the groove at this fun, family-friendly party that features dancing, a chill-out tent and healthy snacks.

Barefoot Books
1771 Mass. Ave., Cambridge (617-349-1610). www.barefootbooks.com. Nov. 10, 10:30 am. Free. Enjoy an hour of age-appropriate stories along with coloring activities and refreshments. Ages 5 and under.

Borders Books and Music
255 Grossman Drive, Braintree (617-236-1444). www.bordersstores.com. MBTA: Red Line to Braintree. Nov. 16, 6 pm. Free. Meet the Grinch as he celebrates the 50th-anniversary edition of Dr. Seuss' How the Grinch Stole Christmas.

Boston by Little Feet
Faneuil Hall Marketplace, Boston (617-796-13 www.bostonbyfoot.com. MBTA: Blue or Green Li Gov. Center. Ongoing. Mon. and Sat., 10 am; Su pm. $8. Take a walk along Boston's Freedom T and learn about the city's architecture and hist Designed for ages 6-12.

Boston Children's Museum
300 Congress St., Boston (617-426-8855). w bostonkids.org. MBTA: Red Line to South Sta Sat.-Thu., 10 am-5 pm; Fri., 10 am-9 pm. adults; $8, seniors and children; $2, age 1; under age 1 and members. $1, Fri. 5-9 pm. •N 20, 2-3 pm. Children hear Arthur's Thanksgi written by Marc Brown. Craft activities an Arthur meet-and-greet follow. •Children exp ence the hands-on exhibition Joshua's Jour Diary of a Black Cowboy, with activities include saddling a horse, riding a bucking bro and modeling Western clothing. Children learn the story of 16-year-old Joshua, who dr cattle up the Chisholm Trail. Through Jan 2008. •Daily, 11 am-4 pm. Join in "Art Stu this month and learn how to make collages usi variety of materials. •Wed., 10:30-11:30 am. C dren are introduced to the basics of scienc "Pint-Sized Science." •Wed. and Fri., 11 an pm. Children dance and make tasty treats du "Playspace." •Sat.-Thu., 10 am-3:30 pm; Fri am-7:30 pm. During "PlaySpace Messy Activ children participate in activities ranging f sticky collages to painting and playing with s ing cream or water.

Boston Public Library
700 Boylston St., Boston (617-536-5400). w bpl.org. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Mon.-T 9 am-9 pm; Fri.-Sat., 9 am-5 pm; Sun., 1-5 •Wednesdays through Nov. 28, 2:30 pm. "Rea Readiness" features stories, songs, games activities. Ages 3-5. •Nov. 9, 10 am. "Infant Toddler Sing-Along" involves a lively half-ho music and motion in the Rey's Children Ro Children must be accompanied by an adult. • 15, 4 pm. In "Foundations of Drawing: Instruction for Teens," teens learn different d ing and sketching techniques with Jesus Math an accomplished artist, painter and printma •Nov. 18, 2:30 pm. Belle Yang, author of Ha Is My Name and Always Come Home to Me, the Rey's Children Room as part of Child Book Week.

Harvard Museum of Natural Histor
26 Oxford St., Cambridge (617-495-3045). hmnh.harvard.edu. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard adults; $7, students and seniors; $6, ages 3-18. 18, 2 pm. Join author Loree Griffin Burns as she the story of "trash trackers"—real scientists track garbage thousands of miles from the Paci Atlantic oceans. Discover what happens to and how scientists use this data to better unders and protect the ocean.

Museum of Science
Museum of Science, Science Park, Boston (723-2500). www.mos.org. MBTA: Green Li Science Park. Ongoing. $23, adult nonmem $20.50, senior nonmembers; $19, children non- bers; $5, adult members; $4.50, senior members children members. The exhibition A Bird's features interactive presentations and activi Ages 3 and up.

New England Aquarium
Central Wharf, Boston (617-973-5200). www. org. MBTA: Blue Line to Aquarium. •Nov. 9, and 11 am. $65, nonmembers; $45, mem Explore the underwater world in "Ocean Mot a program designed to teach preschoolers ho creatures move. Each program in this four- series includes playtime, circle time with s stories and activities, and a variety of art pro and games. •Nov. 10, 10 am and 2 pm, $15, bers; $18, nonmembers. In "Ocean Detect Seaturtles," children work to become sleut the sea while developing their math, science literary skills.

Peabody-Essex Museum
East India Square, Salem (978-745-9500) pem.org. MBTA: Commuter Rail to Salem. Dail am-5 pm. $13, adults; $11, seniors; $9, stud Visit the museum to experience Origami No hands-on exhibition featuring 40 works by than 20 origami artists. Visitors can try ancient art of paper-making at interactive tions. Ages 2 and up.

USS Constitution Museum
Charlestown Navy Yard, Charlestown (617- 1812). www.ussconstitutionmuseum.org. Dail am-6 pm. Admission by donation. Visitors can tend to be members of the ship's 1812 crew w learning about its history. Ages 6 and up.

round
own

ghts to See

ton Public Library Art
Architecture Tour
Boylston St., Boston (617-536-5400). www.
rg. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Sun., 2 pm;
., 2:30 pm; Tue. and Thu., 6 pm; Fri. and Sat.,
n. Free.

ton University Observatory
Observatory, 725 Comm. Ave., Boston (617-
2630). www.bu.edu/astronomy/opennight.html.
TA: B Green Line to BU East. Clear Wed.
s: fall and winter, 7:30 pm; spring and summer,
pm. Free.

euil Hall Marketplace
ıth Market Building, Boston (617-523-1300).
.faneuilhallmarketplace.com. MBTA: Green or ge Line to Haymarket. Mon.-Sat., 10 am-9 pm;
12-6 pm.

vard Museum of Natural History
xford St., Cambridge (617-495-3045). www.
.harvard.edu. MBTA: Red Line to Harvard.
, 9 am-5 pm. $9; $7, students and seniors; $6,
3-18. Wed., 3-5 pm (Sept. through May), and 9 am-12 pm, free to all Massachusetts residents.

F. Kennedy Library & Museum
nbia Point, Dorchester (617-514-1600). www.jfk
.org. MBTA: Red Line to JFK/UMass. Daily, 9
pm. $10; $8, seniors and students; $7, ages 13-17;
ges 12 and under.

Anderson Antique
Museum
ewton St., Brookline (617-522-6547). www.
rg. MBTA: C Green Line to Cleveland Circle.
Sun., 10 am-5 pm. $5; $3, ages 6-17, students and
; free, ages 6 and under.

Baker Eddy Library Mapparium
Mass. Ave., Boston (888-222-3711). www.
akereddylibrary.org. MBTA: Green Line to
. Tue.-Sun., 10 am-4 pm. $6; $4, seniors, stu-
nd ages 6-17; free, children under 6.

nt Auburn Cemetery
Mount Auburn St., Cambridge (617-547-
. www.mountauburn.org. MBTA: Red Line to rd. Oct.-May, 8 am-5 pm; May-Sept., 8 am-7 ree.

eum of Afro-American History
St., Boston (617-725-0022). www.afroam
m.org. MBTA: Red or Green Line to Park.
Sat., 10 am-4 pm. Guided walking tours avail-
special request. $5, suggested donation.

eum of Science
e Park, Boston (617-723-2500). www.mos.
BTA: Green Line to Science Park. Sat.-Thu., 9
m; Fri., 9 am-9 pm. $17; $15, seniors; $14,
n.

England Aquarium
l Wharf, Boston (617-973-5200). www.neaq.
BTA: Blue Line to Aquarium. Mon.-Fri., 9 am-
Sat. and Sun., 9 am-6 pm. $18.95; $10.95,
11.

North Church
lem St., Boston (617-523-6676). www.old
om. MBTA: Green or Orange Line to Haymar-
en daily, 9 am-6 pm. Free.

South Meeting House
ashington St., Boston (617-482-6439). www.
hmeetinghouse.org. MBTA: Blue or Orange Line
. Daily, 9:30 am-5 pm. $5; $4, seniors and stu-
1, ages 6-18; free, children under 6.

State House Museum
ashington St., Boston (617-720-1713). www.
istory.org. MBTA: Blue or Orange Line to State.
9 am-5 pm. $5; $4, seniors and students; $1, ages
ree, children under 6.

ential Center Skywalk
oylston St., Boston (617-859-0648). www.
tialcenter.com. MBTA: E Green Line to Prudenily, 10 am-10 pm. $11; $9, students and seniors;
children under 12.

y Church
Clarendon St., Boston (617-536-0944). www.
oston.org. MBTA: Green Line to Copley. Tue.-
. am-6 pm; Sun., 7 am-7 pm. Tours: $5; $4, stuand seniors; free, children under 16 with
t.

Constitution & Museum
town Navy Yard, Boston (617-426-1812).
sconstitutionmuseum.org. May 1-Oct. 15, 9 am-
Oct. 16-April 30, 10 am-5 pm; open daily.

Volunteer

AFC Mentoring Program
(617-224-1300, ext. 3). www.afcmentoring.org. Mentor a foster-care or adopted child.

AIDS Action Committee
(617-437-6200). www.aac.org. Help patients with HIV/AIDS.

American Cancer Society
(617-556-7400). www.cancer.org. Drive cancer patients to their local treatment appointments or get involved with upcoming events.

Big Brothers of Massachusetts Bay
(617-542-9090). www.bbmb.org. BBMB seeks volunteers to provide friendship to boys in need.

Big Sister Association
(617-236-8060). www.bigsister.org. Volunteers act as friends and mentors to young girls.

BNA Care Network
(617-547-2620, ext. 4271). www.bostoncarenetwork.org. Volunteers support terminally ill patients.

Boston Cares
(617-422-0910). www.bostoncares.org. More than 100 opportunities to volunteer are available.

Boston Jaycees
(888-274-8682). www.bostonjaycees.org. Volunteer at area nonprofits with other young professionals.

Boston Living Center
(617-236-1012, ext. 227). www.bostonlivingcenter.org. This HIV/AIDS organization needs volunteers for kitchen tasks, office work and special events.

Charles River Arc
(781-444-4347). www.crarc.org. Provide support for children and adults with developmental disabilities.

Dana-Farber Cancer Institute
(617-632-3307). www.dana-farber.org. Volunteers help adults living with cancer.

Extra Hands for ALS
(617-331-3014). www.extrahands.org. Help ALS patients and their families with housework.

HealthCare Dimensions Hospice
(781-894-1100). www.hcdhospice.org. Support terminally ill patients and their families.

Horizons for Homeless Children
(617-445-1480, ext. 345). www.horizonsforhomelesschildren.org. Provide support for homeless children.

Jewish Volunteer Program
(617-558-6585). www.cjp.org. Spend time with a senior citizen, mentor a child or teach an adult to read.

Literacy Volunteers of Massachusetts
(617-367-1313). www.lvm.org. Literacy volunteers help teach adults to read.

MAB Community Services
(617-972-9119). www.mabcommunity.org. Read to or shop with a blind person.

Match-Up Interfaith Volunteers
(617-482-1510). www.matchelder.org. Help with a variety of needs for disabled adults and seniors.

Neighborhood Action
(617-723-5800). http://nai.stjohnsbowdoinst.org. Serve meals to the homeless.

New England Aquarium
(617-973-5235). www.neaq.org. Support the aquarium as a guide or marine mammal volunteer.

Newton Free Library ESL Program
(617-796-1364). www.newtonfreelibrary.net. Tutor adults in English as a second language.

Parental Stress Line
(800-882-1250). Counsel parents and caregivers, and facilitate support groups.

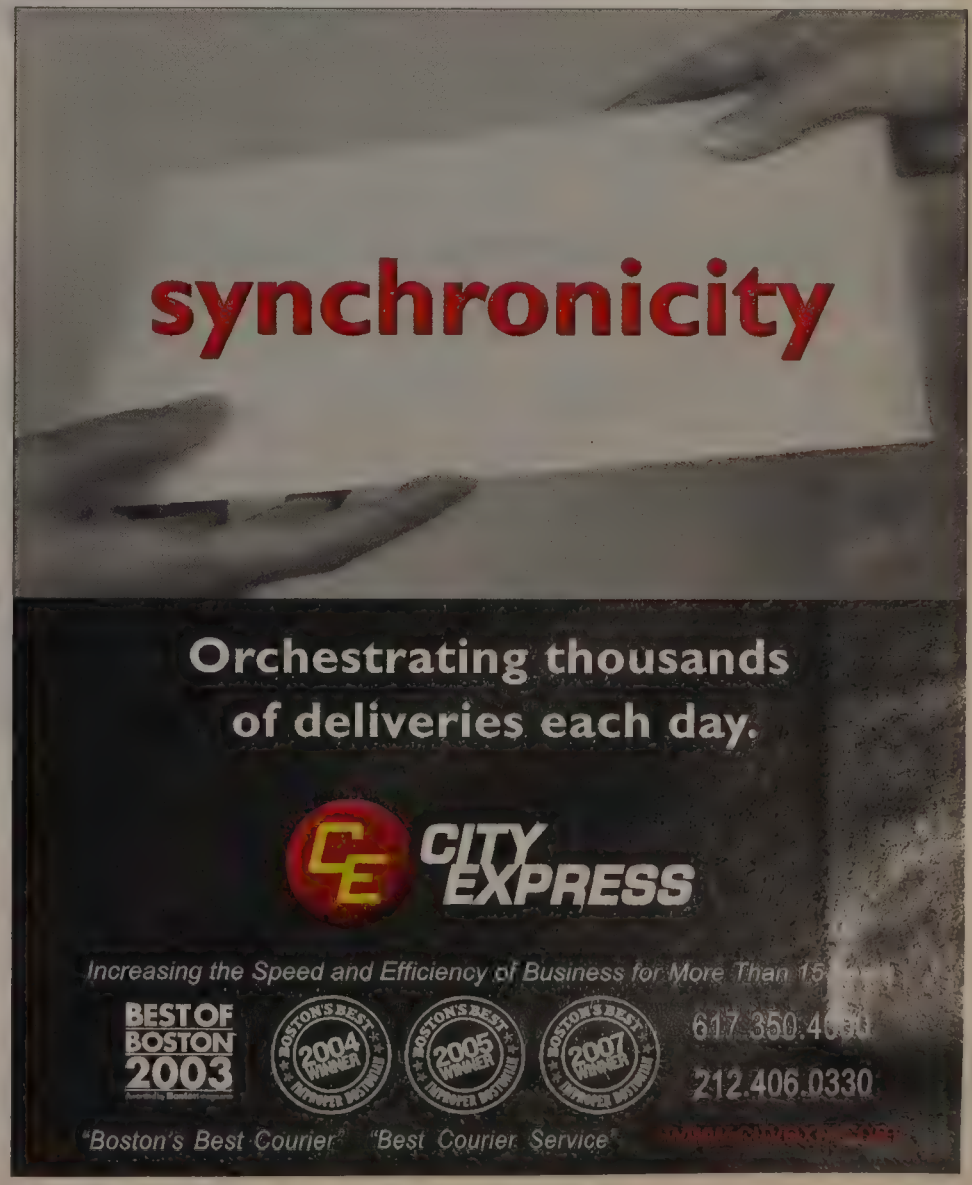
Pedipathways
(617-633-1659). Volunteer to do administrative work or to visit patients for this children's hospice.

Planned Parenthood
(617-616-1600, ext. 1645). www.pplm.org. Volunteer to raise awareness about women's health issues.

Project Place
(617-262-3740, ext. 14). www.projectplace.org. Help homeless men and women in the computer lab.

Recording for the Blind and Dyslexic
(617-577-1111, ext. 17). www.rfbd.org. Volunteers read textbooks for recording.

Red Cross
(617-375-0700, ext. 438). www.bostonredcross.org. Volunteer in the food pantry and public relations department.



Respond
(617-625-5996). www.respondinc.org. Volunteers are needed at this agency for battered women.

Rosie's Place
(617-442-9322). www.rosies.org. Volunteers are needed at this homeless women's shelter.

Samaritans
(617-536-2460). www.samaritanshope.org. Provide support over the phone to people in crisis.

Single Volunteers Boston
www.svboston.org. Volunteer with young, single professionals.

IMPROPERAZZI

The Improper Bostonian's client-related promotions and events

On Saturday, October 13, Tesorino Gallery celebrated its first anniversary. Guests enjoyed wine and hors d'oeuvres, while viewing Tesorino's collections of fine jewelry, art glass, and ceramics, as well as new photography exhibits celebrating the gallery's recent partnership with Iris Gallery of Great Barrington.

1. Laura Littlechild, owner of Tesorino, and Brigitte Moufflet, trustee at Boston Ballet.
2. Julianne Mahoney, manager at Flair Bridal Boutique, and Kate McCuker, interior designer at Benn Theodore Inc.
3. Ted Agne, president of Communications Strategy Group; Paulette Agne, associate at Health Care Ventures; Sarah Littlechild, graduate student at Columbia University; and Lauren Henry, owner of Lauren Henry New York.

On Wednesday, October 17, Macy's hosted the Benefit Brow Bar. Guests enjoyed refreshments and music while experts showed them how to beautify their brows. Plus, attendees got to meet investigative TV reporter and best-selling author Hank Phillippi Ryan.

1. Seana Weiss, aesthetician; Christ Rutledge, beauty advisor; Kristen Robicheau, business manager; M Farber, eyebrow artist; Ashley Ca and Janelle Ortiz, both beauty ad and Kerry Kristine, sales coordin all with Benefit.
2. Hank Phillippi Ryan, Channel 7 reporter and best-selling author of Face Time.
3. Tracy Barahona, special events coordinator, and Robin Reibel, vi president of event development, b Macy's.

On Thursday, October 18, the Improper Bostonian was pleased to be a sponsor of Stylefixx. The event was held at the Cylorama in Boston. Guests enjoyed a night of fabulous interactive shopping, cocktails, and great giveaways.

1. Megan Riggs, office manager; Tamara Grindrod and Caitlin Murphy, both assistant account managers, all at AMP Agency.
2. Melissa Roiter, president/baker, and Emily Piovoso, associate, both of Yummy Mummy Brownies.
3. Barry Proctor, general manager; Josh Huggard, owner; Brian Toner, Pat Joyce, and Luciano Coelho, managers; all of Upper Crust.

On Friday, October 19, the Improper Bostonian was proud to be a sponsor of the Newbury Street League's Jewel of Boston Gala. The event was held a the Boston Park Plaza Hotel. Guests enjoyed dinner and a live auction by Bill Costa. A portion of all proceeds from the event benefited the Room to Dream Foundation.

1. Todd Stoessell, finance manager at Raytheon; Billy Costa, radio personality and host of TV Diner, an Ben Salsky, copywriter at Arnold Worldwide.
2. Kate Quinn, chief administrator at the Newbury Street League, and Freya Shoffner, co-chairperson o the Jewel of Boston Gala.
3. Andrew Toombs, freelance jazz musician; Aleisha Agard, marketi director at Healthworks; and Jeff Fajardo, professor at Berklee Colle of Music.

PHOTOS: TESORINO, MEGHAN BRADY; STYLEFIXX, MACY'S; STACEY SHANE; BOSTON PARK PLAZA HOTEL, MERINDA PA

improperimpersonals

f everyone kept their feelings bottled up like warm beer, we'd soon have antisocial behavior exploding all over he place and ruining the upholstery. So send us your letters of love and spleen, and we'll print them for the vorld to see. (Impersonals may be edited for taste, space and clarity.) Heck, it's better than making a fool of ourself in person. And IT'S FREE! Pick up a pen or keyboard (hint: we like the fact that we don't have to type p e-mailed messages) and write to:

IMPROPER IMPERSONALS
THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN MAGAZINE
142 Berkeley St., 3rd Floor
Boston, MA 02116
FAX: 617-859-1446 E-MAIL: impersonals@improper.com
RECENT CORRESPONDENCE FOLLOWS.

Chuck You

It upsets me that riding the T is exceedingly more complicated these days with fares rising as if they were gas prices. It upsets me that the CharlieCard/Ticket system has been literally forced on us. It upsets me that I have to wait in long lines just to board street trolleys and buses because it takes forever for patrons to insert bills or tickets due to the vending machine insertion unit. You know what, Charlie? You suck!

—Upset With Charlie

ipping Extra

the cute bartender who prepared ch an excellent Long Island Ice Tea at lian's during the ALCS: Call me! (My mber was on the receipt copy I left.)

-Waiting on You Now…

eeved at Perv

the creepy middle-aged man always cing pictures at the park in the mmon: You are REALLY creepy! I ear you think we live in a voyeur iety or something! Candid shots ght be the popular thing now, but if nd myself on the Internet due to ur work, I swear I will have a bitch to the umpth-power!

Anonymous

estraining Order

the record promoter who hangs out the mall every weekend, walking up patrons and asking if they would e to buy his CD: No means no! You k me and my friends EVERY time we shopping and, quite frankly, after veral years of this, it's far past noying! I checked out your rap oup's MySpace page and, as pected, I was not impressed…

Anonymous

eliz Navidad?

my Puerto Rican princess: I'm ping you and your little girl will be re this holiday season. I know it's en a rough year, and we've grown art since the summer, with you ing there and me here, but through r time together and apart these last e years, I have come to realize how ch I need you. All I'm asking Santa for this Christmas is you (preferably wrapped in a bow!).

—A Plane Ticket/Ride Away

Jacked Up

Andrew at the Bowdoin Square Exxon in Beacon Hill: You helped me with a flat tire… and I noticed that you are really cute. You were funny and sweet, despite the fact that I was ready to murder someone over my annoying tire predicament and that I knew nothing about changing a tire. Are you single?

—bhexxon@yahoo.com

Turkey Lament

Walking down Newbury Street in November, I see winter wonderland scenes, wrapped "gifts" and all the joys of Christmas compressed into one little window display. I have one question: What happened to Thanksgiving? Can Thanksgiving at least one year catch a break, get a little recognition? I don't know who said that Santa is so much cooler than the Pilgrims, but despite the whole encroaching on native people's land thing, I happen to think the Pilgrims were probably pretty cool. Instead of skipping directly from Halloween to Christmas in terms of advertising and retail sales, let's give the turkey a little attention. In November, less carolling and more cornucopias, thank you.

—Mayflower Maiden

Call Response

To Generation X: Some of us do know our technology facts, and the first cell battery charged mobile phones—which were actually radiophones, more like a long-range walkie-talkie—were invented in the 1960s by Atlantic Bell, or AT&T as you know it now. So I suggest you check YOUR facts. Don't be so quick to take a cab driver's word over someone else's. Thanks.

—Generation Y

Sins of the Flesh

Please be advised that Wagyu sirloin is costly and that it's best to avoid ordering a large portion on a date. Admittedly, my date was the one to recommend dining at one of the nicest restaurants in town. The massaged beef was flown in from Japan, which made us both laugh, and he did propose that we share our main courses. I, however, suggested the sirloin, and upon discussing the order with our server, the four-ounce minimum became six ounces, which turned into eight ounces. The bill came, my date paid, and I saw (inadvertently) large numbers. Thinking I was mistaken, I later checked the menu online, only to realize that I made an egregious miscalculation of cost. Shocked and horrified, I apologized for my error and declared the next few dinners on me. Normally I would feel guilty for ordering the most expensive item on the menu, but never before has a meal rivaled the price of a flight and weekend in Europe. Laughter now seems the most appropriate response to the meal's ridiculousness, that and a sincere thank you to a gentleman who proved himself cute, charming and gracious.

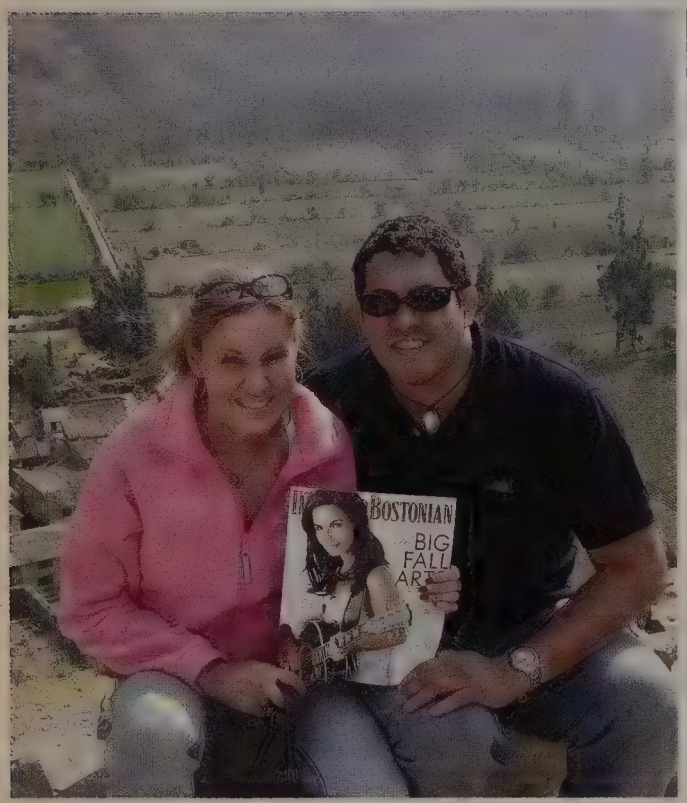
—Anonymous

If everyone kept their feelings bottled up like warm beer, we'd soon have antisocial behavior exploding all over the place and ruining the upholstery.

So send us your letters of love and spleen, and we'll print them for the world to see!

e-mail:
impersonals@improper.com

fax: 617-859-1446

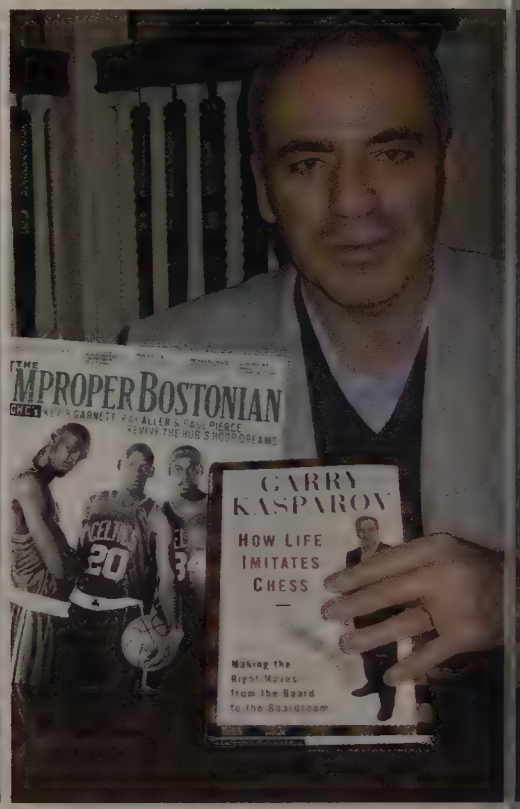


or write to:
Improper Impersonals
The Improper Bostonian Magazine
142 Berkeley St., 3rd Floor
Boston, MA 02116

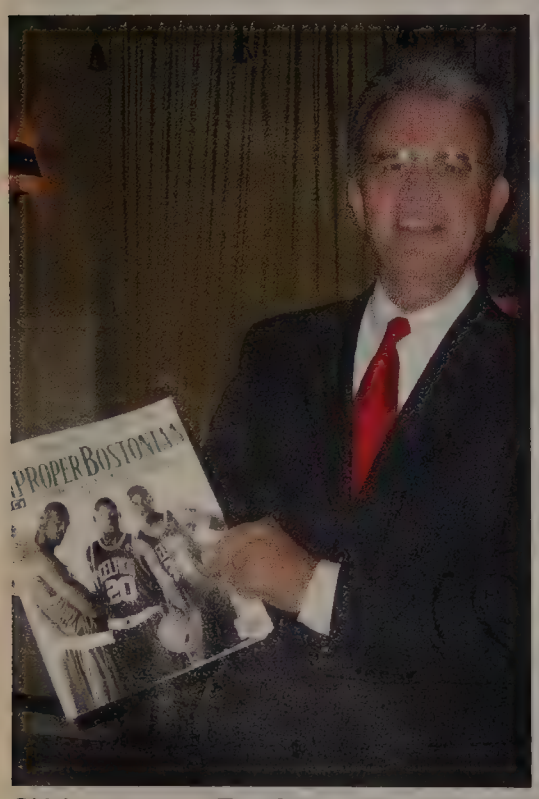
THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN

IMPROPER sightings

UNLIKE THE REST OF YOUR FRIENDS, WE WANT TO SEE THE PHOTOS FROM YOUR NEXT TR



Where do you take us? Send us a picture of you or a friend, or better yet, someone famous reading THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN and tell us where you w
The wilder your destination and the more creative your photo, the better your chances of making the cut in the esteemed Improper Sightings.



Jill Nickerson and Sergio Leon visited the Sacred Valley ruins in Ollantaytambo, Peru. The city rarely goes by its official name: Dikembe Ollantaytambo.

Amanda Dalicandro, Lee Herbert, Alecia Oleyourryk, Stephanie Halphen and Arika Beaudry cruised around the Greek island of Kea. It's a lot nicer than the island of Ikea, where they make you build your own hotel bed.

Chessmaster Garry Kasparov broke from his book tour to pimp the IMPROPER. Deep Blue h book, too: How Humans Are Puny Little Fools.

Oklahoma senator Tom Coburn is pretty jealous of our hometown hoops team, since his own state has to share one with New Orleans.

Please enjoy this photo of Jennifer Berman, Michael Berman and David Wechsler at the Dead Sea's Ein Gedi Spa, while we try to figure out how the hell Michael managed not to get any mud on his bathing suit.

Andy and Alice Young voyaged to Sintra, Portu before realizing it wasn't actually named after Blue Eyes. Damn Let's Go Portugal knockoff.

IMPROPER BOUNTY

BONUS POINTS TO ANYONE WHO CAN CAPTURE AN IMPROPER READER:
Jumping the proverbial gun at the annual Santa Claus Parade, held Nov. 18 in Toronto.

Send high-resolution digital photos (at least 500K file size) to sightings@improper.com, or mail professionally printed color photos (min. 3x5) to: Improper Sightings, The Improper Bostonian Magazine, 142 Berkeley St., 3rd floor, Boston, MA 02116. Please include the exact photo location, full names of all people in the photo, your phone number and e-mail address. All photos become the property of THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN MAGAZINE and will not be returned. Ink-jet or laser-printed photos cannot be accepted.

rockie horoscope

NOVEMBER 7 – 20, 2007 BY ROCKIE GARDINER

SCORPIO

CTOBER 23–NOVEMBER 21

you pick up the bits and pieces of business left hanging during Mercury's retrograde ip, try to take some alone time for yourself. An entirely new cycle begins with the orpio new moon on Nov. 9, one that can clear away old emotional baggage as well as troduce a fresh, purely personal concern. But if you're worried about a fragile mance and don't want it to blow up in your face, then you'll have to show a modicum patience, not fiery passion while Venus and your Pluto coruler test each other's olve. Happy Birthday!

AGITTARIUS

OVEMBER 22–DECEMBER 21

me Centaurs like to hole up during the weeks before gittarius starts and rest up for the festivities to come. If s hasn't been your practice, then the days leading up to Scorpio new moon on Nov. 9 would be a good time to epare for a retreat. Since this ineffable lunar event takes ace in your 12th house of isolation and cosmic service, it akes sense on many levels to bow out for a while. Whether u can accomplish this while jolly Jupiter is still in your n is the big question this year.

APRICORN

ECEMBER 22–JANUARY 20

is month Goats get to climb the legendary ladder, aided d abetted by a female accomplice with a stake in your ccess. She can grease the way with invitations to social nts everybody wants to attend; she can also arrange siness meetings you want to attend. But she won't be ound for long, so make sure that you benefit as much as ssible from Venus' transit across your Libra midheaven m Nov. 8 to Dec. 5. But will she fill the role Mars in your ncer marriage house abandons when he turns retrograde Nov. 15?

QUARIUS

NUARY 21–FEBRUARY 18

this Scorpio activity should energize your career, ecially the circumstances that follow from the new moon nt on Nov. 9. Make sure you're focused on what you hope accomplish and how you'd like to see the chips fall. shing doesn't necessarily make it so, but with mystical otune embedded in your sign, it wouldn't hurt. Mercury urns to Scorpio on Nov. 11 and reactivates a situation t was in effect at the end of September. That Sunday ght turn into a red-letter day because the creative rpio sun also illuminates Neptune that evening.

ISCES

BRUARY 19–MARCH 19

icipate experiencing an unexpected change for the good en the simpatico Scorpio sun favors innovative Uranus in r sign Nov. 7. Maybe the upswing will be related to ction Day, maybe it's a purely personal eureka moment. ll, since Uranus offers originality and independence, ke sure you incorporate these positive features into your ure plans. A few days later, when the sun provokes your pressionable Neptune ruler, it's likely you'll face the first t of your newly established agenda.

RIES

ARCH 20–APRIL 19

ight seem as if things have stalled, a condition you ld normally attribute to Mercury's change of direction Nov. 1. But more likely it's because your Mars ruler is rking time before it comes to a complete standstill and ns retrograde on Nov. 15 at 12 Cancer, the degree it's at v. This family-centric trip down memory lane lasts until . 30, by which time the Warrior will have you moozing with school chums or reprising scenes you acted with a neighbor or sibling back in September.

AURUS

RIL 20–MAY 20

ware the green-eyed monster! Even sweet-tempered Bulls y find that for one day this week they are crazed with ousy. If you're blowing something totally out of proportion consumed with an urge to do serious damage, simply blame suspicious Pluto for challenging your romantic Venus ruler. That power-hungry Pluto is in your house of sexual desire and Venus is happily at play in the recreational zone only compounds the intensity of their testy square. Fresh energy from the Scorpio new moon is your escape valve.

GEMINI

MAY 21–JUNE 20

Read for Taurus. You're not immune from the eruption of deep-seated emotions that may rise (as from a dead sleep) when loving Venus is at odds with demanding Pluto in your Sagittarius house of partners. Give the ruckus a day or two to subside; by then Venus will have moved on to harmonious Libra and you won't have to pay that piper. Further shifts in attitude and atmosphere arrive during the Scorpio new moon and your Mercury ruler's return to that sign—and to whatever you were into before the Messenger went retrograde on Oct. 11.

CANCER

JUNE 21–JULY 22

Moon Children need to sit back and take stock of what's been accomplished since the Libra new moon, plus what needs to be finished before the Scorpio new moon on Nov. 9 initiates an entirely new agenda. Has Mercury's turnaround brought you completely up to date, or is important data still missing? If need be, give your sources a gentle nudge; time is running out. More than any other time of the year, it's the Scorpio lunar event that zooms in on your recreational and romantic pursuits, so that's the direction in which you should head.

LEO

JULY 23–AUGUST 22

An opportunity to attain domestic bliss might elude you if you aren't protective of your family's reputation and their traditions. While militant Mars in your house of friends is on favorable terms with your sun ruler, you might as well notify the troops and stock the larder. You could be in for a longer siege than expected because unpredictable Uranus has invited himself and his generous attitude to the table. So don't be surprised if there's a knock at your door weeks before the guests are due to show up for the Thanksgiving feast.

VIRGO

AUGUST 23–SEPTEMBER 22

Let's hope you enjoyed the popularity Venus brought to Virgo, because the goddess leaving your sign on Thursday may be trailing a juicy scandal in her wake. Nothing smacks of sexuality more than a Venus-Pluto connection, but when the relationship is a challenging square, the stink raised can be difficult to diffuse. Nonetheless, we trust that the Virgin will marshal resources, a colleague here or a plumber there, and deal with the unpleasantness before your Mercury ruler gets back to Scorpio and its suspicious frame of mind.

LIBRA

SEPTEMBER 23–OCTOBER 22

Magnetic Venus enters your sign with a flourish, a devoted suitor in hot pursuit. You could inherit a trickier situation than you're willing or equipped to deal with, so before you accept a casual invitation or an e-mail forwarded from a friend of a friend, take time to check out the source. There's nothing inherently dangerous about the matter, but if the Scales confront a jealous or possessive person, it'll be difficult to maintain any semblance of fairness. Better to avoid a scene and the unbalanced people involved.

a personalized Transit Forecast (30 to 40+ pages) detailing the major themes and issues that will arise over the next 12 months, d name, date, time and place of birth, plus a check or money order for $42.50 per report to ROCKIE GARDINER, 6701 Colbath Ave., ley Glen, CA 91405; more details at www.rockiehoroscope.com. Rockie's daily forecast appears online at www.laweekly.com.

I'm a SUBSCRIBER

Don't get stranded.

Subscribe to THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN, Boston's guide to entertainment and culture— it's worth more than a million dollars.

Only $14.95 for 25 issues!

617-859-1400

or subscribe online @ www.improper.com.

THE IMPROPER BOSTONIAN MAGAZINE

You can't read just one.

RESTAURANTS

BROWNSTONE 111 Dartmouth Street, Boston, MA, 617-867-4142 www.irishconnection.com. Situated on the border of Back Bay and the South End, Brownstone is named for the style and the elegance reflective of the architecture of Boston's two neighborhoods. From the hardwood flooring to the Venetian plaster ceiling, the interior exudes classic warmth with a sleek and intimate bar made of mahogany and granite. Brownstone's menu features creative, comfort cuisine. On weekends, Chef Michael McEwen turns out "late-night" cuisine until 1:30 a.m., featuring midnight snacks of fritto misto, baked fondue and pancakes and eggs from the brunch menu. Brownstone is open seven days a week from 11 a.m. – 2 a.m., serving brunch on Saturday and Sunday from 10 a.m. – 3 p.m.

COOGAN'S 171 Milk Street, Boston, 617-451-7415. www.irishconnection.com. Established in 1996, Coogan's is a cozy pub located in the heart of Boston's financial district. It's the perfect place to enjoy hearty pasta dishes, fresh seafood or the aged Black Angus cuts of beef. Wash it down with your pick of one of our 20 draught beers. Enjoy the view of the street side from the bay windows, the warmth of the fireplace or cozy up in a booth with friends. After dark, Coogan's heats up, with DJ's playing top 40.

FUGAKYU 1280 Beacon Street (Coolidge Corner), Brookline, MA 02446, 617-734-1268. www.fugakyu. net. Authentic Japanese cuisine in an elegant and serene setting. Open Daily for lunch and dinner, Fugakyu's menu consists of traditional and nouveau Japanese cuisine including sushi, sashimi, tempura and an extensive sake list. Fugakyu is the largest Japanese restaurant in New England. It's two floors include a sushi bar, cocktail bar, common dining areas, bamboo-enclosed booths, screened Tatami rooms and several private function rooms. Reservations for parties of all sizes are accepted. Takeout and delivery available.

MATCH 94 Massachusetts Ave., at Newbury Street, Boston, 617-247-9922. This modern restaurant/ lounge maintains an unpretentious yet hip vibe. A sleek fire display and glass wine room are just two of its many features. Match's signature mini burgers and martinis are guaranteed to please the most discriminating palate. Match music has a distinct early evening lounge feel with the beat and volume picking up as the night progresses. Open daily 5pm-1am. AE, DC, MC,V.

M.J. O'CONNOR'S 27 Columbus Ave., at Park Plaza, Boston 617-482-2255 www.mjocconors. com. Eclectic Irish Food and spirits, a warm friendly staff and beautifully handcrafted woodwork and murals make this authentic upscale Irish pub one of Boston's best. Starting with only the finest ingredients, each dish is slow cooked according to recipes that have been used for generations. If you're looking for a respite from the hustle and bustle of the city, M.J. O'Connor's is a comfortable and welcoming environment to enjoy a delicious meal, have a pint and some great conversation. Open 11am - 2am 7 days a week.

NED DEVINE'S Faneuil Hall Marketplace, Quincy Market Building, Boston 617-248-8800 www.neddevineboston. com. Located in historic Faneuil Hall Marketplace's Quincy Market Building, Ned Devine's is an upscale Irish Pub concept which features hearty Irish specialties and contemporary American cuisine. Whether it's an afternoon business meeting, dinner with family or after work social gathering, Ned's is a warm meeting spot to enjoy conversation and a wonderful meal. Hand painted murals, imported Irish woodwork, original brickwork and ambient lighting create a comfortable atmosphere in the heart of downtown Boston. Open 11am - 2am, 7 days a week.

ROGGIE'S NEW AGE BREW & GRILLE 356 Chestnut Hill Avenue, Cleveland Circle, Brighton, 617-566-1880. www.roggies.com. This all time favorite restaurant and bar has over 52 beers on tap. Come enjoy breakfast all day, lunch, and dinner. Extensive menu ranging from sandwiches, ribs, pizza, to pasta. Catering also available as well as party platters, call 617-713-0555.

SIDNEY'S GRILLE 20 Sidney St., Cambridge, 617-494-0011 Enjoy fresh flavors, good friends, and a great bar at Sidney's Grille in Central Square. Discover why Bon Appetit magazine says "It's almost shocking to pay this little for food this good, in surroundings this gorgeous." Memorable cuisine combines international flair with regional accents. Serving breakfast, lunch, dinner and weekend brunch. Private dining available. For menus www.sidneysgrille.com.

SUNSET GRILL & TAP:130 Brighton Ave., Allston, 617-254-1331; SUNSET CANTINA: 916 Commonwealth Ave., Boston 617-731-8646. Don't just come for Boston's Best Beer Selection featuring 112 taps and 300 microbrews. Come also to enjoy Boston's award winning steam beer burgers and famous curly fries, original buffalo wings and giant nachos. Still hungry? Try our juicy BBQ steak tips, grilled fish, homemade pastas, tender Yankee ribs or our sizzling fajitas. Full menu until 1 am.

THE BLACK ROSE 160 State Street, Boston, 617-742-2286. www.irishconnec tion.com. Voted one of America's top ten Irish establishments, The Black Rose is Boston's premier Irish pub and restaurant. Established in 1976, the pub is located in the historic Faneuil Hall-Quincy market area of Boston and is known far and wide for its convivial atmosphere, good food and live Irish entertainment. The menu features honest, made-from-scratch food including traditional Irish fare, award winning clam chowder, fish and chips, native lobster, aged Black Angus cuts of beef and of course, Mother Sweeney's corned beef, a recipe from Mother Sweeney herself. For thirty years, The Black Rose has offered live Irish music seven nights a week. Memorable guests on stage have included members of the Chieftains, flutist James Galway, Tommy Makim, Liam Clancy, John Denver and a once relatively unknown member of an Irish rock group called U2.

